

Chapter 403 The Young Man Is Respectable

Early the next morning.

Andrew sat on the presiding seat in the conference room with a stony face, looking at Darian, Victoria, Maximilian, and all the executives of the company.

"The new factory construction should be progressed as soon as possible. Vitoria, you are the person in charge, you must start the construction work within three days. If not, you will be demoted." Andrew said coldly.

After last night, Andrew learned the news from all connections, and all said that the plot was sealed by the police as it was the crime scene. The specific unsealing date depended on the progress of the case.

With these messages, Andrew felt that he could push Victoria, as he couldn't let Victoria get stronger and stronger in the company.

Many executives looked at Andrew in a surprise, and felt that Andrew's request was simply irrational.

The general manager of the infrastructure construction department hesitated for a moment, and felt that he should say something. Otherwise, if Victoria couldn't make it, he would be blamed as well.

"Mr Griffith, it is an impossible to start it in three days. I just contacted the acquaintances in the police bureau, and there is no possibility of unsealing for now."

"No possibility? The company keeps you all for nothing? Difficulties means impossible! Do you want to dawdle in the company? This is a great event for the development of the company, and no one can drop the ball now! Victoria, you should show your opinion first!" Andrew shouted.

The infrastructure construction manager bowed his head with a bitter face, and felt that this time he was going to take the blame.

Victoria took a glance at Maximilian, but she was still uncertain. Although Maximilian said yesterday that he had made it, there was no substantive action over there, and the land was still in a state of seizure.

Maximilian smiled and nodded to Victoria, "The unsealing documents will be sent here soon."

Andrew raised his eyebrows, looked at Maximilian with disdains, and thought Maximilian was telling jokes.

"Are you kidding? I just called to verify it, but the police said that the unsealing would be possible until the case was closed. The case of six lives can't be settled casually. What nonsense do you talk here? Are you going to impede the progress of the construction?"

Andrew's voice became more and more cold, and he finally patted the table and shouted, "You loser are not qualified to sit here, get out of here! Victoria, you can't take him into the company in the future! "

"Uncle, why don't you believe in Maximilian? We will definitely start the construction within three days. Before that, I hope you don't blame him. If we don't make it, you can dispose of us at your will." Victoria abruptly retorted to Andrew to defend Maximilian.

Andrew was so angry that he almost had a heart attack, and remained speechless for a long time, pointing to Victoria.

Crunch! The secretary pushed open the door of the conference room, and whispered, "Chief Carr of the police station is here."

"Oh?" Andrew changed his face, smiled quickly and went to the door of the conference room and said, "Hurry! Please ask Chief Carr to come in."

Chief Carr entered the conference room, and Andrew stretch out his hand to shake hands with him. However, Chief Carr directly ignored Andrew's hand.

Andrew smiled awkwardly, "Chief Carr, please sit down. I don't know what you come here for."

Chief Carr scanned all the people in the conference room. When he saw Maximilian, he suddenly smiled and trotted to Maximilian.

"Mr Lee, the unsealing document for the land has been completed. I'm here to send it to you. If you have any need in the future, call me directly. I have arranged police force to be stationed at the construction site for safety purposes."

Chief Carr's attitude was extremely humble, which was in great contrast with the pride just now.

Andrew stood still, gawked at Chief Carr pleasing Maximilian, and felt bad in his heart.

'What the hell was this? I can't reach Chief Carr even with all my efforts. How come he becomes like dog in front of Maximilian!'

Darian and the executives were all astonished. They couldn't imagine that the legendary Chief Carr, who never saved face for others, was so humble before Maximilian.

Maximilian took the document and glanced at it. He smiled with satisfaction and said, "Thank you for your hard work. Good job."

"If you have any affairs, just tell me. I will definitely try my best to service you." Chief Carr smiled and said.

"OK, I will definitely call you if I need. See you." Maximilian said lightly.

"Yes, yes." Chief Carr nodded his head a few times, stood still, and put on his cold face again, as if the humble appearance was just an illusion.

Andrew and others watched the captain leave, speechless.

