

Chapter 429

It's all because of Kepler!

You said you wouldn't be back for a while, but you suddenly came back today!

If he hadn't had to inventory the books ahead of time, if he hadn't notified the board, if he hadn't....

How did you end up like this?

Jin Hong glared fiercely and angrily at Kepler, wanting very much to threaten him by giving him a fierce look on account of his seniority.

But touching Kepler's deep, cold gaze, but like a rat seeing a cat, the habitual fear rose to the heart, subconsciously turned his eyes away.

"Where's Zhou Wenzhong?"The old lady asked.

"I, I don't know."Ken Red.

"You don't know that either!I don't know!What else do you really know?"

The old lady was angry, a cup of tea thrown at her, Jin Hong did not dare to hide, the cup hit her in the face, a sudden mess.

Fortunately, the tea was not hot, and the old woman had retained her strength after all, and apart from a bruise on her forehead, no harm had been done.

It just looks disgraceful.

"You still don't say!"Jin Qingshan also roared through gritted teeth beside him.

The mother is angry, the nephew is angry, and he, as a brother, has no prior knowledge of this matter, inevitably chilled.

Jin Hong cried out, and now chewed out the aftermath, "I really don't know, I couldn't reach him last night, I don't even know where he ran off to."

"You simply deserve to die!" Jin Qingshan pointed at her forehead and roared, then stood up in a flash of anger, "This grandson! If he tries to run, I'll break his legs, little Zhang, call the police!"

As soon as she heard that the police would be called, Jin Hong's face turned pale, pulling Jin Qingshan's clothes as he cried out.

"Brother, don't call the police, I beg you don't call the police, I'll let him make up that money right now, I'm begging you don't call the police, if you call the police, Wen Zhong he'll be completely ruined ah."

"Do you think they alone, the Zhou family, can really make up the money?"

Jin Qingshan shrugged her off, "If that bastard is a good dog, I'll put up with his little pussy, but he's already set his sights on our Jin family's own head. And expect me to be polite to him?"

Afterwards, he was about to ask Xiao Zhang to call the police, but just then, Kepler's mobile phone rang.

Kepler's eyes narrowed as he looked at the string of numbers on his phone.

Raising his hand, he stopped Jin Qingshan and the others from moving.

The whole room watched him with bated breath.

Kepler picked up the phone.

From the other side came Zhou Wenzhong's distorted voice, "Surnamed Ji, guess where I am now?"

Kepler's cold brows wrinkled slightly, a bad feeling rising up in his subconscious heart.

"I can be tight, tender, and comfortable in a Land King woman's body! Young Master Ji, no wonder you people like this kind of fresh beauty, the taste is really good."

Kepler's face instantly went cold.

"Hey, don't worry, it's not like you're a woman what are you so nervous about? I've come to this point with no way out, and I know that your Jin family won't let me go.

If that's the case, why don't we do something big? At least since you're my nephew, I won't look for you, but I don't have Biden Lu's contact information, so tell him for me.

Let's say I have his woman, and if you want her to be good, have him call me right away, it's too late."

"Zhou Wenzhong!" Kepler slapped the table and stood up, sternly shouting, veins pulsing on his forehead.

"Heh! There's no use getting angry, in fact if your woman was here I would have kidnapped her, but you're lucky she's not."

The other side said, paused, then said in a deep voice, "You told him to prepare a billion! Within two hours, have him come alone to the Qingjiang Pier to trade, and if he doesn't come by then, then don't blame me for being rude to her!"

Zhou Wenzhong said and hung up the phone.

It was only after he hung up that he looked up at the man in the shadows in the corner of the deck.

"I've done everything you said, are you sure you'll actually send me away?"

"Sure."

The man spoke up, his back to him, thin but tall, wearing a hat and mask, all wrapped up in a tight package, and a voice so magnetic that it was impossible to tell who he was.

Zhou Wenzhong thought about it, but he was still a little hesitant.

"Do you think Biden Lu will really come to save this woman? That's a billion dollars! Will the asking price be too high?"

"Heh! You think a billion is a lot for Biden Lu?"

"Not too much, but not too little, after all, for just one woman."

"To you, a woman is just a plaything, but to some people it's different, don't worry! Don't say a billion, even if it's ten billion, if he can get his hands on it, he'll definitely come to her rescue."

The man said and seemed to look at his watch, "It's getting late, they should be leaving soon, I'm leaving."

Zhou Wenzhong nodded and then watched as the man disembarked from the fishing boat and left on a speedboat.

On the other side, the hospital.

Kepler and his men had arrived at Biden Lu's hospital room.

Successfully relaying what Zhou Wenzhong had told him, looking at the man's face on the hospital bed.

Biden Lu's face was cold, not as angry and angry as he thought it would be.

