

Chapter 431

"Are you kidding about cooperating with Jin Zhengting?"

Cheng Mo Bing disdained a smile: "don't forget, the day before yesterday I also sent someone to kill Zhao Tong Xin, do you think that with his doting on Zhao Tong Xin, will you let go of the past and join hands with us to deal with Huo Tingchen?"

Xu Zheng pondered for a while and said: "although the task failed, he may not know that it was the killer you sent out. It seems that you never showed hostility to him, and his main opponent is Huo Tingchen. We can also lead the disaster to Huo Tingchen. Let him fight with Huo Tingchen. Let's just watch it silently."

"Your idea is too naive. To tell you the truth, there are two killers who have been caught by Jin Zhengting. It's absolutely not difficult to ask them to speak by his means. Your ideas are all dreams."

Cheng mobing coldly said that she was forced to stand on the same position with Xu Zheng because she had no choice, but it didn't mean that she was willing to be with Xu Zheng. On the contrary, Xu Zheng forced her with this kind of down-to-earth means, which stimulated her strong rebellious psychology. She was just waiting for an opportunity, because Cheng mobing was never a woman that a man could control at will.

"No, this is the opportunity that we can take advantage of. No one can guarantee that the two killers are not lying. Maybe they got Huo Tingchen's order and deliberately framed you to make you and Jin Zhengting become enemies. He wants to hide in the dark and reap the benefits from others?"

Xu Zheng's eyes are full of cunning, and Cheng mobing's eyes are also bright. He's right. As long as Huo Tingchen is responsible for this, it's not the best way to solve the current crisis.

"What you said is feasible, but how can we blame Huo Tingchen?"

Although Cheng Mo Bing's heart is extremely disgusted, he still pretends to be intimate and comes to Xu Zheng's back. He gently kneads his shoulder and asks.

Her technique is very good, Xu Zheng closed his eyes and said: "blame? Do we need to frame the blame? With Jin Zhengting's super high IQ, even if we don't do anything, he will go to Huo Tingchen by himself. What's more, Huo Tingchen has made such a big move in Jiangdong. Don't think that the higher the IQ, the easier it is to be cheated. Sometimes the smarter the person is, the better he will cheat. "

Cheng mobing's hands are moving constantly, and her brain is also spinning fast. She suddenly finds that Xu Zheng is really too smart. He can see through everyone's weakness. Maybe he has been forbearing these years, but he really has the ability to make a big splash. Such a person's use value to himself is too great.

"You are really smart. Now I feel more and more that it's the right choice to cooperate with you."

She has a charming smile on her face, and her little hands are restless walking on Xu Zheng. From his rapid breathing, Cheng mobing knows that he is being teased gradually. The biggest capital she has is the perfect body that can make a man happy and the technology that has been accumulated through a hundred battles.

There is a fire in Xu Zheng's chest. Cheng mobing, a woman's body, makes it hard for him to extricate himself from being a master in the romantic arena. From the bottom of his heart, he has a desire to conquer her completely.

Just about to push her down on the sofa, the mobile phone suddenly rings, he looked impatiently, it was Xu Ting, he hesitated, or answered the phone.

"Cousin, Zhao Tongxin is back, do you know?"

Xu Ting's voice is somewhat urgent. She has learned the news of Zhao Tongxin's return, and has placed an eye liner on Zhao Tongxin's company to tell her that tomorrow the company will sell jewellery at a price of only 20% of its normal price. She can't make up her mind, so she hastened to call Xu Zheng.

"I already know. What's the matter?"

Xu Zheng doesn't know why Xu Ting is so nervous, but his intuition tells him that Zhao Tongxin must have made some arrangements for them when he comes back this time.

"Zhao Tongxin should have found yuyuanshi. From tomorrow, her company's products will be sold at a lower price, which is even lower than our company's price. Cousin, what do you say we should do?"

Xu Ting says that she doesn't know much about business either, so when she comes across decision-making issues, she must make up her mind.

"Yes? Well, we can sell it at the original price, which can also reduce the price. Zhao Tongxin is looking for the raw ore from Southeast Asia, which is not as close as the western region. We can save a sum in terms of freight, which is still lower than her company's finished products. Even if we continue to consume it, we will not be able to consume it, so don't worry. If we reduce the price by another 10%, it will be enough to defeat them . "

Xu Zheng is confident that he has a long-term vision. Just when Zhao Tongxin left for Southeast Asia, he contacted the raw stone minerals in the western region through a hidden relationship. From there, he can also buy extremely cheap raw stones. Although the quality of raw stones is not as good as those produced in Southeast Asia, for ordinary consumers, the price is the key to determine the sales volume factor.

"Well, cousin, come to the company tomorrow and study it together." Xu Ting said a word, hang up the phone.

"Did Zhao Tongxin find the jade stone so soon?"

Cheng mobing, who has been listening, asks Xu Zheng in a soft voice. She can think that it will be sooner or later for her to find cheap jade with Jin Zhengting's influence, but she didn't expect that it will be so soon. However, Xu Zheng seems to have been ready for a long time, so she relaxes a lot. After all, she has regarded Zhao Tongxin as her number one opponent. She didn't give up completely on Jin Zhengting. I don't know why. From the first sight, she was deeply attracted by his unique charm.

I can't help comparing Xu Zheng and Jin Zhengting. If Xu Zheng is a snake that has been dormant for a long time, Jin Zhengting is the dragon that flies in the sky.

Women like Cheng mobing naturally don't take Xu Zheng as their goal. Now when they are with him, they just make use of him. Jin Zhengting is still the most ideal object in their heart.

The biggest obstacle to get Jin Zhengting is the woman he loves deeply, Zhao Tongxin. As long as she exists for one day, she can't be in the upper position. Therefore, she has always spared no effort to attack Zhao Tongxin.

"It doesn't matter. No matter what they do, I have a plan."

Xu Zheng deliberately shows his ability in front of her, because he knows that a woman like Cheng mobing can only see the strong in her eyes.

"We are ready to join hands with Jin Zhengting. Why should we fight him in the jewelry industry? We should know that the jewelry industry is his pillar industry."

Cheng mobing expresses her doubts. Now she can't understand Xu Zheng's idea.

"Very simply, we have to defeat Jin Zhengting in the jewelry industry, because only the strong have the right to speak, and we have to take the leading position when we join hands with Jin Zhengting."

Xu Zheng shrugs his shoulders. Even if he is forced to ask for instructions, he must unite with Jin Zhengting, but he doesn't want to be trampled by Jin Zhengting forever. He is an ambitious man, which he can't accept.

Cheng mobing's eyes flashed an imperceptible anomaly: "do you mean that the war between us and Jin Zhengting will continue?"

Xu Zheng nodded: "at this point, it can only be so. We have no way out."

"If Huo Tingchen suddenly stepped in to clean up the mess when we were both defeated, how should you deal with it?" Cheng Mo Bing asked a very necessary question.

Xu Zheng said with a faint smile: "no, if he oppresses us now, he will only let us make a quick alliance with Jin Zhengting. According to my understanding of him, he will not make a move until the last moment. Now what we have to do is to defeat Jin Zhengting as quickly as possible."

Jin family villa.

Jin Zhengting looks at Zhao Tongxin with a sweet smile in his sleep. His eyes become extremely gentle. He reaches out his hand and gently caresses her hair.

Zhao Tong Xin in deep sleep seems to feel his action, and his face shows an expression of enjoyment. He nestles up to him like a kitten, breathing more evenly.

A few very slight knock on the door, Jin Zhengting's brow slightly wrinkled, he subconsciously looked at Zhao Tongxin, see that she was not affected, just a little down, after a long journey, she is pregnant, seems too tired.

When he got up to open the door, an old servant of Jin family stood outside the door and bowed respectfully to Jin Zhengting: "young master, the old lady is waiting for you in the living room. Please come over."

"Well, I see."

Jin Zhengting said, quietly closed the door and followed the servant to the living room.

Mrs. Jin was sitting in the living room drinking tea. Seeing him coming, she said with a smile, "Zhengting, I just came back and didn't let you have a good rest. It's hard."

Jin Zhengting showed a smile: "grandma, you are serious."

"I came to you this time because I heard that you have found the treasure. I always thought it was in Siberia, but I didn't expect it to be hidden in the mountains and forests of Southeast Asia. It seems that this time, it's also crooked."

Mrs. Jin said with a smile that she was in a good mood today because no one knew better than her what it meant to the Jin family to get the treasure.

It seems that Zhao Tongxin, the granddaughter-in-law, can always bring good luck to the Jin family. The old lady is also proud of herself. She doesn't oppose Jin Zhengting and her feelings too much. Otherwise, she won't have such good luck.

"Yes, I only know the location. It hasn't been opened yet." Jin Zhengting answered faintly.

"Well, I remember when your grandfather was still alive, he mentioned that you don't just need to get the key to open the treasure. If the method is wrong, it will trigger the self explosion system of the treasure, and those who attempt to open the treasure will be crushed to pieces."

Mrs. Jin said with a lingering fear that fortunately her grandson was not a greedy person, otherwise she would be in real danger.

"I see. No wonder the Huo family knows the location of the treasure and has never opened it."

Jin Zhengting ponders that Huo Zhong is dead, which means that no one in the world knows how to open the treasure.

"It's said that the only person who knows how to open the treasure has died, so let the treasure be a secret forever."

There was a trace of regret on Mrs. Jin's face, but at the same time, she was glad that no one could open the treasure that could threaten any family, which was the best outcome.

"Well, grandma, it's not because of this that she called me late at night, is it?"

Jin Zhengting knew that the old lady had learned all the things that had happened during her trip to Southeast Asia. She certainly didn't call herself to talk about such nonsense. "I want to tell you the news I just got. The old lady of the Cheng family died last night, and the relatives of the Cheng family almost died today. It can be said that the Cheng family has been destroyed. Now Cheng Mohan has inherited all the property of the Cheng family."

Mrs. Jin narrowed her eyes and said that there was a complicated look in her wise eyes. Maybe it was because she felt sad about her opponent's sudden death.

Jin Zhengting's heart is suddenly shocked. If Cheng family falls into Cheng Mohan's hands, it is actually controlled by Huo Tingchen. He has gained the control of Tianhong Group. If Cheng family can compete with Jin family, he has become his strongest enemy.

"I'm old. You'd better consult Yang ziye about these things. I don't care."

Mrs. Jin sighed and left the living room alone.

Chapter 432

"Zhengting, I'd like to know how you know I didn't sleep. A phone call called me over and asked me to pick up girls."

As soon as Yang ziye enters the living room, he begins to complain. From his flushed face and light wine smell, he can find that the young master of Yang's group must have just come out of a romantic place.

"Don't complain, ziye. It's important for Zhengting to come to us at this time."

The gentle Lu zhanyan stops Yang ziye's complaint. After they sit down, they ask, "what's the emergency, Zhengting?"

"Huo Tingchen has done something to the Cheng family. Old lady Cheng and almost all his relatives have been killed by him. Now he has controlled the overall situation of the Cheng family and basically controlled the whole city of Jiangdong."

Jin Zhengting frowned and lit a cigarette. It can be seen that he is not calm now. Indeed, this matter is too difficult.

"What?"

Almost at the same time, they exclaimed and exchanged a look. They both saw the extreme worry in each other's eyes.

"Is the information reliable?"

Lu zhanyan first regained his composure and seriously asked Jin Zhengting that he must confirm the authenticity of the news, because the relationship between them is too important.

"Well." Jin Zhengting gave him the most unwanted affirmative answer.

"That's hard to do."

As soon as Yang ziye hears this amazing news, the alcohol in his body flows out with the cold sweat. Now he is sober, and his eyebrows are wrinkled, because he can't think of any effective way.

"I asked you to come here just to inform you of this and make preparations early. The first thing Huo Tingchen did when he returned to Jiangbin was probably to fight against you."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that he knew that if Huo Tingchen wanted to deal with himself, he would first clean up the consortia closest to him, and Yang's and Lu's groups would bear the brunt.

Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan are both immersed in meditation. With Huo Tingchen's current strength, the pressure on them is too great to imagine.

"Zhenyuan, I suddenly thought of something."

Lu zhanyan's eyes brightened for a moment and said to Jin Zhengting, who motioned him to continue.

Lu zhanyan micro wording, said: "we can imagine, Huo Tingchen control Cheng family, will touch whose interests."

Yang ziye naturally replied, "needless to say, those who are waiting to inherit the Cheng family's property."

As soon as he finished his words, his eyes lit up: "yes, Cheng mobing, as far as I know, this woman is not only very coquettish, but also has amazing strength, and her assets are at least similar to those of Tianhong Group. Now Huo Tingchen has taken everything from the Cheng family, so the most urgent thing is not us, but her. We can unite with her to deal with Huo Tingchen!"

