

Chapter 421: Take a sharp turn

main city!

The base camp of the Heroic Soul Legion, the most dangerous and mysterious area in the Time Continent!

Even Jian Ji could not find the words of the main city in her school. For most magicians, being able to meet the Heroic Soul Legion is the limit of their ability. Unless they can kill the commander and get a map, they will not know where the main city is.

As for accidentally hitting and intruding into the main city area, it is even more unlikely-in the blood tomb map and star hall map obtained by Ashiu, it is clearly pointed out that at least three legions outside the main city area are patrolling back and forth, and the standard configuration of the patrol legion is With the attributes of “flying” and “reconnaissance”, the ordinary magician will immediately be killed and bounce back to reality as long as he crosses the thunder pond for half a step, and he will die if he tries.

After the Yaxiu team knew where the main city was located, they never had the idea of exploring the main city. First, exploring the main city has no other definite benefits other than satisfying curiosity. Second, the risk is too high, not to mention that the Heroic Soul Legion is still hunting them.

They explore the main city, and they are no different from voluntarily running into the fire with gasoline tanks to be firefighters.

Isn't it fragrant to climb to the third floor of the Void Realm in An Anfen? Is it unhappy to search the past on the map? Why have to leave the comfort zone?

Therefore, when Adam found out that he had come to an unfamiliar main city area, he felt like a cancer patient-“Why is this?”

If it is normal, he would never break into this place, even if there is no detailed map, but as long as he sees the Heroic Soul Legion appearing in front of him, he will immediately turn around.

However, the random curse of the shopping book “looks at each other” just makes it difficult for him to focus on the virtual world map. If it were changed to other times, the curse of “looking at each other” would not be a threat to them. The big deal is that if they sit and look at each other for an hour, the bond level may increase.

Ten thousand steps back, even if they encounter a fatal danger, they will die at best. Although they cannot leave the virtual realm during the curse, the random curse will automatically end after leaving the virtual realm, which is equivalent to a death in exchange for a blessing.

But Asia Xiu and others have just been chased by the Heroic Soul Legion!

But they have a reason not to die!

The speed of the sports car is enough to cross the patrol defense line around the main city!

Ah Xiu didn't know whether this was the effect of “shit without paper”, or because the curse of eternal calamity was once again acting fiercely. It could also be that the queen's soul was cursing herself in a circle-of-course, this is not a single-choice question- But with the cooperation of multiple coincidences, Ya Xiu broke into the unfamiliar main city area unharmed!

But the magicians did not have the surprise of ‘seeing the world’, instead, there was endless fear in their hearts.

“Roar!”

On the wall of the giant wooden barrier, several black dragons spread out their wings and roared, and the sound almost turned into black thunder and lightning, spreading along the space, even the sports cars at the edge of the area were almost affected, and the “refracting curtain wall” swayed. ripple!

As if being stimulated, the spiritist of Ya Xiu suddenly jumped out by himself, the two-color crystals suspended in the air exuding dazzling purple brilliance, as if shouting to the dragon, ‘come here! Come and kill my master if you have any kind of it’, and you couldn’t take it back, so scared that Ya Xiu hurriedly took the Spiritualism into the windbreaker and hid it.

Shu Ling sometimes collapses on its own. The most common situation is that they are hungry, but they also quietly come out to fish when they encounter something they are interested in. For example, when Ash and Liz were fighting “Magic Duel 14”, Heart Sword, The earth sword will unknowingly appear on his shoulder and watch.

“There is a mature evil eye shadow dragon!” Sonia’s voice was trembling: “Isn’t this the upper race that only appears in the distant airspace!? How can it appear in the time continent?”

“A knowledgeable creature in the other airspace?” Ya Xiu was taken aback, “That means...”

“It has the combat power of the Sanctuary Sorcerer in its infancy, and it can compete with the Sanctuary Sorcerer in its growth period. The Evil Eyeshadow Dragon in its mature period is even more of the “Ten Disasters in the Airspace”! Sonia grabbed Deya’s hand tightly: “My professor... She had challenged the Evil Eyed Black Dragon before, and then couldn’t enter the Void Realm for half a year.” ”

Not a commander, not a unit, just a knowledge creature raised by the main city, it has the strength to crush the sanctuary!

Only fools can get close to the main city!

However, the Heroic Soul Legion, which was chasing after him, did not give Asia any choice at all!

The sports car made a trembling roar, ran desperately on the peridot green grass, and tried to bypass it along the outer area! The air is fresh with green leaves, and the grass without rain curtains is unobstructed. The beautiful girl operator also looks at herself with expectant eyes. If you ignore the roar of thunder in all directions, it would be a pleasant drive. .

"I can't help it." Ya Xiu spread his hands: "My Void Realm plan doesn't include the small branch line like killing through the main city."

"What should I do?" Diya asked anxiously: "If this continues, we will definitely be surrounded...Huh?"

Diya was startled suddenly, and then she helped her flat glasses, and then her hair turned completely white, and her attire turned into silver skirt armor.

"The White Queen?"

"It's me." The White Queen nodded: "Sword Ji, let me explain to you first."

Sonia, who was staring at Ah Xiu thinking, turned to look at her, "What?"

"The spectator can't die." The White Queen said: "A few days later, it will be the Spider Tower round. Once he dies, he will definitely violate the contract, and the spiritist spirit has to be given to the queen. Without the spiritist spirit, we can only hope for the queen. She is very compassionate-but obviously, let alone the empress has not regained her feelings, even if she retrieved them all, she must not have such a thing in her heart."

Ya Xiu did not refute. Even if he made a few more bottles of the "Blazing Soul Essence Special Drink" that healed the soul, it would never be able to recover in just three days, unless he could draw out more powerful items-but he just bought it and his luck fell. Curse.

Although Ash can use the gospel to enlarge his mind and increase the probability of winning, it is just a remedy for **** and no paper to find that there is hand sanitizer next to it. Rather than expecting a lottery draw, Asia Xiu might as well expect the list to be updated tomorrow and immediately reward him for promotion to Sanctuary and give him a few wives immediately. That would really solve all the problems completely.

In fact, after losing the spirit of spiritism, it is common sense that the queen does not need to continue chasing them. After all, there is no benefit, but the problem is that the queen is not a species that can be described by common sense. And it would be too stupid to leave life and death to someone else to decide this kind of thing. Ah Xiu just didn't want to leave life and death to others to judge, so he escaped from Broken Lake Prison.

"The visibility of three people is too restrictive." The White Queen continued: "But if it is two people, it will be much easier, and you can even try to cross the Liujin River."

"But the curse already exists." Ah Xiu said, "Even if we want to interrupt this curse..."

Ah Xiu stopped halfway through.

This curse can indeed be cracked, and the method is very simple.

"Self-inflicted eyes can be deciphered." The White Queen said: "However, the soul of our magician will automatically repair the injury, so we must continue to damage the eyes to maintain blindness."

"But what is more likely to happen is that the curse will help prevent the recovery, so as to ensure that the curse lasts for the magician to no longer have the ability to 'see things'."

The curse of "looking at each other" is very interesting. Its essence is actually to keep the magician in the same state. When the magician forcibly changes the state through self-harm, the operating principle of the curse has not changed, or it can't be changed even if it wants to change. After all, it takes two people to look at each other, so it is likely to adopt a more clever strategy: to maintain 'Facing each other' becomes 'maintaining blindness'.

"If two people look at each other, and then hold the third blind operator together, they can indeed recover a certain amount of mobility," Ya Xiu said in deep thought, "Just find a Liujin River to pass through, and we will most likely be able to escape. sky..."

boom!

The blazing fireballs, like meteorites, bloomed into fire lotus on the “refraction curtain wall”, the ear-piercing screams of flying creatures overwhelmed their voices, and a group of heroic souls appeared in the rain curtain outside the main city, which once again blocked it. The escape route of Ash and others!

In the face of such a siege, the sports car had to rely on the direction of the main city to evade, but this is just drinking poison to quench their thirst. Their space for maneuvering will only become less and less, and there will be commanders on the main city at any time to go out to accept them and deliver them to the door by themselves. Takeaway!

More than half an hour ago, they were still very happy that they encountered the special mechanism of ‘disordered shopping book’.

After more than half an hour, the situation took a turn for the worse. Although they were driving on the vibrant grass, death could not wait to kiss them!

Moreover, this death will directly lead to the defeat of the queen’s gambling contract. After losing the spirit of spiritism, their future life and death will depend on the queen’s mood that day!

Defeated like a mountain, what remains is the end!

“If this continues, we will first become the dung of intellectual creatures before we meet Liu Jinhe.” The White Queen said: “It’s time to make a trade-off.”

“What’s the meaning?”

“Armed arms for the blind, and let her stay and delay time.” The White Queen said calmly: “Maybe it can only be delayed for a second, or it may successfully confuse the Heroic Soul Legion, but it is better than just waiting to die.”

“The income is too low!” Ya Xiu said immediately: “And you will die if you stay and break!”

“But this is not the spider tower. They are not the queen. They will not deliberately let the entourage devour our soul. Although the soul of the latter will be severely damaged, it can at least save one life.”

The White Queen said: "If we do nothing, it will be the same. It will die, and it's not a bad result to still have some gains now."

"Yes, I agree with the witch's analysis." Sonia said suddenly: "This is indeed a no-brainer, then..."

"Let me come." "Let me come."

The White Queen was a little surprised: "Jian Ji, you have a longer team time with the viewers, and you cooperate better. Looking at him like me, you can't show much strength. You should stay."

"No." The village girl shook her head: "Our combat power is not worth mentioning compared to the Heroic Soul Legion. If it is really our turn to fight, it will only be a dying struggle. But you have more keen time for the witch. Talent, the last time we crossed the Liujin River was also thanks to the help of the witch. If you want to escape through the Liujin River in the end, then staying with the witch is the most suitable choice."

"Sword Fairy," said the White Queen: "We are voluntarily severing. You don't have to have any psychological burden, and you don't need to prove that you and I are equal. When we crossed the Liujin River last time, we already believed in you."

"I didn't... well, let's not mention that you can make a difference if you stay here, but as you said, I have to prove that we are equal!" Sonia said, "I usually get the most loot and the orb the most. , The time to join the team is longer than you, so I must take greater responsibility at this time, otherwise how can we be equal?"

"You said you don't mind it's meaningless, don't you mind today, what about tomorrow, the day after tomorrow? I don't want to test human nature, because every test will turn into an abyss and become an evil dragon! I take advantage of someone else, but we I will spend countless days and nights together in the future, I can't make you look down on me!"

"Jian Ji, your self-esteem is too strong, I won't look down on you because of it."

"I don't have a strong self-esteem, I'm just used to saving others by myself."

Chapter 422: Void War!

After watching the two cadres vying for a break, Ya Xiu suddenly felt a little dazed.

He knew they were right.

He also knew that his life was the most important thing, after all, all of them had a chance to survive only by keeping the spirits.

The situation is now fraught with danger. It is unrealistic to wish to retreat all over the body. It is inevitable to make sacrifices. Moreover, they are still a small team. The most important function of the team is to sacrifice the interests of some people when necessary to protect the greater interests.

So their best decision is to leave one person behind and delay the time. If they still want to be overtaken by the Heroic Soul Legion, then leave another person after the break. Even if he himself pokes his eyes to resist the curse, he will continue to drive to find a chance.

income.

expect.

This is the method with the highest success rate, this is a helpless strategy. Sacrifice is necessary, and abandonment is due. In the face of an unmatched flood of fate, stupid people will try to reverse, while smart people will try to control the loss within an acceptable range...

Ya Xiu felt his self-consciousness slowly pulled away from his body, and calmly observed everything from a third-person perspective, shielded unnecessary emotional distractions, and even regarded himself as a chess piece, everything is for greater—

“All in all, I’ll go to the queen!” Sonia arrogantly pressed the White Queen to keep her from moving, and directly reached out and grabbed Ya Xiu’s hand: “Watcher, give me arms!”

The body temperature of the soul is transmitted along the warm touch. To be honest, Jian Ji’s hands are not soft. As a swordsman, her hands must be steady and strong, fleshy, but she has the feeling of being caught by a cat meat ball.

I don’t know if it’s because of fear or excitement, she clung tightly, her thumb clasped his index finger tightly, the index finger pressed against the back of his hand, and the other three fingers hugged his tail finger tightly, as if she wanted to rub his hand. Like into your own palm.

