Chapter 568

Jiang Hao laughed loudly after hearing this and hugged Ying Ying and said goodbye, enjoying playing with Ying Ying while lamenting that this was his happiest day.

However, Jiang Hao did not expect that Xu Qiang and Dr. Liu had already secretly scampered together.

The next morning. Jiang Hao had just opened the door and was packing his herbs in the lobby when an imposing man walked up to Jiang Hao's pharmacy and stopped.

Jiang Hao looked at the two men outside the door and frowned slightly, having spent some time here, he was kind of clear about what 30 Mile Bay was.

Although the man's face was flat and bland. But his body had an aura of non-anger, such an aura was a person who had held heavy power for a long time.

Thinking of this Jiang Hao walked up. Then he smiled at the two men and said, 'Coming so early, I wonder if you're here to see a doctor, or to catch some medicine?'

The man, who was about sixty years old, frowned slightly after looking at Jiang Hao, then said in a deep voice, 'I heard that there is a figure here who is even more powerful than TCM Liu, so I came to take a look.'

After saying this he looked Jiang Hao up and down once and smiled, 'Well, with clear eyebrows, he looks a little bit like a dragon and phoenix among men.'

Jiang Hao laughed and touched his nose and said, 'You are judging people by their appearance, haha, I wonder if your Excellency is seeing a doctor or taking medicine?'

The two men looked at each other and the old man looked at Jiang Hao and said, 'Let's see the doctor first. I've been feeling a bit off lately.'

After walking into the pharmacy, Jiang Hao took the old man's pulse and said, 'Well, this is just a small problem, the recent weather has caused your body to become unbalanced.'

The old man sighed and then said, 'I can't help it, even though I've retired, I still have to walk around.'

Jiang Hao smiled and then looked at the old man and said, 'I wonder what your name is?'

The old man said softly, 'There's no need to be so polite, just call me Elder Qian.'

Jiang Hao nodded before taking out a book, then used a pen to write down some of Old Man Qian's health problems, then turned around and started to take medicine.

'Elder Qian, the weather and seasons have been changing fast recently. Your body is also getting old, so it's better to cut down on unnecessary walking.'

Qian Lao looked at Jiang Hao's busy appearance and smiled, 'Well, I will pay attention to this point in the future, I just need to move around a bit more these days.'

After Jiang Hao had sorted out all the medicine he had taken, he divided it into four packs with oil paper and handed them to Qian Lao, saying, 'Boil one pair of medicine twice, and come back for a follow-up consultation if you have time afterwards.'

Qian Lao smiled and put the money for the medicine on the table, then said to Jiang Hao, 'Sure,' and walked out of the pharmacy.

Xu Qiang's men secretly observed the scene and then hurriedly called Xu Qiang and said, 'Boss, I've seen a big fish over here. It's Qian Lao!'

Hearing this, Xu Qiang's heart thumped. Then he looked at Dr. Liu who was eating his breakfast and said, 'Okay, I know the news, you keep an eye on Qian Lao!'

After saying that, he hung up the phone, and then Xu Qiang looked at Dr. Liu and said, 'Elder Liu. Let me ask you something, do you want to stomp Jiang Hao to death at once?'

Dr. Liu, who was eating his breakfast, almost choked when he heard this, but he turned his head and looked at Xu Qiang's face and did not look like he was joking.

So he pondered for a moment and then said, 'Of course I want to, but if I do that, we'll both be unlucky. Do you know what I mean?'

Xu Qiang smiled sorrowfully and then looked at Dr. Liu and said, 'I don't know if you've heard of Qian Lao, but just now one of my men called and said he saw Qian Lao walking out of the pharmacy.'

After looking at Xu Qiang's gloomy expression, Dr. Liu could not help but say angrily, 'You're crazy! Don't you know what kind of person Qian Lao is? Not to mention 30 Mile Bay, he is a big person in the province!'

After hearing this, Xu Qiang said disdainfully, 'What kind of big shot is that? He's just a phoenix that's fallen from grace!'

After saying this, Xu Qiang looked at Dr. Liu and said, 'I know this Qian Lao also asked you for medicine, you prepare the medicine and I'll find someone to change the package for him. Understand?'

Although Dr. Liu was greedy for money and hated Jiang Hao, but what would happen if such a thing was found out. That was unimaginable!

The Chinese doctor hesitated and said softly, 'Although Qian Lao has retired, he still has deep connections in his hands. If this matter is found out, you and I will both be out of luck!'

Xu Qiang looked at Dr. Liu with hatred. He pulled out a dagger and stuck it on the table and said angrily, 'If you don't do this thing, I'll make you unlucky now!'

He had figured out that he was going to do something big for once!

Jiang Hao was a man Xu Qiang had seen clearly from the shadows, if he didn't bring Jiang Hao down this time, then it would be his bad luck in the future!

He had forced Dr. Liu to dispense a pair of pills and then hastily handed them over to his men who had bumped into Qian Lao on the street by mistake.

He took advantage of the panic and switched the medicine for Qian Lao, and only then rushed back.

Qian Lao looked at the things in front of him they had done, and had no choice but to accept it, but how there was a hint of uneasiness in his heart.

The next morning, when Jiang Hao was still seeing patients, suddenly a dozen to twenty people came from the street and blocked up the entrance to the pharmacy.

The people waiting in the pharmacy were shocked at the sight of this scene, and Jiang Hao took a strange look at it, but his heart did not ripple much.

He waited until he had finished with the patient before him before he got up and walked out, then spoke softly, 'What are you doing?'

The people in black clothes in front of him looked at Jiang Hao in silence, but did not say anything.

Then he took out an arrest warrant from his hand and looked at Jiang Hao and said, 'My name is Chen Qi, this is your arrest warrant, please come with us.'

Jiang Hao looked at the arrest warrant in his hand and couldn't help but be slightly stunned, he hadn't done anything illegal by coming here, so why would he have such a thing.

Thinking of this Jiang Hao looked at Chen Qi and said, 'I say, are you guys making a mistake, I haven't done anything illegal.'

Chen Qi looked at the innocent expression on Jiang Hao's face and sneered twice, when he came he had received a tip-off that this guy was skilled, which was why he had brought so many people over.

'Whether we've made a mistake or not, whether you've done anything wrong or not, it will be clear after you've come with us.'

Saying that, Chen Qi pointed at Jiang Hao and spoke, 'Take it away for me!'

Ying Ying, who had just finished decocting medicine for the patient, came out with the medicine in her hand and saw that Jiang Hao was going to be forcibly taken away.

She rushed up to protect Jiang Hao and said with a sobbing voice: 'Who are you? Why are you taking my brother Jiang Hao away?'
