

Chapter 451

Passionate Imaginations 18+

The moaning inside the hut behind Qin Liangyu only grew louder as time passed. In fact, it had gotten to the point where even the other people inside their own huts were able to hear the moaning very clearly.

'Good heavens, am I going to have to stand here and listen to this until they are done?! This is torture!' Qin Liangyu cried inwardly as she was powerless to stop the noises coming from behind her.

Half an hour later, the moans had affected Qin Liangyu so much that her mind was filled with nothing but perverted thoughts, imagining herself being in the position of whoever was moaning behind the covers.

In her head, she was being embraced by Su Yang, and they were both naked. He would lick all over her body, and she would do the same for him. Then she imagined her flower being caressed by Su Yang, and then it was her turn to rub his penis with her mouth. Finally, she imagined Su Yang inserting his penis into her vagina, becoming a single entity at that moment.

However, in the midst of her dreaming, Tang Lingxi appeared before her and said, "I forgot to surround this place with a sound-sealing formation."

A few moments later, an invisible barrier surrounded the hut, causing all of the moaning from the inside to die out.

"Are you okay? You are panting pretty heavily." Tang Lingxi said to her afterward with a mysterious smile on her face.

"I-I am fine!" Qin Liangyu hastily responded. She cannot let Tang Lingxi know that she was affected by the moaning and daydreamed about dual cultivating with Su Yang, especially after refusing to be his partner due to her position as the Chief.

"Then if you need anything, you can find me on the flying boat." Tang Lingxi said to her before leaving.

"..."

However, even though Tang Lingxi has prevented the moaning from continuing to escape the hut and torturing her mind, Qin Liangyu's body still could not calm down. In fact, she felt even more stimulated by the silence, as it made it easier for her to imagine things!

'Ah... this is not good... I cannot believe that I would have such vulgar thoughts about Senior Su!'

Even Qin Liangyu was surprised by her own capabilities and perverted mind, as this has never happened before. It was almost as if she had been a pervert all along, and hearing the moaning had awakened the pervertedness that had been sleeping deep within her nature.

At the end of the day, even if she holds the position of Chief for one of the top tribes within the Southern Region, Qin Liangyu is still a young lady in her early twenties with a healthy mind and body, and it is normal for young ladies around her age to have such desires, especially when they are in the presence of a dreamy man like Su Yang.

Meanwhile, inside the hut, Su Yang just inserted his penis into the 13th woman there.

"Oh my god! It feels even bigger inside me!" The woman moaned loudly upon feeling Su Yang's thick penis throbbing inside her wet vagina.

After penetrating the woman's closed gates, Su Yang began moving his hips, brushing his hard penis against her soft inner walls while making wet noises.

"Ahhh! Ahhh! Ahhhhh~!"

The woman moaned wildly while her flower quirts out a fountain of Yin Qi.

Showered with Yin Qi, Su Yang silently absorbed it to replenish his Profound Qi. However, he did not stop moving his hips even as he absorbed the Yin Qi, which usually requires one's peak concentration.

This is something only achievable by those who can dual cultivate as easily and mindlessly as breathing — something only Su Yang can achieve.

"I-I can't take it anymore! Any more of this and I will really go crazy!"

It took less than five minutes for the woman in Su Yang's embrace to give up due to exhaustion, as the stimulation was too much for her body to handle. And once she retires to the side of the bed to rest, another woman takes her place in Su Yang's embrace, allowing him to cultivate continuously and without rest.

Three hours later, all of the thirty-two women there have experienced Su Yang's techniques at least once, and not a single one of them were unsatisfied by his divine touch.

However, Su Yang did not even break a sweat after cultivating with these thirty-two women. In fact, his Profound Qi had barely recovered by one-tenth of its full capacity.

At this rate, he'd have to cultivate with them at least ten times over the next two days before he's fully recovered his Profound Qi.

Of course, this was not a problem for Su Yang, who once handled over 30,000 women at once. Instead, the problem laid with his thirty-two partners, as it is almost certain that they would not be able to last for that long even if they rested in-between each session.

With that being said, he did not need to recover his Profound Qi entirely — only enough to stabilize his condition.

"I will now cultivate the Yin Qi I have gathered. Once you have recovered enough stamina and wish to go for round two, just let me know. If you do not wish to continue, then you may leave at any time."

Su Yang said to them before he closed his eyes to focus on recovering his strength.

An hour later, one of the women there approached Su Yang and spoke, "Su Yang, I am ready for round two."

The young lady was aware that this was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity and that it might never happen again once they leave this place, so she wanted to take full advantage of their current situation to cultivate with Su Yang as much as possible before he leaves forever.

Su Yang opened his eyes, looked at the petite young lady, and he nodded with a smile.

"Come here."

The young lady then proceeded to spread her legs and sit on his lap, shoving his majesty rod directly into the wet hole between her legs.

"Ooooh~"

Once she could feel Su Yang's penis completely fill up her hole, she began riding it, indulging herself in the pleasure that quickly followed.

Chapter 452 Taking a Peek Inside

Exactly half a day has passed ever since Su Yang began cultivating inside the hut with his thirty-two partners.

In these 12 hours, he'd managed to cultivate with everyone inside at least four times, made them climax countless times, and recovered one-third of his Profound Qi.

And surprisingly, although some of them had to rest for a few hours, none of the thirty-two women inside have fully given up or left the bed yet.

However, it was clear to Su Yang that more than half of these women were either close to their limit or are already at their limit. If he continued to cultivate with them any further, it would not only harm their bodies but it might also burden their mind.

"I can tell that some of you are already at your limit. I greatly appreciate your company and assistance today, but you should leave before I harm your body." Su Yang said to them.

However, they were reluctant to leave.

"Su Yang, I want to continue to help you! Please! I can handle it even if it gets painful!"

"I don't want to leave your side yet, Su Yang... Let's continue to cultivate until you've fully recovered, okay?"

If Su Yang was a greedy individual or simply didn't care about his partners, he would not hesitate to continue cultivating with these women until their bodies become ruined. But as someone who respects all of his partners, Su Yang refused to bring them harm.

Thus, he shook his head and spoke, "I understand your feelings, and I would continue to cultivate with you if I can, but I know when to stop, and you should too. If we continue, I will definitely harm your body, and that is something I cannot bear, especially when you have helped me tremendously."

The women there exchanged glances with each other. A few moments later, they nodded.

"Although we were supposed to be the one helping you, we ended up being the ones who enjoyed it the most. Thank you, for accepting us."

The women bowed to him before they dressed and left the hut.

A few minutes later, the bed that supported thirty-two women now only occupied ten of them.

Once the room was quiet again, the remaining ten women returned to cultivating with Su Yang. They found themselves fortunate enough to remain by his side even if it was just a little bit longer than the others.

Meanwhile, on the outside, when Qin Liangyu noticed the women coming out, she asked them, "Are you finished with your business?"

They shook their heads and said, "No, we were kicked out."

"What?" Qin Liangyu was speechless. Why did Su Yang kick them out? Did they offend him by any chance?

"If any of you had offended him, I will..."

