

Chapter 414

But no matter how awkward it is, you are responsible for fixing what you do.

Tailor Feng sighed.

"Last night, I was really drunk and I apologize for offending you, but you see now that it's happened, why don't we just make it work?"

Evelin stared.

I can't believe he even dared to say such a thing.

"Will do?fu*k you and your sister will!"

She was so furious that she kicked Tailor Feng off the bed again and roared, "I damn well wouldn't be with you even if all the men in the world were dead, and would I?You'll be fine on your own!"

After that, she ignored him no longer, wrapped up in her blanket and jumped out of bed, heading to the bathroom in a rage.

Soon there was the sound of water running in the bathroom.

Covering his painfully kicked knee, Tailor Feng grimaced as he stood up and looked towards the bathroom, his eyes dimmed slightly.

Evelin quickly finished her shower.

Rushing out with only a towel wrapped around her, her white shoulders under her long, loose hair, she could still faintly see the traces of last night's madness.

She bent over to pick up her torn clothes from the floor and looked at them.

Then, eyes fell on the white shirt the man had thrown on the couch not far away.

It was a bit disgusting, but at this point, there was no extra option, so I walked over to the bathroom and picked up the white shirt.

Tailor Feng opened his mouth to say something, but he didn't have time.

The bathroom door slammed shut, and about a minute later, Evelin came out again, having changed into his shirt.

The woman was slender and small, six feet tall, and wearing the clothes of a man of his size, with a shirt that reached to her knee socket.

Tailor Feng watched as his throat rolled and gulped.

"That..."

"I'm warning you, you're not allowed to say a word about what happened between us, not a word!"

Before he could finish his sentence, the woman interrupted.

Evelin glared at him fiercely, warning him before picking up her bag and heading out.

Tailor Feng's face sank.

"Where are you going?"

"Don't you worry about it!"

The door slammed again!

The house went quiet in a moment.

Tailor Feng stood there, looking at the slammed door for a moment, before laughing bitterly to himself.

And now, the other side.

Jenny Jing and Biden Lu have boarded the plane that was sent out to f.

After four years of separation, returning to that familiar place, Jenny's feelings were complicated.

Once she thought that after she left, she might never return here again.

But I never thought that just four years....

It's been four years, and everything's become a different story.

When the first year dies, there's Rin Tin Tin in charge, and when K dies, who's in charge?

Thinking of all the favors that Old K had spared no effort to help him in the past, Jenny only felt his chest heavy, as if he couldn't breathe like a stone.

But the good news is, she's not alone this time.

There was still Biden Lu to keep her company.

About sensing her emotions, the man held her hand tightly and said: "When we get there, we may have to visit the Jin family first, this time I came out, no one else told, only told Kepler, he is the next heir of the Jin family, the Jin family is very influential in the local f country, our investigation should be helpful!

Jenny nodded.

The Johnsons were relocated out of the country with their family at the end of the last century, and the forces behind them are said to be unfathomable.

After all, they originally took the underground development, after the founding of the country, the domestic development of unfavorable, this is only out of the country, with their superior means and strong reserves, now has almost commanded the entire f country's underground circle.

If you want to find out what happened on the surface, Biden Lu can, but if you want to find out about the Dragon Corps, the Zijin family and the death of Old K, it's really inconvenient without the help of the Jin family.

Thinking of this, Jenny took a deep breath and exhaled under his breath.

Looking at the time, it was still early and the long flight was at least seven or eight hours.

So then he said, "Let's get some rest first, it should be morning over there, and I'm afraid it's only going to slow down for a while if we have to jet lag."

Biden Lu also nodded, and only then did they close their eyes to rest.

The plane arrived in F at 6am.

Biden Lu had notified the Jin family in advance, so as soon as they got off the plane, they met the driver sent by the Jin family to meet them at the airport.

The two men thanked him and were not polite, so they followed and got into the car and drove all the way to Ken's house.

The Jin family's villa is located in a wealthy area of Lin City, F State, nestled between the mountains and the water, covering an area larger than a park, and from afar it only looks like a castle of majestic splendor, worthy of being the first big Chinese family in F State.

The car drove into the estate, passing a sycamore road and finally stopping in front of a splendid villa.

"Mr. Land, Mrs. Land, here we are."

The self-appointed butler opened the door for them, and they got out of the car and walked to the house with the butler at their side.

"It's Biden and Jenny coming."

Only just entering the door, I heard the enthusiastic voice of old Mrs. Jin.

Jenny and Old Mrs. Jin were starstruck, so naturally they had to get to know each other much better.

Upon entering, I was greeted by the old lady's warm welcome.

