

Chapter 401: 1 day use and 1 night use

May 28th, the second-story manor in Menfila, working day.

“Hey, why don’t you join Beldette?”

Eharin stood on tiptoe and squatted on the statue of the Vela Paladin, as if showing her outstanding sense of balance: “Even if you leave Memphis, where do you think you can escape? The latest “Family List” released by the Gospel, you Offended nine of them; the imperial royal family is looking for you, and the red caps are waiting for you to get points; your contract with An Nan must be an unequal slave contract, she is the kind of woman who can get you a inch... you Either become dog meat or continue to be a dog, then why not be a dog for Beldette? Our welfare is so good!”

Ya corrected the ditch where dust accumulates most easily in the wiping of the statue, so he didn’t pat aside the hem of her drooping skirt: “But you have to work overtime!”

“I can give you a double break!” Falin said earnestly: “Take two full days off in a month! One day more than others! You can take one day off and spend one day!”

Gan, I took two days off in one month before crossing, and two days off in one month after crossing, then I am not crossing in vain! ?

And how did the people of Memphis make it possible to take out loans for only one day off? This consumption cycle efficiency is too high, it actually broke the workplace truth that “work overtime can make you unable to spend money”!

“But can you keep me?” Ah Xiu asked, “I am a wanted criminal now.”

“The Gospel.” Falin said with her face in her hands, “I can directly consume the Gospel points and ask the Gospel to delete your wanted warrant.”

“But isn’t the wanted order issued by the empire?” Ash asked in shock: “Can the gospel directly control the empire? No, it should be said that the gospel can directly affect the operation of society?”

“In the hands of ordinary people, in the hands of magicians, and in our hands, gospel points have different values.” Falyin said: “Ordinary people can only use gospel points to buy short-term happiness, and magicians can exchange gospel points for them. A powerful force, and in our hands, the Gospel Points are the universal energy.”

“Gospel points are very similar to currency. When you have currency in circulation to the level of a rich and enemy country, then you can influence prices, leverage social machinery, trigger mass incidents, and even literally “enemy countries”; although gospel points cannot Circulation, but the universal wishing machine of the gospel itself simplifies your’consumption route’ to the extreme. For example, if you want to buy a chocolate ball, you have to know where to buy it, then buy it through the media, and wait until you get it, but the gospel...”

Eharin called out the gospel, and then put out an extra bag of cookie and chocolate * in his left hand: “Although it is expensive, it does omit all the steps...Would you like to eat it?”

“Give me a taste unconditionally.” Ya Xiu replied perfectly.

Eharyn gave him a bad look and put a chocolate ball into his mouth: “Although it must be very costly, Beldette can still do things like eliminating your wanted order.”

“Since it’s so powerful, why doesn’t the Red Hat directly use the Gospel Points to catch me?”

“The gospel can change the weather, bring back the dead, and distort reality, but it can’t fix the ever-changing hearts of people, nor can it directly gain people’s privacy.” Eharyn threw the chocolate * in her hand: “For example, these chocolate balls, maybe. It came from a certain store, and the gospel was just sent to me and paid for it by the way, instead of controlling a certain chef to make it for me in an instant.”

“The same is true for changing the wanted order. The Gospel will not delete everyone’s thoughts of pursuing you, but it will directly block the imperial wanted order, cancel the reward for grabbing you, and block your related news in various public opinion channels. From the results Cancel your wanted.”

“So from this point of view, the royal family of Yisu doesn’t really care about you too much.” Ealin said while eating chocolate * for a hundred years: “If they are really cruel, they will stick to you wherever you can see. The wanted warrants provide a reward that is generous enough to distort the minds of the people-if the temptation is great enough, I cannot suppress the greed of the people of Memphis.”

“In my opinion, the wanted order against you is just for the empire to appease the major forces to show its attitude, and it didn’t pay much attention to you. The identity requires Nabistine to catch you, a criminal who is still so arrogant in the last days, and there are at least a dozen leaders who have complained with me.”

Asia’s spiritual light flashed: “That is to say, you can operate in reality, so that other leaders don’t hate me, then the empire will cancel the wanted order?”

“It is indeed possible,” said Falin, “As long as you sign a word on this piece of paper...”

“Marriage registration?”

“It’s an IOU, and the amount is actually not very large. It’s just one hundred million gold coins. For the deposit, I only need 90% of your thinking ability. Anyway, you can’t use that much.”

“No!” Ya Xiu shook his head: “Why does Igula have such a good treatment, I have to mortgage 90% of my brain?”

“Yeah...” Eharin groaned, “If you want Igola’s treatment, it’s not that you can’t negotiate...”

“Huh?” Ah Xiu was startled: “You want to marry me too?”

Lan Mao suddenly took out a gold coin from the bag and put it into the chest in the collar of Ya Xiu, “This is compensation.” Then he smashed Ya Xiu’s head with a hand knife.

“How dare you humiliate me like this...” Ah Xiu gritted his teeth and collected the gold coins.

“Let’s not mention that I don’t like your original ecological inferior gene that has not been miraculously screened. Patriarch Beldat has never married for life.” Falin snorted, “Ah, but I also know that facing me. It’s inevitable for you to have this kind of wishful thinking—”

“Fortunately not, so that the child will at least not blame me for the height problem in the future...”

Seeing Falyin’s expressionless face transforming nearly a ton of gold coins, and slamming them to the ground, Ya Xiu raised her head stiffly, “Can you let me wear a helmet?”

“Do you think there will be such a good thing?”

“Blue-haired goblin...I’m not talking about you!”

When Falyin got up from Ya Xiu with a refreshing spirit, Ya Xiu, who was stubborn and stubborn, took the gold coin into his arms.

Because most of the Shulings are replaced by two wings, and the fact that Ya Xiu fights in the virtual realm too often these days, the Shulings who work hard and overtime are hungry fast, and his gold coins are not enough to feed Shulings. It was only when the big capitalist Eharin cheated some money in his hands that he solved his urgent need.

Ah Xiu could have asked An Nan for money, but An Nan had to show that he possessed Shu Ling, and then supply it according to the number of Shu Ling. If Ya Xiu frequently asks for money, An Nan will ask him why Shu Ling is used so frequently, whether he has gone to pay public food, whether he is hiding his own business from his boss, and always feels that if he continues like this, sooner or later, he will expose the exploration of the virtual world. , So try not to ask An Nan for money.

“So you still refuse to join Beldit?” Ealin said, “I will give you a very loose contract.”

“You’ve been harassing me for several days.” Ya Xiu said, “In fact, compared to me, isn’t Harvey the best option for you? He will inherit your ancestors in the future and dug your family’s grave. ”

“His troubles are really too great. I actually didn’t even think about recruiting him from the beginning.” Falin shrugged, “As for the inheritance of the necromantic angel... it is the inheritance of the angels, not the inheritance of the family. The image in the image Harvey is right. Beldette is not qualified to inherit the angelic heritage at all. I only need to defend the dominant faction and Beldette.”

“I only need you and Ikola.” Eharin looked at him: “Say your requirements, I don’t believe that Beldette can’t satisfy your appetite!”

“Anyway, the treatment is worse than that of Igola.” A Xiu moistened the rag and continued to wipe the statue. Although he had just been ravaged by the hostess, he still had to work as a little deacon.

“If you die and don’t let it go...” Eharin hesitated: “No problem, I can promise you!”

“Didn’t you say you can’t get married? Oh, I see, we can only be lovers?”

“Fart! I just think you are actually quite suitable for Anfil.”

Yaxiu was shocked: “Wait~www.mtnovel.com~ But isn’t Anfil having a passionate relationship with Igola now? You want me to steal Igola’s lover?”

“Anfil is not the only one who has a lover.” Falrin looked at him seriously: “In fact, think about it carefully, you and Igola, a clever and an idiot, a cold and cheerful, an exquisite and a rough, and a daily use. For night use, it’s just right to marry home together.”

“Who is for daily use and who is for night use... Forget it.” Ah Xiu said helplessly: “Can you just give me a clause other than giving away my wife?”

“Sure enough, you just want to know the contract between Igola and us.” Falyin said softly, “I knew you were playing me.”

“Who said that if your terms are good enough, then I am definitely willing!”

“If you are so worried about Igola, and don’t want Igola to stay in Beldit, why didn’t you interrupt their date that night?” Falien bent over to look at Yaxiu at work: “My original plan was to hope you succeed. Make trouble, make Igola hate you, completely rely on our side-otherwise you think the remote control is really so easy to throw out?”

“You owe an apology to Harvey who was trampled by you!”

Ya Xiu said in a huff: “I just think Ikola is smarter than me. Since he thinks it’s okay, why should I make my own claim? And...”

“What if you treat him sincerely?”

Falrin was insatiable and enticed: “Yes, since even Igola, a smart person, would like to join us, why would you refuse to follow along?”

Ah Xiu carried the bucket to another statue, wrung out the rag and continued to work.

“Because he didn’t call me together.”

The cult leader shrugged: “Maybe he thinks I will have a better future with Miss An Nan?”

Chapter 402: Fraudsters are indeed very rare in the gospel

Yaxiu didn’t notice, and Falyin’s expression suddenly became very strange, but it was fleeting: “In other words, unless Igola personally comes to persuade you, will you not join us?”

“If you have to marry me...” Ah Xiu muttered, “It’s not that I can’t think about it...”

“Monster!” Falin snorted coldly, “Speaking of which, you are almost saving enough for the ransom, right?”

“Well, thanks to the high-paying jobs these days, it’s all the blessings that Beldit brought us.” Ya Xiu raised his eyebrows: “You want to lie to me for consumption again? No way, I took it from you last time. The ten small videos I bought are enough for me to watch for a year. You may not know that, unlike watching big videos, watching small videos is very exhausting. You can’t continue to seduce me in this regard.”

“Why don’t it be the other way around, if you don’t buy my junk goods, I will send those ten small images and the news of your purchase to An Nan.”

A Xiu was sweating and forced to calm down: “I will delete it now, and I will tell An Nan when I go back, my conscience finds that turning back is the shore!”

As he called out the gospel, he hovered his finger on it, and didn’t press it for a long time. Falin blinked: “You delete it.”

“I don’t think I can be threatened by a profiteer like you,” Ya Xiu said righteously, “I will be mixed doubles by sisters An Nan!”

“... Don’t worry, I don’t think I can ruin my goodwill because of someone like you.” Falin shook her head and turned to leave: “You have offended me and refused to go.” If you die and refuse to be a dog, there is no shop in Monfila that will sell you things.”

“Unless you are attending Ikola’s wedding, don’t expect me to step into Monfila in the future!”

Ah Xiu snorted, wringing out the rag severely, and when he continued to wipe the statue, he saw Falin standing on the statue again at some point.

“Are you really unwilling to join Beldette?”

Falin's voice at this time was not as arrogant as in the past, her tone was calm, and there was even a trace of request.

Ah Xiu was silent for a moment, did not answer, just continued to work.

Ms. Beldit jumped down and left, until she disappeared in the corner of the corridor.

The cult leader glanced at her elongated shadow and recalled An Nan's words in his heart:

"When we save enough for the ransom, it's also when Bel Dette acted on us."

.....

...

"They are almost saving enough for the ransom, it's time to do it."

In the office full of portraits, Igola sat opposite Eharyn and calmly said his suggestions.

Lan Mao, who was silent for a long time, said, "Can't you really recruit them?"

"The goal of An Nan and Panji is the wish of God, you can't give them the price they demand; As for Harvey, even if you are willing to risk offending the whole gospel to keep him, he himself has a strong tendency to self-destruct. He will never stay for profit, unless you can bring him a more splendid death prospect-at this point, Beldette is indeed less attractive than a funeral."

"Lis and Ya Xiu are highly bound. Since he doesn't recruit Ya Xiu, Liz will naturally not stay."

"Then you go and let Ah Xiu stay." Falin said, "He will definitely listen to you—"

“In our original agreement, the only condition I put forward was that I and Asia could only keep one.” The fraudster said, “I don’t care about the others, but if Asia stays, then I will go. Our agreement It was written off.”

“Why?” Eharin was confused: “I thought you had some grudges with him...but he believed in you so much, why didn’t you keep him with him?”

“Because he believes in me, I can’t stay with him anymore.”

Igola fiddled with her hair: “Do you know what occupation I am in Blood Moon? I am a social engineer, or a fraudster, but this occupation may be rare in the Gospel... A fraudster who specializes in deceiving others was caught Trust, don’t you think it’s funny?”

“What’s even more funny is that I really won’t lie to him.”

