

Chapter 401

Ye Xing walked towards the foreign devil, at this moment this guy's eyes were bloodshot and the corners of his mouth were split open, revealing his fangs, he looked like a vampire.

"There can't really be a Western vampire, can there?"

Ye Xing asked curiously.

Qiao Lily shook her head and said, "It doesn't look like it, he looks like he's been hit by some powerful evil spell."

"Evil magic? Could it be another demonic cultivator messing around?"

Ye Xing continued to check up, although this foreign devil was fierce and lost his mind, he didn't have any half of Yuan Power.

If he did not have any Yuan Power, he could not be an immortal cultivator, he could only have been transformed into this shape by a demonic cultivator using a special technique.

Ye Xing reached out and pressed his hand on the foreign devil's head and punched his Yuan Power into his body, the guy let out a miserable scream, but soon the abnormalities in his body slowly disappeared and he finally fell to the ground half dead.

Ye Xing kicked him hard a few times, this guy woke up and looked at Ye Xing and shook his head and begged, "Don't kill me, it's nothing to do with me."

"Tell the truth if you don't want to die, who made you look like this?"

Ye Xing questioned as soon as he stepped on the foreign devil's chest.

"We all became like this because we went to a nightclub and got high, please help me."

The foreign devil begged.

Ye Xing continued to interrogate and soon asked many things.

The foreign devil and the others had gone to a nightclub to get high on drugs and had taken a kind of pill called Dream, and subsequently became addicted to it and turned into this ghostly appearance.

Anyway, in order to get money, they dare to do anything bad, what they said before about being forced is actually just an excuse for that head to snare a girl.

After Ye Xing finished asking, he called Du Jiuniang sisters and left, there was no need to ask whether the group of junkies were dead or alive.

Halfway there, Du Jiuniang laughed, "Don't you want to go to that nightclub to see what kind of demons and monsters are there?"

"Why do you care so much?"

Ye Xing sat in the passenger seat with his eyes closed, not interested at all.

Who knew that the driver was actually sobbing uncomfortably, and Ye Xing casually asked, "Brother, what are you doing? As soon as we get into your car, we're crying and sobbing, as if a few of us didn't invite you."

"Handsome, it's none of your business, it's because my family has recently had an incident, my daughter didn't know who she went to play with, she took some medicine and is still in a coma in the intensive care unit."

The driver is a bald, more than fifty years old, an honest face, hard to explain up.

Ye Xing didn't say anything, but the driver was as if he found someone to talk to, and gave a speech about his daughter.

"Another nightclub, another pill called Fantasy, no one is checking?"

Du Jiuniang frowned and looked at the back of the driver's head.

The driver said glumly, "Checked, but this kind of pills are all sold everywhere by some landlubbers, no one knows exactly from whom it flows out at all."

Ye Xing was just about to speak when his phone rang in his pocket, it was Lin Wei calling.

"What are you doing in the middle of the night? Aren't you afraid of disturbing my rest?"

Ye Xing deliberately scared her.

"Sleeping so early, is the woman beside you that hungry?"

Lin Wei also retorted up without the slightest fear.

"Definitely not as hungry as you are."

Ye Xing harrumphed as Lin Wei stomped her foot in anger, "Alright, no more bullshit with you, you're going to Tianhai, right? Recently there was a batch of drugs dispersed in Tianhai, causing a lot of oddities, this matter has been divided into the hands of Dragon Shield, you happen to go over there, so naturally you will have to take over."

"What do you mean? Don't you know that Dragon Shield is in charge of big things? You're going to investigate this kind of trivial matter?"

Ye Xing huffed and growled.

"Kitano arranged it, it seems that this time the matter is quite big, once the pill spreads, it will cause panic in the society, let us solve this matter urgently."

Lin Wei explained up.

As soon as Ye Xing saw that he couldn't even hide, he then asked if there was anyone who would take over.

"Luo Xiaoyun from the special office, you should know her, she has understood this matter in advance, she should have no problem cooperating with you, and she is eager to enter the Dragon Shield, this is a good opportunity to investigate."

“I know it feels like you’ve installed eyes around me, you know everything I’ve seen?”

“I’m not interested in keeping an eye on you yet.”

“Nope, you must have installed them, on my chest, or is it my ass?”

“Go to hell.”

Ye Xing made Lin Wei angry, giggling happily.

Du Jiuniang in the back seat looked at Qiao Baihe and whispered, “See, just like him, he’s full of nonsense, you should never believe anything he says in the future.”

“She’s my servant, she’ll do whatever I tell her to do. I’m telling you, from now on, don’t hit on my servant’s ideas, my own sister is not even negotiable.”

Ye Xing twisted his head and yelled.

Du Jiuniang was so angry that she wanted to say something back, but she was afraid that Ye Xing would shake out her relationship with him, so she could only tremble with anger.

“Watch out in the future, don’t shake so fiercely, it’s easy to attract people to commit crimes.”

Ye Xing’s eyes lowered, and then laughed.

Du Jiuniang blushed so much that she really wanted to stab Ye Xing to death with a knife, Qiao Baihe laughed happily, seeing the two of them fighting was like watching a Spring Festival skit, full of excitement!

When Ye Xing called Luo Xiaoyun, he heard that it was about the dream pill case, Luo Xiaoyun was really interested and gave the name of a nightclub and told them to hurry over.

The nightclub was very famous in Tianhai, not only did it have a foreign heavy metal music style, but also the decoration was first class, rumour has it that the decoration cost alone was over 100 million, and the various sound equipment in the shop was also top international.

Such a nightclub is really hot in Tianhai, with beautiful women coming and going, each with their own agenda.

This nightclub also followed the tradition of many nightclubs, where beautiful women or women dressed in posh clothes entered for free, while men had to get a membership or pay a price of 588.

Ye Xing’s trio entered the nightclub and found Luo Xiaoyun, a real eye-opener.

This evening, Luo Xiaoyun had turned into a hot girl, still with short blue hair and smoky make-up or a red and a blue one, just like a nightclub singer.

Seeing Ye Xing’s surprised look, Luo Xiaoyun explained, “I’m here to investigate the case.”

“There is no such thing as investigating a case in our Dragon Shield, just say action directly from now on.”

Ye Xing bristled and lectured up.

“Isn’t this a case? Who says you’re not allowed to say that?”

Luo Xiaoyun asked with a curious question.

“I stipulate, one says the case appears this good criminal investigation of the same, dragon shield mainly deal with major crisis, so unified say action, not allowed not to cooperate.”

Ye Xing finished calling the waiter, directly one person order a glass of wine.

Luo Xiaoyun take Ye Xing can’t help, looked at Du Jiuniang and Qiao Lily, still really old mature and charming, the small beautiful and charming.

“Hmph, I have to keep an eye on Ye Xing, this stinky guy, for Xue’er, so that he doesn’t mess around with men and women.”

Just as Luo Xiaoyun finished speaking, Ye Xing suddenly sneezed and said alertly, “Who cursed me?”

Luo Xiaoyun was startled, my goodness, what has this guy changed into, so spiritual?

Chapter 402

The next thing was to talk about the dream pill.

Ye Xing gave a talk about what he had seen, and Luo Xiaoyun was stunned after hearing it, “Could it be that it has all reached the late stage of the disease?”

“What late stage of sickness?”

“It’s these people who take dream pills, at first they will become addicted and will also have all kinds of hallucinations, according to our relevant departments testing the composition of the medicine, they found that it is more than ten times more powerful than ordinary hallucinogenic drugs, but if you take too much, all kinds of parasites will appear in your body, these worms will also mutate and invade the brain, making the stoner become crazy and bloodthirsty, they will also attack other people and infect the mutated worms to no one.”

“Holy shit, isn’t this just zombie contagion?”

“Yes, it’s similar to those large swathes of zombies abroad, the infection is very strong, once bitten, you will definitely be hit.”

Ye Xing had to be cautious after hearing this, I’m afraid that only a demonic cultivator could do something so vicious.

But didn’t demon cultivators only target immortals? Since when did they start killing innocent people?

And what good would it do to a demon cultivator to create a mass of zombies?

Ye Xing was not entirely sure that it was the work of the demon cultivators, but whatever it was, it was something that Dragon Shield should address.

The four of them sat and drank, and soon a young yellow-haired man, dressed in a rare outfit, approached with a smile, striking up a conversation and making small talk at the same time.

Luo Xiaoyun changed her iron-faced state and became very good at teasing people.

The young yellow hair hesitated for a moment, pulled out a packet of blue pills and smiled, "This is good stuff, I charge a thousand a packet for everyone else, just five hundred for you."

"Five hundred?"

Luo Xiaoyun scoffed, "Normal junk stuff, we don't get high."

"Pretty girl, this is Fantasy, the famous top stuff, just one, you'll be high all night long."

