

Chapter 491: I Can Learn What I Don't Understand

Xia Xibei smiled at Qiao Yanjue's question, and her heart felt warm.

"It's from an old fall, it's long healed. Even the scars are faded."

Seeing how sure she was and that it didn't look like anything bad had happened, Qiao Yanjue's face relaxed.

"If someone hurts you, you have to tell me."

Xia Xibei laughed, "Don't worry, who can bully me?!"

"That's good," Qiao Yanjue nodded, then pressed her down on the sofa, "I'll blow-dry your hair."

"No need..."

"Your hand is injured, don't move." Qiao Yanjue subdued her movements, "I'll help you."

As he spoke, he turned on the hair dryer and the faint aroma of shampoo wafted into the air.

The warm breeze blew overhead as if blowing in Xia Xibei's heart, causing ripples.

Qiao Yanjue's movements were gentle as his fingers weaved through her long hair. Xia Xibei was so mesmerized that she was about to fall asleep.

When the blow dryer turned off, Xia Xibei's eyes snapped open and she looked up at him.

"Done?"

Looking at her confused little face, Qiao Yanjue felt his heart melt.

"Done drying."

"Great technique!" She gave a thumbs up, "Have you ever dried hair for someone before?"

"No," Qiao Yanjue decisively denied, "You're the first."

"Then you're really gifted!" She didn't spare praise.

Qiao Yanjue had a smile on his lips but didn't explain. It wasn't talent, it was all about intention.

Being looked at by him like this, Xia Xibei's eyes couldn't help but wander. She quickly turned her eyes away, "Right, I have to go see Ah-Luo!"

She didn't know how Tang Luo was doing.

The smile on the corner of Qiao Yanjue's mouth disappeared.

Tang Luo again!

"You're that worried about him?"

"Of course!" Xia Xibei nodded vigorously. "He just fell into the water, who knows what Mo Bonan will do to him."

Qiao Yanjue had a cold face. "Didn't he already wake up? Besides, Mo Bonan isn't so stupid that he can't even take care of someone."

"Aiya, you don't understand." Xia Xibei waved her hand and tried to go looking for Tang Luo, but found her wrist in a grip.

Looking back, she saw that Qiao Yanjue had grabbed her hand.

"You..." She was startled. "You... You..."

"I really don't understand, but you can tell me, and I can learn."

Qiao Yanjue's eyes seemed to be on fire.

He cared so much about Xia Xibei, but she was full of thoughts for Tang Luo.

This feeling was driving him crazy!

At this moment, he forgot about his previous stoicism and couldn't help but grab Xia Xibei.

His handsome face was so close, and his strong masculine scent surrounded her, so Xia Xibei couldn't help but hold her breath. Her heart was beating wildly and uncontrollably.

At such a close distance, she realized that Qiao Yanjue was far better looking than she thought!

His eyebrows, his eyes, his nose, his lips... All so perfect.

At this moment, she finally understood what those girls who screamed and went crazy for celebrities felt.

Not many people could resist such a face.

As her mind began to become chaotic, Qiao Yanjue leaned closer and repeated in a low voice, "If there's anything I don't understand, you can tell me. I can learn."

Xia Xibei did not move. Her eyes were wide-open, and she was completely dazed.

It was... Not quite right!

Seeing her hesitation to speak, Qiao Yanjue frowned.

"What's wrong?"

The air seemed to freeze.

Before she could suffocate, Xia Xibei pushed Qiao Yanjue away.

"We'll talk n- Next time! I'm leaving now!"

Without waiting for Qiao Yanjue to say anything, she rushed out.

Chapter 492: Both Overwhelmed

Xia Xibei ran out of the room. Her heartbeat hadn't calmed down and her face was still hot.

Once she got to a place where no one could see her, she couldn't help but bang her head against the wall.

She was done! She actually thought Qiao Yanjue was handsome!

Though he was indeed handsome...

Thinking back to what just happened, Xia Xibei couldn't help but slap herself.

She had been seduced by looks! She almost lost it just now! It was horrible! D*mn, this was the biggest joke of the year!

She shook her head and shoved away the confusing thoughts.