Before Qin Liangyu could even finish her sentence, she was interrupted by the women coming out, "You have misunderstood, Chief Qin. We didn't do anything wrong. We have cultivated with him for twelve hours straight, and our body is at its limit. Su Yang didn't want to harm our body, so he let us go early."

"That's right. If you also cultivated with him, you would understand how exhausting it is to moan for hours without rest."

"T-That's..." Qin Liangyu was speechless.

"By the way, are you okay, Chief Qin?"

One of the women suddenly asked her.

"Why do you ask?" Qin Liangyu raised her eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

The woman then pointed at her nose and said, "Your nose is bleeding, Chief Qin."

"What?!"

Qin Liangyu quickly touched her nose. When she saw blood on her fingers, her body froze. The cause of this nosebleed was obvious, as she has been thinking of too many stimulating things in her head.

"I-I am fine..." she said as she wiped the blood off her nose.

"A-Anyway, thank you for your assistance. I will reward you later." Qin Liangyu said.

"There's no need, Chief Qin. We have already been rewarded plenty inside."

"If you say so..."

Qin Liangyu's urges grew even more intense after hearing such words. At this rate, she might really reconsider being Su Yang's partner as well.

A few minutes later, when she was alone again, Qin Liangyu stared at the curtain that was acting as a door before her.

'Behind this thin layer, Senior Su and the others are currently doing that with each other...'

Qin Liangyu forcefully swallowed and mumbled to herself, "It wouldn't hurt if I took a peek, right?"

Her hand slowly approached the curtain, trembling the entire way. Just a little more and she could see the inside.

"No! I shouldn't do something like this!"

Qin Liangyu suddenly jerked her hand back and returned to standing there silently.

However, her sexual desire only became stronger and stronger, almost as though she was possessed by a lustful demon.

'I can't suppress these desires! But if I took a peek, perhaps it might help me calm down! I will only look briefly!'

With this logic in mind, Qin Liangyu's hands began making their way back to the curtain blocking her view.

A few seconds later, with her entire hand trembling, she opened a slit in the curtains and peeked the scene inside the hut.

"?!?!?!"

When Qin Liangyu saw the scene inside, her eyes opened wide with shock, and the flower between her legs tingled with a delightful feeling.

Through the small opening she made, Qin Liangyu was able to witness one of the women wantonly riding on Su Yang's raging erection with a lecherous expression. And although there was no noise coming out because of the sound-sealing formation, she could somehow hear the woman's blissful moaning resounding in her ears — even if it was just her imagination.

'Oh my heavens... they have been going at it like this for half the day? Just how energetic is he?!' Qin Liangyu was speechless.

Once she saw the hot scene inside, Qin Liangyu was instantly mesmerized, quickly forgetting about her own promise to only take a quick peek and continued to stand there for many minutes without realizing it.

Chapter 453 You Will Only Become a Liability for Him

After Qin Liangyu took a peek inside the hut she was supposed to be protecting, it was almost as though time had stopped for her, as she stood there watching everything that happened inside with a frozen body.

If not for her panting, one could've easily mistaken her for a real statue.

From one girl to another, Qin Liangyu watched as Su Yang inserted his penis into the girls' body before fiercely shaking his hips, providing his partner with endless pleasure.

"W-What is the Chief doing?"

"I don't know, but I have a feeling that we shouldn't bother her..."

When the tribesmen noticed Qin Liangyu's strange behavior, they instinctively knew to ignore her and pretended they didn't see her acting like a peeping pervert.

Meanwhile, on the flying ship a few miles away from the Boar Tribe, Tang Lingxi approached Qiuyue and asked her, "Hey, did you learn anything new about the Mirror of Darkness from the Dragon Tribe?"

Qiuyue nodded and said, "Apparently, the Mirror of Darkness once belonged to an individual, but he lost it somehow."

"So it's not a treasure made by nature?"

"No, and I think I know who used to own the Mirror of Darkness."

"Oh? Tell me more about it."

Qiuyue proceeded to explain to Tang Lingxi about the Spatial Device that she and Su Yang found, before talking about the individual who owned it.

"He is someone from the Heavenly Order, and we found his remains inside the Spatial Device. Apparently he was injured in a war that your Asura God Clan was also involved in before he somehow appeared in this world and died here."

"Heavenly Order, huh?" Tang Lingxi did not show much of a reaction and continued, "The Asura God Clan went to war with the Heavenly Emperor to avenge Su Yang's 'death', and we fought each other plenty of times over the years. We also killed many from the Heavenly Order and injured countless others."

"As for how this guy appeared in this world... I have a guess..." Tang Lingxi suddenly said.

She continued a moment later, "During our last fight with the Heavenly Order, things got a bit heated, and we accidentally created a Dimension Rift, which sucked up many victims. Perhaps this guy was one of these victims and traveled to this world by chance."

"Y-You created a Dimension Rift by accident? How did you end up creating such a catastrophe?!" Qiuyue exclaimed with shock.

When an enormous amount of Profound Qi collides with another enormous amount of Profound Qi, there is a slight chance that a Dimension Rift could be born, and when that happens, it would consume everything in a vicinity, before tossing them out randomly around the universe.

"If he got consumed by a Dimensional Rift, it would explain how he ended up in this world," Qiuyue said.

"And if the Mirror of Darkness is owned by someone from the Heavenly Order, there's a very high chance that he'd received it from the Celestial Palace," said Tang Lingxi.

The Celestial Palace is sort of the headquarters for the Heavenly Order. It is also the Heavenly Emperor's treasury, where countless treasures are stored.

If someone from the Heavenly Order shows exceptional results or did something worthy of recognition, they would receive a treasure from the Celestial Palace. Perhaps this Mirror of Darkness came from the Celestial Palace.

"Even though we know its origins, we still do not know if it'll help us return to the Four Divine Heavens." Qiuyue sighed.

"We might not know anything, but Su Yang... he might have an idea."

"What? Why would you say that?" Qiuyue lifted her eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

"I can't say for sure, but he seems to recognize the Mirror of Darkness. He just hasn't fully recalled yet."

"I see..."

Once they were finished with that topic, silence filled the room.

However, a short moment later, Tang Lingxi spoke, "I know what Su Yang is going to do once he returns to the Four Divine Heavens, but what about you? You are currently wanted by the Sacred Moon Palace, right? Do you have any place to go, or will you continue to follow Su Yang?"

"That's..."

Before she could respond, Tang Lingxi continued, "I highly disapprove of you following him."

"W-What? Why?" Qiuyue was greatly surprised, even startled, by Tang Lingxi's words.

"Because it will be too dangerous for you to follow him, and you will only become a burden with your laughably low cultivation base." Tang Lingxi spoke with a cold expression.

"You may be the strongest individual in this place, but once you return to that place, your presence becomes no more than an ant. And if you follow Su Yang around while in that state, you will only become a liability for him."

"Then what am I supposed to do? He's the only reason for my existence now. Without him, I will return to being lost and without a purpose, just like how I had been for 2,000 years in this world before reuniting with him." Qiuyue spoke in a sorrowful voice.

Before she'd reunited with Su Yang, she'd lived a miserable and lonely life for 2,000 years in this place without a single friend or family. In fact, she wasn't even sure that she was actually living.

