Chapter 684

When Fatty Zhou looked at Jiang Hao's impatient look, his heart moved and he then spoke in a low voice, 'Hey, I do have a way to help your friend, do you want to hear it?'

Jiang Hao smiled and looked at Fatty Zhou with some surprise, 'What can you do to help your friend who delivers medicine all day long? Don't tease me!'

Fatty Zhou looked at Jiang Hao with some indignation and said, 'I've told you not to look down on me. I still have some skills in this Northern Province, you think it's easy to deliver medicine!'

After saying this he coughed lightly twice before pretending to look at the news and said, 'The Lin family needs at least three billion to help them pull through this time, I do have a way to help you pull in three billion.'

As soon as Fatty Zhou said this, Jiang Hao knew what he had in mind. So after snorting out a laugh he spoke, 'You think this prescription is worth three billion?'

'No, I think it's worth more than three billion. Look at the previous White Pill's prescription, do you think it's only worth three billion?'

Jiang Hao couldn't help but fall silent after hearing this, in fact he didn't care much about this prescription.

There were many prescriptions on Shangdian, and he didn't lack such a prescription, he was just a little upset looking at Fatty Zhou.

But this was the first time that Fatty Zhou talked to him about this matter in a serious manner, so Jiang Hao was silenced by his words.

When Fatty Zhou saw that Jiang Hao was somewhat moved, he hurriedly said, 'The pharmaceutical company I work for is an international pharmaceutical company, they can take out a mere three billion, and they can also establish a cooperative relationship with the Lin family!'

Speaking here, Fatty Zhou continued after a pause, 'I admit that I have been bluffing before. But as long as you give me the prescription, I'll definitely help you fight to meet the chairman of the company!'

Jiang Hao hesitated for a moment before looking at the news, and looked at Fatty Zhou with some intent in his heart.

'I can hand over the prescription, but can you guarantee that my prescription will definitely be worth three billion?'

Fatty Zhou slapped himself hard and said anxiously, 'No! If you are really unsure, I will go through the discharge procedure today and then introduce you to our chairman in the northern capital!'

Looking at Fatty Zhou's so serious look, Jiang Hao took a deep breath before nodding and said, 'Alright, you introduce me, it's best to get it done today.'

Fatty Zhou looked at Jiang Hao and was instantly moved to tears, after all the hard work for so long, it was finally not in vain!

The iron tree had finally blossomed. The stone in the cottage had finally softened!

So without saying a word, Fatty Zhou hurriedly went through the discharge formalities and then dragged Jiang Hao into a limousine that had been waiting for a long time.

This was the first time Jiang Hao had ever seen such a limousine in the northern capital, so he looked at it with some surprise.

Fatty Zhou, however, seemed to be used to this, and after getting into the car, he leisurely lit himself a cigarette, then took a deep puff and crossed his legs.

Seeing that Jiang Hao looked like he had never seen the world, Fatty Zhou said with some amusement, 'Don't worry, brother, as long as this thing works out. Let's buy ten or eight of them too!'

The driver sitting in the driver's seat snorted at these words and said, 'Fatty Zhou, do you know how much this car costs? Eight million!'

When this figure came out, Fatty Zhou shivered and almost dropped his pipe on the ground!

'No! Old Black, you can't talk nonsense, what kind of car is so expensive!'

The driver, Old Black, seemed to know Fatty Zhou very well. After smiling, he briefly introduced the car.

Just after he finished, he glanced at Jiang Hao in the rear-view mirror and seemed to think that Jiang Hao didn't look like an ordinary person, so he asked curiously, 'Who is this little brother?'

Fatty Zhou smiled smugly and laughed loudly, 'This one? This is my God of Wealth! I'm going to introduce him to our boss today!'

The driver, Old Black, gave Jiang Hao an unexpected glance and hesitantly said, 'You'd better make sure he's worth delaying the boss, or you'll know the consequences!'

