

Chapter 691: Jian Ji is dead?

In the country of stars, in the girls' dormitory of Jianhua University, Adele, who was lying on the bed, was nervously brushing the school forum.

“The Ghost Prophet Resurrection Details”

“The Died Saints Has Reached 4”

“The Eternal City is forbidden to enter! It seems that the new city owner has been competed! Continue to pay attention! »

“So far we still don't know who got the inheritance of the lake light”

At the top of the forum are these four top-marked red posts, all of which are the hottest news in the past two days. Even Adele, a standard college student who is not even a magician, is still chasing updates.

The most notable of these is the resurrection of the Ghost Prophet.

Although most people do not have the opportunity to participate in the ghost inheritance, the “Ghost Handbook” has become the best-selling book in Galleth. In Galeth's book sales list in the last month, “Ghost Manual”, “Time Manual”, and “Huguang Manual” occupy the top three. After all, a book full of gimmicks without royalty fees, which one will publish it? Society misses?

Among them, the sales volume of “Ghost Manual” is several times that of the latter two combined, and there are even rumors that the Thousand Stars Chamber of Commerce is already planning a movie about the ghost prophet. After all, ghost prophets have keywords such as ‘rebirth’, ‘cruel’, cunning, and ‘revenge’, which are really attractive to directors and screenwriters.

In this public opinion environment, the news of the ghost prophet’s resurrection is like Mars detonating the starry class of magicians. After all, people like Ghost Prophet who live on the light curtain are popular characters full of plot tension, but if they really appear in reality, who can withstand it?

Moreover, the resurrection of the Ghost Prophet is not a far-off thing. So far, a Star Sanctuary has died because of his resurrection, and this number is by no means the final number, because many Sanctuaries like to live alone for research and want to count their living conditions. It takes some time.

The details of the resurrection event on the top of the forum are basically the official version circulated by the Sanctuary Professor of the University of Truth. In addition to this, there are other added versions from the Sanctuary, showing everyone the dangerous process of the dream of heaven from various angles.

It is no accident that this news came out: as early as the emergence of the four major inheritances, the aristocracy opened an inheritance forum and established an information scoring system. All valid information about inheritance can be directly exchanged for noble points in the forum, which can speed up promotion or exchange. Various incentives, and this information is provided free of charge to any viewer.

Because of the inertia of sharing information, when the Sanctuaries returned to reality, they naturally couldn’t wait to discuss the ghost prophet’s resurrection event on the forum – not to mention that they all stayed in the virtual world for almost a day and a night. The Sanctuary was the mainstay of society. The collective disappearance has long attracted the attention of all parties.

Originally, Adele was quite happy in chasing updates, but now she looks at the forum, trembling with anger, gnashing her teeth, and wishing to drag the person who posted the message along the light curtain and beat her.

“Rhythm Juggernaut, Hidden Hand Juggernaut and other sanctuary professors are safe! »

“Miss Servey has not appeared for more than 60 hours. In theory, all the sanctuaries should have returned to reality 24 hours ago”

“Master of Weapons Mentions Suspected Seeing the Red-haired Sword Girl in the Kingdom of Dreams”

“When the Tide Recedes, You Know Who’s Swimming Naked”

“Anything about Servi? After a long time, a generation of sword flowers that oppressed the truth came out, but they fell like this? »

“The person who should come back has come back, and the person who shouldn’t come back won’t come back either”

Adele clicked into the post to read the replies, and was so angry that she rolled on the bed, her straight legs almost kicking to the ceiling. “What the **** are you doing?” Lois asked. “One or two of those people on the forum are cursing Nia strangely!” Adele’s tone was as if she was cursed.

In fact, of course it is impossible. Although there is freedom of speech, cursing people to death is a clear violation of moral laws. In the world of magicians full of miracles, this kind of speech that can become rituals will be the focus of attention. Language creativity is endless, not to mention that the main users of university forums are the most advanced and boring group of people. Although they can’t curse others to die, they can bless others to live.

Adele opened those posts that mentioned Sonia, and they all pretended to care about Jian Ji’s situation, “hope people are okay”, “if it’s true, then I hope it’s fake,” fleeting shooting stars The most brilliant’, don’t forget to add various emoticons later. If other people accuse them of being yin and yang, they can turn their hats back and report others for cursing Jian Ji. It is really a play on the forum mechanism.

Of course, these people also dare to be weird now, if Sonia is still there, she herself has the authority to manage the forum. Claws and Claws Sword Saint will not ban these people, but will directly find out their true identities and name them on the forum – she has played this way once, and all the accounts named by her have been deleted.

The problem now is that she’s not there.

Adele doesn't dare to open her chat software now, because members of the Claw Claw Club have been bombarding her with messages, asking Jian Ji if she has any news.

Before, Adele could cheer up and comfort them, and go to the forum to argue with others, but now even Adele has become weak and only dares to hold the doll and sulking.

As early as 12 hours ago, when the University of Truth announced the details of the resurrection of the ghost prophet, everyone realized that something had happened to Sonia. Because along with the announcement, there was also a list of the Holy Domains of the Gala World that was counted by the House of Nobles, and there were only two holy domain magicians in it who could not verify their life and death.

Sonia Servey is one of them, and the other is a solitary sanctuary. But 6 hours ago, the solitary sanctuary was confirmed to have fallen,

Be one of four victims of the Ghost Prophet incident.

Everyone knows that what should have appeared, should have appeared long ago. If it hasn't appeared yet, it's just waiting for someone to discover it.

Everyone has class today, but no one goes to class. They wait in the dormitory together, and don't know what they are waiting for.

"I heard that several seniors died a few days ago." Ingurit said suddenly: "The soul died in the Eternal City, and the body died in the meditation building.

It wasn't discovered until the decay. "

"Exploring the virtual realm is inherently dangerous. Every year, magicians are buried in the virtual realm because of accidental souls, not to mention participating in the inheritance competition? Even the safest Huguang inheritance has a probability of death, not to mention the ghost inheritance?"

“I know, of course I know!” Adele said. “I’m just unhappy why so many people are looking forward to Nia’s death!”

“If she really dies, everyone will only mourn and miss her. Jianhua University will hold a memorial service for her, and her portrait and statue will be left in the school,” Lois said calmly: “Now it’s just some people waiting. I can’t wait to mourn, I can’t wait to show my presence on the forum.”

“That’s why I don’t understand.” Adele asked, “It doesn’t matter if you don’t like Nia, why do so many people hate her? She didn’t offend them or touch their interests.”

Lois leaned back against the back of the chair, looked up at the ceiling, and said, “If I hadn’t been so close to her, I’d probably hate her too.”

“She didn’t offend me, and she didn’t have any entanglement of interests with me, but I always heard her name, the school praised her, the forum discussed her, and even if I opened the light curtain, I might see her endorsement... She is still me peers.”

“Some people will like her because of her excellence, but some people will hate her because of her annoyance.” Lois said lightly: “She makes me anxious,

Makes me jealous, and more importantly, she’s not perfect. ”

“She is not a nobleman like Di Mi, but a village girl in a small town; it only took her a few months from becoming a magician to being promoted to the sanctuary, and the process is full of mystery... Even Di Mi is hated by many students of truth. Sonia, how is it possible to be loved by everyone?”

“Do those people in the forum really hate Sonia? How is it possible, most of them haven’t even seen Sonia, they are just following the crowd.” Lois looked at Adele: “If you are idle, just go with the flow. Come down and pick a show to watch with me, I want to take a break anyway.”

Adele nodded silently, got down in her pajamas, moved a chair to sit next to Lois, turned on the light curtain and picked a movie, and suddenly asked:

“Will she not come back?”

After a short silence, Ingurit jumped down, who was doing handstand crunches with her legs hanging on the edge of the bed. Her body was steaming, her sports shirt was completely soaked, and she took a sip of water and said, “Should we go find her? ?”

“The school has inspected the meditation building, and she’s not in it,” Lois said. “Do you still know where she’s going to spend the night?”

“Where is her boyfriend?”

“Are you using one puzzle to answer another?” Lois replied bluntly, “We can’t even be sure that her boyfriend really exists.”

“Then we can only wait here?” Adele’s voice was full of exhaustion: “Is there nothing I can do?”

“Learning,” Lois said. “Learning can’t go wrong.”

“It’s such a time, how can I learn to go in!”

“Don’t say that you can learn it normally...”

“Is it my illusion?” Ingurit suddenly said, “Or Lois, are you really not that nervous?”

“Probably because I’m the one who has been watching her the longest.” Lois said calmly, “I’ve been fighting with her since the first day of the dormitory, and the more I fight, the more beautiful she becomes, and the more I fight her, the more popular she is. Good. Later, she became a magician, and she defeated everyone who looked down on her. She participated in the Meteor Tribulation competition and won all the way, dazzling like sparks and lightning, and she became the most dazzling star in the starry sky in a blink of an eye...”

“So dazzling, so different, how could I believe she just fell like this?”

After a pause, Lois clicked on the light screen to start watching the movie, and added to the background music that sounded: “But it’s also possible that I’m actually looking forward to her disappearing.”

Ingurit went to wipe and change, then moved a chair over to watch a movie with them. Just when the movie was about to reach its first climax,

Suddenly there was the sound of a key opening the door.

The three turned their heads and stared at the door, but what appeared in front of them was not a red-haired sword girl, but six strangers in black uniforms they didn’t know.

It can be seen that these six people are also a little surprised by their existence.

A man and a woman at the head looked at each other, showed their credentials and said, “We are the school administration office, and now we have to perform a task, please leave the dormitory temporarily.”

They took a look and found that the people who came were indeed the two deputy directors of the administrative department.

Adele snorted and stood up to change her clothes, but neither Ingurit nor Lois understood.

“What task does the administrative office need to secretly use the spare key to open the student’s dormitory?” Lois asked calmly: “It’s class time, theoretically we’re not in the dormitory at this time, are you planning to steal while we’re not there? ?”

“The students are becoming more and more impolite.” The female deputy’s face sank, “The student dormitory is the property of the school, and the administrative office has the right to manage the student dormitory!

“Then you can also inform us to cooperate with the mission, why do you want us to leave?” Lois asked: “Is there anything we can’t know?”

“There are too many things that students can’t know. UU reading www.uukanshu.com” The female deputy said with disgust: “Who do you think you are? Sanctuary magician?”

“No comment.” Compared with the female deputy director, the male deputy director is more silent and more impeccable: “Students are obliged to cooperate with the school work, please leave immediately.”

Ingurit: “But how do you prove

“it is good.

Lois interrupted Ingurit, and stood up to close the door: “Let’s get dressed and leave one by one.”

“You don’t need to be so troublesome.” The male deputy blocked the door with his foot. “You just need to go to other bedrooms or downstairs for a while, and you can come back soon.”

Lois said helplessly, “Then we can take a few books to review, right?”

She turned her head and gave Adele and Ingurit a wink: “Go get some books, the most important ones.”

Ingurit was still a little confused, but Adele suddenly rushed to Sonia’s table, opened the drawer and pretended to be looking for something: “Wait a minute, I’ll find it and burn it—”

“What are you doing?!”

When the administrative staff slammed into the door with a face full of anger, Lois suddenly opened her body and shot a torrent to the ground. At the same time, Ingurit kicked the chair violently, and the chair smashed into the person who rushed in like a cannonball!

