

Chapter 3982

“In the south, there is no reserve army ambushing outside!” Pei Gu laughed coldly.

Ming Yu was stunned: “There is no ambush in the south? Then behind City Lord Zhu and the others...”

“Have you ever thought that behind City Lord Zhu and others is actually not an ambush army at all, but... the defenders in the south gate?”

This statement is very absurd and bold, but it seems to be quite reasonable.

“You said that George Han has a magic weapon in his hand, which can put people in another world. Then, he sneaked behind the southern army at night, put down the soldiers, and returned to the front, this is not unknowing. Is it?” Pei Gu explained.

Upon hearing this, Ming Yu’s pupils widened, but he did not speak for a long time.

However, after thinking about it carefully in his mind, he seemed to think that Pei Gu’s words did not seem to be talking nonsense

And, most likely, it is the truth.

Because only in this way, can we perfectly explain why there was no movement on the southern side of the army, but a large-scale battle suddenly broke out.

It is also understandable why George Han District, 10,000 to 20,000 people, dared to go out of the city to attack the 50,000-strong army.

Thinking about that book from heaven, combined with the current situation, it seems that more and more evidences are pointing to this possibility.

“Actually, from the beginning to the end, there is only the golden army in the east behind us. George Han did this, not only to complete the lightning raid on the southern army, but also to create the illusion that we have enemies on all sides. As for us at that time, we didn’t dare to mobilize the army at will. George Han’s strategy of killing two birds with one stone is not cruel.” Pei Gu said lightly

Ming Yu nodded and gritted his teeth: “In this way, we have lost the best chance to support the south.”

Pei Gu nodded: “Actually, there is not much we can do, I believe that with this person’s ability With a scheming, the city defense must be strengthened after leaving the city. Even if we recklessly went to attack the city at that time, I am afraid we will find a way.”

“I understand.” Ming Yu frowned: “Tonight these cauldrons are cooking, look. It was like cooking meat, but in fact he was cooking you and me and everyone else. We thought he was playing psychological warfare with us

. Attack me!”

“This George Han has too many tricks.”

Pei Gu smiled wryly, that's exactly what happened.

It not only played psychological warfare, but also messed up the work and rest of the army, and it was a plan to kill two birds with one stone.

In just one night, two consecutive counts are really hard to guard against.

Right now, Pei Gu really regretted that he didn't listen to Xiao Qi's words.

With such a dragon and tiger, Xiao Qi did not deceive himself. He is an important part of the Pei family's future domination.

"It seems that in order to fight against George Han, in addition to being smart, you must also have a cool head, because if you don't pay attention, you will be fooled by him." Pei Gu smiled: "However, he George Han is amazing, and I am not a vegetarian."

"Elder Shenlong, since we have analyzed that a long battle is not good for you and me, and now we have solved the suspicion of his ambush, then we should launch a general attack as soon as possible."

"With me 400,000 ...No,

50,000 were swallowed, and now 50,000 have been attacked. In addition to the betrayal by the troll temple and the surrender in the mountains, my army is probably left with 200,000 troops. ."

"Otherwise, the longer the time passes, the more disadvantageous our supply will be. The most important thing is that George Han, a cook, will have to divide our food and eat it sooner or later."

Ming Yu also nodded: "I'm looking for Patriarch Pei, who is actually I want to discuss the strategy of the total attack."

Pei Gu gave a gloomy smile, got up and took the map next to him: "Actually, Pei has already thought about this."

"Also, the target location has also been selected." After he finished speaking, he pointed his finger heavily. Somewhere on the map: "It's right here, the seven inches of the snake!"

When he saw the place marked by Pei Gu, Ming Yu was shocked: "This?"

Chapter 3983

"Yes, it is here." After the words were finished, Pei Gu got up, stuck to Ming Yu's side, and slowly considered his plan for a long time. , told Mingyu one by one.

What Ming Yu heard, the pupils have been slightly dilated and never stopped.

