

Chapter 481

Burning Lamp was incomparably surprised, "Invoking heavenly thunder, you actually know Daoist spells."

"What's so strange about that, if you old man wants to try it, I can let you taste the power of the Heavenly Lightning Formation." Ye Xing laughed coldly.

Burning Lantern really feared, after all, he was not familiar with Ye Xing, the other party's first strike was such a terrifying spell, even if he was one of the four great masters, he was quite scandalized, knowing that if he could not kill Ye Xing unharmed, he would have to face the revenge of Hua Junsheng with just a little trauma.

He was scornful of the Hua Jun Soul, so he absolutely could not let anything happen to him.

"It's fine to let you go, leave a woman behind." Burning Lamp smiled and pointed at Du Jiuniang.

Ye Xing cursed, "Old man, I said you were a bastard, and I really didn't get you wrong, asking me to leave a woman behind to protect myself, I'm not as nasty as you."

"If you don't stay, don't let any of them go." With a big wave of his hand, Burning Lamp was about to let his men attack.

Suddenly, there were screams in the distance, followed by a smell of blood that began to spread through the area.

Ye Xing was also surprised, this was not a slaughterhouse, where did such a horrible smell of blood come from?

Ahhh

A burst of strange screams came, only to see a group of swift-moving, long-handed and long-legged faceless people appear.

These faceless people are like spiders, with long, thin limbs and skinny bodies, walking at a fast speed, and emitting a fishy smell wherever they pass.

The police force around them were ordinary people, and when they smelled these fishy odors, they instantly vomited with a wave of nausea and weakness. Those faceless people pounced on them, sucked human brains and blood, and appeared even more furious.

Bang Bang

The police force began to fight back, firing all kinds of bullets indiscriminately, but unfortunately, the faceless people were not afraid of bullets, and only cannonballs could blow them away.

The faceless people are getting more and more, like a swarm of spiders surrounding this side, the burning lamp narrowed its eyes in disbelief.

Ye Xing considered this and said in a deep voice, "It looks like we've all become Mo Qian Yun's prey. I thought she was hiding, but this demon is looking for a chance to take us all out."

Burning Lamp roared, "Everyone stand by, don't be afraid of these monsters, it's no big deal."

The people of the Xuanwu House were already scared to death, they usually had too many comfortable days, there was no sense of crisis for them at all, at this moment when they were faced with such a terrifying faceless man, some of them were already shaking in their legs and others were on edge.

Suddenly, an ancient martial artist from the Xuanwu House was attacked by the Faceless Man, and the others tried desperately to help, but to no avail.

The people of the Xuanwu Mansion had no fighting power and the rest were useless. Lin Boyang with a few disciples still had some fighting power, but unfortunately the Faceless Men were too many, numbering over a hundred, and could be called an army of monsters.

"Father, if you don't do something, I'm afraid we'll all be finished." Lin Boyang pleaded bitterly towards Burning Lantern.

Burning Lamp, loving his feathers, sneered, "I would only let the other side gain by striking this time, retreat."

Lin Boyang was furious and clenched his fists, but he could not disobey, so he could only lead a few disciples to cover the retreat, but most of the police force and the ancient martial artists of the Xuanwu Mansion became victims, everyone went after Burning Lamp and the others, but no one helped them, and those faceless people also saw what the other side had in mind and specifically attacked those vulnerable ancient martial artists and the police force, the battle turned one-sided and turned into a massacre.

The strange thing was that Ye Xing and the three of them were not attacked, those faceless people seemed to know how powerful he was and did not dare to make a move at all.

Ye Xing said in a low voice, "You two sisters will go first later, I'll run easily alone instead."

"What if we meet Mo Qian Yun?"

"Don't be afraid, my methods are extremely restrained against them, you guys just run." After Ye Xing said that, he led the way and killed them, fighting an escape route for the two of them.

The faceless people did not dare to attack, but soon a strange laugh came, followed by the sight of Mo Qian Yun flying from afar.

This demoness pointed her toes at the ground and her whole body flew out several metres, her eyes pitch black and her whole being evil.

"You still want to escape? Is it a dream?" Mo Qian Yun let out a jarring, strange voice that was neither male nor female.

Ye Xing roared, "Go."

Qiao Baihe and Du Jiuniang decisively left him, and the Faceless Man quickly pounced over, and when Ye Xing saw it, he directly threw out four Daoist talismans.

The thunderbolt came together and the Faceless Men were instantly killed on the spot. The power was so great that it was terrifying, and the divine Heavenly Thunderbolt had a spreading effect.

At the same time, Qiao Baihe and Du Jiuniang also managed to escape.

Mo Qianyun's face was full of anger and with a wave of her hand, countless clods of mud on the ground flew towards Ye Xing.

Ye Xing drove his hardening technique and a golden light shield emerged, but he was also knocked away by these mud blocks.

As expected of an immortal cultivator who was about to build his foundation, the terror of this spell was simply terrifying.

Ye Xing did not stop either, throwing out Daoist talismans as he fled, not to mention that Mo Qian Yun was extremely afraid of the Divine Heavenly Lightning Spell and did not dare to go forward with all his might.

Ye Xing waited for Qiao Baihe and Du Jiuniang to escape and started to think of a way to retreat himself, when suddenly there was a ringing in his ears and it was the Dragon Shield that started to contact him.

Ye Xing asked Dragon Shield's men to check the nearby map to see if there was a convenient place to get out, and finally only found a chemical factory.

As soon as Ye Xing heard about the chemical factory, that was a good place, he immediately flew over there.

The chemical factory was quiet at this time, only the employees on night duty were there. Ye Xing came to stand in an open space and Mo Qian Yun soon caught up with him.

"Kid, you actually mastered the art of thunder magic, I just can't let you go." Mo Qian Yun continued to make a voice that was unpleasant to the ears.

Ye Xing sneered, "Who are you scaring? If you weren't scared, you would have caught up with me and killed me that way just now."

Mo Qian Yun coldly shouted, "Your thunder spells are all driven by Daoist talismans, they are tricky means, I'll see how many Daoist talismans you have left, I have plenty of patience to play with you slowly."

Ye Xing really didn't have much left, this Daoist talisman was like a bullet, when it was finished, it was really gone, when the time came, Mo Qian Yun was afraid that she would have to come up and kill him, but when he came to the chemical factory, that was not necessarily the case.

Ye Xing's eyes swept and found a tanker with chemicals parked at the opposite corner, a plan came up in his mind and he quickly rushed towards it.

Mo Qianyun hurried to catch up, Ye Xing turned on the switch of the tanker, at once the liquid inside quickly sprayed out, corrosive and unpleasant gas filled the surrounding.

Ye Xing hurriedly ran away, it was really f*cking horrible, his clothes were corroded by those chemical liquid to make several big holes.

Ye Xing took off his jacket when Mo Qian Yun suddenly appeared, he didn't have time to think much and threw out a Daoist talisman.

The pervasive gas was ignited and the surroundings instantly turned into a sea of flames, Ye Xing had long since flown out to avoid this.

Mo Qian Yun was wrapped in the flames and instantly let out a wail. These flames were mixed with chemical liquids and were simply terrifying, landing on his body was like dog skin plaster, not only did it burn badly, it was also extremely corrosive.

Ye Xing rushed to bolt, this was a once-in-a-lifetime moment.

Chapter 482

As soon as Ye Xing ran out, he grabbed a turn with the others. On the chemical plant side, Mo Qian Yun was able to get out of the blast circle and let out a roar, attracting a large number of Faceless Men to come over for a turn.

Mo Qianyun let out a roar and the faceless men swarmed around her and left the area quickly.

Ye Xing and the others drove to the shore. Dragon Shield had already contacted the boats to send everyone away first.

As a result, Ren Qingqing had to stay behind, and Ye Xing glanced at her and yelled, "Why do you have to stay if you're not going to take care of the others?"

"I know this place very well, and I know Xuanwu Mansion very well too, so it's definitely to your advantage that I stay." Ren Qingqing's mouth tilted up with a confident look.

Ye Xing laughed, "So what if you are familiar with it? The strength is not good, staying will only add to our mess."

"Don't underestimate people, wasn't I the one who placed the bomb near the warehouse?" Ren Qingqing gambled a little.

Ye Xing was about to say something else when old man Ren came closer and advised, "Chief Ye, let Qingqing stay, she is familiar with the environment, besides you still have to face the threat of Xuanwu House, she is also familiar with Xuanwu House."

Ye Xing nodded his head in agreement, and then sent these people on board the boat to leave.

Ye Xing and the others left the shore and found a house nearby to stay, they could not go to the hotel for sure, and they could not stay in Taoyuan City for long, after all, they had offended the Xuanwu Mansion, their status was no different from that of a fugitive.

