

Chapter 4047

Ignoring the jokes of Gaia and the others, Ye Fan just silently walked into the family he had longed for, attached to, and hated.

In the eyes of others, Ye Fan's return to the Chu family may be the return of the king, and his wish is fulfilled.

But only Ye Fan himself knew how long he had traveled on the road from Jiangdong to the Chu family, and how much suffering he had suffered.

Therefore, it is different from Gaia's ease and comfort.

How heavy was Ye Fan's heart when he stepped into this land again.

"stop!"

"Who is coming?"

"Why?"

"How dare you trespass in the important Chu family?"

It was the same as when he entered the Tang family.

Ye Fan and the others, shortly after entering the Chu family, were stopped by the guards at the door.

Ye Fan glanced at them and said lightly, "Chu Tianfan, the abandoned son of the Chu family, has gone through all the hardships before returning to the Chu family."

Ye Fan's voice was very loud.

The roaring sound spread throughout the entire Chu family in an instant.

For a time, the Chu family was shaken up and down.

"what?"

"Chu Tianfan?"

.....

"Who is talking nonsense?"

....

"Listen to the sound, it seems to be in the direction of the door."

.....

For a time, nearly a thousand people from the Chu family rushed out of the room, all of them gathered towards the entrance of the manor.

The name Chu Tianfan, in fact, at the beginning, the Chu family could not remember much.

At that time, he was just an inconspicuous illegitimate child among the countless descendants of the Chu family, and was later expelled from the family.

Who cares about such a small person?

However, what everyone did not expect was that.

Once an abandoned son who no one cared about, he almost overturned Truman a few years ago.

During the First World War, the name Chu Tianfan was known not only to the Chumen.

Even in the Chu family, all the women, children, young and old knew their names.

It's been three years, it's been almost three years.

It has been nearly a thousand days since Ye Fan fell.

This name may no longer be mentioned.

However, when I heard it again, it was still thunderous.

Although many people know that at this time, this person who calls himself Chu Tianfan is talking nonsense.

However, out of curiosity, a large number of Chu family members still rushed over.

"Who?"

"Who was that person who called himself Chu Tianfan just now?"

"Don't you want to live?"

"Don't you know that in Truman, this person's name is taboo?"

Many people in the Chu family were very angry.

While looking around for the person who was looking for death just now, he scolded him sharply.

Soon, there was chaos here.

Suddenly, the crowd dispersed to both sides.

An old man, accompanied by several people, came from the depths of the family.

"It's the second grandpa, the second grandpa is here!"

The current Chu family, with the highest seniority, is nothing more than two people.

The first person was Chu Yuan.

The second person was Chu Shen.

Chu Shen lived in a seclusion and always managed family affairs quickly.

However, now the Chu family's words and affairs have led the Chumen army to fight everywhere.

Therefore, the burden of managing the family naturally fell on Chu Shen temporarily.

"Who was talking nonsense just now?"

"Get out of here!"

"I think it's because I think my life is too long, and I want to go to see Lord Yama in advance?"

Chu Shen looked sullen, and a low roar resounded in all directions.

At this moment, everyone knew that they were going to see blood today.

For a time, the Chu family all moved towards the few people at the door, casting pity on them.

"how?"

"Second grandfather, I'm calling myself a nonsense?"

Just as everyone was waiting for the man to apologize and beg for mercy, a faint laughter sounded quietly outside the crowd.

Just like that, Ye Fan's handsome face appeared in front of the Chu family again after a few years.

"Yes...is it you?!!!"

For a moment, the world seemed to be silent.

There was silence everywhere, and time and space seemed to stand still.

Everyone in the Chu family's eyes widened.

It was Chu Shen himself, trembling all over, and his old eyes suddenly tightened.
