

Chapter 601

After entering the gambling area, Yang ziye chooses between the left and the right. His eyes are almost dazzled by the mountain of gambling stones. There are too many thousands of gambling stones. Even if he can bring two appraisers, he is unlikely to study every one carefully.

It's no wonder that Huo Tingchen and Xu Zheng are very confident about gambling stones. It's almost impossible to select the rare stone from so many gambling stones.

Yang ziye just looked at it coarsely. In fact, he was not interested in gambling stones at all. This time, he participated in the gambling stones meeting to help Jin Zhengting check it in advance. At the same time, he slightly increased the probability of selecting rare stones, although the increased probability can be ignored.

After he came in for a while, he began to look at each gambling stone carefully. He knew nothing about whether the gambling stone was a real original stone, but Yang ziye's mind was very delicate. His task was to observe whether Huo Tingchen had done anything on the gambling stone.

From the time he heard that Lu Moyan also participated in the stone gambling meeting, Yang ziye knew that Huo Tingchen should have made a mark on the rare stone, which greatly increased the probability of Lu Moyan getting it, otherwise he would not have let Lu Moyan participate.

But each piece of gambling stone is almost the same, at least it is difficult to distinguish from the shape. He picked up two pieces and weighed them in his hand, and found that the difference in weight is not very big.

It can be said that Huo Tingchen's and Xu Zheng's plans are very complete. Even if they are not rare stones, there is little difference in the selection of thousands of other gambling stones, which can't be seen from the appearance. Moreover, even if they are professional appraisers of gambling stones, it is difficult to choose the most special one from them.

Yang ziye, who doesn't know anything about gambling stones, looks for them carefully for a while, but doesn't find any special mark on them. Because the time limit for admission is ten minutes, he wanders around until it's almost time, so he chooses two pieces based on his own feelings.

Of course, he doesn't feel like Zhao Tongxin. In a more popular way, he feels like a monk.

When he came out with two pieces of gambling stones, everyone looked at him one after another. Some of his eyes were looking forward to him, some of them were nervous, and more of them were afraid. He was afraid that Yang ziye's luck would be super good. He was the first to go in and chose the rare stone that we had been looking forward to for a long time.

This gambling stone meeting is very thoughtful. At the exit of the gambling stone area, there are professional gambling stone cutting personnel. Everyone who selects the gambling stone will cut the gambling stone in public here, which is equivalent to an on-site identification.

"How's it going in there?"

Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tongxin have been waiting here. Seeing that he came out, they came forward and asked faintly.

Yang ziye curled his lips: "Zhengting, Huo Tingchen is very careful this time. He can't see any difference from the appearance of the gambling stones. Moreover, I almost roughly checked them and found that there was no mark on the gambling stone. Maybe they used some special methods. Anyway, they couldn't see anything from the surface That's right. "

Jin Zhengting nodded his head: "well, it's hard for you."

Yang ziye said with a smile: "don't talk about this kind of polite words. It's nothing more than 20 million yuan. It's just spent on picking up girls. But I don't think my luck is so bad. Maybe I can get back some money."

Zhao Tongxin also said with a smile: "that's true. I've never seen you have bad luck. I hope you can choose the two pieces with good value."

They didn't report the hope that they would be the first to go in and select the rare stones. It was just a daydream, but they also hoped to minimize the loss.

Looking at the cut stone, Yang ziye sighs helplessly: "see, Tong Xin, my luck today is absolutely bad."

One of the two gambling stones he selected was cut. It has to be said that the people who cut the gambling stones are also very professional. They only cut a thin layer of the skin, bit by bit. If there is real connotation in the gambling stones, they will not be cut bad.

Unfortunately, until the piece of gambling stone was cut into pieces, there were no gems in it. All of them were brown granite.

"The other piece will be cut later, Tong Xin. You can try if Huo Tingchen has done anything on the gambling stone."

Jin Zhengting stopped the staff and said to Zhao Tong faintly that although these staff were Huo Tingchen's people, most of them had been involved in the jewelry market. They still had an instinctive fear of president Jin of the jewelry leading group. They would naturally listen to Jin Zhengting's words, so they obediently put down their tools.

Zhao Tongxin reached out and touched the gambling stone. His brow wrinkled slightly: "Zhengting, the temperature of this gambling stone doesn't seem to be very normal."

Jin Zhengting's eyes flashed: "how abnormal?"

Zhao Tongxin's fingertips continued to slide on the gambling stone, biting his lips and said: "the temperature of each part of this gambling stone is the same. According to the normal situation, because the surface of the stone is uneven, the degree of heat absorption is also different. Although the temperature difference is very small, I can still feel that this gambling stone is abnormal, and the temperature of all parts is the same And it's all cold. ""That's natural, because I let people put every gambling stone in the freezer for a week, and the temperature in the gambling area is constant. At this time, the gambling stones are all at the same temperature. Of course, it can't be more normal."

Huo Tingchen didn't know when he appeared here. He had a proud smile on his face and a pair of Phoenix eyes with excited Brilliance: "Miss Zhao Tongxin, I know you are very sensitive to the temperature of gambling stones. Unfortunately, you can no longer play a role. It's really a pity."

Jin Zhengting's face remained unchanged. He took a light look at Huo Tingchen, took Zhao Tongxin's hand and left. When he passed Huo Tingchen, he just said, "the game has just begun, and it's not time to be proud."

Huo Tingchen's pupil suddenly shrunk: "do you have any other way? I've planned this gambling meeting for a long time, so the winner must be me, Jin Zhengting. You've been arrogant for a long time, and you need to change your taste, don't you?"

Jin Zhengting didn't speak, but Zhao Tongxin gave him a white look: "some people just don't have self-knowledge, lose so miserably every time, and try every means to do something beyond their ability. Such people are not only pitiful, but also ridiculous, but I will still sympathize with such people, for his innocence."

Huo Tingchen's pupil contracted again: "Miss Zhao Tongxin, I've always been very gentle to women, but I want to make an exception for you. I hope you don't blame me. If you want to blame me, you can only blame that you are Jin Zhengting's woman."

Zhao Tong heart face to Huo Tingchen cold eyes, face no fear, she lightly asked Jin Zhengting: "Zhengting, do you think he is threatening me?"

Jin Zhengting said: "of course, the threat on the mouth is not enough. Some bereaved dogs are very fierce to people, but they never dare to rush up to bite people. Maybe they are in that state."

When Huo Tingchen listened to their conversation, his eyes became colder and colder. No one dared to laugh at him like this, and no one was qualified. But speaking from Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tong's heart is not only a taunt to him, but also a provocation.

"Please remember what you said. I will make you regret it."

He clenches his teeth and stares at Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tongxin with angry eyes. Fortunately, he still keeps a little sense, otherwise he will have a face-to-face conflict with Jin Zhengting.

"Zhengting, we don't need to pay attention to him. A man has been bitten by a dog. Of course, he can't bite a dog any more."

Zhao Tongxin directly ignores Huo Tingchen and leaves here with Jin Zhengting talking and laughing.

Huo Tingchen stares at their back, his eyes become extremely fierce.

"Mr. Huo, it's better to calm down. Don't be provoked by them. We have planned the gambling stone meeting for a long time, and there should be no mistakes. As long as we proceed step by step according to the plan, we will be the winner in the end."

Xu Zheng knows that Huo Tingchen is a person who is easily influenced by emotions. Now Huo Tingchen must be rational to ensure that the gambling stones will not go wrong, so he quickly comes forward to persuade him.

Huo Tingchen took a deep breath. He said coldly, "if it's not for more important things, I will leave Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tongxin here at all costs."

Xu Zheng's heart suddenly tightened. He quietly pointed to Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tongxin: "fortunately, you didn't do that. With our current strength, it's impossible to keep them."

Huo Tingchen looked in the direction of Xu Zheng's fingers, and his pupils contracted again.

The venue of the gambling stone meeting was held in Tianhong jewelry company, but now Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tongxin are surrounded by dozens of strong men in black suits who protect them in the center, except for the core members Xu Yanke, Rong Lei, Rong Qi, Shaoyuan and Xiaoma. Everyone's hands are stretched into their clothes, and it's obvious that everyone carries weapons with them.

"Jin Zhengting has taken so many hands this time, so the defense of Jin's villa must be very empty. Should we restart the raid plan?"

Huo Tingchen was not frightened by Jin Zhengting's situation, but felt that this was an opportunity to take advantage of.

However, Xu Zheng shook his head: "it's impossible. Although Jin Zhengting has brought a lot of subordinates this time, Chen Dong has sent almost all his subordinates to Jin's villa early this morning. Now the defense there is tighter than ever. The only strength we have left may be that we can't even touch the door of Jin's villa and the whole army will be destroyed."

"This damned Jin Zhengting, does everything without leaking, never leaves any flaw!"

Huo Tingchen gritted his teeth and said that after fighting Jin Zhengting for so many years, he never took advantage of him, which is also his most uncomfortable part.

Xu Zheng said with a faint smile: "Mr. Huo, don't be impatient. Just beat Jin Zhengting here. The rich here will soon be ours."

Chapter 602

The gambling stones will continue to go on. The rich people at the top of the lottery will enter the gambling stones area in order. Each rich person will bring two gambling stones appraisers who are hired heavily, hoping to select the rare stone they want most from thousands of gambling stones.

Naturally, the financial resources of these rich people can't be compared with those of Jin Zhengting and others, but they have to invest more, because this is one of the few opportunities for them to use tens of millions to earn billions. This business is cost-effective.

Just in the face of huge interests, they ignore the tiny probability. At this time, people will only take their luck for granted, so they patronize to calculate their own income.

The rich man after Yang ziye paid 100 million yuan in a lump sum. For these rich people, 100 million yuan is affordable, but it is also a big bleeding.

When the rich man came out with ten pieces of gambling stones in his arms, he could see his confidence in his eyes, because the appraisers he invited were all known as experts, and the two experts vowed that they would be able to choose the rare stone.