"I've been telling you guys to come over sometime, but now it's good to finally have someone to look forward to."

Biden Lu and Jenny Jing greeted the people sitting in the living room one by one, unexpectedly discovering that there were actually quite a few people in the Jin family today.

Besides the two of them, there seemed to be other guests at Ken's house.

Old Mrs. Jin smiled, "Come on, let me introduce you, these are the brothers who fought with your grandfather in the past, this is your Uncle Chen, this is your Uncle Bai..."

Only after a round of introductions did Jenny have a general understanding.

Most of them were old people back then, and there was a wave of exodus at the end of the last century, and this group of people, probably, came out with the Jing at that time.

Now, decades later, it's also a force to be reckoned with abroad.

They greeted each of them humbly, and before they could take their seats, they suddenly heard a shout of joyous surprise.

"Brother Biden, what are you doing here? Oh God, I'm not dreaming!"

The crowd was slightly stunned.

Jenny Jing turned his head to look, but saw that the visitor was a girl who was dressed all valiantly.

Not very pretty to look at, but with an upright brow, quite a chivalrous look, and a healthy wheat-colored skin, very different from the girls at home.

She excitedly ran over and grabbed Biden Lu's arm.

Biden Lu frowned imperceptibly, but didn't let go, only saying in a faint voice, "Yun Yun? It's been a few years, and you've grown up so much."

Old Mrs. Jin looked at Jenny Jing, smiled and introduced, "This is my granddaughter, surnamed Su, list a rue character, now in the Air Force army, formerly raised in China as a child, and Biden and the others grew up together."

Jenny raised an eyebrow.

Chapter 415

It was as if this was how Su Yun saw her.

"This is that little sister-in-law from the legend of brother Biden, hello, my name is Su Yun, you can just call me Yun Yun just like brother Biden."

Jenny Jing smiled faintly, his attitude not too warm, "Hello."

When Mrs. Jin saw this, she greeted Biden Lu and a few of Jin's uncles to play chess in the back, while the ladies chatted in the front.

Most of the men wouldn't be too fond of what women talked about, so Jenny didn't care.

Rather, Biden Lu, before leaving, afraid that she would be uncomfortable staying here by herself, secretly squeezed her hand.

"Sit down for a moment, and I'll come over after I've had a few words with them."

Jenny nodded.

After Biden Lu left, she went over to the sofa, which was already full of people, so a maid moved a soft stool over, and she sat on top of it, quietly listening to them speak.

Su Yun saw a flicker in her eyes.

She smiled to a group of ladies and said, "Do you know what we were eating when we were marching in the field? I tell you, it was a real move, we only had three days' worth of dry food, and we had to cross the Amazon until we got to the base on the other side to get something to eat, with all kinds of traps and hidden outposts halfway across, all of which we didn't know about beforehand."

She had, after all, been in the army, and these things were so new to these pampered ladies and gals, that everyone listened intently.

Someone asked, "The Amazon jungle is so big, how can you get through it in three days, and you're not told about all the traps and stuff, what if you get hurt?"

"If you're hurt, just bear with it." Su Yun's face was quite proud, "I remember when I encountered a wave of African natives and almost got caught by them, but luckily I ran fast and didn't fall into their trap."

"Indigenous Africans? Are they cannibals?"

"Well...almost! But they don't eat people, they bring them for sacrifice, cut off their heads, and put them on the altar on a moonlit night..."

"Oh my God! Don't say it, it's horrible."

"What's so scary about it, the cannibals are fine, the most frightening thing is the various poisonous beasts and swamp miasms inside, once you're not careful, it's easy to become a fruitful meal for those things, speaking of which."

Su Yun suddenly turned to look at Jenny and said thoughtfully, "If Brother Biden hadn't saved me then, I wouldn't have been able to get out of there."

Lu Jing-Shen?

Their army training has nothing to do with Lu Jing-Shen.

There was no expression on Jenny's face, but Old Lady Jin smiled and explained.

"About six or seven years ago, Biden came to stay in F for a while, when I happened to meet her and saved her in passing."

Oh!

So that's it!

Jenny Jing suddenly, Su Yun laughed, "I was a little girl at that time, where could I deal with so many, if it wasn't for brother Biden protecting me all the way, I would have died there long ago."

After saying that, he also meant to say, "At that time, I was bitten by a kind of giant poisonous snake, my whole body was paralyzed and could not move, it was brother Biden who helped me suck out the poison despite the danger, and stayed with me for the whole night, so I was spared, so in this way, we are still considered comrades in arms."

