

Chapter 413 The Corpse Was Gone

“Revenge?”

That dead looking eyes of Frankie suddenly turned lively upon hearing the word.

Revenge was the aim of his life now, but he did not really see the possibility of it until Colletti showed up.

“Can I really avenge myself? What should I pay for that then?” said Frankie.

“I can send you across the ocean to get a gene modification in the lab. If that got successful, you will get a strong man. Otherwise, you will become a corpse. At least, you will have more hopes, won't you?”

Facing Colletti's alluring offer, Frankie did not think much before he said yes, because this would be his only chance now.

“I am willing to give it a try, but it is even a problem for me to walk now.” Frankie smiled bitterly.

“This is not even an issue. I’ve got the private jet and doctors ready for you. You will get a better treatment after you get there. Since you agreed to it, you can get onboard in two hours.”

Bearing the pain, Frankie nodded and squeezed his fists like he wanted to mash Maximilian into dusts.

“I will take it no matter how painful it would be. Maximilian, wait for my comeback. You will wish to die.”

Colletti smiled and took out an injector, “Ok, I will need to give you an injection. After this, you will enter the fake-dead phase. I will have my men transmit you out from the hospital to the airport.”

“Ok, you have my life now.”

Colletti gave Frankie one injection. After the medicine was pushed inside, he left the ward.

Not after long, the alarm went off as Frankie closed his eyes. A group of doctors then rushed in the ward.

The guard that was flirting with the nurse in the office now hurriedly rushed in the ward too after realizing that something went wrong.

The doctor finally shook his head after a series of operations on him, “The patient’s heart stopped functioning. He is dead.”

The guard checked Frankie’s breathing, and then called Chief Carr with a depressed face.

room was broken.

Though he found it weird, Frankie was already dead, without any evidence and hints, so Chief Carr could only agree to transport his corpse to the corpse room.

While he was trying to call Maximilian, a guard hurriedly ran over, "Sir! Frankie's corpse is gone! Somebody stole his body!"

Chief Carr immediately had goose bumps all over the body. So many things happened in a chain, which showed that this was not just a coincidence.

"Who stole it? Are there any clues?"

"The video showed that it was a van. Not long after his body got sent into the corpse room, some man came out with a sack. I doubt his corpse is now in the sack."

“Send this announcement out and stop that van!” yelled Chief Carr.

“Sir. That was half an hour ago. I got the security video and found that the van parked in the airport.”

“Go to the airport right now!” Chief Carr hurriedly rushed out of the hospital and went straight toward the airport.

After half an hour, Chief Carr checked the van with his men, but got no clues at all.

“Did you get the tape or not?” yelled Chief Carr.

“We got it. The driver transmitted the sack through a special lane and boarded it to a private jet. Now it already took off, heading to the other side of the planet.”

Chief Carr immediately got speechless. What kind of mess was that?

“What the heck? They stole his corpse and sent it across the ocean? This is some bullshit.”

After murmuring, Chief Carr dialed Maximilian’s number and reported this accident to him.

“I am so sorry. It was my men’s fault. I don’t understand this whole thing.” Chief Carr explained awkwardly.

“It’s fine. Let them do whatever they like. Thank you for everything.” Maximilian said lightly.

“Those are my responsibilities. How about, I send some people to protect you now?”

“No need. I’ll watch out.”

After hanging up the phone, Maximilian raised his eyebrow. He already had a guess about the whole thing.

However, Maximilian was not interested in these things. They could not make any messes for him no matter how hard they tried.

Victoria looked at Maximilian curiously, "Who was it?"

"It was Chief Carr. He talked about the case, and offered to send me some help, but I reject it."

"Ok." Victoria nodded and went back reading the files.

"Why did you suddenly ask me that? Did you think it was a lady?" Maximilian asked with a smirk.

Victoria glared at Maximilian and said teasingly, "Go dreaming about it. Who else would be interested in you except me?"

"That's not true anymore. I am no longer the Maximilian in the past. Don't you find my charm now? There might be many girls chasing after me in the future."

"Then I will be worried about it when that happens. There is no need for me to worry about it now." Victoria said with a cute smile.

Maximilian shrugged his shoulders, "It seems that I am not charming enough. I thought making myself look handsome would make you treat me better."

"Ok. I have to work now. No time for this. This is the key period for the company right now. There are too many things to deal with, and I can't even take a break."

Looking at Victoria's serious attitude, Maximilian got up to serve her a cup of water.

“You know, it is not necessary for you to handle everything. Do you know how the ancient wisdom Mr. Zhuge die? You need to attribute some works to your employees.”

“Mr. Zhuge was managing the whole country. I am just running a small company. It’s different. I can’t be relieved unless I keep an eye on these works.”

Maximilian held Victoria’s hand and put it on his face, “You need to get a team. That’s how you can make it big. Working alone is far from enough.”

Chapter414 It's Ugly

In the Prosperity Estate.

Dragon Queen was lazily lying on the chair, "What's going on with those white men. I am waiting to see the show of them beating Maximilian."

"The manager of the boxing competition Colletti already got the contract signed with Connor. It will be on next week." Harley said flatteringly.

"So slow. Benedict might not be one hundred percent reliable. We need someone staying with Maximilian." said the Dragon Queen slowly.

"We already had people inside Griffith's company. We will get Maximilian's recently moves soon."

The Dragon Queen looked at Harley and said coldly, "Are you dumb? What I want is the pin, not what Maximilian is doing recently. Can your men get the key for me?"

Harley immediately started sweating on the forehead, remained silent with his head down.

"Useless loser!" Dragon Queen grabbed the wine glass and poured the expensive red wine onto Harley's face.

As the red wine flowed down his face, Harley dared not to wipe it off with his messy and trembling hands.

"I heard you are hiding a girl out there. Huh. Are you planning to have fun with her?" said Dragon Queen coldly.

Harley's whole body shivered, then he kneeled down and kowtowed to her.

"No, no. I have no such a thought like that. I was going to train Flora, then send her to serve you."

“You think I don’t know what men are thinking about. I already asked her to leave. Maximilian is going to the party. Ask your girl to meet him coincidentally. If she could get the key, I will pretend that nothing happened. Otherwise, you just wait and see.”

Dragon Queen’s sneer froze Harley’s blood. Though she did not complete the sentence, he understood her implication well.

Thinking of Flora’s sexy body and delicate face, Harley felt his heart aching. He was going to enjoy her himself, but did not expect that Dragon Queen would find out about her.

“Harley, do you think because I am spoiling you, you can do whatever you want? Remember that everything you have was given by me. I can take them back whenever I want.”

“Yes, yes. I will serve you wholeheartedly.”

Harley hurriedly kowtowed as hard as he could, trying to show his loyalty.

“Quit the kowtows. You look like a loser. Carry me back to rest.”