“I knew it.” Lois sneered, “You guys are here to steal.”

Chapter 692: why did you come back

Sonia’s most coveted, not her beauty, not her own miracles, not even herself!

It’s her hidden secret!

The secret that allows her to achieve the Sword Art Sanctuary in less than half a year from scratch!

You must know that even the demigods like the Angel of Lake Light, the King of Time, and the Prophet of Ghosts, even if they follow the path of origin, they do not need to specially improve the realm of the faction. sorcerer.

The speed at which the red-haired sword princess is promoted is outrageous, even the rebirth of the ghost prophet can’t match!

Even if Sonia does not have any bottlenecks, she can be promoted as long as the virtual wings are condensed, but her virtual wings condensation speed is several times or even ten times that of ordinary magicians!

Silver Void Wing is nothing, after all, there is an excuse for vortex, but there is no shortcut for Golden Void Wing, and it must be down-to-earth to walk thousands of miles.

But she actually walked the distance of two years in one or two months!

This is the secret that can make the family and even the whole country take off. Who is not jealous? Who doesn’t want it?

The reason why the Kingdom of Stars did not ask Sonia for secrets is because all officials from top to bottom are bound by the blessings of the stars and cannot make any illegal decisions that deliberately harm the interests of citizens. Tell them that the big picture is the village girls and these little people.

However, the Kingdom of the Stars is really not in a hurry. Anyway, it will be a matter of time before Sonia accepts the blessings of the stars. If there is a secret, it will definitely rot in the Kingdom of the Stars.

But it's different for others. If Sonia's secrets are limited, whoever gets it first will benefit from the family!

Like Adele and Lois, they had been coerced by the family before and secretly to try to steal the secrets of the Sword Saint. But as their relationship with Sonia became closer, and Lois became a magician, the pressure on the family gradually eased—after all, it would be good to have a good relationship with the promising Sanctuary magician.

Lois had long expected that someone would definitely covet Sonia's relic. But I didn't expect that the news of the death had not been confirmed, and some people couldn't wait to search the house!

But after thinking about it carefully, she also understood that if the death news was confirmed, how could it be their turn to **** the relics?

Snapped!

The male deputy headed with a tiger and punched, smashing the chair into pieces with one punch! As for the rapids under his feet, he hardly received any impact!

Fist Claw Master!

Lois and Ingurit's pupils shrank suddenly. In the narrow environment of the bedroom, the advantages of fist and claw artisans are almost infinite! Ingurit's swordsmanship can't be used, Lois's water skills need casting time, but his fist and claw skills can be used at will!

He obviously knew this, and calmly stepped into the room, “It’s over for a—”

The male deputy’s voice got stuck in an instant, because he saw that Adele, the weakest and weakest in the dormitory, was holding a loudspeaker at this time.

— She took it when she was helping out at the masquerade a few days ago.

“Hit someone! A thief came to the girl’s dormitory to beat someone!”

Adele’s voice penetrated the entire dormitory building: “These thieves pretended to be the administrative office to pry open our door. If the burglary is not successful, it will be directly changed to robbery. Plus credits!”

In the face of this situation, the male deputy director calmed down, and he said to the people behind: “You guys hurry up, Olivera, you and I will subdue them.”

The female deputy was very resentful: “Aren’t you enough alone?! What should I do now? Everyone knows it! It’s all your fault. If you didn’t choose to come at this time, this situation would not have happened!”

“I can defeat them, but I can’t stop them from destroying their property.” The male deputy said: “Don’t complain, since you’ve screwed up, at least you have to complete the bottom line.”

Lois said with a smile: “It’s really hard for you to be so kind, but I’ve already slapped this menopausal auntie.”

The female deputy immediately turned her attention to Lois. In fact, what Luo Yisi said is biased. Although the female deputy is no longer delicate now, she is still beautiful. When she was young, she might have competed with Luo Yisi for the position of sword flower, but her anger made her facial features become deep and terrifying. Every blackhead seems to be oozing resentment.

Swish! The female deputy suddenly pointed at Adele’s water glass, and the water glass burst instantly and shot a jet of black water towards Lois – she was actually a water magician!

The speed of the black water is extremely fast, I am afraid it is a mixture of dark magic spells! What's more, the black water shot at Loisi's face, even if it wasn't fatal, it would leave terrifying scars on Loisi!

Ordinary silver artisans could not avoid this miracle even if they noticed it, but Lois was not afraid at all! I saw two water marks floating under her feet,

Although she didn't exert any force, her body slid out with the water flow, incredibly fast!

Wandering magic!

This is exactly the reward that Lois received from the inheritance of Huguang!

Lois didn't slide casually, she slid directly in front of Sonia's table and shot a torrent at the four men in black, forcing the latter to defend.

Even if the female deputy wants to fight back, she has to worry about Sonia's relics behind her!

However, at this time, Ingurit had already drawn out the wooden sword, and the sword shadow Bi Luo slashed towards the female deputy!

clang!

The male deputy took Ingurit's wooden sword with his fist. He didn't know when he put on the chain glove. When he was hit by the wooden sword, the whole glove was ringing, but he was not damaged at all!

Ingurit's eyes froze, and the wooden sword turned into a dozen afterimages and slashed at the male deputy! The male deputy seemed to be so suppressed that he couldn't fight back, and could only passively defend himself. There were countless crackling sounds of thunder in the room!

After a few seconds, the two withdrew their hands, and the deputy male glanced at his glove, which was actually smashed, and his face was strange: "It's just a few basic spells to achieve this level... It's really talented."

"For a wingman, you've done a great job."

"but."

Snapped.

Ingurit's body was bubbling with heat, and her freshly wiped body was soaked with sweat again. The hands holding the sword suddenly loosened, allowing the wooden sword to shatter into several pieces. She looked at her shattered tiger's mouth, pea-sized beads of sweat flowed from her forehead to her eyes, her expression did not change, only her slightly trembling lips reflected that she was enduring the severe pain.

"Game over," he said.

The noisy Adele was pulled over by the female deputy. She covered her swollen face, tears welling up in her eyes, but she couldn't hold back.

The loudspeaker was also smashed.

Lois was still at the table, but she saw that there were more men in black blocking the corridor outside the door, preventing other students from coming to check the situation, and she knew that there was no hope.

"I request that Professor Trozan be notified," she said.

The female deputy responded immediately: she reached out and touched Adele's face, which was obviously not a gesture of intimacy.

“We are just no-names.” The male deputy said calmly: “Of course we are afraid of the Hidden Hand Sword Saint, but the people behind us are not afraid.”

“Then are you afraid of reaching out to the Sword Saint?”

As soon as the voice sounded, the male deputy director immediately hit a miraculous violent punch, and the female deputy also subconsciously brought Adele in front of him—

But, no use!

They were completely out of control, their throats were tightly bound by iron hands, and they were instantly pressed to the ground, dragged out like a rag and slammed into the balcony!

boom!

Lois sat limply on the ground and asked feebly, “Why did you come back?”

“I slept, took a shower, cut my hair, and changed my clothes.”

Sonia grabbed the two of them by the throat, forced their heads into the tiles of the balcony, and smiled back: “How dare you go back to the bedroom to meet people if you don’t dress beautifully?”

Chapter 693: Dark and evil forces Mad Sword Princess

How can it be!

Zuo Zhuo's heart is full of disbelief and annoyance of being betrayed – he can work in Jianhua University, in addition to being a two-wing fist and claw master, his family has also contributed a lot. His mother is the Griffin Meteorologist of the Griffin Company, who is the most expensive, and his family ranks first even in the entire Galax.

However, for a family like him without the support of the sanctuary, the prosperity and decline are just a generation away. When the mother dies, they will be beaten back to their original shape, not to mention that although their imperial nobles can hold power, it is difficult to accumulate wealth. Therefore, the nobles of the imperial palace often have to rely on the prosperous nobles of the imperial palace.

Forming an intertwined interest group, a family like Zuozhuo is attached to an earl family with a sanctuary magician.

Although Zuo Zhuo received an order from the earl to be a **** this time, in his capacity, he could still refuse if it was really dangerous. The reason why he dared to take away Servi's inheritance is because the earl is sure that the red-haired sword girl is dead!

This is not purely logical inference, but after discovering that Jian Ji could not be contacted, a number of nobles entrusted the sanctuary of prophecy together to confirm that Sonia was no longer in the distant airspace!

If you are not in the distant airspace and cannot be contacted, what possibility is there other than death?

What's even better is that although Sonia has a big secret, she doesn't have any real estate at this time, and her only relative is far away in the countryside, the mother of an ignorant village woman!

If she had already bought the property, they would not be able to bypass the regulations and enter the house without permission. Only the Police Department is qualified to deal with Sonia's belongings; if she has a legally recognized magician partner by her side, even the Police Department will not be able to. Withholding the relic, it must be handed over to her partner for distribution.

For example, in the sanctuary of the fallen kingdom of stars, their inheritance value is not much lower than that of Sonia, but no one will covet their inheritance. First, their relatives have magicians, and secondly, their inheritance is placed in their own property. It is impossible to bypass the law if you want to do it.

However, the school dormitory is a very special area. The school and the students have the right to manage the dormitory at the same time. The school is also qualified to inspect the sanitation of the dormitory and deal with prohibited items. This forms a huge legal vacuum. Even if Zuo Zhuo and others have received the blessings of the stars, they can openly take Sonia's relics without breaking any laws!

This was indeed a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, so before the exact news of her death came, they rushed over to collect Sonia's relics. Even if Jian Ji's rural mother came to Galace to ask for relics in the future, they could detain most of the inheritance by finding prohibited items, and only return the unimportant things to the ignorant village women.

The premise is that Sonia Servey is really dead!

Yes, Sonia has no real estate, no relatives to rely on, and no high-ranking titles. When she dies, everyone will only pay attention to her hidden secrets.

But as long as she doesn't die, she is a sanctuary magician, a humanoid tactical weapon, a living powerhouse who doesn't need to give face to anyone except legends!

"Faced with burglary, should I call this self-defense?"

Sonia grabbed them by the throat and picked them up. She seemed to put on makeup before she came, and said kind words with a bright smile: "Don't worry, I will live here in the future, so it won't be too ugly, And it seems like it's my turn to clean today...so just interrupt 208

A bone will do, it won't bleed. "

"You, you can't!" screamed the female deputy who was bleeding from the head. "I'm Trija Nobo, I'm a" “Trija!

Zuo Zhuo roared: “What do you want to say!?”

Triya was stunned for a moment and saw a mocking smile on the corner of Sonia’s mouth. With resentment in her eyes, she took a deep breath and said, “I’m the deputy director of the administration department, you can’t attack the school staff!”

“Dare to offend me if you don’t dare to offend the people behind you?” Sonia still maintained a refreshing smile, but there was a gloom in Ruby’s eyes: “Because offending them will affect your future? But do you have any? thought about...”

Hands tightened in vain, like a vise biting their throats!

“I can crush you to death now.” The village girl said in a hurry, her eyes fixed on them.

A female college student who is less than 2 years old and lives in an ivory tower would say such a thing, and normal people would not think that it has much weight. Zuo Zhuo and Triya dared to accept this job, but they also felt that there would be no consequences in their hearts. If it were Trozan, they would have been cowardly long ago, but a student like Sonia, who has not yet entered the society or even killed anyone, even if they are caught, has little fear in their hearts.

