

Chapter 441 Asura God's Curse

Out of the seven people from the Lion Tribe that surrounded Tang Lingxi, five of them were only at the True Spirit Realm while the last two were at the Earth Spirit Realm.

As someone at the Heavenly Spirit Realm, Tang Lingxi could kill all of them in the blink of an eye even with her hands tied behind her back. However, because of the disparity in their strength, the guards were unable to see Tang Lingxi's true strength and therefore underestimated her, being completely oblivious of the danger they are currently in.

"Your boyfriend is quite the coward! He abandoned you without a thought! Hahaha!"

"Why don't you come with us? We won't leave you alone for a second!"

The guards laughed out loud after seeing Su Yang distance himself from Tang Lingxi, thinking that he was running away.

"First of all..."

In the midst of their laughter, Tang Lingxi took a single step forward and disappeared from the guards' views, almost like she'd turned into a ghost.

"He's not my boyfriend, but my husband."

Tang Lingxi suddenly appeared behind the Earth Spirit Realm expert and grabbed his arms.

"Huh?"

By the time the guard even realized that he was caught by Tang Lingxi, his arms were violently ripped from his shoulders, causing his body to shudder from shock.

"Disgusting..." Tang Lingxi casually tossed the detached arms away with a disgusted expression.

After throwing the severed arms like they were trash, Tang Lingxi grabbed the guard by the head and also ripped it off his body with ease, instantly killing him.

"..."

Qin Liangyu felt the urge to puke after seeing the brutal scene before her. Although she has seen a fair share of blood and gore, she has never seen anyone as brutal and bloodthirsty as Tang Lingxi. Instead of a Goddess, she looked like someone being possessed by an Evil God.

As for the other six guards from the Lion Tribe, they all stared at Tang Lingxi with a terrified expression on their faces, looking like they were seeing a monster.

"What's wrong?" Tang Lingxi turned to look at the guards and slowly walked towards them.

However, every step Tang Lingxi took towards the guards, they also took a step back.

"Why are you distancing from me? I thought that you wanted to touch this body?" Tang Lingxi's eyes were as cold as ice, and her dreadful aura haunted them like a nightmare.

"W-W-W-Wait a moment... T-There must have been an understanding..." One of the guards suddenly spoke in a trembling voice.

"A misunderstanding? I don't think so."

Tang Lingxi continued to chase after them.

"Consider yourselves lucky, since you get to touch my skin when I rip all of your limbs out of that useless body..."

"R-Run! She's a fucking monster!"

The six guards immediately turned around and began running away in six different directions.

However, with her superior cultivation and movement technique, Tang Lingxi easily caught up with one of them and quickly grabbed his arms.

"P-Please spare me! I-I have a wife and children — Ahhhh!"

As though Tang Lingxi couldn't even hear his words, she tore his arms out of his body like the previous victim.

The guard quickly fell onto the ground, and that's when Tang Lingxi raised her legs before stomping his head, causing it to explode into a bloody mess.

Immediately after killing that guard, she chased after the next one.

A few moments later, Tang Lingxi's arm pierced a hole in the guard's chest, ripping his heart from his chest, before crushing the heart, causing it to explode like a tomato.

"It appears that the Asura God's Curse is active even though she's in a different body..." Su Yang mumbled to himself as he calmly watched Tang Lingxi tear her enemies apart like a beast.

"Asura God's Curse...?" Qin Liangyu, who heard his mumble, showed a puzzled look.

"She belongs to a family with a very unique and powerful bloodline that allows her to easily dominate anyone under the heavens. However, very little things in this world are actually perfect."

"Although she has a tremendous amount of strength due to her unique bloodline, that blood also curses her body with the Asura God's Curse, which will make the person uncontrollably bloodthirsty if they are provoked."

"This is why nobody is willing to provoke a person from the Asura God Clan, as it always leads to a blood bath."

However, Tang Lingxi is not actually in her own body, and Hong Yu'er's body does not contain even a single drop of Asura Blood, so it makes no sense for Tang Lingxi to be affected by the curse at this moment.

'Does the Asura God's Curse actually affect one's soul instead of their blood?' Su Yang silently pondered to himself as Tang Lingxi continued to slaughter the guards with extreme brutality.

Sometime later, the screaming in the area stopped, and Tang Lingxi returned to Su Yang's side.

However, her appearance was anything but graceful, as her face and robe was stained with blood, making her look like a sinister evil Cultivator.

"I'm sorry that you had to see something so unsightly, darling. It has been a very long time since anyone has dared to provoke me in such a manner, so I got a little angry. And I didn't think that the Asura God's Curse would affect me while I am in this body." Tang Lingxi said to him.

"By the way, before I killed the last guy, I asked him where their Chief was..." she continued.

"He said that the Chief is currently leading the Lion Tribe to the Boar Tribe for war, and that they left three days ago."

"What?!" Qin Liangyu exclaimed loudly.

"The Boar Tribe is in danger! I have to get back now..."

Qin Liangyu suddenly dropped to her knees with despair on her face.

"But even if we head back now, it will be too late. The Lion Tribe should have arrived at the Boar Tribe by now..."

"It's over... the Boar Tribe does not have the power to resist the Lion Tribe... They'll be completely wiped out!"

Chapter 442 Lion Tribe's Invasion

"Calm down, Chief Qin." Su Yang said to her, whose face was filled with tears at this moment.

He then retrieved the flying boat from his storage ring and continued, "If we travel with this flying boat, we can return to the Boar Tribe within minutes, so don't give up hope just yet."

"R-Really?!" Qin Liangyu looked at him with red eyes and spoke, "Please, save my Boar Tribe! I am willing to do anything in exchange for your help!"

Su Yang nodded and hopped onto the flying ship with the two of them, before they rushed back to the Boar Tribe.

Meanwhile, a few hours ago at the Dragon Tribe, Qiuyue had finished reading all of the scrolls in the hut and was prepared to return to the Boar Tribe.

"I hope you found whatever information that you were looking for, Goddess." Chief Long was standing outside when she left, almost like he was waiting for Qiuyue to be finished this entire time.

"I have everything that I need. Thank you for the information."

"Are you leaving now, Goddess? If I may ask, where will you be going?" Chief Long asked her.

"I'm returning to the Boar Tribe. Do you have any problems with that?" Qiuyue looked at him with narrowed eyes.

"I wouldn't dare." Chief Long quickly shook his head, and he continued, "However, this humble one would like to escort the Goddess back to the Boar Tribe."

"Why would you want to do something like that? I don't need your escort." Qiuyue refused his offer.

"I happen to have some business with the Boar Tribe, so I will need to visit them sooner or later," said Chief Long.

Of course, his reason for following her to the Boar Tribe was only an excuse. Chief Long actually wanted to be there to see if Qiuyue would be intervening with the Lion Tribe's invasion.

"Do whatever you want, but I won't be waiting for you," Qiuyue said as she jumped into the air before soaring towards the Boar Tribe.

