

Super Rich Dad Chapter 441-443

Chapter 441

'It's not enough to give it back to him, so what else does he want?' Liu Qiang was a little disdainful, he felt that no one in Chu Jiang had dared to do anything to his dad yet, except for Jiang Hao.

Liu Guohao sighed, simply some frustration to the extreme: 'You little son of a b*tch, giving me trouble all day long, you you damn sure don't know yet. That pendant is whose, right?'

Liu Qiang smiled and frowned, scratching his head, 'I I don't know ah, what's wrong? Couldn't you even set this matter right?'

'I can set it up your mother's ass!' Liu Guohao said angrily, 'The pendant was given to his girlfriend by Jiang Shao, what the hell is wrong with you? You haven't even figured out whose pendant it is, and you dare to sell it? Have you eaten your heart and leopard's guts?'

As soon as he heard his father's words, Liu Qiang was so scared that his whole face turned pale.

'Sh..... what?' Liu Qiang's jaw dropped and his mind had gone blank.' How could it be his?'

After a while, by the time Liu Qiang came back to his senses, he felt as if his entire brain skin was about to explode!

This pendant belonged to Jiang Hao? He gave it to Xue Yu Ning?

'Grip the trough!' Liu Qiang cursed angrily, this instant. He simply wanted to tear Feng Pingping alive!

This stupid woman, whose pendant was she stealing? How dare she go and steal Jiang Hao's stuff?

'Damn, miscalculation miscalculation' Liu Qiang put down the phone and started muttering non-stop.

He somewhat regretted that if he had listened to who Feng Pingping said the pendant belonged to before, he guessed that he wouldn't have ended up being as embarrassed and tricky as he was today.

Liu Qiang's memory of what happened last time at his own company was still fresh in his mind. Last time, Jiang Hao seemed to have really moved against him to kill him, and if he hadn't suddenly thought about it later, he would probably be burning his head for seven days now.

And now his own people have stolen the pendant Jiang Hao gave to Xue Yuning

Guess this time, he or she will be in trouble no matter what!

'Dad save me, you have to save me ah dad' Liu Qiang suddenly wailed out, incomparably desperate, 'dad I know I'm wrong, this time You've got to find a way to save me, I didn't mean to, I didn't even know it was Jiang Hao's stuff, it's all that person's fault yes, it's all her fault, she stole the stuff and gave it to me. I sold it, I was just greedy for money, I didn't mean to go against Jiang Shao ah dad

Liu Qiang was simply desperate, especially since he had just heard his father say that people had already come to his door.

It is obvious that this is Jiang Hao who has come to the door, I guess this time, he will not let himself go, right?

'Dad, what should I do? Either or I should run? If I stay in Chu Jiang again, I'll definitely die once Dad, I I don't want to die ah Dad

Liu Guohao heard his son's voice begging bitterly for mercy, also a face of helplessness.

Of course he was clear that this matter if Jiang Hao knew about it, then whether or not Liu Qiang stole it, he would not end up in a good place.

He knew that Liu Qiang still had a black debt with Jiang Hao for the last incident.

What can be done about this!

Liu Guohao's heart was in turmoil, and he yelled at the phone, 'Okay, don't f*cking talk nonsense, you come over here first, let's think of a solution together!'

'Come over?' Liu Qiang seemed to have misheard. He said in despair, 'Dad, didn't you just say that Jiang has already found you? If I go over there again, won't that be a sheep in a tiger's mouth?'

'Bullsh*t, he's not the one who found me, it's your buyer! You come here immediately, he shouldn't know about this now, so cut the crap and get your ass over here right now!' Liu Guohao scolded.

'Not him? The buyer?' Liu Qiang smiled and was simply dumbfounded.

But listening to his own father, it seemed that this matter, Jiang Hao didn't know about it yet?

Hearing this news, the big stone hanging in Liu Qiang's heart couldn't help but fall to the ground with a loud thud.

To him, this was simply great news.

'It's good that I don't know. Don't worry dad, I'll be over there

Liu Qiang laughed heatedly, hurriedly hung up the phone and casually grabbed his clothes from the sofa. Just darted out from the bar.

'How come you've left, Liu Shao? Didn't you say that today was your treat?' A man suddenly shouted out.

Liu Qiang did not even turn his head back and ran out, so he ran while shouting: 'Please, my life is too much for me to care

On the other hand, in the office of Liu Guohao, the Hao Yuan Group.