Then she realized that she was still wearing the hotel slippers on her feet.

This was embarrassing.

After hesitating for a while, she decided to go find Tang Luo first.

She could change into shoes and anything else later, but Tang Luo couldn't wait.

She asked a familiar-looking attendant and finally found the room where Tang Luo was staying.

When there came a sudden knock on the door of the room, Tang Luo was startled once again, almost jumping up.

Only when he saw Xia Xibei at the door did he let out a sigh of relief and open the door to let her in.

Xia Xibei looked him up and down, asking in concern, "Is everything all right?"

"I'm fine."

Tang Luo shook his head, but his face didn't look too good.

"What's wrong?"

Xia Xibei carefully grabbed his wrist and felt it. Nothing was wrong!

"I..." Tang Luo's face was torn, his eyes wandering, wanting to say something but too embarrassed to say it.

“Just say it! What is there to hide from me!” Seeing that he didn’t say anything, Xia Xibei was so anxious that she slapped him on the thigh. “Hurry up!”

After being slapped by her like this, Tang Luo finally reacted.

He knew that she must already know. Otherwise, she wouldn’t have such an attitude.

“Brother Bonan...”

“Just say it!” Xia Xibei bellowed in a cold voice.

Her own affairs were in a mess and Tang Luo was still stammering and frustrating her.

After being yelled at by her, Tang Luo became startled and blurted out, “Brother Bonan may have found out!”

Xia Xibei was stunned and surprised.

“How did he find out?”

Listening to Xia Xibei’s calm words, Tang Luo was finally sure that she really knew she was a girl a long time ago!

Moreover, Xia Xibei's natural attitude made Tang Luo feel aggrieved to finally having found an ally.

"Just now, he opened the bathroom door and saw..."

"What?!" Xia Xibei exclaimed, "He saw your body?!"

"No, no, no..." Tang Luo waved her hands in a panic. "No! He just saw my back!"

Xia Xibei let out a sigh of relief, "That's alright." But then she wondered, "How did Mo Bonan get in there? How could he be so shameless?"

Tang Luo shook her head with a red face, "No, the hair dryer was too loud, so I didn't hear him knocking on the door. The bathroom door lock was broken, so he was able to come in. I reacted quickly and turned around, so he only saw my back."

"It wouldn't be a problem if he only saw your back."

Xia Xibei still did not understand.

"But after I came out, he grabbed my hand and said my hand was small."

Tang Luo had a helpless expression. At this moment, she was not the same as the male Tang Luo. She was a lot more vulnerable.

“And he also said he’d teach me how to swim!”

They didn’t need to go into the water. As soon as she put on the swimsuit, she would be found out!

Xia Xibei was surprised, commenting, “Then it does seem that he got suspicious.”

Tang Luo was anxious, “Exactly!”

Otherwise, she wouldn’t have to be so nervous.

“Then why don’t you just tell him who you are?”

“No!” Tang Luo immediately said in a loud voice.

Chapter 493: I Can’t Tell

Xia Xibei was taken aback by Tang Luo’s reaction.

“Why not?”

This was the question she had deep in her heart.

Ever since she found out that Tang Luo was a girl, she had always had this doubt.

It was really difficult for a girl to live as a boy. Also, it took a lot of effort to keep people from finding out who you were.

It was not easy to keep a secret.

If Tang Luo lived by herself, it would be relatively simple.

But she lived with the Mo family and had to face the concerns of the three members of the Mo family, which was not easy.

Moreover, she had been living with the Mo family for years!

For years now, her real gender had not been revealed. Not many people knew how much work was involved.

Had Xia Xibei not been a doctor and highly skilled in medicine, she would not have known how much Tang Luo had paid for this.

Not to mention anything else, one issue was Tang Luo's physical development.

Tang Luo was now 18 years old, but her chest development was not very good. After all, she often had to bind her chest, so how could she not be affected?

If she developed normally, her chest would be much bigger than it was now!

She was greatly affected by the long-term chest binding.

If this continued, even her blood circulation would be affected.

It was also why Tang Luo's health had not been very good.