When it was almost dawn, Ye Xing was woken up by Lin Wei and came outside the house the other party was heavily preoccupied.

“What’s wrong?”

Lin Wei said with a heavy expression, “The ship was sunk, there were a lot of deaths and injuries, only a few children survived, and two of Dragon Shield’s technical squad are missing”

“The Xuanwu House did it?” Ye Xing exploded in anger.

Lin Wei nodded down, “It was a shell from a coastal team, the only person who could command such a vessel to open fire could be the Xuanwu House.”

Ye Xing’s eyes were red, this old son of a b*tch, Burning Lantern, was too ruthless.

Everyone else knew about this, Ren Qingqing was clamouring to take revenge, Ye Xing listened and said, “It’s okay to take revenge, but you’re not allowed to mess around, or we’ll go our separate ways, and I won’t care how you go about it.”

Ren Qingqing hesitated for half a day and finally nodded her head, she wanted to take revenge and had to rely on the power of Ye Xing and the others.

The group began to plan in detail, Lin Wei also consulted Bei Ye, and the answer she received was not to make too big a deal out of it.

Ye Xing began to plan his revenge, Burning Lantern and Lin Boyang were definitely the first targets, to deal with them, killing them would not work, these two guys must have already been prepared and could not continue to live in the Xuanwu Mansion.

Ren Qingqing said; “I can contact the inside man inside.”

“Is the position of the inside man very high?”

“Not very high, but they can know what is going on inside the Xuanwu Mansion.”

Ye Xing shook his head, “Forget it, the position is not high, it is impossible to find out the whereabouts of the Burning Lamp at a time like this, instead it is easy to reveal the whereabouts, too many people have already died, we cannot continue to let innocent people sacrifice.”

“Then how do we find the Burning Lamp?”

Ye Xing sneered, “Who told you that I was going to look for him?”

Everyone raised their heads as Ye Xing said, “Although Burning Lantern is so powerful over here, the pressure is not useless, if he causes many more bloodshed, he will not have a good time, then it will not be us looking for him, his people will come to us of their own accord.”

Lin Wei got worried, and as a result, at night, Ye Xing took them inside Taoyuan City.

At this point there were various checkpoints on various roads around the city, but they weren’t of any use to them, for one thing it wasn’t that difficult to change their appearance, and for another it was too easy to hide people in the car.

The checkpoints were all local police officers and could not really be guarded to the hilt.

Ye Xing and the others blended into the city without any problems, and the first fire was directed at Xuanwu Palace.

They stole an oil tanker and rammed it directly into the Xuanwu Palace, not realising that it was extremely laxly guarded, and knocked down the fence in one go, then detonated the tanker causing a big stir.

Although there were no casualties, the bombing of the Xuanwu Palace was an act of vengeance.

That night, Lin Boyang, who was hiding somewhere, was furious and gave orders for a city-wide manhunt.

Unfortunately, the search was to no avail, as Ye Xing and the others had already arrived at a gang gathering place led by Ren Qingqing.

The venue was called Paramount, and the decoration was not high-class, with three floors in total. On the surface, it was for playing game machines, but in reality, all of them were machines for gaming and gambling.

The ground floor is a large casino and a nightclub. After winning money, you can go to the nightclub to spend it and get a group of beautiful girls to serve you, and after losing money, you can also go to the nightclub to spend it and pour out all your grievances on those beautiful girls, which means that you have to spend money on both the left and right hands anyway.

The venue is owned by a local big shot, but Ren Qingqing knows very well that it is Lin Boyang's private property and has been in the area for decades without any problems.

Of course this kind of place cannot be too clean, what with forcing good people to become prostitutes, bullying the common people, loan sharks and other bad things just to make money, it is nicknamed Sin House.

After all, many of the people here were full of evil, so getting rid of them would be a way to get rid of the people.

A group of people entered the casino because they were generous with their money and were completely hoi polloi. The mainland hoi polloi were so famous these years that they directly made a certain manager of the casino come and wait on them.

Ye Xing told everyone to play separately and entered the VIP room by himself to play with people.

The bet was very simple, blackjack, and Ye Xing was not there to win money, but to make trouble. It happened that a big man across the room had a hot beauty with him, and he was talking and laughing with people from time to time.

The big man got angry and got up and slapped the table and cursed, "F*ck you, are you here to gamble or to pick up girls?"

Ye Xing laughed: "Gambling and picking up girls are not in conflict, I can see that this beauty smells of dust, she can't be your legitimate wife, right?"

The big man was instantly furious: "She is the lover I found, none of your business, if you want to gamble, gamble properly, if not, get out of here, or I, Fatty East of Flower Market, will make you look good."

"Fat Tung, calm down, these mainlanders come here arrogantly just because they have a bit of money, let them have their way for a while, leave this place and they will look good." Another bald man next to him, wearing a fancy suit and a lot of luxury items, looked like a big brother.

Fatty sneered, "F*ck the dead continentals, I'll make you look good when you leave this place."

"So gutless, huh? Inside the venue, you guys wouldn't dare to make trouble?" Ye Xing smiled and deliberately caused trouble.

These two people were so angry that they wanted to make a move, but the male dealer immediately advised, "Everyone take it easy, it's not good to make a scene in the venue."

When Fatty sat down, Ye Xing picked up his glass and threw a glass of wine at him.

The fat guy was so angry that he rushed towards Ye Xing, but he was kicked away. The bald guy next to him was also dumbfounded, and Ye Xing held his head down and slammed it directly into the gambling table.

After a few blows, the bald man's head was covered in blood and he was lying on the ground with only half a life.

Chapter 483

The lotus officer saw this scene and chided discontentedly, "There is a price to pay for making a reckless move in our place."

Ye Xing wiped his hands and sneered, "What price? Paying for it?"

"Of course you have to compensate, or else do we still need to open the venue?" The lotus officer sneered.

Ye Xing bristled and said, "Since you don't want to open, I think we should just leave it open, why bother?"

"Are you a f*cking mainlander looking for death?" The lotus officer cursed.

Ye Xing looked at him with a smile and kicked the gambling table over, knocking the man to the floor hard, followed by giving a lesson to everyone else inside this VIP.

The security cameras had already spotted the problem in the VIP room and a large number of security guards pounced on them with rubber sticks.

As soon as the others saw their chance, they started to disrupt. Du Jiuniang's flying dagger was used to subdue a group of waiters, and then the chips on the tables were scattered.

On the other hand, Ren Qingqing came to the place where the chips were exchanged at the main entrance, and directly opened the cash cabinet there, spilling the money out frantically as well.

The entire casino was in chaos and a large number of security personnel came out to stop it, but no amount of people came to clean it up.

The manager of the casino immediately informed the Xuanwu government when he saw the situation, but the casino was eventually set on fire and countless customers had long since fled.

Ye Xing and the others left after this deal, which was simply painful.

Meanwhile, Lin Boyang was furious when he saw the surveillance and cursed, "If these bastards continue to make trouble like this, we will lose face."

They had seen how powerful Ye Xing and the others were, and unless the defence team was deployed, there was really nothing they could do.

But once the defence team was involved, things would be different again, after all, those people did not deal with the Xuanwu House very well.

"No, we can't let the military know about this, we'll sort it out ourselves and get them to come out and negotiate." Lin Boyang said after thorough consideration.

The people behind him were confused, this would be negotiating with the other side, how else could they negotiate?

Ye Xing got the news, of course there was no way he could talk to Lin Boyang about anything.

"Negotiate my ass, so many innocent people died, he is dreaming if he wants to reconcile." Ye Xing and the others continued to make trouble.

Ren Qingqing was really useful, as she was familiar with every Lin Boyang's property, Ye Xing and the others dedicated themselves to wreaking havoc, in less than a week's time, all Lin Boyang's properties in Taoyuan City were all messed up, with dogs and chickens in disarray, and also heavy losses.

On the other hand, without Ye Xing's checks and balances, Mo Qianyun's blood sacrifice conference was also held in secret, but because it was really too much of a commotion, it was impossible to hide it from the others.

Ye Xing and the others also blended into a small football stadium within Taoyuan City.

The football field could only hold 20,000 to 30,000 people, and usually it was used for various concerts or other events, but today it had become a gathering place for the Heavenly Queen Cult, with countless members coming from all directions, mostly young people, and most of them were dressed uniformly, with black masks and robes, their bodies were covered, and they did not speak, using hand gestures for everything.

Ye Xing knocked out a few members of the congregation, snatched away their clothes and masks and blended into the crowd.

Thousands of people soon gathered in the football field and several fires burned around them. With the sound of low music, a tall robed man appeared on the flat ground in the middle of the football field.