Ever since he hung up the phone, Liu Guohao's head started to run fast.

He was thinking of a solution, a way to get through the crisis at hand.

But while he was thinking, Xu Tianlin's laughter came out of his ears: 'Mr. Liu. What's the matter, I didn't lie just now, did I?'

Liu Guohao withdrew his thoughts and raised his head, and saw Xu Tianlin looking at himself with a smiling face.

He simply hated this Xu Tianlin now, this guy looked so young, but he had made such a long-time veteran of the jungle into a mess with his first move.

Liu Guohao pretended to be calm and put away his anger. Coldly looking at Xu Tianlin, he said, 'What you said is indeed correct, but I have asked my son, he said the pendant was not stolen by him, it was stolen by someone else and bought for him, he is at best a backhander!'

Liu Guohao then added: 'In that case, it seems that I have nothing to be nervous about, after all, the pendant was not stolen by my son, and in the end, even if Mr. Jiang gets angry, I can just return the money to Mr. Jiang!'

Liu Guohao's meaning is very clear, we are also victims of this matter, it is estimated that as long as the final and Jiang Hao said clearly to set clear. He is not going to do anything about himself, and his own son, who is not a good fighter.

But he also knows that his rhetoric is, at best, self-congratulatory.

If he were Jiang Hao, he would have heard that the things he had given to his wife had been stolen. If you were Jiang Hao, and you heard that the item you gave to your wife had been stolen, and that it had ended up on someone who had molested your wife and upset you, then you probably wouldn't care if you stole it or not.

The pendant was sold from your hand, even if you didn't steal it. Even if you didn't steal it, you're still involved.

The final result is almost predictable.

But Liu Guohao was just saying this for Xu Tianlin's ears, and he presumed that Xu Tianlin would listen to his words. He was hoping that after listening to his words, Xu Tianlin would think that his so-called trump card would not work against him and he would immediately get lost!

As for whether he should betray Jiang Hao or not, the matter was really too big. It could also risk his own little life, not something he wanted to decide right now.

To put it bluntly, Liu Guohao still wanted to wait and see, to see who could prevail in the end, the two tigers, Jiang Hao and Xu Tianlin, and in the end, he himself would then press his treasure on whose body, and in the end, he could even have his fortune skyrocket as a result, and become the meat and potatoes in the eyes of both sides

The idea is only an idea after all.

The first thing you need to do is to get rid of the problem.

He heard Liu Guohao's words and suddenly laughed unrestrainedly, sneering without any disguise: 'Liu Guohao, Liu Guohao, are you really that stupid? Or did you say that on purpose for me? I guess, just now you said those words, you yourself do not believe it, right? Hehe

Suddenly, Xu Tianlin's face suddenly changed and he glared at Liu Guohao with murderous anger, scolding him, 'Liu, don't give me any more sloppy eyes, I'm telling you, I'm giving you two ways to go today, either you cooperate with me and we'll have a good meal, or you'll become my enemy and end up with that poor kid named Jiang as a stepping stone on my way to success! Don't think I don't know what you're thinking, I won't give you that chance!

'I'm warning you for the last time, either you agree to cooperate with me or I'll immediately find someone to tell that Jiang that it was your son who stole the pendant, and that you're scheming against him, and you'll see how he'll fix you in the end!

Chapter 442

'You don't have a choice!' Xu Tianlin finally poked Liu Guohao's chest fiercely with his finger, sneered and sat back down on the sofa just now.

And Liu Guohao was completely desperate at this point, it seemed like he really had no choice this time?

Xu Tianlin lit a cigarette again, swallowed a cloud and continued to ask: 'Mr. Liu, how about it, have you considered it?'

Liu Guohao hesitated for a moment, then suddenly took a deep breath and his gaze abruptly became a little more determined. He opened his mouth and said, 'Okay, I can promise you, but

When Xu Tianlin heard Liu Guohao finally relent, he couldn't help but let out a sigh of relief himself.

He smiled slightly, thought for a moment, extended a finger and said, 'After the matter is completed, in the south of the city project. I'll share 10% of your profits, how about that?'

Ten percent of the profits? That was several hundred million at the very least.

It seemed to be worth the risk, at the very least, one's fortune could be doubled by then.

Liu Guohao followed up by asking, 'Then

Liu Guohao's words were considered a question. He grinned and asked, 'Mr. Liu, how many percent do you think it's worth in terms of the things I just showed you?'