Maximilian took the file and snapped it on the table, which made Andrew and others come back to their sense.

"The unsealing document of the land parcel is here. Any doubts?" Maximilian looked at Andrew.

Andrew blushed, knowing that Maximilian was humiliating him, and ground his teeth with extreme hate, imagining he could pounce on him and kill him.

"It seems that it won't take three days, and the construction can start today. Vitoria, contact Drew, and let his people go to the construction site." Maximilian said with great momentum.

Looking at Maximilian's sharp-edged look, Andrew and others had some bad feelings in their hearts. Why was this man who used to be a waste so powerful now? This momentum was beyond Andrew's reach.

Victoria showed a strange look in her eyes. When she looked at Maximilian, she gradually showed a sweet smile and said softly, "OK, I will contact him."

She took out her mobile phone and called Drew. After Victoria finished the call, she said, "It will officially start at 12:00 p.m. If anyone has questions, he can pay us a visit."

"The young man is respectable. Vitoria is becoming more capable now. Time flies. We are old."

"Maximilian is really good. I think we all misunderstood Maximilian before. Just looking at Chief Carr's respectful attitude, I almost thought I was dreaming."

The executives said flattery, intending to have a good relationship with Victoria.

Andrew and Darian had a rather ugly face now, and Andrew said in depress,

"You are dismissed!"

Victoria joined hands with Maximilian and walked out of the conference room, and the executives also went out of the conference room.

Darian said sullenly, "What is going on? Chief Carr is so respectful to that waste!"

"Who knows!" Andrew got depressed on the back of the chair, and lit a cigarette.

"Andrew, this won't work! You must curb their momentum!"

Chapter 404 Please Punish Me!

Andrew hesitated for a moment and ground his teeth, then took out his mobile phone and said, "There is a chance, but it may not succeed."

"Tell me what the chance is. Succeed or not, we all try it." Darian said very excitedly.

"A business group from the Dragon City is coming to H City for an investigation. It is said that Luke, who is engaged in arms business, is in that business group. He is cruel and ruthless, and he is lechery. If he sees Victoria, probably he would take Victoria away. What reaction do you think Maximilian will have?"

Darian flashed his eyes and said with a smile, "You bet! He will definitely go into a rage, and then find Luke for revenge. Then Luke will kill Maximilian."

"Yes, it is such a plot. The question is how to let them meet. The itinerary of the Dragon City business group has been arranged, and the list of participants from our side has already been fixed, so...."

Darian hesitated for a moment, thinking and saying, "The business group will not have too many activities at night. They will have entertainment by then. If you can arrange Victoria to the entertainment venue where they go ..."

Andrew's eyes lit up, and clapped his hands and said, "That's good. I will ask about the specific itinerary."

Picking up the phone, Andrew made several phone calls in succession, with a satisfactory smile on his face.

"Yes, Luke returned to the Pentax Winery for the night after tomorrow. The organizer has invited many young models. You only need to ask Victoria and Maximilian to go there. Please make sure of it."

"Andrew, please rest assured. I will arrange it properly, and we will wait and see Maximilian being beaten like a dog."

Andrew and Darian smiled at each other, and their eyes were somewhat proud.

Master Benedict was in an uneasy mood sitting in the bulletproof Mercedes, as the Dragon Queen had been in Prosperity Estate.

For the comfort of Dragon Queen living in H City, Dragon Sect specially purchased the whole Prosperity Estate.

Imitating famous gardens, Prosperity Estate was known as the most beautiful manor in H City, and its price reached 100 million dollars in previous years.

As the Dragon Sect had a great undertaking, 100 million dollars was only a drop in the ocean, although it was unreachable for ordinary people.

The Bulletproof Mercedes-Benz was driven to the Prosperity Estate, and Master Benedict tightly closed his eyes, wondering what to say and what to do when meeting Dragon Queen.

Along the way, he thought about countless possibilities and solutions, but he still couldn't put his heart at ease.

Master Benedict was more upset in thinking the stuff, as he was afraid that it was not easy for him to pass this time. If Dragon Queen was really furious, he would simply pretend myocardial infarction.