The tall robed man was covered by a searchlight and instantly became the centre of attention. He spoke for half an hour about the teachings of the Queen of Heaven religion, similar to the Catholic Amen and prayers.

After half an hour had passed, all of them began to sing the Queen of Heaven's teachings to the accompaniment of music.

At the same time, a group of black-robed men with weapons began to patrol every member of the congregation, and those who found something wrong were immediately given a forced drag away.

Ye Xing and the others hurriedly and quickly scattered for cover, relying on their individual skills to not be found by this group of enforcers.

Suddenly, the roar of a helicopter came from the sky, followed by a roar from above: "You are surrounded, all of you crouch on the ground immediately and accept inspection, we are the police force of Taoyuan City, those who resist can be shot dead!"

Ye Xing did not expect Lin Boyang's men to come so quickly, these congregants did not have any reaction, one by one they squatted on the ground and were actually very cooperative, including the tall man who also took the initiative to ask everyone not to resist, they were carrying out proper church activities and could leave after receiving the inspection.

Hearing that something was wrong, Ye Xing called the others and quickly left the football field from the side.

Coming outside on the road, Ye Xing frowned and said, "Something is not right, this should be a front, Mo Qian Yun must have some other place to conduct the blood sacrifice ceremony."

"Of course there are other places, why don't you come with me and take a look?"

A group of people came from afar, the leader was none other than Burning Lantern.

Ye Xing looked wary, "I'm afraid if I go with you to have a look, I'll have to go into the encirclement, right?"

Ren Qingqing hated to go over and make a move, but was tugged back by Lin Wei.

Burning Lamp laughed, "Chief Ye can stay alive under that demon girl, he is already in a position to talk to me as an equal, I will take you there, if it is an encirclement, just go."

"What about the account of the fishing boat?" Ye Xing said coldly.

"That matter belongs to our internal strife, it has nothing to do with your Dragon Shield, the few Dragon Shield technicians who died, we can give a very generous burial fee to guarantee your satisfaction." Burning Lantern said.

Ye Xing considered for a moment and nodded, "Fine, everything will be done according to what your old man said."

“Chief Ye has done something at such a young age, he is really not an ordinary person’s temperament, it is only a big deal for everyone to deal with that demoness in peace.” When Kindle finished speaking, he led the way ahead.

Several carts set off towards the front and soon entered a remote place. Ye Xing was of course afraid of an ambush, or a shell suddenly flying out from the side, but he also had the strength, the hardening technique and the defensive power of this vehicle were enough to withstand the attack from the other side.

Moreover, Ye Xing and the others were also prepared to face any crisis, if a shell really came flying, he would be the first to warn, and then everyone would have time to jump out of the vehicle.

This is the fearfulness of ancient martial artists, their hearing reflexes and foresight are too much beyond ordinary people.

Finally ahead of us, we entered a mountainous area, the mountain was not high, about a hundred meters, and a huge sign of a cross could be seen in the distance.

It looked like this Mo Qian Yun had chosen to place the blood sacrifice ceremony inside a church in the mountains in order to avoid damage from others.

When the car came to a stop at the foot of the mountain, Burning Lantern and the others also got out of the car, he smiled and pointed to the mountain and said, “It’s useless to have too many people up there, so why don’t we just go up and stop that devil?”

Ye Xing nodded his head and called out to Qiao Baihe, and deliberately gave Du Jiuniang a wink.

Ye Xing and Qiao Baihe, and Burning Lamp followed several of his disciples, a group of eight people went up the mountain, all of them not slow, and soon entered the mountain.

Chapter 484

At the same time, Du Jiuniang turned her head and looked at the remaining other Burning Lamp disciples with a smile.

These people also looked at her with a smile, and the two sides started to strike at once.

As soon as the flying daggers came out, the Burning Lamp disciples were no match for Du Jiuniang’s level, and they all died under her flying daggers.

Ren Qingqing was dumbfounded. She had just wanted to take revenge, but Du Jiuniang had killed them all in one breath.

Du Jiuniang sneered, “A bunch of trash, still trying to assassinate me, when I was assassinating others, these guys were still pissing and playing in the mud.”

Du Jiuniang laughed and said, "What use is it for you to learn from me as a cultivator? Go and hang out with Ye Xing."

Ren Qingqing crossed her lips and said, "He's so annoying, he definitely won't teach me."

"He's an old pervert who specialises in taking on beautiful students, so you can go to him and pamper yourself."

Ren Qingqing said with a scared look on her face, "Forget it then, I think he is quite horny."

Du Jiuniang was so happy that she was able to get rid of Ren Qingqing, which meant one less love rival.

Inside the big mountain, Ye Xing and Qiao Baihe walked at the end, in front of Burning Lantern and the others, there were still many hidden ancient martial artists on the surrounding mountain, it could be seen that Burning Lantern was not only going to exterminate Mo Qian Yun this time, but also to keep both Ye Xing in the mountain.

But he probably didn't know what kind of virtues Ye Xing was, and had already made a snap decision to hint at Du Jiuniang and the others to make a move, and a round outside here would definitely surprise Burning Lantern.

The group entered the vicinity of the church, and sure enough, they heard the noise, and within the surrounding mountain caves, the faceless people were sleeping.

Sensing the invasion of an external enemy, Mo Qian Yun spat out a secret word and at once all the faceless men squeaked and then left the caves to lurk.

Inside the church, hundreds of people were already prepared, all of them were loyal followers of the Queen of Heaven religion, all of them were wearing long cloth hats at this time, no clothes on their bodies, only the design of the Queen of Heaven religion on their chests and backs.

They were gathered here to take part in the baptismal ceremony of the Heavenly Queen Church, something that devotees must complete.

These young people all possess spiritual roots and Mo Qian Yun has spent a lot of effort brainwashing them into believing that if they follow the Queen of Heaven religion to the end, they will be able to enjoy earthly riches and enter heaven after death.

Young people are very practical and will slowly be corrupted in their minds if they have advantages. Mo Qian Yun is using the sugar-coated bomb of money to destroy the sanity of these young people step by step, making them decide one by one that if they are in the Heavenly Queen Sect, they will be able to enjoy all material things without having to pay any labour because they are all the chosen holy sons and daughters of the Heavenly Queen Sect.

Lots of lies don't work, but lots of material things do!

Mo Qian Yun left the back of the church with an evil aura, came to the front and raised her hand, and all the congregation got up one after another.

At this moment, Mo Qian Yun was dressed like them, without any clothes, and her pretty face was incomparably beautiful, exuding the power to seduce the soul.

All the young people present were mesmerised by her, and each one hated to die at her feet.

Mo Qian Yun recited an incantation and a huge sheet of cloth instantly fell around her, each with various terrifying and hideous patterns of evil demons.

Some of these evil demons had three heads and six arms, some had green faces and fangs, and some had beastly faces and bodies, none of them were good anyway.

After the monster patterns appeared, Mo Qian Yun began to chant incantations continuously, and all of a sudden those strips of cloth were infiltrated with blood and water, turning into a bloody strip of cloth on which the evil devil monsters were drawn so vividly that it was as if they were alive.

All the worshippers below were not afraid, they had been brainwashed and decided that this was the miracle, the sacredness spread by the Heavenly Queen's Church.

Seeing that the time was ripe, Mo Qian Yun shouted out a secret word directly from her mouth, and at once countless faceless people broke through the windows and began a feast of slaughter.

The cloths around them were also stained with blood, glowing with an eerie black light, and a cloud of blood formed above their heads, thick with blood and injustice flying high into the sky.

This was a blood sacrifice, a ritual performed with the slaughter of human blood.

Mo Qian Yun threw her hands up in the air and kept on roaring as incantations resounded throughout the church.

Suddenly, the door outside the house was pierced by an ice lance, followed by countless grenades thrown in, and one by one the faceless men flew over, all blown to bits.

Mo Qian Yun let out a roar of rage, seeing that the blood sacrifice was about to be completed, why would they be stopped at this time?

She flew out in anger, and the masses of Faceless Men swarmed around her.

When Ye Xing saw the tidal wave of Faceless Men, he turned his head to look at Burning Lantern and laughed, "Let all your men come out, there are so many monsters, we can't carry them with us."

"Don't you know thunder magic? Against these evil demons, thunder magic is the best restraint."

"There's still a big devil there, you're making me consume my thunder magic badly, who will be able to deal with her when the time comes? Or are you old enough to decide that you can fight her in single combat?"

Burning Lamp was most afraid of death and loved his feathers, if he and Ye Xing joined forces, they might not be unable to deal with this female devil, thinking about it he let out a long whistle and instantly a well-equipped Xuanwu House ancient martial artist flew out from the surrounding mountains and forests.