"I told you, you two are so close now, you probably bonded back then too! I've always heard that Lu is cold and hard to approach, which means you can talk to him all the time."

Su Yun smiled sweetly,

Where is brother Biden's cold temperament? That's because you don't know him well, and I think he's fine."

"You just know how to speak for him."

A table of people laughed happily, and Jenny also laughed faintly, his heart somehow cold.

Just then, the maids made fresh tea and brought it up.

"Little sister-in-law, you have to taste it, this is the top-grade Immortal Drunkenness that I specially got from my father, he loves it, as soon as I saw that it was good tea, I hurriedly brought it to you to taste it too."

The old lady laughed, "Won't he scold you if you bring such nice things from your father?"

"Where would? My dad is a good son to you. He just wasn't available, and if he had been, he would have delivered it himself."

"Just your sweet mouth."

A group of people laughed, the maid poured tea for each person, thumb-sized cups, Jenny picked it up and smelled it, indeed a fragrant fragrance spread out.

She had heard of the name Immortal Drunken before, it was a special tea that couldn't be drunk if it wasn't from the top of the country, of course the Lu family also had it, but it was all from Master Lu.

Because they know that she and Biden Lu are not keen on tea, so Master Lu has not been willing to let them spoil it, and he only makes a cup for himself every time he is greedy.

"Jenny, how about you try this tea?" The old lady smiled at her.

Jenny tasted it, the mouth was slightly bitter, and the bitter aftertaste was fragrant, with more of a refreshing sweetness than other teas, other than that, there was no difference.

Of course she wouldn't be so disingenuous to tell the truth, she only smiled and nodded, "It's quite good, worthy of the special tea, it really is different from what we normally drink."

Only then did the old lady smile in satisfaction at the news, and just then, a maid who had come over to add tea to her suddenly shook her wrist, and a pot of freshly brewed tea was suddenly thrown over Jenny's body.

"Alas! What's wrong with you? No eyes?"

Su Yun screamed and asked Jenny again in a row, "Little sister-in-law, how are you? Did you get burned?"

Although the tea was very hot, but because Jenny was quick to avoid a little, so it was fine, the body was not splashed much, just a large wet skirt, also did not hurt too much.

"Nothing."

As soon as Jenny's voice trailed off, that maid cried, "I'm sorry Mrs. Lu, I didn't mean it, I'm sorry."

"What's the use of saying sorry? Are you responsible for burning your little sister-in-law?" Su Yun was lustrous.

The maid became even more frightened and stood there with her head bowed, trembling with fear.

Jenny couldn't see past it and spoke out to stop her, "I'm fine, it's just that my clothes are wet, it's not like I got burned, she didn't mean to do it, don't blame her."

Only after seeing her say that did Su Yun gradually lose her anger.

The old lady also frowned and said to the maid, "Pay attention next time, got it?"

The maid nodded repeatedly, "Yes, old lady, I won't dare next time."

"Let's have Rue take you to a change of clothes, it just so happens that you're about the same height, and hers you should be able to wear."

The old lady also instructed Su Yun to take her to change her clothes.

Jenny looked at her skirt, splashing it just below her waist, and it was indeed a bit unseemly to wear like that, so she nodded.

Su Yun saw the situation and immediately stood up, smiling, "It just so happens that I just bought some new ones yesterday, little sister-in-law, I'll take you there."

Chapter 416

She said, and they went to the bedroom where she lived.

Although Su Yun looked very handsome, she was still only a young girl in her early twenties, and the room was a male pink colour, looking very girlish.

Jenny just took a cursory glance and didn't look any further, Su Yun brought a new set of skirts over and said, "Just change this one, I just bought it and haven't worn it yet."

Jenny smiled faintly, "Okay, thanks."

"Then you can change here, I'm going out first."

"Good."

Su Yun went out, so Jenny Jing changed clothes in her room, and when she went out again, she didn't see Su Yun's shadow.

She frowned slightly.

Jin's house was a completely unfamiliar environment for her, as there were so many rooms with complicated designs, and besides, if she remembered correctly, the two had walked for a long time when they came over, indicating that Su Yun's place should be far away from the front hall.

In a situation like this, it's easy to not find the front room to go to without someone you know leading the way.

Thinking of this, Jenny didn't rush around, and after waiting in place for a while, seeing that she hadn't returned, that's when he took a step in the direction of his memory.

And yet, just like that.

As I passed through the hallway, I suddenly heard the sound of a man and woman arguing in the next room.

"Zhou Wenzhong! Isn't that too much to ask? How do you want me to explain to the old lady when such a large sum of money is gone just like that?"