Liu Guohao thought about it, indeed, what Xu Tianlin had just shown himself was definitely not to be underestimated in terms of the killing power of this south of the city project.

But he also dared not underestimate Jiang Hao's strength, so after thinking about it, Liu Guohao spoke, 'Sixty percent!'

Xu Tianlin laughed: 'Ah, Mr Liu, you are really too unconfident, something with that much killing power is worth 60% in your eyes? I'll tell you the truth, as soon as I pull this out, that poor boy will immediately be dumbfounded, so I think it's worth at least 80% certainty, and now that I have you on my side, it's like a tiger with wings. Let's just wait and see what happens next.'

Xu Tianlin pondered a little and smiled, 'I think ah, we have to pick a good day

Xu Tianlin's words seemed like he was speaking to Liu Guohao, but it was also like he was talking to himself.

He was even a bit dazed for a while, and only after a moment to regain his senses did he continue, 'Then, Mr. Liu, I'll wish us a happy cooperation in advance?'

Since things have come to this point, Liu Guohao of course let go, he squeezed out a smile, nodded slightly and said, 'Happy cooperation, happy cooperation

'But

Liu Guohao hurriedly asked again, 'Xu Da Shao, can you reveal some more of your plans to me ah? At the very least, I should also know what I should do next, shouldn't I?'

Xu Tianlin laughed and said, 'The old thing is really a devil's head, I've told you all my plans, who am I going to find if you have any changes later?'

Xu Tianlin got up, looked at Liu Guohao and said indifferently, 'Liu, ah, you don't need to worry about that, what you should do and what you do. I will inform you later, just wait for the news in peace.'

'Oh, at such an old age, isn't it good to make your money in peace? Don't you get tired of being involved too much?'

After he finished speaking, Xu Tianlin turned his head and walked out of Liu Guohao's office, leaving a stunned Liu Guohao behind him.

Liu Guohao sighed and shook his head repeatedly.

In fact, he was just trying to set a set of Xu Tianlin's words.

For such a dangerous matter, naturally, the more information one had, the more protection one would have.

The more information he had, the more protection he would have. He would not be foolish enough to use it as a gun for others.

Having traversed the four seas for so many years, this was still clear in Liu Guohao's mind.

It was obvious that Xu Tianlin was not a good person either, he had guessed his own mind at once.

Liu Guohao was helpless and sighed as he thought to himself, 'Now that things have come to a head, he should indeed be prepared to consider what he is going to do next.'

It seemed that it was impossible for him to stand in the middle and ride the wall, and now he could only stand on Xu Tianlin's side.

What he had to consider then was how to maximise his own interests and how to ensure the success of this plan.

Just as Liu Guohao was thinking about this matter, the door of his office was pushed open again. Immediately afterwards, Liu Qiang scurried in in a frenzy.

'Dad, what's wrong? What's happened?' Liu Qiang asked with a face full of anxiety.

When he saw Liu Qiang, Liu Guohao was so angry that he wanted to raise his hand to hit this indisputable thing, but thought better of it. The matter had come to this, what could he do even if he crippled him?

'Hey' Liu Guohao heaved a sigh and sighed, 'You, you, you've really caused your dad a lot of trouble!'

Liu Qiang didn't know what was going on, so he hurriedly asked, 'Dad, what's going on? Is it really not that Jiang Hao who found out about this?'

Liu Guohao sighed again and told him everything that had just happened, and finally said, 'Son, now we are in the boat of thieves. There's no way to escape!'

Hearing Liu Guohao finish his speech, Liu Qiang was stunned and froze for a while before he came back to his senses.

He was surprised and asked, 'Dad this, is this really true? The Xu family is going to mess with that kid named Jiang?'

'How can this be false? It's a thousand percent true!'

Hearing these words, Liu Qiang suddenly let out an unbridled laugh and violently slapped Liu Guohao's desk, exclaiming, 'Damn, that's great!'

'Huh?' Hearing this, Liu Guohao couldn't help but freeze for a moment, 'What did you say?'

'Haha. I said it's great dad!' Liu Qiang said excitedly, 'Dad, you know, because of what happened last time, I've been thinking that one day I would be able to trample that bastard Jiang under my feet, I thought that I would never have the chance in my life, but I never thought, I never thought that the chance would come so quickly. It's really God's help!'