But what all the rich people who have hired gambler appraisers don't know is that most of the top gambler appraisers in Jiangbin have joined Tianhong jewelry company. Although they are employed by these rich people, they will never try their best to help them choose. This is part of Huo Tingchen's overall plan.

In Huo Tingchen's opinion, it is the best result to earn the money of the rich and not let them get the rare stone.

When all the ten gambling stones were cut, the rich man was stupid. Only one of the ten gambling stones was a good emerald embryo, but its value was only a few hundred thousand. Compared with the one hundred million invested, the income was obviously insignificant.

Cheng Mo Bing said to the rich man with a smile: "your luck is not very good. I'm really sorry."

In the case of investing a lot of money and not getting his favorite piece of stone, the rich man's brain began not to calm down. He gave a cold hum. He didn't know whether he was angry for his bad luck or that the two stone appraisers were unreliable.

"Miss Cheng, I want to pay another 100 million yuan. I wonder if I can?"

At this time, the rich man is like a gambler who has lost his red eye. He urgently needs a chance to turn the tables. This is the weakness of human nature that Huo Tingchen and Xu Zheng were very good at making use of.

Cheng Mo Bing charming smile: "of course, but according to the regulations, you need in the second round to continue to choose, do not know if you mind?"

The rich man looked at the mountain of gambling stones. He thought to himself that with so many gambling stones, the number of people who participated in the meeting was only 100, so the rare stone was not likely to be chosen in the first round, so he bit his teeth: "I'll let people pay the selection money now."

Huo Tingchen and Xu Zheng, who are not far away, are very happy to see such a scene. These rich people have paid billions of money for the first time, which can be said to have achieved the goal of setting up a gambling club. It makes them feel more happy to see that there are still people who are crazy like gamblers.

"Mr. Huo, it seems that what you said is not wrong at all. These rich people are all gamblers."

Xu Zheng took a sip from his glass and said with disdain in his eyes that compared with these rich people, Xu Zheng is still very good at controlling his greed. Only when he has an absolute chance can he do it. That's why he has endured for so many years.

Huo Tingchen laughs: "this is the weakness of human nature. Everyone has weaknesses. Our job is to seize the weaknesses of these people and make use of them. You see, these rich people have only one weakness, that is, greed. People of their level are still in the stage of crazy pursuit of interests. Because they have tasted the benefits, but the benefits are not enough, so they are the only ones You want more. "

"Mr. Huo is quite right, but this kind of trick will not be effective if it is used on people like Jin Zhengting. They have passed this stage."

Xu Zheng looks at Jin Zhengting sitting on the sofa not far away. His pupils contract a little. People like Jin Zhengting are their real opponents.

"He also has his own weakness, but Jin Zhengting is too strong in other people's eyes, so he just covers it up. But he has a very fatal weakness, that is Zhao Tongxin. Unfortunately, he protects Zhao Tongxin so well that we can't grasp his weakness for the time being."

Looking at Zhao Tongxin who nestles beside Jin Zhengting, Huo Tingchen's eyes flashed a vicious expression. He knows that Zhao Tongxin is the person Jin Zhengting cares about most, but with his current strength, there is no way for Zhao Tongxin.

Xu Yanke, Shaoyuan, Rong Qi and Xiao Ma are the four masters who always protect Zhao Tongxin. Even if he wants to catch Zhao Tongxin and threaten Jin Zhengting, he has no such power.

What's more, there is a god like Jin Zhengting beside her. He has fought with Jin Zhengting several times and deeply knows how terrible this man is."Mr. Huo, let's not worry. As far as the current income is concerned, we still have a big advantage today. With this fund, I promise that we can defeat Zhao Tongxin in a very short time. At that time, Jin Zhengting will either be distracted to help Zhao Tongxin. I think it's very possible. In that case, you will have a chance to take advantage of his distraction to help Zhao Tongxin Jiangdong's capital is all injected into Jiangbin. If Jin Zhengting gives up Zhao Tongxin's company for the sake of the so-called overall situation, then I will uproot Zhao Tongxin. As the most powerful company of Jin Zhengting group, once it goes bankrupt, it will have a huge impact on the situation. At that time, Jin Zhengting is really in a dilemma. "

Huo Tingchen pretended to sigh: "if it's like what you said, I really feel embarrassed for Jin Zhengting."

At this time, Cheng mobing came over, and she naturally sat next to Xu Zheng. After the relationship between the two people was established, she felt that Xu Zheng was very suitable for her. No matter from which aspect, she was her ideal object, although from any angle, Xu Zheng was a little worse than Jin Zhengting.

But Cheng mobing is a very realistic person. After several efforts, she found that Jin Zhengting's feelings are only invested in Zhao Tongxin, and this is something that can't be changed at all. So she resolutely gave up her favor for Jin Zhengting, which is much better than Xu Ting's, because Xu Tingming knows that she has no chance at all and is still wishful thinking I want to get together with Jin Zhengting one day.

It can only be said that Cheng mobing is more realistic and cold-blooded than Xu Ting. She has seen through the so-called feelings for a long time since she has been wandering in business all the year round. It's nothing more than the mutual utilization of each other's needs.

Only Xu Zheng, he is also using her, but he will not be like those hypocrites, who are obviously using but always deny it. In this regard, she prefers to point out everything about Xu Zheng, although he is a real villain.

"Mr. Huo, this is the income of the gambling Stone Club at present, which is 2.37 billion yuan in total. Now it is basically in balance. If there is no candidate to leave that rare stone in the end, then we will make about 2 billion yuan."

Cheng mobing said with a smile that she attached great importance to this gambling meeting, because before Huo Tingchen took over, she was always investing money. Xu Zheng gave her advice, which was also a lot of their efforts. Even now Huo Tingchen is in charge of the overall situation, she used almost all the money to buy the rare stones and all the gambling stones, so it's very important The success of this gambler will also have a great influence on her interests.

"Don't worry, that rare stone will only be chosen by one person, that is Lu Moyan. I have already shown him that stone. I believe that with his intelligence, he should be able to firmly remember the appearance of the rare stone."

Huo Tingchen confidently said that he is very good at this kind of black box operation, and also likes the pleasure of playing with everyone.

"Before Jin Zhengting, Lu Moyan seems to have invested 100 million to 300 million yuan this time, which is also a considerable sum of money. Don't we want this money?"

Cheng mobing is a calculating woman. She has been in business for so many years, and she has made accounting a habit.

Huo Tingchen shook his head: "to tell you the truth, I want Jin Zhengting's money more than anyone else, because I have never won him, but I know he is a miracle maker, so I don't want to gamble with him with such an important thing."

From his tone, we can feel his fear of Jin Zhengting. After all, he has been suppressed for so many years, and Huo Tingchen has a deep psychological shadow in his heart.

"Mr. Huo is very considerate. Mo Bing, you don't know Jin Zhengting very well. Mr. Huo and I have been dealing with him for so many years, and we are very familiar with him. He is really a man who can do earth shaking things with very little chance, so we must be cautious."

Xu Zheng also agrees with Huo Tingchen. He knows Jin Zhengting better than most people and knows that he is a man with the ability to change everything.

Both of them hold the same opinion. It's hard for Cheng mobing to say anything more. Although she is still a little unwilling, she also knows that Huo Tingchen and Xu Zheng know the current situation better than themselves, so it's better to listen to them.

"At present, we must be the winners of this gambling game."

Looking at another rich man coming out with more than a dozen gambling stones, Huo Tingchen's face finally showed a knowing smile.

Xu Zheng nodded: "as long as Mo Yan can get the rare stone, we can say that it is a complete victory, even Jin Zhengting can't stop it."

Chapter 603

"Zhengting, Huo Tingchen's preparation is too sufficient this time. It's very difficult to choose the gambler. What should we do?"

Yang ziye frowned as he watched another rich man lose. Among them, he was the only one who had personally experienced the difficulty of choosing a gambling stone. Naturally, he knew how difficult it was to choose one from countless similar gambling stones.

"It seems that our preparation is not enough. I didn't expect that Huo Tingchen would start to cheat from the draw. As far as the current situation is concerned, even if the court can be selected, Huo Tingchen will not suffer losses. On the contrary, he will have considerable profits."

Lu zhanyan has been observing the rich people who have entered the gambling area. He can see that each of them holds at least ten gambling stones. He knows that Huo Tingchen's plan has been a success. Roughly speaking, every rich person will invest about 100 million yuan. So many rich people at the scene will bring Huo Tingchen billions of income at least.

These funds may really bring about an uncontrollable change in the current situation. This is what Lu zhanyan is most worried about, and now it seems that it is likely to become a reality.

Jin Zhengting is very calm, he lightly put a hand: "in fact, from the beginning, I did not intend to stop Huo Tingchen and Xu Zheng's plan, because this is also simply can't stop."

"Hello, Zhengting, what do you mean? The gains that this gamble will bring to Huo Tingchen are too objective. You should know that both sides are at the end of a crossbow now. I don't have to say what the consequences will be if he succeeds."

Yang ziye doesn't understand why Jin Zhengting doesn't care. After all, the gambler will be very important this time, so he says in a hurry.

Lu zhanyan stops Yang ziye from complaining. Carefully, he finds that Jin Zhengting seems to have planned for a long time and asks, "Zhenqting, when things come to this point, you should not hide it. If you have any ideas, just say them, so that we won't be worried."

Jin Zhengting turned his head and looked at Zhao Tongxin beside him. There was an indescribable tenderness in his deep eyes: "Tong Xin, do you understand my intention?"

Zhao Tong thought, some not sure said: "I seem to understand a bit, but afraid of guessing wrong."

Jin Zhengting smile, his smile is very charming: "it doesn't matter, just say it."

Zhao Tongxin knows that Jin Zhengting is training her thinking ability and is also looking for opportunities for her to grow up quickly in the business field. Although he does not want her to work so hard for herself, he will spare no effort to help her as long as it is what she wants.