Meanwhile, on Su Yang's flying boat, Tang Lingxi casually began removing her blood-stained robes, revealing her sublime body and perfect skin.

"Are you sure that doesn't break your promise with Hong Yu'er?" Su Yang asked her with a smile on his face. Of course, his eyes did not look away and stared directly at her slim figure.

"I only promised her that I would not jeopardize her purity. Showing a little skin to her fiance won't do such a thing. Unless you are going to pounce at me right now, it will be fine." Tang Lingxi smiled back at him.

A few minutes later, right before the flying boat reached the Boar Tribe, Su Yang and his group noticed a red light shooting into the sky before exploding with brightness.

"What's that?" Su Yang asked.

"T-That's the Boar Tribe's emergency signal! They are in danger! It must be the Lion Tribe!" Qin Liangyu exclaimed after seeing the signal, her face filled with worry.

Meanwhile, inside the Boar Tribe, it was a chaotic scene with the people from the Boar Tribe desperately defending themselves against the Lion Tribe.

There was blood splatter everywhere, and corpses from both tribes littered the ground.

"Have you gone crazy, Chief Shi?! We have the Goddess's protection! How dare you attack us while the Goddess is here!" Lebao shouted as he fought against the Chief of the Lion Tribe.

"If your Goddess was here, why hasn't she intervened yet?! The answer is as clear as day — she doesn't care about protecting the Boar Tribe!" Chief Shi roared with laughter as he stuck Lebao with his strength at the peak of the Heavenly Spirit Realm.

"Ah!"

Lebao cried out in pain after being struck, feeling some of the bone in his body shattered from the impact.

"You are a fine warrior, Lebao! One of the best in the Boar Tribe! It makes me wonder why haven't you already made Chief Qin your woman and become the new Chief of the Boar Tribe yet." Chief Shi spoke.

"If I were in your shoes, I would have long conquered her and made her my woman!"

Chief Shi suddenly stretched his hands and continued, "I know that you like her, Lebao. Abandon the Boar Tribe and join my Lion Tribe! If you do, I will make Qin Liangyu your woman!"

"W-What...?" Lebao looked at him with a dazed look. "You want me to betray the Boar Tribe...? You are truly out of your mind!"

"Of course, you can refuse. However, just remember that if you refuse, I will kill you here and take Qin Liangyu for myself instead. It is hard to find a woman of her quality around this area, after all."

"You will never get away with this!" Lebao roared as he rushed at Chief Shi while ignoring the pain in his body.

"By the way, I have been wondering, where is your Chief, Qin Liangyu? I haven't seen her since I got here. Did she, by any chance, run away by herself, leaving the rest of the Boar Tribe to fend us off while she escapes?"

"Hahaha! Unlike you cowards that can only borrow the strength of others, Chief Qin won't do something like that!"

"It doesn't matter if she's hiding or running away, because as long as she's in the Southern Region, I will find her." Chief Shi spoke in a grim voice as he slowly retrieved the large axe behind his back.

"W-Where did you get that Spiritual Weapon?!" Lebao trembled in fear after sensing the sinister aura emitting from the black axe in Chief Shi's grasp.

"You like it? It's a little gift from our friends, the Dragon Tribe. It's called the Black Dragon Axe — a Heaven-grade Spiritual Weapon."

"Bastard..." Lebao growled with red veins in his eyes.

"You should be proud, since you will be the first person I kill with this Black Dragon Axe!" Chief Shi slowly raised the axe into the air.

"Don't worry, I will take care of Qin Liangyu for you. I will also enjoy her body in your stead. Goodbye, Lebao."

Chief Shi gazed down at Lebao with a malicious grin on his face.

"I'm sorry, Chief Qin... I won't be able to keep my promise..." Lebao mumbled and closed his eyes.

"Die for me!"

Chief Shi shouted as he swung the axe with great force.

It was at this moment a sharp voice resounded from the sky—

"Lebao!"

Upon hearing this familiar voice, Lebao opened his eyes and looked up, expecting to see Qin Liangyu's face.

However, what he saw was not Qin Liangyu, but the back of a tall figure, who was standing between him and Chief Shi, almost like a mountain.

"W-Who the hell are you, you bastard?" Chief Shi's eyes widened with shock when some random young man blocked his Black Dragon Axe with a small black dagger.

"That's a decent weapon you got there. You won't mind if I take it after I kill you, right?" Su Yang spoke with a calm smile on his face.

"You will kill me...? Hahaha!"

Chief Shi jumped back and created some distance between them as he laughed.

"You are only at the third level of the Heavenly Spirit Realm, while I am at the ninth level. What can a pipsqueak like you do to me?! Don't get cocky just because you blocked my weakest attack by surprise!"

"Then why don't you hurry up and show me your strongest move?" Su Yang responded with a nonchalant voice.

Chapter 443 The Goddess Has Returned!

"Wait a moment... that dagger in your hands..." Chief Shi suddenly noticed the domineering aura coming from the Black Scorpion in Su Yang's grasp.

"You also have a Heaven-grade Spiritual Weapon?"

"If some loser like you can have one, why wouldn't I also have one?" Su Yang said.

"Hahaha! Although it surprised me a little bit, it will not change the results of this fight! Even if you have a Heaven-grade Spiritual Weapon, you will not be able to defeat me! The disparity is simply too big between us! However, if you give me that weapon and walk away from this place right now, I can spare your life," said Chief Shi.

However, Su Yang merely smiled and said, "I have to agree with you on one thing — that the disparity between us is too big."

He then pointed the Black Scorpion at Chief Shi and continued, "Even though you are at the peak of the Heavenly Spirit Realm, you had only achieved that power from eating spiritual meat your entire life. It's like a skinny man stuffing himself until he is fat and then gain some strength due to his extra weight — it's not true strength."

"Meanwhile, I cultivated one of the strongest cultivation techniques under the heavens, allowing me to have an extremely pure and rich spiritual energy. In fact, compared to the Heavenly Spirit Realm Cultivators in the Eastern Continent, you are barely stronger than those at the early stages of the Heavenly Spirit Realm whilst being at the peak of the Heavenly Spirit Realm. It's actually quite laughable how arrogant you are despite being so weak."

"Y-You little fucker...!" Chief Shi's face flushed with redness and covered in bulging veins by the time Su Yang was finished insulting him, his body shaking from rage. He has never been insulted in such a manner before, and by a junior no less.

"If I don't cut you up and feed you to the dogs, I will not be Chief of the Lion Tribe! Die!" Chief Shi suddenly rushed at Su Yang with the Black Dragon Axe glowing a dangerous light.

However, before he could even take two steps, Chief Shi suddenly stopped moving and began trembling in fear, almost like he was afraid to move.

"Hm?"

Seeing his strange behavior, Su Yang raised an eyebrow, and then he looked up at the sky, where two figures were staring at them in the air above them.

It was Qiuyue and Chief Long.

"G-Goddess!"

"It's the Goddess! She has returned!"

