

Chapter 471

If You Feel Lonely, You Know Where to Find Me

"I am Diao Zidu, Core Disciple, and the number one disciple of the Burning Lotus Sect!" The handsome young man introduced himself.

Su Yang remained nonchalant after his introduction.

"You are the number one disciple? Then why didn't I see you at the Regional Tournament?" Su Yang asked him in a calm voice.

"That's because I had a misfortunate accident that had bedridden me until very recently!"

Hearing his words, Su Yang couldn't but chuckle, and that made Diao Zidu even more furious.

"What's so funny?!"

However, Su Yang merely ignored him like he was an insect and turned to look at the blushing Lin Shao Shang and spoke with a smile on his face, "I am just joking, little fairy. Even if I could, I wouldn't want any women to enter my bed just because of some bed. If you're going to cultivate with me, I want it to be due to your own accord."

He then looked at the still dazed Huo Yuanjia and continued to speak, "I am here for Wang Shuren. Where is she right now?"

'This fucking bastard...!' Diao Zidu was trembling from sheer anger at this moment.

If he wasn't only at the Earth Spirit Realm whilst Su Yang was at the Heavenly Spirit Realm, he would've already brandished the sword by his side to slice Su Yang into a hundred pieces. This is his first time experiencing such humiliation, and it was in the presence of Lin Shao Shang, his crush, no less.

"Elder Wang? You missed her by three days. She had appointments with a few families, so she left the sect to deal with them. I don't know where she is right now, but she should be back within a day or two."

"I can leave her a message when she comes back for you if needed."

Su Yang shook his head and said, "There's no need for that. I can simply wait in her room until she comes back."

"What? You're going to wait in her room? I don't think that's appropriate..." Huo Yuanjia frowned.

In his mind, Wang Shuren was a woman — a pure one at that — so it would be rude, nearly criminal, for a man to enter her room without permission, much less stay inside.

Even if Su Yang is the number one genius, there's a limit to his shamelessness.

"You don't have to worry about that. I have a feeling that she would be more angry if you make me leave rather than stay in her room." Su Yang said to him with a smile.

"You have a feeling...? That's not how any of this works, you know!" Huo Yuanjia frowned.

Seeing the stubborn and slight anger in his eyes, Su Yang sighed, "Since you are this reluctant, I will settle for a guest room."

A few moments of silence later, Huo Yuanjia nodded, "Fine. I will immediately arrange two rooms for you."

He then turned to look at the Sect Elder in the background and said to him, "Arrange for these esteemed guests two of our royal guest rooms."

However, Su Yang quickly interrupted him and said, "One room is fine."

"One... room?"

Huo Yuanjia looked at him and then at the heavenly beauty beside him with a dazed face. Just what kind of relationship do they have? Whatever it was, it made him and the others there immensely envious!

"By the way, do you mind if I walk around the sect while I am here? It would be too boring to stay in the room the entire time." Su Yang suddenly asked him.

"As long as it does not result in the same situation as last time, do whatever you want." Huo Yuanjia sighed. This is his first time dealing with someone as difficult as Su Yang.

Su Yang nodded, but before he left the place, he turned to look at Lin Shao Shang with a charming smile and said to her, "Whenever you feel lonely, you know where to find me."

"G-Get out of here! Who would want to do that with you?!" Lin Shao Shang responded in an outburst that was filled with embarrassment.

Meanwhile, the other few females there showed an envious expression after witnessing their relationship. They also wanted to be within Su Yang's gaze.

"Hahaha..." When Su Yang noticed this, he chuckled and said out loud, "Of course, if any of you here are feeling lonely or simply need advice in cultivation, you can give me a visit. I have plenty of free time, after all."

After saying those words, Su Yang left the place, leaving Huo Yuanjia and the disciples inside dumbfounded.

Once he left the place, he followed the Sect Elder to a place that was further inside the sect, somewhere near the Core Disciples' living quarters.

Compared to the Profound Blossom Sects' living quarters, the spiritual energy there was rich and abundant, and the atmosphere was also quite nice.

When the other disciples there noticed Su Yang's presence, they all stopped whatever they were doing to stare at him with wide eyes.

The female disciples stared at Su Yang with loose jaws whilst the male disciples stared at Xiao Rong with watery mouths. In their eyes, despite being only a few meters away from them at most, it felt like they were actually living in different worlds.

The unfathomable aura coming from Su Yang and the otherworldly feeling from Xiao Rong made the disciples there feel as insignificant as ants, like they were mere mortals before two supreme beings.

Wherever the two walked, the surroundings would instantly become dead silent and still, almost as though time had stopped for everyone there beside Su Yang and Xiao Rong.

As for the Sect Elder leading them, he was barely able to walk in a straight line because of the pressure behind him. But fortunately for him, he did not have to look at them, so it made it much easier for him to breathe.

'Even escorting real royalties wouldn't be this demanding!' The Sect Elder cried inwardly as they approached their living quarter.

Chapter 472 Are You Stalking Me?!

After Su Yang left their training ground, Lin Shao Shang stood up and said to Huo Yuanjia, "I am sorry, Sect Master, but please excuse me for the rest of the day. My peace has been disturbed, and I am no longer in the mentality to cultivate."

Huo Yuanjia did not blame her and nodded, "Go."

Even if Lin Shao Shang continued to cultivate, it would actually be a risky situation for her, since cultivating with a disturbed mind is incredibly dangerous. One wrong move and her body could be harmed.

After Lin Shao Shang left the training ground, the other disciples also raised their hand and said, "Sect Master, I am also no longer in the mood to cultivate."

"Me, too, Sect Master!"

Huo Yuanjia rubbed his temples and spoke in an exhausted voice, "All of you may leave. I will cut today's lecture short, but I will make it up during our next session."

Even he was not in the mood to lecture after seeing Su Yang's face, especially since his heart is still beating like war drums after meeting Xiao Rong for the first time. He felt like he was living his younger days, where every beauty that walked past him would cause his heart to tremble.

"Junior apprentice-sister Lin! Are you okay?" Diao Zidu approached her afterward and said.

"You should just ignore that man. Nothing good will come out of associating with a person like him."

"..."

However, almost as though she couldn't hear him, Lin Shao Shang continued to walk in silence, and on her face was a dazed expression, looking like she had been bewitched.

"Junior apprentice-sister Lin...?" Diao Zidu stopped following her and stared at her with wide eyes.

After leaving the training ground, Lin Shao Shang returned to her living quarter at the center of the sect, where only Core Disciples and Sect Elders dwell.

