

Chapter 581: It's Really Her

Qiao Yanjue had no idea what was going through Xia Xibei's mind, let alone that what he had been hoping for had come true.

He looked at Xia Xibei with concern, "Let's go eat first, it's so late."

"Okay."

Xia Xibei had already made up her mind, so naturally she would not refuse.

The two of them went to a quiet restaurant for dinner.

While still eating, Xia Xibei received a call from Pan Yan.

Pan Yan said that the opening ceremony of director Jiang Shenghe's new drama was scheduled for three days later, so she should go back early and get ready.

Director Jiang was very strict, so no absences were allowed for the opening ceremony.

Xia Xibei nodded and agreed.

However, just after she hung up the phone, Meng Qiuyue called, wanting to confirm with her the time to see Jiang Qirui.

Only then did Xia Xibei realize that the two times conflicted!

When she set the consultation time before, she set it according to Jiang Qirui's condition, and she was looking at the date, not paying attention to the day of the week at all.

The show's shooting time was also set beforehand, and everyone was notified, so it was not going to change.

Xia Xibei did not expect the two dates to clash!

This was troublesome.

She thought about it, then finally called Meng Qiuyue.

"Mrs. Jiang, sorry, I suddenly remembered that I have something to do that day and I can't give Ruirui a consultation then. Look, can we change the time?"

Meng Qiuyue was startled. "If we changed the time, would Ruirui--"

Before she could finish her words, the phone was taken away by Jiang Shenghe.

“Dr. Xia.”

“Mr. Jiang.”

“Hm... Can I take the liberty to ask, what do you have to do that day?”

Jiang Shenghe’s voice was a bit odd.

Xia Xibei raised an eyebrow. It was hard to believe that he knew about it.

“Two things just happen to be at the same time.”

At the other end, Jiang Shenghe’s expression was a bit strange. He only realized this a short time ago, but it was too amazing, so he did not dare to think deeper.

But how could things be so coincidental!

The same day, the same time... How could there be nothing fishy here?

Thinking of this, he took a deep breath and asked in a low voice, “How about... Can I ask your full name?”

Xia Xibei laughed and her tone changed, returning to her original voice.

“My name is Xia Xibei.”

“What?!”

Jiang Shenghe drew a breath and his phone fell down.

When he clumsily picked up the phone, his face was flushed red.

It was really her! That young woman!

How was this possible?!

But... The phone number was correct!

“Director Jiang, take it easy,” Xia Xibei laughed. “Otherwise, since we are so far apart, I can’t help treat you.”

Jiang Shenghe’s face shifted for a while before he laughed helplessly and bitterly.

“Dr. Xia, ah... You are really...”

He couldn't help but sigh, his wildly beating heart hadn't showing no signs of slowing down yet.

This was too scary!

Just how old was Xia Xibei?! How could she have such amazing skills?!

If it wasn't for the fact that his son was getting better and better under her treatment, he wouldn't have believed it at all!

If he hadn't noticed something wrong when he was looking at the actors' photos these past two days, he wouldn't have thought of it!

“Director Jiang, why don't I change the time of treatment...”

“No, no, no!” Jiang Shenghe immediately shook his head. “You don't need to go to the opening ceremony. I'll approve your leave. You just go ahead and help Ruirui!”

“Really?”

“Of course!” Jiang Shenghe was adamant. “You can join the show when you are free.”

“Okay, then. I’ll see you on that day.”

Chapter 582: Someone Wants To Invest In Your Project

The look on Jiang Shenghe’s face was intriguing after he hung up the call.

“Jiang?” Meng Qiuyue looked at her husband worriedly. “Are you alright?”

“I’m al- How can I be alright?!” Jiang Shenghe couldn’t help pulling his own hair while shaking his head. “It’s totally mind-boggling!”

Puzzled, Meng Qiuyue asked, “What’s wrong? What did Doctor Xia say? I also heard you talking about approving her leave or something. What was that all about?”

Him approving Doctor Xia’s leave? That was ridiculous!

They should try to please and flatter Doctor Xia now! Who dared to order her around?

“Have you any idea who she is?”

“Doctor Xia? Of course! Who else can she be?”

Meng Qiuyue looked extremely baffled.

“Do you know her full name?”

“Full name? I don’t know.”

“Her name is Xia Xibei!”