“Although blood moon education is full of dross, there are also essences.” The fraudster said: “All the relationships that make you worry will pollute you”, “All the relationships that make you wrong will hurt you”, “All the things that make you change Relationships will dominate you” ...Personality freedom is the foundation of everything. ”

“If I continue to stay with Ya Xiu, I will no longer be me, or more directly—”

“Too close to the sun, the wax wing will melt.”

The fraudster stared at Eharin: “So you understand, it was not Beldette who chose me, but I chose Beldette. I was so overwhelmed by the night that I bought the wrong ticket and got on the wrong car. , Experienced a wrong journey.”

“But it’s not that you have to sit down to the terminal after you buy the tickets. It’s time for me to get off. And I also need you to crash this train into a mess, so I can’t leave any thoughts.”

Eharin sighed, “Is there no other way?”

“Isn’t this your original plan?” Igola said: “The contract only stipulates that you must shelter the funeral office. You are not allowed to instruct, guide, or indirectly disclose secrets in any way, but there is a loophole in this contract: The members of the funeral office can voluntarily leak the secrets. And as long as the funeral party actively leaks the secrets, then the contract will end without incident, and you will no longer be responsible for the funeral.”

“You never thought about keeping the contract from the beginning. You just wanted to stabilize An Nan and the others for the time being, then use your financial resources to buy a traitor, and then use the constraints of the contract to trap them in Beldit to ensure that there is nothing wrong with it.”

“How can you feel so sentimental now?” The fraudster couldn’t help laughing: “Blood Saint crying for a fake good-hearted corpse?”

“...After all, An Nan and I are former partners~www.mtnovel.com~ If they are willing to join Beldette, I won’t get to this point.” Falin said calmly: “Right, you have a follow-up Has An Nan talked about it?”

“No.”

At this time there was a knock on the door outside, and Igola stood up: “Anfil is here, forgive me for my unaccompaniment.”

“Don’t use your ghost tricks on my sister.”

“While you are still alive, you won’t.” The fraudster said: “I will contact Sennheiser, the firm, the Red Hat and other forces tonight, and tell them the news of Ash and others, and then...”

“The nightmare that has enveloped me for many days will come to an end.”

Seeing Igola’s back, the blue-haired girl was lost in thought. When she heard her sister talking and laughing with Igola, she called out the gospel, and consumed points to ask:

“Is there a lie in what Igola Borkin said just now? If so, which one is a lie?”

Gospel: "There are no lies."

Eharin pondered for a moment, and then she suddenly realized:

"The fraudster is indeed very rare in the gospel..."

...

Fan Mula, Patriarch Sennheiser's Office.

"Nona, inform the other heraldic patriarchs to send out elite combat technicians to form a raid team to expedition to Memphis."

The female elf next to him nodded coldly: "Should I lead the team?"

"Do not."

Qinna sitting on the chair overlooked the white misty city, her fingertips gently brushing her lips.

"Axiu Sennheiser is the guarantee of the continuity of the family, and I will personally lead the team to capture them back."

Chapter 403: I dare to scold the mayor, do you dare to scold the patriarch?

May 30th, at 9:30 pm, because it is the rush hour, the traffic in Monferra, as bright as daylight, is constantly flowing.

The captain of Monfera's Red Riding Hood and Orc wizard Sangilt was rubbing his face.

This is his bad habit. When he is nervous, he will rub his nose instead of nose and eyes instead of eyes. It may have been learned from the tricolor cat at home when he was a child. The crumbs from his palms and face seem to take away the anxiety in his heart.

He glanced at the gospel book, and the third gospel list has not been updated yet. I don't know whether it will be updated today or tomorrow-because there is the 31st in May, it is possible for the list to be updated in two days in the future.

If you want to postpone the list in the future, it will even be postponed to 23:59 on the 31st.

"Captain." With a reminder from the red hat behind, Sangilt raised his head and saw a Red Riding Hood elf who was not inferior to him walked forward.

"Listen to my actions, you will have your share of the afterthought; if you do your own way, you will have the coffin afterwards."

The Red Hat of Monfera's head snake was actually threatened in this way, but the orc just rubbed his nose and nodded repeatedly: "The commander-in-chief of this battle is Captain Sennheiser. If Captain Sennheiser is uneasy, you can send someone to supervise our department."

"Okay." Qin Na was not polite, and sent a Vatican Red Riding Hood over to let Monfera Red Riding Hood hand over the control of Yuheng Boots. Seeing that his subordinates were looking at him, Sangil nodded characteristically, beckoning everyone to shock.

Yuheng boots are the standard equipment used by the Red Hat to move and move. In order to use this equipment, the Red Hat requires at least one year of training. In addition, this thing is really much easier to use than the virtual wing. Therefore, almost every Red Hat is a Swift-level air combatant. By. Once the Yuheng boots are forcibly closed, the red hat loses 70% of its combat power, and at the same time it falls into the flesh and waits for rescue.

Gaining control of their Yuheng Boots, Qin Na can turn them back into primitive creatures that can only use two legs to drive on at any time. But no one was unhappy because of this, not even Sangilt. After all, he was only performing official duties, and the group of people in front of him were rushing for revenge.

Sennheiser, Vastino, Mercury, Roland, Kethrie... even if they are not as good as Beldette's absolute control over Memphis, but in their own city, they are absolutely the same. The gospel family that straddles the political, commercial and military realms and shares the world with the Yisu royal family!

However, such a strong family will be turned into a group of walking dead by necromancers in the future, and they have too many reasons to cut the grass and root. Sangilt is just a tax alchemist who eats tax rice, and there is no need to offend them.

Although Sangilt is a wingman, he came from a proletarian family, or the entire Memphis has only three classes: negative equity, proletariat, and patrimony. His orc father and goblin mother did not leave him a child's legacy. He went to travel when he was in his forties and did not do any work. However, when Sangilt wandered until he was twenty years old, he succeeded from nothing. After struggling to get into debt and becoming a glorious negative equity, Bel Dette will have to be a beast for the next forty years.

That's right, proletarians are already considered to be the middle class in Memphis, enough to defeat 99% of the citizens. Generally speaking, only retirees who have paid off their debts in their 50s and 60s are eligible to join this class.

As for who the Xian family property is, there is no need to say more. If you say it, you will deduct the mental damage fee for violation of the labor service contract. Although Sangilt lived in a house built by Beldette, ate food produced by Beldette, used machines produced by Beldette, and even bought the magic spirit of Beldette's platform, this did not prevent him from scolding Beldette in his heart. A few words, I have to curse a few words to refresh my mind every day before going to work.

Thinking of this, Sangilt looked at Van Mula's red hat with a little pity in his eyes: I dare to scold Mayor Beldette in my heart, can you scold your patriarch in my heart?

There are other magicians who rushed over by Pi Dian Pi Dian, who had to rush to Monferra overnight for the so-called future of the family. They were simply puppets controlled by the family.

Looking at them, the superiority of the Monferans emerged spontaneously—since! Depend on!

If the key word of Van Mu La is happiness, then the key word of Monfilla is freedom. They are not ignorant of the consequences of borrowing, nor that their thinking abilities will be shared, but based on research and observations, they all feel that compared with the life of sweet and bitter first, life of sweetness and bitterness is much better.

More importantly, all of this was chosen by them, and no one forced them. If you don't want it, you can go to another city and start again. Even as long as you can resist the temptation to consume in advance, you can live a normal life in Monferra without working overtime.

Compared with these out-of-towners whose lives have been prescribed by the gospel, family, and environment since they were born, the people of Memphis feel that they have real freedom.

Sangilt had to join the operation only because of the news of the wanted man, out of dedication. He is not interested in the ranking of points, let alone the future of the gospel—he will be dead 50 years later, even if the gospel is invaded by the ichthyosaurs, it is still a problem for him. It is better to think about which restaurant to go to at noon tomorrow.

But obviously other people didn't think so, and they even started arguing about the distribution of the spoils. Sangilt rubbed his nose. As a Second Wing Mage, he was completely speechless here. There were already five Sanctuary Mages on the scene, of which there were two Captains in the Red Caps, one of them was Clio of Crying Red Riding Hood. Secretary and 'Ghost Red Riding Hood' Qin Na.

As for why he can become the captain of the Red Hat captain in a first-tier city with a mere two-winged warrior, it is naturally because Monfilla has no high-level combat power at all, and...

Unlike all other cities, Memphis's true defense has nothing to do with the Red Hat—both externally and internally.

Soon, the outsiders finally discussed the distribution strategy, in simple terms: each has its own ability, but no dead hands are allowed.

It seems that except for Clios's red hat, everyone else wants to get alive.

When they looked over, Sangilt knew it was time to work. He rubbed his face and took a deep breath: "Please follow me to freight elevator No. 23."

The whistleblower who sent the information, besides providing information on the location of Yaxiu and others, also mentioned the most important point: Bel Dette would shelter the funeral office in accordance with the contract. Therefore, once the pursuers are exposed to Beldette's vision, whether Beldette likes it or not, they will definitely use various means to transfer them. Therefore, if they want to capture Ashul Harvey, they must act secretly and vigorously.

And if you want to sneak into Beldit Manor in secret, you can only take the No. 23 freight elevator to the second-floor city, only the monitoring equipment there is temporarily damaged-the Gospel provides them with a top-secret map of action.

With the employee card, dozens of elite technicians took the freight elevator to the warehouse on the overhead floor. According to the informant's information, both Yaxiu and Harvey are working overtime in the * area tonight, so their plan is simple: raid Beldit, take them away, and go home for training.

As for the authenticity of information, there is no need to consider: the gospels make judgments on their behalf, and they only need to listen to the gospel.

It seemed that the servants were all resting, and the warehouse was empty. Sangilt walked in the front to avoid the boxes with "valuables", and the sense of violation in his heart grew more and more. strong.

When the informant was received yesterday, Sangilt was wondering if the informer was Beldette's. Although according to the informant, Beldit cannot reveal the secrets of the funeral office in any way, but there must be some evasive traps in this contract.

It's just that there is a big doubt here: why does Beldit do this?

Can't afford a funeral office?

Impossible, the food that Monfila wasted every day can feed 10,000 funeral offices.

The funeral office offended Beldit, so he wanted to kill someone with a knife?

Although there is a possibility, isn't Beldette even a group of out-of-town technicians able to rub and squeeze it?

Bel Dette planned to sell the funeral office from the beginning?

Impossible. If selling is the first option, then why should Beldette sign an asylum contract with the funeral office?

The most important thing is... Sangilt glanced at the combined team behind, every magician is an elite of the elite, and there is even a sanctuary magician leading the team.

There are too many outsiders.

Bel Dette has so many channels to sell the funeral office, why choose the most dangerous one? Didn't they know that leaking secrets to the major families would attract everyone to gather in Monfila? Don't you know that Harvey is the source of the disaster that Wanfu refers to? Don't you know the angelic heritage of their family—

Ding Dong!

The people who set up the information reminder immediately opened the gospel book and got the latest news from the whistleblower:

"Members of the funeral office have already learned that outsiders have invaded Beldit Manor by asking about the gospel books and are preparing to flee."

After verifying that the information was correct, Qin Na immediately said: "We have no time, we must act immediately!"

Sangil nodded: "Then let's speed up the pace—"

"Don't use it!" One of Kethrie's magicians shook his head and flew directly—

boom!

The ceiling was instantly pierced by various miracles, dozens of magicians directly penetrated the ceiling of the second floor of the warehouse, and then the first floor of the warehouse, until they saw the night sky of Monferra! The ceiling here is a product of miracle reinforcement, and it will be scattered to all areas when subjected to external force. It is extremely difficult for ordinary miracles to penetrate a hole, but once it is broken, the whole layer will be broken!

Countless goods fell to the second floor of the warehouse and broke and shattered. Sangilt and others were stunned to watch the outsiders destroy Beldit's private property. From the outside, these goods were all sealed treasures of magic spirits. It is an extremely strong hard currency, and its value is immeasurable!

How dare they...

Don't they know...

At this time, Sangilt rubbed his nose violently.

He finally understood that Beldit's goal was not the funeral office at all, but—

.....

...

"Two cities of Red Hat, three offices, eight families, all here."

Igola closed the gospel: "Congratulations to Falrin. From now on, you are the most powerful patriarch in Beldit's history."

The blue-haired girl stood on the footstool, staring at the foreigner who was flying in the distance like flies, and asked, "You know?"

"The money-dominated faction of your family has destroyed the magician's potential too seriously." Igula said: "Although the magician is very different and strange, but the powerful magician must have a strong belief. But in the extreme hedonistic Monferra There is no basis for development of beliefs, because all beliefs need to be 'delayed gratification', while what Monfila emphasizes is 'timely pleasure'."