The yellow-haired young man bragged up, his face full of greed, looking like he could hardly wait to put Luo Xiaoyun on the spot.

Ye Xing was unhappy in his heart and really wanted to make a move to scrap this kid, but he held back for the greater good.

"Is it really a dream?"

Luo Xiaoyun asked curiously.

"How can I lie to you? If you don't believe me, go inside and take a look, someone's been eating for an hour and they're getting high."

Huang Mao pointed to the private room in the nightclub.

Luo Xiaoyun got up and followed him over to a private room, pushed open the door and took a look inside.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public. If you take this medicine, you'll be even more excited."

"Where's your boss?"

Luo Xiaoyun suddenly questioned with a stern face.

"What boss?"

The yellow-haired young man felt bad and said with a bristle, "Forget it if you don't buy it."

He turned his head and left, but Luo Xiaoyun couldn't let him go and went up and took control of him.

As the three of them approached, the yellow-haired young man shouted and many of his associates in the nightclub ran out to help.

Ye Xing frowned and lectured, "What's the matter, making so much trouble."

"It has been confirmed that he is the one selling, just take the person back for interrogation."

Luo Xiaoyun was actually a little angry at the sight of the group of demons in the private room just now, which is why he was excited to strike.

“Alright, arrest and take away.”

Ye Xing nodded down, the others gathered around, and were not polite anymore, directly kicking out a path.

The nightclub was in chaos, and the security guards got involved. Ye Xing fought as he retreated, came to the door, called the car and rushed off.

The result was that the man was arrested and interrogated inside the local bureau, and it was just a small brother with goods, his superior was not known, nor did he have any underlings.

The company’s background is that it’s a college student who likes to go clubbing, and after becoming addicted, it started to sell and smoke.

The investigation was clueless, but the dream masters and these people were all in contact with each other online, and all of them used small numbers.

As for the transaction method is even more special, are you want how much goods, first to the other side transfer money, and then the other side to your designated location delivery, want to check any clues are impossible.

Once the clues were broken, there was no clue.

Luo Xiaoyun stayed up all night for three days, people are almost collapsed, the result went to Ye Xing, the other party actually took Du Jiuniang and Qiao Baihe to the leisure mountain resort to take a hot spring.

Ye Xing laughed and joked, “Change into a bikini and come down for a dip, I can see that you have these dark circles under your eyes, you can go to the zoo and become a national treasure.”

Luo Xiaoyun was furious and roared in anger, “I’m desperately investigating a case and you guys are actually playing around here, have you thought about how many people will be killed if we don’t get this pill under control?”

These were heavy words, and Ye Xing, seeing how persistent she was, also put away her playful face.

“Don’t worry, we haven’t been idle these three days, since we can’t find any clues on the surface, it can only mean that the other party is from the ancient martial world, or an immortal cultivator, so naturally we’ll have to look for the local snake here in Tianhai.”

“You didn’t lie to me?”

“How dare I lie to you about this kind of thing, hurry up and change your clothes and take a dip in the water, get refreshed and go to a place tonight to inquire about the whereabouts properly.”

Tianhai, as a big city in China, was a bustling, noisy and paper-drunk place where power and money consumed many people.

And there are also ancient martial arts clans that exist here, and the Yellow Sea Gang is a very small ancient martial arts clan.

But by doing business, this ancient martial arts clan is also considered to be a dignified one in Tianhai, and they are extremely cohesive because they rely on their family bloodline heritage.

The Yellow Sea Clan's headquarters was in a farm outside the city of Tianhai, and many of the nearby planting bases were part of the Yellow Sea Clan's income.

In the evening, Ye Xing drove up with his three beautiful women and was warmly received by the other party.

Ye Xing's recent fame could be described as a sensational effect within the ancient martial arts community.

He had fought against countless ancient martial arts clans on the Snowy Mountains, and also created the Dragon Shield, and directly recruited the Hong Clan and the Hidden Clan, and these two clans actually succumbed to it, so it was clear how powerful they were.

As soon as he heard that Ye Xing had come to his door, Huang Wenchang of the Huanghai Clan was scared silly.

But no matter how scared they were, they had to meet. Inside the living room, the Jiangnan family were decorated in ancient colours.

There were ponds of koi in front of the door and greenery and mahogany inside the house. Huang Wenchang, who was in his early fifties and young and strong, was the current head of the Huanghai Gang.

He clasped his fist to Ye Xing and was just as polite as could be, with all sorts of complimentary words going straight to him.

"Don't worry, although our Huang Hai Gang is a part of the ancient martial arts community, we have always obeyed the law for so many years and have never done anything wrong, and all kinds of business in the gang are legal and compliant, so we definitely won't let you have a hard time."

Huang Wenchang opened his mouth, and was not afraid of being looked down upon, because the Hidden Sect and the Hong Sect were unable to take Ye Xing, and his small Huang Hai Gang was still fighting, so he might as well lie down and not resist, and let people do whatever they want.

Ye Xing was happy and laughed: "Don't worry, Master Huang, we are not here to deal with you, we just want to inquire about something."

Huang Wenchang sighed in relief, nodded his head and smiled: "You can ask, I will definitely tell you everything."

"Recently there is a kind of addictive pill called Dream, I wonder if your Huang Hai Gang knows about it?"

"Naturally I know, this poison is very powerful, we also have young people in our family to take it, fortunately we stopped it in time, otherwise we would have lost our lives."

"Have you checked who is behind this?"

“Yes, the other party is very mysterious, I feel that they are from overseas.”

Chapter 403

“From overseas? You’re not fooling me, are you?”

Ye Xing’s face went down gloomily, scaring Huang Wenchang with a nervous look.

“I wouldn’t dare, nowadays who in the whole ancient martial world doesn’t know the power of the Dragon Shield, I wouldn’t dare to lie to you even if I had ten guts.”

“Why do you think it’s overseas, you have to give a reason, right?”

Huang Wenchang frowned, “Actually, the Fantasy Pills that were delivered were found on the pier, but the direct person in charge of that pier was our Huang family, and we didn’t dare to report it for fear of implicating ourselves, so this was treated as if we didn’t see it.”

“Are they still being shipped now?”

Ye Xing drank in a deep voice.

Huang Wenchang nodded down and then had a hard time: “Occasionally there are still discoveries, we are also afraid that things will get too big and affect the dock being closed, so we don’t dare to manage it too much.”

“Alright, go to your dock and take a look, if you can catch the person who is carrying the goods, this will be a good thing.”

Ye Xing made up his mind to start with the freight.

“This has nothing to do with us, we won’t be implicated, right?”

“If you don’t cooperate, not to mention one pier, it’s not negotiable to close all your Huang Hai Gang’s properties.”

Huang Wenchang was trembling with fear and kept on persuading.

Ye Xing told him to grab a car and go to the wharf right away, which ship brought the stuff here had to be investigated properly.

Tianhai had a huge cargo throughput, and there were many dock ports, some of which were still functioning in small docks.

This one, Pier 7 of the Yellow Sea Gang, belongs to one of the docks of the Heavenly Sea, which not only has a lot of historical sentiment but is also close to the city, so it has become a place where many citizens usually take a walk in the evening.

Cargo ships are almost invisible during the day at Pier 7, but at night cargo ships and fishing boats come out, bringing in a large amount of goods and seafood.

Ye Xing and the others were waiting quietly in the office at the pier at this time.

Although the delivery ships were not the same, they were all coming from the same country.

Finally at nine o'clock in the evening, the sound of a merchant ship's whistle was heard from the sea.

"Here it comes."

Ye Xing led the men to the edge of the pier, and as the merchant ship approached, various machines began to run.

Suddenly, a few people came down from the ship, looking no different from the Chinese.

But the scent all over them still betrayed them.

Ye Xing didn't hide, and with his men, he walked over to stop the five men.

"You are the crew?"

Ye Xing inquired as soon as he stopped the other party.

Once the five men saw that Ye Xing and the others were not wearing uniforms and there were quite a few beautiful women, one of them smiled and didn't take it seriously.

"Asking you guys."

Ye Xing yelled up again.

"Get away or watch out for your lives."

A man in his forties sneered and threatened up.

As soon as Ye Xing saw how vicious he was, there was no doubt that it was this group of people, so he directly went forward to search them, five people resisted together, naturally they were all beaten down by Ye Xing.

When the five men saw that something was going to happen, they ran away, but unfortunately it was strange that they could escape.

Du Jiuniang threw a flying knife, two of the guys who turned their heads and ran were hit in the thighs and bled like blood, they fell to the ground and moaned and screamed.

Another one was caught up by Luo Xiaoyun who stepped on his back and put a gun to his head.

Another was thrown a handful of ice sands by Qiao Baihe and was shivering on the ground from the cold.

Ye Xing held down the middle-aged man who had threatened him earlier and retrieved several large packages of wound-up dream pills directly from the other man's waist.

