

Chapter 398 A bunch of Jerks

The dinner starts at eight pm on time. Darian stopped them when Victoria and Maximilian were going to get in.

“Victoria, Master Stevens asked me to do him a favour just now. He wanted to let someone bring a handful of soil in the centre of the building site because he would like to analyse damage the shadow cast on the soil. I’m thinking about letting Maximilian do this.”

What Darian said make it difficult for Victoria to refuse. She could only take out her car key and handed it over to Maximilian.

“Maybe you can go there. Please get back earlier.”

“Yes, I will finish it as fast as I can.”

Maximilian left with car key in his hand, while Darian was showing a dark smile.

“Victoria, let’s get in. I think Master Stevens really thinks highly of you. You have to accompany him and try to make him happy.” Darian advised.

Victoria nodded and followed him in.

Master Stevens was sitting in the host seat. Andrew was sitting to his left side, leaving the other side empty.

Andrew waved his hand when seeing Victoria, “Come here, this place is for you.”

Victoria hesitated a bit and sat to Master Stevens’ right uneasily.

Master Stevens smiled and looked at her, “I’m glad you’re here. I have heard so much about you. You are really a tough girl. I admire you so much.”

“Well, I’m flattered. My uncles are just praising me.” Victoria replied politely.

Andrew held up his cup and asked them to drink, worrying that Victoria was not good at talking.

“I represent the Griffith family to welcome you. Thank you for helping us. This toast is for you.”

Master Stevens raised his glass politely. Andrew drank all of the wine in his glass, while Master Stevens only sipped a little. He was showing Andrew with enough politeness by pretending.

Andrew didn’t get angry. He smiled and watched Victoria, “Victoria, you can also toast Master Stevens. I believe we have to turn to him for help in the future.”

Victoria sighed softly and also raised her glass, “This is for you.”

“Well, thank you.”

After chinking glasses, Master Stevens drank up all of his wine.

Andrew found this subtle detail and thought a lot from Master Stevens’ reaction. Maybe Master Stevens was found of Victoria? If it was true, could he find a way to make Victoria drunk and presented her to him?

“Master Stevens, you really have a preference for Victoria. Well, Victoria, hurry up and help the master with the dishes.” Andrew said happily.

Victoria was a bit angry, but she still picked up the serving chopsticks to help Master Stevens to the food.

Master Stevens was satisfied with Andrew’s fast reaction. He assumed that when he heard the news about Maximilian’s death, he would be able to win Victoria’s heart tonight.

His flirting gaze landed on Victoria subconsciously when he was thinking about this. Victoria noticed that Master Stevens was looking at her in a different way. She suddenly thought of Maximilian's words that Master Stevens was a fraud and started to doubt him.

Maximilian drove the car to the building site. There were only several guards here and many workers as well as facilities were not present.

Mr. Morgan had evacuated a great amount of people because Master Stevens told him this place was the land of evil spirit, leaving only several workers to guard it with dogs.

Maximilian greeted the guards and went towards the centre of the construction site.

Mint, finding out that Maximilian was coming, took out his phone to remind the subordinates to take care.

He had arranged six men lying in ambush, while he was waiting outside the door, ready to disturb the guards by making a fake scene of ghosting.

Maximilian came to the centre of building site slowly, but he looked around and showed a dark smile.

“Come on and get out. Trying to freak me out doesn’t work for me. Did Master Stevens send you here? This is so naïve.” Maximilian said this when taking out the cigarettes.

The six masters lying in ambush were dumfounded when hearing Maximilian’s words. How did they be found out? Was he playing tricks?

The six masters looked at each other and decided not to take any further step, simply waiting for what Maximilian would do next.

Seeing they keep silent, Maximilian blew smoke and kicked one of the stones.

The stone flew quickly into the bush, knocking on one of the masters' head.

Poof! The stone perforated his skull and went straight to his brain. The master cried in pain, twitched several times and died on the spot. The other masters were frightened when seeing their partner was killed.