At this moment, Ya Xiu realized the strong anomaly!

As soon as Ya Xiu’s voice fell, he slammed his hand and blinded one of his eyes!

Before Jian Ji and the witch were shocked, the sports car suddenly stopped on the grass and drew a donut arc, and stopped under the fortress wall!

“What are you doing?!”

“The gate of the city is opened, and there is a copy of the bread from the Legion of Heroic Souls.” Ya Xiu exhaled again: “There is no need to discuss who will break, we can’t run away anymore.”

“Then why are you blinding yourself!?” Sonia asked anxiously.

“I see you vying to be blind, so I will experience what it feels like for you.” Ash pulled his fingers out, and his eyes quickly recovered: “Trust me, you won’t have any fond memories of this. ”

“The spectator form.”

Through the intense stimulation, Ya Xiu finally broke free from his “viewer form.” He also just realized that he had actually entered an absolutely calm “viewer form” in a non-combat state-but although Ya Xiu thought he was not in a combat state, his car that was about to explode might not be so. feel.

According to usual experience, the “viewer form” is triggered only at the most critical time. The effect is to ensure that he has no mistakes and exerts 100% of his theoretical strength. Therefore, Asia is quite happy to enter the “viewer form”. It feels like a special physiological phenomenon of adrenaline poisoning.

It was indeed a critical moment, but Ya Xiu didn’t expect that the “viewer form” could not only assist him in fighting, but also assist him in making decisions.

Absolutely correct, highest expectation, and best theoretical decision.

Looking back now, Ya Xiu didn’t think there was any problem with the decision-making idea just now. It’s just that in this world, not all the ‘right things’ can be done.

For example, I like to do high math questions, and I think it’s too abnormal after thinking about it;

Another example is using teammates as chess pieces.

Ah Xiu knew that he should do this.

He also wanted to do this at the beginning.

But he couldn’t do it.

“Don’t talk about this kind of squandering life in the future.” Ah Xiu said, “You have destroyed my ability to endure loneliness. I have no interest in exploring the virtual world alone.”

Sonia was startled slightly, and subconsciously squeezed his hand.

The White Queen spread her hands: "Then we really can't get away this time."

The "Refracting Curtain Wall" was completely shattered by blazing fireballs, and a juvenile evil eye shadow dragon swooped in. Its parents seemed to have no interest in the invaders, so it wanted to eat a supper and beat the teeth.

The three of Asia Xiu had no intention of resisting at all. With their vision completely locked, they couldn't even aim at the enemy.

"We are dead here. If we miss the Spider Tower round in a few days, the spiritist spirit will lose to the empress."

"It's okay," said Ya Xiu very confidently, "even if there is no spiritist spirit, I must make her pay the price!"

Thinking of the culprit who framed them to this point, even Ash couldn't help gritting his teeth: "Queen, wait for me!"

"Okay," a coquettish and arrogant voice suddenly sounded behind them: "I'm waiting~"

Whoops whoops!

Suddenly there was the explosion of thunder and fire from behind, and with a screaming wailing, the evil eye shadow fell to the side of the sports car with a loud thunder. Its fierce dragon body was like a paper umbrella in a storm, it was melted and penetrated most of it!

And hearing that familiar voice, the three of them trembled in their hearts, and they saw the incredible in the faces of the others!

Even if they didn't see it, they knew who came!

But the question is, how could that person appear here! ?

They looked over from the corner of the room and discovered that the sports car was passing through the main city area. A strong purple halo was left along the way, it looked like it was painted with a watercolor pen. The purple gradually faded and spread, and it eroded a large green area unknowingly!

At the same time, white spots gradually grow from the depths of the purple, and these white spots spread and weave rapidly, weaving spider webs in the purple area, and then—

The heavily armed spiders descended along the web.

The Heroic Soul Corps chasing Ya Xiu and the others instantly fell into a panic. They were not even armed, and they were as fragile as paper in front of the Spider Tower Corps, being torn to pieces loudly!

Red hats, blue beards, giant spiders, secret girls... The Spider House Legion continuously crawled out of the spider webs, UU Reading www.uukanshu.com stormed the giant wood fortress under the commander's will. At first, the giant wooden fortress couldn't react at all, and it was directly occupied by the Spider Tower Legion. However, the fortress creatures quickly completed their arms and started fighting with the Spider Tower Legion on the wall, trying to seize the initiative on the battlefield!

The aftermath of the legion collision splashed into the sky, half of the sky was dyed viscous purple, half of the sky was dyed burning green, broken corpses fell from the city walls every minute and every second, and there was new every minute and every second. The soldiers rushed from the spider web to the battlefield from the city!

There is no prelude, no communication. The two sides are the highest level of the army assault. The strategy is as rough as a barbarian hunting, but the tactics inside are as clever as an artist's painting!

Denzel sat on the eight-eye weaving spider and crawled out of the spider web not far behind Ya Xiu. Today, she is the appearance of the Secret Girl. She glanced at Ya Xiu and others with her blindfolded eyes, and raised her eyebrows.

"If you don't even look at me, do you only have each other in your eyes?" Denzel said with a snort, "Well, when you become my commander, I will organize you into a team and let you see how much I see it for a hundred years until I get tired of it."

Chapter 423: Miracle-Cobweb

Void Realm, Spider-Man City.

In this black and white painting, the jagged, three-pointed and octagonal intellectual creatures quickly turned into uniform soldiers in the spider house after arming their arms. However, in the restraint of the quiet domain, they are after all just a smear of stagnant ashes. If they escape the shelter of the main city without the nourishment of the Liujin River, they will have to squeeze the time in their bodies even if they want to move forward.

Only the original ecological intellectual creatures can move freely in the quiet zone, and the intellectual creatures of the armed forces cannot be recognized by the virtual realm—they are not allowed to become the shape of a magician! Change it back to me! Stop you when you go back without changing!

Except for the Spider Tower, no other forces will arm the units in the quiet zone. Because the units have a duration, and the movement speed of the units is basically inferior to the knowledge creatures, so most commanders implement the “prototype on the road, pre-war” Armed’ basic rules.

Naturally, Spider House will not violate this rule.

When they are armed with troops in the quiet zone, it means—

The Spider Tower Legion should directly enter the round of other forces from the time it is still!

call out! call out! call out! call out!

Numerous silk threads hung from the white curtain of spider webs in the sky, connected to the soldiers in the spider tower, wrapped them into cocoons, and then pulled them into the spider webs. Suddenly, it seemed that they were flying up to heaven and falling into hell.

In the next second, countless cocoons appeared in the spider web outside the giant wood fortress. The cocoon filaments quickly gathered and gathered into armor. The soldiers who stepped into the spider house also regained their colors. Their thoughts were immediately connected to the commander's command center, corroding the land like venom, and attacking the enemy like a bayonet. Main city!

Moving like thunder, hard to know like yin!

This is the tactics of the Spider Tower, and it is also the miracle of the Spider Tower!

Denzel watched the Spider Tower soldiers finally break through the city wall, and now they were caught in the arduous street fighting. At this time, the giant wooden fortress was fully operational, and the Heroic Soul Legion outside quickly returned to defense and support. The entourage in the city was fully armed, and the Spiderweb Legion was as difficult as it was in a quagmire.

She couldn't help sighing: "If it's a spider web in full form, it's time to break the fortress now."

Cobweb, the miracle of war left by the All-Knowing Weaver for the Spider Tower.

According to common sense, miracles can only be initiated by gods, and the lowest threshold is at least angels, and Time Continent has only commanders with second-wing combat power. Asking them to perform miracles is the same as asking a paper man to jump out of his mobile phone and marry you—both. It's not a matter of one dimension.

In a sense, Time Continent is like a closed kindergarten. Even though the Heroic Soul Legion is fighting torn apart, in the eyes of the God Lord, it is only children fighting. But the problem is that the gods can't help the children fight, so they can only transport the controlled weapons into the kindergarten through special channels in a roundabout way.

The All-knowing Weaver created a special system for this: He scattered the miracles to the gospel kingdom, and then let the spider house pick up the miracles and re-weave them. It may seem simple, but it is actually a very complex mechanism, and the cycle is very long—at least 50 years.

The reason why the Great Seal of the Six Nations is once every 50 years is because the strategic miracle of all forces takes 50 years to complete. This is not an overnight stability, but a balance after millennia. At least when Denzel first became a commander, the six-nation mastership was once in a hundred years, but all forces are in the arms race to speed up the recovery of strategic miracles. Therefore, it has only stabilized once in 50 years in the past few hundred years.

With wars and games, commanders are getting more and more elite, forces and arms are getting stronger and stronger, and strategic miracles are getting better and better.

What, if your own strategic miracle hasn't been completed when others call?

Then quickly stray and run away, save your vitality, and obediently exit this phase of war.

In the long heroic life, Denzel has not only ravaged the weak who have not kept up with the strategic miracle, but has also been beaten by other strong men who are the first to optimize the strategic miracle. She has summarized two thoughts:

One, the strategic miracle really determines the outcome.

Second, if you are sure to lose this time, then don't wait for a strategic miracle!

Losing a conceptual avatar, Denzel knew that Spider Tower was basically hopeless this time. That being the case, the Spider Tower might as well start a phase-inhibition war ahead of time, drag all forces into the quagmire, detonate their strategic miracles as early as possible, and pull everyone's strength to the same level. There may be hope for victory in chaos!

But this is simple to say, but if the Spider Tower wants to rush other forces along the pace of the white bull, it is absolutely impossible.

After all, other forces are not fools. Once they find that the Spider Tower Legion has entered the main city on a large scale, they will definitely immediately shrink the main force to the main city, and even arrange ambushes around the main city. When the Spider Tower Legion attacks, it will be copied, turning the raid into a general battle. -In other people's rounds, other people's land, and other people's main city outside the general battle, Spider Tower is so stupid that it will throw its own forces in such waves.

Therefore, after discovering that Yaxiu and others had the means to cross the Liujin River and it was basically impossible for them to recover the secret avatar, Denzel told all the forces about the location of the secret avatar.

Once the secret avatar was destroyed, there was a time to rebirth again, but if Ya Xiu took the secret avatar to ascend to the sanctuary, the spider building would really lose the secret avatar forever.

Secondly, Denzel hates this kind of people who are neither willing to die nor surrender. She loves to do things that hurt herself and others.

Three years later, Denzel wanted to bet on luck, that Asia Xiu and the others would run to the main city area.

She won the bet.

She herself knew that normal magicians couldn't get close to the main city area at all, but not only could the Ashuras team up, but also had a mechanical creation that was much faster than ordinary knowledgeable creatures, so they had the ability to enter the main city area.

She spread the intelligence that Ash and others harbored secret incarnations, hoping that other forces would anger them. In this way, not only can it draw out the strength of the main city, but also Asia Xiu will be forced to run around, so that the probability of him breaking into the main city area will increase.

Of course, the most ideal situation would be if Ya Xiu and the others were chased and furious, and they took the initiative to rush to the main city area to make trouble.

However, Denzel was just a small gamble and didn't expect much in his heart. Usually, he cursed them for being fooled by drawing circles. But she never expected that before the White Bull had finished a lap, the magicians would begin to perform what she was most looking forward to!

They broke into the main city area with conceptual avatars!

The moment the Secret Purple smeared the oasis, Denzel immediately applied to activate the miracle-web, and requested the authority of the commander-in-chief!

“cobweb”

“Active effect·Weaving: In the area smeared with the purple concept, a subnet teleportation array is woven, and the main city legion can transmit from the main web to the subnet by consuming spider silk.”

“Active Effect·Entanglement: After soldiers consume spider silk, UU Reading www.uukanshu.com spider silk will add 3 layers of armor to them, and add 'entanglement' enhancement. All enemies who attack the entangled soldiers will suffer 30% The speed drop and 30% slow thinking continue to weaken; the moment the armor of the entangled soldier is broken, 3 layers of venom will be sprayed on all objects within 3 meters, and the enemy unit with the venom will suffer continuous damage (the number of venom layers can be unlimited Superimposed).”

