

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 62

“and also...”

As Shiyue said, his voice suddenly lowered, “After we rescued Miss Gu, Miss Yun might know that she couldn’t keep things from her, so she had her wrist cut at home.”

hospital.

When Anna Yun woke up, it was noon.

She opened her eyes and saw Liam Lu sitting in front of a window not far away, flipping through a financial magazine. The expression was very pale, but his body was filled with inexplicable coldness.

“Woke up.”

Seeing that she was awake, he threw away the magazine and got up and walked slowly to Anna Yun.

Before speaking, I saw Anna Yun suddenly raising his hand and hitting hard towards the wrist cut, red eyes began to “click, click” tears.

“Liam, I’m sorry, it’s not worth your forgiveness for what I did wrong, so why let them save me?”

“It’s me damn it, I made a mistake because I loved you too much...”

Liam Lu stood by the bed with one hand in his pocket, watching her crying and beating from a high position, without any intention to stop her.

Over time, Anna Yun looked embarrassed, obviously a little unable to hold on, and her beating movements became smaller and smaller.

Only then did Liam Lu speak.

“Xiao Shu, this kind of self-inflicted retreat does not always get me a response. Moreover, it is very cheap.”

The movement of Anna Yun’s hand stopped suddenly.

She hung her head and twisted the quilt in front of her with one hand, and her face began to pale a little bit.

She knew better than anyone that Zoey Gu was definitely not something that could be taken away by playing the emotional card by self-harm.

“I did it.” For a long time, she finally gritted her teeth and opened her mouth.

“I knew she would seek revenge from Lydia Lin, and deliberately found someone to pretend to be Lydia Lin. It was also the police I reported to, and it was I Anna Yun who got her out a step earlier and wanted to harm her.”

As Anna Yun said, he suddenly stepped forward and grabbed Liam Lu’s hand and looked at him with red eyes.

“But other than that, I haven’t done anything.”

“Liam, I am jealous and crazy because I love you too much. I have been with you for five years and gave you all my youth and everything. You are everything to me. I just can’t tolerate you. There are other women beside him...”

Liam Lu’s sneer resounded above his head.

“Jealous?”

He slightly attached himself, raised his hand to pinch her chin, and saw the chill in her eyes, “Anna Yun, you touched my bottom line.”

Anna Yun softened and collapsed on the bed.

He actually admitted personally that Zoey Gu was his bottom line.

But, why? She is the one who has been with him for many years, and she is also the one who matches him.

She was not reconciled.

“Liam, we...”

Anna Yun raised his head abruptly, just opening his mouth to say something, but suddenly met the interrogation in Liam Lu’s eyes.

“Apart from these, have you done anything to Zoey Gu that I don’t know?”

In an instant, the blood on Anna Yun’s face was lost, and the blood in his body seemed to freeze.

She couldn’t judge whether Liam Lu’s words were questioning or temptation?

But once she tells it all out, everything she has worked so hard for many years is over!

For a long time, she stretched her head up to look at Liam Lu, and said courageously.

“Liam, I swear by my five years of devotion and our five years of feelings. Apart from these, I have done nothing to Miss Gu.”
