

Chapter 461

Meeting the Profound Blossom Sect Disciples

"When did you get back, Sect Master? And where did you go for an entire week?" Elder Sun asked right after they entered the building.

"Please, there's no need for such formality. You can just continue calling me Su Yang," he said with a smile.

After all, he'd already accepted Sun Jingjing into his family, which makes Elder Sun his grandpa, too.

"As for your questions, I just got back, and I went to the Southern Continent briefly."

"W-Wait... what? The Southern Continent?" Elder Sun stopped walking to look at him with a dazed look.

"Even if you somehow have the method to cross the Jade Sea, it would require at least a few years before you can reach the other Continents, much less round trip, and you were only gone for a week."

"Let's just say I have a very fast traveling method..." Su Yang casually responded with a smile.

"..."

After a moment of silence, Elder Sun turned to look at the beauty with the tanned skin beside him and asked, "Then who's this young lady? Don't tell me you picked her up from the Southern Continent, too."

"You are awfully sharp today, Elder Sun. Is it perhaps because of your breakthrough to the Earth Spirit Realm?"

"H-Hello! I am called Qin Liangyu, and I am indeed from the Southern Continent! Due to circumstances, I will be following Su Yang as of today! Please take care of me!" Qin Liangyu politely introduced herself to Elder Sun, since he seemed to have a good relationship with Su Yang.

"U-Un." Elder Sun nodded and said with a speechless look, "I am Elder Sun, a Sect Elder for the Profound Blossom Sect. I have never met anyone from the Southern Continent until today, so it's very nice to meet you."

After their introduction, Qin Liangyu asked, "Um... you called Su Yang 'Sect Master' just now. Does this mean he's...?"

"That's right. I am currently the Sect Master of the Profound Blossom Sect, a humble place with only a few dozen disciples at this moment." Su Yang said.

"Wow... a Sect Master..."

Qin Liangyu was impressed. Although there are also Sects within the Southern Continent, there were not many, so the title of Sect Master receives much more praise at the Southern Continent than at the Eastern Continent, where there are hundreds upon hundreds of unique Sects.

"Anyway, how have things been since the tournament?" Su Yang asked him.

"Well... as you saw outside, we have been dealing with similar events nearly every day after the tournament ended, but that's to be expected, since we are the first Sect to become champions of the Regional Tournament besides the Divine Sword Sect. Besides that, the disciples have been quietly cultivating inside their rooms, waiting for your return."

"I see..." Su Yang nodded.

A few minutes later, Su Yang returned to his room, and Fang Zhelan and Sun Jingjing were sitting cross-legged on the bed, silently cultivating.

When they noticed the door open, they stopped cultivating and opened their eyes.

"Su Yang! You are back!"

Once they saw his face, they immediately jumped off the bed with excitement all over their faces. Sun Jingjing even directly embraced him.

"I am back." He said with a smile.

"..."

When Qin Liangyu saw these two beauties, she wondered if they were also his partners, especially Sun Jingjing, who had a similar aura to him.

"Who's this girl by your side?" Fang Zhelan asked him once she noticed her, who clearly wasn't from around this place.

"What beautiful skin! It looks so smooth, too!" Sun Jingjing inspected her from top to bottom.

"Hello. My name is Qin Liangyu, I am from the Southern Continent, and I have followed Su Yang here."

She quickly introduced herself.

"The Southern Continent?"

The two girls looked at her with wide eyes.

"That's where your Master took you, Su Yang? To the Southern Continent?" Fang Zhelan asked him.

"Huh? My Master?" Su Yang raised his eyebrows in a puzzled manner.

"Eh? Then that white-haired beauty is not your Master? The one who took you and Hong Yu'er away right after the tournament ended." Fang Zhelan also made a confused expression.

"Hahaha..." Su Yang laughed after realizing who she was referring to and shook his head.

"She's not my Master."

"Is that so..."

Although she was interested in Qiuyue, Fang Zhelan did not continue to question him.

"Anyway, let's go to where the others are. I had Elder Sun gather everybody." Su Yang said to them.

Sometime later, Su Yang entered another room, where Liu Lanzhi and all of the other disciples had been waiting for him.

"Senior apprentice-brother! You are finally back!"

The Junior Disciples became jumpy when they saw his face.

"Calm down, little ones. I have only been gone for a week or so." Su Yang said with a smile.

"Welcome back, Su Yang." Liu Lanzhi said to him with a relieved smile on her face, as she was worried that something might have happened to him.

A few seconds later, when Qin Liangyu entered the room, everybody there turned their attention to her.

Although her skin is a rarity in this place, they were more interested in the person herself, as they have never seen her face before.

"..."

Qin Liangyu instantly became nervous. This is her first time seeing so many unfamiliar faces at once before, and they all had some kind of relationship with Su Yang, which made it difficult for her to think.

"Let me introduce to you a friend I made in the Southern Continent, Qin Liangyu. She will be with us starting today, so be nice to her." Su Yang said to them.

He then turned to look at Qin Liangyu and continued, "These people here are disciples of the Profound Blossom Sect. I will tell you more about them and the Profound Blossom Sect later."

"Southern Continent?"

As expected, that word was what the disciples there paid attention to the most.

Noticing their interest, Su Yang said with a smile. "It's a long story."

"I bet..." Liu Lanzhi mumbled in a dazed voice.

"Anyway, now that I have returned, let's return to the Sect. There's a lot of work to be done, but I will talk more about our future after we return."

Thus, the Profound Blossom Sect began preparation for their journey back to the Profound Blossom Sect.

Chapter 462 A Potential Partner

The following day, the Profound Blossom Sect was prepared to leave the city and return to their own Sect.

"The majority of the other Sects have already left the city and returned to their own places, but the Burning Lotus Sect and the Heavenly Swan Sect said that they will be visiting us soon." Liu Lanzhi said to Su Yang as they prepared to leave the city.

"Then we should return before they decide to visit us." Su Yang said.

Sometime later, the disciples entered the carriages, and the Profound Blossom Sect departed from Snowfall City.

During their journey back, Su Yang explained more about the Profound Blossom Sect and their situation to Qin Liangyu, who was inside the same carriage as him, Fang Zhelan, Sun Jingjing, and Liu Lanzhi.

When he explained to her that they specialized in dual cultivation, Qin Liangyu reacted with disbelief. Not even in her wildest imaginations could she have possibly imagined that a Sect that openly encourages its disciples to practice dual cultivation could exist in this world.

However, the Eastern Continent has different ethics than the Southern Continent, so it wasn't too shocking, especially since she's affiliated with Su Yang.