"I think the court didn't stop Huo Tingchen and Xu Zheng from starting this gambler's meeting. They wanted to use Huo Tingchen's hand to achieve the goal of integrating the riverside market."

Zhao Tong hesitated to say that she really had no experience, so she was afraid that she would make a mistake.

Yang ziye is still at a loss. It's not that his IQ is not high enough, but that he doesn't want to use his brain at all. But Lu zhanyan's eyes brighten up: "I see. The purpose of Zhengting's doing this is to let Huo Tingchen swallow all the assets of these rich people, so as to form a situation in which there are only US and him in Jiangbin, right?"

Jin Zhengting raised his hand and stroked Zhao Tongxin's hair. His eyes showed satisfaction. In the business world, Zhao Tongxin is a rare genius, or a tacit understanding formed by two people together for so long. They can understand each other's thoughts immediately.

"The more I listen, the more I don't understand. In this way, Huo Tingchen will increase his strength and become more difficult to deal with?"

Yang ziye scratched his head and asked, for him, such a thing is really a bit complicated.

"Let Tong Xin talk about it."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that he was deliberately training Zhao Tongxin, so he gave her the opportunity to explain.

"I remember that Zhengting said that these consortia in Jiangbin now have only interests in their eyes. Now we are in a state of balance with Huo Tingchen group, so they can barely stay on our side. However, once Huo Tingchen's power overtakes us, they will fall to Huo Tingchen's side, although any one of these consortia is in strength Compared with us, they are insignificant, but together, they are a force that can't be ignored. "

Zhao Tongxin expresses Jin Zhengting's purpose slightly. Although Jin Zhengting has never mentioned it to her, because of their tacit understanding, she can quickly guess Jin Zhengting's idea.

"That's why Zhengting wants to eliminate this hidden danger by Huo Tingchen's hand. I have to say that this is a good idea. But will it be too risky to do so? After all, Huo Tingchen's strength will be further improved after swallowing this wealth, which may be a bigger trouble for the future."

Lu zhanyan has understood Jin Zhengting's intention, but he is still worried that the balance between the two sides is limited to the balance of strength. Once this delicate balance is broken, it will cause a series of chain reactions, and the balance will tilt to Huo Tingchen group.

"Zhanyan, it's no longer the time to consider these. As you said just now, we and Huo Tingchen are at the end of a strong bullet. If those consortia change hands, the situation will become uncontrollable. Compared with Huo Tingchen, who is an obvious opponent, those consortia are the most difficult to guard against and are likely to give us the most fatal blow at the most critical moment, So although doing so will increase Huo Tingchen's strength, there is no way. We have no spare power to integrate these consortia. "Jin Zhengting's eyes are shining with wisdom, and all the qualities that a successful person must possess are revealed at this moment.

"Zhengting, whatever you say, you are playing a dangerous game. In case of bad control, Huo Tingchen will really take the initiative."

Lu zhanyan, who has always been cautious, naturally doesn't want Jin Zhengting to take such a risky approach. However, he has also analyzed the current situation in his mind. Looking at the greedy eyes of those rich people around him, he knows that these people are really just animals with the highest interests. Although Jin Zhengting's momentum is still supporting them on the surface, as long as they are at a slight disadvantage, these people are not good. People will not hesitate to choose to hold Huo Tingchen's thigh.

Therefore, we also understand Jin Zhengting's decision, and only those who have absolute confidence in their own strength like Jin Zhengting dare to use their opponents' hands to solve their worries.

For Jin Zhengting, he is confident that he will defeat Huo Tingchen in the end, because from the beginning to the end, he can control the situation ahead of Huo Tingchen, because Jin Zhengting is far better than Huo Tingchen in any aspect.

So when Jin Zhengting heard Lu zhanyan say this, he showed a smile on his face: "you can rest assured that since I dare to use this move, there will be countermeasures behind. I have decided to lift the blockade on Huo Tingchen's capital penetration and let him transfer all the capital of Jiangdong to Jiangbin."

As soon as the words come out, not only Lu zhanyan, but also Yang ziye feel very incredible. Only Zhao Tongxin's face is calm and doesn't show any waves. She knows Jin Zhengting best when she has been with him for so long. She knows that the decisions he makes are carefully considered. Although it sounds so risky, she has already decided that no matter what Jin Zhengting makes. What kind of decision, she will support him behind him, because each other has become one.

"Zhengting, if we say that this gambling meeting can be explained, but what is the purpose of your decision? Don't you know what kind of capital Huo Tingchen has in Jiangdong? Once these capitals are put in, we can't be his opponent with our present strength."

Lu zhanyan frowned deeply. He had been paying close attention to Huo Tingchen, so he knew Huo Tingchen's strength very well. He felt that Jin Zhengting made such a decision without discussing with everyone, which was tantamount to committing suicide.

"Zhan Yan is right. Zhengting, your decision is too hasty. Even if we three together, we can't resist Huo Tingchen's expansion."

Yang ziye can see which is better and which is weaker from the paper, so he is also against Jin Zhengting's decision.

Jin Zhengting light smile, he gently looked at Zhao Tong Xin, asked: "Tong Xin, you will oppose my decision?"

Zhao Tong Xin looked at him with the same gentle eyes and said quietly, "no matter what kind of decision you make, I will support you, because I know you must have your own reason."

"Zhengting, Tongxin, when is it? You are still showing your love here. Do you know how amazing the capital Huo Tingchen controls in Jiangdong? If he transfers the capital to Jiangbin without any resistance, we have no ability to fight back in front of him."

Yang ziye's character is more urgent. He immediately opposes it, because it's related to the life and death of the three powerful families. He has no interest in business all the time, and he is also anxious.

"Zhengting, should you think about it again, or open a board of directors, and let's study it. The risk of going out in this step is too great. I'm really afraid that I can't control the situation in the future."

Calm Lu zhanyan seldom worries, but now it is obvious that he is nervous, because so far, he has not seen what Jin Zhengting is doing.

Jin Zhengting ignored them, but continued to ask Zhao Tongxin, "I think you should know why I did it?"

Zhao Tong Xin's eyes flashed with a happy look: "I know, now is the time to revenge for our children."

"Not only the children, but also your foster mother. I will let Huo Tingchen return what he has done a hundred times a thousand times."

Jin Zhengting's eyes flashed sharp light. At this moment, everyone felt the momentum on him.

Chapter 604

"Zhengting, do you mean to start a decisive battle with Huo Tingchen?"

Lu zhanyan immediately recognized Jin Zhengting's meaning from their conversation. It was obvious that Jin Zhengting wanted to put the venue of the duel on the riverside, and would not leave Huo Tingchen any way out.

If Huo Tingchen's capital can't be injected into the market of Jiangbin, even if he can defeat Huo Tingchen now, his foundation in Jiangdong is still there, and it's hard to completely defeat him. Jin Zhengting just wants to cut off his back road and give him the most fatal blow.

"Yes, I had been thinking about this before the gambling Stone Fair. The reason why I didn't tell you was that I didn't know who was the insider of the group at that time, so I was the only one who knew the plan for the time being."

Jin Zhengting said faintly, looking warily around him, Rong Lei gave him a look.

Rong Lei immediately became interested. He whispered a few words to Xu Yanke. Soon, the bodyguards who protected Jin Zhengting and Zhao Tongxin spread out, making their circle bigger. These bodyguards whispered a few words to the rich people around. After hearing this, the rich people's faces changed slightly and left them soon. In a short time, they were very polite. In the area where Jin Zhengting is located, there is a relatively vacuum area, which is to prevent people from eavesdropping on their conversation.

This skill is absolutely brilliant. As the saying goes, the most dangerous place is also the safest place. Huo Tingchen never thought that Jin Zhengting would be on his territory to discuss with Lu zhanyan, Yang ziye and other core members of the group how to deal with Huo Tingchen.

Huo Tingchen in the distance naturally saw the action here, but he didn't care. He said to Xu Zheng with a smile: "Jin Zhengting is already worried. I think he should be discussing with Lu zhanyan about the countermeasures."

Xu Zheng took a light look, his eyes also showed a smile: "it's a little late to discuss now?"

Cheng Mo Bing nodded: "it's really late. We already have billions of profits. Even if the rare stone is taken by them, it's harmless. Even if it's the dividend we give them."

Huo Tingchen waved his hand: "no, I will never give Jin Zhengting dividends. I have to guarantee a complete victory in this gambling meeting, so that I can express the evil spirit in my heart."

"No problem. It's Lu Mo Yan's choice in a little while. Then the gambling meeting will be over."

Xu Zheng lit a cigarette with a pleasant look on his face. The plan of the gambling fair was carefully planned by him. If he could defeat Jin Zhengting, it would prove that he was better than his opponent who had imagined for many years.

Huo Tingchen ha ha a smile: "this time you do well, the next step is to eat Zhao Tong heart, I think you should be able to do."

"I'm more than enough to deal with Zhao Tongxin and Yang ziye alone, but there's another thorny problem in their company, that is, Cheng Mohan. This person is absolutely not simple. I'm afraid I'm not good enough alone, but I still have Mo Bing and Lu Moyan to help, so there shouldn't be any problem."

Xu Zheng takes Mo Bing in the process and says it lightly. With a complicated look in his deep eyes, he looks at Cheng Mo Bing attentively and seriously.

Cheng mobing is very smart. She understands that this is Xu Zheng's attitude. After all, Cheng Mohan is her own brother, and they have a dark past. Although they didn't talk to Xu Zheng and Xu Zheng didn't mention it, she knows that with Xu Zheng's mind, he should be aware of it from the words he met last time.

"Don't worry, as long as it's your opponent, it's mine."

Cheng mobing looks at Xu Zheng seriously and says firmly that she feels very good to be with Xu Zheng, and she doesn't want to miss such a man. Although he used to be a playboy, who hasn't had a disgraceful past?