Harley got up from the floor, gently scooted her up, and then brought her back into the room.

On the party day.

Anayah contacted Victoria in the early morning, and then waited for her to leave the office.

After spotting Maximilian in her office, Anayah frowned, but soon she looked normal again.

“Victoria. You are so busy all the time. Are you a super woman? Your husband looks quite relaxed though.” Anayah said without good intents.

Vitoria smiled, "You don't know Maximilian. He has many things to do as well."

"Pts." Anayah made a disdainful sound, then sat across Victoria, "What things can he have? Who in this city doesn't know that he is depending on you?"

"Ok sis, wait for a moment. We can head out after I'm done with the work at hand."

Anayah looked at Victoria and Maximilian's styles, and then said with surprise, "Are you guys going like this? It is a party tonight. There are not only rich people in this city, but also some businessmen from outside. Victoria, you at least need a sexy dress."

"It'll be such a pity if you did not show your shoulders and back. You will be the focus if you wear a sexy dress."

Maybe you would even get some big deals done.”

Anayah stood up and took off the coat, showing the sexy dress on her body that exposed her back and front.

This dress perfectly outlined her figure. With the exposed front and back, she looked eye-catching.

She spined in front of Victoria and said with her arms crossed, “How is that? Not bad huh? You should’ve dressed like this as well. How about we go and buy some clothes for you later?”

After saying that, Anayah glimpsed at Maximilian and saw him ignoring her figure, so she immediately got pissed off, thinking that there should be something wrong with his taste.

“I can’t dress like that.” Victoria had no interest in dresses like this, and she would be embarrassed in such kind of clothes.

“How is that exposing? Only this could show the female body figure, ok? Maximilian, tell me. Do I look attractive in this? Be honest.” Anayah kept her head high up like proud swan.

“You really want to hear the truth?” said Maximilian who was trying to hold down the laughs.

Anayah glared and said coldly, “I told you to say it, so say it. Are you still a man or not!”

“What I want to say is, this is ugly.” Maximilian said seriously.

Anayah got stunned for a moment, almost crying out upon hearing his response.

“You! Are you blind? You dare to say that I am ugly! Victoria, say something! Are there anything wrong with his taste?”

Victoria massaged her forehead and said with a bitter smile, “Anayah. Forget about him. He can’t understand this type of style, just like me.”

“You value him more than me! You are on his side! You will get mocked and laughed at by others later. Don’t say that I did not remind you guys of this later.” Anayah said angrily.

“Got it. We are not going there to meet anybody. I just want to check the guy you are going to marry. Oh yeah. Tell me about him, so I can know more about him.”

Anayah took two deep breaths, held down the anger inside, and then showed Victoria a picture in the phone.

“His look is not bad. He does real estate business, but not super rich or something. I think his family has several billions of dollars, which kind of reaches my standard.”

“Several billions are just a ‘kind of’ for you. That’s some high standard.” Maximilian could not help commenting.

“Those rich guys going after Victoria at least had tens of billion dollars. I wonder why she chose you.”

Chapter 415 This Is Bullying!

Victoria glared at Anayah, stopping her from talking about the past.

Anayah raised her head and slanted her lips, "What's that for? All I said are facts. Count it with your own fingers. Which one did not have at least billions of dollars? Those without this much money dared not even to flirt with you."

"Why did you choose Maximilian, the poor boy? I thought you were just using him as a shield. Wow, then it turned out that you were serious. I just don't get it."

"Anayah, if you kept saying this, we are not going there anymore. Just get someone else to check the man for you." Victoria said unpleasantly.

Anayah got worried, and started acting cute and shaking Victoria's arms. "Don't. I stop. Nobody can do this except you. Other girls might even want to compete with me. They are all fake friends. Only you are my true friend.”

Victoria looked at Anayah speechlessly, and then gave her phone back, “This would be the only time. Don’t ask me to do this kind of things anymore.

“There won’t be a next time. Time is up. Let’s head out, so we won’t miss anything interesting. I heard that this event is big.”

With Anayah rushing her constantly, Victoria had no mood for work anymore, so she had to get ready for leaving.

Maximilian held the bag for Victoria and followed her and Anayah out. When they got to the parking lot, before Victoria could start her car, Anayah waved her BMW key.

“Victoria, forget about your car. They wouldn't even let your car in. Let's drive my BMW." Anayah was feeling very confident at this moment, since she had always been overshadowed by Victoria's brilliance, standing by her side like a nobody. But now she had a much better car than Victoria.

After she married a rich guy, she would be able to overshadow Victoria. Anayah could not help but feeling excited.

Victoria thought for a moment, and then walked up toward the BMW.

Anayah got in the driver's seat happily, while Victoria sat in the passenger seat and Maximilian sat at the back.

As the car got started, Anayah said, "My ex-boyfriend gave it to me. I wanted a Benz, but even though Benz felt more comfortable, it was not that easy to control as BMW.”

“Ah.” Maximilian chuckled disdainfully.

Anayah glared at Maximilian through the mirror, “What are you laughing at? Buy one for Victoria then. Not even to mention BMW and Benz, I will be surprised if you could afford an Audi.”

“That’s really not something difficult. I’ll get one for Victoria in the next two days.” Maximilian said randomly.

“Lol, bragging is free, isn’t it? Next two days. If you were that good, buy one now. I know the manager in the shop. How about I call one for you right now? Maybe I could get you a discount.”

Anayah talked back immediately. She did not think Maximilian could afford one car.

Victoria touched her forehead, did not expect to see them getting along so bad.

“Anayah, I’m getting upset.” Victoria said unpleasantly.

Anayah pouted and said, “Victoria, you are protecting him so much. Are you treating him like a son because of how sad he is? You are acting like a mother.”

“It’s not that. Maximilian is a very capable man. He just doesn’t like to show off.” Victoria tried to explain for Maximilian.

Victoria still did not get who Maximilian really was, but after so many ups and downs, she knew he was definitely not a nobody.

Maybe neither fame nor money was important for Maximilian. Victoria thought as long as Maximilian wanted, all these were easy to get for him.

Anayah was going to keep quiet, since her job was to get Victoria to the party, and it would bring great beneficial for her.

However, after hearing Victoria complimenting Maximilian, she could not hold it in anymore, “Victoria, you are lying to protect him. This is just too much. Do you still consider me your friend? I just simply mocked your husband for being a loser. I did not say he could not make you happy in bed.”

Victoria immediately looked upset and turned to look at Anayah coldly, which made her nervous.

“Don’t be mad, Victoria. I didn’t really mean it. Don’t take it serious.” Anayah hurriedly explained.

“Apologize to Maximilian.” Victoria said coldly.

Anayah glimpsed at Maximilian, feeling stuffed inside, and her whole face turned red.

Why should she apologize to this loser? She just said the truth!