"I know what you're thinking, but the Profound Blossom Sect is a one-of-a-kind place even in the Eastern Continent. We were even the first ones to introduce this kind of place to the world." Liu Lanzhi spoke with a prideful expression on her face.

"By the way, I am the Sect Master of the Profound Blossom Sect, Liu Lanzhi," she introduced herself to Qin Liangyu.

"Sect Master...? But I thought Su Yang was the Sect Master?" Qin Liangyu tilted her head. In the Southern Continent, each Sect could only have one Sect Master, unless things are different here in the Eastern Continent.

"Normally, there is only one Sect Master for each Sect. However, due to our nature, we have to maintain a balance and equality to protect our disciples. Therefore, we have two Sect Masters — one male and one female." Liu Lanzhi explained.

Qin Liangyu nodded with a face of understanding, "I see..."

"By the way, how old are you? You seem very young for someone at the Earth Spirit Realm." Liu Lanzhi suddenly asked her.

"I am twenty years old."

"T-Twenty?!" The girls in the carriage looked at her with a shocked expression.

"D-Did you help her, too, Su Yang?" Liu Lanzhi looked at him, who merely shook his head.

"Impossible!"

They became even more shocked upon hearing that Su Yang had no involvement with her cultivation.

The only reason Sun Jingjing and Fang Zhelan reached the Earth Spirit Realm was because of Su Yang. To have achieved that without him, it was an amazing feat that could not be fathomed.

"Because of our lifestyle and environment, we are always fighting with powerful beasts, almost every day, so we have to become strong in order to survive. Of course, we also eat a lot of spiritual meat from the beasts we hunt."

"Fighting beasts every day? That sounds like a harsh lifestyle... Does this mean the overall prowess in the Southern Continent is pretty high compared to our Eastern Continent?" Sun Jingjing asked.

"I-I wouldn't know something like that... sorry..." Qin Liangyu shook her head.

Su Yang then spoke, "Although the overall cultivation over there is much higher than this place, they lack techniques and the foundation. A normal Cultivator at the 1st level Profound Spirit Realm in this place could probably defeat someone around the fourth to fifth level of the same realm from the Southern Continent. I can't speak for the Cultivators that belong to a Sect though, since I haven't seen any of them during my trip there."

"Junior Sister Qin, do you have any intentions to join our Profound Blossom Sect?" Liu Lanzhi suddenly asked her.

"You will be immediately promoted to a Core Disciple, of course."

"Uhh..."

Qin Liangyu looked a bit dazed after hearing her question, then she turned to look at Su Yang for a moment before speaking, "I'm sorry, Sect Master, but I cannot join your Sect — or any other Sect for that matter."

"I see..." Liu Lanzhi looked a bit disappointed and spoke, "While it's unfortunate, can you tell me the reason for your decision?"

"Because I have already made a commitment to Su Yang, so I cannot allow myself to commit another person or place..." she responded with a blushing face.

"..."

The entire place turned silent.

"I-I have been meaning to ask, but what is your relationship? And why are you following him?" Sun Jingjing was the first to break the silence, asking the question on Liu Lanzhi and Fang Zhelan's mind right now.

"O-Our relationship...?" Qin Liangyu's face suddenly blanked.

Now that she thinks about it, what is her relationship with Su Yang, really? Although she has cultivated with him before, so did the other thirty-two women in the Boar Tribe. How is her relationship with him any different from the others?

"She's my partner." Su Yang suddenly said, causing the people there to look at him with wide eyes.

"I have taken her Pure Yin Essence, and she decided to follow me, so we are now partners."

He then turned to look at Qin Liangyu and continued, "Although there are no serious commitments between us right now, in the future, once you are certain that you wish to be with me forever, I can make it serious. There's also no need to rush to your decision. Until then, we can still be considered partners."

"Su Yang..." Qin Liangyu was speechless, as she didn't expect that he'd actually see her as his partner.

Meanwhile, Liu Lanzhi and Fang Zhelan stared at them with wide eyes, as he didn't strike them as the type of man to have 'serious' relationships with others.

Of course, Sun Jingjing's relationship with him still remains a secret between just the two of them, so in Liu Lanzhi and Fang Zhelan's eyes, Qin Liangyu has suddenly become Su Yang's first potential serious partner — and not just dual cultivation partners like the two of them and the other disciples in the Sect — but a real partner! One that would follow him until the end of their time!

Chapter 463 It's Definitely Bigger Than Before! 18+

After learning of Qin Liangyu's relationship with Su Yang, Liu Lanzhi and Fang Zhelan stared at her with envious gazes. Any woman that gets to become his partner, even if only as a mere concubine, will surely be happy and satisfied for life.

Not only is he now recognized as the number one genius in the Eastern Continent, but he's also from the Su Family, one of the Four Great Families. Furthermore, there still seems to be many mysteries surrounding him. No matter what happens, his future has already been determined to be filled with grandness."

"By the way, His Majesty, Lord Xie, has given us the instruction to meet him at the Xie Family's household in five months' time to receive the rest of the rewards for winning the tournament. He also said that we should bring three disciples with us, as they will be entering the Celestial Pond for seven days.

"The Celestial Pond... how are we going to pick which disciples to go? There are only three very limited spots, but we have 10 people who participated in the tournament, and we cannot rule out the other disciples."

"You can exclude me from this Celestial Pond thing, Sect Master." Fang Zhelan suddenly spoke.

"Are you sure about that? This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Your cultivation will progress 100 times faster if you train there! And since you are allowed to cultivate there for 7 days, that's nearly 2 years of progression in 7 short days!"

"I am content with my current cultivation, and I have already received more than enough from Su Yang, so you should pick someone else — someone with talent." Fang Zhelan was adamant on giving away her spot.

"I also don't need this spot, Sect Master." Sun Jingjing also refused this opportunity.

"Eh? You too?" Liu Lanzhi was dumbfounded.

Logically, Sun Jingjing and Fang Zhelan qualify the most to cultivate in the Celestial Pond, as they were the most talented amongst the disciples. And for them to reject this opportunity, it was simply a waste!

"Although the Celestial Pond seems very interesting and will no doubt benefit me greatly, I have no need for it." Sun Jingjing then said.

"Such an unreasonable reason..." Liu Lanzhi was speechless.

Suddenly, Su Yang spoke, "We have five months to decide, so let's think this through slowly. Our new disciple recruitment will be starting soon. We can give one of the spots to the most promising one at the end. After all, there's no reason why we can't give one of the spots to the new disciples."

"Furthermore, it can be used to lure in even more people to our Profound Blossom Sect."

"Using the Celestial Pond as a bait to recruit new disciples...? Only someone like you would dare to even think of such a thing..." Liu Lanzhi said with a dazed face.