His suggestion is very reasonable. Young master Yang is not only a playboy, he is always very smart.

"Zhengting, ziye is right. Now we are facing a common enemy. I think Cheng mobing will be willing to unite with us. After all, in Jiangbin, we are still the most powerful force. She needs us to compete with Huo Tingchen. I think she is more concerned about how to take back the Cheng family's industry. Her hostility to us can be ignored."

Lu zhanyan said that he also thinks so. In extraordinary times, enemies can become friends. What's more, Cheng mobing didn't show strong hostility. This is a good way to solve the problem.

Jin Zhengting took a deep breath of his cigarette and said faintly, "it's impossible."

"Why?" Lu zhanyan asked inexplicably that he didn't think his plan was bad.

"She sent a killer and wanted to kill her. With this, I would never cooperate with her. On the contrary, I would gather all my strength to deal with her!"

Jin Zhengting's tone was still flat, but his eyes became colder and colder. Even his two good friends, who had been playing since childhood, had never seen his terrible eyes, and could not help shivering.

It can be seen that his anger towards Cheng mobing has reached the point of no more. Because if she wants to hurt Zhao Tongxin, she has committed an unforgivable sin.

"Zhengting, calm down. It's an extraordinary time. You can't be impulsive."

Lu zhanyan carefully advised, in his view, it is not the time to settle personal feuds, the overall situation needs the cooperation of both sides, if the two sides start fighting again, there is no doubt that Huo Tingchen will take advantage of it.

Jin Zhengting said coldly in a dignified tone of no doubt: "I've decided this matter, so I don't need to say more about it."

When Lu zhanyan knows him and knows that he speaks in this tone, it means that he has reached the point of irretrievability. However, he is still unwilling to give up this opportunity and give Yang ziye a look, which means that he wants to persuade Jin Zhengting.

Yang ziye shook his head: "Zhan Yan, don't say any more. If I were the court, I would not cooperate with Cheng mobing. Would a man choose to cooperate with a man who is trying to kill his wife? What kind of man is that? "

"Ziye, youLu zhanyan looks at Yang ziye helplessly, but he doesn't say what he has to say.

Yang ziye patted him on the shoulder and said earnestly, "zhanyan, you are too calm. You know, if you are too calm, you will become cold and often ignore people's most basic feelings."

"The most basic feelings?" Lu zhanyan repeated in doubt. He didn't understand what Yang ziye wanted to express.

"Yes, it's the most basic emotion. You should know how deep Zhengting's affection for Tong Xin is. Cheng mobing's behavior has already touched the scale of Zhengting. If a man wrongs his beloved for something else, is he still worthy of being a man?"

Yang ziye has a philosopher's face and makes a serious education speech.

Lu zhanyan nodded thoughtfully. He was right. In terms of Jin Zhengting's feelings for Zhao Tongxin, he would never tolerate Cheng mobing's behavior. With his understanding of Jin Zhengting, he could really give up everything for Zhao Tongxin's sake.

His eyes turned a few times, and suddenly asked: "but how do you know that Huo Tingchen didn't deliberately send a killer to plant her in order not to let us join hands with Cheng mobing?"

Lu zhanyan's words are not without reason. A wise man will consider all kinds of possibilities from various angles when he thinks of a thing. The possibility he thinks of is the highest one, because Huo Tingchen is also a wise man. This kind of strategy is also his usual means.

Xu Zheng had already agreed to this point, even if he did nothing, someone would have pushed the culprit of this incident to Huo Tingchen. Lu zhanyan inadvertently acted as his gunner.

Yang ziye doesn't speak any more. He also thinks that Huo Tingchen is the most motivated one in this situation. They both don't know what Cheng mobing thinks. In order to get Jin Zhengting, she must get rid of Zhao Tongxin. If they know this relationship, maybe there will be no analysis deviation 。

"No, you're wrong."

Jin Zhengting, who had not spoken for a long time, opened his mouth and said faintly, "this matter will not be done by Huo Tingchen."

"Court, what evidence do you have to prove that he didn't do it? He has the most motive." Yang ziye's temperament is more urgent. He asks for it at the first time.

"It's very simple. He doesn't have enough time to think about these things. You don't know Huo Tingchen. He has a weakness, that is, he is impatient."

Jin Zhengting's eyes are shining with wisdom. He knows every opponent, their shortcomings and advantages, and every detail will not escape his eyes.

"That's the same as me."

Yang ziye murmured in a low voice, but he thought about Jin Zhengting's words carefully, and thought that his analysis was really reasonable, because he was also an impatient person. When he was very eager to do one thing, all his attention would focus on that thing, and he would not care about other things.

If Huo Tingchen is really eager to get control of the Cheng family, he will put all his energy on how to deal with the Cheng family. Zhao Tongxin, who has no real threat to this matter, will selectively give up for the time being.

"Ziye, you understand."

When Jin Zhengting looks at Yang ziye's flashing eyes, he knows what he means.

"I see. I also think Cheng mobing did it. She doesn't want to explain it now. She just wants to put it on Huo Tingchen, because she knows that we smart people will associate everything with Huo Tingchen. Ah, I don't know whether we are smart people or fools." Yang ziye knocked his head and said with some chagrin.

Lu zhanyan at this time also figured out one of the joints: "or the court calm, we almost fell into Cheng mobing's trap."

"No, I have contacted Cheng mobing several times. She is an ambitious woman who does everything to achieve her goal, but she is not sure of our psychological ability. I think behind her, there must be someone who is familiar with us to give her advice."

Jin Zhengting shows great insight. He already feels that behind Cheng mobing, someone is calculating them.

"Even if you are right, the most important thing now is that Huo Tingchen has formed a huge pressure on us. If we don't join hands with Cheng mobing, how can we deal with him?"

Lu zhanyan said anxiously that the current difficult situation is really difficult to solve.

"I don't think Huo Tingchen will attack us recently. On the contrary, he won't even go back to Jiangbin for the time being, so we can not consider his threat first." Jin Zhengting calmly analyzed that he always believed in his own judgment.

"Why?"

Yang ziye asked. He changed his position and thought about it. With Huo Tingchen's character, he got the Cheng family's huge assets, and he will come back to revenge on them at the first time.

"Because he is also a smart man. He knows that if we are forced too hard, we will choose to join hands with Cheng mobing. At that time, it will be very difficult for him to deal with both of us at the same time. So he is holding his ground now. The purpose is to let us fight with each other. When both sides are seriously injured, he is standing up to clean up the situation." Jin Zhengting's light speculation, in fact, Huo Tingchen is holding such an idea.

Lu zhanyan pondered again. After a long time, he raised his head and said, "the analysis of the court is quite right. What do you think we should do next?"

Jin Zhengting is the leader among them. Naturally, this kind of important decision-making should be arranged by him.

"By swallowing Cheng mobing's assets in the shortest time, we can not only eliminate a threat, but also concentrate on dealing with Huo Tingchen and enhance our strength."

Jin Zhengting had already made a decision in his heart, and his decision had never been missed.

"It's not easy to swallow her assets, Zhengting. Her capital is almost the same as that of Tianhong Group. Even for men like you, she has the power of World War I. if we forcibly annex her, even if we succeed, we will kill 1000 enemies and lose 800. How can we spare the strength to deal with Huo Tingchen?"

Lu zhanyan thinks things are very comprehensive. He thinks this plan is too risky.

Jin Zhengting smiles: "I will not use all the strength of the group, as long as Tong Xin's company focuses on dealing with Cheng mobing, and I believe Tong Xin can do it."

Chapter 433

"Tong Xin's company is the most powerful branch of the group, but its assets are too different from Cheng mobing's group. Besides, Tong Xin has no experience in business. How can you be sure that she can succeed? In case of any mistake, it's a matter that affects the whole body. Is your decision too risky?"

Yang ziye first objected. He felt that Jin Zhengting trusted Zhao Tong's heart too much and mixed his personal feelings with the business. Generally, the result was not good.

"I believe Tong Xin can do it. I believe it from the beginning." Jin Zhengting said with burning eyes. His eyes twinkled with extraordinary firmness, just like his love for her.

"Well, since you are so determined, I choose to believe you. Zhengting, what do you need us to do?"

Yang ziye didn't insist on it. They grew up together. They were too familiar with each other's personalities. Once Jin Zhengting identified one thing, it was impossible to change it. Of course, he never missed it once. This is the source of Yang ziye's confidence in him.

"You will give up all your investment projects and collect all your working capital from tomorrow. I don't think it will take long for you to make a large-scale acquisition."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan were relieved by his mature appearance.

"Well, it's late. Let's go first, Zhengting. If you need any help, just call us."

Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan get up and say goodbye. They don't need too much politeness, because they are each other's real people.

Jin Zhengting sat on the sofa, deep eyes looking out at the night, the sky has no moon, no stars, only a layer of dark clouds, it seems to rain.

"The court."

A gentle call, wearing light blue pajamas Zhao Tongxin, with not awake lazy, casually stirred a little messy hair, one hand holding a stew cup appeared in front of him.

Jin Zhengting's eyebrows wrinkled, but his eyes became bright from dark. In his tone, he asked a little reproachfully, "how did you get up?"

"I just found that you were not around. Then I got up and asked the servant. The servant told me that you were still dealing with things, so I came to see you."

Zhao Tongxin put the stew cup on the tea table and came to Jin Zhengting's back. He attached his broad shoulder to his scallion fingers and kneaded them gently.

The gentle touch made Jin Zhengting feel a burst of unprecedented relaxation, but he still reached out and pressed her hand swimming behind him. He didn't want her to be tired.

"I'm not tired. I'll go to bed early."

He now needs to think carefully about the next plan, so tonight is destined to be a sleepless night, but he doesn't want Zhao Tongxin to stay up together. After all, she is pregnant and needs enough sleep.

"I'll go to bed with you for a while. There won't be much business in the company tomorrow. I can get up a little later."

Zhao Tong said gently, took out his hand, opened the lid of the stew cup, and sent out a strong aroma.

"I stewed some ginseng soup for you. Drink it while it's hot."

As she said this, she personally served Jin Zhengting a bowl. Her beautiful eyes were full of tenderness and expectation, and she put the ginseng soup in front of him.

When Jin Zhengting's eyes were warm, he took a sip from the bowl. The smell of ginseng soup was very strong, but there was no greasy feeling at the entrance. When he looked carefully, Zhao Tongxin had already cleaned up the oily flowers floating on the soup.

His eyes suddenly emerged a picture, a gentle and beautiful figure, wearing pajamas in the kitchen, for his husband who is still tired at night, heart to boil a bowl of ginseng soup, regardless of the heat of the stew cup, holding a spoon in his hand, looking attentively carefully fishing for every drop of oil.

The hot steam made her forehead sweat, but she didn't even have time to wipe it. She still filtered it with a spoon, just for her husband to feel greasy when he drank the soup.

Through the hazy fog, that face gradually clear up, is Zhao Tongxin that beautiful pretty face.

Regardless of the fact that the soup is still very hot, Jin Zhengting drinks all the soup in the bowl. Then he puts down the bowl and looks at Zhao Tongxin who is quietly watching him drink the soup with the most gentle eyes in the world.

Gently stretched out his hand, carefully arranged for her some scattered hair, her hair is very soft, but now with a little bit of moisture, that is her sweat, is for him and flow.

"In the future, just let the servants do it. You don't need to cook yourself."

Jin Zhengting hugged her into his arms and said in a soft voice that he had already felt her heart and loved her very much.

Zhao Tong Xin's eyes are full of satisfaction. Maybe for her, no matter how hard it is to make soup, as long as he likes to drink, it's enough.

"I'm not sure. I think it's better to do it for you."

Zhao Tong Xin's head nestles in his arms. She always likes to listen to his rhythmic and powerful heartbeat.

"Don't cook so late in the future. Your health matters." Jin Zhengting didn't blame her this time. He just reminded her that her body was the most important thing at this time.

"Good."

Zhao Tongxin cleverly agreed, took his arm and said: "Zhengting, don't be too tired. Although the career is important, it can't match your body."

Jin Zhengting mouth slightly Yang: "I know, after busy this period of time, will give yourself a holiday."

"I hope I can go to a place full of natural atmosphere with you. It's better for us to breathe fresh air, look at the blue sky and white clouds, and you around us. It's very pleasant to think about it."

Zhao Tongxin's beautiful eyes flash with happy expression. In her heart, she already has the warm picture, which is very beautiful.

"Well." Jin Zhengting gently stroked her hair and said, "I promise you."