However, at this time, their hearts were like falling into an ice cave, and their minds were blank.

The beautiful girls in front of them looked pure and kind, as if they were made of love and candy, but they felt like they were being stared at by a fierce beast, and their necks would be shattered in the next second!

“Sonia!”

Lois shouted at this time, and Sonia slowly let go of her hands, giving the two a chance to breathe from the lack of oxygen.

“We’re just nobody!” Zuo Zhuo quickly explained: “Even if we stand up and testify, it’s useless, there is no real evidence at all.

And we did not violate any laws and regulations this time. We just received the news that you are suspected to be dead, Miss Servey, so we came to organize your relics in advance – the administrative department has this function! ”

Triya was so frightened that she didn’t dare to speak at all.

“Then will you return my relics to my mother?” Sonia asked lightly.

Zuo Zhuo can only say euphemistically: “It will be returned after inspection!”

“What about the news of my death? Who told you I was dead?”

“Anonymous wrong information cannot be traced.” Zuo Zhuo said: “We will make a profound review for our misjudgment when we go back, and strictly check the information channels!”

Sonia smiled and said, “So you did nothing wrong, just came to my bedroom to make a scene because of a misunderstanding?”

“So haven’t we already apologized?” Triya seemed to regain her courage from Zoro’s words, she grabbed Sonia’s arm with both hands,

I can’t wait to put my nails in it, as if I want to use some miracle to attack Sonia, but I didn’t break through Sonia’s sanctuary at all: “Why don’t you let us go? We explained, you can complain if you have any opinions! You are doing it on purpose now. Injuring people! Restricting our personal freedom! It’s illegal, you know!?”

“We are at fault.” Zuo Zhuo’s attitude was very good, and there were soft nails in his words: “We will apologize for our mistakes. If Miss Servi is not satisfied, you can appeal to the school.”

Sonia's eyes were cold. She knew that the two of them were right. In the end, their affairs were far from damnable. What's more, they had already studied the school system and laws and regulations. Even in the worst case, they could use the law as a shield.

She is all too familiar with this method. When she was a child, she and her mother often encountered such soft nails. Those people have done nothing wrong, but even if they can disgust you, the complaint will enter a long processing period.

Of course, now that Sonia's identity is different, Jianhua University will definitely give her a satisfactory answer quickly, at least she won't see these two people in school in the future.

But how is this different from the past?

I am so strong, why do they dare to show off their power in front of me, why do they dare to... disrespect me! ?

"Nia!

Adele whimpered and complained, "They beat me!"

Sonia turned her head and glanced at them, and saw that Adele was sitting on the ground, her pajamas were dirty, and one side of her face was swollen. Only Lois was not injured, but she shook her head slightly towards Sonia, her eyes full of worry.

However, seeing this scene, the Sword Saint stretched out his claws and made up his mind. She dragged the two of them out of the room. At this time, several floors outside were surrounded by students who had just returned from class, as well as the attendants in black brought by the two.

She looked at the nervous people in black and said, "You guys, jump down."

The people in black were startled.

“This is the third floor, you won’t die if you jump down, it will take a few days at most for treatment.”
Sonia said coldly: “You can escape or not jump,

I only give you ten seconds. At ten, nine, eight, and seven, everyone was hesitant for a few seconds, but at the count of five, Sonia unfolded the sanctuary and enveloped everyone in it. At the count of three, her magic spirit began to emerge, and the killing spirit was unscrupulous. The earth fox fake tiger might, the **** murderous intent like a prison almost turned into substance and pressed on everyone’s shoulders...

Finally, someone couldn’t hold it anymore, and the first one jumped down. Then the others jumped down one by one like dumplings, making a loud noise on the concrete floor below, and almost all of them broke their legs.

No one dared to speak in the entire dormitory, and everyone watched this scene in silence. When Sonia finished the countdown, she looked down at the two in her hands.

“We dance too!” Zoro said immediately.

“You can’t do this!” Triya said hysterically, “I am the direct descendant of the Nobo family, and Viscount Nobo is my uncle!”

“Nobo?” Sonia remembered something: “Who are Celia and Aalto?”

“Celia is my niece, and Aalto is my cousin!” Triya shouted as if grabbing a life-saving straw: “Yes, you have also acted in Aalto’s movies, you can’t hurt me!”

Sonia nodded silently, unfolded her virtual wings and carried the two to the sky.

As they flew higher and higher, they could almost see the entire Jianhua University. Zuo Zhuo and Triya felt more and more uncomfortable, and asked in a trembling voice, “You want to throw us down?”

“How is that possible.” Sonia said: “You are two-winged magicians, all of whom can fly. What’s the use of throwing you down?”

“I’ll accompany you down.”

After saying that, she grabbed the backs of the two of them with both hands, and smashed them to the ground like a cannonball!

300 meters!

200 meters!

100 metres!

The scene in the field of vision quickly became larger, and even if the two spread their wings, they could not resist the rapid fall! Triya screamed and scratched, and Zoro tried to turn around to resist. However, Sonia is now performing the miracle of the three-winged sword technique ‘Wave Dash’. Is it possible for a two-winged magician to compete?

The students who saw them flying down from the dormitory had started screaming until there was a loud noise, and Sonia took them to the ground and smashed huge smoke!

“Ah! One by one”

Zuo Zhuo looked at the gravel on the ground with wide eyes. His head was only five centimeters away from the ground. If it wasn’t for Sonia to stop their kinetic energy at the end, they would have turned into a pool of mud.

“Ugh...”

Triya cried directly, and suspicious smudges oozing from her trousers. Zoro is no exception, but his pants are more absorbent.

But before it was over, Sonia carried them up again. Just when they thought they were going to do it again, they found that Sonia flew to the main gate of the school.

In the afternoon, the entrance of Jianhua University was a prosperous commercial area, and the crowd was dense, so the students nearby stared blankly at the famous red-haired Jianji, and hung the two on the pillars at the entrance.

Not only that, Sonia also called out the heart sword and drew a few sword ropes, and used a miracle to tie the two firmly.

Originally, she didn't have any control miracles, but the Heart Sword Art Spirit and the Sword Mark Art Spirit who just retreated from the audience made up for the gap in her aspect. I didn't expect it to come in handy now.

Tied to the gate of the university, and then surrounded by tens of thousands of people passing by, some people even started filming, Zoro's face was ashen, Triya murmured: "You can't do this. I'm Nobo. Family... don't you know Celia and Aalto?"

"Yes, I know them, and I also give them the respect they deserve when interacting." Sonia said lightly: "Now, let's see if they will respect me."

"I'm too lazy to ask who is behind you. This miracle can last for about 12 hours. I'll wait and see if someone will help you solve it in advance."

At this time, the dean of education rushed over from the school with a group of people. He looked at the two who were tied to the post, wiped the cold sweat on his forehead, and said to Sonia: "No matter what happens, can UU Kanshu www.uukanshu.com put them down first? This will damage the reputation of the school. ."

"Then do you know what happened?" Sonia asked calmly.

I will investigate to find out. "The dean exhaled a turbid breath: "Can we have one?"

“If you still want to interfere with this matter after you understand it, please prepare the materials and send a written application to Professor Trozan’s office. I will give you a reply within five working days. If the school wants to pay a fine for review, I can also accept it. .” Sonia said: “Of course, you can release the miracle of their **** yourself, but...”

She walked to the dean, looked ahead and said, “Whoever lets them down is rejecting my friendship.”

“A half-year-old sanctuary, a legend in the future, and young enough to slowly take revenge on every enemy and even the descendants of the enemy’s...friendship.

After all, the red-haired sword Ji left, arrogant like an evil force.

The dean looked at the others, and finally the dean could only say, “Notify the principal and let the principal decide.”

Someone asked: “But didn’t the principal say that he was injured in Ruby Mountain and needed to rest?”

The dean looked at him with the eyes of an idiot: “That’s why we let the principal decide, or you’re going to put them down?”

“I can’t solve the miracle of the sanctuary.” The latter shook his head again and again.

Chapter 694: Xuyuan

“You are very hostile.”

In the office, Trozan is arranging flowers. She separates the flowers in order of heights, placing the blooming ones at the lowest level, and inserting the smaller buds on top, which looks pleasing to the eye.

“Isn’t that what we swordsmen should be like?” Sonia sat opposite her: “It’s your sister who said that revenge must be taken from morning to night, and never leave the pressure until sleep!”

“It’s not the same.” Trozan said: “A swordsman needs to always have a bad breath in order to sharpen the blade and refine the sword intent. But the hostile spirit is different. Become a loophole that can be exploited by a psionicist.”

“Then how do you distinguish between malice and hostility?”

“It’s very simple. When you are angry, your heart will be much more relaxed, and you will no longer be angry when you recall the old things.” Trozan said: “But if it is anger, even if you vent it, the memories will still be more and more angry in the future. .”

Sonia thought for a while, then nodded and admitted: “Then I am indeed full of ill-will.”

After a brief silence, Trozan suddenly asked, “Aren’t you asking how to deal with anger?”

“I can do it myself.”

Trozan looked at Sonia in surprise, and found that the latter had a natural expression, and his eyes were bright, and it really didn’t look like he was lying.

“In fact, I have always been a person who is very easy to get angry and likes to hold grudges. I still remember the people who offended me when I was a child, but I used to endure it, and it was not until now that I mastered the power of the sanctuary magician. “Sonia laughed softly: “I also know that my character is not good, like a sword that is swung randomly, but...”

There was a faint blush on her face, and her voice became soft: “I have found my scabbard.”

“Hmph, you are running counter to the right path of a swordsman.” Trozan said coldly: “The scabbard will only slow you down when drawing your sword.”

“But in this way, everyone will think that the reason why you hid for a day is to fish for law enforcement, and to teach those who are trying to hide your secret through the news of fake death.” Trozan said calmly: “I will Tell people that you’ve been hiding with me – in fact.”

Sonia hugged Trozan in the past, pressed her face close to the professor, and thanked her sweetly, “Thank you, my sister, professor!”

Sonia actually logged into the Void Realm in the Meditation Building, but after Trozan returned from the Void Realm, he went to the Meditation Building to take her away quietly as soon as possible. So the school didn’t find Sonia, because she had been sleeping on Trozan’s side.

“All the kingdoms of magicians that are unified must be counting the situation in the Sanctuary now.” Trozan fiddled with the vase and said, “Not only to know who died in the ghost prophet’s resurrection event, but also to find out who is the thousand May the heirs of the kingdom. After all, the sanctuary magicians who leave the dream kingdom of heaven will definitely return to reality and rest. Only the four black-robed magicians who inherit the kingdom of heaven may stay in the kingdom of heaven for a long time.”

“If any sanctuary has been asleep for too long and has not returned to reality as soon as possible, and has recently advanced to a legend, it will definitely attract suspicion.”

Sonia looked at Trozan with wide eyes. Naturally, she heard Trozan’s warning, so she nodded slowly and said in a low voice, “I see. There is only half-year sanctuary, no half-year legend.”

Hearing this, Trozan couldn’t help twitching the corners of his mouth. She stood up and gave up her seat, sneeringly said: “Come on, Miss Servey, you sit, I’ll just stand. How dare I be called a professor in front of you?”

