

Super Rich Dad Chapter 487-488

Chapter 487

Ye Yunjie thought for a moment and began to tell the story slowly.

‘Actually, your father doesn’t have much to do with the Shen family overseas!’

These first words that Ye Yunjie just started to tell completely overturned Jiang Hao’s perception.

‘What? It doesn’t matter? What does it mean that it’s okay?’ Jiang Hao looked a little confused, his own father’s surname was Shen, and the overseas Shen family’s surname was Shen. His own father was also the head of the Shen family, so how could there be no relationship?

Previously, Jiang Hao also thought that his father’s ability to become the head of the overseas Shen family should be related to his grandfather, perhaps his grandfather was the previous head of the overseas Shen family or something, otherwise such an important position. How could such an important position be left to his own father.

Although Jiang Hao did not have many memories of his father, Shen Haoting, one thing was still fresh in his mind, and that was that his father had been taken abroad from China when he was in his twenties. He had been taken abroad from China.

If there were no strong connections, how could his own father have been taken abroad from a distance of thousands of miles?

Ye Yunjie could see Jiang Hao’s confusion and just nodded lightly as she continued, ‘Actually, it’s not that there is no relationship, it’s just that it’s not too big. Well’

Ye Yunjie hesitated for a moment before speaking again, ‘Let’s put it this way, in fact, you and your father’s Shen family. Compared to the overseas Shen family, this Shen family of yours at home has a somewhat purer bloodline and belongs to the direct descendant line, a clan family, while the overseas Shen family is a branch of the Shen family, can you understand if I say so?’

Jiang Hao smiled. He nodded in a half-understanding way, although he could understand what Ye Yunjie meant, but what did this have to do with his father going to inherit the position of the head of the Shen family overseas?

Soon after, Ye Yunjie continued, ‘Although both sides have reached your father’s generation, the blood ties are already very distant, but the Shen family is a very special existence, that is, no matter when the time comes, no matter how far the family blood ties have reached, the ties between the families are always there, and it also seems to be a tradition left from the distant past, no matter how rich and powerful the branch families of the Shen family are wealthy and powerful, for the clan family. It is all to be respected 100 percent.’

Ye Yunjie then added, ‘It seems that not long after you were born, the Shen family overseas A huge split suddenly broke out within its family, and the entire Overseas Shen Family almost disintegrated at that time. And the overseas Shen family is so powerful that if a really huge family were to fall into a split. Or civil unrest, those affected and affected by it are estimated to be a very large group of people. In order to reconcile the conflicts, the overseas Shen family and your family began to try to communicate and wanted to send someone to the overseas Shen family to be the head of the family, in order to bridge the conflicts between the various forces. Let your father go overseas and take up this role as the head of the family.’

When Ye Yunjie said these words, she seemed to have some hesitation.

It was obvious. Although she had told Jiang Hao about what had happened, there were still many things that she had not said, and it was undoubtedly those contents that were the truth.

In fact, the truth behind this matter was too bloody and cruel, so naturally, Ye Yunjie could not tell Jiang Hao everything.

So what she had just said. It was just her own processed version.

She just wanted to let Jiang Hao know what her family was like.

Hearing Ye Yunjie’s account, Jiang Hao felt as if he understood a lot more, yet he felt more and more confused.

He was silent and thought for a long time before he realised a hint of something wrong and hurriedly said, ‘But if we go by what you just said. If the Shen family had asked my father to be the head of the family, then although it wasn’t a particularly glorious thing, it wasn’t a bad thing either, so why didn’t anyone mention it to me growing up? My mother even said that my father was dead? And I had barely heard anything about my father’s family for the past twenty years. What about my grandfather? What about the Shen family’s clan? Why have I never heard of any of these?’

Obviously, Jiang Hao had been keenly aware of a hint of something different, and what was even more incredible to Jiang Hao was what was happening right now.

Jiang Hao hurriedly added, ‘And what’s more important is this. Since my father is now the head of the Shen family overseas, and he is also a member of the Zong family, it is only logical that the Shen family overseas should respect my father doubly? Then why did they send someone to work on the south of the city project in secret? Oh, don’t say they don’t know that my father is behind this City South project, that’s a ridiculous reason.’

