

Chapter 618

She looked at Lone Ying and coldly said, "Aunt Feng, long time no see."

Before coming here, Lone Ying had only heard that Tailor Feng was keeping a mistress outside, a playwright.

She's always looked down on the women in the entertainment industry, and who doesn't know that none of the women who get around here are clean.

She wouldn't say anything if her son was playing around.

But when I woke up this morning, I heard that Tailor Feng was actually the real deal.

Not only did they go to great lengths for her, but they also bought her a villa, and I'm told that they have big plans to keep her up and move on.

The lone warbler quit for a moment.

She was aware of the crisis, and this second son of hers had always had a mind of his own.

If she can't manage anything else, she can't care, but she has to be the one to make the decision on the marriage.

Thinking so, she hurried over.

I thought the one raised here would be what kind of goods, but it was actually her?

Lone Ying naturally knew Evelin.

After all, Deputy Kang had stayed in the Feng family for more than ten years, and Evelin had grown to be almost ten years old before leaving Kyoto.

She later became famous in the entertainment industry, and while Lone Warbler recognized her, she didn't think she was that great.

After all, she had despised this family back when Deputy Kang was still around, and now that Deputy Kang was gone, so what if she was a top-tier actress in the entertainment industry.

A playwright is a playwright, and there are plenty of playwrights in the world who want to marry into the rich family.

And yet I don't see many who are truly happy.

When she thought of this, Lone Ying's gaze at Evelin again took on a hint of disdain.

She smirked, "So it's you, why didn't you say so! If I'd known it was you, I wouldn't have been in such a hurry to come here today."

Evelin smiled slightly and looked at Lone Ying, not seeing any colour in her eyes.

"Aunt Feng is in a hurry to come over, I wonder what it's about?"

Lone Ying's laughing air suddenly became gentle and came over to her, holding her hand.

"Ugh, what else could it be because of, it's just people outside talking nonsense about how Little Yi is keeping a woman outside who is not clean.

You also know that your brother Yi, ah, just likes to get involved in the outside world, I, as a mother, have also been worried about him.

No, as soon as I heard that I rushed over early in the morning, thinking that no matter what, don't let others girls suffer, after all, your Yat brother is used to playing outside.

It's fine if you meet that kind of dusty woman, but if she's really a nice girl, wouldn't that delay someone?"

The few people around them listened and looked at each other.

The look on his face became a bit odd.

Only Evelin, from start to finish, held firm.

Because she knew that Lone Ying hadn't played this yet, what was the rush?

Sure enough, I heard Lone Ying smile and continued, "As a result, I didn't expect to come over and see that the person here is actually you, are you surprised?"

Evelin smiled faintly, not moving to remove her hands that were held by the lone Ying.

"What was Aunt Feng's accident? I'm the woman Tailor Feng is keeping? Or am I actually reduced to needing to be kept by a man?"

Her voice flowed, with a lightly mocking tail.

Lone Ying's face changed slightly, but she quickly adjusted.

After all, she had been in the gentry circle for most of her life, so how could she choke on this sentence or two?

Sure enough, I heard her laugh and say, "Evelin, how can you miss your aunt so much? Am I that kind of person?"

Let's not talk about your father's relationship with our family, let's just say you're also the child I grew up watching, although later you and your mother left Kyoto more than ten years ago, but this love, I have never forgotten it!"

She said, and then sighed softly.

"You don't even know, all these years, I've been so worried about your brother Yat, you and him were so close when you were little, almost like brother and sister, you should understand his temper, right?"

The phrase "brother and sister" startled everyone present for a moment.

Evelin's face also changed slightly, looking towards Lone Ying and coldly saying, "Aunt Feng is joking, how can I be able to become brother and sister with Feng Er Shao."

Her original intention was not to acknowledge this relationship between herself and Tailor Feng's so-called brother and sister.

But unexpectedly, Lone Ying heard it and laughed.

"Why are you so humble, boy? Originally I was just saying that casually, but you say that to make it seem like our family is so powerful."

Said, suddenly from the bag, pulling out a bracelet.

"But now that you've said that, by the way, I appreciated your father back then, now that he's gone, then auntie will naturally take good care of you on his behalf, in the future ah, you don't be so out of touch, you and Xiao Yi grew up together, even if I accept you as a goddaughter, it's not too much, in the future when you see me, you no longer call auntie, call her godmother."

Evelin's face changed.

Subconsciously, I wanted to withdraw my hand.

However, the hand was gripped hard by Lone Inge.

