

Chapter 607

"I didn't expect that a small girl like her could run so fast even with 10 kilograms of weights on her!"

"I can't believe my eyes!"

When they saw Janet running, they started to suspect that Janet had been pretending to be gentle and soft all along.

Furthermore, they suspected that her fitness evaluation report was fake!

Seeing how shocked the other contestants were, Hannah was puzzled. With a smirk, she bitterly said, "She just started running. She still has a few kilometers until she reaches the finish line!"

Tsk! I've never met such a stupid person. I can't believe that Janet used all her energy for the first few hundred meters. She still has a few kilometers to go, but she doesn't even try to conserve energy. What an idiot!

Hearing Hannah's comment, one contestant nodded and said, "You're right. She still has a few kilometers to go. We'll only know her true score after she crosses the finish line!"

Another person chimed in and said, "That's true. She might faint after running one kilometer!"

"If that's the case, the winner of the five-kilometer run with weights will still be Hannah."

Hannah grinned and in a humble tone, she said, "It's too early to predict the winner. Maybe Janet has the strength to win this competition!"

Everyone smiled and said nothing. All of them knew that Hannah would win the best trainee this time.

After they finished chatting, the six contestants turned to focus their attention on Janet.

At that moment, the screen in the training base showed that Janet was just two kilometers from the finish line. She was halfway through the track, but only six minutes had passed.

That meant that her speed was possibly faster than Charles Meyer!

If she continued to run at that speed, she would reach the finish line in another six minutes and complete the five-kilometer run with weights.

Hannah's expression gradually changed.

If Janet continues to run at this speed, she will break my father's record!

A look of disbelief appeared on Hannah's face.

Janet ran at the same speed until the last kilometer. However, after that, she started to slow down, just like Hannah expected.

At that instant, Hannah became serious. She stared intently at Janet as if she wanted to see through her!

Meanwhile, the man watched everything at the highest point of the training base. A glint of happiness appeared in his eyes several times, but he tried his best to hide it.

He pulled out a box of cigarettes, lit one up, and let it burn slowly between his fingers. Then, he calmly said, "What did I say? I told you that she could win the five-kilometer run with weights."

At that moment, the chief instructor wasn't paying attention to him so he didn't hear what he said. He nodded repeatedly and said, "Didn't Black Python and White Python say that Janet scored last in the fitness evaluation test? How is this possible?"

I've been an instructor for 20 years, but I have never seen a student with such a bad score on the fitness evaluation test run so fast. It is unheard of!

The man pursed his lips and looked at the remaining distance Janet had to cover on the screen. "10 meters left to the finish line!"

The chief instructor froze and swallowed. "You're right!"

10 meters before Janet reached the finish line, the whole training base gradually fell silent. At that moment, everybody held their breaths.

5 meters, 4 meters, 3 meters.... All of a sudden, Janet stopped in her tracks, looked up, and with an arrogant and proud look on her face, she yelled, "I'm sorry, but the winner of the five-kilometer run with weights is me!"