Once she was in her room, Lin Shao Shang sat by the window and stared at the sky, still with a dazed face.

"What is this I am feeling?" she mumbled to herself.

Her heart was beating irregularly, and her entire body felt warm, almost hot. If her Profound Qi wasn't stable at this moment, she would've thought that she was poisoned.

After sitting by the window for an unknown amount of time, Lin Shao Shang suddenly looked at the building that was directly in front of hers.

According to her knowledge, this place has been unoccupied for a few years now, yet someone was leaving that exact building?

Lin Shao Shang watched as the door to that building opened, and a tall figure came out of the house a moment later.

"W-What?!"

When Lin Shao Shang realized that it was Su Yang who just came out of that unoccupied, she stood up with surprise.

"W-What are you doing in a building that's meant for Core Disciples?! There are no guest rooms around this area!" Lin Shao Shang shouted at Su Yang from her window.

"D-Don't tell me that you are stalking me?!" Lin Shao Shang trembled when she realized the possibility that she was being stalked by him.

"Hm? You live here?" Su Yang looked at Lin Shao Shang standing at the window with a nonchalant expression and continued, "The Profound Qi in this area appears to be the best in the entire sect, so I asked to stay here for now, and this building happened to be unoccupied, so the Sect Elder agreed to allow me to stay here temporary."

Of course, the only reason the Sect Elder agreed to Su Yang's request was because he wanted to separate from Su Yang as soon as possible, as he could no longer endure Su Yang's intense presence, but the royal guest rooms were still many minutes away.

"I-I don't believe it!" Lin Shao Shang said. There were simply too many coincidences for her to trust his words.

Su Yang shrugged and said, "I will only be here for a day or two at most."

"A few hours is more than enough for you to sneak inside my room and assault me, much less an entire day!"

"There's no need to be so paranoid. Like I'd said many times by now, I won't do anything that will tarnish my pride as a man, and forcing myself into any innocent woman's body is simply a line that I will never cross."

"Anyway, I don't have the time to entertain you right now. If you want to talk more, you know where to find me." Su Yang said in a nonchalant voice before walking away.

'Where is he going after just settling down? How suspicious!' Lin Shao Shang thought to herself.

She was certain that Su Yang had some ulterior motive for coming to the Burning Lotus Sect unannounced!

Thus, Lin Shao Shang decided to follow Su Yang to see where he was going.

Of course, she did not follow him in the open and remained many meters behind him, even hiding in the shadows and whatnot, acting like a real stalker.

Sometime later, Lin Shao Shang followed Su Yang to a building that was not too far away from their own living quarters.

After he reached his destination, Su Yang knocked on the door to that building and silently waited outside.

'This building belongs to...'

 Lin Shao Shang tried to recall who lived in that building.

In the midst of her thoughts a few moments later, the door opened, and a very pretty girl with a nice figure emerged from inside the building.

When Lin Shao Shang saw the face of this figure, her eyes widened with surprise.

At the same time, when the girl that came out saw Su Yang's face, her face brightened with surprise and delight.

"Su Yang! What are you doing here at the Burning Lotus Sect?!" Zhang Xiu Ying covered her mouth and spoke in a pleasantly surprised tone.

"I am here to visit." Su Yang responded with a smile on his face.

"Please! Come inside!" Zhang Xiu Ying quickly welcomed him into the building.

Su Yang nodded and walked inside the next moment, disappearing from Lin Shao Shang's view.

Chapter 473 Untouchable Princess

"That disciple looked very familiar..." Lin Shao Shang pondered to herself after Su Yang entered the building.

A few minutes later, she finally recalled the disciple named Zhang Xiu Ying.

"That's right! She's the Untouchable Princess, Zhang Xiu Ying!"

After the incident with Su Yang, where he trashed many disciples at the Burning Lotus Sect and even threatened the Sect Master, Huo Yuanjia, he'd warned them that Zhang Xiu Ying was his friend and that if she was ever to be harmed that he'd return for revenge.

Ever since that incident and Su Yang's warnings, the disciples and sect elders alike treated Zhang Xiu Ying as though she was a princess, not even daring to glance at her, hence her nickname, the Untouchable Princess.

Furthermore, her cultivation base had increased significantly since the incident, becoming a Core Disciple a few months later.

At this moment, Zhang Xiu Ying is akin to a Goddess within the Burning Lotus Sect — an entity that lived in a different world from them. This is especially true after Su Yang defeated Hong Yu'er and became the number one genius of the Eastern Continent. The more people feared Su Yang, the more the disciples in this place feared Zhang Xiu Ying, as she was directly under Su Yang's protection.

"What is their relationship with each other, anyway?" Lin Shao Shang couldn't help but become interested.

A few moments later, she used another concealing technique to further conceal her aura so that not even a sliver of her presence would be sensed. With her presence and aura completely concealed, it was almost as though Lin Shao Shang had turned into a ghost — an entity that did not exist in this world.

After she was confident that she'd performed her concealment technique perfectly, Lin Shao Shang approached Zhang Xiu Ying's living quarters and spied inside through the windows.

"So why did you really come to the Burning Lotus Sect, Su Yang?" Zhang Xiu Ying asked him after serving him some tea.

"I have some business with Wang Shuren."

"Senior Wang? She's not at the sect right now."

"I know, that's why I will be staying here until she returns."

"Eh?!" Zhang Xiu Ying covered her mouth in surprise after hearing his words. "You are staying here?!"

Su Yang calmly nodded his head after sipping the tea.

"B-But there's only one bedroom in this building, and the bed is only large enough to fit one person!"

Zhang Xiu Ying seems to have misunderstood Su Yang's words when he said that he'd be staying there.

Su Yang chuckled after seeing her reaction and said, "I didn't literally mean that I'd stay here. I meant the sect when I said 'here'. I live about ten minutes away from here."

"O-Oh! I'm sorry for the misunderstanding..." Zhang Xiu Ying blushed deeply.

"You know, even if the bed is small, it should still be enough to fit two people if they sleep close to each other." Su Yang suddenly said to her.

"If I wish to spend the night here, even if it might get a little bit cramped, would you not like it?" he asked her with a teasing smile.

"I-if you don't mind feeling a little bit uncomfortable sleeping with such limited space..." she replied a moment later with her ears burning red.

Even though they have done it with each other many times already, she still couldn't help but feel bashful whenever she's around him, especially when she's being teased.

"Who said anything about sleeping? We can do it all night if you want." Su Yang chuckled.

