

Chapter 481

There is a touch of sunrise on the horizon of the East. In the dark, this little bit of brilliance is a beautiful beginning, because before long, the light will come, and the darkness on the ground will completely disappear.

It's just that there will always be places where the sun doesn't shine, such as shadows somewhere.

Of course, with the passage of time, the shadow will gradually come into contact with the sun and become various shapes. But will the shadow in the heart become various shapes just like the shadow on the ground, or will it always be shrouded in a person's deepest heart?

There is a huge shadow hidden in Xu Yanke's heart. The shadow has always been with her, making her heart always shrouded in darkness. She just doesn't know whether Rong Lei, who holds her hand beside her, is the one who can let her shadow dissipate.

Rong Lei's face is very calm, which is the result of his efforts to endure, because when he just hugged Xu Yanke, maybe it was because of too much force, the wound just sewed up was torn again, now the wound came with deep pain, and the reason why he took his coat was also because he didn't want Xu Yanke to see his own blood, because he knew that Xu Yanke would see it in the future I'll be worried.

Even if he is now forced to endure the pain, there is no sense of unhappiness, because as long as he meets the requirements of Xu Yanke, he will feel special peace of mind. This feeling is really wonderful. Maybe this is the power of love, which can bring a person's spiritual strength into full play. Although he is suffering from the pain that ordinary people can't bear, Rong Lei can also perform without it It's a matter of time.

If he tells Xu Yanke, she won't ask him to come out for a walk, so Rong Lei has to hide it. His natural keen intuition tells him that Xu Yanke must have something important to say to himself, and it has something to do with them.

The two walked slowly along the park corridor behind the hospital. In the middle of the way, neither of them spoke, but their hands were tightly clasped so that they could feel each other's existence.

At the end, two people sit down in a pavilion. Xu Yanke's eyes are flickering. She is still wondering whether to tell Rong Lei about the deep buried thing. Now she is really afraid. If Rong Lei can't accept it, then she will lose it. But he feels so beautiful to herself. If he leaves, she will feel like she has lost her My heart is bound to ache to death.

Careful Rong Lei naturally saw the tangle of Xu Yanke, and his hand firmly grasped Xu Yanke's hand: "Yan Ke, just say what you have to say, I always think the most important thing for two people together is to be frank."

Xu Yanke took a look at Rong Lei and saw that he was encouraging him. She took a deep breath and said, "I want to tell you."

After only five words, Xu Yanke feels that her mouth weighs tens of thousands of Jin. She can't say a word any more. She really doesn't have the courage to tell Rong Lei.

Rong Lei didn't worry, but continued to look at her with that kind of eyes: "Yan Ke, if you really feel inconvenient, you don't have to tell me, I don't want to make you embarrassed."

Xu Yanke feels a warmth in her heart. Rong Lei is really the first man in her life who is so kind to her. This is one of the reasons why she is very attracted to Rong Lei.

Biting teeth, she secretly made up her mind, because in this matter, Rong Lei has the right to know, so she must tell him.

"Rong Lei, I said, are you angry?"

This is also the first time in his life, but Xu Yan is so concerned about a man's mood.

"No, you say it."

Rong Lei light smile, his smile is nothing special, but Xu Yanke from his smile, can get the courage to say, just as she confessed to him, will never want to let others know the past told him the same.

"It's not my first time."

When Xu Yanke said these five words, his face showed a very nervous look. His beautiful eyes looked at Rong Lei without blinking, trying to read his mind from his most subtle expression.

Rong Lei's face was very calm. He didn't have a different expression. He just kept smiling and said, "it doesn't matter. To tell you the truth, it's not the first time for me. In this era, I don't think it's necessary to tangle in this problem, is it?"

Xu Yanke knows that what Rong Lei says may be true. As Jin Zhengting's No.1 assistant, she plays a role below one person and above ten thousand people in the group. There must be a lot of girls pursuing him. Rong Lei is a normal man, so it seems that it's not too much for her to choose to have a rendezvous with several women occasionally.

"That's not the point. For the first time, I was forced to give it to someone I didn't want to give it to."

Xu Yanke dropped her head, her eyes gushed tears again, because it was the most terrible nightmare for her.

"What?"

Rong Lei's expression is stiff. He is shocked by Xu Yanke's ability and who can force her to do things she doesn't want to do. His thinking is running fast. He soon guesses that the person must be Huo Tingchen. No one can force Xu Yanke except him. His brow twisted into a knot in one's heart. Rong Lei was not disgusted, but distressed. He could feel how sad Xu Yan was. From her various performances, it was not difficult to see that this was something she never wanted to let others know. The reason why she told him was that she felt that it had to be let him know.

Rong Lei can guess that Xu Yanke has already been prepared to accept the fact that she can't accept it. She can see the clue from her slightly determined eyes, but her pretty face is full of tension, which proves that she is also waiting for her answer, because she is still looking forward to whether she can give her a satisfactory answer.

Her eyes are very beautiful, but they are red because of tears. Her eyelashes are very long, but they are full of tears. As a man, he will not let his woman shed sad tears.

He did not answer Xu Yanke's question, but stood up, came to her side, silently watched the beautiful Xu Yanke, and then stretched out his hand, pulled her into his arms, chin against her shoulder, with the most gentle voice in the world, whispered in her ear: "it's OK, it's all over, don't think about these things in the future."

Feeling his tenderness, Xu Yanke's nervous mood finally relaxed, but she still couldn't help asking: "do you really don't care?"

"I don't care. I don't care at all."

Rong Lei's answer was quick and straightforward, and with an unquestionable tone.

"Can you tell me why?"

Xu Yan doesn't dare to believe Rong Lei's words. She guesses that maybe he's just trying to make himself happy and doesn't show it. But when she hears Rong Lei's words, she's still very happy. It's just the character she developed from childhood that makes her not easily believe anyone.

"There's no special reason, I don't care, just because I love you."

Rong Lei stroked Xu Yanke's back and gently comforted her. His voice said gently that the breath blowing on her ears made her feel itchy, but there was an unspeakable comfort.

But his words make her feel more comfortable, because there is nothing in the world that makes her feel more comfortable than the person she likes to express his love for herself.

"Really, didn't you lie to me?"

On this issue, Xu Yanke asks again and again, because she can't be sure whether Rong Lei is sincere or not. She can only confirm her own thoughts through this kind of constant inquiry.

"I swear, I didn't lie to you."

Rong Lei's words are not many, but his firm tone can give people a sense of conviction, because he and Jin Zhengting are men who say and do everything.

"Well, I'll trust you once. It's my secret. I'll only tell you."

Xu Yanke's face finally bloomed a happy smile. She leaned her pretty face on his broad shoulder and put her hands around his waist tightly. She really wanted to hold him like this all her life and never separate again.

Rong Lei feels her strength, smiles and hugs her. A hand gently caresses her back and says in her ear: "I know I'm not as good as boss, but I've thought about it carefully. I really like you, so I won't let you get hurt any more. As long as I'm alive, I'll always stand in front of you As long as you don't dislike me

Xu Yanke's heart is melting. In fact, Rong Lei's love words are not as good as some high school students' romantic expressions, but she likes Rong Lei's expression very much.

Because this kind of language is like Rong Lei's person. Although he is simple and unsophisticated, he always stands behind others, but at every critical moment, he will come forward, just like last time he did not hesitate to block in front of her and block the fatal bullet for her.

However, Xu Yanke was a little woman after all. She gave him a bash: "what can I say? How can I dislike you? As long as you don't dislike me."

Rong Lei grinned, and his eyes flashed a look of pain that was not easy to detect. However, he soon regained his calm. He forced a smile: "then we don't want to dislike each other. Let's get together. I'll talk to the boss."

"Why do we mention other people's business? Let's make our own decisions. We don't have to look at other people's faces. "

Xu Yanke once again shows his arrogant temperament. Rong Lei is relieved at last. This is Xu Yanke he is familiar with. He is cold, overbearing, reckless and unscrupulous.

Looking at the strange expression on Rong Lei's face, Xu Yanke thought of the reason in a moment, and the pretty face immediately pulled down: "Hello, Rong Lei, what do you mean? Do you think I'm not gentle enough? "

"No, no, Yan Ke, how can I think you are not gentle? You are so gentle."

Rong Lei explains with a bitter face. These days, he has formed a conditioned reflex, and his reaction speed is quite fast. If he explains a little late, Xu Yanke's fist is not vegetarian.

"Well, it's getting late. Let's go back. I'll buy you breakfast later." Xu Yanke got everything he wanted, with a bright smile on his face, sweeping away the gloomy temperament of the past. This kind of feeling is really good.

Rong Lei also likes Xu Yanke very much. Maybe, as the book says, love really changes a person's character.

Smiling and shaking his head, he reached out to hold Xu Yanke's little hand and walked to the ward shoulder to shoulder.

At this time, the morning sun finally rose from the East, dispelling the darkness in the sky. The golden morning sun sprinkled on the two people who just fell in love, giving them a light halo.

Like all the true love in the world, it is so holy and beautiful.

Xu Yanke is held by Rong Lei. He feels that the whole world has changed. Everything is not as oppressive as before. Everything has become beautiful.

Suddenly, she smelled a faint smell, which she was very familiar with. It was the smell of blood. She turned her head in surprise and saw that Rong Lei's chest was red with blood, and his forehead was sweating, but there was no pain on his face, only happiness.

Chapter 482

"Hey, what's the matter with you? You don't even say a word when you're hurt like this. Doesn't it hurt?"

Xu Yanke sees that Rong Lei's wound is bleeding again, and suddenly turns pale. He quickly reaches for his hand and holds him. With the tone of blame and heartache, he says to him anxiously.

"It's OK. It's just a little skin injury. No problem."

Rong Lei light answer, he can see Xu Yan but really worried about him, this is not disguised.

"Go back to the ward quickly, and I'll find a doctor for you."

Xu Yanke holds Rong Lei and runs to the ward. She also has a deep understanding of these injuries. She knows that Rong Lei's wound is cracked and needs to be sutured again. Now she has only heartache in her heart, and she can't even say the words of blame.

"Yan Ke, I'm really OK. Don't worry. Do you believe me?"

Rong Lei quietly experience her concern for him, pull her because of tension are out of cold sweat palm, gently said, he does not want to see Xu Yan can anxious appearance.

"I know you're OK. It's better if you sew early. You want to stay in the hospital for a while."

Xu Yanke looks at Rong Lei bitterly, but she feels sweet in her heart. She naturally knows that Rong Lei's wound is cracked because of her reason. This man can endure such strong pain for his willfulness, which proves that he is sincere to his heart.

Never had this kind of feeling, just Rong Lei chest wound bloodstain is gradually expanding, let her can't help heartache.

"If you were to take care of me, I would like to stay in the hospital for the rest of my life."

Rong Lei's words are almost blurted out. This is the most real idea in his heart. Maybe after today's heart to heart talk, he has completely let go of his feelings for Xu Yanke. He has already loved Xu Yanke, so we should love him more thoroughly.

Xu Yan didn't expect that Rong Lei would say such numb words. He was stunned for a moment. Then his face showed a coquettish look. He lowered his head and took Rong Lei's hand. As he walked into the ward, he whispered: "that's not bad."

Rong Lei smiles and doesn't speak. She brings herself into the ward and welcomes the envious eyes of many bodyguards again.

"What are you looking at? Haven't you seen a couple? "

As soon as he enters the corridor, Xu Yanke immediately recovers to be the most familiar cool beauty. Her sharp eyes sweep over their bodyguards and look at them secretly, with a strong hostility in her tone.

These bodyguards have always been Jin Zhengting's most direct subordinates. After a long time with him, they naturally know the fact that Xu Yanke and her sister have become boss's own sister. When she was Huo Tingchen's subordinates, they knew that Xu Yan was not a woman who was easy to offend. What's more, now she is wearing the aura of the second miss of the Jin family, so no one dares to offend her 。

So the bodyguards have forced to snicker and lower their heads. They are sympathizing with Rong Lei. When their boss meets such a strong Xu Yanke, there will be something to enjoy in the future.

Rong Lei looks at these under his hand, laughing at himself. He coughs heavily, and says in his usual dignified voice, "don't forget your duty, concentrate."

