

Chapter 561: air combat

“Above the Sky: Weak souls bound by gravity can only regain their freedom from the sky. As long as you touch any force point originating from the ground, it will cause the stagnation of magic power to be unable to drive for 3 seconds; when you have no contact force Click, all your spell effects will be 100% more effective for 3 seconds.”

“Affix recognition bonus: a small amount of space faction experience, a small amount of mana.”

“Limited Affix Privilege: In the next Dream Bubble, you will trigger a positive effect above the sky.”

In the first five minutes of entering this dream bubble, the four of them directly figured out this affix. After all, the magic spirits were all stunned as if they couldn't breathe.

But when they triggered the official battle, they found that the situation was completely different from what they imagined!

Swish!

Yaxiu launched the miracle “Heart Pen”, and the Heart Sword Pen walked dragons and snakes, laying vertical and horizontal ink marks in the air.

However, the spear sanctuary flapped its wings of gold and silver, and quickly pulled up and crossed the ink-stained defense net. Even if Yaxiu immediately avoided the block, the spear sanctuary delicately turned back in the air, and the spear tip drew a half-moon trajectory, like a comet dotted in Yaxiu. on the sanctuary!

Boom!

The effect of each magic spirit is strengthened by 100%, then the miracle effect is at least three times stronger! Yaxiu's mana to maintain the Sanctuary is rapidly depleting, and has fallen below 30% of the danger value!

On the contrary, the sanctuary of the spear was almost never injured by Ash, whether it was the sword of the heart, the pen of the heart or the sword of anger. With his flying ability, he evaded all of Ashe's attack methods, and even Ashe could not touch his sanctuary in melee combat with him!

Ash is in desperate need of support, but the others aren't much better off than him:

Jian Ji faces off against the sword-winged car dragon. The latter has a layer of sanctuary-like fluff on its skin. The faster the speed, the harder the fluff, and the resistance of various resistances also rises rapidly. ;

The witch is entangled with the swordsmanship sanctuary, her aquatic thread will be cut off directly, and she is very reluctant to deal with it;

Weisser was the only one who didn't get beaten, but if she was a little distracted, she would immediately encounter a surprise attack from an imaginary creature...

In fact, according to the configuration of the enemy, it should be the sword princess fighting the swordsmanship sanctuary, the witch restricts the sword-winged car dragon, Yaxiu and Weisser entangled in the spear sanctuary, and the sword princess and the witch will come back to rescue the enemy together.

However, because the affix "Above the Sky" limits the battlefield to the air, all of their tactics cannot be implemented or they want to implement tactics, but the virtual creatures destroyed their tactical arrangement just by relying on mobility.

Ash and their air combat capabilities are too weak.

Accelerated steering, looping, rolling maneuvers, barrel rolling maneuvers, pulling maneuvers, half-rolling inversions, cobra maneuvers... For those like Yaxiu who can only fly forward and are not even familiar with reversing perspectives, the imaginary creatures' flying skills have reached the point where they feel a little dizzy just looking at them. If nothing else, everyone has two wings, and the flying speed of the virtual sanctuary is a bit faster than them. It is true that they have understood the fluid mechanics.

Yaxiu and the others were quite confident in finding out the first affix, isn't it just air combat? Isn't it that the battlefield has changed from a plane to a three-dimensional? is it hard?

It's really hard.

Even Jian Ji, who had a preview, found that the difficulty was much higher than she imagined.

For example, she thought that this affix was just to make 'enemies who are good at air combat stronger', but the result was that 'all those who are not proficient in air combat will become waste' and were eliminated by the temporary version!

Yaxiu felt that they were not playing against enemies of the same level at all, but simply that the computer was thrown into the rankings with diamonds. There is not much difference between the two sides in other aspects. If it is a ground battle, Ash and the others will definitely be able to defeat the enemy. However, it is the shortcoming of the air battle that makes them shit.

They wanted to arrange their opponents based on spell restraint, but now they didn't choose the path at all, but the imaginary creatures, and their mobility did not allow them to change paths.

The only exception is Wesser, her air combat ability is not weak, the Void creature wanted to fight the weakest Wesser from the beginning, and only turned to attack others when she found that she could not hold her in a short time.

But Wesser was not good at fighting, and at most he helped to rescue his teammates.

"It can't go on like this!" Yaxiu quickly got rid of the spear sanctuary, "Our magic power will be exhausted sooner or later! Can you solve the opponent!?"

“Ugh...” Diya stubbornly avoided the pursuit of the Sword Art Sanctuary, her silk thread was very reluctant to limit the enemy, “Give me a little more time, as long as I trigger the aging effect a few more times, he will die!”

Diya is equipped with “Golden Collection·Liujinhe Water”, the effect is “Your attack will continue to inject Liujinhe water into the target. During the continuous period, the target’s mana consumption is doubled, and there is a 5% chance to trigger the aging effect, causing 20% to the target. The current mana loss and 20% slow response.”

The requirement for this collection is to be in effect continuously. Naturally, Yaxiu and Sonia, whose attacks are based on instant explosions, are not useful. Diya’s silk thread has the effect of controlling entanglement. This collection is perfect for her.

In fact, this is indeed the case. In the first few fantasy bubbles, as long as Deya can hang the silk thread on the enemy, the enemy will soon trigger the aging effect and lose the combat power.

Because of the powerful enhancement of the golden collection, Diya has undoubtedly become the main output of this virtual realm exploration, but in the air battle, she could not choose an opponent, and was forced to fight against the swordsmanship sanctuary that restrained her, and the silk thread did not hang for long. , until now, it has only triggered aging once, and it is still suppressed by the swordsmanship sanctuary.

hateful!

When they got this collection, the witch sisters were so excited that they could be handsome tonight, waiting for a hard fight against a strong enemy, and then she handsomely solved the enemy and went back to save Yaxiu in danger. The next step is naturally Yaxiu was deeply fascinated by her face and couldn’t help hugging her, while Jian Ji was still entangled by the virtual creatures and couldn’t stop her, she could only watch the witch’s complete victory...

Although it is indeed a fierce battle now, but she can’t open the situation at all! Moreover, her enemy still restrained her swordsmanship sanctuary, Diya almost felt that the virtual realm was a hint.

"I can't do it here either." Sonia dodged the swooping of the knife-winged charioteer, and the blood-colored fluctuations of the 'Blood Moon Broken Lake' swept across its abdomen, and there was a piercing symphony of steel, even breaking the skin. not.

Sonia's collection tonight is "Silver Collection, Moon Shadow Master", the effect is "each attack can get 1 layer of Sanctuary damage reduction blessing, lasting 30 seconds, up to 10 layers", that is, it consumes the same magic power, but Sonia's sanctuary can offset more damage, which is why she is qualified to face the knife-winged car dragon head-on.

The best time to hit the knife-winged chariot is when it comes to a stop, but every time the beast rushes a long way and then flies into the sky and dives down, much faster than Sonia.

The most grassy thing is that when Sonia hit its wings with Meteor Catastrophe for the first time, every time it dives, it shoots iron feathers to trigger Meteor Catastrophe.

It's not that the village girl's Meteor Tribulation can't prevent anti-long-range attacks. The principle of this trick is to trace the source through the attack trajectory, but the problem is that the knife-winged dragon itself is also moving at a high speed, which means that it will be long before Sonia cuts it back. Not in place anymore.

If the Meteor Tribulation doesn't work, the sanctuary-like fluff of the car dragon can resist all of Sonia's slashes. When the movement speed is fast, Sonia can't even shave her hair, and the sword light waves fall on it like a It's like trolling a dog.

"Focusing fire to open the situation." Ash said: "The two focus on one target, and the other person and Weisse find a way to involve two targets."

"I have an uncertain inspiration." Weisser said suddenly: "I need you to fly close to the ground and give me time to test different possibilities. Of course, I'm fine with it, I'll listen to the captain."

"Then test the possibility." Yaxiu immediately made a decision. To be reasonable, even if the two of them set fire to it, it would be difficult to quickly solve a target imaginary creature and it is not a Lala fat. Can't it fly when beaten? It can also besiege and block roads on the ground, and it can escape with a three-dimensional maneuver in the air.

“But the fire-collecting plan must be carried out simultaneously, so it can’t be delayed any longer. Jian Ji, you and the witch.”

“Captain, do you have enough mana reserves?” Wesser asked, “You have to involve two enemies.”

“I’ll get involved, watch, you and the witch go to gather fire.” Sonia said immediately: “I have a “Moon Shadow Master”, and my sanctuary is stronger than yours. ”

Time is running out, Yaxiu nodded and said, “Okay! Weisser, pay attention to Jian Ji’s side, and give priority to aid in the event of danger! Go down!”

The four of them immediately crashed down into the steel forest. This dream-like kingdom is probably the blood moon country, with high-rise buildings and noisy cities, but Yaxiu and the others have been fighting for so long, and the people on the ground have already run away.

After the flight altitude was lowered, Ash and the others became more careful as long as they touched any point of focus, it would cause the magic power to stagnate, not only the Sanctuary would dissipate but also fall from the air.

The focus naturally includes the balcony railings on the walls of high-rise buildings. Any focus that can be traced back to the ground will violate the negative effect of “high above the sky”.

The imaginary creatures also chased after them. Compared with Kiaxiu and others, they appeared to be more at ease. Even the knife-winged car dragon gracefully danced ballet on an egg. It is for this reason that Yaxiu chooses the sky as the battlefield. After all, the threat of tall buildings to them is much greater than that of virtual creatures.

When the distance between the swordsmanship sanctuary and the sword-winged chariot shortened, Sonia attacked the swordsmanship sanctuary with a looping slash, and at the same time Diya accelerated her flight, flicking her fingers, and the silk thread wrapped around the body of the spear sanctuary!

When the spear sanctuary tried to cut the silk thread, Yaxiu performed a pull-up maneuver, and the heart sword intercepted the long spear, buying time for Diya to trigger the “Flowing Gold River Water” special effect.

The imaginary creatures are not teammates, they just follow the instinct to execute the best fighting strategy. Now Sonia is willing to fight two with one, and the swordsmanship sanctuary and the sword-winged chariot naturally don't mind to bully the less.

However, after a few rounds, even though Sonia had the “Moon Shadow Master” collection to enhance her defense, her magic power was still fading away like opening a floodgate.