"Ah!?" Zhang Xiu Ying looked at him with a surprised face. Doing it the entire night? Even if her endurance has strengthened since the last time they cultivated, she definitely wouldn't last more than a few hours with him, much less an entire night!

"By the way, how is life as a disciple after that day? Is there anybody that still dares to bother you?" Su Yang suddenly asked her.

"T-That's..."

Zhang Xiu Ying showed a bittersweet smile and began explaining to him how she basically became a loner afterward.

"Ever since that day, nobody would dare to speak with me, much less bother me. Not even the sect elders are willing to deal with me. I have become somewhat of a loner in this sect, unfortunately. Though it also means I have a very peaceful life, so I don't mind it."

"Eh?" Su Yang's eyes widened with surprise.

He truly didn't expect this outcome. He'd only wanted people to stop bothering her, yet he'd somehow turned her into a loner at the sect?!

After pondering for a few moments, he spoke, "Then would you like to come with me to the Profound Blossom Sect? We can use more disciples now, you know."

"You want me to join the Profound Blossom Sect?" Zhang Xiu Ying stared at him with wide eyes filled with disbelief. She would've never imagined that Su Yang would invite her to his sect.

He nodded and said, "Since everybody here is scared of you, why don't you come to our sect? I'm sure that you'll get along with the other disciples very fast."

"Um... although I would love to come with you... I cannot abandon my master here. She's the only reason why my cultivation base has reached this level in such a short time, and I doubt she'll agree to me leaving the Burning Lotus Sect after spending that many resources on me."

"Your Master... Wang Shuren?" he asked, and she nodded.

"Why don't you talk to her about this matter when she returns? I'm sure she'll be more than happy to let you come with me. I'll even go with you."

"Really? You think Senior Wang will allow me to go to the Profound Blossom Sect?" Zhang Xiu Ying looked at him with hopeful eyes.

"I'm certain." He nodded with a confident smile.

Meanwhile, Lin Shao Shang listened to their conversation with disbelief on her face.

'T-This Su Yang! He's actually poaching our disciples! And she's even a Core Disciple! How shameless!' she cried inwardly.

Chapter 474 Lying Before Her Face

After talking with each other for many minutes, Zhang Xiu Ying stood up and walked to the room a few feet away and opened the door.

A sweet fragrance escaped from the room, a smell that was also present on Zhang Xiu Ying's body. It was obviously her bedroom.

"Su Yang, you didn't come here just to have casual conversations with me, right?"

However, Su Yang shrugged with a smile on his face and said, "Who knows. Maybe I am here just to talk."

"..."

Zhang Xiu Ying looked at him with a surprised face.

A moment later, Su Yang chuckled, "I'm just joking. But let's do it here instead."

He suddenly grabbed her arm and pulled her to him, before laying her on the table.

"Ah!? You want to do it here?!" Zhang Xiu Ying exclaimed in a startled voice.

"You don't want to?" Su Yang whispered in her ears while his fingers caressed her thighs.

Zhang Xiu Ying trembled upon feeling his gentle breath in her ears and the tingling sensation crawling up her legs.

A few seconds later, when Su Yang's fingers reached the silky fabric that covered Zhang Xiu Ying's flowers, he smiled and said, "Oh? When did your taste change?"

"A-A few days ago," she responded with her face blooming with redness.

Su Yang used two of his fingers to pull the string near her waist, causing the whole piece to loosen and fall off.

"Su Yang..."

Zhang Xiu Ying mumbled his name as her hands slowly moved the lower part of her robes to the side, revealing her wet flowers to him.

Su Yang also loosened his robes, causing the snake hidden inside his pants to emerge.

A few moments later, the snake transcended into a dragon, before diving into the wet cave between Zhang Xiu Ying's legs.

"Ahhh~" Zhang Xiu Ying moaned passionately as Su Yang shook his hips.

Meanwhile, Lin Shao Shang was covering her mouth from shock outside after witnessing their dual cultivation.

'Good Heavens! They are actually doing it in the living room!' Lin Shao Shang cried inwardly, her eyes wide as saucers as she stared at the two of them cultivating through the window.

Although she wanted to stop looking, there was an invisible force that did not allow her to turn or close her eyes, almost as though she was being forced to watch.

Of course, nobody was actually forcing her to watch. The scene was just incredibly mesmerizing and Lin Shao Shang did not have the willpower to stop looking.

Fortunately for her, their area is usually void of people, so Lin Shao Shang was not really worried that someone might accidentally see her shameless actions.

Sometime later, Su Yang picked up Zhang Xiu Ying and led her to the bedroom, before closing the door.

Once they were gone, Lin Shao Shang was finally able to blink her eyes and breath properly.

After catching her breath, she returned to her own living quarter, where she would continue to stare out the window. However, she was no longer staring outside with a blank expression, and her mind was filled with scenes of Su Yang and Zhang Xiu Ying's dual cultivation.

"If I also approach him, would he do the same thing to me?" she mumbled with a low sigh.

A few hours later, she noticed Su Yang returning from Zhang Xiu Ying's place.

'He's returning already? Have they been doing it this entire time?' Lin Shao Shang pondered to herself. She expected that he'd stay the night at Zhang Xiu Ying's place, after all.

"Hm? Have you been sitting there the entire time? Don't you get bored staring at the clouds all day?" Su Yang suddenly asked her.

"W-Why do you care? It's none of your business what I do!"

A mysterious smile appeared on Su Yang's face as he shrugged, "If you are that bored, you can always knock on my door. I have plenty of ways to entertain you, after all."

"In your dreams, Su Yang!"

Lin Shao Shang spoke loudly before closing the windows and the curtains, and then she proceeded to try and cultivate.

Su Yang merely shook his head and entered his living quarter shortly after.

A few hours later, Lin Shao Shang could hear someone laughing outside her building, which was disturbing her cultivation, so she decided to peek through the curtains.

"Thank you, Su Yang, for the wonderful experience."

A pretty young girl said to him as she walked out of his building with unstable movements.

"Junior apprentice-sister Min?!"

Lin Shao Shang was baffled to see a fellow disciple, who was also a Core Disciple, leave Su Yang's building.

When did she enter Su Yang's living quarters and how long did she stay inside? And most importantly, what was she doing inside in the first place?

Once Su Yang went back inside the building, Lin Shao Shang opened the window and called for this Disciple Min.

"Junior apprentice-sister Min! What were you doing inside that man's building?!" She asked her.

"Senior apprentice-sister Lin...!" Disciple Min hastily greeted her before speaking in a slightly nervous tone, "S-Su Yang... he was kind enough to give me some guidance in cultivation...!"