“Active effect·Corrosion: The subnet will continue to spread at a speed of 3 meters every 10 seconds. Any enemy unit that steps on the subnet will be restrained, all unit skills will be invalidated, and 3 layers of armor will be corroded every 10 seconds. ”

“Passive effect: Curtain of All-Knowing: The Commander of the Spider Tower can ignore the upstream golden rain, and the maximum observation distance reaches 300 meters.”

“Passive effect · Trap curtain: In the main city area covered by spider webs, the effects of 'weaving', 'entanglement', and 'corrosion' are permanent.”

“Ultimate Weapon·Fate Weaving (cannot be completed): within the specified range, cut off the fate thread of all enemy units, completely annihilate their existence, and cannot be resurrected; repair the fate thread of all friendly units, and the armor status is restored to the original state. Units that died this round will be resurrected immediately. Using this skill will consume all webs, and can only be used when the number of webs is greater than 50%.”

Chapter 424: Urge the gospel to explode

In the miracle of the six kingdoms, only the spider web has the regular teleportation effect!

The scenes like the Spider House Army raid on the Giant Wood Fortress have been staged countless times in the past thousands of years! Even Denzel himself has planned dozens of raids!

The concept avatar is so important because it not only strengthens the arms, it is also an extension of the miracle!

If there is no miracle shelter in the Six Nations War, then the Heroic Soul Legion is no different from streaking. Denzel has worked so hard to kill the incarnation of the stars. It is definitely worth it, because in this case, Xingtang can only form a large army around the remaining three concepts, that is to say, they At most three lines can fight at the same time, and one more line won't work!

For every more conceptual avatar, there will be an additional adjustable unit strategically, and miracles can also interfere in one more battlefield!

So after losing the secret incarnation, Denzel knew that under normal circumstances, they had no hope of winning at all. At present, there are only two concepts left in the spider building, that is, there can only be two large legions fighting outside, and there is no way to form a strategic depth. , Can barely protect himself at best!

Waiting for the White Bull to walk around again, if Ya Xiu and the others refuse to die obediently, Denzel must also send an elite army to raid the Blood Tomb or the Star Hall and detonate the war through the spider web. Otherwise, wait until everyone completes the strategic miracle. I can only look at the scenery of other forces as if I were here.

Although Yaxiu and others didn't know the truth of the miracle, they looked at the purple halo emanating from the spiritist spirit, and saw the purple traces of the sports car peeing all the way. They didn't even know that they had been used for a probationary period by the empress.

"Why didn't she use this trick to arrest us before?" Dia didn't know when to change it back. Maybe she was chased and killed too hard by the queen before. She was like a hostage syndrome, trying to find a little bit of humanity from the queen. : "Does she actually show mercy to us?"

“Maybe it is expensive to use this trick, and it is not worth it to chase us down.” Ya Xiu said, “It is more likely that the smear function of the secret avatar will only be activated when we set foot in the main city...I still The first time I saw Shu Ling, he would urinate and urinate everywhere.”

“The mutual exclusion between purple, green, and concepts...” Sonia thoughtfully: “Conceptual avatars may be more important than we thought, and they can even affect the outcome of wars in the virtual world. No wonder the queen has to crush the avatars of stars. , No wonder she insists on chasing us...Why don’t you know how to use the concept avatar for the viewer?!”

“A good question, I also want to know why I can’t get married after I get the girl’s contact information and become friends.” Ah Xiu said, “I have a guess, it’s not necessarily true. Is it necessary to have a frank meeting in the middle?”

hum!

Without waiting for Jian Ji and the witch to say anything, the sports car started spraying poisonous fog and ran away again. At this time Denzel finally felt something was wrong—she actually didn’t intend to catch the people like Ya Xiu, after all, the sports car was really too fast, and the Spider House Legion could only appear behind Ya Xiu, there was no possibility of intercepting them at all. sex.

So when she saw Ah Xiu and the others stopped there, she didn’t divide her troops to arrest them. She didn’t feel that something was right until Ah Xiu ran away again—why the two women kept looking back at the man? Is the latter performing the nose eating noodles?

Although I don't know what happened, Denzel is an expert in harming others and self. She is keenly aware that they are in a special state of restriction. In the blink of an eye, Denzel resolutely decided to split one-seventh of his troops to hunt them down-if he could take the opportunity to regain the secret incarnation, then this operation would be complete!

However, in front of Ya Xiu and the others, there happened to be a group of heroic souls preparing to return to the giant wood fortress from outside. The commander inside didn't know how his small team attracted the attention of the big legion, but he quickly made the right choice-sacrifice our side and contain the strength of the spider legion as much as possible!

The squad quickly completed its arms, and established a line of defense on the spot to meet the impact!

Looking down from the sky, it was a sports car with thousands of troops rushing past the team!

“Get down!”

Ya Xiu lowered the back of the front seat, and the sports car suddenly turned into a bed. From the corner of their eyes, they could see the sports car passing through the gunfire. The occasional sputtering attack made the sports car scream overwhelmed. The “refracting curtain wall” has been completely shattered. If they dare to show their heads, they will definitely be headshots.

The “evil blade” of the sports car has been upgraded to level 6, and the special effect of awakening is to “change the friction coefficient of the hitting object to 0”, which means that no matter what it hits, even if it fails to cut, the opponent will slip away directly. Blocked in front of the sports car, so the journey is extremely smooth!

Seeing that the sports car was about to be blown up, the three of Asia Xiu subconsciously held hands. They opened their eyes and looked at each other, as if they were not so afraid of death—just like going to the toilet, it was a completely different experience for everyone to go together.

Suddenly, the sports car seemed to have hit something, followed by the roar of thunder and ground fire, and then a wisp of green smoke floated in from the outside, flowing into the spiritist spirit and turning into green light.

“This Shu Ling successfully absorbed the incomplete Shu Ling of the same name and unlocked the new units “Temple Apprentice” and “Three Color Anchor”.”

“Oasis-Temple Apprentice: Melee damage to soul +10%, can restrict the enemy’s escape, 3 layers of armor, humanoid creature, own scimitar and lasso. Each unit consumes 1 point of soul power.”

“The Anchor of Three Colors: 3 layers of armor, 40% anchoring, and 3 soul power per unit.”

Yaxiu was taken aback, and immediately realized that there was a commander nearby who had died. Maybe he hadn't killed him, but it was definitely the sports car that died shortly after the collision, so the spirits could absorb a little bit of power.

is really a little bit, actually only unlocked one unit, De Miro was not so stingy at the beginning. However, the two-color anchor is upgraded to the three-color anchor, and the anchoring probability is increased to 40%. Now they will be more confident in crossing the Liujin River!

But soon, the three of Ya Xiu knew that they were safe—they were back in the upstream golden rain!

Seeing the familiar golden rain flowing from below to the sky, Ya Xiu and the others were moved to tears and couldn't help but hug and cheer together!

This is where their magicians should stay, what Oasis Spider Tower, you guys are tied together to lock the stickers, don't disturb our normal magicians!

Inside the oasis, Denzel watched as Ya Xiu and the others successfully escaped into the rain curtain, and let the Legion come back to continue the attack. She was also very helpless. The Oasis squad just appeared on the way Yaxiu and the others fled. The Oasis squad thought that Spider Tower was coming to attack them, so they built a line of defense to contain the Spider Tower. Although the Spider Tower quickly annihilated the team, it was a ravaged sports car. Unexpectedly, he fled out.

These magicians are lucky.

In other words, the luck of the spider house began to deteriorate.

Because there are still seven holes that have not been repaired, the current spider web is incomplete. Not only is it impossible to activate the ultimate weapon "Weaving of Destiny," other effects are greatly reduced. If it is a complete web, the effects of "Entanglement," "Corrosion," and "Veneer of All-Knowing" can all be increased by 2.33 times.

More importantly, because weaving the web is the thread of fate, an incomplete web is equivalent to a defect in destiny. The more the spider is used, the stronger the backlash of destiny. The specific manifestation is the gradual decline of the luck of all forces. If the .com commander goes out to collect resources, he may be killed by a passing wizard.

Boom!

Suddenly, the spiral building in the Oasis Fortress burst into flames, illuminating the entire battlefield at once. All the plants in the main city area began to grow wildly, involving the Spider Tower soldiers as if they were alive, and the Oasis soldiers were also greatly strengthened immediately, almost pushing the Spider Tower front back!

Denzel, instead of feeling scared, smiled with anticipation in his eyes!

Oasis finally launched their strategic miracle, Silent Spiral!

Now, Oasis can't complete their ultimate weapon!

Not to mention other things, the Spider Tower completely dragged the oasis into the water this time, and then only need to occupy this fortress, and the oasis can only start the war with the Spider Tower in advance!

“We used the spider web in advance. Although the ultimate weapon cannot be completed, other effects can continue to be enhanced.” Denzel looked at the battlefield and didn’t know who was speaking to: “Now we can only use the information gap and local advantages to expand the results. ...You have to speed up the update and repair the remaining seven holes as soon as possible. Don’t care about the quality. It doesn’t matter if it breaks later. The key war will be fought in the next few rounds, as long as it can be in this period of time. Just take effect!”

After waiting for a while, Denzel seemed to hear a satisfactory answer, with a flush of joy on his face: “Relax, just like the past millennia, I will continue to win for you, the light of my life, the fire of my desire, My original sin, my... Yisu.”

Chapter 425: I am allergic to humans

When Ah Xiu bounced off the bed, his first reaction was to keep rubbing his eyes, wishing to pick out the eyeballs and clean them several times.

“Axiu, are you awake? Then I opened the curtains.”

Harvey’s voice came from the upper bunk, and then the bay window opened, and the dazzling dawn awakened the dust on the desk, and the immaculate golden text echoed in the dimly dark room.

Igola was sitting on the lower bunk opposite, flipping through the Gospel. The sunlight cut by the floral curtain fell on his pajamas, looking serene and calm. Speaking of which, Ah Xiu remembers that the previous gospel of the fraudster was golden, almost engraving the word “worship for gold” in the title of the book. Recently, the gospel of the fraudster has begun to change. Although it is still in gold and silver tone, the pattern style has changed. It is very similar to the Gospel of Ashura.

What is this indicating?

This shows that Asia’s aesthetic is better, and even Igola couldn’t help copying the cover of his circle of friends.

“Where’s the pancake?” Ya Xiu glanced at the opposite shop, the quilt and pillows were all neatly folded.

“I’m going to prepare breakfast.” Igola noticed that Yaxian looked at him thoughtfully, and raised his eyebrows: “Could you not look at me like this, it feels a little disgusting.”

“No, I just watched beauties for a long time, and I feel that I have fully understood the characteristics of beauties.” Ya Xiu made a very professional suggestion: “Igola, if your blonde hair can be longer, then the hardware is completely It’s up to the standard...No, there is no need to keep it long, a little bit should be enough...Igola, you know what I mean?”

Because after watching the Sword Fairy Sorceress for an hour, Ah Xiu had their phantoms left in everything she saw now, overlapping their afterimages with the deceiver, and soon discovered that the deceiver still had room for improvement in appearance.

“I understand, of course I do. You are here to find faults and want to lie to me getting a shaved head, right?” Igola said, “Harvey, don’t you show Axiu your results tonight?”

“Huh? Do you want to see it?”

Harvey on the upper bunk handed down a box, and Ya Xiu took a look, and then the afterimages of the sword girl and the witch in his eyes disappeared instantly, leaving only the densely entangled cockroaches in the box in his mind!

Snapped!

The honey-belly sword pierced the opposite wall directly, and then Ya Xiu turned into a streamer and fled to Igola’s bed in the next second, clinging to the wall like a cat with blown up fur, staring at the cockroach necromancer without blinking, as if As long as the latter acted rashly, he would teleport and run away again.

“Are you still afraid of cockroaches?” Igola’s mouth twitched and couldn’t help laughing, and threw the quilt beside him.

Ah Xiu immediately pulled up the quilt to form a three-dimensional defense: “No matter what the quantity goes up, it can scare me, even Lalafa and gold coins... Harvey, hurry up and burn them to ashes with your invincible cold current! Is it a late night snack!?”

“First, the cold stream fire can’t ignite anything.” The necromancer covered the cockroach box: “Second, your idea is correct. I will pickle them with venom to make food later.”

“Yi, Igola, I am a little soft now, please help inform the Red Hat, report that there is a perverted necromancer...”

“Don’t be so nervous,” Harvey said with a look you rarely see, “It’s not for you to eat.”