Never mind. She would bear this insult for the benefits promised by Iris. She could get someone to avenge her later in the party. Same for Victoria!

Anayah's heart was filled with grudge, but she squeezed a smile and said dryly, "So, sorry, Maximilian, I did not think straight before I talked."

"I don't mind. I'm used to it."
Maximilian said lightly.

Anayah just wanted to cry out. Why didn't he talk to Victoria earlier then? He had to wait till she apologized. Basically, he did this on purpose to insult her.

Maximilian glimpsed at her, and then continued, "I am used to being apologized to. You are not the first one to apologize to me, and won't be the last one either."

Anayah felt like dying, as if all the blood was rushing into her brain and trying to burst out from it. This was bullying! Bullying!

Anayah got so angry that her hands started shaking on the steering wheel. The BMW started going a bit out of control on the street, making other cars honing at them.

"Victoria, why don't you do something?" Anayah sounded like crying.

"He was telling the truth." Victoria said calmly, "Park at the side. You are not in a good mood, so you should quit driving for now."

Anayah wiped off the tears, then stopped the car, "Who wants to drive? I don't want to drive anymore.”

Chapter 416 He was simply crazy!

Anayah was angry and cried because of Maximilian's words. And Victoria sat in the driver's seat.

This time the car was quite. When Anayah shut up and did not speak, the atmosphere in the car was much better.

They parked the BMW on the parking lot outside the winery. At this moment, there were a variety of luxury cars parked on the parking lot, and Anayah's BMW 5 Series was a cheap one.

When she got out of the car, Anayah's gaze was bewildered as she looked at the luxury cars around her, "Porsche, Ferrari, Lamborghini, and Bugatti Veyron, my goodness!"

When she saw these luxury cars, Anayah seemed to see the rich and young men. Her mood became good suddenly, and she hurriedly took out the makeup mirror from her bag to check herself.

Seeing her eyes were slightly red and swollen, Anayah glanced at Maximilian fiercely, feeling that it was all caused by Maximilian.

"I'll fix my makeup, wait a moment." After saying this, Anayah went back to the car and began to make up in a hurry.

Maximilian and Victoria stood together and were calm when they looked at the luxury car around.

"You should stop arguing with Anayah and don't make her cry again. We are here to help her. Victoria said and helped Maximilian to straight his clothes.

The roar of a sports car engine came, and two Porsche 911s stopped in a space on the side.

Two rich young men who looked like jerks got out of the car, and they casually glanced in the direction of Maximilian and Victoria. Then Victoria attracted their attention. Their eyes were like iron beads that met iron-absorbing stones, and they couldn't wait to stick directly to Victoria for a closer look.

"Damn, there is still such a beautiful girl in this shitty place. We don't come here for nothing."

"Go, go over and talk to her. We are handsome, young, and rich. We are absolutely better than the poor guy by her side."

The ruffian rich young men walked to Maximilian and Victoria with rampant and domineering steps, "Beauty, you don't need to straighten this poor guy's clothes. You come and fix the clothes for me. Feel my warm bosom and my rock-hard muscles. It can definitely bring you a different feeling."

The ruffian rich young smiled lewdly and deliberately raised his chest. And the shape of his chest muscles and abdominal muscles suddenly appeared on the tight-fitting shirt.

Victoria's eyes showed a look of disgust, and Maximilian stepped forward to block Victoria.

"Want to fix your clothes? I can help you." Maximilian said coldly.

"Fucking! Who are you? You poor brat want to attend the banquet? It is a big joke! People who can attend the dinner party are either a beauty or with a status. What the hell do you have?"

Slap! Maximilian slapped the rich young man's face. And the rich young man's body slumped into the next car.

"Keep your mouth clean." Maximilian said coldly.

The other rich young man took a step back and looked at Maximilian warily, "You fucking dare to hit us. Do you know who we are?"

"I am not interested. Get away!"

"Fuck! Fuck you!" The rich young man who was slapped angrily waved his fist and slammed it at Maximilian.

Maximilian shook his head in disdain and kicked the young man in the stomach, sending him to fly backward.

The other man completely panicked and knew that he was not a match for Maximilian. He hurriedly helped the his friend to escape, "You wait. We will call someone to beat you up!"

Anayah was stunned when she saw this in the car. Until the two young men ran away and disappeared, Anayah rushed out like a cat with its tail stepped on.

"Maximilian!" Anayah waved her hands in anger, "Do you know who they are? How dare you hit them? You are in a big trouble!"

"Who are they? I've never seen them before, and I don't know them at all."

"You're blind! They are the second and third Young Master of Brooks family, the Brooks family in the provincial capital!" Anayah roared angrily.

To provoke the wealthy Young Masters of Brooks family in the provincial capital was unimaginable for Anayah. Even the rich young men in H City had to bow to the Brooks family's gentry when they saw them.

"Oh, it is nothing to worry about."

Maximilian said indifferently.

Anayah looked at Maximilian in amazement and thought Maximilian was stupid to say this. Did he think he was the god?

"You are not worried? Do you know how powerful the Brooks family in the provincial capital is? If Brooks family stomped, the whole H City would be shaking three times!"

"Anayah, don't worry about it. The trouble he made will naturally be handled by him." Victoria comforted Anayah.

Anayah looked at Victoria speechlessly, "You are too simple. You will regret it when something really happens."

Maximilian shrugged his shoulders, stretched his waist, and said, "Let's go. Let's see what the banquet looks like, and enrich our knowledge."

Victoria pulled Anayah and followed Maximilian, and they walked towards the winery.

After checking the invitation card at the entrance of the winery, they entered the winery smoothly.

The winery was built entirely in the classical style with southern flavor, decorated with small bridges and flowing water. And a strong fragrance of wine floated in the air.

The young ladies, who were wearing beautiful clothes and showing enchanting postures, walked around the manor. And it could see that some beautiful women surrounded a rich young man.

Tonight, it was a paradise for men, for the rich young men.

Victoria frowned and was very uncomfortable in such a place.

Anayah was used to it. At this moment, she couldn't even pay attention to anything else but looking at a group of people walking in the distance with panic.

"Brooks, people from Brooks family!" Anayah said in a panic, let go of Victoria's hand, backed up, and said, "Victoria, let's hurry up and hide, and ask your waste husband to deal with it by himself."

Victoria shook her head. Victoria could never escape and let Maximilian face the trouble alone.

Anayah stomped her feet, turned around, and walked away into the distance. She went to the curious watching crowd before stopping.

"Crazy! Victoria is really stupid. She is still with that wimp." Anayah muttered softly.

The Young Masters of Brooks family invited their elder brother Aston to step in.

Aston was ready to help his cousin take the revenge. When he saw from a distance that the enemy his cousins pointed out was Maximilian, Aston's heart instantly filled with Fucks!