"I can't tell." Tang Luo shook her head with a bitter face, "If I reveal my identity, nothing good will happen."

If she had been reborn earlier and that incident hadn't happened, she wouldn't have needed to be so conflicted.

Why did fate play tricks on her like that?

"It can't be that bad?" Xia Xibei frowned.

“It is.” Tang Luo said seriously, “In fact, my mother told me before she passed away that I absolutely cannot let others know my gender!”

“Why not?”

“She didn’t say too much, she just said that once I reveal my gender, something very bad will happen.”

And in her previous life, she really didn’t encounter any good things after being exposed. It was one hardship after another.

“But how can this work?” Xia Xibei was surprised, “What about your future? Don’t you need to leave the house in the future?”

Now her body was affected; afterwards, her life would be affected.

Tang Luo nodded, “That’s why I chose to study computer science!”

With a computer, when the time came, she could just stay at home.

Besides, in a few years, takeout and deliveries would be everywhere, and life would be so convenient that you wouldn’t need to worry about it.

The corners of Xia Xibei’s mouth twitched. She was thinking really far ahead!

“Okay.”

Since she had said so, what else could Xia Xibei say?

“Then what are you going to do? Keep lying?”

“Right!” Tang Luo nodded firmly. “I absolutely can’t let him know of my gender!”

Looking at her determined look, Xia Xibei was in shock. She had a feeling that something had happened between her and Mo Bonan.

What a pity that Xia Xibei was not familiar with Tang Luo in her first life, and did not know what happened to her afterwards, having no way to give advice.

“All right, I’ll help you.”

“How?” Tang Luo’s eyes lit up.

“Simple,” Xia Xibei smiled. “I’ll teach you how to swim.”

Tang Luo’s eyes widened as realization dawned on her, “Right! You can teach me how to swim!”

If Xia Xibei taught her to swim, there would be no need for Mo Bonan to step in.

“I’ll make you a girdle.” Xia Xibei continued. “Unless you take off your clothes or someone touches your chest, no one will find out.”

Chapter 494: Going on the Show

Although it was a girdle, a girdle made by Xia Xibei would not hurt Tang Luo’s body, nor let others notice her body.

Of course, this kind of girdle could only be made by Xia Xibei.

After all, this was no longer a simple chest girdle but a basic spiritual weapon.

Xia Xibei was a doctor. She could treat people as well as make medicines, but she was not an expert at refining weapons.

She couldn’t create high-level spirit weapons. However, she could still do basic spiritual weapons.

In the early stage, pill-refining and weapon-refining had something in common.

Moreover, people who knew how to refine medicines could generally refine weapons, but not vice versa.

Xia Xibei was someone who knew how to refine medicines and weapons.

She was more special than others because she had an extra life of memories.

In her opinion, chemistry, medicine-refining and weapon-refining all had something in common, and she had learned chemistry quite well.

So, in her second life, she often combined the cultures of the two worlds and ended up making items that had never existed in the Land of Fantasy.

Now, she could also make things that were not available in this world.

The girdle was her gift to Tang Luo.

Listening to Xia Xibei talk about the benefits of the girdle, Tang Luo's eyes glowed.

How could she not feel uncomfortable? How uncomfortable was it to be restrained every day when she went out?!

If she was doing any intense exercise, it would be even more uncomfortable.

She had persevered when she played ball before.

If it wasn't for some medication Xia Xibei had prescribed for her earlier, she probably would have only been able to play a quarter of the game at most.

"Thank you so much!" Tang Luo smiled so much that her eyes narrowed.

"No need to thank me," Xia Xibei patted her arm. "I'm your friend."

Tang Luo's heart shook with these words and her eyes couldn't help but moisten.

"Come on, don't get so melodramatic." Xia Xibei shook her head, "We are helping each other!"

"Yeah, helping each other!"

Tang Luo laughed with tears.

"Well, I have to go back," Xia Xibei said. "I have to record the show tomorrow."

"Record a show?" Tang Luo froze for a moment.

“Yeah, didn’t I tell you guys? ‘Full Steam Ahead.’”

Tang Luo shook her head, “You said it before, but you didn’t say when. Are you going tomorrow?”