"Have my medical records been made?" Master Benedict suddenly asked.

The assistant paused, then nodded and said, "Everything is done, there will be no flaws, and everyone in the hospital has been informed about how to handle it."

"That's good. If situation was bad, I will pretend to be sick. You will report my recent physical condition to the Dragon Queen."

"Understood."

Master Benedict nodded and continued to fall silent.

Soon, the bulletproof Mercedes-Benz drove into the Prosperity Estate, and the views outside the window was exquisite and delicate, but it could not attract the interest of Master Benedict.

Getting closer to the main building, Master Benedict became more nervous and irritable.

The car stopped at the entrance of the main building, and a guard opened the door and said coldly, "Master Benedict, please accept the inspection. In addition, for the safety of the Dragon Queen, you can only go in alone."

Master Benedict opened his arms and let the guards search him. He pretended to be indifferent and said, "I see, is the Dragon Queen in a good mood?"

"I don't know. I haven't seen the Dragon Queen today."

The guard freely coped with Master Benedict, who had a helpless bitter smile, and then he followed the guards into the main building.

In the main building, there were guards everywhere, who were extremely alert.

Master Benedict considered that these were made for him. This was the Dragon Queen's expression of dissatisfaction with him, and it was also a deterrent to him.

In front of the closed living room, two maids pushed open the door.

Master Benedict bowed respectfully and said, "How are you, Dragon Queen?"

"Benedict is coming!" The Dragon Queen made some a lazy remark.

Master Benedict hung his head, went with small steps into the living room. He went straight to the front of the sofa in the middle of the living room, and respectfully bowed to the Dragon Queen, before he slightly raised his head.

As far as he could see, Harley was kneeling on the ground and massaging the white legs of the Dragon Queen.

Harley massaged her seriously, and didn't even look at Master Benedict, as if there were only her legs, but nothing else.

The Dragon Queen glanced at Benedict, and there was a touch of sarcasm in her eyes, "I didn't expect you to be so respectful to me. I thought you had a new master. When you see me later, you will bite me."

Cold sweat came out instantly on Benedict's forehead, and he hurriedly bowed and said, "I will never dare. I just want to lurk around Maximilian and master his movements so as to serve you."

"Oh?" The Dragon Queen said softly, with endless bends in her sound.

Benedict continued to explain, "I am all dedicated to you. Maximilian has no qualification and ability to inherit the Dragon Sect. In the future, the leadership of Dragon Sect must be yours. I am in favour of it with all my heart."

"Oh, don't say those useless things. Just tell me how you are going to lurk around Maximilian. I am interested."

The Dragon Queen leaned against the sofa, giving off a seductive breath, but Benedict couldn't afford any cockiness in his heart at the moment.

When he saw Dragon Queen in the past, he always imagined the taste of having sex with her. But at the moment, he only thought about how to pass her scrutiny. If he can't cope well, he may be lying dead on the spot directly.

"I heard about the legend of the key, and conducted a close investigation on Maximilian. Maximilian should not know about the key, or that Maximilian did not know what the key was around him, so I wanted to approach him and go deep into his life to find something that might be the key."

"Oh, do you want to find the key and then take your own position?"

Benedict trembled and said with even more fear, "I dare not, and I never had such an idea. I want to find the key for you."

"Huh, you are so concerned! But why don't you tell me about this? It is not good to act without authorization," said the Dragon Queen seemingly randomly.

"It was my negligence, and please punish me, Dragon Queen."

Chapter 405 Infernal Affairs

Benedict had no concern for his face, and admitted his mistakes humbly to the Dragon Queen.

The Queen was quite satisfied with his performance. She smiled, nodded and said, "Come on, don't act with me here. I know what you want. As long as you do things well, you will have a bright future."

Harley's hands paused slightly, and then continue to knead her legs.

With regard to the Queen's mind, Harley was somewhat confused, and felt that she should make an example at this time, and use the life of Benedict to establish her authority.

However, Harley pressed his doubts to the bottom of his heart, and his role was just a slave now.