These people did not really fly, but relied on the hidden iron ropes and slid down directly from the heights.

There were many of them, and they moved with great panache, shooting continuously as they descended, killing and injuring many of the Faceless Men.

The two sides began to exchange fire. Hundreds of people came from the Xuanwu House, almost pouring out their nests, but there were simply too many faceless people, and I don't know how Mo Qian Yun had magicked them, it didn't take long to create so many monsters.

But fortunately, the strength of these monsters was very different from the group in the stone prison, Ye Xing had fought with that group of faceless people, the flesh of those guys were all extremely strong in defence, unlike now, bullets could shatter them.

Ye Xing looked at Burning Lantern and roared, "Join hands to kill this devil first."

Burning Lantern nodded down and then ran his internal energy, only to see his loose robes instantly tighten and a silver iron whip wrapped around his waist.

Ye Xing ran the Tidal Wave Power and a golden qi shield burst out around his body, the Burning Lantern was dumbfounded by the sight, what kind of tactic was this, an outward release of internal energy?

But it was not possible, this was no longer a master!

The burning lantern was inwardly apprehensive, but didn't care about that, let's destroy this demon first.

The two of them struck together, with Qiao Baihe staring behind them, just in case the old thing made a secret move.

Ye Xing was throwing out Daoist talismans while circling far away. Burning Lantern was screaming in agony, this little bastard was attacking from a distance, leaving himself to fight the other side physically!

But there was nothing he could do, the most powerful thing about ancient martial artists was physical combat, so Burning Lantern had to go on even if he was being counted on by the other side.

Mo Qian Yun's hands turned into black pointed shells, just like the twin swords of a praying mantis, and kept waving them around, killing Burning Lantern and making him hide everywhere.

Chapter 485

Ye Xing took a glance, this old thing is not good enough, the level of combat is not even on the same level as the tomb guardian Jiang Qin, it looks like this man is old and weak, plus the perennial female sex emptied his internal energy, I am afraid that he has already failed to live up to his name.

"Damn it, I should have killed him if I had known I had the chance." Ye Xing regretted that in his heart.

"Brat, why don't you step up your game?" Burning Lamp roared up in anger.

Ye Xing laughed, then threw out four Dao talismans in one breath, and instantly four heavenly thunderbolts formed, making Mo Qian Yun extremely afraid.

Burning Lamp regretted in his heart, this Mo Qian Yun was too terrifying, he hadn't used his full strength at all, if he fought any longer, he would have to empty his internal energy.

"You look scared?" Mo Qianyun's voice reached Burning Lamp's ears.

This old thing actually muttered, "How about you and I join forces to exterminate that little beast first?"

"Fine, but you'll have to deal with him yourself." Mo Qianyun did not expect Burning Lamp to be a soft-hearted person, and he knelt down as soon as he was frightened.

Burning Lamp hesitated for a moment and said, "It's fine if you want me to strike first, but you have to give a promise."

"What promise do you want?"

"Quit the Great Bay Island and go back to China, and I can forgive everything that happened before."

"Haha, you're thinking quite well, it's fine if you want me not to continue to cause trouble on this island, you have to promise me some conditions."

Ye Xing frowned, Burning Lamp actually stopped, and Mo Qian Yun on the opposite side also stopped attacking, what was going on?

"Oh no, the wolves are in cahoots." Ye Xing instantly felt bad and twisted his head to retreat.

He had been reborn so many times, naturally he was not a white boy, as soon as he saw that something was wrong with the two, he immediately thought that they were joining forces, how could he not leave?

At that moment, the Xuanwu disciples around them were still desperately fighting with the faceless man, giving them a chance to escape.

On the other side, Burning Lamp also finally agreed to Mo Qian Yun's terms and turned his head to roar, "Stop all of them."

The people of the Xuanwu House were dumbfounded, some had just stopped their hands, only to have the Faceless Man get them killed.

The others withdrew together as the Faceless Men surrounded them, Mo Qian Yun let out a long whistle and the monsters did not continue their attack.

Burning Lantern panted and roared, "Go and kill the group from China."

Naturally, all the ancient martial artists of the Xuanwu House had to obey the order, and one by one, they quickly darted out. Mo Qian Yun did the same and raised her voice to the sky with a long whistle, and the faceless men quickly chased them down the mountain.

Ye Xing and Qiao Baihe flew rapidly while calling out to Du Jiuniang and the others, and finally an SUV rushed up ahead.

As soon as they saw that it was Du Jiuniang and the others, they jumped in and hurriedly increased the throttle to escape.

In the SUV, Ye Xing cursed under his breath, "That old son of a bitch, Burning Lantern, has actually collaborated with Mo Qian Yun."

"This bastard is too shameless, he's trying to turn everyone on the Great Bay Island into food for Mo Qian Yun." Lin Wei scolded.

Ye Xing despised, "This old bastard is a Four Great Grandmaster, but his strength is no longer the same as before, just now I saw him fight with Mo Qian Yun, he doesn't have Jiang Qin's kind of strength at all, he chose to cooperate with the other party, in fact, he is also an old man drinking arsenic frost who thinks his life is too long."

"So what do we do next? Go back to China?" Lin Wei asked.

Ye Xing shook his head, "No going back, bringing that female demon back will cause more deaths and injuries, she must be stopped here, besides to overturn the reign of the Burning Lamp, we can teach him a good lesson."

The buggy had just come down the hill and the road was already jammed with vehicles, there were people shouting with horns and all sorts of weaponry aimed at the buggy.

Ye Xing took one look and said, "Charge down the cliff towards the front."

Lin Wei was surprised, "You know how high this cliff is, what if we all fall to our deaths later?"

"If we don't rush down, we will all die here, don't hesitate, rush down." Ye Xing roared.

Lin Wei stepped on the accelerator and the SUV rushed towards the railings of the road ahead, falling straight down the cliff.

The people on both sides of the road were dumbfounded, not expecting these Chinese people to be so desperate.

Ye Xing wrapped his arms around Ren Qingqing and Qiao Baihe, and the hardening technique around his body formed a golden qi shield that enveloped the car.

When the vehicle fell hard on the edge of the river bank below the cliff, it was like a broken can, the side that landed was directly dented, and all of them passed out from the heavy blow.

When Ye Xing opened his eyes and woke up, he saw the situation and climbed out of the car in a hurry.

Fortunately, the car did not explode, otherwise the whole car would have been burnt to a crisp.

After climbing out, Ye Xing pulled the door open and carried the people inside out one by one.

All of them were injured, even ancient martial artists like Du Jiuniang, so Ye Xing could only treat them one by one, exhausting himself.

It was hard to heal Du Jiuniang first, but the others had soft bodies after all, so in the end they could only carry one by one.

Ye Xing carried Lin Wei on his back, and picked up Ren Qingqing, while Du Jiuniang supported Qiao Baihe, and the five of them limped away from the crash site.

Fortunately, the jungle was dense enough that they could not be easily spotted by the helicopters in the sky.

The two hid for the night, and early the next morning, they found that all three were sick.

“We have to find a place to stay to save the people first.” Ye Xing asked Du Jiuniang to stay behind, and then ran out alone to find a landing place.

There really wasn't much of a place to stay in the jungle, but when Ye Xing was about to be disappointed, a wooden hut appeared on a hill ahead, which looked like it should be used by the local forest rangers.

He found that the place had been deserted for a long time, and the windows and doors were locked and covered with dust.

It was good that no one was there, so Ye Xing hurriedly turned around and went back to pick up Du Jiuniang and the four of them.

The door of the wooden house was kicked open, and the interior was simply furnished with a bed and chairs, as well as some water cups and a stove.

Ye Xing put the people on the bed and then began to treat them. Although Du Jiuniang was a master of ancient martial arts, she was holding up hard last night and today, and actually collapsed from exhaustion against the bed.

The four beauties, ringed with fat and thin, had very different postures, but each had their own characteristics. Du Jiuniang was plump and beautiful and soul-stealing, Qiao Lily was pure and beautiful, with a tall figure, Ren Qingqing was a kawaii little beauty, young and brutal and delicate, and Lin Wei was a heroic and very durable.

The four beauties are lying on the same bed, Ye Xing feels a bit like Lord Wei at this moment.

Unfortunately, Lord Wei is a bed with seven wives dreaming of beauty, while he himself is working hard, not only to serve these four beauties, but also to take care of their safety and security.

Ye Xing checked the injuries one by one. Ren Qingqing, who had a fever, had the worst constitution, and although she was also an immortal cultivator, she was honestly not strong enough, nor did she know any spells.

Ye Xing suddenly noticed that something was wrong and lifted her blouse to take a look, my goodness, there was a wound on her stomach, a tree branch was stuck into her stomach, fortunately it was not pulled out, otherwise it would have to bleed profusely.