“Xia Xi- Xia Xibei?!” Meng Qiuyue cried out. “Are you sure?!”

She paid regular attention to entertainment news, as her husband worked in the entertainment industry.

The name “Xia Xibei” had been trending for the past couple of days. Who wouldn’t have heard about it? It was a huge splash!

But hold it right there... Xia Xibei and Doctor Xia were the same person?

He must be joking, right!

“You’re kidding me, aren’t you?” Meng Qiuyue shot her husband a glare.

“I’m kidding you?!” Jiang Shenghe shook his head. “The opening ceremony of my new film clashes with her appointment time with Rui. Do you still think I’m kidding? She even admitted it herself!”

Meng Qiuyue was utterly confused by then.

Were Xia Xibei and Doctor Xia the same person? For real?!

“But... But she’s so young!”

They had thought that Doctor Xia was at least thirty years old before this, and that she looked young only because she was great at skincare.

Who would have thought that Doctor Xia really was just a teenager?!

She must have started learning medicine back in her mother’s womb!

The husband and wife exchanged a glance, their expressions equally dubious.

If Xia Xibei hadn’t admitted it in person, they wouldn’t even have thought of it!

Jiang Shenghe mumbled under his breath, "I was just speculating... I didn't expect that it would turn out to be true!"

In fact, Jiang Shenghe had purposely scheduled the opening ceremony and his son's appointment on the same day, as it was an auspicious day.

He didn't expect Xia Xibei to be so forthright and actually admit it for real!

He was mind-blown by her confession!

His phone rang out of nowhere, and Jiang Shenghe drew a sharp gasp, nearly passing out.

He patted himself on the chest to calm his breathing before answering the call.

It was from a friend.

He asked about his son's condition before saying, "Jiang, I know you've been caught up with Rui's treatments and all, having spent a lot of money. My heart reaches out to you, really."

Jiang Shenghe raised his brows, "Just get straight to the point."

His friend must have felt somewhat insulted as he paused for a moment, but quickly got to the main subject.

“I have an acquaintance who wants to invest in your project.”

“Investment?”

“Yes, ten million!”

Ten million yuan wasn't exactly a big sum to his new film, but Jiang Shenghe did not turn it down immediately.

“What's the condition?”

“It's simple. He wants a minor role.”

“Which one?”

“The queen of animals-”

“That role is taken,” Jiang Shenghe cut him off right away.

“Don't get all worked up! If the amount isn't enough, we can increase it!”

After all, it was just an ordinary, minor role with just a handful of scenes. He felt like ten million yuan was sufficient.

“No need for that, it’s been decided,” Jiang Shenghe declined decisively. “I’m busy, so I’ll hang up for now.”

Then he hung up, despite the shouting on the other end.

Chapter 583: Captured It

Jiang Shenghe couldn’t help but snort after hanging up the call.

He always made it a point to invest personally in his film. That was how he could ensure that he had complete control over his work.

Sure enough, he was also willing to take on investments from other investors.

However, he wouldn’t accept large sums, nor would he give out important roles in exchange for those investments. After joining the crew, the actors had to follow the rules he set as well.

Thus, it was like the investors sent their own artists to the film set for training. After all, everyone said that Jiang Shenghe was great at coaching and edifying actors.

They would usually leave the set with their skills remarkably improved.

Theoretically speaking, the “queen of animals” role was a third lead with minor significance, and an investment of ten million yuan should have been adequate.

Nevertheless, it was Xia Xibei who got the role!

Jiang Shenghe wouldn't have minded trading the role for a considerable sum of money before he found an actress who fit the role.

However, Xia Xibei's performance and competence impressed him so immensely that he wouldn't change his mind now.

Therefore, he didn't even have to think before turning down his friend's offer.

He was only praying that Xia Xibei could cure his son.

On the other end, Xia Xibei informed Pan Yan about the matter after her leave application was “approved.”

“What?! You're not going on that day?!” Pan Yan shrieked in disbelief. “That's the opening ceremony! You can't be absent!”

That was Director Jiang Shenghe's opening ceremony! No artists were allowed to be absent, regardless of their rankings!

Xia Xibei nodded, "I understand that, but I've sorted things out with him, and I won't be going."

Pan Yan looked completely puzzled.

"You've sorted things out with Director Jiang? How did you do that?"

Besides, when was Director Jiang ever that easygoing?

