

Super Rich Dad Chapter 679-680

Chapter 679

Elder Lin was still sitting quietly in his wheelchair looking at the red flowers in the garden, all he could do now was to try not to worry Lin Yan.

And just as Lin Yan was hurting her head over these matters, a phone call suddenly came through.

Lin Yan took out her mobile phone and saw that it was an unfamiliar number, so she picked up and said, 'Hello. Who is this.'

'Mr. Lin, right? This is the project manager of Xichunju, hurry up and come over, something has happened here!'

'What? Something's happened, no. How did you know my number?'

The other party hung up the phone after a few hurried words, and there was still a lot of commotion on the other side when they hung up. There was no telling what had happened.

And Elder Lin frowned as he looked at Lin Yan, his heart couldn't help but lament, what was supposed to come was still coming.

'I was previously in charge of this project at West Spring Residence, since you have taken over as the president of the company, then I will naturally pass it into your hands, so there will be a call for you over there.'

After saying this, Elder Lin shook his head somewhat helplessly and said, 'It's just that I didn't expect that something would happen there so quickly.'

Lin Yan nodded slightly after hearing these words and hurriedly got up and left, then drove to the city's East West Spring Residence project project site.

Just as Lin Yan's side was rushing to the City East Spring Residence project site, Jiang Hao here was watching a movie in boredom. He tried to ignore a fat man in a sick suit beside him who was chattering bitterly.

'I say brother Shen, look, I've already asked Dean Jiao about it, the prescription you're holding is definitely a new one, we've all compared it to the prescription.'

Jiang Hao nodded, not paying any attention to what Fatty Zhou opened his mouth and said, still watching the comedy movie on his phone and eating and laughing.

Fatty Zhou did not feel discouraged by this situation, but continued to speak: 'You just need to give me the prescription, let's apply for a patent and I'll use some of my connections, and a lot of money will come rolling in!'

Here Fatty Zhou paused: 'By then, you will get seven and I will get three. No, no, no, you'll get eight and I'll get two!'

When it came to money, Jiang Hao had seen a lot of it, and after hearing this he gave Fatty Zhou a somewhat disdainful look.

‘How much money? One hundred million or one billion? Forget it, you’d better stay where you are, don’t delay me from watching the movie.’

After saying this, Jiang Hao stretched his back and said, ‘Besides, I’m not short of money now, so it’s useless for you to tell me more.’

When Fatty Zhou heard this, a touch of sadness surfaced on his face: ‘I say, old brother Shen. I’m dying for my future, so can you give me a hand with the prescription?’

‘What old brother? It’s only been a few days and you’ve become my brother?’

‘No, no, no, you’re my brother, you’re my brother, just be generous and give me a hand. Can I beg you?’

Jiang Hao looked at Fatty Zhou and felt helpless in his heart.

No matter how many times he was told that he wasn’t going to take out the prescription, he wouldn’t listen. He had the attitude that if you didn’t give it to me, you would be annoyed!

After telling Dean Jiao countless times, I don’t know what kind of trick this guy used, not to mention Dean Jiao, even Xiao Li pretended not to see him anymore.

He followed Jiang Hao wherever he went throughout the hospital. What’s more, even if Jiang Hao went back to his dormitory to sleep, this shameless man would wait for him on the floor in the aisle!

Jiang Hao was completely helpless in the face of such a person, and I was afraid that if he continued to pester him, he would not be able to resist taking action.

Suddenly, a news item surfaced on his mobile phone!

‘The news reporter station in Beifu City reports that a mega clash has broken out at the construction site of the Lin Group’s Xichunju project. The clash directly resulted in over thirty serious injuries to the civilian workers’

Hearing this news, Fatty Zhou couldn’t help but smash his lips and say, ‘Boy. Over thirty people, who has the guts to make an enemy of the Lin and Shen families!’

Jiang Hao froze slightly after hearing Fatty Zhou’s words. Then he spoke, ‘The Shen Family? What’s the matter with the Shen family?’

‘Hey hey hey, you don’t know, do you? West Spring Residence is a project that the Lin family is working on with the Shen family, planning to build the most luxurious and wealthy district in all of North Province!’

Jiang Hao looked at the intermittent images on the news, and Fatty Zhou sat on the side and hastily took out a handful of melon seeds from his pocket while getting high, 'Boy, it's still live?'

