

Chapter 461

Qiao Lily got up and asked, "Master, didn't you say that Mo Qian Yun is very powerful and we can't even deal with it?"

"Can't deal with it, but we can think of a way while observing, ah, not only are we removing harm for the people, we are also making a profit, this deal can be done." Ye Xing happily took the Qiankun Mirror and started to enlighten it.

It was not until late at night that Ye Xing discovered a little bit of insight, this Qiankun Mirror could punch in Yuan Power and instantly made the eight trigrams pattern behind it seem like small Yin and Yang fish rotating.

After the eight trigrams began to rotate, a faint light was suddenly projected from the mirror surface.

Ye Xing reached out to test it and found that the spiritual light was not very useful. After thinking about it, he took out the parchment-like heavenly tribulation diagram.

When this heavenly tribulation diagram was illuminated by the spiritual light, it immediately revealed something different, with many Daoist techniques recorded inside.

Ye Xing was overjoyed, because before the Heavenly Tribulation diagram was full of some evil and petty techniques, which were not very useful to him, but now with the Daoist orthodox spells, this was different.

Ye Xing originally thought that the technique was broken, after all, the Heavenly Calamity Diagram was divided into several pieces, but after checking it, he found that the technique was complete and was called "Pure Yang Dao Technique".

This technique was mainly for inner cultivation, giving one the pure Yang Qi of the Daoist family, and was a necessary technique for practising the next set of pure Yang sword techniques of the Lingnan Daoist family.

After reading it, Ye Xing tried to practise it, but he turned out to be really gifted, and he had practised this Pure Yang Daoist Technique in one night. Although it was less than a great fire, but after practising it for a few days, it must have been perfect.

Ye Xing possessed the internal energy of Tidal Wave Power, and knew that if he had internal energy alone, but no gong method to drive it, his power would be much different.

Ye Xing slightly drove the pure Yang Yuan Power in his body, and it was really much stronger than the original Yuan Power. Moreover, the Taoist gong methods have always belonged to the bright and upright, haozheng qi set, carrying all kinds of intimidation, making people a bit scared and intimidated to deal with it.

Knock, knock!

There was a knock on the door, Ye Xing got up and went to open it, Qiao Lily saw him and said, "Someone from the Iga Ryu came to say that another corpse was found, let's go over and have a look."

Ye Xing smiled, taking money from people and doing away with their problems.

The group followed Iga-ryu straight to one of the commercial buildings in Dongdu.

Dongdu was the largest city in the entire East Island, with a population of over ten million, and every inch of land was gold, and these commercial buildings were not only designed to be narrow, but also particularly crowded.

Ye Xing walked into one of the houses, a young woman was lying on the floor, her head was cracked open, her body was drained of blood, and her heart was also open at the location.

Ye Xing walked out after watching and the young man in glasses from the Iga Ryu immediately nodded to him.

You have to admire these East Islanders, as long as you are better than him, he immediately treats you like an ancestor and even hates to give you a ride as a horse.

If people are so respectful and submissive, what else can you say no to.

Ye Xing shook his head and said, "Another demon cultivator did it, the time of death must have been three days ago."

The man with glasses immediately took note and then launched an investigation, and Ye Xing came downstairs and waited for a while.

The people from Dragon Shield could have joined the investigation directly, and this would still be collecting all kinds of evidence.

Suddenly, a man in black walked past in front of him, and Ye Xing noticed that something was wrong with this guy, a layer of blood was draped around his body.

Ye Xing thought he was mistaken, but after a closer look, he was indeed covered in blood.

The man in black turned his head and left without staying too long.

Ye Xing was uneasy and asked the man in glasses to send someone to follow, not to alert the snake.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

But the man in black was so tightly wrapped up that he could still see a kind of blood energy, which was not right.

When Ye Xing thought about it, he could only think of the Pure Yang Daoist technique he had just practiced.

At the end of the night, the surveillance people brought back useful information, the man in black who was following him was an otaku called Takeda Dasha, a standard otaku who had always been poor and had previously been evicted by his landlord, but recently seemed to have made a fortune, spending a lot of money and buying many collector's edition hand-me-downs and manga, in addition his girlfriend had been missing for half a month and his parents had reported him for investigation, but nothing had been found out to be related to him yet.

After hearing this, Ye Xing called up the members of the Dragon Shield and set off for the otaku's house.

The Iga Ryu men broke into the house and then retreated to the door in a disciplined manner.

The house was quite spacious, but a bit messy and there were actually human dolls.

Ye Xing smiled and came next to the man in black, Takeda Dasha.

This guy was really covered in blood energy, especially on his head, which was incredibly thick.

Takeda was not afraid and kept his head down without speaking, the man in glasses next to him kept intimidating him, but all were indifferent.

Halfway through the interrogation, the otaku was even given a lecture by the Iga-ryu, but was not afraid at all.

Suddenly, Takeda Dasha yelled out and didn't know what to say.

Ye Xing stared at the man with glasses, who looked down and said back, "He said you guys couldn't find her, like he said his girlfriend."

Ye Xing thought for a moment then said, "His girlfriend should be eaten by him."

The moment this was said, the Dragon Shield members present were disgusted, Du Jiuniang couldn't stand it and turned her head to leave the room, Luo Xiaoyun was almost the same.

Only Zhu Xiaohong's face remained unchanged, as if she wasn't very scared.

The man with the glasses was scared half to death and yanked Takeda up in anger.

Eventually Takeda Dasha admitted to eating his girlfriend, Ye Xing found something wrong on his chest, lifted his clothes and took a look.

Only to see a mass of black hair on his chest, very long and thick, and also emitting a foul odour.

Zhu Xiaohong recognized it and said with a nod, "He should have been planted with demon blood, so he has become vicious, after a year and a half, he will turn into a monster like the Faceless Man."

Ye Xing grabbed the black hair with his hand, and the painful Takeda Dasha kept struggling as the others held him down for dear life so that the boy could not fold.

Ye Xing told the man with glasses to start interrogating, and to pluck the hair if he didn't say anything, to see if the boy was afraid.

The moment he was planted with demon blood, you could chop him up into several pieces and he wouldn't be afraid, but when the demon blood was involved, the whole person couldn't stand it.

Takeda Dasha hadn't completely lost his mind yet, so he naturally remembered who had planted the demon blood on him.

It turned out that this guy was also a spiritual rooter who tried to commit suicide because he had eaten his girlfriend.

The East Islanders are particularly fond of going to deep mountains to hang themselves, and a specific sacred mountain, the ski resort of Fuji.

Takeda Dasha went to the mountain to hang himself, and not only did he not die, but he was knocked unconscious and woke up to see an old man who told him to cooperate in going back to the eastern capital to find someone like him.

Since then, Takeda Dasha has become an agent of the demon cultivators.

Chapter 462

This guy spat out a lot of cases, which made the Iga-ryu people happy as all of them could correspond with those dead people before.

But how to catch the demon cultivator behind it, that made Ye Xing hurt his head.

When he met Mo Qian Yun, it would be impossible to beat anyone.

Zhu Xiaohong shook her head, "It can't be Mo Qianyun, her methods shouldn't be so troublesome, she must be engaging in mass human sacrifice, killing them one by one in such a sneaky manner, just feeding those faceless people under her wouldn't be enough."

Ye Xing thought about it and was right, with Mo Qian Yun's strength, who could stop her?

"If it's not her, maybe it's another demon cultivator, that would be good."

Ye Xing was thinking about the Heavenly Tribulation Diagram, in case this devil cultivator who was scourging the Eastern Island also had the Heavenly Tribulation Diagram on her, then he would make a lot of money.

The Heavenly Tribulation Diagram obtained by the Free Fairy before had fallen into the hands of the Jiang family, there were only two copies of the Heavenly Tribulation Diagram left in circulation, let's see if there was still a chance to get hold of it.

Ye Xing and the others quickly set up and had Wu Tian Daxia send a signal to the demon cultivators, followed by a watchful waiting.

The next night, movement did come, an old car drove up inside the garage, an old man wearing a hat and a walking stick wandered into the lift, then quickly went upstairs to the target's home.

The old man took off his disguise and leapt into the target's house like a dark shadow.

After entering the house, the black shadow froze as he saw Ye Xing.

Ye Xing smiled, "You have searched so hard, should I do it myself, or should you tie your hands?"

Finding Ye Xing a little scary, the black shadow turned his head and ran away, only to have an ice lance pierce half of his body just outside.

Qiao Lily, who was staying outside in the corridor, smiled and approached over as Ye Xing walked out of the house and sneered, "Asking for it."