"Even if it is Fan Mu La, it is supported by the belief of 'family.' But what does Monferra have? People who don't need a future will not have a future."

"As for attracting high-level magicians... just like you can't even win Harvey, other sanctuary magicians can't be tempted by Bel Dette at all. As long as all Sanctuary magicians have their own ideal pursuits, they are not the drunken Bell. What Date can restrain."

"If you want to grow your own power quickly, the only way is...forcibly dominate the strong from other families!"

The fraudster couldn't help laughing: "A very simple scam, even a child will not use it in a blood moon."

"But it works, isn't it?" Eharyn shrugged.

"I want to find ways to get them to destroy Beldette's large amount of property, and let the gospel determine that they owe Beldette, thereby triggering the miracle of dominance... But with the dual support of the virtual world and the gospel, this is indeed an outrageous strategy." Said: "But I'm curious, why didn't Beldet use this method before?"

"Why did you use this method in the past?" Falyin asked back: "If I can continue to live in peace and quiet in the future, I won't use this annoying method. Speaking of it, I blame you all."

“You are afraid of the future disaster of the gospel... No.” Igola shook his head: “Is it because of your family’s angelic heritage?”

“Both, but no matter what, Beldette will be a bug that was squeezed to death by Harvey in the future.” Eharyn said: “The other families are already crazy. They will not miss any life-saving in order to continue the family’s future. Straw...If Harvey can become the lord of the Blood Moon Corpse King, why can’t they?”

“Beldette, who lacks high-level combat power, has the legacy of angelic inheritance... From the day the “Family List” came out, I knew that my enemy was other forces.”

“In order to protect myself, I must chop off their hands before they reach out.”

Igola couldn’t help but nodded again and again: “When we appeared in front of you that day, you were already drawing the picture of tonight... It is precisely because of the two decoys, Yaxu Harvey, that they would invade Bell without hesitation. Dayt, break into your back garden!”

“You are even ready to retreat. During the whole process, you’ve harboured’ us without knowing it. On the contrary, they invaded Beldette Manor and destroyed your private property. You are just a legitimate defense if you take a 10,000 steps back. The gospel feels that You are right. As long as other families do not intend to immediately rebel against the gospel, there is no way to sanction you—they will even control the magician who sanctioned you.”

“As for the protection of wanted criminals... the Gospel has never admitted that Ash is a wanted criminal. This is just an internal affair of the empire. You only need to pay a little money. But invading other people’s houses and destroying private property, but the Gospel recognizes it. offense.”

“But I have a question-what if they pay off the debt?”

“They don’t know how to pay it back,” said Falin, “All that is lost is Shu Ling. Unless they still have the same Shu Ling, they will owe Beldet anyway, even if it is a higher level Shu Ling... This is the gospel. The biggest trap in debt relations.”

Igola couldn't help applauding.

For the magician, it's not just a more advanced and rarer magic spirit. For example, giving a two-wing magician a three-wing magic spirit is no use, and giving a fire magician a water magic spirit is even more trouble shooting. The gospel is based on this consideration and set the debt relationship as 'must return the original', but it has become Beldette's most terrifying hole card.

God Lord's Gospel, Domination of Miracles, Void Realm Contracts... In his opinion, Falrin's strategy is a trifling matter, but because of the perfect use of her own resources, she has managed to dominate dozens of elite magicians!

Even Igola had to admire the courage of Eharine-she calculated the red hat, the big family! Even if she is backed by Beldette, if one is not good, it would have offended most of the gospel in vain. Unlike An Nan, she can only endure the anger of countless people with Beldette!

And now, five sanctuary magicians, dozens of elite magicians, they still don't know that half of their brains have been allocated. Even if Eharin doesn't directly control them, she can build a solid moat for Beldette just by giving spiritual hints!

"But the plan went so well, thanks to you." Falrin looked back at Igola: "An Nan and the others are the chassis of the puzzle, and you are the last piece of the puzzle."

"Such top-notch fraud tricks are rare even in the blood moon at the peak of the industry." Igola said: "I'm curious-where did you learn such a skill?"

"...This is not my strategy." Falin said: "It's you, An Nan really didn't find you?"

"Really not."

Eharin called out the gospel to check it, and nodded slightly: "It's weird, she's not such a quiet person..."

“You should also clean up the mess, right?” Igola said: “This scene has to be finished by Beldit. UU reading www.ukanshu.com, by the way, you are planning to hide their dominance when nothing happens, Or set off to frighten the big families?”

“You don’t need to think about it so much,” said Falin, “I just go down and scold them, and they will take Ash and the others to retreat by themselves, and then they will publicly apologize, apologize, and form an alliance to Beldette tomorrow.”

“However, I do have to ‘shelter’ An Nan in accordance with the contract now, at least to repel most people, or the Void Realm will sentence me to inaction.” Yea Lin jumped to the balcony: “Thank you, Igola, if you were not there. This expert, I really can’t trick other families over.”

“I didn’t lie to people, it was the gospel that lied to them.” Igola said, “Trust cannot be entrusted to the miracle of indifference.”

Without comment, Eharyn jumped off the balcony.

The deceiver went back to sit in the seat of Eharin and called out his gospel.

“Trust can only be entrusted to those who are worthy.”

Chapter 404: In this life, has your boss worked hard for you?

“I didn’t know that there would be battle rounds when working overtime.”

At the moment when dozens of magician wild monsters burst out suddenly in the distance, Ya Xiu and Harvey, who were working overtime, got into the nearby forest area and ran away. Yaxiu wore a twisted mask to guard against detection, and Harvey's skin quickly cracked like corpse skin—so that most of the conventional detection miracles failed for both of them.

“That said, if we are caught, will the contract be terminated directly as An Nan said?”

“Yes, Beldit is required to protect us in the contract. If we are caught, then naturally we will not be able to fulfill the contract, and the ransom will not need to be paid.”

“Tsk.” Harvey was a little unhappy: “I should have spent 950 shells long ago...”

“If we don't collect the ransom in one day, then we will be the private property of Falin one day. She will definitely be willing to work here for a lifetime.” A Xiu said, “The malicious redemption is like this. Let's experience it first. You will have experience next time you break with An Nan.”

“Huh?” Harvey was a little surprised: “I think you have been so good with An Nan recently. I thought you were going to be on her side completely. When you get revenge in the future, you have to prepare a coffin for you.”

“Even if she wants to be better with me, it is impossible to give in to the wish of the Lord.” Thinking of this, Ya Xiu also had a headache: “Liz is the same...”

“So, why do you want to have a good relationship with them?” Harvey said: “Anyway, you will end up with a fight in the end, writing a full stop with blood... Every time you have more feelings now, your heart will hurt more in the future. .”

Ah Xiu was stunned, and looked at the black necromancer, “Could it be that you are so...”

“Yes, as long as you only have feelings for the corpse like me, you won't face the inner choice.” Harvey said: “Come on, come on, become the minion of Haagen-Dazs with me!”

“Excuse me to refuse, I still like hot.”

boom!

Suddenly the shadows of the surrounding trees became distorted and hideous, and the two immediately rushed forward with miracles—Axiu's rush, and Harvey's mist turned into a spirit—they managed to avoid the shadow's strangulation.

However, as the entire forest area was cleared, the figures of the two were completely exposed under the night sky!

"They are here!"

The Shadow Faction...is the magician of the Mercury family!

"Hey, didn't it mean that there are only red hats...?" Ah Xiu looked back and said, "I saw a lot of people who don't wear hats... and Mercury is not Monferra's family either!"

"An Nan guessed wrong." Harvey said indifferently: "Falin does not intend to be merciful."

As early as a few days ago, An Nan had analyzed with them the next move of Falin. She determined that when they collected the ransom and left Monferra, Farin, who could not keep them, would try to get rid of her relationship.

Bossing up Ash and Harvey is tantamount to offending most of the gospel, and the two of them can be called 'triggers of the world's enemies'. If you can turn the two of them into your own subordinates, if you can't, then you have to eliminate the negative effects as much as possible—for example, 'take the initiative' to hand them over.

Although according to the contract, Eharyn could not actively leak the secrets, but Bel Dette had too many ways. The most likely scenario is that Monfila's red hat comes to hunt them down, so that the contract is invalidated, and Eharin does not need to protect them, and they can escape smoothly. Everyone will be a dewy marriage, except for Ash and the others. After a few days of free work, everything should have happened without incident.

At that time Liz asked what to do if Eharin rushed to kill her, but An Nan shook her head very surely.

“Earin is a little cautious, but her nature is not bad. My relationship with her is pretty good, she can’t be so cruel.”

“Did An Nan underestimate Lan Mao’s city government or overestimate her own charm...”

“Notice!”

How could it be possible that the two-legged one could fly quickly, several magicians swiftly chased up, and when Ya Xiu called out his love sword to prepare for a miraculous bombardment, suddenly there was an explosion from the side, and half of the night sky was infected. crimson!

Hell broke out!

The molten lava in the next * zone suddenly burst out continuously, and the flowing lava collapsed to a height of 100 meters, like a meteor shower pounced on the flying magicians. Although most of them avoided directly by virtue of their superb flying skills, there were more than a dozen of them. The surgeon was directly poured in a hot bath!

“Wow.” Ya Xiu’s eyes lit up: “We ran along the edge of the special area!”

“Axiu.”

Familiar voices spread to his cochlea without any hindrance, and Ah Xiu’s body shook, and when he looked back, he saw two mature and elegant or beautiful and quiet Red Riding Hood elves flying in the night sky.

“Qinna, Nona?” Ya Xiu asked in shock, “Why are you here too?”

“Of course I came to catch you and go back.” Qin Na smiled: “Aren’t you our master in “Family List”? What are you running for?”

Hearing this, Ah Xiu wished that the Four Pillar God conjured himself six legs, running faster than Harvey. Qinna and Nona simultaneously drew out their hand guns and aimed at Ya Xiu—fog.

The white mist in the “Knowledge Sea Area” of Bel Dette’s imitation landscape suddenly spewed over and enveloped the pilots. The pursuer did not hesitate. Since he could not aim at a long distance, he dived down and grabbed the target directly.

However, when Qinna dived down, she rushed to the sky above the white mist, and the white mist below almost flooded most of the manor.

“Space is upside down and locked?” Qin Na sneered, “playing with space in front of the sanctuary?”

This time she launched the sanctuary and dived down, and quickly penetrated the white mist to the ground, and saw the two of Asia Xiu running into the golden light area from a distance. In addition to her, the other four sanctuary magicians also escaped from the white mist.

The hunters glanced at each other, knowing that it was time to divide the spoils.

The five sanctuary magicians performed miracles of movement, rushing behind the two almost breathlessly, using various restraints to catch the prey—

Snapped!

Ash disappeared with a bang, and Harvey fell down and turned into a mass of flesh.

Stand-in and corpse mud!

At the same time, the Sanctuary found that there was another scenic spot nearby—the ‘liujinhe area’ copied by Beldette!

As the golden drops of water floated up, the Sanctuary found that their mana power became extremely heavy, and the vast mana power became a burden and made them unable to move!

“Inheritance of Angels, Beldit...” In addition to the “Crying Red Riding Hood” Clios, a cold light flashed in the eyes of the four family magicians: “It’s interesting...”

On the other side, Ash and Harvey also successfully reunited with others.

Liz flew directly into Ya Xiu’s arms and hugged him like an octopus;

Panji took the coffin out of the suitcase, and Harvey hugged it like an octopus.

After comforting Lisi, Ya Xiu asked, “How do I leave now?”

“Returning the same way from where they came, there must be a car parked under UU Reading www.uukānshu.com.” An Nan’s face is extremely ugly: “Although Falyin is now helping us to block them, we don’t have much time—”

“You have no time.”

At the same time as the words sounded, there was also the sound of blasting.

With three muffled hums, Panji, Harvey, and Ya Xiu fell down in an instant. Only Ya Xiu hugged Lisi and An Nan who were blocked by Pan Ji.

“Liss check the injury!” An Nan instantly pulled off her eardrops and turned into a blast shot. However, the other party only used one blaster to blow up the curtain, and all her blasters collapsed into flight!

At this time, the opponent was already close, and suddenly there was a whistle, and the high-heeled boots swept like a razor. The purple moth avoided instinctively, and lifted the charge forward!

Avoiding, elbowing, and taking advantage of the situation to push An Nan to the next tree, aiming at her waist!

“Go with me obediently, and I will protect you from death.” Qin Na said lightly: “I will help you get married.”

“Don’t think about it!”