"By the way..." Sun Jingjing suddenly spoke.

"It's been a while since we last cultivated together, Su Yang. We have plenty of time until we return to the Sect, so why don't we use this time to catch up?"

Hearing her words, Su Yang smiled, "It's only been a week, though?"

"A week too long!" she responded with a cute chuckle.

"Y-You want to cultivate now?" Liu Lanzhi looked at her with wide eyes. Just how shameless can this girl get?

"It'll be just like when we were going to Snowfall City!"

"Unbelievable..." Liu Lanzhi speechlessly shook her head.

"Um... are you going to cultivate... here?" Qin Liangyu asked with a baffled expression.

"That's right. Do you also want to join us?"

"..."

Qin Liangyu didn't immediately answer. It had only been one day since she experienced dual cultivation for the first time in her life and she's already going to do it before other people?! Things were progressing way too fast!

"I-I don't care. If Su Yang wants me to cultivate, I will cultivate."

She ultimately made Su Yang decide for her.

"You don't have to if you don't want to, you know?" Su Yang said to her.

"N-No! I don't mind it at all! After all, I have already experienced it with my eyes before!" Qin Liangyu said, referring to the time she spied on the thirty-two girls cultivating with him at the same time.

"Then without further ado!"

Sun Jingjing suddenly stood up and removed her clothes, revealing her eager body and already slippery wet little sister to everybody in the carriage.

"How shameless..."

Liu Lanzhi and Fang Zhelan shook their heads as they also removed their clothes.

Qin Liangyu was the last one to strip, and when she eventually showed off her beautifully tanned skin, the other three girls stared at her unique body.

"What an amazing figure and beautiful pink color. It's almost like your body was created purposefully for dual cultivation. Do all girls from the Southern Continent have bodies like yours?" Liu Lanzhi praised her body with a somewhat envious gaze.

"I-I wouldn't know something like that..." Qin Liangyu blushed, as this is the first time that she's ever been praised in such a manner.

Meanwhile, Sun Jingjing and Fang Zhelan were entirely focused on the raging boner between Su Yang's legs, almost like they were mesmerized by it.

"It's only been a week, yet it seems to have grown even bigger than before?" Sun Jingjing mumbled.

Su Yang merely sat there with a smile and said, "Why don't you let your body confirm whether or not that's the case?"

Because of Qin Liangyu's Heavenly Constitution, it was not just his cultivation that increased. Even his little brother had somehow grown bigger after their cultivation.

"I won't be humble!"

Sun Jingjing immediately approached him and stood directly above his penis. She then lowered her hips and rubbed the fluid soaking her flower all over his penis, before inserting the giant into her cave.

"Ahhh~"

Sun Jingjing released a sexy moan afterward, and she spoke with a charming smile on her bright red face, "It's definitely bigger than before!"

Chapter 464 Astonishing Endurance 18+

The other three girls watched with an astonished face as Sun Jingjing rode Su Yang's stiff rod like she was riding a horse, shaking her hips intensively.

Meanwhile, when Su Yang saw the jiggling breasts before him, he instinctively buried his face between them, before moving his mouth towards the peak of these breasts, sucking on the pink buds.

Sun Jingjing released another loud moan after feeling his soft tongue massage her nipples.

Half an hour later, her body trembled uncontrollably, and a flow of Yin Qi gushed out from below.

"Eh? She's already done?"

Fang Zhelan was dumbfounded to see Sun Jingjing finish so early, as she would normally last hours. Did Su Yang increase the intensity again?

After Sun Jingjing sat down to rest, Liu Lanzhi aggressively approached Su Yang and inserted his stiff rod through her lower body, almost as though her patience was running thin.

"Oh my... even though it appears only slightly larger than before, it feels entirely different inside, almost like it'd doubled in size!" Liu Lanzhi spoke as her sexy body moved up and down, filling the small room with an erotic noise.

A few minutes later, Liu Lanzhi also sat down with an exhausted face.

"I will go next." Fang Zhelan stood up and approached him, before she turned her back to him and sat down on his lap, squeezing his penis with her tight vagina.

Once Fang Zhelan began moving, Su Yang's hands firmly grasped her breasts from behind, feeling its soft and heavenly sensation until he was content, before his fingers gently rubbed the perked points on her breasts.

Fang Zhelan moaned passionately in response, and her hips even began moving faster.

Meanwhile, Qin Liangyu watched them with a mesmerizing gaze. Seeing how their bodies moved with confidence and ease, she realized very quickly that these three girls have already done this multiple times with Su Yang before and were very familiar with his body.

Sometime later, it was finally Qin Liangyu's turn to sit on Su Yang's lap.

However, unlike the experienced disciples, Qin Liangyu slowly approached Su Yang, even taking some time to adjust her body.

"How cute..." Sun Jingjing silently chuckled after seeing her inexperienced movements. It was as clear as day that it hasn't been long since Qin Liangyu stopped being a pure maiden.

However, as Qin Liangyu continued to cultivate with Su Yang, the other three girls became increasingly surprised, until they were filled with shock.

It was obvious that Qin Liangyu was a beginner when it comes to dual cultivation, yet her level of endurance was astonishing to say the least, as she has managed to cultivate without rest for over an hour now.

They thought Su Yang was going easy on her because she was new to this type of thing, but upon closer examination, they realized that Su Yang was actually doing her more intensely than he did with them!

When they realized this fact, their faces expressed admiration and respect for Qin Liangyu, and they also understood why he accepted her as his partner.

A few days later, when all four of them were exhausted and could no longer go on, Su Yang left them to rest while he visited the other carriage, where the other disciples were at to see if they wanted to 'catch up'.

Of course, they all happily agreed.

"You're very impressive, Junior Sister Qin." Liu Lanzhi said to her after their cultivation session. "If you had been a disciple at the Profound Blossom Sect before the incident, you would've surely been one of the top disciples."

"Are you sure you are new to this?" Fang Zhelan asked her with a doubtful gaze. Even she didn't have her level of endurance when she first started, and she was not even cultivating with Su Yang at the time.

"Right? Even someone as experienced as myself cannot last a few minutes when I first cultivated with him, yet you managed to accumulate more time cultivating with him than all three of us combined. It shames me to even say that." Liu Lanzhi sighed.

"I can see why Su Yang accepted you as his partner," said Sun Jingjing with a smile.

"Hehe..." Qin Liangyu's face was covered in redness after hearing their words, silently thanking her Heavenly Constitution for her incredible endurance.

A few more days later, when they were only a few hours away from the Profound Blossom Sect, Su Yang returned to their carriage.