Benedict was like receiving amnesty, knowing that he passed it.

"Thank you for your understanding. I will definitely work hard in the future. I will never commit such a mistake again. I will report to you in advance."

"You are a wise man. I won't say anything superfluous. Since you said you would lurk around Maximilian to find the key, I believe you. I will hand over your business to others for the time being. When you find the key, you will go back to take charge of the business. I will give you a big reward at that time."

What the Queen said indifferently made Benedict tremble violently. This was to completely take his power and businesses away, and he would never take it back.

Benedict experienced something he did to others. Dragon Queen completely ruined him this time. If he could not find the key, he would never have power in the Dragon Sect.

With a sad face, Benedict said, "I am afraid this is not the best idea. There are quite a lot of businesses in the hands of other lords. What I am responsible for are all trivial matters. It is not appropriate for them to take care of it."

"Nothing is inappropriate. Finding the key is the top priority. Even a pig in your position would be able to do it. Take it easy."

Seeing her firm attitude, Benedict did not dare to try any more, and said sadly, "Then I will try my best to find the key. What if I can't find the key? Do you have more clues?"

"No, I haven't seen the Dragon Sect key either. Try your best. If you can't find it, you will not go back to Dragon Sect. OK, I'm a little tired. You can leave now."

Benedict hesitated, bent down and said, "I hope you can give me a hand."

"Say it."

"Maximilian is always wary of me. I should win his trust, so when you meet Maximilian, maybe I will do something to offend you."

"Huh." The Dragon Queen smiled lightly, and said faintly, "It doesn't matter if you offend me. As long as you can find the key, you can offend me any times you want. But if you can't find it, you will see..."

Dragon Queen made a series of laughter which made Benedict feel creepy.

Although her words weren't finished,

Benedict knew what she meant, and certainly it was not something good. The extinction of his entire family was a light punishment, and what was worse was that they might die a horrible death.

"I will try my best, so I will leave now." Benedict bowed and backed out of the living room, and the two maids slowly closed the door.

Harley looked up at the Dragon Queen and said with a smile, "You are really wise. You take his power away with a simple word. After that, he will be totally alone, but how could his business be handed over to others..."

"You are still too naive. Benedict's business is messy, and giving it to others will make them feel proud. Proud guys are stupid." Saying these words, the Dragon Queen glanced at Harley deeply.

Harley was a little nervous, and hurriedly lowered his head, continuing to message her legs.

The Dragon Queen evoked a smile, full of pride as she could play with such a group of men.

'It would be better if I could get the key, then the Dragon Sect would be mine!'

'Then I will take charge of Dragon Sect!'

Benedict's car left the manor. The assistant looked at him in pale, and was afraid to even have a breath.

Thinking carefully on every detail of meeting with the Dragon Queen, he felt more scared, and considered he underestimated her before. She was definitely not a simple woman!

Now between Maximilian and the Dragon Queen, he felt he was caught all over.

Rubbing his forehead, Benedict took out a cellular phone and dialled Maximilian's phone.

"Young Master, I am Benedict. I saw the Dragon Queen just now, and I want to inform you of some situations."

Although through telephone, Benedict still had a flattering smile on his face, as if Maximilian was right in front of him.

"Have you seen her? What did she say?"

"When she came up, she scolded me and took all the businesses I was responsible for. Now I am an army of one, and she asked me to stay with you, gain your trust, and then help her find the key."

Benedict made up his minds. Since both sides suspect him, he should lean against both ends first, and wait until the situation becomes clear, and then choose one side.

Being a double dealer was not easy, but there was a way out if he managed it. If Benedict was still faithful, he would come to a bad end.

Maximilian frowned, as the key was mentioned again, and even the Dragon Queen was willing to send a dragon lord to look for the key, which made his heart shake.

Originally, Maximilian firmly believed that the key had nothing to do with him, but what the Dragon Queen did now made him think that she meant it.

"Did she give you any new clues, such as what the key looks like?" Maximilian asked.