"Aston, this is the poor guy. He even slapped me, and kicked me. Aston, you must help me clean him up, and then grab the beauty beside him!"

Chapter 417 Hard Kicks

Steff, Aston's second cousin speeded up and walked to Maximilian. He waved his hand fiercely, and a group of bodyguards behind him surrounded Maximilian and Victoria.

"Ha ha, you son of a bitch, you are scared now! You were so arrogant when you beat me just now. It's my turn to beat you now!"

Blair walked to Steff's side, narrowed his eyes and looked at Victoria. He kept staring at Victoria, and his mouth was watering.

"Hey, she looks gorgeous. It looks like she doesn't have any plastic surgery at all, but a thousand times better than those red-faced models. I didn't expect that there is such a beautiful woman in H City."

Aston sighed silently in his heart. Looking at his two cousins, he felt like seeing himself not long ago. Why did he dare to look into trouble with Maximilian? Did he look for death?

Standing behind the two younger brothers, Aston looked at Maximilian apologetically. When he was about to clean up the two stupid cousins, Aston saw Maximilian shook his head slightly.

Aston was about to lift his foot and kick his cousins, but stopped quickly. He stood silently behind the two silly men, and waited for Maximilian's command.

More people were attracted to the crowd, and Anayah was bolder and quietly walked a few steps forward.

"I am afraid Victoria will be finished this time, but she asked for this. It is not because I disregarded our sisterhood, but she didn't follow me."

Anayah muttered. After a while, she took her cell phone out and took two photos of Victoria, Maximilian, and the Brooks family confronting each other. Then she sent these photos to Iris to prove that she had done what Iris said and wanted to reap the benefits from Iris first.

After receiving the photos, Iris asked about the place and rushed over with her friends. They came to Anayah's side.

"Iris, I brought Victoria over, but Maximilian hit Steff. I'm afraid the Brooks family will tear them apart. I've done what you asked, so you should reward me now."

"I know. You absolutely deserve the benefits. I had prepared a big surprise for Victoria, but that's not important now. Let the Brooks family beat them first, and there is a big surprise waiting for Victoria later. Em."

Iris had already contacted Luke. At this time, let Brooks family clean up Maximilian first, and when the Brooks wanted to do something to Victoria, she would call Nick out. Then, others would think Iris had a good relation with Nick, this would improve her reputation in the circle.

Steff and Blair did not rush to have their men pounce on Maximilian directly, but kept humiliating Maximilian and wanted to make Maximilian kneel down and beg for mercy.

The crowd shook their heads and sighed mournfully, thinking that it was time to mourn Maximilian.

"Isn't this poor guy coming to find his death? And he even dared to offend Steff. It is not easy to mess up with Brooks family. This time Aston has come. I am afraid the guy will either die or end up disabled."

"I think Steff molested his woman, so he was pissed off and hit Steff. But the woman with him is beautiful, and I also want to go up and molest her. Why should he come to find trouble with such a beautiful woman? "

"That guy will definitely be smashed and thrown away. It is estimated that the beautiful woman will be taken away by the Brooks brothers. I don't know if there will be a chance to play with her in the future. I hope the Brooks will not hurt her."

Most of the crowd paid attention to Victoria, and many rich young men were secretly craving Victoria's body.

Steff and Blair's throat was a little dry after saying so many words. When they saw Maximilian did not say a word but looking at them with a strange look, they became even angrier.

"Catch him for me. I'll beat him hard as a sandbag!" Steff roared angrily.

Several bodyguards from the Brooks family were about to step forward, but they saw Aston lift his foot and kicked at the knee nests of Steff and Blair.

Pfft! Pfft! Steff and Blair were caught off guard and were both kicked to the ground with weak knees.

Aston really couldn't help it anymore. If the bodyguards touched Maximilian, the matter would get messier.

Maximilian even dared to hit Master Benedict. How miserable Master Benedict was beaten that day.

Master Benedict was powerful, but Maximilian hit Master Benedict badly.

The Brooks family was inferior to Master Benedict, and couldn't compete with Maximilian at all.

The crowd was stunned and looked at Aston in surprise. They were confused by what Aston had done. Why Aston suddenly hit his brothers?

The bodyguards stopped and looked at Aston in a daze, not knowing whether they should arrest Maximilian or not.

"Master Aston, what are you doing?" The leading bodyguard asked nervously.

"Aston, are you crazy? Why did you kick us?" Steff glared at Aston in annoyance and felt he was humiliated in public.

"You guys grab them and hit them like sandbags!" Aston pointed at the two stupid brothers and said to his bodyguards.

"Hiss!" The crowd took a breath of cold air and talked loudly.

"What is this situation? Aston is ruthless, but why wouldn't he do such a thing for no reason?"

"He is to please someone to hit his brothers. But Maximilian isn't a man with any background. Why did Aston do this?"

"Is Aston ready to destroy his brother to monopolize the family fortune? It would be a bit cruel."

The crowd whispered various speculations and felt that the situation was a bit beyond imagination.

Anayah looked completely dumbfounded and pulled Iris away and asked, "Iris, what's going on? Does Maximilian know Aston?"

"That punk knows a shit. He is idle all day. And he doesn't know anyone. Even if he knows, he knows someone, but they don't know him."

Iris said something contemptuous, but her heart was a bit cold. The scene that the Head of Stone Family from provincial capital apologized to Maximilian emerged in Iris's mind.

Was it possible that Maximilian had a hidden identity? It was impossible. If Maximilian was a big shot, how could he remain a waste for so many years? It was illogical!

Accidents, it must be an accident, and this time it must be an accident too! When she called Luke later, everything would change!

Iris fixed her mind and thought of Luke, her heart suddenly became calm.

Although the Brooks family's bodyguards were surprised, they didn't dare to disobey Aston's order. They could only grab and press Steff and Blair.

"Master Aston, do you really want us to beat them?"

Chapter 418 Teaching Iris

"Beat them hard! Beat them to death!" Aston said fiercely.

"Aston, are you fucking crazy? Why are you asking them to hit us?" Steff asked in a panic.

"You still dare to ask why? You are asking for death to provoke Mr. Maximilian! Break every bone in them for me!"

After speaking, Aston made an example and hit his fist at their shoulders of his stupid brothers.

With two fierce punches, Steff and Blair screamed.

"Just hit them like this, hurry up." After the demonstration, Aston stared at the bodyguards and said.

The bodyguards had to hit Steff and Blair.

The crowd was in horror when they saw this. It would be unjustifiable if there was no sufficient reason for Aston to hit his brothers so cruelly in public.

Under the attention of the crowd, Aston walked to Maximilian, and bent his head. He bowed to Maximilian one hundred and ten degrees, and his head would almost touch his toes.

"Mr. Maximilian, I apologize to you on behalf of my two bastard cousins. They don't know you. Mr. Maximilian, please forgive them. I will definitely deal with them, and none of them will be allowed to return to the country in the future."

