

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 47

Zoey Gu was slammed out by the force of the slap, staggering back a few steps, a fiery pain on his face.

Anna Yun stepped forward on high heels and looked at her coldly from high heels, his eyes like a knife, cutting Zoey Gu inch by inch.

“Zoey Gu, I said. As Mrs. Lu in the future, I don’t mind him playing with women before marriage. But if it’s because a woman is killing her, she should go to hell!”

Anna Yun’s eyes were full of hatred and murder.

But except for Zoey Gu, everyone saw Anna Yun who was angry and resentful for his lover.

“In the years since leaving you and returning to the Lu family, Liam has been on a smooth journey. He has never encountered any accidents or unpredictability. Since meeting you, he has lost his life after nine deaths.”

As Anna Yun said, his mouth twitched strangely, and he slowly raised his head to look at Zoey Gu.

“Your father is dead, your younger brother is dead, and Gu’s family collapsed. Even Liam was injured repeatedly to save you. Did Miss Gu never think about it, or didn’t want to admit it? You are actually a disaster star.”

Catastrophe.

Zoey raised his head swiftly, looking at Anna Yun lightly with his deadly eyes, his head was stabbed with force in an instant.

Blood dripping.

Even Shiyue on the side felt that Anna Yun’s words were too hurtful, and couldn’t help but shout in a low voice.

“Miss Yun, don’t say anything...”

Zoey Gu lowered his eyes blankly, and said ridiculously with his red eyes.

“Yes, disaster star.” Because of her, her father died, her younger brother died, and the family was gone. Even Liam Lu, who originally hated her, almost lost his life.

Zoey Gu at the moment was like a sword adding to his body, almost every cell in his body was clamoring pain.

She raised her head with difficulty and looked at the ambulance not far away, lowered her head, strained the tears in her eyes, and said in a low voice.

“I will leave immediately, and I will stay far away from him...”

Anna Yun didn't move, she still looked at her steadily, and said every word.

“Not to stay away from him, but to stay away from him completely.”

The voice fell, and a sirens sounded not far away.

However, within a few minutes, another ambulance and a police car drove up to several people, and a group of people rushed to the woman who had passed out on the railing not far away.

The woman did not know when she was already awake, and she was lying on the stretcher, struggling to raise her hand to Zoey Gu, and tremblingly accused.

“It was the police who called me before I fell into a coma...I pretended to be someone from their family to steal things, it was wrong. But she drove into me deliberately, she deliberately killed someone!”

Hearing this, Zoey Gu suddenly raised his head, his eyes fell on the ambulance not far away, and then looked at Anna Yun for an instant. What was there, instantly became clear in his mind.

This woman was not arranged by Lydia Lin, but Anna Yun!

In an instant, Zoey Gu's whole body instantly cooled down, full of irony.

Knowing that he was seen through, Anna Yun didn't panic, and she was still in that elegant appearance.

“Lydia Lin has indeed left the country. It is basically impossible for you to find someone in your life. Your family is gone, your family is gone. Miss Gu has done something wrong, so she always has to make atonement? Just take it as I beg you for our family. Perfect, okay?”

Zoey Gu heard what she meant and laughed coldly with red eyes.

“You know? When I went to bed with Liam Lu again and again, I used to apologize to you again and again, and felt that I shouldn't use this method to hurt a future Mrs. Lu who had been with him for five years. But now...”

Zoey Gu squinted at Anna Yun, as if watching a joke.

“Miss Yun, I still overestimate you. You, but so...”

Anna Yun’s pretty face stiffened, and she changed her face, “You!”

Zoey Gu had turned her head decisively and smiled at the police officer approaching her.

“Don’t ask, even if I drove her into her, Master Lu was injured in order to stop me.”

“I admit all the charges.”