When the people in the Boar Tribe noticed Qiuyue's presence, be it the people from the Boar Tribe or the Lion Tribe, all of them stopped fighting and bowed to her.

The entire place turned dead silent almost instantly after her arrival. Nobody there dared to speak and waited for Qiuyue to speak first.

"What are you going to do about this, Goddess?" Chief Long asked her.

Qiuyue glanced at Su Yang before looking at Chief Long and said, "I have already told you that whatever happens between the tribes is none of my business or concern, so I will not intervene."

"I see..." Chief Long sighed in relief after hearing Qiuyue's words.

But when the people from the Boar Tribe heard her words, despair appeared on all of their faces, almost like they were abandoned by their God.

"No way..." Even Qin Liangyu couldn't believe her ears, and she turned to look at Su Yang, who remained nonchalant.

"Hahaha! Did you hear that, you guys?! The Goddess will not interfere with us, so we can go all out!" Chief Shi shouted out loud, and the people from the Lion Tribe roared with excitement.

"Qin Liangyu! I will give you one last chance before I destroy your tribe! If you obediently come with me and become my woman, I will leave the Boar Tribe only half-destroyed! But if you refuse, I will not only completely destroy this place and kill everyone here but I will also destroy you — mentally and physically! Ahahaha!"

"..."

Qin Liangyu bit her lips until it bled, feeling absolutely powerless in this situation.

"What about you, Su Yang?"

In the midst of the noise from the Lion Tribe, Qiuyue suddenly continued speaking.

"What are you going to do?" she asked him.

"Do I really need to answer that question?" Su Yang smiled.

A smile also appeared on Qiuyue's face, "Then do you want some help?"

"No need. I can deal with something like this all by myself."

"W-What is going on here?" Chief Long watched the developing situation with a puzzled expression.

"Hey, Axe Boy, before I decide whether I should kill all of you or spare your lives, why don't you tell me your reason for invading the other tribes?" Su Yang asked him.

"Reason...?" Chief Shi raised his eyebrows. "I have a few that come to mind, such as wanting to dominate the Southern Region, or wanting the Lion Tribe to become the strongest tribe out there. However, if I have to pick one reason that truly matters... that would be... because I love to destroy things! Hahaha!"

"..."

"Then what about you guys from the Lion Tribe? Are you also doing this simply because you want to destroy things?" Su Yang then asked them.

"Of course! Why else would we be doing this?!" All of them roared with enthusiasm.

"I see..." Su Yang closed his eyes and took a deep breath.

When he opened his eyes a moment later, they flickered with killing intent, and his body surged with a powerful aura that was filled with the feeling of dread.

'W-What is this aura that's coming from him?!' Chief Shi could feel a dangerous feeling coming from Su Yang, and his instincts told him to turn around and run away.

"Hey, what are you waiting for?" Su Yang suddenly said to him in a calm voice that did not match the killing intent in his eyes.

"I have been waiting for you to display your strongest attack this entire time. How long are you going to keep me waiting? If you don't attack me before I kill you, it'll look like I am bullying the weak and powerless."

"Y-You...! Since you want to die so much, I will gladly fulfill your wish!" Chief Shi roared with all of his might, and his aura surged with a tyrannical power, making it seem like his body grew in size.

"Taste my Black Dragon Axe, you insignificant little bastard!" Chief Shi shouted as he pounced at Su Yang.

Chapter 444 Where Did This Monster Come From...?

Chief Shi jumped high into the air and pounced at Su Yang with the Black Dragon Axe emitting a tyrannical aura.

"Dragon Shattering Strike!"

When the Chief Shi swung the Black Dragon Axe, it was as though an invisible pressure had suddenly appeared in the Boar Tribe, causing the people there to feel as though they were being forced to their knees.

Seeing the large axe diving straight at him, Su Yang raised the Black Scorpion in front of his face and prepared to block Chief Shi's strike.

"You think you can stop my Black Dragon Axe with your puny dagger?!"

When the Black Dragon Axe was almost in front of Su Yang, his eyes flickered with an otherworldly light, and his aura exploded to an immense level.

Boom!

The Black Dragon Axe and the Black Scorpion collided with each other, causing a shock wave that pushed everyone around them away and covered the place with dust and dirt.

A few moments later, when the dust settled and the people there were able to see their figures again, they were all shocked by the result of their collusion.

"I-Impossible!" Chief Shi exclaimed as he stared at Su Yang with wide eyes.

Forget about overpowering Su Yang, he didn't even manage to push him back even after using that much strength! It was almost like he'd struck an immovable mountain with his bare fists!

Chief Shi slowly walked backwards, distancing himself from Su Yang, who merely stood there with a calm expression.

"Was that your strongest attack? It appears that I have overestimated your strength." Su Yang spoke with a mocking smile.

"I do not know what little trick you'd used to block my move, but I am willing to bet that you have used all of your strength just now and that you will not be able to block another one of my attacks! Die for me!"

Chief Shi tightly gripped the Black Dragon Axe and rushed at Su Yang again but with an even stronger aura around him.

However, just like his previous attempt, Su Yang easily blocked his attack with a mysterious power that he cannot fathom.

It felt like he was fighting a wall — one that he cannot break.

"I do not believe that you can keep defending!"

Chief Shi roared, and his muscles grew larger and bulkier. His arms were almost as big as his head at this point, and his body was emitting a fearsome aura that was filled with killing intent.

A moment later, he pounced at Su Yang again.

"Mountain Severing Strike!"

Chief Shi cleaved the Black Dragon Axe with all of his might, and the axe made a sound that resembled a dragon's roar.

However, Su Yang did not move this time. In fact, he stood there defenselessly, almost like he was intending on taking the strike with his body.

"Hahaha! Did he finally use up all of his strength and cannot lift even a finger now?!"

Although the Lion Tribe warriors were shocked when Su Yang blocked two of their Chief's attacks just now despite the disparity between their cultivation bases and felt a bit nervous for the future, they laughed with relief when Su Yang stopped moving.

However, the laughter stopped a moment later, when Chief Shi also stopped moving.

He was only a few steps away from Su Yang, yet he suddenly stopped advancing and stood there stiffly, almost like he's turned into a statue.

"Looks like it's finally taking effect." Su Yang said as he slowly walked to stand in front of Chief Shi.

"Wha... What have you... done to... me...?!" Chief Shi squeezed these words out of his mouth, as he was having difficulties breathing, like there was something clogged inside his throat.

"It's simple, really." Su Yang pointed to Chief Shi's left abdomen, where a tiny one-inch cut existed.

This insignificant injury that would normally not even be considered a scratch for Chief Shi had somehow rendered him unmovable and powerless.

"My Black Scorpion is coated with a deadly poison that is strong enough to kill Cultivators at the Heavenly Spirit Realm even with a small scratch like that. It happened during your first strike at me, and it's finally taking effect now."

"Very soon, the poison will spread throughout your body, spoil your blood, dissolve your bones, before finally destroying your body from inside-out."