“Right,” Xia Xibei nodded. “I have to go for two days.”

When Nie Zehai’s incident made a lot of noise, Xia Xibei also added fuel to the fire and became more well-known.

While helping Nie Zehai, she also profited. It was a win-win situation!

After that, she received an invitation from the “Full Steam Ahead” program.

This was a surprise.

Xia Xibei had never thought that “Full Steam Ahead” would give her an offer.

However, this was quite normal.

Because of what happened to Nie Zehai, Xia Xibei was trending quite high. There were fans who wanted to take a photo together even as she walked down the street.

Although she was on the show as a real person, it was a big deal for her.

The ratings for “Full Steam Ahead” were also quite high. Many “real people” who performed well on the show had successfully entered the entertainment industry.

Therefore, many entertainment companies sent their trainees to participate.

Not many people were directly invited, like Xia Xibei was. When Pan Yan received the invitation, he was ecstatic.

“Did you get time off?”

“I did.”

“Then do a good job.”

“I will.”

After waving goodbye to Tang Luo, Xia Xibei went back to her previous room.

Her clothes were washed and put on the bed, and Qiao Yanjue was absent.

Luckily, she didn’t have to face Qiao Yanjue.

Thinking of this, she immediately changed her clothes and slipped away.

And she was gone for two days!

Chapter 495: Didn't Sleep Well

At five o'clock the next morning, Xia Xibei got into the car that Pan Yan had brought to pick her up.

In the car, Pan Yan told her about the show's process.

"This time, there is no need to go into the water. We're going to the zoo..."

In the midst of his chatter, Xia Xibei yawned.

"You didn't get a good rest last night?" Pan Yan frowned, "Didn't I tell you to get to bed early?"

The show "Full Steam Ahead" had high ratings, but as a result, it required more work.

There were a lot of difficult projects that needed a lot of effort, and they may be hard to pass even if you worked hard.

As a result, past guests all prepared in advance and even tried to become more physically fit.

Even if you did not train physically, adequate rest was also very important. Otherwise, when the time came, you wouldn't have enough strength.

Xia Xibei was only notified a few days before the recording of the show, so she was already behind, but she was still not well rested either. Was she trying to fail?

"I did rest." Xia Xibei looked innocent/ "It's just that... I didn't sleep well."

When she said this, she was a little guilty.

This had never happened before!

The quality of her sleep had always been very good. Especially after doing some cultivation before going to bed; she always slept soundly.

But who would've thought that she'd have trouble sleeping last night?

In her dream, Qiao Yanjue's face was so clear that it was scary!

What's even more frightening was that she found herself pouncing on him, then hugging and kissing him!

What the-!

She was scared awake right away!

When did she get so thirsty?

When she woke up, she tried to sleep again, only to find that Qiao Yanjue was still in her dreams!

This was too much!

"Why didn't you sleep well?" Pan Yan frowned. "What did you do?"

"I did not do anything," Xia Xibei protested. "Wouldn't I sleep well if I... Did something?"

Pan Yan didn't know what to say. Why did this sound so odd?

"What did you want to do?"

Xia Xibei choked. "I- I didn't want to do anything!"

Seeing that Pan Yan was getting more and more curious, she hurriedly changed the subject.

“Don’t worry, I’ve seen the show before and done my homework. I know what to do.”

“Do you really know?” Pan Yan said in a deep voice. “You should know that this is the first program you have participated in. If you perform well, you will have a second one. If you don’t... You’ll just have to go back to being a trainee.”

“I know that.” Xia Xibei was also very serious. “Don’t worry, I will definitely perform well. I can handle those competitions.”

Pan Yan snickered, “You’re bragging!”

Many competitions on the show required both strength and skill.

Generally speaking, the girls didn’t do as well and mostly played off being cute while the male guests did their best.

Though Xia Xibei usually performed well, that was only when it came to singing and dancing. Here, she needed to use strength, which was not so easy.

Xia Xibei laughed and didn’t argue with him.

Facts would speak louder than words.

When she had performed, he would naturally know the situation.

Soon, the car arrived at the recording site, which was a large plaza.