"..."

Lin Shao Shang looked at her with eyes filled with disbelief.

'I dare you to look at me in the eyes and repeat those words!' she cried inwardly.

This Disciple Min was clearly lying right in front of her face.

One could easily imagine what had occurred inside the house when a woman comes out of it while acting all fidgety and nervous, especially if Su Yang resided inside that house.

"I-Is that so...? I hope you'd learned something from him. He's a genius at the Heavenly Spirit Realm, after all." Lin Shao Shang spoke with a forced smile on her face, acting as though she did not know anything.

The disciple left shortly later, and Lin Shao Shang sighed, hoping that she does not have to experience anything like this again.

But alas, as though the Heavens wanted to tease her, Core Disciples would continue to show up later to visit Su Yang's residence and disturb her cultivation in the process.

Chapter 475 Mayhem at the Burning Lotus Sect Once Again

"I will see you later, Su Yang!"

An elegant young lady wearing Core Disciple robes happily walked out of Su Yang's house with glossy skins and a satisfied expression.

"Bye." Su Yang waved her goodbye with a smile on his face.

Meanwhile, on the other side of the street, Lin Shao Shang looked at them through the window with an annoyed expression.

'T-This is already the ninth Core Disciple that has visited him today! Just how is he making these women approach him without even leaving the building?! This is outrageous!' she cried inwardly.

Ever since Su Yang returned to his living quarter for the first time, he hasn't stepped out of the doors again, yet he was able to attract these Core Disciples into his house, and this has stumped Lin Shao Shang, who couldn't cultivate peacefully because of them.

A few hours later, when the moon had long appeared in the sky, another female disciple could be seen walking towards Su Yang's living quarters.

"She's..."

When Lin Shao Shang saw this approaching figure, she immediately opened her windows and called out to her, "Junior sister Yue! Where are you going this late at night?"

"Senior sister Lin! I... I have an appointment with Su Yang. He has promised to teach me a few techniques with the sword!" This disciple responded with a nervous smile on her face.

'Even she's lying to my face?!' Lin Shao Shang cried inwardly.

This Disciple Yue was not just any Core Disciple. She had entered the Burning Lotus Sect at the same time as Lin Shao Shang, and the two of them had overcome many obstacles together ever since they were mere Outer Court disciples, becoming a Core Disciple at nearly the same time.

The two of them were more than just friends — they were essentially sisters.

And to think this sister of hers would lie straight to her face, it greatly shocked Lin Shao Shang.

"Don't lie to me, Junior sister Yue! There's absolutely no way that you would be here so late at night just to learn sword techniques from Su Yang!" Lin Shao Shang could no longer force herself to accept these lies and said to her.

In response to her words, Disciple Yue showed a bashful expression and said, "If you already know why I am here, then why did you even ask me, Senior sister Lin? Are you teasing me?"

"N-No! I just want to know why you would want someone like him to defy your pure body! Aren't you still a maiden?!"

Disciple Yue nodded, "Indeed, I have not experienced that yet. However, Su Yang is the number genius of the Eastern Continent, not to mention his dreamy appearances! If anybody is going to be my first partner, it should be him! Do you have any idea how many disciples want to throw themselves at him even at this moment? The only thing restricting their movements is the location! If he were staying at the Outer Court, even the Inner Court, there would be a line of girls waiting to knock on his door!"

"What?" Lin Shao Shang's eyes widened with shock after hearing such words. It appears that she has greatly underestimated Su Yang's popularity with women.

Seeing her dumbfounded face, Disciple Yue continued, "Have you gone outside recently, Senior sister Lin? Do you have any idea how chaotic things are right now in the other courts? There are dozens of disciples trying to sneak into this place just to speak with Su Yang even as we speak!"

"What?!" Lin Shao Shang's jaw dropped to the ground. She didn't think that Su Yang's presence would create such mayhem within their sect!

"I am not lying to you this time, Senior sister Lin! If you go to the gates that separate each court now, you can find many disciples there trying to get past the Sect Elders!"

"A-Anyway, I do not have much time here! I will talk to you later, Senior sister Lin!" Disciple Yue said to her before quickly making her way to Su Yang's front door and knocking on it.

A few moments later, Su Yang opened the door and welcomed her inside with a smile.

However, before he closed the door, Lin Shao Shang swore that Su Yang had glanced at her for a very brief second.

"..."

Lin Shao Shang stood by the window with a dazed expression and refused to blink her eyes even after many minutes, almost like she'd turned into a stone statue.

Suddenly, she jumped out of the window and made her way towards the gates that Disciple Yue had mentioned.

Just like the Profound Blossom Sect and most sects out there, the Burning Lotus Sect consists of three sections — the Outer Court, Inner Court, and the Center Court.

Each of these courts were separated by a thin wall, and the only way to travel between each court was to go through a gate in the wall. However, there are usually disciples posted at these gates to keep guard, so that only those who were authorized inside could enter.

But because of the large commotion, the people guarding these gates at this moment were all Sect Elders.

Once Lin Shao Shang arrived at the gate that separated the Center Court and the Inner Court, she was able to witness over 50 female disciples arguing with the Sect Elders there.

"Elders, why can't you just let us pass? We have already promised you that we wouldn't wander around the Center Court! Our only purpose is to meet with Senior Brother Su Yang!"

"That's right! We only want Senior Brother Su Yang's autograph! Why must you make things so difficult for us?!"

The disciples complained to the Sect Elders.

"Hmph! Only Core Disciples and Sect Elders are allowed inside the Center Court under normal circumstances! This has been a rule of the sect ever since its establishment! If you want to pass, then become a Core Disciple or a Sect Elder!" said one of the Sect Elders there, who felt very envious of Su Yang's popularity, which is one of the few reasons why he was acting so stubborn.

"I just became an Inner Court disciple last year! It'll take at least another ten years before I can even qualify to take the exam for a Core Disciple, and it'll be far too late by then!"

"Y-You stubborn old geezers! You are just jealous of Senior Brother Su Yang's popularity with the girls, so you are taking it out on us!"

"That's right! I bet you weren't very popular with the girls when you were a disciple!"

The disciples began cursing at the Sect Elders, dumbfounding them.

"W-Who said that just now?! I dare you to come out and say it again!" The Sect Elders were fuming.

'T-This is a disaster...' Lin Shao Shang thought to herself after witnessing the chaotic scene.

If the disciples are still acting this frenzied during this late at night, she couldn't imagine what the scene would be like if she was there earlier in the morning.