The other four men did the same, and Ye Xing piled the stuff together, and it was quite a lot of weight.

"There are at least ten kilograms, several thousand pills, if this were to flow out, I don't know how many people would be killed."

Luo Xiaoyun rose in indignation.

Ye Xing told Luo Xiaoyun to inform the branch office first and take the people and handcuff them, of course they all had to be held in solitary confinement to prevent accidents.

Sure enough, on the second day, all five of them mutated and became bloodthirsty, with fangs growing inside their mouths.

Ye Xing used his Yuan Power to suppress the drug power of the other men, and then began to interrogate them individually.

The five men were all errand boys, the real mastermind behind them was hiding abroad to control everything.

However, Ye Xing found a little clue, these five guys all had a pattern on their bodies, a human face with kind brows, but the human face was decorated with various stripes around it, which looked a little evil.

Ye Xing took a picture of the pattern and then began to discuss countermeasures.

Lin Wei also came to Tianhai and saw the pattern, and wondered what it was from.

“Going abroad to investigate will inevitably cause a lot of repercussions, and Kitano’s side will not agree.”

Lin Wei shook her head down and analysed the difficulties of acting abroad.

“If we don’t go abroad, we won’t be able to catch the person behind it, and these people will definitely find other channels to import these pills into our country.”

Luo Xiaoyun argued forcefully.

“Kitano won’t agree, there won’t be any support for the operation, and going abroad won’t necessarily lead to catching the mastermind behind it.”

“But

Ye Xing stopped the argument, “All right, it’s useless for you guys to argue, forget about foreign countries for now on this matter, first cut off all domestic channels, also this pattern must have a secret, let all the ancient martial arts community take a good look at it and find out the clues before you do.”

Lin Wei stared at the pattern, then compiled it into a document and had her men send it to the ancient martial arts clans to check.

The next day, the pattern was revealed to belong to an evil organisation called the “Western Heavenly Paradise”.

After listening to the introduction of this Western Paradise, Ye Xing found that it was indeed extremely hostile to the Chinese State.

In addition, he also found out a crucial point, that this Western Paradise Organisation was recently operating in the overseas tourist destination “Fireplace Island”.

“What are you hesitating for? These bastards have imported so many Dream Pills, we should bring them all back for trial.”

Luo Xiaoyun became excited.

Lin Wei said, "Luo Xiaoyun, please remember your identity, you are not a member of Dragon Shield yet, you are invited to participate in the discussion, but not to listen to your whining, you have to plan things, you think you can just let you do whatever you want abroad, right?"

"But people make so many bad things to harm people, and we don't stop them?"

Ye Xing banged on the table to interrupt the argument: "Book a flight to Fireplace Island, whatever conspiracy these guys are up to, they all need to be investigated, but don't do anything rash once you're there."

Lin Wei immediately did as she was told, and Luo Xiaoyun couldn't have been more excited to hear that she was going to continue the investigation.

After the meeting, Ye Xing asked Luo Xiaoyun to go to the room next to him.

"What do you want?" Luo Xiaoyun got apprehensive.

"Don't worry, you're not a Dragon Shield person yet, I won't submarine you."

Ye Xing smiled as he sat down.

Luo Xiaoyun froze, then her face was gloomy: "What do you mean, if I want to join Dragon Shield, I have to accept your rules? Let you dive me?"

"Pretty much, I am the Lord of Dragon Shield, I have to be responsible for Dragon Shield, any core member, has to listen to my dispatch."

Ye Xing nodded his head down and looked at Luo Xiaoyun with a smile.

Luo Xiaoyun was torn inside, she wanted to join the Dragon Shield, after all it was the place where she could directly face the most dangerous events, it was more interesting than catching thieves and solving crimes, besides the Dragon Shield had a lot of authority, she was not afraid of making a big mess.

"I'm Cher's best friend, can't you give face?"

"Face can't be given casually, it depends on what you give."

"Don't take off your clothes, you rogue, I'll tell Xue'er to go."

Chapter 404

Half an hour later, Luo Xiaoyun walked out of the room with a red face, her heart filled with anger when she thought of what Ye Xing had just done to her.

"Damn Ye Xing, when I find the chance, I will have to waste you."

Luo Xiaoyun viciously vented.

"Ye Xing is our leader, you'll easily be kicked out of Dragon Shield if you talk about him like that."

Suddenly, Lin Wei's voice came from inside the corner.

Luo Xiaoyun rubbed her hands and complained, "Who told him to bully me?"

"Bullying you? I see you're still enjoying yourself."

Lin Wei decided that Luo Xiaoyun and Ye Xing had some kind of abnormal relationship, so naturally she looked down on her a little.

"I enjoy it my ass, have you been bullied by him like this too?"

Luo Xiaoyun asked curiously.

Lin Wei blushed, thinking of being peeked at changing her clothes, a strange shame.

"No, if he dares to do that to me, I'll make him become a eunuch in the palace."

"Still you're ruthless enough, I topped how he bullied me and I bullied him."

As if she had heard a joke, Lin Wei's eyes widened as she saw Luo Xiaoyun and frowned, "You're not mistaken, are you? How he bullies you, how you bully him, isn't this a loss for you?"

"What kind of loss can this be, just take the medicine according to the prescription and return it to him?"

"Sister, are you stupid? Can men and women be the same in such matters? He is getting a bargain, if you bully him like this again, he can earn another bargain."

Lin Wei's eyes widened as she explained, thinking for a moment that Luo Xiaoyun was not stupid and sweet, huh? How could she say something like that?

"Aren't men and women the same? Don't worry about it, I'll definitely make him step up his game."

Luo Xiaoyun smiled up with a smug face.

Lin Wei thought this Luo Xiaoyun was silly and cute, and advised in a low voice, "Don't think like that, in the matter of men and women, the man takes advantage, the chief can have quite a few women, how can you be a little wife for him?"

"What little wife, don't you talk nonsense."

Luo Xiaoyun roared up with a red face.

At this moment, Du Jiuniang and Qiao Baihe were also attracted by the sound and came over here to watch the fun, settling down to be a crowd of gourmets.

Lin Wei said discontentedly, "If you mess around with Ye Xing, aren't you just being a little wife to someone?"

Du Jiuniang's heart stuttered after hearing this, and Luo Xiaoyun was so angry that she was close to tears, so she looked at them and explained, "What messing around? Only he is allowed to bully me, but not me?"

"But you can't do that either, he's a rascal and a scoundrel, but you can't give yourself up like that."

Lin Wei lectured up.

Du Jiuniang coughed and asked, "Stop arguing guys, what's going on?"

"She and Ye Xing were messing around inside the room and actually wanted to do it again, plugging it up, isn't it obvious that she wants to be a little wife for Ye Xing?"

Lin Wei spoke up with a sneer.

Luo Xiaoyun blushed furiously, "What messing around, he asked me to give him a massage and bullied me in different ways, I want him to give me a massage in the future too, is that wrong?"

"Massage?"

Lin Wei's eyes widened and instantly felt that she had thought too much.

At this moment, Ye Xing walked out of the room, stretching his back and shouting for comfort.

Du Jiuniang snorted and laughed, and the others all burst into joy, except for Luo Xiaoyun who huffed and puffed, feeling that she had suffered a great deal of aggravation.

After listening to Du Jiuniang, Ye Xing also followed suit and was happy, but called Lin Wei to him.

"This is your fault, apologise to someone, a nice little girl, what's wrong with giving the leader a massage? You're not married yet, how hurtful is that? If you can't get married in the future, won't you have to blame me?"

Ye Xing gave a serious lecture, not only Lin Wei was angry, Luo Xiaoyun also had fierce eyes.

In the end, the two of them turned their heads and left, and no one paid any attention to him.

Ye Xing was dumbfounded as Du Jiuniang dragged Qiao Baihe away with a sneer.

Ye Xing stomped his feet, what was this all about?

A group of people set off for the Fireplace Island, Beino did not agree or oppose, anyway, told Ye Xing, foreign countries make a big deal out of it, you have to solve it well yourself, never leave any trouble behind, and don't be caught in the act.

Ye Xing smiled and said OK, let him must be assured.

The Fireplace Island belongs to a large country's overseas islands, because it is in the tropics, the weather is hot, and there is a long coastline, most suitable for holiday tourism.

Of course there were also natives on the island, all a group of superstitious believers who usually lived around centuries-old temples and belonged to devotees.

Ye Xing's group arrived at the airport and immediately met the local guide.

It was a local mixed-race man who spoke the Chinese language. This man called himself Awang and specialised in doing business with the Chinese people, making quite a lot of money in a year.

He was not paid much and relied on tips, so his service was very attentive.

Awang took Ye Xing and the others to the local jade market and flea market. Ye Xing and the others pretended to be travelling and naturally pretended to buy quite a few things, and then in the evening, they were taken to the local beach for a barbecue and drinks.