The way of killing people with a stone was out of their imagination.

“How? How dare you fucking killing somebody in this way?”

One of the masters couldn't repress his anger. He stood up, pointed at Maximilian's nose and scolded him.

Maximilian showed a disdainful smile after glancing at them.

“How dare you say I am the murderer? If I haven’t killed him first, you would gather around to attack me and make the scene of accidentally death.”

Seeing Maximilian had already looked through their plan, the five masters became serious and looked at each other in a different way, doubting whether there was a traitor among them.

“Who has told you this?”

“Do I need somebody to tell me? I can guess what will happen just by thinking.” Maximilian answered casually.

“Well, do not waste time with him. Let’s kill him first and then find out who is the traitor!”

“Yeah, let’s kill him first!”

Five masters all postured and rushed to Maximilian fiercely.

Maximilian took out the cigarette in his mouth and threw it towards the heading master. The cigarette, sparkling red light, flew towards him like a sharp arrow and hit on his fist.

The master in the lead suddenly stopped, feeling as if thousands of hammers were hitting his fist.

“Take care! This guy knows Kung Fu. Everybody takes care!”

The heading master tried to warn the others in a loud voice. But it was too late.

Maximilian waved his hands and the other masters burst out painful shouts, being hit at the same time.

“Well, a bunch of jerks.”

Chapter 399 Don't be afraid

None of the five masters could compete with Maximilian, and they all dead quickly.

Adding the one who was kicked death by the flying stone, the six masters Mint had arranged dead neatly.

Mint had already sneaked into the building cite and was pretending there was a ghost outside the work shed, which made the guards frightened so much.

Finding the guards may already believe there was something supernatural happened, Mint took out his phone to check time. It had been fifteen minutes since Maximilian got into the working cite.

He speculated it was time for the masters to kill Maximilian. Hence, he withdrew his ghosting stuff and headed towards the centre of the building site, trying to make a fake situation of Maximilian died on the spot.

However, he went stiff after arriving and was almost scared to death when seeing the six dead bodies.

“Fuck!” Mint screwed. His legs became weak due to the great shock. When he turned around and was to escape, he found Maximilian was standing behind him, staring at him coldly.

Mint was so afraid that he kept on stepping backwards. However, he was stumbled by one of the bodies behind him and fell into the dead bodies.

He shouted out after turning around and found a pale face beside him, “Ah!”

Maximilian approached him with a smile and stepped on his chest, making him stop yelling.

“Are you the one who pulls the strings?”

“Me, no, it’s not me. It’s not my fault. It was Master Stevens who told me to do this.”

Mint replied anxiously, which was completely different from how he behaved in the daytime.

He was regretful when thinking of his aggressive behaviour before. How couldn’t he find out that Maximilian was a true master? He was so stupid!

“Master Stevens? What else did that fraud tell you to do?”

“Well, he, he is fond of your wife and has prepared knockout in her cup when she is in his room.” Mint told everything he knew due to fear.

A flicker of homicidal intent passed over Maximilian's eyes when he heard of this. He looked at Mint coldly and continued to ask, "You are his apprentice and I expect that you know the way of how he lies to others."

"Well, just a little. I only know just a little. Are you trying to ruin him? I can provide you with evidence as long as you don't kill me."

Mint did not know whether Maximilian would kill him because he had already killed six masters. He tried to meet his requirements to stay alive.

"I won't kill you if you are willing to be the tainted witness and tell everyone that your master is a fraud." Maximilian answered him calmly.

Mint went silent. It wouldn't be an easy thing to be a tainted witness because his fellows would despise him after knowing this. Besides, Master

Stevens' fans may try to kill him.

Therefore, it was only a matter of time for his death.

“Well, what’s your opinion? I’m not a patient man.” Maximilian said coldly.

Mint suddenly became afraid and nodded, “Yes, I will do everything as you say.”

“Well, get up and go back with me. Just do as what I hint after we arrived at the banquet hall.”

“Yeah, I will definitely copy that.”