A few moments later, she turned around and quickly made her way back to her room, her back soaked by cold sweat by the time she returned.

Chapter 476 Wang Shuren Returns

"Sect Master Huo! Something must be done about the female disciples! After Su Yang arrived here since yesterday, they have been going crazy!"

The following morning, multiple Sect Elders approached Huo Yuanjia with complaints regarding the situation.

Huo Yuanjia looked at the angry yet exhausted faces before him with a bitter smile. Even if they wanted his help, there was nothing he could really do besides waiting for Wang Shuren to return. It was not as though they could kick Su Yang out of the sect for being too popular with the ladies, either.

"You will have to tolerate it for now. He'll leave in a few days at most." Huo Yuanjia said to the dissatisfied Sect Elders.

"I can't deal with this for another hour, much less a few more days!"

"Why don't we just allow these disciples to meet Su Yang? It'll make our lives much easier."

"And ignore the sect rules?! Only those who are worthy are allowed inside the Center Court, and it has been like that for hundreds of years! Outrageous!"

"Rules can be changed! Furthermore, there are special occasions when an ordinary disciple is allowed into the Center Court! We can just make it so our current situation is a special case!"

"Sect Master, what do you think we should do? Should we make this a special occasion or not?"

In the end, the Sect Elders turned to look at Huo Yuanjia for an answer.

"There are 11 of you here. Why don't you vote anonymously on it?" He suggested.

The Sect Elders nodded and decided to vote on the matter anonymously.

"Then we will vote for whether we should allow these disciples to meet Su Yang or not!"

A few minutes later, the results were in.

5 people voted against that decision whilst 6 people voted for the decision.

"It's decided. We will allow the disciples to enter the Center Court to meet with Su Yang. However, if they wander around, we will immediately punish them."

Once the decision was made, the Sect Elders announced the news to the disciple.

Upon hearing this news, hundreds of female disciples quickly rushed to Su Yang's living quarters, dumbfounding the entire sect.

"W-What on earth is going on here?!" Lin Shao Shang cried out loud when she saw the scene outside the window early in the morning.

There was an endless line of disciples queuing up before Su Yang's doors, and all of them were either Inner Court disciples or Outer Court disciples.

"What happened to Core Disciples and Sect Elders being the only ones allowed inside the Center Court?!"

Sometime later, Disciple Yue showed up to her house and explained the situation to her.

"The Sect Elders have agreed to let the disciples meet Su Yang?!"

Lin Shao Shang mumbled with a dazed expression.

"This is an unprecedented situation." Disciple Yue sighed. "I'm glad that I got to meet with Su Yang last night."

"..."

Lin Shao Shang was speechless, as she did not know how to respond to such words.

Meanwhile, outside her house, Su Yang was busy signing autographs for the disciples.

"Can you also shake my hands, Senior Brother Su Yang?" One of the disciples asked him with pleading eyes.

Su Yang nodded and extended his hands, feeling the disciple's soft skin a moment later.

And albeit very few, there were also a few male disciples in the line. They figured that if they got Su Yang's autograph, they could use it to court other girls in the future.

"Senior Brother Su Yang, can you sign your name here?" One of the female disciples suddenly lifted her robes and pointed at her white underwear, dumbfounding the disciples behind her.

Seeing this, Su Yang remained smiling and nodded.

The young disciple then pointed her buttocks towards him and bent her body.

Su Yang, without hesitation, lowered his body and grabbed her buttocks with his bare hands, causing the disciple to release a surprised cry, before he began to write his name on the disciple's underwear.

"T-Thank you, Senior Brother Su Yang! I will never wash this pair of underwear ever again!" The young disciple thanked him with a blushing face before quickly running away, leaving the place speechless.

Once Su Yang completed the first questionable request from a disciple, the other disciples began asking him to sign places that were not their handkerchiefs or paper.

However, as more and more disciples appeared, the requests also became more outrageous, even borderline crazy.

"Senior Brother Su Yang, can you sign here, please?"

One of the disciples suddenly pulled down the right side of her robes, revealing half of her breast and the red bra that supported it.

"Of course." Su Yang signed it with a calm smile on his face, almost as though he'd done it many times before.

Many hours have passed since Su Yang began signing autographs for his female fans, yet the line outside his house showed no sign of slowing down. Fortunately for him, there is nothing else to do until Wang Shuren returns, so he went ahead and wasted time by making these Burning Lotus Sect disciples happy.

"I can't believe it. It's almost like a circus had been built outside my house!" Lin Shao Shang tried countless times to find peace and cultivate, but she soon realized that it was impossible to cultivate with the commotion outside, so she gave up cultivating all together and simply stared out the window with a dazed face, silently wondering to herself when all of this would end.

Two days later, Wang Shuren finally returned to the sect, and she was immediately greeted by Huo Yuanjia and many other Sect Elders.

"What happened? Why do all of you look so exhausted?" Wang Shuren asked them with a puzzled face.

The Sect Elders proceeded to explain to Wang Shuren the situation, but upon learning that Su Yang had been waiting for her return for the past few days, her face turned pale.

"Why didn't you call me back sooner?!" she quickly yelled at them.

"B-But you instructed us very strictly to not contact you unless it's an emergency..." One of the Sect Elders said with a dumbfounded face.

"If Su Yang came all the way here to look for me, then it is an emergency! Damn it!" Wang Shuren no longer cared about them and quickly made her way to the Center Court, where Su Yang was waiting.

Chapter 477 Heaven Transcendent Pill

After returning to the sect and learning that Su Yang was waiting for her, Wang Shuren quickly made her way to the Center Court.

However, when she got there, she was baffled by the scene before her eyes.

There were dozens — hundreds of disciples standing outside Su Yang's living quarters, all seemingly waiting to meet with him.

"What is going on here?!"

When the disciples noticed Wang Shuren's figure approaching them, all of them lowered their heads and greeted her.

"This disciple greets Senior Wang!"

"Senior Wang!"

"Welcome back, Senior Wang!"

A few moments later, when Wang Shuren arrived at the front, Su Yang looked at her and smiled, "It's been a while, Shuren. I have been waiting for your return, you know?"

"S-Su Yang, I—"

Before she could speak, Su Yang shook his head and said, "Let us talk inside."

Wang Shuren nodded and entered the building some moments later.

"I'm sorry, but I will be back later." Su Yang said to the disciples waiting outside before closing the door on them.