Chapter 405: Cold stream fire

The forest is burning, the * is flowing, the sea of knowledge is boiling, the Liujin River is drying up... The fortress garden built by exhausting Beldit’s countless wealth has turned into a not brilliant firework.

Ealin leaned against the railing of the vestibule garden and looked at the confrontation below. The moment Qin Na caught An Nan, her contract with the funeral office was completely unlocked—she was just shelter, not protection.

The funeral ceremonies no longer need to gather 6000 bei points, but she has no responsibility for the funeral ceremonies.

A very cost-effective business. Five sacred magicians and 63 elite magicians were quietly planted with the seeds of dominance, and what she paid was nothing but a property worth hundreds of millions of dollars, as well as a few new acquaintances. friend.

She actually likes them very much.

Panji is a young boy, mature and stable under his immature appearance, and has blue hair similar to Falin, and he has a kind of cordial feeling when staying with him;

Lisi is as beautiful as she was when she was a child, her white hair is as soft as silk, and her face is as tender as an egg, so cute that she can't help but nibble;

Although Harvey has a strange personality and a dark appearance, he has an aura of destruction like a whirlpool, as if he will drive everything around him into madness. I really want to appreciate his ending up close;

Ah Xiu, thinking of him, Falin, couldn't help but turn up his mouth. It is difficult for her to generalize this person with a few labels. She only knows that staying with him will be very interesting. If Harvey is the vortex of destruction, then Yaxiu is the opposite type, and she doesn't know why they can stay together...if they can. If that is the case, Eharin really wants to keep him.

And there is, An Nan.

They are the sisters who used to talk at night, their heartfelt girlfriends, and even the jealous rivals... In the ordinary life of Falin, the adventure with An Nan is one of the few bright colors.

"I'm going to lose my friend." Falin shrugged, staring at the confrontation in the distance, without any waves in her heart.

When you rule the will of thousands of people, you will not be shaken by the joys and sorrows of one person.

Beldit controls everything, and Beldit has nothing.

.....

...

Miracle-Cut me!

A Xiu's phantom shattered in a flash, and the cut my miracle was successfully activated, but he was still lying lazily on the lawn, not even moving the tips of his fingers.

Even if he managed to forcefully perform the miracle of slashing me through the resonance of the magical spirit, the conditions such as the disorder of the magical power, the nerve blockade, and the suppression of the senses did not improve in the slightest. This is not that miracles are not possible, but that Asia Xiu is unable to do it-it is not that the miracle of the sanctuary can crush the golden mage.

The essence of the miracle of cutting me is to cut off foreign objects that do not belong to your body. In most cases, it is very practical, because many foreign objects are visible or directly perceivable by the naked eye.

But this time it was different. Qin Na's guns were fierce and concealed, and Ya Xiu didn't know what was suppressing herself. The miracle of "Cut Me" naturally drew his sword and looked around at a loss. .

If "Zhan Me" adds other magic spirits that can examine the body and soul, the purification intensity will be even higher...Axiu suddenly understood the direction of the miraculous improvement of Zhan Me, but it was meaningless at this time.

boom!

A sanctuary barrier appeared around Qin Na, blocking this frost bullet.

She looked at the young housekeeper who was covered with Frost and Snow and stood up in amazement. She was not sure and said, "It can break my soul-locking bullet and suppress it... Is it the miracle "Frozen Age"?"

“As expected of Mrs. Qinna, this is the miracle of ‘frozen age’ at a glance.”

The housekeeper boy nodded, and the frost and snow on his body also fell.

“But it’s slightly different from the original version. ‘Frozen Age’ uses the life of the soul to fix the body time, thereby generating frost mana. But my soul can no longer be wasted. It just so happens that my body looks like this again. Modified a bit...”

“...Now this miracle trick should be called ‘melting’.”

As the frost and snow melted away, the voice of the pancake changed from a juvenile and crisp young voice to a magnetic young voice. A tall and handsome butler with blue hair appeared in front of everyone, holding Bingguo double guns in his hand, aiming at the former master.

“During the melting period, I have the sanctuary combat power.” Panji said: “Madam, please let go of me.”

“The appearance has grown up, and even the personality has become arrogant?” Qin Na smiled: “People who have never been to the airspace far away don’t even know what a sacred realm is... However, I have been the number one after having known each other for many years. The first time I see Panji you are so ambitious, then I will give you a chance.”

“If you can * An Nan from me, I will let you go.”

Bang bang bang!

The sky was full of frost blooming, and the blizzards brought out a stream of glaciers like a whirlpool that swept the matriarch.

Qin Na grabbed An Nan by the back of the neck like a cat, even if she took a person to move and evade, she was able to break Panji’s attack at will.

The bullets flew around, and the miracles were overflowing. At the edge of the battlefield, Ya Xiu was almost about to be affected by the fierce battle of the Golden Magician downing the Sanctuary, but he suddenly found himself being dragged away. Even if you can't see who is behind, who else are those little hands and the laborious voice of humming?

Ah Xiu raised his mind and focused all his attention on his mouth.

Kill me!

Kill me!

Kill me!

After beheading me three times in a row, Ya Xiu finally released a little bit of the restriction of his tongue and throat, and said angrily: "Go..."

"Yeah!" Liz nodded vigorously: "Liz will take Dad away soon!"

"You go..."

"I'm leaving, dad, don't hurry!"

"Let go of me..." Ah Xiu said softly, "Then you ran to the main house and let Falin shelter you... You haven't appeared in the knitting ceremony yet, as long as you are not there, no one will catch you..."

"Falin is a bad woman, how can I find her!?"

"Falin... An Nan said... She is not bad in nature. At least, she would not mind taking care of you if there is no conflict of interest... You are so cute..."

Liz sniffed: "Liz is so cute, why are you willing to leave Liz behind?"

"We... first pretend to be caught by Jinna... and then will come back to pick you up soon..."

"Naris was also caught together!"

"What if? I see people from other families and red hats...in case we are forced to separate...I don't want to be in a strange cell, worrying about whether you will kick the quilt tonight..."

"I won't..." Liz desperately dragged Ash to a more hidden place: "Separate from Dad!"

"When I first met you, you were much smarter...and more decisive." There seemed to be a smile in Ah Xiu's voice: "The first night we met, you ran to me and said...you want to follow me Be a superficial father and daughter."

"Blame Dad!" Liz wiped her nose and tears: "Stay with you, Liz has become stupid!"

"Really...that can't be helped." Ya Xiu sighed softly, "Let me go."

"I will not-"

"I mean, no need to go... can't run."

I saw a shadow suddenly appeared and picked up the necromancer, and there was a floating laughter on the court: "I thought I would return empty-handed. I didn't expect Sennheiser to be caring and leave a prey for us, then Moqiu Lee accepts this kindness—"

"you dare!?"

Although Qinna and Panji immediately shifted their firepower and fired, the shadows were so fast that they came to the sky above Ya Xiu in an instant while carrying Harvey.

At this time, Lisi was decisively guarding Ya Xiu, her young figure resolutely like a fortress.

But Ah Xiu didn't look at Liz at this time, but met the necromancer in Mercury's hand. For some reason, the cult leader suddenly recalled a scene in "Family List", his lips moved slightly, and he said softly:

"Harvey, save me."

Huh!

The coffin that had been left unattended suddenly broke out of seven chains, and the latter locked You Ying first, and dragged him into the coffin! At the same time, a figure jumped out of the coffin, snatching the necromancer in Yuying's hand!

You Ying is also a Sanctuary Sorcerer anyway, breaking the chains in mid-air, revealing the figure of a young man in a jet black robe, looking at Harvey suspiciously.

I saw Harvey, who was held by Alice, turned into a cloud of mist at this time, covering the girl Alice in costume like an armor, until the two became one, life and death merged into one!

puff!

A faint green flame ignited the fog on Alice, burning him into a torch. But the flame did not harm Alice at all, on the contrary, the nearby lawn quickly withered and decayed!

"It's really useful to have a good relationship." Alice suddenly turned her head to look at Ah Xiu, and Harvey's voice resounded from UU Reading www.uukanshu.com, "Liss will only save you."

Ash opened her eyes wide, and Liz was stunned: "You...Uncle Harvey..."

“As expected to be a fanatic who can inherit the inheritance of angels...” said the young Mercury: “This is the necromantic miracle you created based on Wuling? How rebellious, how evil, and unexpectedly combining the living and the corpse. For one!”

As soon as the voice fell, he turned into a ghost again and rushed over, desperately trying to capture the necromancer with one blow!

Alice Harvey smiled stiffly.

“Although this body is cold and flowing, but still looking forward to the time when it burns out.”

boom!

As the hustle and bustle of the fire exploded and bloomed in the body, the vast magical power ignited all the surrounding vitality, and the enchantment formed by the necromancer with the coffin as the center actually blocked the sanctuary magician’s blow!

“Tonight is a day for the dead.” Harvey said, “Maybe it’s finally my turn.”

Chapter 406: "Trick List"

When Harvey blocked Mercury, Qinna, An Nan, and Panji also quickly negotiated a truce.

An Nan is not ignorant of current affairs, and now they have no chance of escape, but there are a large group of hunters who look forward to them, and these prey can only choose one hunter who feeds instead of slaughter.

Even if An Nan hates Qinna no matter what, she has to admit that becoming Qinna's toy is indeed the best way out at the moment compared to becoming a red cap or a prisoner of another family.

"Harvey, Yaxiu, we surrender to Sennheiser!" After Qinna let go, An Nan immediately said loudly, "We are all Sennheiser's trophies now!"

"Hey, don't we come here for nothing?"

"You can't give it all to Sennheiser, at least Ash Heath has to defy the law."

"Archibald Harvey can't be handed over to Sennheiser either!"

The other three sacred magicians finally broke free of the 'High Fake Flowing Golden River Area' and quickly rushed to the scene to participate in the spoils-sharing meeting. They are the Sanctuary Master of the Kethrie family, the "Crying Red Riding Hood" Clios of Azura, and the "Princess Cicada" Aina of the Jiahaoyueyuan Office.

Qin Na stood with the funeral and the others, waved to release the restraints of everyone's soul-locking bullets-in fact, only one weak and helpless Ya Xiu was left groaning.

The other four sanctuary magicians fan-shaped around the crowd, and they all pressed Qinna on the same side.

"If you didn't make trouble like this just now, there would be no trouble now." Qin Na said lightly.

"Fart!" An Nan is not polite: "Even if I surrender immediately when I see you, will they just watch you take us away? It's better to say that if you let us go earlier, then there will be no trouble!"

If An Nan watched the fire, this hunting operation was a joint team, so there would be ugly distribution, and there would still be conflicts of interest that could not be reconciled.

Although the sanctuary magicians are vaguely aware that Ashley Harvey is the one who deceives the Gospel, and that the Gospel's assessment of them will definitely be wrong, but their rankings may be false, and there will be apocalyptic disasters within 50 years of the Gospel. it is true!

At this time, any 'person' who can reach the future is extremely precious. Even if Yaxiu Harvey is a fake and shoddy product, he will earn it if he grabs it! Otherwise, why did they travel all the way to Monfila to invade private residences, eager for justice?

Not to mention that Harvey will have a high probability of gaining angelic inheritance in the future, and even command the top ten necromantic families, becoming the unique king in the end of the gospel...Who doesn't want to replace it?

Ya Xiu is not so valuable, but Clios wants to use him in exchange for rankings. Other families must also want such a "passenger man" who appears on the two lists in a row. Therefore, the value of Ya Xiu is small. It's just a little smaller than Harvey the Necromancer.

An Nan couldn't escape either. She herself was the number one in the "Art List", plus she was also the director of the office. Everyone knew that the two of them on the list could not be separated from her.

Therefore, when An Nan closed her right eye and opened the "Disaster Vision" in her left eye, she saw that her, Ash and Harvey were all covered in black mist at this time, as if they were suffering from disaster.

Sure enough, the Mercury youth said: "Since Sennheiser has captured them first, Sennheiser can choose one of the three important goals, and the other secondary goals also belong to Sennheiser, how about?"

Kesri added: "Whoever chooses Archibald Harvey must share his necromantic achievements-not only with us, but also with other families on the "Family List."

Klios hesitated and shook his head: "No, An Nan is not a wanted criminal or a future criminal. You have no right to arrange An Nan's stay or stay. Since An Nan chooses to seek refuge in Sennheiser, they are Sennheiser's. People, as for the crime of shielding, Captain Qinna will deal with it. Captain Qinna, you only need to choose between Heath and Harvey."

“Princess Red Cicada” Aina took a deep look at Clios, but then nodded: “I mean the same thing as crying Red Riding Hood.”