“Why do you sound such a threat... I’m still shivering with fear and can’t stop it!” Ah Xiu said, “Can’t you do something anthropomorphic!?”

“This is for Alice,” Harvey said, “I’m going to arrange for him to strengthen the ghoul. A necessary step in the ritual is to devour the scavengers. Although the best ingredients should be scarabs and bloodshots. Maggots, corpses, but now you know the situation, you can only make up with cockroaches.”

Ash looked at Igola blankly, and the deceiver said: “Scarabs can penetrate into the human body and crawl towards the brain, and blood maggots can squeeze into the blood vessels and flow into the heart. The corpse poison of corpse lame is very intense... They are the common food of blood moon. Rotten pet.”

“Pet?” Ya Xiu was really shocked: “You... are our blood moons so powerful? Why don’t you have cats, dogs, and cats?”

“Self-destruction, admiration for disability, seeking filth and other psychological tendencies are the result of mutual erosion and entanglement.” Igola pulled her hair behind her ears: “In a country where everyone has mental illness, you need to lower your demands on them. .”

“I have placed it very low, it is already close to the ground!”

“If you have been a psychiatrist for a few days, you know that you should use a shovel to cut through the ground until you dig out the roots of the rotten, foul-smelling, and twisted plants, then you will not see the real blood moon.”

“What about you Igula? If you had a pet, what would you have?” Ya Xiu asked suddenly.

“Huh?” Igola was startled slightly: “Probably...you can keep a cat, right?”

“Aha, as expected.” Ah Xiu had such an expression as expected, making Igola a little baffling.

“Look, so it’s normal for me to just collect cockroaches,” Harvey sighed, “Hey, why can’t cockroaches grow to the size of a palm? This size is not enough to eat.”

“If it’s a palm-sized cockroach, it won’t be enough to eat-I mean I don’t have enough food for them.” Ah Xiu suddenly realized something: “Wait, Harvey, how did you catch so many cockroaches?”

“I have a magic spirit that is specially used to gather scavengers. I will come back from the virtual world in the middle of the night. Anyway, I will collect it when I am idle. This is the amount of the entire building.” The magician said: “After all, there are still many rituals in the necromantic faction that need to consume scavengers.”

“Then, when the cockroaches gathered,” Ya Xiu swallowed, “Couldn’t it be crawling over us—”

“No.”

Igola said calmly: “I came back early tonight and watched Harvey collecting cockroaches. Those cockroaches went along the ceiling and fell into his box, not close to our bed the whole time.”

“Yes,” Harvey waved his hand and said, “Don’t look at me like this, I’m actually quite careful, and I won’t let the food run into you.”

“Always watching...?” The cult leader looked at the deceiver with awe.

“Self-destruct, admiration, and seeking filth.” Igula closed the gospel and smiled slightly: “Guess what kind of situations do I fit?”

“It’s time for breakfast!” Panji’s voice came from outside.

Seeing that Harvey came down with the cockroach box, Ah Xiu immediately said, “If you dare to take this box out, I will fight you hard!”

The necromancer glanced at him strangely and nodded: “As you wish.”

He called out a dark green magic spirit, squeezed out the turbid purple liquid from the air and dripped it into the box, then covered it, sealed it, and stuffed it under the bed—because Harvey and Ya Xiu were on the bunk, it was actually Ya Xiu. Under the bed.

“Transformation needs to be connected to the ground. I wanted to put it on the balcony, but it’s okay under the bed.” Harvey shrugged.

Ah Xiu looked at the quiet box in the shadow under the bed, feeling that the hairs on his back were standing up: “Igola, how about I change the bed with you?”

“not so good.”

“I think your bed is quite big, not as good as—”

“Either you go to squeeze with Panji, or go to sleep with Annanris.” Igola refused: “I am allergic to humans.”

“You weren’t so hypocritical when you were in prison before!”

“If you know you, you will suffer from it. Please reflect on yourself.”

The three of them left the bedroom, and they saw a living room measuring more than 20 square meters. The kitchen and the living room were separated by a wall. Panji did not wear his housekeeper's clothes, but instead wrapped an apron at random and put six breakfasts on the folding round table. Looks like a gentle high school student in a beautiful girl game.

Liz was wearing her roomy pajamas, sitting on the bench yawning, her long white hair curled up. UU Reading www.uukānshu.com Yaxiu and Harvey wanted to go to the bathroom to brush their teeth, but they were kicked out by An Nan as soon as they entered, "Boss first."

The cult leader came out and saw the fraudster combing his daughter's hair, and curiously asked, "Igola, why don't you brush your teeth?"

"I'm out of the bath." Igola pressed Lisi's shoulder to keep her from shaking, "Refusing to act with you is a simple technique to improve my quality of life."

Ash and Harvey had to go to the balcony to brush their teeth. Three meters away was the opposite balcony. On the opposite floor lived a typical mixed family of five: Grandpa Orc, Grandma Elf, Dad Orc, Mother Kraken, and Son of Kraken. The Siren son seemed to lie in bed and refused to get up. The orc grandfather was sitting in the rocking chair on the balcony drinking tea and reading the gospel. He saw Ash and Harvey, slightly raised his teacup and greeted him.

Yaxiu and Harvey nodded in response, then took a big sip of water and raised their heads to gargle, lowering their heads and vomiting directly into the ditch on the balcony.

Although swimming in the virtual realm is equivalent to rest, after this round of rituals, Ya Xiu did feel that he had become more sober. He raised his head and saw that the bright sky was cut to pieces by the wires between the residential buildings, the early office workers stood on the balance car and walked through the streets, and the chaotic and wanton expansion of the residential buildings in the distance constituted a jagged post-modern In the forest, a few drunk goblins lay on the street in the distance, all their clothes were stolen, everyone walked around them, and wild dogs peed on them.

The morning light poured out like oil, smearing this weird city full of chaos and vitality. Here, advanced technology items can be seen everywhere, but at the same time there are deformed and ugly urban scenery and chaotic public security, which looks like a toilet inlaid with gold rim.

This is the bottom of the list of all cities all the year round, and the permanent population ranks among the top five in the country. It is known as the “noise of the gospel”, and the chaotic city known for its freedom-Phil Dengla.

Chapter 426: Gospel Plus

After leaving Monferra, the funeral party changed the means of transportation many times and arrived safely at the destination, Feidengla.

Ah Xiu thought that An Nan had a place to respond. After all, the whole gospel only left Lalafei who had not been offended by them. If no one responds, then greet them either betrayal or bludgeoning.

However, according to An Nan, ‘this is a city that offends the whole world to hide safely’.

In fact, it is true.

This is because Fei Deng La is the area where the power of the gospel is the weakest. It’s not to say that this is a realm of forbidden demons. The gospel cannot be effective in this type, simply because the people here are so poor that they don’t have the money to listen to the gospel.

Listening to the gospel requires gospel points, and the only source of points is to be on the list. Needless to say, geniuses can make the list by themselves, and the only way for ordinary people to get points is to use city points and collective points, that is, cities distribute points to all citizens, and companies and companies distribute points to employees.

But there is a problem: the list position is limited, so there will definitely be cities and companies that can’t make the list.

Azura, Van Mourah, and Memphila are all top cities on the list. Therefore, cities and companies earn a lot of points every year. These points are invested in reproduction, and the result is that they are built in their respective fields. Occupy the unshakable first-mover advantage, quickly complete the new modernization, and build the second-tier cities one by one.

Fei Dengla is an atmosphere group that can't be ranked on any list. The biggest significance of existence is to set off how good the cities on the list are.

What? Why don't you ask the backwardness of cities, why don't they strive to catch up and strive to create a national civilized city? This is why the single dog doesn't leave the group, why the author doesn't update, and why doesn't he hide after being shot.

Public security, organizational strength, gross product, education level... these data are not independent of each other, but are related to each other.

Excluding the two cities that cheat by miracles, Menfila and Van Mula, take Azura as an example: because everyone listens to the gospel, public security is good, everyone takes the initiative to receive education, the company has a good development environment, and the overall level of the city Ascend, then get a good ranking, the citizens all get gospel points, and then the citizens are more motivated to listen to the gospel...

Therefore, if all aspects fail to be on the list, it means that the city is not just a little short, but to the level of underground mud-because it has not entered a virtuous circle at all!

Fei Deng La is the best example. As the top five cities in population, its competitors are first-class cities like Azura. However, the gap between it and Azura can be reflected in one sentence: Fei Deng La is not. School.

Azura's public school has an education pod, and everyone can enjoy a customized education when they lie down. Such welfare facilities are not available in Fei Deng La. It is not that the Empire does not give it to Fei Deng.

This extends the second characteristic of Fei Deng La: Red Hat is only responsible for the central wealthy area. As for crimes in other areas of Fei Deng La, Red Hat does not care about it at all.

Disorder, no education, and anarchy, these are the three characteristics of Fei Deng La.

This is not how the citizens of Fei Deng La yearn for freedom, but the result of a complicated game-in simple terms, the empire will issue points support according to the proportion of the urban population every year. Cities are competing, so this credit subsidy must be wasted, it is better to let them spend it themselves.

Without points to assist in governance, Fei Dengla will naturally degenerate day by day. However, this ulcerated city attracts special attention: companies and enterprises want to do dirty work in illegal areas, and chaoticists are eager to break free from the shackles of the gospel.

Bribery, bribery, malfeasance, collusion... crimes that have long been uncovered by the gospels in other cities, with the cooperation of all parties, rejuvenate in this sludge. As for the red hat, it means that you don't know anything-as a whole The red hats with the lowest ranking in the gospel, their non-compliance in crime is already the result of the red hats' professional deeds.

After decades of gestation, Fei Deng La completely degenerate into a free chaotic city. An Nan chose to take refuge here. It is indeed an excellent choice—don't forget, although the people here are too poor to hear the gospel, An Nan herself is a rich little rich woman who prays for the gospel!

After seeing how rich her mother and Falyin were, An Nan was indeed only a rich little woman in the eyes of Ya Xiu. However, even a small rich woman can cause a dimensionality reduction blow to the primitive society of Fei Deng La.

Ordinary people without gospel points can't even detect their identities. An Nan prayed for a fixed 'random avatar blessing' for the house. As long as they move in the house, their images will be replaced with other looks in the eyes of outsiders, without fear of revealing their identities.

If in a normal city, An Nan would not dare to pray for such a blessing. The evangelists' regular investigative spree includes dozens of items such as miracles, magic spirits, and blessings. It only takes 10 points to detect all abnormal conditions in a radius of 100 meters. If the purple moth dares to pray for a fixed blessing, it's simply Say to others, "Look at me, it's suspicious here."

But in a poor place like Fei Deng La, this kind of blessing could not be more practical.

Ya Xiu had no doubt that they could even stay here safely until the end of the knitting ceremony.

However, An Nan's visit to Fei Dengla was not purely for evacuation.

After washing, Ah Xiu and Harvey went back and sat down. The room was very narrow and the table was small. The six people were a little crowded, but they got used to it these days, waiting for everyone to gather together. An Nan said, "You can have dinner."

Everyone just started to eat. Today's breakfast is cream macaroni, egg bacon bread, and milk tea. Panji said: "This breakfast costs 32 copper, and I have 73 copper left here. Take it, Ashoka."

"Yeah." Ya Xiu took over the financial power of the family.

An Nan asked, "Harvey, what is your job today?"

"Let's go to the construction site." Harvey said: "The corpse room here needs to be introduced by an acquaintance.

"Igola, how about you?"

"I became friends with Miss Martha yesterday. She promised to let me run her fortune-telling club room for a few days." Igola said, "I will try to be a fortune-teller."

"I plan to change jobs." Panji said suddenly.

"Why, isn't your handyman doing a good job?" An Nan asked.

"But the boss's little daughter seems to like me." Panji said calmly, "It's not good for her to stay any longer."

“Isn’t this pretty good?” Igola smiled: “If you start a family here, marry a wife and have children, wouldn’t it be in line with the ‘happiness’ we want to pursue?”

“Yes, yes.” An Nan also smiled: “Is the other person good-looking?”

“Don’t make fun of me.” Panji’s expression did not waver at all: “My happiness is the happiness of the young lady, but there is nothing else to ask for... And I have been in the gospel for so many years, I can’t deceive the gospel, at most I can cooperate with you.”