"I am so sorry for making you wait for me, Su Yang! If you'd told me in advance, I would've delayed all of my business—"

"It's fine, I came here unannounced, after all." He interrupted her again. "Why don't we sit down and talk about our plans."

"R-Right! That is the reason why I left the sect for a few days. Ever since the Earth Advancement Pill's discovery, I have been contacted by nearly every family with power in the Eastern Region." Wang Shuren explained.

"A few of them wanted to hire me as their Alchemist, but most of them just wanted to buy some Earth Advancement Pills. Of course, I have told them about the meeting, and all of them have agreed to it."

"At this moment, we have 69 sects and 121 families that will be participating in that meeting you wanted me to set up. I have already secured a place, so we just need to know when this meeting will occur."

"Next month." Su Yang suddenly spoke, "This meeting will happen one month from today."

"N-Next month? Then I will immediately notify the participating sects and families of this news!" Although she did not expect the meeting to happen so soon, Wang Shuren reacted with delight regardless.

Su Yang then continued to speak, "It will happen after the Profound Blossom Sect's recruitment. However, we won't just be talking about the Earth Advancement Pills."

"What do you mean by that, Su Yang? The only reason people are interested is because of the Earth Advancement Pills. Unless we have something even more shocking than those pills to show them, they won't care about it."

Su Yang did not immediately respond and merely retrieved his storage ring.

A few seconds later, many scrolls were placed onto the table before them.

"What are these?" Wang Shuren looked at the scrolls with interest.

"Pill Recipes. To be precise, they are pills that currently do not exist in this world."

Wang Shuren stared at him with wide eyes after hearing such words, and she couldn't help but ask, "Just who are you, really, Su Yang?"

Su Yang smiled and said, "You have been very loyal to me over the past few months, so I will tell you a little about myself as a form of gratitude."

"My name is Su Yang — but you already know that. However, what you don't know is that I am currently living my second life and that I have memories of my previous life."

"W-What...? Memories of your past life?" Wang Shuren stared at him with a blank expression, her eyes filled with disbelief.

"I was an Immortal in my past life, and I lived somewhere very far away from this place. But alas, due to circumstances, I was reborn into this world."

"You may not believe my words right now, but once you see those pill recipes, you will know that I am telling the truth." Su Yang said with a smile, looking as though he could read her mind.

After hearing his words, Wang Shuren wasted no time looking through the scrolls on the table.

"Heaven-grade Pill: Profound Qi Gathering Pill... Consuming the pill will double your efficiency when cultivating for 12 hours. Only effective to those below the Heavenly Spirit Realm."

"Heaven-grade Pill: Hundred Days Pill: Upon consuming this pill, your cultivation will increase as though you have cultivated for 100 days. Can only be consumed once every four years."

"Heaven-grade Pill: Heaven and Earth Restoration Pill... Consuming the pill will instantly recover even a Heavenly Spirit Realm expert all of their depleted Profound Qi."

"Sovereign-grade Pill: Heaven Transcendent Pill... As long as someone at the peak of the Earth Spirit Realm consumes this pill, they will have a 100% to breakthrough to the Heavenly Spirit Realm."

"S-Su Yang... these pill recipes are..."

Wang Shuren read the recipes with trembling hands, her shock increasing with each scroll she picked up.

"These are just a few pills that don't exist in this world but are actually very common in the place I come from." Su Yang said to her with a calm face.

"W-Why are you showing me these pills recipes, Su Yang...? I would've believed you even if you didn't show it to me! Do you have any idea how valuable they are...?" Wang Shuren looked at him with wide eyes, looking very puzzled by his actions.

"Although they may seem priceless in your eyes, they are nothing of significance in my eyes. If not for the fact that you cannot concoct stronger pills, I would've given you even more pill recipes." He said.

"As for why I am showing you these pill recipes — it's simply because I want you to have them. It's a gift from me before I leave this world and return to my own."

"W-Wait a moment... you are leaving this place? When are you leaving? And how far away is this place, really?"

"I will be leaving in two years, but even I do not know how far away it is." Su Yang replied with a smile. "And when I leave, I want you to protect the Profound Blossom Sect in my stead in case it's required."

"..."

Wang Shuren was speechless, and she took the next few minutes to digest all of this new information silently.

Chapter 478 Best Alchemy Master in the World

"Su Yang... what if I want to leave with you?" Wang Shuren suddenly asked him after a moment of silence.

"Your last words... you sounded very confident that I would not leave with you. Hell, you didn't even ask me if I want to go with you."

"Then can you abandon all of your achievements and status here and start a new life in a place where nobody even knows your name?" Su Yang asked her with a calm expression.

"Your name has risen to the top over the last few months, perhaps even the number one Alchemy Master in the Eastern Continent. Can you really discard all of that?"

"..."

Wang Shuren remained silent for a few moments before speaking, "You are right, Su Yang. It has always been my dream to become a famous Alchemy Master that is known by almost everybody in the Eastern Continent. I have always wanted to experience what it would be like to be respected by every Alchemy Master I come across."

"Now that my dream has been realized, I cannot just simply throw all of it away, even if all of my achievements are mostly thanks to you."

"However, what is to say that I will not change my mind somewhere down the line? Two years is more than enough time to change someone's mind, Su Yang..."

"Perhaps in two years, these achievements will no longer mean anything to me — perhaps I will even have the courage to abandon them and follow you."

Su Yang smiled after hearing her words and spoke in a gentle voice, "Then I will ask you in two years. But for now, I want you to focus on Alchemy, since I want you to be just more than the 'best' Alchemy Master in the Eastern Continent."

"W-What do you mean by that?" She asked him with a puzzled face.

"With just these pill recipes alone, you have already surpassed every Alchemy Master in this world. Once you master them, you will become an unrivaled existence in Alchemy, and your name will forever exist in history." Su Yang explained to her with a calm expression.

"Su Yang..." Wang Shuren's eyes became teary after realizing what Su Yang had planned for her.

If she did not meet him at the Burning Lotus Auction House last year, perhaps she would still be a mere lowly Sect Elder with subpar Alchemy skills even now.

If she did not toss aside her pride as an Elder and kicked Su Yang out of the auction house on that day, all of her achievements might have been achieved by someone else, and she would be kicking herself in regret every day for the rest of her life once she realizes the once-in-a-life opportunity that she'd missed.

"However, if you are going to become the best Alchemy Master this world has ever seen before, I will need to train you properly." Su Yang suddenly said. "Starting today, I will come here once a week to teach you how to concoct pills properly, and this will continue until I feel that you are good enough."