"We should arrive in a few hours," said Liu Lanzhi.

Sometime later, the carriages suddenly stopped moving.

"What happened? Why did we stop? Did we arrive already?"

"No, we should still have a few miles until we arrive at the Sect." Liu Lanzhi shook her head.

The disciples were puzzled, so they opened the windows and took a peek outside.

"What in Heaven's name?!"

When Liu Lanzhi and the disciples saw the scene outside, they were all overwhelmed with shock and confusion.

"Why are there so many people lined up here?!" Sun Jingjing exclaimed after seeing the massive queue of people that stretched into the horizon before them.

Meanwhile, when the people in line noticed their carriage and realized their identity, their eyes widened with shock.

"It's the Profound Blossom Sect! The Profound Blossom Sect is here!" Someone suddenly shouted, causing everyone in the line to turn around and look at them.

"It's really the Profound Blossom Sect!"

In just a few short moments, hundreds of people surrounded the carriages like a pack of dogs before their food.

"What's happening?! Why are we suddenly surrounded?!"

The Junior Disciples were terrified by the scene outside.

Meanwhile, the Sect Elders and Liu Lanzhi left the carriage to understand the situation.

"Who are you people, and what do you want from us?" Elder Sun asked them.

"After hearing that the Profound Blossom Sect had won the Regional Tournament, everyone here decided to visit the Sect. However, we were told to line up and wait until their Sect Masters return, so we are now waiting."

"W-Waiting? From here? The Profound Blossom Sect is miles that way, you know?" Elder Sun spoke as he pointed to the horizon.

"We know that, but there's simply so many people waiting that the line extended all the way back here." One of them explained.

The disciples from the Profound Blossom Sect were dumbfounded by the situation. They already expected many visitors after winning the tournament, but they sure as hell didn't expect it to be this out of hand!

Chapter 465 Fangirls

"Everybody here is waiting to visit the Profound Blossom Sect?" Liu Lanzhi was baffled by their sudden rise in popularity. Although it was to be expected, she didn't think it would get out of hand so fast.

A few moments later, she stepped forward and spoke, "I am Liu Lanzhi, Sect Master of the Profound Blossom Sect, and I am humbled by your enthusiasm to visit our Sect, so once I return to the Sect, I will immediately begin seeing guests. Since there appears to be a large number of people, it will take some time, so please be patient."

"Oh! It's the Sect Master!"

The people there quickly lowered their heads with respect after realizing her identity.

"Please take your time, Sect Master! We will be here even if it takes until next month!"

Liu Lanzhi nodded before returning inside the carriage alongside the Sect Elders.

A few moments later, they began moving again.

Sometime later, once they had returned to the Sect, they were greeted by Elder Zhao, who was standing before the gates, silently watching over the hundreds of people that were waiting outside like some sort of guard.

"Sect Master! You have finally returned!"

Elder Zhao was elevated upon seeing their carriage approach the gates.

"Make way! The Sect Master has returned!"

The visitors there made a path for their carriage to pass without needing to be told.

Once the carriages stopped, all of the disciples and sect elders exited the carriage.

"Look! That's Fairy Fang! She's as beautiful as the rumors describe!"

"There's also Fairy Sun and the rest of the disciples!"

The people there watched with admiration as the disciples came out of the carriages.

When Su Yang finally made his appearance, the people there exploded with noises, especially the females there, who were making fangirling noises.

"Over there! That's Su Yang, the number one genius in the Eastern Continent, reaching the Heavenly Spirit Realm at the age of 17! He's even more handsome than they described!"

"Good heavens, he's so dreamy! How can a man look so beautiful? He's even prettier than most girls out there!"

"Please look over here, Senior Brother Su!"

"Can I have your autograph?!"

"..."

Hearing his name being called so many times, Su Yang decided to turn to look at those girls and showed them a handsome smile, causing all of them to scream with excitement.

"Oh my god! He just smiled at me!"

"No, he smiled at me!"

"Are you blind?! His eyes were clearly looking at me!"

The Profound Blossom Sect disciples looked at these fangirls with a perplexed expression on their faces. They had a feeling that they will be encountering these kinds of people very often starting today.

Once the disciples finally entered the Sect, Elder Zhao said to the people waiting outside before closing the gates — "Our Sect Master has just returned, so give us some time before we start accepting guests again."

However, even though the gates were closed, the disciples were still able to hear the noises from outside, especially the fangirls that were being the loudest.

"Let's go somewhere quieter," said Liu Lanzhi.

"The other disciples are currently waiting inside the meeting hall." Elder Zhao spoke.

Liu Lanzhi nodded, and they began making their way towards the meeting hall.

Sometime later, when they entered the building, the disciples that had been waiting inside stood up and immediately rushed to them.

"Senior apprentice-sisters!"

"Senior apprentice-brother!"

The disciples that did not travel to Snowfall City quickly surrounded those that just returned.

"Xiao Bai!"

A large ball of white fluff suddenly pounced at Fang Zhelan when it saw her.

"You have gotten so big in just a month!" Fang Zhelan expressed surprise after seeing that Xiao Bai had nearly doubled in size.

"Su Yang..."

A beautiful woman suddenly approached Su Yang with a gentle smile on her face.

"Liqing." Su Yang returned her gaze with a smile of his own.

"Welcome back." Lan Liqing said to him.

"I'm back." He nodded.

After spending many minutes on their reunion, Liu Lanzhi gathered all of them and spoke, "I'm sure that you've already heard this, but we have done it! The Profound Blossom Sect has become the champion of the Regional Tournament! At this moment, we are the number one sect in the entire Eastern Continent!"

The disciples there immediately cheered with excitement. Some of them were even crying.

"Of course, none of this would've happened without the help of you, especially Su Yang, who was solely responsible for training the disciples that won us this tournament!"

"Although I have already said this in this city, I will repeat this for those of you who were not there — I have appointed Su Yang as the next Sect Master, so you will be treating him as such starting today!"

"S-Sect Master?" Elder Zhao's eyes widened with shock. Even though he's already predicted that Su Yang would be the Sect Master one day, he didn't expect that it would be so soon.

"Su Yang... or should I call you Sect Master now? Congratulations." Lan Linqing said to him.

However, Su Yang shook his head and said to the disciples there, "I don't like formality, so I request that you all continue to address me as Su Yang."

Liu Lanzhi then proceeded to summarize the events that had occurred while they were at Snowfall City, recalling their tournament, their opponents, the Azure Cloud Sect and Hong Yu'er, their Alliance with the Burning Lotus Sect, and the Heavenly Swan Sect, and other things until their departure.