Unlike ground combat, in the face of multiple hostile targets, Sonia can rely on the terrain to minimize the impact surface on the ground, but in air combat, there are too many possibilities for the enemy to attack, and she can't prevent it at all!

Moreover, the blade-winged chariot and the swordsmanship sanctuary formed a tacit cooperation. Whenever she defended which one, the other would take the opportunity to attack from the dead corner, almost forming an airtight suppression.

Sonia suddenly understood the feelings of Zhanyulong when she and Yaxiu abused Zhanyulong like this when they were in the sea of knowledge.

The feng shui turns, the virtual world circulates well...

But I'm not the kind of stepping stone that kills fish and dragons!

Sonia lowered her flight height again, and slid into the buildings to make a dangerous journey. Now, the sword-winged chariot and the swordsman sanctuary must also pay attention to their positioning. In some places, the sword-winged chariot even had to shrink its wings, and the combination of the two could not form a rhythm. , Sonia felt the pressure greatly reduced.

At this moment, Sonia suddenly heard the sound of fighting beside her. She turned her head and saw that Ash and the others were fighting between the buildings behind. She immediately turned the flight direction and turned to the corner street. Pressed over, she can only continue to lower the altitude to accelerate Snapped!

A neon sign of “Han · Mimosa” appeared in front of her, and it was too late to avoid it!

At the moment when she hit the sign, her whole body’s magic power was stagnant in the Sanctuary, and the phantom wings collapsed. She smashed the glass of the sign and fell.

The effect of “Above the Sky” will last for 3 seconds. Sonia’s magic power has not recovered yet. The blade of the blade-winged car dragon is already close to her eyes, and a huge shadow covers her vision.

She is doomed!

Perhaps because she bumped her head, Sonia’s mind went blank. But when she saw Yaxiu from the corner of her eye turning around and flying over, Ruby’s eyes glowed with strange colors.

boom!

With a loud bang, the blade-winged chariot swept over Sonia, and UU Reading www.uukanshu.com crashed into the ground like a derailed train. The Sword Art Sanctuary also fell off its wings and fell into mud with a snap.

“Fortunately I caught up.” Weisser’s voice sounded above, “The second affix is that falling buildings will cause powerful negative effects.”

Weisser flew in front of Sonia, and when the head of the Claw Claw Club jumped up, he lifted her up with a hug, and explained with a smile: “The sword-winged chariot is not afraid of stagnation of its magic power, so why do you have to dive in the air instead of choosing more Efficient ground bounce? The latter is much stronger than diving in terms of speed and destructive power, and the reason is that the blade-winged chariot is afraid of the building itself.”

When Weisser explained, a piece of information also flowed into the minds of the magicians.

“Covered Tower: The dust bathed in the shadow of the tower will witness the collapse of everything. Targets hit by any collapsed building will be stunned for 10 seconds.”

“Affix recognition bonus: a small amount of space faction experience, a small amount of mana.”

“Limited Affix Privilege: In the next Dream Bubble, you can trigger the Overturned Tower effect once.”

“Thank you.” Sonia, who was dying, couldn’t help but let out a sigh of relief, “If it wasn’t for you, I might have to wait for another ten days to enter the Void Realm.”

“You’re welcome, aren’t we friends who help each other?”

“Then...” Sonia said a little embarrassedly: “My magic power has been restored, you don’t have to hold it so tightly.”

Weisser hugged her back with one hand and her waist with the other, almost rubbing her into his body, and Weisser was still staring at the village girl’s eyes. The tip of their nose touched the tip of their nose. The level of embarrassment to the village girl.

Chapter 562: Send a Gift

“There is no affix bubble, and there is no collection...”

Yaxiu held both hands, examining the spoils after the hard battle, and circling in the air: “How is your soul energy?”

“A quarter. A quarter. Two-fifths.”

Except for Wesser, everyone else’s soul energy was severely depleted.

Soul energy is related to the action frequency, and the action frequency of air combat is far higher than that of the ground. The first five dream bubbles only consume 50% of the energy, and one air battle consumes 25%.

It stands to reason that they can also explore two fantasy bubbles, but in fact, it is not the case for the battle and exploration of the time continent in the sea of knowledge. They can clearly estimate how much energy they will consume, and they rarely lose power.

But the remote airspace is different. If you encounter a dream bubble with a particularly grassy affix, such as an affix such as “achieving a certain condition invincible”, if you can’t solve it, you will always be stuck.

The battle in the remote airspace is to play dark ping pong while doing the exam paper... Fortunately, Yaxiu has drawn a special operator who uses his brain, so that he won’t be able to defeat all the imaginary creatures and can’t solve the affix. According to Jian Ji’s introduction, he got all the tips. It’s not uncommon for magicians who can’t solve affixes.

Like her professor Trozan, a Juggernaut who can clear six or seven bubbles alone in one night on average, not all bubbles can identify affixes. The question of the meeting passed by.

In the distant airspace, 20% of the soul energy is the lifeline, and if it is below this line, one should consider going home and sleeping.

Yaxiu opened the virtual world map and thought about the next itinerary.

After arriving in the remote airspace, the virtual map was also revised and became a ‘route map’. That is, after breaking this dream bubble, Ash can see the general situation of the other bubbles that this bubble leads to, which are divided into “loneliness”, “two people walking together”, “three people walking together” and “dream come true”.

Yes, the virtual world map is not divided by difficulty, but by the number of affixes. Walking alone is a affix, walking with two people is a double affix, walking together with three people is a three affix, and a dream come true is uncertain.

Although the difficulty of three affixes is generally higher than that of word affixes, word affixes are occasionally very disgusting, so I can't trust the introduction of the virtual world map.

Dreams come true is the most peculiar. There have been situations such as word affixes to three affixes, and I can't see any difference from the first three options. However, the virtual world map will not be aimless, and the current team situation is not suitable for continuing high-intensity exploration, so Ash chose a "dream come true" portal to enter.

As soon as he entered, Yaxiu found that there were colorful beams of light rising into the sky in this bubble and distinctive town.

"What's the situation?" Ash asked, "Is it the effect of the affix?"

"No!" Sonia said excitedly: "This is a virtual and real bubble that specializes in producing materials!"

After the introduction of Jian Ji, Yaxiu knew that this was equivalent to the reward level in the remote airspace.

There are no enemies in the virtual and real bubbles, and the beams of light are all virtual and real materials, which is equivalent to an upgraded version of the essence materials in the Time Continent, but with one more feature: it can bring back reality.

All the virtual and real materials can be returned from the virtual to the real!

The virtual and real materials are not created out of nothing, but infuse something in the bubble with virtual energy until it changes qualitatively. It may be a tree, a door, a cat, or even a gun. The original fantasy creation was taken directly from the dream bubble.

The magician can choose to use it for himself or let the magic spirits eat for evolution, but Jianji uses it for himself, because Fanxing has developed a complete industrial system of creation. A total loser.

“Some virtual and real materials can’t be copied by creators no matter what, and can only be found in the distant airspace.” Sonia clenched her fists and said: “For example, the unremembered wood can be made into a wooden box that travels between virtual and reality. With this We can exchange magic spirits in the virtual realm!”

Hearing this, Di Ya blinked.

As early as the day she inherited the queen’s position, she was thinking about how to go bankrupt and deplete the treasury to subsidize Yaxiu. However, when she checked carefully, she found that it was difficult for her to be a fool.

She also knew that the unforgettable wood, however, the whole Gospel does not have this false material.

In other words, there is no factual material in the whole Gospel at all.

Because the Gospels will pay a very high price to purchase virtual and real materials, and it also comes with an opportunity to ‘weave the future’, almost no magician can resist this temptation.

In addition, the virtual and real materials are purely the icing on the cake. The gospel has been in peace for a long time. There is almost no high-intensity battle in reality. The magicians do not need equipment to enhance the combat power of reality. Therefore, for more than a thousand years, the gospel has not stored virtual and real materials. .

After finding out this information, Diya realized how the physical rewards given by the Gospel List came from. It turned out that the Omniscient Weaver did not create something out of nothing, but chose appropriate reprocessing from virtual and real materials!

So even if the Yisu royal family had many magic spirits, Diya could only use it on herself.

But if she can get the Unforgettable Wood, then she can also give Ashea a gift!

“It takes a lot of soul energy to get the permission of virtual and real materials, about 10%.” Sonia said: “Don’t rush to take the virtual and real materials, you can see if there are better options. However, the fantasy bubble is broken. Probably, it’s better to finish the selection within half an hour.”

Weisser: “Then split up?”

Everyone nodded and moved. This bubble town seems to be built on the clouds. Although the urbanization is not as good as the Gospel, the roads are clean and the citizens are good. There are few vehicles. Street performers are playing soft bagpipes. Children are chasing and making trouble in the streets. The sun slants through the inverted gable roof, filling the atmosphere of tranquility and peace.

Diya searched for materials along the colored light beam, “a pocket watch that can stop all clocks in the area”, “a sword that must be broken and automatically recovers after being broken”, “a stone that will automatically return”... Most of the virtual and real materials are these Items with their own special miracles can be encountered very rarely, but they can be reproduced in different colors.

The witch naturally looks for trees first, but only finds a tree that “sticks the bark to your face to make others like to kiss you”. Just when she was thinking seriously about whether to obtain permission for this material, Axiu’s voice suddenly sounded from behind: “Do you want to choose this material?”

“Hey, hey!” The witch turned around in shock, shook her head and dragged Axiu forward: “No, I haven’t figured out which spectator to choose. How did you come to my side?”

“Because I see everyone acting separately, this is a rare opportunity.” Ash smiled: “I finally have time to be alone with you.”

“Ah? Ah!” Diya blinked, looking at Yaxiu’s serious expression, the sisters in her mind screamed in confusion, she only had one thought in her daze, fortunately she didn’t bring Li tonight wire in.

“Look for me... is there something wrong?”

"I can't find you if it's okay?"

"Of course you didn't bully me!" Seeing the smile on Yaxiu's face, Diya slapped him lightly.

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry, maybe it's because I messed with a guy who likes to bully people too much every day, and accidentally got into his bad habit." Yaxiu coughed twice to clear his throat, and suddenly took out a bag: "For you."