"If I didn't meet Su Yang, I would've probably killed myself after a few years, as I was feeling more trapped than a bird in a cage in this world, slowly wasting my life away since I could no longer improve my cultivation base with the Profound Qi in this world."

"..."

After a moment of silence, Tang Lingxi spoke, "If you want, you can come with me to the Asura God Clan."

"What?" Qiuyue looked at her with wide eyes.

"Although you are behind in cultivation for someone your age, your talents will never go away. If you come to the Asura God Clan, we can supply you with an almost endless supply of resources for your cultivation and even train you to become someone powerful enough to stand beside Su Yang no matter where he goes."

"The Asura God Clan can also provide you with protection. Even if the Sacred Moon Palace finds out that you are with us, they would not dare to touch you — unless they want to die, that is."

"Y-You would do that for me?" Qiuyue was speechless.

"Of course. We are a family now, after all. And if I willingly let someone Su Yang treasures suffer, I will not be able to face him afterward." Tang Lingxi smiled.

"With all that being said, I don't know if Su Yang has any plans for you, so I am just talking now. I doubt Su Yang will leave you alone once you return to that place, but if you ever want to come to the Asura God Clan, the doors will always be open."

"T-Thank you..." Qiuyue showed a warm smile, and she began seeing Tang Lingxi as a real family member — someone like an Elder Sister to her.

Although her family might only consist of Su Yang and Tang Lingxi for now, it will definitely grow even larger once she returns to the Four Divine Heavens and meets more of Su Yang's partners like Tang Lingxi.

Chapter 454 Can You Take Me With You?

Another five hours have passed since the number of partners Su Yang had lowered to ten, and during these five hours, Qin Liangyu peeked inside for a total of 2 hours.

Every time she found the courage to look away, she would go back to peeking again sometime later.

Meanwhile, inside the hut, the last ten women that lasted this long with Su Yang have also reached their limit. If they continue to cultivate any further, it could harm their body.

"Thank you for giving us these precious experiences. I will never forget my moments with you today for the rest of my life."

The girls kowtowed to him, giving him their utmost respect and gratitude before leaving the hut.

When Qin Liangyu saw these girls coming out and counted their number, she asked, "Are all of you finished?"

The girls nodded and replied, "Although we would love to continue cultivating, our bodies are at its limit, so we have no choice but to leave."

"W-What about Senior Su? Is he okay?"

"He's replenished almost half of his Profound Qi."

"Only half?"

Qin Liangyu was dumbfounded. He'd cultivated with so many women for so long yet only half of his Profound Qi was recovered? Just how powerful is he really?

"I understand. Thank you all for your cooperation." Qin Liangyu said to them.

"No, we should be thanking you for giving us this opportunity to cultivate with him."

The ladies bowed to her before leaving.

Once all the girls were gone, Qin Liangyu spoke loudly, "Senior Su, may I come inside?"

"Come in." Su Yang's calm voice resounded a moment later.

"Excuse me..."

Qin Liangyu lifted the curtain with her hand before walking inside.

However, when she saw that Su Yang was still fully naked and sitting on the bed, she immediately turned around with a blushing face.

"I-I am sorry! I didn't think you would still be..."

Su Yang chuckled at her reaction and spoke, "Isn't it a bit too late to be apologizing?"

"W-What do you mean by that, Senior Su?"

Still with her back facing him, she asked.

"You have been watching us cultivate for a while, right? It was so obvious I nearly laughed out loud when I noticed you. If you wanted to watch, you could've just asked, and I would've let you spectate all you want from a close distance without needing to go through the trouble of peeking from the outside."

"Ah?!?!"

Qin Liangyu's face exploded with redness upon learning that Su Yang knew of her actions all along, and her legs became powerless, causing her to fall on her buttocks.

"I-I am so sorry! If I had offended Senior Su in any way, I will gladly give you this worthless and shameful life as compensation!"

She kowtowed and began begging for forgiveness.

"I don't want your life." Su Yang shook his head.

"T-Then what do you want from me? I am willing to do anything!"

"Hmm..."

After a moment of pondering, Su Yang spoke with a smile on his face, "I want you to help me replenish my Profound Qi. You're interested in it, right? Dual Cultivation, that is. Or else you wouldn't have been staring so intently."

Qin Liangyu stared at him with a dazed expression.

However, once she snapped out of it, she quickly shook her head, "Anything but that, please! That's the one thing I cannot do!"

"Hoh?" Su Yang remained calm and asked, "You were willing to give me your life, but you're not willing to give me your body? Or am I just not your type? Can I hear your reason?"

"It's because I am in the position of Chief, and I have a responsibility to give my body to whoever will become the next Chief — and only to him! If not for my position, I would definitely have accepted your request!

"Is that so..."

Because he was unconscious when Qin Liangyu first mentioned this, he was unaware of her situation.

"Even though I didn't know about your situation, I have to apologize for putting you into such an awkward position in the first place. I'm sorry for my inappropriate request, Chief Qin."

"..."

Upon seeing the regretful expression on his dreamy face, Qin Liangyu became speechless, and her mind blanked for a moment.

"Anyway, although I have not fully recovered, it's good enough for me to move around, so I will be leaving this place now. Thank you for your hospitality and everything the Boar Tribe has done for me." Su Yang said as he began dressing up.

"Eh? You're leaving now?" Qin Liangyu unconsciously asked him.

He nodded and said, "I don't dare to intrude your tribe any longer, and I have people waiting for me to return in other places. Though I will ask Qiuyue to remain here for a little bit longer to find more information on the Mirror of Darkness, so if you need anything, you can just go to her."

Qin Liangyu stood there silently as she watched him dress up.

"Will you return to the Boar Tribe again?" she suddenly asked him.

"I will return in two years for the Mirror of Darkness, but after that, I honestly don't know."

"..."

Qin Liangyu returned to being silent. However, her mind was filled with thoughts at this moment.

By the time Su Yang was half-dressed, Qin Liangyu had thought of many things.

And right as Su Yang was about finished, Qin Liangyu spoke in a low voice, "Senior Su, can you listen to my final request?"

"Hm? What is it?" Su Yang turned around to look at her.

"Can you take me with you?" Qin Liangyu spoke with a resolute expression, her voice as clear as an empty blue sky.

"Eh?"

Su Yang looked a bit surprised after hearing her request, so she continued, "I don't care where you go, I want to follow you."

"Although this may sound very sudden, I have always despised being the Chief ever since I became one. I have disapproved of its traditions ever since I learned it, but because of my father, I had no choice but to accept it. My father... he died after being severely injured by a beast, and it was entirely my fault that it happened, so I felt like I had to take responsibility and continue the tradition."

"If I had never met you, Senior Su, I would've probably chosen Lebao to become the next Chief and as my partner. He's a powerful warrior, and everybody in the tribe likes him. I also respect him as a warrior, but that's the extent of my feelings."

"Since Lebao is qualified to become the next Chief of the Boar Tribe, I will make him the next Chief. However, it won't be because I make him my partner. No... he'll become the next Chief because I will give up my position as Chief and leave the Boar Tribe. As long as you nod your head, Senior Su, I will not hesitate to leave the Boar Tribe and come with you!"