Maximilian nodded slightly and said indifferently, "Well, just do it and let the rest go."

"Thank you, Mr. Maximilian. On behalf of the Brooks family, I thank you for your generosity." Aston bowed and apologized after speaking with a respectful expression.

The crowd was dumbfounded and looked at Maximilian as if they wanted to see through his identity.

But Maximilian's ordinary clothes were just too misleading, so people could not see through who Maximilian was.

"Who is this Mr. Maximilian? Aston is so afraid of him? He should be a fierce dragon."

"This dragon is too fierce, right? It seems that both Steff and Blair are going to be sent abroad. Maybe they will be sent somewhere to grow crops. It's so terrible."

"Who knows this Mr. Maximilian? Help us find his background. I am ready to get acquainted with Mr. Maximilian and hug his golden thigh."

Listening to the comments around her, Anayah did not feel well. A horrible figure like Aston unexpectedly apologized to Maximilian constantly, which had shifted Anayah's world views.

Iris's face turned gloomy, and she was annoyed with Aston's action. Why did Aston apologize to Maximilian?

"You guys want to know the details of Mr. Maximilian? I know." Iris gritted her teeth and said.

Many people around her looked over. These rich and young people from other cities didn't know Iris. So when they heard what Iris said, they all asked curiously.

"If you know, then hurry up and tell us, we will treat you to a good drink later."

Iris didn't hide anymore. She raised her head and said loudly, "Maximilian is the son-in-law of the Griffith family in H City, he lives by his wife, and he is a loser! He's a bullshit dragon. In H City, he's a household name and a waste!"

As soon as Iris's words fell, the crowd around her fiercely retreated backward, as if Iris was a snake scorpion ghost, and everyone was trying to avoid her.

Only Anayah and Iris's friends were still with her.

Seeing the rich young men around her moving away, Iris became even more furious. She pointed at Maximilian and yelled, "Maximilian, you piece of shit, how dare you be so arrogant here?"

"Iris?" Maximilian looked at Iris in surprise. Then seeing Anayah and Iris together, he instantly understood.

Victoria also saw Iris and Anayah and looked at Anayah disappointedly, and then sighed.

Anayah's heart was beating fast, and she knew she was exposed. After a moment of hesitation, Anayah ran away from Iris's side.

Running to Victoria's side, Anayah pulled Victoria's arm and said, "Victoria, you misunderstood me. We met when Iris was watching the show. The crowd just squeezed us together."

"Huh." Victoria sneered and pulled her arm away from Anayah's hand.

Anayah was angry. But when she saw Maximilian, she suppressed the anger in her heart.

"Victoria, you have to believe me. I know I am wrong to escape alone. But I was just terrified. If I knew Maximilian is so powerful, I certainly will not run."

Seeing Anayah apologize to Victoria, Iris became even angrier. She quickly walked towards Anayah and wanted to pull Anayah back.

Aston stopped Iris and said coldly, "If you go any further, I will not be polite to you."

"Who are you to stop me? Don't think I'm afraid of you just because you're the eldest son of Brooks family! You are even afraid of a waste like Maximilian, your prestige is just boasting!"

Iris ignored Aston and despised him in her eyes because of her annoyance and having Luke behind her back.

"I have no reputation, and I am just a dog under Mr. Maximilian. I will bite whoever Mr. Maximilian wants me to, and I will bite whoever is disrespectful to Mr. Maximilian, regardless of gender and age." Aston said expressionlessly.

Many people in the crowd had dealt with Aston, and they had seen Aston's ruthless methods. Now when hearing Aston called himself Maximilian's lackey, everyone changed their views suddenly.

"Aston is going crazy. He doesn't want his reputation at all when he said this. And he actually admitted that he was a lackey in public."

"What he did was to please Maximilian. This Maximilian is definitely not a waste. If he is a waste, Aston will certainly not be a lackey."

Iris couldn't get through at all because of Aston's words. Aston admitted that he was Maximilian's lackey, and Iris could say nothing more.

The exasperated Iris waved her hand towards Aston's face and wanted to scratch him, and she was ready to take action if she could not say it.

"Maximilian is a son-in-law in my family. If you are Maximilian's dog, then you are my family's dog, I will beat you today!"

Aston took a step back and let Iris's arms pass. His brow furrowed, and his eyes looked at Maximilian.

Maximilian coldly looked at Iris and said, "Beat."

Aston nodded, grabbed Iris's hair, and swung his arm to slap Iris's face.

After a few slaps, Iris's face filled with hyaluronic acid was almost blown off.

"Woo! Woo ooo ooo." Iris was beaten up into tears, and roared, "Maximilian, how dare you let someone beat me? You just wait, wait for me to find someone to clean you up!"

"Just find someone as fast as possible, don't keep me wait for too long." Maximilian said indifferently.

"You wait, today is your doomed death day!" Iris said and ran wildly to find Luke.

Chapter 419 Befriending

Seeing Iris crying and running away wildly, Anayah panicked in her heart and looked at Maximilian with strange eyes.

This was an illusion, right? How did Maximilian, this punk, suddenly become so powerful? It was completely different from what she thought! Anayah was dumbfounded. What just happened was too shocking!

Many of the rich young men came over and wanted to say hello to Maximilian. They should show their faces and get to know him no matter whether they could get connected with Maximilian or not, hoping that they could have a good relationship with Maximilian when they meet again.

"Mr. Maximilian, I am Sharen of the Davidson family, it's a pleasure to meet you, let's sit down and have a drink together."

"I am Turner Charm of the Charm family, I am a good friend of Aston. Mr. Maximilian, you will also be my friend from now on. Please sit down and have a good talk."

Maximilian frowned slightly and was not interested in interacting with these rich young men. He pulled Victoria towards a secluded place.

A group of rich youngsters became embarrassed when they saw this.

"Hey, what kind of person is he? We're trying to be nice to him, but he doesn't give us a good look. Does he really think we're nobody?"

"Aston, what on earth does he come from? How can you say that you are his lackey? You don't want to maintain your Brooks family's reputation?"

"Aston, you did too much this time. To please him, you hit your brothers so badly. I am afraid you can't explain it to your uncles."

Seeing Maximilian's departure, the rich and young people surrounded Aston one after another and wanted to get some information from Aston.

Aston said with a cold face, "Keep your mouths shut. If anyone's mouth pops out disrespectful words to Mr. Maximilian, don't blame me for being rude."

"Fuck you! Aston, you do not have a fever, right? You do not fucking recognize us? That Maximilian is your father?" A rich young man was quite displeased with Aston's words.

"If Mr. Maximilian is willing to be my father, I will absolutely call him Dad. But unfortunately, he is not interested in a son like me, so I can only be his lacquey. I will not say more. Let me remind you. If you treat me as your buddy, please be respectful to Mr. Maximilian."

