

Chapter 4023

After a brief fright, Mike Jones quickly regained his composure.

He got out of the car alone. In the orange light, the Great Elder stood proudly, and in the bitter night wind, the Great Elder's sleeves rattled.

"Hahaha.."

"Uncle Tang is looking for me late at night, is there something important?"

"I have nothing to do at home all day, and I am not ready to go out for a lap."

"If Uncle Tang has something important for me to do, that nephew really can't ask for it!"

Mike Jones asked with a smile.

Great Elder Tang Xian was expressionless.

Cold eyes fell on Mike.

"Now, what's the point of talking about this?"

"Hand over those people."

"So, looking at the past, I can still leave you a whole body."

The elder's tone had killing intent.

Without blue eyes and golden pupils, the current Jones family is already useless to Truman.

The reason why the Jones family was not completely driven out of the Truman is because of their love for hundreds of years, and the second is that the Jones family knows a lot of Truman's secrets.

If the Jones family has been honestly eating and waiting to die in the Chumen, the Tang and Chu families will naturally not embarrass the Jones family.

But now, the Jones family has touched their bottom line.

"Uncle Tang, what are you talking about, nephew doesn't understand?" Mike Jones looked confused.

But the first elder didn't have the patience to deal with him, and said straight to the point: "Mike, what you did with your father is a big mistake, you shouldn't betray Truman."

"What are your father and son trying to protect the remnants of the Dragon Temple?"

"Want to wait for Chu Tianfan to return, and join him to bring trouble to Chumen?"

"My three families in the Tang Clan have been friends for hundreds of years. If it is possible, I will naturally not kill them all."

“But no matter what, your Jones family doesn’t know what is good or bad, and you are looking for a dead end.”

“To actually want to collude with Chu Tianfan, this alone is a death penalty!”

The elder shook his head and said.

Mike Jones was pale.

He never thought that his and his father’s intentions and plans were all seen through.

Now that it’s over, Mike Jones doesn’t have to pretend anymore.

He waved his hand, and the ten strong martial artists of the Jones family who were hiding in the car got out of the car and stood guard beside Mike Jones.

“Why, do you want to resist?”

“Just how many people?”

Tang Xian looked over with contempt, and his words were full of disdain.

Not only disdain for Mike Jones, but also disdain for the entire Jones family.

“Your ancestor Jones was just a servant who guarded the door of the ancestor of Yunyang.”

“It is Rende, the ancestor of Yunyang, who gave you status and honor.”

“Who would have thought that your descendants not only don’t know how to be grateful, but also avenge your revenge.”

“A vain attempt to hook up with the thieves will cause trouble for Trumen.”

“Is what you have done worthy of the ancestors of Yunyang?”

“Perhaps, the ancestors of Yunyang shouldn’t have pitied you, this lowly and humble family.”

Tang Xian was condescending and said coldly.

“Hahaha...” Mike Jones suddenly laughed.

That laughter, with irony, with anger.

Tang Xian frowned immediately: “When death is imminent, what are you laughing at?”

“Ha ha..”

“I laugh at you shameless!”

“Still keep talking, tell me about the ancestors of Yunyang here?”

“I think it’s you old dogs who insult the ancestors!”

“Tang Laogou, you dare say you don’t know, in terms of blood inheritance, Chu Tianfan is the real Yunyang, and the only orthodox in the Chu family’s Tianzi generation!”

“Your Tang family is also favored by the ancestors of Yunyang. Not only did you not protect Yunyang’s descendants, but you also helped Zhou to abuse and help the Chu family to harm Yunyang’s descendants!”

“Old dog Tang, do you feel any guilt in your heart?”

“You... you shut up!” Mike Jones said, and Tang Xian’s face flushed.

He was very angry, and he shouted loudly.
