

Chapter 641: God Lord Inheritance

Compared with the ignorant silver magician and the growing golden magician, the sacred magician in the distant airspace undoubtedly has a broader vision.

Whether it was the shock that affected the virtual realm just now, or the huge golden bubble in front of him, it was by no means the effect that a legendary magician could cause. In other words, they are witnessing a great miracle that changes the pattern of the virtual world!

At this time, new bubbles began to appear one after another, but all sanctuary magicians would only pay attention to the golden bubbles. Ash and the others were no exception. When they tried to fly to the golden bubble, they were still so far apart, but they reached the inside of the bubble in an instant.

However, unlike the huge appearance of the bubble, Yaxiu and the others came to a closed hall of normal size. The interior of the hall was very rough, the walls were like cement boards, and even the caves were more refined than here. .

People with rich experience in exploring the bubble immediately found that something went wrong – all the magic spirits could not be used, the magic power was also banned, and the sanctuary could not be raised!

Trying to escape from the virtual world is equally ineffective!

Yaxiu and Weisser are fine, especially Yaxiu, who are getting used to being sealed. It was the first time for Sonia and Deya to encounter such a situation. The panic and powerlessness of losing their strength squeezed their hearts tightly, making them almost breathless, and subconsciously grabbed Yaxiu's hand from left to right.

“Don't be nervous, we're together.”

Yaxiu's calm voice soothed the irritability in their hearts, “And, if this is really a death trap, it is estimated that hundreds of thousands of Sanctuary Warlocks will die with us, which is a wonderful death.”

“At least, we’ll die together.”

Sonia took a deep breath: “I don’t want to die with you!”

Diya was so anxious that her hair was about to become dirty: “Can’t you just die?”

Weisser glanced at them, stepped back and kept a social distance with the three of them, and suddenly said, “Look at the soul.”

Ash and the others observed their souls and found that the soul was actually generating a new magic spirit. The magic spirit has only one wing, and its appearance is very similar to that of the magician, but it is as black as ink, like a lump of mud that has not yet formed.

The information about this magic spirit quickly flowed into the minds of Yaxiu and the others: ‘First Soul’ magic spirit!

This is the magic spirit of the soul faction!

Yaxiu and the others were shocked and inexplicable – although the soul faction is not the three mysterious magic factions of prophecy, truth, and destiny, but there are very few magicians who can practice the soul faction, because it is not a magic method that humans can learn!

As I said before, each race has its own unique magic advantage, the gluttony faction and the truth faction of the ogre, the space faction of the orc, the spiritual faction of the veela, and the goblins are extremely difficult to become magicians, but become The talent after the magician will suddenly skyrocket... The soul faction is the exclusive magic talent of the elves!

And it doesn’t mean that all elves can learn the soul faction, but only the elves have a certain chance to awaken the soul faction!

Yaxiu has traversed three kingdoms, the only magician who cultivates the soul faction, and there is only Jinna Sennheiser, a sanctuary magician in the Gospel Kingdom!

Maybe some people think that the spiritual faction is not the same as the soul faction? But the mind faction studies thoughts, wills, and feelings, while the soul faction is the soul itself. For example, the mind faction studies actual combat techniques, while the soul faction studies the body structure.

Now their souls suddenly have a primordial soul magic spirit, what does that mean? Has their soul faction suddenly reached the silver realm?

However, the primordial spirits suddenly released a black mist, dyeing their souls black! At the same time, a message flowed into their minds – “Welcome to the Dreamland, I am the thirteenth owner here, the Prophet of Ghosts. Although the Dreamland has been broken, it can still be used as a place of inheritance.” “When you enter the kingdom of heaven in your dreams, you are deemed to have participated in the ghost trial. All magic powers are forbidden in the kingdom, except for the primordial soul magic spirit that I generated with your soul.” “Those who pass all the trials can inherit all my secrets. Hidden.” “Good luck to you all.” As soon as Ash and the others finished digesting the information, smoke boiled in the hall, and more than a dozen ferocious-looking soul hounds walked out. Obviously, the first level of the ghost trial is to kill all these hounds!

Sonia felt something in her heart. It was obviously the first time she came into contact with the soul faction, but she quickly understood the usage of the first soul magic spirit, and aimed at the hound far away,

Cut out a blue soul blade!

Diya’s hair was messy, and it was obvious that the witch sisters went into battle together. They also understood the use of the first soul magic spirit, and suddenly put on a lavender gauze, speeding up in vain, and rushed directly into the hounds to fight!

Weisser didn’t rush over. A green light flew from her fingertips, hitting the hound that rushed in front of her, and then the hound turned around and attacked other hounds the next second!

The same magic spirit, three people use three effects! The effect of the sword princess is the fluctuation of sword energy, the effect of the witch is to accelerate the body, and the effect of Weisse is to dominate the creature!

This is the mystery of the first soul magic spirit – its effect is completely determined by the artist's intention, what effect the magician wants to use, what effect the first soul magic spirit will have, it can be called omnipotent!

However, this is not without cost. When they killed half of the hounds, they were called back by Ash to stop. I saw that the body of the sword princess and witch had become transparent, and Wesser was the most serious, so transparent that the sight could pass through!

The initial soul magic does not consume mana, it consumes the soul of the magician!

If the magician is immersed in the powerful omnipotence of the primordial soul magic spirit, it is easy to squander his own soul. When the hound bites him casually, he will die completely, and not even a trace of his soul can escape back into his body!

Sonia and the others also noticed the seriousness of this incident, and their expressions were grim: "But we can't use other spells now, we can only try to improve the accuracy of killing—"

"Actually, don't be nervous. You walked too fast just now, and I forgot to tell you..."

There are three collections in Yaxiu's hand, namely "Silver Collection · Sword Wing Badge" that increases attack speed and continuous attack power, "Gold Collection · Stun Hammer" that can temporarily stun the enemy with each effective attack, and vision. "Color Collection: Sight of the Lord of Storms" that slows down all enemies within.

"The collection seems to work here, too."

On the ruby mountain, all the magicians are looking at the top of the mountain in the distance.

Just like the silver magician knows that the golden fish is a shortcut to smuggle the time continent, the golden magician knows that the colorful tail can allow them to smuggle into the remote airspace, and the sanctuary magician can see the ruby mountain in the distant place when he looks up, and the legendary magician naturally Also know the shortcut to the next level – the angel at the top of Ruby Mountain!

Legend has it that there is an angel at the top of Ruby Mountain. As long as he finds it, he will lead the magician to the fifth layer of the virtual realm, fade away the mortal world, and become an immortal demigod!

However, what everyone knows, basically everyone can't do. A legend is a legend after all, and no one has ever reached the top of the mountain.

Because the ruby mountain is infinite, no matter how the legendary magician goes up, he can't reach the top of the mountain, and even the further he goes, the farther the top of the mountain is from him.

There was once a legendary magician who recovered his soul energy through various miracles and continued to climb the Ruby Mountain for a whole year, but he could not reach the top of the mountain.

As soon as the miracle time came, he died of exhaustion on the mountain.

But about whether there are angels on the top of the mountain, UU reading www.uukanshu.com legendary magicians are almost unanimous: angels exist. More than one magician has seen it, and there is indeed a figure at the top of Ruby Mountain.

And now, almost all legendary magicians who log in to the virtual realm can see the six-winged phantom at the top of Ruby Mountain.

Not an angel by any means, a demigod angel only has five wings at most.

As for the six wings, there is one and only one kind of existence—one

“It turns out that the blank concept has been destroyed, so you dig out our secret inheritance, so as to gather the collective will of the magicians. Every magician who has won the inheritance can imprint his own desire on the blank concept. , finally synthesizing all desires to form a new law...”

The melodious but clear voice seemed to sound from every corner of Ruby Mountain. The legendary magicians listened carefully, and they didn't dare to breathe. They didn't know who this six-wing phantom was talking to.

But the six-wing phantom quickly ended the conversation, it lowered its head slightly, everyone felt that it was watching themselves, and the terrifying pressure almost bent the spines of the legends.

“I am the last will of the phantom master of Thousand Wishes. Today, I temporarily use the Ruby Mountain as the inheritance place. If you want to obtain the inheritance, you can climb the top of the mountain and seize the ‘wish’.”

“But the body died in a hurry that year, and it was too late to lay down a complete inheritance, so there was no treasure house of magic, no knowledge of magic, and no gods in the inheritance.”

“The only thing you can inherit, there is and only—”

“My heaven.”

Chapter 642: The Ghost Handbook

Although the magic power of magic was banned, the four of them cooperated with each other, and with the help of the collection, they naturally emptied the group of soul hounds with ease.

After the soul hound died, it turned into a light blue halo. After all the soul hounds died, these light clusters gathered into three light clusters of different sizes. No need for a written explanation, the magicians know what they represent at a glance—

The fluffy light group on the left is the miracle “recovering the soul”, which is to replenish the soul energy consumed by the magicians. It has the smallest volume, which means that the next level is easy;

The light group in the middle is the “first soul” of the two-winged magic spirit, which means that if the magician chooses this light group, his first soul’ magic spirit will directly advance to the second wing. Its size is medium, which means the difficulty of the next level ordinary;

The light group on the right is dazzling, representing the realm experience of a certain amount of soul factions. . It has the largest volume and represents the difficulty of the next level!

Yaxiu and the others immediately realized that this inherited style is naked survival of the fittest. Among the three options, there is no doubt that the soul experience value is the highest, but the risk is also the greatest; if you want to choose the option with the lowest risk, you can only restore the soul, which is equivalent to no gain.

And you don't need to ask to know that the next level is more difficult than the previous level anyway. It only restores the soul without any increase in combat power. It is just a dead end for drinking poison to quench thirst.

However, Ash and the others were in a good state at this time, so he looked at the middle and the right side, pondered for a while, and said, "Visser, you go get the reward on the right."

Weisser was a little surprised: "Me?"

"After all, you are a genius who is proficient in more than 20 spells, and you are more likely to enter the soul faction." Yaxiu glanced at Jianji and the witch for advice, the latter had no objection: "Resources should be allocated to the most suitable people. "

Weisser didn't say anything anymore. She touched the light group on the right, and at the moment she touched it, the other two light groups disappeared directly, and then eight huge and hideous harpies appeared around the hall, and they attacked together. , with the howling of the wind, the sharp eagle claws are like sharp blades!

Yaxiu and the others hurriedly challenged. At this time, Weisser dominated a harpy queen, and suddenly said: "That's the case, no wonder Ghost Inheritance allows us to form a team."

"what?"

"Sixteen soul hounds, eight harpies, this is definitely not the normal configuration for the inheritance test. The number of enemies may increase with the number of us, but there is only one reward after customs clearance. If the divisions want to team up to pass the level, the consumption will not be reduced much.

But only one person gets the reward.”

Yaxiu and the others immediately understood that Ghost Inheritance did not mind whether they were a team of four or a hundred magicians. Anyway, the difficulty of the test was proportional to the number of people, and no matter how many people passed the level, only one person would always get it. award.

Diya was a little puzzled: “But the ghost prophet’s design should encourage a single person to test, so why not force us to separate? He should be able to do it, right?”

Since even the magic power can be banned here, it is definitely not a problem to separate them.

“I’m afraid I can’t know the specific reason, but I can guess.” Weisser said: “I can tell from his title Ghost Prophet,

He is a dual practitioner of prophecy and soul. Compared with head-on combat, he is probably better at planning and cooperating. Perhaps he thinks that under unfavorable conditions, he can still organize magicians to break through the barriers together, which is also the successor he needs.”

During the conversation, they had already dealt with the harpies, but the price was that their silhouettes became much more transparent—they did not replenish their soul energy, and the primordial spirits kept depleting, even if they had just entered the Void Realm for less than an hour, but their Soul energy has been consumed by half.

This time, three more light groups appeared, namely “Restore Soul”, “Ghost Manual” and “Leave”!

That’s right, “Leaving” is also a reward! Yaxiu and the others cannot return to reality in the ghost inheritance!

“This ghost prophet is probably a sorcerer.” Sonia suddenly said.

Yaxiu and Weise nodded silently, Diya was a little strange: “Why? He left the inheritance, shouldn’t he be a good man artist?”