Huo Tingchen laughed: "you are very affectionate, Xu Zheng. I didn't expect that famous Playboy would be subdued. I'll give it to you first. I have something else to do."

He says hello, gets up and leaves. At the same time, his pupils are shrinking, because he thinks of the scene that long Jiugang just flirts with Yang ziye, which makes him more jealous. Watching Xu Zheng and Cheng mobing show their love, he thinks that long Jiu is still waiting for him in the office, so he decides to clean up long Jiu first And then again.

"Zhengting, are you really ready to start a decisive battle with Huo Tingchen? Now I'm afraid my strength is not enough to eat him, and after he gets this income, plus Jiangdong's capital, it can be said that his strength is already above us. Besides, with the support of Xu Zheng and Cheng mobing, our chance of winning is really small."

Lu zhanyan has always been very cautious in business. He has to consider all aspects before he can put them into action.

Jin Zhengting took a long look at Xu Zheng and Cheng mobing in the distance: "you have not analyzed one point. Xu Zheng and Cheng mobing are not necessarily Huo Tingchen's help. On the contrary, they are likely to become our allies."

Zhao Tong Xin blinked her beautiful eyes and nodded: "what Zhengting said is right. Huo Tingchen now chooses to join hands with Xu Zheng because he can't inject capital into Jiangbin and his own strength is still relatively limited. If his capital can reach the level of dominance, I think the first thing he has to deal with will not be us, but Xu Zheng and Cheng mobing, he and I Our situation is similar. We are afraid that other consortia will vacillate at the critical moment. What Huo Tingchen is most afraid of is Xu Zheng and Cheng mobing Jin Zhengting's face showed an expression of approval: "Tong Xin is very accurate. Based on my understanding of Huo Tingchen, he will take Xu Zheng and Cheng mobing as the priority targets after he has gained an advantage. He will fight against us only after internal stability."

Lu zhanyan nodded in agreement, but still worried: "even if Xu Zheng and Cheng mobing can join hands with us, after the defeat of Huo Tingchen, there will inevitably be conflicts between us."

"No, I will go to Mo Bing's side and say that what she wants is the power of the Cheng family. She is not interested in everything about Jiangbin. The reason why she cooperated with Huo Tingchen is that all the capital of the Cheng family was in my grandmother's hands at that time, and she was desperate."

Cheng Mohan didn't know when he was here. After smiling and greeting everyone, he sat down on the sofa. This action is to tell everyone that he didn't treat himself as an outsider.

"Brother Mo, you're late."

Zhao Tongxin says with a smile that her feelings for Cheng Mohan are the same as her sister's feelings for her brother, especially when she knows that her adoptive mother is his aunt.

"All the bosses of your companies have come to the gambling fair. The company must be watched to run smoothly, so it's late. It seems that Huo Tingchen has made a lot of money."

Cheng Mohan looks at the mountain of cut stones at the exit of the gambling area and says that these abandoned stones prove that the gambling will be carried out according to Huo Tingchen's plan.

"I really made a lot of money. Now many people have lost their money."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that he knew that many people would not be reconciled at this time and would put more and more money into it. In the end, there would be nothing but a few worthless broken stones.

"Jin always does not want to give up the opportunity to choose the first round of gambling stones. I think there are still many rich people who have not given up their full value."

Cheng Mohan poured a glass of red wine for himself, looking at Jin Zhengting with a trace of deep meaning in his eyes.

Jin Zhengting's eyes flashed for a moment, with a faint smile: "you are really smart."

There are not many people who can see Jin Zhengting's intention at once. Even Yang ziye and Lu zhanyan, who have been with him for so many years, have not seen it. Cheng Mohan has just sat down and understood Jin Zhengting's mind. I have to say that he is also a very powerful person.

"Mr. Jin praised me too much. I just thought about it in another position. If I were Mr. Jin, I would let Huo Tingchen do away with these unreliable people first, and then concentrate on solving Huo Tingchen."

Cheng Mohan explains with a smile that his ideas are almost the same as Jin Zhengting's, which can be regarded as heroes' opinions.

"Did you think that Zhengting wanted to put all of Huo Tingchen's capital in Jiangbin?"

Because he and Cheng Mohan are in the same company, Yang ziye and he are quite familiar, and Yang ziye is a careless character, so he asks Cheng Mohan very frankly.

Cheng Mohan was stunned. He looked at Jin Zhengting with admiration and said sincerely, "I've always been a conceited person and I've never admired anyone. But since I met President Jin, I always have a feeling that you are better than me. I just don't know where you are better than me. Now I finally know."

"I'm not better than you. I'm just more courageous."

Jin Zhengting is not a hypocritical person, but he also admires Cheng Mohan's wisdom, so he is polite.

Cheng Mohan smiles: "this is the key. If I were president Jin, I would never take such a big risk to fight Huo Tingchen. I would only win a little bit."

"My second child will be born in a few months. During this time, I don't want Tong Xin to live in the shadow of the past, so Huo Tingchen must disappear from this world."

Jin Zhengting looked at Zhao Tongxin's eyes very gentle, but when he finished this sentence, it was gradually cold, as if it could freeze everything.

Cheng Mo Han's faint smile: "no wonder Tong Xin loves Mr. Jin so much. I don't think any man is willing to risk ten billion yuan for his own woman."

Zhao Tong Xin's face showed a happy smile: "in fact, I don't want to be like Zhengting, but I know that if I refuse, it will hurt his heart, and I won't do anything to make him sad."

Chapter 605

"Mr. Jin, I think that Lu Mo Yan's participation in the gambling Stone Fair is an insurance measure of Huo Tingchen. He wants to get the rare stone before you do it, so that there won't be any loss."

Cheng Mohan said faintly, his mind is very sharp, soon understand Huo Tingchen's intention.

"So I should give up the right to choose in the first round and let Huo Tingchen search the rich once more."

Jin Zhengting also calmly said that he thought the same as Cheng Mohan. Since he chose Li Yong and Huo Tingchen to solve these hidden dangers for himself, he should use them thoroughly.

"If that's the decision, I'll give up the first round."

Lu zhanyan knows that Jin Zhengting will not change the limit once he makes a decision. Moreover, after listening to the dialogue between Jin Zhengting and Cheng Mohan, he feels that what they say is very reasonable. Naturally, Jin Zhengting will be the only one to follow.

"That's fine. Let's let Huo Tingchen play alone, but I think my 20 million is still a bit unjust."

Yang ziye says with a bitter face that he still has a gambling stone in his hand. It's for Zhao Tongxin to check whether he has done anything but not cut it. Thinking of 20 million yuan buying such a broken stone, his heart aches.

Zhao Tong Xin smiles: "ziye, this gambling stone is actually a very good raw jadeite stone. According to the valuation in the jewelry market, there are millions of them, so you don't lose much."

Yang ziye was stunned for a moment and asked: "Tong Xin, don't you say that the gambling stone has been manipulated by Huo Tingchen, you can't feel the change of temperature, how can you know this gambling stone is good?"

Not only was he curious, but Jin Zhengting's eyes also showed a look of doubt.

Zhao Tongxin touched this gambling stone with his fingertips and said faintly: "although this gambling stone has been used for a long time, it is now absorbing heat, and the heat absorbed by the jadeite inside is slower than that of ordinary stones, so I can feel it."

"It turns out that this is the case. It's not a special loss to be able to come back with millions of dollars. It's a little balanced."

Yang ziye patted his chest and said, looking relieved. As a dandy, he has never lost in any gambling game, so this time is no exception.

"Mr. Jin, I think Tong Xin should make good use of his ability. Although there are thousands of gambling stones and the selection time is only 15 minutes, if he is fast and lucky enough, he can still find that rare stone."

Cheng Mohan's eyes lit up. Even if Huo Tingchen is needed to eliminate the hidden danger for them now, he can't say that he doesn't have it at all. At least he can't get all the benefits by himself.

Jin Zhengting nodded his head and pondered: "since Tong Xin is so sensitive to the temperature of gambling stones, we can use some special equipment to raise the temperature of these gambling stones. Through the temperature after heating, Tong Xin can feel the internal texture of gambling stones. It seems that it is not easy to heat all the thousands of gambling stones in 15 minutes It's a very important thing

Cheng Mohan smiles: "Mr. Jin, you seem to forget that Tianhong jewelry company used to be an industry I bought. At that time, after Huo Tingchen's company went bankrupt, I bought this building at a relatively low price. Because I am afraid of the cold, I specially installed floor heating equipment in the hall."

Jin Zhengting's eyes lit up: "do you mean there are heating pipes in the hall?"

"That's right. At that time, I just decorated it according to my personal habits. I didn't expect that I could use it now."

Cheng Mohan also secretly congratulates himself for helping Zhao Tongxin at the critical moment because of his personal preference, which makes him believe that it is really doomed.

"Rong Lei."

Jin Zhengting called in a low voice. Rong Lei, who was on guard around him, immediately came over. Xu Yanke followed him like a little tail.

"BOSS。 ”

Rong Lei said in a soft voice, waiting for Jin Zhengting's orders. At this time, Jin Zhengting asked him to do something important.

"Mr. Cheng said that there are floor heating facilities in this building. You take people to control the system, and then wait for my order to be ready for heating at any time."

Jin Zhengting orders in a low voice. Although the surrounding area is under martial law, it's better to be careful. After all, this is Huo Tingchen's territory to prevent the walls from having ears.

"Yes, boss."

Rong Lei agreed, took Xu Yanke and a few bodyguards to leave quietly.

"It seems that luck is still on our side. Mr. Jin and Huo Tingchen can't count on this. It can be seen that he has done his best."

Cheng Mohan couldn't help sighing, but Jin Zhengting shook his head: "I never believe in the so-called fate. Everything is obtained through my own hands. The destruction of Huo Tingchen doesn't mean heaven, but Jin Zhengting doesn't allow him to live in this world."