The dark figure was yanked up, bare, with no visible male or female features, eyes and mouth and ears sunken in, it looked truly terrifying.

This kind was different again than the faceless man, which was obviously quite advanced than the faceless kind of monster.

After Zhu Xiaohong entered the room, Ye Xing asked such a question.

“Those under Mo Qian Yun are called devil slaves, this kind is the real devil cultivator.” Zhu Xiaohong said.

Ye Xing looked at the devil cultivator and smiled coldly, “Hand over the Heavenly Tribulation Diagram and I can let you die a painful death.”

The devil cultivator kept struggling, unwilling to give in, and Ye Xing suddenly felt that he could use this fellow to test the pure Yang Yuan Power he had just cultivated.

A faint white light emerged from Ye Xing’s palm, and the demon cultivator suddenly struggled, very scared.

Ye Xing pressed his palm against the demon cultivator’s blood-coloured skin, as if a red-hot iron had been burned on it, and the demon cultivator’s body twitched and the pain was unbearable.

In the end, the demon cultivator honestly handed over the heavenly tribulation diagram, and Ye Xing thought there was none, but it turned out to be a real surprise.

The devil cultivator was dying, and Ye Xing asked after him, “Do you know Mo Qian Yun?”

The devil cultivator nodded down, and Ye Xing sneered, “Where is she?”

The devil cultivator did not dare not say anything, after all, the Yuan Qi on Ye Xing’s body was completely innately suppressing to them.

“She has gone to another island to perform a mass sacrifice!”

Ye Xing frowned, another island, could it be where the opposite side of China was?

Ye Xing slapped the demon cultivator to death, and then asked the Iga Ryu’s people to come and collect the murderer’s body.

The matter was settled, and Ye Xing did not stay, taking everyone from the Dragon Shield with him to go back to the Chinese country.

Mo Qian Yun had gone to the other side, which was a bit difficult to do, but once he heard about the 10,000 people sacrifice, if he really let her do it, not only would the living souls be ruined, but most crucially, the strength of this demon would be difficult to stop anymore.

“Once Mo Qian Yun succeeds in building her foundation, she will become a demon king-like existence, when that time comes, no ordinary magic weapon will be able to hurt her, and in our realm, no one is her match.”

“Is foundation building really that powerful?”

“Only when an immortal cultivator reaches Foundation Establishment is he considered to be truly in touch with the Immortal Dao, refining magic weapons and making spiritual pills are the most common means of Foundation Establishment cultivators.”

“If you want to stop it, you have to be able to stop it.”

“The Immortal Sect has a set of Demon Subduing Sword Formation, if you let the Immortal Sect disciples practice it, it might have an unexpected effect.”

“Told you so, start practicing it right away.”

As soon as Ye Xing heard that there was still such a bottom card, he did not hesitate at all, instead, he made Zhu Xiaohong froze, she had thought that Ye Xing would be worried that the Immortal Sect would turn against him and would not let the Immortal Sect disciples practice this sword formation, but she did not expect the other party to agree quite quickly.

“Why do I want his life?” Zhu Xiaohong muttered, not noticing in the slightest that it was the other half of his own Immortal of Prosperity that was at work.

Ye Xing asked Qiao Baihe to talk to the Immortal Sect disciples, those who did not want to continue to be locked up, and those who did could be released early later.

The disciples of the Immortal Sect were all lonely and naturally reluctant, but Zhu Xiaohong had a way to make them submit, and that was to write another decree from the Sect Master.

The disciples of the Immortal Sect began to be willing when the decree of the Sect Master was issued.

Zhu Xiaohong gave the sword formation to Qiao Baihe, who in turn taught it to the fairies.

Ye Xing went to the training ground a few days later to see the results, and was really quite amazed, as they all flew to the sky and transported to the ground, and were as if they were fairies from the nine heavens descending to the earth.

Of course, this flying and disappearing is a bit exaggerated, but the mutual use of force to lend strength to each other enables the fairies to continuously fly out quickly to stab and kill, and there are all sorts of sword moves in the sky and underground in a big net.

It seems that this sword formation is really a bit powerful, and the key is the five elemental attributes added to it.

The talents that these fairies comprehended were all in the five elements, such as Qiao Baihe and the others' ice spells, some fire spells, and some wood spells. With the five elements spells added, a normally ordinary spell with the sword formation formed unexpected and powerful killing moves.

The group of immortals of the Immortal Sect were all immortal cultivators, and were most adept at using swords, working together in a flowing manner, with extraordinary power.

Ye Xing took a look at it and saw that it was really powerful, but if he wanted to use it against Mo Qian Yun, I was afraid that it would not be powerful enough.

Ye Xing found Zhu Xiaohong and planned to use this sword formation to settle an enemy first.

“Against Jiang Qin? Can you find where he is hiding?”

“Don’t worry, that old thing is definitely still within the Kingdom of China, but I want to know if the sword formation can destroy him.”

Zhu Xiaohong said, “He went out of his way to cast the Blood Explosion secret technique in order to kill me before, he should still be healed at this point, the sword formation can hold him back, and if you strike again, you should be very sure to kill him.”

“Don’t give me that it’s very certain, I want to be sure that I can kill him.”

“No problem at all.”

Ye Xing smiled and left, Zhu Xiaohong wondered why he would believe his words so much. Should I take this opportunity to destroy him as well?

Zhu Xiaohong’s mind was just moving at this end when he suddenly shook his head quickly, completely emptying such thoughts.

At the border of Xiliang, the desert and the Gobi are in a vast expanse, and there are countless self-driving tours through them.

There were six people in the car, all of whom were donkeys travelling in a group.

Three of them, black-faced men, were trying to impress one of the beautiful women.

The beautiful woman had seductive eyes and white skin, and although she was older, she was still radiant.

Chapter 463

Her every move made these people in the car swoon, and she seemed content.

The car came to a scenic spot and the beautiful woman followed a group of donkeys down to take pictures and play inside the ancient ruins.

Suddenly, the group of men’s faces changed and actually tried to attack them as a group.

The beautiful woman’s expression was indifferent: “What do you want?”

“What do you think we want, don’t you have any points in your heart? Serve us well and you will live, or else you will be buried under this yellow earth today.”

A black-faced man sneered fiercely, with a greedy face.

The beautiful woman suddenly smiled with expression, “Then come and try it.”

The black-faced man lunged forward without fear, only to be struck by the beautiful woman’s lightning-fast hand, slapping him on the head and instantly splitting his skull open.

The others were stunned to see this scene, was this still a human being?

The beautiful woman had no intention of stopping and soon finished off the rest of the men, then the bodies were not disposed of and after looking around, she quickly entered the underground entrance to a ruin.

The Demon Subduing Sword Formation was becoming more and more powerful, and Ye Xing joined in with it. With Zhu Xiaohong's guidance, the two sides fused quickly, but it was the fairies of that group of immortal clans who were not cooperating well one by one.

Some felt awkward joining a big man, while others were curious.

As soon as Ye Xing saw that he still had to do ideological work, he immediately mobilised Qiao Baihe and Du Jiuniang and asked them to find ways to make the fairies of those immortal sects dispel their scruples.

A week later, Ye Xing had become more and more proficient with the Demon Subduing Sword Formation, and Jiang's family's location had been caught, actually hiding in the Xiliang region.

Xiliang belonged to the desert, the land was vast and sparsely populated, almost all the local people worked along the coast to earn money, and over the years began to develop tourism, after all, there were still many places worth visiting in the Xiliang region.

Ye Xing hurriedly led the people there, and the group arrived inside Xiliang City. Although the lofty old city did not have too many high-rise buildings, the local flavor was strong, making people feel as if they were in the era of warfare in the desert with gold and iron armour.

Xiliang City is also a place with a population of over a million people, and after the group had settled in, they began their investigation work.

The Jiang family has a large population and it is not easy to hide them completely. This time it was also because the local police investigated an assault case and accidentally matched the blood sample of a Jiang family fugitive, which led to the identification of Jiang family members operating in the area.

The suspects were confirmed to be within Xiliang City, but the exact location was unclear. Dragon Shield's technicians had already fought several waves of battles, and the tracking and investigation all belonged to veterans, taking a quick census of the population and focusing on some of the three no-go areas.

In less than two days' work, the suspect's location was basically identified.

Putting in a long line to catch a big fish, it is natural to just keep an eye on the suspect.

Sure enough this fugitive surnamed Jiang was moving around the city day and night, and a detailed route was sketched out.

A week later, when the time was right, Dragon Shield, in conjunction with the riot squad in Xiliang City, took all these people down in one fell swoop.