The car fell off the cliff and did seem to roll over the mountain wall a few times, perhaps that was when she was pierced by the branch.

Ye Xing searched the house and did not find any first aid medicine, only dirty towels, which were not as clean as her clothes.

Ye Xing tore Ren Qingqing's trouser legs into strips of cloth, and then took out a branch for her, the person let out a moan, but did not come to her senses.

Ye Xing had given each of them a lot of Yuan Power last night, in addition to feeding them pills, which more or less had a life-preserving effect, otherwise, after one night, Ren Qingqing was afraid that her soul would have already returned to the West.

After dealing with Ren Qingqing, Ye Xing then treated Qiao Baihe's wounds. After some work, only Du Jiuniang was the least injured, so she was given some pills to eat.

The four beauties slept late into the night, and Ye Xing did not dare to make a fire, so he could only get them a little water to replenish their strength.

After the four of them recovered, the five of them left the jungle together, only to find that there were police forces all over the place outside to guard the main roads.

Ye Xing and the others could only walk along the river below the road, and another night passed before they could leave the mountainous area.

When they arrived at the farmland, Ren Qingqing contacted an informant who had been hiding undercover in Xuanwu Palace and received orders to come immediately.

The five men were picked up and the undercover agent gave a brief account of the current situation.

The burning lamp returned to Xuanwu Mansion without any change, and the entire Taoyuan City had also withdrawn many of its police forces, as if it was back to business as usual.

Ye Xing was worried about Mo Qian Yun, but the fact that there was no movement could only mean that this devil had already succeeded in blood sacrifice and shed his demon birth, becoming a Foundation Establishment stage devil.

This is good, before Mo Qian Yun was not even able to defeat the Foundation Establishment stage cultivation, but now that she has achieved Foundation Establishment, I am afraid that she will no longer be afraid of the lightning law.

Ye Xing and the others settled in the city, which was already much less patrolled by the police than outside the city.

Three days later, everyone recovered and the undercover agents brought more news, most of them were related to the disappearance cases, the current missing population in the whole Taoyuan City had skyrocketed, there were fully hundreds of people missing every day, and the probes in the city did not find out why at all, there were also people who reported seeing monsters.

Ye Xing laughed bitterly, "What else could it be, nine times out of ten it's those faceless people under Mo Qian Yun, these monsters can evolve and become more powerful as they suck up more human blood and brains, once Mo Qian Yun gets hold of an army of monsters that can reign supreme, I'm afraid the first thing they'll do is kill back to China."

“Right, we can find someone who can deal with Burning Lantern to cooperate.” Ren Qingqing suddenly spoke up.

Ye Xing frowned, “Isn’t this place Burning Lantern’s territory? Who else can deal with him?”

“Could it be that there are still some worldly experts on this palm-sized island?”

“A defence force, someone with firepower, and they’d definitely come after Burning Lamp if they knew he’d done something like this to outrage God and man.”

“Is it OK? What if they’re all bought off by the Burning Lamp?”

Ye Xing thought about it and gave it a try, just don’t try it and become deceased anyway.

The group left Taoyuan City and killed their way to a camp on the coast, and when they got there they couldn’t get in at all, and there were people constantly shouting for training all around.

Eventually it was the Xuanwufu undercover agent who presented some sort of document before the group was able to enter the camp.

The camp was met by a cadre in uniform with a blue cap on his head.

“Impossible, the Xuanwu House is the one who maintains the safety and security of this island, how could it have caused so much chaos?”

Ren Qingqing got up and said, “If you don’t believe me, you can check the internet for the recent disappearances and the reactions of the netizens.”

“Asking us to trust the netizens, it’s not like we’re out of our minds.” The cadre sneered.

Ye Xing sighed, no one else would necessarily believe this. As a result, the group was asked to leave the camp and drove not far before they were stopped by another camouflage vehicle on the side of the road.

The men in the car got down and took them to a beach where a group of people were standing, one of whom was a white-haired, but sturdy man looking across the sea.

When Ye Xing and the others walked over, the old man turned his head and smiled, then said, “If it’s really as you guys say, I’m afraid many people will be sacrificed in this operation.”

Ye Xing frowned and said, “It’s better than having the whole Taoyuan City turn into a dead city, right?”

“That’s right, your old man seems to have quite a lot of ties with China, right?”

“The Warrior Soul of China and I had a good relationship back then, and we have kept in touch for a long time over the years, but it is precisely because of this connection that many people on the island are scandalized, and this time it is also because the safety of countless people is at stake that I must stand up for myself.”

“In fact, I have been waiting for you for a long time, without your participation, I am afraid that even if we send out more people, it will be for nothing.”

In the evening, Ye Xing and the others set off, and at the same time, countless teams in all directions had also started.

At eight o'clock in the evening, as soon as it was dark, all the major traffic routes throughout Taoyuan City were blocked by teams going up to set up barriers, and countless police forces were disarmed.

The team kept pressing past towards the city, shouting along the way that the people were not allowed to come out of their homes, and the whole Taoyuan City instantly turned into a feeling of a mountain rain coming down.

Inside the Xuanwu Mansion, Lin Boyang went to the backyard to find Burning Lamp and worriedly gave a talk about the troops' intervention.

Burning Lamp was furious and dropped the jade beads in his hand cursing, “I knew that bastard Shang Jianye couldn't be relied upon, immediately gather his disciples to kill them, I'll see if those big-headed drunken sacks of his are our Xuanwu House's rivals.”

“Father, it seems that Ye Xing and the others are backing them up.” Lin Boyang frowned.

Burning Lamp laughed fiercely, “Just that group of mainland boys can make any waves, Sect Master Mo's demon slaves are waiting to turn them into food.”

“Father, that demon girl is too evil, are we prone to draw fire if we work with her?” Lin Boyang grew worried.

Burning Lantern roared, “Working with her is the best chance for us to kill our way to China, I can't wait to get rid of Hua Junsheng, when the time comes, with such a large territory and resources in China, we can grow to whatever power the Xuanwu House wants, I've had enough of hiding on this shitty island all these years.”

Lin Boyang was also ignited with ambition and nodded, “My son will definitely assist my father in completing his hegemony.”

Ye Xing and the others had begun to take control of most of the places and neighbourhoods, but the neighbourhoods, mainly the Xuanwu House, still had a large number of ancient martial artists resisting, and the local police force had also joined in, creating a standoff between the two sides.

With an explosion, the attack began and the exchange of fire on the neighbourhood was complete, the troops quickly took care of the police force, and then those ancient martial artists could only retreat into the ancient martial mansion.

Ye Xing heard the roar and hurriedly shouted, “Be careful, those monsters are coming.”

As a matter of fact, there were creaking sounds from all around, followed by a tidal wave of faceless people coming out. Among these faceless people, a few of them had obviously changed their colour, their skin was dark and shiny, their hands and feet were like sharp blades, their whole form was like a spider, only even more terrifying and hideous, their heads were getting smaller and smaller, only their big gaping mouths, their eyes, noses and ears had completely disappeared, completely turning into monsters.

Chapter 487

These are the leaders of the Faceless Men and have the power to control the other Faceless Men.

At the cry of these Faceless Leaders, the Faceless formed a triangle of attack.

The military were no longer willing to wait and opened up the attack, lifting the camouflage from a large truck to reveal a heavy machine gun.

The bullets from these machine guns were as long as a man's arm and as thick as his fist, and could be described as small cannonballs.

As soon as the heavy machine guns opened fire, the faceless people coming from the front were smashed into pieces. The power of the bullets was so terrifying that one of them was enough to kill the body of a faceless person.

The situation began to tilt towards Ye Xing's side, and the leader of the Faceless Men called a halt to his attack.

Immediately afterwards, a cannonball flew from the sky, as if it had been fired from within the Xuanwu Mansion.

A truck was hit and instantly turned into a fireball, with other trucklets also becoming targets.

This powerful artillery fire startled Commander Shang, who had thought that the Xuanwu House had no artillery shells, but had not expected the other side to be privy to such terrifying heavy firepower.

The trucks retreated from the attack and the military forces began to separate, while at the same time, the faceless men continued their attack.

Ye Xing took a glance and said, "Commanding officer, let's just bombard, or else something big will have to happen."

"Once the bombing is done, the neighbourhood will have to be affected and there is no telling how many innocent people will die."

"The fighting around here is so fierce, and no one is out, I think they will either escape or be killed by the faceless people, when the break is over."

Shang Jianye hesitated for a moment, picked up his walkie-talkie and issued orders.

A roar soon came from the sky and at the same time, beside the rockery behind Xuanwu House, Burning Lantern looked up at the sky and angrily kicked the stone bench in front of him.

