

Chapter 487

"Yo, Lilly's mother, you are finally here. I thought you were afraid to come." Mother Cuicui rubbed her pigeon eggs while looking at Suzi with a mocking expression.

Being jealous of Cuicui's mother and the crowd, Suzi didn't realize it.

She didn't answer Cui Cui's mother's question, but only asked the only one in a gentle voice: "The only one, do you like to play with these children?"

Lilly nodded happily: "My favorite mother, Susan, Cui Cui, the children are all kind to me."

Suzi smiled gently and said, "You like this kindergarten, don't you?"

Lilly nodded again: "Of course mother, they are all friends with me, I like this kindergarten the most. But mother, if you don't like me here, I can also transfer school."

Speaking of the last, Lilly's tone was obviously a little lonely.

Suzi put his head against her daughter's head, and said firmly: "Nothing matters, my baby's growth environment, my baby's friends, the most important. As long as the only thing I like, there is no need to transfer."

Since Suzi entered the Lin family as a foster child at the age of twelve, she has rarely made friends.

All of Lanita's friends didn't play with her, they all wore tinted glasses and looked at Suzi like a beggar. After finally growing up, when she arrived at university, she had friends and treated them sincerely.

However, she went to jail in her sophomore year.

From then on, none of her friends and classmates contacted her.

Suzi didn't want his daughter to be the same as himself.

"Go and play with the children. Mom and adults play together." Suzi coaxed Shen Weiyi.

"Good mom." Lilly jumped to the children's area.

Only then did Suzi look at the broad ladies who were jealous and hate her, and calmly said: "Thank you, if we spend more than 50,000 yuan here today, I can also make up for it."

As soon as Suzi's words fell, Luo Cuicui's mother asked ferociously. "You...what do you mean! It's as if we forced you! How reluctant! What are you reluctant to do!"

Suzi is still neither humble nor overbearing: "I am not reluctant, I really thank you."

Luo Cuicui's mother said in a weird manner: "Is there no reluctance? Then you mean, do you really want to participate in us?"

Suzi didn't speak at first.

After a pause, she bit her lip: "Yeah."

Luo Cuicui's mother suddenly sneered: "In this case, you should give some plans first. Next, how to defend against speculators who have swollen faces and fills up fat and who insist on squeezing into our noble kindergartens to expand their contacts. , What about unscrupulous attempts? By that time, our children will all follow their studies! Lilly's mother, tell me how to resist it?"

Suzi: "..."

"I can't tell you?" Luo Cuicui's mother sneered and mocked: "I see, you also did everything possible to squeeze into our circle, did you bleed a lot to raise the 50,000 yuan? By the way, you have a husband. Is it? If you have a husband, why does your child follow your last name?"

Suzi: "..."

After a pause, she calmly refused: "Sorry, this is my privacy, I refuse to answer."

Mother Luo Cuicui didn't let Suzi mean, she said viciously: "If you don't answer, let me tell you that you are sending your daughter to the noble kindergarten, and then you use the opportunity of picking up your daughter to try Get close to a successful rich and powerful man, so that you can get your daughter a rich stepdad as you wish! Am I right? You woman with a fox look!"

Suzi: "..."

"Hey, you all remember to treat your own man well, don't let this..."

"Auntie, I'll give you a fun toy." Cui Cui's mother didn't finish her words, and Lilly suddenly came to her and smiled and put something in her hand.

Luo Cuicui's mother said with disgust: "What...ah, help..."

Chapter 488

Suzi opened his eyes and looked at the soft, green and black flower in Cui Cui's mother's hand.

It is clearly a snake.

Mother Cuicui screamed, shaking her hand and throwing the snake on the ground. The little snake curled up and fell on her feet impartially.

"Aw..." Mom Cui Cui cried directly, her legs trembled, and she almost peed her pants.

"Hehehe, hahaha. Auntie, you are so courageous, look at me, look at me." Lilly squatted down with a smile, picked up the snake and played with it.

Behind him, a group of children also followed and smiled.

Even Luo Cuicui laughed at her mother: "Mom, Mom, you are so courageous, we are not afraid, this is not a real snake, this is a simulated toy, haha, mother, look at you, how funny it is."

Mother Cuicui: "..."

All the ladies present: "..."

All of them were scared and their lips turned blue and purple. But at this moment, they were very angry when they heard this group of bear children smile so easily.

After stabilizing his emotions for a while, the first thing to react was Guan Sitian's mother, the group leader.

She looked at Lilly with sharp eyes, and then asked Luo Cuicui: "What did you say, Cuicui, is this snake that Lilly brought to you to play with?" "Yes." Cui Cui said innocently, "The only one is right. We are the best. We will play with all the fun toys. The only one of us is the smartest of the kids. Just now, I was the only one who told me that my mother should not look at her teeth and claws. She looks very fierce. In fact, my mother is very Gentle is very timid, don't believe me, I tried it with this gentle toy snake."

After speaking, Cuicui looked at her mother: "Mom, the only thing you said is right. You really look fierce, but you are actually timid and gentle."

Lilly also looked at Mother Cuicui with a harmless little expression: "Auntie, I like you, hehehe."

Mother Cuicui: "..."

Suzi: "..."

The ladies present: "..."

Except for these little children, all adults can see that Shen's only five-year-old kid is a super black little loli.

Shen only liked the tenderness of Cui Cui's mother. She clearly watched Cui Cui's mother bullying her mother, so she thought of such a wicked trick to scare Cui Cui's mother.

Luo Cuicui's mother glared fiercely as the only one.

Her legs are still frightened and soft, she reluctantly got up, raised her hand and poked Lilly: "You are a dead child with a mother but no father! You are so uneducated! We are well educated. The children in the family play with you, you have been taught wild! Wild boy! Cui Cui! Come to my mother, I can't play with Lilly!"

After roaring, she looked at Guan Sitian's mother again: "Group owner! You have also seen, what is the main purpose of our small party today? It is to confuse children from such low-quality families with our children. Our children have spent so much money to study in such a noble kindergarten. What we want is a good environment and a good circle. But there is such a black sheep in the circle. What do you think about it? You must not spare them lightly!"

Guan Sitian's mother also looked at Suzi solemnly: "Let the children come with snakes in such high-class party places, what do you think this is, mountain villages! Suzi, you must let your daughter Apologize to all the children and all the aunts! Then you take your children to drop out of school!"

After speaking, Guan Sitian's mother called her child: "Tiantian, come to mother, don't play with this kind of wild child in the future. It will lead you to bad!"