"Zhengting, I know you have to be busy, so I won't disturb you. I'll go to bed first. I know I have to take care of myself, for you and our children."

Zhao Tongxin's hand caresses his belly, where he sleeps a lovely baby, which is the crystallization of her and his love.

"Go to bed. Don't wait for me."

Jin Zhengting gently kisses her forehead and orders the spoon garden outside: "you accompany Tong Xin."

Because Xu Yanke has to take care of Rong Lei in the hospital, the task of protecting Zhao Tongxin next to her naturally falls on Shaoyuan. As long as Jin Zhengting is away, she will follow Zhao Tongxin.

Shaoyuan nodded: "yes, boss."

She took Zhao Tongxin's hand, blinked her round eyes and said, "go away, Tongxin. When I'm pregnant, I don't want to stay up late. I'll tell you what to pay attention to later."

Zhao Tong looked at Jin Zhengting with a faint smile and gave her a reassuring expression: "I will rest, don't worry."

"Well, Zhengting, I'll go to bed first. Remember to drink the ginseng soup. It's not good to drink when it's cold."

Zhao Tong heart before leaving also did not forget to charge a, her mind now completely on his body.

The spoon garden finally takes Zhao Tongxin back to the bedroom. Jin Zhengting picks up the spoon and slowly stirs the ginseng soup in the stew cup, which is full of the warmth she gives him.

Maybe Zhao Tongxin's stew level is not much different from her coffee making skills, but for him, it is already the most delicious food in the world.

After drinking the soup, he feels a warm feeling from the bottom of his heart, and his mood is clear. For Zhao Tongxin, he will never lose this contest, whether it is Cheng mobing or Huo Tingchen.

Because she needs her own protection, he has the courage to face all situations.

Frown slightly, Jin Zhengting's thinking in the rapid operation, he wants to use his wisdom, change the situation of the enemy is strong and I am weak.

In the bedroom.

Zhao Tongxin leans on the bedside, and Huo Tingchen's series of actions in Jiangdong. She has heard some of them. Although she doesn't know much about business, she also realizes the seriousness of the problem.

So after returning to her room, she didn't feel sleepy and thought hard about how to help Jin Zhengting relieve some pressure.

"Tong Xin, you'd better go to bed early. With the financial resources of our company, it's difficult to really help the group."

Shaoyuan is urging her. She is one of Zhao Tongxin's best friends and worried about her health.

"Spoon, are we really helpless?" Zhao Tong Xin some naive asked, she is not willing to give up any hope.

Shaoyuan said: "I don't want to hit you, Tong Xin. Just think about it, our company is nothing more than billions of assets. In the eyes of general consortia, our company is also powerful. But compared with the Cheng family of Jiangdong, it's an exaggeration. But if we want to rely on the strength of our company to fight against Huo Tingchen, it's a mayfly to shake the tree, unless our company can Only by accumulating capital rapidly and forming a huge and independent system can we compete with Huo Tingchen. "

"Rapid accumulation of capital?"

Zhao Tong Xin's heart moved. She bowed her head to think about it. When Shaoyuan saw her like this, she shook her head helplessly: "Tong Xin, don't bother to think about these things any more. I'm the director of the company's marketing department. I can't be more clear about the market situation. Now the jewelry market in Jiangbin is close to saturation, so it's impossible to have too much development."

"Spoon, you say the market is close to saturation. Why?" Zhao Tong Xin really doesn't understand these, so he asks Shaoyuan modestly.

Shaoyuan patiently explained: "Tong Xin, jewelry belongs to luxury goods. You think, how can an ordinary person have so much spare money to buy jewelry? Therefore, the market is not too big. What's more, recently, Tianhong jewelry company's crazy price reduction has triggered a rush to buy jewelry. In this way, the market demand will shrink further, and of course it will not be developing. "

Zhao Tongxin's eyebrows slowly wrinkled: "you mean there is almost no demand in the jewelry market now?"

"It can be said that it's not Tianhong jewelry company." Shaoyuan said indignantly that every industry has its own rules. Luxury goods such as jewelry industry should not be a model of small profits but quick turnover, because jewelry belongs to non consumables and is not a necessity of daily life. Therefore, there is an unwritten rule in this industry, which is to unify high profits and marketability.

No one thought that Tianhong jewelry company broke this rule, and now the jewelry industry has reached saturation.

Zhao Tong Xin's eyes suddenly lit up: "Spoon, I've decided that tomorrow we will only reduce the price for one day, and then close all the jewelry stores."

"Tong Xin, you don't have a fever, so our loss will be too big." Spoon garden is very surprised, do not know why Zhao Tongxin make such a decision.

"Well, the market saturation you mentioned reminds me that even if our products are cheap, the turnover will not be greatly improved. It won't be long before the products are unsalable. Instead of losing more at that time, it's better to stop business now and let Tianhong jewelry company face this mess. I think the company should transform to other industries Maybe it can accumulate capital as quickly as you said

Zhao Tong said faintly, revealing Jin Zhengting's unique bearing. She had thought of countermeasures. Her opponent Xu Ting ignored a detail, and she thought it was an opportunity to take advantage of it.

Chapter 434

In the morning, Jin Zhengting made a hasty greeting in the morning and went to the group headquarters. After planning all night, he had too many things to deal with.

Shaoyuan carries Zhao Tongxin to the parking lot downstairs of the company. As soon as the car stops, a red BMW comes in and parks side by side with their car.

The window rolled down, Xu Ting's fake smile.

"Tong Xin, I've come to the company so early. Pregnant women like you need more rest. Otherwise, I can't manage such a big company."

Xu Ting pretends to care about Zhao Tongxin, but there is a thorn in her words.

Zhao Tong heart light looked at Xu Ting one eye: "it doesn't matter, like our company this scale enterprise, don't need decision-making personnel to work hard, naturally someone will do a good job, but some just started small companies, it is really need to put the so-called president tired into a dog."

Xu Ting's pupil contracted for a while, and her face became gloomy, but it soon dissipated, showing a harmless smile: "it's true, maybe it won't be long before I can be as relaxed as Tong Xin you, but then I'll still envy you."

Zhao Tong heart faint smile: "what do you envy me?"

"I envy you. It will be easier then."

Xu Ting blinked her seemingly innocent eyes and said that this was an obvious provocation, because when she successfully annexed Jiangbin jewelry market, Zhao Tongxin had to declare bankruptcy.

"Don't envy me, you'll be relaxed soon." This is Zhao Tongxin's response to Xu Ting's provocation.

"Well, Tong Xin, then I really want to borrow your lucky words. The business is so good these days. I'm really tired. I can't compare with your leisure."

In the case of no success in the fight, Xu Ting changed her direction and used the recent turnover of the two companies to satirize Zhao Tongxin. Recently, Tianhong jewelry company has disrupted the jewelry market with super low prices, so the current turnover is really large.

Zhao Tong Xin's face changed, as if no longer quarrel with Xu Ting's meaning: "it's late, I should go up."

Xu Ting thought that she was stimulated, and her eyes had a look of satisfaction. The feeling that she could press Zhao Tong's head made her feel comfortable for no reason: "OK, I should go up, too. Ah, there are too many things in the company recently. I'm so busy."

After she got out of the car, she walked to the company and said, as if to herself, but in fact, she was mending the knife.

"Tong Xin, Xu Ting is too arrogant. Do you want me to teach her a lesson?"

One side of the spoon garden can't stand Xu Ting this pair of villain like, and see Zhao Tong heart ate her loss, so some indignant said to Zhao Tong heart.

"Spoon, there's no need. I did it on purpose."

Zhao Tongxin suddenly showed a mysterious smile, pulled the corner of the spoon garden, turned to his company, the direction of the company is just opposite to Xu Ting's company, just like the relationship between two people, always in a state of opposition.

"Tong Xin, what do you mean?"

Shaoyuan didn't know why. She really didn't understand. With her understanding of Zhao Tongxin, although she is a very kind-hearted girl, she can't be bullied by anyone. In this case, she will never suffer a loss, and will endure it silently.

"Spoon, don't you see that Xu Ting is very arrogant now? This is the opportunity I want to take advantage of. I want to let her know that our company has been squeezed by her abnormal competition and is about to lose its living space."

Zhao Tong heart light explanation, beautiful eyes also become deep up, spoon garden unknown so knock on the head, she can't understand Zhao Tong heart more and more.

They take the elevator to the president's office. Rong Qi has already met them at the door. In the past two days, Rong Qi has been haggard. She is not suitable for the business, and the opposite Tianhong jewelry company has put on an aggressive posture, which makes her busy and tired of dealing with the daily affairs of the company.

"Tong Xin, you are back at last."

Seeing Zhao Tongxin, Rong Qi can't help but breathe a sigh of relief. She can't deal with many things. It's still up to Zhao Tongxin to finish them.

"Rong Qi, it's hard for you, but I can't give you a holiday. Go to inform all the management of the company. I have something important to announce. After the meeting, you can go to the hospital to see Rong Lei."

Zhao Tongxin is very close to say that she knows Rong Qi must be worried about her brother these two days, so timely care for his team members.

Rong Qi's face showed a look of being moved, a faint smile, and then went out to inform the senior management to come to the president's office for a meeting.

Over the past few days, the company's turnover has plummeted, and negative growth has appeared for the first time, which makes the company's executives feel like they are on pins and needles. They all control certain shares in the company, and the company's low performance is also a kind of economic loss for them.

This is the advantage of executive control, with the interests of the executives tied to the chariot of the company, they will do their best to the company's things."Ladies and gentlemen, I know that the company has encountered great difficulties, so I called you here to talk about it."

Zhao Tongxin's opening speech is very simple. She inherits Jin Zhengting's consistent style, simple and direct, and never talks nonsense on the scene. In the minds of senior executives, she labels Mr. Zhao of the company as capable.

Zhao Tong looked around the senior executives and said, "as you all know, the purpose of my trip to Southeast Asia this time is to find cheap raw stones. I want to tell you a good news that the raw stones have been found."

After hearing this news, a group of senior executives finally put down their heart. The reason why the company is in a difficult situation is that the opposite Tianhong jewelry company has robbed almost all the consumer groups with a price too low for them to bear. However, their company can't effectively reduce the finished products. Blindly reducing the price competition will only make the company move faster The edge of bankruptcy.

This is a difficult problem to solve, but Mr. Zhao suddenly said that finding cheap raw stone means solving this thorny problem. At least in terms of price, the company finally has the capital to compete with Tianhong jewelry company. I believe that with the company's brand for many years, it will win back part of the market. Although the situation is still difficult, it will not be like this at least I'm desperate.

"But."

When everyone was immersed in joy, Zhao Tongxin suddenly changed his words: "I decided to close all the jewelry stores under the company."

The executives were stunned. They didn't understand why Zhao Tongxin made such a decision. Shaoyuan heard her talk about it last night, but she was also surprised because she thought Zhao Tongxin was just a joke. After all, the company has been operating in the jewelry industry for many years, and it's not so simple to stop business.

"Mr. Zhao, may I ask why?" A senior executive raised his hand and asked, his words representing the voice of all of you.

"I think everyone here has such a question?"

Zhao Tong Xin's face with a faint smile, eyes swept everyone, they are silent, silence has many kinds of explanation, here silence is the default.

"The reason is very simple. In the future, the company will not engage in jewelry business. I want to announce to you that from today on, the company will start to change production in an all-round way."

Zhao Tong's amazing words shocked everyone. Changing production is not a household chore. It can be done in one sentence. It will involve all aspects of problems. If you are careless, you will lose everything. Moreover, the company has been operating the jewelry industry for so many years, and the rash change of production will have a very serious impact on the group.

A few anxious executives have begun to whisper, but there are also a few executives with long-term vision, with a clear look on their faces, because they also foresee that changing production may be the only way out for the company.

"Mr. Zhao, I want to ask a question."

A senior executive raised his hand to speak. Zhao Tongxin motioned him to put down his hand and said faintly, "I know why you want to ask. All of you are elites in the business field. I ask you a question, that is, if you buy a piece of jewelry, how long will it take to replace it with a new one?"

All the smart people here soon understood what Zhao Tongxin meant. That's right. Jewelry is not a necessity in life. It belongs to non consumption business. After the rush buying caused by the price reduction of Tianhong jewelry company, the market is nearly saturated. Even if the company starts to sell at a lower price, it is difficult to promote market consumption.

Although the jewelry industry is a luxury industry with huge profits, in the current situation, price reduction means a substantial reduction in profits, and luxury goods become cabbage prices, which will have a lot of impact on the company's continuous business line.