Everyone knew that Director Jiang's hot temper was just as great as his fame and talent. He was known for his hotheaded nature.

It wouldn't show normally, but he would flare up if something displeased him.

Once he flared up, there was hardly anyone who could appease him.

That was why Pan Yan had never thought of taking a leave. Moreover, he wondered what made Xia Xibei willingly compromise this major event.

"I just talked to him about it, and he agreed to it. So, you don't have to worry. I won't take my career lightly."

Though she was confident, Xia Xibei wouldn't mess around.

"Did he really agree to it?"

Pan Yan could not believe it.

"Yes," Xia Xibei reiterated. "So I'm not going on that day."

It took her quite some effort to convince Pan Yan.

He was still dazed, even after hanging up. When did Xia Xibei become so close with Director Jiang?

Could they be relatives?

Unaware of what Pan Yan was fathoming, Xia Xibei hung up and told Qiao Yanjue, "I'm gonna go wash my hands."

"Sure, go ahead."

Xia Xibei stood up and walked out.

She washed her hands thoroughly in the restroom outside, then tidied her cap a bit before making her way back to the chamber.

However, she came to a sudden halt at a corner.

There were two figures standing behind a huge flowerpot, tangled up in each other.

She might have just walked off if she hadn't seen the guy's face.

Upon recognizing the guy, she quickly fumbled to get her phone out of her pocket.

After capturing pictures of the two of them, she uploaded them on social media and deleted the pictures afterward.

Only then did she continue her way back to the room.

However, someone darted out before she could walk far.

“Stop right there!”

Chapter 584: Hand Over the Pictures

The newcomer reached out to grip Xia Xibei's hand, but she managed to dodge it.

"What are you doing?" Xia Xibei turned around, staring at him with a grim face.

"You?!"

Qiao Haoming stared at Xia Xibei in shock.

Although they hadn't met before, Xia Xibei was no stranger to him.

After all, she was quite a sensation on the Internet these days, and she had a feud with Xia Qinghan.

"You know me?" Xia Xibei looked at him, seeming baffled.

"Of course I do!" Qiao Haoming nodded, then remembered why he came out. "Hand over the pictures!"

"The pictures?" Xia Xibei looked at him with puzzlement. "What are you talking about?"

The girl was at his heels.

“Haoming.”

Upon seeing Xia Xibei, her guard was immediately raised. “Who’s she?”

Xia Xibei looked at them as if they were lunatics, then turned to leave.

“Don’t go!” Qiao Haoming subconsciously reached out to grab her, but she managed to fend him off.

“Show some respect!” Xia Xibei snapped with a cold look.

“Hand over the pictures first!”

Qiao Haoming had hurried outside because he sensed someone sneaking photos of them a while ago and panicked when he happened to see Xia Xibei holding her phone.

“What pictures?” Xia Xibei’s lips curled into a sarcastic smile. “Sir, this is not how you should hit on girls.”

“Haoming.”

The girl tugged on Qiao Haoming's arm, but he shrugged her hand off.

He stared at Xia Xibei, "You were the only one who passed by. I'm sure you've taken pictures!"

Xia Xibei's eyes widened in shock. "Are you kidding me? I saw someone passing by just now! This is a restaurant, for god's sake. Are you slighting their customer flow?"

"Besides, why would I take pictures of you two? Who are you? Wanted criminals? Or celebrities?"

Xia Xibei's tirade left Qiao Haoming speechless.

"Haoming, I don't think anyone has taken pictures," the girl said while glaring at Xia Xibei.

"Keep your mouth shut!" Qiao Haoming shot the girl a glare.

She gasped a little, left with no choice but to shut her mouth.

Xia Xibei managed to figure out their relationship just from the way they interacted.

In her past life, she always heard Xia Qinghan boasting about how much she and Qiao Haoming loved each other and how affectionate and faithful he was.

Xia Xibei couldn't help but sneer inwardly right now.

This was his so-called faithfulness? Impressive!

Xia Qinghan was in City G while Qiao Haoming lived in the capital. It was too easy for him to cheat, as they were out of each other's sight.

That was why Qiao Haoming feared that Xia Xibei might have taken pictures of them.

However, if he did care that much about Xia Qinghan, he wouldn't have been so intimate with other girls.

They couldn't help kissing passionately in public, and god knew how many other lovers he had.

