

Chapter 411

"It looks like this monk family are quite good at enjoying themselves, such a nice place, so many bodyguards, and even a flowery mistress, I want to become a monk."

Ye Xing sat down and laughed, which could amuse both Lin Wei and Luo Xiaoyun.

Across the table, Master Hatoma instantly grimaced and sneered a few times.

"Old monk, what are you laughing at?"

Master Hatoma laughed coldly; "I laugh at the fact that some people don't know how to live and die."

"Then you are right to laugh, like you, I am also laughing at the fact that some people do not know what they are doing, and they want to block the chariot with their arms, and they do not know their own strength."

"You are the commander of the Dragon Shield? You are also too young, they say that if you don't have a hair on your mouth, you can't do anything firmly, young people in high positions can easily be impulsive and do confusing things."

"Young people are impulsive and are best suited to do some cleaning work, to clean up some rubbish that has bad intentions and harms the people."

Ye Xing sarcastically rose up in a tit-for-tat manner, and Master Hatoma and the others on the opposite side were obviously furious.

"If we really want to quarrel, then there is no point in meeting this time."

Master Hatoma grimaced and looked at Ye Xing with a sinister look.

"Tell me, how do you guys want to make this meeting meaningful?"

Ye Xing poured a cup of tea and drank it up, with a leisurely look.

"The Dragon Shield has some faults and has captured quite a few of our Buddhists, we want you to release them."

Master Hatoma threw out the conditions in a loud voice.

Ye Xing laughed as he spewed the tea inside his mouth, and the group of monks opposite him were so angry that they were about to strike.

Ye Xing wiped his mouth after making a scene, "Are you high on too many drugs and a bit out of your mind?"

"Surname Ye, if you continue to fool around, do you know what will happen?"

Master Hatoma roared in anger.

Ye Xing sneered, "I don't need to bother you with what consequences I have, I can do the math for you."

“Oh? Then I’m all ears.”

Ye Xing walked a few steps then said, “First you will be arrested, according to your greedy personality, you will definitely not blow yourself up, then there will be a trial, talking about all your problems and criminal facts, next is a shooting, the bad things you have done, you will definitely not be able to miss eating a gun, and finally your destination is a small box, an urn bought by a few hundred dollars at the crematorium!”

After hearing this, Master Hatoma almost vomited blood in anger, and the other monks were also indignant.

“Fine, you Dragon Shields are not willing to make peace, so forget it, there is much trouble waiting for you next.”

Master Hatoma laughed coldly in exasperation.

“What do you want?” Ye Xing asked casually.

“There are many things I want to do, how many headquarters you have in Dragon Shield, we will naturally have someone to greet them, and the identity details of all of you, we will investigate them all, once you offend our Western Paradise, all these people and their families will be punished by the Buddha Lord.”

“You’re scaring me?”

“No, I’m not scaring you, you can try all you want, now I’ll give you another chance, kowtow right now and admit your mistake, atone for your arrogance just now, and maybe we can talk again.”

“What a big mouth, what if I don’t confess my mistake?”

“Then wait for the wrath of our revenge.”

Ye Xing laughed and clapped his hands, twisting his head to look at Lin Wei and nodded his head.

Soon there was a roar from the sky, followed by a bodyguard running into the private room from outside, reporting directly that eight helicopters carrying ammunition had appeared in the sky outside.

There were also countless trucks from all directions pulling groups of heavily armed men over, already surrounding the area.

“If we people don’t get out of here, I guarantee that tomorrow Anyang will become a dead city!”

Master Hatoma shouted angrily with wide eyes.

Ye Xing sneered, “Those who scare me haven’t been born yet, not to mention Anyang you can’t move, the life of any one person is not something you can threaten.”

Soon there was gunfire and shelling from outside the room, violent explosions caused the private room to instantly shake and fill with a smell of smoke and fire.

Master Hatoma roared, “Fight them.”

Two monks threw punches to block them and were sent flying by his two punches, although they were ancient martial artists but their internal strength was not a star and a half difference compared to Ye Xing.

The two monks were followed by the two masters, Ye Xing smiled and did it, the two masters let out a delicate gasp and also fell to the ground.

“Sorry, a little heavy-handed, hurt the two teacher-esses, old monk you will not be heartbroken, right?”

Hatoma was furious and came forward with a surge of internal energy.

Unfortunately, his strength was also too different, Ye Xing thought he had something powerful, but it turned out to be simply scratching an itch, so he didn’t bother to rub it in, and kicked the man away.

Hatoma fell to the ground spitting blood, Ye Xing sneered, “Old monk, don’t play dead, although you are dead, but for the time being, I still need you to come back with me.”

Soon the outside was under control, apart from a few ancient martial artists who had escaped, all the other bodyguard followers had fallen into the net.

Ye Xing’s private room was also a great success, taking the men to Anyang to start the next operation.

The Anyang People’s Square, which was lit up at night, with many nearby buildings turned into huge curtains of light, constantly showing off the charm of the ancient capital at night.

But in one corner of the square, a few followers of the Western Paradise Lottery who had been given the order quietly opened their bags and took out the murderous weapons inside.

They were all like wolves and tigers, with fierce eyes, and had become so bloodthirsty from taking too many dream pills that, in their eyes, all the citizens in the square were a bunch of poultry that could be slaughtered at will.

The men were ready to make their move when suddenly a blinding light came on in front of them, followed by a crackling of electricity.

The six believers were struck by the stun gun and all fell to the ground twitching and foaming at the mouth.

They were taken away silently, and such a scene was happening in seven locations across the city.

The efforts of the Heaven’s Eye system and the technical team directly stopped all means of destruction in the Western Paradise.

That night, as usual, the citizens of Anyang went home to sleep peacefully after strolling through the streets.

Early the next morning, another vast operation took place across the city, with many of the West Heavenly Delights’ gathering places being smashed across China.

As interrogations proceeded, a steady stream of strongholds and believers were unearthed.

All it took was one capture of a wealthy businessman to bring out a large group of believers.

The Western Heavenly Lodges did not expect their very proud system to become a breakthrough instead. Moreover, although these people were controlled by drugs and desires, they had no resistance under the various means of the Dragon Shield, and there was no one who did not give an account of what they had to say.

In the Zhongnan Mountains, Ye Xing personally led a team to search the mountains, any hermit had to be properly investigated, any farmhouse or clubhouse had to be repeatedly investigated.

In the end, four strongholds of the Western Paradise Lottery were destroyed, and a large number of believers were arrested.

The case of the Western Paradise Lottery gained great progress, and it all eventually pointed to a group of people.

As Ye Xing looked at the confessions, he was almost certain that this Western Paradise Lottery was created by the Buddhist scum.

But no matter what, these people were from the Buddhist sect, and that gave them a place to find a place to spread their anger.

Chapter 412

There are many ancient temples on Tianxing Mountain, and many devotees visit the mountain every year, but there is only one ancient temple that never receives any visitors.

It is also the smallest and most dilapidated of the many ancient temples, but it is the provision of Yonggu Temple that makes all the monks on the mountain stand in awe.

At this moment in one of the meditation rooms of Yonggu Temple, a group of old monks with grey hair frowned.

With green incense, spring tea, oil lamps, and a huge word for Buddha, the meditation room was filled with enlightenment and depictions of Buddhism.

Suddenly, an old monk on the left side of the long couch spoke up and asked.

One of the masters below, none other than Master Wudao, nodded and replied, “In reply to the abbot, this person Ye Xing is a dual cultivator of immortal and martial arts, and when the spell formation was opened before, he was a difficult person, neither the ancient martial arts clan nor the immortal clan could do anything about him, this kid does not belong to any party and acts recklessly, which is a headache for people.”

The old monk frowned after hearing this, “He wants us to hand over the group of traitors, how can this be done?”

“Abbot, that group of traitors have indeed gone too far, using the Buddhist sect as a front to seek personal gains and harming many innocent people, this time why not just cooperate with the Dragon Shield and wipe them out in one fell swoop?”

Master Wudao knew that Ye Xing was powerful, and in addition was an upright person who did not want the Buddhist traitors to continue their evil deeds.

“But if word gets out at this point, won’t it diminish the prestige of the Buddhist sect?”

The old monk got worried, and the other monks agreed.

With a bitter look on his face, Wudao said, “Abbot, all the senior uncles, the Dragon Shield under the command of Ye Xing has not only brought the Hong Sect to its knees, but has even made the Hidden Sect cooperate with it, and nowadays the famous sects throughout the ancient martial world fear the Dragon Shield, so if we don’t cooperate, I’m afraid it would really be easy for all the major temples on Tian Xing Mountain to suffer.”

Suddenly, a young monk came running outside the house and said with a start, “Abbot, it’s not good, a few temple presidents just called and said that the relevant authorities had issued a notice for all our major temples on Tianxing Mountain to close their doors for rectification, saying that the fire and the roads up the mountain were unsafe and could easily cause accidents to tourists.”