The next day, early in the morning, they were taken out to the sea again for some fun, and in the evening, they went around the local casino.

On the third day, after everyone had mixed and familiarised themselves, Ye Xing offered to visit the temple.

“All the temples on the island are open to the public except for the doll temple, just book in advance.”

Awan smiled back enthusiastically, he got a lot of tips from Ye Xing every day and naturally treated him as his bread and butter.

Ye Xing looked around and said in a low voice, “I just want to go to the Doll Temple.”

“No, you can’t go to the Doll Temple, it’s a temple for the locals and you’ll be punished for not having permission to enter.”

Awang shook his head with a look of fear.

When Ye Xing saw how excited he was, it was impossible to get this guy to take him in, so he simply asked for a map and spent the night in the hotel getting ready.

The doll temple is within the deep mountains of the island, the road leading to this temple is difficult to walk, the most crucial thing is that the temple is actually surrounded by swampy land, only a thick and incomparably thick chain can be stepped through.

To know that the temple was built in such a treacherous place shows the price paid by the believers hundreds of years ago.

Rumour has it that nowadays it is the skeletons that can be seen everywhere in the swamp around the Temple of the Dolls, as tens of thousands of toilers and believers died in order to build this temple in the first place, which can be called a human tragedy.

Ye Xing and others set off overnight, the hotel downstairs is full of cars, looking for a good performance of the SUV, stole and then drive on the departure.

Two hours later, the car entered the primeval forest and then began to set off towards the Doll Temple.

Not many people have been inside this kind of temple, but it is extremely famous and has been mentioned by many photographers and travellers.

According to a foreign website, the car soon came to the edge of the swamp, and although it was early in the morning, there was a bright moon hanging in the sky, so the view was not too bad.

And with a thick mist rising over the marsh and a strong wind rattling the chains, it was a little creepy and hairy in the late night conditions.

“Once those chains are stepped on, they will definitely be heard by the people on the other side, so we can only pass over the swamp.”

Ye Xing looked ahead and conferred with the others.

“It’s a bit difficult to pass on the bog, isn’t it?”

Lin Wei frowned.

“It won’t be difficult if I go alone, you guys just stay nearby.”

Chapter 405

Ye Xing was not trying to be a hero, he was the strongest among this group of people, and it would be safest for him to go ahead to the doll temple by himself to investigate.

After discussing the decision, Ye Xing quickly stepped into the swamp, his internal energy raised, and he was instantly as light as a swallow.

This move could be done for many ancient martial artists, but how long it could be maintained was a test of the ancient martial artist’s strong strength.

After passing through the layers of white mist, he found a large number of bonfires burning near the Doll Temple, all of which were still being chanted at the moment, with countless believers sitting on the ground staring intently.

Ye Xing approached the temple and quickly dived into the grass, the Temple of the Dolls was just a few metres ahead and with his sight he could completely take in all the ritual activities in front of the temple.

Ye Xing stayed for half an hour and finally got a good look at all the activities.

He quickly entered the doll temple while no one was watching.

The ancient temple resembled a small pyramid, with a cylinder-like object at the top of the temple sticking up into the clouds, while the temple had at least four levels, with the lowest level having a dozen entrances, with devotees and monks constantly entering and leaving.

Ye Xing jumped into one of the nearby entrances and found that there were actually many Chinese people, dressed not too different from him, all with pious faces, and without talking, they went inside the ground floor of the temple.

Ye Xing followed suit, as no one was paying attention to him anyway.

When he came to the middle of the ground floor, he was surrounded by a statue of Buddha, while each statue had an oil lamp in front of it, and countless notes from believers were posted.

At the same time, a monk was sitting cross-legged, chanting sutras inside his mouth, and believers came and went in several layers, presenting a large circle to surround the monk.

Ye Xing pretended to sit down and watched the devotees who kept sitting down and leaving, he stayed for a while and also left quickly, then walked to an unoccupied place to send a message to Lin Wei and the others.

A few minutes later, the disguised Lin Wei and the others also came.

They all stepped on chains to enter the temple, as no one was checking at all, and the whole doll temple did not look like any cult, it was completely a gathering place for believers.

“Was there a mistake?”

Lin Wei frowned, the journey had been so smooth not to mention that the most crucial thing was that apart from the monks being believers, it seemed to be just an ordinary old temple in the mountains that was just attracting attention because of its age.

But such a thing not to mention foreign countries, even within China there are many temples with such a lively incense, the annual leading incense, there are some temples thousands of people gathered, that lively scene is simply scary.

“The pattern can’t be wrong, I suspect that the people of this organization, the Western Paradise Lottery, are not visible on the outside, but behind the scenes they specialize in some male and female thievery.”

Ye Xing told everyone to separate and continue to observe, trying to find clues.

In fact, there were both male and female believers coming, and most of them were given a blessing pattern given by the doll temple after they went to donate money.

Lin Wei took the pattern and found Ye Xing, and it happened to be exactly the same as the one with the human face in the Western Paradise.

Everyone went to donate money and it was easier to move around after getting the pattern.

Suddenly, there were three monks approaching Ye Xing.

Ye Xing was a little scandalised when the other man smiled and addressed them in English, “Where are the several devotees from?”

“We are from the Eastern Land of China.”

Ye Xing scowled at the other party, smiling and looking relaxed.

The three monks were all over five foot seven, wearing not too clean monk’s robes, with lean bodies and skin tones quite a bit darker than the Chinese.

“So you are from China, then please go to the first floor for the Blessing Assembly.”

The leading monk invited with a smile.

Ye Xing frowned and politely declined, “We just came to have a look, no need to go up there.”

“This time is a Buddhist event, there are only good things on the first floor, if you all go up there, you will definitely gain a lot.”

The monk smiled and introduced himself.

Ye Xing was afraid that there was a fraud, but looking at the three monks, they didn’t look like it, so he tentatively followed them to have a look.

There were four staircases from the ground floor to the first floor, all very spacious and all made of stone, so it was evident that back then this doll temple was built, almost all of them were repaired with huge stones, that's why it was preserved for hundreds of years.

The first floor is half the size of the first, and all the devotees are sitting in four rows, and at this moment a monk is introducing something to all the devotees.

Once the devotees approved, they immediately took out their mobile phones and transferred money to buy.

The scene was not at all like a Buddhist retreat, but rather like a flea market.

After Ye Xing and the others sat down, a monk came over to introduce things.

From Sanskrit beads to Buddha cards, there were all kinds of heavy bone bowls, leather Buddha cards and so on.

Ye Xing was creeped out after listening to them, what age is this, there are still so many superstitious fools who believe that such fraudulent things can make people rich and safe, if they were really that magical, wouldn't the people who made these things be turned into a pile of yellow earth?

Ye Xing and the others were not interested, and the monk did not ask too much, turning his head away and continuing to introduce them to the other believers.

After this assembly on the first floor was over, everyone went downstairs.

When Ye Xing was descending the stairs, he was suddenly startled and hurriedly turned his head because he seemed to have seen a familiar face among the group of monks coming down from the third floor, Jiang Qin, the tomb keeper.

As one of the Four Great Patriarchs, Jiang Qin was a godly man who had appeared at Mount Snow before and directly fought with the Free Fairy.

But Ye Xing had only recently got Jiang Chang'an killed, and the revenge of killing his son was no laughing matter.

Fortunately, there were too many believers and Jiang Qin did not notice Ye Xing's figure and continued to walk towards the ground floor.

Ye Xing called on the others to twist and turn to avoid Jiang Qin, and then began to discuss the matter.

"Could it be that this medicine is what the Gravekeeper got into the country?"

"What purpose does he have?"

"No one knows that, but his presence here must have something to do with the Western Paradise."

Ye Xing said worriedly, "Let's go, we've basically investigated almost everything, let's go back and analyse it slowly."

The group left along the iron rope, but what they were hiding from came to them.

When Ye Xing and the others arrived near the car, they actually saw Jiang Qin's group of people, they were speaking loudly in Chinese, and they were not afraid of being overheard in a foreign country.

After all, Jiang Qin was one of the Four Great Masters, and if he really wanted to deal with his group, none of them would be able to escape safely.

Back inside the hotel, it was already dawn and the guide, Ah Wang, came running early in the morning.

Ye Xing and the others had been tired all night, so naturally they did not need to go out today, and after paying the tip, they sent Awang away.

Ye Xing felt more and more that Jiang Qin must have something to do with this Western Paradise, and he had to report this.

Beino's side got the news and hurriedly reported to Hua Junsheng.

"Colluding with overseas demons, the Jiang family is up to something big."

Hua Junshen sat on his chair and frowned.

Kitano nodded and continued to report, "The Western Heavenly Lotuses are using a special pill to make huge profits, in addition to turning many people in the country into walking corpses."