They were interrogated overnight and found out that almost all of them were Jiang family's outsiders, usually relying on the Jiang family to reap benefits, and when something happened to the Jiang family, they were Jiang's cover shield.

The Jiang family's people were hiding inside the ancient city, a tourist attraction somewhere outside the city, and Ye Xing immediately surrounded them with his dragon shield.

A reality show was being filmed inside the ancient city, a programme for a nationally renowned TV station.

When Ye Xing saw that there were many onlookers nearby, he immediately told Dragon Shield's men to spread out.

As a result, when Ye Xing was disguised as a crowd and mixed in the ancient city, he was suddenly tapped on the shoulder and when he looked back, it was actually Cheng Yulin.

"Why is it you?" Ye Xing frowned and hurriedly looked around.

Cheng Yulin was currently wearing a maid's outfit and said with a smile, "I'm here for the reality show, is Xiao Qiao here with you to visit the class?"

"I'm not here to visit the class, I'm here to run some errands."

"An errand? You're here to play?"

"I'm really here on business, just keep playing your reality show and pretend you don't know me." When Ye Xing finished speaking and was about to leave, Cheng Yulin stopped him and laughed.

"Something else?"

"Did you find another girlfriend to accompany someone to play here?"

"I go, Xiao Qiao doesn't even care about me, so it's your turn to care, huh?"

"Don't go too far, Xiao Qiao is very fragile, she's focusing on filming now, that's why she doesn't care about you, when she stops filming later, you'll have to give her an explanation then, right?"

"Don't worry, by that time, I will definitely give her an explanation, why do you care so much? Do you have something in mind for me?"

"Fuck you, I'm a good friend of Xiao Qiao's, I'm just not used to seeing you play around."

"Cut it out, who am I messing around with, as if you have proof, or are you already having evil intentions towards me?"

"Get lost, don't let me see you." Cheng Yulin couldn't fight with Ye Xing, so she huffed and turned her head to walk away.

Ye Xing laughed and fought with himself, he didn't even look at his own weight.

Ye Xing turned around and went back to the old city, the people of Dragon Shield had already surrounded the old city, in addition, all the vehicles coming in and out were being watched, so it was hard for a fly to escape.

In an old mansion in the old city, this is the main filming site for the reality show, and a group of locals are fighting with the crew at this time.

There are many star beauties in the crew, many of them young girls who have just come of age, white and naturally flawless, cracking jokes and having cheeks so red they could drip water, leaving these older local men all happy, eyes narrowed and wondering what nefarious thoughts they have.

After the morning shoot, during the noon break, Cheng Yulin was in a house with another vegetarian who had just debuted.

The temperature near this ancient city was extremely high and it was very hot at noon. After a morning of shooting, everyone was tired and the director told all the guys to rest and continue with the shooting in the afternoon.

Suddenly, the sleeping Cheng Yulin noticed something strange on her body, a rough hand seemed to touch her cheek, she tried to open her eyes with a little fear, but her tiredness was so huge that she could not open her eyes, and she felt in a daze that someone was touching her.

“No, don’t touch me, is it a dream?”

At this moment, there were two old men standing by Cheng Yulin’s bed, full of cross flesh and not very tall, they had greedy faces and looked at the sleeping Cheng Yulin with greedy eyes.

One old man took off his trousers, pushed the one next to him and yelled, “Go, there’s another one over there, we’ll exchange them later.”

“Senior brother, you’re still the one who knows how to play.” The other old man rubbed his hands together and walked towards the other bed.

The old man couldn’t resist any longer and was just about to pounce when he was suddenly tugged on the shoulder and looked back to find a young man looking at him with a smile.

“How did you get in here?” The old man was astonished.

The young man was none other than Ye Xing, all these bastards doing bad things had fallen in the eyes of Dragon Shield, Cheng Yulin was an acquaintance, of course it was impossible to watch her suffer and be bullied.

“Old thing, you have a lot of guts, actually drugging and bullying women, today I’ll let you into the palace.”

Chapter 464

After Ye Xing finished his harsh words, he kicked out and ruthlessly kicked the old man under his crotch.

The old man fell to the ground without even making a scream.

The other old man pulled out a dagger, but Ye Xing didn’t even look at him, suddenly an anaesthetic shot in from outside the room and the old man instantly fell unconscious on the floor.

The door to the room was opened and the other rooms were also filled with these unsuspecting guys. The men from Dragon Shield came in and started clearing the room, capturing eight of Jiang’s men in one fell swoop.

Ye Xing called for the old man to be taken away and one of the team members frowned and asked, "Chief, he's quite badly injured."

"There's no need to treat him, just write the corpse as unnamed."

The team members nodded down and then carried both of them away.

Ye Xing woke up Cheng Yulin, the girl pointed at him in anger and yelled, "Ye Xing, you bastard, you actually bullied me while I was asleep."

Ye Xing rolled his eyes, then dragged Cheng Yulin to the door, pointed at the group of Jiang family members crouching outside and yelled, "They are the ones who bullied you, don't blame the wrong people."

"I want to beat them to death." Cheng Yulin exploded with anger.

Ye Xing stopped her and said, "Don't get excited, you'll get shot if you kill someone."

Inside the house, Cheng Yulin cried out in anguish, looked at Ye Xing and asked, "When did you come to save me?"

"That old man was riding on you and I arrived just in time, luckily I came just in time, otherwise you could have gone to the hospital to take out the evidence afterwards."

Cheng Yulin's face turned red after hearing this, and then cried out in aggravation, after all, she was a girl, and to have someone bully her like that was aggravating to think about.

Ye Xing laughed: "I'm scaring you, nothing happened to you, the old man didn't even touch your clothes, he was kicked and ruined by me, he can only be a eunuch when he goes to hell."

"Really?"

"Of course it's true, I didn't even bully you, what's his turn?"

"Go to hell."

After the furore subsided, the reality show continued filming in the afternoon. Regarding this incident, the whole crew did not suffer any damage, so naturally there was no need to talk about it.

Ye Xing returned inside Xiliang City, although he had captured many Jiang family members, but unfortunately the core group of Jiang family figures did not appear, so interrogation became the key.

Inside Xilang City, Ye Xing gave the order to do whatever it took to make sure he could pry these guys' mouths open.

The men of the Dragon Shield were all from the ranks and were usually very hostile, so naturally they were even more violent when interrogated. It didn't take much effort for these men to spill out everything they knew.

It was now almost certain that Jiang's family was hiding in one of the ancient tomb complexes in the Xilang region.

The Xilang region was the place where many countries built their capitals in ancient times, and there are ancient tomb complexes everywhere, and nowadays there are a large number of archaeological sites open to tourists and so on, so it is not easy to find an ancient tomb hiding place here.

But according to the clues provided by these people, every ten days or so, there are core disciples of the Jiang family who appear in Xiliang City or in the ancient city, and they just come out to get some air.

Ye Xing let everything resume, and there was almost a single point of contact between the core and peripheral members of the Jiang Family.

That is, the core members of the Jiang Family could contact the external members, and the external members could not contact them, which allowed Ye Xing and the others' actions to go unexposed and leak out.

After setting up, the watch continued, but when Ye Xing sent the people to the ancient city, he saw the reality show crew that was already about to withdraw again, and Cheng Yulin looked at him and came to say a thank you.

"You're a good friend of Xiao Qiao's, saying thank you would be polite."

"Why weren't those people arrested?"

"We're going to use them to catch the big fish, so we let them get away with it for a few days first, but don't worry, they have the device we designed on them, anyone who dares to run away or mess up will definitely end up miserable."

After hearing this, Cheng Yu Lin's small mouth curled up, she could count on getting a mouthful of bad breath.

She was already good-looking, and although her fame was not as big as Su Xiaoqiao's, she was also a flow actress, and recently she had mainly been developing reality shows, so she was still quite recognisable in the eyes of the domestic audience.

When Cheng Yulin returned to the set, she was called by the director of the show and asked, "Is that young man you just met with your friend?"

"My best friend's boyfriend."

"Oh, that's good, ask him to come and do us a favour, we have an event and we need a few male guests."

"He's not an entertainer, it's not good, is it?"

"He's not an artist, but he has a good image, and we need him urgently, so it'll be three or four days before we can find another artist."

"Director, let's find someone else."

"Why would I ask you to help me if I could? Go and talk to him, it's only for one day."

Finally the agent also came over and advised, “Yu Lin, don’t make the director angry, this is a good opportunity, there are so many reality shows, if you perform well this time, you’ll be busy for the rest of the year.”

Cheng Yulin didn’t have much of an opinion, so she was encouraged by others and finally had to return to the old city and find Ye Xing.

“I can’t, I’m so handsome, what if I get a hit on your show?”