The group of people looked at me, I looked at you all dumbfounded, nowadays the Buddhist sect although cultivating high monks no longer manage mundane affairs, but their disciples can all run huge temples, once the temples are closed, the impact can be much bigger.

Master Wudao hurriedly advised, “Abbot, just clean up in the name of the Buddhist sect.”

Ye Xing turned Anyang City upside down, all the followers of the Western Heavenly Delight were arrested, and even more so, none of the core staff escaped.

After the great victory, he rushed to Jianye again.

All the clues pointed to a temple in Jianye, a temple in the old city, a famous temple in the ancient capital of Jianye, the Jindu Temple.

His car drove all the way into a street of bars in Jianye City.

The monk, Gu Yun, is a famous and handsome monk from the Jindu Temple. Not only is he young and highly educated, but he is also dedicated to studying the Buddhist scriptures and is a famous internet celebrity on countless short video websites.

Of course he is a low-key person and almost all the short videos he makes are mainly about Buddhism, without joining others.

But when he arrived at the bar, he quickly entered the booth and got into a hot fight with a few young women.

After drinking and paddling and some manipulation, Gu Yun was also red in the face and eventually left with the young women he had arranged to meet.

The chauffeur got into the car and drove them both to the hotel.

It turned out that shortly after entering the hotel, the chauffeur came knocking on the door again.

Gu Yun opened the door and was soon pressed to the floor, and the valet who took off his hat was none other than Ye Xing.

Ye Xing entered the room, and Luo Xiaoyun and Lin Wei soon came in as well. The two of them went and knocked the young woman unconscious, and then began to interrogate the monk Gu Yun.

The living room was pitch black and Gu Yun was tied to a chair. Although he was drunk, he had been awakened by now and could only think in his mind that he had been immortalised.

“How much do you want to pay? Name a price, I’ll have it delivered, and I won’t call the police.”

“What do you want to do, just keep going with me like this? After dawn, a waiter will come to clean the room and things will fall apart.”

“I didn’t see your faces, and I won’t call the police, so you guys let me go.”

More than an hour later, Ye Xing turned the lights on, and for the first time, the monk Gu Yun felt hope.

Ye Xing sneered, “Dr. Gu, you are quite powerful, you can even invent Fantasy, use this pharmaceutical technology of yours properly in medical treatment, wouldn’t you have become rich long ago?”

As soon as Gu Yun heard Fantasy, his heart went cold, the other party knew his identity, there was no way to escape this time.

Ye Xing saw that Gu Yun didn’t say anything and smiled, “Just now you wanted us to let you off, now you don’t say anything? Knowing that you have sinned so much?”

“I confess, you guys can make me cooperate in any way you want, I only ask not to be shot.”

Gu Yun looked up, his face full of fear up.

Ye Xing smiled, this guy was really good at interrogation, coming to Jianye and so on for a few days was a good bet.

Lin Wei and Luo Xiaoyun interrogated him, and Ye Xing suddenly found something good, that is, the dream pill developed by Gu Yun was actually derived from an ancient Buddhist recipe.

This ancient Buddhist recipe was called the Marrow Cleansing Pill, and Gu Yun had been called in to refine this pill by a few traitors from the Buddhist sect in the first place.

As a result, the elixir was not refined, but instead resulted in an addictive zombie pill like Dream.

In order to gain enough profit, the Western Heavenly Delight brought this Dream to market and controlled everyone.

There were two versions of Fantasy, one was addictive but extremely slow to mutate, and the other was a cheap version that was easy to addict and easy to mutate.

Ye Xing looked at the ancient recipe for the Marrow Cleansing Pill and was overjoyed, with his confidence in alchemy, this prescription was definitely fine.

Gu Yun was not strong enough and his skills were poor, so naturally he could not refine it.

Ye Xing had recently been high on the Hybrid Pill, which was terrifyingly potent, but had one drawback, that if he took too much of it, he would not be able to dissolve the potency quickly, and would easily leave many residues in his body, and once there were more of these residual dregs, they would become a scourge.

Ye Xing didn't dare to swallow too much, delaying the rapid enhancement of his cultivation, but if this Marrow Cleansing Pill was refined.

By relying on the Marrow Washing Pill's powerful ability to cut down hair and cleanse marrow, cultivation would be raised quickly, not to mention that it could also maximize the absorption of the Hybrid Pill's medicinal power.

Ye Xing was so happy that he could not wait to refine it immediately, and told Lin Wei to hurry up and contact the logistics department to get the medicinal materials, ready to make a big effort.

Ye Xing and the others captured Gu Yun, resulting in chaos at Jindu Temple the next day.

Ye Xing was having breakfast early in the morning when suddenly dozens of ancient martial arts experts came outside, all dressed as a group of monks, and directly surrounded him, Lin Wei and Luo Xiaoyun.

"Aigooooo, what do you monks want? Don't even let us have a good breakfast, huh?"

The monk in the lead was in his forties, with a cross face and the human face of the Western Paradise tattooed on his neck, he grinned coldly, "The three dogs of the Dragon Shield, today I'll slaughter you and throw you to the pigs."

Chapter 413

"Why do people from the Buddhist sect speak out of turn?"

Lin Wei purposely roared after sweeping a glance at the other party, at this moment the other customers of the breakfast shop had avoided it for fear of getting into trouble.

The monk in the lead was full of bad smiles, "I didn't expect this chick to be good looking, how about finding a place to have fun with Master Buddha later?"

"Brother Puguang, the other one is also good-looking, don't take both of them."

Another fat-headed monk with a greasy face joked with a bad smile.

“I’m physically fit, I’ve had three chicks for a night of pleasure before and they’re all alive and well, these two are right up my alley.” The fleshy monk bragged proudly.

“Senior brother Puguang is just a bull, but we have to kill the rest of that kid as well.”

The cross-fleshed monk Puguang nodded his head in triumph, then pointed at Ye Xing and cursed, “Little thane brat of the Dragon Shield immediately get your ass over here and suffer death obediently, Master Buddha.”

Luo Xiaoyun roared in discontent, “Who gave you the guts to be so rampant, don’t you know that nowadays it is a society under the rule of law?”

“Rule of law my ass, if I say one word, no one in Jianye City will dare to refute it. Don’t you know that the leaders of the Security Bureau in Jianye City are all our followers?”

Puguang laughed in triumph and badly.

In fact, their group of monks had received news early in the morning that they had come to attack three of the Dragon Shield, but they had not checked that these three breakfast eaters were not the technicians of the Dragon Shield, or the first squad, but Ye Xing, the leader of the Dragon Shield.

If they knew it was this big fish, I’m afraid they would have to come out in force.

“The leaders of the Security Bureau are all your followers? No wonder you guys have been making a living in Jianye for so many years.”

Ye Xing smiled as he walked out of the breakfast shop and directly confronted a group of monks.

Among these monks, only Monk Puguang was an ancient martial artist, and he was half a bucket of water and was covered in shallow internal energy, Luo Xiaoyun could easily deal with him, but it was just that these erratic Western Paradise guys thought they had a lot of people and took down Ye Xing’s trio without wasting any effort.

Puguang revealed a ferocious smile as his hands formed claws and lunged forward.

He had practised a decent move, and usually three or five ordinary people would have to be rendered powerless by this move against him.

But Puguang was often willing to watch his defeated men wail in such pain, gaining great inner conquest and satisfaction.

Unfortunately, as soon as he lunged forward, the disciples behind him did not see him dislocate Ye Xing’s muscles; instead, his hands were broken by his opponent and he received a kick in the stomach, and his whole body fell to his knees and spat out blood.

The other monks swarmed on him, and Ye Xing dealt with them one by one, either slapping them in the face or kicking them to the ground where they could not get up.

The group of monks were brought down to the ground in less than a minute.

Ye Xing walked up to Puguang and forced them to ask where they got the information from, and soon learnt that there was a mole.

“I didn’t expect the people from the Security Bureau to be in cahoots with Jindu Temple and betray our whereabouts.”

Lin Wei was indignant and wanted to dispose of the matter immediately.

Ye Xing reached out to block it, “When Kitano’s side is taken care of, I’m afraid everyone will have run out, so we’ll go and take these bastards down ourselves.”

“You want to go to that Zhang Bureau of the Security Bureau’s wedding banquet?”

Luo Xiaoyun inquired curiously.

Ye Xing nodded, “I’ve heard that many of the high priests of the Golden Capital Temple have gone to give their blessings, so naturally we have to go too, if we end them all in one pot, this Western Heavenly Delight will be settled.”

“Master Ye is right, the Buddhist sect is also willing to help the Dragon Shield clean up the traitors.”