Hearing about this matter, for Liu Qiang, it was just like a great good news.

He was even more excited when he heard that Xu Tianlin was already 90% sure about this matter.

‘Dad, let’s do it, let’s follow Xu Tianlin’s lead, not only will we no longer have to take that little bastard’s sh*t, we’ll also make a fortune. Isn’t this a two-for-one thing?’

Liu Guohao couldn’t help but sigh a little when he looked at his precious son with such an epileptic look on his face.

It seemed that this kid was still too young, where things were that simple.

‘Hmph, do you think things are all as simple as you think?’ Liu Guohao sighed, ‘You remember. No matter what time it is, we both have to ensure our own interests, like you are like a rash young man, only thinking of revenge on others, you probably won’t even know how to die later. You’re still happy to be used as a backdrop for others!’

After scolding Liu Qiang, Liu Guohao couldn’t help but shake his head once again, walked to the window and looked into the distance. The expression on his face also became more and more solemn

A few days passed, and Jiang Hao was almost absent from school these days.

Because after previously kicking the Chu family, the largest engineering equipment company in Chujiang, out of the city’s south project, Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie have been looking for a suitable replacement.

They had searched almost everywhere for several small and medium-sized companies in Chu Jiang, but nothing more than that the other party was not qualified enough and simply could not meet their standards.

And soon, they locked their eyes on an engineering equipment company in the provincial capital.

This company was well known all over the province, and the most crucial thing was that this company was big enough to support the project.

So soon, Ye Yunjie sent an invitation to the other party, and this was the day that the two sides met to discuss cooperation.

But no one expected that this day, whether for Jiang Hao, or Ye Yunjie, was almost the beginning of a nightmare.

Chapter 443

The venue for the negotiations ended up being far away at the Grand Hyatt Hotel, which is after all one of the most luxurious hotels in Chujiang and has undertaken many large meetings.

A business negotiation of this scale is nothing to the Grand Hyatt Hotel.

The negotiations started well and, as a sign of the importance attached to it, the vice president of the company was sent directly to negotiate the cooperation business.

But the main content of the negotiations. Some of the key or professional things were not clear to Jiang Hao, so he had to ask Ye Yunjie in a whisper before he could figure them out.

Everything seemed to be going smoothly, so much so that it was soon time for both sides to prepare for the signing of the contract.

As soon as the contract was signed, the cooperation would be finalised and a huge stone in the hearts of Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie would seem to have fallen.

But just as the terms of the contract had been printed out. When it was handed over to the other party's negotiator, the other party's mobile phone suddenly rang.

'Uh sorry, it's our boss on the phone, I I'll take a call first.' The other party said with an apologetic face.

It's just taking a call. There was nothing to be ashamed of.

Whether it was Jiang Hao, or Ye Yunjie, the pressed tease didn't care.

'Be my guest.' Ye Yunjie smiled and gestured, 'It's alright.'

The other party smiled and nodded, hurriedly getting up and walking to the side to pick up the phone.

But soon, a touch of surprise surfaced on the negotiator's face, 'What? Mr. Zhu, what do you mean by that? It has already come to this point, you

Immediately after, the other party's hissing voice seemed to come from the phone.

The vice president from this negotiation could do nothing but sigh and hang up the phone with a dejected look on his face, and returned to his seat.

But he didn't sit down, instead he briefly sorted out his things, even to the point that the gold pen he had just laid out and was going to use to sign the contract was actually stuffed into his pocket.

This action really made Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie a little confused.

What was this?

'Mr. Chen, what are you doing?' Ye Yunjie hurriedly got up and asked, while she was already frowning tightly at this moment, an ominous feeling seemed to be slowly enveloping her.

The other party looked at Ye Yunjie. The expression on his face looked incomparably dejected.

He sighed and said, 'Miss Ye, I'm really sorry, this contract today, I I may not be able to sign it!'

The other party's words were so stone-cold that Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie's mouths both opened wide in shock.

'No more signings? Why?' Ye Yunjie questioned in surprise, 'Didn't we just negotiate all the terms and conditions? And at your request, we have also made a large degree of concessions, and now you are saying that you won't sign?'

Ye Yunjie was simply on fire, what she hated most was people who went back on their word.

Jiang Hao also looked stunned, after all, just now both sides had negotiated, and it seemed that during the process, there wasn't much ups and downs, how could they suddenly say they wouldn't sign?