"I know that it hasn't been very long since our first meeting, but I want to be with you, Senior Su! Even if I am only one of many of your partners, I am still willing to follow you!"

"..."

Silence ensued after Qin Liangyu revealed her real feelings and everything that was on her mind.

After a moment of silence, Su Yang spoke, "Su Yang."

"Huh?" Qin Liangyu raised her eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

"If you are serious about following me, then you should at least be able to say my name without any formalities."

Qin Liangyu's eyes widened, and she spoke with a bright expression —

"Su Yang!"

Chapter 455 Taking Her First Time 18+

When Qin Liangyu asked Su Yang to allow her to follow him, she was prepared to be rejected, as Su Yang was someone from an exalted background while she was only a mere Chief for some declining tribe. She felt that even if Su Yang had rejected her, such a decision would be justified and perfectly normal, as she truly did not feel worthy to be by his side.

However, little did she expect that Su Yang actually nodded his head, allowing her to follow him.

A few moments after he accepted her, Su Yang beckoned her to come closer and began removing his clothes again.

Qin Liangyu blushed when she saw his actions and instantly understood the situation. However, she did not refuse this time and slowly approached him with a nervous expression.

Once she was close enough, Su Yang grabbed her by the waist and pulled her into his embrace, and a sweet yet natural fragrance entered through his nose.

"Even though I originally refused to be here, I cleaned my body thoroughly just in case, as Senior Tang had instructed, like the other girls..." Qin Liangyu mumbled in a low voice, her body heating up like crazy from embarrassment.

"You're an honest girl, and I like that..." Su Yang lifted her chin, making her stare at his face and the handsome smile on it.

"I—"

Qin Liangyu opened her mouth to speak, but she was interrupted by a pair of soft lips on her mouth.

"Mmm~!"

Qin Liangyu's mind instantly blanked out after experiencing her first kiss.

"Relax and follow my lead." Su Yang removed his lips for a moment to speak before he sealed her lips again.

Feeling his lips touching hers again, Qin Liangyu closed her eyes and relaxed her body.

Once she was calmer, she began to imitate Su Yang's lip movements and returned his kisses.

A few moments later, Su Yang raised the bar slightly by invading the inside with his tongue, causing Qin Liangyu's body to tremble. However, unlike her first kiss, Qin Liangyu did not freeze and even welcomed his tongue with her own.

"Mmm~"

"Mmmmm~"

The two of them continued to kiss each other for many minutes, filling the quiet room with soft kissing noises.

A few more moments later, Su Yang removed his lips and began removing Qin Liangyu's clothes.

Once she was fully naked, he laid her on the bed and spread her legs.

"Ahh..." Qin Liangyu released a low cry when she felt Su Yang's sharp gaze staring at the flower between her legs.

Although her skin was tanned light brown by the vicious sun above the Southern Region, her flower was beautifully pure and light pink, and it was dripping wet with a thick fluid that emitted a sweet scent.

Su Yang wasted no time shoving his mouth at this untouched flower, savoring everything it offered.

"Ahhhhh~!"

Qin Liangyu moaned loudly, her body twitched, and a load of divine water gushed from her vagina.

"Ah! I-I'm sorry! It came out so suddenly that I had no control over it!"

She panicked when she realized what she'd just done — spraying Su Yang's face with her Yin Qi.

However, Su Yang merely wiped his face, licked his lips, and said with a smile, "Don't hold it in and let it all out. You'll feel better that way."

After saying those words, he went back to exploring her soaking wet cave with his mouth.

"Mmmmm~"

"Ahhhh~!"

"Ooooh!"

Qin Liangyu released her Yin Qi a few more times over the next few minutes, feeling as though all of her strength was leaving her body afterward.

As Qin Liangyu gasped for air, Su Yang positioned himself to where his penis was directly in front of her vagina.

"Ahhh!"

Qin Liangyu moaned loudly when she felt something hot and hard rub against her vagina.

She lifted her head with what little strength remained to see Su Yang's thick rod caressing her petals.

"I am going to put it inside now." Su Yang warned her.

"Go ahead... Make my body yours, Su Yang..." Qin Liangyu looked at him with a loving expression, her gaze filled with passion and love.

Su Yang nodded and slowly inserted the tip into Qin Liangyu's vagina, spreading it wide open and breaking the seal that had been untouched for twenty years.

"Ahhhhh!"

Qin Liangyu closed her eyes and released a sharp cry when she felt her virginity being taken and the pain that came along with it.

Her virgin blood dripped onto the bedsheets, staining it red.

Qin Liangyu then prepared herself for whatever came next.

However, even after waiting for many moments, she couldn't feel Su Yang's movement, so she opened her eyes to look at why Su Yang had stopped.

"Su Yang... is there something wrong?" she asked him, who looked a bit dazed.

"..."

After a moment of silence, Su Yang looked at her and spoke, "You... You had a Heavenly Constitution?"

Hearing this unfamiliar term, Qin Liangyu made a confused expression.

"Heavenly Constitution? Does that mean there's something wrong with my body?" she asked him in a worried tone.

"N-No..." Su Yang shook his head and began to explain.

"A Heavenly Constitution is when one is born with a special body that has unique powers. It's an exceedingly rare situation, where only one person out of hundreds of millions of people have it."

However, Qin Liangyu still remained puzzled, as she couldn't understand what having a Heavenly Constitution had anything to do with what they were doing now and why he stopped.

Su Yang then continued, "And when somebody with a Heavenly Constitution has sex for the first time, their partner will gain a portion of its powers depending on what kind of Heavenly Constitution they have."

"When I took your first time just now, all of my Profound Qi recovered, even increasing my base Cultivation significantly. If I have to take a guess, your Heavenly Constitution has the power to boost your partner's strength during dual cultivation."

"..."

Qin Liangyu was speechless. While she was happy to learn that she had such a special body, there was only one thing in her mind right now.

"Um... are we going to stop cultivating because of my Heavenly Constitution?" she asked him with a worried face.

Su Yang smiled a moment later and said, "Of course not. I was just surprised that you had a Heavenly Constitution, which dazed me a little bit. I will begin moving again now."

Qin Liangyu nodded, and Su Yang began shaking his hips a little later.

"Ahhhh~!"

Qin Liangyu screamed with pleasure as Su Yang's penis stretched the deepest part of her cave, causing an inexplicable sensation to spread all over her body.

As of this moment, Qin Liangyu's imaginations had become a reality, but she was too busy to realize this fact and continued to indulge herself in pleasure.

The pleasure she was experiencing was simply much better than she'd imagined or expected.

"Ahhhh! Ahhhh! Ahhhhhhh~"

As time passed, Su Yang got more passionate and aggressive with his movements, and Qin Liangyu was getting accustomed to the feeling at a frightening rate. Perhaps it was due to her Heavenly Constitution, but she managed to last four hours of Su Yang's techniques despite this being her first time.

When she first started, Qin Liangyu was moaning wildly and uncontrollably, but towards the end, her moaning had become soft and heavenly to the ears, almost like she was singing a beautiful song.