A voice came from afar, displaying strong internal energy, and then only Master Wudao was seen leading the group, and a group of sturdy monks, permeated with internal energy, came along behind him.

“The Buddhist Sect?”

Ye Xing smiled as he walked over, Wudao and he had met on the snowy mountain, so naturally he was not a stranger.

“Amitabha Buddha, these traitors of the Buddhist Sect have created such an evil religion as the Western Heavenly Paradise, colluding with overseas demons and endangering the living beings, it is really a shame for the Buddhist Sect, as this is a matter of concern to the Buddhist Sect, we should do our best to help.”

Master Wudao blamed himself with a painful face.

Ye Xing laughed: “If you really had a heart, I am afraid that this Western Paradise would not have become anything, you have let them go unchecked, instead you have allowed them to grow bigger and stronger step by step, not only taking in rich businessmen, but also developing followers, at present there are already tens of thousands of people being scourged by this evil sect, you are guilty.”

Wudao’s face turned red at the comment, but there was no way to refute it, so he finally said in a deep voice, “The traitors came from the Buddhist sect, so naturally the Buddhist sect has the obligation to clean them up, but unfortunately the Buddhist sect doesn’t have much manpower, and with years of hard work on Buddhist scriptures, who can make supervision all the time?”

“So that’s why our Dragon Shield exists, if there are any more traitors among you, endangering the people, you don’t care, we, the Dragon Shield, will take care of it, the ancient martial world won’t all be a clean slate, where there are people there are selfish desires, once they can't be stopped, there will be a lot of mischief."

"Go to the wedding, I heard that many of the core executives of the Western Paradise Land have gone, your Buddhist sect will have to solve the trouble personally, draw a clear line and let us decide that you are just a group of law-abiding monks."

Ye Xing finished speaking and led the way, Wudao touched his nose and did not dare to complain about anything.

The whole ancient martial world had been stirred up by the Dragon Shield and could no longer be united, and I was afraid that the only real threat to the Dragon Shield was the Immortal Sect.

Of course, each of the other three great masters is also very powerful, and I am afraid that it will not be so easy for Dragon Shield to become the enforcer of peace for all.

Wudo understands in his heart, naturally he is waiting to eat the melon, and does not take sides, anyway, the Buddhist sect is a pure place, just concentrate on Buddhist scriptures and learning.

Today is the big day for the Zhang family to marry their daughter. The son-in-law is from the city of Shenzhen and is worth over 100 million dollars.

The red carpet was rolled out outside the hotel at this time. Apart from the waiters, there were also friends and relatives of the Zhang family, all of whom were prominent figures in Jianye.

The Zhang family has deep roots in Jianye, with the old man's generation in a high position of power, and now their children and grandchildren are all in high positions in the major departments of Jianye, so many wealthy businessmen have come to pay their respects, and there are all kinds of luxury cars at the entrance, from BMWs and Mercedes to Maseratis and Rolls-Royces.

Young people love a good time, and the friends of the bride and groom formed a luxury car parade, with a Lamborghini lined up in several rows, attracting countless passers-by.

Zhang Xiwen, dressed in a suit and full of smiles, with his main family accessories was greeting all the guests.

He was very content with such a spectacle, this time not only had he mobilised all the connections of the Zhang family, but also the face given by the Jindu Temple. With the help of the Jindu Temple, almost all the wealthy businessmen of Jianye, large and small, came, but it was a great face for the Zhang family.

Chapter 414

"Bureau Zhang, this is a great face you have, the boss of the Dongwang Group is here."

"Not only the Dongwang Group, but also the bosses of the famous domestic e-commerce company, the Jianye branch, have all come."

"It looks like after the Zhang family marries their daughter, your Zhang family will take off again."

A group of people began to boast, which made Zhang Xiwen very satisfied, once he thought that the Zhang family could get such a big face, it was really inseparable from the Jindu Temple, and from now on they had to continue to cooperate for the Jindu Temple, so that the Zhang family could always take off.

In the banquet hall on the third floor of the hotel, a large number of wealthy businessmen were befriending a group of monks.

These monks were all from the Jindu Temple, and normally in the eyes of the believers, they were all high up in the world and would hardly accept any entertainment.

If you want to meet the masters of the Golden Capital Temple, you have to go inside the temple and be sincere in order to be received.

The legend of Jindu Temple has long been spread within the Jianye Shopping Centre.

Not only does the Golden Capital Temple have pills to cure all diseases, it also has a network of connections that can easily solve any trouble.

Take the case of a certain branch of an online business that suffered from counterfeit goods some time ago. After sincerely seeking an audience, the matter was successfully resolved, and the consumer who bought the counterfeit goods even came forward to admit his mistake and had nothing to do with the e-commerce platform.

The incident instead turned out to be an advertisement that ushered in a great take-off for that e-commerce company.

The head of the Jianye branch was also commended by the head office and moved up a big step in the workplace.

There were also many grassroots clerks who simply asked to go to the Jindu Temple, and almost always had their requests answered, with unparalleled spirituality.

These monks of the Golden Capital Temple turned into attained monks, each with not only real skills but also the means to make people's wishes come true.

While these monks were enjoying the flattery of the wealthy businessmen present, suddenly someone with a vibrating mobile phone in his pocket got up and went to the bathroom, soon returning in a great hurry with a change of face.

Several of the monks did not speak, all communicating in code, and one by one, their faces paled and they got up to leave.

Unfortunately for them, they could not leave, as armed men came from all sides and surrounded the whole area of the hotel at once, and the two main streets were closed to traffic.

An old monk in the lead ordered in a low voice, “Call Zhang Xiwen and tell him to hurry up and solve this matter.”

Zhang Xiwen was the leader of the Security Bureau, and when he received the call, people were dumbfounded, what kind of team came here to cause trouble on the big day of his own daughter's marriage?

Not only did they block the road, they also did not let the hotel people in and out, they were simply trying to rebel.

"Masters, don't worry, I will definitely investigate and give you an explanation."

After answering the phone in the hotel lobby, Zhang Xiwen grabbed his assistant and ran out.

The street across the street was indeed blocked, but the people blocking the street were not traffic officers in bureau uniforms, nor were they special agents on a mission.

"Who the hell is this to deliberately cause trouble and to damage my face?"

Zhang Xiwen shouted angrily as he ran over and grabbed a member of the team who was armed with a gun, "Who told you to come and cause trouble?"

The other man was no slouch either, and immediately pushed Zhang Xiwen away, his gun loaded and aimed at his head.

No one would be unafraid when they saw the cold weapon with its fangs bared.

Zhang Xiwen's subordinates hurriedly pulled him over, then pointed at the other party and asked which department he was from.

"Our operation has to be kept secret, there's no way to answer you too much, please go back to the hotel right now, come out again and stop us from doing our job, we can shoot."

The team members with loaded guns issued a chortle.

Zhang Xiwen was dumbfounded, as the leader of the Security Bureau, he knew very well that once he had the decisive power to shoot, then things were not simple, and the other party was dressed in such a way that they belonged to a certain war zone and would definitely not be their opponents to stir up trouble.

Zhang Xiwen returned to the hotel lobby in a huff and called the monks of Jindu Temple just to explain the situation.

As a result, the monks of Jindu Temple were all furious, and one by one, they quickly entered the bathroom and began to change out of their clothes. After putting on their wigs and suits, they became no different from ordinary people, completely devoid of the previous refined elegance of the attained monks.

Zhang Xiwen kept calling out for information, but it turned out that no one knew what was going on.

"Call Zhang Gui right away and tell him to bring the brigade, this is all about me today any way I see it."

Zhang Xiwen roared up.

The subordinate thought better of it and dialed Zhang Gui's number, and soon a dozen cars sped towards the hotel.

On one side were loaded members of the team and on the other were the uniformed law enforcement brigade of the Security Bureau, and the two sides confronted each other.

Neither side let anyone go until Ye Xing drove his car up.

After getting out of the car, he took a glance at the law enforcement brigade, without a few guns, and was very arrogant.

"No matter who it is, blocking our action will not work, surrender your guns and arrest them."

As soon as Ye Xing roared, the team members swarmed on them, the dozens of people from the law enforcement brigade were pointed at by hundreds of people from the other side with guns, and they were quickly cowed.

Ye Xing got into the car and continued towards the hotel, when he reached the front door of the hotel, he walked in.

At this moment, Zhang Xiwen was furious and had even taken off his jacket.

Ye Xing saw the tattoo of a human face at the bottom of the other party's neck and instantly understood the identity of the other party.

"Whose family is so unlucky to get married here? All around is surrounded by water, surely it will be a big arrest later, right?"

Ye Xing smiled as he walked over, and Zhang Xiwen turned his head to look at him, thinking about it as if he didn't have a problem with this young man.

"How did you get in?"

"I just walked in, are you still short of people in the Western Paradise? The three of us want to join."