“Sang Jianye, that old pipsqueak, actually dared to send planes to bomb.” Kindle Lamp gritted his teeth in anger.

On the side, Lin Boyang clasped his fist and advised, “Father, let’s hurry and leave, this place must be abandoned.”

“If we lose the Xuanwu Mansion, we will have no initiative, decades of hard work.” Burning Lamp roared.

“But” Lin Boyang said with a frown, “Father it’s not good, it’s a bomber, we must evacuate.”

Kindle shook his head down, then got up and withdrew, the others quickly evacuated, but there were still many faceless people and ancient martial artists dead ahead of Xuanwu House.

As the bombs fell, an earthquake occurred nearby and the whole Xuanwu Mansion was wrapped in a sea of fire, none of the faceless people and ancient martial artists escaped, and many of the nearby buildings had their glass shattered by the huge explosion.

Peachland City was attacked by a bomb, which was a strange story for the ages and instantly attracted the attention of countless people.

Shang Jianye was also talking to the top brass and what awaited him would be a severe punishment, but he gave his life for it.

The big truck turned around and came back, and countless teams of loaded guns rushed into the ruins to start cleaning up the battlefield.

With that powerful bombardment, the faceless people were all instantly exterminated clean, but Mo Qian Yun and the Burning Lantern and the others must have escaped.

Ye Xing didn’t find their whereabouts, but caught a few Ancient Martial Disciples who were still half alive.

These people had just escaped to the back door when they were attacked by an explosion. Luckily, they were not in the centre of the explosion, otherwise they would have been turned into ashes by now.

After some interrogation, they finally offended Burning Lantern and the others to flee the Xuanwu Mansion.

But without the assistance of the ancient martial artists and the hordes of faceless men, these men were dogs in distress.

Ye Xing led the men in pursuit and launched a chase with Burning Lantern and the others within Taoyuan City.

Soon the military’s warplanes locked onto Burning Lantern and the others, and Ye Xing led his men to kill them, the son of a b*tch was on the pier waiting to sail away.

Everyone surrounded the dock and snipers started to set up aiming positions, the whole yacht was parked on the dock a bit alone.

Ye Xing shouted up, "Burning Lantern, you just don't struggle, as long as you dare to open the boat, there will be cannons over here to blast you down, jumping into the river to take a bath at an age can be a bit uncomfortable."

"Kid, don't get cocky, relying on the military to deal with me, what kind of skill do you have?"

"That's not skill, what's skill, I won't make it hard for you, where's that devil Mo Qian Yun?"

"Haha, I failed but she won't die, when she succeeds, it will be the time of your death."

Ye Xing twisted his head and looked at the man next to him and yelled, "Cut the crap and fire."

The man next to him was hesitant, but Ye Xing told him to hold on tight and let the man get away, when the time came it was destined to be a very troublesome battle.

There was a boom!

The rocket cannon shot out and blew the prow of the ship straight up, the people inside could no longer hold back and ran out to surrender.

Lin Bo Yang killed a few, but could not stop the others, and the troops went over and took away all those who had surrendered.

Kindle walked out with a smile on his face, Lin Boyang following him, the father and son a bit of a despondent hero who saw death as a way to return.

Ye Xing led the men over and Kindle Lamp smiled, "I am one of the four great masters, if I really want to leave, none of you can stop me, so why not make a deal?"

"What's your deal? After all you've done, you still want us to let you go?" Ye Xing laughed coldly.

"This is the world of the strong, you can't deal with me, you can only let me leave, that's my capital, if the deal is done, I can not only take all these things in one go, but also give you guys an extra safety."

"No need for that, you must die."

Suddenly, a majestic voice came from the distance, followed by seeing only Hua Junsheng walking out from the middle of the crowd.

When Ye Xing saw Hua Junsheng and Beiye beside him, he cursed in his heart, why didn't these two guys show up earlier, causing him to be in trouble.

"Hua Junsheng, you dare to set foot on the Great Bay Island, you are trying to provoke a confrontation." Burning Lantern roared in anger.

Hua Junsheng sneered, "Burning Lantern, what you have done is in the eyes of the entire Great Bay Island, your supreme council has agreed to me coming to the island, this will not cause too much of a chain reaction, and I have come over to actually assist them in taking you down so that you can be punished as you deserve."

"Haha" Burning Lantern burst out laughing.

Everyone waited for him, it was the greatest respect given to the dead.

“This is ridiculous, these bastards are actually trying to plot against me.” Burning Lantern exploded with anger.

Hua Junshen sneered, “Colluding with that demon girl and killing so many innocent lives, do you really think you can do whatever you want?”

“Fine, come and kill me, I’ll see how much more you can do.”

Burning Lamp roared up in anger.

Hua Junsheng also stopped hesitating and rushed forward to strike, worthy of being a peak Patriarch, and actually dragged out a wave of Qi behind him.

This was the sonic boom wave that could only be formed by those supersonic planes because they were too fast. Ye Xing was dumbfounded because he had not seen it on Jiang Qin, and Burning Lantern did not have such terrifying strength either.

Only a Chinese Army Spirit could be this powerful!

“Why do I get the feeling that he has already broken through to Zong Shi?” Ye Xing muttered in his heart.

Hua Junsheng rushed out and Burning Lantern didn’t even receive a single move, his entire body was blown away with a single punch and ruthlessly crashed into the yacht a dozen meters away, directly knocking a big hole in the yacht.

Chapter 488

Seeing this, Lin Boyang dropped his weapon and surrendered.

The troopers swarmed on them and took them all away in handcuffs.

As for Lin Boyang, although he was also a Patriarch, he was not strong enough to take much advantage of the troops’ siege.

As soon as Ye Xing saw how easy it was to solve, it was better for an expert to step in.

Hua Junsheng turned his head back and looked at Ye Xing with a smile, who said glumly, “Junsheng, how good it was that you stepped in earlier, we almost didn’t get killed by Mo Qianyun.”

“If you hadn’t let Burning Lantern get into so much trouble, do you think the Supreme Council of the Great Bay Islands would have let me come to the island?”

Ye Xing knew that a lot of things were involved, so he bristled and said, “After Burning Lantern is settled, you have to settle Mo Qian Yun together.”

Hua Jun Soul shook his head and said, “That demon girl is no longer on this island during her foundation building period, her whereabouts are unknown and it is difficult to find traces.”

“Hasn’t she crossed the Foundation Establishment stage?”

“It’s not that easy, the process for a demon cultivator to break through is extremely difficult because demon cultivators are too strong within the same class, although she has performed the blood sacrifice ceremony, she has only absorbed enough blood qi, in order to break through, it still depends on whether she can pass through the demon birth tribulation.” Hua Junsheng said.

Ye Xing didn’t understand what was going on either, but even a big shot like him said that he couldn’t find Mo Qian Yun, so there was a good chance that he really couldn’t find her, so it looked like this matter could only be put to an end for now and just keep a close watch on Mo Qian Yun’s whereabouts.

The group of people left the island directly, as word had come from Shang Jianye that they had to be kicked out.

On the ship, Hua Junsheng sighed as he looked at the Great Bay Island.

Ye Xing and the others returned to Guangnan Province without stopping, this time they lost several Dragon Shield technicians and now this department has become one of the most dangerous departments, no longer as beautiful as before.

Ye Xing didn’t care, he would come if he wanted to, he didn’t want to, he didn’t force himself, he was currently developing the Spiritual Rooters anyway, this was the most powerful fighting force of Dragon Shield in the future.

Zhu Xiaohong did not leave, after all, she is not really a free fairy, but one is sullen, when fleeing the island of Da Wan, those children and women on the boat gave her too much emotion, weak lives passed away just like that, it is really saddening.

Ye Xing came to see her and asked about Mo Qian Yun in passing.

Zhu Xiaohong frowned and said, “Although the Immortal Sect has a lot of records about demon cultivators, I actually haven’t succeeded in building a foundation, so naturally I can’t possibly be clear about whether demon cultivators will really have a hard time breaking through, but with all the commotion you guys have made, Mo Qian Yun has disappeared, so it seems likely that she has really gone into hiding to break through the foundation building stage.”

“I’m just afraid that if she hides and comes out of the mountain at that time and kills us all, that won’t be good.”

“When she breaks through, you have to break through too, I see that you have such high immortal cultivation talent, it’s also time to cultivate properly and hard.”

Ye Xing frowned, “I don’t have time to cultivate hard, my wife is missing, I have to find her first.”

“It is indeed customary, Shangguan Lan has also disappeared for some time, it is reasonable that they should find a way to rescue you when they know you have captured so many Immortal Sect disciples.” Zhu Xiaohong frowned at the difficulty in understanding.