"No matter what, you'd better hand over the pictures. Otherwise..."

He looked at Xia Xibei with menacing eyes.

"Are you sick in the head or something?" Xia Xibei went off the deep end. "Do you even understand English? Who would take pictures of you?! What a narcissist!"

In spite of that, she took her phone out and unlocked her screen, then tapped her album open.

“Look! Why would you think I’m bored enough to take pictures of you? It’s not like you’re celebrities or something!”

Qiao Haoming stared closely at her phone. Indeed, there weren’t any pictures of him.

“Let me see the deleted photos.”

Phones normally had a “bin” function nowadays.

Annoyed, Xia Xibei rolled her eyes but did as he told her.

“Happy now?” Xia Xibei turned around right after showing him.

Qiao Haoming’s lips moved, but he did not stop her.

Chapter 585: The First Celebrity Guest

Xia Xibei returned to City G the next day, welcomed with enthusiasm just as she arrived.

There was a banner hung at the school gates, proclaiming, “Congratulations to our fellow schoolmate Xia Xibei for winning the first prize in the national English contest!”

It was written in a huge yellow font on a stark red background, drawing a great deal of attention and giving rise to discussion.

Before reaching her classroom, many requested to take pictures with Xia Xibei.

All her schoolmates seemed ardent.

Even though Xia Xibei had been eliminated by “The Strongest Female Group,” anyone with brains could see that it was the loss of the show, not Xia Xibei’s.

Besides, a lot of people were waiting for the show’s crew to screw up.

What was the point of watching the show when contestants like Xia Xibei had all been eliminated?

Sure enough, the priority right now was to take pictures and get autographs, regardless of what the future held!

Xia Xibei’s lips had gone numb by the time she returned to her classroom.

Everyone really had been keen and avid.

It was the popularity that she had amassed through “Full Steam Ahead” and “Million Dollar Wisdom and Courage.”

Xia Xibei sighed with relief after dealing with her classmates upon returning to the classroom.

Tang Luo laughed, "How are you feeling, superstar?"

She sighed, "I have no choice but to get used to it."

However, her schoolmates were civilized people who knew their boundaries. That might not be the case once she stepped outside.

Xia Xibei was glad that she had schemes up her sleeve. Otherwise, it would be a real challenge to go outside.

"What about you?" Xia Xibei asked in return.

"Pretty good." Tang Luo spread her hands, looking relaxed. "Your method is really awesome though."

She had gone back and swam in front of Mo Bonan after receiving the prop that Xia Xibei had provided.

She could clearly see that Mo Bonan was surprised, his gaze lingering on her chest for some time, as if he couldn't believe what his eyes were seeing.

Tang Luo felt rather awkward when she first came out because it felt weird to be topless.

However, she managed to suppress the awkwardness and began swimming with deft moves.

After swimming for some time, she could tell that Mo Bonan had started doubting himself.

Since then, Mo Bonan stopped insisting on coaching her. He also went much easier on her and stopped being suspicious all the time.

Now that she was physically comfortable, and with the knowledge that Mo Bonan wasn't watching her closely anymore, Tang Luo's life became much more relaxing.

"God Luo's TV is up and running already. It can be launched in a couple of days."

Tang Luo and Ren Juncheng had been busy with God Luo's streaming application these days, which took them more than two months to get things in place.

That was even with the help of Tang Luo's memory from her past life.

Otherwise, they wouldn't have gotten it done so fast, with only the two of them working on it.

"Great," Xia Xibei nodded, then said in a small voice, "I've talked to Brother Hai about it. He'll be our first celebrity guest."

“Sure,” Tang Luo beamed.

With Nie Zehai’s involvement, God Luo’s Streaming TV would certainly be a smash!

“Do you have any other candidates besides Brother Hai?”

“Of course I do.”

Tang Luo took out a piece of paper with a bunch of names written on it. There were about ten of them on a rough count.

“We can bring in many more streamers to join God Luo’s with these candidates, but the initial capital-”

“No worries, I have money.”

Smugly, Xia Xibei raised her brows at her.

“We need at least several millions to draw them in though.”

“No big deal at all,” Xia Xibei gave a dismissive wave. “All you have to do is get in touch with them! I’ll transfer the money to you.”

Tang Luo stared at her in surprise. “Did you just get rich somehow?”

Chapter 586: Last Treatment

Tang Luo was surprised. “You made a fortune?”

