

Chapter 600

The director has had a hard time creating such an opportunity for them, and it can't be missed.

So she cleared her throat, coughed, and shouted, "Snap, thank you."

Snap She heard a voice and subconsciously responded by removing the clothes from his face.

When it became clear that it was her, her face instantly sank again, and with a snort, she just rolled over and turned her back to ignore her.

Evelin was embarrassed for a moment.

The atmosphere remained silent, and she figured that it wasn't a good idea to remain so stale.

Since we're all here, we might as well just get it out of the way once and for all.

Thinking this way, she wasn't in a hurry, but walked over to a chair next to her and sat down, saying, "Xie Snap, I know you hate me right now, but we're still in the same crew at any rate, and I haven't done anything wrong to you, so you don't have to treat me like this, do you?"

"Is it because I didn't accept your love that you marginalize me and ignore me? Even Grand Duke Xie is such a stingy person?"

At that, Snapdragon reeled over.

He sat up from his chair and looked at Evelin with a sunken face.

Evelin raised her eyebrows.

A show of not being afraid of him.

Xie Snap was extremely angry, but there was nothing he could do about it.

In the end, I could only pout and say, "Yes, I'm not stingy, but if you're going to reject me, you have to give me a reason! Don't think that reason you gave me last time really gets rid of me, I don't believe it."

Last time, Evelin had tried to put an end to his thoughts by directly saying that she didn't mean that to him.

So, these days, Snap was actually pouting with her because of her inner frustration and that bit of male pride and self-esteem.

But in fact, he was still very confident.

He felt that even if Evelin didn't like himself, he couldn't really hate himself.

Even as much as I liked her, I had kept a basic sense of proportion all this time, and hadn't done anything to turn the other person off.

However, Evelin was so perfunctory, refusing to say it properly even if it was a reason to reject him.

Rather, it's to put him off with such false and empty words so that he will know when to back off.

He's mad about that.

Evelin was stunned at the words, then laughed.

She was a little surprised that Snapshot was thinking this way.

Thinking about it, I suddenly said, "So why do you think I'm not accepting you?"

Snap Shea frowned.

A half-hearted, unhappy pout, "How am I supposed to know what's on your mind?"

Evelin laughed lightly, then sighed.

"I'm not lying to you, Snap Shea, you're nice, but in my heart, I just think of you as a friend, and I don't want to lose a friend over this, you know what I mean?"

Snap looked at her, eyes serious, making sure her words weren't adulterated, before she said, "So what you're saying is, I still have a chance?"

Evelin: "....."

Headache stroking.

She shook her head, explaining seriously once again, "Since I've said that we're friends, there's no chance that I can't develop a relationship with a friend, naturally."

"Why not?"

Xie Snap rushed out and regretted the words as soon as they left his mouth.

The attitude that had collapsed for so many days was instantly revealing its eager nature at this moment.

This was a real chagrin to him.

But now that the words have been spoken, it's too late to regret them.

He thought about it and asked, "Do you have a favorite?"

Evelin was stunned.

Snap She looked at her seriously and with great seriousness.

"If you have someone you like, I can understand what you're doing, but if you don't, then why not give me a chance to try and make it possible for us to try each other and each other? Maybe, I mean maybe, we'd be a good fit? You said I was fine, too, right? That proves that, whether you like me now or not, at least you approve of me, doesn't it?"

Evelin was startled and momentarily dumbfounded.

She really didn't expect Snapshot to say something like that.

It seems wrong to look fake, but when you think about it, it makes sense.

She was embarrassed, for a moment, but laughed to herself.

"Snap Shea, we're not right for each other."

Snap Shea frowned.

The look was clearly very unpleasant.

Evelin sighed helplessly and had to tell the truth.

"To tell you the truth, actually...I have a boyfriend."

When she said this, Evelin's heart was actually struggling a lot.

Although, in Tailor Feng's heart, they were already boyfriend and girlfriend, and she had promised him that she would start over.

But in the end, in her heart, she still had reservations about the relationship between the two.

So, she didn't dare to say the words out loud.

Now, however, facing such a stubborn Xie Snap, she didn't want to let the other party fall deeper and deeper, so she had no choice but to speak up.

Snap Xie heard this and was viciously shaken.

It was almost incredulous to look at her.

"What did you say? Do you have...when? How come I don't know?"

Evelin didn't say anything, just looked at him quietly.

Snap She snapped to attention.