"Heavenly Spirit Realm... I doubted that when I first heard it, but it appears to be true..." Elder Zhao sighed when Liu Lanzhi confirmed his doubts. Although he would rather not admit it, he cannot help but admire Su Yang and his talents.

Afterward, Liu Lanzhi introduced them to Qin Liangyu, a native from the Southern Continent. Of course, her background raised a lot of questions and interest, but they decided to ask her after the meeting.

"Anyway, we have been awarded 10 million spirit stones and many other things, so we will be using these resources to reconstruct and expand our Sect, making it bigger. After all, we will be accepting many disciples very soon." Liu Lanzhi continued. "I have also received a large amount of donations from Su Yang, and I will be distributing them to all of you later."

"One last thing. I have already spoken to a few sect elders about this, but in order to expand further and receive more disciples, the Profound Blossom Sect will no longer just be a Sect that focuses on dual cultivation. We will now have to separate sides — one for those who wish to practice dual cultivation and the other that wishes to practice normally. Do any of you have any objections to this change?"

The disciples there exchanged glances before shaking their heads. As long as they get to continue dual cultivating, nothing else mattered to them.

"This is all I have to say for now. I will now let Su Yang speak." Liu Lanzhi said.

A few moments later, Su Yang walked to the front and stared at the disciples with a calm expression.

Chapter 466 New Sect Elders

"Winning the tournament is just but the beginning. Starting today, I will steer the Profound Blossom Sect towards the direction of being the number one sect in the Eastern Continent and it won't just be in name."

Su Yang then looked at Liu Lanzhi and continued, "I will leave the reconstruction and the guests to you and the sect elders. I will handle everything else."

"In one month's time, I will start recruiting new disciples. However, my methods will be completely different than what you are used to."

"I will leave everything to you." Liu Lanzhi nodded.

"Once the recruitment is over, that is when the real fun truly begins. I hope that you will all enjoy it as much I will when that happens." Su Yang said with a mysterious smile.

The disciples exchanged glances, wondering what he was planning on doing. But alas, Su Yang is an unpredictable man unbounded by normal boundaries, so anything was possible when it comes to him.

"Do any of you have any questions?" He asked them.

One of the disciples raised her hands and spoke, "What should we do now that the Regional Tournament is over? Will we continue to cultivate with you?"

All of the disciples there looked at him with a nervous expression. Now that the Regional Tournament is over, there is no longer any reason for him to cultivate with them. Furthermore, they will be receiving new disciples in the near future. These disciples all feared that Su Yang would no longer cultivate with them now that everything is over.

Su Yang closed his eyes for a moment before speaking, "When situations and times change, so does our purpose. I will be extremely busy starting today, and there will be new disciples to fill in the gap that is the lack of male disciples, so I will no longer be able to keep all of you for myself."

When the disciples heard that, they all showed a dejected face. Of course, they already knew that their situation was only temporary and that it would end one day, but when that time finally arrived, they were reluctant to accept it.

"I-I don't mind being your exclusive partner! There will also be new female disciples, after all! Even if we cannot cultivate with you every day, just once in a while will be enough!" One of them said.

Su Yang remained calm and continued, "Despite your young age, all of you are as powerful if not even more powerful than most adults now. Therefore, I plan on making everyone here, except the Junior Disciples, Sect Elders that will become the new pillars of the Profound Blossom Sect. Of course, if you wish to remain as a disciple, that is perfectly fine."

"S-Sect Elders?"

The disciples exchanged gazes with each other again. They didn't expect such an outcome.

"Now that I am the Sect Master, and things will be returning to normal soon, I will no longer be able to cultivate with the disciples. However, if they were Sect Elders, that would be a different story. While it won't be very often, I can make time every once in a while to assist the Sect Elders' cultivation."

When the disciples heard his words, their sad expressions immediately turned into delight with wide smiles on their faces.

"I am willing to become a Sect Elder!"

"Me too! I accept the position of Sect Elder!"

The disciples quickly agreed to become Sect Elders.

Meanwhile, the other Sect Elders were dumbfounded by the situation. In the Sect's entire history, this is the first time they have picked Sect Elders in such a manner. However, it was true that they were lacking Sect Elders, and once the Profound Blossom Sect flourishes with new disciples, they will need Sect Elders to maintain order, and such a thing wouldn't be possible with the amount of Sect Elders they have right now.

"Anyway, this is all I have for you now. I will give more details after the disciple recruitment is over. You can do whatever you want for now until the recruitment begins."

After he was finished talking, the disciples began their conversation with each other.

The disciples that participated in the tournament reminisced their time at Snowfall City and how the tournament progressed. Meanwhile, some of the disciples, mostly the Junior Disciples, surrounded Qin Liangyu and asked her questions regarding her background and the Southern Continent.

"Are you really from the Southern Continent? How did you get to the Eastern Continent when the Jade Sea separates us?"

The Junior Disciples looked at her with eyes of interest.

"Well... Su Yang brought me here on a flying ship..." Qin Liangyu said.

"Woow! A flying ship! It must be the same one as that time!" The Junior Disciples said, recalling the giant flying ship that picked up Su Yang and Hong Yu'er at the tournament.

"Why did you come to the Eastern Continent?" Another one asked her.

"Su Yang..." she responded in a bashful voice.

The Junior Disciples exchanged glances with each other before bursting out with laughter, "Hahaha! Of course, that's the case! Why else would a beautiful woman like you be around our Senior apprentice-brother?!"

"Tell us about the Southern Continent, please!"

Qin Liangyu nodded and began talking about the Southern Continent as though it was a story to the Junior Disciples.

Meanwhile, after Su Yang's speech, Liu Lanzhi approached him and spoke, "Su Yang, I would love to talk more about our plans for the future but there are thousands of visitors outside the gates."

Su Yang nodded and said, "I understand. You do whatever you have to."

A few moments later, Liu Lanzhi left the place with the Sect Elders to greet the visitors. At this rate, even if they spent their entire day receiving visitors, it will take weeks before peace returns to the place.

After Liu Lanzhi left the place, Su Yang turned to look at Lan Liqing, who was quietly standing in the corner of the room, silently watching him.

When she realized that Su Yang had noticed her, she showed him an embarrassed smile.

He then approached her and said, "Come with me, I have a few things to talk to you about."

Lan Liqing nodded before following him to somewhere private.

Chapter 467 I Want You to Come With Me

After taking Lan Liqing to a private room that is her own room inside the Medicine Hall, Su Yang silently looked at her with a serious expression.

"What's with the serious face? Did something happen? I am always here if you need someone to talk to." Lan Liqing said to him with a comforting smile after many minutes of silence.