“If it is the inheritance left by the good magician, it should not endanger the life of the magician. Even if the magician does not pass the test, at most there is a loss.” Sonia explained: “But this ghost inheritance, if it is not rewarded. If you choose “Leave”, I’m afraid you won’t be able to return to reality if you die in the test, and your soul will be eaten up by monsters! Indifference to life is a common feature of sorcerers.”

“The cowardly person stopped because of this, and the reckless person lost his life because of this. Only a magician with excellent wisdom, courage, and ability in all aspects is qualified to go all the way to inherit his legacy!”

Yaxiu said: “In such a comparison, although the dramatic poet is a bit funny, the inheritance he left will only help the younger generation.”

Compared with the ghost prophet, the inheritance of dramatic poets is much more humanized. No matter which drama poet inherits, the artisan can choose whether he wants it or not, which one he wants, and how he wants it. , but not afraid of him.

But Ghost Prophet banned their magic powers as soon as they came, and used death threats to screen qualified talents, just like the mastermind behind the planning of the battle royale. Just from the design of inheritance, we can see the difference in human nature between these two high-level magicians.

Di Ya suddenly became nervous: “Then let’s leave quickly?”

Among the four of them, the witch sister is probably the most cowardly one – not only is she greedy for life and fear of death for Yaxiu, but more importantly, she can be sure that as long as she follows the steps, it is only a matter of time before she becomes a legend. More importantly, it doesn’t matter if she has been a sanctuary all her life, after all, she is still the queen of the gospel kingdom!

“No.” Ash pointed to the “Ghost Manual”: “You should all want to choose that, right?”

Sonia and Weisser nodded immediately—if they guessed correctly, this is probably the demigod angel’s manual for magicians!

Even if you can't learn anything, it's worth it just to see what gossip and secrets the demigod master has!

However, everyone is actually a little bit puzzled. After all, can the manual of the magician that exists like a demigod angel really be so easy to get? Shouldn't it be pirated?

When Yaxiu chose this reward, they immediately entered the third test, and there were actually eight fish-killing dragons around.

Yaxiu was excited, and greeted the fish and dragons with a smile on his face.

After solving this group of fish and dragons, they did not look at the new rewards, but watched the "Ghost Manual" together. As expected, it wasn't a real wizard's manual, but it wasn't a pirated copy either, it was just... without the bottom.

"Ghost Handbook" "I reached the top of Ruby Mountain through the path of origin, and met the legendary angel. Like the legend, the angel hoped that I would give the first half of my life to Xiu – that is, let me write The first half of my manual for the artist." "Maybe Xiu is expecting me to write the first half of my life, but my writing is really boring, so I can only briefly summarize." "This is actually my second life. In my previous life, I was only promoted to the Sanctuary at the age of 87, but I was lucky enough to win the core inheritance of Liuli Shizhu. Unfortunately, I was besieged, and I could only activate the one-time Divine Spirit II on the spot to start my second life." "I know the future well. , Before the disaster struck the family, I swept away all the property in time, and then successively seized the Soul Walker's Soul Heritage and the Prophecy of the Overlooker's inheritance, quickly gathered cultivation resources based on past life knowledge, and killed those geniuses who might hinder me in advance. It is a pity that the inheritance of Liuli Shizhu can only be inherited once in all time lines, and I am ultimately missed with the greatest time inheritance." "In the exploration of the virtual world, although many people say that the 'path of origin' has become extinct, in the future Magicians can only climb the virtual realm by raising the realm of the faction, and the origin road paved by golden fish, colorful tails and eclipsed dreams is no longer in the past." "But I know that there is actually the last group of silver-scale murlocs in the sea of knowledge. After killing them and condensing the fish scales into second silver wings, I successfully found the golden fish and reached the Time Continent through the road of origin." "The colorful tail of the Time Continent only has three colors left, UU reading www.uukanshu.com the rest All four colors have been lost, either in the hands of demigods, or in the hands of gods. In theory, I can no longer gather the seven-color tails and walk the path of origin like ancient magicians." "But I know that four colors will not Disappeared, just changed to another form of existence to hide, and I know where to hide. After successfully collecting the seven colors, I grabbed the tail of the seven colors and went to the distant airspace." "The dream of eclipse is the most difficult, the dream of eclipse in ancient times. , you only need to get the "Dream" spell from 'Dreamland', and then feed the materials Wind Wound, Flower Word, Snow's Scattered Flower, Moon Crystal, and you can turn the "Dream" spell into the "Dream of Colorless" spell. Spirit, thus embarking on the road of origin and reaching the Ruby Mountain!" "But now the dreamland has become the forbidden place of the nightmare angels, and the Sanctuary magician can't enter at all. More importantly, the wind injury and the language of flowers are no longer there. After birth, the magician can only find the scattered flowers of the snow and the crystals of the moon at most, and it is impossible to feed the eclipsed dream magic." "However, there must be wind wounds and flowers in the long-established Four Pillars Religion, so I joined the Four Pillars Religion, tried to get these two materials, successfully fed the eclipse dream magic spirit, embarked on the path of origin, and came to the top of Ruby Mountain." "This is probably the only chance I have to stand on the top of the mountain. You can only climb up from below." "Seeing my arrival, the angel was a little surprised. He said that no one has taken the path of origin recently. In terms of time scale, He said it recently, probably nearly a hundred years." "So I wrote The next half of the manual, as a gift to him." "To, the angel of the Ruby Mountain." "One—the psychic master, Dolok Mirahorn."

Chapter 643: eclipse dream

Of course, the real content of the Ghost Handbook is more than that.

It also detailed how the ghost prophet swept away the family property, how to seize the soul walker', the inheritance of the overlook master, and * those favored sons. However, those are historical information that is so far away that it has no meaning, and it is not worth reading intensively.

But just the ghost prophet's description of the virtual realm is enough to turn up a storm in the hearts of Yaxiu and others!

It turns out that the golden fish, the colorful tail and the eclipse dream have a unified name: the road of origin!

There used to be a tribe of silver-scale murlocs in the sea of knowledge, and the fish scales extracted from them can condense the second silver wings! This is the correct way to find golden fish. Like Yaxiu and Sonia flying hand in hand, it is simply brute force!

The truth of the colorful tail is also as judged by Yaxiu. In the past, there were seven color mechanisms in the mainland. As long as the artist wandered around and collected all seven colors, he could catch the colorful tail.

However, the mechanism of the eclipse dream made Yaxiu and others sink in their hearts.

“The wound of the wind, the language of flowers, the scattered flowers of the snow, the crystals of the moon...” Weisser chewed on these terms: “Could it be the forbidden instrument of harmony of flowers, flowers, snow and moon? In the ancient times when the forbidden instrument of synchronization was not formed, these The material can be seen everywhere in the distant airspace?”

“Let’s not mention those few materials,” Yaxiu said with a wry smile: “Ghost Prophet mentioned it just now, this is the dreamland—and it’s still a broken dreamland!”

Sonia: “Strange, the dreamland of the ghost prophet was still complete at that time, why?”

“Ghost Prophet is only the thirteenth holder. Between the time he wrote this manual and the time he took over Dreamland, perhaps Dreamland has changed hands several times and was beaten to pieces.” Weiser analyzed: “If the ‘dream magic spirit’ can only be born in the country of dreams, then the eclipse dream may be cut off – unless we can find other dream magic spirits.”

“Strange, I’ve never heard of the ‘Dream’ magic spirit.” Dia said, “But if it’s a magic spirit, we should be able to summon it too.”

“Not necessarily.” Wesser said, “Actually, we probably don’t even have half of the magic spirits that our magicians can summon.”

“The magic spirit can be divided into two types: one is that our magician has fully understood, and the other is that we have not understood it yet, but we have observed it. The former we can summon, the latter we can only learn from Obtained in the virtual realm.”

“Factions such as dreams and souls, let alone understanding, are rarely involved, and can only be provided by the virtual world. The generation of magic spirits in the virtual world needs to depend on the environment, like time magic spirits are flowing in the river of gold, space magic spirits Most of it is in the distant airspace... If the dreamland is the only birthplace of the dream magic spirit, then unless the virtual world generates a second birthplace again, we will not be able to obtain the dream magic spirit.”

“That is to say,” Yaxiu sighed: “If we want to be promoted to legend, we can only rely on you to study hard and improve every day.”

Di Ya clenched her fists tightly, with a responsible expression: “Okay!”

But Sonia pays more attention to another place: “This world actually has a ‘Second Zhoumu’ god, which can make people go back to the past and start over again? This is too shameful, isn’t it possible to repeat indefinitely until you find yourself Like the future?”

“The probability is not infinite.” Weisser said: “The names of magic spirits and gods are very strict. Since it is called the second round, then it can only make people perform the second round. If the ghost prophet wants to To be reborn once for three weeks, you must use the third week’s ‘God’, and the second week’s will be useless to him.”

“And it’s not just the Ghost Prophet who has a second chance, but everyone else as well.”

Sonia: “But the others have no memory of the future.”

Even if they have no future memory, the same person, at the same time, and the same event may make very different decisions. ”

Weisser smiled and said: “Maybe, we are already in someone’s second week, but no one knows it.”

Yaxiu looked grim: “Will someone prepare to kill us in advance...”

Sonia patted his head: “You, a person who is on the run every day, don’t think about such trivial matters.”

Galeth was still lingering with the night when Sonia exited the virtual realm.

After passing five levels in a row, their soul energy has weakened to the point where they can no longer continue, so they chose to “leave” to launch the ghost inheritance. It is estimated that this inheritance will last for several months before the winner is determined, so there is no need to rush it for a while.

It is worth mentioning that every time they pass a level, they find that their magic power is increasing, which is like passing through a fantasy bubble. In addition to the danger of life and the ban of magic spells, the benefits of ghost inheritance are far beyond the fantasy bubble.

Even Sonia is faintly aware that the inheritance of ghosts will bring drastic changes to the societies of various countries. All sanctuary magicians will participate in this feast, and their death and harvest will become the wind that blows the times.

Fortunately, this inheritance appeared in the distant airspace, otherwise they would not be able to catch up with this opportunity. It’s really pitiful for other level magicians to miss such an opportunity...

Sonia walked towards the Harvest Orchard while thinking wildly, preparing to sell magic spirits.

However, she soon discovered that it was not yet bright tomorrow, but many students were rushing to the Harvest Orchard, for fear that they would be half a step behind. What’s going on, is the Harvest Orchard offering 20% off the price of magic spells today?

Sonia walked to the gate of the orchard and found that it was crowded with students, the noise was like a vegetable market, and Ingurit was actually inside, she squeezed in and patted the latter’s shoulder, and asked curiously, “You guys What is this doing?”

“Lend the water magic spirit.” Ingurit replied with a sword bag on her back.

“Rental?”

“Yeah, I just want to rub the whirlpool. After all, I haven’t studied the water art faction, and it’s basically impossible to pass the test of the lake angel.”

“Huguang Angel?”

Ingurit sorted out the information and said seriously: “The sea of knowledge has the inheritance test of the lake angel, but only water magicians are qualified to participate, and as long as there is a water magic spirit, it can trigger a whirlpool, directly Arrive at the place of heritage testing.”

Sonia was in a trance for a while, she left the harvest orchard, and watched more and more students rushing over, she suddenly realized a problem – the number of silver magicians is undoubtedly the largest, and the scope of existence is the widest, so even if the inheritance of ghost prophets is of high quality Yu Huguang Angel, but the influence is definitely not as big as Huguang Angel.

The inheritance design of Huguang Angel is obviously the practice of good magicians, and it is estimated that water magicians can benefit a lot from this inheritance. That is to say, the strength of the water magician will generally increase in the future, which will drive the reputation and influence of the water magician, and the new apprentices will also be more inclined to the water magic faction.

In Galese, the university known for its dominant faction in water art is... Jianhua University!

Sonia can almost imagine it – because of the influence of Huguang Angel’s inheritance, the quality of students at Jianhua University will skyrocket in the next few years. Jianhua University, at the end of the first echelon of UU Reading www.uukanshu.com, takes this opportunity to fear Not to be able to rush to the front of the first echelon, or even to wrestle with the truth university!

Jianhua University won!

Sonia sighed in her heart and found Professor Trozan in the school office. Professor Trozan asked in the first sentence: “Did you know that the inheritance of the gods appeared in Ruby Mountain?”

