Chapter 517

Ye Yunjie smiled and nodded heavily.

She has long had the urge to do something about it.

Naturally, Ye Yunjie knew that behind this matter of the south of the city project, there was a tampering by Xu Wang, and in the past, Ye Yunjie had already planned to do so, but there was no suitable opportunity.

But now. It seemed that the opportunity was just right, and since Shen Haoting had already spoken, Ye Yunjie didn't have a single scruple, and walked directly towards Xu Wang.

Xu Lords looked Ye Yunjie up and down, his gaze full of contempt, he sneered: 'Oh. Shen Haoting, you are also an overseas lord, but you are so ridiculous, what. Do you think that such a woman can deal with my men? They are all retired special forces soldiers, and they were all great masters in the camp back in the day, and even a few strong men could not shake one of them.

Xu Lords didn't give Ye Yunjie a second thought, and as he said, how could this weak woman possibly stand up to the seven or eight experts around him?

I guess a normal person would think so.

Shen Haoting did not respond to Xu Liao, but only smiled lightly.

Ye Yunjie also smiled contemptuously, and walked towards Xu Lords while doing so. While sneering, she said, 'Can you help them, just try it and you will know!'

Lord Xu was not ambiguous either, and with a cold snort, he waved his hand and told his men to kill Ye Yunjie.

With a cold snort, Lord Xu said, 'You don't know your own strength, I wanted to keep you for a while, but you're asking for death, so you can't blame others!'

As Lord Xu spoke, his men had already reached Ye Yunjie, and one of them threw a punch at her first.

After all, this man was a retired special forces soldier, his stance, speed and strength were all much stronger than ordinary people.

This man could not help but sneer, thinking to himself that after this punch. Even if Ye Yunjie was not killed on the spot, she would probably lose half of her life.

But just when this man was most pleased with himself, he suddenly noticed that Ye Yunjie's body flickered in front of him and disappeared in an instant.

The man could not help but be shocked and was about to look around for Ye Yunjie when he suddenly felt his neck being held by a pair of warm and delicate hands .....

If on any other occasion, such a pair of warm hands hugged him, the man would have been overjoyed, thinking it was his peach blossom luck that had come.

But what he couldn't have imagined was that he wouldn't have any peach luck today, or even know that the hands that were holding him. More ferocious than death!

Almost at the same time as the man felt those hands, he also instantly felt the tremendous power coming from those hands, one might even say. It was an incredible force, so outrageous that it didn't want to know at all what a slim woman had exploded out of.

Instead, it was more like a top-notch Hercules, or, perhaps, a fierce beast!

Because almost the moment he was informed of the force in Ye Yunjie's hand, that strong man felt his neck being violently snapped!

It was almost an instant. This sturdy man could not even react before his neck was snapped in response to the sound, and he died because his spine was broken!

And this was just the beginning .....

The first thing you need to do is to get rid of the man.

And Ye Yunjie didn't skim over a single person. The man fell down with a scream of misery.

After only a few dozen seconds, the few strong men who were still raging just now had all become dead bodies lying on the ground.

After finishing the last man, Ye Yunjie clapped her hands and looked at Xu Lords as if nothing had happened.

This not only shocked Feng Ze and Xu Liao, but also frightened several people.

What kind of devil is this?

Feng Ze was so frightened that his whole body was weak and he could not stand up. He only felt the hotness in his trousers .....

The first time he had ever seen a murderer, he was not prepared for it at all, and he was even thinking. The next one is going to be his turn!

As for Xu Liao, although he still pretended to be calm, his heart had long been shocked beyond belief.

He couldn't believe it. Such a tragic situation in front of him was only managed by a weak woman like Ye Yunjie.

‘You ..... how could you .....’

‘How could what? Done away with a few of them?’ Ye Yunjie sneered, interrupting Xu Lords words. Continuing, she added, ‘A mere few straw men, to deal with them, I even feel ashamed!’

Ye Yunjie said while walking towards Xu Lords, this move couldn’t help but scare Xu Lords backwards, just now Ye Yunjie instantly killed those few people in seconds, really down pregnant with Xu Lords.

‘You ..... what are you going to do .....’ Xu lord said with some consternation, ‘I warn you, don’t try to do anything to me, I ..... I didn’t just bring in so few people today!’

Xu lord coldly snorted, pointed outside and said, ‘If you don’t believe me, you can see, at this time there are still hundreds of my people outside!’

As soon as Lord Xu’s words fell, Feng Ze hurriedly and handsomely ran to the window first and stretched out his neck to look over.