Sonia didn’t know whether to laugh or cry, she pulled Trozan to sit down and said, “Sister Professor, you can hit two me with one hand now, of course you are still my professor. And my soul is hurt a little bit, maybe a month or two. There is no way to go to the virtual realm, you might climb to the Ruby Mountain during this time!”

The more senior the magician is, the harder it is to recover from an injured soul. When it comes to the legendary stage of the Sanctuary, it even takes half a year to start. An old magician like the Alchemist King with a 90% battle loss rate will probably be able to get rid of diapers today next year.

Sonia dares to say that she only needs one or two months, or because of the medicinal support of the viewer, she can speed up the recovery of her soul.

“Legend” Trozan couldn’t help but feel a little yearning, “If you are free in the future, tell me about your friend’s experience in Ruby Mountain.”

Sonia laughed and nodded again and again: “Of course. By the way, how did you recognize me, Professor Sister?”

“Don’t use the Evil Light Wave Sword in front of people again.” Trozan said, “Even if you use it, you need to change the appearance.”

The village girl was startled, and then she remembered that when she attacked the bubble barrier from the inside of the golden palace, she used the evil light wave sword! At that time, other magicians in the dream kingdom of heaven could naturally observe the miracles they performed!

“Just for this?”

“Of course not.” Trozan said calmly: “That’s why I went to the meditation building to find you, just in case.”

Sonia blinked and couldn’t help asking, “Sister Trozan, why are you being so kind to me?”

“Did you not listen to the whole class before?” Trozan mocked: “The swordsman needs to keep a bad breath, otherwise he will not be able to sharpen the sword; the swordsman needs to always have a warm blood, otherwise he will not be able to wash the sword.”

“To sharpen the blade with evil and wash the sword with blood, can the blade be unstoppable and move forward!”

Sonia was stunned for a moment, nodded and said, "I understand."

"You understand again?"

"In short, sister Trozan spoils me!" Sonia held Trozan coquettishly, giggling: "I like the professor the most!"

"Really favorite?" Trozan sneered.

"At least it's my favorite now!" Sonia said decisively without blushing or beating.

Just as Trozan avoided Sonia's embrace with a look of disgust, their miracle bracelets suddenly vibrated continuously.

When they opened it, they found the same message.

"Urgent notification from the Meteorological Bureau: There are virtual passages in the Iron Abyss, Shipwreck Abyss, and Eyeball Abyss, and the probability of virtual passages in the surrounding areas of Jialeshi is increasing. If you find virtual passages and unknown persons, please report to the Police Department immediately."

"There is a virtual channel in the abyss?" Sonia was a little confused: "And there are three abyss at the same time. Is this a coincidence?"

"All the coincidences in the world stem from unavoidable inevitability." Trozan pondered: "The four major inheritances have just ended, and there are special circumstances in reality, maybe..."

"The influence of the four major inheritances is only now beginning to show."

The Gospel Kingdom, Isu Palace.

“How much time will it take to gain control of the Gospel Spirit?” The Gospel replied: “It will take another 45 days to initially influence the Gospel Spirit, and another 465 days to fully control the Gospel Spirit.”

“Great!”

The witch jumped up on the bed excitedly, but the bed was so elastic that she jumped out directly. She wasn't annoyed, just lay on the carpet and imagined the future.

It is finally possible to get rid of the threat of the gods of the gospel!

The biggest beneficiary of this promotion to legend is actually Di Ya. Because every time the magician reaches a higher level of virtual realm, the soul will complete a transformation, otherwise they will not be able to accommodate higher-level magic spirits.

For Diya, it is completely different difficulty to bear the Gospel spirit with the sanctuary soul and bear the Gospel spirit with the legendary soul. It would have taken a year to counter the brainwashing of the gods of the Gospel, but now she only needs to wait 5 days for the Xia Keshang to spread all over the country. With the help of the people to mobilize Xia Keshang, she will be able to form a balance with the gods of the Gospel!

At that time, even if she confesses to everyone that Lisdia is a witch, she will not be formatted by the gods of the gospel!

It will take more than a month to recover her soul, and she can't wait!

Diya originally thought of 'building a relationship with Yaxiu from scratch', but Jianji's first-mover advantage is too strong, if it wasn't for Yaxiu's own psychological problems, she wouldn't even have a chance. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com However, even if Yaxiu accepts her, her relationship with Yaxiu still seems too vain and frivolous, just like the cloud and sand castle will break up as soon as the wind blows and waves – no wind and no waves Will be stirred up by Jian Ji.

Still holding on to the previous thoughts are out of date, and when the next miracle is completed, she will directly confess, using the experience of life and death to increase the bargaining chip,

First find a way to deceive Yaxiu back to the Gospel Kingdom, then everything will be easy!

But when he comes back, he will definitely go to see An Nan... and even Qin Na... What should I do...

All kinds of conspiracies were brewing in the witch's belly, and suddenly her gospel came out automatically, and several messages popped up:

"Void channels appear at the bottom of the abyss in Brahma, Azura, Hermela, Modora, Monfera, etc. It is expected that more channels will appear within ten days." Void channels appear in the abyss?

Di Ya was startled, it was the first time she had seen this kind of mutation. But she didn't need to think about it, she just asked directly: "Why does the abyss have a virtual channel?" However, this time the Gospels calculated for nearly ten minutes before giving the answer: "Because of the influence of the virtual abyss." "What is the virtual abyss?" "Void Abyss is an abyss or an area polluted by Void Realm. Due to the nature of Void Realm, the space barrier of Void Abyss is very weak, and Void Realm passages are very easy to appear. At the same time, Void Realm will also appear new suitable for Void Abyss Magic spirits. These underground abyss where there are virtual abysses are the virtual abyss areas." "Summary the impact of virtual abyss on the magician in one sentence." Gospel: "The magician can use the virtual abyss to travel to other areas more easily." Ya is a little strange: "Why haven't I heard of Xuyuan before?" Gospel: "Because this is a new concept that was born 20 hours ago."

Chapter 695: empty door magic

Kaleidoscope Heipao Town.

In the fox lantern ice room, the whiteboard used to record information has not been withdrawn. Although it has been almost a week since the end of the four major inheritances, the exchange of information is the basic need of the magician. In the past, the demand of the Senluo magician has been suppressed, and now it will naturally not hold back when it erupts, just like you like to sleep naked. I feel like **** get in the way.

And don't forget that the Senluo Wasteland is still in the war between Qinri Alliance and the Four Pillars of God. At the same time, the new situation of the virtual realm also made the magicians eager to explore and communicate with people.

"Why are there a few more dishes missing? And how come the prices have all gone up?" the red-haired pretty girl began to complain as soon as she sat down.

"Because the price of steaks has gone up." The peach-like female executive leaned lazily against the counter, the bulging pouch on her chest was flattened by the table top, and the buttons on it were like a lone man clenching his teeth, very reluctant. He buttoned his clothes tightly, as if they would burst open in the next second.

"I ate the Lala Fatty Set, not steak!"

"But I eat steak." The female supervisor shrugged: "If you don't want to, you can pay with gold coins, and the price has been reduced."

Ash was at a loss for words, and turned to look at Igula: "Look at the meal tonight.

"The budget remains the same." Igula said calmly.

"I don't have to eat so much, but you see Harvey and Chikara are still growing, so they definitely won't be full."

"Oh, don't worry about me," Harvey said. "If I really can't get enough to eat, I can rub Alice's food. The same is true of Chikara, who is Alice's slave anyway."

Alice... The corpse's food... I remember it like...

Ash covered his mouth so that he wouldn't spit it out. Chikara obviously disagreed with this, but he didn't dare to speak. Gwen, who was drinking water, almost spit it out. Igura raised his eyebrows: "I didn't expect necromancers to be useful occasionally – your appetite is getting worse now? Just eat less."

These days, the consumption upgrade in Heipao Town has increased exponentially as if it has grown wings. Compared with before the war, the consumption level in Heipao Town has more than tripled.

The main reason is that gold and silver coins, as general equivalents that can be used as strategic materials, will naturally be hoarded and recycled during the outbreak of war, so that the value of gold and silver coins still in circulation will skyrocket.

That is to say, people with money in their hands don't have to do anything these days, and the assets in their hands will increase in value out of thin air with the situation!

– Theoretically so.

However, gold and silver coins are divided into silver coins and gold coins. Among them, the gold coins are the strategic materials for the two-wing and three-wing magicians. Both the second-wing and the third-wing magicians can be fed with gold coins, and the second-wing and three-wing magicians are also the core combat power of each sect. The middle-level cadres.

On the contrary, silver coins can only feed the One Wing Magician, and the One Wing Magician is difficult to play an important role in the war, and basically acts as a logistics staff.

One side is the materials needed by the logistics personnel, and the other side is the materials needed by the core combat power. The consumption rate of gold coins is naturally much faster than that of silver coins, and while the value of gold coins is rising, the value of silver coins is plummeting!

If the exchange ratio of gold and silver coins in the country of peace is 1:100, then Senluo used to be 1:150, and now it is almost 1:1000. In a few days

1:1500 is not impossible!

For example, the consumption price of silver coins has increased and the consumption price of gold coins has decreased, such as the fox lantern ice room, which is not a rare example in the town of Wanhujing Heipao. Even the street sellers of grilled skewers put out the ultra-low price of gold coins for settlement. ‘

The reason is naturally that silver coins are the main assets of ordinary people and one-wing magicians, and the consumption speed of silver coins is much lower than that of gold coins. In times of war, gold coins are equivalent to high-end luxury goods, while silver coins are closer to the general equivalent, and are naturally harvested.

If the sects still tightened gold coins for strategic reserves at the beginning, now they are more or less speculating for gold. As long as you have the most gold coin reserves, you can use the economic advantage to defeat other sects in one fell swoop after the war. Anyone can see this opportunity!

However, before economic victory comes, the first outbreak must be an economic crisis. Now the fox lantern ice room is missing a few dishes is a sign, in a few months, the fox lantern ice room should be closed and sold for a silver coin. Cashier coins!

In other countries, the outbreak of an economic crisis is naturally a serious social event. However, in this wasteland of Senluo, where even economics has been broken down and there is no monetary system to speak of, the economic crisis is not worth mentioning in a feudal society where the sects are closer to the pastoral pastoral, and even if there is no commercial trade, they can be self-sufficient. Forbearance is over, and when the holy war is won, the entire Senluo will be ours!

Moreover, now that tens of thousands of people are dying on the front line every day, can the killing efficiency of the economic crisis be higher than that of magicians? How many divisions are there in the economic crisis?

It is the sanctuary magicians who suffer from flexible employment such as Yaxiu.

After experiencing a high-intensity battle in the Kingdom of Dreams, Chikara, Igula, and Harvey's three-winged magic spirits seemed to have been hungry for a month. They recovered after almost a month's worth of gold coins, and the gold coin inventory plummeted. And Yaxiu had two more four-winged magic spirits, Heart Sword and Sword Mark, and he didn't dare to feed them. He fed them five gold coins every day to maintain the basic combat power, but this also greatly increased the team's expenditure.

Originally, daily consumption could be covered with silver coins, but now the depreciation of silver coins is so outrageous that they dare not spend gold coins indiscriminately, so naturally they can only tighten their spending.