“Don’t be so naive, I’m just asking for your help, aren’t you fine here anyway?”

“I’m fine, but why should I help you?”

“I’m Jo’s best friend, don’t you want me to put in a good word for you?”

“The two of us have a stable relationship, we don’t need to bother you to add fuel to the fire.”

“Then I owe you a favour.”

“Before I saved you and preserved your innocence, in ancient times you would have had to give your body in return, and still talk to me about favours is that interesting?”

Cheng Yulin blushed slightly and stomped her foot in anger, then cocked her lips and left.

Ye Xing went around in the ancient city, it really didn’t seem like there was much to do, according to the group’s explanation, this Jiang’s family would have to come out for air at least a week later, it looked like if they didn’t find something to do, they would have to meditate and cultivate all day long.

The director was a bit unhappy that there were not enough people after all, so tomorrow’s shooting would have to be stalled.

Suddenly, Ye Xing ran to the crew’s car, found Cheng Yulin who was sitting alone, squeezed over and sat down.

When Cheng Yulin saw Ye Xing, she was surprised and asked, “Why are you here?”

“Not everyone can shoot a movie, the feeling of the camera is crucial, some people look like passers-by under the camera, there is no sense of achievement.” Cheng Yulin squeezed a sentence.

Ye Xing smiled, “I see that those films from the East Island are shot quite professionally, even the ugliest passersby can become the main characters.”

“East Island?” Cheng Yulin frowned, tapped the agent in front of her on the shoulder and asked.

The agent, who was also a big sister, blushed slightly and quietly came to her ear to mutter a sentence, Cheng Yulin’s ears turned red after hearing it, hating to strangle Ye Xing.

“Rascal, is that kind called a piece?”

“Go, nasty thoughts all day long, I don’t know how Xiao Qiao fell for you.”

“Our feelings are not for outsiders like you to understand.”

Chapter 465

Ye Xing smilingly slept against Cheng Yulin, deliberately making this girl fidgety all the way.

When they arrived at the hotel in Xiliang City, Ye Xing shamelessly followed Cheng Yulin to her room, making the agent think there was a story between the two of them.

Inside the room, Cheng Yulin was exhausted, but still hugged her pillow and stared at Ye Xing rather scornfully.

Ye Xing sat on the sofa and smiled, “Don’t worry, I won’t lay a hand on you, I just don’t have anywhere to go, so I’ll borrow the sofa in your room to sleep on.”

“I can get you a room.”

“The director in the car just said we’re leaving at five tomorrow, it’ll be ten o’clock at night, so if we dawdle any longer, do we need to sleep?”

“I” Cheng Yulin couldn’t really find any reason to retort, but she was all sweaty and uncomfortable without a shower, so she looked at Ye Xing and said, “You go out first and stay for a while, I want to take a shower.”

“You have nothing to do with me taking a shower, right?”

“You’re lying on the sofa, I come out after showering and you’re staring at me, don’t you feel embarrassed?”

“As long as I’m not embarrassed.”

“Hurry up and get out.” Cheng Yulin growled.

Ye Xing smiled and got up to walk out of the room, the crew had gone to the ancient city to shoot all day, all of them were tired and went back to their rooms one by one to rest.

Ye Xing leaned against the door of his room and waited for most of an hour, and couldn’t help but complain, “It took so long to wash, the skin must have washed off a layer, right?”

Suddenly, there was a faint cry for help from inside the house. Ye Xing hurriedly opened the door and heard a coughing sound coming from the bathroom.

Ye Xing hurriedly opened the bathroom door and saw Cheng Yulin lying on the floor, so he didn’t care about that much and took her out and put her on the bed.

Cheng Yulin was coughing continuously, as if she had severe asthma.

After examining her, Ye Xing covered her neck with both hands and poured Yuan Power into her.

Cheng Yulin instantly got comfortable, but suddenly let out a shriek and then hurriedly grabbed the blanket to cover her body.

Ye Xing was also taken aback, and said with a bristling mouth, "Life is almost gone, why do you still care about this?"

"You bastard, get out of here right now." Cheng Yulin cried out in aggravation.

Ye Xing yelled, "You have preconceptions about me, if it was a male doctor who saved your life instead, would you not think so much about it?"

"I... Anyway, I feel ashamed when you see me."

"Cut, make it sound like how obscene I am." Ye Xing turned his head and left the room.

As a result, just after she went out, Cheng Yulin kept coughing again, having difficulty breathing, and collapsed directly on the edge of the bed in distress.

She didn't even know what was wrong with her, why she was suddenly so sick, and how close her whole body felt to suffocating.

"Am I going to die here?"

Cheng Yulin got scared, but soon fainted and when she woke up again, she actually saw Ye Xing sitting by the bed.

Cheng Yulin hurriedly checked her clothes, they had actually been put on, and she knew without asking that it was Ye Xing who had done it.

This guy didn't care about worldly ethics at all, he did whatever he wanted, and he even looked aggrieved after he did it.

Ye Xing opened his eyes and smiled, "You can tell the crew to rest if you're not feeling well, there's no need to be so insistent when you're sick."

"I just have a bit of asthma, nothing wrong with it." Cheng Yulin said she wanted to get up, but unfortunately, her head hurt and body was hot, and she was weak.

Ye Xing brushed her lips and said, "Your condition is very serious, if you don't treat it properly, I'm afraid you won't be able to have children in the future."

Cheng Yulin blushed scarlet and spat, "What are you talking nonsense about?"

"I've seen you, you have a very serious gynaecological condition, and you also have problems with your lungs and your respiratory tract, you should have choked on some irritating gas, according to your health condition, you should have been hospitalised a long time ago, how dare you participate in a reality show, you really want money and don't want to die."

"I" Cheng Yulin said stubbornly, "I know my own business, I'll be fine after a rest."

"You say it's fine, you can't lie when your body is sick, in your current condition, if I hadn't helped you, you would have been sent to the hospital for emergency treatment."

"You don't understand, if I don't work, I won't have a job soon."

"You said filming?"

As if she had found someone to talk to, Cheng Yulin frowned and said, "I'm not Xiao Qiao, my acting skills are very poor, Xiao Qiao often helps me find roles, but I can't even be the first or second female lead, at most I can play some supporting roles, for a small flower of our level, if we want to maintain our popularity and still want to mix in the acting circle, we have to participate in reality shows often, this time, it's all because my company spent a lot of money and connections to get it, if this time If this time is outstanding, the work behind will be mainly reality shows, so it depends on this time whether we move on or back off."

Ye Xing bristled and said, "But if your life is gone, you won't be able to do it even if you're given a lot of work."

"Is my condition really serious?"

"Of course it's serious, it could even kill you, and there's also the fact that you'll have trouble having children if your gynaecological condition isn't resolved, you don't want to be unable to marry someone in the future, do you?"

"You make it sound so powerful, can you cure me?"

Ye Xing smiled, "Of course I can, you are Xiao Qiao's bestie, of course I won't see death without saving you, but first of all, I have to say it right, you can't think I am lewd, you have to treat me as a doctor, I am touching and looking at your body to save you, not intentionally trying to bully you."

"Alright, stop it, hurry up and heal me, we still have an hour before we have to leave." Cheng Yulin grabbed the blanket, shy beyond belief.

Ye Xing got up and lifted the blanket, then stripped off her clothes and took out the pills to treat her up.

After ten minutes had passed, Cheng Yulin really felt relaxed, her previously feverish head had healed, and her whole body became very energetic, no longer needing to take those medicines to hold on hard.

"You are so powerful, you are simply a contemporary divine doctor."

"I'm not really a miracle doctor, I just have a bit of skill to cure people."

While the two were being polite, there was a knock on the door from the agent outside the house.

After some washing up, the two quickly went out and downstairs to the car.

The crew left the city early in the morning to go to Moon Lake, another scenic spot outside Xiliang City.

Moon Lake is a lake in the middle of the desert, like a turquoise pearl set on top of the vast yellow sand, and is extremely beautiful from above.

As the most beautiful spot in the region, it is also the location for numerous wedding photos.

The ancient country of Loulan, with its desert atmosphere and golden gorse, is like yesterday.

Once Ye Xing and the others arrived, the crew, who were just ahead of them, had already set up many venues. These people came straight over yesterday, eating and staying inside the truck, working even harder than the actors.

And in the surrounding area many locals and tourists also knew there was a celebrity filming a reality show and came around to join in the fun, constantly looking for people to take photos.

The number of people early in the morning was not large, so there was no security to stop them, and the stars were happy to take pictures and sign autographs for everyone, but once the number of people grew, the fans and stars naturally had to be separated in order to maintain law and order.