Benedict said with a wry smile, "I asked, but she said she didn't know. She said she had never seen the key at all, and she didn't know what the key looked like. All of us are blind, and finding the key is all by chance."

Maximilian was completely speechless. He felt that the Dragon Queen was delusional to come up with the key. Otherwise, how could she bet that the key is in his hand as she had never seen it before?

"Then take your chances slowly. I can only express regret for your losing business."

Benedict covered his face with his right hand, thinking he would not need him to feel sorry. The real business was to find the key quickly, but what the hell was this key?

Chapter 406 Even God Can't Help Him

At noon, the construction site of the new factory.

Drew entered the arena with his troops and equipment, and began preparations for construction.

In order to show the solemnity, Drew even arranged a set of groundbreaking ceremonies with short notice.

Andrew, Darian, Victoria, and Drew each carried a shovel, and they would shovel the soil later, just to symbolize the start of construction.

"It's almost the time, let's begin our groundbreaking ceremony." Andrew said impatiently.

Since Victoria was responsible for the construction, showing up in this shit groundbreaking ceremony made

Andrew feel like he was being humiliated all the time.

Drew glanced at Andrew, but did not see Maximilian showing up. Drew said with dissatisfaction, "For such a big ceremony, Maximilian has to come."

"You..."

Andrew glared at Drew. Seeing that there was a relationship between relatives, Andrew was not very angry, "Maximilian is not a member of the company. He has no qualifications to participate in any groundbreaking ceremony."

Drew looked at Andrew in amazement, wondering why Andrew had such an expression. Could it be that he didn't know Maximilian was the mysterious rich man Mr. Lee?

"What are you looking at? Don't you think what I said is right?" Andrew said angrily.

"You'd better be polite to Maximilian. Forget it, no more talks. Victoria, please call Maximilian. It is the construction party who invited him to be the guest of the groundbreaking ceremony."

Drew thought that how the Griffiths treated Maximilian was their business, but he had to treat Maximilian well. If such a wealthy man was not treated properly, he would definitely be struck by lightning.

Victoria nodded, took out her mobile phone and called Maximilian.

Andrew's face turned black, and he slammed the shovel in his hand severely, "If you want to call Maximilian over, I will leave immediately!"

"Me too, Victoria, Drew, do you choose Maximilian or us for the ceremony?" Darian followed.

Victoria looked at the two and felt a headache. Just when she didn't know what to do, Maximilian walked over with his hands behind his back.

"Since you come for the groundbreaking ceremony, I won't participate, and the hands-on work is too much trouble." Maximilian said indifferently.

Drew smiled, bowed slightly and said to Maximilian, "It should not be like this."

Maximilian glanced at Drew, and Drew was afraid to speak. He smirked, picked up the shovel and said loudly, "The groundbreaking ceremony begins!"

A series of firecrackers sounded, and Andrew and the others waved a symbolic shovel.

Then workers and equipment entered, and the construction of the factory officially began.

Andrew dropped the shovel and said with a black face, "The ceremony is over. I have to go back to deal with official duties. Darian, you and Victoria can look after the construction site."

Andrew was annoyed by Maximilian's presence. He didn't want to see Maximilian at all. Drew was especially kind to Maximilian, which made Andrew feel disgusted.

Back in the car, Andrew closed his eyes, trying to calm down. Then he turned on his phone, clicked on We Chat, and looked at the portrait of Luke he had just added.

After hesitating for a moment, Andrew sent a few photos of Victoria.

Soon, Luke sent a few squinting expressions, and then asked for information about her height and weight.

Andrew rubbed his forehead and didn't know how to answer these questions. After hesitating for a while, he decided to have a voice chat with Luke.

Once the voice chat was initiated, Luke soon accepted the voice chat request.

"Hey, what's your situation? Is it so unprofessional to be a pimp? I have taken a fancy to this girl. Just tell me the price." Luke's lazy voice floated out.

Luke came to H City not only for business, but also for women. Before he arrived in H City, some famous pimps in H City had already contacted Luke.

Luke received a bunch of photos of young models and school girls. Those homogenous photos made Luke bored.

