

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 63

After saying this, Anna Yun tightened his body and stared at Liam Lu motionlessly, for fear of missing the slightest reaction on his face.

Liam Lu was condescending, looking at her coldly.

“You really should swear by our five years.”

Anna Yun’s body trembled, his long eyelashes trembled fiercely, and a wounded look slowly appeared on his face.

“Liam, I have worked for you for five years, how can you not believe me?”

Liam Lu let out a chuckle, and a mocking arc stretched out of the corner of his mouth.

“It is precisely because of these five years that you have this unique opportunity. You know, my life is cold and I don’t have any sincerity. Anyone who steps on my bottom line and deceives me will end badly. Isn’t it?”

When the voice fell, Shiyue opened the door and walked in.

“Liam.”

Shiyue raised his hand and shook the phone lightly towards Liam Lu, and said with a complex expression.

“The old lady called just now and she was very angry when she learned that Miss Yun had cut her wrist. She asked me to bring you a message so that you must take good care of Miss Yun and hold the engagement ceremony as scheduled.”

Hearing this, Anna Yun was overjoyed, and a ray of light flashed in his eyes.

Liam Lu didn’t miss her expression and immediately curled his lips coldly.

“Tell the old lady that the engagement ceremony will be postponed for three months.”

Anna Yun was taken aback for a moment, suddenly raised his head to look at him, and raised the volume incredible.

“Liam, what do you mean?!”

Liam Lu raised his eyebrows immediately, and a cynical smile appeared on his face covered with frost.

“Of course I will send you back to Lu’s house. My fiancée was injured after cutting her wrist and needs to be recuperated. I don’t know how to take care of it. The old lady likes you so much. It is more appropriate to ask her to take care of you.”

Anna Yun widened his eyes suddenly, fell soft on the bed, and instantly entered the ice cellar.

She knew that Zoey Gu was special to Liam Lu, but she didn’t expect him to be like this.

If one day, he knows more truth, then...

At noon.

Zoey Gu stood under the tree opposite Gu’s house and looked at the large trucks parked at the door not far away.

There, a group of workers are under the command, and constantly move large and small furniture from the house and load it into the car.

A man in a suit and leather shoes came over and handed her the pen and the contract.

“Miss Gu, this is the final contract. You can confirm that there is no problem. After signing, this house will have nothing to do with you in the future.”

Zoey Gu took the contract and looked up reluctantly.

Although it was a place where she lived for many years, her father and younger brother were gone. She had nightmares by herself and didn’t have the courage to live in a big, cold house.

After signing, Zoey Gu handed the things to the other party, took the suitcase on the side and walked away.

The phone vibrated suddenly in her pocket.

Seeing the strange number, she picked it up hesitantly, “Hello, hello...”

“Is it a resignation?”

A kind voice of a middle-aged man resounded over there, “I’m your Uncle Lin, remember? Gu’s shareholder, while your father was still there, we attended many receptions together.”

Zoey Gu remembered this person and greeted each other politely.

“Uncle Lin, hello. May I ask if you suddenly came to me, is there something wrong?”

There seemed to be silent for a while before speaking slowly.

“In this way, I will send you an address, and you will follow the above and we are all waiting for you.”

they.

Who are they?