Ye Xing was familiar with today's script and most of the scenes were actually water scenes, with a man and a woman looking after each other, in order to prevent accidents.

Chapter 466

Naturally, Ye Xing had to be paired with Cheng Yulin, and there weren't many scenes of him showing his head in the later stages, all of which had to be cut out of the picture.

But it didn't matter to him at all, it wasn't like he wanted to be famous, he just came to experience this reality show star activity.

At 10am, the sun was already hot and even though he was standing in the water, his skin was still sore from the sun.

The director was still waiting for a heavyweight guest to make an appearance today.

When that guest appeared, the whole audience cheered, and countless fans went crazy, shouting his name.

Ye Xing nudged Cheng Yulin and asked, "Who's this? What a big show."

"You don't watch reality shows?"

"Watching my ass, I don't even have time to watch East Island flicks."

"No wonder he doesn't know anything, his name is Luo Jin, he's the kung fu star of several recent blockbusters, he's handsome and a good fighter, he's even been in the UFC before, I heard he has real kung fu, he's the successor to the four stars of Sung Lee Yen Wu."

"Oh, the original fake handle ah."

"Don't offend anyone later, I'm a small guy, he's the star of a big movie, can't afford to mess with him."

"Why would I mess with him? He doesn't owe me any money."

Ye Xing and Cheng Yulin fought with each other, resulting in that big star called Luo Jin changing his clothes and jumping into the water, and doing a dashing freestyle, which countless female stars greeted with silly white applause.

The show that followed was naturally dominated by this big handsome guy, and the cameras were almost entirely focused on him.

After the show started, both sides were grouped and the female stars all flocked towards Luo Jin, and the boy was extremely proud of himself.

After the grouping, Ye Xing was responsible for Cheng Yulin's safety and attended various events casually.

These stars were really good at acting, crying and crying when they bumped into each other, or else they were deliberately showing their nakedness, simply showing themselves in front of the camera constantly.

Ye Xing saw that Luo Jin had reached out several times to inadvertently touch the vital private positions of the actresses around him.

The actresses didn't take it seriously and looked like they were enjoying themselves.

Finally Luo Jin swam in front of Cheng Yulin, this guy still wanted to continue to eat tofu, Ye Xing could not look down, Xiao Qiao's best friend, also you can be such a fake touch?

Ye Xing deliberately swam out to block the way, Luo Jin did not take advantage of the situation, a little upset, but also did not say anything.

Soon the activity in the water was over and everyone went to the platform for the next session.

Here there was nothing for Ye Xing to do, just stand aside and watch the fun.

The actresses were all dressed in posh clothes, all in bikinis by the water, and they even shivered a few times after they got on the platform, afraid that no one would see them.

There were rewards and punishments for this session, but Luo Jin lost and picked up one of the actresses and threw her into the water, having a great time.

Luo Jin came over to Cheng Yulin and kept chatting about something, and the two of them were even chatting enthusiastically.

If it was before, Ye Xing wouldn't have thought there was a problem, but Luo Jin was obviously trying to flirt with the girl, and Cheng Yulin looked smart, but was actually stupid, so don't fall for it.

At four o'clock in the afternoon, the shooting was finished and the crew told Ye Xing that he didn't have to go back and gave him a red packet of several hundred dollars.

Cheng Yulin, who had changed her clothes, ran up to Ye Xing and said, "I have to go with the crew, there's a celebration party tonight and everyone wants to celebrate."

"I'll go in your car."

"I have to share a car with Luo Jin, he's coming in a nanny car."

"That's fine, I'll take the crew's car."

"You have to go with us?"

"I'm your bodyguard, I have to protect you."

"I have an agent, and the crew's security, there's no danger."

"Not necessarily, often danger is all around, you just don't know it."

Ye Xing laughed, then went to the crew's car in a deadpan manner.

The crew couldn't do anything about him and went back to Xilang City together.

On the way, Ye Xing bought a pack of good cigarettes at the gas station and directly gave them to the driver and the crew.

The good cigarettes were a welcome gift, and after this round, the relationship between them had become much closer.

Ye Xing also found out where the crew was celebrating, and after returning to Xiliang, he took a taxi there himself.

The crew's cars were all pulling staff, while those celebrating were the stars and directors and producers, so they could only be envious, as they could not participate at all.

Ye Xing arrived at a nightclub somewhere in Xiliang City and found the third floor, where the crew was drinking and eating, simply a bit of debauchery.

The men had their arms around the women, each dancing and pampering the other, and some were sitting directly on the director's lap chatting passionately.

The night continued to change places, and Ye Xing found that Cheng Yulin was supported by her agent when she came downstairs, really having been poured too much wine, the whole thing was a bit indigestible.

Some of the stars left and some stayed, and naturally a small person like Cheng Yulin had to stay on until the end.

When they arrived at another venue, Luo Jin and another female celebrity had a hot fight, but unfortunately, the other party was also a veteran, so Luo Jin didn't get much out of it, instead he was pestered by the other party for all sorts of advantages.

Luo Jin's face was displeased, but he suddenly thought of Cheng Yulin, that silly white girl, and approached her directly and exchanged pleasantries with her.

Cheng Yulin was a bit unconscious, so when Luo Jin saw his chance, he took her and went to the bathroom, intending to take some interest first.

But just as he entered the bathroom, there was suddenly a knock on the door outside.

"Go downstairs, there's someone." Luo Jin yelled up in dissatisfaction.

Bang Bang

A continuous knocking sounded on the door, Luo Jin impatiently opened the door and saw Ye Xing, not remembering that he had seen him there.

"Get out." Luo Jin pushed Ye Xing.

Unfortunately, Ye Xing did not move at all, and after looking at Cheng Yulin sitting on the toilet he laughed, "This is my friend, she is so drunk, I have to take her back to rest."

Luo Jin stopped Ye Xing with a sneer, "If you say she's your friend, she's your friend, right? I even said she's my girl, we're planning to make a villain, do you want to see it?"

"She's really my friend, you better tighten up or you're liable to suffer a big loss."

"F*ck, go away, the girl I like, why the f*ck are you here to make trouble?"

Ye Xing didn't care about Luo Jin, he pushed him away and went inside.

Luo Jin was so angry that he smashed his fist on Ye Xing's head. Ye Xing instantly looked like an enraged tiger and kicked Luo Jin out, falling to the ground and spitting blood in pain.

Ye Xing picked up Cheng Yulin and left the room. He went downstairs to see his manager and scolded him.

The agent didn't know that Luo Jin was so despicable and dared to do such a thing, so he regretted that he shouldn't have advised Cheng Yulin to come to such a bureau.

"Alright, let's find a hotel to stay first."

"No, if you offend the crew, it will cut off Yu Lin's future in the future."

Ye Xing sneered, "The crew is nothing, offend me and let them all have no good consequences."

The agent jumped in shock as Ye Xing carried Cheng Yulin and went out to take a taxi to the hotel.

The agent was chased by phone calls along the way, from the company, from the director, and from Luo Jin, the big star's agent.

No matter which side was calling, it was all the same thing: the person who injured Luo Jin was in for a bad time and no one could save him!

Chapter 467

The agent Li Wei was furious, this Ye Xing is a god of trouble, actually kicked the big star Luo Jin injured, not to mention that this Luo Jin is a popular martial arts star, just the agency behind him is a national voice, the power of the sky is huge, this time is really stirred up a hornet's nest.

Li Wei hurriedly entered the room, gave Ye Xing a blank look, then looked at Cheng Yulin as she woke up, and immediately said, "Yulin, we are in big trouble this time, just now the company president Li called, Luo Jin was injured by someone."

"Who beat him up?" Cheng Yulin had been drunk before, of course she didn't know about the nasty things Luo Jin had done to her.

Ye Xing smiled, "No need to thank me, I beat him up, that kind of son of a b*tch would hate to kill him."

"You still have the face to say that?" Li Wei yelled, "Do you know how much trouble you've caused? It doesn't matter if you go to jail, don't drag Yu Lin down with you."

Ye Xing's face turned gloomy, "How can you be such an agent? One of your own was drunk by the other party, and almost gave a bewitched J, but you don't know how to condemn the other party, and you're blaming me?"

“She’s a big star, can she do such nasty things? Everything is your own words, only you know what the truth of the matter is.”

“If he hadn’t bullied anyone, would I have hit him? It’s not like I’m crazy.”

“Anyway, nothing you can say will help, now people are not only calling the police, they’re suing you, so I’m afraid you’ll have to spend the rest of your life in jail.”

“Blow it, is it that powerful?”