"Yes."

Since it was the boss who spoke, the bodyguards naturally stopped watching. After all, their task was to protect the closest people of the boss in the hospital, and they couldn't tolerate any carelessness. So they changed into serious faces one after another, and looked attentively at the corridor where no one was.

"I can't see. You're still very intimidating."

When Xu Yanke saw that even the bodyguards who Jin Zhengting followed were respectful to Rong Lei, she couldn't help saying that her eyes were full of appreciation, because Rong Lei had become her boyfriend from now on, and no woman didn't want her boyfriend to play a role.

Rong Lei calmly smile: "these bodyguards are all my direct subordinates, so naturally they have to listen to me, but don't worship me. These people are boss's subordinates after all. The one who really obeys is boss. I'm just in the light of boss."

But Xu Yanke curled his mouth: "cut, I really regard myself as a character. You want me to worship you and have your spring and autumn dream. I'm just a little curious."

Rong Lei knows that Xu Yan just doesn't admit it. She's still a girl who wants face, so she doesn't say anything more. She just smiles and agrees with her.

"But you don't have to be depressed. There are few people who can do this. There are fewer men I like. So you are excellent enough. Go back to the ward first, and I'll go to the doctor to sew your wound. Don't move, or you should know the consequences."

Xu Yanke said with a serious face, waving her little fist in front of Rong Lei. Rong Lei nodded obediently, and then walked into the ward carefully. Seeing his cautious appearance, Xu Yanke pursed her small mouth and snickered. She didn't know that her lovely appearance fell into Rong Lei's eyes through the reflection of the wall.

Rong Lei smiles a little. Now he is determined that no matter what happened before, no matter what identity Xu Yanke is, he will be with Xu Yanke, because he knows that he has this lovely figure in his heart. When the doctor on duty is still half asleep and half awake, Xu Yanke breaks into the room. She escorts him to Rong Lei's ward before he puts on his clothes. Under her supervision, he stitches up the wound for Rong Lei, and then lets the doctor go.

After such a fuss, Miss Jin's reputation in the hospital immediately became prominent. This cold and willful girl became the people doctors talked about. But after all, behind Xu Yanke's back was the Jin family, and these people in the hospital could not afford it. Therefore, at most, she became the chatting material of medical staff after dinner.

The hospital restaurant is only open to high-level people. It's breakfast time, but there is no one in the restaurant. On the contrary, there are several bodyguards standing outside the door.

They are sent by Rong Qi, because Zhao Tong wants to eat here, so she attaches great importance to the safety of the restaurant. She sends someone to the restaurant in advance to keep it under martial law. At the same time, another group of people check every corner of the restaurant and inform Rong Qi that Zhao Tong Xin can eat here when they are sure there is no danger.

However, before Zhao Tongxin came, there were two guests sitting. When they came, the bodyguards didn't dare to stop them, because one of them was Rong Lei, the eldest of their own, and the other was Xu Yanke, the second young lady of the Jin family.

Two people sitting together, like all the lovers who have been in love, cuddle together and whisper in their ears. Few of Rong Lei's faces keep smiling, while Xu Yanke, who has always been cold, seems to have melted. Before Zhao Tong's heart came, this is their private time.

Soon, the door of the restaurant was opened, and Shaoyuan and Rongqi protected Zhao Tongxin step by step. After two days of treatment and rest, she looked much better and almost recovered. Just in order to prevent accidents, the hospital let her stay in the hospital for a week.

However, after a short rest today, Zhao Tong is more and more concerned about the development of the company. It's good to hear Rong Qi say that Rong Lei is no big problem, and the old injury recovery is pretty good, and Xu Yanke is also in the hospital. The core team members of the company gather in the hospital except Xiao Ma Yuan, who can't come back in Southeast Asia. That's why she let Rong Qi take Rong Lei and Xu Yanke Yan Ke also called to the restaurant, and during the meal time, the elites in the team held an internal meeting together.

"Xu Yanke, are you and Rong Lei OK?"

As soon as Zhao Tongxin entered the door, she saw two people who were very affectionate. When she saw that Xu Yanke's face was filled with a happy smile, she was really happy for Xu Yanke.

It's true that she doesn't like Xu Yan, but now no matter from which angle, she is her own relative and partner, so Zhao Tongxin still hopes that Xu Yan can find her own happiness from her heart.

"We have nothing to do with each other all the time. You'd better save your worries."

It's no secret that Xu Yanke won't have good words when she sees Zhao Tongxin. One of her favorite things is to choke with Zhao Tongxin.

Zhao Tong Xin has been used to this kind of dialogue mode with her, so he won't be angry. He smiles faintly: "Xu Yanke, it's not the day before yesterday when you asked me how I like someone, and it's not yesterday when you asked me for a necklace?"

For Xu Yanke's provocation, she will fight back without hesitation. In the past, it can be called tit for tat.

Now, it's just a fight when they are bored. In fact, there is no such hostility between the two people for a long time.

As soon as Xu Yanke's face changes, he takes a wry look at Rong Lei. Of course, it's not good for him to know these things. After all, she is a girl. If she is known by him, she will be embarrassed.

"Hum, I'm too lazy to tell you. What's the matter with us?"

Xu Yanke said coldly with disdain, and cleverly avoided the sensitive topic.

Of course, Zhao Tongxin can see that she doesn't want to continue this topic. Originally, with her personality, if she encounters provocation, she will fight back completely. However, for the sake of Xu Yanke and Rong Lei's love, she doesn't say anything any more and smiles faintly: "this time I call you here, it's for the future development of the company. I want to hear your opinions."

Xu Yanke curled his lips: "Zhao Tongxin, if you want to fight against a competitor or smash his shop, you can come to me. If you want to make a business plan or something, I don't care. These are not my dishes, but the company has 20% of my shares. Don't forget to give me dividends at the end of the year."

She is really not suitable for business. First, she has no experience in this field. Second, she has no interest in these things. When she took the shares of the company, it was because she just left Huo Tingchen and Jin Zhengting had a vague attitude towards her that she needed a capital to settle down.

Zhao Tongxin doesn't plan to give Xu Yanke the task of making the next step plan. She has learned a lot of management experience from Jin Zhengting, the most important of which is to use professional people to do professional things. Obviously, Xu Yan is not a professional in this field, but she can really be used as a wonder soldier, and maybe it will have unexpected effects .

She said with a smile: "I know that you are definitely not suitable to participate in the formulation of the next step plan, but it will not hurt if you listen carefully. It's good to learn more."As long as Zhao Tongxin talks, she always says the opposite. It seems that she and Zhao Tongxin are naturally at odds.

Next to her, Rong Lei pulls Xu Yanke, and then gives her a silent look. It's strange that Xu Yanke doesn't feel angry, but obediently closes his mouth. After a cold look at Zhao Tongxin, he no longer makes a sound, but holds his delicate chin and looks at Rong Lei without turning his eyes.

"Tong Xin, let me talk about it first."

Shaoyuan was the first to speak. She is in charge of the company's market and has a voice over all of you. So this meeting is naturally the first one to analyze the current situation of the company.

Chapter 483

"The company's current colleagues are working overtime, and they have fully integrated their funds within 48 hours. They can basically announce the success of the transfer of production. Moreover, all the catering branches have chosen their addresses, and they can announce the opening of the business in five days. Moreover, all the service personnel are already in training. All the work will be completed in the next four days. Now the situation of the company is very good That's how it is. It should be said that it has gradually been on the right track. "

Shaoyuan first said a lot. In recent days, all the staff in the company are busy, and finally she barely completed the task of changing production. She has tried her best to be concise.

Zhao Tongxin nodded. She knew that it was not easy for such a company to suddenly transfer its production capacity to achieve this step. From the words of Shaoyuan, we can conclude that now the company is completing the transition from a jewelry company to a catering company. There must be many problems during this period. Shaoyuan is afraid that her body can't afford the tedious work, so she has to pay more attention to it Only deliberately did not say the problems exposed when the company changed production.

However, she is not worried about this problem. She has read the information of every employee in the company. As a pillar company of Jin Zhengting group, the quality of every employee is absolutely guaranteed. With the ability of the employees, there should be no problem in dealing with these small problems.

"Spoon, in the future, we should focus on the development of the company, and the key point is to develop the market. After all, our company has just moved to the catering industry and lacks a lot of experience, so we must open up the market at the first time, otherwise we will have difficulties in the future."

Zhao Tongxin is also making up lessons very seriously recently, and has a certain understanding of how to do business. If anyone takes her as a rookie in business, she will suffer losses, because Zhao Tongxin is not what she used to be.

"Well, Tong Xin, I'll pay attention to this aspect, and there are colleagues following up this matter. Now I have a incomplete plan in hand, but recently your health is not very good, so I haven't had time to tell you."

When Shaoyuan saw that Zhao Tongxin had grasped the key to doing business, she couldn't help but look at her with new eyes, so she told her the plan of the enterprise publicity department of the company.

"Speak up, let's study together. What's the plan of the enterprise publicity department? The company's early publicity is very important. We must pay attention to it."

Zhao Tongxin seriously said that her current role has changed from Jin Zhengting's wife to the president of the company.

"The enterprise publicity department wants to invite the current first-line stars to make a group of advertisements for the company, so as to improve the company's popularity and publicity. However, the number of male and female protagonists in the advertisements has not yet been determined, and it is also a very arduous task to shoot several groups of advertisements in just a few days."

Spoon garden some difficult to say, seems to want to say and stop.

Zhao Tong Xin naturally saw the twinkling eyes of the spoon garden, so he said: "spoon, don't talk haltingly. If you have any other difficulties, just tell them directly. Let's work together to solve them."

Shaoyuan thought about it and said: "Tong Xin, our company has spent a lot of money recently. Last time, the boss promised to provide the company with 2 billion yuan, but the group's finance is also very tight. It's difficult to transfer the money to the company's account in a short time. In other words, the company has not much liquidity, so it's a first-line star The plan for advertising may not be easy to achieve. "

Zhao Tongxin's brow wrinkled up, she knew that even shot a few groups of advertising capital company can not come out, that now the company's financial situation is not optimistic.

"Spoon, just tell me how much liquidity there is in our company's account."

She must have a clear idea of this problem, and she also knows that Shaoyuan deliberately does not say it, because she is afraid that she will be worried and hurt her body, so she does not mean to blame Shaoyuan.

"Tong Xin, our company acquired and renovated seven branches yesterday, and now we have no funds. If there is no early publicity, I think the market will be difficult to open all at once."

Anyway, Zhao Tongxin is also the president of the company, so he won't hide it.

"What do you mean, no money? Are you really unable to pay for a group of advertisements? "

Zhao Tong's heart suddenly trembles. She realizes that the company's recent plans to acquire other restaurants, renovate and train staff are all expenses. Moreover, she decisively closes all the jewelry stores, and the originally squeezed jewelry has been taken out as collateral for bank loans. That is to say, during this period, the company has no income at all, and the expenses are so huge, It's normal for the government to run a deficit. However, Shaoyuan said that if it can't get this amount of money, then the situation is really serious.

"Yes, I really can't take it out. All the funds, including our bank loans, have been taken out to buy stores."

Shaoyuan looks a little depressed. She has been with Zhao Tongxin all this time, and she doesn't know much about the situation of the company. Today, Zhao Tongxin said that she would hold an internal meeting, so she specially got some information about the recent situation of the company from the company's senior executives. At that time, she was really surprised. If such a huge company had no longer existed It is very clear how working capital will affect the company's future."What should we do then?"

Zhao Tong lowered her head to meditate. Her life of managing the company alone is still shallow, and she has never encountered such a thorny problem. But at this time, she also realized the seriousness of the problem.

"Or can we ask the boss to urge the group to call us as soon as possible with the company's 2 billion yuan?"

Rong Qi tries to ask, she is not very clear about the business, just looking for a possible solution from the surface.

"It won't work."