Seeing their clear look, Zhao Tongxin knew what she meant. She said with a smile: "in recent years, the turnover of the company has been hovering at a very low level. Instead of going on like this, it's better to be decisive and pull the company out of this quagmire and choose a sustainable industry to continue to develop."

Many executives nodded their heads in agreement. Although this will definitely bring pain to the company for a period of time, the long pain is not as good as the short pain. Zhao Tongxin's choice is not wrong in essence.

"Mr. Zhao, which industry do you plan to transfer to?" A senior executive asked a very necessary question, the tone has been set, and changing production is an inevitable choice, but in the choice of industry, we must be careful.

Jiangbin is a city with a very developed economy. Every industry has been mature. If you enter any industry rashly, it will cause a very strong impact, and it is bound to cause competition from other mature enterprises in the industry.

"Catering."

Zhao Tongxin has expressed her thoughts. She has been thinking all night and thinks that the catering industry is the best choice.

"But Mr. Zhao, although the catering industry is a sustainable development industry, the company has no experience in this field, and the catering industry in Jiangbin has always been controlled by Yang Group. Will the sudden intervention of the company cause the hostility of Yang Group?"

A senior executive familiar with the market expressed his worries.

"I'll talk to Yang ziye, the chairman of Yang's group, about this. The two sides can adopt the mode of cooperation. The operation of Yang's group has been very mature, so they don't lack experience. The company only needs to invest money and give people." Zhao Tongxin explains to him that as Jin Zhengting's staunchest ally, Yang ziye will certainly agree to her suggestion, so there is no need to worry about this.

"Tong Xin, I have a question. If the company changes production and does not work in the jewelry industry, what should be done about the raw stone minerals in Southeast Asia?"

Spoon garden raised her hand and asked, her husband is now working hard for the stone processing plant in Southeast Asia, so she must ask clearly.

"Spoon, you don't have to worry about this. There will be no market for raw ore. I've already figured out the countermeasures."

Zhao Tong smiles at Shaoyuan, gives her a reassuring look, and continues: "after the company changes production to the catering industry, it needs to form its own characteristics, that is, when the consumption reaches a certain level, it will get a piece of high-quality jade produced in Southeast Asia. Of course, this is only my initial idea. Let's discuss the specific details."

Shaoyuan looks down and thinks about it. Her eyes light up and gives Zhao Tongxin a look of admiration. She finds that Zhao Tongxin's plan is really perfect.

Chapter 435

In the following time, the senior executives had a heated discussion around the issue of changing production, and no one raised any objection, because they knew very well that the company was still nominally affiliated to Jin Zhengting group, but in fact the decision maker was Zhao Tongxin.

There are many differences between Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tongxin in their temperaments, but one thing is for sure that under the influence of Jin Zhengting, Zhao Tongxin is more and more assertive.

"Tong Xin, did you inform the boss about this?"

When the executives discussed the plan, Shaoyuan, Rong Qi and Zhao Tongxin got together, and their small team was also discussing it. Shaoyuan thought that this matter was very important, so she asked Zhao Tongxin first.

Zhao Tong heart shook his head: "this matter I did not discuss with the court, is my decision."

Rong Qi's brow frowned: "Tong Xin, if we act without authorization like this, will there be some bad things, which may disrupt the boss's deployment."

Zhao Tongxin laughed: "it doesn't matter. As long as we close up the funds and use only part of them, there will be no other problems. Even when the group needs support, we can also put out considerable funds. This is the first time that we have completed an enterprise plan independently. Not only you but also me are a kind of exercise, and I've thought about it carefully. I'm happy I think this plan is feasible, and the court will agree with it. "

"Tong Xin, I know the situation is very chaotic now. You don't want to add trouble to the boss, but can you really succeed in changing production only by relying on the company?"

Shaoyuan knows Zhao Tongxin's idea very well, but she still doubts that as a pillar company of the group, once the transfer fails, the consequences will be unimaginable.

"Don't worry, although we are lack of experience, the company's capital is still abundant. With the help of Yang ziye, I don't think there will be any big problems. The jewelry industry is a mess now. Even if the company sticks to it in this quagmire, it won't create any value. After a long time, it will drag down the group. It's better to let it go. A fight may have unexpected effects. "

Zhao Tong said faintly that she has more and more mature qualities as a decision maker, good at grasping opportunities, never procrastinating, and the most important courage.

After thinking about it, Shaoyuan thinks that what Zhao Tongxin said is very reasonable, and then comes up with a new question: "Tong Xin, are we going to let Tianhong jewelry company monopolize the jewelry industry? If they control the jewelry industry, they will make profits against the boss."

Zhao Tong Xin smiles confidently: "spoon, have you forgotten? You told me that the jewelry market has been saturated. What else can they make too much profit? I don't think it will be long before they can hold on. Maybe it will drag Huo Tingchen down. As far as I know, he has concentrated almost all his capital into the jewelry industry. If he is frustrated here, his loss will be much greater than ours. "

Shaoyuan nodded: "Tong Xin, you're right. I feel more and more like you and boss. This kind of wrist is only available to boss. Now it's taught to you."

Zhao Tong chuckled at his spoon garden and said to Rong Qi, "Rong Qi, after the meeting, you can make an appointment with Yang ziye and say that I have a project to cooperate with him. I'll have an interview with him when he has time."

"Well, leave it to me, Tong Xin."

Rong Qi doesn't know much about these things, but she is a down-to-earth person. What she is told to do can be done soon, which is also a good ability.

At this time, the executives worked out a set of feasible plans in the heated discussion, and the meeting ended after the results. The directors of each department returned to their respective offices to convey the spirit of the meeting to the grass-roots departments, and asked the employees to be ready for transformation at any time.

"Rong Qi, find a way to let out the contents of today's meeting, but don't let others know that the company decided to change production because of the saturation of the market. Try to make the company unable to bear the pressure and forced to change production."

Zhao Tong Xin called Rongqi, whispered orders, Rongqi nodded, turned and left the office.

"Tong Xin, are you going to paralyze those people on the opposite side?"

Shaoyuan can't help but ask. She knows that the company's top executives are carefully selected by Jin Zhengting and are extremely loyal to the company and the group. It's almost impossible to ask them to divulge secrets. That's why Zhao Tongxin asks Rong Qi to do these things.

"That's right, spoon. We should make them proud now. The more proud we are, the less clear we can see the situation. When all the problems emerge, it's too late to think about the countermeasures. It will also win us some time to switch production. During this period, the company will be very fragile. Don't let them take advantage of it."

With both hands on his back, Zhao Tong Xin came to the window and looked at the building with Tianhong jewelry company on the opposite side. He said faintly that his eyes were more and more deep.

Tianhong jewelry company, President's office.

Rong Qi is very efficient in doing things, and soon releases the news of the company's conversion. Xu Ting has not mixed up in the business field, but he also knows the importance of intelligence work. Zhao Tongxin's company is hard to plug in her people, but it doesn't prevent her from putting some eye lines around. Zhao Tongxin has some wind sways grass, and she soon learned. So in such convenient conditions, it's very easy for Rong Qi to deliver such important news. She should really thank Xu Ting and let her finish the work given to her by Zhao Tongxin.

"Cousin, according to reliable information, the opposite Zhao Tongxin has held a meeting to discuss the issue of changing production. It seems that she has been driven to a dead end by us."

Xu Ting can't hide her excitement any more. She says to Xu Zheng with a little dancing. After enduring so long, she finally takes a bad breath. How can she not get excited?

When Xu Zheng heard the news, he seemed calm on the surface, but his twinkling eyes betrayed his heart, because he was also in a state of ecstasy.

What Zhao Tongxin's company means to Jin Zhengting group is not clear to most people. If this company collapses, it will be a fatal blow to Jin Zhengting. Xu Zheng has always regarded Jin Zhengting as his biggest opponent, but he has never had the chance to compete with Jin Zhengting. It is not because he does not want to, but because he is not qualified.

The Xu family is one of the big families in Jiangbin, but their status can not be compared with the Jin family. He is also waiting for such an opportunity, and now he is about to realize his dream.

"Zhao Tong wants to change production to make her better. The jewelry market in Jiangbin is ours. Just in case, I'll buy another batch of finished jade from the West tonight. If the price of all the company's products is reduced by another 10%, this action will become the last straw to crush the camel. At that time, even if she doesn't want to change production, she won't be able to do it. Otherwise, she will be squeezed to the ground by us There is a way to go. "

Xu Zheng's voice is full of excitement. Even if his opponent is not Jin Zhengting, as long as he can strike the man who is always a shadow in his heart, he will not miss the chance.

When people are about to achieve their long lost goals, they often ignore some very important details. Xu Zheng and Xu Ting are very smart people, but they also ignore the real reason for Zhao Tongxin's transfer because they are about to defeat their opponents.

"OK, cousin, I've decided to concentrate the company's capital again. In the past two days, many jewelry companies have declared bankruptcy. We can continue to acquire and expand our strength. In this way, the jewelry market in Jiangbin is under our control. Even if Zhao Tongxin wants to continue to do jewelry business in the future, it depends on our face."

Xu Ting is very proud to say that her mind is full of Zhao Tongxin's dispirited expression when she reluctantly announced that the company was forced to change production, and her heart is filled with a sense of revenge and success.

"By the way, has Zhao Tongxin disclosed which industry she wants to transfer her industry to?"

Xu Zheng is still calm at this time. Zhao Tongxin's direction of changing production is very important, which is related to the outcome of his narrow encounter with Jin Zhengting in the future, so he can't help being careless.

"At present, there is no news about this, but I don't think there will be many industries in which she will switch production. It's nothing more than real estate and other luxury industries. Zhao Tongxin's company has been running the jewelry business for many years, and her people are not very good at other things."

Xu Ting is completely immersed in the achievements she has created. She speaks with pride, and her eyes show a vicious light. As long as she is still in these industries, she is sure to defeat Zhao Tongxin again, because these industries are the key development projects of Huo Tingchen, and Jin Zhengting's power will never be allowed to exist, which gives her great convenience.

"Well, we can't relax now. With Zhao Tongxin's company strength and staff quality, if she wants to invest in other luxury industries, she is likely to continue to cause us new troubles. It seems that we should be prepared."

Xu Zheng frowns and ponders. Now he soberly realizes that as the most powerful branch of Jin Zhengting group, the energy burst out in the desperate situation is amazing. In order to completely weaken Jin Zhengting's strength, he must completely destroy Zhao Tongxin's company.

"Cousin, almost all the working capital of the group has been invested in the jewelry industry. I'm afraid it's not realistic to get Huo Tingchen's support again."

Xu Ting is somewhat embarrassed to say that she has learned that Huo Tingchen has mastered the family business of the Cheng family in Jiangdong, but after all, he just took control and has not really established a firm foothold. It is not realistic to directly use the Cheng family's funds.

"You don't need to worry about this. I know someone has a large amount of money in his hand, but she is still waiting to see the situation. At this time, she can't hesitate any more."

Xu Zheng's fingers heavily knocked on the table, as if he had made a decision.

Xu Ting's eyes flow, she can't help asking: "cousin, who are you talking about?"

"The third miss of the Cheng family, Cheng mobing."

Xu Zheng took out his cell phone and dialed Cheng mobing: "Hello, I'm Xu Zheng."

"Mr. Xu, what can I do for you?"

At the other end of the phone, Cheng mobing said in a lazy voice, as if she hadn't got up yet, imagining her with that kind of lazy and charming look. Xu Zheng's heart was like being scratched by a cat, itching a little uncomfortable, but Xu Ting was present, and he couldn't say too much. He said with a straight face: "Zhao Tongxin has changed her job, it seems that she can't hold on, I need your money now. Give her one last shot. ""Is it?"

Cheng mobing's tone also shows a trace of excitement. Although she doesn't have a deep hatred for Zhao Tongxin, she feels better when she hears that her imaginary rival has been picked up by her opponent.

Xu Zheng's brow is slightly wrinkled. He is very sensitive to Cheng mobing's attitude, because he knows what Cheng mobing wants, so he coughs heavily, which is a warning to her: "Cheng mobing, you are a little too excited."

"Mr. Xu, look at you and be jealous. I'm happy for you, OK?" Cheng Mo Bing said on the phone.

Xu Zheng's face eased down. Although he knew she was lying, he still chose to accept: "I need funds now. You can mobilize all the working capital from your group and inject it into Xu Ting's company. It's time to make an end with Jin Zhengting."

Chapter 436

"Zhengting, I didn't tell you about it in advance. Don't you blame me?" Zhao Tong Xin holding a mobile phone, head down, some self reproach whispered.

On the phone, Jin Zhengting said faintly, "it's OK. The company belongs to you. You don't need to inform the group of all the decisions. You can do it as long as you think it's feasible."