Then the second sentence: “Did you know that the magician who has won the inheritance of each level may imprint his own ideas on the blank concept and form a new law?”

Sonia: “Blank Concept?”

After roughly understanding the meaning of the blank concept, Sonia pondered for a moment and asked, “Any ideas? What about those miraculous-level ideas?”

“for example?”

“Like... come back to life?”

Trozan: “Isn’t the necromancer just bringing the dead back to life?”

Sonia was taken aback: “You mean, the necromantic faction is a concept created?”

Who knows? Trozan shrugged: “But if the blank concept really forms a new concept because of your thoughts, it will probably be a law that ordinary magicians can use... Do you have any ideas?”

Sonia almost said it, but recalling Yaxiu’s instructions, she still held back: “No, just chat casually.”

But she had already made up her mind, she must win the inheritance, and then—

Create a concept that can travel across the country!

Chapter 644: Inheritance heated discussion

In Wanhujing Heipao Town, in the largest fox lantern ice room in the center of the town, the voice of Swallow and Ying was talking loudly.

“Yesterday, three ordinary inheritances were taken away from Eternal City, and I don’t know which lucky one is.”

“It’s just an ordinary inheritance, and there are also the inheritance of gold and the inheritance of the unparalleled!”

“Lujin inheritance and unparalleled inheritance are for those true geniuses. Maybe those two-winged magicians who have surpassed gold to reach the sanctuary are all stuck in the time continent, competing for the position of the king of time. It’s big enough to compete with those people... I can win an ordinary inheritance from tens of thousands of people, and master a resource point for a year, I’m satisfied. ”

At this time, the female supervisor who was leaning against the counter and matured like a peach suddenly rang the golden bell. When everyone’s attention was attracted, she Shi Shiran took out the ink pen and placed it on the whiteboard behind her. Write the following information:

“96: In Ghost Legacy, every time you pass 20 levels, a ‘Ghost Key’ will appear. The key can be used 3 times, and you can use it at any time to get out of the legacy.” After writing, the female supervisor shouted: “Table 13 is free. single!”

In an instant, the gorgeous girls in the ice room all looked at the six people at table 13: the most conspicuous is naturally the black crow in black disguise, then the tall beast girl with her face covered, and the other four are more normal one by one. A cold blonde girl with glasses, a quiet blue-haired girl, a red-haired girl who is eating fat, and a curly-haired black-skinned loli with shackles on both hands.

The crowd silently nodded their thanks to them in awe.

After all, there are only sanctuary magicians who can provide ghost inheritance now. Even if there are many black-robed magicians, sanctuary magicians are still in the minority. This can be seen from the sharing board – 96 articles In the shared information, there are less than 10 pieces of ghost inheritance.

However, everyone only paid attention to it a little, and then continued to discuss the inheritance of lake light and the eternal city. The red-haired girl motioned for another serving of Chi Yan Lala Fatty, and the black-skinned girl asked, “Since the order can be waived, can Alice come over for a meal?”

“Yes, yes, but what does Alice eat?”

“There should be a heap of cockroaches here, right? No matter how bad it is, there will always be mice?”

“If you continue, the supervisor may be willing to pay you to go to the restaurant next door.”

The people at this table are naturally the six people from Yaxiu.

After leaving the dead city, Ash pursued the legacy of the gray fox while avoiding the Four Pillars, and the two teammates they picked up in the dead city, the orc Chikara and the astral master Gwen, also joined the team as temporary teammates.

It stands to reason that Chikara is bound by a slave contract. After all, he is a sanctuary combat power, and it is also very good to throw it out of the palace in case of danger. But Gwen is not only average in combat power, but she was once the descendant of the mercury Trojan horse. Yaxiu and the others would be considered a virgin if they didn't kill her, and now they bring her time bomb with them, as if they disliked their own adventures that were not difficult enough. high like.

However, Gwen has also used the "Refuge Zero Hourglass", so the mercury in her body should have been removed, and she will no longer become a Trojan horse; and she once held a high position in the Four Pillars and is familiar with many valuable The information is just right for the adventurers like Ash who have broken logistics and need to loot.

More importantly, Gwen was unwilling to leave, and followed them from a distance.

If she didn't want to kill, but couldn't ignore it, Ash asked Igula to take care of her. Once she tried to tip off or had other abnormal behaviors, she would be executed immediately. Igula could only manage this new assistant with a dark face.

But I have to say that with the guidance of Gwen, the second or fifth child, it did allow them to avoid the attacks of the Four Pillars of God several times in advance, and they also copied several secret repositories of the Four Pillars of God by the way. The feeding of the magic spirit in a short time is There is no need to worry that the demand for gold coins for a three-winged magic spirit is much higher than that of a two-winged magic spirit. After Yaxiu and others upgraded the magic spirit to the three-winged level, each magic spirit would eat 3 gold coins every day.

Even in the wasteland with high prices, 3 gold coins are enough for ordinary people to eat for a month!

Fortunately, the four-wing technique Ling Yuanchan can be fed by the flowing gold river water, and there is no need to add extra meals, otherwise Yaxiu will go bankrupt.

They came to the Qinri Alliance to search for clues about the legacy, but the situation in the wasteland deteriorated sharply. Even if they were 'travelling merchants', they were always under surveillance and even deported, and they almost fought in the Bronze Law Sect.

Coupled with the drastic changes in the virtual world six days ago, Yaxiu and the others wanted to settle down temporarily to collect information, so they came to Heipao Town again. In the environment of religious jihad, only trading towns can allow them to be unbelievers.' .

After coming to Heipao Town, Yaxiu and the others found that the floating population here has doubled. They were able to have one room per person last time, but now they can only have three rooms for six people, but everyone will become beautiful girls at night, so it doesn't matter. .

The number of visitors in Heipao Town suddenly skyrocketed. Naturally, the biggest reason was that the Temple of War was destroyed by the Four Pillars of God, and Heipao Town was nominally the direct jurisdiction of the Temple of War.

When the war temple was defeated like a mountain, many surrounding sects immediately settled in Heipao Town, both to protect and compete for this trade center.

The secondary reason is because of the inheritance that appears in the virtual realm, so that the willingness of the magicians to communicate has skyrocketed.

Unlike Blood Moon and Gospel, Sen Luo Kingdom does not have any online communication channels, and usually only communicates within the sect. This is nothing in normal times. Anyway, they have nothing to say with pagans, and different sects major in magic arts, and there is not much willingness to communicate with each other.

But now it is different. The inheritance of lake light in the sea of knowledge and the eternal city in the time continent have directly become hot topics in the world. The magicians are eager to communicate with others and analyze the gains and losses. Fortunately, they can go further in the inheritance.

As a result, Senluo magicians all spontaneously gathered in the trade center to actively seek information exchanges.

The Fox Lantern Ice Room was originally a restaurant, but because Sen Luo Artisans often came here to discuss and communicate, the ice room supervisor had an idea and launched the system of “providing inheritance information for free”, and wrote all the information provided by everyone on her back. On the whiteboard, everyone can see it, and this place has become the information exchange center of Heipao Town.

Some people may be surprised that the secret information about the inheritance of the angels is not hidden by the magician, how can it be discussed?

However, there are also many kinds of intelligence, those high-quality intelligence that can make oneself ahead of others', of course no one will come up with it; but there are many strange anecdotes that do not give oneself an advantage, but are very worth discussing, these are the ice main topic in the room.

Moreover, don't underestimate the artist's desire to express.

All magicians must have obtained the legacy of their predecessors from the virtual realm. This natural inheritance atmosphere is destined that magicians will not resist communication; Regular output can maintain physical and mental health.

Just like eating excretion, after watching an unforgettable film, you will want to write a review, after reading a good book, you will leave a review... It is the instinct of the creature to seek emotional resonance, and it is the nature of the magician to seek knowledge collision.

The reason why Yaxiu took the initiative to provide the information about the inheritance of the ghost is also because he heard and saw a lot of interesting information here, so he returned to the community and saved some money for free.

First of all, just like Ash got the “Ghost Manual”, the “Huguang Manual” and “The Time Manual” appeared successively in Huguang Inheritance and Eternal City.

Rewards, this may mean that it is a tradition inherited by angels to leave half of the manual of magicians, and it also means that the angels of lake light and the king of time both follow the path of origin to climb the virtual realm, so they will meet the angels of Ruby Mountain. The Creator's Manual!

One angel does not matter, all three angels follow the path of origin, so the magician will naturally have this idea: in the distant past, would the path of origin be the most profitable upgrade method?

The modern way of promotion by faction realm is actually a low-level promotion method with lower returns?

The contents of the “Huguang Handbook” and “Time Handbook” have also successively verified the ideas of the magicians. It is worth mentioning that the age of Huguang Angel seems to be the oldest, followed by King of Time, and Ghost Prophet is the closest to modern times.

When Huguang Angel was still a silver magician, there was a shallow sea kingdom composed of silver-scale murlocs in the sea of knowledge. There was a special mechanism called “Silver Wing Test” in the shallow sea country. Silver Wing, thereby finding the golden fish to reach the Time Continent.

The pass rate of the Silver Wing test is one in ten thousand, only a genius magician can pass it, so Huguang Angel is quite proud of himself for passing the Silver Wing Test. Judging from the text inside, the relationship between the magician and the silver-scale murloc should be quite harmonious at that time.

But in the time of the King of Time, the sea of knowledge became a hunting ground for warlocks and murlocs. Therefore, there is only one way left to find the golden fish, and that is to kill enough silver-scale murlocs, strip off their scales, and cast their second silver wings!

Silverscale murlocs are generally equivalent to one-winged magicians, and some are even second-winged magicians. They usually gather together and impulsive, and the difficulty of hunting them can be imagined.

In the era of the Ghost Prophet, there were only a small group of Silverscale Murlocs left, and they were also wiped out by the Ghost Prophet.

Regarding the description of the time continent, the cognition of the ghost prophet is not much different from today’s, but two more color mechanisms are recorded.

But the descriptions of the Angel of Lake Light and the King of Time have simply subverted the world view of modern magicians—in the past time continent, there was indeed a kingdom!

At that time, the Time Continent was not called the Time Continent, but the 'Concept Continent', the original people of the Concept Continent, who called themselves the Spirit of Concept and the Spirit of Law.

They are natural sorcerers, who can regulate flowing golden rivers, control virtual creatures, develop mainland resources, and have a long lifespan, even if the number of them is small,

Also developed a great artificer civilization!

The resource points that are still operating in the Time Continent are the products of that era!

Obviously, the elves of the ancient times and the elves of today are different species. In order to distinguish them, the magicians call them ancient elves.

In the era of Huguang Angels, magicians and ancient elves have had frequent frictions, and even 'sky turmoil' broke out, that is, ancient elf magicians riding flying dragons, hunting alien magicians everywhere, humans and other magicians are full of complaints and contradictions severe.

At that time, the magicians were still pressed and beaten by the ancient elves. After all, the alien magicians were all two wings in the time continent, and because the ancient elves were in the time continent, even if their strength was upgraded to the legend of the sanctuary, they could continue to be in the time continent. stop!

It is conceivable how uncomfortable the alien magicians in the sky turmoil are. They not only face the ancient elf magicians in groups, but also face the legend of the sanctuary far beyond their own! It's like a child being beaten by an adult!

The Huguang Angel specially recorded that she was hunted by the ancient elf sanctuary!

After reading "Huguang Handbook" and then "Time Handbook", you will feel quite happy.

Because the king of time is the ancient elf!

But in the era of the King of Time, the ancient elf kingdom has declined substantially, and almost all the outer cities have been lost, and they can only hold on to the eternal city of the afterglow.

In the “Handbook of Time”, he clearly pointed out the reason for the decline of the ancient elves – One blood moon, Fanxing and other gods killed all the high-ranking ancient elves with humble means, and continued to suppress the ancient elves country!

Regarding the description of the colorful tail, the Angel of Lake Light and the King of Time are almost the same. They can grab the colorful tail after finding seven colors. Obviously, in their era, these seven colors can still be found.

When it comes to Ghost Prophet, there are only three colors left.

Regarding the remote airspace and the eclipsed dream, in the era of lake angels, the dreamland can be entered casually, and four kinds of materials can be found;

In the era of the King of Time, the material of ‘wind wound’ has disappeared, but it can be replaced by miracles;

In the era of Ghost Prophet, the missing material not only cannot be replaced, but even the dreamland is occupied by the dream-turning angel.