She laughed and put that bracelet on her little by little, laughing, "I, ah, always wanted to have a daughter, but this belly does not fight, having one is a son, having two is still a son. Now it's good, I finally have a daughter, from now on you and Xiao Yi will be the real brother and sister, if anyone bullies you out, just tell godmother, godmother will help you clean them up, this bracelet, I always wear it, just think of it as a meeting gift."

Evelin was trembling with anger and her face was faintly white.

This move by Lone Ying is a beautiful one.

It's no more than that when it comes to killing people.

What brother and sister? What goddaughter?

But it's just a thousand ways to try to write off her relationship with Tailor Feng.

Imagine if she really accepted this so-called goddaughter status today, what would she say in the future if she really was with Tailor Feng?

Sibling s*x?

Evelin had never expected that Lone Ying's mind could be so malicious.

Seeing that the bracelet had been put in, Only then did Lone Ying let go of her hand and smiled in satisfaction.

"See, I told you this bracelet looks good on you, and it's true, Evelin, call me godmother!"

In fact, Lone Ying did so, and it was a decent thing to do.

It probably meant that if she was sensible, even if she wasn't really her goddaughter, at least she wasn't torn apart.

We both know and understand that you are not worthy of the Feng family, and I have no intention of making things difficult for you.

You just need to know that you are retreating and not to pester Tailor Feng in the future.

I'm also not out there to make you lose your dignity and end up making a scene in everyone's face.

Evelin certainly knew what Lone Ying was thinking.

Chapter 619

And that's why she won't get away with it!

I don't know where the courage came from, but she suddenly reached out and took off the bracelet she had already put on.

Then, in front of Lone Ying's startled gaze, he handed the bracelet back to her.

"I appreciate Mrs. Feng's good intentions, but unfortunately Evelin's status is humble and she is not worthy of being your goddaughter, so please take this bracelet back."

Lone Ying was startled for a moment.

It wasn't just her, the others were stunned as well.

Though they were all angry at Lone Warbler's dog's eyes.

But I have to admit, the others Feng family is the top giants, the place where countless women would squeeze their brains out to get in!

If Evelin accepted the bracelet just now, even if she couldn't be with Tailor Feng, she would at least get a reputation as Mrs. Feng's goddaughter.

Even if this goddaughter has no real benefit, she can still deter many people if she is taken out to bluff in the future.

Moreover, this identity was spoken by Lone Ying herself, and I believe that she won't be able to say anything in the future.

But she just said no!

This was the equivalent of, she had hit Lone Ying directly in the face!

In the future, if she and Tailor Feng could continue to be together properly all the time it was fine, if they couldn't, then Lone Ying would definitely make it impossible for her to make it in the entertainment industry!

Thinking of this, everyone then looked at Evelin with a hint of sympathy.

Evelin, however, was cold and fearless the entire time.

Lone Ying is furious!

She never would have thought that Evelin would actually do that!

She was so angry that her chest kept rising and falling, pointed at Evelin, and gritted her teeth, "Good, so good! Evelin, do you really think that just because you seduced my son, he'll really marry you?"

Evelin didn't say anything.

Lone Ying sneered, "I'm telling you, without my permission, even if he likes you more, you won't be able to enter the Feng family's gates!"

"Who says she's going to enter the feudal family everyone!"

Just at that moment, a voice suddenly came from outside the house.

Everyone was startled, and then, a happy colour crept across their faces.

Tailor Feng is back!

Sure enough, there was the doorway, where Tailor Feng walked in with a cold face, wearing a black suit against the light.

Evelin also went into a trance.

This man, isn't he out?

I haven't seen him at home since early in the morning, so why is he back now?

After only seeing Tailor Feng's face with heavy anger, he came over and stopped Evelin behind him.

Then, with a cold face, he looked at Lone Ying and said in a cold voice, "Mom, what are you doing over here? Didn't I say this was my place and you weren't allowed to come here without my permission?"

Lone Ying was startled and looked at her son, and all of a sudden he laughed at his words.

"Tailor Feng! I'm your mother! What part of you can't I come to? Are you trying to piss me off by saying that now?"

Tailor Feng's brow furrowed slightly and looked at the coldness of his eyes.

Coldness could only bury its head down, not daring to speak.

What's the joke, Boss and Boss's mother quarrel, they shrimps and crabs better not follow the blind participation.

Lest the scourge set the world on fire.

Tailor Feng apparently understood this as well, and waved his hand, telling them to retreat.

Then, before rubbing his brow a bit and sighing, "Mom, I didn't mean that."