Chapter 456 Announcing the Next Chief

The longer Su Yang cultivated with Qin Liangyu, the higher his cultivation base increased, and by the end of their session, his cultivation had increased by a few levels, reaching the sixth level Heavenly Spirit Realm.

Even though Qin Liangyu was only at the Earth Spirit Realm, because of her Heavenly Constitution, which has the power to strengthen her partners through dual cultivation, and because he'd taken her Pure Yin Essence, Su Yang's strength increased by leaps and bounds after cultivating with her.

"You are full of surprises, aren't you?" Su Yang smiled at Qin Liangyu, who laid on the bed with an exhausted expression, desperately gasping for air.

"To think you'd last 10 hours for your first time. And not even mentioning your Heavenly Constitution, you have talent."

"Is having a Heavenly Constitution really special?" Qin Liangyu asked him after taking her breath.

Su Yang nodded and said, "Like I'd said, only one in hundreds of millions of people are born with a Heavenly Constitution. And with your Heavenly Constitution that directly strengthens your partner through dual cultivation, it would surely attract countless attention from all of the dual cultivators out there. I'm sure many would even kill to get their hands on you."

"I'm glad..." Qin Liangyu showed a relieved expression.

"Glad?" Su Yang raised an eyebrow.

"My body has the power to strengthen others, right? If I continue to cultivate with you, your cultivation will grow stronger. This means that I can at least be of some use to you, and I won't be dead weight when I follow you..."

After hearing her words, Su Yang pulled her closer to his chest and spoke in a gentle tone, "Even if you didn't have a Heavenly Constitution, I would never look at you as dead weight."

"Su Yang..." Qin Liangyu nodded with a blushing face.

"However, because you have a Heavenly Constitution, it will complicate things a little."

"What do you mean?" she asked.

"I mentioned this earlier, but your ability to strengthen others is extremely valuable, especially for dual cultivators. If they learn of your existence, there will surely be people who would be willing to do anything to get their hands on you, and it won't be a small number of individuals. That's why you should never reveal your Heavenly Constitution to anyone else in order to protect yourself — unless you want to spend the rest of your life as a slave who's only purpose is to become another's plaything."

"Although your ability won't be as effective anymore because it's only at its strongest when you were still a maiden and you are no longer one, it will still greatly benefit whoever dual cultivates with you."

"With that being said, as long as you are by my side, I won't let any harm come to you even at the cost of my life."

Qin Liangyu nodded with a serious expression, "I won't tell a single soul about my Heavenly Constitution, I promise. After all, my body belongs to you and only you, Su Yang. I will kill myself before I allow anyone else to touch me."

Sometime later, Qin Liangyu asked him, "Su Yang, where will we be going after we leave the Boar Tribe?"

"The Eastern Continent," he calmly replied.

"You are from the Eastern Continent?" Qin Liangyu showed a surprised face. No wonder why his appearance and demeanor look so different than the people within the Southern Continent. He was actually from another Continent altogether!

"Have you ever been to the Eastern Continent before?" he asked her.

She quickly shook her head and said, "That's impossible for us. It's simply too far away, and even if we had the means and time to travel, the Jade Sea is filled with powerful sea beasts. Only reckless or extremely powerful experts are able to travel across the Continents."

"I see..."

Many minutes later, once they were well-rested, Qin Liangyu spoke, "I am going to gather the tribesmen and announce Lebao as the next Chief. After that is all done, I will leave the Boar Tribe."

Su Yang nodded and did not say anything else.

Once they were dressed, Qin Liangyu went outside and summoned every tribesmen in the Boar Tribe, gathering hundreds of people in one place.

"What happened? The Chief would only summon so many people at once if there's an emergency or some big news."

The tribesmen mumbled to each other, trying to speculate the reason for their summoning.

Sometime later, after all of the tribesmen were there, Qin Liangyu cleared her throat and spoke loudly, "Thank you all for coming on such short notice. Although this may be sudden, I have decided on the next Chief of the Boar Tribe, and I am going to announce it in just a moment."

"The next Chief?!"

The tribesmen were dumbfounded, as this was truly unexpected and sudden.

After they grasped the situation, the tribesmen all turned to look at Lebao, who was standing somewhere in front of the crowd with a nervous expression. Even without needing to hear the announcement, they were certain that Lebao would become the next Chief, as he was the most qualified amongst all the tribesmen there.

Not only was he a powerful warrior at the Heavenly Spirit Realm, but he also assisted the previous Chief with many achievements, and everyone in the tribe approved of him in one way or another. It was not a matter of who would become the next Chief, but when.

The entire place was dead silent, and after taking a deep breath, Qin Liangyu spoke clearly, "I have decided that Lebao will become the next Chief. If you have any problems with my decision, speak your mind now."

Lebao's eyes widened with surprise, and his body trembled from excitement when he heard his name come out of Qin Liangyu's mouth, as he has waited many years for this moment!

The crowd remained silent, as nobody there had any problems with Lebao being the next Chief.

"Since nobody objects, Lebao will become the next Chief of the Boar Tribe..."

However, before anybody there could celebrate, Qin Liangyu continued to speak.

"The tradition of our Boar Tribe dictates that I become Lebao's wife after he becomes the Chief, and it has always been like that since our first Ancestors. However, this tradition can screw off by itself, as I will not participate in such a farce."

When Lebao and the others heard her words, they all stared at her with wide eyes and jaws, and they stood there with a dumbfounded expression, seemingly in disbelief.

"W-What do you mean by that, Chief Qin?!" Lebao was the first to break the silence, as he was the one that was the most confused out of everyone there.

"It means exactly what it sounds, Lebao. You will become the next Chief of the Boar Tribe, but I will not be your wife."

"W-Why?! Did I do something wrong?! If I offended you, I will do anything for your forgiveness!"

Qin Liangyu shook her head and said, "You did nothing wrong, Lebao. I am the one at fault here, so I should be the one apologizing."

"Then why?!" Lebao could not accept such an outcome and asked.

"Because I have already pledged my body and life to someone else." Qin Liangyu said to him with a clear voice, causing Lebao's face to turn pale, looking as though he'd died at that moment.

Chapter 457 He Also Screwed My Wife!

After learning that the love of his life had chosen another man that was not himself, Lebao's heart was filled with bitterness and rage.

"Who?! Which bastard dares to steal my woman?! If you are a real man, show your face right now!" Lebao roared in a rage-induced voice, causing the tribesmen around him to run away out of fear.

"Watch your mouth, Lebao! I will not tolerate your vile behavior towards him!" Qin Liangyu became angry and yelled at him for the first time in her life.

Lebao was stunned by Qin Liangyu's reaction, as he has never seen her react so fiercely. He has served her father all his life, and he'd been there to support Qin Liangyu all her life too, so he had plenty of opportunity to reveal his feelings for her. However, before he could do such a thing, the love of his life was taken by someone else, hence the violent reaction that was mostly fueled by his own regret and hatred for himself.

"Who is it? Who managed to sway your heart? I want a name!"

"That is none of your business, Lebao! Starting today, the Boar Tribe will be your only business!" Qin Liangyu spoke coldly.