After saying this Old Black couldn't help but tremble a little. It seemed like they were discussing some unimaginable character!

And Fatty Zhou gritted his teeth and nodded viciously, 'Don't worry. It's definitely worth delaying Old Master! I even think I can hog Old Master's time for the next week!'

Jiang Hao looked at the excited look on Fatty Zhou's face and asked, slightly puzzled, 'Who's your old boss, a man or a woman with such a big pie?'

Fatty Zhou and Old Black both glanced at Jiang Hao and then laughed sorrowfully and lowly.

After a long time it was Fatty Zhou who spoke up, 'I said we are an international pharmaceutical company, and our boss, naturally, is also a big boss of the sky!'

Just after saying this, Fatty Zhou looked at Jiang Hao with a strange look in his eyes and said, 'As for the male and female. You'll find out later, hehehehe.'

Jiang Hao frowned slightly at Fatty Zhou's staged appearance. But in his heart, he didn't put this matter to heart.

As long as he could come up with three billion, he didn't care if the other party was a man or a woman.

As time slowly passed. The car stopped only when it was almost ready to leave Beifu, and then turned to go to Tianzhu Mountain, the highest mountain in Beifu City.

Jiang Hao watched as the car drove more and more out of the way. After a slight jump in his heart, he couldn't help but say, 'Fatty Zhou, why do I feel that something is wrong with your route?'

Looking out of the window, the car had been going up the mountain for nearly half an hour, Jiang Hao looked at Fatty Zhou suspiciously and said, 'You're not trying to play any tricks, are you?'

Just as Jiang Hao said this, a female voice suddenly rang out from inside the car, 'What do you have that is worth playing tricks on?'

Jiang Hao smiled and hurriedly looked around the car to find out who was speaking.

Fatty Zhou, however, looked respectful at this moment and said in a deep voice, 'Chairman, I am Fatty Zhou, and this time I want to introduce the person I told you about before.'

The female voice continued, 'Are you sure he has that value?'

Fatty Zhou turned his head and looked at Jiang Hao before speaking, 'I'm sure! There is definitely that value!'

There was silence in the car for a while, as if he was thinking about something.

After a few moments the female voice spoke, 'Old Black, bring them to my office.'

After saying that, a sound like hanging up the phone rang out, and Jiang Hao glanced at Fatty Zhou with some surprise.

And Fatty Zhou said indifferently as if he had read Jiang Hao: 'The car is equipped with an internet phone, it was our old boss who just called.'

‘No, I mean, how come it’s a, it’s a woman?’

Old Black snickered and said, ‘What’s wrong with a woman, can’t a woman have a career? You’d better put away your current attitude and don’t let our boss see you, or there will be good consequences for you!’

After saying these words, Old Black’s face straightened up, then drove the car and stopped in front of a heavily guarded villa.

Chapter 685

Two men in black suits came over and checked their identities before nodding at Old Black and then the doors slowly opened.

What was even more exaggerated was that there were even more men in black inside the villa patrolling around!

Jiang Hao had seen a lot of people playing the scene. But never had he seen one that played like this, it was almost like a fortress.

When the car stopped, Fatty Zhou’s face became serious as he got out and looked towards Jiang Hao and nodded, ‘Get out. We’re here.’

Jiang Hao got out of the car in a bit of a trance, the scene in front of him gave him some pressure in his heart. But his face was flat as he nodded.

Old Black got out of the car and looked at Jiang Hao and smiled and said, ‘This seems to be the first time someone has been able to keep his face when he saw this place, right?’

Jiang Hao looked at Old Black and couldn’t help himself a bit, so he opened his mouth and asked, ‘How can there be a place like this here, and who are you guys anyway?’

Old Black looked at Jiang Hao and smiled mysteriously before speaking, ‘You should keep these questions to yourself, soon you will have more questions and I will slowly answer them for you then.’

As he said this he led Jiang Hao to the somewhat exaggeratedly large villa, where several men in black came forward and saluted Old Black before retreating.