He unexpectedly raised his eyebrows and said in a soft voice, "You're seriously injured right now, so if it's inconvenient for you to go, I can go over there on your behalf."

"No need."

Biden Lu spoke out coldly.

He gave a wink to the man next to him and asked him to remove the IV tube for him.

"I'll go myself."

"President!"

Vicky could speak urgently.

"You can't go now, you still have injuries, and besides, that Zhou Wenzhong has the audacity to dare to do such a thing, he's obviously crazy, and it would be dangerous for you to go like this."

Kepler also faintly knitted his brows.

"Speaking of which, though I hate to admit it, he but is also a member of our family after all, and this is traced back to my family business that got Jenny involved, so me going is the most logical choice."

Biden Lu raised his eyebrows and faintly glanced at him.

"He'll let you go if you go?"

Kepler stalled.

Zhou Wenzhong clearly and explicitly said on the phone that he wanted Biden Lu to go, and if he found out that the person going was not Biden Lu, he might not let him go.

Vicky saw the situation and said urgently, "Why don't I go over dressed as the president, we're about the same height, after all, Zhou Wenzhong has only seen the president once and is not familiar with his appearance, he may not be able to recognize me as long as I dress up in disguise."

However, this proposal was rejected by Biden Lu.

"No, I'll go alone, and you'll wait on shore for news."

"President!"

"That's an order!"

His tone was steeply cold, and the nurse, seeing this, had no choice but to remove the IV tube from his hand for him.

Chapter 430

When Kepler saw this, it was hard to say anything more.

"Then be careful, see what happens, no need to bullshit with that poor maniac, if you really can't do it, just get rid of him, we'll protect you in the dark."

Biden Lu nodded.

Half an hour later.

Jenny was awakened by the sound of footsteps.

My head was still a little dizzy, and my eyes were so heavy that I couldn't open them, but when I managed to open them a fraction, I was only aware of darkness around me, and not far away there was a line of light coming in from outside, and I could faintly see a person shifting.

What is this place?

She thought consciously, remembering that she had only just gotten out of the hospital, and had wanted to go buy Biden Lu some of his favorite Chinese food, but then she got in the car and....

Jenny frowned, thinking vaguely, and then what happened?

The memory of the image was mobilized and she was shaken hard.

No!

Jenny instantly woke up, and almost subconsciously, he bounced off the ground.

There was only darkness and an open door in front of it.

A little light came through, her hands were tied behind her back, her feet were tied, there was a wooden floor beneath her, a salty dampness and a whisper of wind in her ears, like being on a ship.

On a boat?

This knowledge made Jenny slightly alarmed, her hands hurt from being tied too tightly strangling her wrists, she frowned and struggled a few times, not breaking free, instead wrapping her wrists in more and more pain.

Her heart sank slightly, and she pursed her lips, moving with difficulty towards the doorway, using the line of light to see the figure shifting outside through the doorway.

That back....so familiar!

She tried to search through her memories and quickly remembered, just then the man turned around, confirming her suspicions that it was indeed Zhou Wenzhong.

"Zhou Wenzhong!" She shouted out, "What did you tie me up here for?"

Zhou Wenzhong was now waiting full of anxiety for a response from there.

When I heard the voice and turned back, I saw that she had even crawled to the door, and I strode over, my eyes hard, and kicked her in the shoulder.

Jenny's centre of gravity was unsteady, and he planted backwards.

Zhou Wenzhong also followed, turned on the lights in the cabin, picked her up to the side, and said sternly: "Behave yourself! Or I'll take your life now!"

His movement touched the wound on Jenny's calf and she grunted in pain, her brows furrowed.

"Zhou Wenzhong, what do you want to do? I'm warning you, what you're doing is considered unlawful confinement, and it's against the law!"

Jenny kept his sanity and said calmly.

Zhou Wenzhong's lips grinned a cold, evil grin as he crouched down in front of her, displaying a cold dagger.

"Imprisonment? Breaking the law? You think I'm afraid of that now?"

He seemed to be saying to her and to himself, "The Jin family is going to drive me to extinction, if I don't kidnap you, do you think my future will be better than prison?"

Jenny Jing's eyes tightened, "I'm not a member of the Jin family, what does this have to do with me?"

"What do you think?" Zhou Wenzhong's eyes suddenly grew cold and harsh with a touch of hatred.

"If you hadn't tipped off Biden Lu and Biden Lu told this to Kepler, I would be in this position today?"

Canning, last one.

You're lucky that you didn't get killed the second time, if you just shut up, maybe I'll let you go, but you don't know any better, so I'll make it up to you, at worst the fish will die and no one will be better off!"

Jenny shuddered and backed away.

"What do you want? Kill me?" Her voice was shaking a little too.