The witch took the bag carefully and took out a set of exquisite black and white dresses, and even shoes, shorts and stockings.

She raised her head and looked at Yaxiu with puzzled eyes, and Yaxiu coughed: "This is a reward I got from a certain adventure, a set of clothes specially made for you, so I actually don't know what to wear. How about it, just know that you only need to wear this suit in the virtual world, and use the water magic effect in the rain curtain to increase by 50%..."

Before he could finish his sentence, Diya had already changed into this suit, turned around in front of him and asked, "Does it look good?"

"It's beautiful!" Yaxiu clapped her hands: "This outfit is called the Queen of the Rain, and it suits you very well."

"Thank you!" Di Ya flew over and hugged Ya Xiu and turned around twice, giggling: "I'm so happy!"

"As long as you like it." Yaxiu rubbed her hair, "Then I'll go back to find the real material, see you later."

"see you later!"

After Yaxiu left, Diya found a clothing store and walked around in front of the mirror. The more she looked, the more she liked it. I've already delivered clothes today, so I can't even think about what to give next time!

But soon, the question raised by the black deacon instantly ended the good time of the witch sisters

“He seems to have said before that there are two gifts.”

Sonia pushed open the oak door, the doorbell rang crisp and sweet, the inside was spotless, clean and tidy, the air was filled with exotic classical music, the middle-aged manager behind the counter was wiping the cups, and a few customers were sipping coffee. busy with other things.

This is a coffee shop, she walked to the table where the colored beams of light were raised, and got the details of this virtual and real material: “a coffee table that makes coffee without distraction”.

Although it is not a wood that cannot be remembered, it is a virtual and real material involving spiritual factions. A little processing should be able to sell for a good price. If you really have no choice, you can choose this... Just when the village girl was thinking about the value of this thing, the doorbell of the cafe sounded again.

She looked up and saw Ash coming straight up and sitting across from her.

“Is it a coincidence that you came to me?” Although she said so, Sonia couldn’t hide her smile: “Have you decided what material to choose?”

“Not yet.” Yaxiu glanced down at the coffee table: “This seems to be good.”

“It’s good, but do you have a place to process this table now? You can’t chase the silver lamp with it, can you?”

“Then I’ll let you keep it or sell it.” Yaxiu said indifferently: “Or to Weiser, although she has never complained, but the resources are given priority to you and the witch, and her achievements deserve more rewards... You can’t just bully honest people.”

Sonia nodded too, she thought so too. As a Sanctuary, Wesser is too obedient and obedient, and since she can play a major role in the remote airspace, squeezing her for a little profit is really putting the cart before the horse.

I thought so, but Sonia said: "Then you give her my resources, after all, she is more important than me now."

"Why, you are just as important."

"How important?"

"Your output burst is high, and you are still an indispensable guard for our team."

"But Wesser is proficient in all mainstream factions. You give her resources, and she can also become a storm guard."

"And you have a good relationship with the witch and Weisser. There are always times when it's inconvenient for me to come forward, and I rely on you to maintain the stability of the team."

My relationship with the witch is probably going to be a thing of the past... Sonia propped her chin with her right hand and said, "But Visser can do this too. Who do you think has a bad relationship with her in the team? She is smart and modest, and very Listen to you, isn't this a better fit than me? Is there something important about 'only me'?"

"Well," Yaxiu pondered: "For example, you are very gentle and lovely."

puff!

The head of the Claw Claw Club couldn't help laughing out loud. He wanted to cover his mouth and hold it back, but he couldn't hold it in anymore, and he burst into laughter. Yaxiu also came back to his senses at this time, and grinned: "Are you trying to tell me what to say?"

“Yes!” Sonia nodded arrogantly: “I just didn’t expect to tell your lies. Although many people praised me after my meteor calamity, it was so outrageous to praise me with ‘tenderness’ that you were the first.”

“If you say it’s a lie, just lie.” Ash looked at the sunset outside the window, grinding his silver teeth.

“Hee hee.” Sonia stretched out her hand over the coffee table, and her fingernails scratched Yaxiu’s nose lightly: “It’s okay, I like your lie very much. If you work hard, it’s not impossible to become the truth.”

“Why do I work hard...” Ash muttered and stood up: “Okay, it’s time for me to continue looking for fake and real materials.”

“etc.”

Sonia grabbed his wrist and asked suspiciously, “Are you looking for me for something?”

“No, I really passed by.”

Yaxiu and Sonia stared at Chitong with black eyes. After a while, the village girl released her hand and said, “Okay, but if you hide anything from me or deceive me, I’ll be angry too.”

“By the way, when I held your wrist just now, I used sincerity magic.” She tilted her head and said softly, “It’s too late for you to sit back now.”

Ash sits back helplessly, but doesn’t say a word, falling into trouble.

Sonia didn’t rush him, she motioned the boss to call out two cups of classic coffee, then put her hands on the table, pursed her lips and stared at him with wide eyes.

After the boss brought two cups of coffee, Yaxiu hesitantly took out a bag.

When Sonia reached out, he didn't let go and said, "You can open it when I'm gone."

"Then take it back." Sonia said, "If you don't sit here and wait for me to finish it, then I won't."

"Why?" Ash asked the sky like a cancer patient.

"Because I'm not gentle sword girl." Sonia's mouth turned up: "Will you give it?"

After a moment of silence, the cult leader gave up his struggle and let go in despair. Sonia opened the bag and took out a fully transparent coat from it, as well as a split pure white **** swimsuit, UU reading www. uukanshu.com even has a straw hat.

She looked at Ash quietly, and Ash began to explain incoherently: "That is the adventure, specially made for you... But I didn't expect it to be a swimsuit, I didn't mean it... You can wear it in the virtual world to reduce the compound miracle by 10 The gain of % mana cost... I don't mean to let you wear it in the virtual realm! It's just... I didn't really want to give it, but I feel like I'm putting it away... Oops, you shouldn't have received this gift! I'm leaving "

Just as Ash was about to run away, Jian Ji grabbed her wrist again. The latter motioned Yaxiu to sit back first, her sharp gaze made Yaxiu a little restless, and then she asked calmly:

"do you want to see?"

Yaxiu subconsciously turned her head to look around, as if Jian Ji was asking about another fish-fishing dragon who sneaked into the shop.

"Do you want to see me dressed?" she asked again.

It was the first time that Yaxiu encountered such a problem, and Yaxiu was a little confused. The answer is to think, is it too blunt, and it feels like a swimsuit is specially brought for Jian Ji to wear; the answer is no, he thinks that Jian Ji will despise his dishonesty.

After thinking about it, Ash came up with a compromise solution

He nodded.

Then he saw Jian Ji raised her eyebrows, leaned back slightly, and the corners of her mouth curved into a smile.

“Humph.”

She snorted a soft nasal sound, which seemed to be contemptuous and proud. The smile in her eyes spread to her face with the warm light of the setting sun, and she was blushing.

She held her head in her left hand, looked sideways at the leisurely street outside, put her right hand on her chest, and hooked her thumb into it along the collar, as if to open it to let the inside breathe, as if she was about to take it off to change clothes.

Chapter 563: Fast forward relationship

Sonia squinted at Yaxiu, returning the warm light in her eyes to the setting sun, her ruby-like eyes did not hide some pure emotion.

Ash blinked, but before he could react, the doorbell behind him rang again.

“It’s such a coincidence that you are all here?”

The oak door was knocked open with a bang, the witch almost slipped in, walked to them in three steps, and asked, “Is this virtual and real material good, why are you all here?”

Even though she said that, Deya kept her eyes on the bag next to Sonia. Sonia saw that Deya suddenly changed into a battle suit with a similar style but more cute and charming, and she knew everything in her heart, and glanced at Yaxiu faintly.

Oops.

This is what Yaxiu is most worried about – it doesn't matter if you get both swimsuits or normal clothes, but the witch is normal clothes, and the sword girl is a swimsuit. The gap between functionality and sexuality is so Big, if Jian Ji hadn't said harsh words just now, Yaxiu might have been cowardly.

Might as well just give witch gifts!

In that way, Jian Ji is at most angry, how can she still carry a little contempt now?

And if there was still a chance to see Jian Ji in a swimsuit just now, now that the witch appeared in her new clothes, Jian Ji, who paid the most attention to her own image, would not be able to wear it anyway.

As of now, I can only tell the truth, Yaxiu said: "I got two sets of clothes from this adventure. As long as you change clothes according to this set of clothes in the virtual realm, you can get bonus protection. My dark red windbreaker is actually also , but these clothes are custom-made, as long as you can use them, it will be ineffective for others to change them."

Yaxiu's subtext was explaining why he gave the witch a normal battle suit, but the sword girl was a swimsuit, because he couldn't control it either. Di Ya proudly turned around to show off her new clothes, and then asked curiously, "Jian Ji, what clothes did the audience give you?"

Sonia turned her head away: "You ask him."

"Customized clothes are not all designed for combat," Yaxiu explained as he racked his brains: "Jianji's clothes are just not suitable for daily wear, but there are also special use scenarios... Oh, I have no time, I have to quickly choose virtual and real materials. , go away!"

The three of them left the coffee shop and each chose a direction to continue exploring.

While walking, Yaxiu wondered if his gift-giving operation was unbiased when suddenly the back of his head was attacked. He subconsciously raised the sanctuary to defend himself. He turned around and found that he was hit by a toffee. He looked up and saw in the distance. The sword princess is walking normally, and it seems that she is not a criminal. .

But it's not her fault that the culprit is not.

Yaxiu picked up the toffee and threw it hard. The toffee drew an arc across the warm light. Seeing that it was about to hit the back of Jian Ji's head, water lines suddenly appeared on her body, and she quickly grabbed it with her right hand. toffee.

Casting Shuiyue while on the move, her miracle has developed to a new level... No, does it all have to be defended with miracles? !

The head of the Stretch Claw Club turned to face Yaxiu, and ripped open the wrapping paper leisurely, his teeth lightly biting the toffee, and the small tongue gently rolled the toffee into his mouth. As if feeling the sweetness of the toffee, she squinted her eyes, and made a mouth shape towards Ashura from a distance:

you owe me.

After all, she blended into the crowd and continued to look for virtual and real materials.