Ye Xing smiled.

Zhang Xiwen was instantly furious, not many people knew that he had joined the Western Paradise behind his back, so he immediately roared, "What are you talking about? Someone get him out of here."

The hotel lobby manager came over with a waiter, Lin Wei stopped them, showed his ID and yelled with a stern face, "All the hotel staff go back and stay there, you have nothing to do with this."

The lobby manager looked at the documents and was dumbfounded, immediately calling all the waiters and security guards away.

Zhang Xiwen was furious and pointed at Ye Xing and questioned, "So it was you who did this, who gave you the power to block the road, who gave you the power to surround the hotel?"

"The people gave you the power, you must be the leader of the Security Bureau, right? Behind the scenes, you've been engaging in feudal superstition, and colluding with the government and business, and most abominably betraying our Dragon Shield operations, you're guilty as hell, damn you."

“You’re from Dragon Shield?”

Zhang Xiwen’s face turned pale with fear, he had indeed been asked by the monks of the Jindu Temple to keep an eye on the Dragon Shield, so as soon as Ye Xing and the others arrived in Jianye, he immediately passed on the news to the Jindu Temple.

“What a waste of words, where are the monks from Jindu Temple? If you let one get away today, I’ll make sure you die a horrible death.”

Ye Xing roared directly.

Zhang Xiwen trembled and didn’t even know how to reply.

Luo Xiaoyun came in front of him and smiled, “Don’t even think about resisting, the things you did, we at Dragon Shield have already investigated them clearly, enough to be shot.”

Zhang Xiwen sat down on the ground in fear, his face pale as if he had aged by more than ten years.

Chapter 415

Zhang Xiwen howled, trying to escape a death.

Ye Xing laughed coldly and then started a hotel-wide search, no one was allowed to leave.

At this moment, inside the banquet hall, those rich businessmen started to move, each one rich and powerful, not pissing on anyone.

“I am Huang Yun from the Dongwang Group, you should have heard of me, many leaders in Jianye City know me, hurry up and open the door, I have to go back to the group to deal with some matters, if I am delayed, I am afraid you will not be able to eat.”

A medium-sized group boss wearing an expensive suit walked to the entrance of the banquet hall and arrogantly shouted at the Dragon Shield members.

Huang Yun held fire in his heart and questioned with dissatisfaction, “Then how long are you going to keep us here, we are not prisoners, we are famous local entrepreneurs, how much tax we pay, how many people our company supports, is your chief clear? Hurry up and get out of my way, don’t be a watchdog.”

Zhang Shaoqin’s face changed as he snapped angrily, “Sir, please mind your words, we are Dragon Shield members, we now have the right to lock down the hotel and look for suspects, and you must cooperate, don’t ever consider your status as a privilege, there are no privileges in our Dragon Shield eyes.”

“Grass, I spent so much money to raise you dogs, do you know how much money you will lose for the delay?”

Huang Yun roared in discontent and incitement.

The other wealthy businessmen with him were also uneven.

“Right, are you guys responsible for the losses when something happens to our company?”

“Let me tell you, I know quite a few of the leaders of Warwick, which department are you from? What qualifications do you have to block the road and arrest people, making such a big commotion and affecting our business activities, aren’t you afraid of picking up clothes?”

“All said and done, just a bunch of watchdogs, taking a chicken feather for an arrow, without us taxpayers, without us corporate groups paying taxes, you all eat shit one by one, right?”

The wealthy businessmen had been trapped for too long, each with grievances in their hearts, and they all instantly flared up, sightless.

All of the first team at the door were furious and clenched their fists, they were the best of the best in all the major departments, they were all dragons among men, whether it was information technology, or means of combat, they were all kings among soldiers, but unfortunately they were not understood or appreciated at this time, instead they had become the lackeys in the mouths of these rich businessmen.

Zhang Shaoqin was tempted to make a move, but discipline would not allow him to do so towards the common people.

“Please return to your seats, all of you, we are on a mission.”

Zhang Shaoqin’s colleague, Ye Fan, stepped out and stopped everyone in front of him.

At this moment, a noblewoman next to him, picked up a glass of wine and rushed over, splashing out a glass of wine directly towards Ye Fan’s face.

The noblewoman sneered after splashing it, “See, these guys are worse than dogs, wild dogs know how to bark when they are kicked, they don’t even dare to bark.”

“Haha, this is a bunch of wimps, I don’t know who led the soldiers, how can they defend the country if they are such wimps, they are just bullying us people.”

“I think we should all chip in some money for them and send these beggars away.”

“Yes, we must be asked to pay for the benefits, these bastards don’t look moral, but in fact they just want benefits.”

Everyone in the banquet hall burst out laughing, they had a grudge so they just hated the First Squad.

A wedding was a happy event, but when it was suddenly spoiled, no one could take it.

Ye Fan wiped the wine from his face and suddenly slapped out viciously.

Unfortunately, he stopped when he almost reached the noblewoman’s face, discipline prevented him from striking because his status was different.

Status represented dignity, something that was more important to a member of the ranks than even a life.

“I can die in battle, but I can’t break discipline because I can’t sully the uniform on my body!”

Ye Fan withdrew his hand and spat out this sentence inside his mouth.

The noblewoman laughed out loud after hearing this, she had already drunk a lot, at this moment, when she saw that the other party didn’t dare to touch her at all, she couldn’t say how pleased she was.

“How dare a dog bite someone? Today I will let you see what I am capable of.”

After cursing, this noblewoman slapped Ye Fan’s face, and scolded him afterwards, “Dog slave, will you let me go?”

“No, please go back

Slap!

Another slap.

At this point, Huang Yun and the others were extremely satisfied, full of playful smiles watching the fun.

“Get out of the way, if you don’t let go, you will be killed.”

The noblewoman continued to roar up, her eyes wide, completely devoid of any sense of decorum, turning into a poisonous woman, a shrew with a snake’s heart.

Inside the banquet hall, all the guests ran to the door to watch the action.

Ye Fan and Zhang Shaoqin blocked the room, and after the first person made a move, there was a second.

Especially the friends and family of the wedding bride, one had no scruples and went up and started slapping and scratching indiscriminately.

At this point the people outside the house rushed to report the situation.

Ye Xing was checking the surveillance, he was sitting in the hotel security room, and was already watching the route of the group of monks.

“Went to the bathroom and came out as a group of guests, it looks like they have disguised themselves, immediately clear everyone, don’t let any of them go, including the hotel security attendants.”

Ye Xing twisted his head to explain up, Lin Wei nodded down and took the intercom and started giving orders.

Ye Xing frowned and clicked on the surveillance of the banquet hall, finding that two members of the first squad were actually surrounded by guests rich businessmen.

“How outrageous.”

Outside the banquet hall, the two members of Team One were already furious and wanted to rush in and do something, but unfortunately discipline prevented them from doing anything recklessly, let alone retaliating.

The doors were pulled open and Ye Xing angrily walked in and roared, "Whoever dares to do it again, I'll scrap his claws."

"Grass, you all work for us as dogs, how dare you hit your master, huh?"

Huang Yun sneered as the other wealthy merchants and guests instantly laughed.

But immediately afterwards with a bang, Huang Yun's entire body flew backwards several metres, hitting a table hard and lying on the ground, passed out.

The others were stunned, and one rich businessman, who was close to Huang Yun, shouted in anger, "A beating, these guys are enforcing the law recklessly, videotape them and sue their superiors, I don't believe there is no king's law."

The rich businessman did the same, his whole body flew out and fell heavily on the carpet, spitting blood heavily, unable to even speak out in pain.

Kicking two people away in quick succession, Ye Xing looked around the entire banquet hall, "Who else wants to try?"

Some people took out their mobile phones to record the video, but Lin Wei immediately greeted the team members and collected the phones.

Everyone dared not speak out in anger, and Ye Xing roared, "All of them with hoods and handcuffs, they even openly resisted the law, then we can't give them any freedom."

Chapter 416

The wealthy businessmen and guests were dumbfounded and slyly argued.

But Lin Wei was also furious and with a wave of her hand, the Dragon Shield team members swarmed on them, all handcuffed and pulled out one by one with their hoods on.

These people did not expect Ye Xing's thunderous action, and they did not talk nonsense, they just arrested them.

A few of the women were scared and crying, after all, the first time they were arrested and handcuffed, it was really a stain for life.

Ye Xing came to Zhang Shaoqin and Ye Fan and lectured with dissatisfaction, "Who told you to be foolishly beaten."

"We can't break discipline."

“Discipline my ass, is discipline for you guys to just take a beating? No matter who they are, if they dare to offend Dragon Shield to do something, then they don’t have to be polite, if they dare to speak out against me, they can be arrested, and if they dare to do something, they can be shot on the spot!”