Li Wei sneered, “The agency behind Luo Jin has a lot of power, otherwise how could they promote him? You’d better do one person’s job later anyway, don’t drag our Yu Lin into it.”

“Don’t worry, I beat up the man, I’ll take the blame for the accident.” Ye Xing growled in dissatisfaction.

Cheng Yulin frowned and said, “Ye Xing, why don’t you go and explain yourself.”

“Explain my ass, he grabbed you into the bathroom and took off your trousers, I saw all of this, I won’t regret beating him up at all, only that I didn’t kick him to death.” Ye Xing had just finished speaking when suddenly the sound of hurried footsteps came from outside the house.

Ye Xing frowned and said, “It really came quite fast, you guys leave it alone, I’ll go deal with this.”

Ye Xing pushed open the door and walked out, and a group of uniformed men immediately jumped on him and held him down.

Ye Xing didn’t resist, he was honestly handcuffed, and Cheng Yulin was dumbfounded.

Ye Xing was loaded into a car and taken to a nearby police station. When he arrived, he actually saw that bastard Luo Jin.

At this moment, Luo Jin was surrounded by a large group of people, and he was sitting in a wheelchair, still hanging saline, with his head wrapped in gauze, looking as if he was badly injured.

Ye Xing sneered as he was pinned to the ground. Cheng Yulin had some conscience and brought his agent Li Wei to the station.

When Luo Jin saw her, his eyes were full of resentment. After all, if it wasn’t for Cheng Yulin, he wouldn’t have been kicked half to death by Ye Xing, but the best way to get back at him was to torture him.

Luo Jin’s side presented a lot of evidence, witnesses and examination reports, and the hospital judged that the ribs were broken and the lungs pierced.

The hospital judged that the injuries were serious. Nowadays, even minor injuries are punishable by imprisonment, and serious injuries are punishable by at least five years in prison.

All of Luo Jin’s side laughed in triumph, shouting that the murderer should be punished severely and that these bad elements should not be allowed to act recklessly.

Li Wei brought Cheng Yulin closer and apologised to Luo Jin.

Luo Jin sneered, “This murderer seems to be a friend of yours, I wonder how you can explain?”

Cheng Yulin explained, "I believe Ye Xing is not crazy, maybe there is some misunderstanding here."

"Misunderstanding? You mean I did something bad and that's why he kicked me?" Luo Jin roared up.

The director said, "Yu Lin, although he's your friend, you can't harbour such a murderer, if you break the law you have to be punished severely."

"Right, apologise properly to Luo Jin, this madman has nothing to do with you, whatever he does has nothing to do with you." Liwei advised.

Cheng Yulin considered for a moment then said, "I still say that, I believe Ye Xing is not crazy, there must be some misunderstanding."

"Alright, get lost, I'm going to have the company ban you, you're just complaining that I didn't agree to introduce you to the director of the new drama, your life is ruined, do you know how many fans I have? One mouthful of spittle from each of them could drown you, I guarantee your agency will sue you for breach of contract, just wait until you go bankrupt." Luo Jin was furious and viciously threatened up.

Cheng Yulin looked up at him and suddenly felt that this martial arts star was really nasty, he was about to slander someone when he was annoyed, it looked like Ye Xing was right, he was afraid that he was really bullying himself and that was why he was kicked by Ye Xing.

"I believe in Ye Xing, what he did should have stopped Luo Jin from committing a crime." Cheng Yulin shouted.

Instantly the whole bureau went silent, followed by the constant heckling and roaring from Luo Jin and the others, they were so crowded and loud anyway, just to drown out Cheng Yulin's voice.

Cheng Yulin took one look at Ye Xing and decisively walked up to a uniformed man and said, "I want to report a crime, after someone got me drunk, he intended to misbehave with me, my friend stopped the other party from committing the crime, he didn't mean to hurt anyone, but to save me."

"Damn you, you dead b*tch, you're dead, you dare to frame me, I want you to die for good." Luo Jin blushed and cursed indiscriminately.

Cheng Yulin reported the case, the bureau inside naturally had to investigate, this to Luo Jin, originally could bite Ye Xing to death, but now the situation has changed.

The company's main goal is to provide the best possible service to its customers.

The leader read the information and told people to let Ye Xing plead guilty and change his serious injuries to minor ones, so he would probably be out in a year or two.

Ye Xing smiled coldly: "Don't change it, just serious injury, maybe it will become maiming later."

The uniformed man snarled, "What do you mean, kid? Do you know the difference between serious and light injuries, you are lucky now, give you a light injury, sit for a year or two and you will be fine."

"I think it's too light, people like me don't deserve to die, they should be shot." Ye Xing sneered up.

The uniformed man slapped the table in anger, the other party had moved to make sure Ye Xing was punished, so naturally he couldn't just let him go.

“Deny it, right? We can spend time with you.” The uniformed man said and walked out of the interrogation room.

The fan club had already exploded, and many people posted online overnight, calling on fans to crusade against Cheng Yulin, describing her as a person who would sell her flesh to get to the top, only for Luo Jin to be unmoved and instead be injured and slandered by her friends.

Chapter 468

Liwei took her phone and handed it to Cheng Yulin to look at, who glanced at it and said, “It doesn’t matter, the clearer you are, the better to not be an artist.”

“Yu Lin, are you out of your mind? Is he your boyfriend? How dare you willingly sacrifice your career for him.” Li Wei asked incomprehensibly.

With a red face, Cheng Yulin said, “He’s just an ordinary friend of mine, but he could injure Luo Jin to save me, I can’t just use him as a stepping stone for the sake of my own career.”

“Yu Lin, I’m begging you, go apologise to Luo Jin and get him to dispel those public opinions, I really don’t want to see your future ruined.” Li Wei sobbed uncomfortably.

Cheng Yulin advised, “Sister Wei, don’t persuade me, I’ve decided to do this, I can’t let Ye Xing be wrongly imprisoned.”

“B*tch, you think you’re so powerful, don’t you?”

Suddenly, an abusive voice came.

Cheng Yulin twisted her head to see that it was actually her company’s General Manager Li, and the person following him was Luo Jin, who was sitting in a wheelchair.

Li Guopeng was in his thirties, one meter eight head, very well connected in the entertainment industry, started his agency not long ago, Cheng Yulin was a newcomer he had only scooped up into the company, as she was on good terms with Su Xiaoqiao, which was of some value to Li Guopeng.

But he never thought that this dead girl had actually offended Luo Jin, who did not know that the Luo family behind Luo Jin was a prestigious family, the family group assets of tens of billions of dollars, he, the son of a grandson into the entertainment industry, in fact, is just playing the ticket, people not only have strong financial resources, huge power, there are also the means of the sky, offended him, is tantamount to trouble for themselves.

The first time he slapped his face, Li Guopeng rushed to Cheng Yulin and hit her.

Cheng Yulin covered her face and cried uncomfortably, “Mr. Li, why are you hitting me?”

“It’s light to hit you, you b*tch offended Luo Jin, I have the heart to kill you, go and kowtow to Luo Jin right now and admit your mistake, if you f*cking dare not do so, I will sue you for losing your family’s money.” Li Guopeng pointed at Cheng Yulin and cursed.

Luo Jin sat in his wheelchair watching with pleasure and sneered, "Mr. Li, you have to be gentle with girls, although your company's artist wronged me, I didn't take it seriously, now the whole internet knows that she is a b*tch who would sell her body to get to the top, this is even more enjoyable than killing her."

"Young Luo, tell me, how are you going to clean her up?" Li Guopeng asked.

Luo Jin hooked his finger at Cheng Yulin, who didn't move at all. Li Guopeng rushed over and yanked her by the hair towards Luo Jin.

It was already early in the morning and no one cared what was going on here.

Cheng Yulin was pinned to the ground by Li Guopeng, but she wouldn't kneel down.

Li Wei couldn't stand it anymore and came running to advise, "Mr. Li, don't fight, do you want to kill her?"

Suddenly, Cheng Yulin's eyes rolled white and her whole body fell to the ground and started searching.

Li Guopeng scolded, "B*tch, don't play dead, get up for me."

Luo Jin smiled smugly, "Send her to the hospital, maybe she's really sick, no wonder this kind of mental illness will wrongly accuse me."

Liwei cried and called, and went over to hold Cheng Yulin.

After dawn, Long Dong contacted a certain big shot within Xilang City and came directly to the district police station.

Inside the bureau, Ye Xing was still handcuffed and soon the door to the room was pushed open and the members of Dragon Shield were instantly furious to see their leader being bullied like this, pouncing into the room and quickly subduing the two uniformed men who were interrogating him.