"I can't believe they want to destroy themselves, then don't blame us for being rude, tell Ye Xing that Dragon Shield has the responsibility of eliminating the enemy, so take West Heaven Lotto."

Hua Junsheng gave the final order.

Chapter 406

Ye Xing was a bit surprised after hearing Bei Ye's order, and after considering it for a moment, he asked, "If we really do it, will Jiang Qin, the gravekeeper, help?"

"He should have already left the Fireplace Island, so you guys should hurry up and do it, and bring back the group of people behind the curtain to face trial.

"Your words make my blood boil, I can't wait to sacrifice my life to serve my country."

"You're a ghostly kid, it's strange that I can believe you."

Ye Xing hung up his mobile phone and immediately started to calculate.

Once they heard that they were going to start a cross-border arrest and that it was a big move, it made Lin Wei and the others' blood boil.

Especially Luo Xiaoyun, a cynical and cynical woman like Luo Xiaoyun, had long looked at those cultists in the Western Paradise with displeasure.

"What support does the leader give us?"

Luo Xiaoyun asked afterwards with a smile.

Ye Xing shook his head down, in fact he was not sure exactly what care was given.

As a result, an unfamiliar number soon called, the other party claimed to be the Coastal Combat Team of the Fiery Furnace Island, who had received orders from the authorities to cooperate with the Chinese operation to capture a group of drug dealers and cultists.

Ye Xing smiled, "See, this is the poker face, the local Coastal Combat Team is here."

The group went to meet with the Coastal Combat Team, there were more than a thousand people from the other side, all with speedboats, loaded with guns, with submachine guns and light artillery shells on the speedboats.

Ye Xing was a little surprised to see the other side, not expecting them to look like himself, only taller and with darker skin and.

"My ancestors came from China." The combat captain called Lin Zhibin grinned and spoke in a standard Chinese language.

After exchanging pleasantries, Ye Xing began to discuss the battle.

It turned out that the Furnace Island authorities had long planned to take action against the cultists of the Doll Temple, as these cultists had affected the local economy, and only by cleaning up these feudal remnants could Furnace Island see its economy take off.

After discussing the countermeasures, Lin Zhibin frowned and reminded, "I know that this organisation, the Western Heavenly Delight, has many experts, all of whom are ancient martial artists, and our combat team is no match for them, so we need you experts to tackle the other side."

"This is naturally up to us to solve."

Ye Xing nodded down and then started to surround towards the Doll Temple.

Because they had to fight to surprise, they could only use airborne to start the capture operation.

The helicopter hovered quickly overhead and the Doll Temple below was already reacting, many of the believers didn't know what was going on, but some of the timid monks started to roll up their blankets and flee.

The operation went a bit too smoothly at first, but when Ye Xing and the others stepped onto the outskirts of the Doll Temple again, suddenly several combatants fell from above the temple, unconscious.

"There are ancient martial artists up there."

Lin Zhibin raised his gun and aimed it over the temple while looking at Ye Xing.

Ye Xing knew that he could not hide, so he left Lin Wei and Luo Xiaoyun behind, called Du Jiuniang and Qiao Baihe and entered the ground floor of the temple.

The three of them quickly arrived at the first floor, where the combat team had already surrounded the exit, with their guns pointed at each other, creating a stalemate.

The combat team did not dare to go up in a hurry, and the people above would not come down.

Ye Xing knew there was no good in a stalemate, once he let the monks of the Doll Temple spread the word, the natives would come in like a tidal wave in all directions then, a siege of tens of thousands of natives was no joke.

Ye Xing looked at Du Jiuniang and gestured.

Du Jiuniang understood and nodded her head, then took out three flying swords and threw them up towards a stairway.

The monk guarding the staircase was suddenly attacked by the flying daggers, which were extremely bizarre, and when they resisted, they would turn and fly away to attack from another angle.

The three flying daggers were like butterflies dancing around, killing the monks guarding the staircase.

When Ye Xing heard the commotion, he hurriedly rushed up, and Qiao Baihe also followed him up.

As the ice mist blew by, a monk hiding in the dark above was frozen into a block of ice, his eyes wide and stiff like a long-frozen striped fish.

Ye Xing smiled, signalling good work, and immediately rushed towards the middle of the third floor.

There was a large group of monks in the middle of the third floor at this time, and there was an old white-haired monk with a sinister face and a pair of shrewd eyes that seemed to be bulging out.

His face was full of fierceness and he was chanting various scriptures inside his mouth.

Ye Xing couldn't understand them anyway, so naturally he wouldn't be polite. The three of them lunged forward, and a large number of monks ran out and struck.

Once the two sides exchanged blows, although these monks were all ancient martial artists, they were nothing compared to Ye Xing, a Sixth Grade Master, who was a mere chicken and a dog.

One by one, the monks fell to the ground and could not get up, and with Qiao Baihe's extremely sharp ice spells, the scene was one-sided.

Ye Xing kicked the old white haired monk away, this guy spat out his breath and actually spat out a national curse, "I'll fuck your whole family."

Ye Xing was happy: "You're a monk who is still full of foul language at your age, even Buddha will have to send you to hell when he sees you."

"Bastard, do you know who you have offended?"

"I'm not afraid to offend anyone, old man, since you can speak Chinese, I won't be polite to you, back home, let's see how I'll deal with you."

"I am a resident of Fireplace Island, you have no right to take me to China."

The old white haired monk instantly got scared because the laws in the two regions were very different, within China, the maximum was the death penalty, while a place like the Fiery Furnace Island was just a dozen years in jail at most.

One was no life, the other was ten years, that one was easier, one could figure it out with one's toes.

Ye Xing dragged the old monk up and then informed the combat team downstairs to clear the battlefield.

Soon Ye Xing found a large amount of gold, silver and jewellery being searched out, the combat team members were all greedy, as if they had entered a mountain of treasure.

Ye Xing didn't care so much, the combat team was so heroic, surely not for the sake of eliminating the evil organisation of the Western Paradise, I'm afraid they were very willing to do it for the wealth here.

Lin Zhibin found Ye Xing, grinning and showing his mouth full of white teeth, then talked about the harvest this time.

Ye Xing interjected, "The old monk is the mastermind, he and a dozen others, I have to bring them all back."

"As long as you can prove that they are not residents of Fireplace Island, you can take them all away."

Lin Zhi Bin nodded his head in agreement and soon had everyone's details ascertained, and there were actually close to ten people who were all Chinese, including the old white haired monk.

All of them were taken to the airport to be transported back to China for trial when the plane arrived five hours later.

Lin Zhibin pulled Ye Xing aside and handed out a document.

Ye Xing looked at it and laughed: "I've seen more than that, you guys are too ruthless, aren't you?"

"It can't be helped, although Fireplace Island is a tourist destination, we locals have a meagre income and all rely on fighting criminals to earn a living, this doesn't affect you in any way, besides your share, we will also give it."

Ye Xing shook his head and laughed: "Forget it, we won't want it."

"Don't want it, how about this, I see quite a few rare and weird things, they should all be antiques, you guys can pick some to go."

Lin Zhibin actually wanted to pull Ye Xing down, if everyone was greedy together, there would naturally be no trouble.

Chapter 407

Ye Xing smiled and thought to himself that if he didn't take something away, this group of guys might not feel comfortable in their hearts, so he might as well pick something interesting to take away.

Ye Xing followed Lin Zhibin to the speedboat, where a group of warriors surrounded the two speedboats and stood by.

The speedboats were covered with tarpaulins, and when Lin lifted one of them, several large wooden crates were securely fastened with ropes.

Lin Zhibin lifted one of the large camphor wood boxes, Ye Xing felt uncomfortable in his heart even after looking at it, because what it contained were indeed all antiques, but almost all of them were Buddhist Dharma tools, even some of them were still made of human bones and human skin, although they were old and possessed a high collector's value, but to the general public, these things were evidence of an abusive torture, talking about history was all tears.

Ye Xing really didn't want it and rummaged through it, suddenly finding a bronze coloured sword embryo.

He pulled it out and saw that it was a short sword, about a metre long and three fingers wide, without a hilt, just a sword embryo covered in bronze green.

But as soon as he put it into his hand, he could feel the incomparable power inside, as if it contained a magic formation within it.

"This is a magic weapon!"

Ye Xing instantly thought of the origin of this object and was instantly ecstatic.

Lin Zhibin smiled, "Don't be polite with us, choose a few more items, or else we will still be said to be too greedy from the Fiery Furnace Island."

"No need, just this is enough."

Ye Xing smiled as he put away the sword embryo and turned his head back to meet Lin Wei and the others.

Both sides went directly to the island airport by speedboat, all the suspects had been controlled and boarded the plane, after Ye Xing and the others went up, the plane took off and departed back to Guangnan Provincial City.