Of course, he wanted to see if it was Xu Liao who was converting people, after all, if what he said was false, then he would be dead here today.

But if it was true, then it seemed that he would be able to get through this calamity safely today.

After all, even if Ye Yunjie was very powerful and was able to take out seven or eight strong men without much effort.

But even so, what could she do? Could it be that she would still be able to outwit several hundred people? Even if only a few of these hundreds of people were able to hurt Ye Yunjie, that would probably be a fatal blow to her!

Even if these people were to pile up with a sea of people, they would still be able to kill Ye Yunjie, and in the end, Ye Yunjie would still be repaired miserably?

Thinking of this, Feng Ze couldn’t help but be filled with it.

He pushed open the window and looked outside the tavern, and suddenly his entire body was astonished.

This was because he saw that at this moment, outside the restaurant, there were already vehicles of all colours parked.

Among them were minivans, as well as off-road vehicles, and there were countless cars and SUV’s.

And on the side of those vehicles, there were no less than five hundred young strong men poking around, and at this time, these people were either chatting with each other or looking at the inside of the restaurant nervously.

Some of them had even pulled out their weapons.

It was the first time in his life that Feng Ze had seen such a shocking scene, and he couldn’t help but be a little stunned.

But immediately he reacted and shouted, 'Quickly, come up, come and protect Xu!'

Chapter 518

As soon as Feng Ze said this, hundreds of pairs of eyes from downstairs fell on him.

These people looked at each other, somewhat unsure of what to do.

But someone quickly reacted and immediately led a loud shout, 'Something has happened to General Manager Xu, everyone get on!'

After this cry, the hundreds of people present instantly came back to their senses, and then after an earth-shattering shout, several hundred people rushed towards the door of the restaurant in a swarm .....

The sound from outside, through the window that Feng Ze pushed open. The people inside could hear it clearly.

After experiencing the instantaneous killing of seven or eight strong men by Ye Yunjie just now, Xu Lords also came back to his senses at this time, and his heart was even better.

He sneered, 'Hmph, you heard me, I'm not lying, right? To tell you the truth, I have brought no less than five hundred people with me today. If I lose a single hair here today, all three of you will die a good death!'

Looking at Shen Haoting, Lord Xu continued, 'Hmph. So what if you are the richest overseas Chinese, in this Chu River, this is my territory, even if you are a dragon, you will have to stay in this dive! If you still want to live. I advise you to be smart, otherwise, don't blame me, Lord Xu, for not being polite!'

Lord Xu took it for granted that he was bound to have the upper hand again this time.

After all, in just a few minutes, the hundreds of reinforcements from downstairs would be rushing up, and even the Ye Yunjie soldiers beside Shen Haoting would be useless by then.

She was only one person, no matter how powerful she was, and she couldn't help that many people alone.

Lord Xu looked at Shen Haoting, his anger once again flooding him.

He continued, 'Shen Haoting, Shen Haoting, you should not have done anything, but why did you have to do it to my son? You know, that is my only son, if you kill him, you are provoking me, and you will not end up in a good way, even if I have to fight you to the death!'

'Hmph, but it seems there is no need now, because you will all die here today!' Lord Xu continued, 'I guess you must have come all the way back to Chujiang for the south of the city project, huh, don't you think you've come back a bit finished? Now don't say you, even if the King of Heaven were standing here, it wouldn't necessarily change the status quo of the City South project. Hmph, resign yourself to your fate, you're still a bit short of fighting me!'

Xu Liao's words were full of arrogance and contempt.

Even though he knew that hundreds of people were rushing up to kill him downstairs, he didn't panic at all.

Instead, he smiled lightly, drew a chair and sat down, looking at Xu Liao lightly, saying: 'What, do you think I, Shen Haoting, would come back without a single certainty? Don't you think your idea is too naive?'

Shen Haoting continued, 'Let me tell you, since I have come back, I will definitely deal with the south of the city project in a clear manner, even a mere Xu family wants to oppose me, I am afraid you are too insolent. To tell you the truth, I guess the approval for the resumption of the City South project has already come down, and none of you who oppose me will have a good end!'

Shen Haoting's words immediately drew a sarcastic laugh from Xu Liao: 'What did you say? The City South project resumes? Are you kidding me? I guess what you'll be waiting for is the approval for the withdrawal of the City South project, right? The leaders of Chujiang have already made the decision to completely cancel the South City Project, and this decision has now been tacitly approved by a higher level through operation. How can you, Shen Haoting, still think that you can change the decision of these bigwigs? How ridiculous!'