Yaxiu scratched his head, how could it be that he owes Jian Ji a set of clothes after giving a good gift... The swimsuit can actually be worn inside it to take effect... It doesn't make sense.

However, even if there is an extra debt out of nothing, even if he misses a rare swimming opportunity, the cult leader does not feel depressed at all. Instead, his mood becomes light and he continues to search by humming the tune that Harvey had played.

No one noticed that on the nearby rooftop, Wesser watched all this quietly.

She first looked at Ash who was leaving, but in the end her eyes fell on Sword Princess in the distance.

In the night market in Heipao Town, she pretended to be a mercury Trojan to test Yaxiu, and came to a conclusion: Yaxiu's 'real' is not a controllable ability, but more like an uncertain stress response, like a cat Unfamiliar places will starve.

After a little recollection, Weisser found that Ash's change was due to her behavior of killing Crows and Killing, so she would use the life and death of the psychic to test Ash's reaction.

If Yaxiu really changed back to 'real' because of this threat, then Weisser would break through the shackles of the kaleidoscope on the spot, and use the psychic's blood as paint to paint Yaxiu with real colors.

It's a pity that Yaxiu actually held back. Maybe he can only awaken the immortal truth from the illusion by witnessing death.

In fact, Weisser also thought about whether to find an opportunity to kill everyone else. Although it was a little difficult, it was not impossible. She was reluctant to make a big deal in the food factory town before, and she just didn't want to alert the Transcendence Sect in advance.

However, she soon realized that there was still a loophole in her killing plan: the sword princess and the witch.

If Ash living in the illusion is a pet cat, then the real one is a wild cat. The best way to turn a pet cat into a feral cat is to make him homeless.

Weisser was able to deal with his companions, and wanted to kill Jian Ji and the witch very much. As soon as he thought that Ashe would lose his mind and awaken to the truth, and use all the methods he could imagine to torture himself, Visser was so excited that he couldn't help himself, and could not wait to immediately stain Ashe's eyes with the blood of the sword princess.

But the problem is that neither the sword princess nor the witch are in Senluo country.

Unless Wesser can master the miracle of completely annihilating the magician's soul in the virtual realm, she can't threaten the two of them at all.

As long as the two of them don't die, Ash is like a balloon tied by a string, indulging in the illusion of delusion.

Although they didn't spend much time together, Weisser also clearly felt that Yaxiu, Jian Ji, and the witch were using the virtual realm as a 'secret house' where they could hide.

Ignoring the distance in space, having common interests, being able to meet every night, and having nothing to do with real interpersonal relationships, you can show your true side to the fullest... As long as there is this destination, Yaxiu will never be homeless.

so.

Changes in interpersonal relationships in the virtual realm will stimulate Yaxiu even more.

In reality, he can find others anytime and anywhere to solve misunderstandings, but in the virtual world, because of the infinite space distance and limited time together, even the smallest gap will accumulate into a huge gap.

It is precisely because of this reason that their relationship will remain in the current state—even an outsider like Weisser can see that Ashe and Jian Ji have mutual affection, and the witch strongly loves Ashe, but Ashe does this. When the witch has not crossed the line of feelings.

But why did the three of Yaxiu, Jian Ji, and the Witch not act or take the initiative to declare their sovereignty? Forget about Ashe, the witch and the sword girl are both very active characters, why are they still standing still?

Because they are both afraid of changes in their relationships.

Friends and more than lovers who are not satisfied with this relationship is not only their comfort zone, but also their safety zone. Even if there is any conflict between them, it is at most a 'conflict between friends'.

But lovers are different. The more intimate the relationship is, the more the efforts of both parties will be tested. As long as one party is a little lazy, they will find that they were only immersed in an illusion in the past.

If friendship is a steel that has been tempered and tempered, then love is a bubble. The latter can appear happy, but it cannot withstand bursting.

What's more, this is not a two-person team, but a four-person team, and there may be newcomers in the future. Whoever takes a step means that other people have to make concessions for you. After all, it is too easy to suspect that your boss has an affair with a colleague. What is even more frightening is that another colleague is also coveting the boss – then the team may The inside was torn up.

But on the other hand, as long as this step is not taken, everyone stays in this comfortable state, at least to ensure that everything will not deteriorate.

Maybe it will take until Ashura meets an operator in reality to break this deadlock. Before that, everyone will carefully maintain the atmosphere of the team, maintain this common hiding place and common home.

After analyzing this, Wesser naturally understood what she was going to do next.

– She wants to change the relationship of the team, distort the atmosphere of the team, and fast-forward the relationship of the team.

Originally, she wanted to create a crisis for Jian Ji to see if it could cause a change in Yaxiu. However, the death of the virtual world is too much of a joke. Although Ash was anxious, he would not worry too much, so Weisser gave up this option.

So how can we turn the team around?

She proposed a pillow seat to seduce Yaxiu, forced Jian Ji to hate her, and the witch was worried?

She wouldn't mind if she could, but she didn't have a relationship with Yaxiu before, so it would be strange for Yaxiu to be recruited, and she would also encounter hostility from the sword princess and the witch, which was too different from her usual style of behavior— For worthy targets, Wesser never made them hate herself.

Therefore, she must not participate in this love game, but to be the person everyone needs.

Since Yaxiu and the others did not dare to enter into an intimate relationship easily, she could provide a little help.

She wants to help Jian Ji confess her heart.

She wants to create opportunities for witches.

The best result is naturally that the sword princess and the witch fight, so that Yaxiu realizes that the virtual world is no longer a place he can escape; the almost result is that Yaxiu chooses one of them, and the other concedes and leaves; the worst The result is that everyone is happy. Not only did the three people not have a estrangement, but the relationship pushed forward together to a new peak and truly became a family.

But even the worst outcome, Weisser could accept it.

No matter how strong the feelings are, they can't be washed down by time. Just like fairy tales don't describe the story after the princess and the prince get married. The relationship between Yaxiu and the others is built on the virtual realm. As long as they can't break free from the illusion, they will definitely. Tested.

What's more, Jian Ji and the witch are not generous people.

Taking a ten thousand steps back, even if Yaxiu really had the skills to subdue them, Wesser would just miss a perfect ally, but she would also gain the friendship of the team and become the person they trusted. Plus, she's also very interested in messing up other people's lives, which is one of her few pleasures in delusion.

After thinking about it, Weisser quickly fell into the alley, UU reading www.uukanshu.com pretended to meet by chance, greeted Jian Ji, and said with a smile, "I just saw the witch changed into a new set of clothes."

"It's a gift from the viewer."

"What about your present?"

Sonia glanced at her and said, "I don't have a gift. The viewer has a better relationship with the witch."

"Really?" Weisser was startled, "Could it be that I misunderstood?"

"What did you misunderstand?"

"It's nothing, I just... I thought..." Weisser lowered her head, as if a little embarrassed, and said, "I thought you were lovers."

Sonia blinked: "No, we are companions to explore the virtual world together."

Although the denial was firm, the lightness in his tone was not concealed.

"Although I've never been in a relationship." Weisser laughed softly: "But your attitude towards the viewer and your eyes don't look like you're treating an ordinary companion."

"I've only known him from the sea of knowledge, so we're just a little bit more familiar."

"Hey?" The curiosity in Weiser's tone this time was real, "Can you tell us about your experience in the sea of knowledge? Because I swam alone in the sea of knowledge, the white sea, and the perilous intellectual creatures. , I can only swim through the waves alone. At that time, I also thought about how good it would be if someone accompanies me... You have such a good relationship, then your memory in the sea of knowledge should not be as cold and pale as my experience, It's full of warmth that supports each other, right?"

Being scratched to the itch, Sonia couldn't resist at all. After a moment of restraint, she couldn't help but say: "We had a ship at that time..."

Chapter 564: dead apostle, witch, marriage

In the morning, in the hotel in Heipao Town, as soon as Yaxiu came back from the virtual realm, he reached into his pants and groped, making sure that everything was back before he was relieved.

"Do you need me to avoid it?"

Harvey has returned to normal at this time, no longer the weak and bullying young girl last night. He was looking down at a rabbit corpse, and Alice was feeding him pancakes: "If there are other people around, it's not convenient for you to come out, right?"

"If it was someone else, I would think he was telling a dirty joke. If it was you, I would wonder if you were talking to another corpse that was just picked up." Ash said angrily, and heard the sound of hot water running in the bathroom. I knew he couldn't go to the bathroom for the time being.

The hotel's bathroom is very small, and it is a surprise to have a bathtub. You can't expect to separate wet and dry.

"Why are you messing with rabbits?"

Harvey looked up at him: "I'd like to fiddle with the corpse, but it's not time yet."

"Not in time?" Ash didn't understand.

"Rabbits, cats, large dogs, and big cats. When you get used to the pictures of my research, you will definitely accept it even if I study dead bodies."

Yaxiu: "The idea is very good, but have you ever thought about a question, the difference between human and animal corpses is not only body size."

Harvey looked confused: "Are you talking about the difference in appearance? Then should I use the monkey as a transition material?"

"It's meaning, value!" Ash said seriously: "A person's corpse is full of traces carved by time on him, recording the road he traveled, the pain he experienced, and the happiness he enjoyed. It can be said to condense his life before his death. !"

Pop, pop, pop.

Harvey didn't hesitate to give his applause, "Well said, Ash, I didn't expect you to have such a high level of thought!"

"Well," Ash also thought he said it well, "Thank you—"

"It fits perfectly with the central idea of our necromantic faction!" Harvey said: "Because corpses are full of meaning and value, we necromancers are obliged to unleash their full potential instead of allowing them to be covered in loess and flames. Burn it, become the kingdom of scavengers or turn it into worthless ashes – Ash, come with me and become Haagen-Dazs' lackey!"

Almost forgetting that these magic factions have a self-consistent logical system, Yaxiu turned around in a perfunctory sentence: "I will consider it later."

Harvey asked, "Then after you die, do you want to follow me or Igula?"

Ash's face showed confusion: "When did I become your and Igula's child? It's like you divorced and asked me who I was with..."

"If you die, as long as I don't die, I will definitely not bury you, but make you a necromancer." The necromancer said: "If you want to follow Igula, I will control how Igura can control you. ; If you want to follow me or go back to Liz, I will take you back."