However, the fox lantern ice room was still quite lively at this time, the voices were full of people, and the Swallow Yuying sounded. But the topic of discussion is not war, but the new changes in the virtual realm recently.

My friend opened a vacuum door and came back with a few big boxes of gold coins! ”

“What’s this, my friend even brought back a fish-killing dragon from the empty door!”

“Is it true that the whiteboard says that there is a high probability of treasures in the basement?”

“But the probability of monsters is also high. After I... my friend’s sect opened the empty door, suddenly broke into a group of monsters, and it took a lot of effort to suppress it.”

Yaxiu and the others pricked up their ears to listen to the surrounding discussions, and looked at the new information on the whiteboard:

“Empty door magic: It is easy to be exploded by virtual creatures such as slashing fish dragon, fox lamp dragon, mud fish dragon, white speed dragon. Remarks: It may only be that the explosion rate has increased recently.” “The same place, the same empty door art. Spirits will also lead to different places.” “On the sea level, the empty door magic consumes significantly more mana, and often can only open empty doors (suspected) to the turbulent flow of the virtual world. The lower the distance from the sea level, the more empty door art. The higher the stability of the spirit, the higher the probability of leading to the real location.” “Use the empty door magic in the place full of gold coins, it is easier to open the empty door to the gold coin warehouse (suspected).” “Use the empty door after 12 o’clock in the evening. Spirit, the probability of encountering turbulent flow in the virtual world is reduced (suspected).” “First activate the empty door leading to the turbulent flow in the virtual realm 9 times on the ground, and then enter the ground for the 10th time and activate the empty door magic spirit, which has a high probability to lead to the real place.

(suspected). “On the whiteboard, except for the first two pieces of information that can be basically confirmed, all other information is ‘suspected’ full of metaphysical aura.

And all this information revolves around a new magic spirit – the empty door magic spirit!

This magic spirit can get so much attention, in addition to its special use, it is more important that its explosion rate is extremely high, and it floods almost instantly. Except for Yaxiu, who was unable to enter the Void Realm because of his soul injury, and the illiterate Black Crow, everyone else got this magic spirit in the Void Realm exploration in the past few days. sorcery.

Judging from the name, the correct use of this magic spirit should be to break through empty doors, such as creating a door in a wall or something – and it can indeed be used for that. But soon, the magicians discovered that if they used the empty door magic spirit on the air, it would open a door leading to nowhere!

Although most of the time it is a virtual turbulence that can destroy everything, even if it is lucky to reach the real place, the opposite may be the earth, sea water, magma, and the sky at a height of 10,000 meters. This discovery alone has made the empty door magic more useful—for example, it can be used to set traps or be used as a defensive barrier.

But the most important thing is that it is possible to achieve space travel through the empty door magic!

A magic spirit that can constantly create random phantom passages!

Everyone can see the great value of this magic spirit. In war, if you can open the door in a directional way, you can directly behead the enemy headquarters; in transportation, if you can open the door in a directional way, you can save unlimited transportation links and complete the exchange of materials in one step!

This is similar to the space teleportation array hosted by the Sanctuary Warlock, but the price is countless times cheaper than the space teleportation array! Moreover, space teleportation must be activated by a sanctuary magician, and even a silver magician can activate the one-wing empty door magic!

Even if there are countless technical difficulties to overcome along the way, the emergence of the empty door magic is destined to be an opportunity for the explosion of space faction technology.

In the past, the development of space factions was slow. The main reason was that the magician had to go to the distant airspace to get started. It was called high and low, and it was extremely dependent on the explosive advancement of talented magicians.

Now that there is the low-end magic spirit of the empty door, countless silver magicians can study the space faction through the empty door magic, and even some magicians will major in the space faction on one wing and two wings! With the lowering of the learning threshold, we will enter the era of the explosion of space magic, and the regularization process of space teleportation will also advance rapidly!

But compared to the grand narrative of the historical process, this empty door magic has a more realistic meaning to Yaxiu and others:

go home!

It is no longer necessary to search for the legacy of the gray fox, they rely on the empty door magic, it is possible to open the empty door to the gospel, the blood moon and even the stars!

But it is precisely because of this that the atmosphere of this weird team composed of fraudsters, corpse lovers, Crow Slaying, followers of the Four Pillars, the Bishop of the Four Pillars, and the former leader of the Four Pillars has become subtle recently.

Soon, Yaxiu finished eating the Lala fat meal and still felt half full, so he stretched out his hand towards Igu. Igu gave him a purse, which Ash weighed and found that the weight was a little off.

The corners of his mouth were slightly upturned, and he motioned for the black crow to follow, and then swaggered around in the snack street to frantically scan the goods. Black Crow was still wondering why Yaxiu had so much money, and when he saw that there were gold coins in the money bag, he immediately understood.

The two came to a familiar corner and ate back to back as usual. Yaxiu no longer concealed her inner entanglement, her eyebrows almost condensed into a ball, but it did not affect the efficiency of eating.

On the contrary, the black crow took the initiative to bring up the topic: "Axiu, how many days have you been here in Senluo?"

“More than two months?” Yaxiu thought about it and sighed: “A lot of things have happened, and it feels like time is passing so slowly.”

“Then do you like it here?”

“Are you serious about this question?”

“Of course.” Black Crow said calmly: “I haven’t heard of it, and I haven’t been to other countries. I’m not a magician, and I can’t enter the virtual realm... I’ve lived in this wasteland since I was born. My life , has been bound to this land.”

Yaxiu also felt that he was a little rude. He sorted out his emotions and said slowly: “Compared to the countries I have been to before, Sen Luo is too chaotic and disorderly, with constant religious disputes, and there is no one unified government... All forces They’re all using the Grey Fox legacy to fight each other recklessly, and I really don’t like it here.”

“However,” he said, “the Senluo people are the most vigorous ethnic group I’ve ever seen. Although there are various factors such as environmental oppression, religious guidance, and lifespan restrictions, almost all Senluo people once insisted on those illusory greatness. Ideals, even the believers who have taken refuge in the Four Pillars Cult now—they are only seduced by the Four Pillars after their ideals have been shattered.”

“Isn’t this very common?” Black Crow asked suspiciously.

“If you’ve been to the Blood Moon and the Gospel, you can understand how different you are.” Ash said: “The Blood Moon, Gospel, Sen Luo... It’s actually difficult for me to evaluate the pros and cons of your three kingdoms. The moon is entertained until death, and civilian life is peaceful, but the vast majority of people will face the most cruel elimination in the infant stage; the gospel is all good, that is, from the moment people are born, the future is already doomed and arranged clearly; Sen Luo is not good, but each of you is doing your best to bloom. Unless Dafa is broken, it is difficult for me to see anxiety, hesitation, and confusion from you. Everyone is striving for ideals and beliefs. Blood moon people become insensitive in entertainment, Evangelists cannot step out of their comfort zone in happiness, while Senluo people shine in suffering.”

“Even if Dafa is broken, the brilliance of some people will not be covered by the night.” Ash paused: “I’m talking about you, Tamashi.”

Black Crow replied in a nasal voice: “Hmm.”

“Transcendence sects, twin sects, bronze law sects, and even the Holy Fire Church... Although I don’t agree with the practices of these sects, I respect their ideals. If everyone is running for money, women, and power, then this The world is too boring. UU reading www.uukanshu.com”

Yaxiu looked up at the night and said softly: “Although there are no stars in the night sky, you are all looking up at the distant ideal. By the way, do you know which sect’s ideal I like the most?”

The black crow said immediately: “All the crows killed?”

Black Crow: “1”)? ”

“Because I really like the ideal of Fire Cat Dafa: allowing ordinary people to drive magic spirits.” Ash smiled: “It challenges the foundation of the entire magician system, threatens the interests of the magician class, and puts it in the kingdom. This kind of ideal will only be laughed at. Only in the country of Senluo, it can actually become the goal of the common struggle of magicians across the country. The Holy Fire Tribulation Church wants to pursue the glory of the Fire Cat God, which is really attractive to me.”

“If I hadn’t lost to the silver lamp, if I could continue to pretend that the First Gospel controls the Sanctuary of Fire, maybe...” Ash shrugged: “But that’s not the case.”

“So, I don’t like the land of Sen Luo.” He concluded: “But I like a certain era of Sen Luo, a certain ideal, or... a certain person.”

“Actually, you don’t have to take care of my emotions.” Black Crow said, “I just found a topic to chat with you.”

“Go and ask Igula, when have I ever taken care of other people’s emotions?” Ash snorted and asked curiously, “But why are you suddenly interested tonight? Before, you didn’t talk about provoking topics, and even participated in the discussion. Little, I always feel like you’re staring at Igula’s neck, trying to find the best angle for beheading...”

Black Crow said, “Because you haven’t taken the initiative to mention when you plan to leave.”

Chapter 696: restart

At present, there are three ways to use the empty door magic spirit:

The use of a wall with a thickness of no more than 10 cm (one wing)/50 cm (two wings)/3 meters (three wings) can directly open up a temporary channel, and maintaining the channel requires constant consumption of mana.

Use it in reality to create a portal, but 99% of the portals are turbulent virtual realms that can strangle everything, and they are extremely unstable, and they may collapse in the next second.

It is meaningless to use it against the sky in the virtual world to create an empty door.

There is a limit on the number of times it can be used. One wing can be used up to three times, and it will self-destruct after three times. If it is used twice in a row within 24 hours, it will also die from overwork. , otherwise it will self-destruct; the three wings can be used three times in a row, and it will self-destruct no matter how many times.

In fact, there has always been a limit to the use of magic spirits, but most magicians also commute to and from get off work in the virtual world, and the market does not allow them to make magic spirits work overtime, so few people touch this limit. That is to say, in the resurrection event of Ghost Prophet, many magicians fought eagles for more than ten hours in a row, only occasionally did magic spirits die suddenly, and the surviving magic spirits had to eat gold coins to get out of the weak state.

There have always been consumable magic spirits like empty door magic spirits, such as time magic spirits such as anti-year. Their common feature is that the effect far exceeds the number of their own wings. For example, one wing can reverse a year's time, and one wing can open the portal. The power far exceeds the rank, and it will naturally be limited.

Therefore, although the explosion rate of empty door magic spirits has increased, the research on empty door magic spirits will be a long process. At this time, even the major forces may not be able to develop a feasible way to use it, let alone Yaxiu and the others.

However, facing the black crow's question, Ash was surprised: "Did you see it?"

"On the first day you learned about the spirit of the empty door, you were happy; the second day, you went out during the day to inquire about news, full of expectations; the third day, you found a basement for research, and began to feel restless; the fourth day, you After playing cards with Chikara and Harvey all morning, I went to the basement to study in the afternoon, and I was a little slack."

"Then yesterday and today, you didn't go to the basement or play with Chikara." Black Crow said: "More importantly, you actually asked me to ask about combat skills, and you took the initiative to practice with me. I knew it at that time. You have a way to leave."

Yaxiu was angry: "Is it so strange that I take the initiative to ask you to study!?"

"It's not surprising, the strange person is me." Black Crow said: "Because I'm just a vicious black Crow who sued for death, no one will please the Black Crow, and no one will be close to the Black Crow. So when others wronged their feelings come When I got close to me, I knew something unhappy was going to happen next."

