

Chapter 4043

"Thank you...Thank you Mr. Chu..."

"So, I...I also die without regret..."

Hearing Ye Fan's words, the last worries and concerns in Bill Jones' heart were undoubtedly gone.

He smiled and thanked Ye Fan.

Mike Jones next to him was in tears. Hearing his father's words, he was already crying.

"Father, you...you don't want to die..."

"My sister and I can't live without you..."

Watching his father move away from him little by little, Mike Jones only felt that his heart was about to break.

Bill Jones looked at his only son with anticipation, and gave him the final explanation.

"After the Jones family...the descendant Mike Jones obeys..."

"Immediately, I will officially take over... as the head of the Jones family."

"And...and worship the dragon...Dragon Temple, only...only Mr. Chu's order is...from..."

"Everyone in my...my Jones family respects Mr. Chu...Chu, and anyone who does anything that offends Mr. Chu's interests will be...immediately expelled from the family..."

"You... do you understand?"

Bill Jones, in the name of the head of the Jones family, gave Mike Jones the last order.

Mike Jones nodded with tears in his eyes, indicating that he would defect from Truman and join Ye Fan's command immediately.

Bill Jones smiled gratified.

"M...Mike, the Jones family will... be handed over to you. In the future, you have to... learn to walk by yourself."

Bill Jones' voice was too weak to be heard.

Obviously, his end is near.

After explaining the last words to Mike Jones, Bill stopped talking, but moved his body bit by bit and walked towards his daughter.

Finally, he climbed to An Qi's side.

He almost exhausted his last strength, hugged his most beloved daughter, and then died suddenly!

“Father!!!”

Mike Jones was devastated when Bill Jones fell.

He was sobbing, and the raging tears were only like a sea of water.

Mike Jones is clear.

From this moment on, the big tree that once shielded him from the wind and rain fell completely.

From now on, there are no big trees behind him.

And he himself will become the big tree, replacing his father, and sheltering the wind and rain for the Jones family.

“Hey...”

“Damn Truman!”

“How many more people will be killed?”

Bill Jones, as the head of one of the three Truman families, looks at the global martial arts world, and he can definitely be regarded as a big-name car.

Now, a generation of heroes has passed away, and Gaia and others are naturally embarrassed.

What’s more, this person once gave them a lot of help when they were in the most difficult time.

Therefore, Gaia and others spontaneously bowed three times in front of Bill Jones’ body.

“Lord Dragon, where are we going next?”

“Returning to the hot summer?”

After worshipping Bill Jones, Gaia and the others asked Ye Fan where he was going.

Now that Chu Yuan and the others are not in Chumen Mountain, Gaia and the others still know about this.

Therefore, in their view, the top priority is to return to Yanxia as soon as possible to protect Jiangdong.

Ye Fan shook his head: “Yanxia, don’t be too anxious to go back. I have already made arrangements. In a while, the people of Chumen can’t help my old friends from Jiangdong.”

“It’s you, I’ll take off the shackles for you first, and help you recover as soon as possible.”

“When your injuries are almost healed, I still have something for you.”

For the next action, Ye Fan had already planned.

He stepped forward and slammed the palm of his hand, breaking the hard chain forged from steel.

Gaia and the others couldn’t help but secretly startled.

You know, these chains on them were all forged by Truman specially for them.