When he finally saw the photos sent by Andrew, Luke's eyes lit up and he was completely tempted.

"Uh, I'm not the one who pimps."
Andrew said awkwardly.

"No?" Luke's voice increased by an octave, and he said with some dissatisfaction, "You dare to play tricks with me. Believe it or not, I will rush to H City to kill you!"

"Luke, please calm down. I didn't mean that. She is my niece. If you like her, I will match it up for you. I heard you are going to the winery for a dinner party. I can take my niece there, but my niece is already married. I am afraid she will go with her husband."

"It's good to be married, and I like to steal her from her husband. You are really dissatisfied with your niece, or dissatisfied with your niece's husband, or you want to ask me to do something.

Just for your beautiful niece, I can assure you that what you want will come true." Luke was in a good mood and his tone of voice was a lot happier.

"I hope you can clean my niece's husband up. That guy is so arrogant that he is always against me."

"Hey, that's easy. I will definitely abuse your niece's husband! Don't worry, I will be waiting for you at the banquet. If she doesn't show up, I will kill your entire family."

Andrew felt a little panic in his heart, feeling that he was impulsively doing business with the unkind. But he had already done this, no matter how panicked he was, he had to continue.

"You don't need to worry, Luke, I will definitely handle this matter well. You just wait to enjoy it."

"Okay, that's it."

After finishing the voice call, Andrew had cold sweat on his forehead. He closed his eyes and recalled Maximilian's recent rise. The more he thought about the rise of Maximilian, the more restless Andrew became. He always felt that Maximilian's changes were too quick, and he almost couldn't recognize him.

"How on earth did that trash become so powerful? Not to say he can fight, he can also make Chief Carr lower his head, and Connor and others respects him. Is Wilfred really his backer? "

"But it doesn't matter, Luke should be able to defeat him, let alone Wilfred by then. Even God can't help him!"

After a while, Andrew started the car, stepped on the accelerator and drove away.

On the construction site, Maximilian accompanied Victoria for an inspection. Seeing that Drew arranged everything properly, Victoria was relieved a lot.

Darian's eyes flickered, and he wondered how to make Maximilian and Victoria go to the banquet at the winery tonight. He could not make it himself and had to find someone who was trusted by Victoria, so it must be Victoria's best friend.

A suitable candidate appeared in Darian's mind. After pondering for a while, Darian took out his mobile phone.

Chapter 407 Invitation

Darian took the cell phone and dialed Iris' number.

"Hey, Iris, do you know about the winery banquet?"

Iris, who was looking at the clothes with some of her friends, said in surprise, "Dad, do you also know about the winery party tonight? The news spreads pretty good. My friends and I are looking for the clothes and we are ready to dress up to go and participate."

"Will Victoria's best friend Anayah go too? I think she and your friends like to participate in such activities."

Iris raised her brows and asked suspiciously, "Dad, what are you thinking about? Do you want me to introduce Anayah to you? She is not an easy girl and is pretentious."

"I don't want you to introduce her to me. Your uncle has a plan and wants to arrange Victoria to attend the winery banquet. So I'm thinking about how to arrange it to make Victoria not suspicious? If you can let her girlfriend invite her, things will be much easier."

Andrew explained the situation, and Iris suddenly became excited, "Uncle has a way to deal with Victoria? If this is the case, I can contact Anayah and definitely let her take Victoria there."

"Well, that's what I meant. You can get things done quickly, and then watch the show on the spot." Andrew couldn't help laughing.

"Okay, it's up to me, and I will definitely do it well."

Iris put away the phone and her eyes rolled a few times, wondering how to tell Anayah.

After pondering for a while, Iris asked a girlfriend who had a good relationship with Anayah for help. After contacting Anayah, Anayah promised that she would definitely bring Victoria to the winery banquet.

Drew accompanied Maximilian and Victoria around the construction site, ensuring that the quality of the project was of top priority and guaranteed along the way, and he would definitely make mistakes.

Victoria felt satisfied. After all, Drew was her relative, and letting her family do their own projects was considered a cost-effective thing for both sides.