“Although I didn’t ask Igula, Igula couldn’t possibly come with me. As for myself, you are not necromancers, you can’t make me a necromancer, you can do whatever you want with my corpse at that time. .”

Ash sat up and looked at Harvey with strange eyes.

“Why are you suddenly sentimental today?”

“Is this sentimental?” Harvey said, “The Crow Killed All told me that if he loses the special physique that he hates in the virtual world after he dies, let me make him a powerful undead, as long as I can guarantee that he can kill them all. It’s a bad guy, and he’s willing to follow my lead.”

By the way, the three of them live in one room, and Tamashi lives in another. Originally, they wanted the four of them to live together so that they could protect each other even if they were raided, but Tamashi said that for religious reasons, he couldn’t sleep in the same room as the heretic.

“We’ll come back to the Gospel alive.”

“Last night on the street, you met the silver lamp.” Harvey shook his head: “If she suddenly turned to God at that time, would the two of you really be able to come back? You may have time, but not necessarily the fraudster.”

“In addition to the silver lamp, there are too many existences in the Senluo wasteland that can take our lives. They may not even be magicians, but may be a legacy of the past, such as the blood on our bodies. This is not a blood moon, not a gospel, no A regime that can suppress chaos, dying in the dark is the norm.”

“It’s a pity you don’t learn the necromantic faction.” He lowered his head and continued to study rabbits: “Otherwise, I can ask you after I die.”

Yaxiu blinked, with a warm smile on his face: “Harvey, I didn’t expect you to know that you care about us.”

“Um?”

“You didn’t create the undead for your own desires, but created the phantom of death to take care of the feelings of the living.” Ash smiled: “When a friend leaves, you hope to keep his place, as if He still tastes the feast of fate with us.”

“...I’ve always said that the dead serve the living.”

“I remember when you first came to the gospel, you asked An Nan to help you get a corpse, and you didn’t care about our thoughts at all.” Ash glanced at the corpse of the rabbit: “How do you know to worry about our feelings now?”

“Because there is no separate room now,” Harvey said, “to avoid being beaten by you.”

“Let’s treat it like this.” Ash shrugged: “But your worries are justified. In the face of the silver lamp in the future, just do your best, and I will do my best.”

“Rather than discussing the arrangements after death, let’s think about living. Igula has Anfir waiting for him, Harvey, where do you want to settle down? Gospel or blood moon?”

Harvey ignored him, and Ash was making fun of himself and opened the “Aurora’s Manual of Magicians”.

As soon as he opened it, he received three messages.

“Growth Report 6.14 ~ 7.4 of the Dead Sword Girl”

“Bound level: 4 (75% experience sharing

“Sword Faction: Gold → Gold”

“Light Faction: Silver → Silver”

“Water Art Faction: Silver → Silver”

“Time Faction: Gold → Gold”

“Space Faction: 0 → Silver”

“Magic Power: Golden Full Wings → Sanctuary Kazuha”

“Cultivation evaluation: S!”

“Because of obtaining an S-rank rating, Death Crazy Sword Princess has obtained the occupational enhancement of the Wizard’s Manual: Death Apostle!”

“Dead Apostle Occupational Feature: 5% chance to deal true damage to the target soul.”

“Because the magic power has been improved, the talent of Death Mad Sword Girl has been enhanced!”

“Because of obtaining an S-rank rating, Death Crazy Sword Princess won the professional assessment task ‘Dead Apostle’!”

“Dead Apostle: In the next 7 days, kill 100 targets instantly through the Death Apostle feature. After completing the task, you can permanently solidify the Death Apostle professional feature! Current progress (0/100).”

Since Yaxiu and Jian Ji and the others separated in the virtual world, there has been no growth report, and only now has the three-week cumulative report appeared once and for all.

The characteristics of the Dead Apostle are extremely terrifying. The real damage cannot be resisted by attacks that are reduced by means other than the sanctuary. Coupled with the deadly combat method of Jian Ji's wide opening and closing, once it is triggered, it is an instant kill. However, although there are many battles in the remote airspace, there are not many enemies. Unlike the Time Continent, where you can farm monsters, it is still difficult to kill 100 targets in an instant.

Jian Ji's talent has risen from the middle to a high position. In addition to the improvement in data, she can then summon the phantom of the resentful dragon more closely. According to past experience, once this effect is triggered, it is basically an instant kill.

"Black and White Witch's Growth Report 6.14~7.4"

"Bound level: 2→4 (75% experience sharing

"Spiritual Faction: Silver → Silver"

"Fist Claw Faction: Gold → Gold"

"Time Faction: Gold → Gold"

"Water Art Faction: Silver → Silver"

"Space Faction: 0 → Silver"

"Cultivation evaluation: S!"

"Magic Power: Golden Full Wings → Sanctuary Kazuha"

"Because of the S-rank rating, the Black and White Witch has obtained the occupational enhancement of the Wizard's Manual: Witch!"

“Witch · Occupational Trait: There is a 5% chance to grant a special status to the attack target for 5 seconds (love, fascination, cherishing, infatuation).”

“Because the magic power has been improved, the black and white witch’s talent has been enhanced!”

“Because of the S-rank rating, the Black and White Witch won the professional assessment quest ‘Witch!’”

“Witch: In the next 7 days, let the witch feature take effect 500 times. After completing the task, you can permanently solidify the witch’s professional feature! Current progress (0/500).”

Wow, Ash groaned inwardly. If the Death Disciple is the extreme enhancement of the sword princess’ combat power, then the witch is to make the witch’s control ability reach a new peak, but this special state is strange, shouldn’t it be dizziness, blindness, falling to the ground, etc.? ...

And it is said that there are four special states, but they are not all dogs that turn their targets into witches!

The Witch’s talents have also undergone some changes:

“Inherent talent · Witch (high position): Gain an additional 200% time experience, a low chance to gain 10,000% time experience, and occasionally attract the help of bronze dragons (the talent level can be unlocked after the strength is improved).”

Yaxiu remembered that it used to be the “favor of the bronze dragon”, but how did it become a support now?

“Growth Report of Orchid Wesser 6.28~7.4”

“Bound level: 0→2 (40% experience sharing

“Magic Power: Sanctuary Zero Feather → Sanctuary Ichiha”

“Cultivation Evaluation: B”

Visser’s growth report barely changed, and Ash only got a ‘B’ rating. After all, it is a new operator who has just joined, and it is normal that there is not much growth.

What’s more surprising is that Youlan Weisser’s bond has actually risen from 0 to 2—you must know that they have been together for less than a week!

This speed is faster than the sword princess witch!

Recalling Visser’s soft, almost flattering attitude, Yaxiu thought to herself that she really got an honest operator this time. After all, appearance can deceive people, and attitude can deceive people, but the bond displayed by the system can never be deceived. If Weisser doesn’t have enough goodwill towards him, how could this bond increase from 0 to 2?

After reading the growth report, you should set a training strategy.

However, after Yaxiu fed the three of them “Advanced Physical Strength Potion”, “Advanced Experience Potion”, and “Advanced Career Potion”, he did not continue to arrange specific affairs.

The situation is no longer the same.

When Sword Princess and Witch first came, they didn’t pay much attention to magic, so Ash had to urge them to grow through training strategies. But now that they are sanctuary magicians and understand their own way of magic, Yaxiu’s arrangement has become better than nothing.

More importantly, it was not only the sword princess witch’s bond with him that increased, but the reverse as well.

He trusts them to plan well, and is happy for them to have more private time to run their own lives. As a spectator, he only needs to provide logistical preparations for them.

As for Wesser, let alone Wesser, if it is said that Ash and the others may be lazy, but Wesser, a serious sanctuary magician, and a truth magician who is proficient in more than 20 magic factions, how can they be slack Learn?

Therefore, Yaxiu no longer sets up training, learning, entertainment and other projects, and allows the operators to develop freely.

At this time, Igula finally came out of the bath, and Yaxiu stretched her waist and went in to wash, brushing her teeth and asking, "Where are we going next? I can't stay in this black robe town for a day."

"Didn't you listen to the Mercury Trojan?" Igula wiped her hair with a towel and said, "The silver lamp is in Heipao Town, either wait for her prediction to narrow down the search range, or wait for her to predict the whereabouts of the silver lamp, which means that no matter what Anyway, we all have to stay in Heipao Town for one more night."

"Do not-"

In another room, Weisser looked at the three bottles of potion that appeared on the table in front of him. She thought about it for a while, but she didn't conduct any tests, and just drank the medicine.

Her idea is very simple – Ash can deliver medicine across space, if he wants to put poison, why not send it directly across space to her stomach? There is no need to consider whether these are some or not. Before Yaxiu expresses his position, he will be regarded as a resuscitator who relies on compound miracles.

When he wakes up from the illusion to the real, it means that he is fully recovered.

"I already understand Jian Ji's experience, but according to Jian Ji, there is no reason for the witch to like the viewer – she simply can't find the opportunity to deepen her relationship with the viewer. UU reading www.uukanshu.com" Weisser pondered: "The viewer's attitude towards the witch is reasonable, but the witch is unreasonable... It seems that the witch has some information that only she knows."

"Which pair should we make first..."

Suddenly, a voice exactly like her came from the mirror: "You seem to be worrying about something very interesting."

Weisser turned her head and saw the quiet girl walking out of the mirror. She was a little strange: "Is the magic mirror dragon staring at me too often recently?"

"Maybe it's because your recent experience is very interesting." The quiet girl smiled: "Looking at your appearance, you have already met Yaxiu."

Weisser nodded and suddenly asked, "How was the Ashee you met in another world?"

"It's the same as what you're thinking in your mind now." The quiet girl lay on the bed, dangling her calves, "Besides you and me, the only one who broke free from the illusion."

Weisser couldn't help but feel a little envious: "It's good, how did I meet this Ash."

She immediately revealed her 'fast-forward relationship plan' and asked the quiet girl's opinion: "Do you think it is to find a way to let Yaxiu and the witch create opportunities to arouse Jian Ji's resentment; or to help Jian Ji and Yaxiu confess to each other? , and let the witch disrupt the situation?"

However, the quiet girl did not answer Weisse, she seemed to remember something, and a strange smile appeared on her face.

"what are you laughing at?"

“I just thought of some interesting things.” The quiet girl smiled and said, “Axiu in my world, he was married in reality.”