His words are full of domineering, if others say this sentence, others will think it is a madman, but from Jin Zhengting's mouth, we can only say that president Jin is too domineering, because everyone knows that Jin is always a man who can say and do. When Huo Tingchen and Long Jiu returned to the hall, it was already in the afternoon, and the gambling meeting was still going on in an orderly way. In order to get the rare stone, these rich people even forgot to eat. Fortunately, Xu Zheng prepared a rich lunch for everyone so that they would not be hungry. Of course, their mind was not on eating.

"Well, is it going as planned?"

Huo Tingchen asked with a smile, obviously he was in a good mood, and even saw a little excitement in his eyes. Looking at the Dragon nine beside him, his face was scarlet, and his eyebrows were full of spring. It was obvious what Huo Tingchen meant.

"Now our income is close to three billion yuan. As planned, it is impossible for anyone to select the rare stone. It seems that we have to wait for Mo Yan to do it."

Xu Zheng's eyes are a little excited. This is the largest action he has planned independently. At present, the effect is very good, which also makes his confidence increase unprecedentedly.

"Very good. Did Jin Zhengting make any moves?"

No matter when it comes, the first thing Huo Tingchen thinks about is Jin Zhengting, because in his heart, Jin Zhengting is the only opponent.

Xu Zheng's brow suddenly frowned: "Jin Zhengting didn't make any moves. He just gave up his chance, and Lu zhanyan who was with him also gave up."

Huo Tingchen was stunned: "did they give up? What does that mean? "

Xu Zheng shook his head: "I don't know why. Just now he sent someone to tell us that he didn't choose the gambling stones for the time being. He said he wanted to have a look."

Huo Tingchen's eyes turned a few times: "what he means is that he wants those rich people to choose first, and wait until the gambler's selection is almost done?"

"It may mean that, but I'm still not sure. By doing so, he can increase the chance of getting rare stones, but it also gives us the opportunity to earn more capital. If no one can choose after the end of this round, those rich people will invest more in the second round. How can Jin Zhengting not think of this. Normally, he should spare no effort to stop us, so I think it's very abnormal. "

Xu Zheng expressed his worries. His thinking is extremely delicate and meticulous. From this abnormal action, we can feel that Jin Zhengting should have another plan.

Huo Tingchen's eyebrows also wrinkled. At this time, he couldn't tolerate any mistakes, but after thinking for a long time, he didn't understand Jin Zhengting's purpose.

"Jin Zhengting can't just want to get that rare stone. In that case, he can earn more than one billion yuan, but compared with our income, it is insignificant. But if he wants to stop our gambling, he should be eager to choose the stone. Why does he do that?"

As he paced, he thought hard, but he couldn't figure it out. No matter what angle he thought, Jin Zhengting didn't seem to make sense.

"Did Jin Zhengting deliberately let us make more profits?"

Xu Zheng's mind suddenly flashed, turned to Huo Tingchen and said, but his face was more worried.

"Xu Zheng, are you drunk? How can Jin Zhengting let us make more profits? Will you let him make money in front of you?"

Huo Tingchen scoffs at Xu Zheng's analysis. His ideas are too wonderful to be accepted.

"No, Mr. Huo, it's very possible. I'm afraid Jin Zhengting wants to fight us."

Xu Zheng's face became extremely dignified. He had guessed Jin Zhengting's idea, and had to say that in this respect, he was much better than Huo Tingchen.

"What do you mean?"

Huo Tingchen's face didn't look like a joke, and his relaxed nerves tightened again. He was not a person who didn't learn from his experience. He seemed to have the upper hand for countless times before, and he was soon overturned by Jin Zhengting, so he couldn't help paying no attention to it.

"He wants to take advantage of us to bankrupt all these rich people. Because these people are the grass on the wall, they may cause trouble for him in the future. That's why he thought of using our hand to get rid of them. It's really a brilliant strategy."

Xu Zheng lit a cigarette and said with a frown.

Huo Tingchen was surprised when he heard that he was also a man with amazing intelligence quotient. Xu Zheng could think of the truth of the matter just a little bit: "should we end the gambling meeting earlier and not give Jin Zhengting this opportunity?"

Xu Zheng bowed his head and pondered for a while, then suddenly raised his head: "Mr. Huo, since Jin Zhengting has given us such a good opportunity, there is no reason not to. The gambling stone will continue. It's time to start the final duel with Jin Zhengting."

Chapter 607

Xu Zheng and Cheng mobing look up, and Cheng Mohan looks at them with a smile.

Xu Zheng's eyes were cold: "Mr. Cheng, why are you here?"

He is full of hostility to Cheng Mohan now, not only because he is a member of a hostile company, but also because he seems to have done something irresistible to Cheng Mohan. As a man of Cheng Mohan, he can't have any good feelings for Cheng Mohan.

Sometimes men are more stingy than women, and Xu Zheng is more broad-minded than Huo Tingchen, but he has regarded Cheng mobing as his private property, which is the common feature of every man.

"Mr. Xu doesn't seem to like me very much."

Cheng Mo Han smiles and sits opposite them. He looks at them with deep eyes and says.

"We have a hostile relationship now, so naturally we can't be very polite to you. I think Mr. Cheng will understand."

Xu Zheng says faintly, but his eyes become colder and colder. He stares into Cheng Mohan's eyes and says that he has already regarded Cheng Mohan as a strong opponent in his subconscious, because he is not qualified to be Jin Zhengting's opponent in terms of his current strength. What's more, now his main competitor is Zhao Tongxin, so he naturally takes Zhao Tongxin as his opponent. The biggest opponent at this stage.

"Of course, we have different positions now, but today I don't come to you as an opponent. Mo Bing is my sister. When you are with him, you can also be said to be my brother-in-law. Can't you sit down and have a peaceful chat with your relatives?"

Cheng Mohan's face is always with a polite and gentlemanly smile, which few people can match.

The corner of Xu Zheng's mouth moves slightly. What Cheng Mohan said is not wrong. After all, he is Cheng Mobing's brother, and it's not wrong to call himself brother-in-law.

At the beginning, he and Cheng Mobing just used each other's relationship, but as time went on, he suddenly found that he really liked her. Although in most people's eyes, Cheng Mobing may not be a good woman, but he was very interested in Xu Zheng's taste, because he liked this kind of ambitious and unscrupulous woman, who could get her. Such a woman, in his heart there will be a pleasure of conquest.

And Cheng Mobing is also a rare beauty, any man has no resistance to beauty, even the veteran is no exception, this is one of the reasons why Cheng Mobing can attract Xu Zheng.

Of course, the most important thing is that they have similar values, so they have a lot of common language together. Moreover, Xu Zheng has never been attracted to women for so many years. This time, Cheng Mobing appeared at the most appropriate time and directly intruded into his heart.

"Mo Bing, we shouldn't be like this, or the days before were beautiful, don't you think?"

Seeing that Xu Zheng didn't speak, Cheng Mohan said with a smile to Cheng Mobing, who was silent. His eyes were gentle and complex, which made people know that there were many stories between them.

"Brother, in fact, I haven't blamed you all the time. I also know that those are the conspiracies of grandma. She not only calculated you, but also our aunt. I just don't know how to face you, so we'd better keep our present state."

Cheng mobing's face is still calm, but there is a trace of resentment in her eyes. When most men see this kind of eyes, they will feel pity.

Xu Zheng is one of the most men. He can't help stretching out his hand and gently stroking her hair to express his comfort to her.

Seeing Xu Zheng's action, a smile appeared on Cheng Mohan's face. He sighed and said faintly: "it seems that you really don't need my brother. You have found a good man."

"We can't be the same as before, because the injury to me is something you can never imagine, but I don't hate you now, because I met a man I love, who can make me forget everything in the past."

Cheng Mo Bing said in a flat tone, and it can be seen that she is not lying, because she can't see any hatred from her eyes, which can't be concealed.

"I believe that you and Xu Zheng will get the kind of happiness you want, but I also understand what you mean. You just want to tell me that you and Xu Zheng are together, and at the same time, you will firmly follow him, so we are enemies now, right?"

Cheng Mohan's eyes flashed an imperceptible anomaly, pondering, no one knows what he is thinking at this moment, smart people are used to hiding their thoughts.

"We can't talk about the enemy, but we are rivals, at least in a competitive relationship."

Cheng mobing gently looks at Xu Zheng and nestles her head on his shoulder. This is her choice. Between her brother and Xu Zheng, she chooses to advance and retreat with Xu Zheng.

This action moved Xu Zheng for no reason. As a frequent visitor to all kinds of beautiful women, he has not experienced this kind of feeling for a long time. This is also Cheng mobing's action to prove that her feelings for Xu Zheng are true. Maybe this is one of her few true feelings. "Mr. Cheng, Mo Bing's attitude is very clear. If you still want to persuade her, you'd better stop talking."

Xu Zheng said with a smile, but also took Cheng mobing's hand.

Cheng Mohan smiles: "well, since your attitude is very clear, then I won't play the family card. Let's talk about business. Mr. Xu, you should be interested."

Xu Zheng's eyes smothered: "it seems that we are in a competitive relationship, and this is the scene of the gambling Stone Club. I'm afraid it's not appropriate to talk about business here?"

"There's nothing inappropriate. I came to you to save you. Of course, I don't have any feelings for you. I just don't want Mo Bing to find a favorite boyfriend. I'm going to attend your funeral before my feelings come out."

Cheng Mohan's face with an enigmatic smile, he is indeed an excellent man, in the process of negotiation should say what kind of words, even with what kind of expression are just right.