In modern times, not only are there no four materials, but even the dreamland is broken.

On the whole, although the three angels took the road of origin to reach the Ruby Mountain, the Huguang Angels have a clear purpose along the way. Although there are many challenges, they are never confused; the King of Time is much more difficult, and many links must be completed by themselves; At the time of the Ghost Prophet, the path of origin was theoretically cut off. If he was not a second-round eye magician, I am afraid that he would not be able to embark on the path of origin.

Comparing the contents of these three angel handbooks, the sense of change of the times simply comes from the paper.

However, among the three inheritances of Eternal City, Huguang Inheritance, and Ghost Inheritance, the most valuable is not the ghost inheritance in the distant airspace, nor the oldest Huguang inheritance.

It is the inheritance of the Eternal City!

Because lake light and ghosts are at best the inheritance of an angel, but the Eternal City is the inheritance of an entire civilization!

There are countless ordinary inheritances in the Eternal City. As long as the magician can get one of them, he can obtain the authority of a resource point in the Time Continent for a period of one year. As long as the magician is in the virtual realm, he can receive the resources produced in it at any time!

For a two-winged magician, this is already a considerable amount of wealth, not to mention that there are rewards in ordinary inheritance. And the most desirable thing is that if you can become the successor of the King of Time, it is equivalent to becoming the master of the Eternal City!

That is the civilization heritage of the ancient elves, the eternal city recognized by the virtual world!

The value in this is simply unimaginable—even the craziest greedy magician never imagined that he could be king in a virtual world!

Yaxiu heard Jian Ji say that the two-winged magician on Fanxing's side was studying and researching like crazy, and the Fanxing royal family also gave a realistic reward for the inheritance of the King of Time: Duke seat!

After all, if you inherit the inheritance of the lake light or the inheritance of the ghost soul, it is only you who benefit, but if you can become the lord of the eternal city, you can shelter other two-wing magicians in the virtual realm and enhance the heritage of the entire country!

However, compared to seizing inheritance, more magicians actually lamented the loss of the road of origin, and lamented that if they could go back to the ancient times, they could easily reach the Ruby Mountain.

Like Chikara, he shouted for several days, complaining that the predecessors were not environmentally friendly enough for destroying the environment, and they didn't even leave any leftovers for future generations.

Only Yaxiu vaguely knew that the risk of taking the path of origin was probably far beyond the normal promotion of the realm.

Because of the secret poison!

Going on the road of origin means that you will be infected with a variety of secret poisons along the way!

In the era of the Angel of Lake Light, even if the pass rate of the silver scale test and the seven-color collection was only one in ten thousand, the number of people who passed the test over time would probably be several hundred, and the secret poison would undoubtedly turn into a vicious poison!

At first, Yaxiu thought that there was no secret poison in the past, but he took a closer look. The three manuals about the nature of the golden fish, the colorful tail, and the eclipse dream were not written down. Obviously, the angels subconsciously left their hand and only wrote the specific process. , the result was vague.

These angels are obviously not fools, that fool can only be Asia. The secret poison must have effects that he still doesn't understand, so the angels will go forward and follow the path of origin.

It was precisely because they didn't write the results that Ash still couldn't guess the truth of the eclipse dream.

Ordinary magicians basically think that “Golden Fish” and “Colorful Tail” refer to certain things. Only people like Yaxiu who have walked the path of origin know that both Golden Fish and Colorful Tail are rhetorical devices. The golden fish refers to the waves of fish scales rising from the golden ocean in the sky, and the colorful tail is the landscape formed by the convergence of six colors of the Liujin River.

That eclipse dream should also be a metaphor, what is it referring to?

“Sure enough, there is no information about the blank concept,” Igula muttered.

“It’s strange, so far only Thousand Wishes Phantom Master has mentioned the blank concept once, and that is the inheritance of the God Master in Ruby Mountain.” Yaxiu said with a natural expression: “Sen Luo only has three legendary magicians, if there are three legendary magicians here. The intelligence of the blank concept means that the three legends have left the front line and come to this ice room to eat the signature Lala fat one. How is it possible!”

“Who suggested that we come here to collect conceptual information?” Igula gritted her teeth and wanted to raise her hand to knock Yaxiu’s head, but when she saw the cute skin of the red-haired girl Yaxiu, she put her hand down.

“The Four Pillars of God have stopped attacking and have taken the initiative to shrink the defense line.” Gwen put down the information in her hand, which was the information she collected from various channels tonight: “The front line is in a state of confrontation.”

“Normal, now the primary goal of all magicians is the inheritance of angels, and even the war of faith has to be moved back.” Igula tapped the table with her index finger: “Who would have thought that a war could be forcibly stopped by such a reason? ”

The Senluo Wasteland is undoubtedly the place most affected by the inheritance of the angels. In other countries, it is the most heated discussion in the society. In Senluo, it can suppress social unrest!

But it’s not surprising to think about your feet. No matter what country, religion, or race you are, as long as you can log in to the virtual realm, you are qualified to challenge the inheritance of angels.

Even if the Mercury Trojan and the Qinri Alliance ignored the magicians' strong will for the inheritance of angels and asked them to continue fighting, wouldn't they be lazy, avoid fighting, and recharge their batteries during the day to wait for the challenge of inheritance at night?

Unless the magician can be prevented from logging into the virtual realm, no matter how tight the cage of reality is, there is no way to restrain the magician who wants to.

Ash asked, "Speaking of which, what progress have you made?"

Igula: "Just broke the fifteenth level last night."

Harvey: "Still at level twelve."

"I only went in and played on the first day, and I didn't go after that." Chikara scratched his head.

"Why don't you go?" Everyone was surprised: "This is the inheritance of angels."

"But I'm neither interested in the soul faction nor the prophecy faction, nor have any talent." Chikara shrugged: "My colorful wings are also fully condensed, and there is no benefit in the ghost inheritance. It is better to continue to explore the bubble."

"Perhaps the virtual world takes care of an honest child like me. I encountered an affix bubble last night and got an ultra-rare magic spirit!" said the orc sanctuary, who is good at robbery, murder and arson.

Igula was surprised: "Really? How lucky is this? I envy you so much."

Chikara patted his chest proudly: "This is not luck, but the inevitable result of my years of hard work!"

"Then when the day comes, give me that ultra-rare magic spirit."

"Ah? Why! That's my thing!"

“Have you forgotten that you are our slave now.” Igula said without mercy.

“No-”

Yaxiu looked at the beast girl wrapped around the blond glasses girl and begged, thinking that the black robe town is not in vain, otherwise it would be really difficult to see this kind of picture...

However, Yaxiu and the others' evaluation of Chikara silently increased by a level.

Chikara can become a sanctuary magician, and it is absolutely impossible for him to have cerebral palsy. He can realize that the inheritance of angels is not helpful to him, and he decisively abandons this rare opportunity. Domain sorcerer.

In fact, from the fact that he surrendered without hesitation in the dead city, it can be seen that he will not be affected by factors such as honor, shame, greed, and fortune. Everything starts from his own needs. Confused and hesitant.

It is difficult to evaluate the future of a person like Chikara. Maybe he will soar to the sky because of his decisiveness, or he may not be able to sink because of his shortsightedness, but one thing is for sure that he is very admirable.

Never doubt yourself, never regret your choice, never complain about yourself in everything, but accuse others more if you can live like Chikala,

Life will be much happier.

“Compared to the blank concept, I pay more attention to the rewards of the inheritance of the gods.” Harvey held the fries in his fingers, as if simulating smoking, “A kingdom of heaven... Can a magician become a * if he gets the kingdom of heaven?”

“If a sanctuary other than the two-winged magician has a sanctuary, will he become a sanctuary magician?” Ash asked, “Although the analogy may not be so, I don't think the virtual world will allow the magician to exploit this kind of loophole. But , If you can get the inheritance of the kingdom of heaven and the gods, it will definitely be easier to break through the limits of mortals.”

“However, the Heavenly Kingdom left behind after the death of the phantom master...” He pondered: “Is it true that the * master will also die?”

Igula was shocked, carefully observed Yaxiu, and confirmed that he did not maliciously think of other aspects, then he was relieved, and quickly changed the subject:

Ash, do you have anything else you want to eat? ”

“I’ll take a look”

Yaxiu looked at the menu, and suddenly found that the milk tea in front of Black Crow didn’t move at all. Looking closely, Hei Crow didn’t even take off the mask, and thinking that everyone had been discussing the topic of virtual realm that Black Crow didn’t understand at all, he couldn’t help but move slightly. .

He put down the menu and said, “I’m tired of the food here. I’ll go out and buy some other snacks. Tamashi, come and help me get something.”

Black Crow was startled, then stood up and followed in his footsteps. Igula glanced at their backs, shook her head, and stepped on Chikara’s face with her feet.

Chapter 645: Good but not as good as me

“Two cones!”

“Two servings of lala fat skewers.

After buying a lot of street food, Yaxiu sighed, “It’s been eight months since the war broke out, but it seems like nothing happened in Heipao Town.

"It's just getting used to it." Black Crow said, holding the snack bag, "Tanomu said that in a year in the wasteland there is no war, and he can count on one hand."

"Don't go back yet, let's eat here."

Yaxiu suddenly turned into a corner of a dark alley, and the black crow shook his head: "I don't eat."

"I'm leaning against this wall, you lean against that wall, even if you take off your mask, I can't see you." Ash pointed to the two perpendicular walls in the corner and said, "I can hear your stomach growling already."

"Impossible, I can go without a drop of water for three days without any physiological reaction."

"Do you want to eat? If you don't eat, I won't take you out for dinner next time. You just watch us eat every time, making it seem like we're ostracizing you." Yaxiu took the initiative to stick to a wall and handed the cone to the other side he couldn't see: "At this time, you should accept my kindness with tears in your eyes."

"Sorry, I'm really not trained to cry, so I can't fake cry."

Even so, the black crow still took the food, took off the mask against the wall, and ate it silently.

"How is it? Is it delicious?"

"Good, but not as good as me."

Yaxiu was shocked: "Not as good as you? Can you still cook?"

"Yes." Black Crow said, "I am the best cook in Crow Killing. Every time I return to the sect, everyone is waiting for me to cook."

“You know everything except magic, right?” Yaxiu complained, “Then why don’t you usually cook?”

“No chance, no need. We ate and slept all the way, and it’s already a luxury to be able to eat canned food.”

“But I’m curious about your cooking skills! The black crow who kills without blinking his eyes can actually wash his hands and make soup?”

“I can cook for you if I have the chance.”

“That’s it!”

Ash licked the ice cream on the cone and asked, “Natamash, when are you going to leave?”

“...what?”

“We have given up chasing the silver lamp, and we don’t want to be entangled with the mercury Trojan horse. We are wholeheartedly looking for a way to leave Sen Luo.” Yaxiu said:

“Our path has no longer overlapped with yours. So I feel that we can’t continue to delay you”

Before he could finish speaking, he heard a pop, the sound of the cone falling to the ground.

“Do you despise me?”

Yaxiu was stunned for a moment, and then burst out laughing, without turning around, he reached out and hacked the black crow’s head: “The effect of the kaleidoscope is so strong?”

Are you affected by hormones? How can you say such weak words? ”

“And I haven’t finished speaking yet.” He said, “I’m actually worried, will you be afraid to leave because you are worried about us? I don’t want to waste your time. But if you are not worried about us, but want to go the same way as us.”

“Tamahi, do you want to leave Sen Luo with us?”

The noise outside the alley is noisy, and the pedestrians are like weaving. The noise of the bustling night market fills every corner of the town, as if this place is not a wasteland, as if there is no war outside.

“Mercury Trojan.”

Black Crow didn’t answer directly, just said a name.

“Yeah, you still have to take revenge on the Quicksilver Trojan.” Ash sighed: “I can’t tell you to give up hatred. Although the Quicksilver Trojan is much stronger than you now, and the Quicksilver Trojan can make countless mistakes, but you only need to make a single mistake, and you will be doomed; although the Four Pillars Sect is about to unify Senluo, the probability of your revenge will be even slimmer; although...”