Maximilian led Mint outside the building site and drove towards the hotel.

The guards called anxiously to report the ghosting thing when Maximilian was on his way.

Finally, Mr Morgan knew this and called Andrew what happened. Andrew showed a serious expression after hearing what he said.

Master Stevens was happy when noticing how Andrew behaved, figuring that Mint had already succeed in dealing with the scene of Maximilian's death.

"Andrew, what's wrong with you?" Master Stevens pulled a face and asked unhappily.

Andrew immediately pretended a smile. He raised his glass and said, "I have to toast you. You're really a master. Something happened in the building site."

"Well? What's going on? Tell me." Master Stevens replied as if he was a true master.

"The guards just reported that they have seen the ghost. They didn't dare to go out and heard someone was crying outside. It seemed that the ghost wanted to kill someone. How creepy!”

Victoria worried about Maximilian after hearing what Andrew said.

“Maximilian went to the building site just now. Will something happen to him? I have to go there to make sure he’s fine.” Victoria was anxious. She stood up and wanted to leave.

Master Stevens squinted his eyes and stopped her, “Don’t worry. I will send my apprentice to handle this. Don’t make yourself in danger. Female is of the yin side and will strengthen the evil spirit.”

“Victoria, did you hear that? Don’t worry about Maximilian. He is a tough man and nothing will happen to him.” Andrew also stopped her.

Victoria hesitated and watched Master Stevens in a preying manner,

“Please send some of your apprentices to the building site. I will be so grateful if nothing happens to my husband.”

“Don't worry. I will handle this.”

Master Stevens took out his right hand and began to speculate what would happen by rubbing his fingers. Suddenly, he showed a surprising expression, “Well! Maximilian really has a bad fortune these days and I have told him bloodshed will happen to him. I'm afraid he won't survive tonight. Maybe he is already dead now.”

All people went silent after Master Stevens finished his speech.

“No, no, it's impossible! How could he die? You're talking nonsense.”

Master Stevens shook his head and said seriously, “Well, I am not. I will send my apprentice to check if you don't believe it. You can also let the guards check it. Maximilian's dead body must be in the centre of the building site."

Andrew raised his eyebrow. He picked up his phone and said, "I will call the workers to go there. They can save Maximilian if he is not dead."

Afterwards, Andrew called people in the building site and asked several guards to search the centre.

The guards went there unwillingly despite Andrew had offered them a great deal of money.

Andrew's phone rang quickly. He picked up the phone with a smile and turned on the speaker mode.

"Well, something bad really happens. Six men were dead!"

Chapter 400 Refund

What the guards said shocked everyone present. Well, Maximilian was the only one who went there. Why six men were dead?

“Check it clearly! How could it be six men?” Andrew asked in doubt.

“Well, we have checked it carefully and it was indeed six people in total. Their eyes were widely open. We will quit this job. Find someone else. It’s so creepy!”

After saying this, the guards hanged up the phone and all escaped.

Andrew turned around to look at Master Stevens and asked confusedly, “Master Stevens, what’s going on? How could six men die all of a sudden?”

Andrew couldn’t slip out of his responsibility when six men died in the building site. The police would come when such a big thing happened and it was likely that they would force them to close the construction site. It was not an easy thing if they wanted to reopen it.

Even they could succeed in reopening it, no one would be willing to work there, because Master Stevens had predicted that their factory was located in an evil place.

Andrew was desperate. He intended to kill Maximilian via this chance, but he never expected that such a thing would happen.

Master Stevens was also anxious, wondering whether something would happen to the six masters. Then how could six men die?

Victoria, on the other hand, was hopeful and hurriedly took out the phone to call her husband. Maximilian picked up the phone quickly and said, "Hey, my wife, do you miss me?"

"Are, are you alright? Where are you now?"

"I will be in the hall soon. I'm already in front of the door."

Victoria raised her head to look at the direction of the hall, seeing Maximilian came in with Mint.