Xu Zheng laughs: "Mr. Cheng is telling a joke. You can see that I will win today's gambling. Jin Zhengting can't stop me at all. Moreover, in the face of Mo Bing, I can't tell you frankly that today's income is likely to exceed 10 billion yuan. As a senior assistant of Zhao Tongxin company, you must be very grateful to your company and my company I'm quite familiar with the capital situation. Do you think your company has the ability to compete with our company based on its current financial situation? "

Cheng Mohan also laughed, and he continued to ask quietly: "Mr. Xu's analysis is very thorough, but I want to ask, if you get today's income, how do you plan to compete with our company? As far as the catering industry in Jiangbin is concerned, our company's business philosophy has obviously been recognized by many people, attracting a large number of fixed consumption in a few days On the other hand, it seems that your company has not improved since its opening. "

He is not exaggerating, because Zhao Tongxin's idea is really excellent, and the company is oriented to the citizens of the whole city, so the number of customers is very huge. In just a few days, there have been fixed consumers. In addition, Yang's group is a famous catering group in Jiangbin, which can also make people feel at ease in terms of quality.

However, the situation of Xu Zheng's Tianhong catering company is not optimistic. Although Zhao Tongxin is more than him in capital, because the catering industry has always been controlled by Yang Group, it is difficult for Xu Zheng to develop the market, and there are also difficulties in capital turnover, which makes his company barely maintain during this period of time, even to the point of difficulty, so Xu Zheng's company has to face difficulties The government attaches great importance to today's income.

"That's only temporary. As you can see, my income today is quite considerable. With this start-up fund, I think I can quickly turn the situation around. I can tell you my strategy. Because I have the advantage in capital, I can take the same approach as last time in the jewelry industry and crush your company with ultra-low price."

Xu Zheng says faintly that the reason why he can tell Cheng Mohan about this is that even if he knows, because of the capital gap, Cheng Mohan and even Zhao Tongxin can only watch him act without any ability to stop him.

Cheng Mohan's face still had no expression. He seemed to have thought that Xu Zheng would use such a strategy, and asked faintly: "in that case, would it not be killing eight hundred enemies and losing one thousand?"

Xu Zheng showed a confident smile: "because I have this capital, I can afford billions of losses, but you can't, this is the gap in strength."

"Yes? What if Huo Tingchen suddenly set up a catering company again when you were struggling with losses, and then took the opportunity to bring your company down and forcibly acquired it

Cheng Mohan asked with a smile. His eyes became deeper. He knew that Xu Zheng was very smart, so he could naturally think of this relationship. He didn't even need to say that Xu Zheng would think that Huo Tingchen might be the Yellow finch.

Sure enough, Xu Zheng's face changed slightly, but he soon calmed down. He gave a faint smile: "Mr. Cheng, you should know that we are still cooperating with Huo Tingchen at present, and they are far closer than you think, so your estrangement plan will not have any effect."

"Xu Zheng, you are a smart man, so you don't need me to say it. You should also know that what I said is very likely to happen. I remind you that it's not to alienate the relationship between you and Huo Tingchen, but I don't want Mo Bing's painstaking business to be destroyed."

Cheng Mohan stands up and takes a light look at Xu Zheng: "if you have any trouble, just come to me. This is what your cousin Zhao Tongxin means."

He turned to Cheng mobing and said, "I forgot to tell you. Don't be hostile to Zhao Tongxin any more. She is my aunt's adopted daughter."

After Cheng Mohan left, Xu Zheng and Cheng mobing looked at each other in a complicated way.

Chapter 608

"Wait a minute, Mr. Cheng."

Just as Cheng Mohan is about to disappear in the crowd, Xu Zheng suddenly chases him.

Cheng Mohan has a smile on his face. He knows that he can convince Xu Zheng, because Xu Zheng is a smart man. Although he always takes Jin Zhengting as his goal, he can calmly analyze the situation when he is in extreme danger.

Obviously, there is no deep hatred between him and Jin Zhengting, and Huo Tingchen is cruel. If Huo Tingchen attacks him, his life will be seriously threatened.

"Mr. Xu, I know you can figure it out. We all know what kind of person Huo Tingchen is, so it's the best choice to leave a way out for ourselves."

Cheng Mo cold eyes looked sharp around, after all, this is Huo Tingchen's company, there may be a lot of hidden eyelid, so important things will not let Huo Tingchen heard.

"I can only guarantee that if Huo Tingchen really starts with us, I will choose to cooperate with Jin Zhengting, but if Huo Tingchen does not act, we will still be rivals."

Xu Zheng light said, he said such words in theory is unreasonable, but Cheng Mohan has understood his meaning, Xu Zheng is a real villain, but also a hypocritical villain.

"Well, Jin and Tong Xin have entrusted this matter to me, so I can agree to your request. Of course, you may not believe me, but you should know that Jin is always a man who does what he says."

"Of course I know. Please tell Jin Zhengting that even if we can really cooperate, he is also my opponent. I will never change that."

Xu Zheng said solemnly, in fact, at this time his heart is more about how to deal with Huo Tingchen. Jin Zhengting and Cheng Mohan are very excellent winners, and their eyes are naturally correct. Although they are suspected of wooing him at this time, the things they analyze are likely to happen, because Huo Tingchen has always been a bridge breaker.

"I will tell you that Huo Tingchen may have planted ears and eyes around you. You should be extra careful because I trained longjiu. She has great experience in doing this kind of thing."

Cheng Mohan reminds Xu Zheng that he knows more and more about Huo Tingchen. He knows that Huo Tingchen is very worried about Xu Zheng and will send someone to watch him around him. He doesn't want Xu Zheng to be in danger before he gets him.

This sentence reminds Xu Zheng that Huo Tingchen doesn't seem to care much about everything about him, which is obviously not in line with Huo Tingchen's character. Unless he knows everything about himself, and Huo Tingchen will take corresponding measures every time he plans something, which proves that Cheng Mohan's suspicion is not wrong, but he doesn't think of betraying him, it is he has always been very loving Xu Ting.

"I will pay attention to it. In order to show my sincerity, I can tell you a little bit of insider information. Jin Zheng has Huo Tingchen's eye liner beside him. That person is his sister Xu Ting."

From this moment on, Xu Zheng is much more wary of Huo Tingchen than Jin Zhengting, because he knows that Jin Zhengting never plays tricks behind his back. He is a man who likes to face the enemy openly.

Cheng Mo Han light smile: "these we already knew."

Xu Zheng was stunned for a moment. He didn't expect that Jin Zhengting would have such keen insight. He even thought that Jin Ying would become a key chess player in the left and right situation. He didn't expect that her identity would be exposed so soon, which can also prove how terrible an opponent Jin Zhengting is.

"You already know that. Well, I'll provide you with more valuable information. When Jin Zhengting goes to select the gambling stones later, let him pay special attention to the gambling stones with white quartz. I remember that there is a piece of white quartz on the rare stone, but Huo Tingchen will be fully responsible for the gambling stones. I don't know what he used. We have to deal with it in a different way. "

Xu Zheng said faintly that he now hopes to have a win-win situation with Jin Zhengting, which can also check and balance Huo Tingchen's momentum.

Cheng Mo Han nodded with a smile: "I remember, and I will be better to Mo Bing in the future."

With that, he showed a charming smile and turned to the area where Jin Zhengting was. The results of this negotiation have been very fruitful.

"Xu Zheng, do you really want to cooperate with Jin Zhengting?"

Cheng Mobing comes to him and asks in a low voice that she doesn't know what to do now. Both Jin Zhengting and Huo Tingchen can't confront each other, so they must unite one to deal with the other. However, from the current situation, Huo Tingchen, who is superior in strength, is obviously the more terrible enemy.

Xu Zheng nodded: "there is no irreconcilable hatred between us and Jin Zhengting, so it's better to cooperate with him than with Huo Tingchen. Huo Tingchen is a crazy man. In order to achieve his goal, there is nothing he can't do. Maybe we chose the wrong thing from the beginning."

"But after dealing with Huo Tingchen, we are still not Jin Zhengting's opponents. I always think Jin Zhengting is more terrible than Huo Tingchen." Cheng Mobing still has some doubts. Neither of these two opponents is so easy to deal with.

Xu Zheng frowned and thought, "in any case, it's important for us to protect our lives first. If Huo Tingchen has the advantage, he will deal with us first, and he won't use a relatively gentle way like Jin Zhengting. He will definitely kill us."

"It's up to you. I'll support you."

Cheng Mobing is not an independent person, but after she is with Xu Zheng, she even begins to enjoy the day when she doesn't bother about anything.

"Well, let's prepare to join hands with Jin Zhengting. Huo Tingchen is not a good partner. He is extremely dangerous. I don't want to live in his shadow every day."

Xu Zheng bites his teeth and makes a decision soon. He knows that no matter what happens in the future, at least Jin Zhengting won't kill them, and Zhao Tongxin is there, and he won't be too cruel to them. Thinking of this relationship, Xu Zheng suddenly gives birth to a trace of gratitude to his bad cousin.

"Zhengting, do you think brother Xiaomo can persuade Xu Zheng?"

In another section of the hall, Zhao Tongxin is worried that Cheng Mohan can persuade Xu Zheng. After all, Xu Zheng has done too many things against them, and Jin Zhengting will let him go again and again because of her own reasons. From this point of view, she feels that she has set up such a thorny problem for Jin Zhengting, so she is still very worried. Sorry.

Jin Zhengting, of course, could see her mind. With a faint smile, he reached out and stroked Zhao Tongxin's hair: "it's OK. I believe Cheng Mohan can do it. Moreover, your cousin is a smart man and good at analyzing the situation. He should understand that the only choice is to choose to cooperate with us at this time. Don't blame yourself. Xu Zheng is a good man. He may be able to help us in the future. "

"I know you want to comfort me, but I used to be too headstrong. If I knew he had caused you so much trouble, I shouldn't have interfered in your affairs at the beginning."

In Zhao Tongxin's heart, Xu Zheng naturally can't compare with Jin Zhengting. It can be said that no one can compare with him, because he is the only one in her heart, and she can give up anyone for him.

"I know what you mean. That's enough. The current situation is not very clear, so I'd better wait until Cheng Mohan comes back, but I believe your cousin will be on our side."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that he always had a keen intuition and his words were very convincing, especially Zhao Tongxin believed his words most.