Ye Xing roared up, this voice resounded throughout the banquet hall, making those guests and wealthy businessmen who were handcuffed away all dumbfounded.

What was the concept of being shot on the spot, having seen foreign law enforcement videos, they should all understand the brutality of it.

But this was the best guarantee for the authority of the law enforcers!

Ye Xing’s words made all the Dragon Shield members tremble inside.

Yes, we are the Dragon Shield, the shield of dragons, what are we afraid of, what are we afraid of?

“Remember my words, from now on if you are bullied like this again, get the hell out of Dragon Shield, I don’t want wimps, I want ruthless characters!”

Ye Xing turned his head and left the banquet hall, all the Dragon Shield members were taught a lesson, and from now on there will be a mantra within the Dragon Shield: Dragon Shield dignity, defend it with blood!

When Ye Xing arrived at the security room, Lin Wei followed him in and frowned: “What should we do next? Many of those wealthy merchants are prominent figures in Jianye City.”

“So what if they are respectable, Dragon Shield is doing its job, they are not cooperating and are arrogantly raising hell, beating and insulting our team members, put the video out, I want everyone to see the ugly faces of these rich merchants.”

“Should we make such a big deal?”

“It has to be this big, those who dare to beat up Dragon Shield will have to accept the wrath of the dragon!”

Ye Xing gave the order, and Lin Wei naturally had to do as she was told.

Dragon Shield’s technicians were strong, at least the posting piece was simply expert, any forum that couldn’t get through, they had a way to put the post on top.

The same day China exploded, with all the news media, guns and cannons trained on the incident.

Netizens saw the slapping and red wine splashing and hated these lawless rich businessmen to the core.

Dragon Shield’s technicians also released a large number of recordings of these wealthy businesswomen swearing and insulting words as they caused trouble.

The videos and conversations were released and instantly there was a national revolt.

Ye Xing didn’t care about the posts on the internet at this time, even if the netizens didn’t deal with these guys, he still had a way to find trouble with those rich businessmen.

At this moment, he kept an eye on the hotel and after not finding any breakdowns, he asked Luo Xiaoyun to go and invite the group from the Buddhist sect.

Master Wudao and the others were all on the road outside the hotel, each one like a stone statue, not moving or smiling, chanting sutras with their eyes closed.

When Ye Xing came to call them in, Master Wudao knew it must be a bit tricky.

After viewing the video, Master Wudao frowned, "The people are still at the hotel, only they are very good at disguising themselves, let our Buddhist disciples go and search, they should find a breach soon."

Ye Xing originally wanted Wudao and the others to watch and give them a downward spiral, at this point, he couldn't find those evil monks from the Western Paradise, and it was no good to spend a long time, so he could only nod and agree.

Wudao and the others went down and searched everywhere, checking everyone, and soon found two of the imprisoned guests and also three from within the hotel attendants.

The two sides exchanged blows, both Buddhist disciples, and fought on equal terms, but with more people brought by Wudao and with the help of the Dragon Shield crew on one side, they soon subdued all five evil monks.

After watching the surveillance, Ye Xing walked out and saw the five evil monks who were covered in blood, and thought to himself that the matter had been successfully resolved.

The matter of the Western Paradise was indeed successfully resolved, but Ye Xing still had to give an explanation to the beaten members of the Dragon Shield.

Huang Yun and the others were accused of assault, arrest, obstruction and many other charges.

Many bigwigs stepped in to plead for mercy, but access to Kitano's side was blocked.

Dragon Shield is a special department that the Chinese military spirits have named to protect, and every single thing they have done lately has been extremely outstanding and completed exceptionally well, so how can a department that is so highly regarded be something you can mess around with?

If you touch the scales of a dragon, you will die!

Ye Xing was determined not to stop this time, so he naturally had to make Huang Yun pay a heavy price for these people.

Some of the wealthy merchants in Jianye City were laughing and some had palpitations. They had to understand that once they thought they had some money and some connections, they could be lawless.

When Ye Xing returned to Guangnan Province, Murong Xue also learned of the furore Long Dun had created and asked with a smile, "You are really something, Long Dun has sent a dozen wealthy businessmen to jail in one breath, I don't know how many people will be offended."

"I am not afraid to offend as many people as I can, the dignity of the Dragon Shield cannot be desecrated by anyone."

Murong Xue smiled up, "I am also a member of the Dragon Shield, some people use their power for personal gain and fool around with me as a subordinate, is it possible for me to sue?"

"That's out of the question, within the Dragon Shield, it's all up to me, you have no way to sue, so you might as well obey me."

"Stop it, I'll get angry if you disturb my training."

Murong Xue smiled and lectured, Ye Xing there was willing to agree, as soon as he went forward and wrapped his arms around the person.

As a wife, Murong Xue naturally could not let Ye Xing touch her, but this was a critical time for her cultivation, so she really could not think about male and female love, at most, she would let him hug and kiss her.

I thought the other party would be slightly satisfied and stop, but I did not expect to get an inch.

"Don't"

Murong Xue had just finished shouting when suddenly the bedroom door in front of him was kicked open and Luo Xiaoyun appeared at the front door with a serious face asking, "Xue'er, are you okay?"

Ye Xing was dumbfounded, and so was Murong Xue, who hurriedly yanked his hand out, her face flushed with shame.

Luo Xiaoyun saw the two of them hugging each other and hurriedly turned her head and said shyly, "Lock the door later, I thought Xue'er had an accident."

Ye Xing didn't get to take advantage of the situation and yelled in dissatisfaction, "This is our boudoir, you, a subordinate, don't know to keep an eye on things downstairs and instead come upstairs to stir up trouble, believe it or not I'll make you guard the toilet?"

Murong Xue snickered, "Alright, don't make things difficult for Xiao Yun, she is also worried about me."

Ye Xing huffed and walked out, Murong Xue also went downstairs, the three of them looked at me, I looked at you, in the end it was Ye Xing who left.

Du Jiuniang drove over, dressed in disguise, she hadn't seen Ye Xing for a long time and missed him in her heart.

A little bit of dry wood and a lot of fire!

The car drove to a nearby park and stayed there for an hour, Ye Xing whistled and drove away.

Du Jiuniang sat in the back seat and looked out the window and sighed, "If Lily knew I was with you, I really don't know if she would despise me as a sister."

"Are you talking that badly? Your sister wouldn't want you to follow me, besides she's my servant, in ancient times she would have been waiting beside us."

"Rascal, the more you talk the more you are an asshole, do you want to take her too?"

Chapter 417

Inside the villa, Luo Xiaoyun knew that Murong Xue's temperament had changed drastically recently, almost turning into an iceberg beauty, and her speech was no longer as casual as before.

"Xue'er, I really didn't mean to disturb you and Ye Xing."

Luo Xiaoyun spoke awkwardly.

Murong Xue smiled, "I still have to thank you for relieving me, Ye Xing is my husband, but it's so hard to do when he pesters me all day long and I don't want to break his heart."

Luo Xiaoyun's eyes widened after hearing this, so much information was so complicated in this statement.

I don't want to give up halfway, besides, if I move in the middle of a man-woman thing, it's easy to go off the rails, then the lighter the meridians will be ruined, the heavier the death on the spot, I'm afraid he'll worry, so I haven't told him the consequences of practicing."

"Then you should stop practicing, it's so dangerous."

Luo Xiaoyun was full of worry.

Murong Xue smiled bitterly, "It's just as easy to go off the rails if you don't practice midway, so I want to ask you something."

"You say, I will definitely help you."

Luo Xiaoyun's entire body was shy after hearing Murong Xue's words.

"Don't worry, I will keep an eye on him."

Ye Xing had also established a Dragon Shield stronghold in the provincial city of Guangnan, and he intended to open one in all the first-tier cities in the country so that it would be easy to move around.

As for the matter of the Western Paradise, almost everything had been solved, the net was wiped out in Jianye City, the main members of the Western Paradise were all caught, the small shrimps that escaped were no longer enough, in addition the supply chain about the Dream Pill was also all cut off, this was the same as eliminating a horrible zombie pill crisis.

This matter was also praised by Kitano a bit, praising the role of Dragon Shield, although doing things a bit roughly, the effect was satisfying.

Ye Xing teased, "You guys aren't going to unload the pills later, are you?"

"Kid, no one talks like you, what era is it now? If we can let you set up Dragon Shield to do these things, we won't unload on you, it's a necessary strong-arm tactic."

Kitano roared in displeasure.

Ye Xing finished explaining things and intended to leave the Dragon Shield stronghold, but his phone rang in his pocket, and when he took it out, he saw that it was Zhao Qiangwei.

“There’s someone who wants to see you, hurry up and come over, the alleyway of Guanghua District.”

Zhao Qiangwei hung up her mobile phone as soon as she finished speaking, not giving Ye Xing a chance to refuse at all.