She felt released after seeing that nothing happened to her husband. However, Master Stevens showed a terrible look because he already knew what happened.

Andrew peeked at him and sighed helplessly. It seemed that even Master Stevens couldn't kill Maximilian!

Maximilian held up Mint and went in front of Victoria, “Are you worried about me? I am here to reveal that what Master Stevens said is completely superstitious! There is not such a thing called ‘evil spirit’! It’s just his way of murdering people!”

“Maximilian, be respectful! How could you say that he is a fraud?” Andrew scolded him in a cold manner.

Maximilian curled his lip and petted Mint’s head, “Come on. Tell everyone the true identity of your master.”

Master Stevens was afraid because Mint had been his apprentice for more than ten years and knew what he really was.

“Mint!” Master Stevens shouted.

“Don’t blame me, master. I don’t have any choice. I know we will be revenged after having done so many filthy things. I, I have posted the evidence on the internet and have reported you after Mr Lee's instruction. The police are on the way and will arrest you." Mint said to everyone in a sad look.

Master Stevens fell on his chair as if his soul was gone.

Andrew, Darian, and the other guests were all dumbfounded. They took out their phone to search for Master Stevens' news.

They quickly saw several videos and recordings, which all proved that he was a fraud indeed.

"Well, so this is the well-known Master Stevens! He's really a fucking fraud! How could I believe him before?"

"I have told you that we're living in an era of science. Such kind of masters don't exist."

“Andrew, you really made a wrong decision. How could you find a fraud to cause yourself trouble?”

Everyone in the room began to talk about this, making Andrew really humiliated. It seemed that everyone would laugh at him for finding a fraud to help him see the location of his factory.

Andrew glared at Maximilian and felt no gratefulness. Instead, he thought it was him who made him being mocked by others.

Master Stevens pointed at Maximilian and said in hatred, “Do you think you can destroy me? Someone powerful is behind me. Let’s see what will happen to you!”

Master Stevens did not want to stay here any longer because he was finally being exposed. He had to leave this place now. All his apprentices stood up, gathered around their master, and protected him to go outside.

Maximilian knocked out Mint and stopped them.

“Are you trying to escape by lying to us?” Maximilian said coldly.

“What the fuck do you want? Are you really trying to destroy me? Do you know who’s behind us?” Master Stevens pretended to be tough and yelled back.

“Well, do you think you deserve to talk about your background?”

Maximilian shook his head and his look was full of disdain.

Master Stevens gritted his teeth and asked, “What do you want?”

“You have cheated so many people and have to pay your price. How about I charge some interest from you first?”

Maximilian waved his hand towards

Master Stevens' face.

SLAP! Master Stevens was slapped on the ground by him and spat a mouthful of blood with two teeth in it.

His apprentices rushed towards Maximilian when seeing their master was hurt.

“Are you fucking searching for death by hitting our master?”

“Let's kick his ass! Kill him!”

Maximilian sneered and rushed towards them. He was like a tiger that went into a flock of sheep, waving his hands and knocked them on the ground.

Andrew and the others were shocked at his Kung Fu and kept on trembling.

A bunch of policemen came in when Maximilian knocked over the last man.

The leading policeman walked towards him with a smile and shook hands with him respectfully.

“Thank you, Mr. Lee. We have finally caught this fraud. Many people are reporting cases with us after seeing the evidence on the internet.”

“Well, that’s my obligation.” Maximilian replied with a smile.

The leading policeman waved his hand and shouted, “Take away these frauds!”

The policemen rushed towards them, handcuffed them, and took them away.

Master Stevens turned around and looked at Maximilian aggressively, “Just wait, you will pay your price!”

“Well, I will. Don’t let me down.” Maximilian answered calmly.

Victoria held his arm and whispered,

“Is everything going to be fine?”

Chapter 401 Dragon Sect Treasure House

"How can anything happen? Don't believe his retribution theory. If there is retribution, the old liar will get it first." Maximilian said with a smile.