Keithley and Mercury’s faces suddenly became hard to look.

Although An Nan is not as important as the other two, everyone has analyzed from the first two lists that An Nan is definitely the core figure in deceiving the gospel.

If An Nan and other outsiders are allowed to stay together, the knitting ceremony will definitely be disturbed by them.

If it is placed at other times, everyone is not intolerable. But the next 50 years will be the key to the survival of the gospel. Weaving the festival is the most important observation channel, and An Nan must not be allowed to continue making trouble!

More importantly, once Sennheiser gets the luxury package of An Nan + any foreigner, this advantage is too great, which is equivalent to getting a ticket to the future!

Retreat is a thousand-year-old family, advance to create a dynasty!

In the last days, there is a shortage of resources, and Sennheiser’s growth will definitely squeeze the living space of other families!

Kethrie and Mercury had made many plans in their hearts, but Clios and Aina were faintly standing on Sennheiser’s side, and they were helpless.

Here are their five sanctuary magicians. The other families either don’t have sanctuary magicians or can’t get out of them. Once a 3:2 situation is formed, they can only watch Sennheiser win a victory. .

Qin Na turned her head, glanced at Ya Xiu who was protecting Lisi behind her, then glanced at the necromancer who was full of green flames, and finally glanced at the young Panji and daughter An Nan.

“It seems that I have only one choice.” Qin Na said coldly, holding the brim of the red hat.

The gray-headed An Nan raised his eyebrows: “Yes...free to attack!”

At the moment when An Nan’s voice fell, Qinna, Panji, Harvey, and even Ya Xiu all attacked the four Sanctuary Magicians at the same time!

Frost is flying, deadlocked, blasting blasts, sword light is flashing!

Miracle Frost Blade Dance!

Miracle · Immortal Coffin Cold Rainy Night!

Miracle·Soul Blast!

Miracle Rage Sword!

“Sennheiser, what do you mean?!” Keithley roared while spreading the sanctuary resistance.

“I mean-I want it all.” Qinna said arrogantly: “Everyone is mine, you want to divide it? Don’t even think about it!”

Klios looked serious: “Qinna, you are too much!”

Mercury smiled furiously: “We have four sanctuary magicians on our side, and you—”

“I have money!”

During the battle, Qinna summoned the gospel book. At the moment, everyone in the funeral ceremony felt endless energy surge, and the body surface appeared to offset the damage of the “gospel force field”, and the body blessed the “cat grace” and “bull barbarian”. More than a dozen direct blessings such as “Strength” and “Eagle’s Sharpness”, the combat power is strengthened to the limit by the Gospel Points!

In contrast, Mercury and others have been added with more than a dozen negative states such as ‘ache and exhaustion’, ‘platelet lysis’, and ‘mosquito called phantom sound’, although these are of no importance to the sanctuary magician. But Qin Na’s spending money like this is enough to make them retreat—they are not facing a sacred magician, but the heraldic patriarch who is in charge of the assets of the family!

However, the Sanctuary magicians are not fools, they are too lazy to fight Qin Na hard, trying to catch the funeral members to break the battle.

But after a few rounds, instead of catching anyone, they were suppressed!

The four sanctuary magicians were suppressed by one sanctuary magician and several two-wing magicians!

call!

Mercury suddenly turned into a shadow and retreated from the front.

He glanced at his hands, his right hand was almost decayed, but his left hand was deep in the cold—he had already used the sanctuary miracle body, but still could not stop the miracle of the two-wing magician!

Among the people in the funeral, the combat power of An Nan and Ya Xiu is negligible. The ones who can really threaten the sanctuary are Panji and Harvey!

“Frost mana, necromantic power...”

Mercury quickly healed his hands and said with a wry smile: “Is the current Second Wing Surgeon so fierce...”

On the other side, Ya Xiu also found that he and An Nan were simply paddling and fishing, and couldn't help but take the time to ask, "Why are Panji so much stronger than us?"

An Nan was holding the charge gun to interfere with the sanctuary magician as much as possible, and quickly said during the change of bombs: "Their miracle is strengthened by the magical power."

"Magical power?"

"Through certain miracles, mana can be reprocessed into mana that is more in line with Shu Ling's appetite. For example, frost mana, casting a frost miracle can enhance the effect by 100%, and even cause more terrifying negative damage."

"There is such a good thing!?"

"But this kind of miracle is often extremely costly." An Nan glanced at him: "Moreover, the barriers to learning are very high, and ordinary magicians can't master it."

It was precisely because it was discovered that both Harvey and Panji had the possibility of leapfrogging challenges, Qin Na would resolutely set off a battle, otherwise, even if she had money, she would not be able to contend with the four sanctuary magicians.

boom!

While they were chatting, Qin Na saw the opportunity to kill her, and the Soul Blast instantly penetrated Aina's sanctuary, knocking the old lady more than ten meters away!

However, Aina also immediately used the "Family List" rewards to enter the "Machine Spirit" state to suppress her injuries, but she could no longer continue to fight.

I couldn't beat it, but now there is still one person missing, Mercury and the others immediately withdrew from the battlefield without hesitation. Qin Na let out a foul breath and opened the gospel: "I use the gospel to summon a floating car to come over, and then we—"

“Falin, you are so cruel.” An Nan muttered suddenly.

Qin Na was stunned, turning her head to see that the white mist in the courtyard had dissipated, and the magicians who had been trapped by the inverted space and the locks regained their freedom. The elite magicians lowered their heads and saw the sanctuary magicians mingling together, they didn't know what was going on.

“Sennheiser believes that all targets such as Ashe Heath, Archibald Harvey, Ann Dolan, etc. should be taken over by her.” Mercury said calmly: “We are communicating in a friendly way.”

Everyone immediately understood that it was an intense and exciting post-war distribution meeting. Except for the six heraldic tribe who immediately flew behind Qin Na, the rest of the Red Hat, the office, and the family magician were all on Mercury's side.

The situation reversed in an instant, Qinna had fewer than ten people, but Mercury had more than forty people. Although the elite Second Wing Mage cannot intervene in the battle of the sanctuary, as long as Mercury drags Qin Na, the elite squad of Mage can take the opportunity to attack Ya Xiu and other prisoners and steal the spoils directly.

Qin Na also realized this, but instead of softening, she became tougher: “Mercury, Clios, do you want them to blend into the battle in the sanctuary? They will die.”

Because of the existence of the sanctuary, the miraculous intensity of the attack among the sanctuary magicians is extremely high. The reason why Ya Xiu and others were able to make soy sauce just now was purely because the sanctuary magician did not intend to kill them and deliberately kept their hands.

The situation suddenly stalemated. Although Mercury had an advantage, the advantage was not so great that it was crushed. The combat power of the three sanctuary, Qinna, Harvey, and Panji, should not be ignored. If there is a fight, the casualties will be so heavy that all the forces are in pain.

When everyone was thinking about the next step, the youth * suddenly gave a wry smile, and thick white smoke came out of his body, and then his body quickly shrank and melted until he became a little boy about five years old.

The little boy looked at the housekeeper's clothes which was obviously too big, waved his sleeves, and looked around for a week. He found that he was surrounded by unknown adults. His immature face showed panic and fear, and tears quickly accumulated in his eyes. Cry out.

"Hey, don't cry, don't cry, come here to eat chocolate with my sister." Liz decisively went out and led the little panji away. Seeing that she was a lovely sister who was not much older than herself, Panji held back her tears and followed her firmly to the back.

Ya Xiu stared at An Nan stunned, and pointed to Xiao Panji, An Nan nodded helplessly.

At this moment, Alice Harvey suddenly coughed twice, and then the green flame on his body slowly extinguished, and a cloud of white mist broke away from Alice and went into the coffin, and Alice immediately covered it with the coffin lid.

Asia Xiu: "You..."

"I am Alice." Alice (Harvey) said very mentally: "Harvey needs to rest in the coffin, and I will play in person next!"

Ah Xiu doesn't know if this is Harvey's schizophrenia, the necromancer's evil taste, or the side effect of the miracle just now, but it's actually the same—

They lost two consecutive sanctuary combat power.

However, Aina of the "Princess Red Cicada" recovered her basic combat power at this time and stood with the sanctuary magicians again.

The atmosphere became strange.

Mercurie coughed twice and Qin Na supported her forehead.

In terms of number and combat power, Sennheiser is completely at a disadvantage. No matter how strong Qin Na was, it would be impossible to take away the funeral members under the siege of four sanctuary magicians and dozens of elite magicians.

The exhausted An Nan walked to the side of Ya Xiu, took his hand and leaned on him, as if she would fall down if she didn't touch him again.

Everyone tried their best.

At first they should have been caught by Qin Na, it was Panji who stood up;

Later, Mercury should also catch Ash, and it was Harvey who stepped forward;

It was an accident just now, but now it is reality.

"You can only hand over Harvey. UU reading www.uukanshu.com" An Nan whispered in Ah Xiu's ear:
"Don't talk, I'll talk to Qinna."

"Miss, don't you have a...backup plan?"

An Nan glanced at him and nodded: "Yes, but it may be invalid."

"And in this situation, ordinary plans are useless, we can only hope for miracles."

At this moment, everyone's gospels popped up, and there were shining bookmarks in the gospels.

"This is actually this time?" Hope arose in the hearts of Asia and the others.

"It's just this time?" Mercury shook his heart.

“Why is this time?” Eharin felt uneasy.

Although now is not the time to be distracted, no one can refuse the temptation of the future. With all thoughts, everyone opened the bookmark and looked at the title of the third list—

“Trick List”.

Chapter 407: Finally able to eat the enemy's melon

Void Realm, Time Continent, Spider Tower area.

This was not the turn of the Spider Tower. The entire area was trapped in a black and white quiet zone. In addition to the intellectual creatures still multiplying and thriving, three castles surrounded by layers of defense were also in production and operation day and night. The intellectual creatures loaded with “professional types” are all turned into adults, sitting in their work positions and writing, answering questions from reality. As all doubts were answered, countless spirit powers also gathered in the core building of the castle, the spider web.

Denzel was loaded with the job category at this time, wearing a short skirt and high heels, sitting on her throne with her legs crossed, and boringly flipping through the various questions that came up in the book.

Commanders can of course accumulate merits through work, anyway, idle is also idle, most commanders will be part-time ‘professions’ during the quiet period. The work of Spider House is also very simple. Answering questions does not require staff to think, or when they read the questions, the answers will pop out of their minds, and then they can write down the answers.

It may seem a bit redundant, but it is necessary-no matter how great a miracle is, it is just a set of unchanging 'rules', and changing 'intelligibility' must be used to provide precise feedback from person to person.

However, commanders with a certain sentiment like Denzel would abandon this kind of work as boring. She walked to the window and glanced up at the spider web covering the entire gray sky.

In fact, it is a bit of a misnomer to say that it is a spider web: it has no meshes. In other words, the mesh is so small that it is almost invisible. From below, it looks like a white screen covering the sky.

But Denzel carefully identified it and could still see that there were still seven meshes in the central area. When these seven meshes are all filled, the six nations will officially begin.

It's just that the last ten holes that need to be filled will basically break open by themselves. If you are lucky, if you only break one, then the Spider Tower can guarantee the second one; if you are not lucky, if you break seven or eight, then the six kingdoms can only be counted down.

I hope it can be repaired and stabilized this time...

At this moment, Denzel noticed that the spider web was trembling slightly, and then countless silk threads were woven, gradually filling in the seventh hole. She looked down at the book in her hand and turned to the page of the list-Commander Spider Tower could actually obtain real-world information, but basically no one was interested, even Denzel who had retrieved his feelings.

Compared to decades in reality, Denzel spent hundreds of years in the Time Continent before retrieving the soul fragments. The length and thickness of the latter completely dilute the former, and it is impossible for her to have a trace of nostalgia for reality.

This may also be one of the reasons why the Six Nations War and the Commander Corps were all engaged in the Time Continent: the life length of the Second Wing Surgeon was too short. The * master does not need to pay special attention at all, just a long time can make the commander and the time continent merge into one.

“Trick List”...” Denzel came a little bit of interest. This is a title she likes. Like the two holes before, she was a waste of time even betting on her eyes.

“No. 10 in the Trick List: Denzel’s Crown Descending Ceremony”

“Introduction: Denzel Dolan, the ancestor of the Dolan family, has the authority to watch the infinite future. In order to obtain this authority, on April 10, 1678, An Nan decided to launch a crown descending ceremony at the expense of countless gold and silver treasures. ”

“Behind the scenes: An Nan Dolan”

“...Huh?” A trace of doubt appeared on Denzel’s face:

“I have... descendants?”

