

Chapter 3986

spy is very depressed, he wants to speak but obviously stops.

The leader of his own alliance has already said so, and he really can't say anything more.

He finally nodded and stepped back.

As soon as the spy left, George Han opened his eyes slightly.

Of course, he could understand the eagerness of the spies, but in fact, he couldn't be so anxious.

If you are ill, you will go to the doctor indiscriminately.

In fact, the enemy army will take action tonight. George Han had already expected it. At least, George Han had already discussed it with his four subordinates yesterday.

"The yellow sand is rolling, and using this to cooperate with the night, marching in the invisible, people can't figure out where your men and horses are gathered."

"Ming Yu, Ming Yu, you can play.

I have a cloud ladder, and I, George Han, also have a good plan."

George Han smiled leisurely, obviously, he had a plan in mind.

Slowly getting up, George Han walked to the table and glanced lightly at the sand table that he had made that should fall into the city.

Of course he couldn't be doing nothing at this time, in fact he had already rehearsed at least hundreds of times during the day.

The situation on the battlefield could change at any time. Of course, George Han didn't expect the sand table game to bring him any kind of situation analysis. He just tried his best to slowly try various emergencies during the game as much as possible. various endings.

In this way, mastering and knowing the possible variables as much as possible can at least provide the necessary accumulation of experience for the real opening.

"The terrain in the north is the flattest, and to a certain extent, it is the most unsuitable for siege battles, because the terrain is too flat, and it is easy to be attacked by the defenders."

"But the flat terrain also has the advantages of flat terrain. Fully deploy your forces, and secondly, there will be no enemy soldiers who suddenly attack behind you to hide."

"Guess it, Mingyu or Pei Gu, as long as you are not fools, attacking the city from the north is the best for you. The choice."

After speaking, George Han planted the small flag on the north wall of the sand table.

Gotta get out of town.

In the rolling yellow sand, several troops are gathering in the north.

George Han's guess was correct. A large number of the Ministries of Rain gathered here and began to prepare for the siege of the city.

"Are the east and west ready?" Ming Yu asked.

The subordinate nodded hurriedly: "

According to your instructions, countless dummies have been arranged in advance. As long as you give an order, the east and west will be trumpeting in an instant."

Zhu Yanshuo smiled and nodded: "This move is very good, this yellow In the sand, under the darkness of the night, we used dummies to form a formation, and he and George Han would definitely think that we would launch a general attack from both sides."

"Also, even if he is not fooled, there are also a lot of dummies on our south side. , and it is different from the east and west sides, there will be no movement there. He will be clever and will be mistaken by wisdom, so he will focus on the south side."

"At that time, we will raise our troops to attack the city from the north, and he will definitely have the heart of the army. It's a big mess, and the position is unstable."

Zhu Yanshuo was obviously quite happy, and he was very satisfied with this plan. He and George Han always liked to play tricks like this, but this time they seized the opportunity to use the other way. Still Shi Bishen, what could be more cool than this? !

"Back then, in the mountains, this guy used a dummy to fool us, but he never imagined that we would also use a dummy to fool him. What is this called?

"It's still the Pei clan elder who has a good plan to come up with such a method."

"All kinds of false and real attacks on the four sides of the city wall, if he George Han chooses the wrong one, then what awaits him will be doomed."

"Yes, even if it is a fluke guess . By the way, so what? There are so many of us, no matter how he plays this game, he must be dead." A group of people were very happy, but soon, accompanied by strange sounds in the distance, a group of people Looking at it, I can't help but be stunned and dumbfounded...

Chapter 3987

Although it is not sharp, it is extremely heavy, and it looks extraordinarily in the night at this moment. of attention.

Of course, what's more terrifying than what happened is what they see.

That was the sound of the city gate on the north side of the falling city slowly opening.

“What... what do you mean? Why did the city gate to the north suddenly open on the side of the falling city?”

“Yeah, let’s gather here, they probably don’t know, then what does the door mean? Find us Now? He George Han isn’t that good.”

“Damn, they also know that we are going to attack. They know that we are no match for us, so they plan to sneak away from the north gate, hehe, if that’s the case, then the fk It’s really a coincidence, isn’t it?”

Speaking of this possibility, many people unconsciously clenched the weapons in their hands.

Damn it , old hatred and new hatred are simply forgotten.

However, as the city gate was fully opened, the group waited for a full ten minutes without seeing any movement at the northern city gate.

I didn’t imagine the army going out of the city, not even a single ghost was seen, and the surroundings were surprisingly quiet.

“What do you mean? Open the city gate, but no one comes out. What the hell are they doing?”

“Are they going to surrender? However, even if you want to surrender, you must at least wave a white flag or send someone out to respond. This... “A bunch of people, you look at me, I look at you, full of suspicion.

They really don’t understand which one is this song.

Ming Yu’s brows were furrowed, and it was obvious that he was in trouble for a while.

“Patriarch Pei, you are experienced, what do you think about this matter?” Ming Yu asked.

Patriarch Pei also did not loosen his brows, and shook his head: “I couldn’t understand it for a while. It looked like he was about to surrender , but also like he was deliberately leading us in and set up an ambush for us.”

Ye Shijun got up immediately: “Or, I’ll get some elites immediately, and kill the general to check him out?”

Ming Yu was about to speak, but at this moment, there was an urgent report.

Looking around, three subordinates hurried over. “I’ve seen Elder Shenlong

Ming Yu didn’t have the mind to guess too much. The three subordinates came at the same time, and there must be a big event. He said bluntly: “If you have something to say, speak quickly.” They don’t guard the gate when they leave the city. The troops in the east want to ask Elder Shenlong for instructions on what to do next.”

“The same is true for Ximen.

As soon as the three’s voice fell, a group of executives were dumbfounded, like wooden chickens.

“That means, at this moment when the city should fall, all open?” Zhu Yanshuo really wondered if his ears had heard it wrong.

Because it sounds too outrageous, too unthinkable.

Not to mention whether the defender’s mind is normal or not, he is a person, and he will never open his city gates when the army is besieging the city.

Isn’t this typical of pushing yourself into a fire pit?

“What kind of trick is this bastard George Han doing? I think since he opened the city gates on all sides, that’s fine, let’s enjoy the benefits he provides, and let’s go into the city .” Ye Shijun called out.

“No!” Pei Gu shouted in a hurry, stopped Ye Shijun, and said sternly: “This George Han’s military use is extremely strange and subtle, and at first glance, he is extraordinary. With such a general trend, even a fool knows how much it will be to open the door and let the enemy go. Dangerous, how could George Han do this?”

Ming Yu wanted to stop himself, but now he agrees with Pei Gu’s words: “Patriarch Pei means that there may be deceit in this?”

Pei Gu nodded noncommittally. Head: “Elder Shenlong should not forget the previous 50,000 army in the south, who was tricked into the city and never came out again?”

Hearing this, Ming Yu couldn’t help frowning suddenly. What happened to Ming Yu ? will forget?

That’s an army of 50,000 people, like meat buns and dogs, there is no return.

However, just when Ming Yu was shocked by what happened before, Ye Shijun, who was beside him, suddenly laughed.

“Everyone, what’s the matter, are you scared by George Han?”

“Young Master Ye, how can you be rude to Elder Shenlong and Patriarch Pei?” Zhu Yanshuo was suddenly dissatisfied.

Zhu Yanshuo wanted to say something, but was stopped by Ming Yu at this time.

Looking at Zhu Yanshuo, Ming Yu’s intuition told her that he might have found something...