"Really?" Wang Shuren stared at him with a surprised look. "You would go through so much trouble just for me?"

"It's not just for you. It's for everyone in this world." Su Yang responded with a mysterious smile. "I am going to up the standard of Alchemy in this world by a few levels. In other words — it's going to be a new era."

"You can go for now. I will come to you once I am finished here."

"You mean the disciples outside? It'll take days to make them all go away." Wang Shuren said.

"Then you should use this time to prepare yourself, because you will have no room to relax when I start with you."

Wang Shuren nodded with a serious expression before leaving the place.

Once Wang Shuren was gone, Su Yang resumed his autograph session with the disciples outside.

A few days later, Su Yang approached Wang Shuren's living quarters, which was an enormous estate that was right beside the Sect Master's estate. It was obvious just how much Huo Yuanjia respects and values Wang Shuren after seeing her living conditions.

It was so grand that if one was not aware of their relationship, they might even think Huo Yuanjia fancied Wang Shuren.

"It appears that your living conditions have slightly improved since the last time I visited your house." Su Yang greeted her with a smile.

"Slightly...?" Wang Shuren chuckled upon hearing his understatement. "It was only recently built, too. Our income has significantly increased because of my pills, even slightly overwhelming."

She had particularly gone from living inside a small house to a freaking mansion. However, considering her current status and worth, it would not be an exaggeration to say that she deserved to live in such luxury.

"Show me to your pill room." Su Yang then said to her.

Wang Shuren nodded and led him inside the building and then into a large empty room without any decorations or unnecessary furniture.

Besides a small cabinet in the corner of the room that emitted the smell of herbs and medicine, there is also a precious-looking cauldron in the middle of the room.

"This cauldron isn't half-bad." Su Yang praised the cauldron, as it is the best cauldron he has seen in this world so far.

"That cauldron is a Heaven-grade treasure, and I'd spent three million spirit stones on it." Wang Shuren said with a bittersweet smile, as this is the most that she's ever spent on a single item.

"By the way, did you get all of the ingredients I requested during the auction at Snowfall City?" Su Yang suddenly asked her.

"I do! Although a few of them were difficult to find, I managed to buy every ingredient on the list. They are all stored inside that cabinet." Wang Shuren said as she pointed to the cabinet in the corner of the room.

"Good, because those are the ingredients needed to concoct the new pills. Before I lecture you, I will demonstrate my techniques first." Su Yang proceeded to name a few ingredients, and Wang Shuren delivered them to him a few moments later.

"I will only do this once, so watch and learn." He said before sitting before the cauldron.

Chapter 479 Wang Shuren's Special Training

After Wang Shuren delivered the ingredients to him, Su Yang surrounded the cauldron with alchemy flames, quickly heating up the entire thing.

'No matter how many times I see this, his techniques and precision with the temperature astonishes me. Was he an Alchemy Master in his previous life, too...?' Wang Shuren pondered to herself as she was quickly mesmerized by the beautiful dancing flames before her.

In her eyes, it was as though the flames had come to life, and they were all dancing to the same music, almost as though they were creating a performance for its spectators, who was Wang Shuren.

A few minutes later, once the cauldron was hot enough, Su Yang tossed the ingredients inside and closed the lid.

"Watch carefully," Su Yang suddenly said to her.

Wang Shuren nodded with a serious expression and stared at the cauldron with narrowed eyes.

Although the cauldron was closed and had no openings, Wang Shuren was able to see the insides of the cauldron and everything that was happening inside the cauldron within her head.

Some of the ingredients were burned viciously until only its purest substance remained, and some ingredients were burned completely, turning it into smoke. However, since the smoke could not escape the cauldron, it began to combine with the other ingredients, becoming something entirely different.

And within mere minutes, after all of the ingredients were mixed, it quickly formed the shape of a pill.

Wang Shuren watched everything that happened inside the cauldron with wide eyes. She has never seen anyone concoct a pill with such accuracy and speed — not even from Su Yang before. It was almost as though she was watching a miracle happening before her eyes.

A few moments later, Su Yang opened the cauldron and retrieved the golden pill that was born inside.

"This is a flawless quality Heaven Transcendence Pill." Su Yang spoke with a calm expression, acting as though he'd done something very normal.

"Since it's of flawless quality, if you consume that pill once you reach the peak of the Earth Spirit Realm, you will immediately enter the Heavenly Spirit Realm with ease. Of course, you will not be able to concoct these pills at flawless quality immediately, so they won't all be as effective."

"Anyway, did you grasp my technique even slightly? I purposefully moved slower so that you can see it properly." He asked her.

"Although I don't understand it now, I will eventually comprehend the technique, as I have imprinted every movement you made into my soul." Wang Shuren spoke with a serious expression.

Su Yang nodded and said, "Good, then you will start concocting pills with this technique starting today. You will burn a few hundred — even thousands of pills during your practice, but once you understand the technique, your alchemy skills will reach a whole new level — a level that cannot be reached by anyone else in this world."

Wang Shuren nodded and said, "Then I will immediately begin to concoct pills!"

However, Su Yang quickly said, "Who said you are allowed to concoct pills now?"

"Eh?" She looked at him with a puzzled face.

"Strip." He suddenly said, dumbfounding her even more.

"We are going to cultivate now. Once you are exhausted, you can start practicing."

"Eh?!?!" Wang Shuren's face expressed shock upon hearing his words. "If I practice after I am exhausted, won't it become much harder for me to learn?"

"Of course, you will not be able to learn as fast in the beginning. However, if we use this method to train you, your spiritual energy will increase significantly, and once you are used to concocting pills under stress, you will be able to concoct pills with ease when you are under no stress, and your techniques will rise to a new level." Su Yang explained to her.

"I see..." Wang Shuren nodded as though she understood his method of training.

A few moments later, Wang Shuren removed her clothes and revealed to him her mature and fully ripened body.

Her stature was tall, and her figure resembled that of an hourglass. Her ample breasts and abundantly round buttocks are powerful enough to charm most men under the heavens even when it's covered by clothes, so one can imagine the destructive nature it has when they are completely uncovered and bare.

"Concocting that the Heaven Transcendence Pill consumed half of my Profound Qi just now, and I have given that pill to you, so I will have that body compensate me for my lost, Shuren." Su Yang approached her with a smile.

"Are we going to do it here? This is not a suitable environment for such actions, and there's not even a bed here." She said to him.

"Don't worry about the bed, I have already prepared one for us." Su Yang then retrieved his storage ring and pulled out an entire king-sized bed from within, shocking Wang Shuren.