“Full Steam Ahead” was usually recorded outdoors.

It was only about six o'clock in the morning when the guests arrived, so they didn't have an easy time.

When Xia Xibei got out of the car, she was immediately greeted by many stares.

She walked out gracefully, looked around the area, then met a pair of shocked and angry eyes.

She froze for a moment, then smiled.

Oops, what a coincidence! So many acquaintances!

Looking at her brilliant smile, a hint of amazement flashed in the others' eyes, while Xia Qinghan's face twisted for a moment.

Chapter 496: All Ruined

The moment she saw Xia Xibei, Xia Qinghan's expression twisted.

She hadn't expected Xia Xibei to actually come!

Before, she had heard Bai Meixue mention this, since the invitation was sent to the company, and a bunch of people already knew.

Knowing that, she always thought that something might happen, and Xia Xibei could not make it.

It would be great if some natural or man-made disaster occurred... Like a flowerpot falling from the sky and dropping on Xia Xibei, sending her to the hospital!

It was a pity that Xia Qinghan's prayers were not heard by God. Instead, it was Zhang Yiqi who had an accident befall her.

In two days, the college entrance exams will take place.

Originally, Zhang Yiqi was supposed to take her entrance exams this year, but she had gotten sick!

After being kicked into the pool by Xia Xibei last night, Zhang Yiqi was kicked out by Mo Bonan and couldn't even change her clothes, so she went back to the car dripping wet. The air conditioning in the car was too cold, and when she got home, she became sick.

Zhang Yiqi was usually very healthy and rarely got sick, but when this kind of person got sick, the illness was serious!

Zhang Yiqi had just finished her IV drip!

Even if she got better, her exam results would still be affected.

Due to what had happened to Tang Luo earlier, Zhang Yiqi's reputation in school had suffered.

Therefore, she was prepared to get a good score in the college entrance exams to clear her name.

She had never thought that it would turn out like this!

Zhang Yiqi could study abroad, but it was not what she wanted!

If she went abroad for her education, how could she hang around Mo Bonan?

Mo Bonan was not that young. He was at that age where girls would be madly pursuing him. If she left the country, it would be even more hopeless.

If she stayed in the country and got a good score, she could show up beautifully in front of Mo Bonan and make him change his mind about her.

But now all was lost!

Thinking of Zhang Yiqi's predicament, Xia Qinghan's face went slightly cold.

However, after thinking about Li Weiyun's plans, she smiled again.

She didn't know how Xia Xibei and Qiao Yanjue had gotten in touch, but Xia Xibei had still offended Li Weiyun.

What kind of person was Li Weiyun? She was the princess of the Li family!

Although the Li family had more power in the imperial capital, it would still be very easy to do something to a little orphan girl like Xia Xibei, who had no one to rely on.

Thinking about the upcoming development, Xia Qinghan's smile became even brighter.

Looking at Xia Qinghan, who was gnashing her teeth at one moment and smiling blissfully the next, Xia Xibei became cautious.

Although Xia Qinghan couldn't do anything here, Xia Xibei hadn't forgotten that Li Weiyun was behind her!

When she thought of Li Weiyun, she thought of Qiao Yanjue, and Xia Xibei's mood was suddenly messed up.

It was as if something had gone wrong somewhere.

"Xibei!" a cheerful voice sounded.

Xia Xibei looked up and saw Nie Zehai coming over to her with a smile on his face.

"Brother Hai."

Nie Zehai smiled and patted her shoulder, "I didn't expect you to come too."

After the previous incident, the two did not have much contact. After all, they all had their own things to do. There was no time to talk too much, especially for Nie Zehai. After hitting rock bottom, his popularity was once again soaring, and he was busy.

However, Nie Zehai was very grateful to Xia Xibei.

If it wasn't for her, his career would have been ruined.

Although Xia Xibei had gained popularity through him, he felt that he hadn't given back enough.

He was still thinking of helping Xia Xibei find more resources, so he didn't expect her to come over herself.

"The program team probably wants us to be a couple."

When she saw Nie Zehai, Xia Xibei finally understood.

Chapter 497: Sister Bei Will Help You Win

Because of what happened with Nie Zehai, Xia Xibei's popularity also grew.