.....

...

In Beldit Manor, when the tenth place on the trick list came out, everyone looked at the purple moth that had been beaten to pieces by their mother, with various desires in their eyes.

The Duolan family... the authority to watch the infinite future... the crown descending ceremony!

But when Qin Na squeezed the handle, everyone chose to give Sennheiser a face and continue to watch the list.

“Miss, this time we will really offend all the forces. ”

“The Panji in the picture is still a gentle blue-haired young housekeeper. In comparison, An Nan has become much more mature. She is wearing a strapless purple dress, which is more dazzling and charming. They seem to be standing at a banquet. On the second floor of the hall, I'm looking at the guests below."

""It doesn't matter, all the forces here will soon be left with only two or three kittens, and offending is also offending. "An Nan shrugged: "I finally tricked them over, and now I can't hold back. ""

""You might as well worry about whether the ceremony given by [Rust Crow] will succeed. Denzel is our best hope. Only she can lead us to conquer the future! "

The audience held their breath, their eyes barely dared to blink-although they didn't know who Denzel Dolan was, what did the ritual of calling the ancestors represent?

The deceased Su Sheng!

resurrection!

This is a great field that only God Lord can set foot in!

Anything related to the resurrection is basically a miracle!

And even An Nan can hold a ritual that can be held in a ruined place, how could their big families not be able to hold it?

Even knowing the details of this 'Crown Coming Ceremony' is already a rare treasure!

As if knowing everyone's thoughts, the gospel book omitted this plot very badly and jumped directly to the end of the ceremony!

"An Nan is standing in the empty hall, and all the guests are lying on the ground. The life or death of Panji is uncertain. Panji looked at his master and took a step back for some reason."

““What are you afraid of, Panji? “An Nan looked back at the housekeeper, raised her proud neck slightly, her gorgeous appearance did not compromise her overwhelming domineering.”

““...Denzel? Panji’s eyes were highly condensed, like a long needle piercing the unknown creature in front of him: “What’s wrong with Miss An Nan!” ? ““

““She was asleep, didn’t she say goodnight to you? ““

““Hand over the lady! “Panji squeezed his hand, but didn’t pull it out.”

““that’s not allowed. “Denzel said leisurely: “Since you pulled me back from the virtual world, let me enjoy the fun of being a living person. During this period, my daily life will trouble you. Don’t worry, I will fulfill your request by the way-if I am in a good mood. ““

““Then Panji, my first order. ““

““Kill everyone here. ““

With a touch of blood splashing on the camera, the image data of the tenth place in the trick list ends here.

In the next second, everyone looked at An Nan, especially Mercury, whose spirit was like a long needle, locked onto the figure of a purple moth.

“In that banquet hall, one of them is my brother.” He said lowly.

“Oh.” Qin Na said calmly: “Then he was lucky and escaped becoming a shadow spirit.”

Mercury was suddenly discouraged. Qin Na is right, their family will be turned into a shadow spirit by Harvey sooner or later. In contrast, it might be a better ending to die in An Nan’s hands.

And from here, it can be seen that the time period for the implementation of An Nan's trick is before the "Family List"-after all, the Mercury clan in the family list has become a dead soul.

But this did not prevent him from glaring at An Nan, and said coldly: "She must hand over the crown descent ceremony, Sennheiser, you can never monopolize this!"

Before Qin Na could answer, An Nan immediately shook his head: "That is a ceremony that I will get in the future. I don't know anything at all now!"

"Who is [Rust Crow]?" Clios said suddenly: "In the video, you personally said that he gave you the ceremony."

An Nan continued to shake his head: "I don't know this person yet, I don't know."

"I don't know this, I don't know..." Keithley said: "You should always know the inheritance of the blue family? What is the authority to look at the infinite future?"

Facing the aggressive sanctuary magicians, An Nan bowed his head and avoided him, pulling Ya Xiu's sleeve to hide behind him. Ah Xiu didn't persuade her at all, pulling her upright and hiding behind her aunt Nona, like a child who was bullied to find a parent.

Nona is not surprised by their closeness. An Nan's only relative since childhood was her, and her only friend was Panji. As for Ash...Nona glanced at her sister, but her sister blinked her eyes mischievously, as if to say 'please take your time'.

Nona didn't bother to pay attention to her sister, turned her head and whispered to them, "Hold my waist, and if necessary, I will fly you away directly."

Ya Xiu blinked, glanced down at Nona's slender waist, and was slapped away by An Nan as soon as he wanted to reach out.

At this time, Liz seemed to realize that her father was going to be hooked away by the wild woman, and hurriedly ran over with the little panji. Little Panji was only wearing a large shirt, and halfway down, he stumbled on the street. The blue-haired boy did not cry, but bit his lip and pouted his mouth and shed tears.

Asia Xiu took Lisi and couldn't help but said, "Why, Miss you have been on the list more times than us, are you also from outside?"

An Nan knelt down to wipe the tears for Xiao Panji, and said angrily: "Do you think I am willing? This is not a list of beauties, but a list of tricks... Now my reputation is as bad as yours!"

It is true.

According to the brief introduction of the list, An Nan's trick should be just for money, but after the ceremony was completed to summon 'Denzel' to possess his body, the crazy 'Denzel' directly killed all the guests present. The money and life are gone. It's strange that the consortium that appeared in the video didn't hate An Nan.

The more important point is: unlike Yaxiu and Harvey, An Nan is a real native, so the prediction of the weaving festival is trustworthy!

In addition, there are no outsiders in the image, which can rule out the possibility of contamination of this prophecy. That is to say, if there is no accident, the plot of "Annan holds a crown ceremony to take property and slaughter everyone" will happen 100%!

Even if Qinna can keep An Nan now, other families will surely send countless assassins to Van Mula to assassinate the purple moth!

And whether Qin Na can keep An Nan is still unknown now. An Nanneng has been on the list twice in the knitting ceremony. The gospel has shown its importance to her. Coupled with the crown descending ceremony and the Duolan family inheritance, her comprehensive value in everyone's hearts has faintly surpassed Ah Xiu, second only to Harvey!

"Annan Dolan was awarded the "Crown of Sin"."

“Crown of Sin: When you wear this crown, your crimes will not be included in the gospel, and those who die because of you are considered natural disasters.”

An Nan stared at the crown in her hand, feeling that she was despised by the gospel—would she violate the criminal law if she were to commit a crime! ?

Ah Xiu came over and asked, “Queen An Nan, do we want to kill someone to try the effect?”

“No need to be so troublesome, UU reading www.uukanshu.com only needs to commit crimes, so it’s okay to hurt people.” An Nan glanced at him: “You stick out your tongue for me to take a bite, and see if the gospel will sentence me. Intentionally hurt people.”

Liz looked at the jeweled crown enviously, An Nan noticed her eyes and asked, “Liz, do you want it?”

“Um!”

“Then what should you say?”

“Thank you Aunt An Nan!”

An Nan directly pressed a elbow to Ah Xiu’s waist, and Ah Xiu shook his head quickly—I didn’t teach it!

If I teach, then I should call you old lady An Nanzi!

“No, Liz, think about it again?”

Liz hesitated, her eyes struggled between An Nan and Ya Xiu for a long time, but after all she couldn’t resist the temptation of the crown: “Thank you...Mother An Nan?”

“Wrong, wrong.” An Nan sighed, but still put the crown on Liz’s head.

Panji tilted his head, and suddenly jumped happily: "Sister Lisi!"

At this time, the gospels shined brightly, and another ranking was updated.

"No. 9 in the Trick List: Cross's Wisdom Reappearance Ceremony"

"Introduction: The ancestor of the Kethrie family, Cross Kethrie, was a legendary magician who studied the destiny faction. In order to gain the wisdom of the ancestors, on April 10, 1678, Zuwendas decided to murder another Kethrie family. The sacred magicians and 100 ordinary Kethri tribes were sacrificed to launch the wisdom reproduction ceremony."

"Behind the scenes: Zuwendas Kesri"

Suddenly, the opposing magician team suddenly dispersed, and only one sanctuary magician stayed there blankly. Ah Xiu asked in surprise, "What happened?"

"He is Zuwendas Kesri." Nona replied.

Is this the joy of everyone watching the list together-finally one time eating melon and eating the enemy!

Chapter 408: After the trick, it is still trick

""As long as we can reproduce the glory of our ancestors, we will sacrifice everything at all! ""

""Anyway, you will become dead creatures in the future, so it's better to use them as my food. ""

""Don't blame me, your death is not worthless. If you want to complain, please resent the rust crow. It was the rust crow who sold me this ritual. I will avenge you in the future-kill the rust crow. ""

Seeing Zuwendas who was crazy to kill his relatives in the video, everyone was a little farther away from him, "Crying Red Riding Hood" Clios even slightly raised his mouth, as if ready to take aim at any time.

Like An Nan, the ceremony of Zuwendas was skipped by the gospel and went directly to the celebration after the ceremony was completed.

"Zubendas is sitting in a weird blood pattern formation. The corpses of the Kethrie tribe are surrounded for a week: they were cut in the waist by Zuwendas, their upper body folded their hands outside the formation, and their lower body kneeled on their bodies with their legs together. Before, there was not a single drop of blood in the dry corpse. All the blood gathered on Zuwendas' forehead and turned into a diamond-shaped blood mark."

"Fate...I saw..." Zuvindas' pupils radiated brightly: "Everything will inevitably come to an end. ""

"Zubendas Kesri received the reward "Blood Streak"."

"Bloodstripe: 100ml of the blood of the Keithri tribe can activate the bloodstripe. After the bloodstroke is activated, it will last for 10 minutes. During the duration, the surgeon's thinking ability will increase by 15%."

The image is over, but the aftershocks are endless.

"Kathri," Mercury said carefully: "This is an internal affair of your family, and I will not comment. But you can no longer represent the Kathri family, so you cannot participate in the distribution of the spoils-but I Assure you in the name of the Mercury family that all the information Mercury obtains will be shared with Keithley."

Mercury's hard and soft play is also painstaking, the future list actually clearly pointed out Zuwendas's future evil deeds, Mercury did not take the opportunity to kick him out is a waste of gospel assists. But he had to rely on the combat power of the Kaithri magi to at least stay aside to frighten Sennheiser, so he gave Zuwendas enough face.

"Ah."

Zuwendas suddenly chuckled: "I don't think so, you can ask Keithrie, the patriarch will still trust me."

"I am very confident," Qin Na raised her eyebrows: "If Sennheiser appears a traitor who murders his compatriots, I will definitely turn him into a firework. Or, you have the confidence to persuade your people," The ranking of "Trick List" is the gospel framed you?"

"No, I'm pretty sure, this is my future." Zuwendas said: "I really admire the ancestor Cross, if I have the opportunity, I will definitely get involved in the destiny faction of the ancestor Cross at all costs...not even it needs external pressure, just to break through the sanctuary and climb the legend, I will do it, after all, I have no way."

When Zuwendas said 'there is no way', the sanctuary magicians fell silent. They have been immersed in the sanctuary realm for many years, and they are regular visitors in the airspace far away. They have also achieved achievements that countless people admire in the world. However, the anxiety of "no way" still tortured their hearts all the time.

Some of them have sentimental families, such as Qinna; some have sentimental careers, such as Aina; some pursued rankings, such as Clios... Almost all sanctuary magicians are talented, so they are the most difficult People who accept their talents so far are like people who thought they were free, but found that they were just living in a relatively large cage.

Zuwendas said that he would be so frantic for strength, and everyone immediately believed it. They won't do this, it's not that they don't want to, but there is something more important than power in life.

"But the person who is really dangerous in "Trick List" is not me." Zuwendas said: "After the trick, it is still a trick."

Everyone was startled slightly, and looked down at the "Trick List" which was continuously updated.

"No. 8 in the Trick List: Morgan's Understanding Fusion Ceremony"

"Introduction: Morgan Dawn is a legendary magician of the psychic faction. He is good at the miracle of love. During his lifetime, men and women, young and old, and silver legends will all fall in love with him. In order to obtain Morgan's power, on April 10, 1678, Joe El Hopkin decided to murder another male sanctuary, a female sanctuary, 100 men of different ages, and 100 women of different ages as sacrifices to initiate the ritual of understanding and fusion.”

“Behind the scenes: Joel Hopkins”

“Joel Hopkin is a wingman of Modola,” Mercury’s face was quite solemn: “He is very talented, and he is regarded as the seed of the sanctuary. It is not surprising that he can achieve the sanctuary in ten years.”