Zhao Tongxin immediately denied Rong Qi's suggestion and explained: "since the group didn't transfer money to the company immediately, it means that the group's capital is also very tight. And don't forget that the pressure the group is facing now is several times that of the company. We have to deal with Cheng mobing group that has invaded Jiangbin and Huo Tingchen group in Jiangdong. At this time, we will do our best Don't give the company any trouble. "

Rong Qi didn't speak and nodded silently. What Zhao Tongxin said is right. At this time, Jin Zhengting's group is the one who bears the most pressure. The two powerful enemies are eyeing him. Although last night's action almost wiped out the elites of the two hostile groups, it has no impact on their economic strength. Now the two groups still have a lot of potential So the pressure of Jin Zhengting group can be imagined.

"I also think Tong Xin is right. Now the boss is facing no less financial pressure than us. We should try not to trouble the boss. We'd better solve these problems ourselves."

Shaoyuan also agrees with Zhao Tongxin. Like Zhao Tongxin, she looks at problems from the perspective of the overall situation, so she also thinks that Jin Zhengting's capital is better not to move.

"Do you want me to take someone to Huo Tingchen or Cheng mobing's company tonight to get back some start-up funds for you? Our big company can't even do advertising. It's really shameful to say that. Otherwise, if you say who you want to do advertising for the company, I'll take him back directly."

Xu Yanke's words are amazing, but there is no sense of joking on her face. When she was with Huo Tingchen, she accumulated capital in this way, and she didn't think there was anything wrong.

"Well, it's a way. When we really don't have a way at last, I think we can try it."

For the first time, Shaoyuan agrees with Xu Yanke, because now the company is on the verge of extinction, so any method that is beneficial to the company can be tried.

Zhao Tong Xin thought carefully, did not speak, no one knows what she is thinking.

"Zhao Tongxin, I'm just talking about it. I know you're soft hearted, so don't think about it. Just think I haven't said anything."

Xu Yanke disdained to say that when she put forward her own ideas, she did not think that Zhao Tongxin might use her own way, because in her cognition, Zhao Tongxin has always been an image of the Virgin Mary, and she would not agree with this way of snatching.

I didn't want to hit Zhao Tongxin. He suddenly raised his head, and his eyes became firm from hesitation: "just do it according to what you said. Later today, you and Rong Qi will do it. There are many people left in the hospital by Zhengting. You can choose at will. The best target is Tianhong jewelry company of Cheng mobing. As for how to do it, I don't care It's over. "

Xu Yanke was not the only one present. Everyone's faces were surprised. Zhao Tongxin, who was always gentle and kind, wanted to solve the company's financial problems in the most direct criminal way. Her decision surprised everyone.

"Why, you don't have to be so surprised?"

Zhao Tong Xin looked at the room full of surprised eyes, half jokingly said to them.

"Tong Xin, you don't have any problems. How can you agree to do this? It's not like you usually do."

Shaoyuan, who had the best relationship with her, first asked. In her impression, Zhao Tongxin could not do this.

"Spoon, thank you for your concern. I don't have anything. It's not that I've changed. I can only say that I've figured it out. Since they can deal with us by means behind the scenes, do we have to give way again and again and only fight back by proper means?"

Zhao Tongxin's face is very flat and continues to say: "what kind of means they use to deal with us, we have to use more direct means to return, let them know that we are not easy to bully, every time they move a crooked mind to us, they will remember how we use the same means to deal with them, let them immediately give up trying to deal with them with dirty means Even if our idea and our goal are achieved, Xu Yanke, you should be very experienced in doing this kind of thing, so it's better for you to lead the team tonight. "

Xu Yanke's eyes flashed a ray of light. For the first time, she didn't refute Zhao Tongxin, but just nodded her head faintly

"don't worry, give it to me tonight, how much capital do you want, as long as it's the cash of Cheng mobing company, how about I get it back for you?"

Zhao Tong heart faint smile: "whatever, as long as you ensure your own safety, can take as much as you can, can not take away things can also be destroyed, this is our Declaration of war on Cheng mobing, but also to her several times sent killers to deal with our response." "No problem."

Xu Yanke coldly said that she appreciates Zhao Tongxin a little now. This girl who is always gentle and kind to her own people also has a cruel side. Of course, no matter what method is used, it can't be too much for opponents who want their own lives.

"Well, Tong Xin, even if Xu Yan may succeed, we don't have much time. Now we are faced with the problem of advertising, which must be solved, otherwise we will lose the opportunity."

Spoon garden worried that her focus has always been on the market, which is the fundamental survival of the company.

Zhao Tong Xin frowned and thought about it. Suddenly, a light came up: "I think I can find a free star to advertise for us."

"Who?" Spoon garden asked anxiously.

"Gu Chen."

Chapter 484

"Now Gu Chen is a star in the front line, and the starting price of endorsement fee is more than ten million. With our current funds, I'm afraid it will be difficult to invite him?"

Shaoyuan is embarrassed to say that Zhao Tongxin's idea coincides with the original plan of the enterprise publicity department. Gu Chen has become a superstar of Jiangbin and has countless fans. If you can invite him to advertise for the company, it will undoubtedly be a very powerful help to the company's market development plan.

Under normal circumstances, it would be very easy to invite Gu Chen to shoot advertisements for the company, but now the company's financial situation is very unsatisfactory, and all aspects of funds are stretched. Therefore, the plan of the enterprise publicity department has been under discussion, and no one can come up with a better way.

"This is not a problem, I still have some friendship with Gu Chen. Well, spoon, you can make an appointment with Gu Chen later. I'll meet him and talk about endorsing the company."

Zhao Tongxin is quite sure to invite Gu Chen, because after all, there was an old love between them.

Even if they didn't get together in the end, their relationship was good.

Although Gu Chen would agree to this matter if Jin Zhengting came forward. After all, no one in Jiangbin dares not to give Jin Zhengting's face, but Zhao Tongxin thinks it's a matter of the company and involves her past, so he decides to solve it by himself.

"Tong Xin, boss has explained that you must be in the hospital during this period of time. You can't go anywhere else, so you'd better not meet Gu Chen."

Rong Qi suddenly opens her mouth. She always firmly carries out Jin Zhengting's orders. At the same time, she worries about Zhao Tongxin's side. She is afraid that she will have problems when she goes out, so she says something to stop her.

Zhao Tong heart faint smile: "rest assured, I will not take their own body to risk, so, Gu Chen about to the hospital, I promise to stay here where will not go, this is always OK?"

Rong Qi thinks about it, and Zhao Tongxin's idea is not wrong, so she doesn't say anything more. She nods her head gently, and then doesn't speak. Her duty is to protect Zhao Tongxin's safety, and other business of the company is not her jurisdiction.

"Well, it's decided first. Rong Qi, the safety during this period is also very important. We must ensure the safety of all restaurants before and after the opening. Although Huo Tingchen and Cheng mobing have suffered serious losses this time, it doesn't mean that they have lost the ability to make small moves behind their backs."

Zhao Tongxin pondered that after so many fights, she had enough understanding of the two opponents, and she learned to guard against the unburned.

"Well, I'll arrange for people to do these things."

Rong Qi nodded and said that these things are her job. As a professional, she is very confident in herself and her subordinates.

"Miss Tong Xin, I have a suggestion."

Rong Lei, who has never spoken, suddenly opens his mouth. To be exact, he is not a member of Zhao Tongxin's team, but Jin Zhengting specially left her with help in order to help her. Rong Lei has been around Jin Zhengting for many years, and no one is more familiar with business affairs than him.

Zhao Tong Xin nodded: "well, you say it."

"I think now the company is gradually on the right track, which is a gratifying thing. Such a huge company completed the transformation in a few days, and now it has been regarded as a very good achievement."

Rong Lei first expressed his affirmation. As he said, it is a great thing that the company has turned into a completely unfamiliar industry in a few days without chaos and fluctuation, not to mention that it will soon become competitive.

Zhao Tong Xin looks at Rong Lei with a smile. She doesn't care about his praise to the company. She knows that Rong Lei is not a flatterer, so he must have the following.

Sure enough, Rong Lei continued: "I don't think everyone here has thought of a problem. Now the company is in an extremely vulnerable period. If foreign capital invades, just like Tianhong jewelry company, it will form a competitive relationship with the company. If this happens, does the company have a set of mature preventive measures? I think Miss Tong Xin should pay attention to this problem. "

Rong Lei light said, this is his experience.

"I don't think what you said will happen. Everyone in Jiangbin knows that Yang's group is a leading enterprise in the catering industry, and Chairman Yang ziye has a very strong cooperative relationship with us. With the protection of Yang's group, I don't think even if foreign capital invades, there will be the same situation as Tianhong jewelry company last time."

Shaoyuan first denies Rong Lei's worries. She doesn't think Huo Tingchen or Cheng mobing have the strength to invade the catering market in Jiangbin. As the director of a marketing department, she has a clear understanding of the economic strength of the two hostile groups. Even if they can do this, they will pay a huge price, and it won't be completed overnight.

"I don't think so. The foundation of the two groups is in Jiangdong. I'm afraid the market of Jiangbin is not what they want to enter."

Rong Qi is also opposed to her brother's idea. Although she doesn't know about the two rival groups, she also thinks that Jin Zhengting group and Yang Group are deeply rooted in Jiangbin, and it's not so easy to be invaded into the pillar industries again. We should know that even if Tianhong jewelry company can invade the jewelry industry, it will take advantage of the cheap raw stone to surprise the company. Moreover, it is the joint efforts of the two groups. The catering industry is no better than the jewelry industry, and it is unlikely to reduce the cost to that extent.

Zhao Tongxin's eyebrows are wrinkled. Rong Lei's words remind her that she has been taking her plan for granted, and she has not considered the external factors. If Huo Tingchen or Cheng mobing suddenly seize the market at this time point, she is really powerless.

"What Rong Lei said is very reasonable. If any party suddenly intervenes now, we have no spare force to stop it. Can't we hope that they don't have such a long-term vision? Spoon, or immediately formulate measures to deal with, Rong Lei said the situation is likely to happen

Zhao Tongxin said decisively that whether Huo Tingchen or Cheng mobing, they are all people who have been fighting in business for many years. There is no reason why they can't see this when Rong Lei can see it.

"Well, I'll let the top management of the company have a meeting to discuss it right away."

Since Zhao Tong opened his mouth, Shaoyuan naturally did.

"Well, Xu Yanke, be careful with your actions tonight."

Zhao Tongxin turns her eyes to Xu Yanke. This is the first time that she decides to use a special method. She will feel a little uncomfortable, but she also knows that in this situation, the end of being a virgin is likely to be broken bones.

The environment is forcing her to make changes, because she knows that some of her ideas are too naive. Business is not the original school. There are all kinds of bloody means here. If she wants to survive here, she must make changes.

Xu Yanke has a look of indifference, because she has done too many things: "don't worry about me, I will surprise you tomorrow morning."

"If the action doesn't go well, don't force it."

Zhao Tong Xin or told a, she does not want to make Yan can what problem.

"Well, I see."

Xu Yan can return a, at the same time to the side of Rong Lei a let him rest assured eyes.

"Well, is there nothing else to do? We can start breakfast. "

Jiangdong, Cheng family.

Huo Tingchen's hand is still stained with blood, which belongs to Zhao Si. He thought it would take some time to kill Zhao Si, but even he didn't expect that Zhao Si didn't even resist.

Dragon nine, who was also covered with blood, sat next to him gently. Her dagger flashed a gloomy cold light. She put out her tongue and licked it on the blade. The taste buds were immediately full of salty and bloody smell. She closed her eyes and looked happy.

"It's done?"

Huo Tingchen poured a glass of red wine. Lafite, which was originally made in France, was on his hand. He could pour a glass whenever he wanted, because he didn't want to waste a little energy on trivial matters in life.

What he meant was not Zhao Si's body, but Zhao Si's family. He always adhered to a principle that we should cut down the roots when we do things.

In those years, the Jin family let him go, so that he had a chance to revenge on the Jin family. The things he had experienced were always unforgettable, so he had to at least ensure that no one would revenge on him.

A person who has only deep hatred in his heart knows more than anyone how terrible hatred is.

"I've ordered his wife and a couple of children to accompany him, and our uncle won't be alone."

Long Jiu's voice is still excited. Killing is one of her favorite things.

"Well, that's the only thing we can do for this uncle. I hope he will be happy."