"Y-You carry a bed around with you?"

"In my previous life, I would have an entire storage ring dedicated to carrying only beds, so I had thousands of unique beds prepared for every possible situation." Su Yang said to her in an oddly prideful-sounding tone.

Sometime later, Wang Shuren and Su Yang began cultivating on the bed.

As expected, Wang Shuren immediately began moaning loudly, filling the room with passionate cries. And as Su Yang smashed Wang Shuren's hole with his hard rod, her body would shake violently, causing her large yet firm breasts to jiggle.

After spending many minutes dual cultivating, when Wang Shuren is finally completely exhausted, Su Yang made her practice his alchemy technique by concocting pills.

'Forget about concocting pills in this state, I cannot even lift my arms properly!' Wang Shuren cried inwardly, feeling as though she'd just woken up from a thousand-years nap.

Furthermore, every inch of her body was extremely sensitive at this moment, so even a single drop of sweat sliding down her skin would cause her body to react, making it nearly impossible for her to concentrate on the cauldron when she begins sweating during the pill concoction.

"Welcome to my Heaven and Hell Experience, Shuren." Su Yang said to her with a sadistic smile on his face. "Whenever I am training you, you will not be allowed to concoct pills unless you are reduced to this state."

Chapter 480 Heaven and Hell Experience

Two hours have passed since Wang Shuren's special training in alchemy began, and she has already burned over a hundred pills. Furthermore, they were all Elementary-grade pills — pills that she would normally be able to concoct while being half awake.

'This is utterly impossible! I cannot even control the flames in my current state, much less concoct a pill!' Wang Shuren cried inwardly as she burnt another pill.

Another hour passed, and just as Wang Shuren was getting the hang of it, Su Yang suddenly said to her, "I see that your body has relaxed quite a bit. Get on the bed, we'll cultivate again before you continue to concoct pills."

Wang Shuren looked at him with a dazed face.

"I-I didn't know that you were such a sadist, Su Yang..." she said with a bittersweet smile.

Su Yang merely smiled and said, "Then you've learned yet another new thing about me."

A few moments later, Su Yang pounded Wang Shuren's cave with his rod until her body was twitching all over the place.

Once he was done with her, Wang Shuren felt even more exhausted than previously with barely any strength to even sit still.

"A-Are you sure this is training and I'm not being tortured instead...?" Wang Shuren asked him in a low voice.

"Like most training out there, it's usually the hardest to endure at first, but once you get used to it, you will understand just how effective this method of training is." Su Yang said.

"Although you may have never experienced this kind of training before, it's actually quite common in my world. Of course, unless they practice dual cultivation, they have other methods of exhausting one's body. However, the results are always the same regardless of how you do it."

"You want to become the best Alchemy Master in this world, right? I am helping you achieve that before I leave in two years, which is not possible under normal circumstances. But if you really refuse this method of training, I will train you normally. Obviously, the results will differ greatly, and your abilities won't be anywhere where you would be if you train using the Heaven and Hell Experience. I'll let you choose now."

"..."

A few moments later, she nodded, "I don't care what you do to me or my body — I want to be the best Alchemy Master this world has ever seen before!"

One hour... two hours... three hours... Wang Shuren continued to concoct pills while under stress and exhaustion for the entire day. And whenever her body recovered barely enough strength to move properly, Su Yang would stop her training to cultivate with her until her entire body felt like jello again.

Within just a few hours of training, Wang Shuren stopped wearing clothes even when she was concocting pills, as her body was covered in sweat most of the time.

The following morning, Wang Shuren laid on the bed with a blank expression and dead-looking eyes, almost as though she had turned into a soulless body.

"How do you feel?" Su Yang asked her with a relaxed expression on his face.

While Wang Shuren suffered around the clock, he only felt pleasure and satisfaction from their cultivation.

"Am I... still alive...?" she mumbled in a mosquito-like voice.

"Congratulations, you have endured your first day of training. After today, I will come here once a week to continue this training method. During the days I am not here, you can concoct pills normally."

"I am going to return to the Profound Blossom Sect now."

"W-Wait a moment, Su Yang!"

Wang Shuren suddenly stopped him.

"What's the matter?"

"I still have some matter with you... though it's nothing really important."

Su Yang nodded and waited for her to continue.

"Do you remember Wang Chen and his eldest son, Wang Shichong, from the auction at Snowfall City?" Wang Shuren asked him.

"If I recall correctly, there were a few insects that annoyed me with a similar name." Su Yang casually insulted them. "Why are you bringing up their name?"

"Well... they've been bugging me ever since the Regional Tournament, begging me to ask you to forgive them for offending you at the auction house. Although I don't particularly like them, they are still my family, so..."

And she continued, "They are probably terrified that you might seek them for revenge later for offending you. They also said that they are willing to do anything for your forgiveness, Su Yang. What do you think?"

However, Su Yang merely scoffed in a nonchalant voice, "People like that cannot offend me even if they try! They are simply too beneath me for me to feel offended. Though since they are your family, I will let you handle everything."

"Thank you, Su Yang..." she said to him. "By the way, I will make your temporary residence a permanent one so that you can return to the same place when you return in the future."

Sometime later, Su Yang returned to his living quarters to get Xiao Rong before leaving the Burning Lotus Sect.

Meanwhile, within the Profound Blossom Sect, Sun Jingjing approached Su Yang's living quarters and knocked on his door.

"Hello, Sister Jingjing." Qin Liangyu greeted her at the door.

Over the past few days, Qin Liangyu has familiarized herself with all of the disciples in the sect, even becoming good friends with some of them — to the point where they address each other as though they were real sisters, and Sun Jingjing was one of these individuals she treated as though they were sisters.

There was just something about Sun Jingjing that made Qin Liangyu feel relaxed whenever she was around, almost like she was before Su Yang's presence.

"Sister Liangyu, is Su Yang inside? I have something important to talk to him about." Sun Jingjing asked her.

"No, he went to the Burning Lotus Sect a few days ago. However, he should be back soon." Qin Liangyu said.

"Is that so..." Sun Jingjing sighed.

"Is something wrong?" Qin Liangyu asked her.

"No, it's just that..."

Suddenly, another voice interrupted her.

"Hey, why do I sense Su Yang's presence coming from you?"

A few moments later, an extremely beautiful lady with silver hair appeared from one of the rooms inside Su Yang's living quarters, shocking Sun Jingjing to the core.

"Y-You are Su Yang's Master!" Sun Jingjing exclaimed in surprise.