As soon as they arrived at Fei Deng La, Ya Xiu and others immediately asked An Nan what his next list would be.

Although Igola himself thinks it’s quite fun, but to people like Yaxiu, Liz, Harvey who are not interested in intellectual games, “Trick List” has really left a psychological shadow on them, and they will never give An Nan. Opportunity to repeat the technique.

But the fourth list does not need to be concealed, An Nan directly told them the theme of the next fourth list: happiness.

If it were normal, Ya Xiu would never have a chance to squeeze into this list.

Even if they are migrant workers with countless possibilities.

After all, no matter how happy they are, they are definitely not as good as the ruling classes in charge of power and wealth, such as Eharine, Qinna, and Mercury. Although the gospel suggests that Ash and others will dominate the gospel in the future, even so, the happiest ones will never be the same. It was not Ash and the others, but Ash’s children.

What is happier than being born with a golden shovel?

As for ‘the rich are not happy’, it’s a lie that the rich deceive the poor. After all, if there is a saying that ‘the rich is a big sun’, sooner or later the poor will squeeze the rich’s chandeliers.

However, under the premise that the future must be the end of the world, this definition of ‘happiness’ is different again.

Happiness in the last days is definitely not power and wealth. After all, society has collapsed, and everyone is precarious. What is the use of you? Can you call for takeaway? Can Di Ji Zhan Li Ba Jue Duke gather eight people?

So everyone quickly realized what the real definition of ‘happiness’ here is: life.

If a group of people can support each other in the last days, maintain a dignified life, and even have the same quality of life as before the end of the world, then it is the greatest happiness.

Therefore, An Nan did not rent a big house in the rich district of Fei Deng La, instead rented a small house in the chaotic city village. A Xiu sleeps in a bunk room with four people, and she sleeps in a room with Liz, her pursuit is to get close. The end times—In the gospel kingdom, the life of the poor is indeed the closest to the end times.

In order to better role-play and deceive the gospel, An Nan also laid down three rules: everyone must work for a better life; living expenses must be paid out of labor income, and savings cannot be used; save as much as possible without affecting the quality of life .

It’s not that An Nan is unwilling to give money, but that her money is so easy to use. The bank interest from the Dulan family alone can make Ya Xiu and others lie down in Fei Deng La. Happiness is happiness, but it will definitely be. Eliminated by the gospel!

Because of these three rules, they ate almost nothing on the first day they first came to Fei Dengla, and they didn’t get on the right track until Harvey and Panji found a job.

“Lisi,” An Nan asked, “How about studying?”

Everyone has to work, and Liz is different. Although she doesn’t need to go out to work, she has to read the gospel and study at home. The effect is naturally not as good as the ‘exclusive customization’ of the education cabin, but at any rate the textbooks in the gospels are free and professional, and even homework exercises can be arranged. It's definitely not a loss to learn, but it requires strong self-control.

"Both, everything is good..." Liz's tone flickered.

An Nan raised his eyebrows: "Let me see your homework evaluation."

"It's really good—"

"Do not talk nonsense!"

The purple moth was still very majestic, so Liz had no choice but to open the gospel book to the homework page and turn it around to show An Nan. The eldest girl frowned: "Why do your other homework work well, just math is in a mess? The Gospel thinks that the mathematical thinking reflected in your homework has a major disability, and it is recommended that you just give up this coursework?"

"What!?" Ah Xiu was shocked, completely unable to believe the shocking facts: "Does the gospel really say that? Impossible!?"

"Yes." An Nan blinked: "You care so much, do you usually help her with homework? How could it be so bad?"

"I, I not only coached..." Ya Xiu was about to collapse: "She said she didn't bother to do it, and I helped write her math homework..."

After a short silence, Harvey stood up first: "I'm full, then I'm going to work."

"I'm full too."

"Axiu, do you want me to help wash the dishes?"

“No need.” Ah Xiu muttered, nibbling on egg and bacon bread sullenly, “Although I have graduated for a few years, it won’t be enough...”

After Panji left, An Nan hugged Lisy, and then took Ya Xiu from behind.

“Do you really want this?!”

“I am the head of the family, hug you before going out to give you more weight, don’t know what it is!” An Nan hugged and turned into a cross lock, and got up with Ya Xiu early in the morning.

When they all went to work, Ah Xiu started to pack the tableware and said, “Starting to study in half an hour.”

“Okay!” Liz cheered: “Then let’s play “Magic Duel 14”!”

“Wait until I finish washing the dishes.”

That’s right, Ya Xiu’s job is to be a guard and nanny in his own home.

There are two reasons for this: First, Lisi can’t be left alone, someone must be watching at home; then, Ya Xiu can’t go out and show her face at all.

Although you can change your appearance through makeup and even miraculously, An Nan and others do the same, but the problem is that Ya Xiu’s “distortion mask” is a permanent effect, no matter how it changes, he will always wear the mask.

When I was working, I still wore a mask. When others used onychomycosis, they knew that you had a problem, so Hu Yaxiu stayed at home honorably.

After washing the dishes and playing games with Liz, Ya Xiu started to work.

Use a washing machine to wash clothes and dry the clothes with a dryer, drag the ironing board to the sun, and iron the stickers one by one; sweep the floor, clean the bathroom without dirt, clean the toilet with a disinfectant; clean the windows with a rag, Make everyone's beds, take out the trash...

The above are all work done by substitutes.

Ash is sitting next to Lisi to urge her to study, and he is also learning about the virtual world, the magic faction, and the knowledge creatures.

After more than two hours, when Liz turned her head and peeked at herself for the 13th time, Ash closed the gospel: "Let's go out and buy things."

"Yeah!"

Ya Xiu put on a hooded trench coat and led Liz out of the residential building.

Although it is a chaotic zone, a certain order has been formed after so many years, otherwise there would be no working environment for ordinary people. The area they live in is also called the 'Salome District' because the company responsible for maintaining order here is Salome.

Hospitals, pet shops, restaurants, coffee shops, balance bike stores, grocery stores... these shops that may have been integrated into online shopping in other cities still have a strong vitality in Philippine.

Yaxiu led Liz to the supermarket. The luxurious decoration inside was very stylish and modern. It was obvious that it was impossible to steal things here.

Passing by the snack and dessert area, Ya Xiu covered Liz's eyes: "Don't look, don't look, we only have 73 copper, we can't afford it."

Passing by the Lala Fei sale area, Liz covered Ash's eyes: "Don't look, don't look, we only have 73 copper, we can't afford it."

After some careful calculations and tasting sessions, Ya Xiu and Liz returned home with big bags.

After a simple lunch, Ash pulled a rug to the balcony and lay on it lazily with Liz.

It was almost three o'clock when they woke up, and A Xiu urged Liz to hurry up to study, let the substitute start to process the ingredients, and he would lie down for a while.

After 4 o'clock, Panji came back first, and as soon as he came back, he went to the kitchen to help; then Igola, UU Reading www.uukanshu.com, with the fragrance lingering on his body, must have defrauded a lot of women's money; followed by An Nan, come back Just instructed Ya Xiu to take off her stockings, her arrogance was extremely arrogant; in the end it was Harvey, who came back in gray again, and was directly driven to the bathroom to take a bath.

The noise of the residential building fell along with the night, and the inferior partition did not affect the symphony of Fei Dengla. Some people downstairs were drinking and making noise, some people upstairs were wearing high-heeled boots, and the opposite building was also lit up, seeming to be on the side. Watching a movie while eating.

The dark forests of Phi Deng La gradually become brighter. Although it is not comparable to the large cities that provide centralized lighting such as Azura and Memphis, the lights hidden in the residential houses can indeed make people feel warm.

The six people at the funeral were sitting around the round table. When Harvey sat down after taking a shower, An Nan said, "It's time to have dinner."

"Waiting for everyone to announce the meal" is a very important step. According to An Nan, this can increase their happiness index by 5%. But in Ashiu's view, this should be the ritual added by An Nan to emphasize that he is the head of the family.

This is the day of the funeral, and it may be the most ordinary time after the gospel. No one is chasing them for the time being, their personal safety is not restricted, and everyone is not restrained at the beginning... In the steaming heat of the soup, it seems that even time has become gentle, and Ya Xiu feels that he is about to forget what weaving. The grand ceremony, the wish of God, the end is coming.

Until the gospel popped up by itself.

The luminous bookmark announced a great news to everyone very strongly.

“Gospel...” An Nan murmured, “Added more!?”

Chapter 427: "Happiness List"

Today is June 4th, only 4 days have passed since the update of the “Trick List”, and 6 days have passed since the normal update time.

According to An Nan’s statistics, the gospel has always been patients with severe procrastination, such as “Art List” and “Family List” is its normal update cycle-it is delayed until the last second of the deadline for updates.

There have been five times in the history of the knitting ceremony that it was delayed until 8 o’clock the next day. Each time it caused a panic of the whole gospel. Countless people couldn’t sleep thinking that the gospel was broken. It will also bring serious psychological shadows to readers.

However, in contrast, the addition of the gospel has never happened once in history.

Not once.

At least in the ten knitting festivals counted by An Nan, it never happened. At most, it was updated on time at 0:00 on the same day. For the people who are waiting for the renewal of the Gospel, this is already the Lord’s mercy and the gift of destiny. NS.

Therefore, when An Nan and Panji saw the gospel jump out, their first reaction was not surprise, but panic!

In the past few hundred years, I have tried the collapse of mountains, the depletion of rivers, the thunders in winter, the blizzard in summer, and even the integration of heaven and earth, the opening of the virtual world, and the invasion of foreign domains, but I have never tried the Gospel Plus!

Especially those who work in offices like An Nan are the people who know the gospel best, knowing that the gospel must behave in accordance with the rules. Once the gospel breaks the rules, it means that this is an order from a higher level—angels or gods?

Although many thoughts passed in their minds, everyone still opened the gospel without hesitation and watched the latest masterpieces of the gospel.

“Happiness List”.

Ah Xiu and others looked at An Nan with admiration. Although the eldest lady had shown her abilities many times, she was able to get accurate inside information every time. It really made people wonder if An Nan was the gospel. Illegitimate daughter.

“No. 10 on the “Happiness List”: The Happiest Wedding”

“Introduction: Daphne Bonaba and Carlos Bonaba are lovers who have been in love for ten years. In the past ten years, after countless joys and sorrows and life hardships, the lovers finally got married. The day the two married in the sky garden was both The end of their tribulations is also the starting point of their happiness. They will stay together forever, never parting, and spend countless hardships...pass...?”

The fonts on the gospels suddenly became blurred, and there were even traces of smearing, as if someone was rudely revising the history of gospel weaving, and he became more and more crazy, not only the introduction and the list introduction, but even the entire page. Painted in deep black, and then red ink faded in the black, turning it into a very familiar name.

“Ash Heath”.

“Huh?” Ya Xiu greeted everyone questioning with a blank expression, “What are you looking at me? Look at Miss! Miss! Why does my name appear on it? Was it a surprise you prepared!?”

“If I can do this, then your name should appear in the position of the bridegroom.” An Nan said grimly: “Maybe the gospel has been updated in half, and you think your wedding is happier...huh?”

The list suddenly transitioned to video data. In the screen is the sky garden in the second-floor city. The sky is bright but not dazzling. Below is the magnificent and prosperous city, and the snow-capped mountains in the distance. The landscape is as beautiful as a fairy tale world. In the garden, the guests are dressed up and the children are cute and well-behaved. As the band sings, the colorful flowers also rippling in rainbow colors. The festive joy can almost infect the audience with images.

“It looks so boring.” Harvey said, “If it’s my wedding...”

Ah Xiu felt that he had gradually followed the thinking of the necromancer: “Which location will be set in the cemetery?”

“How is it possible? I also have a bit of common sense. The wedding must be held in a lively, bloody, and crowded place.” Harvey said seriously: “For example, the battlefield after the war, the corpses are everywhere, blood is flowing in rivers, and the soil is soaked with blood. , The air is filled with obsession, it is simply a gap between life and death. If you can get married on the battlefield, it will be very romantic.”

Although Ah Xiu wanted to refute, he thought about it carefully, and getting married in a **** battlefield seemed really romantic...

“Dad, wake up!” Liz rushed over and shook him: “Don’t listen, don’t feel, don’t think, or you will learn from the necromantic faction!”