'Is there any problem? If there is, you could have raised it with me and we could have sat down and worked it out again!' Jiang Hao said in a serious tone, 'Directly do not sign, so seems not very good, right?'

Jiang Hao said this to caution the other party not to do things too unforgivingly, after all, one second was a pleasant face. But the effort to answer a phone call and then turn the other cheek, you guys this thing to do seems too unethical, right?

Jiang Hao did not dare to speak too harshly, after all, the only engineering equipment company in the whole province that is qualified to undertake the project in the south of the city, apart from the Ye family, is the one he talked to.

If anything happens to this company again, it will be a huge loss for the City South project.

After all, without some advanced engineering equipment, many projects cannot be done, and in the end, the delay will be the schedule.

And a day's delay would mean that you would be out of pocket for nothing.

In the end, the only one who will bear the loss is himself.

Jiang Hao seemed to feel that the other party was deliberately counting on him.

After all, the previous talks were good, and then all of a sudden they said they wouldn't sign, so how did it look like the other party was trying to deliberately take advantage of him. The other side of the coin is not only a good one, but also a good one.

But now that things have come to a head, instead of letting the project come to a halt and suffering the loss of several million dollars every day, I would rather give the other party a little sweetener. It would be better to give the other party a little sweetener, so that he can work for himself in peace.

It was just that Jiang Hao's guess did not seem to be accurate.

Because after he said these words, the other party's negotiator just shook his head helplessly: 'Jiang Shao, no there is not any problem, to be honest, I just received a phone call from our boss, and he was the one who said. This contract, we can't sign with you, as for the exact reason hey, I don't know anymore.'

This vice president has a sad face, after all, in his opinion, this is clearly a big cake in front of him, investing billions or even tens of billions of accounts, say not to take it? The loss would be incalculable.

The other party heaved a sigh. To Jiang Hao and Ye Yunjie, he said with an apologetic face, 'Actually, I can't figure out why this is.'

When the other party said this, it left Jiang Hao a little baffled.

He was a negotiator, a vice president of the company, did he not even know why the negotiations were terminated? This was really a bit unreasonable, wasn't it?

Ye Yunjie even laughed without writing, as if she could see through the other party's tricks, and said with cold contempt: 'Come on, don't think I don't know what medicine you are selling in your gourd, but I can tell you clearly and understandably that if you unilaterally want to blackmail us with this and want to maliciously raise the price, sorry, we won't agree to it either!'

In Ye Yunjie's opinion, it seemed that the truth was already plainly stated and there would not be a second possibility.

To be honest. This kind of situation, it had encountered a lot in the past when it was around Shen Haoting.

But as soon as she said this, the other party's negotiator had an innocent look on his face. He hurriedly said, 'Miss Ye, listen to my explanation, it really isn't like that, don't worry, I'll go back and ask our old boss. Exactly what went wrong, I will definitely give you an answer as soon as possible, but I am sure that this matter is no longer the way you think it is, Miss Ye.'

The other party also seemed to be very innocent. After all, this call from his own boss was really too sudden, not to mention Ye Yunjie and Jiang Hao, even he felt caught off guard and even overwhelmed.

However, Ye Yunjie did not believe the other party half-heartedly and just said indifferently, 'Well then, you can give me a reasonable explanation now, why didn't you sign the deal when it was well negotiated? I now have serious doubts about your company's credibility, I will also check it out later, if it is really as I said, then sorry, I will use all the connections I can use to block your company, I, Ye Yunjie, will do what I say!'

After she finished speaking, Ye Yunjie didn't give the other party a chance to explain, and said to Jiang Hao, 'Young Jiang, let's go.'

Because Ye Yunjie knew very well that if she continued to stay here, she wouldn't be of any use, and would only make the other party feel more and more that she couldn't leave his company, but would instead fuel its anger.

As for the vice president's claim that he didn't know anything, that was almost impossible.

He was the vice president of the company, and if the company's major decisions were made without his presence, then the decisions would be illegal in some ways.

Ye Yunjie had been with Shen Haoting for so many years, she knew this point very well.

However, once Ye Yunjie said this, the other party's vice president of negotiations immediately got nervous and hurriedly went forward to calm down, saying, 'Miss Ye, Jiang Shao, you two don't get angry, don't worry, I'll call our General Manager Zhu again and ask for clarification!'