Ye Xing said, “I plan to release all the Immortal Sect disciples back, you can still go back to that island to cultivate, but the premise is that from now on all of you have to abide by the rules, we don’t care if you cultivate, but you don’t want to open the second ancient formation.”

“Once Prosperity is dead, I naturally won’t be that stubborn.” Zhu Xiaohong said, “But let me tell you, the second ancient formation is a matter of great importance, and even if you don’t open it, it will still be in chaos.”

“Chaos?”

“Yes, like causing earthquakes and tsunamis or something, the four ancient formations are connected to the heart of the earth and linked to the aura, the first ancient formation has already been opened, the second ancient formation is naturally stupid, if you don’t open it, there will be frequent seismic activity near the ancient formation and it will also cause a powerful tsunami, then I’m afraid there will be no peace in China again.”

“You’re deliberately lying to me, aren’t you?”

“I wouldn’t make up such things, wait and see if you don’t believe me.”

Ye Xing left her room half-heartedly, but suddenly the ground shook and someone shouted that there was an earthquake.

Ye Xing was surprised and said, “Grandma, it can’t be that evil, can it?”

The earthquake did happen, and it was on a particularly horrific scale, but it was not in China, but in a neighbouring country, and the number of deaths and injuries was extremely horrific.

China also began to assist neighbouring countries in their rescue efforts, and the international community also began to raise money for donations.

Just as Ye Xing was celebrating, another earthquake struck in the night, this time literally in China, and right next to a neighbouring country, in Yun province.

Ye Xing began to believe that Zhu Xiaohong’s words were true, and the following month saw frequent earthquakes and really massive tsunami activity off the coast, affecting many people’s lives.

Ye Xing went to see Beiye and mentioned this in passing.

Kitano frowned: “If it’s true, how far will it go in the future?”

“If it is not opened, the impact of the second phalanx will grow.”

“That won’t do, the death toll from the earthquakes in neighbouring countries is too tragic, we absolutely cannot let that happen in our country.”

“But if it’s opened, the aura recovery could be the end.”

“There aren’t even many immortals, what’s the point of being scared, four ancient formations, find the other two, and if they’re not in our country, we’ll find a way to blow them up then, won’t this be solved?”

“That’s the only way to do it.”

“Hurry up and get it done, there have been too many of these disasters lately and it has caused panic.”

Ye Xing returned to the stronghold and met to negotiate this matter, everyone did not know how to find the exact location of the Second Ancient Formation, after all, the Heavenly Calamity Map in Ye Xing's hand was not complete, even if he had the Qiankun Mirror, he could not find the exact location of the Second Ancient Formation.

Just when Ye Xing was having a hard time, Luo Xiaoyun suddenly said in surprise, "Xue'er sent me a message."

Ye Xing hurriedly ran over and inside Luo Xiaoyun's mobile phone, there was indeed an unfamiliar message, the other party claimed to be Murong Xue, trapped within the Cloud Province Compulsion Valley, and hoped to go to the rescue quickly.

Ye Xing had people trace the number immediately, and it turned out that it was really sent from Cloud Province.

A group of people flew there non-stop and worked with the local police to find the owner of the number.

The result was actually a teenage high school little sister, who did have traces of this text message sent within her phone, but she did post it at a time when she was dozing off in class.

Once Ye Xing heard that it was too strange, fortunately their classroom had surveillance, and after investigating, she found a strange phenomenon.

One of the cameras actually caught the high school girl dozing off while her other hand bizarrely pulled out her phone to send a text message.

The timing matched perfectly, which meant she was sending it herself, but why she was sending it was too strange.

"There's only one possibility, divine thoughts!" Zhu Xiaohong analysed.

Ye Xing said, "It's possible that Xue'er used divine thoughts to manipulate her hand to send this message, no wonder we couldn't find her for so long."

Chapter 489

The divine idea is a very high level means, unless one has a special talent, or a special cultivation technique for the divine idea to master.

This means had only been heard of and no one had ever seen it before.

Of course Ye Xing's spiritual power was strong enough to manipulate the dagger, so for him if he obtained a special cultivation technique for divine thoughts, he might really be able to master this powerful technique.

Since they were sure that Murong Xue was in Yun Province, they all began to search for this compulsion valley, but unfortunately, after searching through the local literature and geographical information, there was no place called Compulsion Valley.

Ye Xing and the others had to go to the cultural department of the provincial capital in Yun Province to ask for advice.

A few old men in the cultural department shook their heads when they heard of the compulsion valley, but the compulsion thing, in the cloud province are only those who do not have the world's ethnic minorities, no one has seen it, only a legend.

Ye Xing frowned, even the old man in the cultural sector do not know, it seems to find this compulsion valley is really not easy.

A group of people stayed in Yun Province, Ye Xing did not leave, Du Jiuniang naturally did not leave, Qiao Baihe was his servant, of course, also had to accompany around.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

The company's search for the compulsion valley took it all over the Yunnan province, and whenever there was a clue, it went out to look for it.

The group was divided into three routes to save time.

Du Jiuniang wanted to go with Ye Xing, but Ye Xing found an excuse to avoid her. This woman was too scary, she pestered him all day long and had to drain him dry.

It is said that thirty is like a wolf and forty is like a tiger, this horrible demand is too frightening.

Ye Xing eventually chose to set off in a team with Zhu Xiaohong, heading for the border town of Lao Niang to look for clues.

Lao Niang Town was located in the border area, and the vicinity was full of karst landscapes, with countless caves and pits that were extremely beautiful and mysterious, and a glance at the hilly area was very pleasant with green trees.

Ye Xing and Zhu Xiaohong arrived at the town, which is located in the border area, and there are quite a lot of foreigners, completing the transformation into a trading zone, foreign jade specialties have entered the country, while a variety of domestic small goods and electronic products are also sold over.

Of course, it is also chaotic enough, several small streets are full of pornography, gambling and drugs, as soon as you see foreigners, there are local people to pull you to have fun.

This man belonged to the local gods and was known to many as a wizard. He had been arrested once before and mentioned the name of a place in the Compulsion Valley, which was recorded at the time, so Ye Xing and the others found out about it and came over to investigate in person.

Ye Xing and Zhu Xiaohong first went to the town's security office, found the local officer handling the case, and after showing their documents, the other party was extremely cooperative in finding out the file of this Barbarian sorcerer.

"This old thing is bad to the point of oozing pus, but all consumed, not more than a day in our office, either swallowing glass or iron nails, or even slitting his wrists with an iron lunch box, the crime is not serious, so we can only put him back.” The case officer looked up the file and said, “Three years ago, this old man went to rob a tomb and was caught selling antiques with someone in the area, but the value of the antiques could not be measured and he refused to admit it.

Zhu Xiaohong frowned and asked, “What is consumption?”

Ye Xing asked, “Where can I find this Barbarian?”

“This guy lives inside the fortress on the White Horse Mountain, I’ll drive you there right away.” The case officer said and headed outside.

Ye Xing and Zhu Xiaohong set off in his car to the fortress on White Horse Mountain, the scenery was nice on the way, but soon they entered the mountainous road, which was incredibly bumpy.

Ye Xing didn’t react too much, but Zhu Xiaohong was straight away shaken and vomited.

It was hard to get near the cottage, but the car could no longer go up there, so they had to walk.

The case officer said, “The language inside the cottage is incomprehensible, you will not understand those vernacular words, you can only find young people to communicate with.”

Ye Xing nodded his head, then the three of them walked with difficulty, and after twenty minutes, they could enter the cottage.

The stone fortress was white and every house was neatly built, all of them were made of big stones.

When Ye Xing entered the cottage, there was a group of old people smoking water pipes sitting at the entrance.

The case officer exchanged a few words with the old men, and then walked towards the inside of the fortress.

When they arrived outside the barbarian shaman’s stone house, the case officer walked straight in, resulting in a thud, followed by the smell of gunpowder coming out.

Ye Xing heard the screams and rushed in, only to see the case officer on the floor inside the stone house, with his stomach covered in blood, and two men standing on the wooden bed opposite, an old man and a young man, the young man out of his teens, holding a gunpowder gun.

Ye Xing went over and yanked the gunpowder gun away, then broke it off and threw it out the door.

The case officer on the ground was already dying, Ye Xing hurriedly lifted his clothes for him, a blood red, dense steel balls into the skin within.

Ye Xing knocked the man unconscious, then fed him the elixir, then used the medicinal power to dissolve him.

With the medicinal power added, the person’s vitality increased a lot. Immediately afterwards, Ye Xing began to clean his wound and take out one steel ball.

When they were finally all done, Ye Xing found white wine in the house and sprinkled it on the wound, and then bandaged it up with strips of clothes and cloth.