Zhao Tongxin's face showed a happy expression. Only Jin Zhengting could trust her to hand over his most important branch, and only he could spoil her so much. No matter what she did, he would support her unconditionally, and even if she did wrong, he would not blame her.

"Don't you worry that I will bankrupt the company? The company I manage is the pillar of the group. If I choose the wrong one, it will cause immeasurable losses to the group."

Zhao Tongxin expressed her worries, and she was not sure about her decision, so she gave Jin Zhengting a preventive injection in advance.

Jin Zhengting calmly smile: "it doesn't matter, as long as you are happy, the sky can't fall down, even if it really falls down, there is me."

"Zhengting, thank you."

Zhao Tongxin's heart is very warm. She knows that he will tolerate everything she does, and will take the initiative to bear the consequences. Although he is not good at words, he always proves his love for her with practical actions.

"Do we need to say that between us?"

Jin Zhengting's tone was unhappy. He didn't like Zhao Tongxin's thanks or apologies to him, because it was said to others, and he wasn't her.

"Well, I know. I won't talk about it later. Zhengting, you didn't sleep last night. Do you want to have a rest?"

After talking about the necessary work, Zhao Tongxin began to care about Jin Zhengting's body. Thinking that he had been thinking about how to deal with the current situation all night last night, she couldn't help feeling distressed.

"I'm ok. You should pay attention to your body and don't be too tired. I'll tell ziye about the change of production."

Jin Zhengting's tone is very gentle. He knows that her concern is real, and he also likes the feeling of being cared by her, although he won't say it.

"OK, I'll contact you in the afternoon. I'll be busy first."

When Zhao Tongxin heard his voice, he felt very satisfied and really wanted to listen to it for a while. However, looking at the documents on his desk, he decided to finish his work first. After all, managing such a huge company is not a game. Many things need to be decided by her president.

"Well, no matter what decision you make, I will support you."

Jin Zhengting lightly answered a, hang up the phone, he has always been so cool.

"Tong Xin, all departments have handed in their plans. It seems that we still have a lot of work to do."

Shaoyuan pushed the door in, she and Zhao Tongxin are good friends, so it's much more casual to enter the president's office than others. She put a stack of thick papers on her desk, wiped the sweat on her forehead, and continued: "the first thing is to solve the problem of experience. Most of the company's employees have no experience in the service industry, which is a big problem in front of us."

Zhao Tong kindly took out a tissue and handed it to Shaoyuan. After thinking about it, he said, "it's not a problem. We can ask Yang ziye to help us and ask him to send someone to train our staff. I believe that with the quality of our staff, we will soon learn."

"Another point is how to deal with the salary of employees. In the past, it was a luxury industry, and the salary was naturally higher than that of the catering industry. If the salary standard was suddenly lowered, I think there would be a lot of employees leaving."

Shaoyuan expressed her concerns, which were also considered by many senior executives.

"The treatment is still according to the original standard. Even if the company loses some money, it doesn't matter. Now the cohesion of employees is very important, because we need them in the future."

In front of Shaoyuan, Zhao Tongxin says her future plan without hesitation. She won't send the jewelry industry to Xu Ting for nothing. One day in the future, she will continue to run the jewelry industry.

"The second problem is how to solve the store problem. If you want to open a chain restaurant, you need to invest a lot of money. At present, the company does not have so much money."

Shaoyuan frowned and said that this problem is the most important point, because the company has lost a considerable part of its capital in the previous sale at a reduced price, and now it is a little stretched.

Zhao Tong heart seems to have plans, light smile: "the problem of capital is very good to solve, since we do not need to continue to do the jewelry industry, store jewelry can be mortgaged to the bank loan, get a start-up capital is good."

"What's more, we are worried about the turnover after the change of production. If the investment is frustrated, we will have no way out. At that time, the company's people will be unstable and there will be many problems."

Shaoyuan knows that the loyalty of the company's senior executives to the company is completely based on a considerable dividend every year. If these people can't get the same dividend as before, they will soon lose their hearts.

"Spoon, have you forgotten what I said at the meeting? As long as the consumption reaches a certain level, we will send out jade articles produced in Southeast Asia. This is a very attractive way to attract customers. I think our restaurants will be very popular." Zhao Tongxin confidently said that she was very confident in her plan. The purpose of doing so was not only to attract customers, but also to deal a severe blow to Xu Ting, who was still holding on to the jewelry industry.

"Well, it seems that you've already made plans, Tong Xin. I find that you're more and more business minded."

These seemingly intractable problems were solved by Zhao Tongxin one by one, and her mood improved, laughing and joking.

"Spoon, don't be poor. I have something else to help you with."

Zhao Tongxin mysteriously waved to Shaoyuan to let her get closer. Shaoyuan knew there was something confidential when she looked at her. He put his head close to Shaoyuan and asked in a low voice, "what's the matter, Tong Xin?"

"Have all Chen Dong's men gone to Southeast Asia?" Zhao Tong Xin's eyes become deep. She asks Shaoyuan in a low voice.

"No, there are enough people over there. He only sent dozens of backbone members, while others are still waiting for news on the riverside. When there is a shortage of people over there, another batch will be sent."

Zhao Tong Xin nodded his head and continued to whisper: "it's a bit wasteful to let those people idle. I'm going to find something for them to do."

"What do you want them to do? I know too well what Chen Dong's men are. I won't do anything except chop people. Tong Xin, you don't want them to be cooks for you, do you? Although their cutting skills are all OK, I don't want to cut vegetables. "

Spoon Garden opened a joke, she probably already guessed Zhao Tong Xin's meaning.

"Screw you."

Zhao Tong heart gently beat her a punch, and then put away a smile, the color of the said: "Chen Dong's hands together, in the company during this period of time, can't be interfered by the outside world, so I decided to take the initiative to attack, first give Xu Ting a surprise."

"Tong Xin, do you mean to let Chen Dong's men clean up the store of Tianhong jewelry company?"

Shaoyuan thinks that Zhao Tongxin won't do this. She asks tentatively. It seems that her expression means this again, which makes her image subvert in Shaoyuan's mind.

"Yes, a carpet cleaning should at least make them have no energy to make trouble for us during the period when the company changes production."

Zhao Tong Xin's eyes were shining with rare light. Shaoyuan couldn't help but be stunned. This kind of momentum seemed to appear only on Jin Zhengting.

rubbed as like as two peas, and saw Zhao Tongxin's strength. She felt that she had learned the peculiar charm of Jin Zheng Ting: "the pupil, you and BOSS are more and more like that. The momentum is just the same."

"I can't help it. I hope everyone can live in peace, but as you know, it's just my wishful thinking. Since it can't be peaceful, we should respond to other people's provocations, at least let them know that we are not so easy to bully."

"Well, I'll let them do it tonight."

Shaoyuan nodded and said, she is Chen Dong's wife. Her orders are better than Chen Dong's. who doesn't know that when the boss meets his sister-in-law, it's like a mouse meets a cat?

"Spoon, have I changed? According to me before, let alone do these things, I can't even think about them."

Zhao Tong Xin suddenly asked. There was a trace of confusion and sadness in her eyes. Maybe she didn't know why she became like this, or whether her friends would treat her the same as before.

"Tong Xin, you haven't changed again. I know you have to. In my heart, you are always the kind and gentle Tong Xin. You will never change. Now we are all for self-protection, so don't think so much. When people are in danger, they will use all available means to protect themselves. It's just an instinct."

Shaoyuan patted her on the shoulder and comforted her.

Zhao Tong Xin took a deep breath, and a smile appeared on his face: "it's OK, spoon. I just sigh. OK, today's thing is settled. I have to finish my work."

"OK, Tong Xin. Pay attention to your body. Don't be too tired. It's not good for children." Spoon garden did not forget to remind her that her body is very important now.

"I see, spoon, go ahead."

Zhao Tong Xin sent away the spoon garden and continued to deal with the mountain of documents. She couldn't help thinking that if Xu Yan might be here, she might be able to share some of the work for herself. Even if she didn't understand these things, it was better than nothing.

Jiangbin hospital.

It has to be said that Rong Lei's physical fitness is quite good. After such a serious injury, he has recovered well in just a few days. Although he can't walk on the ground now, he can also go out to bask in the sun. Of course, he still has to take a wheelchair, pushed by Xu Yanke.

Originally, this was what the nurse had to do, but it was only at Xu Yanke's repeated request that she implemented it. Women are stingy animals, so she would not let other women touch the man she likes.

Although she did not know whether she really liked Rong Lei, or just because he saved himself and felt grateful.

The afternoon sun is very good, shining on people warm, very comfortable feeling. "Miss Yan Ke, there are many things in the company. You don't have to accompany me every day. I have no problem now. You'd better go back to the company."

Rong Lei thinks about it and thinks it's better to let Xu Yanke go back to the company. He knows that the situation is very complicated recently, and Zhao Tongxin will have a lot of trouble coping with it alone.

He is very sure of Xu Yanke's ability. With her help, Zhao Tongxin will be much more relaxed, because the boss won't want to see Zhao Tongxin working hard.

Xu Yanke's face sank: "Rong Lei, what do you mean? I took care of you, didn't I? "

"I don't mean that, Miss Yan Ke. Now the company needs you more than I do. I have to consider the overall situation."

Rong Lei is careful to explain to Xu Yanke that her temper is a little strange, and many readers can't figure it out.

"Hum, Zhao Tongxin can handle it. She doesn't need my help, and I can't work at ease in your current situation." Xu Yan can pucker up a small mouth, not angry to say.

Rong Lei just about to open his mouth to continue to persuade, his eyes suddenly sharp up, because he saw not far away, long Jiuzheng with charming eyes looking at them, the back of the hand behind, vaguely cold flash.

Chapter 437

Xu Yanke steps forward and blocks in front of Rong Lei. She looks at long Jiu with alert eyes. At the same time, she reaches to his waist and holds the gun. As long as long Jiu makes a little action to threaten Rong Lei, she will shoot at long Jiu with the fastest speed.

She didn't choose to preempt. After all, this is a hospital. Many patients come out in the sun in the afternoon. It's not good to shoot rashly and cause riots.

Xu Yanke's indifferent personality has also changed a little. If she follows the past, she will not consider what other people will do.

"Miss Xu, don't be so hostile to me, OK?"

With a charming smile, long Jiu came to them gracefully, as if he didn't mean to be on guard.

"Don't you follow Huo Tingchen? What are you doing here? "

Xu Yanke doesn't relax her vigilance. She has dealt with long Jiu several times. Women's natural instinct makes her understand that long Jiu is a bloodthirsty woman. In some ways, she wants to be with Huo Tingchen, but no one can guess what crazy action she will make.

Long Jiu's face with a smile: "don't be nervous. I'm not here to kill you and Rong Lei. I just want to tell Jin Zhengting what Mr. Huo means through you. We won't take any action against you during this period, so cherish the present peace. Also, please don't doubt our sincerity."

Rong Lei's eyes flashed a few times and asked faintly: "why don't you go to the boss directly, but come to us?"

Long Jiu chuckled: "Mr. Rong, although I'm not as smart as you, I'm not so stupid. I'll go to Jin Zhengting alone. No matter how sincere I am, he won't let me go, will he? You have been around him for many years. You should know something about his ability. If you fall into his hands, can I escape? "

"That's why you came to us to convey Huo Tingchen's meaning?" Xu Yanke asked coldly.

"Originally, Zhao Tongxin was the best candidate, but the protection around her was too tight. In addition to two good bodyguards, Shaoyuan and Rongqi, who were close to protect her, I found that there were many hidden bodyguards in the dark around her. They seemed to have good skills. I tried to approach her several times but failed, so I had to come to you."

Long Jiu says faintly, but her eyes are flickering. This is her latest discovery. According to Huo Tingchen's information, Jin Zhengting has a group of bodyguards guarding Jin's villa. All of them are experts without exception. She finds that these bodyguards are secretly sent by Jin Zhengting to protect Zhao Tong's heart. This is a very important intelligence. She must be careful when she goes back Just tell Huo Tingchen.

"Why should we trust you? I've been with Huo Tingchen for many years. I can't understand him any more. He's not a man of his word."

Xu Yanke said suspiciously that she didn't believe a word of what she said to long Jiu. Huo Tingchen temporarily released the signal of peace. There must be some secret in it.

"I don't need you to believe it. You just need to convey it to Jin Zhengting. I don't think his vision will be shorter than yours."

Long Jiu stares at Xu Yanke, who used to be Huo Tingchen's most effective man. His face shows disdain. Between women, this kind of look is a serious provocation.