As soon as the words left his mouth, Jiang Hao suddenly got up and ran out of the hospital door.

After he reacted and looked at the empty spot next to him, Fatty Zhou couldn't help but say with a dumbfounded expression, 'Holy sh*t, what the hell is going on in broad daylight?'

There was a reason why Jiang Hao was so excited, because he just seemed to have seen Lin Yan in the middle of the broadcast!

Although it was only an intermittent image, and the person filming was most likely walking around, the camera was shaking and shaking.

But Jiang Hao still saw a glimpse of a figure in the picture that looked like Lin Yan!

And Lin Yan was now the president of the Lin Group, so she would definitely step in for something like this!

Thinking of the chaos at the scene, Jiang Hao would never let himself off the hook if Lin Yan made a mistake!

By the time Jiang Hao drove all the way to the east of the city, there were already a large number of people outside the Xichunju watching the scene, and many medical vehicles were parked.

Jiang Hao got out of the car and slowly walked towards the gate of the Xichunju project, the passerby couldn't help but reach out and pull Jiang Hao and said, 'Don't go in, young man, I'm afraid it's very chaotic inside!'

Jiang Hao turned his head to look at the passer-by, then smiled and nodded, saying, 'It's okay, it will soon calm down.'

He then broke away from the kind man's hand and walked in, ignoring the gaze of the crowd.

It was a mess as far as the eye could see, things had calmed down and the muddy ground was still covered with patches of scarlet.

Jiang Hao looked at the site scene with blood everywhere and drew a cold breath for a moment.

Then he casually grabbed a staff member who was cleaning up the scene and asked, 'Excuse me, where is Lin Yan, the general manager of the Lin Group?'

The staff member who was cleaning up took a look up and down at Jiang Hao, and seeing that Jiang Hao was dressed in a suit and did not look like someone who was picking a fight, he asked, 'Who are you?'

Jiang Hao hesitated for a moment, feeling that if he said he was her fiancé, then there was a good chance that he would be cleared out along with this person.

So after a while of silence Jiang Hao spoke, 'I'm her friend, and I rushed over here after receiving the news.'

The other party snorted after hearing this, then shook his head and said helplessly, 'Anyone is fine, as long as it's not a journalist, the general manager is in the project meeting room, you go.'

Hearing this Jiang Hao nodded to the man, casually took out a hundred yuan as a tip and gave it, then walked over towards the project meeting room.

Chapter 680

At this moment in the conference room, numerous reporters looked towards the project manager to interview and ask questions, while Lin Yan was sitting in a small corner below, looking dumbfounded.

She hadn't expected this. It was only her first day on the job that something like this would happen!

By the time she arrived the riot had already started, many workers wielding steel bars and waving, all saying that the project department had no money to pay their wages!

If she hadn't dodged in time, coupled with the many security guards dying to protect her. Lin Yan was even worried that she would have been torn to pieces by the gang of workers!

Although it had since calmed down, the impact of this incident had only just begun. Soon the Xishanju project work should be called off, right?

Lin Yan's thoughts were confused when she thought of this, a whole two billion dollars had been invested here!

Once the project is called off, there's no telling when we'll have to wait for a new start!

Thinking about this, Lin Yan's face was filled with a burst of frustration.

Because Lin Yan had just taken over the position of president of the Lin Group, the notes below were not yet very clear that the pretty girl in sunglasses was the president of the Lin Group.

Jiang Hao stood outside the entrance to the conference room and hesitated for a moment before pushing the door open and walking in, seeing Lin Yan sitting in the corner at a glance.

He then walked up despite the many gazes looking at him, took Lin Yan by the hand and tried to walk outside, the security guards didn't dare to stop in front of Lin Yan on the way.

When they got out of the conference room. A surprised Lin Yan looked towards Jiang Hao and spoke, 'Why are you here?'

Jiang Hao looked at Lin Yan carefully and couldn't help but sigh in relief after seeing no signs of injury on her body, then spoke, 'It's not because I was scared by the live broadcast, I think I saw you on camera.'

Hearing this, Lin Yan's heavy heart became a little happier for a moment, but then she soon thought of these things in front of her and frowned.

Jiang Hao turned around and looked at the surrounding crowd before speaking to Lin Yan, 'Let's talk outside, it seems a little inconvenient here.'

Lin Yan hesitated for a moment after hearing this, then nodded and spoke, 'Alright, let's go to that cafe on New Town Road.'