That's right. Who the hell is he?

It's not like she's who she is, so why should she know that she's in love?

In this world, it's not uncommon to have hidden marriages and relationships, and many artists, long after they've fallen in love, don't even know that their closest assistants and managers are close to them.

Not to mention a colleague or friend of his.

Snap Xie couldn't help but laugh bitterly.

It wasn't that Evelin had thought of this possibility when she rejected him.

But now that I've actually heard it for myself, I still find it hard to believe.

He looked at her and asked, "Who is he?"

Evelin pursed her lips and instead of answering the question, she changed the subject and said, "Xie Snap, you will definitely find a girl who is better and more suitable for you than me, and we will both have our own happiness instead of wasting our energy on unnecessary people."

Xie Snap watched her calmly say the words, only to feel her heart stirring like a knife.

But she already has someone she likes!

Even if you're sad and unhappy, you shouldn't disturb each other's feelings, right?

You shouldn't let your love be a problem for the other person, should you?

Snap of Shea took a deep breath, managed a smile, and nodded.

"Okay, I got it."

There was a pause, and eventually, reluctantly, I asked again.

"Is he treating you well?"

Evelin was stunned.

Followed by a slow laugh.

"Good, he's the best thing that's ever happened to me, in this world."

Snap Xie looked at the happy smile that unconsciously unfolded on her face as she said this, only to feel a heart that felt like it was soaked in lemonade, sore and aching.

Chapter 601

But there was nothing he could do about it, and in the end, he could only nod helplessly.

"Okay, I got it."

He stood up and walked over to her, holding out his hand to her.

"In that case, I wish you well, and don't worry, I won't be the same, we're still friends."

Evelin saw the situation and stood up as well.

It was a genuine smile that came from within.

Taking his hand in one, he said, "Well, good friend."

It was then that Snap suddenly yanked her hand hard and reached out to gently hug her.

The man's shoulders were broad, with a reassuring warmth to them.

Evelin's body stiffened slightly, but Xie Snap didn't make the next move, just held her gently like this.

It took a long moment before he said, "I wish you well."

Evelin's slightly stiff body only then eased up and smiled slightly.

"Thanks."

This conversation between the two of them was completely over.

Snap Xie was the first to leave because he was about to leave to shoot his next scene, and Evelin's scene was in the back of the line so he could rest a bit more.

After Snap Xie went out, Little Emotion came in and looked around and found that there was no one else in the lounge except for Evelin, which was a huge relief and reassurance.

"Sister Evelin, how's it going? Have you talked to Snap yet?"

Evelin nodded and commanded Emotion to pour herself a cup of honey water, holding it over her shoulder as she drank, "Xie Snap is a smart man, he knows what I'm talking about and won't continue like this."

Emotion was relieved at the news.

Followed by a somewhat resigned frown.

With a helpless face, he said to Evelin, "Sister Luoyao, I actually feel so sorry for Snap, look at him, he has face, money, a good family, handsome, and a gentlemanly personality, why is he just so unlucky?"

"It's so hard to like a girl so much and hastily confess, but then I was rejected not to mention that I learned that the other girl already had a boyfriend."

"Ugh, how pitiful really."

Evelin held her cup and gave her a sideways glance, somewhat amused.

"You really feel so sorry for him, so why don't you go over there and comfort him?"

Emotion froze.

She looked at Evelin with some confusion and asked, "Can I go?"

Evelin nodded, "Of course. After all, our little love ah, for the handsome man is especially sympathetic, and the character is gentle and lovely, is simply the happy fruit of the earth, as long as you go, maybe Xie Snap will not be sad, and will also find that there are grass everywhere on earth, why unrequited love for a flower, and then the knot will be untied, and completely come to a new stage of life."

As dull as Little Emotion was, she had already heard the jesting in Evelin's words at this point.

For a moment, a small face was not red with shame.

"Sister Evelin! Don't be ridiculous."

However, the more you say so, the more your face involuntarily becomes more and more red, and your heart is pounding.

Evelin was really just joking originally, the more I didn't expect to see this reaction from her.

Slightly stunned, it was followed by a shocked reaction.

But it's not a bad thing.

After all, Emotions is very nice and people are really gentle and kind, she thought to herself

, eye roll, and suddenly said, "Alright, alright, I was just mid-eye you're joking."

"Now, I do have something I'd like to ask you for."

Emotion asked evenly, "What is it?"