Ye Xing was depressed, how did this big sister know that she had returned to Guangnan Province? Could it be that she had placed surveillance on herself?

Ye Xing frightened and searched his whole body, there was no surveillance at all, it looked like he was scaring himself.

Ye Xing drove to a small alley in Guanghua District.

I didn’t expect that this place was still a netflix attraction, people came and went, very lively, and there were many beautiful women shooting videos on the road all kinds of enchanting and flirtatious posing.

Moreover, the place was very marketable in terms of architecture, and there were small Netflix shops everywhere, with handsome men and beautiful women shuttling everywhere, forming a beautiful scenery line.

When Ye Xing arrived at the centre, suddenly there was a shout from the distance, turning his head to look, who else could it be if not Big Sister?

But when he looked closer, my goodness, Ye Xing was almost shocked.

Zhao Qiangwei, who was originally dressed unisex and had a prominent personality, was actually dressed very ladylike today, with a wrap-around skirt, tight-fitting clothes, and hollowed-out grey silk on her slender thighs.

Her melon face was very white, but today she had smoky eye makeup, big red lips, and a bit of blush, which made her extremely flirtatious and seductive in any way.

Seeing Ye Xing staring at herself, Zhao Qiangwei was a little embarrassed, her cheeks shy, her skin red and her ears burning.

When Zhao Qiangwei opened her mouth, she was still smelling thick and heavy like a big sister.

After saying that she regretted it, she had planned to pretend to be a lady, but she didn’t expect that it was easy to change one’s nature.

Ye Xing laughed: “OK, a mouthful of Jianghu smell, this dress really doesn’t suit you, why don’t you just go bare shoulders?”

“Fuck you, what kind of woman wears bare shoulders? Aren’t you a hooligan?”

“What’s wrong with being a hooligan, it’s not very eye-catching anyway.”

“You mean I’m small, have you seen that?”

“Let’s not talk about it, we’ll have to talk about whose surname we’ll take when we have the baby.”

“Come on, there’s a process before a baby is born, why don’t we discuss it?”

“Big sister, I’m convinced, don’t keep talking about it, we don’t even know how to talk if we keep talking about it.”

Zhao Qiangwei showed a mouthful of white teeth and smiled smugly, thinking that as long as she gave herself up, she would take you down sooner or later.

“Come with me, there’s a beautiful woman who wants to see you and wants to give her body to you, the room is all set for you, just waiting for you.”

Zhao Qiangwei walked towards the front with a tug.

Ye Xing didn’t expect her to dress up in this way, she really had a bit of taste, but hurriedly dismissed this evil thought.

Arriving at a Netflix shop, Ye Xing saw a lovely girl, dressed in an ancient style long dress, with light make-up and long hair falling like a waterfall, pitch black and shiny.

She had an excellent figure and although she was covered by a long loose dress, it was still hard to hide her proud size.

“Oh, you’re Fawn.”

Ye Xing tapped his head to remember.

Fawn nodded down and smiled, “Brother Ye, thank you for paying for my dad’s treatment, he’s fine and can even work now, I found Sister Qiangwei on purpose to thank you both.”

“Thank you oh.”

Zhao Qiangwei winked at Ye Xing.

Ye Xing laughed: “What’s there to thank you for, everyone has difficulties and will give a hand when they meet.”

“I don’t have money to pay you back, when I earn money in the future, I will definitely pay back all your medical bills.”

Xiao Deer said awkwardly.

Ye Xing waved his hand, “Okay, if I can help you, I don’t think I want you to pay it back, if I can make you pay back, I definitely won’t help either, so don’t mention these things in the future.”

The deer was very touched, Zhao Qiangwei coughed and laughed: “Let’s let the deer give its body in return.”

Ye Xing frowned and said, “Big sister, don’t do anything nonsensical, she’s young and doesn’t know any better, so don’t do anything nonsensical.”

Xiao Deer blushed bright red, “Sister Qiang Wei is joking, she has been teasing me lately.”

Ye Xing looked at her in her hanbok and saw that there was a performance, and sure enough Xiao Deer walked outside to meet up with some people who had paid her to come out for a photo shoot, mainly for online clothing sales.

Ye Xing sipped his milk tea: "I thought it was a big deal, if you want to see me, just say so, why beat around the bush."

Zhao Qiangwei was nailed down and said, "Where did you go before? I heard from my father that there is a dragon shield that is quite powerful recently, is it to sweep the black?"

"Looking for me to ask for information, huh?"

Ye Xing laughed, "Dragon Shield doesn't care about those things, besides, didn't your Zhao family clean up and do legitimate business long ago?"

"Yes, but it's still a bit involved, after all, once you enter the jungle, you can't help yourself."

"Then you go back and tell your father that it's best to stay out of the affairs of the road, recently a group of typical people will definitely be beaten up, whoever dares to venture out."

Zhao Qiangwei nodded after listening, curious and asked again, "Or you can pull me into the Dragon Shield, you know I like to do this kind of thing."

Chapter 418

"Big sister, the Dragon Shield is very dangerous, aren't you afraid of dying if you rashly join?"

Ye Xing frowned and lectured.

"I'm not afraid, being in the Dao is also playing with your life, besides, if I don't have something proper to do, the old guy will have to lecture me all day and night."

"He's your dad, isn't it a bit inappropriate for you to call him an old man?"

"I'm not calling you that, we're used to calling each other father and daughter, take me in."

"Take you in, but you don't have any skills, why don't you just become my master, from now on I'll teach you martial arts and you're not allowed to think anything about me."

"You'll be my master?"

Zhao Qiangwei nodded her head happily after hearing this.

Instead, Ye Xing wondered if his trick wasn't working.

"I have to tell you, I am your master, you have to respect your master, in our clan, you have to obey even if I tell you to die."

"Master, don't worry, my disciple will go to the sword and the fire for you."

"What about when I tell you to go and kill your father?"

“No problem, do it tonight, kill that old thing and divide his family fortune, and my sister Haitang, if you like, Master, you can do her tonight, as far as I can see, Haitang is still intact, is this big gift from my apprentice heavy enough?”

Ye Xing hurriedly ran out of the Netflix Bistro when suddenly there was an argument in the distance, attracting many people to gather around to watch and eat the melon.

Zhao Qiangwei frowned and said, “It seems to be Xiao Deer.”

Ye Xing walked over and at that moment found that Xiao Deer was crying and crying being surrounded by a group of people.

Ye Xing pushed away a few netizen chicks who were pulling at Xiao Deer, blocked in front of her and asked, “Just talk, don’t do anything.”

“Who the fuck are you? Do you have the right to speak?”

A young man with a camera on his chest pointed at Ye Xing and started to curse.

Ye Xing laughed and slapped him across the face. The young man was knocked to the ground and half of his cheeks were bloodied and red.

The young man was knocked to the ground and half of his cheek was red and bloodied. The grandson exploded and got up to pick a fight, while several other young people swarmed around him.

At that moment the nearby security guards came running to stop things from erupting into a bigger conflict.

“You fucking want to die, even dare to hit me, I will have to waste you later.” The young photographer pointed at Ye Xing and continued to curse.

Ye Xing laughed and didn’t say anything, Zhao Qiangwei pushed a security guard away and yelled, “Watch your business, things are not even right or wrong, who are you to push us?”

“Miss, we are maintaining law and order, you’d better cooperate.”

The security guard who was pushed a bit explained up.

Zhao Qiangwei sneered, “There are many of them, you don’t go to control them, instead you come to control us, really if there is a fight later, you are in the way, won’t we have to suffer?”

The security guards didn’t dare to move around, and each side called to shake people.

Don’t look at these netizen chicks and young photographers, they were all dressed in designer clothes and wearing luxury items, but in fact, when they shook people, the ones who came were all young people about their age.

Soon a fat, bearded man in his thirties arrived in a Mercedes G. As soon as he got out of the car, he strutted his stuff.

When he saw Zhao Qiangwei, he immediately came running quickly and shouted playfully, "Sister Zhao, you're here too?"

Zhao Qiangwei sneered, "I thought it was someone, but it's Fatty Song, who owns a film and television company, your men are good, bullying my sister, what do you think?"

"Sister Zhao, whoever bullies your sister, I will kill his whole family." Fatty Song shouted up.

The young photographer who received the slap first was dumbfounded, Zhao Qiangwei reached out and pointed at him, Fatty Song pounced on him like a fierce tiger descending from a mountain, kicking him hard and knocking him to the ground in a few blows.

"Don't think I don't know what you're after, you're always picking up girls in the company, only a few of them are foolish enough to be cheated on by you.

Fatty Song scolded and kicked the young photographer on the ground, crying and begging for mercy.

Zhao Qiangwei saw that it was about time and shouted, "Fatty Song, it's almost time, call everyone away and tell your company to identify themselves clearly and not to trouble my sister in the future."