"The position of Chief means nothing to me without you beside me, Chief Qin! Unless I see this man who qualifies more than me to be your partner, I will refuse the position of Chief!" Lebao continued to pressure her into telling her the identity of this mysterious individual she pledged to.

"Do we really have to do this, Lebao?" Qin Liangyu sighed.

"I will not be the Chief even if you kill me!" Lebao stood firm on his decision.

Right as Lebao finished his sentence, another voice resounded.

"You have something you want to say to me?"

When Lebao and the tribesmen heard this familiar voice, they immediately turned to look behind them, where a handsome young man with jadelike skin was approaching them.

"Y-You are...!"

Lebao's eyes widened with disbelief when he saw Su Yang's face.

"It can't be...!"

Lebao immediately looked at Qin Liangyu and spoke loudly, "Is it him?!"

Qin Liangyu did not say a word and merely nodded her head.

"..."

Lebao's body swayed backward after seeing her confirmation.

"I don't get it! Even though he's certainly stronger and better-looking than me, the two of you only recently met! How could you choose someone you've just met over me, who you've spent the majority of your life with?!"

"I don't get it too, but that's just love. It's completely unpredictable and sudden, almost like a shooting star." Qin Liangyu spoke in a low voice, her eyes filled with wonder.

When Lebao saw the emotion in her eyes, all of his strength left his body, causing him to fall to his knees.

"..."

Seeing Lebao like this, Qin Liangyu felt sorry for him, but there was nothing she could do, as her love had chosen someone else.

Even Su Yang felt a little bit bad for Lebao, but alas, it was not as though he could transfer the feelings Qin Liangyu has for him to Lebao. And this is not his first time being in this kind of situation. In fact, he has been in similar situations countless times in the past, where others' sweethearts would go with him instead of them.

This is probably why he has so many enemies in the Four Divine Heavens and why many people wanted him dead when he hasn't purposefully offended most of them.

A few moments later, Lebao stood up and approached Su Yang.

"What are you trying to do, Lebao?!" Qin Liangyu instantly worried that Lebao might try to harm Su Yang due to jealousy.

However, Lebao stopped a few meters away from him and looked at him with a serious expression.

"Although I am eternally grateful to you for saving the Boar Tribe and my life, I simply cannot sit around and do nothing! Please, have a match with me! If you win, I will let you take Chief Qin without any more fuss, but if you lose, I want you to leave her alone!"

The tribesmen looked at Lebao as though he'd gone crazy from jealousy and became a nutjob. There was simply no way that he would win against Su Yang, who single-handedly defeated Chief Long and Chief Shi!

Even if Su Yang was injured from the fight, there was still zero chance that Lebao could defeat him, so why would he make such a reckless request?

It was as clear as day to them what the results were before the fight is even close to starting.

However, to everybody's surprise, Su Yang refused to fight with Lebao.

"Why did you refuse? It's obvious that I cannot defeat you." Lebao asked him with a puzzled frown.

"Because no matter the outcome, the results won't change." Su Yang spoke in a calm voice.

"Even if you somehow manage to defeat me and I leave her alone, will that really change anything? Whether I win or lose, she will still follow me. And I simply do not like to waste my effort on pointless things."

"Pointless, you say?! This is very important to me!" Lebao roared.

"There are things in life you cannot get no matter how much you want them, and you have to accept this fact."

Su Yang then turned around and began walking away.

"Liangyu, I am returning to the flying ship now. We will be leaving shortly, so this is your last chance to decide whether you truly want to follow me or not."

"I also left behind a few things in the hut for the Boar Tribe. It's my gratitude for your hospitality as well as your company for thirty-two of you. I hope you like it."

After saying those words, Su Yang casually walked out of the settlement and disappeared into the distance.

"W-What does he mean by 'follow him'?" Lebao looked at Qin Liangyu with a perplexed expression, as he already has an answer in mind.

"I will be leaving the Boar Tribe as of today to follow him. This is another reason why I cannot be with you, Lebao." Qin Liangyu said to him with an apologetic smile.

"I am sure that you will find someone else who you'll treasure more than me, Lebao. And I will leave the Boar Tribe in your hands."

"This is too sudden! Will you ever come back?!" Lebao asked her with tears in his eyes.

Qin Liangyu gently shook her head.

"I don't know. I will be going wherever he takes me, after all."

"Thank you all for all you've done to me. I will never forget it! Goodbye!"

Qin Liangyu turned around and ran outside the settlement to follow Su Yang's steps before anyone could say anything, leaving the Boar Tribe completely dumbfounded and speechless.

Many moments later, one of the tribesmen approached Lebao and spoke in a low voice, "Don't worry, Chief Lebao, you are not alone. I know your feeling."

"What do you know?! You are happily married! Don't act as though you understand my feelings!" Lebao roared back.

However, the man merely smiled bitterly and continued, "I know, Lebao. I know... because he also screwed my wife yesterday."

"W-What did you just say?" Lebao looked at the man with wide eyes.

And before the man could reply, another man approached them and said, "He also screwed my wife! She said that he needed help with an injury after the fight, so I gave her my approval. However, I did not expect that helping him would require my wife to fuck him! She returned half a day later, looking like she ran around the world without rest!"

Another man appeared and said, "My wife told me the truth, but I approved regardless, since I see it as an honor for my wife to be screwed by someone like the Savior. Maybe you should also consider it as such."

The others looked at him with a frown and shouted, "Are you crazy, you damn cuck?!"

A few moments later, Lebao sighed and said, "Anyway, Chief Qin is gone, and she appointed me as the Chief before leaving. Even if I don't want this position, the Boar Tribe needs a leader. Just so we are clear, I am not doing this for Chief Qin but for all of you!"

Meanwhile, Qin Liangyu just caught up with Su Yang.

"Have you said your goodbyes?" He asked her.

"Un." Qin Liangyu nodded, and the two of them slowly returned to the flying ship, where Tang Lingxi and Qiuyue were waiting.

Chapter 458 Parting Gif

After Qin Liangyu left the Boar Tribe, Lebao reluctantly accepted the position of Chief, and all of the tribesmen accepted him to be their new Chief without any problems.

"Chief Lebao! This is an emergency! Please come with me!" One of the tribesmen suddenly approached him with excitement on his face.

"What happened?! Are we under attack again?!" Lebao instantly became wary.

"N-No! It's quite the opposite, actually!"

The tribesman then led Lebao to a large hut in the middle of the settlement — the same one where Su Yang cultivated with the thirty-two women and Qin Liangyu.

By the time they arrived at the site, it was already filled with people. There were almost everybody from the Boar Tribe surrounding the hut.

"Take a look inside, Chief Lebao!"

The tribesmen made way for Lebao, who entered the hut a moment later.

"T-This is!"

Lebao's eyes and jaw opened widely after witnessing the scene inside.

On the large bed that appeared to be soaked in some kind of liquid, there was a mountain of Spirit Stones. Thousands upon thousands of Spirit Stones.

Then right beside the mountain of Spirit Stones, there was a pile of Spiritual Weapons from the Mortal-grade to the Earth-grade laid neatly there.

Furthermore, surrounding the bed, there were thirty-two small piles of treasures and resources with a note placed beside them.

Lebao went to pick one of these notes to read it.