Huo Tingchen said with a pious face, as if Zhao Si's family had nothing to do with him.

"Brother, why do you have to kill him? I can see that he is definitely a master. We can keep him to do things."

Dragon nine some doubt of ask, she is still not clear why Huo Tingchen must kill Zhao four, just as long as he gives the order, no matter kill anyone, she will not hesitate.

Huo Tingchen opened his eyes, a pair of Phoenix eyes flashing cold light: "kill him because he is not qualified to be a person of Huo family, he is a disgrace of Huo family, if one day, I become like him, lost the determination to revenge for Huo family, you should not hesitate to kill me, because then, I live in this world has no meaning."

"No, brother. I believe you. You will get back the blood feud of the Huo family."

Long Jiu gently hugs Huo Tingchen's arm and looks at him affectionately. She doesn't know why. She likes to see his cold eyes and his slightly ferocious face.

"Do you blame me for choosing the necklace between the necklace and you?"

Huo Tingchen sips a sip of red wine, looks at long Jiu's face and asks faintly.

Long Jiu's eyes were stunned, but soon returned to normal: "no, brother, I know the necklace is more important to the Huo family's revenge plan, so your choice at that time was not wrong at all, I will never blame you." "Long Jiu, I am seldom honest with others, but today I want to make an exception. My most real idea is that no one can stop me from taking revenge. Compared with taking revenge on the Jin family, anyone can sacrifice, including myself. If Jin Zhengting didn't hijack you at that time, I wouldn't give him a chance to threaten me, because he didn't have to do it You are already a dead man

Huo Tingchen's eyes with consistent ruthlessness, he is telling the truth, no one is he can't sacrifice, just in this event, let him suddenly aware of one thing, that is dragon nine and others are not the same.

"Brother, I know you love me. Originally, I was ready to die for you. I didn't feel a little sad when you treated me like that, because I know you, but I didn't expect that you didn't kill me in the end. It can be seen that my position in your heart is still very important. With this, I'm willing to die for you."

Long Jiu's face showed a happy smile.

Chapter 485

Huo Tingchen held out his hand, caressed long Jiu's charming face, then frowned and said, "the problem now is that we have lost almost all our elites this time. It's unrealistic to rely on force to deal with Jin Zhengting. We have to find a way."

Long Jiu also frowned: "brother, I think it's necessary to get in touch with Cheng mobing now. It seems that Jin Zhengting is the one who is in the dominant position now. If we have to guard against each other, sooner or later we will be defeated one by one."

"I think Cheng mobing should have the same meaning. Let's go and ask her out, but I'm afraid she won't come."

Huo Tingchen's mouth shows a trace of disdain. In his heart, Cheng mobing is not an opponent at all. His real goal is Jin Zhengting alone.

"Does Mr. Huo think that my courage is too small? A president who has just lost almost all his subordinates should not be in his office."

The voice came from the door. Naturally, this person was Cheng mobing. Beside her, there was a serious face of Xu Zheng.

Long Jiu suddenly gets up, and the dagger in her hand has been clenched. At this time, her spirit has been in a tense state. Cheng mobing's sudden intrusion makes her nervous.

Huo Tingchen was not surprised. He waved his hand to let long Jiu back down and said with a smile, "Miss Cheng, I've been waiting for you for a long time."

"Oh? Does Mr. Huo know I'm coming? "

Cheng Mo Bing's face is also smiling, just like facing a very good friend.

"Of course, you have already bought this company. As the new president, you should come to accept it. You don't want to give me those billions directly, do you?"

Huo Tingchen always maintains a gentleman's smile, looking at Cheng mobing light said.

Cheng mobing came over and sat down on the sofa opposite him: "Mr. Huo, you're right about this. I've decided that even if I give you the billions, the owner of this company is still you."

Huo Tingchen's pupil contracted: "Oh? Why is Miss Cheng so generous? I have a bad habit. I never dare to accept free things, because either this thing is bad or the person who gave me something has a conspiracy. "

Cheng Mo Bing chuckled: "I knew Mr. Huo would be cautious about this."

Huo Tingchen indifferent smile: "this is my character."

"Well, I'll come straight to the point. Now Jin Zhengting is in a strong position. I think we have to work together, or he will be defeated."

Cheng mobing's face suddenly becomes very serious. It's a very serious thing. She and Xu Zheng are smart people. They have tried Jin Zhengting's powerful strength through last night's events. So they think of Huo Tingchen. Only by cooperating with him can they win. Moreover, this cooperation can't be the same as last time. We must show sincerity. No It is still unable to pose a threat to Jin Zhengting.

"This gift is very important, but since Miss Cheng is so sincere, I think we need to sit down and have a good talk."

Huo Tingchen said faintly that he tried his best to cover up the secret joy in his eyes. This situation is what he most wanted to see, and he has foreseen that this cooperation with Cheng mobing must show all sincerity to achieve success.

"I'm here already, Mr. Huo. I think we can start." Cheng Mo Bing is sitting on the sofa with a serious look on her face.

"No, it's not enough for you to be alone, Xu Zheng. Please sit down and don't hide any more, because I already know what kind of man you are."

Huo Tingchen suddenly raised his head and said to Xu Zheng, there was a cold flash in his eyes, but it was fleeting. Instead, he changed into a warm look. Although Xu Zheng used him to make him feel uncomfortable when he saw Xu Zheng, on second thought, Xu Zheng is also a top talent. After all, there are not many people who can hide so well in front of him, not to mention his biggest goal is Jin Zheng Court, which is in his interests, so he chose to bear with Xu Zheng, until after he defeated Jin Zhengting, then he asked him to settle the accounts.

"Mr. Huo, I admit that I have used you. Of course, you have been using me. We are just a necessary relationship, so there is no need to be angry with me. I think I am very useful to Mr. Huo. I am also a good help to deal with Jin Zhengting." ,

Xu Zheng is acutely aware of the change in Huo Tingchen's eyes. Smart people don't need to turn around before speaking, so he says to Huo Tingchen directly after sitting down.

Huo Tingchen's pupils contracted again, but soon returned to normal. He said with a smile: "Xu Zheng, what you said is good. Now I appreciate you more and more, not because of your ability, but your ambition. I like ambitious men. Only such men will spare no effort to achieve the goal they want."

"If Mr. Huo praises me, let's not say it. What we need most now is to analyze the current situation and discuss how to deal with Jin Zhengting."

Xu Zheng doesn't like Huo Tingchen's compliment at all, because he knows Huo Tingchen is a hypocritical person. Huo Tingchen nodded: "well, before discussing this issue, I'd like to make it clear that this is our second cooperation. I admit that I didn't show sincerity in my first cooperation, and I've been thinking about how to annex Miss Cheng's group, but this time it's very important. If we can't unite, we will only be swallowed by Jin Zhengting I think Miss Cheng knows what I mean

Huo Tingchen directly tells us his plan. He knows that even if he doesn't say it, Cheng mobing knows it. If he says it in this way, the alert of both sides will be relaxed. We are all intelligent people. We don't need to worry about some things in the past, otherwise we will suffer more.

Cheng Mo Bing laughs: "Mr. Huo is sincere enough for this cooperation. In fact, I am also selfish. You should know that I have coveted the Cheng family's assets for a long time, so when I know that Mr. Huo has seized them, I naturally want to take them back from you. The reason why I cooperate with Xu Zheng is also the purpose. Besides, I don't know anything else about Mr. Huo I'm very interested. "

She is also releasing her sincerity to Huo Tingchen. Although there has been no direct conflict between the two sides, intrigue in secret also happens from time to time. She poached Xu Zheng from Huo Tingchen. This matter can be big or small. However, after seeing Huo Tingchen's subtle expression, she decided to make it clear first.

Maybe Huo Tingchen doesn't care which side Xu Zheng stands on. He is a very conceited man. In his eyes, Jin Zhengting is also comparable to himself. Other people have no qualification to compare with him.

But at the same time, he is also a very stingy person. He has to kill all the people who once betrayed him, so in his eyes, Xu Zheng is undoubtedly the one who betrayed him.

This is also the reason why Cheng mobing takes Xu Zheng's affairs on her own. She knows that Xu Zheng is very important to her now, not emotionally, but in dealing with Jin Zhengting, so she has to speak for Xu Zheng and win him over.

Sure enough, after hearing her explanation, Xu Zheng showed a grateful look in his eyes, and his eyes became gentle when he looked at her.

Huo Tingchen, as an old man in the world, is too familiar with Cheng mobing's method. However, he doesn't have the intention to debunk Cheng mobing. Seeing Xu Zheng's expression, he knows that no matter what he says, Xu Zheng won't believe him. It seems that the alliance between the two people in front of him has reached an unbreakable level. Thinking of this, he can't help admiring Cheng mobing, which can make Xu Zheng happy. Zheng is such a smart man who works for her wholeheartedly. It can be seen that this woman still has a way with men.

He laughs: "don't mention these things any more. They are past things. As long as we can show 100% sincerity this time, I still believe in Miss Cheng."

"Yes, I think so too. In order to express my sincerity, I decided to take out 80% of the shares of the group and set up a joint group with Mr. Huo. What does Mr. Huo think?"

Cheng mobing finished, with a smile in his eyes looking at Huo Tingchen.

This news is a great benefit to Huo Tingchen. At the same time, it is also Cheng mobing's trust in him. Even long Jiu, who didn't speak to one side, looks eager. But she knows how much assets Cheng mobing has, 80% of her wealth. It's also a huge sum of money for their group. With this money, she can even win To start the trade war against Jin Zhengting directly.

"Miss Cheng, since you have shown so much sincerity, I can't say nothing. I will put the same funds into the United Group, but who will be the president of the United Group?"

Huo Tingchen asked quietly. In fact, he knew that Cheng mobing was also testing him. If he didn't come up with the same funds, the cooperation would come to an end. Judging from the current situation, cooperation is the inevitable result, but he is more concerned about who is the dominant position. After he defeated Jin Zhengting, who is the dominant position will naturally have more words Language rights.

He didn't think that Jin Zhengting could resist the comprehensive attack of the two sides. Now his eyes have been on dividing up the Jin family's assets in the future.

Cheng mobing looks at Xu Zheng with deep eyes. Seeing that Xu Zheng nods slightly to her, he turns his head and smiles with affirmation: "Mr. Huo, you are the owner of the Cheng family, so you are the president of United Group. There is no doubt about that."

Huo Tingchen's mouth touched, showing a very demonic smile: "well, since that's the case, I'm not respectful, so Miss Cheng and Xu Zheng, you are the vice president of United Group, I don't think you have any opinions?"

Cheng mobing and Xu Zheng look at each other. They all know that this is Huo Tingchen's balanced policy. In this way, their doubts can be dispelled, and the two sides will cooperate more closely.

"Well, that's what we've decided. Mr. Huo, I'd like to know what you're going to do next."

Xu Zheng has the decision-making power at some time. He makes the decision for Cheng mobing, agrees to Huo Tingchen, and then tentatively inquires. Huo Tingchen shook his head: "to tell you the truth, although I have controlled the Cheng family's assets, there is no good way to transfer these assets to Jiangbin. If these assets can't enter Jiangbin, the result is that the dominant power is still in Jin Zhengting's hands. Xu Zheng, you have always been a smart man, and you are very good at business. I also want to hear from you Opinions. "

With a faint smile, Xu Zheng said, "my proposal is very simple. Let go of all the shares of Jiangdong, concentrate all the funds, and impact on Jin Zhengting's most important industry."

Huo Tingchen's eyes lit up, but his mouth said: "isn't this too risky?"

Xu Zheng laughs: "the greater the risk, the greater the return. What's more, Mr. Huo doesn't invest anything at all. It's all Cheng's assets. Does Mr. Huo always care about other people's money?"

Chapter 486

"I think you're wrong. As long as it's in my hands, it's mine. I'm a man with a strong sense of control."

Huo Tingchen looked at Xu Zheng and said it faintly, but there was a warning in his tone. He had heard the implication from Xu Zheng's words. Xu Zheng means that he can be the president of United Group, but he must first use his assets to compete with Jin Zhengting.

This is the last thing Huo Tingchen wants to see. Even though both sides are very urgent for this cooperation and show considerable sincerity, he will not make any retrogression on this matter of life and death in the future.