"I hope we don't make enemies with Xu Zheng. I don't want to see the original family hostile to each other."

Zhao Tong said quietly that she only wanted to live a peaceful life, accompanied by Jin Zhengting, far away from those so-called disputes and hatred, only good, of course, she also knew that this was only her own wishful thinking.

"Tong Xin, I know you are very kind, but this is not the whole of life, there are beautiful and ugly, I just hope you will not be hurt."

Jin Zhengting's eyes became tender. He took Zhao Tongxin into his arms. This is the safest place in the world for Zhao Tongxin.

Zhao Tongxin enjoyed his embrace very much, and narrowed his eyes slightly: "Zhengting, after the gambling meeting is over, should we solve the problem of Zhan Yan and Mo Yan?"

In her beloved's arms, she suddenly thought of Qian Yuanyuan. The Lu brothers and her affairs have not yet been solved. This is one of her worries.

Jin Zhengting frowned slightly: "I know, as long as Xu Zheng can cooperate with us, this matter will be solved very well. He knows the whole truth, but the current heat is not enough. I need to stimulate Huo Tingchen again. As long as he shows that he wants to do something to Xu Zheng, then Xu Zheng should be forced to cooperate with us. At that time, he will make peace Mo Yan's affairs can be solved. "

Jin Zhengting has always kept this matter in mind. He has planned such a huge plan, and there are also reasons for mediating between Lu zhanyan and Lu Moyan. The focus of all this is to win over Xu Zheng. Therefore, he thinks that it is time to put the lifting of the capital blockade on Huo Tingchen on the agenda. Although it is a very dangerous move, the return is also very good rich.

"Mr. Jin, you can rest assured about this. Xu Zheng has actually agreed to cooperate with us. We just need to stimulate Huo Tingchen to have the idea of annexing Xu Zheng."

Cheng Mohan came to them with a winning smile on his face. He felt that his success was also an emotional return to Zhao Tongxin.

Chapter 609

"Xu Zheng revealed a detail, that is, let us pay close attention to the gambling stones with white quartz, one of which is likely to be a rare stone, and he also confirmed that Jin Ying is Huo Tingchen's undercover agent placed beside president Jin."

Cheng Mohan says faintly that in this area, he doesn't worry about being discovered by Huo Tingchen at all, because Jin Zhengting's bodyguards have completely blocked the place, and checked around to make sure there is no monitoring equipment.

"Sure enough, it's Jin Ying, which confirms my conjecture. Many of the plans we talked about at home are likely to be known by Huo Tingchen."

Jin Zhengting's brows wrinkled. His feeling was a little complicated now. In essence, he was still reluctant to believe that Jin Ying would betray him.

Zhao Tongxin clenched his hand and said in a gentle voice: "Zhengting, Xiaoying should not get our attention during the period of injury, and she is still worried about Yan Ke's injury. Therefore, she chooses to cooperate with Huo Tingchen in a confused way. I don't think she wants to do that in essence."

"You don't have to defend her. I know she has been neglected during this period, but that's not the reason why she betrayed the Jin family. As the owner of the family, it's necessary for me to clean up the door."

Jin Zhengting's eyes trembled slightly, which was his most obvious expression of emotion.

"Mr. Jin, with all due respect, I shouldn't have been involved in your family affairs, but Tong Xin also said that Miss Jin was just confused for a moment. I think she should have some psychological obstacles, so we should arrange a psychologist for her. Moreover, I don't think it's a very bad thing for Miss Jin to rely on Huo Tingchen. At least we can let Huo Tingchen know something we'd like him to know. "

Cheng Mohan's eyes flashed a few times, and he had a complete plan in his heart. He was once a man of the moment, and it was common for him to play with this kind of plot.

Zhao Tong Xin takes a look at Cheng Mohan and finds that he is quietly winking at himself. He immediately understands that although Cheng Mohan is suspected of using Jin Ying to make an article, he is also helping her, because he can see that she doesn't want Jin Zhengting to fight against her sister. The purpose of saying this is not only to save Jin Ying's life, but also to confuse Huo Tingchen. Can you tell So it's killing two birds with one stone.

"Brother Xiaomo is right. We can also use Xiaoying. At least Huo Tingchen will believe her news."

She hurriedly helped, feeling that Jin Zhengting was full of anger, and was likely to carry out Jin's family law against Jin Ying.

"Even without her, I can deal with Huo Tingchen as well."

Jin Zhengting is such a smart man. How can he not know that they just want to let Jin Ying go when they say so? But what he hates most in his life is betrayal, not to mention betraying his sister, whom he has always loved very much.

"Mr. Jin, you'd better calm down and listen to me?"

Zhao Tong Xin knows that he can't persuade him. He quickly gives Cheng Mo Han a look for help. Cheng Mo Han immediately says.

Jin Zhengting is an extremely calm person. He can keep a clear head under any circumstances. He takes a light look at Cheng Mohan, nods and says: "you say it."

"Mr. Jin, our top priority is to win over Xu Zheng. If you just remove the economic blockade on Huo Tingchen, I think he will not fight against Xu Zheng for the time being, because he is a cautious man, so he will wait and see the situation first."

Cheng Mohan did not immediately persuade Jin Zhengting, but from the current situation to analyze.

Jin Zhengting unconsciously nodded his head: "you're right. Huo Tingchen is very cautious. He won't be cheated immediately."

"If time drags on too long, Xu Zheng's sense of crisis will become smaller and smaller. In the end, he is unlikely to cooperate with us to deal with Huo Tingchen. Is this a situation that Mr. Jin does not want to see?"

Cheng Mohan continued to say faintly that Jin Zhengting didn't speak. There are many explanations for his silence. The explanation here is undoubtedly tacit. If Xu Zheng doesn't have enough sense of crisis, he won't choose to cooperate with Jin Zhengting. After all, his goal is Jin Zhengting, who is at the top of the river, not Huo Tingchen.

"Therefore, we can use Miss Jin Ying to send a message to Huo Tingchen, that is, Xu Zheng has a deep sense of crisis. He found that Huo Tingchen would fight against him sooner or later, so he contacted us to discuss the cooperation between the two sides to deal with Huo Tingchen. In this way, with Huo Tingchen's cautious character, he would not help but fight first, that's right Then Xu Zheng won't be able to sit still. Isn't it a natural thing to cooperate with us at that time? "

Cheng Mohan has a good idea. He has to say that his plan is perfect and makes full use of the existing resources. As long as he can separate Huo Tingchen and Xu Zheng, their break will be inevitable.

Although he did not plead for Jin Ying, the key to all his plans is to make Huo Tingchen believe that Xu Zheng has cooperated with them, so Jin Ying's role is crucial.

Jin Zhengting immediately understood Cheng Mohan's intention. He thought about it for a moment, and then he showed a faint smile: "you are really a smart man." Cheng Mohan also said with a smile: "Mr. Jin, you are too polite. In fact, you can think of this plan. It's just that you are blinded by anger for the time being. I think if Miss Jin Ying can help us finish this task, it will be atonement for our sins."

Jin Zhengting nodded his head: "since you all speak for her, I'll let you know. It's just Mr. Cheng. Why do you plead for Jin Ying? If I remember correctly, you should never know each other."

"It's true that Miss Jin Ying and I have never met before, but I see Tong Xin is very worried, so I can't help trying to help her. Should Jin not be jealous?"

Cheng Mohan makes a joke. He is very magnanimous now, because he doesn't have any idea about Zhao Tongxin. He just treats her as a little sister of his own.

Jin Zhengting lightly picked an eyebrow: "I don't think I'm a narrow-minded person, and I know you have only brother and sister feelings for Tong Xin."

"Mr. Jin's insight is really sharp. Tong Xin's foster mother is my aunt. And in my most difficult time, my aunt has been taking care of me and helping me through the most difficult period. So I feel obliged to help Tong Xin do anything. To some extent, although I have no blood relationship with her, I have regarded her as my relative Give birth to a sister. "

Cheng Mo Han looks at Zhao Tong's heart with a smile and says faintly.

"Thank you, brother mo."

Zhao Tongxin also gave him a smile. She felt warm in her heart. Every girl wanted to feel cared and loved. Of course, Jin Zhengting was the one she cared about most.

Jin Zhengting gently stroked Zhao Tongxin's hair and said to Cheng Mohan, "what Tongxin said is also what I want to say."

Cheng Mohan nods his head. He knows that Jin Zhengting has never said thanks to others. It's not easy to achieve this. Of course, it's because Cheng Mohan helped Zhao Tongxin. Anyway, as long as he is nice to her, he will express his gratitude from his heart.

"Mr. Jin is too polite. I think it's better not to destroy the gambling club now. Let Xu Zheng earn enough money to resist Huo Tingchen. The next step is crucial for us. I don't want him to be eaten by Huo Tingchen without the ability to resist."

Cheng Mohan is still more concerned about the current situation. It is obvious that Jin Zhengting is going to prepare for the final confrontation with Huo Tingchen. He feels that Huo Tingchen has spent so long and has already lost the patience of further stalemate. The head-on collision between these two powerful consortia is inevitable. So from now on, we should master every detail well, because in the next duel, it is likely that some details will determine the outcome of both sides.

"I think so too, but Xu Zheng probably won't last long. At that time, we have to help him. Tong Xin doesn't want her cousin to have any problems."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that now he has formed a habit that no matter what problems he considers, he always looks at problems from Zhao Tongxin's point of view.

"That's not enough. Huo Tingchen has very strong assets in Jiangdong. We are likely to be dominated by him, and will be compressed in a certain industry, so it's difficult on the whole. I don't know if Mr. Jin is ready for this."

Cheng Mohan is very clear about what will happen in the next period of time. Although he is asking Jin Zhengting, he also knows that Jin Zhengting will be ready for everything.