He paused: “You must know the reasons why you can’t do it better than me, and you must know the insurmountable difficulties better than I do, but you still have to insist on revenge, what qualifications do I have to dissuade you? It’s just...”

Ash’ just didn’t say a useful word for a long time, and finally sighed: “Sorry, Tamashi.”

Black Crow was a little surprised: “Why apologize?”

“You helped me a lot, but I can’t help you get revenge.” Yaxiu said softly: “I still have people I want to see, so I can’t throw my life on Sen Luo.”

“You don’t need to apologize.” Black Crow said, “I never thought I’d get anything from you.”

“But you’re still willing to help me leave Sen Luo?”

“Um.”

Yaxiu was silent for a while, and suddenly a light flashed: “Yes, as long as I leave Senluo, the silver lamp will automatically become a sense of touch, and the mercury Trojan will become a mortal, and your chance for revenge will come!”

Black Crow was startled, and then nodded: “Yes.”

“So it is impossible for you to leave Senluo with us.” Ash said: “But then, I have to think about how to place you. You are definitely not willing to join other sects, but you can’t reorganize the crows and kill them all. Sect, in this case I have to find some helpers for you...”

“You don’t have to think about me.” Black Crow said, “I can live alone.”

“Tamahi, have you forgotten that you are illiterate?”

“Axiu, have you forgotten that before I met you, I was a wanderer all by myself, assassinating the Mercury Trojan alone, and fighting the Four Pillars Sect alone.”

“Then do you like living alone or living with us?”

Seeing that the black crow was silent, Yaxiu smiled and said, “Even tools need maintenance. You are actually very good at taking care of yourself. If you follow your previous way of living, you will be broken sooner or later.”

“...Not at all.”

“All in all, before I leave, I will think about how to arrange you, and treat it as a reward for you.” Yaxiu said, “I have visited most of Senra, do you have a favorite place? Where do you want to live? Or Live back to the old Crow Killing Sect?”

“By the way, what type of girl do you like? Think about it carefully, I should help you solve life problems before leaving, so that you at least have a partner to take care of and accompany you, and you won’t fall into emptiness after your revenge is successful...”

Seeing that Yaxiu’s thinking became more and more divergent, Black Crow had to repeat: “You really don’t have to think about me!”

“but-”

“I actually haven’t made up my mind yet.”

Ya Xiu was startled: “Have you thought about it yet?”

“I haven’t made up my mind yet.” Black Crow said, “I have reasons to stay, but...”

Nor do I resist the thought of leaving. ”

Yaxiu blinked and said with a chuckle: “Then think about it slowly, there is no rush anyway. In fact, we have no progress in leaving Senluo at all. Maybe by the time we leave, the mercury trojan is already dead.”

“When the time comes, you can go to other countries with us without any hesitation and continue to rampage.” Ash patted Black Crow’s shoulder: “If you want more people to follow your path, then let the crow kill all the prestige. Spread it throughout the six kingdoms!”

“Um.”

“Okay, let’s go back. If you don’t go back to Igula, you’ll be scolding people. UU reading www.uukanshu.com”

When he walked to the street light, the black crow looked at the red-haired and red-eyed Yaxiu, maybe he opened his heart just now, and he finally couldn't hold back his curiosity: "Axiu, how do you look like after being influenced by the kaleidoscope, how do you talk to me? The body doesn't look alike at all?"

Although others have changed a lot, Igula's blond hair, Harvey's black skin, Chikara's orc's, Gwen's blue hair and other conspicuous features have all been preserved, except for Ash's hair color and skin tone. Different, completely transformed into another person.

"Ah?" Ash blinked, hesitated, and said, "I'll tell you a secret, you mustn't tell it, especially Igula and the others."

"You remember, my love life was a little messy, right?"

Black Crow blinked, "Could it be..."

"That's right!" The cult leader took two steps back, turned around in place, and smiled: "I don't know why, but the kaleidoscope has transformed my appearance into a girl I like every time. Tamashi, you are The first person who saw her, even Igula and the others just knew it and didn't see it!

"How, is she good-looking?"

After waiting for a while, the black crow did not answer, and Yaxiu curled his lips: "Okay, okay, I don't have any expectations for the aesthetics of your crow killed.

Let's hurry up... wait, this tastes so good, I'll buy one for a late night snack. "

When Yaxiu went to buy snacks, the black crow looked at his back and whispered softly:

"very good."

Chapter 646: Coats sleep together

Far away in the airspace, the country of broken dreams, level 34.

“Stay close to me.”

As soon as Yaxiu finished speaking, Sonia, Deya, and even Weisser were all clinging to his body. At this time, no monsters appeared in the underground hall, only a few lavender and shining smoke came out from everywhere. Float over slowly.

However, it was this purple smoke that stuck Yaxiu and the others for three days!

As early as three days ago, Yaxiu and the others broke through the 34th level, not only because the four of them cooperated well, but also because “Aurora’s Dream Treasure House” actually recognized the clearance of the ghost inheritance!

As long as they pass 5 levels in Ghost Inheritance, they can stably draw an auxiliary collection!

This is much simpler than exploring fantasy bubbles. After all, bubbles can be difficult or easy. Clearing 5 bubbles basically takes 10 minutes. Yaxiu and the others generally explore 13 bubbles a night, which means they can only take two more collections.

However, the first 5 levels of Ghost Inheritance are generally less difficult. When Yaxiu and the others are gradually familiar with the soul faction, and after using the first soul magic spirit, they can pass the first 2 levels with ease, and at least four more collections are drawn. !

The collection can ignore the characteristics of inheritance and prohibition, and it can help them pass the level better! Occasionally, they can get powerful colorful collectibles such as “Night Comet” (a hit that shoots a comet torrent), and they can even pass the previous level with zero consumption.

But even with the blessing of the collection, some levels cannot be overcome by brute force alone, such as the inheritance test of the 34th level, "Dream of Dreams"!

After they hit this trick for the first time, they didn't have any resistance at all. They fell into a long dream, and their souls were constantly being consumed. If it weren't for the fact that Weisser's soul faction had already reached the silver realm at that time, they would wake up before dying and use 'The ghost key' is out of the inheritance, otherwise everyone will die there!

Even a sanctuary magician is still vulnerable in the angelic inheritance, and even died without knowing what happened!

Yaxiu and the others were also afraid for a while, and what was even more troublesome was that even if they escaped, they didn't know how to pass this test. Seeing that he was about to get stuck here, Weisser found a breakthrough in the "Ghost Manual".

As mentioned earlier, there are many records in the "Ghost Manual", but most of the records have nothing to do with modern magicians. Basically, everyone just looks at them and forgets them. There are many chapters in it, which record the battle records of the ghost prophet when he was still a magician.

From the battle chapter, Weisser discovered that the ghost prophet had used a trick called "Dream of Souls", which was very similar to the test of level 34 in terms of description and effect. Only then did they know what trick they almost died by.

However, the "Spirit of the Soul" recorded in the "Ghost Handbook" is only a miracle of the sanctuary that can make the target fall asleep. Although the effect is powerful, it definitely has no effect on the soul. Therefore, in the 34th level, there is a high probability that it is an enhanced version of the power of the ghost prophet after he was promoted to a legendary magician, and it may even be a miracle of further strengthening and promotion after he became a demigod angel!

"Soul Dreaming" can't be resisted hard, and the method of cracking is also written in the "Ghost Handbook" one by one Ghost Prophet, his miracle can even corrode the sanctuary, and most magicians can't resist it at all, even defense Can't do it, because this trick is an invasion from all aspects of sight, hearing, smell, and touch. When the magician notices the lavender flashing smoke, his soul has already been pulled.

But if it is a magician with a heavy soul, it can be completely unaffected. No matter how entangled the soul is, the soul can stand still!

And the way to strengthen the soul is in the ghost inheritance!

Ghost Legacy has two regular rewards, one is "Soul Experience" and the other is "Temporary Magic Spirit".

Yes, except for the 'first soul' magic spirits that Axiu and the others generated themselves, most of the magic spirits obtained in the inheritance cannot be taken away, and I don't know if it is the ghost prophet who cannot give rewards. Those who pick up rewards from the inheritance for nothing.

Among the rewards of temporary magic spirits, there are many that can directly affect the magician's soul, such as the "war spirit" that can fight more and more, the "sword soul" that increases the damage of the sharp blade, and the "ghast" that can increase with malice. The weaker the light, the better Strong 'Dark Souls'.

Among them is a soul refining spirit, which can remove impurities in the soul, compress the quality of the soul, and make the soul more solid and thick! But that's not enough, because it was impossible for them to pick up four soul-refining magic spirits, so after three days of exploration and testing, Yaxiu also chose two magic spirits, Soul Cloth' and Sleeping Soul'.

The former is very practical, it will form a layer of defensive armor on the outside of the soul, and the defense strength is proportional to the quality of the soul, which just works with the soul refining spirit. The latter is a magic spirit used for healing, speeding up the recovery of soul damage through sleep.

Facing the haunting lilac flickering smoke, Yaxiu had already used Soul Refinement. After experiencing severe pain like a chisel and a knife, although his body was much thinner, his face and skin were full of luster and elasticity, as if his body had come to the void. territory!

Then, the combination of Soul Clothing and Sleeping Soul!

Miracle Coats sleep together!

I saw a light blue windbreaker appearing on Yaxiu's body, covering the three of Jian Ji, Sonia, Diya, and Visser all immediately fought with their eyelids, and quickly fell asleep relying on Yaxiu.

At this time, the haunting lilac flickering smoke wrapped around them several times. Not only did it have no effect on Yaxiu, but it also couldn't kill the souls of Jian Ji and the three of them.

This is the solution that Weisser has researched: The essence of Soul Dreaming is to pull out the target's soul and gradually wear it away, except that the soul is thick and can resist the pulling, the soul is first pulled by other miracles, and it can resist Soul Dreaming as well!

The miracle of the coat sleeping together is to rely on the soul background of Ya's soul after training, forcibly pulling the souls of Weisse and the others. To put it simply, Yaxiu ate Wesser and the others first, and as long as they couldn't pry Yaxiu's mouth open, they would not be able to affect Weisser and the others.

After five minutes, Yaxiu felt a little tired holding them, and the lilac smoke gradually disappeared, and three reward lights appeared in the hall.

Ash immediately lifted the overcoat and slept together, and Wesser was the first to wake up. She took two steps back and breathed softly: "Finally passed the border."

"I didn't expect to succeed all at once." Ash was also full of joy.

In fact, Yaxiu has already pinched the 'ghost soul key', and is ready to exit the virtual realm directly if the overcoat sleeps together is invalid. After all, it is a legendary secret method or even a miracle, and their overcoats sleeping together is a miracle, and it is normal for them to fail.

However, don't look at them, it seems that they are very easy to crack, but firstly, you need to find the three magic spirits, namely Soul Refinement, Soul Clothing, and Sleeping Soul from the rewards, and secondly, the magic power cannot be used in the ghost inheritance, and Yaxiu can only use the soul. Drive these two magic spirits to form a miracle.

This is not a simple job that can laugh and laugh. After all, this miracle is not a simple superposition of two magic spirits, but to let the effect of the sleeping soul penetrate into the soul clothes, and then release the power of the sleeping soul through the soul clothes... If it is not Yaxiu's Soul faction also has silver realm, he can't cast this miracle at all.

This is why they delayed three days to conquer level 34. In the past three days, they all gained soul experience in the previous level. When the three soul factions of Jian Ji were promoted to silver, UU reading www.uukanshu.com Yaxiu shared experience, naturally Promoted to silver. In this way, even if they encounter an accident later, they will at least have a certain amount of self-protection.

As for why Yaxiu came to cast his coat to sleep together, because he was the only one in the team who was still vacant.

Jian Ji follows the 'Sword Soul' route and constantly strengthens her melee capabilities. In most battles, she is the first to rush to hack and slash;

Weisser follows the "soul master" route, controlling multiple enemies by strengthening the soul's computing power. When the number of enemies exceeds two digits, it can often shine;

The witch takes the route of 'Samurai Soul, Martial Soul', 'War Soul', etc. Although she cannot use magic spirits in the inheritance, her fist claw faction is a real gold level.

This is also the reason why they still insist on four-player clearance. No matter what the rewards are, they are suitable for at least one operator, and the single-player can only choose any rewards that are not suitable for them.