"Mr. Huo, I think you misunderstood me. Even if the Cheng family's capital is completely exhausted in this commercial war, it is not the end of the world, because don't forget that there is a huge treasure in Southeast Asia. If Mr. Huo can give up the Cheng family's assets, then I can guarantee that the treasure will belong to you in the end."

Xu Zheng made an extremely attractive offer. Listening to his meaning, he seemed to be very confident in winning the treasure.

"Oh?"

Huo Tingchen's eyes flashed: "do you mean you can help me get the treasure?"

"Of course, because we will soon be able to grasp the secret of the treasure."

Huo Tingchen can't help but be moved by Xu Zheng's oath. He knows that Xu Zheng is not a free talker.

If he dares to say so, he is sure.

"I think you must know the secret of the treasure. In order to open the treasure, besides the diamond necklace, there must be a correct method. Otherwise, several tons of explosives will be detonated. So even if Jin Zhengting holds the necklace now, it will not help, because no one knows the real opening method."

Huo Tingchen doesn't hide it either. He knows the information he gets, and Cheng Mobing and Xu Zheng will know it.

"Mr. Huo, I think you also know the relationship between Zhao Tongxin's foster mother and the Cheng family. Mo Bing and I speculate that she must know the right way to open it, and she will certainly leave a clue for Zhao Tongxin, so we might as well start from this aspect, and we will find the clue soon."

Xu Zheng said faintly that he also wanted to get the treasure as soon as possible, so as to defeat Jin Zhengting at one stroke. Otherwise, even if the strength of the joint efforts of the two sides is greatly increased, as far as the contradictions between the two sides are concerned, it will be a long dream in the long run.

"I've thought about it, but even if I can find clues, what can I do? The code is engraved on the diamond of the necklace. Unless I get the necklace, it's impossible to know the code of the treasure house."

Huo Tingchen ponders that he has thought of Xu Zheng's suggestion, but what he lacks now is the necklace engraved with a code.

"It's easy to get the password. Mr. Huo will see it this afternoon at the latest."

Xu Zheng said with a smile, looking confident.

"Oh?"

Huo Tingchen's eyes flashed with strange brilliance, and his tone was a little hasty: "what are you going to do? Jin Zhengting's protection of Zhao Tongxin is very strict. I think you should know that it is impossible to get that necklace. "

"It's impossible, but as long as the necklace is still in Zhao Tongxin's hands, I think I'll have a chance to get it. This morning, Zhao Tongxin asked Gu Chen to go to the hospital. She wanted Gu Chen to speak for her restaurant. Mr. Huo also worked in the entertainment industry. I should know that I have a good relationship with the boss of Gu Chen's company. If we can let Gu Chen secretly take that picture for us. The code on the necklace, even if we can't get the necklace, can also open the treasure

Xu Zheng's eyes also began to flash strange brilliance, seems to be a step closer to get the treasure.

Huo Tingchen's face is full of excitement. Not only he, but also Long Jiu's face is very excited. They know what treasure means to defeat Jin Zhengting.

"Are you sure?"

Huo Tingchen once made an in-depth investigation of Zhao Tongxin and knew the relationship between Gu Chen and Zhao Tongxin, so he asked Xu Zheng cautiously. In case Gu Chen still thought about his old love and refused to work for them, they would be really happy.

"We still have one morning. I think it's very easy to make a little Gu Chen yield by Huo Zong's means."

Xu Zheng left this problem to Huo Tingchen, because he was sure that Huo Tingchen would be very interested in this matter, so it would be more appropriate for Huo Tingchen and long Jiu to do it. First of all, he really didn't have Huo Tingchen's means. Second, he didn't want to have any direct conflict with Gu Chen. He knew that Jin Zhengting's sister Jin Ying had a good opinion of Gu Chen. If he was forcing Gu Chen, it would be better Fan Shi involves Jin Ying, so things are not easy to handle. Now is not the time to stimulate Jin Zhengting too much.

Huo Tingchen was just excited. If he could get the treasure, he would defeat Jin Zhengting. What's more important than this? So he didn't think of such details, nodded and said, "no problem, I'll do it."

Xu Zheng nodded his head with a smile and stopped talking. Cheng mobing said in a timely manner: "Mr. Huo, oh no, it should be Mr. Huo. When does our united group open? It's up to you, the president." Huo Tingchen thought about it and said, "I heard that Zhao Tongxin's company has just successfully changed its production and will open in five days. Then we will open in the same day. I'd like to see who the people in Jiangbin are standing on."

"Mr. Huo, in addition to the existing jewelry industry, the group does not have very good investment projects for the time being. Now we want to ask your opinion, which industry is better to invest in."

Cheng Mo Bing asked seriously, which is also related to their next plan, so we can't take this problem seriously.

Huo Tingchen frowned and pondered. After a while, he came back to himself: "what Xu Zhenggang said is right. Now is not the time to worry about other things. I decided to transfer all Jiangdong's assets to Jiangbin, and I want to invest in real estate and catering. Now that I have decided to fight Jin Zhengting to the death, I don't want to give myself a retreat!"

Cheng mobing thought about it, nodded and agreed: "since Huo always has such determination, then I also transfer in Jiangdong's assets, and Huo advance and retreat together."

"I think the cooperation this time will be more pleasant than last time. I hope we can achieve satisfactory results."

Huo Tingchen raised his glass and collided with Cheng mobing's and Xu Zheng's, making a clear sound, which also indicated that the alliance of Jin Zhengting's two biggest opponents had formed.

On the other side of the river, the president's office.

Jin Zhengting took a rest for a while. Now he looks very energetic. He is at a man's best age. He can recover after a rest.

Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan come together for the sake of the catering group. At the same time, they both look worried and seem to know something bad.

"What's the matter, a sad face."

Jin Zhengting asked faintly, lighting a cigarette. Now he needs cigarettes to sober his mind. When he works, he needs to keep at his best all the time.

"Zhengting, we heard about last night. I think you have gone a little too far. At this time, we can't be too strong against Huo Tingchen and Cheng mobing. Once they think your strength is far beyond them, they will choose to join hands to deal with you."

Lu zhanyan said anxiously that at this time, we really can't blindly strive for strength. Showing weakness is sometimes a necessary strategy.

"Now it's too late to say that. Since they want to unite, let them unite. I'll find them one by one in the future, which saves a lot of trouble."

Jin Zhengting doesn't care at all. With habitual self-confidence on his cold face, he says lightly and throws a cigarette to Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan.

"Zhengting, you are really too headstrong. This matter should be discussed in advance. If they choose to unite and transfer all the capital in Jiangdong to Jiangbin, then even you can't stop it."

Lu zhanyan frowned and lit his cigarette. Now he needs to calm down.

"Zhanyan, don't worry too much about this problem. I believe that with the strength of our three families, even if they can transfer their capital to Jiangbin, they can't make any waves."

Yang ziye lights a cigarette. He is always optimistic and never worries about anything.

Jin Zhengting said with a faint smile: "what ziye said is right. In fact, you just ignored a very important issue."

"I'm missing the big question?"

Lu zhanyan was stunned for a moment. He frowned and thought. He didn't find anything left behind. He looked at Jin Zhengting with inquiring eyes: "what did I ignore?"

"You've ignored that at present, we can't concentrate on Huo Tingchen or Cheng mobing."

Jin Zhengting's eyes became sharp, and he made a light analysis: "if we want to deal with Cheng mobing in the jewelry industry, it is bound to cause a new round of economic war. At this time, Huo Tingchen will take this opportunity to inject capital into Jiangbin. At that time, we can't stop it. If we try our best to stop Huo Tingchen, then Cheng mobing will use the jewelry industry in Jiangbin It's not what we want to see to stand firm. "

"The court is right. No matter who we want to target, we have to distract ourselves to deal with the other one. If they unite together, it will be easier, because their actions are bound to be unified, so that we can better guard against them."

Yang ziye soon understood Jin Zhengting's meaning and explained it for him.

Naturally, Lu zhanyan didn't need his explanation, but he figured it out. Jin Zhengting still had some reason to do so, but he was still very suspicious: "even if Zhengting is right, but after they unite, it's hard to imagine the huge capital. With the real strength of the three of us, if we unite completely, we can only barely compete with them. In this way, we don't know Still very passive? "

"Passivity is only temporary."

Jin Zhengting's eyes sparkled with wisdom: "I just attract their attention to me now, so that we can win a certain development space for Tong Xin's company. As long as we can hold on for a period of time and don't need us to do it, Huo Tingchen and Cheng mobing will certainly split up by themselves.""Zhengting, are you too confident in Tong Xin's company? Don't say whether her company can make the same profit for the group in the jewelry industry. Even if it does, what can it do? Even if it is calculated according to the turnover of ziye's catering group, the help to the group is just a drop in the bucket."

Lu zhanyan said anxiously that he didn't really understand Jin Zhengting's intention. In fact, it wasn't just him, and Yang ziye didn't understand either. But he was very upset with Lu zhanyan's words: "zhanyan, what do you mean? Is Yang group making little money?"

"Zi ye, don't make trouble. It's not the problem now. Zhengting has lost a pillar market. Now, even if it makes a difference in the catering industry, its profit is far less than that of the jewelry industry."

"Zhanyan, you are wrong. I believe Tong Xin, her catering company, will definitely make more profits than the jewelry industry, and will become a new pillar of the group."

Jin Zhengting said with a burning eye. In his deep eyes, he was full of confidence in Zhao Tongxin.

Chapter 487

"Zhengting, are you serious? I've seen Tong Xin's plan. It's really creative, but it's not enough to monopolize the market."

Lu zhanyan still can't understand Jin Zhengting's self-confidence. In his memory, Jin Zhengting will never be a person who can gamble the fate of the whole group because of his personal relationship.

"Zhanyan, in fact, like ziye, you value the high-end market too much."

Jin Zhengting continued with a faint smile: "in your heart, Tong Xin's chain restaurant must be aimed at the upper class, right?"

"Isn't it?"

This time, Yang ziye was puzzled and asked: "our catering group has always been open to the upper class. Zhengting, you should know that there are too many rich people now, but they can't make all their money."

"On the contrary, the reason why I am optimistic about Tong Xin's creativity is that Tong Xin's chain restaurant is aimed at ordinary people's consumer groups. In this way, it will not take away ziye's business, but will also make the chain restaurant bigger. Think about it. As the saying goes, food is the priority of the people, and everyone has to eat every day. If Tong Xin can really monopolize this level of consumption How much profit will the market of fee groups bring? "

As soon as Lu zhanyan's eyes brightened, his mind began to calculate the profit that Jin Zhengting said. It was just huge and unimaginable. Perhaps Zhao Tongxin's so-called low-end line made little profit in every business. However, if the profit increased by tens of thousands, it would be considerable, and most importantly, it would be a sustainable one The exhibition industry, because everyone has to eat every day, is a necessary consumption of life. In that case, it is not impossible that the catering industry mentioned by Jin Zhengting will become a new pillar of the group.

"Zhengting, have you thought of this for a long time, so you support Tong Xin's plan?"

Lu zhanyan understood why when Zhao Tongxin decided to change the production of the jewelry company, Jin Zhengting maintained absolute support for her. It seems that he saw that the jewelry industry would be saturated sooner or later, so he complied with Zhao Tongxin's idea and completed the change of production of the group's pillar company in advance.

"It can be said that I really had this plan for a long time. However, the jewelry industry seems to have more power, so I didn't change production as soon as possible. It's just that Huo Tingchen made such a fuss, and I took advantage of the previous idea of speeding up the current situation."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that he always seemed so confident, because all the situations were still under his control.

"Well, you didn't say it earlier. I worried about it in vain. From the beginning, I thought you were too spoiled, so I let her do it."

With Jin Zhengting's explanation, Lu zhanyan was relieved. His heart has been hanging all these days. Today, he can finally put it down.

"In fact, I do have selfishness in it. It's hard for me to refuse Tong Xin's request."

Jin Zhengting frankly said that he can have no reservation in front of two people, because they are the most trusted people in the world except Zhao Tongxin.

"And I'd like to know how much she would do if I gave her a big company."