Chapter 565: Yaxiu just wants to go back to the virtual world

The genius remembers the address of this site in one second: [Luoqiu Chinese] <https://>The fastest update! No ads!

, The Surgeon’s Manual

In mid-July, after Igula’s efforts to inquire, Yaxiu and the others finally got a piece of good news: there are indeed other ways to remove the ‘Blood Seed’ in the Senluo Wasteland.

Whether it is Fire Cat, Blue Bird, or Gray Fox God Generation, they have all produced products similar to ‘panacea’. It may not be medicine, but a syringe, a built-in chip, or even a tattoo, but they are all in the pursuit of dispelling all negative states and restoring the body to full condition in an emergency.

For example, the ‘anti-sun’ magic spirit can do this. If Yaxiu and the others had a sun-defying magic spirit at that time, they could immediately remove the blood in the body. Since there is ‘anti-sun’, there are naturally “moon” and “year”, even if so many days have passed, it can still be effective for the three of Yaxiu.

This is the easiest way, but also the most unlikely way—except for the possibility of ‘anti-sun’ being used for medical treatment, ‘moon-defying’ and ‘year-defying’ without any side effects will only become the most high-end life-extending luxuries, Not only is it extremely difficult to obtain, but it is also impossible to circulate in the market.

If Ash returned to the Gospel, but could find Liz to act like a spoiled child, maybe Liz would honor a few anti-time magic spirits. But if he can return to the Gospel, Liz, as the queen, can directly ask the legendary magician to help with the treatment – almost all Sanctuary legends will listen to Yisu's orders.

Just think about it, it was the miracles performed by the angels or God Lords who accurately teleported Yaxiu to the Senluo Kingdom, which is enough to prove the difficulty of teleportation between kingdoms... In contrast, it is more practical to find the inheritance of the Age of Gods.

In fact, Yaxiu and the others had already asked about the Quicksilver Trojan, but the Quicksilver Trojan told him that he didn't know the status of the Grey Fox legacy, and they didn't do the same.

As for Tamashi... Can you count on the wealth of intelligence resources a warrior attendant has? It's not that he doesn't have information, it's just that this information is on the same level as the 'Top Ten Incredibles of the Wasteland'.

In these days of chasing the silver lamp, I passed by many towns under the jurisdiction of many sects, and Igula used the identity of the 'transcendence sect certified business travel' to not only enter the city smoothly, but also collect a lot of Sen Luo intelligence.

One of the most important news is that the base of the Twin Sect, "Night Fall", is said to have flowed out. It can completely decompose and reorganize the human body, remove all cursed impurities, restore the body to a perfect body, and even feed back the soul. . Remember the URL m.luoqiuxzw.com

Power and perfection are different concepts. Power is an acquired accumulation, while perfection is an innate gift. It is said that all races have a perfect body when they are conceived in the mother's womb, so that a healthy soul can be conceived, but once they are separated from the mother's body, they become flawed.

There are many magicians who believe that the so-called death means that there are too many flaws in the body, and it can no longer accommodate the perfect soul.

It is said that there is a legendary magician whose soul is on the verge of collapse due to the death of the virtual world. He temporarily obtained a perfect body by taking the secret medicine of reconstruction, and was stunned to return the dying soul milk.

With such a powerful elixir, it is naturally not a problem to treat a mere blood species.

However, there is good news: according to the guidance of the mercury Trojan, the silver lamp also seems to have gone to nightfall.

It has been many days since Heipao Town. On the way, they had a brief confrontation with Silver Lantern: it was not that they ambush the Silver Lantern, nor the Silver Lantern to ambush them. It was simply that the enemy suddenly met on the street. It's better to hit the sun and fight directly.

However, the result this time was far from the crushing of the Transcendence Building – this time, the silver lamp chose to send the fire to the gods, even if it was not perfect, but Yaxiu couldn't suppress her.

Yaxiu and the others realized that unless the silver lamp exhausted her Dafa first, or had the support of other forces, it would be difficult for them to catch this mad woman.

Although the Transcendence Sect has spread the news of Yin Deng, all the sects of the Qinri Alliance have improved the security of Dafa, Yin Deng should not have the opportunity to obtain Dafa, but she now has 6 Dafa, equivalent to six tubes of blood, with six forms, In the game, it can be regarded as a desperate battle level boss.

Even if the silver lamp will definitely offend other sects, sooner or later, there will be an opportunity to take the opportunity, but the feeling that this kind of initiative is not in my own hands is really uncomfortable.

Ash and the others have to wait for Yin Lan to die before they can fall into the trap, and the only thing they can do is to curse her in circles.

In addition, because of the experience of the Gospel Kingdom, Igula and Harvey are very disgusted with being controlled by others. Even if they hated the silver lamp, this was not the reason for them to accept the command of the mercury trojan – only the mercury trojan could predict the location of the silver lamp.

Although it is cooperation, in fact, it is to follow the drive of another bad woman and hunt down another bad woman.

Even Yaxiu was dissatisfied. At most, he just didn't dislike An Nan, but not everyone was qualified to be the eldest lady who ordered him, not to mention the Mercury Trojan who changed his holster every time.

If the reconstruction elixir can be found, except for Yaxiu's semi-tactile feeling still unresolved, everyone else is basically out of the crisis of life and does not need to be involved in the Senluo dispute.

What the Silver Lantern, the Four Pillars of God, and the Qinri Alliance, you fight slowly, we will slip away first.

Even Yaxiu is a little tired of this chase, and now he wants to hurry to the virtual realm and happily explore the remote airspace with Sword Princess, Witch, and Wesser. The atmosphere of the team has become more and more comfortable these days, and Yaxiu will occasionally smirk during the day, and can't wait to return to a safe place to push the progress of the virtual realm.

After all, there is no unified government in this wasteland, but dangerous inheritances are everywhere. Sanctuary magicians are not as safe as Blood Moon. A room in Senluo is not as good as a bed in Broken Lake!

Then, they got bad news.

The setting sun is like blood, the desert is like the sea, thousands of miles of dust are flying, and magic techniques are falling like rain.

The four of them rode their motorcycles to the edge of the cliff, watching the tens of thousands of troops invade the city in the distance.

The first-wing magician covered the ground infantry to invade and attack the city, and the second-winged magician chased and fought fiercely in the air.

Armed with simple rifles and bayonets, and wearing light yellow chain mail, the non-manager's soldiers turned cold-blooded and ruthless under the inspiration of the psychic, and with the help of the stairs and tunnels erected by the earthman, their bodies crossed the city wall and followed. The guards in the city started **** slaughter in heaven and earth.

Outside the city, thousands of magicians are chained on the four sides of the city wall, and the vast sandstorm floods the city like a flood;

In the city, miracles broke out one after another, and the seeds in the city wall quickly took root and sprouted into vines to kill the soldiers to resist the wind and sand.

Every second a magician falls from the sky, every second a corpse looks up at the sky.

The corpses were piled up and submerged in the dust, life turned into the weight of the desert, flesh and blood became the most dazzling color, and the tragic battle cry seemed to be just the sound of the wind blowing through time.

boom!

In the yellow-clothed army, a brown-yellow beam of light suddenly burst out, and then a figure flew up, grabbed the Sanctuary Magician who was about to retreat, and slammed the latter against the city wall, piercing the city wall like a siege cone!

At the same time, another purple blue light column burst out in the city.

The two rays of light were entangled, directly breaking the defense line of the city wall!

This is the bad news they saw with their own eyes.

The origin of the reconstruction of the elixir, the base of the Twin Sect, 'Nightfall', is in a state of war.

"The God-sitter has shot," Tamashi said.

“Whether it’s the gods or the sanctuary, their combat power is far superior to others, and their victory or defeat determines the victory or defeat of the war.” Ash frowned and asked: “Why let low-level magicians and ordinary people still to fight?”

It’s not that Yaxiu is so kind that he can’t see death. In fact, after realizing that this is a world full of miracles, Yaxiu has already prepared for the life of ordinary people. As a magician who represents advanced violence and productivity, no matter how brutal they rule the people, Ash will not be surprised.

However, as far as the current situation is concerned, there is no country where the magician is particularly inappropriate. Not to mention the gospel, it is still the highest score at present; although Sen Luo is a bit weird, but according to the situation of the previous gods, people’s living standards may be able to hang other kingdoms, but it is not stable enough; even the blood moon as the lower limit , and can at least meet the material and spiritual needs of the people at the bottom.

So Ash was really puzzled to see this scene – what if one army could kill another army? The sanctuary and the gods are formed by one person, and the high-end combat power shatters all the advantages of the legion. If you let the high-end combat power decide the winner and loser, it is over, why do you have to fight a large-scale battle?

“Is there no place for ordinary people in your war?” Black Crow asked rhetorically.

“Most magician countries don’t have it.” Igula said: “I can probably guess the reason... In other countries, war is a continuation of politics, but in Senluo, war is a conflict of beliefs.”

“They kill for the sake of killing.”

“Almost.” Tamashi said, “As you said, the gods are the highest combat power, and they can basically decide the outcome of the war if they win or lose. However, even if the gods are strong or weak, But the endurance is very strong, and it is not easy to distinguish the winner.”

“Even if the person who sends the gods dies, as long as Dafa is still there, maybe someone can continue to successfully send the gods. Facing a desperate situation, getting the resonance of Dafa, and then turning the sky and turning the tide, there are too many examples.”

“And the number of believers is directly linked to the strength of Dafa.” Black Crow’s distorted voice was full of Sen Luo’s indifference: “Killing heretics is the goal of war.”

Ash said, “Then why didn’t the god-shippers join the war in the first place?”

“There are four walls here.” The deceiver pointed to the distance and said, “If I am the attacker, I will send the gods to attack the city walls with the second or third advantage, and force the defenders to fight, so that the first Attack the city gate in an advantageous direction; if the defender takes the initiative to attack, I will also send the gods to assist the advantageous direction to break through the city... In any case, we need to wait for the good or bad of the battle situation.”

Hei Crow added: “Although I’m not a person who sends gods, I heard that sending gods is a very tiring thing. It is best to use it at critical moments. Forcing gods will consume life...Axiu, are you not tired of sending gods?”