Jiang Hao looked at the villa and gulped, speaking somewhat speechlessly, ‘This place is like a castle!’

Fatty Zhou turned his head and looked at Jiang Hao’s surprised look before he hedged and then spoke, ‘Why else do you think I’m so confident you can get that much money?’

In fact, Fatty Zhou was very excited inside at this moment, this was the second time he had stepped into this place!

The first time was when he stepped in when he was starting out. The first time was when he joined the team. He was still very young and a fifteen-year-old girl sat in a chair that didn’t match her size and announced that he had joined the team.

On the surface Fatty Zhou was just a man in charge of delivering medicine, but in reality he was in charge of the research and development of numerous pharmaceuticals throughout the city of Beifu.

The reason he was there to deliver the medicine was just to check on the specific use of the drugs developed by their company.

But he never thought he would inadvertently come across such a talent as Jiang Hao!

He had already seen that Jiang Hao had more than just this one prescription!

The attitude he showed was simply that he was bored with himself, not that he cherished this prescription!

It was for this reason that Fatty Zhou had gone to such lengths to introduce him to his boss, because he felt that Jiang Hao had the value!

Jiang Hao looked at the somewhat excessively long corridor. He circled around almost three or four times before he walked into an office.

Although it said it was an office, it was like a conference room, almost two or three hundred square feet, and a desk about six metres long!

At this moment, a beautifully dressed young girl was sitting on a chair with her arms crossed and her chin propped up looking at herself.

‘Shen Yan?’

The young girl spoke, and Jiang Hao looked at the other party and nodded, feeling slightly dry-mouthed.

She was dressed in, how should I put it. Serious!

But a professional suit was worn on her body, and it was hard to wear a confusing taste. Maybe it was because she was born with such an aura!

‘In the three months you’ve been here in the North, you’ve gone from being an unknown doctor to becoming famous, turning the Chinese Hospital into the No. 1 Chinese Hospital in the city centre by the way.’

The young lady’s face was expressionless as she picked up a piece of information placed on the table and continued to read: ‘Right after taking office, you performed a life-sustaining needle that had been lost for nearly a hundred years. Subsequently, he even performed the over-the-hill fire needle technique that had been lost for nearly three hundred years.’

As she said this, she glanced up at Jiang Hao with some surprise.

But she didn’t know that Jiang Hao couldn’t help but feel some vague anger in his heart as he listened to her read out these information rooms!

‘If you are telling me that you know me like the back of your hand, then I don’t think there’s any point in talking this time. Farewell.’

After saying this Jiang Hao wanted to turn around and leave, Old Black and Fatty Zhou both looked at Jiang Hao with some surprise.

And the young girl also looked over somewhat unexpectedly, but she curled her lips disdainfully and said, ‘I’ve never seen anyone who can overcome money, are you willing to put down a large sum of money?’

Hearing these words, Jiang Hao’s feet gave a slight pause.

A touch of smugness surfaced in the young girl’s heart; indeed, deep down, anyone’s heart obeyed the rule that money was supreme.

But soon what Jiang Hao said made her feel a little incredulous, even embarrassed!

‘If you really want to count money. Wait until when you’re richer than Shen Tianyang before you talk to me!’

Although the Shen clan family was gone, Jiang Hao was the only heir. He was qualified to say this!

When the Shen Clan Family was around, Shen Tianyang was nothing more than a household slave at his feet!

The young girl’s eyes snapped as she heard this and looked at Jiang Hao. Then she closed her eyes and took a deep breath before looking at Jiang Hao who was planning to leave without looking back.

So she hurriedly said, ‘Alright, I apologize.’

Hearing those words. Fatty Zhou and Old Black looked at the little girl with shocked expressions, as if they didn’t expect her to apologise!

Jiang Hao was also quite surprised, since he had come in, everything he had seen told him that this was not an ordinary place.