And this situation makes Yaxiu very embarrassed. Although he is proficient in many magic factions through experience sharing, the actual combat is mainly long-range swordsmanship.

However, if he took the Sword Soul route, he would not only grab resources from Jian Ji, but his output would also overflow.

It was not until the combination of Soul Refinement and Soul Clothing was analyzed that Yaxiu determined his route in the ghost inheritance, one guardian.

Simply put, when the enemy wants to focus fire, he has to rush up and be beaten.

Chapter 647: rejuvenation

It took half a minute to lift the coat and sleep together. Yaxiu saw that the two female magicians in his arms showed no signs of waking up, so he patted their cheeks with his hands: "Wake up, get up and go to work."

Sonia opened her eyes reluctantly, but when she saw that the witch actually wanted to pretend, she closed her eyes and continued to pretend to be asleep, even reaching out to hug her tighter.

These days, they have been exploring the inheritance of ghosts, and the underground hall is so large at a glance When I find an opportunity, I naturally want to * more.

"Hey, Wesser is still here!"

"Oh, don't worry about me." Weisser said calmly: "I'm just about to re-read the "Ghost Manual", I can read it for at least 3 minutes, take your time. Do you need me to wear earplugs?"

After all, Diya, the queen, was a little thinner. When she heard Weisser say this, she blushed and opened her eyes. But Sonia is thick-skinned,

Just holding on to Yaxiu.

Ya Xiu was amused by them, reached out and rubbed the witch's head, and then wrapped her arms around Jian Ji's waist one by one. As a physical practitioner, Jian Ji's waist was unexpectedly slender, although this would affect her maximum power output, but Ya Xiu Xiu naturally wouldn't mind this – it was very elastic when hugged, but Yaxiu just gave her a light hug and whispered in her ear, "Are you satisfied?"

Sonia opened her eyes and snorted disdainfully, but the corners of her mouth couldn't stop turning up, and the ruby eyes turned slightly to sneer at Yaxiu.

The excitement between his brows was mixed with a trace of seductive charm.

Yaxiu thought to himself, even if the kaleidoscope could turn him into a sword princess, he would never be able to show a tenth of the beauty of a sword princess.

However, Sonia quickly picked up her mood and said actively, "Weisser, I'm sorry."

Visser knew that it was one thing, and showing affection in front of her was another thing, not to mention that in the ghost inheritance, there might be danger at any time, and Sonia now calmed down and felt that she was a little irrational.

"You don't need to apologize." Weisser closed the ghost manual and said casually: "I can understand."

The 34th level rewards are "Restore Soul", "Temporary Magic Spirit: Wandering Soul", and "Medium Soul Experience". The first one is basically not selected. The wandering soul magic spirit is the mobile magic spirit of the soul faction. It increases the movement speed and grants the ability to float. It can be used for sword princesses and witches.

But after a brief discussion, they still asked Weisse to choose "Medium Soul Experience".

It can be seen from the "Soul Dreaming" in level 34 that the further back you go, the higher the requirements of ghost inheritance on the realm of the magician's soul faction.

In fact, it is not necessary to refine the soul magic spirit to crack the soul.

Ghost spirits, these magic spirits, should also be able to fight the haunting dreams by transforming their own souls. For example, the sword and soul magic spirit itself has the effect of condensing the soul and casting the sharpness, but the realm of the sword princess is not enough to deeply transform its own soul.

The later levels will only get more and more difficult, so it is necessary to cultivate a high-level soul magician, otherwise, let alone break the level, you may even accidentally die in the inheritance test. As a truth magician and proficient in more than 20 spells, Wesser is naturally the most suitable candidate for training when no one has a dominant soul talent.

When it came to level 35, the four of them couldn't help but lift their spirits.

The rewards in the fifth and tenth levels of Ghost Inheritance will be much richer, such as 'The secret key of the ghost will only be revealed at the twentieth level, but at the same time, the difficulty will increase sharply, and if you are not careful, your soul will be severely damaged.

At this time, the four walls of the hall were suddenly covered with a layer of white boards. After waiting for a few seconds, Yaxiu didn't notice any other movement, so he approached to take a look—

This is where the meat shield comes into play.

When he approached the whiteboard, his primordial spirit suddenly jumped out, constructing a strange picture in his mind: on the sunny suburban grass, Igula was fishing on the shore wearing a fisherman's hat, and Harvey opened the coffin let Alice bask in the sun, Liz was running on the grass and flying a kite, An Nan pushed the baby carriage, and the little Pan Ji in the baby carriage looked at the kite curiously. Catching fish with his feet, Wesser sitting on a tree stump reading a book, Black Crow making skewers and signaling everyone to come...

It turns out that the test of level 35 is actually painting. No brushes were provided, obviously they were asked to use their souls to paint, and it was up to them whether they could pass the level or not.

But this is very bad for me, why do I have to draw so many characters! Others certainly don't need to draw so complicated! ?

Yaxiu was stunned, and when he lowered his head, he realized that there was another abnormality—how could the ground be so close to him?

wrong!

Yaxiu looked at his two soft little hands, then at his completely shrunk body, and finally understood what had happened – he had become a child!

Is there a mistake, the ghost inheritance just increases the difficulty? Turn their bodies into children? What a boring test, although my body became smaller,

But the brain is still flexible!

Yaxiu turned his head to look, and sure enough, the sword princess, the witch, and Weiser had all turned into children!

Jian Ji also had a surprised expression. Yaxiu looked at this soft little Jian Ji and couldn't help but stretched out her hand and pinched her face, giggling, "You look so cute."

Snapped!

Yaxiu was punched and flew out. Before he could get up, Xiaojianji rode on top of him and punched him in the face!

"Why!? I was wrong, I was wrong! You shouldn't be so angry!"

Hearing his mistake, Xiaojianji stopped, grabbed Yaxiu's collar and lifted his head, and said viciously, "Do you dare to bully me!?"

"Huh?" Ash was stunned.

Snapped!

Xiaojianji punched him again, and the milk dragon roared: "Do you still dare!?"

“No, I don’t dare.” Although he didn’t know what was going on, UU Reading www.uukanshu.com But Yaxiu still obeyed Xiaojianji’s words first.

“Humph!”

However, when Xiaojianji looked around for a week, she grabbed Yaxiu’s collar again and stared at him coldly: “What is this place? Are you playing a prank on me!?”

“Wow!”

Little Weisser suddenly rubbed her eyes and burst into tears: “Wei Ounai, Wei Ounai! Woohoo, Wei Ounai, where are you?”

At this time, the little witch came to hold Xiaojianji and calmly persuaded: “It shouldn’t be his business, the four of us may have encountered a special situation, like the protagonist who triggers adventures in fairy tales, so we came here. place.”

Axiu stared blankly at this scene.

He finally realized the real difficulty of level 35.

In the “Ghost Manual”, the ghost prophet mentioned that he saw that a psychic has a miracle that can make people return to childhood, which is quite effective whether it is used for attack or treatment, but he thinks it is only superficial, Because the soul structure of children is different from that of adults.

The biggest difference between young children and adults is the plasticity of talent. If they can completely return to childhood, it means that new talents can be developed!

However, the ghost prophet who arrived at Ruby Mountain has not yet created the miracle of completely returning to childhood, but just named this idea “Rejuvenation”.

Therefore, Jian Ji and the others not only have their souls become smaller, but even their memory and consciousness have regressed back to their childhood at the same time!

Chapter 648: can't escape

“So you mean that we are actually close partners who participated in the inheritance test. It was only because of the miracle “Revival” that we became children and temporarily lost other memories?”

Boom!

Xiaojianji directly slapped an uppercut on Yaxiu’s stomach, and when Yaxiu bent down, she clasped her fists with both hands, smashed his back very skillfully, directly beat him to the ground, and then rode on him again – she really The good ones like to ride others when they fight.

“Isn’t this the plot of “Strange Talk about the Rules of the Void”, do you think I haven’t seen it? You dare to lie to me! You dare to lie to me! Do you dare to lie to me?!”

Yaxiu is completely convinced that your screenwriters in the kingdom of stars have too big a brain hole, this can be a stumbling block! ?

And children go out to exercise more, don’t watch movies and dramas at home all the time!

The little witch brought little Weise over, and little Weise behind was rubbing her eyes and was still twitching.

She grabbed Jian Ji and persuaded: “Don’t worry, he seems to be the only one who knows the situation, and we don’t know anything. Do you remember what you were doing before you came here?”

“I...” Little Jianji clutched her little head and thought for a while, before shaking her head, she said cautiously to the little witch, “I can’t remember, but I should be in the town... I have never left the town.”

“I can’t remember either.”

The little witch squatted next to Ash and looked down at him: “He should know something, but he may be lying to us.”

“Why should I lie to you?” Ash didn’t expect that he couldn’t even win the trust of a witch, “Do I look like a liar?”

“Like!” The little witch reached out and pinched Yaxiu’s face: “In fairy tales, good-looking boys like you are basically bad people!”

“...” Yaxiu: “Generally speaking, aren’t all good-looking girls the bad guys?”

“Good-looking girls have bad witches and good princesses, but good-looking boys are either evil princes who covet the beauty of the princess, or evil magicians who manipulate conspiracies!”

“Wait, then in the fairy tales you read, what is the identity of the protagonist of the good guy?”

“The princess and the loyal knight who guards the princess.”

“Can’t knights look good?”

“A knight should have scars on his face, strong and brave, and a strong body!” The little witch tugged at Ash’s face: “You look so stinky, and a girl rides under it, you are definitely not a knight!”

Yaxiu never imagined that the witch’s aesthetics when she was a child would be so masculine, and she never thought that because she did not conform to the witch’s aesthetic after becoming smaller, she would not be able to gain the witch’s trust!

He was also frequently made helpless by these three little brats for a while: "I'm the only one who knows the truth, but you all don't want to believe me, so it's useless for me to say anything."

Xiaojianji raised her fist and fiercely threatened Yaxiu: "I beat you a few more times, you must not dare to tell lies!"

"Don't hit him yet." The little witch said, "Although he doesn't look like a good person, he may be our companion, a follower, or a hired evil magician. For a great goal, a good person may also be with us. Bad guys work together."

Xiaojianji thought it was very reasonable, and looked at the little witch with admiration: "You are amazing! By the way, what are your names?"

"I," Little Weisser sucked back the snot bubble, raised her hand and said timidly, "My name is Youlan Weisser."

"Wait." The little witch suddenly stopped: "We came to such a strange place, it is best not to reveal our real names."

"Ah!" Xiaojianji felt a little uneasy, "I'm sorry, I didn't expect... ah, but he said he knew us, so he must know our names too." She poked Ash in the face and said.

"Yes." The little witch looked at Yaxiu: "You said you knew us, then tell me, what's our name?"

Yaxiu blinked and said, "Actually, we only call each other by code names and never use our real names. My name is Viewer, your name is Witch, and her name is Jianji."

"What about her?" The little witch pulled little Weisser over.

"She... her code name is Youlan Weisser." Yaxiu suddenly realized that something was wrong and emphasized: "She is the only one of us who uses her real name, really!"

However, the eyes of Xiaojianji and the little witch were obviously suspicious – just now, little Weisser took the initiative to reveal her name, so her code name is her real name? For those of us who don't say our real names, you only know our code name?

This is too coincidental, even a six-year-old child can see that there must be something tricky in it!

Seeing that Xiaojianji wanted to force a confession violently again, the little witch hurriedly stopped her and asked Yaxiu, "It doesn't matter whether we are companions or not, what should we do to get out of here?"

"Draw." Ash pointed to the four walls and said, "As long as you get close to those whiteboards, the magic spirit will tell you what to draw, and then you draw those pictures, and we can clear the customs and leave here."

The little witch pondered for a few seconds and signaled Xiaojianji to continue suppressing Yaxiu. Then she approached a wall and came back with a surprised expression: "There is indeed a magic spirit telling me what to paint, and we don't need a paintbrush, we can paint with our fingers. ."

"There shouldn't be any harm in doing it anyway, so just trust him first."

In the face of the little witch's orders, not only Xiao Jianji had no objection, but even Xiao Weise wiped away her tears and nodded timidly like a chicken pecking at rice.