Others might not know it, but Tang Luo was familiar with Xia Xibei’s situation, aware that she had more than just an average amount of assets.

Her businesses were indeed profitable, but it would still take her some time to amass great amounts of wealth.

“Yeah.” Xia Xibei nodded and spoke in a small voice, making no effort to hide it from her friend, “I went gem-gambling at the capital this time, and...”

She raised her brows and made a “you know what I’m saying” face at Tang Luo.

“Gem-gambling?!” Tang Luo couldn’t help but cry out in surprise, quickly lowering her volume.

Even though she had never tried gem-gambling herself, she had heard about it before.

Putting everything else aside, she had heard the popular saying, “it’s a make-or-break with each cut.”

It seemed like Xia Xibei had made a great fortune from it!

“Yes,” Xia Xibei nodded confidently, though she did not mention the exact figure. “Rest assured. God Luo’s will turn out well.”

Tang Luo broke into a grin and did not question her any further.

“Awesome! I’ll contact them today.”

“Sure.”

With sufficient capital to back them up, they could build a more mature, professional team, and foster more streamers. God Luo’s would take off very soon.

It was better to pave a path of glory before someone else had their eyes on streaming.

Once the path was paved, they could sit back and count their steady profit.

The work division between them was clear-cut. Xia Xibei was responsible for funding, while Tang Luo was in charge of technology and administration.

They trusted each other and were both confident in their future.

Neither of them were ordinary teenagers, fighting over simple things.

After leaving Tang Luo to run God Luo's TV, Xia Xibei began preparing for Jiang Qirui's treatment.

She had been treating Jiang Qirui for some time, and they were now proceeding towards the last stage of treatment.

He would recover after this bout of treatment.

Jiang Shenghe did not come for the last treatment; it was Meng Qiuyue who brought her child over by herself.

The venue was the same— the small room in Hongyan.

It was six o'clock in the evening by then.

Previously, they usually had the treatment either during the weekends or after six in the evening.

Meng Qiuyue did not think much about it at the time.

After getting to know that Xia Xibei was Doctor Xia, she finally came to her senses.

That was because Xia Xibei was still a student! Of course she was only available afterschool!

Upon entering the room, Meng Qiuyue was kind of dazed when she saw Xia Xibei, who was wearing a mask.

Was Doctor Xia... Xia Xibei for real?

Xia Xibei couldn't help laughing as she saw the look on her face.

Xia Xibei took her mask off, revealing her gorgeous face.

Stunned, Meng Qiuyue's pupils constricted instantly.

It really was her!

However, Xia Xibei soon put the mask back on, so Jiang Qirui did not see her face.

She asked the little boy, "Rui, how are you feeling these days? Any discomfort?"

“No,” Jiang Qirui shook his head obediently. “I don’t feel uncomfortable anywhere.”

He’d been taking the medicine for a period of time now, and his condition had improved visibly, but his cheeks still looked somewhat pale.

“That’s awesome!” Xia Xibei nodded with a smile. “Let’s have our last acupuncture, and you won’t need any more meds after this!”

“Really?” Jiang Qirui was surprised.

Even though he never refused his medicine, they were still too bitter for his liking.

“Yes,” Xia Xibei nodded, then made him take his shirt off and lie down on the bed.

Meng Qiuyue watched her maneuver the needles from the side, becoming completely awe-stricken.

She hadn’t felt so astonished before getting to know who Xia Xibei really was.

Ever since she learnt about Xia Xibei’s identity and age however, she couldn’t help getting overwhelmed by stupefaction.

Chapter 587: Where Did You Get a Face Change

How could such a young girl be so good at medicine, especially at this age?

Meng Qiuyue was overwhelmed with grievances as she thought of how miserable they had been before, searching high and low for doctors.

However, she felt much better once again as she watched Xia Xibei's smooth, clean moves.

No matter how much they had been through, it was worth it if their child could get well.

After removing the needles, Xia Xibei handed a bowl of medicine to Jiang Qirui.

"Have this. It's your last bowl of medicine."

Jiang Qirui nodded and took over the bowl, which he gulped down in one shot. He couldn't help but stick his tongue out at the end, pulling a long face.

It was too bitter!

Nevertheless, he was glad that he didn't have to drink such bitter medicine from now on.

The weird hairs on his body had disappeared by now, and he had returned to normal.