"I don't care what you mean!"

If before, Lone Ying just wanted to give Evelin a run for her money.

Well after having just been beaten in the face by Evelin and now being brought down by his own son.

She's really on fire!

She pointed at Evelin and said angrily, "Explain to me now, what is the relationship between you and this woman?"

Tailor Feng looked back at Evelin, his eyes darkening.

Evelin tugged at his corner slightly, signaling him to stop talking.

Unexpectedly, Tailor Feng took her hand in a direct and smooth manner.

He turned back, looked at Lone Ying, and said seriously, "Mom, she's the woman I love, and I'm going to marry her."

Lone Ying was startled.

Standing there, looking at him incredulously.

"What did you, what did you just say?"

Tailor Feng repeated again, "I said, I love her, I want to marry her. This is not asking for your opinion, but informing you that I will marry her whether you agree with it or not, like it or not, and if you won't agree, then from now on we will move out and live together, and we also hope that you will then be able to keep your well water out of the river, and we will not disturb your peace and quiet."

Lone Ying is going crazy!

She never would have thought that Tailor Feng would say such treacherous things to her!

What do you mean by not disturbing her peace and quiet, and what do you mean by moving out?

Is he trying to cut ties with the family?

She was trembling with anger and pointed at Tailor Feng, saying, "You, you're crazy! Do you even know what you're talking about? For such a woman, you say such things to your mother!"

Evelin's heart was actually vibrating!

Thanks to her last night, she was still wondering if Tailor Feng would give up on her if she really came out to stop Lone Ying one day.

Now, however, Tailor Feng told her with his own actions.

He won't!

He would only always stand with her, steadfastly protecting her.

Evelin's eyes heated up.

For the first time, courage was born from the bottom of my heart to face what I had never dared to face before.

"Auntie." She suddenly spoke up and looked at the lone warbler, her tone gentle and firm.

"I apologize for my rudeness to you just now, but Tailor Feng and I are truly in love, and I'm not greedy for the power and wealth of the Feng family, if you don't believe me, in the future I can promise that even if I marry Tailor Feng, I will never make it public, and I will never use the power of the Feng family for my own half benefit, I can swear that if I break this oath, I will not die a good death!"

As soon as her words fell, Tailor Feng's eyebrows jumped and he turned around to cover her mouth.

Shouting sharply, "What are you babbling about?"

But Evelin laughed.

She looked at Tailor Feng's anxious and thin angry look, and for the first time she truly felt that he loved her so much.

A certain part of the heart was tenderly touched.

She raised her hand and gently took his hand down, then held it tightly in her hand.

Sensing the change in the woman's mood, Tailor Feng's eyes deepened, then without hesitation, he took her hand in return.

Grip hard.

This series of their little actions naturally did not escape the eyes of the Lone Warbler.

The face was even more ugly for a moment.

Evelin continued, "I know what you're worried about, and I've already made my promise to you, I just hope you'll give us a chance to prove to you that I'm really not that bad!"

Tailor Feng's heart was touched.

He really knew Evelin's personality too well!

Chapter 620

Her pride was so high.

So heavy that she never would bow to anyone.

Even in the most difficult situations, it's a stamina that would rather grit your own teeth than submit to anyone.

But now, for his sake, to be with him, she was willing to put her pride and self-respect aside so much to say such a thing to the lone warbler.

His heart was moved.

And though he was touched, the lone warbler was furious.

She pointed at the two men, trembling with anger, and said, "Are you, are you ganging up on me?"

Tailor Feng frowned.

"Mom, we didn't mean what you said, you were the one who kept trying to stop us."

I said, and whispered again.

"And what kind of society is this, you're dissatisfied with this and that, do you really expect to have an arranged marriage?"

"You!"

Seeing that the Lone Warbler was so angry that she was almost about to faint, Tailor Feng was quick-eyed, and even went forward to help her.

Only just touching her, however, she pushed it away.

"You get away from me!" The company has been in the process of developing the new product for the past two years, and is now in the process of developing the new product for the next two years. We'll see!"

Afterwards, he turned around and left in a rage.

After all, Tailor Feng was still afraid that she was so angry and would have trouble going out alone.

Lowly to Evelin, he said, "I'm going out to see."

Evelin nodded his head, and only then did he immediately chase after him.

Outside the villa, Lone Ying was trying to get into the car once she came out.

Unexpectedly, the door was stopped by Tailor Feng one step ahead.