The three of them joked and returned to the engineering headquarters. Darian came out with a cigarette in his mouth and said, "I'll leave if there's nothing wrong here. Now it's you young men who can do things well. You should all take the lead."

"Then let's go back to the company together, I'm relieved to hand it over to Drew."

Victoria and Darian went to pick up their car respectively, and Drew finally caught the opportunity to speak with Maximilian alone.

"Mr. Lee, the construction of Topyuan Group is proceeding in an orderly manner. Now the main body of the project has almost been carried out. We are proceeding in accordance with the most stringent standards. Please take your time to go around and give guidance."

Drew had done a lot of work for the construction of Topyuan Group. All kinds of good materials were selected, and it could be said that he didn't care about profits at all and everything was carried out at the best level.

Although this caused some criticism in the Wright family, Drew still did it under pressure.

However, it took a lot of thought to do the best under great pressure, but Maximilian had never been to Topyuan Group, which made Drew feel that his painstaking efforts were in vain.

Maximilian must have seen what he did so that he could have a chance to please Maximilian.

Maximilian smiled faintly, nodded and said, "I've been a bit busy recently. I haven't cared about things over there. I'll take a look soon."

"You are a busy man, I know. I just report to you on the spot to let you know we are really working on construction wholeheartedly."

Victoria drove the car to Maximilian's side. Maximilian waved to Drew, opened the passenger door and got into the car.

"What did you say to Drew? It seems that he is trying to please you." Victoria asked casually.

"He said he will definitely do a good job in construction, and he will definitely live up to your expectations." Maximilian made nonsense.

Victoria smiled and was about to speak when the phone rang.

"Help me get my phone. Who will call me now?"

It was not convenient for Victoria to look at her mobile phone while driving. Maximilian picked up Victoria's bag and took the mobile phone out and looked at it.

"It's Anayah, do you want to pick it up?"

"Answer it and turn on the speakerphone."

Maximilian did as she said, and Anayah's voice floated from the phone.

"Victoria, are you busy?"

"I'm driving back to the company, what's the matter with you?"

"It really has something to do with you. Can you come and accompany me? Let's do beauty care and then go shopping. I want to tell you something."

Victoria rolled her eyes and said. "Uh, is there something important? I have to deal with something in the company."

Anayah said angrily, "What is so important in the company? I call you because I want to hear your opinion on something important. Come here as soon as possible, or I won't make friends with you anymore."

Victoria smiled bitterly and said helplessly, "Okay, tell me the location and I will see you later. Can I take my husband with me?"

"What?" Anayah pursed her mouth, thought for a moment and said, "That's okay, but if we go to a beauty shop, he should be waiting outside."

Victoria glanced at Maximilian, who nodded with a smile. It was okay to wait a while. It was not a big deal at all.

With Maximilian's consent, Victoria smiled and said, "Maximilian is fine. He can definitely wait. Tell me the place."

"Bingo Cafe in the downtown area. I'll be waiting for you there. Let's not leave before seeing each other."

"Okay!"

At the end of the call, Maximilian picked up the phone and put it in Victoria's bag, "Why is she mysterious, and she doesn't say anything clearly."

"Of course it's our women's secret. How can she say it casually. Don't talk nonsense later, OK?" Victoria exhorted.

Maximilian nodded helplessly. He didn't mean to probe into the matter between women, as men can hardly get what women were talking about.

Victoria drove straight to the city center. After parking the car in the underground parking lot, they arrived on the first floor of the Jinyuan Commercial Center. Bingo Cafe was on the southwest corner at the first floor of the commercial center.

Anayah was sitting by the door. After seeing Victoria's figure, Anayah stood up and waved to her.

Victoria and Maximilian walked over hand in hand. Anayah curled her lips in disdain when she watched the two holding hands together.

"Victoria, you are showing affection in front of me and this is too wrong." Anayah pouted and said.

"Why? If you can't stand it, hurry up and find someone who loves you to be with you. You can always show affection at that time."

Anayah pouted, "I'm looking for you for this."