"Hello, Zhengting, you give such a big company to Tong Xin to gamble. Your heart is bigger than mine."

Yang ziye's admiration and his thumb. He doesn't consider whether Jin Zhengting's actions are appropriate from the overall situation. He just thinks that Jin Zhengting's true love for Zhao Tongxin is from his heart. For such a man, he admires him from his heart, even though he is a playboy.

"Ziye, don't make trouble here. Zhengting, what do you want me to say about you? You should know what Tong Xin's company means to the group. If anything goes wrong with her, we can't afford the consequences!"

Lu zhanyan's face is full of resentment. It's no wonder that he is so angry. Jin Zhengting's practice really makes people sweat.

"I'm still saying that. I believe Tong Xin very much. You won't understand this feeling."

Jin Zhengting turned to the window and looked at the blue sky and white clouds through the glass. His eyes became very gentle.

"Well, there must be a reason for you to do this. Zhengting, what should we do now? Huo Tingchen and Cheng mobing's cooperation is inevitable. We must come up with countermeasures."

Lu zhanyan did not continue to struggle on this issue, mainly because he still trusted Jin Zhengting very much.

Jin Zhengting pondered for a while and said: "I think the main problem now is still the capital. To be honest with you, the group has a huge capital gap and can only maintain the most basic operation. If Huo Tingchen or Cheng mobing makes any big moves, I don't think the situation of the group will be very optimistic."

Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan look at each other, and they can understand that the pillar company of Jin

Zhengting group has just completed the transfer of production, but it has not yet opened, which means that it is not profitable for the time being, and the stores, appliances and personnel needed for the transfer of production all need a lot of money, so it is very good to be able to complete the transfer of production safely without any big waves, Jin Zhengting's fund is also predictable."Zhengting, you have to work hard for the sake of Tong Xin. We have thought that the group will be short of funds, so we are here to send you money today."

Yang ziye smiles and puts a promissory note in front of Jin Zhengting: "zhanyan and I have drawn some funds from our respective groups. Now we can also feel the pressure from Huo Tingchen and Cheng mobing, so the funds we can draw are relatively limited. There are only two billion in total, which is just a drop in the bucket."

Jin Zhengting's face was frozen. He looked at the promissory note pushed by Yang ziye, shook his head and said, "I've got it, but I'm not as difficult as you think, so I don't need your help for the moment."

He is a proud man, so he won't accept other people's alms, even friends like Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan who grew up together.

"Zhengting, ziye can't speak. Don't think about it. It's not that we want to help you, but that we are going to set up a joint venture with you. The money will be taken as shares of ziye and me."

Lu zhanyan said with a smile, but he did not forget to stare at Yang ziye secretly. Yang ziye knew that he had lost his words, and his face was embarrassed and did not speak.

Jin Zhengting said with a faint smile: "zhanyan, these tricks can't deceive me. Ziye and Tongxin have signed a cooperation contract. How can they buy shares again? Do you want to develop in the catering industry?"

"Zhengting, you are the foundation of our three families. If something happens to you, our two families won't have a good time. Even if we buy an insurance for ourselves, you should accept this explanation?"

Lu zhanyan made full use of his smart mind. He knew it was about Jin Zhengting's self-esteem, so he tried to be very tactful. What he said was true. Without Jin Zhengting and his group, the status of the Yang family and the Lu family in Jiangbin would have plummeted.

"All right, I've got your favor."

Jin Zhengting didn't refuse again. He took the promissory note away and said faintly. His eyes swept over Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan. At that moment, the feelings of his old friends were obvious.

"Zhengting, let's talk about it first. This is really our share in Tongxin's catering company. If we make money in the future, don't forget to give us dividends."

Seeing that Jin Zhengting took the money, Yang ziye said with a smile.

Jin Zhengting nodded his head: "well, definitely."

"Well, Zhengting, it's time for us to study what to do next. Just now, my staff sent me a message that Huo Tingchen and Cheng mobing have joined hands. They will set up a joint group in five days. Huo Tingchen will be the president, Cheng mobing and Xu Zheng will be the vice-president. It seems that they have fully understood the strength of Zhengting and feel that with one person's real strength Force is hard to shake, so we choose to join hands. "

Lu zhanyan put down his mobile phone and said solemnly that this is the situation that Jin Zhengting hopes to see, and it is also a difficult situation to face.

"So fast, I thought it would take them at least three or five days to test each other's sincerity. It seems that I forced them too hard."

Jin Zhengting's eyebrows were deeply locked, but the news was expected by him, so he was not too surprised.

"I think the United group they set up should be based on the jewelry industry. No matter Huo Tingchen or Cheng mobing, they will not have the courage to invest their assets far away in Jiangdong into Jiangbin. As for Xu Zheng, his influence in Jiangbin is not big, so we don't have to consider it. As long as we don't let them expand from the jewelry industry to other industries, they won't have a good way It's over. "

Lu zhanyan analyzed and said that in his view, although the two sides are cooperative relations, they can't be selfless. So as long as they have their own interests and need to protect this weakness, and put a little pressure on them, they can firmly hold the market of Jiangbin and won't let their capital enter Jiangbin easily.

"No, zhanyan, it's different this time. They must have reached a compromise. Otherwise, with the ambition of Cheng mobing and Xu Zheng, Huo Tingchen will not be allowed to lead the United Group. Moreover, we don't know the scale of the group, so it's too early to draw a conclusion."

Jin Zhengting is acutely aware of the key. He has a strong premonition in his heart at this time. This time Huo Tingchen and Cheng mobing's cooperation is extraordinary. They should have made some determination. If they don't achieve their goal, they will never give up.

"What you said is reasonable. If this kind of thing really happens and they reach a compromise in order to achieve their goal, then their momentum will be very strong this time. If we really want to occupy the market of Jiangbin with the strength of the two groups, we really have no way. After all, the strength of the two groups is only yours The group can compete with Huo Tingchen. I'm afraid ziye and I will not be Cheng mobing's rivals. "

Lu zhanyan's face is full of worry. He deeply knows what a powerful and terrible force the two groups will be after they are merged. Even if they have made preparations in advance, they will not be able to stop them easily.

"It doesn't matter. They will come sooner or later. It's better to come earlier. There should be an end between Huo Tingchen and me." Jin Zhengting said faintly that his face was gradually dignified, but in his dark eyes, there was a twinkling cold light. He knew that when things got to this point, there was no way out for both sides.

Maybe Huo Tingchen and Cheng mobing will leave one for themselves, but Jin Zhengting will never. Zhao Tongxin is behind him, so no matter what happens, he will not step back, because she needs his protection.

"Zhengting is right. Since they want to come, let them come. Anyway, I know they can't impact the catering industry in a short time. This period of time has left room for development for me and Tong Xin. You can wait for me to save you."

Yang ziye is proud to say that he has already begun to imagine that when Jin Zhengting and Lu zhanyan are in trouble at the same time, he will suddenly help each other.

Chapter 488

"You should have also received Cheng mobing's invitation." Jin Zhengting looked back and said faintly.

"Well, ziye and I received it the same day. Cheng mobing asked Jiang Bin's celebrities to participate in the gambling club at this time, which only proved that her group had a huge capital gap. The purpose was to take advantage of these rich people's gambling psychology and cheat them out of money. It was the same as Huo Tingchen's gambling boat plan last time. We just didn't want to participate It's over. "

In this matter, Lu zhanyan has always been calm. He always thinks that wealth needs to be accumulated slowly. Those who want to get rich overnight are most likely to be cheated by Cheng mobing. Last time, Huo Tingchen also took advantage of these people's psychology. If they don't have a long memory, let them go.

"That is, there is nothing wrong with what Zhan Yan said. As long as we don't take part, we won't have any problem. Only a million of thousands of original stones can get a chance to choose. Even if the so-called rare original stone really exists, who can guarantee that we can choose it with very few times? It's a scam. I don't believe that those rich people are so stupid and take the initiative I've been cheated. "

Yang ziye also echoed. With the lesson of the last time, he felt that those rich people should not make the same mistakes.

"Not necessarily. The weakness of human nature is that people like to get something for nothing. If I expect it to be good, there will be a lot of people going to take part in it. I think a lot of people will rush to gamble to get more than one billion opportunities."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that he knows those rich people in Jiangbin better than anyone else. Even if there is only one chance in a thousand, someone will try.

People are insatiable animals. Cheng mobing thought of this plan when he saw it. After all, there are more than one billion rare stones in there. As long as he is lucky, he can win at the cost of one million, which few people can refuse.

"Zhengting, you don't want to participate in the gambling party, do you?"

Yang ziye hears Jin Zhengting's meaning. He has some incredible questions. In his impression, Jin Zhengting is not a man who can't stand temptation.

"I really will go. If the gamble will go according to Cheng mobing's plan, and the rare stone is not selected, how much capital can they accumulate at one time? Now all three of us are at the end of the storm. With this capital injection, it is a terrible threat to our group. "

Jin Zhengting's eyes flashed a light that seemed to have insight into everything. He always looked at problems more long-term than ordinary people.

"Zhengting is right. I have roughly estimated the probability of gambling stones. If the rare stones are not taken by people in the end, every rich family will be able to take out 10 million yuan. These people can send more than 500 million yuan to Cheng mobing. Moreover, I have a very conservative estimation. There are many people who are gambling. Maybe some people will try to win. It is very possible to invest hundreds of millions of capital into that rare stone. "

Lu zhanyan pondered that his face became dignified. With a deep understanding of the current economic situation, he certainly knew how much she could do if Cheng mobing got the capital.

"These are just her superficial income. You should not forget that every successful person in business is the most stubborn gambler in the world. If you invest a lot of money before you reach your goal, no one will choose to let go. Instead, you will invest more in the hope that you can turn the tables in the end."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that he also thought of this gambling meeting. Cheng mobing's plan is more brilliant than Huo Tingchen's last time, because she put the possible gains in front of everyone with the most intuitive situation, thus stimulating people's desire. This is what Xu Zheng is most brilliant about.

Growing up in Jiangbin, Xu Zheng knows a lot about Jiangbin's so-called upper class society, so he knows the weaknesses of these people very well. That's why he designed this plan for Cheng mobing. He is a man who is good at catching other people's weaknesses.

"That's right, so we're going to participate, not only to participate, but also to get the rare stone at a very small price, so as not to let more people give the money to Cheng mobing in vain."

Lu zhanyan's eyebrows spread out. He has made up his mind to participate in this gambling meeting. It's not that he is interested in that rare stone, but that he just wants to destroy Cheng mobing's plan.

"Zhanyan, since you want to participate, I'll join in the fun. But Zhengting, the appraisers of gambling stones have to find from our group. Neither zhanyan nor I have such talents, let alone experience. You used to be specialized in jewelry business. There should be many such appraisers. If you find us more than ten or twenty experts, I don't believe you can get that piece of rare stone "The stone of the world."

Yang ziye said with a smiley face that his request is right. After all, he and Lu zhanyan are not in the jewelry business, and they know nothing about gambling stones.

"I have only one real expert of gambler identification, but I don't mean to give it to you."

Jin Zhengting's face showed a faint smile that seemed to be nothing.

"Hey, Zhengting, you can't be so stingy. I've never played gambling before. Can't you let me have an addiction?" Yang ziye said with a bitter face. In fact, he also knows that no matter who gets the rare stone, it doesn't matter. As long as he can pick it, it can almost offset the profits of Cheng mobing's gambling meeting. Even if their goal is achieved, of course, if he can pick it in the first round, it will be perfect. Cheng mobing will not only lose a cent, but also make a heavy loss A lot of money.

"My chief expert of gambler identification is Tong Xin. Do you think I can ask her to help you?"

Jin Zhengting has a smile on his face, but his eyes are very gentle. Zhao Tongxin's figure flashed in his mind. I don't know if she is bored in the hospital now. After finishing her work, I must take some time to go to the hospital to accompany her.

When a person's heart is occupied by another person, will always inadvertently think of that person.

"Tong Xin? It can't be true? How can she become your chief expert of gambling stone identification? "

Yang ziye asked in surprise, and even Lu zhanyan's face showed an expression of surprise.