"In fact, I have already started to prepare to withdraw funds from many industries. I will concentrate all the funds at that time. We will discuss this issue at an appropriate time. What we have to do now is to get that rare stone. Xu Zheng has made almost all the money, and we should share some of the benefits."

Jin Zhengting took a gentle look at Zhao Tongxin: "Tongxin, when you choose the gambling stone, it depends on your performance, but don't be nervous, I believe you."

Zhao Tong Xin cleverly nodded his head: "as long as I'm with you, I won't feel nervous at all. Don't worry, I will try my best."

"Boss, Mr. Zhao, how can you ignore my existence? My master gave me all the skills of gambling stone identification. I believe I can also contribute my own strength."

Pony didn't know when he came out. He was very confident in himself when he looked like he was rubbing his hands.

"Mr. Jin, this gambling meeting should be a win-win situation for us and Xu Zheng. As for Huo Tingchen, he has only one hard-working destiny."

Cheng Mohan said with a smile, his eyes become sharp, Huo Tingchen took away everything from him, now it's time to let him return.

Chapter 610

"Boss, the floor heating system has been controlled and heating can be provided at any time."

Rong Lei and Xu Yanke have come back, and the task given to them by Jin Zhengting has been completed.

"Well."

Jin Zhengting gave a light answer, but his brows didn't stretch out, because before they chose the gambling stones, there was a big problem, that is, Lu Moyan. According to the news Xu Zheng told them, Huo Tingchen's core members seemed to know the characteristics of the rare stone, so Huo Tingchen arranged Lu Moyan before Jin Zhengting, and the purpose was very simple. It's a step ahead.

"Zhengting, are you worried about Mo Yan?"

As a friend growing up together, Lu zhanyan knows Jin Zhengting's thoughts very well.

"Although this game is not a loser for us and Xu Zheng, I still want to teach Huo Tingchen a lesson."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that although the gambling meeting didn't defeat Huo Tingchen's plot, it won over Xu Zheng and eliminated a big hidden danger for himself in the future, so his goal has been achieved, but he didn't want Huo Tingchen to lose nothing.

"Now that we have known the characteristics of rare stones, Mo Yan will also know. How can we stop him?"

Lu zhanyan frowned and said that the value of this rare stone is at least more than one billion. If Jin Zhengting can get it, it will be very helpful for the decisive battle with Huo Tingchen.

"It's better to confuse his vision, and you can do the task."

Jin Zhengting said that. He put his hand in front of Lu zhanyan. Lu zhanyan fixed his eyes, and his eyes flashed with a light: "you are ready so soon. You are really the man at the top of the river."

Jin Zhengting said with a faint smile: "when you choose the gambling stones, I will let Xiaoma join you. He can at least narrow down the scope. I have asked him to leave a mark on the key gambling stones, and the rest is up to you."

Lu zhanyan took what Jin Zhengting had handed him and said with a smile, "I'm still capable of this."

"Let's not worry. I don't think these rich people have given up their final capital yet. I think Xu Zheng has a tacit understanding with us on this point, so we'd better wait and see."

Jin Zhengting pondered and said that he obviously had a deeper consideration. At this time, although the rich have been biting their teeth and putting all their capital into it, it can be seen that they have not come up with the final family background. That is to say, his goal of eliminating the hidden danger that these rich may turn over to Huo Tingchen in the future has not been achieved.

"We can continue to wait, but I'm afraid Mo Yan won't. If he takes the lead, then we will fall short of success."

Naturally, Lu zhanyan does not want to miss this opportunity. He has a certain understanding of the economic situation of Jin Zhengting group. He knows that Jin Zhengting also needs this fund.

Jin Zhengting shook his head: "I think as long as we don't do anything, Mo Yan won't move. These rich people are not only a hidden danger to us, but also to Huo Tingchen. Some time ago, we blocked his economy, and these rich people also have a share. Huo Tingchen won't miss the opportunity to retaliate against them, so as long as we keep calm, Mo Yan will only follow our actions 。 ”

"Well, let's wait for Xu Zheng to squeeze almost all the assets of these rich people."

Lu zhanyan still believes in Jin Zhengting's judgment, because he has never made a mistake.

"Well."

Jin Zhengting agreed, and his brows gradually spread. Now he needs to keep a more peaceful attitude, because from this moment on, the final duel with Huo Tingchen has actually started.

"I'll see the performance of Tong Xin in a moment."

Lu zhanyan has also pinned his hopes on Zhao Tongxin. Because Jin Zhengting is very determined about her ability, he also chose to believe it.

But when he looked around, he found that Zhao Tong Xin was not by Jin Zhengting's side, so he asked: "Zhengting, what about Tong Xin?"

Jin Zhengting light said: "toilet."

"This is Huo Tingchen's territory. Will she be in danger?"

Seeing that Jin Zhengting didn't accompany Zhao Tongxin, Lu zhanyan had some doubts. After all, Huo Tingchen could do anything and was very good at seizing opportunities. It was undoubtedly a good opportunity that Jin Zhengting was not with Zhao Tongxin.

Jin Zhengting said with a smile: "don't worry, Huo Tingchen doesn't dare to do anything at this time. Although I didn't accompany her, there are still three experts around her who can deal with any unexpected situation. What's more, Huo Tingchen's strength is seriously damaged, and she can't send any decent people."

Lu zhanyan thought that Zhao Tongxin was the person Jin Zhengting cared about most, so he said there was no danger, so Zhao Tongxin should not have anything, so he didn't say anything.

When Zhao Tongxin washes her hands and comes out of the bathroom, Xu Yanke, Shaoyuan and Rong Qi follow her and protect her.

That's what Jin Zhengting ordered, so they had to strictly implement it. Zhao Tong was a little embarrassed at first. Thinking that this is Huo Tingchen's place, he thought that Jin Zhengting had nothing wrong with her strict protection, so he accepted it."Cut, come to a bathroom and we three will follow. Please drink less water."

Xu Yanke said impatiently, in fact, she is not averse to protecting Zhao Tong's heart. She just habitually disagrees with her. Through this period of time, they seem to have more tacit understanding than others, although they always break out some small-scale quarrels.

"You can choose not to come, and I didn't say you had to."

Zhao Tong gave her a white look. Recently, when talking with Xu Yanke, he became more and more powerful, showing the temperament of the hostess of the Jin family everywhere.

What Xu Yanke can't stand most is Zhao Tongxin's tone. She curled her lips: "Hey, you think I'm willing to follow you. If it's not for my brother's death order, you can go wherever you like, I don't care about you."

"I didn't say you had to follow me. I'll go to the court and tell you not to follow me, OK?"

Zhao Tongxin also says that she is very gentle to others, but he and Xu Yanke seem to be natural enemies.

"Well, if it wasn't for my little nephew's face, I wouldn't protect you. So don't thank me, thank your baby."

Xu Yanke's heart is getting softer now, but his mouth is still very hard, especially when he quarrels with Zhao Tongxin.

Zhao Tongxin naturally knows that she has no malice. She smiles gently and doesn't continue to quarrel with her. It's just that there's nothing to do at the gambling stone meeting. It's a bit boring, so she fights with Xu Yanke, which can be regarded as a means of adjustment.

"I don't think Yan wants to work with our team. It's probably because his mind is not here. It's all on Rong Lei, right?"

Generally at this time, Shaoyuan is standing on Zhao Tongxin's side, so he opens his mouth to help.

Xu Yanke's rare pretty face turned red, and he even pinched it: "there's no such thing."

"No blush. I think your relationship is getting better and better recently. I wonder if Miss Xu Yanke has any plans to get married?"

Spoon garden blinked round eyes and asked with a smile.

"Marriage?"

Xu Yanke was obviously stunned. Maybe she didn't think about it. When she was asked by Shaoyuan, she didn't know how to answer it.

"Yes, do you want to fall in love with Rong Lei all your life? Oh, are you sorry? "

Shaoyuan usually likes to quarrel with Xu Yanke. Most of the time, they are equal. But today she finds out that Xu Yanke has never thought about getting married, so she loses interest in quarreling with her. Instead, she becomes very gossip. After all, every woman has a gossip heart.

"No, I just didn't think about it."

When Shaoyuan said this, Xu Yanke suddenly felt a little palpitation in her heart, because she never thought that she would marry a man, but now it's different. Rong Lei is very kind to her these days, and Rong Lei is also the type she likes. If it's really like what Shaoyuan said, it should be a good thing for two people to get married.

Xu Yan is a thoughtful and intelligent person, her IQ is very high, but in the emotional aspect is very simple, so among them, only she and Rong Qi have no emotional experience.

So she would like to hear Zhao Tongxin's or Shaoyuan's opinions. After all, they are both married. They are from the past. Their marriage experience must be much richer than her, but they are too embarrassed to ask.

Zhao Tongxin and Shaoyuan look at each other and smile. They have seen through Xu Yanke's mind. Several people come to the corner of the hall and sit down. Zhao Tongxin first asks, "Xu Yanke, how do you feel about Rong Lei?"

"Hey, don't gossip like that, OK?"

Xu Yanke retorts in a low voice, which is habitual, but she also feels embarrassed when talking about love with others, which also proves that in terms of emotion, she is still very simple.

"It's not our gossip. Tong Xin is right. If you don't have a solid emotional foundation, it's not suitable for marriage, so we have to help you analyze it."

Shaoyuan said that their team is very united now, so naturally they hope their friends can be happy. In this respect, Shaoyuan is even more enthusiastic than Zhao Tongxin.

Xu Yanke lowered his head and bit his lips. After thinking about it for a long time, he raised his head and seemed to have made a great determination: "I have a good relationship with him. He is very nice to me. I always think that I miss him when I can't see him. I just want to know what he is doing. It seems like this."

Zhao Tongxin nodded his head seriously: "after the matter with Huo Tingchen is solved, I will talk with Zhengting. I think you should be very suitable to be together."

Spoon garden blinked round eyes: "it looks like there will be wedding candy soon."