The city of Guangnan Province was near the coastline and was the most suitable place for interrogation.

Kitano had already arranged everything and three hours later, the plane landed at the international airport in Guangnan provincial city, after which the group of cult members were all arranged to be tried.

This matter was exposed and became a sensation.

The first was a cross-border arrest, and the second was to let all outside elements understand that don't think you can be lawless abroad, once you commit a crime within China, you will be brought to justice just the same.

Meanwhile, Jiang Qin, who had just left the Fiery Furnace Island, was furious, and after reading the news, he slammed his mobile phone on the ground viciously.

"The Chinese Army Soul has to cross our Jiang family because it has a strong enough background, this time I will definitely not give up."

Jiang Qin's face was so furious that it scared everyone next to him, and they didn't dare to let out their breath.

"Tell me, have you found out the whereabouts of the Immortal Gate?"

Jiang Qin's heart was unusually sad at the thought of his beloved son's death, but his face did not change much.

"House Master, we suspect that this has nothing to do with the Immortal Gate, it could have been planted by someone."

One of the family slaves bent over, like a eunuch in ancient times, he had a full head of grey hair and long, thin, clean cheeks, and really had a bit of the taste of a chief steward of the Great House.

Jiang Qin narrowed his eyes as a man next to him stepped forward and drank, "Chief Steward Lin, are you thinking too much, the spell wounds on Young Master Chang'an's body are not the work of someone from the Immortal Sect, could there be someone else?"

"Rumour has it that Ye Xing, the one who made a big mess of Snow Mountain, the current chief commander of the Dragon Shield is a dual cultivator of immortal and martial arts, could it be him?"

The old man surnamed Lin frowned and used a questioning tone.

The man next to him continued to sneer, "He has no enmity with our Jiang family, is it necessary to kill Young Master Chang'an to plant evidence to frame the Immortal Sect? It's obvious that the family head stopped the Immortal Sect's plan last time, and that's what made the Immortal Sect take action to retaliate in anger, so who else can we turn to if not the Immortal Sect for revenge?"

"But how can it be that simple?"

Jiang Qin raised his hand and drank, "Alright, stop arguing, do you have any evidence?"

"Minion has none."

Chief Steward Lin shook his head down with a regretful expression.

"If you don't have any, then determine the location of the Immortal Gate and take it first."

Jiang Qin finished his sentence, turned his head and left.

The others went down and did as they were told, investigating the Immortal Gate, determining its location, and then beginning to retaliate.

As Chief Steward Lin left, he saw a group of Jiang Clan's sons and daughters gathered across the street, each staring at him in an unkind manner.

When he thought of these dumb and incompetent sons of the Jiang family, Chief Steward Lin just looked regretful.

"This old thing is really getting in the way of our big event, I'll tear an old bone of his apart sometime."

Jiang Shao Ming, who had argued from reason earlier, laughed coldly.

Next to him, Jiang Shaoyi laughed badly, "Third brother, once the Immortal Gate is taken down, won't those flowery beauties really help us prolong our lives?"

"If we get one of them to keep at home, we will not only prolong our lives, but also enjoy the endless pleasure of fish and water, how good would that be?"

Jiang Shao Ming was drooling as he spoke, and each of the other Jiang family's children were envious, so they naturally hated to go to war right away.

Ye Xing returned to the city of Guangnan Province, and the interrogation of those monks would naturally not require him.

Lin Wei and Luo Xiaoyun would be able to take care of this. He went to Murong Xue's villa first and hugged her as soon as he entered the house.

Murong Xue blushed a little and struggled a few times but couldn't break free: "Let go, people will still laugh at me if they see you, right?"

"Such a big villa, just the two of us, who can see it?"

Ye Xing laughed and pushed harder, Murong Xue was a bit agitated by him and hurriedly shot out a spell.

Ye Xing dodged away in fright and roared with wide eyes, "Murdering your own husband?"

"Who told you to be dishonest, I said I could not have skin-to-skin contact with you when I was cultivating the Jade Maiden Heart Sutra, but you had to spoil my cultivation."

Murong Xue grumbled and grunted.

Ye Xing laughed bitterly, then sighed, "Other people are old bachelors who stay alone, I am looking at my daughter-in-law and shedding tears, worse than an old bachelor."

"Don't make yourself sound so miserable, there are so many beautiful women around, I don't even know how many you have stolen."

Murong Xue sat on the sofa and coldly snorted.

Ye Xing was also a thief and did not dare to continue talking about this issue, and casually took out the sword embryo.

Murong Xue also felt that there was a magic formation in the sword embryo and had a surprised expression, "I heard Shangguan Lan say when I was training at the Immortal Sect that magic weapons contain magic formations and can absorb the spiritual energy of heaven and earth to generate powerful power, could it be that this bronze ancient sword is a magic weapon?"

"That's right, it contains a magic formation inside, and you can feel it when you touch it behind you."

Ye Xing nodded down and then grabbed Murong Xue's hand to touch the sword embryo.

She was full of joy, "There really is a magic formation, you plan to refine this sword?"

“Wife, if you like it, give it to you, maybe you can refine this sword and become a supreme sword immortal by then.”

“Really give it to me?”

“Of course it’s true, but there’s a price to pay.”

“What do you want? Don’t do that

Ye Xing giggled and left the villa, almost half of his body was frozen just now, but finally a kiss of fragrance was as good as he could have hoped for.

Ye Xing went to the temporary headquarters of Dragon Shield in the provincial city of Guangnan.

Now that Ye Xing had a lot of support, he could have anything he wanted, and the Dragon Shield headquarters was inside an old house.

This old house was hundreds of years old and was a protected building, but was used as the temporary Dragon Shield headquarters.

Chapter 408

There were still a lot of people in front of the old house taking pictures, after all, there are not many buildings with such a sense of age.

Ye Xing got out of the car and walked inside the old house, making a group of tourists envious.

After all, people who could live in an old house of this scale were naturally rich or noble.

Ye Xing walked into the old house and went to the garden at the back, when Lin Wei rolled her eyes at the sight of him.

“This little comrade of yours doesn’t have the right attitude, are you allowed to treat the leader like this?”

“I say, leader, you’re too testy, aren’t you? You prefer this old house to be the temporary headquarters of Dragon Shield in the provincial city of Guangnan, do you know that our department has now become an internet sensation, our people from Dragon Shield have been captured in a video and put on the internet, saying that we are some kind of special department with important relations, or else we are not qualified to work here.”

Ye Xing’s expression changed as he anxiously pursued, “Let me see the comments on the internet.”

Lin Wei took out her phone and tapped on a short video website, turning up several pages, all about this old house.

Ye Xing skimmed his lips in discontent after watching, “Shit, I can’t believe none of them got me, these people aren’t professional enough, the real big guys don’t know to take a shot either.”

Lin Wei was furious after hearing this, she thought that Ye Xing was worried about being exposed online, but she didn’t expect that she was actually excited because she didn’t get a shot of herself.

“Just wait until you get scolded by Beino.”

Lin Wei grabbed her phone and left in a huff.

Ye Xing smiled, “The little girl is quite hot, but her body is quite good.”

Lin Wei in the front blushed after hearing this, and when she thought of changing clothes in the car and being bumped into by Ye Xing, she simply wanted to twist her head and go over and strangle him.

Ye Xing walked to the interrogation room at the back, this old house was an interrogation location decades ago, there was a row of air-raid shelters at the back, both hidden and safe.

When he arrived at the interrogation door, a case officer from Dragon Shield came out and immediately saluted when he saw him.

“How’s the interrogation going?”

“Quite a few confessions have been made, and all of them have transcripts.”

Ye Xing grabbed the transcripts and looked at them, these cultists were really connected to Jiang Qin, the two sides were in a partnership, Jiang Qin provided a lot of channels for the Western Paradise, while the Western Paradise was giving his Jiang family’s company a large amount of benefits every year.

“It looks like the one surnamed Jiang is not a good person either.”

Ye Xing closed the file and let them continue the trial.

Walking outside to the office, Lin Wei was on the phone, while Luo Xiaoyun was tired for a long time and was currently sleeping on a chair.

Ye Xing walked over and stomped his foot, Luo Xiaoyun instinctively reacted by quickly getting up.

“Go back to sleep, those guys have other colleagues to then interrogate.”

Luo Xiaoyun nodded down and asked, “Does the top not dare to move the Jiang family?”

“Nothing dares not move, don’t look at Jiang Qin as a gravekeeper, but he is also a Chinese, if he really commits a crime, he has to be punished.”

Ye Xing looked unafraid, Luo Xiaoyun nodded down, then smiled and left the old house.

Suddenly, a series of gunshots came from outside the house, followed by an explosion from inside the old house.

After hiding, Ye Xing thought of Luo Xiaoyun who had just walked out and hurriedly ran outside to check.