Yaxiu was a little puzzled: “No, it’s even very spiritual, and the body has become light. Could it be that I used a relatively short time and haven’t triggered the danger line?”

Harvey asked, “You sound like you stole my candy.”

“Maybe it’s because you are the perfect god. UU reading www.uukanshu.com” Tamashi said: “But the sectarian war is like this, they may not be able to win or lose this time, they will retreat after consuming each other’s believers, and regroup for the next wave. Offense and defense. Slowly accumulate losses, and sooner or later one side will collapse first.”

“But aren’t they all Qinri Alliance?” Ash asked, “I thought...”

“The Four Pillars Sect has stopped expanding.” Tamashi said, “And it’s too far from the Four Pillars Sect.”

“I’ve always been a little strange.” Igula pondered: “Whether it’s the Fire Tribulation Temple, the Transcendence Sect, or the two sides in front of them, they can actually come up with a considerable scale of magician soldiers, then the population behind them is probably hundreds of thousands. Count, they're not even the biggest sect... As a doomsday wasteland with such a high mortality rate, your fertility rate is too high, but I haven't seen many pregnant women along the way."

"Especially beyond the sect, do their believers really have the desire to reproduce?"

Chapter 566: fraud

, The Surgeon's Manual

"Oh?"

Tamashi seemed to be really surprised: "Is there no such thing in your country? What is it called, I can't remember it, it seems to be called... an incubator?"

"This may be the most popular gray fox heritage." He said: "There are many discounts in the self-service shopping machine, but almost every sect will inevitably buy a lot of baby incubators. Buy or borrow from other sects. Although it is difficult to find, as a sect, it is relatively easy to find one or two."

Self-service shopping machine, Yaxiu and the others are not unfamiliar with this term. In fact, they just passed a shopping machine today.

It looks like a huge bright black box, with a console, just need to insert a shopping card or pay with credit points – no one in the wasteland has credit points – you can buy 5 million kinds of Longmen Camp's own products .

No courier required, it's made on site.

Shopping cards and shopping machines are the most common and practical heritage in the wasteland. The sect can restore social production, and even repair part of the production line of the generation of gods, relying on shopping machines to purchase goods, licking the remaining glory of the generation of gods hungry.

“As long as the genetic information of two people is obtained, the incubator can automatically give birth to life. If enough genetic information is given, a variety of possibilities can be matched, and the most excellent attributes can be selected.” Tamashi said: “Generally In terms of incubators, the incubator is running endlessly, and although some people choose primitive pregnancy, as long as they are eligible to line up, they will not choose the backward birth method.”

He paused, “That’s how I was born.”

Ash: “Then do you remember your parents?”

“They seemed to have died before I was sensible. We basically grew up with older children and younger children... Wu Shi is a position with a high mortality rate.”

“As long as you live in this wasteland, the mortality rate is already high.”

Yaxiu watched the battle in the distance quietly, and felt a little complicated for a while. Faith creates the Age of Gods, Faith leads to war, Faith gathers will to resist strangulation, Faith drives believers to die bravely... Each country has its own theme, and Sen Luo’s theme is probably “Burning Faith”.

Every one of the Senluo people he met along the way, the mercury Trojan horse, all the crows killed, the silver lamp, surpassed the believers... Everyone was in a hurry, everyone felt that the time was not waiting for me, and the chaos and disputes in the wasteland filled their hearts with an inexplicable sense of urgency. , everyone is in a hurry to burn all their worth before reaching the finish line. They are like moths in the dark, they can’t wait to burn when they see a little flame, just to feel a little warmth.

Perhaps this was the foundation of the Age of Gods, and perhaps it was the source of war.

When the blue of the sky gradually faded and became thicker, and the night wind blew the murderous intention of the green, the two sides retreated and stopped fighting. The attackers encamped to surround the city, the bright bonfires cut off the darkness, and the belief of tens of thousands of people was enough to prevent the invasion of the stranglers.

“It’s time for us to go.” Ash released the clutch and twisted the right handle, and the steel monster under his crotch made an electromagnetic turning sound.

“What sect is that?” Igula suddenly pointed to the attacker and asked.

“Natural sect.” Black Crow said: “The ideal is to study the method of incarnating into nature, such as turning into flames, light, ice, earth, and the ultimate goal is to turn into the sun, and even become a part of the virtual world... It is the Dafa of Fangyuanchan. Followers, for a more eternal and greater immortality.”

“Do they have grudges with Transcendence Sect?”

“Huh?” Tamashi hesitated: “I don’t know. But how can there be a sect that has a grudge against the Transcendence sect?”

In the land of Senluo, the Transcendence Sect is definitely a unique wonder. No matter what their ideals are, other sects have a fanatical desire to expand. Only the Transcendence sect shrinks in the building. As long as you don’t come in, I will ignore you.

If you don’t have the power of the silver lamp, it is not easy for you to offend the Transcendence Sect.

Igula glanced at the black crow and said, “I have a hunch that if we expose our connection with the Transcendence Sect, we may run into trouble.”

Until now, Igula has not revealed that he has a ‘revelation’ magic spirit. With Tamashi by his side, he naturally wouldn’t say it.

When brushing my teeth today, the message of revelation is ‘Don’t expose beyond the sect’. In the crisis-ridden Senluo Wasteland, Igula did not dare to underestimate the hint of fate.

“Then hide it.” Yaxiu stopped the overtaking motorcycle neatly.

Igula thought for a while, he has always been cautious, thinking is it enough to just hide the transcendence sect?

The deceiver said to Tamashi, "Lend you some clothes."

Saying that, he took out three sets of crow killing suits from the space card and signaled everyone to put them on, but don't wear masks, just wear masks. Then he took out a bottle of something unknown from his arms and smeared it on his head, and his blond hair instantly turned brown.

He looked at Tamashi again and said, "You take off your mask first, now everyone will recognize you as Crow Killed."

Black Crow looked at them silently, without asking why, just tore a few pieces of cloth from the hem of his clothes, then turned his head to wrap it around, and soon turned into a bandaged face with only eyes exposed.

When they were ready, Ash picked up Tamashi, and the three of them unfolded their gold and silver wings and flew to the camp. They were stopped by the soldiers when they reached the perimeter of the camp, and soon a blond young man with shining pupils came over and scrutinized them with dazzling eyes.

"Who are you?"

"Traveling Merchant."

"Where did the traveling merchant come from?"

"House of Tribulation Fire."

The blond young man frowned: "Isn't the Temple of Tribulation Fire a group of robbers... and isn't the Tribulation Fire already extinguished?"

“Yes.” Igula’s face showed a trace of sadness: “Because of the threat of the Four Pillars of God, we are actually a team sent by the Temple of Tribulation of Fire to show their favor, hoping to join the Qinri Alliance, but I didn’t expect... and because the fire of robbery was extinguished, we Our indulgences have also expired, and I hope that the sect of nature can shelter us for one night, or longer.”

Although Yaxiu’s Transcendence Prison Indulgence Coupon can still be used, but this thing uses a little less, and you have to go back and replenish it when it is exhausted. If it is used to resist the green streak overnight, I don’t know how much it will consume, and it is not 100% defense. When I wake up the next day, it may be greened somewhere.

The sects of the Geum Sun Alliance are very friendly to the traveling merchants, which is why they risked coming here to ask for asylum.

The blond youth heard the subtext in the deceiver’s words—they wanted to join the sect of nature.

The magicians from the sect of extinction are considered high-quality resources wherever they are placed, but the blond young man looked at them and asked, “Are you a four-person business traveler?”

“No.” Igula pointed to Tamashi and said, “He was picked up by my companion on the road. It seems that he was abandoned with a facial disability. Maybe it is a defective product of the original pregnancy. We are going to take him to Heipao Town to help him. Looking for a faceless night job... He doesn’t even have Void Wings, how could it be our business traveler?”

In the land of Senluo, merchants are divided into trust merchants and traveling merchants. Trust merchants refer to merchants who only walk in areas with fixed routes and sell fixed goods. Most of the caravans are trust merchants; while traveling merchants are basically half intelligence dealers, they themselves have the intention of collecting intelligence for their own sect, so they need to set foot in those remote areas where there is danger. Most of the Traveling Merchants are basically composed of two-wing formal magicians, and they can fly fast without him. Although there are other means of transportation, flying is the most popular, and the 12-hour “voyage” of a biplane is often set as the farthest distance from a town to other strongholds.

The blond young man finally nodded, stretched out his hand and said, “Natural sect supplicant, Nori Supernatural.”

Nori led them into the camp, and asked as he walked, "Did you meet other business travelers on the road?"

Igula showed a thoughtful expression: "When we set off from Whiterun Town, we seemed to meet a group of business travelers riding motorcycles."

"Aren't they the same line as you?"

"No, they seem to be going to Lilac Town."

Norrie sighed: "It's a pity."

"What's wrong? Maybe we can help you. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com"

"Just missed a good deal." Nori said: "If I can catch those four people, then I may be able to save a few Longmenzhen shopping cards..."

"A few Longmenzhen shopping cards!" Igula's eyes widened: "Is it such a big business?"

"Of course," Nori chuckled, "that's about the fall of Nightfall—"

boom!

At this moment, the sound of the sky and the earth cracking broke out in the distant city!

Chapter 567: nightfall

Shakes the night!

It was like the sound of the collapse of a giant tower coming from Yefall City, the earth shook, the flames swayed, and even the night seemed to be stunned.

“Why...” Ash and the others heard that the supplicant Nori was a little lost, “This is not the same as what was promised...”

Even if they don't know the content of the transaction between the sect of nature and the silver lamp (from Nori's words, they naturally heard that they were almost overshadowed by the silver lamp), but Yaxiu and others can guess.

Chapter 568: Gemini

Silver Lantern definitely does not cooperate with the Nature Sect just for a few Longmenzhen shopping cards.

She might not even have planned to cooperate with the Nature Sect before, and she just had a temporary idea to kill Ash and the others. Even if Ash and Harvey had a sanctuary, if the sect of nature suddenly attacked, it would be difficult for them to take care of the safety of all the crows and the deceiver.

The sudden fall of the earth also shows that Yin Deng doesn't care about the interests of the natural sect at all.

Chapter 569: Fire Trial

Genius to remember the address of this site in one second: [New] <https://>The fastest update! No ads!

