

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4055

Lord Wade heard the many whispers around him clearly.

At this moment, he was so excited that he couldn't add it.

He was excited not only because of half a rejuvenation pill, but also because of the feeling of being watched by everyone at this moment.

Previously, from the outside world, the Wade family had been cut off by half of their property and given to Wanlong Palace, so they were not less talked about outside, and they were not less despised, and even ridiculed.

Lord Wade felt aggrieved and wanted to declare to the whole world that the Wade family was not devoured by the Wanlong Palace, on the contrary, the Wade family directly took over the entire Wanlong Palace!

However, he knew that his great grandson, Charlie, did not intend to let the outside world know the true relationship between the Wade family and Wanlong Palace.

Therefore, although this kind of words relieves hatred, he absolutely dare not say it to the outside world.

The suffocation for a long time, until now, let Lord Wade find the feeling of raising his eyebrows.

Therefore, he was naturally very excited.

At this moment, Fei Kexin, who was alone in the box on the second floor, was not only surprised, but more confused.

She couldn't help muttering in a low voice: "If Charlie just thanked Lord Wade for the auction, then there is no need to take out half a rejuvenation pill at all, right? With the current situation of the auction, if you directly auction half a rejuvenation pill, I'm afraid that the whole scene will be boiling, and it must be tens of billions of dollars in revenue, why take half a rejuvenation pill to pay back such a little favor from the Wade family?"

"Also, if the Wade family just helped organize this auction, it seems that it was not the Wade family who helped Charlie, but Charlie who helped the Wade family..."

"After all, the Wade family was able to show their face in front of so many top rich people this time. I don't know how many rich people will try to curry favor with them in the future."

"No matter how you look at it, it seems that Charlie wants to pull the Wade family..."

"Could it be that Charlie has any other relationship with the Wade family?"

Fei Kexin murmured while frowning, and couldn't help thinking: "But I have clearly investigated the Wade family before, although Charlie is also surnamed Wade, but there is no evidence that Charlie has anything with the Eastcliff Wade family. Related, is Charlie a distant relative of the Wade family, or a collateral branch of the Wade family?"

"However, if Charlie is really a side branch of the Wade family, then his strength is too strong, right? Not to mention, he will be able to earn at least more than 100 billion US dollars in today's Huichun Dan auction alone. If such a person is only a side branch, then the head of the Wade family will have to turn around and turn around him..."

For a time, Fei Kexin was also a little confused and confused.

At this time, the aged Lord Wade was already standing on the stage.

Facing the comments of more than 400 people, his heart surged.

Out of respect for Lord Wade, the staff handed Huichundan to him and said respectfully, "Mr. wade, you can take Huichundan by yourself."

Lord Wade was stunned for a moment, then came back to his senses and said quickly, "Okay, okay! I'll do it myself!"

After all, he carefully picked up the half of the rejuvenation pill in public.

Ever since he knew that Orrin had recovered from Huichundan and was more than 10 or 20 years younger, Lord Wade had been full of desire and expectation for Huichundan.

Now, he finally got his wish.

Excited, Lord Wade put Huichundan into his mouth with his own hands, and then closed his eyes impatiently, wanting to feel every step of Huichundan's reaction in his body.