If he hadn't seen this scene with his own eyes, Yaxiu wouldn't have believed that the most lazy and cute witch actually had such outstanding leadership and affinity, and the calm and knowledgeable Weisser turned into a crying worm, while socializing The sword princess, who is a full-level talent, will become so sensitive after returning to her childhood and will only use violence to protect herself.

At this time, Ash finally realized the horror of the 35th test.

Unlike the amnesia log house, although everyone in the amnesia log house has lost their memories, at least they still retain the thinking of adults. Driven by the desire to survive, they can calmly discuss and cooperate. But Rejuvenation is different. Not only do they lose their memory, but their thinking ability also returns to their childhood state!

If the magician was a cowardly crybaby when he was a child, or was too timid to explore the environment, he would not be able to calmly deal with the test in this state, and he would even forget that he had the secret key to escape from the inheritance!

There is probably a time limit for this level, and Ash does not think that the ghost prophet, who is a warlock, will be kind enough to kick out unqualified challengers.

I am afraid that it is the same as the lingering dream in level 34. The challenger who has timed out will be continuously consumed by the soul. If the challenger cannot wake up until the soul is consumed, then die.

Ash can fully understand the thoughts of the ghost prophet: he will leave this legacy, which means that he has fallen.

Since he himself is dead, does he care about the life and death of the junior magician?

Not only can't he, he can't even want to kill more people!

In a long time scale, the relationship between the magicians is 'cooperative development, because the achievements and explorations of all the magicians will accumulate into the knowledge inheritance of the virtual world. develop better.

But under the time scale of a hundred years, the relationship between magicians is undoubtedly a 'competition of interests'! The higher the strength, the more so!

For example, in the wasteland of Senluo, before the appearance of the Four Pillars of God, the three strongest sects in the wasteland were the three sects with legendary magicians! If there is only one legendary magician in the wasteland, then his sect can easily wipe out half of Sen Luo!

No matter how important the virtual world is, the magician must compete in reality after all!

Moreover, through the feeding problem of the three-wing magic spirit, Yaxiu faintly realized that if the legendary magician wanted to feed the four-wing magic spirit, I am afraid that he really needed to rely on the power of the organization to do it.

It is also interesting to say, “Huguang Handbook”, “Time Handbook” and “Ghost Handbook” have all mentioned,

At that time, it was quite troublesome to feed the magic spirits. Different magic spirits had to feed different food materials. If the corresponding food was not found, the magic spirits would even starve to death. However, if you feed in this way, the feeding interval of the magic spirit can be extended for a long time, and it is not necessary to feed every day.

Like the round cicada is an excellent example, it only needs to drink the golden river water produced by all things in the world, and does not need additional feeding at all.

Modern magicians basically use gold and silver coins to feed their magic spirits. Although it is much simpler and more convenient, they need to be fed almost every day. Moreover, the three-wing magic spirit and the four-wing magic spirit have a very high demand for gold coins.

Obviously, in the era of the three angels, magic spirits could not be fed by gold and silver, and even they did not regard gold and silver as wealth. In the past, Yaxiu might have just looked at it, but after knowing the blank concept, he couldn't help but have an idea – there should be a blank concept, engraved with the concept of “the magic spirit can be fed with gold and silver”, right?

But no matter ancient or modern, legendary magicians must use organizational forces to search for resources to support magic spirits, and when it comes to organizational forces, it must be related to the distribution of power!

Ghost Prophet kills more Sanctuary Warlocks in inheritance, then his successor will be less difficult in reality;

If the ghost prophet kills a genius in the inheritance, then his successor will be less challenged in the future!

Even the 20-level reward ghost key' that must be released may also be a trap. If the magician feels that he has the secret key of the ghost that can withdraw from the inheritance at any time, he dares to challenge the level boldly, and it is very likely that he will die suddenly in the dream and return to the soul!

It's more likely that he just doesn't want the junior magicians to have a good life, and wants to try to kill the sanctuary magicians!

The inheritance only reflects the deep cultivation and study of the soul faction by the ghost prophet, but this sinister plan to take the first gift is also worthy of his name as a prophet!

Xiaojianji got off him, and when Yaxiu stood up, she suddenly stretched out her hand to his face, Yaxiu subconsciously ducked back, thinking that the little tiger was going to lose his temper again.

However, Xiaojianji just stretched out her hand to his face and asked, "You didn't lie to us, did you?"

"No," Ash smiled, "Because you are very smart, you will find out if I lie, so I dare not lie to you."

Xiaojianji lowered her head and was silent for a while, then suddenly touched his face, then came close and blew on his cheek.

"Pain fly away~"

Then Xiaojianji crossed her hips, proudly raised her little chest, blushed, and snorted: "If I find out that you are playing a prank on me, I will catch you, and then..."

"I will be beaten up by you." Ash raised his hands in surrender: "Don't worry, I can't escape."

Ash turned around to paint his 'masterpiece' when his sleeve was pulled.

"What's up?"

Xiaojianji pulled his sleeve, her lips moved slightly, her expression was extremely embarrassed, and she uttered a few words very quietly. Yaxiu didn't hear clearly, UU Reading www.uukanshu.com leaned over and asked, "What did you say?"

"I don't know..." Little Jianji glanced sideways at the little witch and little Weisser, and said in a voice like a mosquito: "I don't know how to draw."

Yaxiu understood: "Then why don't you ask them to teach you?"

"They..." Xiaojian Ji said, "They look..."

She hadn't said the reason, and sternly said, "Do you teach?"

Yaxiu thought for a while: "It's okay to teach you, but you must at least beg me with a positive attitude, right?"

Although she was beaten up by Xiaojianji, Yaxiu naturally wouldn't care about her, and she just wanted to suppress her arrogance when she made such a request, so it would be much easier to teach her to draw later. I want children to learn well,

It is necessary to establish majesty and make the other party obedient first. This is the teaching experience of Yaxiu in training his little nephew before.

However, Xiaojianji's face became very ugly, she left a sentence and turned around and left: "Don't teach it!"

She didn't go to anyone else and went straight to her whiteboard. She raised her finger and stared at the whiteboard for a long time, but she still didn't dare to write.

She secretly turned her head and glanced at Yaxiu, and found that Yaxiu was still looking at her, and the little head quickly turned back, pretending that nothing happened.

I really don't know how this stubborn and sensitive little girl has grown into a well-rounded socialist... Yaxiu scratched his head and walked over helplessly.

Of course he couldn't escape.

Chapter 649: Are you a Veela?

In fact, Yaxiu can directly choose to leave the inheritance.

The ghost key is on him.

But even if it leaves the inheritance this time, it will still encounter this hurdle next time. Yaxiu guessed that the reason why he was able to retain his memory was mostly because he used the Soul Refinement Spirit to strengthen his soul, so he could barely resist the influence of Rejuvenation.

The rejuvenation of the soul is silent, and the co-sleeping of the coat may not work again, and this level requires them to paint alone, so the three Jian Ji must be awake and cannot be in the co-sleeping state of the coat all the time.

That is to say, if you want all four of them to keep their memories, then a new miracle of the soul must be deduced.

It may only take a few days, but it may take a few weeks. However, the problem is that 35 levels are not the end of the level. According to speculation, there are probably 100 levels of ghost inheritance!

If they stop and spend a few days to create new miracles when they encounter difficulties, they will definitely miss the ghost inheritance and blank concept! The virtual realm is facing all the magicians. Even if there are few elves now, and there are not many elves sanctuaries with soul talent, there are still people with outstanding talents!

Not to mention, among the people Yaxiu knows, Qinna's progress is definitely much faster than them!

This elf matriarch is not only astringent, she is a serious soul sanctuary, and the realm of the soul faction must have a sanctuary level, and she also has a gospel system that can answer questions at any time to help resolve the difficulties, I am afraid she has already passed it at this time. The first 50 levels!

If you really want to seize the inheritance of ghosts, such as level 35 that you can barely pass through, you can't shrink back and be afraid, you must break through it! This is the consensus of the four of them!

Since Yaxiu can take everyone away at any time, then continue to challenge until you encounter danger before giving up!

Yaxiu stood beside Xiaojianji and asked, "What do you want to paint?"

"Draw two people!" Xiaojianji stretched out two fingers, her eyes full of longing: "The woman has long red hair that looks as beautiful as satin, as well as a pair of bright red eyes, and is wearing a beautiful wedding dress. They wore beautiful dresses, were tall, handsome, cold and arrogant, and they hugged each other and looked at each other as if they were about to kiss!"

Speaking of the latter, her tone became excited, and it seemed that she had seen similar scenes in movies and dramas. But Yaxiu scratched his head, "He's tall, handsome, cold and arrogant." Is this Xiaojianji's misunderstanding, or is Jian Ji's body misunderstanding him?

"Then you start with the face? Just follow the outline, and then draw the clothes and wedding dress."

Xiaojianji nodded obediently, stretched out her fingers to paint, and asked, "Hey, why do I want to paint these two people? They look like stars that appear in movie and TV promotional films."

Didn't recognize this? Yaxiu blinked and said, "Don't you think that the beautiful girls you want to draw are what you will look like when you grow up? They are all red hair and red eyes..."

"Impossible!" Xiaojianji shook her head: "How can I be so good-looking when I grow up? I look so rustic."

Yaxiu just wanted to say that you are very cute now, but he suddenly realized a problem – when Jian Ji was a child, it seemed that he was really not that good-looking. He had seen Jian Ji in the amnesia wooden house when she was a child, with a thin body, dry hair, and no appearance.

After thinking about it, he understood.

Rejuvenation does not really return them to childhood, but compresses their souls to the level of children, and shields their memories after childhood. Therefore, their appearance at this time is only the cuteness of adulthood, like the little witch and little Weisser, although their appearance has become childish, but the overall outline has not changed at all.

This is impossible. When a child grows up, the bones of the head will continue to change. There is an old saying that I can't recognize the child when he is so old.' On the other hand, when an adult becomes a child, he can't recognize it. is normal!

Therefore, in Xiaojianji's heart, she is still that rustic and thin village girl, and she can't imagine that she can become so confident and beautiful in the future.

But Yaxiu still said: "Actually, you are very cute now."

Xiaojianji raised her right fist again, but Yaxiu grabbed her fist and said, "I'm not talking about your appearance,

I think your character is very cute. "

Xiaojianji raised her left fist: "You are mocking me, do you think I don't understand!

"That's right, that's what's cute." Yaxiu said seriously: "Although you are a little too sensitive, no matter what kind of malicious pressure you face, you can still resolutely accept defeat and punch back. Even if you didn't look good when you were young It's good-looking, but when you grow up, will you admit defeat and give up?"

“By the way, I remember that you like Deedalus. Although I have never met Deedalus, she should be a very beautiful person. You don’t want to grow up to be as bright as Deedalus. Are you beautiful? With such a wish, how can you not look good in the future?”

Xiaojianji blinked at him, put down her fists after a while, and whispered, “You actually know that I want to be as beautiful as Daedalus, I haven’t told anyone about this... In other words, You didn’t lie to me?”

It turns out that revealing this information can win her trust, Yaxiu nodded: “Really, and the red-haired girl you want to draw is what you will look like when you grow up.”

Although Xiaojianji was still a little suspicious, she didn’t bother about it, but asked, “Why do you know that I like Deedalus? Do I have a good relationship with you?”

“A little bit better than a friend.” Ash could only answer.

Xiaojianji asked: “If the woman I want to draw is me, who is the man holding her?”

Yaxiu stared at her with big eyes and small eyes. After a while, he said, “I can’t see who it is. I will only know when you draw it. But...”

“Do you think that man looks like me?”

Xiaojianji was stunned for a while, then her lips moved slightly, and she punched Yaxiu to the ground.

“You are bullying me again!”

Yaxiu had to sigh at the power of the Soul Refining Spirit, but after so many hits, nothing happened. He got up and said, “You draw the outline of the face first, then the outline of the clothes, first the big ones, then the small ones, and then slowly refine the details... Can you do that?”

“can.”

Yaxiu looked at the little witch and little Weisser, and found that neither of them started writing, so he went over to check the situation. But he was just two steps away when he was pulled by Xiaojianji.

“Where are you going?”

“Teach them how to draw.” Ash said, “This test requires everyone to work together to pass.”