"Sister Zhao, your sister is good looking, join my company, I promise to give her the best resources, besides no one will touch her." Fatty Song came to Zhao Qiangwei panting and started licking.

Zhao Qiangwei thought about it and nodded, "Okay, let her go to your company tomorrow, you have to remember for me, if anyone dares to touch one finger of my sister, I will settle the score with you Fatty Song."

"Sister Zhao, don't worry, who dares to mess with your Zhao family in this provincial city? It would only be high-handed if I invited your sister there." Fatty Song licked one after another.

Zhao Qiangwei turned her head and called on Ye Xing and Xiao Deer and left.

On the way back, Zhao Qiangwei sat in the passenger seat, and Xiao Deer was scared to death in the back seat.

Zhao Qiangwei laughed after hearing this: "Silly sister, those people are deliberately setting up a trap for you, what tens of thousands of dollars of camera ah, in fact is blackmail, do not worry, you will enter the company of fatty Song, no one dares to touch you."

Ye Xing laughed, "Follow Sister Qiangwei, you will be guaranteed to have food and clothing in the future."

"Brother Ye, I also have to thank you for relieving me just now." Xiao Deer said.

"A small thing, don't take it to heart."

Ye Xing grinned broadly.

The three of them looked for a place to eat, only to have Zhao Qiangwei receive a phone call midway, saying that there was an accident with a cargo ship and she had to go back immediately to deal with it.

The dock was a major source of income for the Zhao family, so Zhao Qiangwei naturally couldn't do anything rash, so she took Xiao Deer with her and left first.

Ye Xing returned home, full of food and drink, only to meet Luo Xiaoyun sleeping on the sofa.

Ye Xing was dumbfounded, why did this girl have to stay at the villa instead of going home?

Ye Xing went closer and touched Luo Xiaoyun, she opened her eyes and saw Ye Xing and hurriedly sat up.

"Don't go home, you still want to be a light bulb in the villa for a long time, huh?"

"Xue'er told me to stay, if you want to kick me out, you have to go and ask her first."

"Then should I go and ask her if you've kissed me?"

Luo Xiaoyun turned red all of a sudden and said shyly, "You're crazy, what happened before, and now you're bringing it up?"

"I just like to bring it up, who made you have to stay and be a light bulb?"

"Xue'er asked me to stay and keep an eye on you, for fear that you might think otherwise of her, I don't think I'll tolerate you hurting her."

Ye Xing was dumbfounded and roared in anger, "Are you crazy, we are a couple, even if we do something, it's none of your business."

"But Xue'er's situation is different now, she can't share a room with you, you're such a strong animal, who knows if you'll take advantage of someone?"

"Holy shit, my wife, I'm still multiplying?"

"Anyway, if I don't leave, you won't be able to wreak havoc on Xue'er."

Ye Xing sat down and looked at Luo Xiaoyun viciously, this girl must have been a dog in her previous life, or a watchdog, otherwise she wouldn't be so obedient.

Chapter 419

Ye Xing headed upstairs, Luo Xiaoyun hurriedly ran and stopped him, "No going up, Xue'er is starting to cultivate, don't disturb her."

"I'm going upstairs to take a shit, do you want to go and keep an eye on it?"

Ye Xing huffed and headed upstairs.

Luo Xiaoyun naturally did not believe her and hurriedly chased after her, seeing Ye Xing enter a room, she also ran in after him.

As a result, she really saw that there was a bathroom inside the house, where Ye Xing was taking off his trousers, and she ran out with a red face.

"Stinky guy, so rude."

Luo Xiaoyun huffed and stomped her foot.

Ye Xing was thinking that by giving Luo Xiaoyun a little lesson, this girl could be a little more restrained, but he didn't expect to meet her again as soon as he went out.

Ye Xing went downstairs to get some water, and this girl was not leaving an inch.

Ye Xing laughed: "Fine, you forced me to do this."

"What do you want?"

Luo Xiaoyun skewed her mouth scornfully up, she couldn't figure out what the hell Ye Xing would come up with.

She laughed and ran outside to jump into the pool, Luo Xiaoyun hurriedly chased her to the edge of the pool, only for Ye Xing to suddenly get out of the water and drag her into the pool.

By the time she climbed out of the pool, Ye Xing was already on a sun lounger drinking juice comfortably with a bad smile on his face.

"Rascal."

Luo Xiaoyun huffed and turned her head to go inside to change, only to enter a room and have Ye Xing chase her in.

The design of these rooms was that they were open in all directions, this side was locked and that side was also open.

Luo Xiaoyun got wet and tired of it, knowing that Ye Xing was deliberately screwing her over, and finally ran to the bathroom to change her clothes.

Not expecting her to go in, Ye Xing locked the door outside and clapped his hands with a bad smile, "Stay honestly, you big light bulb."

Ye Xing finished and went upstairs, but hesitated when he reached Murong Xue's room door.

He was not a fool, Murong Xue called Luo Xiaoyun, his best friend, to keep such an eye on him, what exactly was his intention was still clear in his heart.

Although he was not happy about it, what could he do?

"How I wish she hadn't been taken away by Shangguan Lan back then, now she's messed up and turned into an ascetic, all day and night except for cultivation, she doesn't even talk about her children's love anymore."

Ye Xing was clogged up in his heart and left through the door of his room to go downstairs.

Inside the room, Murong Xue heard the footsteps and tears dripped from the corners of her eyes, but she soon found that the breath in her body was chaotic and immediately began to throw away her distracting thoughts and concentrate on her cultivation.

Shangguan Lan had taught her the Jade Maiden Heart Sutra, a set of immortal techniques, with the aim of cutting off her seven emotions and six desires and cultivating with one heart to climb the Great Dao.

At eight o'clock in the night, Luo Xiaoyun finally took the door off and ran out to settle the score with Ye Xing.

She saw Ye Xing drinking with a melancholy face, and the pool was covered with bottles of wine, so she felt a bit sorry for him.

"Xue'er is also really, both of them are troublesome."

Luo Xiaoyun sighed and didn't plan to take revenge.

Early the next morning, Ye Xing gathered his mood and called Luo Xiaoyun to go to the Dragon Shield stronghold in Guangnan Provincial City.

The stronghold was located in a commercial building, and all the people coming in and out were white collar workers. When the two of them entered in civilian clothes, they were stopped by the security guards at the entrance.

Luo Xiaoyun showed her documents and the security guard immediately let her go.

When they arrived on the fifteenth floor, which was all covered by Dragon Shield, Ye Xing saw Lin Wei's extremely unhappy face.

"Aunt?"

Lin Wei's face turned slightly red with anger, "What kind of place is not good enough, but choose to put the Dragon Shield in this kind of place, you think we are not noticeable enough, right?"

"Don't worry, it's about keeping up with the times, we're Dragon Shield, the department is special, working in a busy location like this, for one thing it puts the team in a good mood, and for another we can let everyone know that Dragon Shield's work is also comfortable and cosy."

Lin Wei didn't bother to listen to his explanation and turned back to other matters.

Dragon Shield was growing fast, and had now established a stronghold in a first-tier city, specialising in dealing with the Ancient Martial World and the Immortal Sect.

Although there was usually nothing much going on, when things went wrong, the tasks were heavy and dangerous.

Ye Xing sat in the comfort of his office, directing Luo Xiaoyun to run his own errands, and he wanted to laugh happily at the increasingly annoyed expression on the light bulb's face.

The phone buzzed without even seeing it, Ye Xing still went to get his phone before he found out that there were a dozen missed calls.

"Holy shit, the spirits won't let go."

Ye Xing called over in depression.

Zhao Qiangwei roared, "Why did you only answer the phone, are you lying in that woman's arms and can't get up?"

“What’s this nonsense? I was in a meeting at headquarters and didn’t check the phone.”

Ye Xing frowned, but thought better of it and went downstairs to drive to the pier.

The Zhao family had a transport company, and although there was no sea in the city of Guangnan Province, there were waterways in and out.

When Ye Xing arrived at the pier, Zhao Qiangwei called him over, only to come into one of the tin rooms where he saw a pale woman.

“Why is that you?”

Guo Dongmei, whom Ye Xing recognised, frowned thinking if the Immortal Sect had already come to Guangnan Provincial City to seek revenge on him?

Guo Dongmei smiled bitterly, “Furong has been captured by the Jiang family, can you save her?”

“Jiang’s family? Could it be the Jiang family of the Gravekeeper?”

Ye Xing looked at Guo Dongmei with a serious expression.

Guo Dongmei nodded her head, “The Jiang family decided that it was the Immortal Sect that killed Jiang Chang’an and struck out at our Immortal Sect disciples, Furong and I were besieged by the Jiang family’s design, and she was captured herself in order to save me.”