Immediately afterwards, Leng Mei's group watched in amazement as their second youngest, who was usually a hangdog but had always been quite dignified, pampered himself in front of Lone Ying.

"Tailor Feng, get out of my way!"

"I won't let you!" He hugged Lone Ying's arm and shook it, "Mom, don't be angry, Yao Yao and I really love each other, she's the only woman I love the most in my life, if I can't marry her, I might have to be a bachelor for the rest of my life, you don't want your son to become a monk, do you?"

Lone Ying was directly angered by him and laughed.

"You? As a monk? Heh. I'm afraid the sun will rise in the west and you won't be able to see it either. When you were with Song and Lin, didn't you say they were your favorite women? How come I don't see you becoming a monk now that you're not together?"

Tailor Feng: "....."

Not far away, a few people in Lengmu couldn't help but laugh.

Tailor Feng glared at them viciously, and they were busy stopping laughing.

But the mouths that couldn't help but turn up wildly still betrayed their inner happiness.

Tailor Feng also knew that the ridiculous things he had done in the past had left a shadow in his mother's heart.

But before it was really ignorant, just play around, and he did not take the initiative ah, are those women themselves to jump on the top.

He didn't have a girlfriend at the time. Who could resist a normal, young man?

Here, he sighed with some frustration.

"Mom, I'm serious this time! Just now, in front of Yoyo, you said too serious things, not only hurt her heart, but also her son's of the heart, and now I'm officially pleading with you one more time, so don't be angry and give us a chance, okay?"

Lone Ying was still heartbroken for her son in the end.

She turned to look at him and smirked, "Fine, I'll give you one chance, then how about you get your license tomorrow and you clean out your house?"

Tailor Feng lagged.

Lone Ying continued, "I pour, if you are no longer the second youngest in the Feng family, and you no longer work at Feng, and you can no longer even use any name of Feng in the future, will she continue to want to marry you."

Tailor Feng thought that his mother usually looked quite smart.

Why are you so stubborn now, all of a sudden?

However, Lone Ying's words had given him a hint of inspiration.

He smiled right away as his brain started to move, "Are you serious?"

Lone Ying frowned, "What's true or false?"

Tailor Feng said, "It's just that...you said you'd let us get married as long as I'm willing to cleanse myself?"

Lone Ying simply didn't believe that if Tailor Feng was no longer the second young master of the Feng family and no longer had the Feng family as a backing, Evelin Kang would still be willing to marry him.

So she just smirked and said, "Of course, then you'll understand how realistic these women are in this world and how good your mother is for you."

Tailor Feng didn't even have time to listen to the rest of her words and said directly, "Okay, then it's a deal, let's make a deal, as long as she's willing to marry me, you're not even allowed to interfere in our affairs from now on!"

Lone Ying was stunned, and before she could react, she was pushed by Tailor Feng towards the car.

"Okay, okay, then you can go home now, I'll let Lengmian drive you, right, when Lengmian drops you off, remember to ask him to bring the account book for me!"

Lone Ying was startled and subconsciously asked, "What do you need an account book for?"

Tailor Feng held the car door and smiled, "Didn't you say that? For me to propose to her? What's the point of marrying without an account?"

Lone Ying was suddenly stunned and shrieked, "When did I tell you to go and propose to her?"

Tailor Feng tugged at the corners of his lips with a smile.

"Mom, although all the men in our family have iron bones, but all these years, the people outside have always thought that you are a heroine, not losing to the men, to this point, you are not going to say what you want to say but not admit it, right?"

Lone Ying was stumped again, and only then did she realize that she had indeed just meant that.

She thought about it, and once again decided that a woman like Evelin, a woman in the entertainment industry who has become accustomed to welcoming the high and stepping on the low, would never agree to marry Tailor Feng, who has nothing to lose.

So, she just gave him a cold look, "Fine, give it to you, but don't be sorry! When the time comes, even if you come back to beg me, I won't help you!"

Tailor Feng didn't care in the slightest with a big wave of his hand, "Okay, deal!"

Only then did the lone Ying leave.

It was only after he had been watching the car leave that Tailor Feng narrowed his eyes and smiled, turning to return to the house.

In the living room, Evelin was still sitting there.

The rebuttal to the lone warbler just now was only very painful.

But now until she's gone, it's only in my heart that I feel a bit of regret and shouldn't have come.

She's so impulsive!

Although I really didn't like the snobbishness of Lone Ying in my heart, I should have endured a bit more even if it was because of Tailor Feng's love for her.

Now it made them mother and son, and it really made her feel incredibly guilty for falling out over herself.