Su Yang spoke in a gentle voice as he paced around Chief Shi's body that was beginning to turn black.

"Since you are at the peak of the Heavenly Spirit Realm and have a strong body because of the spiritual meat you have consumed throughout your life, you will have a few more minutes to live before the poison kills you."

Su Yang stood before Chief Shi again and stared at him in the eyes with a serious expression.

"In these few minutes, I will have you watch helplessly as I slaughter your tribesmen."

"You... you monster..." Chief Shi growled in a low voice, trying to suppress the pain in his body that was growing increasingly more painful.

Su Yang ignored his words and turned to look at the Lion Tribe's people, all of whom were staring at him with a horrified expression on their faces.

"The Chief has lost! R-Run away before he slaughters all of us!"

The Lion Tribe began scrambling about. All they had in their minds at this moment was to escape from Su Yang, whose presence was even scarier than the Goddess, Qiuyue.

However, before they could even make it outside of the Boar Tribe, Su Yang used Nine Astral Steps to follow and slaughter them.

"Ahhhhh!"

Chief Shi screamed in pain and sorrow as he watched his men fall lifelessly onto the ground. Not only did he have to deal with the pain from the poison that was quickly destroying his body but he also had to deal with the pain of losing his tribesmen. It was a feeling that nobody there could imagine.

'W-Where did this monster come from...?' Chief Long watched the scene from above with a horrified face.

Chapter 445 Black Dragon Axe

'It's over for the Lion Tribe. They won't be of use to the Dragon Tribe any more.' Chief Long sighed inwardly.

He then glanced at Su Yang, feeling perplexed.

'This young man... he's obviously related to the Goddess. But what is their relationship?'

As much as Chief Long wanted to dive into the action and protect the Lion Tribe, Qiuyue's divine presence beside him prevented him from moving even an inch.

"Ahhhh!"

"Spare me!"

"Please, I will do anything you want!"

The Lion Tribe's people begged for Su Yang's mercy, but alas, he ignored all of their screaming like they ignored the pleas from the dozens of tribes they have destroyed.

And by the time Su Yang finished killing the last person from the Lion Tribe, Chief Shi's entire body was nearly covered in black, looking like he'd been burned in hell's fire.

"Don't worry, I won't go out of my way to kill the rest of your people currently inside the Lion Tribe."

"..."

Chief Shi stared at Su Yang in the eyes, his gaze filled with hatred, grief, and regret.

"Why... are you... doing... this...?" Chief Shi used the last drop of energy in his body to ask him.

"Why, huh..." Su Yang calmly spoke with a smile on his face, "It's simple — because someone requested for my help, and my nature does not allow me to ignore a cry for help from a beautiful lady, especially when there are tears in her eyes."

Chief Shi's eyes widened with shock and disbelief. He cannot believe that Su Yang's reason for slaughtering an entire tribe was merely to satisfy a woman.

"Aggh!"

Chief Shi suddenly screamed, before coughing a mouthful of black blood and collapsing on the floor.

After Chief Shi died, Su Yang casually yanked the Black Dragon Axe out of Chief Shi's hands and tossed it into his storage ring.

However, before he could move, a figure descended from the sky and landed right before him.

"Excuse me, young man, but I believe that axe belongs to the Dragon Tribe. I'd appreciate it if you could return it to us." Chief Long said to him with a friendly expression.

"..."

Su Yang slowly turned around and looked at Chief Long in the eyes and spoke, "Are you certain about that? If the axe belongs to the Dragon Tribe, then why was it in the hands of the Lion Tribe — the Chief, no less?"

Chief Long's eyebrows twitched upon hearing Su Yang's words, and he spoke, "Yes, because I was the one who lent him the Black Dragon Axe. Please, it's an irreplaceable treasure for the Dragon Tribe."

"It's unfortunate that your friend had lost such a valuable treasure." Su Yang said. "Next time, don't lend things that you cannot afford to lose to others, especially if they are not the trustworthy kind."

"..."

Chief Long was speechless. The only reason he had lent Chief Shi the Black Dragon Axe is because he was certain that he could retrieve it with ease. But alas, not even he could expect that someone like Su Yang would appear in this place and time to blatantly steal the Black Dragon Axe right before his presence.

However, with that being said, he truly cannot lose the Black Dragon Axe, the Dragon Tribe's heritage, much less to a stranger like Su Yang, even if he has to take some risks.

Chief Long then turned to look at Qiuyue, who was his only hope to retrieve the Black Dragon Axe, and spoke, "Goddess, although I do not know your relationship with this young man, he has blatantly stolen something important from the Dragon Tribe. Can you please do something about this?"

After a moment of silence, Qiuyue responded with a calm expression, "I won't intervene with your business. I thought that I have already made this very clear."

Chief Long's eyes widened with surprise. Does this mean she wouldn't intervene even if he tries to get the Black Dragon Axe back from Su Yang by force? Aren't they companions?

He then turned to look at Su Yang, who was also looking at him with a mysterious smile on his face.

"It appears that I have received approval to retrieve my Black Dragon Axe from you by the Goddess," said Chief Long. "This is your only warning. You may be exceptionally talented and even managed to defeat Chief Shi, but you are not my match."

"I just killed someone with the same cultivation base as you. What makes you think that you can do any better than him?"

"Although I am also at the peak of the Heavenly Spirit Realm just like Chief Shi, our abilities are not even close to being equal, so it's best if you do not underestimate me by comparing me to that weakling, Chief Shi." Chief Long spoke as he released his cultivation base, causing an immense aura to appear.

"Hmm... I guess you are slightly better than him. However, if you want to even have a chance to take the weapon back, you'll need to be at least a Sovereign." Su Yang could feel an invisible pressure trying to push him to the ground, but he remained calm and stood there without even budging an inch.

"You talk big for someone who only managed to kill Chief Shi because of your little tricks. Now that I know about the poison coated in that weapon, you will need more than that to defeat me..." Chief Long said with a confident grin on his face.

"Is that so...?" Su Yang looked at the Black Scorpion in his hands.

A moment later, Su Yang retrieved his storage ring and stored the Black Scorpion inside, dumbfounding Chief Long and the people there.

"What trick are you trying to pull this time?" Chief Long frowned.

"There is no trick here. Since you claim that I cannot defeat you without the Black Scorpion, I am going to defeat you without it." Su Yang responded with a calm expression.

"Hahaha..." Chief Long couldn't help but laugh at Su Yang's arrogance.

"That arrogance will be the death of you!" Chief Long shouted before suddenly rushing forward.

Chapter 446 Ancient Movement Technique

"Bloody Dragon Claws!" Chief Long rushed at Su Yang with his hands made into a claw, and a sinister red aura emitted from his fingers.

Su Yang's eyebrows twitched upon seeing this aura. He could sense a dangerous feeling in this technique, and his instincts told him to avoid it.

Thus, he immediately used Nine Astral Steps to distance himself from Chief Long.