Even though Nie Zehai had said Xia Xibei was his life saver and also posted group photos, proving that their earlier photo together was taken out of context, there were still many people who liked the combination of them.

The guy was handsome, the girl was beautiful, and they had survived a crisis together. If they really got together, the fans wouldn't reject the idea. They could even be happy to see it.

The program team certainly saw this angle, which was why they invited Xia Xibei over.

Xia Xibei told Nie Zehai about her guess, and the program's arrangements proved her right.

This time, there were 10 guests, six men and four women. Five were popular stars, the other five were real people.

The people on the show were good looking men and women, which was meant to create more sparks.

The team-picking lottery was conducted by the host, which made it easy to manipulate.

As expected, Xia Xibei ended up in a team with Nie Zehai, while Xia Qinghan was in a team with another male star.

After the teams were picked, everyone put on their team uniforms, which consisted of different colors.

Red, yellow, blue, green, and purple were the team colors. Xia Xibei and Nie Zehai wore red, while Xia Qinghan's team wore blue.

Everyone stood apart. The beautiful men and women were very eye-catching.

Before they left, the host conducted some interviews to have them say what they thought about the show and their partners, and also looked ahead to their performance afterwards.

Xia Qinghan's partner was a lean, 21-year-old, male star named Wei Xile, a member of a hot group.

Because of the makeup, it was hard to tell if Xia Qinghan had blushed. Her eyes were shining brightly as she looked at Wei Xile, "I will work hard! I will not drag Brother Le down!"

Wei Xile also smiled, flexing like a muscle man who had small muscles.

"Don't worry. We will win!"

The guests in the other teams spoke more or less the same words.

When it was Xia Xibei and Nie Zehai's turn, the host smiled and asked, "Zehai, it seems like she is your savior. How do you plan to repay her for saving your life?"

Nie Zehai smiled frankly, "I don't have any plans. I will just have Xia Xibei help me win."

The host froze. "You meant the opposite, right?"

"Of course not." He shook his head and said with a smile, "Sister Bei is so powerful, I'll let her help me win."

“Yes, I’ll help him win,” Xia Xibei agreed and nodded.

The host was speechless. What was the deal with these two?

Weren’t they given the opportunity to play up being a couple? Where was the chemistry?

They really needed to seize the opportunity!

However, he did not say too much. There would be editing later, anyway. How the episode looked depended on the post-production.

After the preliminary introduction, the mission officially began, and everyone headed inside the plaza.

When the guests first got there, they were in a daze because there were many large, heavy tires.

Then the host announced the rules.

“There are a total of 50 tires here, and under each tire is a string of numbers in different colors. Only when you find five numbers of the same color can you get the car key and go to the next station.”

Looking at the thick tires, everyone’s mouths twitched.

This would take them forever to find!

Moreover, the tires were so heavy!

This task was a test of strength, but it also depended on luck!

If you were unlucky, your first five tires would give you the correct numbers!

This was torture!

When they saw the host's casual attitude, everyone understood that this was just an appetizer!

What a godawful appetizer it was!

Chapter 498: Alliances

After hearing what the host said, the guests all had complicated expressions on their faces.

Fifty tires! And each one looked super heavy!

The crew member whispered that the tires all weighed the same, about 50 kilograms.

Fifty kilograms? That was heavier than the female artists present!

Did they want to play with their lives?

Although everyone complained in their minds, they knew that the program team always played very hard. Otherwise, the ratings would not be so good.

Sometimes, the audience liked to see the usually pretty and glamorous stars in a mess.

Xia Qinghan looked at these tires, and then at Wei Xile.

“Brother Le, how about we cooperate with others?”

She didn't know when they would be able to find all the numbers if they worked on their own.

Lifting each tire up and checking the number would be horrible.

A few tires didn't matter, but they were afraid they wouldn't find the numbers until the end!

Fifty kilos per tire!

It was best to work with other people, and the show didn't forbid alliances anyway.

"Good," Wei Xile nodded. He was fine with it.

He was a guy, but he was scared looking at those tires too.