Victoria nodded and felt what Maximilian said was reasonable. With what Master Stevens had done, retribution should fall on his head first.

Andrew was not in the mood to eat, and all the guests at the banquet had been taken away. He had become a joke in the circle, and something would be wrong if he was in the mood to eat.

"Let's go, today I am really a joke for everyone." Andrew said with a black face.

The guests all smiled and comforted Andrew. When they saw Andrew really in a bad mood, they dispersed.

Maximilian and Victoria left hand in hand, and Andrew looked at their backs, and spat hard on the ground.

"Bah!" Andrew's eyes flashed a vicious light, "What the hell is this?"

"Big Brother, I think we should rest for a while. Everything on the factory building will be handled by Victoria." Darian said with eyes flashing.

Six people died on the plot, and there is a saying that it was a land of evil spirits. Even though Master Stevens was arrested, the rumour would certainly not vanish, and it was more likely to get worse.

If we continued to hold on to the construction of the new factory, there would be countless troubles. It was better to let go early so as to avoid trouble, not to say they had to deal with the patrol as six people died there after all.

Andrew squinted, nodded slightly, picked up the phone and dialed Victoria's phone. It would be wise to let Victoria handle everything.

Sitting in the driver's seat, Victoria put the phone down and sighed faintly.

"What's the matter?" Maximilian asked curiously.

"Uncle has thrown everything about the new factory construction to me. Now that such a big thing has happened, I am afraid the construction will not start in the foreseeable future. If it is delayed for a long time, they will complain to me again."

Maximilian smiled and said with confidence, "Don't worry, I have contacted them. The plot will not be blocked, and the engineering company has been contacted for work."

"Ah?" Victoria was surprised. She didn't expect Maximilian to do everything before her, and it was simply ingenious.

"Is it a surprise?"

"It's a bit of a surprise. Which engineering company did you contact? What is the qualification?" Victoria instantly restored as a strong woman.

"It is the engineering company of your grandfather's family. Maybe Drew will contact you soon. Benefits are to be shared exclusively among our own folks."

Victoria stared at him blankly for a moment, as she didn't think Maximilian had contact with the Wrights.

"How did you think of contacting the Wrights? We were very unhappy last time on grandfather's birthday party. "

"It has all passed. Drew apologized to me. I think his attitude is not bad, so we gave up former suspicions. At least they are your relatives, so I need to save their faces."

Victoria took Maximilian's hand and held it tightly. The two looked at each other with deep affection in their eyes.

A special custom-made bulletproof Rolls-Royce Phantom was speeding along the road. There was only one special Rolls-Royce Phantom in the world, and its owner was the Dragon Queen.

The price of a Rolls-Royce Phantom exceeded 10 million dollars, and the price of a customized one would be as high as over 50 million dollars.

Special steel and bulletproof glass could resist the strafe of heavy machine guns, and the chassis was equipped with explosion-proof armour, which could resist the impact of mine explosion.

The Dragon Queen treasured her life very much. In order to guard against possible assassinations, she spent huge money to build her own travel tools.

Sitting in the car in full dress, the Dragon Queen gently shook the red wine glass in her hand.

Although she was not young, with the help of science and technology, and all kinds of careful maintenance, she looked no more than thirty years old, just like a beautiful young woman in her prime.

Her white skin was radiant with luster, and the tailor-made costumes set off her beautiful figure, as if time had not left any marks on her appearance, but the mature lasting appeal made her even more mouth-watering.

Harley hung his head and knelt in the spacious carriage, but he hated Maximilian to the extreme in his heart.

"Why do you want to assassinate Maximilian!" Dragon Queen said with a sober look.

"I just want to pave the way for your promotion. Maximilian is in the way. So I just want to kill him directly." Harley whispered.

"You pave the way for me? What qualifications do you have to pave the way for me? Behave yourself, Harley! "

Harley's head lowered immediately, and he almost stuffed his head into his chest.

"You called me dear in bed, but now called me Harley! I was really fed up!"