Jin Zhengting said with a faint smile: "I didn't know it, but after I went to Southeast Asia last time, I found that Tong Xin had a high attainments in gambling stones, or she just judged by her own feelings. Maybe this is the so-called talent."

"Zhengeting, it's too much fun to gamble on stones just by feeling. What if Tong Xin's feeling is not accurate, then we're just giving Cheng mobing the capital to deal with us?"

Lu zhanyan was a little worried about Jin Zhengting's arbitrariness. After all, it was a big deal, so he had to be cautious.

"I believe in her."

Jin Zhengting only said four words, each of which is beyond doubt. He never cares about everyone's doubts. As long as he believes in her, it's enough.

Riverside beach.

The bright sunshine sprinkles down, soft scattered on the golden beach, soft warm tone makes people feel very comfortable.

The gentle sea breeze, like a lover's gentle hand, caresses people's faces. Everyone's heart now has only one kind of feeling, comfortable.

The crew on the beach are busy in an orderly way. Today's shooting is very successful. Gu Chen is worthy of being a superstar of the emperor. The shot just shot makes everyone very satisfied.

Jin Ying is holding an insulated tea cup in her hand, which Gu Chen has to bring every time he goes out on location. He likes to drink a cup of hot tea after his work to dispel his fatigue after work.

This is what his assistant should do, so now the cup is in Jin Ying's hands, because she is Gu Chen's assistant now.

At that time, Zhao Tongxin went to Xu Zheng specially for her business. Xu Zheng has a good relationship with the boss of Gu Chen's entertainment company, so I hope he can arrange Jin Ying so that she can have more contact with Gu Chen.

Before the two sides completely broke up, Xu Zheng was more concerned about Zhao Tongxin's affairs. He specially contacted the boss of the entertainment company. When the boss heard that he was going to arrange for the eldest daughter of the Jin family, he immediately decided to let Jin Ying be Gu Chen's personal assistant.

Although Jin Ying's eyes are blind, as long as she is still a member of the Jin family, few people dare not give her face in Jiangbin. Moreover, Jin Ying has adapted to the present situation. Even if she can't see, it doesn't matter. She can do her work well and take care of Gu Chen very carefully.

Gu Chen of course knows Jin Ying's feelings for him, but because of Zhao Tongxin's existence, he feels that he can't accept the feelings of other girls, so he always deliberately keeps a distance from Jin Ying.

To tell you the truth, he is still very fond of Jin Ying. Although her eyes are hurt, it doesn't matter. These days, he can feel that although Jin Ying doesn't talk much, she is a delicate and gentle girl. It can be seen from her daily care that she is sincere to him.

Gu Chen also had a struggle in his heart. He didn't know how to face Jin Ying's feelings for him. However, when they were working, they still cooperated very well. Now they all chose not to talk about the topic of feelings.

"Here, have some tea."

Jin Ying carefully went to Gu Chen, holding the cup in both hands, and handed it to Gu Chen. Although her eyes were blind, her ears became very sensitive, and she could even judge where there was an obstacle from the reflected sound, so now even without any tools, she could act like a normal person.

Gu Chen, who has just finished shooting a group of scenes, is a little tired on his handsome face. He takes the cup from Jin Ying, says thank you, and then drinks it all.

Just after drinking tea, Jin Ying considerate and sent a clean towel: "wipe sweat."

Gu Chen is stunned, can't help but reach out and shake in front of Jin Ying. He thinks her eyesight has recovered, otherwise how can he see the sweat on her face?

"Don't try. I'm really blind. I can't see anything."

Jin Ying's face was calm, and she startled Gu Chen. She quickly moved her hand away: "sorry, Xiao Ying, I thought your eyes were better." "It's OK. I also know that it's impossible to recover my sight. Ke Jingteng personally checked for me. He told me that the probability of recovering my sight is very low. In fact, he was comforting me. I know I will be blind all my life. Just now I heard the sound of sweat from your forehead, so I handed you a towel."

Jin Ying's look has not changed at all. She seems to have accepted this fact for a long time.

"Xiaoying, don't be so pessimistic. I think there must be a way. You are still young and have many opportunities, don't you? Don't give up hope."

Gu Chen seriously said that he hoped that Jin Ying would get better from his heart. There was no other reason but simple hope. He felt that a beautiful girl like Jin Ying needed a pair of beautiful eyes to see the colorful world.

Jin Ying gave a beautiful smile: "I wish I had never given up."

She just finished saying this, the facial expression suddenly changed: "Gu Chen, go quickly!"

Chapter 489

"What's the matter, Xiao Ying?"

Gu Chen some inexplicable asked, at the same time also subconsciously looked around, did not find anything wrong, everyone is still busy, leaving a harmonious scene on the golden beach.

"I heard the sound of a bullet loading."

Jin Ying's face was full of vigilance. Her hand held Gu Chen's hand tightly.

Gu Chen looked around again, but still didn't find anything strange. He looked at Jin Ying with puzzled eyes and asked, "Xiao Ying, are you too sensitive? People here are all colleagues in the company. What kind of gun do you have?"

"No, I can't hear wrong absolutely, Gu Chen, we don't make a noise, leave here slowly, perhaps still have a chance to escape."

Jin Ying said very seriously, pulling Gu Chen to move towards the car. Gu Chen didn't look like a joke when she saw her. She thought that when she was on the gambling boat, she could recognize the number of turns of the dice, which was undoubtedly the best proof of her excellent hearing. So he didn't say anything more and followed Jin Ying to the parking place.

"Boss, Gu Chen seems to have found out, just want to drive away."

A crew member lowered his head and, while watching Gu Chen and Jin Ying, hid a portable headset with his collar and reported to Huo Tingchen, who was far away in the office of Tianhong Group.

"Besides Gu Chen, who else is beside him?"

Huo Tingchen pondered and asked, he has not thought of how to coerce Gu Chen, because he just checked the information, Gu Chen seems to only care about Zhao Tong heart appearance, so at this time in Gu Chen's side, may be very useful, so he let his men must find out.

"It's Jin Zhengting's sister, Jin Ying."

Jin Ying is a famous woman in Jiangbin. Most people have some impression on her. Besides, Huo Tingchen's staff have already printed the information of everyone in Jin's family in their minds.

"It was her who brought Gu Chen and Jin Ying back to me. Please don't hurt them."

Huo Tingchen's voice is full of excitement. He thought that he could hijack Gu Chen, but he didn't expect to get something unexpected. Although Jin Ying doesn't seem to be so important in Jin Zhengting's mind, she is a member of Jin's family and is still very valuable. It is said that Jin Ying has a good feeling for Gu Chen. He is wondering if he can use Jin Ying and threaten Gu Chen It's perfect.

"Boss, Gu Chen side still has a few bodyguards, the person of the scene is quite a few, afraid forcibly bring them back, can be discovered by the person."

Huo Tingchen's subordinates peeked at the staff who were still shooting near the scenic spot, some embarrassed to say.

"Didn't you take a group of people with you? Can't the seven of you deal with those indecent bodyguards and non-threatening employees? If you can't do this well, don't come back. "

Huo Tingchen's voice with a fierce, obviously his anger has been ignited, the man's cold sweat immediately down, he is Huo Tingchen's only one of the group of subordinates, Huo Tingchen's temper is quite well known, he knows his boss once angry will kill, and the means are extremely cruel.

"Yes, boss, we will finish what you told us."

The man clenched his teeth and put his hand into his arms, where he hid a loaded gun. Then he cast a look at several people around him, nodded his head slightly, and put his eyes in the direction of Gu Chen and Jin Ying.

Those people are his companions. When they see his eyes, they know that they want to act. So they quietly walk around behind Gu Chen's bodyguards. The rest of them seem to be working, but they are also moving in the direction of Gu Chen.

Gu Chen has opened the car door. He suddenly feels that it's not good for him to leave like this. In fact, he doubts the truth of Jin Ying's words. However, considering Jin Ying's sensitive character, he still allows her to make a fool of herself. However, he sees that several bodyguards who follow him are still on the beach, so he shouts out: "you can go."

Huo Tingchen's several subordinates hear Gu Chen's voice, their brows can't help wrinkling, their hands have been holding on the weapons they carry, the several Gu Chen's bodyguards also hear Gu Chen's greeting, turn to Gu Chen's direction to have a look, at this moment of a little distraction, Huo Tingchen's several subordinates around behind them have started to act.

They took out their guns at a very fast speed, aimed at the bodyguards and pulled the trigger. With the banging of the guns, the bodyguards had no time to respond, and had already fallen into the pool of blood.

There were not many people on the open beach, and the sound of shooting spread far away. Those crew members who were packing up shooting equipment were shocked by the sudden scene, and their work was stiff. Just before they could relax, Huo Tingchen, who had just shot the bodyguard, came to them with guns, no matter who they were As long as it appears in their sight, it will pull the trigger and give the person a lethal bullet.

Huo Tingchen never likes to leave any trouble, so the best way is to kill all these people.

The beach immediately turned into a massacre, and the location workers were killed one by one by Huo Tingchen's men without knowing what happened. Gu Chen was also stunned by the scene in front of him. He looked at the actions of the two killers and didn't know what to do. He had never seen such a tragic picture before. He just felt that there was something tumbling in his chest and he didn't spit it out.

"What's the matter? Drive quickly. They must be after you!"

Although Jin Ying can't see, her ears are much more sensitive than ordinary people. She can tell from the sound of the gun that the shooter has killed people from the very beginning. The only explanation is that the purpose of killing these people is to kill them, and the target of the killer is Gu Chen or herself.

She soon realized that if she knew that she still dared to fight here, it would be Huo Tingchen's men, so she yelled and woke Gu Chen up from his strong fear.

Gu Chen this just reaction come over, he flurried of open the car door, in the confusion also don't forget to put Jin Ying well, then buckle up the safety belt for her, then oneself just sit to drive of position to start the car.

Several killers have been following Gu Chen's whereabouts for a long time. When he started the car, several people rushed over quickly. As soon as the car started, a killer aimed his gun at the tire of the car. With a bang, Gu Chen and Jin Ying in the car felt a strong bump, and their hearts sank down. It was obvious that the gun just exploded the tire.

The car can't drive, Gu Chen very helpless raised his hands, because he saw in front of the car, four or five killers with guns, are eyeing them.

These people are temporary workers of the crew. No one would have thought that they were killers.

"What do you want to do?"

Although Gu Chen is very nervous, he still asks in a calm voice. At the same time, he holds Jin Ying's hand. After all, she is a girl and needs the protection of a man at this time.

But unexpectedly, Jin Ying sat calmly in the co pilot's seat and did not show any fear at all. The hand he held was calm and did not tremble like him.

On second thought, he also understood why Jin Ying was so calm. It seems that these killers only want to hijack them, not kill them. If they want to kill them, just shoot at the cab. They don't have to aim at the car tires at all. Since it's hijacking, these people naturally have a purpose and need them to live.

Slightly at ease for a while, Gu Chen asked again: "who are you, what do you want to do in the end?"

The killer who took the lead gave an insidious smile: "Mr. Gu Chen, our boss admires you very much and wants to invite you to meet him. Recently, Jiangbin is not very safe. The boss specially told us to protect Mr. Gu Chen's safety. By the way, we should also protect the beautiful Miss Jin Ying."

"Your boss is Huo Tingchen, right?"

Jin Ying asked calmly, with a calm look as if nothing had happened. Even these killers were a little awed by this determination, not to mention Gu Chen, whose tense muscles are almost cramped.

"Yes, Miss Jin Ying is really a smart person. Our boss is Mr. Huo Tingchen. He wants to see you, so please cooperate. Oh, by the way, our boss said that if we don't cooperate, we can use any method that we think can make you cooperate."

The threat of this sentence is very obvious, but Jin Ying smiles faintly: "you are lying. I think the order Huo Tingchen gave you must not hurt us at all. You just want us to cooperate. Mr. killer, what I said should be right?"

The killer was stunned. Looking at Jin Ying's calm and terrible face, he suddenly felt that although the girl looked weak, it was not simple at all.

"Cough."

He coughed on purpose to hide his embarrassment: "Miss Jin Ying, our boss just asked us to take them back safely, so you'd better cooperate."