The man was fine, but the old man and the young man inside the house were in trouble.

The old man was already scared silly, saving people in front of him and breaking the gunpowder gun, this is definitely not something ordinary people can do.

“The kid was playing with the gun and it accidentally went off, he’s still young, you can’t arrest him.” The old one slyly argued up.

Ye Xing saw a hint of cunning in the other man’s eyes, and as soon as he yanked the man up, he smashed him hard on the ground, and the sound of bones breaking was heard on the spot.

“Dog, abetting children to shoot and injure people, do you think I am blind? Today I just get you killed, and I don’t have to be responsible.” Ye Xing scolded up.

The old man started to beg for mercy, “Stop fighting, I thought he was coming to arrest me, I’m old and don’t want to go to jail, I was just confused just now, and this kid doesn’t know any better, so I told him to shoot, and he really did.”

Ye Xing really wanted to kill the old man and asked in a deep voice: “Are you Barbara?”

“I am, Officer Xu and I have no enmity, I really scared him, who knew that this kid really shot.” Barbara cried and begged.

Ye Xing let the child go out first, and then took Barbara and Officer Xu away together.

When they left the fortress, many people from the fortress came out to stop them, but after Ye Xing put down two in succession, no one dared to stop them anymore.

These days, the law of the jungle still prevails, the bigger the fist, the better!

Ye Xing walked back to the car and checked Officer Xu’s pulse, which was not a big problem.

Chapter 490

The four of them drove down towards the mountain, and when they were on the way, the old man, Barbara, asked, “I know I have committed a crime, but I really don’t have the money to pay for it, if you let me go, I can tell you about a place with antiques, as a kind of redemption for my sins.”

“You’re talking about the Compulsion Valley?” Ye Xing didn’t even look at him and asked casually.

The old man, Barbara, was surprised, “You also know about the Compulsion Valley?”

“Of course I know, that place is very evil, going in is a life of nine deaths, I’m afraid.” Ye Xing casually laughed coldly, after all, the dangers of that sinister place would go without saying.

Barbara said afterwards, “Yes, that place is too scary, last time I went in by mistake, I really almost didn’t survive, I got consumption all these years, I can’t even be a wizard anymore.”

“Did you get this consumption inside?”

“Yes, the miasma inside can poison people to death. Several people who went in with me died on the spot, foaming at the mouth, but I was lucky to cover my nose with wet clothes so I didn’t die inside.

Soon after arriving in town, Ye Xing took Officer Xu to the local hospital first, as he had been treated by him and was no longer seriously injured, and although the local hospital did not have a high level of medical care, it did have medicine to treat the injuries.

Once he heard that it was a gunpowder shot, Barbara just couldn’t leave the detention room even if she swallowed a knife this time.

In the evening, Ye Xing went to see him and brought some random things with him.

The old man had been hungry all day, and when he saw something, he was really an old cat who saw a mouse.

Ye Xing didn’t give it to him either and said straight away, “Give me the map, no forgery, or I’ll make sure you die a painful death.”

“Leader, I wouldn’t dare lie to you, I will definitely reform properly.” Barbara nodded her head vigorously.

Ye Xing let him draw first and then gave him the food, the old thing didn’t dare to fake it and drew the location of the Compulsion Valley in one stroke.

After getting the map, Ye Xing took Zhu Xiaohong with him and hoofed it to the hospital to visit Officer Xu. After some pleasantries, the two of them borrowed a car and set off to go within the Compulsion Valley.

The news was also passed on to Du Jiuniang and the others, and Luo Xiaoyun couldn’t wait to fly over when she learned the news.

After dawn, Ye Xing had already driven the car to the top of Old Witch Mountain.

There were already pits and gullies everywhere ahead, so the car could no longer be driven.

Ye Xing locked the car, took his things with him and set off with Zhu Xiaohong.

Ye Xing intended to leave her behind, but Zhu Xiaohong insisted on going with him.

Ye Xing’s walking speed was not slow, and the seemingly difficult area of cracks in the earth pit could not stop an ancient martial arts expert like him at all, and with a slight leap, a few metres wide crack was passed.

Many times, he even carried Zhu Xiaohong as if he was walking on smooth ground.

When he finally arrived outside the Compulsion Valley, it turned out that the place was shrouded in clouds and fog, and if you didn’t get close, you couldn’t see what was inside.

Moreover, a line of green hills surrounded it, towering into the clouds and forming a natural barrier.

When Ye Xing and Zhu Xiaohong climbed halfway up the mountain, it became dark and a cold wind blew around them, making people shiver.

Ye Xing had no problem, but Zhu Xiaohong was too weak after all and actually caught a high fever and cold.

Ye Xing was dumbfounded, there was no cave to hide from the cold wind in this place, so where could he stay?

Fortunately, he had been reborn as a wilderness explorer and knew that if there was no place to hide, he could build his own rain shelter.

Halfway up the mountain there were no trees, and there was dense grass and thorny vines everywhere.

These thorny vines were terrifying to look at, and Ye Xing used his dagger to cut them off and make a big pile.

It must be said that these thorny vines were very tough and when they were gathered together, they were actually more than a metre high.

Ye Xing tied the thorny vines tightly and then started to pull the grass. Half-metre high weeds were stuffed into the thorny vines and immediately turned into a big ball of grass.

With these big balls of grass, they became a small house of over one metre high. Ye Xing blocked the entrance with his clothes, and then carried Zhu Xiaohong into this grass house of thorny vines.

The cold wind howled outside, the prickly vines were particularly strong and hung together with other prickly vines to form a fixed pattern.

Ye Xing took out the pills and turned them into water for Zhu Xiaohong to swallow, and finally the fever subsided.

A night passed and Ye Xing was half asleep when Zhu Xiaohong in his arms suddenly moved and he hurriedly opened his eyes.

Zhu Xiaohong found herself sleeping in Ye Xing's arms, and her face instantly turned red with shame.

Ye Xing had no choice, he had to sleep with Zhu Xiaohong in his arms all night, because there was not much space inside this prickly vine grass ball, and it was impossible for him to get rid of all the thorns, Zhu Xiaohong was uncomfortably stabbed by the prickly vines as soon as she laid down last night, so Ye Xing simply slept with her in his arms, anyway, he had thick skin and flesh, it did not matter if he was stabbed a little, these little girls had delicate skin and flesh, they could not bear this kind of suffering.

"You're awake? Is your head still hot?" Ye Xing reached out to touch it with concern.

Zhu Xiaohong was full of shyness: "I'm much better, put me down."

Ye Xing hurriedly spread his hand, and when Zhu Xiaohong dodged away, she was suddenly stabbed with tears running down her face.

Ye Xing hurriedly kicked the broken haystack away, Zhu Xiaohong looked at her arm which was bleeding from the stabbing, and her eyes were tearing down from the pain.

Ye Xing gave her a rub and said, "Why are you still crying, the Free Fairy was so powerful back then, how could she cry like you?"

"She is powerful, but now she is also afraid of pain." Zhu Xiaohong cried.

Ye Xing laughed, "It's alright, you've grown so fat, it's fine to zap a little."

"Why don't you try stabbing it?" Zhu Xiaohong squeezed.

When Ye Xing lifted up his shirt, Zhu Xiaohong was stunned, his body was covered with black spots, just like his own arms, which were obviously stabbed by the prickly vine.

"How did you get stabbed like this?"

"It's because you had a fever last night and I had to make you this thing to protect you from the wind, but I didn't have any handy tools, so I had to make do with what I had, and I had to sleep with you all night, so my back got stuck like this."

Zhu Xiaohong was moved and wiped her eyes, "I shouldn't have said that about you just now."

"Forget it, let's go, we still have to hurry over and get inside the compulsion valley." Ye Xing urged.

Zhu Xiaohong covered her stomach with difficulty, "I found myself too weak, I shouldn't have come in with you, I'm too hungry to walk now."

Ye Xing was dumbfounded, he had come in such a hurry that he had not brought everything with him.

Ye Xing picked Zhu Xiaohong up on his back and told her along the way to hold on, maybe if she came across game later, she could fill her up with a good game barbecue.

Ye Xing did not take a few steps, but he did see a wild rabbit, the whole person was instantly happy, and laughed: "Sorry about the rabbit, I can only take you to feed you."

Half an hour later!

"You're so good at this, this rabbit smells so good roasted."

"It's a pity there's no seasoning, otherwise it would taste better."

Having eaten and drunk enough, Ye Xing and Zhu Xiaohong continued to set off, and over this high mountain, it was as if they had come to a land of peach blossoms.

At the bottom of the mountain slope, all kinds of flowers were blooming, small rivers were babbling, and all kinds of birds and animals were inhabiting in flocks.