A second after Su Yang jumped away, Chief Long's claws struck at where Su Yang just stood, causing the earth to melt in an ugly fashion.

If such an attack had landed on Su Yang's skin, it would probably melt away instantly.

"Poison, huh." Su Yang quickly recognized the nature of Chief Long's attack. It was no wonder why Chief Long was acting so confident just now even after witnessing the Black Scorpion's deadly poison.

"Just like your dagger, my poison techniques can kill anyone below the Sovereign Spirit Realm with ease. It does not matter if you are a genius or a monster, if you touch my poison, you will die." Chief Long spoke with a grin on his face.

"..."

Su Yang remained silent.

'Father, can you deal with him? If not, I can kill him for you.' Qiuyue's voice suddenly resounded in Su Yang's head.

He turned to look at her, who wore a subtle but worrying expression on her peerless face.

'Don't worry. His poison is useless if he cannot touch me,' said Su Yang using spiritual sense.

He then turned to look at Chief Long and smiled, "Now that your element of surprise is gone, what will you do? As long I avoid your strikes, you will never be able to defeat me."

"But can you keep avoiding them?!" Chief Long rushed at Su Yang again while brandishing his claws at him as though they were swords.

"Are you even trying to hit me? You should put more effort into it, or you won't even catch my clothes," said Su Yang as he casually avoids all of Chief Long's attacks.

A few minutes of chasing later, Chief Long is still having difficulties hitting Su Yang, who was as slippery as an eel.

The people watching this were dumbfounded. It felt like they were watching two people playing tag rather than two people fighting.

"Che! What an annoying movement technique!" Chief Long snickered as he desperately tried to match with Su Yang's speed.

However, despite the vast difference in their cultivation base, Chief Long was unable to rival Su Yang's speed that was faster than even the wind.

'It's fine! Even if I cannot catch him, my spiritual energy limit is much higher than his! He will exhaust his spiritual energy before I am even close to running out!' Chief Long thought to himself.

"..."

Upon seeing the confident grin on Chief Long's face, Su Yang could easily guess what he was thinking and spoke, "If you are thinking that you can simply wait for me to exhaust my spiritual energy, then I will have to disappoint you since I have enough spiritual energy stored up to keep dodging like this for days without rest."

"W-What...? Impossible! As if I'd fall for such a trick! Even if you have more power than me, there's simply no way that someone at the 3rd level of the Heavenly Spirit Realm could have more spiritual energy than someone at the peak of the Heavenly Spirit Realm!" Chief Long sneered. Not even a child would fall for this obvious lie.

"You don't have to believe me, since you will have to accept it later. In fact, why don't we speed up a little bit?"

Su Yang's leg movements suddenly changed, and his speed nearly doubled instantly.

"W-What?!"

Chief Long stopped chasing after Su Yang after seeing his ridiculous speed, which left not even a shadow behind. He felt like he was trying to catch a lightning bolt as a mortal — it was simply impossible.

"What kind of movement technique is that?" Even Qiuyue was surprised by Su Yang's new movements. Although they looked similar to the Nine Astral Steps, it was more profound and advanced.

"Although it may appear to be a different movement technique, he's actually still using the Nine Astral Steps, you know?" Tang Lingxi suddenly appeared beside Qiuyue and said.

"Senior Sister! What do you mean by that? Has he been using a fake technique all along?"

"This is supposed to be a secret that only those who have learned the technique can know, but since I consider you my family, I will let you know. The Nine Astral Step is known to be a single technique, but in reality, there are nine movement techniques hidden within," said Tang Lingxi.

"The Nine Astral Step is an Ancient Movement Technique that existed even before the Primordial Era, and as its name suggests, consists of nine levels of movement techniques, each stronger and faster than the next. Su Yang has only been using the first movement technique up to this point due to his lack of cultivation base, and now that he's reached the Heavenly Spirit Realm, he can finally use the second step of the technique."

After hearing Tang Lingxi's explanation, Qiuyue couldn't help but exclaim with a shocked voice, "If the second step is already this fast, just how fast is the ninth step?!"

Tang Lingxi smiled and said, "In my case, when I use the ninth step, I can traverse from star to star in the blink of an eye. It can even defy the laws of space and time and travel through the void — almost like the Dimension Rift."

"..."

Qiuyue was speechless. As one would have expected from the Asura God Clan, one of the strongest powers in all of Four Divine Heavens. Not only are their people ridiculously powerful but so are the techniques they practice.

"What are you, a damn cockroach?! Stop running away and fight me like a real warrior!" Chief Long was beginning to get irritated and tired of Su Yang's antics. At this rate, he will run out of energy before retrieving the Black Dragon Axe.

"If you are telling me to just stand there and let you touch me with poison, then I will have to decline your offer." Su Yang responded a moment later.

"Then you leave me with no other choice!" Chief Long suddenly stopped chasing after Su Yang and turned to look in a certain direction before running in that direction.

"?!?!!" Qin Liangyu was baffled when Chief Long suddenly looked at her with a malicious gaze.

"Let's see if you save this young lady while dodging my attack!" Chief Long shouted as his poisoned claws approached the dazed Qin Liangyu.

Chapter 447 I've Got You Now!

"Where the hell do you think you are going?"

When Chief Long suddenly switched targets to Qin Liangyu, Su Yang's eyes flickered with killing intent, and he used the second level of Nine Astral Step to appear behind Chief Long in the blink of an eye.

However, a wide grin appeared on Chief Long's face as she suddenly turned around to face Su Yang, almost like he'd been waiting for this exact moment.

"I've got you now!" Chief Long pounced his claws at Su Yang with extreme speed, arriving at Su Yang's face before faster than one can blink his eyes.

"Su Yang!" Qiuyue's heart expanded to its maximum with anxiety upon seeing this, and she began flying at them in hopes that she could make it in time to protect him.

However, someone grabbed onto her shoulders and forced her to stop before she could move very far.

Qiuyue turned around to see Tang Lingxi, who calmly shook her head.

"Calm down, Junior Sister. Do you think this is his first time fighting or something? He'll be fine."

Qiuyue looked a bit dazed for a moment. She then turned around to watch the situation again.

"Eh?"

Qiuyue's eyes widened with shock when she saw the scene. A moment ago, Chief Long had attempted to trick Su Yang into lowering his guard by suddenly targeting Qin Liangyu, before turning around to attack him.

But now that she's looking at the situation again, Su Yang was perfectly fine. As for Chief Long... he stood there with a terrified expression, and the arm that was an inch away from Su Yang's handsome face had suddenly been separated from his body and landed a few meters away!

It looked like Chief Long's arm had been severed by something sharp — something like a sword. However, Su Yang's hands were empty, so it was impossible that he'd been struck by a sword.

"W-What did you do to me?" Chief Long coughed up a mouthful of blood before he began swaying backward.

"Did you really think that I would fall for something so basic?" Su Yang stared directly into Chief Long's eyes, who felt like he was as naked as an open book before Su Yang's sharp gazes.