"If you were pointed at the head with five guns, you wouldn't refuse any offer, would you?"

Jin Ying's mouth turned up slightly, showing a trace of sarcasm.

The killer was stunned again. According to the information, Jin Ying was blind. How did she know there were five people on her side?

"Don't be surprised. I'm really blind. I heard your footsteps."

Jin Ying light said, untie the buckle in the body of the seat belt, a face calmly out of the car: "well, now you can lead the way."

At this time, two killers in charge of slaughtering the crew also came over, and one of them said, "the scene has been dealt with, and there is no clue left. We have thrown everyone into the sea to feed the fish."

"Very good, inform the boss, Gu Chen and Jin Ying are controlled by us, the task is completed."

That killer finish saying, to Gu Chen's a smile: "Mr. Gu Chen, please."

A large-scale van came. It was obvious that they had planned their action. Even the evacuation vehicles were ready.

Jin Ying didn't say anything, quietly pulled the corner of Gu Chen's clothes, and then groped to get on the bus. Gu Chen resisted the tension and got on the van. On the bus, Jin Ying and Gu Chen are sitting in the last row. There are four killers in front of them watching them. The van is moving at a very fast speed. This is to prevent them from jumping.

"When you get to Huo Tingchen, no matter what he asks for, you will promise him."

Two people sit very close to each other. Jin Ying whispers in his ear in a voice that only Gu Chen can hear. She has guessed that Huo Tingchen must have a purpose in hijacking Gu Chen and himself, and it is likely that Gu Chen will do it.

"Xiaoying, is there really no problem?"

Gu Chen feels very ashamed now, because when he suddenly encounters a major event, his composure is far less than that of the weak Jin Ying. He is very flustered now, but Jin Ying can keep calm. This is where he feels inferior to himself.

"Don't worry, as long as you agree to Huo Tingchen's request, he won't do anything to you, otherwise he won't have to kidnap us at all."

Jin Ying firmly said that in other people's eyes, she is just blind, but few people can match her delicate mind.

Chapter 490

Tianhong Group Office.

It's supposed to be working time now, but the whole building is extremely empty. Except for a few serious security guards under the building, the offices on all floors are quiet, obviously no one is working.

This is arranged by Huo Tingchen. He doesn't want to let others know about his meeting with Gu Chen, let alone disclose the kidnapping of Jin Ying.

Last night's action made him lose some of his most effective subordinates. There were only 20 or so good subordinates around him, and he was barely able to do things. But to expect them to deal with Jin Zhengting and his tough subordinates was just like a fool's dream. So Huo Tingchen didn't want to stimulate Jin Zhengting too much.

Even if he doesn't want to admit it, reality is in front of him. He is not Jin Zhengting's opponent.

Every time he thinks about it, Huo Tingchen feels like he has a thorn in his heart, which makes him sleep and eat uneasily. After getting the news that Jin Ying was kidnapped by his subordinates, he even wants to kill Jin Ying immediately, so as to eliminate the huge shadow that Jin Zhengting left in his heart.

But calm down, he thinks Jin Ying is still very useful, at least can be put on the side, as a trump card when necessary.

He sat on the sofa in the office, gently shaking a crystal glass full of red wine in his hand, so that the red wine in the glass can fully contact with the air, because the red wine after oxidation will taste better.

At this time, a sound of footsteps came from the corridor. Huo Tingchen knew that it was Gu Chen and Jin Ying who were escorted by his subordinates.

Gently knock on the door, a voice tentatively asked: "boss?"

"Please come in, Mr. Gu Chen and Miss Jin Ying. You'll stay at the door and kill any stranger you see."

Huo Tingchen's eyes flashed a trace of fierce light, but with a very elegant voice told his men, he is such a person, countless contradictions tangled together to form a distorted character of life.

"Yes, boss."

His orders are firmly carried out by his subordinates. Huo Tingchen is different from Jin Zhengting. Jin Zhengting's subordinates are more in awe of his unique temperament, while Huo Tingchen's implementation of the terror means of disobedience and death.

The door opened, Gu Chen took Jin Ying's hand and walked into his office.

Huo Tingchen doesn't need to disguise now, so he doesn't deliberately wear Cheng Mohan's mask. What he shows now is his true colors. Gu Chen naturally knows Huo Tingchen and knows something about his grudges with the Jin family. He can understand Jin Ying's capture, but he doesn't know what the purpose of his capture is.

"Gu Chen, we haven't seen each other for some time. How are you doing recently?"

Huo Tingchen keeps a polite smile on his face and gets up to greet him. He greets Gu Chen warmly and politely. If Gu Chen is not hijacked here, he really thinks Huo Tingchen is his old friend for many years.

"Mr. Huo, what would you think if you were hijacked by seven or eight people?"

Gu Chen doesn't have good spirit of say, his tone inside take a thorn, no matter who, is invited here by this way, in the heart all won't be very happy.

He was a little nervous, but when he thought about Jin Ying's analysis, Huo Tingchen didn't kill him on the spot, which proved that there was something for him to do. Although he didn't know what it was, Gu Chen knew that it must be a matter of great importance, otherwise Huo Tingchen would not have taken great pains to hijack him. When he figured out this, he suddenly found that it was his dependence, so he was very proud of Huo Tingchen. Huo Tingchen's attitude does not need to be submissive.

In fact, when he said this sentence, he was a little nervous, so although he stood there with no squint, he kept observing Huo Tingchen's reaction with the residual light from the corner of his eyes.

As he expected, Huo Tingchen didn't mean to be angry. Instead, he said with a smile, "I'm sorry for the rudeness of my staff. In fact, I just want to have a chat with you. I just don't know that my staff will make such a big event. I will hold a banquet to frighten you and Miss Jin Ying some other day."

Gu Chen snorted and didn't continue to speak. Jin Ying laughed and rushed to Huo Tingchen's direction: "Huo Tingchen, let's stop talking nonsense. If you think it's inconvenient for me to be here, you can talk to Gu Chen first. There's so much space here, I can go anywhere."

Huo Tingchen's eyes flashed a ferocious intention to kill, but in a flash, he was able to control his emotions, ha ha, after a smile, he slowly said: "Miss Jin Ying, in fact, you can listen in, but I'm worried that Gu Chen will bear unnecessary pressure because you are here, so please go out to have a rest and wait for me and Gu Chen After that, we have more time to chat. "

Jin Ying light smile: "OK, but I advise you, don't hurt him, otherwise I will not let you go as a ghost."

If others say this sentence in front of Huo Tingchen, maybe Huo Tingchen will only take it as a joke, but the meaning of this sentence is completely different from that of Jin family people, because in Jiangbin, Jin family people always do what they say. Now that Jin Ying is very thin and weak, she is also full of energy. Huo Tingchen's face showed a look of displeasure. He has been hiding his anger, but Jin Ying seems to be deliberately irritating him. She always hurt him in the place he didn't want to mention in his heart, and she handled it in a proper way, which will not make him angry, but also make him feel uncomfortable.

"Well, come on, please ask Miss Jin to go out and sit down. Don't be too far away. I'll have a chat with her later."

Huo Tingchen resisted the impulse to kill, said to the door, immediately came in two men, with Jin Ying left.

Gu Chen just wanted to speak, Jin Ying suddenly turned back and said to him, "remember what I said, Mr. Huo won't do to us, because we are very useful to us."

Gu Chen can only promise, it seems that Jin Ying has foreseen Huo Tingchen hijacking them for a long time, so she is so bold and fearless, and the fact has proved that, although Huo Tingchen's mouth showed a trace of ferocious smile, also did not do anything to them.

When his men left with Jin Ying, Huo Tingchen's face softened a little. He reached out and showed his signature elegant smile: "please sit down."

Gu Chen is in Huo Tingchen's hands now, so he doesn't have any right to refuse. However, he has calmed down now. Even Jin Ying has no fear when facing Huo Tingchen. At least he shouldn't behave worse than a girl.

"Mr. Huo, we just had a few meetings. I don't think you want to chat with me and invite me here with such a big scene. I'm just a little male entertainer in the entertainment circle. I don't know what you're doing on the scene, so let's just say what you have to say."

Gu Chen's heart became horizontal, and his voice became tough. He had basically reached Huo Tingchen's bottom line, so there was no need to worry about anything. If there was any worry, it was also for Jin Ying. After all, her identity was a member of Jin family, Huo Tingchen and Jin family were mortal enemies, which was an open secret in Jiangbin.

"It's very refreshing. I like it very much. To be frank, I invite you here this time to talk about Zhao Tongxin with you."

Huo Tingchen poured a glass of red wine for Gu Chen, with an imperceptible smile on his face. He was sure that Zhao Tongxin was Gu Chen's weakness, and he was very good at catching other people's weaknesses and making use of them.

Sure enough, when Huo Tingchen talked about Zhao Tongxin, Gu Chen's face changed. His eyes were a little hasty, and his voice also had a strange emotion: "Mr. Huo, what's wrong with Zhao Tongxin?"

"Oh? You really can't let go of Zhao Tong's heart in your heart. It seems that the feelings in college are still there. "

Huo Tingchen's smile in his eyes was stronger. He put down the bottle and said with a smile, "this time I want to ask you to help me. It's about Zhao Tongxin."

"Sorry, I can't help you with that."

Gu Chen flatly refuses Huo Tingchen's request. No matter what Huo Tingchen does to Zhao Tongxin, he will not agree, because he knows that Huo Tingchen is also hostile to Zhao Tongxin, and the hearsay that he hears, Zhao Tongxin's adoptive mother and the first child's death, has Huo Tingchen's shadow behind it, otherwise Jin Zhengting will not leave any It's hard to deal with him.

"I haven't said it yet. How do you know you can't help me?"

Huo Tingchen's eyes flashed. He saw that Gu Chen still had deep feelings for Zhao Tongxin, which also made him find Gu Chen's weakness. He believed that he would soon be able to persuade Gu Chen to help him.

"Mr. Huo, I know the contradiction between you and Mr. Jin. I also know that you always have a deep prejudice against Tong Xin, so I can know that what you ask me to do must be bad for Tong Xin. Even if you kill me, I will not do anything for you that will hurt Tong Xin."

Gu Chen's tone is very firm. He knows his feelings for Zhao Tong Xin and is really willing to die for her.

"To tell you the truth, even if you don't do it for me, I have many ways to achieve my goal. You are right. There is a hatred between Jin Zhengting and me that is hard to eliminate, but I also think Zhao Tongxin is innocent. She only married Jin Zhengting by coincidence, so I want you to do it, because I don't want to hurt her. It's harmful to Zhao Tong. "

Huo Tingchen said with a smile, his eyes are full of sincerity, people can't help but believe him when they see his Phoenix eyes, but no one can see the hidden deep cunning in his pupils.

"What do you mean by that?"

Related to Zhao Tong's heart, Gu Chen is not so calm, he quickly asked Huo Tingchen, this is also in the invisible fall into Huo Tingchen already ready in the whole set.

"Well, Jin Zhengting gave Zhao Tongxin a necklace worth 200 million US dollars. Now I need some things on this necklace. If I want to get that necklace, it's not difficult at all. You should know my influence in Jiangbin. If you want to get what I want, you just need to ask your hand to rob it."

Huo Tingchen looked at Gu Chen's face more and more nervous, and suddenly the conversation changed: "however, you also know that Zhao Tongxin is pregnant now. I really don't want to see a pregnant woman frightened by a necklace. That's why I found you. You and she have been good friends for many years, and she also asked you to meet in the afternoon. I think you are the most suitable person, just need to know if you want to take all the photos of the necklace at a suitable time, and then give them to me, you can finish what I asked you to do. Of course, I won't let you help me in vain." He said, pushing a check to Gu Chen: "this is five million, as your reward for helping me this time, of course, I won't mind if you don't agree. I will immediately send those people who invite you. At that time, if Zhao Tong's heart is damaged, I can't control it."

With these words, Huo Tingchen looks at Gu Chen with a smile. He knows that he has hit the key of Gu Chen.

Gu Chen doesn't want to help Huo Tingchen, but he can't help worrying about Zhao Tongxin when he thinks of the means of those people at the door.

After pondering for a long time, he finally gritted his teeth: "OK, I promise you."