He was a whole different person from the haggard, sickness-stricken boy that he was when she had first seen him.

Meng Qiuyue was beyond grateful as she looked at her healthy son.

“Doctor Xia, thank you so much! Really!”

“Welcome. Just go home, rest for some time, and pay attention to his nutrition. Then he will be fine.”

“Sure, I got it,” Meng Qiuyue heaved a sigh of relief.

Upon stepping out of the room, she saw a lot of jaunty, vivacious customers in the shop.

Meng Qiuyue couldn't help asking, “Doctor Xia, can I be a member here?”

Xia Xibei was stunned for a second, then she broke into a smile.

“Of course you can.”

As the wife of a prestigious film director, Meng Qiuyue never had problems with money.

They had been busy with Jiang Qirui's illness previously. Although a lot of money had been spent, that mere amount was far from unaffordable to them.

Besides, they managed to spend even less with Xia Xibei's help.

They had thought that it would probably take a few million yuan to treat their son's illness.

Unexpectedly, it took them only a few hundred thousands in the end, and Xia Xibei took only about a hundred thousand.

Therefore, they could surely spend the remaining money in other areas of life.

Before their son fell sick, Meng Qiuyue had been keen on skincare as well.

After her child came down with his illness, however, she barely had time to think about other things.

Furthermore, she had aged a lot in appearance due to worry and anxiety.

Now that their child had recovered, it was time to start a new life again.

She had always known that Hongyan was a good place. Every customer who came here would walk out feeling satisfied.

Meng Qiuyue was stupefied when their cousin came to visit the child some time back!

Despite being a woman in her fifties, their cousin looked extremely youthful when she showed up.

Strangers couldn't tell her age! And it was because she went to Hongyan!

As a woman, how could Meng Qiuyue not want to look that young and beautiful as well?

Now that their child was healthy again, she could finally spend time on self-care.

Also, she felt obliged to remunerate Xia Xibei, as she had charged them so little!

It would be a win-win situation!

"Apart from the anti-aging and wrinkle-removing products, Hongyan has also launched a series of whitening products. You could try them," Xia Xibei explained to Meng Qiuyue.

Meng Qiuyue had pretty dark skin, so the whitening products would suit her well.

"Really? I'd like to try them, then!" Meng Qiuyue agreed instantly.

At last, she spent a hundred thousand yuan on the member card and enjoyed a series of thorough, inside-out facial treatments.

She looked like a whole different woman when she left Hongyan.

Jiang Shenghe was stunned when they had their video call that night.

They had only been apart for a couple of days, so why was his wife looking like a whole other person now?!

There were several people around Jiang Shenghe, one of them being an actress who was close with the couple, and she was equally dumbfounded.

“Sister Qiuyue, where did you get a face change at?!”

Chapter 588: Really That Magical?

The actress’ name was Lin Biying. She was in her thirties this year and was an excellent actress who was well-known by all.

The first filmwork she acted in was directed by Jiang Shenghe, and she had been close with Jiang Shenghe and his wife all these years.

She had even paid them a visit when Jiang Qirui fell sick.

At that time, Meng Qiuyue was emaciated because of her son's condition. There were dark circles around her eyes, and her skin was lusterless, making her look a few years older than she actually was.

However, she looked like a totally different person right now. The bags under her eyes and the fine lines at the corners of her eyes were gone, and her skin was glowing!

Did she turn on the filter?

That was what Lin Biying was thinking, so she blurted it out.

Meng Qiuyue couldn't help but laugh, "When did this app ever have a filter function?"

Lin Biying nodded in realization. She was right!

The biggest advantage of this communication application was its high resolution, but the filter function was unavailable, unlike other apps.

"What's the matter with you, then?"

However, Jiang Shenghe had figured it out by then.

“You went to Hongyan?”

When Jiang Shenghe previously brought their son to Hongyan for treatment, he had also seen what happened with their cousin and the customers outside.

It wasn't unreasonable to say that the customers that walked out of Hongyan had all emerged as a whole different person.

“Yes!” Meng Qiuyue laughed out loud, feeling joyful.

How could she not be in a good mood?

All three of them had been tormented by their son's illness for a long period of time before this. Now that the dark clouds and the tension was gone, how could they not feel good?

“Hongyan?” Lin Biying was a little puzzled. “I seem to have heard about it somewhere... I guess?”