He went straight to a star he had a good relationship with and spoke to his team about the decision.

After discussing it, they decided that they would help each other but work separately. If anyone saw each other's numbers, they'd write them down and exchange the information later.

In order to protect everyone's common interests, they must work together, and one side couldn't leave earlier than the other.

After discussing the matter, the four of them started working.

Xia Qinghan looked over to Xia Xibei's side, and when she saw her and Nie Zehai working alone, she couldn't help but snicker.

Xia Xibei and the others couldn't find someone to work with even if they wanted to because the other two teams had already made an alliance.

A two-team alliance was the best, as a three-team partnership did not have much advantage.

With an alliance in hand, Xia Qinghan was in a happy mood and went with Wei Xile to flip the tires.

When she finally got her hands on a tire, her face changed slightly. She just realized how heavy these tires were!

The tire was so big and heavy that two people had to work together to lift it.

“Look!”

Wei Xile lifted the tire and asked Xia Qinghan to look at the number on it.

“It’s not ours,” Xia Qinghan said, shaking her head in disappointment.

Wei Xile was also disappointed.

“Let’s try another one.”

“Okay.”

The two of them carefully put down the tire and continued to the next one.

They had wanted to skip ahead and pick randomly. However, they were afraid of missing the right number.

So, they could only look for them one by one.

After flipping nearly 10 tires and becoming out of breath, they only found two sets of numbers, and one set was their ally's.

Looking at the 15 tires left, the two of them looked at each other and smiled bitterly.

This show was really horrific!

But they were here, so what else could they do?

They had to keep going!

When they found the third set of numbers, the shrill whistle sounded.

Wei Xile shivered. If he did not use his back to hold the tire, the tire might have fallen down and crushed them.

Xia Qinghan was also startled. She turned her head to look, stunned.

Xia Xibei and Nie Zehai took their car key, looking relaxed. Smiling and waving their hands, they said, "Everyone, we're leaving first!"

The other four teams looked confused.

What was happening?

Chapter 499: Helping You Win

Not only were the other guests confused, but all the program staff were confused too.

The cameraman who followed Xia Xibei and Nie Zehai captured the whole process on film.

After knowing the rules and requirements, Nie Zehai's first reaction was also to find an alliance. After all, how long would it take if they only relied on themselves?

But Xia Xibei stopped him.

"No, we'll just do it ourselves."

Forming an alliance with others could save a lot of effort. However, there was a downside.

It was a competition, and whoever took less time won.

If you cooperated with others, you had to move at the same time as them.

This would not be much of an advantage.

She wiped her nose with a thumb and said proudly, "Don't worry, I'll show you what it means to be the best of the best!"

Looking at Xia Xibei's confident expression, Nie Zehai was skeptical.

Although Xia Xibei said that she could help him win just before the recording of the show, he did not really believe her.

The reason they said that in front of the host was because they didn't want to be made into a couple by the show.

Of course, Nie Zehai also thought of another solution. If Xia Xibei did not perform well, he could also work it out.

But he didn't expect Xia Xibei to be so confident!

The best of the best? That was a big mouthful!

If the moment was edited into the show and she didn't do well, who knew how happy her haters would be?

Xia Xibei did not know what was in Nie Zehai's mind.

She said to him, "Let's go."

Nie Zehai was bewildered, following her obediently. His attitude made him look like her little brother, rather than several years her elder.

Xia Xibei led him to one of the tires. "This is it!"

Nie Zehai was just about to ask how she knew when he saw her bend down, grab the tire with both hands, and lift it up!

Holy cow! What kind of strength was this?

Nie Zehai and the photographer's jaws dropped.

Xia Xibei's movements were effortless, as if she had picked up a pair of chopsticks from the ground, simple and easy.

Her movements were casual and natural, so much so that Nie Zehai could not help but suspect that this tire was an inflatable one.

Next, Xia Xibei's actions became even more bewildering.

The other teams all worked like this: one person held the tire while another person copied the numbers. After all, the tire was very heavy.

They could also flip the tires over, but after flipping it over, if it wasn't their numbers, wouldn't it help the other teams?