Harley was angry in his heart, and after a long time, Harley's fear in his heart became weaker and his heart swelled quietly.

"You think I can't kill Maximilian? I just need to say something so that some people will kill Maximilian! "

"Then why don't you send someone? That guy is a thorn in our side after all, and our children will inherit the Dragon Sect in the future!"

Harley suddenly raised his head and looked straight at the Dragon Queen.

"That's my child, not yours, understand?" the Dragon Queen's eyes showed murderous intent.

Harley trembled slightly, as if he smelled death, "I, I understand."

"Maximilian has something very important in his hand. I'm not sure if the old man is lying to me, so I want to see Maximilian to make sure if he has it. If he destroys it, the Dragon Sect will break apart!"

Harley was surprised to hear that there was something that could make Dragon Sect break apart.

"What is it? How come I have never heard of it? "

"Hum! How can you know it? It is the symbol of the Dragon Sect, the key to open the core treasure house of the Dragon Sect. That fool said it was in the hands of Maximilian! I don't know when it fell into his hands! "

The Dragon Queen was angrier. She had been coveted the key for a long time, but she had never seen it. Now, if she wanted to rob or steal it, she doesn't have a destination for it, because it was said that Maximilian didn't know that the key was.

Rubbing her forehead, Dragon Queen felt a little headache, as these days she had not thought of a good idea, and could not find out how to get the key.

"But I feel that it is not reliable. Maybe it was made up by the old man." Harley whispered.

"Who knows if it is made up? Now we'd better trust it than doubt it." Dragon Queen said faintly.

"Oh, can you be sure when you see him?" Harley asked.

"Not necessarily, I just hope I can ask him something. Tell me what happened to Master Benedict?" whispered the Dragon Queen.

"He should be on Maximilian's side now, and he is a traitor!"

Chapter 402 Dragon Queen Is Coming.

After hearing Harley's words, Dragon Queen was slightly gloomy.

"It's just Master Benedict. They all support me. With the support of Master Benedict, Maximilian can't afford any storms. In addition, someone is trying to strike Maximilian. What we need to do is to find the key as soon as possible."

After she finished speaking, she took a sip of wine, and restored her usual elegant appearance.

"Someone started to strike him?" Harley's eyes flashed with a look of excitement, as long as someone could kill Maximilian, it would be OK for him.

"Yes, Maximilian recently destroyed the experimental products made by those guys on the other side of the ocean, which is the one that succeeded in the first stage of genetic modification. Although there are only a few genes modified, it is already a great victory for them."

"Destroyed by Maximilian? I heard that the genetically modified guy is a lot stronger." Harley felt a little surprise, and also a little lucky.

He was glad he didn't go to confront Maximilian at the last minute. Otherwise, he would be dead now.

"Shit science! The genetic modification is just a paper tiger. The direction they choose will bear no fruits." Dragon Queen shook her head and said.

Harley was silent for a moment, and looked at her with some surprise, "In that case, aren't they incapable of killing Maximilian?"

"How can it be? Enough number of ants can kill an elephant. Even if Maximilian is covered in iron, he cannot stand a lot of strikes. Those foreigners are very angry and have already used black boxing match to confront Maximilian."

"Black boxing match? That's a cruel event. Every year, dozens of people die in the black boxing match."

Harley vaguely looked forward to it, and even wanted to book a box for the match. It would be wonderful to see Maximilian humiliated in the ring.

"Oh, let's use our heads in the future. After all, he is deemed as the future Dragon King. If we kill him, it would be a stain for us, which will inevitably be used by people who are against us. What we have to do is to lead trouble to others and constantly create enemies for him." Her tone was calm, but what he said made people feel cold all over.

Harley was in a better mood. He took the feet of the Dragon Queen with both hands and put them on his knees, and then gently massaged them.

Dragon Queen narrowed her eyes in satisfaction, and drank the wine comfortably.

Master Benedict answered a phone call, knowing that Dragon Queen had left Dragon Sect and headed for H City, and he became a little fidgety.