The fact that the only person in control of this place was thought to be a young girl silenced Jiang Hao even more, and he naturally knew that he was not facing ordinary people this time.

After taking a deep breath, Jiang Hao stopped and then turned to look at the young girl and said, ‘I accept your apology, now it’s your turn to tell me your name.’

‘Sally, the full name is slightly long, so I won’t say it, you can simply call me Sally.’

After the young girl said this she winked at Old Black, so he took Fatty Zhou and retreated, leaving only Jiang Hao and the young girl Sally in the room.

Jiang Hao nodded slightly, then turned and walked over to Sally and frowned, 'It looks like you don't have a chair in front of you that belongs to me, which is bad and means I can only stand in front of you.'

Sally looked deeply at Jiang Hao and said in a deep voice, 'Many people can only stand in front of me, I don't think there is anything wrong with that.'

'That's because they are not qualified to sit down in front of you, while I have enough qualifications and strength.'

Sally had to admit that Jiang Hao was indeed different from the norm.

He didn't let everything here mess up his mind, nor did he try his best to show himself to tough it out like Peacock did.

He just stood in front of himself calmly, not humbling himself and demanding the power that belonged to him.

Looking at Jiang Hao, a hint of admiration unconsciously showed in Sally's eyes, so she spoke, 'I think we can go and sit on the balcony and talk, there are two chairs there.'

Jiang Hao looked at Sally and nodded slightly before speaking, 'Of course.'

Chapter 686

Then Sally got up and led Jiang Hao out onto the balcony, outside of which was a huge swimming pool.

Jiang Hao looked at the place and couldn't help but see a hint of awe in his eyes: 'Your place here is quite nice.'

Sally smiled and nodded casually, 'It's not bad, it's just a temporary office, let's talk about your prescription.'

Jiang Hao turned his head and looked at Sally. Then he smiled and said, 'The prescription is in my head, but I want to make it clear to you first, this prescription is very potent and cannot be used casually.'

'I don't need to bother you with that. My men will test it slowly.'

Hearing this Sally snorted, thinking that she had such a good team behind her in the Northern Province. Was she still worried that a single prescription would make it difficult for her.

Jiang Hao looked at Sally's confident expression and smiled as he nodded and spoke, 'Okay, so how much are you prepared to pay for my prescription?'

Sally pondered for a moment looking at Jiang Hao, a hint of doubt flashing in her eyes.

'Fatty Zhou said that your prescription is worth over three billion, I am very skeptical about that, you should know that it is not a small amount of money.'

Speaking of this, Sally looked at Jiang Hao's bemused face a hint of doubt flashed through her heart.

Ordinary people wouldn't know Shen Tianyang, and ordinary people wouldn't be able to keep such a calm face even after hearing the figure of three billion.

The Jiang Hao in front of her was becoming more and more puzzling to her, the information on paper was so much different from how he looked in person.

'No, he didn't make it clear that I don't want any of the three billion. I want you to find a way to inject it all into the Lin family little by little.'

After saying this, Jiang Hao took out his cigarette from his body and looked at Sally, 'Do you mind?'

Sally shook her head and looked at Jiang Hao as he lit a cigarette for himself.

She couldn't help but ask with some curiosity, 'This is a whole three billion, do you really not want a single penny?'

Jiang Hao snorted, a mere three billion might be a lot for others.

But to him it wasn't much more, right now Lin Yan needed this money even more than himself.

If he hadn't been unable to run such a large sum of money for the time being in this capacity, there would have been no need for him to come and see Sally.

Thinking of this Jiang Hao shook his head and said, 'Do you want to take a look at the prescription and then make a decision?'

Sally looked at Jiang Hao and couldn't help but breathe a little sharply, knowing that Fatty Zhou had made this prescription sound divine!

After nodding slightly, Sally couldn't help but say, 'There is a Chinese herbal medicine room at the far end of the corridor on the first floor, go in and decoct a pair for yourself. I need to know just how overwhelming the medicinal effects of this prescription are.'