"An Yanyan, thank you for your time. You may do as you wish with this small act of gratitude from me."

The piece of note was signed by Su Yang at the end.

After reading the first note, Lebao went to read another — and another — until he finished reading all thirty-two notes.

"C-Chief Lebao! There's another note hidden here!"

One of the tribesmen handed him the note, which read —

"Besides the thirty-two individual gifts, you can do whatever with the Spirit Stones and Spiritual Weapons I left behind. This is my way of showing gratitude for the tribe's hospitality. I will return to this place in two years, and if I learn that you have mistreated those thirty-two women, the entire Boar Tribe will have to answer me. Su Yang."

Lebao's body trembled after reading the note, and a perplexed feeling appeared in his heart.

While he despised Su Yang for taking away his woman, Su Yang also gifted them enough spiritual weapons to arm every warrior in the tribe and some more, and with that much Spirit Stones, they can easily become the number one tribe in the Southern Continent if given enough time.

Sometime later, Lebao announced to the tribesmen there, "Bring to me the thirty-two women who have their names written on these notes! They will be receiving what our Savior has personally left them! And if anyone tries to covet these items, they shall be executed!"

"Yes, Chief!"

The tribesmen there shouted. Even if he was not there, nobody in their right mind would dare to steal from Su Yang after everything he's done for their Boar Tribe. As for the thirty-two women, they were baffled by the riches Su Yang has left them, as it was enough for them to live comfortably for a lifetime.

Of course, amongst the thirty-two women, there were a few wives, and although their husbands were angry at first that their wives had screwed another man, after they saw the riches, all of their wrath disappeared and they immediately forgave their wives, even praising her for her actions.

After the thirty-two women received their portions, Lebao distributed some of the wealth to the other tribesmen, especially to the families that have suffered losses from the Lion Tribe's attack. He also geared all of the warriors in the tribe with the spiritual weapons, massively increasing the Boar Tribe's overall prowess.

At their current strength, even if the Dragon Tribe were to attack them right now, they would not be as hopeless as before and might even defeat them.

Meanwhile, a few miles away from the Boar Tribe, Tang Lingxi and Qiuyue silently stared at Qin Liangyu, who stood beside Su Yang like a sheep before wolves.

"So? Why is she here?" Qiuyue asked him.

"Because she will be following us starting today," he casually responded.

"What? What about the Boar Tribe? How will they operate without a Chief?" Qiuyue looked at them with a dumbfounded face.

"That has already been handled, since they now have a new Chief."

"I see that you've matured since the last time I saw you, which was only a few hours ago. What made you change your mind?" Tang Lingxi asked her with a teasing smile, almost like she was aware of what happened.

Speechless, Qin Liangyu merely glanced at Su Yang, and that was all it took for Tang Lingxi to understand.

"Anyway, why don't we reintroduce ourselves? I will even go first." Tang Lingxi suddenly suggested.

"My name is Tang Lingxi, and I am in sort of a particular situation, since this is not my real body, and I am only possessing it temporarily due to complicated reasons. The girl you are seeing now is called Hong Yu'er, and she's supposed to be Su Yang's fiancée. That's all you should know about me for now. If you last long enough to see the real me, I will reintroduce myself then. You can just call me Sister Tang for now."

"Eh...?"

Qin Liangyu was baffled. Just what kind of background do they have and why is a simple introduction so perplexing and abnormal?

Qiuyue introduced herself next. "You may know me as the Goddess who slain the Great Calamity a thousand years ago, but my name is Qiuyue, and Su Yang is my guardian of sorts."

"G-Guardian?!" Qin Liangyu turned to look at Su Yang. To think he would be someone so important to the Goddess!

"M-my name is Qin Liangyu, and I have spent the majority of my life in the Boar Tribe! I do not know very much about the outside world, but I will try my best to not become a hindrance for any of you! Please take care of me!"

Qin Liangyu bowed to them with respect, as they were her seniors.

"Not bad." Tang Lingxi nodded in approval.

"Anyway, Su Yang, we have more information regarding the Mirror of Darkness. Perhaps this might jog your memories a bit." Tang Lingxi suddenly spoke and proceeded to explain to him what Qiuyue told her sometime ago.

Chapter 459 His Past With the Heavenly Emperor End of Vol. 8

"So the Mirror of Darkness belonged to that dog for the Heavenly Emperor, huh."

Su Yang calmly digested all of this information after listening to Tang Lingxi's explanation.

"It's no wonder why it looked so familiar to me. I have seen it before."

"You have finally recalled?" Tang Lingxi asked him.

He nodded and spoke, "The Mirror of Darkness is actually called the Silver Dimension Gate, and it is a Divine-grade treasure that has the ability to transport one to anywhere they have been to before. For example, if I use the Silver Dimension Gate, I can return to the Eastern Continent instantly, but I cannot go to the Western Continent, as I have never been to that place."

"How do you know about something like this?" Tang Lingxi raised her eyebrows.

"I have been to the Celestial Palace before, and I was even inside the treasury briefly." Su Yang said with a nostalgic expression.

However, Tang Lingxi's eyes widened with shock when she heard this.

"You what?! That's impossible! Unless you are the Heavenly Emperor himself, there's no way you could've stepped foot into the treasury! Just how did you enter such a place?!"

Su Yang showed a smile and said, "Besides the Heavenly Emperor, there are two other individuals who can enter the Celestial Treasury at their will. His wife and daughter."

"Don't tell me you..."

He nodded and continued, "His daughter was kind enough to give me a tour inside, even explaining some of the treasures there, and the Silver Dimension Gate happened to be one of those treasures."

"You are acquainted with the Heavenly Emperor's daughter?!"

Both Qiuyue and Tang Lingxi stared at him with wide eyes. It was more shocking to them that he knew the Heavenly Emperor's daughter than entering the Celestial Treasury!

"We are more than just acquainted." Su Yang showed a mysterious smile.

"S-S-Surely, you don't mean..." Tang Lingxi trembled in shock.

As the princess of the Asura God Clan, she has countless experiences, so there are very little things in this world that could shock her to such an extent, yet she was feeling exactly that at this moment.

"The Heavenly Emperor's daughter... the Heavenly Emperor's daughter... t-the Heavenly Emperor's... daughter.." Qiuyue continuously repeated these four words, almost as though she was trying to comprehend them but to no avail — or maybe she simply didn't want to believe it.

Not only the princess of the Asura God Clan, but even the Heavenly Emperor's daughter is involved with Su Yang? Why are there so many people with mind-blowing backgrounds associated with him? And in comparison, Qiuyue's status as the princess of the Sacred Moon Palace is not even worth mentioning. At this rate, she might as well be a commoner in some backwater place.

Before meeting Tang Lingxi and learning about all of these powerful and important individuals, Qiuyue has always believed that the Sacred Moon Palace was the strongest and that she was a special existence with an unshakable position in this world.

But alas, it turned out that she was but a mere frog in a well, and that the Sacred Moon Palace is only but a minor power in the grand scheme of things.

"I was invited by the Heavenly Emperor for tea one day, as he had intentions to make me work for him because I am a man with countless connections in the world, and he wanted to take advantage of the relationships I had forged throughout my life. It was also on that day when I first met her, the Heavenly Emperor's daughter."