Ye Xing was uncuffed and walked out, the whole bureau was dumbfounded, what was the origin of the other party?

Ye Xing walked out of the bureau and sneered, "Check Luo Jin, in addition which hotel is Cheng Yulin staying at?"

"Chief, Miss Cheng is hospitalised."

Ye Xing's eyes widened and he flew towards the hospital to kill her. When he arrived at the ward, he saw Cheng Yulin lying on the hospital bed, her whole body was half alive.

Ye Xing knew she was sick, but she had been treated and should be fine. Testing her body, Ye Xing found that it had been beaten to trigger the previous injuries.

At this point he lifted the blanket and took a look, Cheng Yulin was bruised and battered as if she had been tortured.

Ye Xing was furious, and as soon as he pushed Liwei, who was asleep next to him, he yelled, "Who beat her up with these bruises?"

Li Wei rubbed her eyes and asked in fear after she was sure it was Ye Xing, "Did you break out of prison?"

Ye Xing yelled, "Who beat her up like this? Was it Luo Jin?"

"It was our company's General Manager Li, Luo Jin's family has a powerful background, General Manager Li can't afford to mess with him, so he can only take it out on Yu Wei." Li Wei said and got hard again.

"Damn, these bastards." Ye Xing asked where Chief Li lived.

Liwei didn't even know and Ye Xing told her to call and ask.

"I'm afraid, what should I do if Chief Li deals with me?"

"If I tell you to call, you should call obediently, and when this is settled, the old boss of your company will let you do it."

Liwei was half-hearted, and Ye Xing forced her to call.

Liwei had no choice, Ye Xing was fierce and fierce, and she was afraid of hurting herself.

After the phone call, Liwei looked at Ye Xing and said, "In room 508 of the Bingyue Hotel."

Ye Xing took his men and killed them, quickly going up to 508, knocking on the door and entering the room, directly holding down both of the people in the room.

"Who are you guys? Do you know that it is against the law to do so?" Li Guopeng roared up angrily.

Ye Xing sneered, "A hotel looking for fun, and murdering and injuring people, you've made it to the top as an old boss."

"Who are you scaring? Don't get yourself into trouble." Li Guopeng yelled up.

Ye Xing told the Dragon Shield members to let go of him, and then handed him the ashtray on the bedside table.

Li Guopeng cursed as soon as he threw the ashtray away, "What do you mean? Who are you guys?"

Ye Xing deliberately sneered, "We asked you to cooperate with the investigation, who knew that you wouldn't cooperate and used the ashtray to hit me, there are already your fingerprints on it, so the next step is easy."

Li Guopeng froze: "What nonsense are you talking about?"

Ye Xing sneered and punched him in the stomach, Li Guopeng instantly spat out a mouthful of filth inside his mouth, followed by Ye Xing punching him to death, scolding him as he did so, "Dog, who gave you the ability to bully people? You think you can bully the people just because you are rich and powerful? Today I'll let you have a taste of being bullied."

With a click, Li Guopeng's hands were broken by Ye Xing, and his whole body fainted, but not for a while, his calf was trampled off, and his whole body woke up in pain, screaming in agony.

Ye Xing saw that it was almost time. With this son of a b*tch's injuries, he would have trouble going to the toilet for the rest of his life, not to mention finding a woman in a hotel.

It was too comfortable to kill this kind of scum, it would be really painful to let him live like a dead dog.

Ye Xing waved his hand and the Dragon Shield members carried the man away, they still had to get him some charges, anyway, this guy was completely ruined, he would either die inside the prison or beg for food on the street.

Chapter 469

Ye Xing left the hotel and turned around to go to the filming location of the drama where Luo Jin was.

Although this guy had been kicked, he was not really in any serious trouble, and his injury papers had all been issued by his connections.

Of course, as a popular star, Luo Jin didn't even have to do anything, he just showed his face in some scenes and hired a body double for all the other action scenes.

Luo Jin was treated like a king on the set, the director had to ask him if he was comfortable, and the actresses and supporting actresses were all over him, all sorts of flattering.

The entertainment industry is a small society where connections are very important. In addition, the domestic economy has developed over the years and the spending power of fans is getting stronger and stronger, which naturally gives stars a higher and higher status, after all, no one will have a problem with money.

The benefits of hugging the thighs of a popular celebrity can be terrifying and huge.

Luo Jin rested enough and started to ride on a motorbike, wearing sunglasses and a prop gun, and the villains in front of him were ruthlessly run over by him.

Several of the actors were injured by this, but the effect was really realistic and good.

Luo Jin smiled and said to the director, "Why don't I pull the female lead and glide through mid-air later?"

"The action is dashing and it's handsome and beautiful, it's perfectly fine, but I'll have to use a crane for you for safety."

"Fine, as long as it's a good shot."

Soon the crane pulled Luo Jin up high into the air, he tried it out fine, not realising that suddenly the steel cable snapped and Luo Jin fell hard from the height, luckily there was a safety mat underneath so he didn't fall too badly.

"Damn it, which one of you is responsible for safety? I'll fire whoever is in charge of this immediately." Luo Jin cursed arrogantly, and the female lead was thankful that she didn't go up there just now, and then ran to Luo Jin's side to shush him.

Ye Xing smiled and walked out, "Big star, come with me."

“Why are you here?” Luo Jin was taken aback.

Ye Xing smiled and approached over, grabbing Luo Jin as if he was carrying a chicken, the guy tried to resist, and after a beating, he was honest.

The director was terrified and immediately called for the security guards, but several Dragon Shield teams leapt out from the side, all with weapons and equipment, scaring the security guards back.

Ye Xing took Luo Jin back to Xiliang City, then announced the bad things he had done and told the local law enforcement authorities to follow the rules.

Luo Jin’s network of contacts began to move, and when they learnt that it was the Dragon Shield chief they had messed with, each one was like a frosted aubergine.

When Luo Jin met his lawyer at the detention centre, the other party had a gloomy look on his face, put down his purse and said, “Young Luo, the master asked me to give you a message, reform well here and you’ll be out in two years at most.”

“I’m a big star, I still have a movie to shoot, why should I stay for two years? Let my dad get me out.”

“Young Luo, you can’t get out, besides it’s best to confess all your crimes, what the master means is that you reform properly and they will find ways to make you feel better in jail, if you don’t listen, then you will be left to fend for yourself.”

The lawyer finished and looked at Luo Jin, who’s whole body went limp, as if he had a nightmare.

Inside the hospital, as soon as Cheng Yulin woke up, she saw Su Xiaoqiao, grabbed her hand and cried in aggravation.

“Yu Lin, it’s alright, the one who bullied you, Luo Jin, has already been arrested, and Li Guopeng who beat you up will not escape justice either.” Su Xiaoqiao hugged her best friend and comforted her.

Cheng Yulin nodded her head as she cried, but in her heart she knew that the person who should be most grateful was Ye Xing.

Ye Xing returned to the ancient city, after settling Cheng Yulin’s matter, he still had to focus all his attention on Jiang’s family.

After waiting for many days, the whereabouts of Jiang’s family finally appeared. They were four young men, who could not hold their breath inside the tomb and had to go out to get some air.

Dragon Shield’s men had been using various means to track them down. The four were all very young, and after having enough fun around the ancient city and buying a lot of things, they took a taxi to return after dark.

According to the trajectory of the car, the technicians probably deduced that the other party should be near the Yuanhao ruins.

The area around Yuanhao’s ruins was desert, and no one could be seen for hundreds of miles. Because there was not much to see, fewer and fewer tourists went there over the years, and only some donkeys who were particularly interested in the history of ancient minorities would travel long distances to visit.

Ye Xing and the others surrounded the site the next day and used all kinds of unmanned equipment to investigate. It took an hour to find a large number of people gathered hundreds of metres below a certain site, and when they went down to look for them using thermal imaging technology, they found a large number of Jiang's disciples.

After setting everything up, Ye Xing began to besiege the Jiang family disciples.

Whether the Demon Subduing Sword Formation would work or not, it was necessary to test the water with Jiang Qin.

Ye Xing launched the order and the Dragon Shield began to move, the combat squads set off one by one, with various unmanned equipment and fire control to begin the attack.

Various gases were released towards the ancient tomb, instantly turning the entire underground cemetery into a smoke-filled place, the Jiang family disciples could not resist and quickly fled from the tomb.

The younger ones ran out, the older ones had to be managed, after all, the Jiang family are all one family, their bloodlines are connected, it is impossible to just say give up.

As the combat squad began to capture, an old man from the Jiang family came out of his cage like a fierce tiger and quickly darted towards the combat squad to attack.

The man was so powerful that he threw darts and chains that the combat team couldn't fight back.