"And I don't need a weapon to kill someone like you. My hands are just enough." Su Yang continued.

"I was playing with you just now, since you are partially responsible for the Lion Tribe's actions today, and I was prepared to return to you the Black Dragon Axe after some time, but you had to go ahead and do something as stupid as targeting Chief Qin."

Although his hands were empty, they lingered with Sword Qi.

The place was dead silent, and the people from the Boar Tribe were all staring at Su Yang as though he was the God of War.

"P-Please... spare my life... I won't ask you to return the Black Dragon Axe anymore..." Chief Long trembled in fear.

Even though Su Yang's cultivation base is significantly lower than his own, the difference in their strength and techniques were worlds apart. It felt like he was fighting with someone who has countless years more experience than himself.

"Don't worry, I never intended to kill you in the first place. I also know why you are targeting the Boar Tribe, so let me tell you this — the thing you are looking for is no longer with the Boar Tribe, since it's in my hands now."

"Of course, you are always welcomed to try and take it from me like the Black Dragon Axe."

Chief Long's eyes widened again, but he didn't say anything, as he was speechless.

"There's no longer any reason why you should come near the Boar Tribe again. I can't guarantee that you will leave with your life the next time you come here. Am I making myself clear?" Su Yang spoke to Chief Long in a commanding voice, leaving no opportunity for him to refuse.

"I-I understand..." Chief Long nodded his head in a stiff movement.

"Good. Then get out of my sight."

After saying those words, Su Yang turned around and no longer paid attention to Chief Long, who quickly scurried away from the Boar Tribe.

"Are you okay?" Su Yang approached Qin Liangyu with a smile on his face afterward.

"Y-Yes..." Qin Liangyu slowly nodded her head with a dazed expression.

"It's unfortunate that I was unable to save everyone from the Boar Tribe. I'm sorry."

Su Yang said as he looked at the surroundings.

The Boar Tribe was littered with corpses as of this moment. While the majority of them belonged to the Lion Tribe, there were many fallen warriors from the Boar Tribe's side, too.

"No... you have done nothing that would require you to apologize, Senior Su. If not for you, there would have been far more casualties. Thank you for saving the Boar Tribe..."

Qin Liangyu suddenly got onto her knees and kowtowed to him.

When the other tribesmen saw their Chief's action, they also knelt on the ground and kowtowed to Su Yang, thanking him in silence.

"Stand up. Although the war is over, there's still work to be done here."

Qin Liangyu then stood up and spoke in a loud voice, "We are going to clean this place up!"

"Yes, Chief!"

Sometime later, Qiuyue and Tang Lingxi approached Su Yang.

"Are you okay, Su Yang?" Qiuyue asked him.

"I am fine—"

"Stop lying." Tang Ling suddenly interrupted.

"You used Celestial Qi during both of your fights. Although you may appear fine on the outside, I can tell that you are actually exhausted."

"Eh? Really?!" Qiuyue was dumbfounded. It's no wonder why he was able to overpower two peak Heavenly Spirit Realm experts with such ease!

Su Yang showed a smile and said, "I really can't hide anything from you, Lingxi."

"Indeed, I feel a little tired. But besides feeling sleepy, I am really fine. I want to adapt to the Celestial Qi in my body, so I have been training with it."

"Don't push yourself too hard. It's not easy to control Celestial Qi, and that's true even for me." Tang Lingxi said.

"I won't—"

Before he could even finish his words, his vision blacken.

"S-Su Yang!!!"

His sudden collapse greatly startled Qiuyue, and she immediately went to catch his falling body.

"Relax, Junior Sister. He's only sleeping. He'll be fine after a few days of rest." Tang Lingxi said to her, relieving her of her worries.

Chapter 448 Recruiting Bed Partners

"W-What happened to him?! Is he injured?!" Qin Liangyu rushed to Qiuyue when she saw Su Yang collapsing into her arms.

"He'll be fine after some rest." Tang Lingxi explained to her like she did to Qiuyue. "Though, he will need to replenish his spiritual energy after he wakes up, or it might harm his body later."

"Something to replenish his spiritual energy, right? I will gather as much as spirit meat or spiritual herbs for him!" Qin Liangyu spoke with enthusiasm. She had been waiting for an opportunity to be helpful to him for once.

However, Tang Lingxi waved her hand and said in a calm voice, "Although ordinary resources will suffice, it's not the most effective, and you will need a lot to replenish the vast amount of Profound Qi inside him."

Qin Liangyu raised her eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

"Then what would you suggest, Senior Tang? We only have spirit meat and medicine," she then asked.

"Do you know what Dual Cultivation is?" Tang Lingxi asked her.

"No, I do not." Qin Liangyu shook her head.

Meanwhile, Qiuyue looked at Tang Lingxi with wide eyes.

"Are you telling her to cultivate with him? You won't mind it?" Qiuyue couldn't help but ask Tang Lingxi, who did not seem like the type to share things, especially when it comes to her own man.

"If I were in the position to pick myself, I would rather be the one to cultivate with him. However, I am in Hong Yu'er's body, and I had promised her that I wouldn't defy it."

"As for you... unless you don't mind dying after cultivating with him, then you can go ahead and replenish his Profound Qi."

"You also know about the Sacred Moon Palace's curse?" Qiuyue was surprised, as even she wasn't aware of it until Su Yang told her.

"Of course. I know almost everything about the Sacred Moon Palace, and that includes the curse that enslaves its own people, forcing them to marry people from the same bloodline. And to be honest with you, I have always disliked the Sacred Moon Palace and its people. There were even times where I wanted to wipe them out."

"..."

Qiuyue was speechless. To think the Sacred Moon Palace was on the verge of destruction multiple times without being aware.

"However, I don't dislike you, since you are very different from the rest of the Moon Clan. Unlike those cold and emotionless bastards, you're cute, passionate, and my Junior Sister."

Qiuyue immediately blushed after hearing such words, even lowering her head slightly to her the redness on her face.

"Anyway..." Tang Lingxi returned to Qin Liangyu and continued to speak, "Dual Cultivation is when two people of the opposite sex share body warmth and their special Qi with each other. In other words, you're sleeping with each other."

"T-T-That's...!"

Qin Liangyu was baffled after learning what kind of practice Dual Cultivation was. Does this mean Tang Lingxi wanted someone to have sex with Su Yang? This is the kind of situation that one would normally never expect.

"Even if it's for Senior Su... I can't do that! After all, I am still a virgin! And I am only allowed to give my body to whoever will become the next Chief of the Boar Tribe! Furthermore, even without that rule that has existed for hundreds of years, I am not worthy to be doing such acts with someone as excellent as Senior Su!" Qin Liangyu began to panic.

The only reason Qin Liangyu's position as Chief of the Boar Tribe is only temporary and not permanent is that only men are allowed to be the Chief.

And if the previous Chief only has a daughter, that daughter will give her body to whoever will become the next Chief, and that person is usually the strongest warrior in the tribe.