"Jin Hong, listen to me explain, that money is not gone, I took it for investment, you also know that many foreign investments can't be recovered in a short period of time as long as you put the money in, aren't you asking for my life now?"

"I don't care! I only said that money was temporarily placed with you, I never said I wanted you to take it and invest it, you took matters into your own hands, if you really want to investigate the account, not to mention you, even I will be implicated, you must get that money back right now!"

"Jin Hong, it's not that I don't want it back, but I really can't get it back. Besides, isn't there still a few months before the year-end audit? What's your hurry? I'll just withdraw my investment when the time comes."

"That's putting it mildly, is this money really going to be invested, and you can withdraw it if you want to?"

"What can I do, a billion dollars, it's not a small amount of money, I can't get my hands on that much right now."

A billion?

Jenny raised an eyebrow.

Looks like this is a case of embezzlement.

It seems that she is the daughter of the old lady, the daughter of the Jin family's daughter, and she should be Kepler's aunt or something like that.

She didn't know any of the men inside, but whoever it was, it sounded like they had a lot of connections with the Jin family, otherwise Jin Hong wouldn't have been able to put a billion dollars into his hands.

Jenny thought about it, thinking that it was none of his business and wasn't going to listen to it anymore.

I was taking a step to leave, and then I heard someone inside say, "It's not that brat Kepler's fault, if it wasn't for him, why would I have been kicked out of Jin's by the old lady! Makes it sneaky to just move some money now."

Kepler?

She took a step and then took it back.

"Yes, that boy is a ruthless master, when I pleaded for you, all the way up to the old lady, who relented, and he was the one who had to kick you out.

My brother has been dead for so many years. I thought the Jin family would be left without an heir.

It'll be me, but now it's a good thing the old lady has found the bastard out of nowhere, and just the thought that he'll inherit the Jin style later on makes me hate it."

"Heh!The kid is the successor to Ken?I'm afraid it's too much!Look at the consortium now, how many people will listen to him, everyone is not a fool, left and right have followed you for so long, who will obey him when he says he will?"

"That can't be said, that boy is not an easy master.He was now a short time back and chained to that woman in the country, so if he came back later, he might do something.

For now, although I'm obviously still in charge of the finances, it's not all up to me like it used to be, and now with the people he's put in, if I want to move anything on the books, not to mention move money, even if it's a dollar or two short, he's still capable of finding out."

"In that case, that one billion..."

"That's why I'm anxious!That one billion is the old lady's word to allocate down ready to invest in that land on the outskirts of the city, I can stall it for you for a month or two, but after a while, it will definitely be found out."

"What about it?"

"What else can I do?Give me my money back!"

"But...I...I lost all that money a long time ago."

"What?Chow Man Chung!You!"

"Jin Hong, listen to me, I really didn't do it on purpose, I just went to t city last time originally just for fun, who thought they actually did the game, I was accidentally trapped, I was also blinded by greed at the time, thinking that I must get my capital back, just.....”

“Zhou Wenzhong! You’re going to get me killed like this, you know!”

“I know I know, let’s say you give me a little more time and I’ll come up with something that will never let them get to the bottom of this.”

“You...”

When he heard this, Jenny had a general understanding of the matter, and there was no more valley of yawning expectations to listen to.

Therefore, they left lightly.

Shortly after she left, the door to the room opened and Zhou Wenzhong was expelled from inside by Jin Hong.

“Zhou Wenzhong! I’ll give you another week, and if you don’t get the money back to me within a week, you’ll see what you can do after that!”

Finish with an angry throw of a pillow out.

Zhou Wenzhong caught the pillow, his face bruised and white, and turned his head, but saw a figure sweeping around the corner.

Huh? That’s not....

His face instantly went white.

Jenny returned to the front room, only to see everyone still sitting there, Su Yun was also sitting next to the old lady, happily eating Zhenzi, seeing her over and showing a smiling expression.

“Sister-in-law, where were you running to? I just went out to take a phone call, and then came back and didn’t see you people, and then I heard that they had Zhenzi over here to eat, so I ran over, you won’t blame me.”

Jenny Jing's heart was a little cold, but his face smiled lightly, "It's okay."

She could see now, how come when she saw this Su Yun before, both her actions and words were so uncomfortable?

I dare people to do it on purpose.

Although Jenny didn't know why she was targeting herself, the facts were there, so she could only keep an extra eye out.

"This girl ah, I don't know which family's starving ghost was reborn in her last life, she can't move her feet when she sees something she likes to eat, they say that daughters from big families are proud, there are a few like her, I see her ah, she is defeated on this mouth."