Fire control on one side began to target the attack and the old man was soon on the ground screaming with both legs broken.

The scene was getting bloodier and bloodier as there was no way the Jiang family would surrender and submit, apart from a group of young boys and girls who were shivering in fear, the others fought back to the death and for a while the two sides were inseparable.

Ye Xing looked at Du Jiuniang and the girls and said, "Go on, reduce the casualties."

The Du Jiuniang sisters quickly joined the battle, one was an expert of the Flying Daggers Sect and the other was a fairy of the Immortal Sect, joining the fight and soon the situation began to tilt towards the Dragon Shield side.

More and more people from Jiang's family were captured, fighting to the death to resist that kind of thing, and Ye Xing was also killing people, at this time, he would not be a woman to reason with you.

Finally Jiang Qin came out of the gate, a long black hair, stout and tall, this guy had scars on his face, obviously injured by the Free Fairy with a magic weapon.

Jiang Qin was truly worthy of being one of the four great masters, his aura was terrifying, and as soon as he flew out of the ancient tomb, he immediately tore apart several Dragon Shield combatants.

This guy enjoyed the rain of blood and revealed a glimpse of ferocity.

Ye Xing looked at him and bellowed, "He is the one who killed Fairy Free, all the fairies of the Immortal Sect take revenge for your sect master."

Jiang Qin froze, then smiled fiercely, "And the fairy sect's demon girls, I will kill as many as come."

Soon a group of fairies flew out, each wearing long white dresses and wielding sharp swords, beauty and killing intent blended into one.

"Subdue the demons, the Way of the Immortals, the unity of sword intent, the Brahma exterminates the Shura, today we gather the hands of all the fairies to seek justice for Fairy Free, I hope you will all work together, put aside your prejudices and slaughter the murderer!"

Chapter 470

Ye Xing roared up, his voice high and shocking.

All the fairies were instantly enraged, and each one of them wanted to fight with Jiang Qin to the death.

Zhu Xiaohong was being watched by Luo Xiaoyun all the time and did not dare to make a rash move. At this moment, after hearing Ye Xing's roar, she really felt that this person was terrifying and actually knew how to inspire people in front of the battlefield, and the Immortal Sect disciples would definitely fight to the death in order to avenge her.

"Jiang Qin ah Jiang Qin, why didn't you and I kill this kid first in the first place? Now instead, we let him take all the advantages and become the big winner in the end!"

Zhu Xiaohong finished lamenting in her heart, but soon these resentments vanished into thin air, after all, she was not exactly the soul of the Fairy of Prosperity at this time, there was still the good natured naivety of the peasant girl that Zhu Xiaohong was.

Once the sword formation was out, Jiang Qin's original arrogance was instantly extinguished.

Qiao Baihe also joined in, followed by Ye Xing. With the two of them joining in, Jiang Qin's previous fierce might was completely gone, and he was beaten back by this sword formation.

Ye Xing sneered, "Old man Jiang, don't blame me for not giving you a way out, at least you are one of the Four Great Patriarchs, it's a bit of a pity to kill you, stay and serve the Dragon Shield, not only will you live, your Jiang family will no longer be held responsible."

"Haha, a yellow mouth, how dare you lecture me, what are you, you are just a hitman thrown out by Hua Junsheng, when the wind and waves calm down, that despicable person Hua Junsheng will naturally unload the grinding and kill the donkey, so that you will not end well."

"Is it useful to sow dissension?"

"Wanting me, Jiang Qin, to submit to you, you are dreaming in vain."

Ye Xing was so angry that he ran his Yuan Power into a frenzy and with the assistance of the sword formation, Jiang Qin didn't stand a chance at all, and eventually the old man fell to the ground with serious injuries.

Qiao Baihe came close and pierced half of his body with an ice lance.

Ye Xing yanked Jiang Qin's head and shouted at the surroundings, "Jiang's disciples surrender immediately, or I will cut Jiang Qin's head off."

As soon as these words were spoken, the defiant Jiang Clan disciples let out a sigh of relief, and eventually all of them bounded away.

Imprisoning these ancient martial artists was a very difficult thing to do, Ye Xing asked Lin Wei to ask Bei Ye for instructions.

If they were not properly disciplined, they would definitely remain unruly and unruly.

In the end, Beinuo threw the problem to Ye Xing, and once Ye Xing saw this, he did not hesitate to set up a dungeon in the nearby ancient tomb, specially responsible for imprisoning wrongdoing ancient martial artists.

Of course, if the killings were too heavy, there was no need to imprison them, they would just be killed to pay for their lives.

Ye Xing also informed the Hidden Sect and the Hong Sect, the Buddhist Sect and other ancient martial arts clans that they would all convene a meeting to discuss the establishment of an orderly ancient martial world rule.

When all the major ancient martial arts clans in China received the news, they were in the category of people who were not governed by the world, and if this rule was established, it would be like putting a curse on everyone's head.

Naturally no one wanted it, but not everyone was against it, and the Buddhists were in favour of it.

Inside the caves of Kunlun Mountain, although the Hidden Sect had entered the world in a big way, the two supreme elders and the core members, such as the Sect Leader, were still practising in seclusion in the mountain.

Lu Yiming frowned and said, "This Ye Xing really knows how to make trouble, if he makes things like this, from now on we will no longer have freedom in the Ancient Martial World."

"Sect Leader, let's not go and see what he can do." Qiu Qianren drank unhappily.

Lu Yiming shook his head, "No, this time Ye Xing has even destroyed Jiang's family and collected a large number of immortal children from the Immortal Sect, his current strength is no longer a time when we can negotiate with him."

Qiu Qianren was furious and wanted to take revenge, but unfortunately Ye Xing's strength was really unfathomable, and now there was no telling how far he had grown.

Lu Yiming informed the two supreme elders and then led his men down the mountain, those who thought like him were also the Hong Clan and other sects.

Everyone gathered in Guangnan provincial city, Ye Xing sent people from Dragon Shield to receive them, taking good care of them, but not having to give too much face, and whoever wanted to deliberately stir up trouble and provoke fire would be ungracious.

Inside the VIP building, Ye Xing had invited the heads of the major ancient martial arts sects to come over for a gathering.

No one opened their mouths, and it was the Buddhist sect representative, Master Wudao, who finally spoke up.

“Everyone already knows that Jiang Qin, one of the Four Great Patriarchs, was arrested by Dragon Shield, Jiang Qin, as a tomb keeper, has committed numerous crimes and can be said to be a jiang yang thief, what awaits him is severe punishment, but this incident also brings out some phenomena in our ancient martial arts world, that is, as ancient martial arts practitioners, with strength that is difficult for ordinary people to surpass, do we get to act as we please and do whatever we want?”

Everyone was silent, as all had their own interests at stake, and being tied down was no joke.

“Everyone can express their own opinions and we can discuss them together.” Master Wudao spoke for half a day, but no one said anything, obviously all disagreed with this matter of setting up rules.

Ye Xing put down his cup of tea, he had expected such a situation.

Most of the ancient martial practitioners were deviant, no one obeyed anyone, they usually cultivated in the mountains, and when they came down from the mountains, they naturally did whatever they wanted, no one would care about the rules of the world, they were like a group of wild children, no one could discipline them, and no one could hurt them.

Before there was no Dragon Shield, the ancient martial world could transcend the world and not accept all rules, but not anymore, at least Ye Xing could not allow this situation to arise.

If there continued to be no rules, there would be no use for everyone to work together. Once any crisis occurred in China, the ancient martial arts community would naturally have to protect themselves one by one, and if they wanted them to contribute to China, I’m afraid it was really a dream.

This is one of the reasons why Ye Xing had to come up with the rules.

Of course having rules would give ancient martial arts practitioners something to fear and not wanting people’s lives indiscriminately was also a big purpose.

“Everyone is not talking, then I will say a word, the rules are definitely established, and it is also necessary for all the sect heads to determine this matter, after going back to restrain the people within their respective sects, not to violate the rules, or else the Dragon Shield is not vegetarian, really go up to the sects to arrest people, you all also have no shame ah.”

Lu Yiming sneered, “Chief Ye, aren’t you being too hasty about this? If you suddenly come up with such a rule, the disciples won’t be able to comply with it, and if there is friction, the good situation before will be ruined.”

“I am telling you guys about this, not asking for your consent, there is an essential difference.”

Ye Xing smiled and swept his eyes at everyone present.

Deer Yiming was furious, so were the people of the Hong Clan, and the other smaller clans were similar, as Ye Xing waved his hand, countless information information appeared on the huge screen opposite, all about the major clans, with details of each and every one of them.