At this moment, the outside of the house was in a mess, a large number of innocent people had been shot and wounded, and Luo Xiaoyun was nowhere to be found.

“Luo Xiaoyun, Luo Xiaoyun”

Ye Xing shouted up anxiously.

“I’m fine, hurry up and call for help.”

A figure in the distance raised his head, his face full of darkness, and was holding a little girl.

The old house was attacked, which was a provocation to the Dragon Shield.

Kitano was furious when he got the news and ordered Ye Xing to catch all the people behind the attack, not letting any of them go.

The entire city of Guangnan Province was investigated closely that day, and secret investigations were carried out at all corridors.

The attack had serious consequences, with as many as fifteen innocent people injured outside the old house and two elderly people killed on the spot, as well as two houses blown up in the old house.

But it was a hard slap in the face, the other side was so arrogant that they dared to provoke the majesty of the Dragon Shield.

In front of the room where the old house had collapsed, Ye Xing's face was gloomy as he swept a glance at all the members of the Dragon Shield, he was like an evil dragon at this moment, sweeping all his subordinates in front of him.

Like an emperor, he inspected the civil and military officials, and every one of them knew that he was furious to the extreme.

"Dragon's shield, protect the country, today someone dares to make such a big attack within the country of China, this is a slap in the face to all of us, are you angry?"

"Yes!"

Everyone shouted out one word in unison.

"I want you to find out all these bastards, among you there are hacker masters, data analysts, and even more crime trackers, I want you to find out all the clues about these people immediately, you currently have the highest authority in Guangnan Province City, you can access every Sky Eye system, you can investigate all the data, you can access all the information of people entering and leaving Guangnan Province City, increase the power, I want them to reveal their their original form."

Ye Xing waved his hand and all of them went into battle, this was their first hard battle when they joined Dragon Shield, and they were only allowed to win but not to lose.

Once they failed, Dragon Shield would become a joke, a joke that would spread throughout the country.

Lin Wei was also infected by Ye Xing and had to say that he was a leader, a general who dared to step in and cross the line when faced with a crisis.

Everyone began to analyse the surveillance and investigate the information. It only took two hours for the suspects to be identified.

It was a group of Malay individuals who had entered the country under tourist identities. These people entered in groups but clearly met up at a number of places.

Moreover, all their identity information was false and their true identity was not clear.

The group scattered and fled after the attack, but were always on the radar of the sky-eye system in the provincial city of Guangnan.

As an order went down, by eleven o'clock that night, people were already making their moves in various places.

Apart from one murderer who jumped the train and was dropped dead, all the other five were captured, plus a large quantity of arms and weapons and poisons were recovered from their luggage.

The men were escorted back to the city of Guangnan Province, and this time everyone in the Dragon Shield was excited.

When these people were handed over to the Dragon Shield people, Ye Xing had one order, no matter what method was used, to make these people explain everything before dawn.

Early the next morning, Ye Xing reported the results of the night.

Kitano was very shocked after reading it, not expecting the Western Heavenly Lot to be so arrogant, but he still had to ask the Chinese Army Spirit for instructions.

Meanwhile, somewhere in a grass hall at the foot of the Terminal South Mountain, there are luxury cars here, but these people sitting in the private room are monks and Taoists, nuns and rich businessmen.

They had gathered to celebrate yesterday's attack, and such a big slap in the face had been a good one for all the faithful.

"Everyone stop for a moment, this one was a success thanks to our Master Hatoma's planning and a good slap in the face of the Dragon Shield."

A big fat rich merchant got up with a red face and raised his cup in compliment towards a slightly chubby monk in front of him.

Master Hatoma smiled and got up proudly, "Don't worry everyone, I won't let Dragon Shield have a good time if it offends our congregation, there is a good show ahead."

Chapter 409

After Ye Xing finished his video conference with Bei Ye inside the old house, the corners of his mouth arced up, revealing a cold smile.

At present, according to the results of the interrogation, plus the information mined by the technical talents from various aspects, the distribution of the forces of the cult organization Western Paradise within China had been accurately grasped.

These people included ancient martial arts clans, Buddhist outcasts, and even unscrupulous businessmen.

They colluded with the Western Paradise for no other reason than to seek their own interests.

Whether it is domestic or foreign timber smuggling, or various kinds of cultural relics trafficking, or criminal activities such as money laundering and gambling, they are all sources of profiteering.

The Western Paradise, as a carrier, gives these guys a chance to make money.

Once this carrier is attacked, these people are naturally unwilling to give up the profits in their hands and still want to make a final counterattack.

“It’s time to settle these rubbish.”

Ye Xing got up and walked to the meeting, there were a lot of talents in Dragon Shield, the topic was thrown out, everyone was like a school of fish fighting for food, they started to keep saying all kinds of strategies, there was a slow progress, and there was also a thunderbolt from the sky.

The group talked for an hour and finally settled on a method and immediately started to act.

Ye Xing took Lin Wei and Luo Xiaoyun to the Terminal South Mountain Range.

Along the way, the three barely communicated with each other.

Luo Xiaoyun finally had time to contact Murong Xue, the two had been BFFs before, but now there was obviously much less to talk about.

Murong Xue was no longer the same female president Xue’er as before, becoming cold and irrepressible, as if she would focus all her energy on cultivation for the rest of her life.

This made it a bit hard for Luo Xiaoyun, her good friend had been forcibly taken away for so long, and after being rescued so easily, her personality had actually changed drastically, and the two had become distant from their previous close relationship.

Yesterday’s chat was less than two minutes back and forth, and Luo Xiaoyun could clearly feel Murong Xue’s icy attitude towards her.

“Xue’er, I wish you hadn’t suffered all those grievances in your life, how nice to be happy.”

Luo Xiaoyun started to sob when she thought of the hard part.

Suddenly someone next to her touched her and Luo Xiaoyun hurriedly wiped her eyes.

“I’m fine, just thinking of something uncomfortable on my mind.”

“Cover me with the quilt, I want to rest a bit.”

Ye Xing’s unconcerned voice rang out.

Luo Xiaoyun twisted her head to see that Ye Xing had already put the seat down and his whole body was lying comfortably in it, without even looking at himself, and he was not looking at himself to persuade him because he was uncomfortable, instead, he was treating himself like a servant.

“This hateful stinker!”

Luo Xiaoyun gritted her teeth in anger, but in the end, she could only obediently cover Ye Xing with a blanket.

The plane finally landed, but it was already late into the night.

Anyang belonged to the ancient capital, and when Ye Xing and the others walked out of the terminal, there were already SUVs parked on the road outside.

The three of them got in and set off for the Ancient Capital Hotel in Anyang to check in.

This place was still dozens of kilometres away from the Terminal Mountain Range, and it was too late in the day to rush there, after all, they still had to wait for the other technicians of the Dragon Shield to start their deployment before they could do so.

Inside the large hotel, originally one person to a room, Luo Xiaoyun had just finished her shower when there was a knock on the door.

She wondered and walked to the door to ask who it was.

“Crying little girl, it’s me.”

Luo Xiaoyun listened with a hard face and opened the door to her room, and it was really the annoying Ye Xing.

“What are you doing here?”

“The leader inspected the room to see if you did anything bad.”

Ye Xing said and walked into the room, Luo Xiaoyun was wearing hotel pajamas and her intimate clothes were on the bed, hurried over and gave them all a hiding.

Ye Xing swept around, sat down and smiled.

Luo Xiaoyun urged up, “Finished reading, you can go now, right?”

“I’m the leader, haven’t you heard the saying? The leader can sleep there if he wants to.”

“Get lost, I don’t have time to joke with you.”

“Because of what happened to my wife?”

“No.”

Ye Xing got up and smiled, “Not to mention you, even I, my husband, have a generation gap with her, hey, sometimes I really hate to give her a break.”

“Bragging, you’d give up?”

Luo Xiaoyun sneered, she was well aware of Ye Xing’s feelings for Xue’er, saying that he would take the initiative to divorce was tantamount to a nightmare.

“What’s there to give up? What man can stand it when a wife doesn’t do her duty?”

“What obligations?”

“To live as husband and wife. Do you want me to show you?”

“Come on, the more you talk, the more outrageous it gets.”

Luo Xiaoyun’s face turned red.

Ye Xing got depressed, "So tell me who is worse off?"

"Haha, that's right, a goddess like Xue'er shouldn't have anything to do with you, once I hear you say that, I'll be able to sleep well tonight instead."

"You are also too inhuman, I came to comfort you with good intentions and you actually rubbed salt into my wounds."

"Thank you, hurry up and go, or I'll call someone."

Luo Xiaoyun smiled and gave the expulsion order.

Ye Xing was kicked out of the room, only to turn his head and see Lin Wei.

Lin Wei turned her head away disdainfully and Ye Xing got depressed.