Faced with Jiang Hao’s barrage of questions. Ye Yunjie also seemed to be a bit at a loss as to how to explain.

She had just wanted to reveal a little bit about her family’s secret to Jiang Hao, but she hadn’t thought about that many details.

‘This your grandfather’ Ye Yunjie didn’t know how to answer for a while, stammering for half a day. Nor did she come up with an answer.

Jiang Hao smiled as he looked at Ye Yunjie, seemingly as if he had insight into everything. Rhetorically, he asked, ‘What you just said was all false, right?’

It had already been seen through, ah. Ye Yunjie couldn't help but be a little surprised.

The more and more she realized that the recent Jiang Hao. Long ago, he was not the innocent and naive child she had been when she first came into contact with him, now he was thinking a lot and his gaze was unusually sharp.

It seemed that it would no longer work for her to try to deceive him like she did in the past.

Ye Yunjie hesitated for a moment, wondering whether she should tell Jiang Hao everything or not.

After all, Shen Haoting had instructed herself that the less Jiang Hao knew about this matter, the better.

She was already playing with fire just now, and if she told Jiang Hao again, then it seemed that things were about to get serious.

Ye Yunjie sighed and nodded, 'Indeed, part of what I said just now was false. But your family is the clan of the Shen family, and everything about the overseas Shen family is true, as for as for why your father went to the overseas Shen family, and your grandfather, and the Shen family clan, I'm sorry, I can't tell you, perhaps the only one who can answer this question for you is Mr. Shen.'

Ye Yunjie paused, she saw Jiang Hao's incomparably eager gaze, shook her head and sighed, 'Jiang Shao, in fact, some things are not told to you precisely for your own good, let me tell you this, behind this matter, it is exceptionally bloody and cruel, and quite dangerous, and your mother, or your father, chose to keep these things from you, they all did so because they loved you enough, and they were afraid that you would be hurt.'

'Your father really loves you, maybe you can't feel it now, but I believe that one day, you will know.' Ye Yunjie said in a serious tone.

Chapter 488

Ye Yunjie's words caused Jiang Hao to fall into deep thought.

Ye Yunjie had already said this much, and Jiang Hao naturally understood his father's good intentions.

He sighed heavily and pondered for a long time before he opened his mouth and asked, 'Then when can I know the truth behind it? Sister Ye, I really want to know these things. The feeling of being kept in the dark is really uncomfortable.'

Ye Yunjie thought for a moment before saying, 'This is something you should ask your father about, only if he agrees to tell you will I dare to tell you, otherwise I hope you can understand me.'

Jiang Hao nodded at his words. It seemed that this matter could only wait until later to ask his father, or his mother, himself.

'Then the matter of the south of the city project. You can always tell me what's going on, right?' Jiang Hao asked.

'Alright.' Ye Yunjie replied dryly, 'Actually, your father and the overseas Shen family have been playing each other over a matter, so can you imagine how much courage it takes for one person to face an entire family? Your father is walking on thin ice every day, and if he is not careful, he may lose everything. And the current struggle above the City South project is actually an extension of the game between your father and the overseas Shen family.'

Ye Yunjie paused, then added: 'In that case, the defeat we are currently facing is justifiable; for one thing, we were indeed too careless. Secondly, it is also because the enemy is too cunning.'

'Then what's next?' Jiang Hao scratched his head and asked, 'If it's really like you said, and I really want to help my father, at the very least, we should hold the enemy at bay here at the south of the city project, right?'

Ye Yunjie nodded and smiled, 'If Mr. Shen knew you had this in mind, I think he would be very happy, but it's best for you not to get involved in this open fight, don't think it's hard for you to hear what I'm saying, but it's the truth, I'm not letting you get involved not for anything else, but just because your stage is not enough, in front of those overseas Shen family members. You're still too young.'

Ye Yunjie looked out of the window and said, 'It's this random Zhang Xiangyu who is doing some small things behind the scenes, you and I are still tired of dealing with it, if we still want to go and get involved in the struggle of the overseas Shen family, then I think we are just looking for death.'