Hearing that he was going to learn, Ya Xiu immediately woke up and quickly rubbed Lisi’s head twice to anchor his aesthetics. Worthy of being a necromancer who can take charge of the gods in the future, Harvey has been getting more and more commotion recently, and in a few words he almost tempted Ya Xiu into the world of the dead.

“The place is nice, but there are too many people.” Igola said lightly, “How many of those guests were sincerely blessed? What role do those children do besides making trouble? The band is too noisy, so I changed to piano performance. Home is good...”

“Are you planning your wedding to Anfil now?” Ya Xiu asked, “Remember to send me an invitation.”

Igola glanced at him: “Don’t worry, I will never let you appear on my guest list.”

Liz asked, “What kind of wedding do you want, father?”

“To be honest, I don’t like this lively ceremony. I feel like a sacrifice. If it were me, I would skip it...”

“That can’t be done!” An Nan and Liz unanimously rejected the idea of rebelliousness.

“Weddings are very, very important moments. Most of the fairy tales end with weddings as a happy ending!” Liz said seriously.

“Yes!” An Nan said, “This is one thing in a lifetime. If you miss it, you can’t make up for it!”

“It doesn’t have to be once in a lifetime...” Ah Xiu murmured.

At this time, the video material finally entered the wedding ceremony, and the newlyweds in the princess wedding dress and the artist’s gown entered the venue. The wedding ceremony of the Gospel Kingdom is also full of the influence of the gospel: both parties write their names on the cover of the other’s gospel books, and their names will be kept forever.

This step does not have any practical significance. The gospel will not give the newlyweds a 20% discount on consumption, but in the gospel tradition, this is the highest level of entrustment. An analogy would be to use a couple’s profile picture in a circle of friends, with a wedding ring on the ring finger, a lover’s name printed on the back of the waist, and a “quarantine qualified” stamp on a qualified pig... In short, the gospel book will let everyone know that you are there. Team up in the game of life.

When the couple who were certified by the Gospel as the ‘happiest’ couple showed their faces in the video, everyone suddenly showed their faces—although the handsome men and the women are beautiful, their eyebrows look very similar.

To put it simply, they are the brothers and sisters who can be seen by anyone with a discerning eye.

Even in the open gospel kingdom, brother-in-law love is also a very sensitive area. Unless the family is rich enough to use miracles to adjust genes, even the Gospel does not recommend childbirth.

From this point, everyone understands that this wedding is indeed worthy of the description of “the happiest”—not only others, but even the Gospel will use various clever arrangements to separate them as much as possible, such as letting sisters know more suitable people. , Let the younger brother be pursued by more suitable girls, because in the original plan of the gospel, this is their ‘better life’.

Their suffering stems from their desire to break free from the shackles of the gospel. As long as they listen to the guidance of the gospel once and follow the arrangements of the gospel once, then all the sufferings will disappear and happiness will become readily available in an instant.

But they didn’t, so the gospel surrendered, and this future is the compensation prepaid by the gospel.

The groom and the bride looked at each other. They didn’t have the kind of love and affection that could burn everything and melt everything, but it was not the light and wind of watching family members, but the world in the pupils was only each other, and the rest was dust— If you have to say something, Harvey will only have this look when he talks about the necromantic faction, which is hard for everyone else.

Those are two unforgettable madnesses, and when they can respond to each other, they become happiness that is helpless even for the gospel.

When the newlyweds were sitting on a stone table exchanging gospels and picked up a pen to sign on the cover of the book, the video data suddenly flashed.

In the next second, a sword suddenly split open the stone table in the sky garden, and everyone was shocked.

“To be honest, I don’t like this lively ritual. I feel like a sacrifice. If it were me, I would skip it, and then fast forward to the lingering part of water and milk. ””

Familiar voices, even familiar words, everyone glanced at Ya Xiu subconsciously.

Ah Xiu is still very calm: "It's really hammered, and the Gospel is copied from my real-time book review."

"The hilt of the long sword was held by someone. I don't know when a young man in a dark red windbreaker has appeared in the middle of the garden. He looked around for a week, and before speaking, the surrounding guests screamed in panic." Heath! "The undead demon Heath!" ""Scourge Demon Lord!" "The source of chaos!" "He is really resurrected!" ? ""

Hearing this kind of speech, A Xiu and others felt a very subtle feeling in their hearts, but before they could discuss it, the image changed dramatically again—

"A white misty ghost enveloped the entire wedding scene. UU reading www.uukanshu.com even lost the warmth of the sun. A misty spirit came to Ah Xiu and became a tramp in a cloak."

""Necro King Harvey! "The guests were in a mess: "Even he is here, that is to say—""

"A well-dressed guest suddenly walked up to Ah Xiu, took off his hat and glasses, revealing his soft shawl blond hair and a dazzling handsome face. The moment he showed his face, a quarter of the guests suddenly took out their weapons and changed the door. , They raised the crow feather glove on their left hand and took care of the other guests."

""Rust Crow! "The guests' voices trembled: "Why, why do the Big Three of the Doomsday appear here?" ""

Gan, the Big Three of the Doomsday, Ya Xiu couldn't hold back at all.

I'm a good guy from Ashiu University. I didn't do anything. How come I am as famous as Igola and Harvey! ?

Chapter 428: The culprit

Puff.

An Nan couldn't help laughing. Panji's mouth twitched and held it abruptly. Only Lisi was jumping around holding Ya Xiu excitedly: "You are great, dad! The source of disaster! The Doomsday Big Three! One... wait, what about me?"

"You were a super fat man by me, so I didn't dare to come out to meet people." Ah Xiu said very seriously: "You will become staying in your room all day, playing games and watching movies. If I urge you to work, you will be caught Scold away, if I interrupt you to play games, you will scold you the old man..."

"How could it be possible that Liz grew up to be a super~class~ beautiful big beauty!" Liz opened her hands to emphasize that she is not an ordinary beauty, but a super beauty: "And how could Liz hate Dad!"

"Miss, did you say something similar when you were a kid," Ya Xiu looked at An Nan, "I will never hate mom or anything..."

An Nan: "Of course not!"

Panji: "Yes."

The young lady glared at the housekeeper, and the young housekeeper shrugged and closed his mouth.

"Stop arguing." Igola frowned: "This time the list... is weird."

Everyone nodded, and they all saw that the "Happiness List" was completely different from the first three lists-the wedding guests knew all about Ash and they, and they could even call out the gangster title of the "Doomsday Big Three". Obviously Have seen the future list!

Speaking of this, I have to discuss a question of the knitting ceremony: since people see the future of knitting, if it is a good thing, if it is a bad thing, wouldn't people avoid it?

The most obvious is the “Trick List”. There are many victims in it. Even the people on the Trick List are also victims. Now that they read the Trick List, will they still be the thief of Igola?

Although they still will, it is not because of the compulsory correction of fate, but simply because of Igola’s personal ability. And even if it is Igola, it is impossible to act according to the trick list.

In other words, at the moment the “Trick List” is promulgated, the “Trick List” will not become the future. In this case, the gospel should weave “Trick List 2.0”, but when everyone sees the 2.0 version, they will naturally avoid the tricks that appear in it, and then the gospel has to weave 3.0, 4.0, 5.0...

Obviously this kind of infinite matryoshka is impossible, so when the gospel weaves the future, there is often a default premise: the people inside have never seen the weaving ceremony.

This is a very reasonable presupposition, and it does not compromise the accuracy of the weaving ceremony. Because in most of the time, even if there is an error with the list in the future, it will not be completely different. There will be at most seven or eight out of 100 rankings in the ten lists, which is obviously distorted. This kind of yield rate is acceptable to everyone.

And most of the lists are character lists, and the error of character lists is the smallest. Although the event list is prone to large errors, most events are good things, so everyone is willing to follow the gospel, and some people even deliberately restore 100% of the events in the knitting ceremony.

The list of pure bad events like “Trick List” and “Family List” is simply a once-in-a-millennium spectacle, that is, such a list of villains can only appear under the background of apocalyptic collapse-if the society is stable, the country is peaceful, ha Wei and Igola must have been chased into the abyss by the red cap as soon as they bubbling. How could there be ten big families and ten tricks.

And “Happiness List” broke this default premise!

The people inside have all seen the knitting ceremony, know that Igola the Rusty Crow and the undead Harvey, and also know that Ah Xiu has come back from the dead, and gave them the idol group name of the “Doomsday Big Three”!

This feeling is like when you play the second week, the NPC inside remembers what you did in the first week.

""Axiu Hiss..." The bride Daphne was in danger, guarding her younger brother Carlos behind her, and said calmly: "Are you here to attend our wedding? ""

""That's right. "Axiu said, "To be precise, I'm here to grab a marriage." ""

"As soon as he stretched out his hand, Daphne was severely left behind. Daphne was so angry that her chest rose and fell, and she stared at him: "We didn't know you before, why would you look at us? ""

""How you know me, I will know you how. "Axiu didn't get angry, and said, "The 10th place in the "Happiness List", Daphne and Carlos, when I saw you from the list, I made up my mind to take away your future. ""

"Really?" An Nan asked nonchalantly, "Are you thinking about grabbing a marriage right now?"

Liz also looked at Ya Xiu in shock: "Dad, you actually like to **** someone else's new wife..."

"Is your focus wrong?" The corners of Ya Xiu's mouth twitched: "Did you not notice that the "A Xiu" in it mentioned the 10th place in the "Happiness List"-that is, he was because he watched the "Happiness List" "That's why he broke into the event of the Happiness List, and now the "Happiness List" weaves him out again!"

The "Happiness List" hasn't been finished yet, and the people in it have already watched the "Happiness List", and they are also looking for the door according to the "Happiness List" ranking..

An inexplicable sense of absurdity arises in everyone's minds. If the wedding before the appearance of "Axiu" is a normal future, then the wedding after the appearance of "Axiu" is a composite future of multiple weeks, although the latter is closer to reality. But it is also more chaotic.

""why? "Daphne asked: "This wedding will be over soon, there is nothing you can covet—""

“I’ve said it all, what I really want is you. “Axiu smiled and said, “You are the future selected by the gospel, and I’m extremely excited just to defile you!” Come, take away—”

“no! Daphne’s hands glowed with blue light, and she resolutely said: “I will never let you succeed!”

“Really? I know you don’t care about those guests, but don’t you care about your lover, your brother? “Axiu’s voice is like a devil’s whisper: “You don’t want to let go of this hard-won happiness, do you?”

“I’m not a big villain, and I don’t have to break you up. As long as you are willing to obey and surrender to me, I will still give you time to get together. “He said leisurely: “You will have a warm little home, you will have a pair of children, and you will live together forever... It’s almost a bit, do you really want to give up?”

“Faced with such threats and intimidation, Daphne slowly slumped to the ground, crying and said: “I have never done anything bad, why is it like this...”

An Nan and Lisi did not conceal their contemptuous eyes at all at this time, and Ya Xiu had to clarify: “This is definitely a falsehood. I am a pure love knight with zero pollution and no additives.

“But why did the gospel frame you?” Liz asked back: “Daddy, should you reflect on it. Are there any words and deeds that make the gospel misunderstood?”

“How could it be possible that the only opposite **** I can contact with right now is the eldest lady. If you don’t sleep, I will laugh on my stomach. As for the eldest lady, she is all messing with me!”

“Really?” An Nan asked, “Do you really have no evil thoughts towards me?”

“Of course...” Ya Xiu suddenly thought of the composite video materials he had bought from Falin: “...nothing (super quietly).”

The image continues.

“You make a wise decision. “Axiu said happily: “Come here, take it away!” “”

“Two crowfeather guests came over, Daphne slumped to the ground with a deadly heart, without any desire to resist, let them stretch out their hands—”

“Hey? Why! “”

“Daphne looked at her brother Carlos being taken away by them, and quickly stood up and asked: “Why are you taking Carlos away!” ? “”

“We wanted to take Carlos away from the beginning. In the future foretold by the gospel, Carlos’s talents are what we need. “Axiu said, “Otherwise, why do you think?” “”

“Then, what about me? “Daphne asked stupidly.”

“Are you interested in joining the Four Pillars Church? “Russian Crow said: “We just need your kind of social talent. “”

Everyone couldn’t react to this peak circuit transfer, and Ya Xiu immediately became proud, and An Nan avoided his sight. Liz wanted to return to her seat and was grabbed by him, so she said, “I’ve been Believe in Dad...”