Aston's words were so loud that the rich and powerful men fell into silence.

The group of people looked at Aston with puzzled faces, and they knew Aston was serious when he said these words.

"Oh, okay, you are willing to be his lackey, so go ahead and be it. I'm going to have a drink."

"Aston, your reputation is ruined now. Forget it, you do whatever you want, It is your own business, and we will not say much."

"The world is so big and there are many kinds of people. Even he is the King of Heaven, it is not worth to be a dog. Aston, you should not be blinded by lard."

A group of rich young men murmured and dispersed one after another. They felt that Aston was too exaggerated and overacted.

Everyone was from a wealthy family and could live a comfortable life. Even if Aston wanted to hold Maximilian's thighs, he went too far.

It didn't matter if he pretended to be grandsons or a dog secretly, but he should save his face in the public. However, Aston even did such a humiliating thing in public, which made the young and rich men from the provincial capital felt humiliated too.

Aston's face became more and more cold and arrogant, and he looked at the rich young men who had disappeared contemptuously.

"You are just a bunch of uneducated trash and just wait to die. You will regret not being with Mr. Maximilian's dog when you see Mr. Maximilian's greatness." Aston thought smugly.

Recalling the scene when Maximilian defeated Master Benedict, Aston felt assured that he did not do anything wrong. Even if he was expelled from the Brooks family, he had to be a good dog for Maximilian!

Iris cried, and several girlfriends were gathered around her side, expressing their sympathy for Iris's experience.

"Iris, don't cry. That bastard Maximilian is so arrogant, and we will find someone to help you take revenge."

"Is that Brooks family's eldest son sick in the head? He even helped Maximilian! I really can't figure out what's going on."

Iris wiped her tears and said with a sneer, "You guys wait and see. The people I find will definitely be able to beat him up. Bullshit Brooks family's eldest son, he's a fool! And that punk Maximilian, I'll make him kneel down, kowtow to me and admit his mistakes!"

"Iris, which big shot do you know? I've never heard you talk about it. Are you hiding someone and not introducing it to us?"

"No, he doesn't like me, but he likes that bitch Victoria. But it's good to let Victoria become his slave. When Maximilian was cheated by his wife, how they can be so arrogant in front of me in the future?"

The more Iris said, the angrier she became. So she took out her phone and called Luke.

"Hello, this is Iris, Andrew's niece."
Iris said in a delicate voice.

"Victoria is here, isn't she? Where is she? My big gun just can't wait! I've been craving for her in the past two days, hahaha." Luke said impatiently.

"Luke, I did my best to trick Victoria here. But just now I was beaten up by her husband. You have to avenge me for that."

"Hmm?" Luke was slightly surprised for a moment, and then an evil smile appeared on his face, "Oh, it seems that that waste is still a virile man. I will definitely help you take the revenge. When the time comes, let the strongest men under me accompany him to play the game of picking up soap, and he will definitely get high."

"Luke, you really know how to play. Where are you now? I'll meet you and show you the way." Iris said.

"It's okay, I'm in the villa at the end, come over." Iris hung up the phone and became excitedly, "It's done. You guys go back and wait for me. Later I'll take Luke to find Maximilian and Victoria. I'll definitely win my face back."

"Then we will go back and wait to see the big shot you find to clean up Maximilian and Victoria. Please do not let us down."

Iris' girlfriends turned around and went back. Iris quickly walked to the bathroom to fix her makeup and then walked towards Luke's location.

"Luke, my reputation is depending on you. You must be awesome."

Iris muttered with her hands clenched into fists, and she was somewhat nervous and apprehensive.

After all, Aston had claimed to be Maximilian's dog, though Iris felt that Aston was sick in his head.

But with Aston, Iris was not sure Luke could win Aston and clean up Maximilian successfully. If Luke wasn't Aston's opponent, then she would be a laughing stock finally.

The more Iris thought about it, the more apprehensive she was.

Chapter 420 Set up the prestige

Luke lazily leaned on the sofa, and a group of enchanting beauties was dancing for him.

He held up a red wine glass and shook it, smiled, and said, "Good dancing, each one of you will be rewarded with one hundred thousand dollars."

"Thank you, Luke." A group of beautiful women expressed their thanks, and then swarmed to Luke's side and helped him knead and massage up.

"Ha ha, don't expect me to sleep with you today. I have an appointment with a big beauty today."

When Luke thought of Victoria, a strange look flashed in his eyes.

"Luke, how can you ignore us? Even you just find a beauty, we can also help you push or shake, and we will absolutely make you happy and joyous."

"You are good at playing. Let's save it for later. She is a pure-hearted virtuous woman and can't play in a crazy manner at the beginning."

The beautiful women couldn't help but pout, but Luke's attitude was unbeatable, so they could only obey. They couldn't make their sugar daddy angry.

Iris, who was brought into the hall, looked dumbfounded at a group of beauties surrounding Luke.

Iris had seen the scene of three or two beauties serving a man. But it was the first time she saw seven or eight beauties surrounding a man shamelessly, begging for pleasure.

This scene made Iris feel short of wit. Not to mention the strength of Luke, he was good at playing with women.

"Luke, Iris is here." The assistant walked up behind Luke and said.

The group of beautiful women surrounding Luke looked at Iris, and their eyes were as sharp as knives, which made Iris instantly feel cold all over.

"It can't be this girl, right? She looks just so-so, and is not better than us."

"Her figure is just average, and is worse than ours with specially trained. It is estimated her sexual skills are not great. Luke, are you driving us away for her?"

A beautiful woman said in a petulant and whiny way, as they all wanted to strip Iris and throw her out, so that Iris would not compete with them for his favor.

Luke frowned slightly and said coldly, "Go back. If you dare to talk nonsense again, you will be locked up in the wolf garden."

Hearing he wolf garden, the beauties shut up one after another, and a look of horror appeared on their faces.

The beauties that upset Luke were mercilessly thrown into the wolf garden and became food for the wolves.

Those who were around Luke knew many stories about the wolf garden, and as long as they heard the word wolf garden from Luke's mouth, they would be scared.

"We don't dare." The beautiful girls said and then left the hall together.

Iris was still in a trance. She didn't understand what the two words Wolf Garden meant, but she just felt that with the departure of those beauties, the pressure on her body had been relieved a lot.

"Nice to meet you, Luke, I am Iris." Iris bowed slightly and said.

"Ah ha, don't be nervous, I won't eat you. Victoria is here, isn't she? Bring me over to see her."

"Luke, something unexpected happened just now. Now Aston, the eldest son of Brooks family from the provincial capital is protecting them. if you want to take Victoria away, I'm afraid that you have to defeat Aston first."

Iris thought it was better to make things clear first, and it was up to Luke to weigh whether he could win Aston or not.