"She was so beautiful and pure that I'd nearly fallen in love with her at first sight, something I didn't expect would happen for a second time in this lifetime. However, the Heavenly Emperor's daughter... perhaps it was due to her loneliness caused by her secluded lifestyle, but she actually fell in love with me at first sight."

"I never planned on working for the Heavenly Emperor, but when she spoke to me afterward, subtly begging me to work there with an irresistible expression, I unconsciously agreed."

"Thus, I started working for the Heavenly Emperor for some years, and during that time, my relationship with the Heavenly Emperor's daughter deepened."

"One thing led to another, and we somehow ended up crossing a line that was never meant to be crossed. When the Heavenly Emperor found out that I had screwed his beloved daughter, he was immediately enraged."

"If not for her, who begged him to spare my life, I would've died there and then. But no matter how much his daughter pleaded, he could not forgive me entirely, so he tossed me into the Eternal Retribution Cliff."

"That's how I ended up in that place and then in this world sometime later."

Su Yang revealed to them the real reason behind his imprisonment, something nobody else in this universe besides the Heavenly Emperor, his family, and the mysterious old man who helped him escape knew about.

"Unbelievable! To think that was the reason why you got imprisoned! I had expected something else entirely! But knowing you, it also makes a lot of sense!" Tang Lingxi exclaimed with a dazed expression.

"And as expected, the Heavenly Emperor swept that incident under the rug so that it could never escape to the public. After all, it would cause a major uproar." Su Yang shrugged.

"Anyways, enough about my past with the Heavenly Emperor. The Silver Dimension Gate... it shouldn't have the ability to appear and disappear randomly, so I can only assume that it was damaged after entering the forcefully opened Dimension Rift with its owner, Han Xin."

"I see... that makes sense..." Tang Lingxi nodded.

"By the way, since we know about the Silver Dimension Gate now, there's no longer any reason for us to remain here. Let's return to the Eastern Continent."

Su Yang suddenly said to Qiuyue, who was still dazed by his little story.

Sometime later, when she finally snapped out of it, she controlled the flying ship to return to the Eastern Continent.

Chapter 460 Returning to the Eastern Continen

"We have arrived at the Eastern Continent," Su Yang said to Qin Liangyu, who expressed surprise upon hearing that.

They just left the Southern Continent a few minutes ago, yet they have already arrived at the Eastern Continent, which is hundreds of thousands of miles away? Just how ridiculously fast is this flying ship?

"Where are we right now?" she asked him.

"Snowfall City. It's one of the largest cities in the Eastern Continent. We are going to meet up with some people."

Su Yang then turned to look at Qiuyue and spoke, "You should return to the Sect first. I have a feeling that something big is going to be happening soon, and I want you to be there just in case it happens before I can return."

Qiuyue nodded.

A few moments later, Su Yang, Tang Lingxi, and Qin Liangyu departed from the flying ship, landing a few miles outside the Snowfall City.

"Let's go."

Sometime later, when they reached the entrance, Su Yang showed the guards the Xie Family's medallion, and they were allowed inside without any complications.

After entering the city, Su Yang went directly to the Snow Crystal Hotel, where the Profound Blossom Sect should be waiting if they didn't already return to the Sect yet.

"The Eastern Continent is so much different than the Southern Continent..." Qin Liangyu mumbled as she inspected every street and individual they came across, almost like she was on a tour.

Although the Southern Continent also has large cities, they were not as colorful and clean as Snowfall City, and everybody here seems to have light skin, in contrast to the Southern Continent, where the majority have tanned skin.

Furthermore, the atmosphere in this place could be described as peaceful and bustling, while the Southern Continent's atmosphere was wild and dangerous, where powerful and vicious beasts could attack at any given moment.

Qin Liangyu felt like she had walked into an entirely different world, and she was fascinated by her surroundings, almost like a child in an amusement park.

Of course, Qin Liangyu herself also attracted the attention of many as she walked the streets. Not only is her tanned skin unique and beautiful, but the person herself is also a top beauty.

There were even some people who wanted to approach her, but when they saw Su Yang and Tang Lingxi, they all froze on the spot, almost as though they'd seen a ghost.

Sometime later, they encountered an enormous crowd surrounding a building.

"W-What is going on here? There has to be at least a thousand people here..." Qin Liangyu was dumbfounded by the scene. Do people of this number often gather in the Eastern Continent?

"It appears that your Profound Blossom Sect has gained some popularity since the tournament." Tang Lingxi said with a smile, and she continued, "With the door blocked like that, I doubt they'll be going anywhere soon."

Suddenly, a familiar voice resounded in the middle of the crowd.

"How many times do I have to tell you all that our Sect Master will not be accepting any visitors until we return to the Profound Blossom Sect?!"

Elder Sun's voice echoed loudly as he blocked the door behind him from being bombarded by these people.

"I am the head of the Chen Family! If you tell your Sect Master that the Chen Family is here to see her, I'm sure that she'll make an exception!"

"I am the head merchant for the Silver Wing Establishment, and we would like to sponsor the Profound Blossom Sect! Please let me speak with your Sect Master!"

"My name is Fu Xuan, the Young Master of the Fu Clan, and I am only here for Fairy Fang!"

The crowd refused to leave despite Elder Sun's words.

However, a few moments later...

"Hey, can you make way? I am trying to get inside." Su Yang said to one of the people there.

"Can't you see that we are all trying to get inside? You are not special here! Who the hell do you think you are?"

That individual responded to him without even turning around to look at him.

"H-Hey! T-That's!"

Although the majority of the people there did not even bother to pay attention to Su Yang, a few people there noticed him from the corner of their eyes, and they stared at him with a shocked face.

"S-Su Yang! It's Su Yang! He has finally returned!" One of them suddenly shouted, instantly causing the people there to shut up and turn around.

"Y-You are..."

When the person who responded to Su Yang turned around and saw Su Yang's calm face standing behind him, his eyes widened with shock, and his body began to sweat profusely.

The people beside him that heard his words also swallowed nervously. To think someone would be unlucky enough to offend Su Yang, someone dubbed as the Number One Genius in the Eastern Continent after the tournament, these people were afraid that his misfortune would rub onto them if they stood too close to him, so those people instantly backed away with haste.

"S-Senior Su... T-This lowly one deeply apologizes for..."

"I don't care. Get out of my way." Su Yang quickly interrupted, as he did not want to continue standing around these clowns.

With that one sentence, the crowd split in half, creating a single path towards the Snow Crystal Hotel, allowing him to finally see the doors to the hotel and Elder Sun's dazed face.

"This is where to part, for now, darling." Tang Lingxi suddenly said to him.

"I have to return to my own Sect, as there's still work to be done for me, but I will be seeing you soon."

"Thank you for accompanying us." Su Yang nodded.

Before leaving, Tang Lingxi turned to look at Qin Liangyu and whispered to her, "Take good care of him for me."

Qin Liangyu silently nodded with a red face.

After Tang Lingxi left to return to the Azure Cloud Sect, Su Yang and Qin Liangyu entered the Snow Crystal Hotel with Elder Sun.