Ash felt like he was looking in the mirror.

The same crow kills the same feather shawl, the same twisted face mask, the same hairstyle, the same steel-soled boots, the same Zhanyulong bottoming shirt, even the same belt of the gods – you will also be transformed into beyond prison Crazy Dragon Knight?

The only difference is his eyes, showing complex but familiar colors. It's like I've seen it in Igula's eyes, like I've seen it in Harry's eyes, like I've seen it in the eyes of Queen Yisu, and it's like... I've seen it in the eyes of Yin Lan.

"You already have a judgment." He said calmly: "Why do you want me to give an answer?"

"The origin of the twin sect, the starting point of a perfect destiny, plus they regard this abyss as a forbidden place..." Ash said: "You are my destiny twins? My half body?"

"Just a person who happens to have the same memory and appearance as you," he said. "I was born from here when you fell."

"Then you and I are not exactly the same." Ash said, "At least our birthdays are different."

"However, I am also Yaxiu, and you are Yaxiu, what do we call each other?"

"You don't need a special name. You don't have schizophrenia, and neither do I. As long as you speak louder, I'll naturally know that you're talking to me or acting weird."

"No, although the names are used by others and not used by ourselves, if we don't have names, we really don't have anything that belongs to us." Ash broke his fingers and said, "Our corpses will enter the cycle of the world, our The soul will become the inheritance of the virtual realm, and our traces will be erased after countless years, only the name may continue into the future.”

“The corpse philosophy of necromancers? The nihilism of psionicists? Or maybe the influence of dramatic poets and Crowskilling?” he said. “So you’re still hiding this idea?”

“No, it’s just a reason to persuade you to take a name.” Ash was enthusiastic, “Who hasn’t thought of picking a new name for himself? Simply, Ash Heath, just call you Heath? No way. No, I always feel that using this name has a bad omen... Do you remember the names we thought of when we were young? Yahun, Yashang, Ya-”

“Call the viewer,” the viewer interrupted.

“It’s better to call Yaqiming, it feels better to have three words—”

“My name is Viewer, your name is Yaxiu.”

Yaxiu spread his hands helplessly, his face full of disappointment, walked to the side and sat on the steps, and asked carefully, “You said, you have all my memories—”

“Ollora’s Manual of Magicians, Sword Princess, Witch, Weisser, before and after crossing.” The viewer said, “I know all your secrets clearly, and you are... transparent in my eyes.”

Speaking of the back, the spectator’s voice was deep and deep, like a demon whispering out of the darkness, full of indescribable coldness.

The next second, his shoulders were held down, and he was pushed against the wall. The spectator’s heart was not disturbed, even a little relaxed, but when he raised his head, he saw that Yaxiu’s face was full of uncontrollable joy and excitement.

“Did I die suddenly? My parents should be fine, right? The insurance I bought should pay for it? They shouldn’t look through my computer data, right? And...and...”

Watching him ask questions like opening the floodgates, the viewer was slightly lost, and then calmly said: "Even if you don't know the answer, how would I know?"

"However, with brothers and sisters, and nephews, the second old man will recover quickly even if he is sad for a while. You have been working outside, and you have never been back except for the Spring Festival, and you have never called home... They are used to you. Gone are the days."

"It's us!" Yaxiu corrected: "Is there anything to call on the phone, and there is no happy event, did you tell my parents that I worked overtime last night to catch up with the progress of the project, and didn't sleep for four hours? But I didn't expect to go outside. There is also the benefit of working part-time, and you can die simply and neatly..."

Viewer: "There will be no problem with insurance claims. You bought it for sudden death. As for computer data, you basically have to read it."

"Ugh..."

However, it has been so long since the crossing, and Ash quickly got out of the quagmire of emotions. He looked at the viewer and said with a smile: "The Destiny Twins are said to have three types: similar, complementary, and opposite. You don't look very similar to me, so..."

Yaxiu huddled with the audience: "Are you the type that complements me? Give me more advice in the future!"

"I won't take care of you." The audience responded coldly, "You can do it yourself."

"So, what should we do next?" Ash looked around, and finally looked at the huge round hole where he fell. "How can we escape from here? Will there be a lift or something?"

The viewer points to an opposite wall.

Yaxiu blinked and observed it again, and soon found the clue: In the circular underground hall, there is a passage every other distance, and there should be a passage in the direction the viewer is pointing, but now it is blocked by a wall.

Viewer: "There should be 16 passages here, and now there are only 15 left. Yin Lan and the others should choose this passage to continue their in-depth exploration."

Ash: "They? Are they like us?"

A single silver lamp can turn the wasteland of Senluo upside down. What can two silver lamps do, Yaxiu dare not even think about it.

"Since they choose to go deeper, it means that the way to leave can only be found by continuing to explore." The viewer looked at him: "You choose or I choose?"

Yaxiu glanced at the channel that had no difference: "It's the same anyway, you choose."

The viewer nodded and walked into the nearest passage first. The light source in the passage came from nowhere, and there was a dazzling light in the distance. When Yaxiu followed and walked for a while, he heard a loud rumbling behind him, and when he looked back, he found that the entrance had been sealed.

"Igola and the others won't be able to find us now even if they come in..." Ash said, "Speaking of which, Igula and the others will be fine, right?"

"Since the twins can make a move, the next step is the collapse of the natural sect." The viewer said: "The twins sect attaches great importance to this abyss, and the twins even saw you fall into the abyss with their own eyes. Even if they get your favor, they will not Will take action against your comrade."

"It's our companion." Ash said, "It's as if you didn't have any adventure experience with Igula and the others."

“The definition of a partner is not whether they have shared experiences in the past, but whether they have the same interests in the future.”

“It is precisely because of the shared experience of the past that the interests of the future will be aligned.”

The viewer did not continue to discuss this topic with him, perhaps because he was not interested, or because a door appeared in the front passage.

When the two of them stood in front of the door, green light appeared from the crystal block above, and then the alloy door opened automatically, and a passionate female voice sounded inside:

Trial, rebirth channel, choose equipment?

The room is divided into three areas, the weapon area, the equipment area, and the appearance area. In the equipment area, there are sets of combat suits of different styles but without exception full of aesthetic design, and the weapon area is full of open front cold weapons. Although there are also guns, they are not only long guns, but also rotate and pull manual steps. pistol. Faced with this thing, Ash is confident that it is faster and more accurate within seven steps.

While Yaxiu was observing, the spectator had already changed into his battle clothes and equipped himself with two long swords.

“Do you still have double swordsmanship?”

“Gold level swordsmanship, you can master all basic swordsmanship.” The viewer said lightly: “Don’t talk about double swordsmanship, if you try the three swordsmanship, you can also get started quickly with the eight swordsmanship. The double swords are just better at quick raids.”

Ash also changed his battle suit, but instead of taking a weapon, he took a honey belly sword from his mouth. The viewer glanced at him and knew what he wanted to ask, and said, “I don’t have everything you got from Aurora’s Manual of Magicians, all I have is memory and skills.”

“I thought I could catch a bug in this game system with you...”

The two walked to the appearance area, which was different from the equipment area. It was filled with cloaks, masks, capes, accessories, cosmetics, and even hair dye and other appearance modification tools. It looked flashy and meaningless except to increase the appearance. Yaxiu naturally continued to wear a dark red windbreaker and a twisted mask. The audience wore a black windbreaker casually. When they returned to the door, they saw a counter raised on the ground with two watches on it.

In this unfamiliar place, the magic power was restrained again, and even Ashe knew that he had to obey the instructions obediently. After the two put on the watch, they saw the countdown on the LCD display: 14 minutes and 12 seconds.

“What should I do?” Ash asked, “Wait for the countdown to end here?”

“Trial.” The spectator only spit out this word and continued to move along the passage.

Since it is a trial, it cannot be a test of their ability to hide and seek in the room. If Ash’s guess is correct, they should go as far as possible before the countdown ends. If they dare to hide in the room, I am afraid there will be punishment – just like the expelling secret poison of the sea of knowledge.

“You really complement me.” Ash sighed next to the audience: “You like double swords, I am good at single swords. You act decisively, I am good at thinking. You...”

Time flies by as Ash twitter analyzes their pros and cons. When there were ten seconds left in the countdown, Yaxiu subconsciously accelerated his pace, and after repeated repetitions, there would be rolling stones or a lot of fish and dragons.

However, when the countdown resets to zero, another 30-minute countdown is flashed, but there is a small indicator next to it.

Yaxiu glanced at the back, but didn’t notice any movement.

The viewer also stopped: “In front.”

Yaxiu turned his head and found that a figure gradually appeared in the light of the passage ahead. His shadow was drawn very long, and it had reached the feet of the two of them.

When the viewer held down the hilt of the double sword, Ash still couldn't believe what was in front of him: "Are you—"

As a psychic scream beyond the range of human hearing echoed in the passage, the trial began!

.....

At the same time, the underground city fell at night.

Hearing the footsteps behind, Igula turned her head and saw the twin gods of the Twin Sect walking over, and asked, "There is no sound of battle outside, have you resolved the nature sect?"

"There is still a small part of them who are stubbornly resisting. After all, their Dafa is not here, and the death battle is their ending." The twins said: "I heard that there is a change here—"

The twins were stunned.

Because the change of the round hole can be seen from a distance. UU reading www.uukanshu.com

It's sealed.

What used to be a deep pit is now a flat ground. The twins rushed over immediately, stroking the texture on the ground, with a trembling voice: "It... will it change back?"

Harvey said: "It should be restored after the trial is over."

"What trial?"

Harvey pointed, and the twins found that there were several lines of text in the area where the black crow looked down. They looked over and saw incredible shock and... ecstasy on their faces.

"Shen Huo Trial?" They murmured, "Below the night falls, is there a Shenhuo system?"

Chapter 570: Viewer, Ash, Youlan, Wesser

Igula was so kind to me.

At the moment when the eardrum was destroyed by the scream of the mind, this idea suddenly appeared in Ash's mind. When he tried to dash into the past, he found that the continuous screaming of the mind actually had a repelling effect. He couldn't use the magic power and magic spirit, and it was very difficult to even get close!

Appearing in front of the two of them was the man in black, who was extremely similar to Igula. In order to distinguish it from the main body, let's call him Phantom Rust Crow.