Obviously, she was really surprised by Pei Gu's general attack plan.

It can even be said that Pei Gu's playing is a little too thrilling and exciting.

After Pei Gu finished speaking, he smiled slightly: "I know that Pei's plan is indeed a bit too risky, and even a little nonsense. However, Pei is only expressing his own words. The commander-in-chief of this operation is the elder, and everything is decided. Nature is here with you."

Ming Yu didn't answer immediately, and he was constantly weighing in his heart.

Pei Gu's gameplay is indeed too avant-garde, but this siege battle is something they can't lose. She is worried that once she gets rid of it, the consequences will be unimaginable.

But he could keep attacking, facing Han

3,000 times to counteract his offensive intentions, as well as the disintegration of his troops like Pao Ding Jie Niu, greedy for his own troops, Ming Yu was worried again.

After thinking about it, it was difficult for Ming Yu to make a decision.

Until she suddenly figured it out.

"Just do as Patriarch Pei said."

She knew George Han, but on the other hand, George Han also knew her. Under the circumstance that George Han was smarter, George Han could naturally predict her predictions every time. Sentenced, so that step by step was tied to him.

But in her own party, apart from herself, it seems that no one else can match this level of IQ.

This is the disadvantage of Ming Yufang's decision-making level, and she is well aware of this.

As the head of the Pei family, Pei Gu has rich experience and an extremely smart mind. He can always quickly analyze the reasons for the outbreak of large-scale team battles.

In addition, his combat experience is also rich, and George Han has not played against him much

, so he can't figure it out, so naturally, his strategy should be the one who best fits his heart.

"From now on, my army of hundreds of thousands will be officially handed over to Patriarch Pei, and the fate of the entire army will be in your hands."

"Elder Shenlong, please rest assured that although Pei is a joint army with you, he is not right. As far as this war is concerned, Pei can swear that Pei will surely win the battle."

If before, Pei Gu was more of a contributing role in this war, now it is completely different.

Not only does he need to regain face for his first defeat, but more importantly, he wants to conquer the wild horse George Han.

He didn't take Xiao Qi's words seriously before, but after several contacts, he felt more and more that his daughter's eyes were very good. He moved with compassion and wanted to subdue George Han.

As a ** lake, he actually knows one thing better than anyone

, and that is the more difficult it is to conquer the most capable people.

Only when you completely conquer him can he truly be loyal to you.

Therefore, Pei Gu believes that this battle is the best opportunity.

Only when he led the army to defeat George Han would George Han be completely convinced of himself.

If at that time, I save his life again, then the big ship of the Pei family will be completely tied to this brave man.

Therefore, Pei Gu really wants to win, and even has a strong desire.

and the other end at this time.

Zhu Yanshuo's army of 50,000 people, faced with such an attack, was too sudden and had no power to fight back.

In a hurry, the soldiers were killed and injured countless times, and Zhu Yanshuo didn't think about raising his troops to fight back, but the soldiers were already in chaos, and he couldn't effectively reorganize the counterattack

Of course, although he barely managed to break out of the siege, most of the 50,000 army was trapped in the siege.

In the face of the attack of George Han and others, dead and wounded, the remaining ministries could only helplessly tend to surrender.

Zhu Yanshuo, who was heading east, was very depressed. He gritted his teeth along the way, with anger and depression.

And George Han, who won a great victory, was not idle either. With the movement of the Heavenly Book in his hand, his troops suddenly disappeared in place. After that, George Han flew all the way back to the city.

Everything came and went quickly, like a ghost. If it weren't for the countless dead bodies of the enemy lying on the ground, I'm afraid it would be like a dream.

George Han, who entered the city, did not feel any joy of winning at all.

On the contrary, George Han's face was full of sadness.

"Immediately summon the commanders of the four gates to gather in the city lord's hall. We have urgent matters to discuss."

George Han instructed in a cold voice, and hurried towards the city lord's hall...