“Hongyan is a beauty salon. Their products and beauticians are all first-class!”

As she spoke, Meng Qiuyue gave it a thumbs-up. She strongly recommended it.

“Oh! I remember it now!” It dawned on Lin Biying. “I’ve heard people talking about Hongyan before!”

It was mentioned by one of their makeup artists.

That makeup artist used to have bad skin, but she showed up one day looking like she had gotten a skin change, appearing smooth and stunning.

Everyone thought that she had gone for cosmetic surgery!

However, she denied it, claiming that she had gotten it from a beauty salon, and no surgery was involved.

They were surprised and curious. Some were even eager to give it a try.

Lin Biying was interested too. She was a woman, after all, and beauty was a lifelong pursuit.

However, facial expressions were extremely important for an actress. If the procedures injured her facial nerves in any way, her career would be over.

It was a huge screen after all, and one’s expressions and the slightest gestures would be captured clearly.

This was why celebrities with stiff facial expressions and those who had surgeries done on their faces dared not go on big screens, for fear of exposing their weakness.

Thus, Lin Biying had always been cautious. Despite her curiosity, she wouldn't act recklessly.

But even Meng Qiuyue had visited Hongyan, and the results were impressive.

"Hongyan has exceptional skills!" Meng Qiuyue kept urging Lin Biying. "If you're interested, I could bring you there to give it a try."

"Erm..." Lin Biying was hesitant, "Will there be any side effects?"

"Of course not!" Meng Qiuyue was confident. "They use only pure essence extracted from plants, and there's no synthetic chemicals, so there'll be no side effects! Look at my face? Does it look like there are any side effects at all?"

Looking at how smugly Meng Qiuyue was showing her face off, Lin Biying couldn't help but be moved.

Was Hongyan really that magical?

Chapter 589: Xianrong Salon's Spokesperson

"What the hell is Honyan doing?!"

Yu Lanxiang was so angry she almost broke a nearby vase.

After the reopening of Hongyan Beauty Club, Xianrong Beauty Salon's sales fell to its lowest ever.

The customers they had managed to snatch from Hongyan all went back to Hongyan.

Now, Xianrong's customers were noticeably fewer.

The number of Hongyan Beauty Club customers, on the other hand, were growing more and more.

Looking at the bustling Hongyan, and then at her own pathetic business, Yu Lanxiang's blood pressure went up.

The most annoying thing was that she had spent a lot of money bringing in a lot of machines.

Now those machines were getting dusty!

If this continued, Xianrong would hardly afford to pay the rent!

Previously, in order to steal business from Hongyan, Yu Lanxiang lavishly opened several branches, specifically opening them near Hongyan.

At that time, they thought that if there were customers at Hongyan, they could just grab them.

Now, such a decision really ruined Yu Lanxiang.

Because of the opening of too many branches and not enough of an income, she was being dragged to death!

They could survive for a month or two, but if there was no improvement, then it would be a problem!

Yu Lanxiang could neither eat nor sleep at the thought of this. Every day, she was thinking of how to solve this matter.

She originally wanted to find someone to make trouble at Hongyan, but she didn't expect that this kind of thing had already happened there before she could do it.

It was a pity that things didn't turn out as she had hoped. The troublemakers were found to have caused the problem themselves, and they actually helped advertise for Hongyan!

Now everyone knew that Hongyan's products were fantastic!

Hongyan had more and more customers, plus people were promoting them after personal experience, so the number of customers they had was increasing.

Yu Lanxiang's chest hurt looking at the number of sales.

But her son did not care, and her husband was not dependable, so who else could she turn to?

She flipped through her phone contacts and her eyes suddenly lit up.

She could find a spokesperson!

Thinking of this, she immediately tapped the number and called.

Soon, Bai Meixue picked up the phone.

“Sister Xiang?”

Bai Meixue was a little surprised when she received Yu Lanxiang’s call.

What could be going on this late at night? And they hadn’t been in touch for a while.

Yu Lanxiang was excited and got to the point. “Meixue, can you do me a favor?”

“Favor?” Bai Meixue froze for a moment. “Favor for what?”

“Be the spokesperson of my beauty salon!”

When these words came out, Bai Meixue was stunned.

“The spokesperson of your beauty salon?”

“Yes!”