Yaxiu said: "Actually, I didn't wrong myself and who said that no one is close to you, don't I know you very well?"

“You never find me when you play games.”

“That’s because every time I see you, you’re either sharpening your knife or cultivating. How can I bother you to do something serious?” Ash yelled, “I never bother when Igula is counting money. Oh him!”

“And if you want to play with us, you should take the initiative to say, otherwise how would I know that you also want to join our sleepless and meal club activities?”

“Sleep and Meal Club?”

“It’s waste, sleep, forget, eat, club.

Hei Crow was slightly startled, then shook his head and said, “I took the initiative before, and then made others wronged.”

“what?”

“I used to play sandbags with a few kids when I passed by a small town. I was very happy at the time, but then someone complained to Tanom, saying that I coerced those kids, yeah, who would want to dress like that? Weird and **** people to play with?”

Black Crow’s tone did not fluctuate, only his voice gradually became lower. However, Ash had a different opinion: “Are the children complaining, or are their parents complaining?”

“It should be my parents, but it’s all the same...”

“It’s different. You’re just illiterate, not really blind. When you play with your children, whether they are happy or aggrieved, can’t you really tell?”

“Me too, I may have been a little reluctant to find you at first, after all, I’ve reached the age where I start to hate physical activity... But soon I got into a state, because you taught me seriously, so I have to respond seriously.”

“Your appearance is really scary, but kindness is something you feel with your heart, not your eyes. No matter how fierce a good person looks, they are also good people, and no matter how beautiful they look, they are also bad people...and not only I can feel it. , you know how sensitive Harvey and Igula are, but even they know to worry about your mood, and you’ve got their approval.”

“I don’t need their approval.”

“But you already recognized them, didn’t you?”

Yaxiu said: “From now on, there will be no white crow to accept kindness for you, so you must learn to accept kindness calmly, and learn to take the initiative to release kindness. Don’t hide in the mask of a black crow like a young boy who hasn’t grown up. Self-pity below... Did I make it clear?”

“Ok.”

“Alas, such a big man still has me to worry about.” Yaxiu sighed: “I paid too much for this team.”

After a short silence, Yaxiu said slowly: “We plan to leave Heipao Town tomorrow and embark on the journey home. It is estimated that it will take more than ten days on the road to reach the destination.”

“It wasn’t so fast. Although we have the key path of the space door magic, how to create a space door to other countries?

There are still many technical hurdles—and ones that we cannot solve. ”

He shrugged. “But who called Gwen lucky?”

No one expected that the key information to go home would be provided by Gwen, the prisoner they brought back from the dead city. Gwen is a two-winged magician. When she was on an adventure in the Time Continent, she accidentally entered the Destiny Question and Answer Building.

She successfully answered two Destiny questions, and as a bonus, she could ask the Void, so the question she asked was “the best way I can get across the realm”.

So the virtual world gave the answer, “Using the empty door magic to reach the bottom of the Senluo country will form a stable space channel, the probability of encountering the turbulent flow of the virtual world will be greatly reduced, and it may randomly lead to other countries.”

After Igula’s verification, this information is true. As for why Gwen asked this question, she said it was ‘because everyone has been worrying about this recently’, but Igula said she was not so kind, it was just the smartest choice, after all, Sen Luo was about to turn into a **** grindstone. In addition, she has offended the Four Pillars of God, and it is obviously more practical to ask how to leave at this time than other questions.

But in any case, Yaxiu and others finally have a very clear stage goal: to reach the bottom of Sen Luo, and then constantly refresh the empty door,

Until the portal of the Gospel Kingdom is refreshed.

“Congratulations.”

“thanks.”

Ash put the **** back in the bag and said, “Chikara was originally our shared slave, and he has sold himself to us in order to survive, so we will definitely take him away – at least Igula hasn’t drained this. The value of the orcs—but Chikara himself has the temperament to go with the flow, and he didn’t resist leaving Senro.”

“It’s the same with Gwen, whether she’s for us or for herself, she’s definitely leaving with us. So, our goals are the same.”

After all, Ash took the initiative to walk out of the alley, and the black crow followed. In fact, there should be another question here, but it is difficult for Ashe to ask, and Black Crow has no intention of taking the initiative to answer.

Just as they crossed the street, a large group of people suddenly poured out of the pavilion-style building next to them. This building is the only auction house in Heipao Town.

The auction was originally held once a week, but recently there are auctions almost every day. This all-out war that swept the continent shattered the idea of all sects resting on their laurels. force.

Originally, Yaxiu was quite interested in the auction. After all, this is a classic part of a fantasy adventure. Wouldn't it be a waste of time to not trigger interesting plots such as competitive auctions, robbery and murder, and looting?

But after experiencing an auction once, Yaxiu gave up this activity completely.

It's completely impossible to pick up leaks. As for competitive auctions and robbery and murder, it's impossible to happen in Heipao Town. What's more, the auction items are basically things they don't need. Yaxiu is a swordsman faction, Igula is a spiritual faction, and Harvey is a Necromancer faction, and these three factions belong to the sewers of the sewer in the Senluo Wasteland. There are few majors, and the related output is naturally small!

In the Senluo Wasteland, there are many factions of spells, such as bitterness, thunder, fire, earth, and Senluo, which can contend with harsh environments, that is, magic spells that can both fight and produce. Just like buying the cheapest entry-level car, customers naturally demand that the functions of shopping for food, transporting goods, and long-distance driving are all available.

Swordsmanship and spirituality, such a delicate magic faction, are obviously not related. The only necromantic faction that is related, but because of the green beast, there is no soil for development. If a burial is held, the green beast will dig out the corpse from the grave and eat it. , so cremation is popular in the Senluo wasteland.

Without any desire to shop, Yaxiu naturally stopped participating in the auction.

He glanced at the auction house curiously, but found that the three girls in tight clothes and carrying many bags were running towards them.

“Come on!”

The three women threw the two treasure bags to Ash and Black Crow from a distance, and then turned into a fork like a gust of wind. Yaxiu caught it subconsciously, and immediately he saw a part of the people pouring out of the auction hall rushing towards him.

“Gan!”

Yaxiu cursed, turned around and pulled the black crow away. Pedestrians gave way to them, and some even applauded and encouraged them to run faster.

“Why did you run?” The black crow naturally understood the cause and effect in an instant, and could still speak normally while running: “Can’t we just return the things back? We are not the accomplices of those three people.”

“But they don’t know!” Ash shouted, “Don’t say they don’t believe it, even if they did, they’d be beaten up before we explained it!

More likely, we were beaten to death by them before we could speak! ”

“How can it be.”

“Why is it impossible, now I’m in a kaleidoscope state, I can’t use the magic power, and I can’t take you away! Quick, let’s jump on the box and run from the roof!”

Black Crow wanted to say something, but suddenly fell silent and jumped onto the roof first. Yaxiu stepped on the box and jumped up with a roar, but he couldn’t grasp the eaves – he misjudged his height and jumping power! But the black crow immediately grabbed his hand and pulled him to the roof.

The people in the auction hall yelled at them below. Some people stepped on the box like them, and some people moved ladders from nearby shops to chase them. From time to time, people shot them with earth guns. Use www.mtlnovel.com to run and jump on the roof, cross the balcony, and climb the beams. Pedestrians in the shops on the street stopped and chased their backs with their eyes. The torches and shouts on the ground were in hot pursuit. Those lights and sounds seemed to be composed into a flowing music and became their accompaniment along the way.

Tonight, Heipao Town dances for them.

A sense of absurdity spread in Yaxiu's heart. He thought that he was a legendary magician, but he was chased by a group of ordinary magicians with up to two wings and fled in a hurry. Although I don't know what's in the bag, it's definitely not what he needs, or even an ordinary auction item that he doesn't like.

When he ran to the end of the eaves again, Yaxiu jumped up suddenly, but his jumping power was really not good. Seeing that he was about to hit the wall with a snap like a mosquito, it was the black crow who grabbed his arm and pulled him violently. come up.

Yaxiu raised his head, and what caught his eye was the dark night.

Strange to say, although the hustle and bustle at the back is very close and the lights are bright, it gives Ashura a very distant feeling; although the night is far away and deep, it seems to be in it. A subtle sense of alienation quickly grew in his heart.

He knows that this is the second thought that anyone who walks to the roof will have, but he also feels that this is the wasteland knowing his heart, seeing him off in a unique way, and reminding him not to forget his luggage .

He exhaled a long breath and said, "Tamahi Crow killed."

Black Crow turned to look at him.

"Give up your revenge, give up your homeland, and come with us." Yaxiu stared at the black crow:
"Then, start over."

Chapter 697: Inquisitor Ash

After saying those words, Ash was relieved.

He knew how rude and arrogant his words were.

Unlike him, a social idler who lives at ease and has no worries, the Black Crow bears the **** feud of the sect being slaughtered, the glory of the revival of the crow killing, and the nostalgia for this land.

In particular, revenge against the Mercury Trojan is not only the inevitable way for Black Crow to realize his ideals, but also the biggest motivation for him to live. Before meeting Yaxiu and the others, Black Crow was filled with resentment towards the Quicksilver Trojan. If he could kill the Quicksilver Trojan with his own hands, then he would be willing to die in the next second.

Abandoning revenge and leaving Sen Luo almost negated all the value of Black Crow's life.

The last time Yaxiu asked Black Crow if he wanted to go together, the latter said to think about it, but Yaxiu didn't have high hopes.

Short lifespan and violent beliefs make every Senluo have a tendency to self-destruct that can't wait to bloom. The black crow will never be afraid of death because of greed, give up revenge.

In fact, there are still more than ten days to go, and Yaxiu can discuss with the black crow slowly, or use various psychological hints to soften the black crow together with Igula, instead of using such direct and almost commanding words to announce to him. But in this strange occasion of being chased and killed, an inexplicable impulse made him express his deepest request to this friend who has lived and died many times.

Black Crow looked at him quietly, and was silent for a while, so that Yaxiu almost thought he was going to be beaten, and he said softly: "I am one by one"

boom!

The roof suddenly exploded, I don't know what the people in the house detonated, but the whole roof was lifted!

Yaxiu and Black Crow were just on both sides of the eaves, and when the roof exploded, they subconsciously stomped to avoid them, as if they had separated two routes to escape. When Yaxiu reacted, the black crow had disappeared to the other side, and he almost fell to the ground, and the sound of shouting and killing came from behind.

“stop!”

“I'll fire the gun if I run again!”

“Damn thief!”

Yaxiu hurriedly fled to the alley and other places where it was easy to escape. He suddenly remembered something, opened the treasure bag and threw it back: “Give it back to you!”

He didn't even bother to look at what was inside. The moment he got into the alley, he rolled up his sleeves, took off his black stockings, undid the red single ponytail, and put his jacket on backwards. When he came out of the alley, his image had completely changed, and those who were chasing him glanced at him and hurried over.

Fortunately, he was transformed into Jian Ji by Wanhua Jing, and he happened to have seen Jian Ji magically dress up a few times, otherwise he would not be able to reproduce it.

Yaxiu Zhuangruo casually walked through the crowd and returned to the fox lantern ice room, but she couldn't help but feel a little regretful in her heart.