After saying this Lin Yan took out her car keys. She regretted it as soon as she took it out.

After giving a bitter laugh Lin Yan turned to look at Jiang Hao and said helplessly, 'It looks like we'll have to take a taxi over, my car seems to have been towed away after being smashed.'

Jiang Hao looked at the helpless look on Lin Yan's face as she said this and felt some heartache, then he said, 'It's fine, it's the same as taking a taxi.'

After saying this Jiang Hao took Lin Yan out of the project department entrance and then quickly blended into the crowd and left, but he did not know that all this was being watched secretly.

Just on top of the building opposite the Xichunju, Shen Qingshu looked at the astronomical telescope and snorted before muttering, 'Lin Yan, right, I'll make you regret crying and begging me. Just you wait, this is a start.'

After saying these words. Shen Qing Shu then left with his own men.

On the other hand, after taking Lin Yan to the cafe, Jiang Hao casually ordered a few desserts that Lin Yan liked to eat last time.

Then he looked at Lin Yan and said, 'This is the first time I know that this place is actually your family's property, I remember that I had seen this place when I first came to the Northern Province.'

Lin Yan took a sip of coffee before shaking her head with a bitter smile, 'I wasn't very clear about this matter before, it was always handled by my grandfather. It wasn't until I took over the Lin Group that I found out about it.'

Jiang Hao had done something similar when he was in Chu Jiang before, so he was clear about the kind of trouble Lin Yan was facing at the moment.

So he frowned and spoke with some concern, 'What are you going to do after something like this?'

'I don't know, I'll be honest I'm full of confusion right now. Up to now I am in a trance not knowing how I got out.'

After saying this Lin Yan looked down at the coffee in front of her and said, 'A lot of things have happened at home during this period of time, I was still worried about this project today, but I didn't expect that something like this would happen.'

As she spoke, Lin Yan's eyes couldn't help but redden slightly.

No matter how strong she was, she was still a woman.

Jiang Hao looked at Lin Yan and patted her shoulder, 'Don't worry, this matter will definitely be investigated and found out, the most important thing now is to clear the way and try not to stop work.'

Lin Yan shook her head and said, 'That's impossible. After such a serious accident, it is impossible to say that work will not be stopped.'

'Then we should also try to start work as soon as possible. Otherwise, all this manual equipment is not a small expense a day, and those thirty or so seriously injured patients are also a fortune.'

After saying this Jiang Hao looked at Lin Yan's increasingly red eyes and paused. Then he sighed and spoke, 'It's okay, let's think of a way together. We'll get over it.'

Lin Yan raised her head to look at Jiang Hao after hearing this, and her heart was filled with emotion and guilt at the same time.

To her, even if Jiang Hao was capable, she couldn't do anything about it, it wasn't something that could be solved with a little money!

'Forget it, it seems that there is really nothing you can do this time, I'll be honest with you.'

Lin Yan looked at Jiang Hao and smiled miserably and said, 'This morning I was asking the board of directors to take money for this project, but even if they don't take the money, the dividends must still be taken!'

'Then your capital chain isn't very tight?'

Jiang Hao was surprised to hear this and looked at Lin Yan and said, 'How about that 50 million dollar investment project last time, is there any profit coming out?'

Lin Yan pondered for a moment before slightly shaking her head, 'That project is simply a drop in the bucket even if it changes hands.'

Thinking of this Lin Yan couldn't help but hold her head in pain: 'Why did things turn out this way, I'm falling apart, why?'

Jiang Hao looked at Lin Yan's uncomfortable look and his heart didn't feel good either.

At this moment, the mobile phone on Lin Yan's body suddenly rang.

She froze slightly before taking it out and looking at the phone number, and after a complicated look on her face she hesitated for a moment before picking it up.

'Miss Lin, are you satisfied with today's gift?'

Lin Yan's whole body was struck by electricity when she heard this, and then she said angrily with a sobbing voice, 'You did it right, didn't you, you did it!'

Shen Qing Shu laughed loudly at the phone, feeling immense pleasure in his heart!

No one had ever been able to fool the Shen family at will, not even the Lin family!

In this Northern Province, they, the Shen Family, were the true overlords!

'I don't know anything, I'm just calling to say hello to you today.'

After saying these words, Shen Qing Shu hung up the phone.