A slight smile appeared on his face, and he spoke, "Indeed, I have a few things in my mind. However, it's nothing too significant, so why don't we have some fun first?"

Lan Liqing showed a defeated smile and nodded, "If it'll ease your mind, we can have as much as fun as you need."

A few seconds later, Lan Liqing removed her robes and laid on the bed with her arms spread wide open, enticing him into her embrace with a charming smile on her beautiful face.

"..."

However, Su Yang did not move and only remained standing there.

"Su Yang...? Is there something wrong, after all?" Lan Liqing asked him with a worried frown.

"No, you just remind me of someone I knew." He responded with a nostalgic expression. "From your temperament to your gaze... you resemble someone I hold very dear."

"..."

Lan Liqing was speechless, as she did not know how to respond to such words.

Su Yang then continued speaking, "Although she always appeared cold and fearless on the outside, once you get to know her, she was extremely caring and gentle, just like you when I first met you."

"But the similarities don't stop there. Not only was she my first partner at that time, you are also my first partner in this life..." Su Yang mumbled in a low voice.

Lan Liqing raised her eyebrows in a puzzled manner. Why did it sound like he was speaking of another life in the past?

"If she was reincarnated, you would be what she might be like today."

"This woman you speak of... is she...?" Lan Liqing couldn't help but ask the obvious.

"That's right. She's no longer in this world."

"I'm sorry for your loss..."

A few moments of silence later, Su Yang stared at Lan Liqing in the eyes and spoke with a serious expression, "Although I have not decided yet, there's a very high chance that I will be leaving this place in two years' time."

"W-What?!" Lan Liqing immediately stood up with a shocked face. "T-This is too sudden! Why are you leaving now of all times? The Profound Blossom Sect needs you!"

"I know, that's why I am going to make the Profound Blossom Sect into one of the most powerful forces in the Eastern Continent before I leave in two years so that when I really leave, they will no longer need to rely on me."

"...Do the others know of this?" she asked him, and he gently shook his head.

"Do you plan on telling them?"

"Of course, once everything is sorted out and returns to normal."

"Then I am the only one who knows of this?"

"That's right."

"Why are you telling me this...?"

"..."

After a moment of silence, Su Yang spoke in a sincere voice, "Because I want to give you some time to decide."

"Decide...?" she raised an eyebrow.

"I want you to come with me when I decide to leave."

Lan Liqing's eyes widened when she heard his words, and she asked, "Where will we be going?"

"Somewhere far away — where I was originally from."

'Where he's originally from?' Lan Liqing repeated his words in her mind. Does this have something to do with his mysterious background?

"Once you leave... are you going to come back?" She continued to ask him.

"It's hard to say, but I will definitely try."

The room turned completely silent after that.

Lan Liqing then laid on the bed with her arms covering her face, almost as though she was in deep thoughts.

"You don't have to decide now. There's plenty of time, after all." Su Yang said with a smile.

"I will leave you in peace now."

Just as Su Yang turned around, Lan Liqing stopped him with a clear voice, "Wait! Are you just going to leave me like this?"

When Su Yang turned around, Lan Liqing was looking at him with a mesmerizing gaze, and her fingers were pointing to her naked body.

Su Yang's eyes widened, but before he could speak, she continued, "You have underestimated me, Su Yang. Two years? That's too long! I don't even need two minutes to decide! I want to follow you!"

"Eh? Are you sure about that? Isn't this your home?" he asked.

"I have already mentioned this to you before, Su Yang. What made this my home was the previous Sect Masters that had adopted me. Now that they are gone, this is no longer my home. In fact, I have a new home now."

She then pointed to him and spoke, "You are my home now, Su Yang. Wherever you go, that place will also be my home."

Hearing her words, Su Yang closed his eyes and took a deep breath and mumbled with a smile, "Really... you are the exact same as her..."

He then approached her and looked her in the eyes and spoke, "Liqing, are you willing to bear my Family Seal?"

"Family Seal? What's that?"

Su Yang then proceeded to explain to her about the Family Seal and the rules that she must abide by when accepting it.

"It feels like we are getting married, Su Yang." Lan Liqing chuckled.

"It's similar, but a Family Seal is more than just a marriage," he replied with a smile.

A moment later, Lan Liqing spoke, "I never thought I'd say this to a man's proposal but... Yes! I am willing!"

The smile on Su Yang's face widened, and he immediately went for her lips, kissing her passionately.

A few moments later, Su Yang also removed his robes, before the two of them began their session of passionate dual cultivation.

Chapter 468 Su Liqing

"Mmmm..."

"Ahhh..."

Lan Liqing moaned gently as Su Yang slowly shook his hips.

Although half an hour had passed since they began dual cultivation, Lan Liqing was nowhere near exhausted, almost like Su Yang was going easy on her.

"You are being awfully gentle today, Su Yang." Lan Liqing said with a smile. "Though, it's not like I don't enjoy it. It just feels very different than usual."

Su Yang also smiled and said, "That's because I want the both of us to enjoy it for as long as possible."

There was nothing special about the current dual cultivation session, as Su Yang wasn't deploying any of his techniques and was simply having casual sex with Lan Liqing.

The purpose of this session was not so he could improve his cultivation base or simply to pleasure the girl in his arms but to deepen their connection.

To Lan Liqing, it felt like they were just two ordinary couples who had just gotten married and were connecting their bodies for the first time during their first night together, and it had this indescribable charm to it.

The pace was neither fast nor slow, yet the pleasure she was feeling far exceeded anything she has felt before. Furthermore, despite feeling more stimulated, she was able to control her moaning and breathing with ease.

"I feel blessed to have met you, Su Yang. I am even beginning to think that my incident was a blessing in disguise, as it allowed me to meet you."

"I am also glad that you accepted my unreasonable request before I consumed the Pure Yang Flower."

The two of them continued to cultivate for many hours, their bodies moving nonstop as though it was hypnotized.

And the longer they cultivated, the clearer Su Yang's Family Seal began to appear on Lan Liqing's body.

By the end of their cultivation session, the Family Seal on her stomach was so realistic that it almost felt alive.

"This is the Family Seal?" she asked him as her fingers gently caressed it.

He nodded and said, "Welcome to the family."

"Does this make me Su Liqing now?" She joked with a smile.

"If you wish to use my surname, you have all the rights to."

Hearing his unexpected answer, Lan Liqing stared at him with a dazed face.

"Then starting today, my name is Su Liqing."

Su Yang looked at her with wide eyes, as he didn't expect her to truly take his surname for herself. Even in the family, very few people decided to change their name.