Evelin pulled out something from her bag and handed it to her, saying, "This was given to me by Xie Snap earlier, I forgot to return it to him just now, now that we've gotten the conversation out of the way, it wouldn't be appropriate for these to stay with me."

"You'll help me find a way to return it to him privately."

Emotion was a little stunned and surprised, "I'm going?"

Evelin smiled, "Well, you go. Will you do me this favor?"

Emotion was hesitant, but after a moment's hesitation, she nodded firmly.

"Um, well, no problem."

After saying that, only then did Evelin smile and let her leave.

As she watched the back of the little love leave, she lay down on a chair and laughed in her heart: "Silly girl, I have already created the opportunity for you, whether you can grasp this opportunity or not, it's up to you."

Although she knew that Emotion's family background might be a bit more highbrow than the Xie family.

But she was also aware that Emotion wasn't that snobbish, and would like Snap Xie, and never because of his status or family history.

And Snap Xie, whether it was from his usual style of being a man or how he felt about himself, could tell that he wasn't a man who valued these pedantic things either.

So, if these two can be together, then it's considered to be a lover's marriage.

She still hoped that everyone around her would have their own happy lives.

Thinking like this, Evelin closed her eyes contentedly and rested.

In the afternoon, it was Evelin and Xie Snap's rivalry.

Xie Snap had a big night shoot yesterday, but slept for three or four hours, and today it's a continuous shoot, but her face doesn't show any fatigue.

The whole scene was filmed, still conscientious, and the director and assistant director next to him kept nodding their heads frequently.

The good news is that this rivalry between the two today is not a very laborious one.

They are both veteran actors now, and with their background from that previous film, they are so familiar with each other, so it's natural for them to work together.

The director finds that the relationship between the two, too, is no longer as stale as it was before.

After one scene is over, and in the gap between the next one, there will be joking and laughing pairs of scenes in between, and you know that the plan he set up today to get them to make peace, worked.

He was not relieved.

It's not easy being a director, worrying about the quality of the play as well as the relationship between the male and female leads.

But the good news is, they get along just fine, and as long as it doesn't affect the crew, he doesn't care about the rest.

It was filmed until 6pm, and then it was finally over.

Tonight, Snap Xie has no drama and can rest, but Evelin has a night scene, so she needs to wait on the set, eat dinner when it's dark and then shoot straight away.

Before she left, Snap looked at her, some valley owed words.

Evelin sensed that he had something to ask, pointed to a corner not far away and said to him, "Let's go over there and talk."

Snap Shea nodded.

The two of them walked to a relatively secluded corner, and only then did Snapdragon Xie take out something from his own pocket and said to her, "Is this what you asked Little Emotion to give me?"

Evelin looked at the thing.

That's a pair of Bluetooth headphones, the red custom model is beautiful and good quality.

Chapter 602

It was the same one she had given to her when she was noisily bored and wanting to listen to music during her last film, and Snap She was using it herself at the time, so she gave it to her in passing.

She kept it in use and never got around to returning it in the middle of the day.

She smiled, "Yes."

Xie Snap frowned, and his appearance became uncomplicated.

"Evelin, you don't have to be like this, I said, even if we don't become a couple, we can still be friends, these things..."

"They're yours, I'm just borrowing them, so of course they should be returned to you."

She smiled sincerely and earnestly, "If you're going to send it next time, naturally you're going to send it brand new, I won't be polite to you."

Snapshot was stunned, and it took a few seconds for her to realize what she meant.

Young men and women, ah, must naturally learn to avoid suspicion.

He'd used it, with his scent, his taste, the traces of his use, and if she continued to use it all the time, the tugging, indistinguishable ambiguity of the relationship would continue.

Someday in the future, in case she accidentally took it out and used it and he saw it.

Nor does it inevitably cause emotions in his own heart that make him steeply sad and grief-stricken.

And now that she had returned everything to him, even if she gave it back in the future, it would only be as a gift from a friend.

Thinking of this, Snap Xie suddenly understood Evelin Kang's intention to take such painstaking effort, and his heart was overflowing with bitterness.

He nodded and put his things away, "Okay, I get it."

And then, after a pause, he asked, "You didn't answer my question today, who is he?"

Evelin pursed her lips, not wanting to answer the question.

If it could be answered, she'd have answered it by noon today.

After thinking about it, all she could say was, "It doesn't matter to you who he is, in short, I won't be with anyone but him at the moment in this world."