After thinking about it, Ye Yunjie continued and added, 'Right now, ah, let's try to deal with the matter in front of us, as long as we can temporarily keep the City South project, that would be the greatest help we can do to Mr. Shen.'

Hearing Ye Yunjie's words, Jiang Hao nodded helplessly, 'Alright then, let's talk about the south of the city project, what are you going to do next? We can't just sit around and wait for death, can we?'

Ye Yunjie nodded, 'Of course not. I'm already lobbying the top as much as I can, and I'm also seeing if we can get in touch with the higher levels. If we can, that would be best, that way, I think everything will still be saved.'

The two of them then chatted for a while, and Jiang Hao got a little tired, so he asked Ye Yunjie to find himself a place in the company to take a temporary break.

Ye Yunjie found a room with a bedroom for Jiang Hao. He let Jiang Hao stay here for the night first.

But after Ye Yunjie left, Jiang Hao couldn't sleep, he tossed and turned, but he didn't feel sleepy at all.

Jiang Hao kept recalling what Ye Yunjie had just said to him, and he became more curious about his own family.

Especially since Ye Yunjie hadn't answered himself positively about what kind of family he belonged to. There was also his own grandfather.

In Ye Yunjie's words, it seemed that his own grandfather was a very important existence, yet Ye Yunjie rarely mentioned him.

'Shen family ah what kind of existence are you really?' Jiang Hao looked out the window and murmured a sentence, silently falling back into contemplation.

And after leaving Jiang Hao here, Ye Yunjie was alone in her office was sitting until midnight, her mind always in turmoil.

Before, she was thinking about the crisis in the south of the city project, and then there was her sister Ye Xiaorou, and now, this matter finally involved the overseas Shen family.

Ye Yunjie did not know what kind of a shocking situation would be involved in the end with this little Chu Jiang.

She sighed and took out her mobile phone. Called a phone number.

'Mr. Shen, there is a change in Chu Jiang!' When the call was answered, Ye Yunjie said these words indifferently.

And at the other end of the phone. On the other side of the distant continent, in a luxurious villa located in the Mediterranean Sea, Shen Haoting sat on a sea view balcony on the first floor of the villa. With a heavy face, he finished listening to Ye Yunjie's statement.

Ye Yunjie reported everything that had happened today and before to Shen Haoting without any reservation, and then hung up the phone.

Shen Haoting looked at the azure Mediterranean Sea not far away and fell into deep thought.

The gentle and warm sea breeze blew his white tang shirt. It brushed his handsome and slightly dull cheeks, and finally could not help but make Shen Haoting feel a slight chill.

Shen Haoting pondered slightly for a moment, and the corners of his mouth could not help but reveal a faint smile as he whispered softly to himself, 'Has he taken the bait after all?'

In fact, the overseas Shen family into the Chujiang city south project, is he has long expected things, and perhaps only Shen Haoting since and a very few people know, the city south project, is just a fish bait he put out.

In fact, the success or failure of the Chujiang City South project, or the gain or loss of the ten billion dollars, for Shen Haoting, are not important.

This is because the project itself is something that covers the ears of others.

Only the more attractive the project is, the more Shen Haoting's unseen plan can be successfully implemented.

And now there was still some time before the implementation of his own plan, so no matter what, Shen Haoting could not let the City South project go bankrupt so easily.

After thinking about it, he suddenly waved his hand behind him, and a beautiful and delicate looking young woman came over.

'Mr. Shen, what are your orders?'

Shen Haoting said, 'Inform the special plane that we will return to China in a moment!'

'Okay, I'll go do it now.' The woman nodded her head and walked away quickly.

And at the mention of returning to China, Shen Haoting's mood was simply good, after all, he hadn't been back for years.

He even missed a bit those family members and friends he used to have in the country.

Although most of these people were no longer alive, and after so many years, he had not even fulfilled his duty to pay his respects to his deceased family members.

Shen Haoting sighed, and his mind could not help but recall a scene from more than twenty years ago.

At that time, he was only as old as Jiang Hao. At that time, his parents were alive, his family was happy, and he had just befriended Jiang Hao's mother