The more Yu Lanxiang talked, the more excited she became. “Aren’t you a big star? I have opened several beauty salons. As long as you become the spokesperson, my business can take off...”

Bai Meixue’s expression was getting stiffer and stiffer, and she was laughing coldly in her heart.

What kind of joke was Yu Lanxiang telling?!

She was a big star! How could she be a spokesperson for Yu Lanxiang?!

This did not match her style at all!

Although over the years, because she was getting older, her career path was getting narrower and her popularity was stolen by the new youngsters, she was still a dignified person in the entertainment industry.

How could she be the spokesperson of a small beauty salon?

How could Yu Lanxiang even think of it?!

She had also heard that Xianrong's situation was not very good.

In this situation, only a fool would help her as a spokesperson!

"Sister Xiang, it's not that I'm not willing to help you, it's that our company has a rule that in order to be a spokesperson, you have to have the company's consent."

Chapter 590: Quality Problem

Yu Lanxiang's face immediately sank.

"Are you still my friend? You forget that back then, I..."

"Sister Xiang!" Bai Meixue immediately interrupted her. "How about this, I'll talk to my company first. If it's fine, we'll talk about this matter again, okay?"

Hearing her say that, Yu Lanxiang finally breathed a sigh of relief. "OK. Hurry up."

“Good, then I’ll go tomorrow and talk to the company. It’s too late to disturb them tonight.”

“Alright.”

Yu Lanxiang did not necessarily want a decision now. She was just worried that Bai Meixue would flip out on her.

“Then you go rest, Sister Xiang. I’ll think about what to say to the company.”

“Good.”

After hanging up the phone, a smile appeared on Yu Lanxiang’s face once again.

She knew that Bai Meixue would definitely agree!

If it hadn’t been for her back then, how could Bai Meixue meet rich people and get to the top so quickly?

Now that Bai Meixue was famous, she wanted to get rid of her? It wouldn’t be that easy!

Yu Lanxiang’s smile got even wider thinking of this.

With the endorsement from Bai Meixue, there would be a celebrity effect.

When the time came, they could run a little promotion or something, and they could win back their customers.

The more she thought about it, the better she felt, and Yu Lanxiang was finally able to sleep in peace.

What she didn't know was that Bai Meixue wasn't in such a good mood.

After hanging up on Yu Lanxiang, Bai Meixue's face was very unpleasant.

She had heard about the business with Xianrong and Hongyan, so naturally she knew the dilemma Yu Lanxiang faced right now.

If Xianrong was a national chain of large beauty clubs, she could still endorse it.

However, Xianrong had only opened a few branches, and their business was getting worse. Under such circumstances, if she were to be their spokesperson, her own profile would be dragged down.

If she did that, how could she get any good spokesperson opportunities?

Thinking of this, Bai Meixue's eyes became even more grim.

So Yu Lanxiang wanted to threaten her with what happened back then? Unfortunately, Bai Meixue was no longer as gullible and easy to bully as she was back then.

Instead of waiting for Yu Lanxiang to make a move, she might as well make the first move.

The next day, while Yu Lanxiang was waiting for Bai Meixue to reply, several police officers suddenly came to her store.

When she figured out what was going on, she was dumbfounded.

Someone had reported that the quality of Xianrong's products was substandard, that they were fake and shoddy products.

Supposedly, the police had been called by a customer who had used their products before. After using these skincare products, she grew many spots on her face.

After going to the hospital, it was discovered that the skincare products she used contained excessive hormones!

The customer, in a fit of rage, called the police.

This stunned Yu Lanxiang.

How could their products have such quality problems?!

However, there was no way to explain things at this moment.

As the person in charge, Yu Lanxiang had to cooperate with the investigation at the police station.

As for the products in the store, they had to be tested before they could be cleared of suspicion.

Xianrong was in turmoil.

When Xia Xibei was on the plane, she received a message from Liu Manhong.

Liu Manhong was overjoyed. Before they had even done anything, Yu Lanxiang had already gotten herself into the police station!

After reading Liu Manhong's message, Xia Xibei couldn't help but raise her eyebrows.

Who was trying to mess with Yu Lanxiang?

They had thought about this tactic before, but although Xianrong's skincare products were not as good as Hongyan Youth, there was nothing unseemly about them either.

They still had standards and would not frame Xianrong.

How was it that suddenly Xianrong's quality was not up to par?