"My previous surname was given to me by the parents that had abandoned me, at least that was what the previous Sect Master told me when they found me, and I have always despised it."

"By the way, if you don't mind me asking, who was this person that I resemble?"

"She was... my wife. My first wife." He answered after a slight pause.

"Huh?" Su Liqing looked at him with wide eyes.

"You already have a wife?" She sounded more surprised than disappointed.

"I had a wife. But she died countless thousands of years ago."

"Thousands of... years...?" Su Liqing became even more confused.

"Since you are now a part of my family, it's about time I tell you about my real background — the real Su Yang."

Su Yang then popped an Appearance Reforming Pill into his mouth and transferred his immature appearance to that of his mature self, shocking Su Liqing.

"This is my real appearance... the real Su Yang — at least before my reincarnation."

He then proceeded to explain to her his true identity.

"I was born in a place called the four Divine Heavens, where I have already lived a life that far exceeded this one, and it is also the place where we will be going in two years."

"Due to circumstances, I died in that life. However, I was then reincarnated into this world as the same person, and it was not until I entered the Profound Blossom Sect that I recovered the memories of my past life."

Su Liqing stared at the exceedingly handsome man before her with a dazed face, seemingly in disbelief.

Although she found it hard to believe that Su Yang had lived another life and was reincarnated, it explained why he has so much knowledge and his otherworldly talents.

She always thought that Su Yang behaved too mature for his actual age, and to think that her suspicions had been true this entire time. It was simply too shocking.

"What's on your mind?" Su Yang asked her with a calm expression.

"Uh..." After a moment of silence, she spoke with a bashful smile, "You've become very handsome...?"

"Is that so?" Su Yang chuckled.

"So you don't mind my background?"

Su Liqing shook her head and spoke, "It was not your background that I fell in love with, so it doesn't matter where you came from or how you came to be. Just promise me that you will remain the same person I know."

Su Yang nodded, "I promise," he mumbled in a gentle voice.

After talking for a few more minutes, Su Liqing spoke, "How about another round? I feel much better than before for some reason."

Su Yang smiled, and the two returned to dual cultivation for a few more hours.

Sometime later, Su Yang left the Medicine Hall, leaving Su Liqing inside the room to rest.

Once she fell asleep, the Family Seal on Su Liqing's body began to glow a mysterious light, causing her to have a realistic dream.

Inside her dream, she was lying naked on a bed, just like her current situation, and she could feel another presence on the bed right beside her.

"Are you finally awake, Meiqi?" A familiar voice resounded beside her, causing her to turn her head.

"Su Yang...?" Su Liqing mumbled after seeing his handsome face sleeping beside her. Although this person looked exactly like current Su Yang, he felt vastly different and much more innocent.

"I'm sorry if last night sucked. It was my first time," said Su Yang with an embarrassed smile.

"I wouldn't know, since it was also my first time." She unconsciously responded to him with a gentle smile, feeling as though she'd said these exact same words before.

Chapter 469 Vivid Dreams

As Su Liqing slept, her dream became more and more vivid, and the dream slowly appeared to be more realistic, almost as though they were actually memories and not just a mere dream.

"What's your name, young man?"

"Su Yang."

"Then as promised, since you have defeated me, I shall become your wife, Su Yang."

Inside her dream, Su Liqing saw herself kneeling on the floor with an exhausted look, and standing proudly before her with a sword in his grasp was Su Yang, and it appears that he'd defeated her in some sort of duel.

A few moments later, her dream skipped to another scenario, where they were naked on the bed, and Su Yang was trying his best to pleasure her, but one could tell how poorly his techniques were at glance.

"I'm coming, Meiqi!" Su Yang exclaimed as his body trembled with delight, ejecting his hot liquid into her body.

After his ejaculation, Su Yang passed out on her chest, before sleeping like a baby.

The scenarios changed again, and it appeared to be after their dual cultivation.

"Are you finally awake, Meiqi?" Su Yang asked her.

He then continued in a bashful voice, "I'm sorry if last night sucked. It was my first time."

"I wouldn't know, since it was also my first time." Su Liqing replied.

"I will do better next time to please you, I swear." Su Yang smiled innocently.

The scenarios suddenly changed again.

"You had another breakthrough? It's only been a month since your last one, Su Yang! At this rate, you'll surpass me in just a few more months!" Su Liqing said with a beautiful smile on her face.

And again.

"Su Yang, do you think I will ever be able to bear your child? It's been ten years since we've married, and we do it every day, but I am still unable to..."

"It's fine, Meiqi. I don't care if you can conceive or not. I am content with just having you in my life."

The scenario changed once more.

❖❖ I'm sorry, Su Yang, for being such a worthless wife. I wouldn't blame you even if you decide to find another woman to conceive your child. After all, someone as talented as you deserve better than me!" Su Liqing spoke with tears in her eyes.

"When will you stop saying such nonsense, Meiqi? How many times have I told you that even if you cannot conceive my child, I will never leave you alone?" Su Yang wiped her tears with a gentle smile.

"But I am already getting old, and my cultivation has long reached its limits! If I cannot conceive within the next five years, all hope is lost!" Su Liqing cried even harder.

However, Su Yang merely embraced her and mumbled in a low voice, "I didn't marry you so you can conceive my child, Meiqi. I married you because I love you."

"I'm sorry, Su Yang... I am truly sorry..."

It was at this moment Su Liqing's eyes snapped open.

She immediately sat up on the bed and looked at her own hands that were trembling uncontrollably.

"W-What was that realistic dream just now?" she mumbled to herself with her body soaked in sweat, almost like she had a nightmare.

However, the longer she was awake, the more the dream began to slip from her mind, almost as though it was being erased.

After sitting on the bed for many minutes with a confused face, she got off the bed to wash the sweat from her body.

'That was clearly Su Yang, yet there was something vastly different about him. Just what was that dream?' Su Liqing pondered to herself as she gently touched the Family Seal on her body.

Although it was clearly just her dream, it was also too vivid and realistic to be just a dream.

Meanwhile, after he left the Medicine Hall, Su Yang returned to his own living quarter, where Qiuyue and Xiao Rong were waiting for him.

"You are finally back, Master!"

Xiao Rong jumped at him with her arms wide open, acting just like a child after not seeing her parents for a long time.

While 1 month of time is almost nothing for an Ancient Realm entity like Xiao Rong, she found out that time passes by much slower without Su Yang being beside her, and it was an uncomfortable feeling that she could not fully understand.

"Did anything happen while I was gone?" Su Yang asked her while he carried her in his arms.

"A few suspicious humans tried to enter the Sect, so I killed them all." Xiao Rong responded in a nonchalant manner, almost like she was talking about killing bugs.