“Believe that I am a bad person? Believe that I like other people’s wives? Believe that I can’t find a girlfriend without coercion and hypnotism?” Ah Xiu asked grinningly.

“Axiu, I have always believed in you.” Igola suddenly raised his hand and said.

“Tsk tusk tusk, look, Liz, even Aunt Bokin—”

“I believe you are self-aware.”

“Harvey, can your box of cockroaches be thrown on Igola’s bed?”

“Axiu, I want to criticize you now.” Harvey said seriously, “It’s wrong to waste food.”

During their chat time ~www.mtlnovel.com~ the video data was completely finished, and then the gospel turned back to the list introduction:

“No. 10 on the “Happiness List”: The Happiest Wedding”

“Introduction: Daphne Bonaba and Carlos Bonaba are lovers who have been in love for ten years. In the past ten years, after countless joys and sorrows and life hardships, the lovers finally got married. The day the two married in the sky garden was both The end of their tribulations is also the starting point of their happiness. They will stay together forever, never be separated, through countless difficulties with love, and they will also hit in the future... But because of the interference of Ash Heath and others, Ben Invalid position.”

“Reward: void.”

“The culprit: Ash Heath.”

“Can you blame me for this?” Ah Xiu was stunned. “Then the sun won’t rise tomorrow, will it also be counted on me?”

“An Nan,” Igola asked, “Is there a situation where such invalid ranking rewards were invalidated before?”

“No.” An Nan groaned: “In comparison, the future described by this list is also very different from all the lists. This is the first time I have seen a person on the list mention the list.”

“Axiu’s actions are also very weird.” Igola said: “Will he really go to the 10th place for the reason of ‘sullyng the gospel’? And Harvey and I have no opinion on this? Can we? Not that boring.”

“Invalid list, the culprit of chaotic entry, invalid rewards, and advance updates...” An Nan bit her lower lip: “These factors are put together...”

“It sounds like the author drove out a pile of **** in order to catch up with the update.” Ya Xiu concluded.

Chapter 429: Igola's daughter

“No. 9 on the “Happiness List”: The Happiest Child”

Seeing this ranking, everyone at the funeral ceremonies suddenly sighed with relief-this time it is impossible for them to play again, right?

Although they do not rule out the possibility of them appearing as ‘pro-generational fathers’, the future of the three of them, a professional scammer, a tramp who is not interested in living people, and a newcomer from hell, there is no time. Have a baby? Did Ah Xiu give birth to Veeva in hell?

“Introduction: Léa Borkin is the daughter of Anfil Berdette and Ikola Borkin. She was born with a heir destined to be Berdette, the master of Memphis, and the sole heir of the ruling faction. And after Archibald rested all the people of Beldette, Léa will completely get rid of the curse of blood. She has been loved by her parents since she was a child, and she is protected by the four-pillar cults secretly when she goes out to play, and she has lived a carefree life. Worry about living...living...”

Just like the previous list, the introduction text was suddenly distorted, and then the entire page was blacked out, and the blood ink formed a name that everyone was tired of: “Ash Heath”.

But at this time, everyone no longer cares about the change in the gospel list, and one after another looks at the cheaters with strange eyes.

There was no surprise on Igola's face, just a thoughtful expression.

At this moment, his left half of his body suddenly lit up with gray flames. Although he did not ignite any of his clothes and skin, he quickly set a prairie fire and tried to occupy his whole body!

"What's the matter?" This sudden attack made everyone ready for battle in an instant. Panji and An Nan immediately surveyed the surrounding area. On the contrary, the fraudster who was burnt half of his face was not nervous at all: "Don't be nervous, Ya Xiu, you and I will help."

Seeing Igola stretch out his right hand that almost turned into a gray flame torch, Ya Xiu stretched out his hand to hold it without hesitation. The gray flame moved along his arm to Ah Xiu, causing the others to exclaim, but Ya Xiu only felt a slight cold on his body, and then the gray flame returned to Igola, but this time the gray flame was quickly extinguished. , As if nothing happened.

"Just now Eharin launched a miracle of dominance, trying to distort my perception when I was surprised, and let me return to Beldette as a son-in-law." Igola explained: "I have to say that this miracle is very innovative,' Distorted cognition' such an abstract behavior can actually manifest as flame burning, and use the phenomenon of burning to speed up the progress...very good, I have learned it."

"Then is it a necessary solution for you to help me?" Ah Xiu said, "I still have the effect of releasing mind control?"

"No, I just want you to be scared." Igola said.

"Wait, Sister Falin urged Aunt Bojin to go back at this time, and Aunt Bojin's daughter appeared on the list..." Liz said, "Does Sister Anfil already have a baby Lya!?"

"Igola, you scumbag who ran away after eating and eating!" Ya Xiu took a breath: "You actually used hypnotism for a few days...you must have used hypnotism!?! Teach me!"

"Who turned me into the car back then!?" Igola's mouth twitched: "And I probably guessed what this list is about... Missy should have guessed it too. If you wait until you finish reading the list, you guys. Group Artiodactyla is still in the state of running away on a bicycle by itself. I will explain to you again."

“Well,” An Nan also nodded and said, “This time the gospel list will exceed everyone’s expectations.”

The two people responsible for raising the team’s IQ said so, and everyone continued to watch the list.

At this time, I have switched to the video data, playing the happy life of Xiao Liya from birth. She was cared for by her mother since she was a child, and grew up freely in Beldit Manor. She was occasionally taken outside by her father to watch the magnificent scenery and experience the sufferings of the world. Therefore, she developed good qualities such as kind heart and compassion for the weak. , She has an insight into human nature but is good at empathy. Apart from a little bit of willfulness and mischief, Léa is almost a collection of the best advantages of both parents.

It’s really so people can’t help but yearn for it-Igula, do you still have a birth plan? Can I make an appointment for my reincarnation now?

“When Little Léa was playing in the garden when she was eight years old, the picture suddenly flickered, and then Ah Xiu suddenly appeared behind her.”

“”Léa, meet for the first time. “Axiu said, “I’m Axiu Hiss...””

“I know, Uncle Ash! “Xiao Liya raised her head: “Aunt Falin and mother often mention you!” Are you here to find dad? “”

“”No, Léa, I’m here to find you. “Axiu squatted in front of Little Leya: “I’m going to abduct you.” “”

“Liya tilted her head and stretched out her hands towards Ya Xiu: “Hey, let’s go, where do you want to take me to play?” “”

“”Why do you look so accustomed to it, you have made me lose face. “Axiu laughed.”

“Because Uncle Harvey and Aunt An Nan often take me out suddenly like this. “Lya’s nose moved and pouted, “Aunt An Nan will take me to various places in the gospel. Uncle Harvey likes to show me what necromantic species he has invented recently...”

""how are you feeling? "Axiu asked with a smile: "I heard that Igola often takes you out to play, which one of them do you think is the most interesting?" ""

""It's all interesting! "Liya Suisheng said: "Although Dad will take me out to play, but he is more for me to learn how to control other people to create a situation, ordinary people, rich people, humans, elves, men, women, strong, The weak... He doesn't want me to use others, but Bogin's daughter needs to know the laws of the world. Moreover, although my surname is not Beldette, I also have to master the motto of 'enhance what you want and give what you need'. ""

"And Aunt An Nan has many friends everywhere. I can meet many interesting people and see many wonderful scenery with her. Although Uncle Harvey will only take me to various cemeteries, I can go every time. Seeing new things, he seemed to be progressing in the necromantic faction every moment. Not long ago, he even succeeded in creating the first blood moon corpse king... uncles and aunts are super powerful. ""

""Yes? But I think they are not as good as you. "Axiu said: "Harvey's necromantic faction is indeed powerful, but even we can't appreciate his death charm; Igola's spiritual control reaches the limit, but it is difficult for us to accept his indifferent personality. Being in the world; not to mention An Nan, I don't like traveling, and I can't understand the fun of walking around. ""

""Only you have a pair of eyes that can appreciate all the beauty. "Axiu said with a smile: "It must be the blessing of the ancestors of Beldette to give birth to a perfect child like you. The truly happy people should be Ikola and Anfil. ""

""Then you and Aunt An Nan will have one soon. "Liya said playfully."

"So, I can't let the gospel ruin you," Ash said with a smile, "I want to kidnap you. ""

""Let's go, where to go? Is Uncle Ash's hometown? ""

""You don't have to go anywhere. The abduction I said is not physical. "Axiu said, "Did you know Léa, you are the happiest child certified by the gospel." ""

""I know. "Liya nodded: "I also know that I am indeed the happiest child..." ""

“No, you are not happy. Your current happiness is just the shackles added by the gospel.” Axiu said: “Have you ever thought about why you are so perfect?” You are confident but not arrogant, smart and humble, lofty and compassionate to the weak...As a child, you have hardly been disappointed.”

“Is this bad!”

“Of course this is good, but if you are placed in a more competitive environment, such as the hometown of Igola and I, guess what will happen?” Axiu said, “You won’t be disappointed either, you will only quickly become a successful powerhouse envied by countless people.”

“The gospel says that your happiness comes from family, environment, and luck, but your happiness actually comes from yourself. You learn what they teach you, so you learn humility, compassion, appreciation, reflection... But what if they teach you other things?”

“Lya stared at Ah Xiu blankly, as if she didn’t understand what he was talking about.”

“Why does the gospel make you the happiest child?” Axiu said: “Because it dare not weave your unhappy future, because you only need to tap your talents to grow to the point of threatening the gospel.”

“Sanctuary is your starting point, and legends can only make you stop for a while, angels are not even your end point.”

“You are the only genius whose talent alone is enough to threaten the Lord in these fifty years.”

“Lya, you are born a demon. Any disaster will become your nourishment. For you, resisting fate and subverting heaven is like an instinct to dress and eat.”

“You will be the happiest child because the gospel suppresses you as much as possible. Igola and Anfil may not be unaware of your talents, but the other way is too long and hard, so they also follow the gospel arrangements to let you live your life as happily and securely as possible-they love you.”

“‘Add what they want, give them what they need’ is not only a maxim that governs factions, but also the operating principle of the gospel. Even the descendants of Beldit, even the greatest fraudster in history, can’t escape this gibberish.”

“...Why are you telling me this?” Lya asked.

“Because I want to abduct you,” Ah Xiu stood up and said, “And now, I have succeeded.”

“When Asia Xiu left the garden, Lya sat in the garden blankly. The scene suddenly became dark and pitch black. The bright light paved a path to her, but Lya turned her head and looked at another **** road in the gloom.”

“She finally set foot on the dark and dark blood path, quickly matured and grew up, and slowly grew silver wings, golden wings, colorful wings... As she became more and more beautiful, the innocence and childishness on her face faded. In its place are the temperament like a deep, like a prison, and unwavering eyes.”

“No. 9 in the “Happiness List”: The Happiest Child”

“Introduction: Léa Borkin is the daughter of Anfil Berdette and Igola Borkin. This ranking is invalid because he was bewitched by Ashura Hiss.”

“Reward: void.”

“The culprit: Ash Heath.”

Because the amount of information was too large, everyone was silent for a while.

“Dad,” Liz looked at Ah Xiu bitterly: “You have never tried to praise me like that...”

“But I must have a reason to praise you.” Ah Xiu said, “Do you praise you for eating more and faster?”

“But why did you say so many nasty praises to a little girl who only met once!” Liz stomped angrily: “Is the kid of someone else’s just that good!?”

“Hey, then...” Ya Xiu cleared his throat: “Liss, you are born a demon. Any food will become your nourishment. For you, eating and sleeping is like your instinct...”

“Too perfunctory!”

While coping with Liz’s unhappy attack, Ash looked at the deceiver, and said very seriously: “Igola, I promise, I will never treat your daughter—”

“You don’t need to explain.” Igola said, “It’s like I won’t explain why I on the list will marry Anfil and have children. Keep watching.”

.....

“Lyya, your child Lyya has the talent to become a god!”

In the main house of Beldette, the blue-haired girl was jumping with excitement, hugging her sister and said: “Did you see, your child will be completely free from the curse of blood! Don’t worry, Anfil, I will definitely take Igola Dominate back, let you give birth to Léa, and then we will cultivate Léa into a legend, no, angel!”