"Master Benedict, Harley has returned to the Dragon Queen, and this time he came with her." The assistant bent down and said.

"Shit, this jerk will certainly add inflammatory details in his words to the dragon queen! I shouldn't have come to mess around, and now I am caught in this quagmire, which is really unlucky. "

Master Benedict grasped his hair with both hands, and after being annoyed for a long time, he felt that he needed to meet Maximilian. After all, his life was in Maximilian's hand, so he should communicate well with Maximilian to cope with the arrival of the Dragon Queen.

"Prepare the motorcade and go to see Maximilian." Master Benedict said with a low voice.

"Yes." The assistant soon arranged it, and the motorcade left the villa and headed to the downtown.

Sitting in the bulletproof Mercedes-Benz, Master Benedict took out his mobile phone and dialled Maximilian's phone, "Young Master, I am Benny."

"Well, why?" Maximilian asked lightly.

"I want to see you for a talk. According to my information, Dragon Queen has already set off. It is estimated that she will arrive in H City tomorrow morning, but I don't think she will see you immediately." Master Benedict said very respectfully.

Maximilian frowned. He didn't expect the Dragon Queen to come so early.

"Do you think she will see you first?"

"It should be like that. The bastard Harley has fled back, and this time he came with the Dragon Queen. I expect that he will say bad things about me. In that case, no matter whether Dragon Queen summoned me or not, I have to see her first."

Master Benedict informed him what happened, and also told the details to Maximilian, so as not to let Maximilian misunderstand himself and collude with the Dragon Queen. If there was collusion, Maximilian would not give him an antidote, which was fatal.

Maximilian hesitated for a moment, touched his chin and said, "I always feel a little strange. Why do you think Dragon Queen come all the way to see me? She should wish I die immediately."

"Uh..." Master Benedict hesitated for a moment, and said mysteriously, "I heard some legends. I cannot make sure it is true, but it is said that you hold the key to the core treasure house of Dragon Sect. I guess it is because of this that Dragon Queen has never stricken you."

"Key?!" Maximilian was surprised and puzzled. When he was expelled from Dragon Sect, he had nothing but a suit of clothes. How could he have the key to Dragon Sect?

This legend was really off limits, and he didn't know who made it up. Maximilian cursed in his heart secretly.

Master Benedict turned his eyeballs, as he believed that Maximilian should not know the existence of the key from his tone.

"Young Master, I guess Dragon Queen will beat about the key, so please just pretend you don't understand." Master Benedict gave Maximilian an idea.

Maximilian smiled and said faintly, "If this is what you want to talk about, you don't have to come here. Just go to see the Dragon Queen tomorrow."

"Ah?" Master Benedict was a little surprised. "You really don't need to see you? I think there are some things that need to be made clear."

"It has been made very clear; you don't have to think about it too much."

"Yes, yes." Master Benedict dared not say any more, as Maximilian would make the final decision, so he let the motorcade turn around and go back.

Maximilian thought for a moment with his mobile phone in his hand and dialled the telephone of Wilfred.

"Benny just told me that Dragon Queen had already set off."

Wilfred was somewhat surprised, "Really? I haven't received the news yet. Damn it! Is it because the man we placed besides her was discovered! "

"It is not important for the time being. Benny told me a legend. It is said that the key of Dragon Sect is with me. Why don't I know that Dragon Sect has a key?" Maximilian asked, touching his chin.

Wilfred was silent for a moment, and then said, "The key is a symbol of the power of Dragon Sect. Only the Dragon Kings can master the key. There is a legend circulating in Dragon Sect that the key is in your hand."

"Is there such a legend? But how can I have the key to Dragon Sect? When I was driven out of Dragon Sect, I was only with my few clothes."

"I don't know this. This legend has only come out recently. I don't know what the source is. I don't know if it is a conspiracy of Dragon Queen."

Wilfred said in puzzle.

"It seems that you don't know it either, so just wait until you see the Dragon Queen. You have to be careful recently."