Shen Haoting laughed but did not say anything, he knew that Lord Xu would not believe him, but there was no need to explain to him himself, as it was estimated that it would not take long for him to get the news.

Sure enough, not even a minute had passed since Xu Liao had said this, Feng Ze's mobile phone rang.

The caller was Feng Ze's supervisor, and as soon as the call was answered, the person on the other end was scolding Xu Liao, asking him what he had done to get himself disciplined by his superiors.

Finally the superior said in a fury: 'Feng, I inform you, now you are fired, do not presume to plead for mercy, because this decision is not you and I can easily change that, and your private problems, there will also be someone to investigate, if you are found to have illegal and disorderly issues. Then sorry, you'll be waiting for jail! Humph, don't think you can do whatever you want just because you are now half a son-in-law of the Xu family, this time you are completely finished.'

Feng Ze was directly dumbfounded when he heard his superior's words.

He hurriedly said, 'No ..... why ah? What's wrong with me .....? The leader. Leader, don't joke, tell me clearly, what is going on here?'

I think it won't take long for you to figure out what's going on. At least we are colleagues, so I advise you to behave yourself. In addition, I would like to inform you that there is a change in the matter of the south of the city project. I have just received an approval from the top, saying that the City South project has to be re-examined and accepted, saying that this is a project that will benefit the country and the people of Chujiang and cannot be withdrawn. '

'Well, that's all I have to tell you. Anyway, I warn you, this time, you must have met a ruthless character, how you deal with yourself to think about it, I can only tell you, now no one can save you. You're counting on the Xu family? I think this time, the Xu family may also be unable to take care of themselves!'

After saying that, the other party hung up the phone.

Feng Ze's face was stunned, he seemed to understand his superior's words, and also felt a bit unbelievable.

He looked at Shen Haoting with a complicated gaze, somewhat suspicious, somewhat puzzled, but he clearly remembered that his boss had just said that the order this time was given directly from the Northern Government, so did it mean that this was an order given from the highest level?

If that was the case, then this Shen Haoting was really powerful, to have such a hard connection?

No wonder this guy had acted as if he had no fear from the beginning, it turned out that he already had a bottom line in his heart. Perhaps he even knew what the outcome would be long ago!

That would be really scary .....

Thinking of this, Feng Ze couldn't help but feel a shiver run through his body .....

'What's wrong with you?' Seeing Feng Ze's pale face, Lord Xu couldn't help but frown and ask, 'Hmph. This little battle and you're scared like this?'

Lord Xu thought that Feng Ze was frightened by Ye Yunjie killing those few strong men in seconds, and he was a little upset.

In fact, Lord Xu had never had a good feeling about Feng Ze, but his father had taken a fancy to him and insisted on marrying his elder brother's daughter to Feng Ze.

Of course, Feng Ze was unwilling to do so. But there was nothing he could do about it. Besides, it was his elder brother's child, so he didn't bother to interfere.

But after all, he was half a son-in-law, and he was so scared that he seemed to have just wet his trousers. This simply disgusted Xu Lords to the core.

Feng Ze looked at Xu Lords with a stunned expression and said, 'Xu ..... General Xu, something has happened .....

Lord Xu sneered, not even bothering with Feng Ze's words, 'Something has happened? What can go wrong?'

'I ..... I've been fired!' Feng Ze said nervously.

Xu Lords smiled and frowned, 'Oh? Who did that? Hm, but so be it, as far as you work, all year round you don't earn as much as the black back that we keep at home to look after the house, so fire it, I'll give you a job as a project manager in a branch office later, isn't it a hundred times better than that?'

Xu Lords words were very hard to hear, to compare himself to a dog, and finally to say that he was even worse than a dog, this was simply humiliating.

It was just that this was the occasion now. Even if Feng Ze's heart was not feeling well, he could only suppress all his grievances in his heart, his gaze quietly glaring at Lord Xu with loathing, and continued, 'But there is another piece of even worse news, I'm afraid Mr. Xu will also be shocked to hear it!'

Xu Lords sneered and said in disbelief, 'Do you think there is anything else that could surprise me now?'

'There is!' Feng Ze said lightly, 'I've just been informed that the south of the city project, is alive again!'

'What?' Hearing this news, Xu Liao was simply stunned and looked at Feng Ze incomparably shocked, asking, 'Are you kidding? How can the City South Project be alive again when its death is already sealed? Who did you hear that from? It's purely demonic talk!'

Feng Ze sighed, 'I can tell you very clearly that this news is absolutely true, there's not a hint of adulteration, and as far as I know, it's a directive coming down from the Northern Government!'