Currently, in the Boar Tribe, the best candidate for becoming the next Chief was Lebao, who is not only loyal to the tribe but also their strongest warrior.

"Ignoring whether you are worthy or not to be his partner, I never specifically asked for you to help him replenish his energy." Tang Lingxi spoke with a teasing smile on her face.

"There are plenty of other women in this tribe, and I'm sure that some of them will be willing to assist their Savior, especially when he's as handsome and strong as Su Yang."

"..."

Upon hearing Tang Lingxi's words, Qin Liangyu's face instantly blew up with redness. To think she'd make the mistake of assuming that Tang Lingxi was only talking about her — that she was the only woman in this place. Qin Liangyu felt like digging a hole and burying herself at this moment.

"By the way, while it's not necessary, it would be more effective if his partners are virgins, since their Pure Yin Essence is still intact."

"I-I will immediately ask around and make arrangements! E-Excuse me!"

Unable to bear her embarrassment, Qin Liangyu quickly left the scene to ask the women in the tribe for assistance.

Qin Liangyu then made her way around the settlement and recruiting bed partners for Su Yang, asking if they wanted to assist him while being pleased at the same time.

"What? That handsome young man needs a sleeping partner to replenish his Profound Qi? Of course, I am willing to assist! He saved our tribe, after all! No — even if he didn't save us, I wouldn't mind giving my body to someone like him. This is the least I can do!"

"This is not a funny joke if you are joking with me, Chief Qin. What? It's not a joke and you are serious? Of course, I will gladly be his partner!"

"I get to share a bed with that handsome warrior who slaughtered the Lion Tribe all by himself? Why didn't you come to me sooner!"

Qin Liangyu was speechless. Although women in the Southern Region are all attracted to strong men, she didn't expect that it would be so easy to find people who are willing to offer their body to Su Yang. Even the maidens that have been very careful up to this point when choosing their partners did not hesitate when asked to give their Pure Yin Essence to Su Yang and were even delighted by such a request.

Chapter 449 30,000

Sometime later, after making her way around the Boar Tribe's settlement and speaking with many women, Qin Liangyu finally returned to Tang Lingxi and Qiuyue with over 30 beautiful women by her side.

Qin Liangyu had recruited nearly all of the beauties within the Boar Tribe. From the young maidens who still have their Pure Yin Essence intact to mature women that already have partners, they all gathered there to help replenish Su Yang's Profound Qi.

"Senior Tang, I have finished gathering individuals who wish to help Senior Su. There are thirty-two women here, and 12 of them are still pure maidens. They are not only the most talented individuals in the tribe but they also have the best appearances and figures."

"You really went out of your way, huh..."

Tang Lingxi was surprised to see how many women Qin Liangyu had brought back with her.

"You can choose any one of these women to help Senior Su, since all of them are aware of the situation and have already agreed to help." Qin Liangyu said.

The thirty-two women there silently stared at Tang Lingxi, each hoping to be the one that Tang Lingxi chooses to be Su Yang's partner.

Ever since they have witnessed Su Yang's prowess, they have been thinking how nice it would be if they could serve a man like him. But little did anyone of them expect that such a dream would become a reality so quickly.

"Is there something wrong, Senior Tang?" Qin Liangyu asked her many moments later when Tang Lingxi still stood there without choosing any of them.

"If they are not suitable, I will try to find more..."

However, before Qin Liangyu could even finish her sentence, Tang Lingxi spoke.

"I don't need to choose one of them. All of them can help him at once."

"Huh?"

Qin Liangyu and the women there stared at Tang Lingxi with a dumbfounded expression, and they remained dazed even many moments later.

No matter how talented or how strong Su Yang may be, there's simply no way that he could handle all thirty-two women by himself, right?

If someone really has the energy to Dual Cultivate with thirty-two women at once, he could no longer be considered as a mere man, but a beast instead — at least that is how the people from the Boar Tribe saw it.

"Why are you looking at me like I am lying? You don't believe me that he can handle all thirty-two of you with ease?" Tang Lingxi said to them after noticing the doubt in their stares. "He has Dual Cultivated with numbers ten times that amount in one go before in the past, you know."

"T-Ten times?!"

The people there dropped their jaws after hearing such a thing. Even Qiuyue couldn't help but stare at her with her eyes as wide as saucers. This is her first time hearing something like this, and it left an indescribably complicated feeling in her heart afterward.

"I only said ten times because I don't want to sound crazy, since his record is actually much... much higher than that..." Tang Lingxi chuckled.

"Anyway, if all thirty-two of you are willing to provide assistance, I want all of you to help him. There's no need to worry that you won't get a chance, since he will definitely not leave any women in the same room unsatisfied even if he dies."

The thirty-two beauties exchanged glances before nodding, accepting this weird situation much faster than Qin Liangyu expected.

'I can't believe it. Who could've thought that someone who appears as noble and pure as Senior Su would have such a side to him.' Qin Liangyu thought to herself, as she could've never imagined that such a bizarre method of cultivation would exist in this world.

"Good, then come back here in three days. He should be awake by then." Tang Lingxi said to them, and she continued, "In the meantime, you should clean your body, organize your appearance, and prepare your heart. It's going to be an experience you'll never forget for the rest of your lives."

Tang Lingxi spoke with a mysterious smile on her face, causing the thirty-two women to tremble.

Once the thirty-two women left, Qiuyue asked Tang Lingxi, "What you said just now... is it true?"

"What would you do if it was?" Tang Lingxi looked at her with a nonchalant expression.

"Su Yang... he rarely tells me anything about himself. I just want to know more about him, even if that information is not something I'd like to hear." Qiuyue spoke with a solemn expression.

Despite their relationship, Su Yang has never spoken to her about his past, so she knows almost nothing about him besides the secret relationship he had with her mother.

Hearing Qiuyue's words and seeing her face, Tang Lingxi smiled and spoke, "Su Yang... there was this one time when he was invited to a Sect as a guest lecturer. One thing led to another, and he somehow ended up cultivating with nearly every female disciple in that Sect."

"What?!" Qiuyue's eyes popped out from shock.

But Tang Lingxi was not finished.

"I forgot to mention this, but this Sect only accepted female Cultivators, so he essentially slept with the entire Sect, which had over 30,000 disciples at the time."

"T-T-Thirty thousand... disciples...?" Qiuyue staggered from shock, looking like a single breath from a mortal child could cause her to collapse.

"It's a bit funny talking about it now, but at that time, the incident brought Su Yang a lot of trouble, and he nearly stopped being a Dual Cultivator afterward." Tang Lingxi chuckled.

"And after Su Yang left that Sect, he disappeared for ten whole years. If I had to guess, he probably slept like a baby the entire time to recover his energy."

"C-Can I ask what was the name of this Sect?" Qiuyue asked her later.

"Past tense? This place still exists even today. In fact, they are even one of the top Sects within the Four Divine Heavens — the Heaven's Sacred Garden!"