But no one paid attention to Mercury’s intelligence, everyone noticed the strange information revealed in the future list.

“No. 7 in the “Trick List”: Naples’s Mercy Purification Ritual”

“Introduction: Napoli De Geer was once a legendary magician of the truth faction, and was regarded as the ‘legend closest to the angels.’ In order to inherit the power of the ancestor Napoli, on April 10, 1678, Jeremy De Geer Jill destroyed the seal of the abyss, triggered an abyss riot, and let the monsters of the abyss ravage the city, in order to initiate a merciful purification ritual.”

“Behind the scenes: Jeremy De Geer”

“No. 3 in the “Trick List”: Korontina’s Glory Casting Ceremony”

“Introduction: The ancestor of the Mercury family, Columbine Mercury, is in charge of the gods with a mortal body. His great power lasts for several generations and is still difficult to dilute. Therefore, every generation of the Mercury tribe has the talents of the Shadow faction, and at the same time Also afraid of the light, short life and fragile. In order to inherit the power of the ancestor Columbine, on April 10, 1678, Ren Mercury dragged the entire city into the shadows and used 7.85 million 3454 people as sacrifices to launch it. Glory casting ceremony.”

“Behind the scenes: Ren Mercury”

Noting that everyone looked at the shadow sanctuary magician, even without asking, Ah Xiu knew that his name was Ren.

Compared with these sanctuary magicians who frequently killed their own family and sacrificed the entire city, An Nan, who had only killed a party person, seemed pure and kind at this time.

But compared to the crimes that Rennes, Zuwendas, and An Nan will commit in the future, what everyone cares more about is the information revealed in the future list—

“Who is Rust Crow?” Clios couldn’t help asking: “How come all the rituals seem to come from him?”

In all the images that have appeared so far, although the people behind the scenes are different, there is one person who connects them all—the rust crow!

The coming of the crown, the reappearance of wisdom, the fusion of understanding... These costly and extremely evil sacrifice rituals all came from the hands of the Rust Crow! Although Anna and others are behind the scenes, they are also consumers. The rust crow that provides ritual knowledge is the real source of all evil, the curse of this world!

And not only that, the seven tricks and seven rituals currently appearing all happened on the same day: April 10, 1678.

This is definitely not a coincidence, but it is impossible for the seven of them to get together to make a big news—at least, it is impossible for An Nan to have any intersection with them.

Moreover, it is very strange that the future list will provide such a specific time. This is not the past list. Why does the future list reduce its fault tolerance in this way?

“Axiu,” the purple moth suddenly came to the ear of the cult leader and whispered: “Did you notice... These seven tricks, although not complete, are all related to resurrection.”

“Yeah.” Ya Xiu’s face was stern: “What then?”

“No, but don’t you think I’m very smart?”

“If you are Lisi’s age, I can still touch your head, but you are so old...” Ya Xiu stretched out his fingers and scratched the tip of An Nan’s nose: “I will reluctantly allow you to give me a hug.”

An Nan pointed the hammer at his waist and saw that the eldest lady was very happy-now everyone’s attention has shifted to the list and Rust Crow, and the funeral has received much less attention. As long as Qin Na is tougher, they might be able to return to Van Mura, but this time I’m afraid they will never escape Qin Na’s palm...

At this time, the list was updated again, and another familiar name came into view.

“No. 2 in the Trick List: Everton’s Foundation Cohesion Ceremony”

“Introduction: The ancestor of the Beldit family, Evardun Beldit, was a five-winged magician, a demigod angel, and a number of gods. In order to dominate the ancestor Evardun in the form of the necromancer, April 10, 1678, Eharine Beldette burns the spirits of all those who are dominated to launch the foundational cohesion ritual.”

“Behind the scenes: Eharine Beldit”

Gan!

Everyone exclaimed in their hearts, admiring Farin.

This is the biggest handwriting I have seen so far—Falín is not at all resurrecting her ancestors or inheriting the inheritance of her ancestors, but directly controlling her ancestors!

That is to say, Beldette can play this way. After all, the ancestors of other people have completely returned to the virtual realm. Only Beldette’s necromantic angels are still lingering in a certain tomb. It happens that Beldette’s ancestral technique is to dominate the faction. All the key elements are complete, and it is indeed a waste of destiny not to try to dominate one’s ancestors.

Falin, who had been eating melons and watching the show in the distance, also frowned slightly.

She didn't expect that the Beldette family's many years of planning would be uncovered in this way.

Yes~www.mtlnovel.com~ This is not her idea alone, many generations ago—perhaps from Everton's son—Beldette has been thinking about how to dominate this necromancer. Angel.

However, because there is no pressure to survive, this plan has been perfected and has never been practiced, and there are many major flaws that cannot be ignored. Falin has never considered this plan herself.

But by looking at the video, Falin understood how ingenious the ritual that Rust Crow sold to her was: she burned massive amounts of mental power to distort reality, weaved a body from scratch, and then summoned a necromantic angel with a blood ritual. A ray of consciousness confines the consciousness of the dead angel in the body. Because this body even every cell is under the control of Falin, this cage completely traps the necromantic angel, achieving the effect of indirect control.

Ealin's heart moved instantly, and she wanted to try it right away.

But everyone has the same question as her: Rust Crow, who is it?

Soon, the Gospels will thoroughly answer all their questions—

“No. 1 in the Trick List: Ashiu's Kingdom Resurrection Ceremony”

The Kingdom of Blood Moon, Kaimon City.

Friya, wearing a white lab coat, came out of Siflin's treatment room with her mouth pouting, and quickly left the 'Bio-Reproductive Clothing Department' with her head down. All the other doctors and nurses whispered at her along the way, no one greeted her, as if an invisible heart barrier separated them.

But Veeva didn't mind, compared to Shivlin's scolding just now, she was more poignant.

Although she hasn't graduated yet, she is now an apprentice of a psychotherapist at the Kaimeng Affiliated Hospital and a student of Siflin. However, the program of study is not a psychic faction, but an illusion faction.

Mind and illusion have been closely related since their birth, but compared with the psychic faction that is almost blocked in the blood moon, the illusion faction is a hot and popular magic faction. Let's not mention the huge demand for illusionists in the movie base. The virtual games that are becoming more and more popular in the curtain and known as the "second world" are almost built by illusionists. The annual salary of illusionists is steadily climbing, the talent market is in short supply.

I'm afraid that the founder of the Mind Faction, "Mind Eye" Madara, did not expect that the illusion faction, which was originally a derivative support, would one day be more productive than the Mind Faction.

In the medical field, the status of the illusion department is also rising year by year, but it is not used to treat diseases, but involves greater interests and a brighter future—

Freya came to Serena's ward and saw a warning in red on black background hanging on the door of the ward:

"There is only one patient, Serena Bright, who lives in this ward. She is 1.3 meters tall. She is a girl with long silver-white hair with a hint of burgundy. She wears a blue and white striped gown. When it is necessary to deliver meals, change dressings, and clean When you enter the ward, remember the following rules—"

“①Only one person can enter the ward at the same time. When you see that there are already two people in the ward, do not enter.”

“②Keep the patient’s appearance in mind. When you see that the patient’s appearance does not match the description, please leave immediately and notify Siefflin’s medical doctor.”

“③When you open the door of the ward, you see the patient appearing outside the ward and want to go in with you, please leave the hospital as quickly as possible (such as jumping off the building).”

“④When you open the door, you immediately feel someone pushing you into the ward. No matter who the other party is, you must jump out of the window of the ward immediately.”

“⑤When you feel unwell in the ward, or see the internal structure of the ward is obviously distorted, please leave; if you cannot move, you can imagine yourself standing outside the ward. When others open the door, you can turn around and leave (please Don’t fantasize about pushing other people into the ward).”

“This hospital is very safe. The accident is purely a personal problem.”

Veeva opened the door and glanced at the interior, and saw Serena lying on the bed reading a book, she rushed over and hugged the doll girl: “Selena~”

“Sister Freya!” Serena hugged Veeva affectionately, her cheek rubbed against her. She knew that Freya liked to be so close: “Hey wait!”

Freya looked at Serena strangely, Serena pretended to be serious and said with her arms akimbo: “Hello Miss, although you don’t know what you have experienced, sadness is not allowed with me. You today Also super cute!”

“Huh?” Veeva blinked: “I thought I was hiding well.”

“When you stay in this room for a long time like me, you can feel any change in the air.” Serena grabbed Freya’s hand and dangled: “As soon as you come in, the air is filled with sadness. Smell.”

Yes, you read that right, Serena now has hands-but only in this ward.

After discovering that Serena had no limbs neurons from the beginning, Siflin changed her treatment strategy. The currently popular biological reproductive devices are all built on the extension of neurons. Reproductive devices without neuron connections are nothing more than a pile of broken copper and iron without a soul.

Therefore, the only reproductive outfit suitable for Serena is the latest topic that the four major research institutes are researching and advancing: fantasy reproductive outfit.

If the biological reproductive outfit is to chop off a human hand and replace it with a universal utility knife, then the fantasy reproductive outfit is to make people think that the universal utility knife under the armpit is their third hand without removing any original organs.

This is a crazier and more promising project. After all, the only things a person can control are the limbs, the five senses, the five internal organs, and no matter how the biological colony develops, there are only 20 equipment columns, and no amount of souls can recognize it. But if a fantasy colony can be developed, a person can have three heads, six arms, one hundred eyes and a thousand ears. There is no doubt that it is another magical revolution-three heads means that the learning efficiency has tripled, and even the magician is greedy!

However, fantasy reproduction has been advancing slowly, and the root cause is the word 'fantasy': how do you describe colors to the blind, and how do you make the deaf people hear the thunder? How do you fantasize about manipulating organs that have not existed since the beginning?

However, this rare case of Serena just happened to be Shivlin's breaking point-it is very difficult for normal people to imagine that they have a third hand, but what if it is a puppet who imagines that they have limbs?

So this ward is arranged as a miracle between reality and illusion, where Serena's fantasy will become reality. Everything went smoothly. Serena soon imagined that she had hands. It is estimated that after a while, her legs will appear, and then miraculous surgery will be performed to fix it. Then Serena will become the first fancier.

This kind of treatment is of course costly, but firstly, Shivlin has a deep background, and secondly, the case of Serena is really rare, so the institute did not hesitate to let Shivlin squander the funds. But this treatment also has risks-Serena herself has no risks, but it is difficult for others who enter the room to tell.

Because Serena's fantasy will turn into reality, when a whimsical idea comes to her mind, this ward will become an unpredictable treacherous place, and the notice outside the ward is actually the experience summed up by many accidents.

Although Serena's situation is very stable now, except for a few people such as Freya, other people rarely enter the ward to visit her.

"I was scolded by Teacher Shivlin..."

"Why did she scold you?" Serena was a little strange, she felt that Sivrin still liked Freya very much.

"She scolded me for irregular work and rest..." Veeva said, "I don't know how she knew I would enter the Void Realm after 12 o'clock last night. She scolded me for not cherishing the blessings of the Blood Moon, the best time to log in to the Void Realm. It's 10 o'clock...Wait, isn't the teacher spying on me?!"

Serena guessed: "Maybe she saw you log on to the curtain after 11 o'clock?"

"It's also possible..." Veeva tilted her head.

Serena asked curiously: "Then you usually log in to the virtual world at 10 o'clock? Why was it so late last night?"

"Last night..." Veeva flushed with a silly smile on her face: "Hehe..."

Since picking up the diary copy that day, Veeva has taken possession on the spot. After a few days of chasing the update, she was quite sure that this was Ah Xiu's diary, and the bad man who didn't know where was still updating it.

Through the diary copy, Freya can observe the whole process of Yaxiu's escape from the first point of view, knowing that he was bullied by a male Veeva named Igola right after he was in prison, and knowing that he knew a death mad from the beginning. Jian Ji's woman...

Death Sword Fairy!

Gee tut!

What an annoying name!

Although Freya was very upset, she could only watch Ya Xiu and Jian Ji take a boat to explore the virtual realm. Last night, Ya Xiu updated that he had experienced the first blood moon trial, and showed a weak side in front of Jian Ji. Veeva wished to replace Jian Ji to comfort him. Then, then...

Serena looked at the pink bubbles that popped up from Freya's head, thinking that Veeva's mental power was so powerful. Although this room is mainly controlled by her thoughts, other people can also vaguely influence the illusion energy here. The stronger the mind, the greater the influence.

If Gerrard walked into this room, Serena wouldn't be able to hurt a single gray hair even if she tried her best.

And Freya, you can actually recall your spell-casting materials last night in front of an ignorant girl, the soul of dream freedom must think you have great potential.