"What did those humans look like?" Su Yang raised his eyebrows.

"They were clad in all black so I did not see their appearances, but they had a similar smell to the ones I killed before."

"Before?" Su Yang could only recall Xiao Rong killing people from the Million Snakes Sect.

"When did this happen?"

"two weeks ago!"

"While the Regional Tournament was still ongoing, huh."

"Should I go ahead and kill all of them?" Xiao Rong suddenly asked him with an innocent face — one that did not fit the words that just came out of her mouth.

"You don't have to dirty your hands by killing them. I am also interested in what they will do next now that their plan has failed. Either way, they cannot harm us no matter what they do."

Another reason why he didn't want Xiao Rong to exterminate the Million Snakes Sect was because he wanted to be the one to deal with them personally.

"Anyway, I will be making a trip to the Burning Lotus Sect now, so I want you to continue protecting this place."

"I want to go with you this time, Master!" Xiao Rong said to him with pleading eyes.

'When did she learn to make such an expression?' Su Yang thought to himself.

"Qiuyue, can you protect this place in her stead for a bit?" he turned to look at her.

"I don't care, but what if someone comes looking for you?"

"Just tell them where I went."

"Are you sure?" Qiuyue looked at him with an eyebrow raised.

"They are already aware of our relationship anyway, and there's no longer any reason for me to hide you any longer, since I am no longer a mere disciple in an unknown world."

Qiuyue nodded.

Sometime later, Su Yang left the Sect with Xiao Rong by his side.

Chapter 470 Screaming Internally

After leaving the Profound Blossom Sect with Xiao Rong, Su Yang made his way to the Burning Lotus Sect. However, before going to the Burning Lotus Sect, he stopped somewhere near the borders of the Southern Region briefly.

"There's a strong smell of human blood here, Master." Xiao Rong warned him as they approached a dark cave.

Su Yang did not react to her words and merely continued to enter the cave.

A few moments later, he could see an entrance alongside a broken door near it.

This place used to be the hideout for a notorious group of bandits named the Red Mountain Bandits, but after Su Yang rescued the Junior Disciples, he went ahead and killed every single bandit that was in this hideout, creating a small sea of blood inside, even rescuing the prisoners within.

Once they reached the entrance of the hideout, they were greeted by an entire floor of dried-up blood that was inches thick, and in the middle of this bloody floor, there appeared to be a red-colored plant sprouting there.

"At this rate, it should be fully grown and ready to harvest in four months." Su Yang mumbled to himself, before sealing the entire place with a concealment formation, hiding the entrance to the hideout from plain sight.

Even if one had the ability to see through his concealment formation, they would not be able to enter it without destroying the formation, something that was simply not achievable by the people of this world that has barely grasped even the surface of formations.

"Can I eat that, Master?" Xiao Rong suddenly asked him, as the sprout was emitting an enormous amount of spiritual energy. Although it does not have enough Profound Qi to benefit her current cultivation base even slightly, it would serve as a great snack for her.

"You cannot eat that," he shook his head and said, "That is the Devil Blood Ginseng, a rare flower that only sprouts in blood and requires an enormous amount to grow up, and I will need it to heal someone."

Indeed, that sprout is going to be the Devil Blood Ginseng once it fully grows — an ingredient that is required to heal Xie Xingfang's condition. Of course, he did not plan for this from the beginning and its birth was only a coincidence.

'Fortunately for me, I no longer have to find bandits to slaughter to grow one now.' Su Yang thought to himself.

If the Devil Blood Ginseng did not appear here, he had planned to look for bandits to kill and create a pool of blood with his own hands, as that would be the only method to obtain the Devil Blood Ginseng.

After confirming that the Devil Blood Ginseng was growing, Su Yang went to the Burning Lotus Sect.

"Hmm?"

Once he arrived at the Burning Lotus Sect, Su Yang used his spiritual sense to search for Wang Shuren in the sect. However, he was unable to sense her presence, meaning that she was not at the sect.

Thus, he went to look for the Sect Master of the Burning Lotus Sect to see where she went.

"S-Sect Master! You have a visitor!"

One of the Sect Elders approached Huo Yuanjia in an urgent manner.

Huo Yuanjia, who was currently training his disciples, looked at the Elder with a frown and spoke in an angry voice, "Did you forget that no one is allowed to disturb me while I am training my disciples? No matter how urgent it is, unless the Sect is at risk, the Sect Elders can handle it! And you dare to disturb me for a mere visitor?! Are you tired of being a Sect Elder?! Because if you are, you can just tell me and I will happily take that position away from you!"

Huo Yuanjia hated more than anything to be disturbed while he trained his disciples, as he feared that it might distract them during crucial moments, hence his outburst of rage.

"T-This disciple is aware of the Sect Master's rule! However, the person that is here to visit you is no one other than—"

The Sect Elder trembled as he spoke, but before he could even finish his sentence, another voice resounded.

"Hey, this is a pretty nice and isolated place. You can do whatever you want here and nobody from the outside would ever find out."

Su Yang's handsome figure approached them from the distance, and walking beside him was an exceedingly beautiful teenager that resembled a real Goddess.

"Su Yang?!" Huo Yuanjia called out his name from surprise.

"What? Su Yang is here?"

When the disciples that had ignored the noise this entire time suddenly stopped their cultivation to open their eyes and turned to look at Su Yang.

Lin Shao Shang was amongst these disciples, and when she saw Su Yang, her mind instantly recalled their bet during the tournament and wondered if he had come all the way here to finally claim his prize — her body!

"What are you doing here, Su Yang? Coming here without any notices, it must be urgent." Huo Yuanjia spoke with a frown, yet his eyes were staring blankly at Xiao Rong, who is, without any doubt, the most beautiful entity he has ever seen in his life besides Qiuyue, who he only managed to glance at before disappearing.

A few seconds later, Su Yang turned to look at Lin Shao Shang and spoke with a mysterious smile, "It's nothing too urgent, but I am here for her. After all, she does owe me something."

"What?!" Huo Yuanjia and the disciples' eyes widened with shock.

Meanwhile, Lin Shao Shang herself was screaming internally after hearing his words.

'Ahhhhhhh! He's really here to take my body! I am not prepared for this!'

The place became dead silent and remained that way for a good moment.

"Nonsense! Did you really believe that Junior apprentice-sister Lin would give her body to you just because of some bet?!" One of the disciples there suddenly stood up and yelled at Su Yang.

"Although you may have some achievements under your name, don't be too full of yourself!"

Su Yang glanced at the handsome young disciple who just spoke and spoke with a nonchalant expression, "And who are you?"