"Wait, what?! Heaven's Sacred Garden?! Impossible! I was supposed to become a disciple at that place if I hadn't run away from the Sacred Moon Palace!" Qiuyue began to sweat profusely.

"Oh?" Tang Lingxi looked at her with a surprised look.

"But that place has a flawless reputation! I have never heard of such an incident in that place, and there's no way that such a massive event did not go down in history with the whole world knowing it!" Qiuyue was in disbelief.

"I don't know what to say besides that they have found a way to cover this incident and swept it under the rug. In fact, if Su Yang didn't tell me about it, even I would not have known about this story. It happened over twenty thousand years ago, too."

"U-Unbelievable... To think he would've had such an experience." Qiuyue wiped the sweat from her forehead.

"Trust me, if this story is shocking for you, he has plenty more stories that will directly knock your eyes out of its sockets if you heard them. If you ask him, I'm sure that he wouldn't mind telling you one or two stories. However, if you continue acting so reserved towards him, you will never truly understand him."

Hearing Tang Lingxi's words, Qiuyue silently nodded.

Chapter 450 Thirty-Two Cultivation Partners 18+

A little over three days have passed ever since Su Yang collapsed after using Celestial Qi to defeat two Heavenly Spirit Realm Cultivators.

When he reopened his eyes, Tang Lingxi was casually sipping tea beside him.

"You're finally awake." Tang Lingxi quickly noticed his presence and placed the tea down.

"It's been three days since you collapsed."

"I see... I'm sorry if I made you worry." Su Yang sat up on the bed with a headache and a feeling of weakness in his body. Perhaps he'd overused the Celestial Qi in his body a little too much, hence this backlash.

"Anyway, you are lacking Profound Qi, right? I have already prepared for you a recovery method to replenish your Profound Qi."

"Oh? What do you have prepared for me?" he asked her.

Tang Lingxi then turned around to look at the exit and spoke loudly, "You can come inside now, ladies."

The next moment, the thirty-two women that had agreed to become Su Yang's partners entered the hut, and it quickly crowded the place.

"This is..." Su Yang looked at them with wide eyes.

These women all wore revealing clothes that barely covered their erotic areas, and they had a bashful expression on their faces. If he had to guess why these beauties were standing before him with such seductive appearances, they were definitely there to replenish his Profound Qi.

"What's the meaning of this?" Although he had a pretty good grasp of the situation, he decided to ask them anyway.

"When these women here heard that you were injured and required assistance, they gladly agreed to offer their body to help you recover. I would actually prefer it if I personally help you, but as you already know, my situation does not allow it."

"..."

After a moment of silence, Su Yang asked thirty-two women there, "Are you sure that you want to do this? Although I greatly appreciate you being here, you don't really have to do this."

"We want to do this, Savior. Please, allow us to do at least this much for you, who saved our tribe and the lives within."

"Even if you didn't save our tribe, I would be willing to be your partner, Savior!"

The thirty-two women there began to express their feelings to Su Yang until he nodded with a smile.

"I understand. I will cultivate with you girls. However, this place is a little bit too small and cramped to fit all of us comfortably," said Su Yang as he looked around the hut.

"You don't have to worry about that, since you will be cultivating elsewhere. We have already prepared a hut with enough room to fit all thirty-three of you comfortably." Tang Lingxi said.

"Then what are we waiting for? Lead the way." Su Yang quickly stood up from the bed.

The headache he had just moments ago had seemingly disappeared, and the weakness in his body became filled with energy.

Sometime later, Su Yang and his thirty-two partners transferred from the small hut to one that was three times larger. At glance, it was obvious that the hut had been created in a hurry, so it did not look as elegant as the existing ones. However, the interior of the place was extremely clean and simple. The lighting was not too bright nor too dark, it was perfectly dim. There was also a sweet fragrance inside the hut, making the already calm atmosphere even more pleasant.

In the middle of the room, there was a large bed that was made of wood from the nearby trees, and multiple large blankets stuffed with soft feathers covered the bed.

"At this size, it could even fit 50 people with ease." Su Yang nodded with a pleased expression.

While the place appeared to be simple and cheap, it had a certain wild feeling in the atmosphere that could not be replicated in the Eastern Continent.

"I will now leave all of you alone. Have fun." Tang Lingxi said to them before leaving Su Yang alone with thirty-two women in the hut.

"Before we start, why don't you girls introduce yourselves? I like to know a little bit about my partners before we cultivate."

"I will start with the introduction. My name is Su Yang, and I want you to address me as such when we cultivate. That means there will be no 'Savior' or anything of that sort while we are inside this place."

The thirty-two women there nodded in acknowledgment before they proceeded to introduce themselves.

Sometime later, when Su Yang became aware of the names of all thirty-two women, they began cultivating.

"Who wants to be first?" Su Yang asked them once they began.

A few seconds later, a petite girl with short black hair stepped forward.

"I will be the first to assist you, Su... Su Yang," said the young lady as she loosened the straps on her shoulders, allowing her one-piece clothing to slide down her slender body.

Su Yang also removed his clothes, revealing his well-tuned body, jadelike skin, and his fully erected penis.

"So... so big!"

The girls gasped in shock when they saw the beast for the first time. Not even the experienced women there have seen such a large monster before, and of course, none of them expected that he would have such a large package hidden underneath his robes this entire time.

"Come over here." Su Yang invited the young girl with an enchanting smile and open arms.

The young lady nodded with a bashful smile and slowly approached him.

Once she was close enough, Su Yang grabbed her hand and pulled her petite body into his embrace.

"Since this is your first time, I want you to get used to the feeling first."

"How did you know?" The girl was surprised, as she does not recall ever telling him that she was a virgin.

"I just do." Su Yang said with a smile.

He then laid her body on the bed, before sliding his fingers down her smooth skin until it reached her slit and caressed it like a baby.

"Ahhh!"

The young maiden immediately felt a shock circulate throughout her body, causing it to tremble.

"Relax your body and enjoy it..."

Su Yang mumbled in a gentle voice as his lips approached the exotic flower between the maiden's legs, licking the delicious sap that was trickling from her vagina.

"Ohhhh~"

"Ahhhh!"

"Mmmm~"

The young maiden moaned loudly, feeling a heavenly sensation that she could not describe, allowing it to dominate her body without any resistance.

When the other thirty-one women saw the young maiden's blissful expression as Su Yang savored her body, they began getting impatient, their body temperature and sexual desires soared, and they even began panting.

Their cultivation session has only just begun, yet all of them couldn't wait until it was their turn to experience whatever that young maiden was feeling with Su Yang.

Meanwhile, outside the hut, Qin Liangyu guarded the scene. She wanted to make sure that nobody could disturb whatever was happening inside the hut even at the cost of her life.

However, when she started hearing sounds of pleasure coming from inside the hut, her mind was instantly overwhelmed by her own imaginations. Soon, she even began feeling a tingly sensation coming from the lower area of her body.

'If only I wasn't born as the Chief's daughter, perhaps I might be inside with the others right now...' she sighed inwardly.