Xiaojianji’s face was obviously dissatisfied, she hesitated for a while, then lowered her head and said, “I’m sorry, I won’t hit you in the future.”

“It doesn’t matter.” Of course Yaxiu couldn’t care about the child with amnesia: “It’s all the fault of the test, you just make your own response.”

“Then don’t you go?” Xiao Jianji’s nervous tone carried a trace of anticipation.

Ash was taken aback.

He realized that Xiaojianji was dependent on him, which was normal. After all, he had already trusted Xiaojianji, and he had always acted confidently. It was strange that Jianji, who had returned to his childhood state, did not depend on him. It’s just that this inexplicable possessiveness is weird, and it’s a bit worrying about gains and losses...

Yaxiu suddenly recalled that when Xiaojianji faced the little witch just now, her attitude had always been cautious and even a little humble. He originally thought it was the little witch’s leadership ability, but after thinking about it carefully, it may also be due to Xiaojianji’s inferiority complex. .

She saw that the little witch was so cute and beautiful, so she lowered her head subconsciously, especially when the little witch was so calm, she felt even more ashamed.

That’s why she didn’t ask Little Witch and Little Weisser to ask how to draw. Pretty little girls can draw, but she doesn’t. She must feel ashamed of herself, so she only dares to ask the only person she dares to bully.

The same is true now, Xiaojianji is afraid that Yaxiu will ignore her after she goes to find them, so she does not want Yaxiu to leave.

The world of children is so naked and so simple.

So Ash said, "I'll come back to teach you a second time after I've taught them. Only you have a second time, how about that?"

"You won't lie to me, will you?"

"Will not."

"All right."

Xiaojianji let go of her hand, obediently painted on the whiteboard and finally got one, Yaxiu went over to the little witch and asked, "Are you encountering any difficulties?"

The little witch glanced at him and said, "I want to draw a lot of people, and I almost don't know them."

Yaxiu thought to himself that if he hadn't kept his memory, he would definitely be confused about what he was going to draw. Who is this blond man, who is the black-skinned man sitting on the coffin, why is the crow grilling... This kind of doubt will definitely haunt him.

"Aren't your sisters here?" Ash asked.

Witch: "What sister?"

There is something in the miracle of rejuvenating the soul. UU reading www.uukanshu.com actually suppressed the witch sisters and other personalities. However, the sister personality is originally a companion creature hidden in the soul, and it is not surprising that it is affected.

This is much better than the amnesia cabin, when the witches were almost driven mad by the sisters. But perhaps because of the temporary shielding of the sisters, although the witch still has black hair, she has a few strands of solid colored hair.

Obviously, the witch at this time is not what she looked like when she was a child, but she has softened her adult state.

“You can start with a simple drawing first.” Ash said, “This test may have a time limit, so it must be finished as soon as possible.”

The little witch hummed and suddenly said, “I saw a person very similar to you in my painting.”

“If you’re right, we’re only temporarily reverting to childhood, then this person is probably the real you.

Yaxiu nodded: “Yes, it’s me.”

The little witch continued: “But in this painting, there are four beautiful girls with different temperaments and similar looks.

They either use their eyes or their movements, in short, they show their love for you through various angles, even I can see it.”

“In my picture book, I saw a magical creature called Veela, which is loved by everyone.”

The little witch stared at Yaxiu and asked curiously:

“Are you a Veela?”

Chapter 650: Trevi Fountain

At the same time, Ruby Mountain.

This ruby mountain, which has been washed by the golden river for countless years, has never faded, and now the top seems to be covered with a layer of dreamy milky white jam. The cream-colored jam covers the scarlet crystal below, and the layers change from thick to thin from the mountain to the foot of the mountain. From a distance, it looks like a creative dessert, with strawberry and milk flavors.

But when you look closer, you can see that the cream-colored jam is just a layer of shimmer against the ground. However, it is this glimmer of light that makes the legendary magician trying to climb cry, or dance in ecstasy, or be heartbroken, or burst into anger!

On the mountainside, the Mercury Trojan climbed slowly on all fours lying on the ground.

She had just taken a few steps forward when her body suddenly trembled like an electric current was flowing, and the strong maternal love, joy, anticipation and other emotions kept hitting her heart. She seemed to be able to see herself holding a newborn ugly baby, full of joy that this child was born on the ground, and sincerely hoped that the child would grow up happily—

Tactile Secret Technique Trojan Horse Tower!

There was a ripple of mercury in her soul, and then the emotions faded away until reason regained the upper hand. At the same time, in reality, there are at least tens of thousands of female Four Pillars religious believers who suddenly flooded with maternal love on a whim, eager to find something cute to soothe their inner craving.

The Quicksilver Trojan gradually stabilized, and then continued to climb Ruby Mountain. Even if she doesn't know the climbing progress of other people, she knows that she is definitely in the first order, maybe even the first person with the fastest progress!

Of course, the Mercury Trojan was not a legendary magician, she was just a legendary magician who occupied the Temple of War at this time, destroying the soul of Pope 'Orewa Berserk. She generally does not interfere with the virtual realm exploration of her subordinates, but when it comes to the inheritance of the gods, she naturally has to go out in person.

If the inheritance of the God Lord is too difficult, she will probably give up, but the problem is that among the four inheritances that appeared in this virtual realm,

It just so happens that the inheritance of the phantom master is the least difficult for her!

Compared with other angelic inheritances, the test method of the Thousand Wishes Illusory Lord is very simple and simple, not complicated at all.

– As long as you climb to the top of the mountain and seize the ‘wish’ left behind, you can inherit the kingdom of God.

For this reason, Chi also temporarily suppressed the infinite extension of Ruby Mountain. During the period of inheritance and opening, Ruby Mountain will not be as endless as before. As long as you are willing to walk, you can theoretically reach the top of the mountain in 2 hours!

The test given is the milky white shimmer that covers the upper half of Ruby Mountain.

At first, the magicians didn’t know what it was, but as they continued to climb and break through, the information about this shimmering light gradually flowed into their hearts.

These shimmering lights all originate from the projection of a secret realm called ‘Wishing Pond’ in the heavenly kingdom of Thousand Wishes!

The magicians have never heard of the Wishing Pond before, but the Wishing Pond is the same as the Golden River, the Great Road, and the Question and Answer of Destiny.

They are all world secret domains that can connect reality and virtual world. It has accumulated the wishes of countless intelligent creatures for thousands of years. Every sincere wish has become a light spot and stored in the wishing pool. After countless years, the wishing pool has become an ocean of light.

This layer of shimmering light on Ruby Mountain now does not even have one ten-thousandth of the wishing pond.

When the magician comes into contact with the wish light, he will be impacted by the wishes inside. In light of his confusion, his will cannot move forward. In severe cases, his personality changes drastically, and he regards the wishes of others as his own!

In theory, Wishing Light is just an attack from the spiritual faction, and legendary magicians basically have the means to resist the spiritual faction, and should be able to easily pass the Wishing Light.

However, I don't know if it is the miracle transformation of the Illusory Lord, or the qualitative change of the wishing pool itself. The current wish light actually contains the mystery of the fate faction. Even if the magicians are immune to the mental shock, they can't avoid being inside. Destiny pollution!

Destiny faction is one of the most mysterious magic factions. Most legendary magicians have never even seen them, let alone defense. How could they be able to compete with the miracle of destiny left by the Thousand Wishes Phantom Lord?

But it is precisely because of this that the legendary magician's desire for the inheritance of the gods is even hotter. If they didn't know what it was for them to get the kingdom of heaven before, then now the Wishing Pond is enough to become a temptation they can't refuse – this is the secret realm of the world that can explain the mystery of fate!

As long as they get the Wishing Pond, they will not only be able to cultivate the Fate Faction, but the Wishing Pond, like Liu Jinhe, may be able to independently generate Destiny Magic Spirits!

But unlike other legendary magicians who can only resist the light of wish light, the Mercury Trojan has a way to ease the pollution impact of light of wish light!

Her tactile mercury Trojan is not simply to control others, but to connect the souls of all people into a whole, and she can move freely among them. When the clone was physically damaged, she was powerless and could only retreat and retreat. I hope that the light pollution is the soul, and she can spread the pollution to millions of people through the secret technique 'Trojan Horse Tower'!

However, this kind of secret technique is like the tower of wine glasses, only the top glass can overflow, so only when Orewa's soul can't bear it, can the pollution be distributed to others along the wooden tower.

But even so, the Mercury Trojan was much easier than other legendary magicians. Only when the concentration of wishing light reached the level of instantly smashing Orewa's soul would she be unable to continue climbing.

She estimated that at least the Fate faction had to be sharpened to the gold level in Wishing Light, before it was possible to climb to the top of the mountain to * the wish.

But the Mercury Trojan has the help of a tactile secret technique. As long as the Fate Faction is upgraded to the silver level, it should be able to climb to the top of the mountain!

As for the talent of destiny, Orewa may not have it, but the Quicksilver Trojan is a prophet!

Fate, prophecy, and truth are the three mystical techniques that are entangled with each other. As far as fate is concerned, the truth magician may be stronger than her!

The Quicksilver Trojan looked up to the sparkling wish at the top of Ruby Mountain.

Interesting to say, since the inheritance of the Lord of the Gods began, the angel phantom that would have appeared on the top of the mountain disappeared, which made many legendary magicians regret. After all, legendary magicians all know the rumor: after condensing the colorless virtual wings, as long as you find the angel at the top of the ruby mountain, it will open a higher test for you.

If you can break through the boundaries of gods and mortals and become a demigod while getting the inheritance of the gods, that would be even better.

But the Mercury Trojan didn't care about this, she just wanted the heaven of the illusory Lord of Thousand Wishes, and that blank concept.

If she can't catch Yaxiu and Yindeng for a day, she will feel insecure all day. She lived in fear every day, for fear that she would lose her touch throne in the next second, and the Four Pillars Sect was controlled by Yaxiu or Yindeng, so she could only flee in a hurry...

Not to mention the black crow staring at him...

As long as she gets the kingdom of heaven, then she has a way out! She can even go a step further if she gets a blank concept!

“Axiu, a silver lamp, or a four-pillar god...” The mercury horse crossed the wish light and climbed up:

“I won’t always be a powerless underdog...never!”

“Are you a Veela?” the little witch asked curiously.

Ash is very sure that if Igula is present, he will definitely laugh at himself fiercely – Haha, Ash, you will be considered a Veela one day!

“No.” Ash said, “I actually don’t know why they like me.”

“Ah, here comes the classic Veela line, “I don’t know why he likes me”! And the tone is so innocent!
“The little witch pointed at Ash with a shocked expression on her face.

But soon she giggled, patted Yaxiu on the shoulder, and said, “I’m just joking. I also know that veelas are only female, and there are no male veelas in fairy tales.”

Yaxiu blinked, thinking that the character of the little witch is really... quirky.

“However, why are you and the four sisters who are in love with you in the picture I want to draw?” The little witch tilted her head, “Do you have anything to do with me?”

Yaxiu recalled Xiaojianji’s attitude just now, and after a moment of hesitation, he said, “Can I not say it? It has nothing to do with your painting.”

“Then let me guess.” The little witch paused and said, “Actually, you are my son. Are the four sisters my daughter-in-law?”

Yaxiu was shocked: "Why am I your son?"

"Because I think you are quite kind, and it makes me feel like a family, but you are not my siblings. If what you said is true and my memory is blocked, then you may not be me. Son?" The little witch said as a matter of course.

"Why don't you guess I'm your dad?"

"Because I don't seem to have four mothers?"

Watching movies makes children violent, and watching fairy tales makes children think big... Yaxiu shook his head, thinking that the Sword Princess and the Witch are just an example, not the problem of movies and fairy tales.

But the little witch was in good condition, and Yaxiu reached out and rubbed her head: "Good, we can leave after painting.

The little witch narrowed her eyes slightly and leaned forward on tiptoe: "Touch it for a while."

"Do you paint after touching it?"

"Ok."

Suddenly there was a stomping sound from the next door, Yaxiu looked over and found that Xiaojianji was stomping. Waiting for Ash to look at himself,

She immediately stopped and looked at the whiteboard, just squinting to observe them, those cute little gestures made Ashe couldn't help but chuckle.

At this time, the little witch suddenly said: "Actually, those four sisters are me, right?"
