

Chapter 3992

joke!”

“Yao’er is one of the dragon gods of the Dragon God Temple, I am the Lord of the Dragon God Temple, that Yao’er is my Chu Tianfan!”

“My Dragon God, is it that your little Tianshimen can punish you?”

“But she is the master of Tianshimen, so she has to obey the rules of Tianshimen.” The people of Tianshimen shouted loudly.

“What rule?”

“What time?”

“My Chu Tianfan’s words are the biggest rule!”

“My people, except me, who dares to punish? Who can punish?”

“Even if Yao’er wants to kneel, without my permission, she can’t help her!”

“Whoever disagrees, just stand up!”

Mark was arrogant and his eyes were cold.

These words fell, just like a golden stone exploded.

The floor beneath his feet burst instantly.

The majestic power swept out, and all the elders of the Tianshimen took a few steps back, just to offset the power of Mark.

Never thought that a punishment meeting would eventually develop to this point.

Anyone with a discerning eye could see that with Mark here, it was impossible for Yue Yao to be punished today.

However, in this tone, how can these Celestial Master elders swallow.

They couldn’t subdue Mark, and they couldn’t cure Yueyao?

Therefore, these old guys didn’t care about Mark anymore.

Instead, with a gloomy face, he glared at Yueyao with anger: “Sect Master, are you really capable?”

“Your dignified master of the sect, you don’t know the Guangda sect, you don’t know the Mingzheng law, and now you are colluding with outsiders, bullying your fellow clan, and bullying your seniors.”

“You are doing such a perverse act, doing nonsense, and you are not afraid of chilling the heart of the dead old master?”

“Sect Master, what you do like this is simply a shame for my sect!”

“Are you worthy of the dead teacher?”

“Humph!”

“Do it yourself, let’s go!”

These old guys turned their heads and faced Yue Yao with accusations and curses.

They were really angry about what happened today.

The dignified master of a sect, it is enough to obey an outsider.

He also colluded with outsiders, bullied fellow brothers and made them disgraced.

When this matter spread, it was not just the old guys like them, but the entire Tianshimen.

After scolding, the elders of the Tianshimen turned their heads and walked away.

“Wait?”

“Am I letting you go?”

As the saying goes, jade wants to be quiet but the wind does not stop.

Just as these people were about to leave, Mark’s cold words sounded again.

“Mark, it’s alright, that’s it...” Yueyao was worried that things would get out of hand, and advised Mark to take it easy.

Although these old people are irritating, their hearts are not bad, and they are in the same class.

It can be said that both parties, Yueyao did not want them to be hurt.

“shut up!”

“Did I let you speak?”

With a word from Mark, Yue Yao was trained back again.

Yueyao shrank her head and stood behind Mark honestly, not daring to say anything.

“Chu Tianfan, what else do you want?”

“Could it be that you still want to kill us, can’t you kill your confidante’s brother and elder?”

Several Celestial Masters were almost unable to bear it, and turned to question Mark.

That tone sounded a little fearless.

It seems that they have decided that Mark will not do anything to them.

Because they are all Yueyao’s seniors and elders, and they are the elders of Tianshimen.

Even in front of Yueyao, Mark didn’t dare to attack them.

But it turns out that these people obviously think too much of Tianshimen.

Mark does attach great importance to Yueyao, but it does not mean that he will attach importance to Tianshimen.

Therefore, facing the angry words of these old people, Mark only replied coldly: "Kneel down for me!" boom!

Majestic as a mountain.

Mark drank this, and the majestic might came down with a bang.

bang bang bang...

The elders and sects of Tianshimen were embarrassed, and they bent their knees and smashed into the ground.

All are forced to kneel!

Chapter 3993

"Chu Tianfan, you..."

"You...you're deceiving people too much!"

The elders of the Tianshimen who were present let out a low growl of anger and unwillingness.

Thinking of them as the celestial masters, they are the Yueyao sect master, and they have never knelt before.

Now, to be forced to kneel before an outsider, for this person to write about the old guy, it is naturally a great humiliation.

"Am I deceiving people too much?"

"When you bullied me Yao'er, why didn't you say bullying too much?"

Mark scolded angrily, and under the pressure, he directly scolded these old guys back.

"Bullshit!"

"It was Yueyao's sect master who violated the sect rules. We punished her according to the rules. Why did you bully her?"

"You use your power to oppress people, and you use the strong to bully the weak, that's all."

"But Hugh is going to tell right and wrong here and confuse black and white!"

"Today's matter is spread out, and the world will only say that you, Chu Tianfan, are arrogant and unreasonable."

"I will never say that our elders of the Celestial Master have bullied others."

Even though these old guys were kneeling on the ground, they were still full of dissatisfaction and tried their best.

“Hahaha...”

“A good one uses power to oppress others, and a good one relies on the strong to bully the weak.”

“If I, Chu Tianfan, really want to deceive you, why should I force you to kneel?”

“I will kill you at will!”

“However, before I kill you, I have to expose the hypocrisy of these old people!”

Mark laughed in anger, his eyes were cold, and he looked directly at this group of so-called Tianshimen elders.

“You are entangled with everyone and embarrassing Yao’er.”

“Punish him in public and embarrass her.”

“On the surface, it is to maintain the rules of the sect, but I think you are actually trying to destroy the majesty of Yao’er in front of the disciples of the sect, so that you can use Yao’er to completely control the power of Tianshimen?”

“It keeps saying sect law, but the heart is full of plans.”

“There is still a face to say innocent here, pretending to be justice?”

“A group of old people, but they don’t even want their faces.”

Mark was ruthless, and scolded these old guys for a while.

They exposed their hypocrisy in public.

And it is.

Yueyao was the person who had been entrusted by the previous Celestial Master, and her position as the head of the sect was basically unshakable.

However, let a weak woman lead a sect, these old guys who call themselves senior brothers and elders are naturally dissatisfied.

Therefore, they had long thought that the position of Yueyao’s clan master would be overridden.

Let her only have a false name and no authority.

This time Yueyao violated the rules.

But these Heavenly Master Sect elders deliberately exaggerated the matter, calling everyone from the sect to come and watch Yue Yao be punished.

The purpose is to damage Yueyao’s position in the hearts of everyone.

At the same time, these elders can also take advantage of this.

Under the circumstances, the distance to completely empty Yue Yao is naturally very close.

Others can't see this thought, but Mark has been involved in life and death, fighting with countless old monsters for more than ten years, how can he not see it?

The intentional plan was exposed by Mark's words.

The elders of Tianshimen who had just spoken righteously just now lost their voices.

The old face was lowered, but he was guilty, and he dared not speak any more.

"Do you really think that Yao'er is an orphan? No teacher, no parents, no one to protect him?"

"I warn you, behind Yao'er, there is me! There are also the powerhouses in the Dragon Temple."

"Those who dare to deceive me, Chu Tianfan, I will slaughter your Tianshimen today!"

Mark shouted angrily.

Sen Ran's angry words exploded like thunder.

But the people present were frightened, their faces turned pale, and they were all horrified.

Those old guys were also heartbroken, staring at them with old eyes.

They didn't even think that Mark would actually dare to kill them?

It's not even caring at all?

What did they say, it's also Yue Yao's senior brother?

"Junior sister, save us..."

Mark was already violent.

Infinite strength, beside him, condensed into several qi blades.

The fierce power, the majesty of destroying the world, made this group of angels have no idea or courage to resist at all.