Xu Yanke coldly looked at her: "you look at me with that kind of eyes again, I will send you to the front of the court, what do you have to say to him personally, also save the trouble!"

"I think Miss Xu is very suitable for my eyes. Does a traitor of an organization want me to look at you with gentle eyes? Cut Long Jiu's face was still smiling, but his eyes were as sharp as a knife.

Xu Yanke's expressionless counterattack: "traitor? Huo Tingchen doesn't deserve it. Anyway, I'm also the second miss of Jin family, and he and you are just a stray dog from a broken family. "

Long Jiu's eyes suddenly contracted, her hand back to the back, seems to hold something, from her eyes slightly shaking muscles can see that she is trying to restrain their emotions.

Long Jiu suddenly laughed again: "Miss Xu, I don't have time to argue with you. In a word, what I want to convey has already been conveyed. I still advise you that in order not to let Jin Zhengting suffer great losses in the future, you'd better convey my words to him."

After her words, she looks at Xu Yanke and Rong Lei, and sees that Xu Yanke is very strict in protecting Rong Lei. Her heart moves. Women's natural keen intuition finds that Xu Yanke seems to have a very ambiguous feeling for Rong Lei. Otherwise, with Xu Yanke's selfish character, she will not try her best to protect others. She must first think about how to protect herself.

There is no deep hatred between long Jiu and Xu Yanke. In long Jiu's eyes, Xu Yan is a traitor who betrays Huo Tingchen, so it causes her great hostility.

Thinking of this, long Jiu's eyes are particularly charming. He glances at Rong Lei and says affectionately, "Mr. Rong, if there is nothing else, people will leave."

Then turn around to leave, in the graceful figure disappeared before also from time to time look back at a few Rong Lei.

The chill on Xu Yanke's face became more and more intense. She turned her head and looked at him. He looked at the back of long Jiu's disappearance. He looked thoughtful. He didn't feel angry. She asked in a strong sour tone: "is it good-looking?" Rong Lei takes back his eyes and looks at Xu Yanke's eyes that can tear him to pieces because he is jealous. He says innocently: "she looked at me first."

Xu Yanke's little mouth turned: "then you can't look at her thighs!"

"Miss Yan Ke, you misunderstood me. I just think it's very strange."

Rong Lei quickly explains that if he is misunderstood by Xu Yanke, he will never have a good life in the future. This outcome is absolutely predictable.

"Hum, I don't think you dare. Do you think we should tell the court what long Jiu said?"

Very strange, Xu Yan can not be angry, but very calm to ask him, this let Rong Lei in the heart very no confidence.

He carefully asked: "Miss Yan Ke, are you not angry?"

Xu Yanke said: "what am I angry with? Long Jiu's smelly woman is clearly alienating us. If I am so easily cheated, she will be very happy. Besides, I believe you are not that kind of man. Well, don't say these are useless. Let's decide whether to tell the court or not. "

Rong Lei thought about it and said, "I think it's necessary to inform the boss, and let him judge everything, because the boss's prediction of anything is very accurate, and he never missed it."

"Well, I'll call him now and take you back to the ward first. I don't feel very safe here."

Xu Yanke said, pushing Rong Lei into the hospital building.

President's office.

Jin Zhengting and Yang ziyue and Lu zhanyan are discussing the next plan, focusing on the transfer of Zhao Tongxin company. Xu Yanke suddenly calls.

She called and told Jin Zhengting what long Jiu wanted to convey.

Jin Zhengting's brow slightly wrinkled, let her protect Rong Lei, and then hung up.

"Zhen gting, what do you mean by Huo Tingchen?" Lu zhanyan, who was listening, went forward to ask after he put down the phone.

"Huo Tingchen is sending a signal that he also needs time to consolidate his position. During this period of time, he does not want to have a positive conflict with us."

Jin Zhengting answered faintly. At this time, his thinking was running at a high speed. He felt that behind Huo Tingchen's action, there must be some secret hidden.

"Zhen gting, do you think Huo Tingchen deliberately wanted to relax our vigilance and then suddenly attacked us?"

Yang ziye said casually that he didn't like to think about these things. Generally speaking, he analyzed them according to the surface of things.

Lu zhanyan shook his head: "no, he should not have such a simple purpose. Maybe he wants us to have a conflict with Cheng mobing first, and then come out to clean up the situation when we are both defeated."

"Zhan Yan, you're right in your analysis, but it's not the essence of what he did. In essence, he really wants to keep peace with us. If I guess correctly, he wants to join hands with us to make Cheng mobing first."

Jin Zhengting's words were astonishing. Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan were stunned at the same time. Lu zhanyan first reacted and shook his head to deny: "it's impossible. Even if Huo Tingchen's foundation is unstable, he is still more than enough to deal with Cheng mobing with his present strength. Why does he choose to join hands with us? Zhen gting, are you wrong?"

Yang ziye also echoed: "yes, it doesn't make sense for him to unite with us at this time. If you really want to deal with Cheng mobing, either of them can, and there won't be too much loss at all."

"There is only one possibility, that is, Cheng mobing gets help from someone, and now his strength has a qualitative leap forward. Huo Tingchen feels that with his ability, although he can deal with Cheng mobing, he is not fully sure. He knows that we will not do it at this time, because we also have a certain fear of him, so he releases the reconciliation to us The signal, though only temporary. "

Jin Zhengting said faintly that his analysis was very reasonable and logical. Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan nodded involuntarily, but Lu zhanyan thought of a key question: "but besides us, who can join hands with Cheng mobing, which can make Huo Tingchen feel uneasy. It can be seen that this person's strength must be very strong."

"If you are not wrong, that person is Xu Zheng."

Jin Zhengting suspected for a long time that behind Cheng mobing, there was a person who was very familiar with Jiang Bin's situation. He went over the possible person in his mind and finally decided that it was Xu Zheng.

First of all, few people dare to fight Jin Zhengting in Jiangbin, including Xu Zheng. Secondly, although Xu Zheng is a playboy in appearance, he is actually a very intelligent man. Finally, Jin Zhengting has been vaguely aware that there is a strange emotion in Xu Zheng's heart, which may be his long-standing ambition.

Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan look at each other. They can't even dream that the person who is hiding behind the scenes is Xu Zheng, who has never been seen.

In this judgment, they believe Jin Zhengting, because his intuition is always correct.

"If Xu Zheng is involved, it may pose a threat to Huo Tingchen to a certain extent, but it is not enough to make him afraid that he wants to unite with us. Does Xu Zheng have anything in his hand that can influence the situation?" Lu zhanyan ponders that he has a certain understanding of Xu Zheng and knows that this person can't be measured by what he shows. However, he doesn't think Xu Zheng is really terrible. After all, Xu Zheng is only a member of the Xu family, and the strength of the Xu family can't really rank on the list in Jiangbin.

"Zhanyan, don't underestimate Xu Zheng. Although he doesn't have absolute strength now, I think what Huo Tingchen is really afraid of is his ambition. Maybe this is the real reason why Huo Tingchen feels threatened."

Jin Zhengting frowned slightly and said that he seemed to feel the threat from Xu Zheng just like Huo Tingchen, because Xu Zheng is really terrible.

A person can hide his ambition for so long without showing it at all, which proves that he is a really terrible opponent.

Jin Zhengting's eyes twinkled with a strong sense of war. He liked the feeling of having an opponent, otherwise it would be too boring.

Chapter 438

"Zhengting, you should not join hands with Huo Tingchen?"

Yang ziye lights a cigarette, looks at Jin Zhengting and asks. With his understanding of Jin Zhengting, Jin Zhengting will never join hands with Huo Tingchen, because he once deeply hurt Zhao Tong's heart. In Jin Zhengting's heart, this is unforgivable.

"Of course, in any case, Huo Tingchen is my number one enemy. He is dreaming of joining hands with me." Jin Zhengting's eyes gradually deepened.

"In the current situation, we are not likely to join hands with Cheng mobing. After all, she wants the life of Tong Xin."

Lu zhanyan also pondered that he was also one of Jin Zhengting's best friends, and he was very familiar with his old friend's name.

"Well." Jin Zhengting just nodded his head lightly.

"It seems that we are going to fight alone."

Yang ziye smiles and suddenly feels something wrong: "by the way, Zhengting, isn't Xu Zheng working for Huo Tingchen? How can he get together with Cheng mobing and get on Huo Tingchen's blacklist? What's the matter?"

"Ziye, don't you really can't see that?"

Lu Zhan said with a smile: "it's obvious that Xu Zheng is only using Huo Tingchen because he doesn't have so much capital to support his ambition. So he uses Huo Tingchen's capital to suppress us, and secretly joins Cheng mobing to attack Huo Tingchen. He takes advantage of Huo Tingchen's capital and waits for us Only when the three parties are at the end of the storm will he really come to the stage from behind the scenes. At that time, both Jiangbin and Jiangdong are surnamed Xu. This is probably Xu Zheng's wishful thinking. "

"I see. I thought Xu Zheng, like me, was just a rich man who likes to indulge in extravagance."

Yang ziye said with his mouth curled, looking unconvinced.

"Ziye, you are also very smart. You just put all your intelligence on picking up girls. If you want to do something seriously, I believe that your achievements will not be worse than Xu Zheng."

As an old friend for many years, Lu zhanyan comforts Yang ziye timely.

"Well, I'd like to do something big. Maybe you don't know about the current situation. Yang's group is operating step by step. I don't need to worry about it at all. There's no chance for other businesses. What else can I do besides killing time with girls?"

Yang ziye says dejectedly that what he says is the fact that Yang's group is a leading enterprise in the catering industry of Jiangbin. Because of years of operation, even if he is the chairman of the board of directors, he idles every day, his normal work will be carried out in an orderly way.

Jin Zhengting said with a faint smile: "ziye, there is something you need to do in front of you. What do you think?"

"What else do I need to do?" Yang ziye's eyes are bright.

"Tong Xin's company wants to change production and is ready to enter the catering industry. Your group is the leader of the catering industry. She needs to cooperate with you to get a firm foothold. If you are interested, you can talk to her."

"Zhengting, Tong Xin wants to change production. Is that right? The jewelry company is the pillar industry of the group. It will seriously damage the interests of the group if we change production so rashly! "

When Yang ziye heard the news of Zhao Tongxin's transfer of production, he couldn't sit still. This matter is too important, and Lu zhanyan is also anxious. He and Jin Zhengting are integrated in terms of personal relations and interests. He can't ignore the damage to the interests of the group.

Jin Zhengting waved his hand and motioned them to be calm. He said faintly, "Tong Xin is right. You only see the immediate interests of the group, but not the saturated state of the jewelry market. Even if she can persist in the jewelry industry, it will help the group's turnover. Instead of spending so much time with Xu Zheng and Xu Ting in the jewelry industry, it's better It's better to just give up. "

"What you said is reasonable, but how to solve the impact on the group during this period?" Although Lu zhanyan thinks that Jin Zhengting is right, he still can't let go of the losses of the group. Especially in the situation of strong enemies looking around, the group really can't afford such losses.

"It doesn't matter. Since she has made such a decision, I will support her unconditionally. As for the temporary difficulties encountered by the group, I will try to solve them." Jin Zhengting is indifferent. He doesn't care what he has lost. As long as it is Zhao Tongxin's choice, he will respect and support her, because this is his commitment to her.

"Well, since the court is so resolute, our two friends can only support unconditionally, right, speak up." Yang ziye doesn't pay much attention to these. Instead, he is looking forward to the cooperation with Zhao Tongxin.

Zhao Tong Xin has just entered the business market, but his decision-making is earth shaking. Besides Jin Zhengting's feelings for her, he can get his approval, which shows that he has great merit.

Jin Zhengting nodded faintly: "ziye, you'd better go to Tongxin to discuss as soon as possible. The earlier she opens business, the better it will be for us."

"OK, I'll go right away, zhanyan. Do you have any activities in the afternoon?" Yang ziye gets up in a hurry and does not forget to ask Lu zhanyan. Lu zhanyan sighed helplessly: "if you want to cooperate in such a big project, you can't do without the start-up capital. As you and I all know about Zhengting's group finance, I'm afraid it's very difficult to put out a large amount of capital. I'll close up all the company's working capital in the afternoon, and then prepare to buy shares."

Jin Zhengting smiles faintly. He knows that Lu zhanyan is skeptical of such a big decision, which is also the reaction that a smart businessman should have. But at the critical moment, Lu zhanyan still supports himself unconditionally, and the friendship between his friends is obvious at this moment.

Lu zhanyan also laughed: "Zhengting, I still don't agree with you to make such a big move, but the intuition of businessmen tells me that your choice is right."