"Nonono!" Zhou Wenzhong shook his head, "Wouldn't it be a waste of time to kill you now? Don't worry, your life is worth a billion dollars, and I won't kill you until I get the money."

A billion?

Jenny was stunned when Zhou Wenzhong's phone suddenly rang, and he pulled it out to take a look at it before heading out.

The door was closed, and Jenny faintly heard voices outside.

"Are we there yet?"

"....."

"I'm warning you! You only have a total of two hours, and if you're not there or playing any tricks after two hours, you'll be waiting to collect your woman's body!"

The phone seemed to hang up at this point, and soon the door was kicked open and he kicked it open and Zhou Wenzhong walked in.

Jenny Jing looked at his gloomy face and shuddered, "Zhou Wenzhong! Are you out of your mind? This is kidnapping for ransom!"

Zhou Wenzhong sneered, squatting down and pulling a handful of her hair, gritting his teeth, "You think I don't know this is kidnapping for ransom? I'd do this if I had a second fu*king way out?"

A billion! Even if I get the money I'll be pursued by the Jin and Lu families and the police for the rest of my life, what's the use of having a billion dollars!"

He seemed to get mad and slammed her head against the wall to vent his anger.

Jenny grunted in pain and gritted her teeth, "Then why are you still doing this?"

"Because they're sending me to jail! Sitting in jail you understand?"

Zhou Wenzhong was now inexplicably irritable for some reason and looked fiercely at Jenny.

"It's full of perverts in there! I'm going in there and I'm coming out in one piece? I had no choice either! They made me do it, made me have to do it!"

"No! You're simply to blame for all of this!"

Jenny Jing restrained his fear and said harshly, "Embezzlement of public funds, you will only serve a few years in jail at most, but if I have a long or short sentence, it will be extortion and harming lives, and will be sentenced to death!"

"Don't you think I'm the only one you think will be worth a billion? If you let me go now, I can still go back and plead for you, as long as you fill in the deficit, you might not have to go to jail at all, after all, you are Kepler's grandmother and Su Yun's real father, aren't you? Without looking at the monk's face, for the sake of Su Yun and Aunt Jin Hong, they won't be too hard on you!"

Zhou Wenzhong seemed to hesitate for a moment.

His eyes flickered slightly, as if he was considering her words.

Jenny was busy striking while the iron was hot, "Zhou Wenzhong, we have no grudge against each other, if you hadn't tried to harm me last time, I wouldn't have told Biden Lu about you, if you let me go now, I can guarantee that I will help you plead for mercy from Biden Lu."

"And Aunt Jin Hong won't see you in jail, will she? What are you afraid of, with us pleading for you? We're all relatives, it's easy to say anything without tearing your face off, if you insist on kidnapping me now, when the police get involved, there really will be no turning back for you!"

She was saying that when Zhou Wenzhong's phone rang again.

He gave Jenny a stern look, but instead of walking out this time, he answered it right in front of her.

Jenny didn't know who the person on the other side of the room was, and what he was given to say, only to see one of his faces gradually growing darker and darker.

Chapter 431

A bad feeling rose in her heart.

Sure enough, after Zhou Wenzhong hung up the phone, he came towards her with an evil look on his face.

"Young Lady Lu, it's too presumptuous of you to say that you're not worth a billion dollars, it's not, Biden Lu is about to arrive, I'll take you out now for some air, by the way

I'll let you see how the president of the hallowed Lu Foundation is lying at my feet and begging me like a dog!Haha!"

After Zhou Wenzhong said that, he didn't know where to pull out a rag and gag her, then he lifted her up and walked out.

Jenny's mouth was gagged, unable to speak, and could only whimper and struggle desperately.

But her strength was worthless to Zhou Wenzhong, who grabbed her and tied her to a rope, then hoisted her onto the mast, and her entire body rose into the air like a banner at once.

"Woo-woo-woo-"

Zhou Wenzhong looked up at Jenny, who was constantly struggling with a face full of fear, with a cruel smile on his face.

"Don't be afraid!When I get the money, you'll give me a ride and I'll let you go!Don't worry, I only want money, not life, and harming your life now has no other benefit than having Biden Lu chase me all over the world!"

Zhou Wenzhong said, looking at the watch on his hand, "He's almost here!Just pray we make a good deal!"

And now, the other end.

More than a dozen dark green military Hummers were parked at the side of the road, and Biden Lu was sitting in the car with a laptop on his lap, operating something skillfully on it.

The car door opened and the figure of Sumer peeked in from outside.

"President, everyone's here."

Biden Lu's face was cold, his fingertips flew and tapped on the keyboard, and soon a map appeared with a red dot constantly flashing on it.

"Go set up with this as the centre, underwater, and every fishing boat around it!"