In fact, he should have said that since there is a way to leave, there is a way to come back. When the magic skills are mastered, he will come back to help the black crow kill the mercury Trojan horse; or he will simply not mention it and invite the black crow to go on a gospel tour. sky.

Escape is much easier to accept than giving up, even if the probability of coming back is low, but at least there is.

This is good, there is no excuse for self-deception, Black Crow must choose between revenge or leaving. Compared to going to an unknown country and being under the fence

– You must have this feeling in a foreign country – insisting on revenge is more in line with the interests and even the emotional needs of the black crow.

Perhaps, the black crow has quietly left at this time. Since the destination is different, there is no reason to go with him. He wants to continue to assassinate the mercury Trojan, while Yaxiu and others are on their journey home.

Yaxiu sighed, looked up at the boundless night, looked down slightly, and suddenly saw a terrifying and familiar figure appearing at the door of the ice room.

Because Yaxiu and the others fled on the other side just now, the flow of people was attracted, resulting in a sparse flow of people at the entrance of the ice room, making the figure more lonely and thin.

When Yaxiu walked over, the black crow threw him a bag, which was a treasure bag. Yaxiu opened it and saw that it was full of gold coins.

“You actually saved it?” Ash was a little surprised.

“They can’t beat me again,” Black Crow said.

Yaxiu was stunned, and then he remembered that in the town of Black Robe, which was forbidden by the magician, the black crow as an ordinary person was almost invincible. Yaxiu shouldn’t have run in the first place, the black crow can fight them all.

“That...”

“But this is a crime.” Black Crow said: “This is not the property of the Four Pillars Religion or some bad person, but the legitimate property of the auction house. Although it is not the intention, we did plunder other people’s property.”

I sinned, do you know what that means? ”

Yaxiu blinked and asked tentatively, “Means you are not clean?”

“In the Crow Killing Sect, it is ruled that if the martial servant commits a crime, he must retreat and reflect and temporarily suspend his duties. The crime must be punished, which is not only the expectation of the Crow Killing all beings, but also the requirement of himself.”

“When retreating and reflecting, the martial servant needs a judge to pay attention to the reflection situation and psychological state. When the judge thinks that the reflection is complete, the martial servant will be reinstated. During the period, the martial servant will be restrained by the judge.” Black Crow said: “You Who do you think is suitable to be my judge?”

Ash replied in seconds: “Igula.”

Black Crow looked at him quietly, Yaxiu looked at the purse in his hand, and put it into his arms silently: “Cough, in fact, I think the title of Judge Yaxiu is quite good.”

Black Crow nodded, turned and walked into the ice room.

I will work hard.

Strive for what? Struggling to reflect? Or try to give up?

Yaxiu had mixed feelings in his heart, some moved and some ashamed. He returned to the ice room, Chikara looked at him curiously and asked, "What happened outside, why is it so lively?"

"Oh, someone robbed the auction house for money."

Saying that, Ash handed the purse to Igula. Igula glanced at the purse full of gold coins, and watched Ashe hesitated.

"Okay, everyone!" Yaxiu clapped his hands and said, "We will leave Heipao Town tomorrow and embark on a journey home! If you want to buy something to eat, now is the last chance. Tonight, the audience will be hosted by Bo Jin Young master pays the bill!"

"Really? Please add an order here!" Chikara shouted immediately.

Igula glared at the orc, but did not object.

Harvey glanced at the black crow and suddenly asked, "Tamahi, what pattern of corpse spots do you like?"

"By the way." Ash looked at Igula and Harvey: "You two can't relax in your virtual exploration, and strive to gather Rainbow Wings as soon as possible. I may be able to help you a little."

Yaxiu knew that they had guessed some of his secrets, and Igula might even have known that he was one of the four black-robed magicians—after all, Yaxiu didn't come back from the Void Realm until a whole night, which was a huge flaw.

But Igula didn't ask anything, and Ash didn't say anything. But he always remembered that Igula and Harvey both used external force to climb to the distant airspace, and the price was that they would never be able to summon the Four Wings Spirits on their own, and naturally they missed the Ruby Mountain.

Now that Yaxiu has a **** awakened from a dream, although he can't bring it back to reality for the time being, he can solve this problem sooner or later. When used on Igula and Harvey, they will be able to follow the path of origin to Ruby Mountain.

"Tonight is the last night, so you don't have to go to the Void Realm, right?" Chikara said, "Tomorrow will be the last night in the hotel. Let's play cards all night!"

Yaxiu's eyes lit up~www.mtlnovel.com~ Okay, okay. "

"I play too."

Everyone looked at the black crow in surprise, with disbelief in their eyes, as if the words just now were the self-assertion of the mask. Chikara froze for a moment.

Asked: "Are you going to fight?"

"Seeing that you've played, you know the rules."

"Hmph, are you ready to be abused then?" Chikara laughed hehely: "In front of you are the card-busting king Yaxiu, the card-counting king Chikara, and the yin king Harvey!"

Ash: "Why is my title so poor?"

"You dare to call yourself the king of card counting?" Igula sneered, "I'll come to see your skills tonight."

"Ah, Mr. Borgin, are you coming to play too?" Chikara looked at Gwen: "Together? You're the only one missing in the battle of the gods.

Gwen glanced at Igula. "Okay."

"Wow!" Chikara clenched her fists: "My blood is about to burn!"

Why are you so passionate about playing a card, Black Crow suddenly asked, "By the way, where are we going?"

Igula said: "Didn't Ash tell you? We are going to the bottom of Senluo, so as to ensure that the empty door passage is stable enough."

"The bottom of Senluo..." What did the black crow think of: "The underground of the Gemini Sect?"

"There is a deeper layer than there." Chikara said, "You probably haven't been there, Black Crow, but Gwen and I have both been there."

That is the trial ground shared by all sects, the origin of Sen Luo, the belly scale of the earth."

"Silence Spiral."

Chapter 699: interrogatio

In the darkness dozens of meters away, the rustling sound continued to sound, sometimes mixed with a crisp bite, reminding Di Luge of her favorite fried rice.

She grew up in the Chen Jiehuo parish in the Jiehuo Sanctuary. Chen Jiehuo is in charge of an entire gray fox farm, and 5% of the food in the Senluo wasteland comes from the Chenjuehuo farm. If you have enough food, you will naturally work **** your diet. Diluge's recommended food is the top three, one is fried flour called 'Fried Ghost', and the other is steamed rice milk called 'intestine powder'. The ghosts are sandwiched into the rice rolls, which is her favorite one by one fried two.

The sausage powder penetrates into the fresh fragrance of the soy sauce, the skin is smooth and tender like milk, and the fried ghost is crispy, sweet and refreshing, chewing carefully, and the fragrance of the fried flour overflows the mouth. Fry the two together, bite down, first feel the smooth and tender skin that seems to kiss the lips, then the salty aroma of the soy sauce awakens the whole mouth, and then the crisp fried ghost bursts between the teeth, and the flour Sweetness penetrates every gap between teeth.

Every day when I get up, Di Luge likes to eat a fried two. The ignorant body that has just returned from the virtual world seems to be pulled back to the earthly wasteland by this delicious carb water. Even after eating all kinds of more expensive and rare delicacies, she is still the most craving for fried two.

However, the voice from the darkness was not someone who was eating fried rice.

Instead, the green beast is gnawing at the bone and sucking the marrow.

The tens of thousands of corpses thrown outside attracted an unknown number of green beasts. They don't dare to approach during the day, they only dare to dig out these corpses at night to eat, meat, tendons, dirt, bones... even the blood oozing sand, they will eat it without error, as if they are exhausted by endless appetite. reason.

That is to say, there are so many people who died this time that they couldn't finish it after only two days.

If only a few dozen people died, the ground would be as clean as licked the next day (physical).

Di Luge was on duty on the beacon tower, and dozens of meters away was the twisted green night where the light of faith would also be engulfed. Behind her is the huge fortress built by the Four Pillars of God in the past two days.

Thousands of earth magicians and Senluo magicians cast spells together to create this giant city of blood-colored corpses and vines!

There was not a single necromancer among the builders. The reason why the city walls were covered with corpses was purely because of the local materials. Just three days ago, this place was still occupied by the Qinri Alliance, but suddenly the entire army of the Four Pillars Religion was full. Attacking, regardless of the situation on other fronts, all the troops attacked here, even the legendary magician who killed Pope 'Orewa shot, slaughtered the 30,000 magicians of the Qinri Alliance, blood flowed into rivers, and corpses were everywhere!

Di Luge breathed hard, and he could smell the strong corpse odor in the air, and even scratched his throat a little. She grunted in her throat, twisted open the glass bottle on the table, and sipped the **** wine inside.

Fire robbery believers can't enjoy life at all, like food is already the limit, and wine must not be touched at all. Di Luge used to think that wine was not good, but after joining the Four Pillars Sect, he was out of control, and he almost never left the wine.

However, she is a weak and weak magician, and it doesn't matter if she wakes up in a single thought, and even summoned a wine-colored magic spirit because of this, the more people drink, the more beautiful they are.

However, she doesn't usually have a drink at work. Although the Four Pillars Religion has no taboos, malfeasance at work is only a dead end. Because everyone knows that the honorable seat can come to every believer at any time, and she seems to occupy your body in the next second to check whether your work is full. Who dares to be lazy in this situation.

It's just that this bottle of wine is really different, and Di Luge feels that his wine spirit is scratching his heart. Moreover, in the recent series of battles, the Qinri Alliance has suffered heavy casualties, but in this blood-colored city wall, is there a lack of the corpses of the Four Pillars of God?

Maybe he will die tomorrow. Thinking about it this way, the performance evaluation of the honored seat does not seem to be very scary. Di Luge was drinking wine, his eyes blurred, he took out a piece of black crystal from his pocket, rubbed the oleophobic layer on it, and didn't know what he was thinking.

Suddenly, she felt confused for a while.

When she came back to her senses, she found that she was being hugged so tightly that she couldn't move at all. She subconsciously wanted to shout for help, but she could only spit out a mosquito-like sound: "Enemy~attack~"

Magic Spirit · Flash Fire!

Since she serves as a sentry, she naturally has the ability to warn! This magic spirit can shoot out an extremely dazzling white flame, which can be seen clearly even from a distance of 100 meters, and can even cause blindness when seen at close range!

However, Bai Yan couldn't shoot out at all, and exploded directly in her face! Even though she was the master of the flash fire magic spirit, her eyes were shedding tears by the light.

Mind Control!

Sanctuary!

Diluge, who had been in battle for a long time, immediately realized that he was trapped in the Sanctuary. Sanctuary can be used to protect yourself, and naturally it can also be used to trap others.

She felt a chill in her heart, knowing that she was already dead. After all, she was only a silver magician, but she was targeted by a holy domain magician!

After a few seconds, she recovered from the blurred vision and looked up to see three men, one woman, one beast and one black crow staring at her. She turned her head and looked back, and found that a pale and beautiful girl was holding her. Not only was this girl extremely strong, but her hands and feet were cold and inhuman, and more importantly, the strong corpse stench was constantly creeping in. into her nose.

After a second thought, Diluge already knew who these people were: "The Gospel of the Immortal, Ash?"

"Although this is not the question I want to ask." Ash squatted down and asked curiously, "But why is my title the Gospel of Immortality?"