Anfil knew that her sister’s happiness was genuine, but she wanted to use Léa’s heart without any falsity.

Although Anfil will take turns wearing the ‘kingdom coins’ that can protect the will with his sister these days, trying to make her sister a normal person. But there is actually no big problem with Eharin’s will, she just completely separates sensibility and reason, so that no matter how fierce emotions she is, it will not affect her cold-blooded decision-making.

“Sister Falin,” Anfil said after her sister calmed down, “I think you better not hold too much hope—”

“Don’t worry, UU Reading www.uukanshu.com waits for me to tie Igola back, and there are ways to let him bred, holding method, electrical stimulation method, all kinds of miracles in turn!” Falin raised her head proudly: “It doesn’t work. You have to do it too!”

“I don’t have any doubts about Mr. Igola’s ability, but the biggest problem now is the future list.”

“Huh?” Falin was taken aback: “What’s wrong with the list?”

At this time, the gospel was updated, and Anfil looked down and his face suddenly became very strange: “Just look at it and you will know.”

Eharyn looked down.

“No. 8 on the “Happiness List”: The Happiest Wife”

“Introduction: Archibald Harvey’s wife Narbel Harvey is the happiest wife...”

Server 1

Chapter 430: Arthur's Harem

The video material of the 8th “Happiest Wife” in the “Happiness List” has been broadcasted.

To put it simply, Harvey has made a major breakthrough in the necromantic faction and created a perfect necromantic wife. This wife fully understands Harvey’s preferences and can keep up with Harvey’s rhythm and loves Harvey wholeheartedly. Doing research with Harvey every day is her happiest time. Harvey’s progress is the source of her happiness. At this point, it can be called the description of “the happiest”. After all, normal couples always have quarrels and privacy. They are simply a close-knit puzzle.

Suddenly, it seemed quite logical.

Then Ah Xiu played again as always, bewitching his wife in a few words, letting her understand how much potential she has as a necromantic creature. In order to better help Harvey, she decided to become a magician as a necromantic creature, and was no longer willing to be only Harvey's vassal!

Suddenly, it seemed to be quite positive.

Because she chose the second path, she was naturally not the happiest wife, the ranking was invalid, and the reward was invalid.

In the eyes of most people, there is nothing wrong with this future: Isn't it normal for a necromancer to pinch himself a necromantic bride that fits all his sexual addictions? Then, in the gospel list, in order to take care of the minorities, is it not very politically correct to assign the rank of the happiest wife to the dead creatures?

But in the eyes of people who know Harvey, this is simply ridiculously **** to open the door, ridiculously home-if Harvey really needs the sexual function of the necromancer, then he will not only have Alice until now (♂) A dead man!

That's right, Harvey did have someone he liked before, but that was the affection that arose before he delved into the necromantic faction, just like the cicada in summer, there is nothing to miss.

Even if someone likes him again, Harvey, who has fallen into the deadly winter, can't embrace the summer again.

So Harvey now looks at everyone who only cares about functionality, not sexual function.

In this regard, Ash and Igola have a very good say. These days, because they live in the upper and lower bunks and have no private space, Harvey has a lot of time to observe them, and they have arranged all kinds of necrotic enhancements and corpses with two hands very carefully. Ghost strengthening, leg bones strengthening, heart witch strengthening... When he looks at people, it is really no different from looking at pork.

And in the final analysis, his partner is used for emotional comfort after all. However, as a madman who is so powerful that he does not need a friend, Harvey needs the emotional comfort of a fart. When he dreams back at midnight, he will not hurt the spring and sadness. Repeatedly plot their own death scenes.

“Harvey,” Ah Xiu asked, “what do you think?”

“I don’t rule out the possibility of my brain having problems in the future.” Harvey is quite calm: “Maybe I will have new ideas after seeing Igola get married? After all, human emotions are controlled by hormones. And reproduction is the project that hormones are most concerned about, and it’s no surprise that I succumbed to biological instinct.”

“But undead creatures can’t multiply...”

“Huh?” Harvey looked at Ah Xiu with a strange look: “Doesn’t reproduction mean creating a new, wise life?”

“So you still haven’t...” As he said, he suddenly followed Harvey’s thoughts—in a sense, the necromancer had indeed multiplied.

“So she is both your daughter and your wife?” Igola said lightly.

“Igola, did you make a mistake? I didn’t say anything!” Ya Xiu hurriedly covered Lisi’s ears: “There are children here, pay attention to the influence!”

Liz broke free of Ya Xiu’s hand: “Aunt Bojin, say more, I want to hear.”

Yaxiu: “Σ(°△°|||) ?”

The next seventh place is the happiest red hat. The lucky one is Cloris, an acquaintance everyone knows. Before she finished introducing her great achievements, Axiu made her debut. As before, Asia Xiu easily abducted Croulis, and Croulis seemed to have become Asia's licking dog, and then the ranking was invalid and the reward was scrapped.

The 6th place is the happiest businessman. Falin gloriously appeared on the scene, introduced the characters, dazzled by Ah Xiu, accepted as a dog...

No. 5...

The following is getting more and more outrageous. Almost all the people who appear have something to do with Ashiu and the others. Ash will definitely appear in the video data, and then the Ashoka will use various methods to deviate from the original track of the list, and they will surrender and follow Ashiu. pace of.

And the most nasty thing is that the unmarried women who appeared in it, including Clios, Ehalin and others, almost all showed a strong attachment to Ash, and Ash very doubted whether the Gospel List judged him wrong. Race-he is a human, not a Veeva!

A good "Happiness List", stupefied is a philatelic journey of Ashura, and the Gospel is about to become a matchmaking agency.

Lisi hung herself on Asia Xiu, and she chose her stepmother in an unbelievable manner, saying that this one was not tall enough and that one was not gentle enough, as if she had a choice.

"No. 2 in the "Happiness List": The Happiest Patriarch"

Seeing this title, even if Ya Xiu was used to the outrageous degree of this list, he still had an ominous premonition.

"Introduction: With the help of sister Nona Sennheiser, Ginna Sennheiser expands the family business..."

Liz keenly noticed that Ya Xiu's body suddenly became stiff, and asked, "Daddy, why do you get nervous when you see Sister An Nan's mother?"

An Nan heard the sound and looked over.

“Why!” Ya Xiu shook his head quickly: “I’m scared! Qin Na almost took our Sanctuary Mage. I was afraid of her when I saw her. Isn’t it normal?”

Liz and An Nan stared at Ya Xiu suspiciously, then lowered their heads to look at the video data.

The scene at the beginning was quite normal, that is, after Qinna became the patriarch, he grew up with Sennheiser under the support of Nona. Until the familiar picture flashed by, ‘Axiu’ suddenly appeared in the picture.

“” you! Qin Na immediately stood up nervously: “Why are you here!” ? “”

“” Isn’t it normal for me to be here? “Axiu walked to Qin Na: “Don’t you always want me to be a Sennheiser?” Are you not happy when I go home now? “”

“Speaking, he reached out and touched Qinna, but Qinna slapped him away: “Axiu, Sennheiser doesn’t welcome you, you hurry up—”

“Hey! Ah Xiu pressed Qinna back on the chair, their faces pressed very close together, their noses almost touching their noses.”

“” It’s rude. “Axiu stared at her and said, “Your heart beats very fast, is it nervous?” “”

“” I am afraid, I am afraid of you! Qin Na gritted her teeth and said, “A Xiu, how dare you—””

“” You called the wrong one again. “Axiu gently touched Qin Na’s face: “What should you call me?” Um? “”

“Qinna flushed immediately, and the Red Riding Hood of Dignified Sanctuary didn’t dare to resist. Instead, her body clung to the chair stiffly, her chest rising and falling, she looked away, biting her lower lip and said, “Lord, master...”

“” good. “Axiu stuck it over and licked Qinna’s face with his tongue. Qinna instantly softened and melted on the chair like a puddle of water. Axiu easily hugged Qinna and turned to look aside. Blushing Nora: “Norna, come here too. ””

“Next scene, big bed.”

A Xiu and Panji covered their ears, blindfolded Lisu from the World Channel. Liz was definitely not compliant, she kept struggling: “Why don’t you let me see Dad and Aunt Qinna!? Let me see, let me see! Did they kiss each other?”

This is not true.

After all, it is a picture facing the whole gospel. In fact, the scale is very small. In the picture, only Ah Xiu is lying on the bed with a quilt, and he immediately relieves his heart...

But when he saw two **** suddenly bulge in the quilt, he felt that the big stone he put down on his heart hit his feet severely.

I saw Qinna and Nona come out from both sides of the quilt, nestling one to the left and one to the right. The flushing and sweetness on the faces of the elf sisters showed that they were still quite satisfied with him.

In the Sennheiser Building, a maid suddenly took a breath when she saw this scene.

“It turned out to be true!”

“What they said to me was not bad at a word! I thought he was just a lie... That man actually belonged to the patriarch’s sister...”

“The patriarch, the patriarch would actually act like a baby! Even begged him, begged him not to... even if I dream, I dare not dream of such a scene!”

“Why didn’t Captain Nona speak...hey?” The maid zoomed in on the screen as much as possible: “Captain Nona’s mouth seems to be...stretched...?”

.....

...

“No. 2 in the “Happiness List”: The Happiest Patriarch”

“Introduction: Qinna Sennheiser could have become the happiest patriarch with the assistance of Nona Sennheiser, but unfortunately met Ashiu Hiss and became the latter’s forbidden. This ranking is invalid.”

“Reward: Void”

“The Culprit: Ash Heath”

When the second place in the “Happiness List” ended, the room suddenly became silent.

The atmosphere is so solemn that even the psychic doesn't know what to say to warm up the field.

Liz stared at Ya Xiu sadly, then turned to An Nan and said, "Sister An Nan..."

Although it is still a mediocre greeting, at this moment, the term "Sister An Nan" seems to have been given a new meaning.

An Nan glanced at them blankly, lowered his head and said, "The number one has been updated."

"No. 1 in the "Happiness List": The Happiest Queen"

"Introduction:..."

The first place didn't even have a brief introduction, so it was directly transferred to the video data, and this time the gospel seemed to be too lazy to even pretend, so Ashiu was allowed to appear at the beginning.

"In the magnificent palace, Ash sits lazily on the uppermost throne. The young empress sits on his lap, with her back to the camera invisible, and lovingly embraces Ash's neck, looking like a disaster. The demon lord's favorite concubine."

The image ends.

"No. 1 in the "Happiness List": The Happiest Queen"

"Introduction: There is Ash Heath, the ranking is invalid."

"Reward: Void"

"The Culprit: Ash Heath"

Ash closed the gospel in relief.

This is his worst time on the list, because he played as a villain from beginning to end.

Unlike the “Family List”, he can only be regarded as a dog in the family list. The main plotter is the necromancer Harvey. This time, he is almost all alone in the “Happiness List”. One scourge comes first, and almost all the grass around the nest is eaten.

If the evil has a color, it is certainly not sublime enough.

Axiu saw Liz turn back to look at the picture of the queen, and said, “Don’t look at it, it must not be your stepmother, I don’t even know her... eh?”

Liz suddenly became nervous and hurriedly closed the gospel: “Daddy, what are you surprised about?”

“No, I just found that the queen poses pretty much like you.” Ah Xiu said.

Liz was also sitting on his lap at this time, holding his neck with one hand, which was indeed somewhat similar to the picture of the queen.

Liz’s body stiffened, but she quickly became nonchalant, and she laughed with her arms akimbo: “Yes, I am the queen! So dad, you have to listen to me, and you will buy ice cream tomorrow!”

Yaxiu didn’t bother to pay attention to her, and turned to look at An Nan and Igola: “After reading the list, can you explain what happened to the knitting ceremony?”

An Nan closed the gospel and considered the language for a while.

“Do you know about “Illusory Gods”? In ancient dramas, when the plot needs to make a major transition, when characters such as angels appear on the stage, the illusionist will create scene effects and make the angels appear on the stage very abruptly.”

“Later in dramas and novels, ‘illusion of God’ refers to plots that are far-fetched, forced, and unprepared. For example, when a writer writes that he doesn’t know how to write it down, he will arrange for an angel to save everything. , Or arrange a meteorite to destroy everything.”

Ah Xiu said thoughtfully, “Are we angels?”

“No.” An Nan said, “You are meteorites.”