“When the Immortal Sect and the Jiang Family fought, I should have been watching the fun, interfering at this point is asking for trouble.”

“I also know about the feud between you and the Immortal Sect, so it’s understandable that you don’t intervene.”

Guo Dongmei laughed bitterly.

Zhao Qiangwei had already sent someone to take care of Guo Dongmei, and when she chased out she asked, “This beauty is from the Immortal Sect?”

“That’s right, Shangguan Lan’s disciple, I didn’t expect that the Jiang family had really crossed fire with the Immortal Sect.”

Ye Xing was happy to think about it, but Su Furong was captured, which was more or less unpleasant.

“The Jiang family is poisonous, I’m afraid that if I fall into their hands, this girl will have to die in a fragrant manner.”

Ye Xing sighed and followed Zhao Qiangwei to the office at the pier and sat down.

Zhao Qiangwei told her how she found Guo Dongmei, it turned out that she had fallen into the water and was fished up by the fishing boats, and when the fishing boats came looking for her, she disappeared, and finally the dock workers found her in a cargo hold, covered in wounds, if she continued to hide, I'm afraid she would have died.

Ye Xing called Lin Wei and asked her to get all the information about Jiang's family.

After checking it out, Lin Wei said worriedly, "The Jiang family has been making a lot of moves lately, all the experts in the family are out and about, and some characters who are usually in seclusion are flying around the country, so it looks like there's quite a lot of movement."

"The Jiang family is going to take on the Immortal Sect, it's in our interest to fight."

Hanging up the phone, Ye Xing saw Guo Dongmei actually limping again.

"Stop it, blame you guys for being from the Immortal Sect, there's really nothing I can do about this."

Guo Dongmei took out a box, "Take a look at what's inside."

Chapter 420

Ye Xing was just about to say that nothing would make him change his mind, no matter what, but seeing Guo Dongmei's heavy face, he refrained from speaking.

The box was simple, just a plastic box, except that the outside could not see the inside clearly.

After Ye Xing opened it, he found that inside the box was a black diamond block.

The object did not have any metallic lustre, but the surface was a bit oily and the colour was deep black with a red tinge, but a fishy smell soon emanated from inside the box.

Ye Xing could not recognise what it was and was just about to reach out for it.

Guo Dongmei shook her head and admonished, "Be careful, this thing is very evil."

Ye Xing frowned, but after considering it, he reached out to touch it.

The first sensation instantly was that it was cold in his hand, followed by a powerful spiritual force coming out from this black diamond block.

Ye Xing's spiritual power was strong enough to completely resist this, and only after he had adapted did this terrifying spiritual power disappear.

Guo Dongmei was really a bit curious about Ye Xing holding this object for such a long time, after all, she was scared to scatter her hand just after she had touched it at that time, and subsequently tried it several times.

If it wasn't extremely important to the people of Jiang's family, she wouldn't have been able to keep it around, after all, it didn't seem to have the appearance of being of much use.

Ye Xing observed carefully, this diamond block was not some industrial product, instead it seemed to be a scale taken from the surface of some creature.

The more Ye Xing looked at it, the more it looked like, "Where did you get it from?"

“In the hands of the Jiang family, they designed me and Furong to show ourselves, but we both still killed those who set us up, then we fought with a few people from the Jiang family, Furong killed one of them and found this from the other side, the Jiang family took it very seriously before I gave to bring it on my body to escape together.”

After listening to Guo Dongmei, Ye Xing felt more and more that this thing was suspicious, but what exactly it was, and did not know, this could be a problem.

“You took this out because you want me to save your senior sister?”

Ye Xing smiled, since he didn't even know where it came from, it was of little use.

“You have just touched it, you should know how evil this thing is, if it is used by the Jiang family to make a big deal, there is no way to clean it up then, the Dragon Shield will become a thorn in the Jiang family's eye sooner or later.”

Guo Dongmei was very good at finding weaknesses, and immediately pointed out the things that Ye Xing could not be careless about.

Ye Xing smiled, kind of hit the nail on the head by Guo Dongmei, it looked like this matter had to be investigated clearly.

Ye Xing sent the black diamond block for examination, and had the others join him to see what it was.

Guo Dongmei waited anxiously, and so did Ye Xing. If it was nothing special, then he would not care about it, but if it was really something powerful, he could not just let the Jiang family do whatever they wanted.

Lin Wei soon called, her tone heavy: “This is a scale armour belonging to a snake, and just now news came from Northfield that it was a creature called a Yin Dragon.”

“What? Yin dragon? Is there really such a horrible and terrifying thing?”

Ye Xing asked in wonder.

“Beiye said that the military spirits had seen it and determined that this Yin Dragon grows in a place with dense Yin Qi and is a type of snake, but for some reason, it has eaten a lot of heavenly treasures, so it has become huge and looks like the size of a python, but then grows two horns, has thick skin and flesh, and can also spit out poisonous mist, very scary.”

Ye Xing was dumbfounded after hearing this, there was actually such a creature in this world, it looked like he was too ignorant before.

“What is the Jiang family looking for this thing for?”

Ye Xing muttered up in his heart.

Lin Wei then added, “Bei Ye said that if the Jiang family had thoughts about this Yin Dragon, it could only be to take the Yin Dragon's inner elixir to refine medicine.”

“Inner elixir to refine medicine, could it be that this Jiang Qin still wants to break through to Martial Arts Patriarch?”

Ye Xing frowned, if he really let Jiang Qin succeed in breaking through, he would be in big trouble.

Jiang Chang'an was killed by him, although he was currently framing the Immortal Sect, it did not mean that the other party could not find out who the real culprit was.

So a powerful enemy would always be a nuisance to oneself.

Ye Xing could not let this happen, although Jiang Qin was one of the Four Great Patriarchs and his strength belonged to the peak ninth grade of Patriarchs, but he could not let him have his way easily no matter what.

Ye Xing made up his mind that this matter had to be stopped.

In addition, Bei Ye also explained that there must be strange flowers and herbs in the place where the Yin Dragon was, and if he could obtain them, it might be good for his cultivation improvement.

But where the Yin Dragon was, that was not known.

Guo Dongmei was all robbed of the scales, so it was impossible to know where the Yin Dragon was located.

"Although I don't know, if we find Fifth Senior Sister, we might be able to find out where the Yin Dragon is located."

Guo Dongmei suddenly spoke up.

Ye Xing analyzed that the Jiang family's people should not get Su Furong killed for a while, after all, this was a fairy of the Immortal Sect and not bad looking, so it would be fine if they really took her as a slave girl.

Ye Xing told Lin Wei to hurry up and search for the whereabouts of Jiang's family, Guo Dongmei added, "I escaped by jumping into the water, and when I left, I heard Jiang's group mention a location, Fengqi!"

Ye Xing hurriedly asked Lin Wei to check, Fengqi had several places within China, but according to the data analysis, only one Fengqi Mountain was the most likely.

And this mountain had recently caused a lot of gossip news to brag about one thing, that is, someone had gone into the mountain and found the whereabouts of dragons, and there were all kinds of strange sounds of tigers and dragons roaring at night.

Although all the rumours were later debunked by the authorities, this was clearly the most likely way for Ye Xing to attract ancient martial artists to a place with visions.

Settling on a location, Ye Xing led the Dragon Shield members to set off quickly.

Zhao Qiangwei was unwilling to agree, and had to follow herself.

Ye Xing told her that it was dangerous to go into the mountain and that she, as a member of the Dragon Shield, had to obey orders.

Ye Xing and the others hurriedly flew to the airport near Fengqi Mountain, and then took a taxi to the mountains.

When they arrived at the bottom of the treacherous Fengqi Mountain, they found that the place had been fenced off everywhere, saying that the mountain was undergoing exploration works and no outsiders were allowed to enter for the time being, and that they would have to be responsible for anything that happened once they entered the mountain.

Ye Xing smiled, this Jiang family really has some tricks up its sleeve, they actually have some connections with the local government and have used a little power to stop outsiders from entering the mountain.

But this just shows that one has come to the right place.

The Dragon Shield team began to explore the mountainous area, a dozen drones quickly entered the mountainous area to search, relying on various thermal imaging and radar scans, and soon found a large number of people somewhere at the northern foot of Fengqi Mountain.

In broad daylight, the drones did not dare to get too close, and waited until night to slowly approach and monitor the area.

The pictures soon came in and it was indeed a number of people searching continuously in a valley somewhere, and they were carrying weapons, not geological prospectors by any stretch of the imagination.

“Hurry up and get over there, or if it’s too late, I’m afraid there won’t be any hair left.”

Ye Xing said and started to greet everyone and set off.

This time Dragon Shield came with the first squad, in addition to several technicians and a dozen fire control members.

The first squad had changed from the previous ten people to thirty, and belonged to the king of soldiers within the major camps.
