

Chapter 54: Don't Treat Me Like A Fool

The next morning, Xia Xibei returned to school refreshed after her morning exercises.

As soon as she got to the school entrance, she saw Song Jiaren rush over to her in excitement.

“Bei Bei!”

Song Jiaren gave Xia Xibei a hug. Her name also went from the unfamiliar whole name to the intimate Bei Bei.

Song Jiaren's excitement was beyond words. When she got up this morning, she found her clothes were drenched in sweat, but she felt really good.

After taking a shower and weighing herself, she was stunned!

In just one night, she had lost three jin! Three jin! She couldn't lose one jin even after jogging for days! But she had gotten results like this after just a 20-minute medicinal bath!

As she slept last night, her body had been detoxing automatically. Now she felt as light as a bird!

Xia Xibei really knew her stuff! She wanted to hug her and turn in circles!

Even though three jin wasn't much to her sizable figure, it made her see hope! She really could be skinny!

"Well, don't get so excited. You'll be even thinner in the future," Xia Xibei patted her arm, walking ahead with a smile.

There were quite a few students at school in the morning, all of them surprised by the intimate demeanor of the two of them.

When did Xia Xibei get so friendly with Song Jiaren?

At the school gate, Yang Xuan walked in with a haggard face. Yesterday, his parents had been taken to the police precinct and had to be detained for a few days. Even though it was just a few days, it had been a huge blow to Yang Xuan.

He actually didn't want to come to school at all. After all, this was very embarrassing, since everyone must be discussing the matter.

However, if he didn't come to school, what would Song Jiaren do? He couldn't give up on Song Jiaren.

However, he didn't think that as soon as he got to school, he would see Song Jiaren and Xia Xibei acting so affectionate.

This made him panic.

Xia Xibei wouldn't tell Song Jiaren about their business, would she? If Song Jiaren knew he was two-timing her, he'd be over! Sister Jiaren of Qing Ye High School wasn't a good person to anger! No! Absolutely not!

Thinking of this, he went to look for Song Jiaren right away.

Jiaren Song was so happy because she had lost a few jin, but when she turned around and saw Yang Xuan, her face suddenly became gloomy.

"Jia Jia," Yang Xuan said, looking affectionate, "I have something to tell you."

"What is there to say?" Song Jiaren asked, her expression ugly.

In fact, she still liked Yang Xuan. After all, he treated her well and was the first boy to pursue her, making him even more special. However, her heart hardened, thinking of what Xia Xibei told her about Yang Xuan's behavior.

"It's about yesterday," he explained, his face bitter.

"Yesterday?" Song Jiaren's face got dark. "I know about yesterday. You don't have to tell me anything."

"No! What you saw wasn't true!" Yang Xuan said anxiously, "It wasn't like what you saw at all!"

“Not like what?” Song Jiaren looked at him head-on. “You didn’t borrow Bei Bei’s money and tried not to pay it back? You weren’t two-timing people? Your parents didn’t make a mess at school because of this?”

“I...” Yang Xuan was speechless.

Before he could continue to explain, Song Jiaren shook her fist at him. “Don’t treat me like a fool! I won’t deal with you now, but if you ever show up near me in the future, I won’t let you off so easily!”

Then she turned and left.

Chapter 55: What’s the Next Move?

Yang Xuan was very anxious. Although he didn’t like Song Jiaren, he couldn’t afford to give up the benefits that came with her.

There were many girls in school, and there wasn’t a shortage of pretty or wealthy girls either.

However, those girls wouldn’t necessarily like him. His tricks might not work with them. Song Jiaren was fat and ugly, which made her the easiest target around.

But now that Xia Xibei had drawn Song Jiaren to her side, what would he do?

Yang Xuan was so troubled that he didn't even notice people pointing at him and making comments.

Right after returning to the classroom, his phone vibrated. He took it out for a look, seeing it was a message from Liu Zhijing.

Yang Xuan agreed to Liu Zhijing's suggestion to meet up. Right after morning class ended, he went up to the rooftop, which was their secret meeting spot.

"What's the matter with you and Xia Xibei?"

Upon arriving, Liu Zhijing immediately began questioning him with a cold, hard face.

"How do I know what's wrong with that b*tch!" Yang Xuan shouted, equally angry and frustrated.

All the trouble and suffering he had gone through these past two days was all thanks to Xia Xiibei!

His reputation was ruined, and his parents had been detained. Also, they even paid back 20,000 dollars! When he had only borrowed 10,000!

Most importantly, Xia Xibei had built a rapport with Song Jiaren!

“Weren’t you getting along with her? How did it all turn out like this?”

Liu Zhijing had only heard about what happened to Yang Xuan yesterday when she returned to the school this morning.

The news had surprised her a lot.

Yang Xuan and Xia Xibei were a couple obviously, so how did the matter even turn out so badly?

Sure enough, Liu Zhijing knew about Yang Xuan’s relationship with Xia Xibei. After all, she had put in such a great deal of effort into it.

After getting together with Yang Xuan, Xia Xibei had to work harder to earn a living. The only free time she had left had to be spent with Yang Xuan as well, which left her even less time to study.

In other words, Xia Xibei’s situation would continue getting worse. At least that was Liu Zhijing’s aim.

Who would have expected things to take such a drastic turn after just one day?

Yang Xuan was the one getting embarrassed now, along with those strange parents of his!

“How would I know?!” Yang Xuan demanded, “Yesterday, she wanted to break up with me all of a sudden, and even made me pay her back. She even beat me up!”

“Beat you up?” Liu Zhijing asked with shock, “How did she even do that?”

“I don’t know when that lil’ b*tch got all that prowess! Most importantly, she denied having done it afterwards!”

When he recounted what had happened, Yang Xuan felt the oppressive feeling in his chest intensify.

This was the first time he had got beaten up! And no one believed him about it in the end!

“She has such prowess?” Liu Zhijing was stunned as well.

Xia Xibei had been such an easy target for bullies! How did she change into a whole different person within such a short time?

As she recalled how Xia Xibei had bickered with her yesterday, Liu Zhijing understood it all.

“Xia Xibei has been fawning over Song Jiaren now, are you aware of that?”

It must have been Song Jiaren who gave Xia Xibei such bravery and confidence!

“I saw it just now,” Yang Xuan said with worry. “And she even told Song Jiaren lots of bad things about me!”

“What did she say?”

“Song Jiaren knew about me having several girlfriends at once now.” Yang Xuan’s face was ashen gray.

“What?” Liu Zhijing asked, startled. Continuing with a frown, she prodded, “What was Song Jiaren’s reaction after that?”

“She asked me not to look for her anymore, Otherwise, she won’t have any mercy on me.” Yang Xuan’s shoulders hunched as he talked. “What should I do now?”

He was reluctant to leave Song Jiaren... and the wealth that she represented.

“She didn’t hit or scold you?” Liu Zhijing asked.

“No,” Yang Xuan shook his head.

Liu Zhijing’s eyes lit up suddenly, exclaiming, “If that’s the case, things are very easy to settle!”