Snapshot knew that by asking the question, he was actually likely to hurt himself again.

But he couldn't help it.

Hearing her answer, he gave a decidedly so expression and smiled bitterly, "Well, all I can say is, he's lucky."

Evelin didn't comment on this statement.

Snap Shea sighed.

"Okay, in that case, I'll go first."

Evelin nodded, and only then did Xie Snap leave.

An evening play containing several outdoor scenes in between.

It's now the waning moon, and it's still very cold outside in the winter.

In the evening, snowflakes drifted from the sky, adding to the bleak and bitter atmosphere of the play.

It was nine o'clock at night after shooting this scene.

Evelin was freezing, and after getting the news that she was done with work, she wrapped up in her army coat and headed to the hotel with Little Love.

Because it was late, there were some people, who were still on the set to continue filming.

The other part of the group, however, was already back at the hotel.

So when she and Emotion went back to the hotel, it was surprisingly rare that it was just the two of them.

Since the set wasn't far from the hotel, it would only take a few minutes to drive there on a winter night like this, with all the snow on the side of the road.

But Evelin was starving and didn't want to order take-out, so she was going to walk back with Little Love and get something to eat on the way.

Unexpectedly, the two had just bought two barbecues and a fried rice and were walking to the hotel when a shadow suddenly leaped out of the alley.

With a quick speed, the shadow quickly grabbed Evelin and dragged her towards the alley.

Evelin didn't even have time to let out a scream, while beside her, Little Emotion was also scared silly, first confused for two seconds, and when she came to her senses, she shouted, "Sister Luoyao!"

Then, dropping his stuff and rushing after him, but the alley was dark, so where was anyone else?

She was suddenly frightened, a lone woman who was neither afraid to go inside nor had any way out.

There were even few pedestrians on the road in the late winter chill.

The only thing that was closer was a few hundred meters away over at the night market.

But if you really had to run over there and call for help, you'd probably have people over here running away and the cauliflower would be cold.

In desperation, she had to quickly pull out her mobile phone and call the police as she chased her inside.

The alley was dark, there wasn't even a street light, and the only way to get there was with a mobile phone.

To say you're not afraid would be an absolute lie.

But as long as she thought that Evelin was in between dangers at this moment, Little Emotion couldn't care about anything else, running and shouting at the same time.

"Sister Evelin, where are you?"

"Sister Evelin, don't be afraid, I've already called the police, the police will be here soon."

And then, while threatening the thug who kidnapped Evelin.

"I advise you to let the man go, or you'll be too late to run away later."

"Are you guys asking for money? I'm telling you, I've got all the money, here, in this bag, all her money, bank cards, cash, mobile phone, you come and get it, she doesn't have any money on her!"

I said, and dumped all the contents of the bag on the floor one by one.

She wasn't sure who the other party was now, and what was the reason for kidnapping Evelin, so she could only coerce and bait them as she did so, hoping that they would listen and then release the person.

However, the truth was that no matter how much she shouted, no one made a sound.

Instead, an appalled voice came from the alleyway she had just entered.

"Huh?Emotion, what are you doing here?"

Emotion was already tense with nerves, but suddenly she heard a voice and turned around sharply under her breath.

When the silhouette of a man standing under the streetlight at the mouth of the alley was clear, it was like a savior, and he immediately ran over.

"Snap!"

Snap Xie was actually because he was hungry at night, it should have been Winterborn out to buy a snack for him, but Winterborn had a cold today.

He didn't want Winter to come out in the cold, so he didn't tell him that he'd run out to get a snack.

After buying a snack, I was walking back, but I didn't expect to hear a familiar female voice shouting here.

Curious, he leaned in to see what was going on and found that he really knew someone.

That's what screamed out.

Looking at Little Emotion's aggrieved and frightened lie, Xie Snap was a little surprised.

"What's wrong with you?Why are you alone?Where's your artist?"

Little Emotion was so anxious that she was about to cry out, "Snap, I beg you, please save Sister Evelin, she's missing."

Snap Xie's face changed abruptly at the words.

"What do you mean? What do you mean it's gone? You set the record straight."

So, Emotion told Snap Xie everything about what she had just encountered.

It's actually quite simple, and it happened very quickly, to say the least, and it's only a few words.

However, Snapshot heard a great danger in these few words.

First, the other guy ran out of the alley and suddenly robbed the guy.

It's no coincidence that it's so cold and so late.