Vicky nodded and hesitated, "President, do you really want to go alone?It's too dangerous!"

Biden Lu didn't answer him, and when Vicky saw the situation, he knew that his mind was already made up, so he couldn't say anything else, so he could only turn around and go about his business.

Kepler called him over again.

"Biden Lu, I've already arranged for this side to be ready to take over."

"Well."He nodded faintly, paused for a few seconds, and said quietly, "Thank you."

"Heh."

The other side laughed, said nothing, and hung up the phone.

Biden Lu didn't say anything else and stepped out of the car, heading to the pier.

On a fishing boat.

Jenny's body was hanging in the air, the rope strangling his body as if he was being retarded by a knife, and the pain was unbearable.

She gritted her teeth and managed to spit out the ragged ball of cloth in her mouth, pooh-poohed, and looked at Zhou Wenzhong, who was leaning against the lower knife and dragging the rope to smoke, angry and afraid.

"Zhou Wenzhong, don't go on, even if you get the money, this stupid fishing boat won't be able to escape with you, right!"

Kidnapping for ransom is at least fifteen years in prison, so think about it!In case you get caught, you might as well go back now and turn yourself in!"

Zhou Wenzhong looked up at her with a cold glance, and under the night, the lighted cigarette head flickered on and off, making him look somewhat lonely and fierce.

"Cut the crap! As long as you're in my hands, not to mention a broken fishing boat, even if it's a broken board, do you believe that I can escape with you far away?"

Jenny frowned, "Didn't we agree to give money with one hand and people with the other? Why are you taking me with you?"

"You think I'm stupid! What if Lu Jing-Shen ambushed someone around? You must get me to a safe place, and then I'll let you go!"

"Zhou Wenzhong, you're going too far, even if you're a kidnapper, you should have the professional ethics of being a kidnapper, right!"

If you take the money and don't let him go, Biden Lu won't be willing to do it.

You'd better let me go now, I promise you, I'll plead for you, I promise you with my character!"

"Why are you talking so much nonsense?"

Zhou Wenzhong somewhat impatiently threw the butt of his cigarette and looked into the pale night in the distance.

In a half-hearted manner, only a silhouette came from the distance, his lips curled in cruelty, and he pulled out his phone to edit a text message to send out, "The man has arrived."

Jenny was still trying to persuade Zhou Wenzhong, and although he knew it was useless, doing something would always ease his concentration so that the feeling of weightlessness would be less uncomfortable.

"Zhou Wenzhong, why don't you put me down first!! I'm so uncomfortable hanging like this!"

If you slip and let go of the rope, I'll fall into the river and feed the fish, won't I?

The water here is so turbulent, it's definitely lifeless if you fall in, and then it doesn't matter if I lose a little life, you'll be working for nothing and have to die with me if you don't get a penny in the end."

Zhou Wenzhong was so impressed by her words that he just wanted to plug his ears with cotton.

"Zhou Wenzhong! Did you hear what I said?"

Jenny shouted weakly.

"I hear you hear you!"

Zhou Wenzhong finally ran out of patience and yelled at her, "Shut up! When your man comes, he pays, and I'll let you down!"

Jenny was startled.

Looking up and down, I did see a familiar figure on the dock.

It's Lu Keng Shen!

He's really here?

Her face went white.

At this point, her first thought was actually not about her own safety, but about his injuries.

That serious injury was only out of danger a few days ago! The doctor hadn't even allowed him to walk out of bed, so why was he so desperate that he actually came over here himself?

Jenny's eyes heated up and his heart clenched, aching.

Zhou Wenzhong's face was also serious, and he held the rope tightly, waiting for Biden Lu to come aboard to negotiate.

There was a small boat parked at the dock, and he loudly ordered Land King to come over in a small boat, not to dock himself.

Biden Lu didn't say anything, a man in a small boat, rowing over this way.

However, at this moment, a voice came out of the Bluetooth headset in Zhou Wenzhong's ear.

"There was an ambush! Kill her!"

With just this short sentence on the phone, Zhou Wenzhong was suddenly dumbfounded and looked up at Jenny, then turned to look at the approaching Biden Lu.

"Bastard!"

Jenny didn't react before the gunshots rang out in the night.

I saw Zhou Wenzhong pull out a gun from nowhere and fired a shot in the direction of Biden Lu, sternly saying, "Stop! Don't come any closer!"

Biden Lu's boat was parked there.

Jenny was dumbfounded, not knowing what was going on!

"Kill her!"

Again the icy command came through the headphones.

However, Zhou Wenzhong's eyes were lingering, but he did not listen to the other party's words.

Instead, he slowly lowered the rope, his movements shaking a bit and you could see the panic inside.

And Jenny could only see his rapidly changing face, not knowing why he was like this.