"Hello, Zhan Yan, your intuition is too slow. Can't you see that I can't wait?"

Yang ziye, who has already arrived at the door, suddenly turns back and says something, with a big face.

Tianhong jewelry company, President's office.

"Mr. Huo, this is their plan."

Xu Ting, holding her cell phone, whispered, peeping around to make sure no one was eavesdropping.

"Miss Xu, you are doing well. Pay close attention to the trends of Xu Zheng and Cheng mobing and report to me at any time." Huo Tingchen said in a very satisfied tone.

Xu Ting's eyes turned a few times and said, "OK, Mr. Huo, I hope you can keep your promise."

"Don't worry, Miss Xu. As long as we have a good cooperation, I will give you the property of Jin family and Jin Zhengting. However, you should keep an eye on it. Your cousin can't let go of every move."

Huo Tingchen's voice is getting colder and colder. At the same time, he is also secretly glad that he completely bribes Xu Ting, a woman who is willing to sacrifice anyone to get Jin Zhengting. Otherwise, even if he knows about Xu Zheng and Cheng mobing, he will not know that they have such a big plan hidden.

"Well, Mr. Huo, our cooperation will be very happy. My cousin doesn't know that I have been keeping in touch with you all the time. I'm afraid he thinks I just listen to him now." Xu Ting's face showed a proud smile. Xu Zheng never dreamed that the person who betrayed herself was her favorite cousin.

"By the way, did Xu Zheng really mobilize a large number of funds from Cheng mobing this time?" Huo Tingchen suddenly asked at the other end of the phone.

"Yes, Xu Zheng doesn't want to give Zhao Tongxin a chance to turn over the market. He plans to carry out a big market clean-up operation, and then buy a large number of bankrupt small jewelry companies to monopolize the jewelry market in Jiangbin."

Xu Ting affirmed that she also participated in the plan. From the heart, she still hoped that Xu's plan could be successful, because it would probably put her most hated Zhao Tongxin to death, but all this was not her has the final say, but Huo Ting Chen who was far away from Jiangdong.

As early as Xu Ting found out that Xu Zheng and Cheng mobing colluded with each other secretly, she had a premonition that Xu Zheng was not a person she could control. Although this cousin always loved herself, Xu Ting cleverly felt that everything could not be stopped in front of his ambition, which also meant that the Ultimate Enemy of Xu Zheng was Jin Zhengting.

With Xu Zheng's character, he might do something to hurt Jin Zhengting, which is the most unacceptable thing for Xu Ting, but she can't tell Jin Zhengting directly. Because of Zhao Tongxin, Jin Zhengting has no good feelings for her, let alone believe her.

After all kinds of thinking, she chose to continue to firmly cooperate with Huo Tingchen. Only he has the ability to control the situation. In order to get what she wants and make Huo Tingchen believe in herself, Xu Ting betrayed Xu Zheng without any hesitation.

Although she felt a little guilty about Xu Zheng, she felt that all this was worth it, because she seemed to really get Huo Tingchen's trust.

On the other end of the phone, Huo Tingchen pondered for a moment and said faintly: "Miss Xu, don't express any opinions, let them go according to the plan."

"Mr. Huo, do you mean to let them fight and let us profit from it?" Xu Ting tries to guess what Huo Tingchen means.

Huo Tingchen ha ha a smile: "Miss Xu, you are too naive, these things do not need you to know, well, first of all this." He said disdainfully, hung up the phone.

After putting down the mobile phone, Xu Ting's eyes become chilly. She deliberately hid her thoughts just now. In front of Huo Tingchen, it's better to pretend to be silly. This is Xu Ting's consistent style.

She has thought of Huo Tingchen's idea. When she was drinking in the bar last night, because of the effect of alcohol, she poured too much wine and spilled all over her body, but she suddenly understood the real purpose of Zhao Tongxin's transfer.

The jewelry market in Jiangbin, like the overflowing cup of wine, has no room for profit. Now the more you swallow, the greater the burden will be. Zhao Tongxin's decisive withdrawal at this time shows that she has a long-term vision.

At this time, Xu Zheng had to eat a lot, and the end could be expected, that is, he was dragged to death by the jewelry Kingdom he founded.

Moreover, he is not willing to die alone, and he pulls Cheng mobing in, which gives Huo Tingchen an excellent opportunity. He just wants to use this opportunity to weaken Cheng mobing, so he can rest assured to let Xu Zheng continue his plan. Xu Ting is how smart, she has thought of all this, but she will not tell anyone, in her heart, also hidden a plan, is quietly forming.

"Cousin, I'm looking for you everywhere. How can you hide here?"

Xu Zheng hurried into the office and put a document in front of her: "this is the statement informing the financial department. I need to withdraw 2 billion yuan for purchasing jewelry companies. You need to sign it."

As the president of Tianhong jewelry company, all documents need to be signed by Xu Ting to take effect. This is the power given to her by Huo Tingchen, and even Xu Zheng has to abide by it.

Without looking at it, Xu Ting signed her name on the document and handed it back to Xu Zheng: "cousin, no matter what you do, I will support you."

Xu Zheng took the document, did not see Xu Ting eyes in the sly eyes.

Chapter 439

At three o'clock in the afternoon, the most luxurious western restaurant in Jiangbin. Now the owner of this restaurant is Zhao Tongxin.

Zhao Tongxin and Yang ziye sit opposite each other. The soothing music makes people feel relaxed.

Yang ziye looks around at the environment of the restaurant. Since Jin Zhengting bought the restaurant for Zhao Tongxin, she has made large-scale changes to the environment and layout of the restaurant. At that time, she only regarded the restaurant as a gift from Jin Zhengting. She did not expect that one day, the restaurant would become a template for the company to switch to the catering industry.

According to Zhao Tongxin's preference, the dining room was painted light pink, and the dining table was changed into the dining table for home use. The luxury decoration is much less, and the home decoration is much more. It is more warm without the previous noble atmosphere.

Yang ziye can't help looking at the decorated environment. The pace of modern people's life is too fast. Even eating in high-end restaurants is a routine. Zhao Tongxin's design changes the dining environment and gives customers a sense of home.

"Yes, the decoration is quite thoughtful. Tong Xin, are you going to decorate all the branches like this?"

Yang ziye praised Zhao Tongxin's creativity and saw business opportunities from it.

"Yes, I plan to invest 20 branches in Jiangbin first, all of which are based on this restaurant. The competition in the catering industry is fierce now, and everyone has come up with a lot of ideas. The theme of my chain restaurant is very simple, that is, the warmth of home."

Zhao Tong said faintly that maybe her creativity is not the best, but it should be able to grasp the customers' psychology most, because people tend to ignore the family for various reasons. Restaurants use this creativity, which can touch the customers' innermost feelings.

Yang ziye thought about it, nodded and said: "no problem, Tong Xin. I think your idea is very good. Let's say, what can I do for you? Although I didn't catch up with you, I will go through fire and water even if you have something to do."

Yang ziye laughs, but his eyes become warm. Maybe this cooperation with Zhao Tongxin will change his life.

Zhao Tongxin gave him a big white eye and said: "it's better to watch less of this kind of joke in the future. My capital and store have been solved. Now the most important thing is the personnel and experience. Your group is the leader of the catering industry, so you need your help."

"That's no problem. Although none of the employees in your company has ever worked in the catering industry, the salesmen in the jewelry store also belong to the service category. They are similar in nature. I'll send someone specially to train them, and they will take up their posts in about a week. The problem of experience will be solved better. Your senior executives can be regarded as commercial operations, and there is not much difference between the catering industry and the jewelry industry in essence. As long as I transfer a few senior executives from the group and the people who lead you, they should be able to adapt to the new market environment soon. "

Yang ziye said lightly that he believed that the staff quality of Jin Zhengting group's largest company was not inferior to those of his own group as long as a little training. Therefore, in his opinion, the problem Zhao Tongxin had to solve was too simple.

Zhao Tong Xin nodded: "ziye, thank you so much this time."

Yang ziye waved his hand: "it's right to help you with what you're talking about. But Tong Xin, don't think I'm a philistine. How can we cooperate? We have to make it clear in advance to avoid any trouble in the future."

Zhao Tong Xin said with a smile: "it's right. I've asked people to draw up a cooperation plan. If you are interested, you can join at any time. If you are not interested, I'm not reluctant. If you are willing to help, I'll take it as if I owe you a favor."

She said, taking out a document from her bag and putting it in front of Yang ziye.

Yang ziye didn't even look at it. He said with a bitter face, "you should know me. I look at these things and my head is big. You can say it directly. How can we cooperate? I can trust you and the court."

Zhao Tongxin is amused by his bitter hatred. She has occasionally heard Jin Zhengting mention that Yang ziye's father forced him to read all kinds of documents inside the group in order to let him learn to do business when he was very young. Now Yang ziye turns his stomach when he sees the documents. It can be seen how big the shadow area of his mind is.

"Well, I'll put it bluntly. Our company is in charge of capital, stores and personnel. Young's group trains our people, and then sends 40 of the best chefs. How about 10% of your shares?"

Zhao Tongxin says the cooperation plan directly. She doesn't need to treat Yang ziye like other businessmen, because he is a trustworthy man.

"Only by doing these things for you, you can get 10% of the shares. Tong Xin, are you carrying out a poverty alleviation plan for me?"

Yang ziye is not happy to say that, indeed, he knows how much an asset 10% of the shares mean. He thinks that what Zhao Tongxin asks him to do is too trivial. Even if she doesn't give anything, he has to help, because it's too simple.

He didn't know that Zhao Tongxin had just become familiar with the operation of the jewelry industry, but suddenly turned to the catering industry. She had to start from scratch again. She felt that she had made money with 10% of the shares to pay her tuition."No, since it's a cooperation, it's natural to give you shares. In your opinion, it's a trivial matter, but it's a big thing for our company, so you deserve the shares."

Zhao Tongxin sincerely said that she knew that Yang ziye didn't want to take advantage of the company. Although he didn't pay much attention to anything serious, he was still a real man in essence.

Yang ziye's head shakes like a rattle: "no, absolutely not. This kind of share allocation is too bad for your company. If I accept it, how can I face you and Zhengting in the future?"

Zhao Tong was speechless for a while, and she had never seen such a negotiation. As the dominator of the stock right, she tried her best to sell out the shares. However, Yang ziye, the demander of the stock right, tried her best not to accept it.

At one time, the negotiation fell into a strange impasse.

Yang ziye was silent for a while, and his eyes suddenly brightened: "otherwise, Tong Xin, you sell your catering creativity to Yang Group. We set up a joint catering group, and all branches follow your creativity. Then Yang Group will invest another billion to expand the scale of its branches to 50. At the same time, Yang Group is responsible for personnel training and other matters in your company. What do you think How's it going? "

Zhao Tongxin thinks that Yang ziye's plan is feasible, but in this way, the distribution of shares has become a new problem. She tentatively asks, "how do you think the distribution of shares should be more appropriate?"

"In the catering industry, the creativity of catering culture is the most important, so your company accounts for 60%, and Yang's group takes 40%. Don't bargain any more. I'm very busy, and I don't have time to waste on these boring figures. If you don't agree with this distribution, I'll directly train your employees and send you dozens of chefs. It's good that you owe me . "

Yang ziye plays a rogue. Although he has invested one billion yuan and only takes 40% of the shares, he also feels that he has made money. Although he doesn't like doing business, he has been immersed in the catering industry for many years. From Zhao Tongxin's creativity, he has a keen sense that once this project is successful, it will further consolidate the leading position of Yang Group. He is willing to try it, although there are some wind But what kind of business has no risk?

"Well, since you are so determined, I'll agree. Ziye, let your lawyer come to our company later and discuss with our company's lawyer about the establishment of a catering group."

Zhao Tongxin knows that Yang ziye is also stubborn, and he believes that he will never look back. Therefore, he does not insist on giving in any more. In terms of his relationship with Jin Zhengting, it seems a little inhuman to be more modest.

"These are small things, Tong Xin. When are you going to open?" Yang ziye's indifferent appearance shows his trust in Zhao Tongxin.

"It's expected that in a week's time, the store will need to be renovated, the staff will also need training, and there are still many details that I haven't thought about well, so I decided to open the store later."

Zhao Tongxin is mainly due to the lack of elites in the catering industry in the company, so she thought of cooperating with Yang ziye, because his Yang group can effectively make up for this defect.

Yang ziye nodded and glanced at the document on the desk. His eyes lit up: "Tong Xin, is this the idea you came up with?"

Zhao Tong looked at the document and said faintly, "yes, if there is no market for the jade produced in Southeast Asia, I went to Southeast Asia with Zhengting two days ago for nothing."