After chatting for a while, Freya will go home too. Before leaving, Serena asked: "Are other people bullying you?"

"How is it possible." Veeva shook her head repeatedly: "My teacher is Shivlin..."

"But they secretly exclude you, right?"

Freya acquiesced.

She is a Veeva who has not graduated, even if she is already a surgeon, it is absolutely impossible to directly enter the Kaimeng Affiliated Hospital. At least she has to go to other village hospitals for standardized training for a few years. It was Shivlin who let her in through the back door, and she also accepted it. When she was a student, Freya would naturally be criticized by other medical practitioners. Even if there is no blatant discrimination, the atmosphere of exclusion cannot disappear.

But Veeva didn't care anymore.

Serena thought for a while, let Freya stretch her finger over, and then bite it down and bite the blood!

Veeva tried to retract in pain, but Serena held onto it and licked the wound with her tongue.

“That's it,” Serena said seriously: “You already have my breath, and other people won't bully you anymore.”

Freya flicked Selena's forehead very dissatisfied, but didn't blame her either, thinking it was just a blessing from the little girl, “Thank you then.”

Leaving the ward, Veeva thought that she had to go to the Void Realm on time tonight, and the diary copy could only be read in the morning.

But it's good to go to the Void Realm on time, so that you can see the little bat.

Since leaving the whirlpool and bumping into the little bat, Veeva has been able to meet the little bat every night when she went to the virtual world. The only time she did not encounter was when she went to the virtual world two hours late last night.

Freya suspected that she triggered some illusion mechanism, because the little bat not only followed every night, but also cast miracles to help fight.

But even if the little bat can't help, Freya also likes it—in the vast sea of knowledge, it is great to have pets to accompany you to perform together.

Thinking of this, Veeva became more upset with Jian Ji—why it was her! why it's not me! I want to raise the pet Yaxiu!

On the other side, after Freya left the ward, Serena reduced her smile, her hands slowly disappeared, lying on the bed like a puppet.

Naturally, receiving treatment is an expedient measure. It is impossible for her to allow herself to have limbs. "Lost" is the manifestation of Eternal Tribulation. Once she is contaminated with "possession", she will completely lose the gaze of the Four Pillar God.

As for why she blessed Freya just now, the reason is very simple: Freya is already her appointed chief cadre of the Four Pillars Church.

Yes, although Serena has not been able to teach Veeva up to now, this is not her problem.

It's the problem of the Four Pillars God.

Since coming to the Kingdom of Blood Moon, Serena found that everything went wrong, and even became a rare case that the hospital focused on observation. It was fate that prevented her from spreading faith and reaping the soul. After thinking about it, she felt that the fundamental reason was that the support of the Four Pillars was too small.

It is natural that the sense of touch is squeezed out by fate, just as the body's immunity will automatically kill germs. However, in the past, Tactile had the four pillars of God to help conceal the trajectory of fate, so it was able to develop business smoothly.

Serena was very sure that the Four Pillars of God was definitely watching the live broadcast of Ashura Hiss, so she forgot to support her work in the Kingdom of Blood Moon.

But such days will soon become a thing of the past.

Calculating the time, Eternal Jie has been entwined with Asia for a month, that is to say—

The death of Asia is already a part of the future.

He who doesn't even have a sense of touch, how could he defy me as a sense of touch?

As long as he witnesses the death of Ashiu, the Four Pillar God will naturally pay attention to the lovely Serena, and then the little Veeva will obediently become her chief cadre.

“No. 1 in the Trick List: Ashiu's Kingdom Resurrection Ceremony”

Lis subconsciously grasped the corner of Ya Xiu's clothes, UU reading www.uukahnsu.com An Nan and Qin Na also turned their heads to look at him immediately.

On the contrary, Ya Xiu didn't feel anything.

According to the rules of the previous nine tricks, the people who appear in the trick names must be dead. However, it is not the first time that Ya Xiu has passed the Reaper. If there is a Reaper who is responsible for his business, then the Reaper must have frozen shoulders now.

Not to mention that he is a foreigner. The death of your gospel weaves can kill my * man?

In contrast, he was even more curious about who wanted to resurrect him.

However, unlike the previous nine tricks, the Kingdom Resurrection Ceremony did not list the black hands behind the scenes, but went directly to the image data—

“” The great rust crow of Wangyuan, following you for the good, admiring you for the evil! The light desires you, and the dark desires you too! You are the existence that transcends everything, the color that God has painted on all things! “”

Finally, Ya Xiu couldn't stand it any longer.

Chapter 410: Good morning, Igola

“Four Pillars Cult...”

Clios murmured softly, Qin Na, An Nan and others raised their eyebrows, but more of the practitioners were confused.

The high-level magicians who have worked in the Red Hat basically know the Four Pillars Sect, and the firms that focus on collecting information also have some understanding, but it is impossible for other magicians to understand this mysterious organization-mainly because the Four Pillars Sect is mixed in the Gospel Kingdom. It's miserable.

It's not that it's miserable now, it's that it's always been this miserable. That is, when the civil war dynasties of the country changed, the Four Pillars Cult could only be dazzling for a while, but it would soon be suppressed.

The main reason is that the ubiquitous gospel system is too restrained from this mysterious organization. Even if the gospel does not deliberately leak the information of the Four Pillars, as long as the Red Hat uses the Gospel to conduct investigations, it will sooner or later uproot the Four Pillars.

As far as the Gospel Kingdom is concerned, the Four Pillars Church, the Abyss, the Void Channel and the Office are collectively referred to as the “Four Harm”. They are small problems that can never be completely resolved but are not very threatening. Therefore, everyone does not pay much attention to the Four Pillars Church.

However, they will soon understand that the Four Pillars Church is not effective in the Gospel Kingdom, not only because of the historical process, but also closely related to the leader's personal ability.

"In the underground hall, the leader of the four-pillar sect called the 'rust crow' sits on a throne woven with iron crow feathers, looking down at countless worshippers in black robes."

"His voice is erratic, like men and women, old and young, full of charm that penetrates the eardrum: "From today, you are all rust crows, you are my eyes, my tongue, my ears... you are my touch. . ""

""You have to go deep into every gloom in this country. "In the mermaid palace in the sewer, the sea monsters are offering sacrifices to the four pillars of heresy."

""You have to set foot in every temple in this country. "In the magnificent banquet hall, several people with gorgeous clothes and elegant manners showed off their white gloves on their right hands and smiled at each other."

""You must be the pillars of the kind. "In the war-torn city, the magicians save civilians from danger. Every child who is rescued will be presented with a dark crow feather. This gift becomes a source of their courage."

""You are going to be the saviors of villains. "As the vault door was blasted open, the mobs swarmed in to search for gold, silver and magic spirits. They looked at the magician wearing white gloves in front of them with admiration. They were attracted by the more elegant and cruel violence."

""Then you have to increase what you want and sell what you need. ""

""The one who insists on the name of the family, let her know how to crown the crown. "In the office, An Nan looked down at the invitation in his hand."

""For those who yearn for power, let him know how to inherit wisdom. "In the training ground, the sweaty Zuwendas tried to tear up the note in his hand several times, but the note that was as thin as a cicada's wings was as tough as a mountain at this time."

“Lonely and lonely, let him know how to gain understanding. ”

.....

“Chasing Xuanhe, let him know how to forge glory. ”

“Without intentions, let her know how to control the foundation. ”

Seeing this, whether it is the supporting role named for the friendly guest appearance in the video, or the crowd of onlookers who can calmly eat melon outside the video, there is a deep chill in my heart.

What they saw before them was not a reactionary organization in a remote area that would be annihilated by red hats at any time, but a weird sect that was deeply rooted throughout the country.

They control the Mermaid Palace, the largest intelligence organization in the world, and go deep into the top ten gospel consortiums. The people have their supporters, and criminals regard them as idols!

The most terrifying thing is that they can discern the weakness of human nature and dig into the darkness of human nature, even the sanctuary magician is just a * at their mercy!

The people on the top of the trick list are actually the same as Zuwendas-they know in their hearts that if they really get the ritual knowledge given by the rust crow, they will most likely carry out the trick crimes predicted in the future list.

It is precisely because it cannot be rejected that it is called a weakness.

And they also realized that the first nine tricks in the “Trick List” are the foundation of the first trick!

They are indeed behind the tricks in their respective tricks, but after the tricks, there are still tricks!

In the silence, an unspeakable panic burned the hearts of all the audience-what exactly does Rust Crow want to do? He created such a large organization, controlled so many magicians, induced so many tricks, what is his ulterior motive! ?

“Rusty Crow turned the throne and saw a huge map of the Gospel hanging on the wall behind him. The topography of the Gospel Kingdom is generally a long and narrow rectangle from north to south. After more than a thousand years of development, almost every place is It’s a residential area for intelligent creatures.”

“I saw Rusty Crow take out a notebook with the information of the magicians on it.”

“”wisdom. “Zubendas’s photo was posted on the city on the upper right.”

....

“When Rusty Crow connects these photos with a connection, an inverted tree pattern appears on the gospel map.”

Seeing this, everyone fully understands the truth of the first trick.

“Lunatic,” Reyne murmured.

It is indeed a lunatic—Rust Crow not only counted many sanctuary magicians, but all sanctuary magicians’ tricks were only part of the ritual, and the real ritual would cover the entire gospel kingdom!

No wonder all the tricks are scheduled on the same day, they even suspect that the time error of the first nine tricks will not exceed an hour to ensure the launch of the final ceremony.

Renn and others couldn't even produce too much anger, they were more incredible in their hearts.

As long as they find something wrong with the gospel,

As long as there is an error in any part of this series of tricks,

if only.....

To put it bluntly, failure of this trick is normal, and success is a miracle!

They couldn't imagine how much preparation Rust Crow had done in order to induce the first nine tricks accurately. It was a desperate workload just thinking about it.

The first trick deserves its name!

However, the inverted tree pattern has a total of ten nodes, and the first nine tricks are each responsible for one. Obviously, the rust crow is personally responsible for the last one.

And the last node is...

Southern city, Azura.

"Rusty Crow stands on the bottom floor of the upside-down building, overlooking the bustling steel forest below. As a bunch of fireworks rises, fireworks suddenly rise in the city on the first floor, and then the sparks fly along the circle, in the middle of the city. Cut out a huge circle!"

The magicians saw the space in the spark ring being torn into a gray chaos, and the expressions on their faces were very wonderful, because they all knew this thing.

Not only met, but also went in for a stroll every night!

“Why is there such a big door of truth!?” A magician couldn’t help but said.

“Wait, if things in reality touch the door of truth...”

“Theoretically, no matter can pass through the door of truth, but now this situation...”

“When the giant gate of truth is completely formed, Rust Crow seems to have received some message, directly smashing the floor-to-ceiling glass, and leaping to the gate of truth.”

“”crown. “Denzel, who had just arrived in reality, suddenly found himself out of An Nan’s body, and his soul quickly burned into smoke and flew south.”

“”wisdom. “The diamond-shaped blood mark formed only when Zuwendas slaughtered his relatives, suddenly flew south by himself.”

“”understand. “”mercy. “”severe. “”beauty. “”victory. “”glory. “”Base. “”

“Extend your vision to the high sky overlooking the entire gospel kingdom, and you can see a clear pattern of an inverted tree. The ritual energy from all parts of the gospel kingdom converges and flows into Azura!”

“”The last is...” The Rust Crow bit his index finger and sprinkled his blood into the door of truth: “The Kingdom. “”

“boom!”

“The entire gospel kingdom has a clearly visible curtain of aurora~www.mtlnovel.com~ mermaid palaces, consortiums, red hats, criminal gangs... Before you know it, the Four Pillars Church has eroded the entire gospel kingdom, following the leader’s Order, their life energy will flow along the fallen tree to the kingdom of the end!”

“Follow countless magicians and count hundreds of millions of sentient beings!”

“The gate of truth shrank suddenly to a point, and the first floor of Azura was flattened as a result, and even a huge circular pit was created as a result.”

“After a short period of incubation, the gate of truth shrank into a silk thread like light and electricity, and then it seemed that thousands of people were knitting at the same time, and the heels were quickly formed in the light, then the knees, the waist...until the last knitting Root hair.”

“He lightly stepped on the crystallized mud, looked down at his naked body, with his right hand tore open the door of truth and pulled out a dark red windbreaker to put it on, and looked up at the rust crow on the edge of the round pit.”

“The weather is very good tonight, the stars are shining, the stars are shining, and the thousands of stars are greeting them. So he waved at the rust crow and said with a smile—”

“”Good morning, Igola. “”