Luke laughed disdainfully, "Aston? He is a bullshit and with the lowest people all day long. He just controls a few killers. Does he really think he is a big shot? It is not that I look down on people, but the local families are scum."

"If those bullshit families come to our place, they absolutely can't even last for three days, and their whole family will die in order. Do you think I can't handle the Brooks? Were you bullied just now? I will definitely let Aston kneel down to make amends to you."

Listening to Luke's bold words, Iris's eyes lit up, and her heart filled with hope.

If Luke really could make Aston kneel down and apologize to her, then the scene would be spectacular. And at that time, all the rich youngsters would come for her and compliment her, right?

Iris had already started to think about it. Luke smilingly waved his hand and said to his assistant, "Gather everyone and bring everything you have. It is time to show our prestige."

"Luke, you want to establish the prestige?" the assistant asked respectfully.

"Don't talk nonsense. Do you really think I am just eating, drinking and playing here? The main purpose is to do business. Playing beautiful women is just an entertainment for me. It just happens that all the rich and young men are here today, so I will show them my prestige."

"Okay, I'll arrange it." The assistant left quickly, and gathered Luke's bodyguards. He asked all of them to bring their firearms long and short with them, so they would be intimidating enough later.

Luke patted the sofa beside him and said to Iris with a smile, "Come, sit down and talk to me. Tell me about Victoria, and her husband's. What's his name?"

Iris moved her footsteps towards Luke. Her eyes turned and were wondering if she should hook up with Luke.

If she could follow Luke, she could take Victoria as a maid in the future, and then she could let Victoria serve her foot wash every day.

The fanciful Iris sat beside Luke and made a shy look. As a veteran among women, Luke knew what Iris was thinking after just one glance, and he smiled and stretched out his arm to hold Iris.

"Tsk, little beauty. Do you have any thoughts about me? Don't rush. After playing with Victoria, I will take you to play with others."

"Luke, you are bad. I am not that kind of person."

"Hahaha, looking at your appearance, it is clear that you want to hook up with me. Later I will help you revenge, so you should sleep with me, right? It would be great if you and Victoria were twin. It would be great to sleep with twins."

Luke became more excited as he talked, hugged Iris, and kissed her. Iris obediently fell into Luke's arms and said, "Luke, you are so bad. In the future I will help you educate Victoria, okay? Her temperament is not good. If no one teaches her, I am afraid she doesn't know how to serve you well."

"I'm not afraid that she will not serve me well. I have many methods to educate beautiful women. But if you are willing to help, that would be better. Let me look at your training methods at that time."

Chapter 421 Is She an Elf?

Flora sat in the Rolls Royce car fully dressed and looked at the winery door calmly.

Flora was not happy or sad, as she had already accepted her fate of being a plaything.

Whether being Harley's plaything or to seduce Maximilian under Dragon Queen's command, it was the same to Flora. To her, it didn't matter who she served and whether the man was handsome or ugly, it was her duty to serve the men.

Flora just wanted to live, which was the profound meaning of her life; as for other dreams and ideals, she didn't care and dare not to ask.

A middle-aged man in a butler's suit sat next to Flora. Seeing her beautiful face, he couldn't help but felt pity for her.

"Flora, Dragon Queen said that if you succeed in this mission, she will release your family and give you freedom in the future."

Flora's eyes lit up for a moment and then dimmed again.

"Your attitude is good. Maximilian isn't a capable man. I believe with your beauty, you should be able to win his heart soon."

"Uncle Dixon, thank you for the compliment." Flora said with her head hanging low.

"Okay, just do what you want later, and I won't interfere."

The Rolls-Royce drove into the winery and attracted many rich young men's attention.

Their cars were all parked in the parking lot outside and couldn't enter the winery.

The Rolls-Royce's entry at this moment made them feel something different. They began to guess who this big shot was.

The Rolls-Royce slowly stopped.

Uncle Dixon was first to get off, then walked to Flora's side to open the door for her.

When he reached out to open the door, he used his right hand to prevent her head from hitting the car roof, which was a standard action for British butler.

Then a fair and straight leg appeared at the car door along with a shining high heel made of countless crystals.

The men were turned on when seeing the leg, and the women felt jealous when seeing the high heel.

The appearance of just a leg attracted so many people's attention. Flora got out of the car and stood by the door lazily.

The black evening gown set off her skin even fairer. Her beautiful figure made those men couldn't help but swallow hard.

When seeing Flora's demure face, many men found their souls being stolen.

She had an extremely charming face. The key was, her ears seemed to be different

She had a pair of pointed ears and the tips of her ears were light blue, just like elves.

"My God, do elves really exist? Who is this beauty? I'm going to propose to her."

"Don't fight with me. She must be mine. Whoever tries to chase her is my enemy."

"Damn it. The beauties I saw in the past were nothing, compared to her. I guess no other beauties could compete with her other than Victoria."

Those rich young men were excited, and they stood up to greet Flora.

Uncle Dixon swept the surrounding with cold and stern eyes and the excited rich young guys all calmed down.

They were all scared by Uncle Dixon's eyes and stopped.

"Maximilian is over there, should we go over?" Uncle Dixon looked at Flora and asked in a low voice.

"No one is sitting at the table beside him. Let's go and sit there. I want to observe him." Flora said plainly.

Uncle Dixon nodded and led the way for Flora with a bow.

The two walked one after the other to where Maximilian sat, and the rich young men were all surprised to see this.

Maximilian and Victoria sat together, whispering softly. Aston was sitting beside them, but he was totally ignored.

Aston didn't care about it at all. He found it a huge progress since he was able to sit at the same table with Maximilian.

Just when Aston was emptying his mind and reducing his presence, Flora appeared in front of him.

His breath suddenly quickened, as he felt he was hit by Cupid seeing Flora. She was like a fairy appearing from the painting. He definitely fell in love with her at the first sight.

Aston was so excited that he stood up in a panic. His knee hit the table in a rush, and the sound of the collision came.

The table shook twice and the wine glasses and fruit plates on the table almost fell onto the floor.

Maximilian steadied the glasses and said to Aston with dissatisfaction, "What's wrong with you? Are you crazy?"

"Sorry, sorry, I, I... She is just too beautiful." Aston gibbered as he apologized to Maximilian.

At the same time, he couldn't help staring at Flora, which made him seem to be quite weird.

Maximilian and Victoria were both puzzled, and they followed Aston's gaze and saw Flora.

When seeing her, Victoria was shocked.

"This girl's ears are so peculiar. Is she born with them or does she have a plastic surgery?" Victoria muttered in a low voice.

Maximilian took a look at Flora, shrugged, and said, "I don't know. She seems to be an elf."

"I heard that many geeks like elves, do you?" Victoria tilted her head to look at Maximilian and asked directly.