Hearing this, Jiang Hao got up and left the balcony, then went to the end of the villa's first floor corridor as Sally had said.

A man in black wearing a suit was quietly guarding the room, and when he saw Jiang Hao coming, he nodded and opened the door.

Jiang Hao went in and found that there was a compartment for almost every herb in the room. After a slight nod, Jiang Hao got down to business.

Sally, on the other hand, called Fatty Zhou up and then spoke with a cold expression, 'Are you sure the value on him is not less than three billion? That's a lot of money to invest.'

Fatty Zhou didn't even dare to breathe in front of Sally, and when he heard Sally's words, he nodded back, 'Absolutely worth it! The talent he has already shown is no less than that, I am sure you will not lose any money!'

Hearing this reply Sally nodded in satisfaction, except that she hadn't seen the medicine in Jiang Hao's hand yet. She could never be sure.

After pondering slightly for a moment, Sally looked at Fatty Zhou and spoke, 'You said that this Shen Yan. It seems to be somewhat related to Lin Yan, the eldest Miss of the Lin family?'

When Fatty Zhou heard this he looked ambiguous and went to Sally's ear and said something, but then he respectfully left, with a somewhat complicated smile on his face.

After hearing Fatty Zhou's words, Sally also laughed lightly twice and murmured, 'If that's the case. I'm afraid Shen Qing Shu will have to fall on his face this time.'

Just as the two of them were chatting over here, Jiang Hao walked over with the boiled medicinal soup and then put it in front of Sally.

'This is that prescription, the effect of the medicine is similar to that of a strong heart. If you reduce the amount of medicine it's also stronger than one of the ordinary maintenance products.'

Sally looked at the medicinal soup with a somewhat complicated expression when she heard this, then instructed Fatty Zhou, 'Bring it down for experimentation and give me an answer within half an hour.'

After saying this Sally got up and went back to her room to start handling her own business, while Fatty Zhou looked at Jiang Hao with some apology and said in a low voice, 'Don't mind, our old boss is like that.'

Jiang Hao waved his hand at his words to indicate that it was alright, and Fatty Zhou looked at him and nodded before carrying the medicinal soup down.

After almost twenty minutes, a man in a white coat, about sixty years old, rushed up excitedly.

As soon as he saw Sally, he hurriedly asked, 'Boss! Boss! Whose work is this prescription?'

This man was the chief pharmacist under Sally, and seeing the other man's excited look. Sally couldn't help but be a little surprised and said, 'How is the potency of the medicine and what are the results of the experiments?'

'The results of the experiment are amazing. This medicine is just a few ordinary Chinese herbs, but when paired together it produced an amazing effect!'

Said this. The old man handed a list to Sally and continued, 'The effects we have found alone are effective in controlling cancer, and the medicine has the effect of stimulating the body's potential! It's unbelievable!'

Sally turned her head to look at Jiang Hao, who was sitting on the balcony, in surprise. After a moment of silence, she nodded and said, 'OK, I know, you can go down first!'

‘No, I can’t go down, I must meet this master, the person who can give this prescription must be a worldly master!’

Sally laughed lightly at that, and after a moment’s contemplation, she nodded and said, ‘Since you insist, then come with me.’

After saying this, she put down what she was doing and got up to walk to the balcony, then looked at Shen Yan and said, ‘This is the person who gave that prescription.’

The pharmacist glanced at Jiang Hao with some incredulity, ‘This, you are the owner of that prescription?’

Jiang Hao calmly drank a cup of tea, then got up and nodded to the pharmacist, then looked at Sally and spoke calmly, ‘If the medicinal effect has been proven, when do you think we can start trading?’

Sally clasped her hands to her chest, an intriguing smile appeared on her face before she spoke, ‘Pharmacist, you go down first, I have something to talk to him about.’

Hearing this, the pharmacist who was looking at Jiang Hao with a suspicious expression nodded before reluctantly leaving.
