

Chapter 56: Put Up A Heroic Show

“Easy to settle?” Yang Xuan looked at her with doubt and a little bit of displeasure. “How can it still be easy to settle at this point of time!”

“Are you stupid!” Liu Zhijing berated him, “You’re not a girl, that’s why you’re clueless. But I know! If Song Jiaren reacted that way, it means she still has feelings for you!”

“Really?” Yang Xuan asked, even more puzzled than before.

“If she had no feelings for you at all, she would have sent someone to teach you a lesson by now!” Liu Zhijing explained. “Therefore, there is still a chance to turn things around!”

As he listened to her, Yang Xuan came to his senses as well, beaming with surprise.

“Yes! You must be right!”

Although he didn’t like Song Jiaren, thinking she was too fat and revolting, he understood her character regardless. He knew that she was quite kind-hearted and gentle. In fact, she wasn’t really as ferocious and evil as how people described her.

Therefore, he just had to take advantage of that, and things might turn around for him!

“But... what am I supposed to do?” Yang Xuan asked, troubled once again.

"It's simple!" Liu Zhijing flashed a cunning smile. "We could put up a heroic show!"

"A heroic show?"

"Yes!" Liu Zhijing was thrilled. "If you rescue her when she's in danger, she will certainly become hell-bent on staying with you! Once she becomes obsessed with you again, she won't take Xia Xibei's words seriously anymore!"

Liu Zhijing was a girl, so she knew that some girls became blind once they fell in love. By then, nothing from the outside world could influence them anymore.

"But, what danger can there be?" Yang Xuan was still helpless. "Don't forget that she's much more capable than I am!"

Putting aside Song Jiaren's martial strength, her size alone was enormous. Who would be foolish enough to even lay a finger on her?

"Are you stupid or what?" Liu Zhijing asked in frustration, "Can't you just create some danger yourself?"

"That..." Yang Xuan hesitated. "That isn't easy though!"

Song Jiaren's father was the well-known head of a gang in their area, so who would dare to harm his daughter?

“Come on, just how powerful can the Song family be? They’re not invincible!” Liu Zhijing remarked contemptuously.

Even though the Songs were renowned, they still had a long way to go to gain real prestige and influence in this world! It was only because the place wasn’t big that the Songs could behave so rampantly.

“Even if they aren’t invincible, there’s no way we could do it,” Yang Xuan argued, brows deeply furrowed. “We can’t find anyone here!”

“Why don’t you ever use your brain?!” Liu Zhijing shot back, looking at him in disgust. “We can find people somewhere else if we can’t find them here!”

“Where?”

“If we can’t find people in our area, we can go to other areas! The Songs can’t be that influential, can they?”

Looking at Liu Zhijing’s confident manner, Yang Xuan felt reassured once again.

After discussing the matter and deciding on their next moves, they went downstairs for classes.

On her way back to the classroom, Liu Zhijing passed by the third class of sophomore year and caught sight of Xia Xibei.

She couldn't help but sneer. Once they regained Song Jiaren's favor, Xia Xibei would lose her support! Then she would see whether Xia Xibei could keep behaving arrogantly!

As she recalled the slap that Song Jiaren gave her yesterday, Liu Zhijing felt even more ashamed inside. And it had all been because of Xia Xibei!

Xia Xibei happened to look up and met Liu Zhijing's resentful gaze, flashing a bright smile at her.

It caught Liu Zhijing off guard.

Chapter 57: The Show Is Starting

Liu Zhijing was startled by Xia Xibei's bright smile, finally returning it with a smug smile.

Xia Xibei raised her eyebrows. When she moved her hand, there was a bird beside the window.

Soon, from the mouth of the bird, she understood why Liu Zhijing smiled so proudly.

Thinking of this, she gave Liu Zhijing a sarcastic and provocative smile, patting her own face lightly.

Liu Zhijing's face instantly darkened, but before she could say anything, the teacher arrived, so she had to return to her own classroom unhappily.

When Liu Zhijing sat in her seat and thought of Xia Xibei's provocation, her face became even gloomier.

"What is it?" Xia Qinghan asked in a low voice.

"Nothing," she shook her head. "I just thought of something."

"As long as you're ok. If you need help, remember to tell me."

"OK."

Watching Xia Qinghan, with her gentle smile and elegant demeanor, Liu Zhijing hated Xia Xibei even more. Xia Qinghan was the best star, while Xia Xibei was motherless and fatherless trash who was better off hiding in a corner.

Outside, a few more birds appeared by the window, chirping very lively.

Xia Xibei sat near the window. When she stretched out her hand and waved, the birds scattered.

“Why are the birds so happy today?” Tang Luo asked in confusion.

There were normally a lot of birds here, but today they seemed to be extra excited, seemingly never stopping their chirping.

“Maybe something good happened!” Xia Xibei crinkled her eyes. “The weather is nice, isn’t it?”

Tang Luo looked at her suspiciously, not understanding the connection between the two.

However, he didn’t have much time to think about it. The monthly exam was the next day and their focus should be on studying.

Meanwhile, Xia Xibei looked at the blackboard with a faint smile on her lips.

Just now, she saw Liu Zhijing walking towards the rooftop, closely followed by Yang Xuan, so she asked these birds to pay attention to their situation. Although the brains of these birds were small and they couldn’t remember many things, Xia Xibei had quickly pieced together their plan from the birds’ words.

A hero saved a damsel in distress...

Hah, like they had the skills to be heroes!

While Xia Xibei didn’t think that they would give up on Song Jiaren so easily, she did not expect that they would use such stupid tricks.

If they wanted to play a game, then she'd make sure it was a good one! She'd give them a chance to perform!

With that plan in place, she focused all of her attention on studying. The monthly exam was the next day, and the top three students would receive scholarships.

Before, Xia Xibei was far from the best, the scholarship not even on her mind. Now, however, the scholarship would be hers!

Xia Xibei flipped through her books faster than she changed her facial expressions. In spite of Tang Luo's focus, he noticed her motions.

Was she reading books or flipping through them?!

"Tomorrow is the monthly exam," Tang Luo couldn't resist saying.

"I know. I'm reviewing right now," Xia Xibei replied, looking very serious.

Tang Luo could only remain silent, full of confusion.

Fine. She could do whatever she wanted.

Soon, it was the afternoon. Xia Xibei had received a message from Song Jiaren saying that she had to deal with something first, so she would go to her house later.

She already knew the address; she could go over by herself later on.

Xia Xibei replied with a “received,” showing a mischievous smile.

Then she used the birds’ guidance to go to the location where the hero would “save the damsel.”

The show would be starting soon!