As a result, just after he returned to the room, Lin Wei came running again and said anxiously in a low voice, "The technical team has sent a message that two wealthy businessmen are spending money at a nearby nightclub, and will be taking people to the hotel."

"Catch."

Ye Xing nodded his head and left.

The two of them went downstairs and got into the car, driving directly to another hotel a few kilometres away.

This time it was just the two of them, no one called, for fear of alerting the snake.

Arriving in front of an international hotel chain, the two waited up again, and soon a message came from the technical team.

Lin Wei and Ye Xing got into the lift, which turned out to require a room card to activate.

Lin Wei took out her mobile phone, pressed it a few times, it was close to the sensor and instantly the lift started and went straight up to the 16th floor.

Ye Xing looked quite powerful and asked curiously.

"With your skills, do you still need all this little technology?"

Lin Wei bristled and said one sentence, and stopped explaining.

Ye Xing was so angry that he wanted to kick her hard in the back, but had to put up with it for the success of the operation.

Lin Wei walked to one of the rooms and once again put her phone towards the sensor area, the door was quickly cracked open.

When the two entered the house, it was dark and everywhere was clean and very tidy, which meant that none of the wealthy businessmen had come to move in yet.

"Is it too early?"

“Not too early, the other party with bodyguards, once the frontal arrest, it is easy to alarm the snake, then make all kinds of news is not good, enter the house, wait for the other party to enter the house, directly arrest and take away, this is without any influence.”

Lin Wei finished looking at the house, called on Ye Xing and went to the study to hide.

As a result, the sound of footsteps did come from outside the house, followed by the door of the room being opened again, not expecting that it was not a rich businessman who came in, but a group of women instead.

These warblers were in a large group, all dressed in cool clothes, dressed in a demonic manner, and started to change their clothes as soon as they entered the room.

Lin Wei was dumbfounded, and Ye Xing’s eyes went straight.

Luckily, the suite was big enough that these beauties changed up in the living room and did not enter the bedroom.

“You’re here to catch someone, no being that nasty.”

“It’s not like I’m the one who has to look, don’t you look too?”

Chapter 500

Lin Wei’s face was red, her breathing heavy, her heart thumping, she didn’t expect to see such a pompous and extravagant scene, are all these rich bastards nuts?

They are really not afraid of dying in bed, and their strength is exhausted.

She took a look at Ye Xing, her eyes did not even blink, looking at it with great interest, really nasty and nasty.

The beauties changed their clothes and actually all turned into Christmas girls, all dressed up in Christmas attire, plus there were waiters pushing in all kinds of drinks and pastries and food.

Kebabs, turkeys and giant lobsters were all available.

It was like a party in the house, but the rich businessman hadn’t shown up yet.

Suddenly, someone walked into the bedroom.

Lin Wei glances at Ye Xing and one of them hides under the bed and the other goes to the cloakroom.

Ye Xing can suffer in bed, the two girls who came jumped straight up on the bed, not knowing why they were so high?

Finally the two stopped jumping and the sounds on the bed became thick with breathing.

Ye Xing slowly poked his head out from under the bed and actually saw the two girls on the bed hugging each other, madly passionate

Lin Wei couldn't stand looking at them anymore and ran out of the cloakroom and knocked the two Christmas girls out.

"What are you doing?"

Ye Xing questioned in a frightened whisper.

"Are you getting in the way of your interest in continuing to watch?"

"The rich merchants aren't even here, so aren't you just spooking the snakes by knocking them out?"

"Hmph, take a good look at their faces, and the marks on their necks."

Lin Wei pointed out with a huff.

Ye Xing scanned over with a critical gaze, these two chicks had red cheeks and black lips, and most crucially, they actually had tattoos of the human face design of the Western Paradise on their necks.

"It looks like these women are all female believers controlled by the Western Heavenly Delight."

"That's right, these people are even more terrifying than we thought, the capture is cancelled for now, there will always be fallen fish just by the two of us."

Ye Xing nodded in agreement and then opened the window with Lin Wei to go out.

Ye Xing was not afraid, but Lin Wei was afraid, this was the seventeenth floor, although she had trained for a long time, but she did not climb through the window outside the seventeenth floor in the middle of the night, it was too dangerous.

The result was not expected, the sound of men laughing came from the living room, and there were quite a few people coming.

Ye Xing frowned and urged, "Hurry up."

Lin Wei dared to flip out the window and the two of them walked along the edge of the bulge that was only half a palm's width.

The scariest part was that it was windy at night and there was no longer a good place to hold onto with your hands off the edge of the window.

Lin Wei's legs trembled with fear, but she was unwilling to admit defeat and just didn't say a word.

Ye Xing turned his head and asked, "Do you want me to help you?"

"No, you go first, I'll be right there."

Lin Wei stubbornly walked forward, suddenly her feet slipped and her hands couldn't grab anything, instantly she was weightless, as if she had fallen into an abyss of ten thousand feet.

"It's over, I shouldn't have gambled on this."

Lin Wei had indescribable regrets in her heart when suddenly, Ye Xing jumped down and grabbed her wrist with one hand, while the other hand grabbed the edge of the bump next to her.

In a flash of lightning, Ye Xing completed the rescue, which could be said to be quite thrilling, once any step was not done properly, he was bound to fall down with her and shatter to pieces.

“Don’t let go.”

Ye Xing finished slowly tugging the two men with one arm towards the top.

Soon he reached the edge of the bulge, and Lin Wei was almost in his arms.

Lin Wei was already sweating, she was really scared just now, if she hadn’t been trained, she would have been bawling.

“Don’t be afraid, hold on to me, we’ll go out together.”

When Ye Xing finished, Lin Wei didn’t resist and wrapped her arms around his body, burying her head in her arms.

Ye Xing followed the raised edge towards the front, his hands kept picking at those wall gaps, these ten or so metres were a complete river of heaven to him.

Eventually he carried Lin Wei and tumbled into a room.

The room was empty and they both fell to the floor laughing.

After a few minutes, the two men gathered themselves and left the room, going back downstairs to the car.

“Thanks for saving me earlier, but if you hadn’t caught me, you would have had to take a life too.”

“You’re my teammate, I couldn’t have watched you fall to your death.”

“It was my fault for having preconceptions about you and not choosing to trust my teammate when it came to things like that earlier.”

“Good to know, I really didn’t mean to peek at you changing before, I swear on my character.”

“Is your character worth that much?”

“It’s alright, after all, I’m not too interested in little buns.”

Lin Wei spat blood in anger as the two drove back to the hotel.

Early the next morning, the three of them, Ye Xing, set off for a villa within Anyang City.

Upon entering the villa, there was a group of people tied up on the ground, once Ye Xing walked over and inspected them, almost all of their necks and backs had the human face pattern of the Western Paradise.

“No one else was alerted, right?”

Ye Xing asked with a twist of his head.

The members of Dragon Shield all shook their heads down, as the villa was too remote, plus it was convenient to move late last night, so the first team of Dragon Shield struck decisively.

So far, no information had leaked out.

Ye Xing told them to start interrogating, as there were many people involved and they had to think of a foolproof way to make an arrest.

The Western Paradise was advertised early in the local area and was already well established, but they were very targeted in developing their followers.

It is almost always the rich, the young, or the women.

The rich can provide the money, the young can provide the labour, and the women are the lubricant that keeps the relationship between the three going.

To put it bluntly, after these women were brainwashed, they would become just those Christmas girls inside last night's Nine O'Clock, eventually becoming nothing more than tools to control people.

Ye Xing demanded the arrest of the head, and based on the statements of the group inside the villa, it was almost certain that their organiser was a rich man in his forties called Xu Yang.

This Xu Yang not only had an industrial business, but was also a local celebrity, and apart from him, there were several local entrepreneurs.

The majority of the believers are in fact located in three clubs, which were also funded by Xu Yang and others.

These clubs are pretty much about brainwashing rich people, having women to brainwash, and ultimately asking for money and people.

Over the years, because of the success of the brainwashing, few victims have gone to reflect on the situation.

Because it wasn't aimed at ordinary people, the different sides involved led to some people going deeper into it to enjoy their greed and couldn't extricate themselves.

What Ye Xing did not expect was that a monk who called himself Master Hatoma contacted him before he had even made his move.

The two sides agreed to meet at a mountain resort outside Anyang City.

Ye Xing took Lin Wei and Luo Xiaoyun with him, and the three of them went to meet with the other side.

It turned out that the other party was quite tall in scale, with a water of black-clad bodyguards inside and out, many of whom were strong and powerful practitioners.

When he entered the interior of the villa, Ye Xing also saw many ancient martial artists, including monks and Taoist priests, and two full-figured master ladies.

Ye Xing was all happy to enter a gathering hall.

Master Hatoma, with his bald head and white beard, turned his head and smiled as he surveyed.