Xia Xibei held the tire with both hands and looked down to see the numbers. Her posture was relaxed, as if the tire was weightless and airy.

Nie Zehai's expression stiffened and he followed suit, looking down.

When he looked clearly at the color of the numbers, he was stunned once again.

It was red!

She had guessed it!

What kind of luck was this? She really got it right!

Xia Xibei wrote down the number. "651575. Hmm, all right. let's go."

After saying that, she bent slightly at the waist and put the tire down.

The two walked around. Xia Xibei picked another tire. "This one."

"1..."

Nie Zehai had not yet said anything before Xia Xibei squatted down and lifted the tire up with one hand.

Nie Zehai and the photographer were left speechless.

Nie Zehai looked at the camera with a little embarrassment on his face and said quietly, "I'll help later."

The photographer pursed his lips and did not dare to laugh out loud.

Unfortunately, this tire was not theirs.

Xia Xibei did not mind. She put the tire down and continued to move.

By the third tire, Nie Zehai rushed up.

“Let me...”

His eyes widened.

What the-! It was this heavy?!

Chapter 500: Total Domination

The photographer gave Nie Zehai a close-up and captured his expression on camera.

In the shot, Nie Zehai’s veins were slightly bulged, so that people knew at first glance that the tires were heavy.

Even the photographer could not help but wonder. The two tires Xia Xibei had lifted were inflatable, right...?

After the initial shock, Nie Zehai’s expression returned to normal. He said to Xia Xibei. “See if this is ours.”

“OK,” Xia Xibei nodded and stretched out a hand to hold the tire.

Then, Nie Zehai realized that the tire felt much lighter.

Nie Zehai nodded and gingerly lowered the tire.

Because of Xia Xibei’s help, the process of putting it down was much easier.

In just 10 minutes, they had found two sets of their numbers. Nie Zehai was happy; they sure had good luck today!

Even if it took more time to find the remaining three sets of numbers, it was enough to show how lucky Xia Xibei was.

The other teams had turned over several tires without necessarily finding one set of numbers.

By the fourth tire, Nie Zehai had not moved before Xia Xibei lifted the tire.

Nie Zehai didn't know what to do. He took a closer look at Xia Xibei, then speechlessly realized that she had a really relaxed expression!

She didn't seem to be straining at all!

At this moment, he couldn't help but doubt himself.

As a grown man, was he weaker than Xia Xibei? Or maybe the tire Xia Xibei had picked was shoddily built?

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but reach out to hold the tire.

Once the tire was in his hands, he immediately felt its thickness.

It was no different from the previous tires!

Now he was really devastated.

Xia Xibei was really stronger than him!

Xia Xibei had no idea what a pitiful blow the man next to her had been dealt. She looked down and smiled. "It's our numbers again."

Nie Zehai looked down, his eyes wide.

Xia Xibei's luck was unbelievable!

"425451," Xia Xebe jotted it down and put the tire back. "Next."

Nie Zehai followed two steps before realizing something was wrong. "Wait, what were those two numbers just now?"

He was so shocked just now that he had followed Xia Xibei, forgetting to write down the numbers!

"651575, 532152," Xia Xibei answered without hesitation.

He drew a breath. "How did you remember that?"

How in the world did she remember the numbers when they weren't even remotely related?

Xia Xibei looked at him with a surprised expression, very puzzled. "Is it hard to remember?"

Nie Zehai was speechless, feeling like his IQ was being mocked.

He was very good at school back, with a great memory, but in front of Xia Xibei, he couldn't find a bit of confidence.

Whether it was memory, luck, or strength, she totally dominated over him!

Looking at his strange expression, Xia Xibei couldn't help but be concerned. "What's wrong? Did you get hurt just now?"

Nie Zehai was startled and hurriedly shook his head. "No, no, no! I'm fine! I'm not hurt!"

If he got hurt after moving one tire, how humiliating would it be?!

"Oh, that's good." Xia Xibei didn't think too much about it. "Then let's keep going."

"Good," Nie Zehai nodded. "Let's go."

Walking among the tires, Nie Zehai hesitated for a while but still couldn't resist.

"How about this time, I'll find the numbers instead?"