"It's a good move, Tong Xin. I admire you more and more now." Yang ziye put up his thumb and said from the bottom of his heart.

"It's not my intention. The competition in the business field is very fierce. If Xu Ting and I had a fair competition, I wouldn't have come up with such an idea. But if she plays tricks behind her back, I can't blame her."

Zhao Tong Xin has no expression on her face, but there is a trace of anger in her eyes. She is not a person who is bullied to the end and will not speak. She is bound to fight back.

"As long as you spend more than 3000 yuan in the restaurant, you can buy a piece of A-class Lanzhi Hanyu made in Southeast Asia by adding 300 yuan to the consumption certificate. My heart, you are going to drive Tianhong Group to death."

Yang ziye's face is shining with a strange look. He can see that this is Zhao Tongxin's strategy of "three carves with one arrow". This kind of promotion method can first boost the restaurant's revenue, secondly find a market for the company's overstocked jade and cheap jade produced in Southeast Asia, and finally use the profits to sell Chen Dong, a powerful figure, by maintaining the jade production in Southeast Asia Tied to her company.

He found that Zhao Tongxin is just a business genius. She has never had any business experience before. She can learn to balance the interests of all parties so quickly. At the same time, she knows how to kill her competitors. What is not a genius?

"This is what Xu Ting forced me to do, but it's hard to say whether this plan will achieve the expected effect in the end. Now we can only go one step at a time."

Zhao Tongxin teases his hair for a moment, and says faintly that it shows the momentum of a mature and stable superior. Yang ziye can't help but be stunned. He can't be more familiar with this feeling, which is unique to his long-time friend Jin Zhengting.

It's no wonder that there will be husband and wife after a long time together. He didn't believe these so-called nonsense, but now he believes it. When two people are together, they always influence each other, which proves that only each other exists in their feelings. Looking at Zhao Tong's indifferent heart, Yang ziye will make some people envy him. He thinks that it must be very good to have a woman around him and experience the storm of life together.

"Tong Xin, I'll send someone to your company to train employees when I go back, and the store will pay more attention. Now the situation is complicated, and we don't have much time."

Yang ziye took a sip of water and continued: "don't be too tired. Now that you are pregnant, you should have a good rest. Just let me do some trivial things."

"Well, thank you, but I can't rest now. The court needs me." Zhao Tong heart light said, eyes firm.

Chapter 440

Xu family.

When Xu Zheng came back, Cheng mobing had been waiting in the living room for a long time.

"Why are you so anxious to call me back? What's the matter?"

Xu Zheng asked as he changed his slippers. Seeing Cheng Mo Bing's eagerness, he felt an ominous premonition in his heart.

"Huo Tingchen wants to join hands with Jin Zhengting to deal with us. With our current strength, it is impossible to bear the pressure from both sides at the same time."

Cheng Mo Bing is also just getting the news from the eye liner of Cheng family, which made her very shocked and uneasy. Because of her current strength, it has been somewhat unable to cope with Jin Zhengting. Let alone a Huo Ting Chen, he has mastered the man of this family, the strength must not be underestimated, and before he and Jin Zhengting decisive battle, it will be eliminated first. Except for her, the biggest threat.

"Don't panic. It's not that simple. Even if Huo Tingchen wants to cooperate with Jin Zhengting wishfully, with my understanding of Jin Zhengting, he may not choose to cooperate with Huo Tingchen. On the contrary, this may be our opportunity."

Xu Zheng is very calm. He knows Jiang Bin's affairs like the palm of his hand, and he knows Jin Zhengting's character very well. Even if he is desperate, Jin Zhengting will not choose to unite with his former enemies.

Cheng Mo Bing thought about it and said, "you know Jin Zhengting better than I do. Since you say so, I'm a little relieved. But Huo Tingchen's move has released a message that I'm his primary goal. What do you say we should do?"

At this time, Cheng Mo Bing can't care about her dislike to Xu Zheng. She is a woman after all. At this critical moment, she still needs to rely on smart men. Xu Zheng is undoubtedly the most suitable person.

Xu Zheng sneered: "we will continue to carry out the original plan. Now Zhao Tongxin has been forced to switch production, which shows that our plan some time ago is still very effective. As long as Zhao Tongxin's company goes bankrupt, Jin Zhengting will be greatly hurt. It will be easy to deal with him at that time. We need to win Jin as soon as possible It's not so easy for Huo Tingchen to go back and annex us when he stabilizes the Cheng family. "

Cheng Mo Bing blinked: "do you mean that we should continue to invest in the jewelry industry, completely monopolize the industry and squeeze Zhao Tong Xin out of the industry. The company that Jin Zhengting relies on most will become his burden. At that time, we will concentrate on winning the Jin family?"

"Yes, this is our only choice. It's impossible for us to go back. So we'd better concentrate on dealing with Jin Zhengting first. According to the market reports of these two days, Zhao Tongxin is unlikely to be able to hold on, so what we have to do now is to concentrate all our funds together and be ready to give her a fatal blow at any time."

Xu Zheng's eyes flashed a vicious light. At this point, it's not the time to consider the so-called family relationship. What's more, there are not many brothers and sisters between him and Zhao Tong Xin.

"Well, I'll listen to you. I'll mobilize all the funds of the group for you in a moment. Another thing is that Zhao Tongxin will switch to catering industry. I think she will join hands with Yang's group to help Zhao Tongxin with the relationship between Yang ziye and Jin Zhengting. If we let her stand firm, what should we do?"

Cheng mobing's news is very well-informed. She already knows the main direction of Zhao Tongxin's transfer, so she reminds Xu Zheng not to let Zhao Tongxin have a chance to turn over.

Xu Zheng is silent. He has no influence in the catering industry, because the catering industry in Jiangbin has always been run by the Yang Group. The Yang family is a wealthy family in Jiangbin, and they never allow other families to get involved in the industry run by the Yang family.

After thinking for a while, he gritted his teeth and said: "it seems that my cousin Xu Ting needs to help me with this matter. Let her contact Huo Tingchen. Once Zhao Tongxin's transfer is successful, this is also the result Huo Tingchen doesn't want to see. I think he will try his best to stop it. At that time, we don't have to worry about it, he will solve Zhao Tongxin's problem."

From the heart, he does not want to use Xu Ting, after all, is his favorite cousin, but things to this step, it is not up to him to choose.

"Well, it's also a way. Xu Ting hates Zhao Tong's heart and soul. She will help. But will Huo Tingchen's vigilance be aroused by our urgent action?"

After all, Cheng mobing is a woman. She thinks more carefully than a man. She can pay attention to many key details. Xu Zheng's action is really too big. It fully exposes his eagerness to bring down Jin Zhengting. With Huo Tingchen's suspicious character, he is sure to have doubts about Xu Zheng.

"It doesn't matter. I've let him know that you and I have a cooperative relationship, and we will deal with him in the end. I know Huo Tingchen very well. Even if we are more careful, he will find out the secret between us. Instead of this, we'd better tell him clearly now that we are going to work together to deal with Jin Zhengting, and he won't touch us for the time being, because we do it It's in Huo Tingchen's best interest to fight with Jin Zhengting to the end, but we must move quickly and win everything by the river bank. At that time, Huo Tingchen will have to weigh his own strength even if he wants to move us again. "Xu Zheng calmly said that from the beginning, he planned how to use Huo Tingchen, because he understood Huo Tingchen's character and knew that when he was still useful, he would not do it on his own.

Huo Tingchen used to live behind the scenes, watching others and Jin Zhengting fight each other, and then he enjoyed his success.

Cheng mobing stood up, gently holding Xu Zheng's shoulder in both hands, and said gently, "Zheng, it's good that I find you around. No matter what the problem is, you can think of it in advance, and it can be solved quickly and effectively. I really didn't mistake you."

Xu Zheng said with a smile: "I have been preparing for this situation for ten years. Now I will never miss the opportunity. Jin Zhengting and Huo Tingchen are just stepping stones for me to climb to the top."

"I like you so domineering man, good sense of security."

Cheng mobing embraces Xu Zheng's neck and kisses his earlobe with his red lips. Xu Zheng feels numb to the bone, and his heart is full of evil fire. He roughly pulls Cheng mobing over and bullies him. Soon there is a slight gasping sound in the living room.

Cheng mobing caters to his impact. There is an imperceptible coldness in her eyes. Xu Zheng has a lot of use value for her, so she doesn't mind satisfying him a few more times.

If Xu Zheng is given a chance, he will not be inferior to Huo Tingchen, but he is still slightly inferior to Jin Zhengting, so if she wants a perfect man, that man can only be Jin Zhengting. As for Xu Zheng, he has already given him many benefits. When his value is drained, she will kick him into the garbage without hesitation.

Jiangdong, chengjiazhuang garden.

"Young master, I have checked. The last time Huo Zhong appeared was in Southeast Asia."

Zhao Si stood quietly behind Huo Tingchen with his hands on his back. Apart from moving his lips and vocal cords, this man was no different from the dead.

"Southeast Asia? Is there anyone else besides him? "

Huo Tingchen didn't know what method Zhao si used to inquire about the news, and he didn't want to ask, as long as it worked.

"There are nine local mercenaries, and a very mysterious person. I can't find out the identity of that person by any means, as if this person appeared out of thin air."

Zhao Si said faintly that there was no color in his eyes.

Huo Tingchen frowned slightly. He didn't care about these people. He only cared about Huo Zhong's whereabouts, because only he could open the treasure and couldn't find him. Even knowing the whereabouts of the treasure was futile, because he couldn't take the necklace from Jin Zhengting.

"Is there no other news of him?"

Huo Tingchen has some dissatisfaction in his voice. He always has this attitude towards his subordinates, because he is superior and has the power to blame anyone in the world, and Zhao Si is no exception.

Zhao Si didn't show any dissatisfaction with his attitude, because it was a mistake in his work. He bowed his head and said faintly: "the place where he last appeared has no way to get in now, because the mountain was sold to Jin Zhengting, and a man named Chen Dong led him to guard it. My people can't get close to that place."

Huo Tingchen's pupils suddenly contracted. When he heard Jin Zhengting's name, he felt a strong hatred. His eyes were shining with uncertain light. He asked in a cold voice, "how can Chen Dong appear? Can your people only inquire about one message?"

"Young master, my people have inquired about it. Chen Dong started to build a raw stone processing plant on the plain at the foot of the mountain. I analyzed that they went to Southeast Asia two days ago to look for jade raw stones. They should have found the raw stone mine there, so they bought the mountain. As for why huozhong disappeared there, I really can't think of it."

Zhao Si's tone is still very calm. He is describing a common thing, and he doesn't care about Huo Tingchen's anger. It's not that he is not afraid of Huo Tingchen, but that he has completely despised life and death.

"Well, it's hard for you."

Huo Tingchen regained his composure. He was trying to figure out why Huo Zhong was there and what was the purpose of his going there. Thinking about it, there was a trace of clarity in his mind. He almost subconsciously blurted out: "I think the treasure must be on that mountain, otherwise Huo Zhong would not go there!"

He is very anxious now. If Jin Zhengting finds out the whereabouts of the treasure first, opens the treasure and gets the wealth, it will be too big a threat to him.

"Young master, I've heard of that treasure. Even if it's there, Jin Zhengting can't open it, so you don't need to worry."

Zhao Si said faintly, as if he was not comforting him.

Huo Tingchen suddenly turned his head: "what do you mean?"

Zhao Si thought for a moment and said, "when Mrs. Cheng was still there, I heard her mention that there were still 20 tons of TNT buried in the place where the treasure was hidden. Only that necklace can't open the treasure. It must be opened with the correct arrangement. But if the arrangement is wrong, the self destruction device in the treasure will be activated, and the explosive will explode. People who know the arrangement are the only ones in the world There is only Huo Zhong, so even if Jin Zhengting had a key, he didn't dare to open it, otherwise he would have been blown to pieces. ""Oh?"

Huo Tingchen's eyes flickered, which was good news for him. At least Jin Zhengting would not use the treasure to deal with himself, but it was also bad news, because he did not know the right way to open the treasure.

"Young master, I think you should look for Mrs. Cheng's relics. Maybe there will be a clue."

Zhao Si's face suggested calmly. Huo Tingchen ran to Mrs. Cheng's bedroom before he finished.

As soon as Mrs. Cheng's funeral was over, everything in her bedroom remained intact. After Huo Tingchen broke in, he began to search for the treasure. The opening method of the treasure is too important for him. Whether he can defeat Jin Zhengting is the most decisive factor, so he will never let go of any clues 。

"I will find it!"

Huo Tingchen side crazy rummage, while secretly swear.