Maximilian said in a serious tone, "I am not a geek. You are the most beautiful woman in my heart, much more beautiful than a fairy."

Flora walked slowly and she was a little surprised at Victoria's beauty.

Once Flora thought she was the most beautiful woman, but after seeing Victoria, she doubted her idea, as he found there were people as beautiful as her.

She also saw how intimate Victoria and Maximilian were, and couldn't help but feel jealous.

To enjoy the time between lovers was a dream for Flora. Once she woke up from the dream, Flora could only continue to face the reality numbly.

Finally, Aston couldn't resist his desire, and step forward to stand in front of Flora. He wanted to say something to express his affection, but he just didn't know what to say. All the years of being a playboy were of no use at this time.

Flora looked at Aston with some disgust. Uncle Dixon stepped forward and said with an icy face, "Please don't block the way."

"I, I ... would like to ask your name, young lady." Aston said somewhat foolishly.

"Get out of the way." Uncle Dixon said seriously.

Aston hesitated for a moment, but finally chose to walk away. He didn't want Flora to have a bad impression on him.

Uncle Dixon escorted Flora to the table next to Maximilian. He pulled out the chair and let Flora sit down.

Aston wanted to follow up for a chat, but was stopped by Uncle Dixon's cold glare, "She doesn't like noisy places. Please don't disturb her."

Chapter 422 Mind Your Words

Aston sat back in his seat, but still kept staring at Flora. It seemed that all his attention was attracted by her.

Maximilian said with a smile, "If you like her, just go and tell her. What's the point of looking at her secretly?"

"I went to her just now but, but..."

At this time, Aston totally lost his pride as the eldest young master of the Brookes family. He was just a young man deep in love. And he had no idea what to do when seeing the woman he loved.

Victoria smiled lightly and whispered to Maximilian in his ear, "Her beauty really doesn't impress you at all?"

"Of course not. I only love you. There is no room for anyone else in my heart."

Maximilian said seriously.

Flora listened to the conversation between Maximilian and Victoria attentively. When she heard Maximilian say there was no room for anyone else, she clenched her teeth.

Why couldn't he let her in? Men were all liars. She would definitely seduce Maximilian successfully to see whether there was room for her in his heart.

At first, Flora only thought of it as a task to seduce Maximilian, but now, she began to think in another way, even she herself didn't realize such changes.

Uncle Dixon stood behind Flora with his head hung low, as if lost in thought.

As long as no one came to mess up with the plan, Uncle Dixon would stand motionless like this.

Maximilian glanced at Uncle Dixon, and found Uncle Dixon was a martial art master from the way he stood.

With a beautiful face and such a master by her side, Maximilian guessed Flora was someone unusual.

Since she directly went to him, Maximilian felt maybe she came for him.

Maximilian didn't let anyone know about it. Life was just like a play. Since Flora wanted to act, Maximilian would sit to see what she wanted.

"Aston, don't be such a coward, you used to be a tough guy too. Show your toughness, go and confess to her." Maximilian said with a smile.

Aston smiled bitterly. He scratched his head and said, "I guess I would go take her to me with force if it was before. But I can't bear to offend her when I see her. I felt it a sin for me to treat her with force."

Maximilian and Victoria glanced at each other. They both felt that Aston was bewitched and his heart was stolen by Flora.

Luke's men assembled with all kinds of weapons, which made them quite aggressive.

Iris lay in Luke's arms and grunted coquettishly, and then she shyly got dressed up.

"Luke, how can you do this to me? You should let me get dressed and then let them in."

"Ha ha, isn't it exciting? Look, how are my men? They are all tough and aggressive. It is exaggerated to say they can defeat a hundred people, but they can defeat at least ten. They will teach Maximilian a lesson later and make him kneel down to plead to me."

"Luke, you are awesome! Since you decide to make a move, success is sure to achieve. Later I will help you get Victoria disciplined. Let's see whether she could still pretend to be a chaste woman." Iris's eyes shone with jealousy.

Luke stood up, tied his belt, and said, "Go out and wait. I will take you to have fun later."

The men went out and Iris got dressed in a blush.

After the two were properly dressed, they walked out hand in hand. Surrounded by a group of sidekicks, Luke and Iris walked to the front yard of the winery.

Luke's appearance caused uproar in the crowd. The group of young men from Chuzhou and H City all looked at Luke with fear.

Although the Newman family didn't live in this province, there were stories about it here, and almost everyone knew how ruthless the members of Newman family were.

Also, the Newman family was involved in shady business, so the rich young men deliberately kept a distance from Luke.

When they saw Luke walked to Maximilian with a group of men, they knew something big was going to happen.

"Holy shit, something exciting is about to happen. There are two top beauties around Maximilian. I think Luke must come for them."

"Is it Iris beside Luke? She is such a smart girl and she could even ask Luke to revenge her."

"Maximilian is doomed this time. Even if there were ten Astons helping him, he is still no match for Luke."

The young rich men all come to watch what was going to happen. But they didn't dare to come closer since they were afraid of the guns Luke's sidekicks brought.

Iris's friends were all excited, bright smiles appeared on their faces.

"Iris is so good! She could even get Luke! No wonder she has been hiding it from us."

"I heard that Luke is not easy to serve. Iris must use a lot of efforts! She is sure to win her face back this time."

Anayah was sitting alone in the corner, looking at Maximilian and Victoria with resentful eyes. Although they didn't say anything bad about her, she just hated them in her heart.

She hated it that they made a hit.

She hated it that she was disliked by both sides.

She hated it that fate was unfair to her.

Anyway, she just felt she was extremely unlucky. She wished that Victoria and Maximilian could be in trouble soon.

Seeing Luke appeared with Iris at this time, Anayah was quite excited. She clenched her fists and muttered, "Good. Since Luke comes, you are doomed this time. I just want to see whether you are still arrogant like just now. How dare you treat me so bad just now? It seems you two will lose face soon."

Under the gaze of everyone, Luke led his men towards Maximilian's table. After looking at Victoria, Luke's eyes fell on Flora. He was instantly amazed by her beauty.

"Hahahaha, Iris, you are really my lucky star. I didn't expect that there is another elf-like beauty other than Victoria. I'm so lucky tonight and I will have sex with them multiple times!" Luke laughed dissolutely.

Iris glared at Maximilian and Victoria. Then she leaned against Luke and said, "Luke, you have to deal with Maximilian first. Otherwise, this loser will definitely affect your mood."

Maximilian, Iris, and Flora looked at Luke with disgusted eyes, and they felt dissatisfied with Luke in their hearts.

Uncle Dixon took a glance at Luke and his men. Then he closed his eyes again like a monk in meditation.

Aston directly stood up angrily with red eyes. Whether to impress Maximilian or impress Flora, Aston should make a move at this time.

"Luke, Mind your words."