“Because you escaped from the dead city.” Di Luge replied: “The seat ordered, if you encounter the undead Ashe, you can immediately give up the mission and escape.”

“But I wasn’t the only one who escaped.”

“I’m not very clear, but everyone seems to think that you brought other people out of the dead city, plus we have been unable to catch you, and you used to be considered the first gospel, so I called you the gospel of immortality .”

Igula said: “Okay, let’s get to the point one”

“Then what are their titles?” Ash asked.

Diluge thought, “Harvey the Ghost Rider, Chikara the Fire, Gwen the Traitor, The Crows Kill, and...” She glanced at Igula.

Yaxiu smiled and said, “Why, is his nickname ugly?”

“No, I... Mr. Borgin’s nickname is Igula the Gospel Breeder.”

Gwen turned his head and covered his mouth, Chikara covered his mouth immediately, but the laughter seemed to leak from the corner of his eyes; Harvey, a black skin who had always been dead-faced, couldn’t help biting his thumb when he heard this, revealing a little Smile; that is, Igula and Black Crow seem to have no reaction.

Ash’s face suddenly fell.

Gan, he is called Immortal Gospel, and Igula is called Gospel Breeder, doesn’t that mean Igula is raising him! ? Although it has been the case recently,

But this simply equates him with a pet!

“This is the mercury Trojan sowing discord.” Igula’s words seemed reasonable, but her voice was full of cadence and laughter, and she continued:

“Don’t you mind?”

“Of course I don’t mind, the knowledge of the Mercury Trojan is too shallow. In fact, in my heart, we are already a father-son relationship, and I have always recognized you as your father.” Yaxiu patted Igula on the shoulder.

Because the Blood Moon had no soil for father-son jokes, it took Igula a second to sort out Ash’s logic, but Ash had withdrawn before he started scolding,

He also scolded: “In the interrogation, everyone is serious, don’t talk about these messes. Igula, look at you!

“You bastard...” Igula hated her teeth so much that she didn’t bother to bother with him, squatted down and held Diluge’s head: “I can furiously search your memory, but the price is that your brain will have some problems in the future, such as not being able to Normal excretion and so on. But if you can answer my question truthfully, we can consider letting you go. Of course, you can challenge lying in front of the spiritual sanctuary.”

“We Four Pillars God believers are not so firm.” Diluge said immediately: “You ask.”

“Why did the Four Pillars of God surround the Silence Spiral?” Igula asked: “Is it really because the Silent Spiral can help the Four Pillars of God to summon the Four Pillars of God?”

“It’s impossible for a **** like me to know this kind of strategic decision.” Diluge paused: “But I don’t think so.”

“Oh?”

“We’ve been around the Silence Spiral and have been fighting with the Qinri Alliance for half a month, but in the past few days, the battle was actually not that intense, just to ensure that the Qinri Alliance could not occupy the Silence Spiral. At all costs, the nearby Qinri Alliance was annihilated, and this fortress was immediately established to resist the counterattack of the Qinri Alliance.”

At this time, the patrolling Four Pillars God believers walked along the city wall. However, Igula glanced at him, and the latter seemed to see nothing and left directly past them.

Igula: “What happened three days ago?”

Diluge shook his head, “I don’t remember anything special... If I have to say, there seemed to be a small earthquake that night, but there was no fighting during that time, so I felt a little strange. But the earth magician caused the earthquake. It’s a very common thing, maybe it’s caused by the Qinri Alliance.”

“Then what happened after you surrounded the silent spiral?”

This time, Di Luge was silent for a long time, with fear and hesitation on his face. But she finally confessed: “Your Excellency Orewa took many people down.”

“Orewa?” Crow killed immediately said: “Legendary magician wiped out Pope Orewa? As the highest combat power, he is not on standby on the ground?”

Yaxiu glanced at Black Crow in surprise, not understanding why he was so excited. When Igula heard the news, a strange light flashed in her eyes.

“I saw him go down with my own eyes.” Di Luge said seriously: “And when he went down, he issued an order from the throne, and he must guard this fortress, and the Qinri Alliance will not be allowed to regain the silent spiral. Everyone must accept the four bishops on earth. moderation.”

“In order to boost morale, he also opened up the inventory and rewarded the whole army. Ordinary magicians will reward at least one magic spirit, two-wing magicians will reward two or three magic spirits, and there are countless gold and silver coins.”

Everyone looked beautiful, and Igula asked again, “When will Orewa leave the Silence Spiral?”

“I don’t know.” Di Luge said helplessly: “But it shouldn’t be more than a month.”

“why?”

“If Your Excellency Orewa doesn’t show up for a month, the Qinri Alliance will definitely become suspicious and send the God-Senters to attack the fortress. We can’t stop it.”

Di Luge thought about it again: “It may also be half a month.”

This is a very simple truth, and everyone nodded silently. However, this news is not good news for them who have traveled thousands of miles.

In the irritating silence, Black Crow suddenly picked up the wine bottle by the table and asked a strange question: “How did you get this bottle of wine?”

Di Luge was stunned and said, “I sent it during the banquet before.”

“Do you usually drink this kind of wine?”

“No, that’s why I made such a good wine this time.” Di Luge shook her head, and she suddenly remembered something: “By the way, among the people brought by Your Excellency Orewa, not only the chef team, but they also moved A lot of wine, and I smelled it as I passed by. The wine seems to be the same as this bottle.”

“That is to say, they have already made plans to live below for a while,” Yaxiu pondered, looking at the wine bottle in Black Crow’s hand,

Some doubts: “Why do you pay so much attention to this bottle of wine?”

Black Crow didn’t answer Ash and asked, “Then have you seen a woman with silver hair who is about the same height as me and likes to wear a mask to cover half of her face?”

Diluge shook his head. "I'm not sure. There are quite a few silver-haired women, and I'm not sure which one you're talking about."

Black Crow no longer asked questions. Ash glanced at him thoughtfully, but tacitly brushed over the topic, spread his palms and asked, "What is this?"

Diluge took a closer look, and Ash was holding her black crystal card.

She hesitated and said, "Can I touch it? Otherwise, it's hard to explain."

Ash looked at Igula, and Igula stared at Diluge for a while before slowly nodding. When Diluge touched the card, a light suddenly appeared on the card, but Yaxiu had a sanctuary barrier, so naturally he was not afraid of any threat from it.

In fact, there is no threat. Ashe lifted it up and looked at it, and saw that the text on the card was reversed to suit his viewing angle—one was gravity sensing.

Maybe this place used to be a floating city, maybe the place under their feet used to be a highway, but they can no longer see any trace of the grey fox civilization.

But the information system left by the Grey Fox Magician is still functioning normally. Countless signal waves that they can't see are constantly traveling through the air.

This is the grey fox legacy I used to get. "There's no use for anything other than being able to receive these messages," Diluge said. "

"It's already very useful." Ash returned the black crystal card to her: "Keep it safe."

Diluge looked up at Igola, who was expressionless and put a finger on her forehead.

"I put a fear lock on your mind. If you take the initiative to leak our information, you will be devoured by fear until your heart fails."

The fraudster said lightly: "If you have a way to passively leak it, I can't help it."

Before Diluge could speak, her eyes were covered by Igula.

After the familiar confusion again, Diluge found that he had sat back in the chair, and the surroundings were calm, as if nothing had happened just now.

But the bright black crystal card and the disappearing wine bottle, UU reading www.uukanshu.com has proved that she successfully escaped from a group of sanctuary magicians.

She sat for a long time, not in any mood to test whether the fear of Jiasuo is true or not. She picked up the black crystal card and looked at the flow of information inside.

She used to be a researcher of the ruins from her previous position in the Sanctuary of Tribulation of Fire, and was responsible for excavating the grey fox ruins with the research team. This card is the legacy she excavated from the grey fox ruins. Because it is useless, it can only fall into her hands.

Before that, although Di Luge held the belief of robbing fire in his heart, he actually didn't have much real feeling for the ideal of restoring civilization. It was more like a slogan, I want to unify the world with me, 'I want to kill all the people on the opposite side to get freedom' nothing. the difference.

However, after getting this card and receiving information that is still updated every day, Di Luge realized for the first time that this is the civilization that the Sanctuary of Fire Tribulation wants to restore.

This is the ideal she is chasing.

Since then, she has been passionately devoted to her work. Although she is only a silver artificer, she has become the leading relic researcher in the Sanctuary of Tribulation of Fire.

Until the Four Pillars of God captured the Dust Jiehuo Diocese.

Then she gave up exploring the ruins and became a sentinel. After working every day, she was drunk and dreamed to death, making up for all the happiness she had not enjoyed in the previous 20 years.

but...

Di Luge took out a small wine bottle from his trouser pocket and took a few sips, his face flushed, and his consciousness became dizzy.

"Ah." She breathed out a breath of alcohol and slumped lazily on the chair.

"I still want to drink in the ruins, and then eat a plate of fried two."

Chapter 699: interrogatio

In the darkness dozens of meters away, the rustling sound continued to sound, sometimes mixed with a crisp bite, reminding Di Luge of her favorite fried rice.

She grew up in the Chen Jiehuo parish in the Jiehuo Sanctuary. Chen Jiehuo is in charge of an entire gray fox farm, and 5% of the food in the Senluo wasteland comes from the Chenjiehuo farm. If you have enough food, you will naturally work **** your diet. Diluge's recommended food is the top three, one is fried flour called 'Fried Ghost', and the other is steamed rice milk called 'intestine powder'. The ghosts are sandwiched into the rice rolls, which is her favorite one by one fried two.

The sausage powder penetrates into the fresh fragrance of the soy sauce, the skin is smooth and tender like milk, and the fried ghost is crispy, sweet and refreshing, chewing carefully, and the fragrance of the fried flour overflows the mouth. Fry the two together, bite down, first feel the smooth and tender skin that seems to kiss the lips, then the salty aroma of the soy sauce awakens the whole mouth, and then the crisp fried ghost bursts between the teeth, and the flour Sweetness penetrates every gap between teeth.

Every day when I get up, Di Luge likes to eat a fried two. The ignorant body that has just returned from the virtual world seems to be pulled back to the earthly wasteland by this delicious carb water. Even after eating all kinds of more expensive and rare delicacies, she is still the most craving for fried two.

However, the voice from the darkness was not someone who was eating fried rice.

Instead, the green beast is gnawing at the bone and sucking the marrow.

The tens of thousands of corpses thrown outside attracted an unknown number of green beasts. They don't dare to approach during the day, they only dare to dig out these corpses at night to eat, meat, tendons, dirt, bones... even the blood oozing sand, they will eat it without error, as if they are exhausted by endless appetite. reason.

That is to say, there are so many people who died this time that they couldn't finish it after only two days.

If only a few dozen people died, the ground would be as clean as licked the next day (physical).

Di Luge was on duty on the beacon tower, and dozens of meters away was the twisted green night where the light of faith would also be engulfed. Behind her is the huge fortress built by the Four Pillars of God in the past two days.

Thousands of earth magicians and Senluo magicians cast spells together to create this giant city of blood-colored corpses and vines!

There was not a single necromancer among the builders. The reason why the city walls were covered with corpses was purely because of the local materials. Just three days ago, this place was still occupied by the Qinri Alliance, but suddenly the entire army of the Four Pillars Religion was full. Attacking, regardless of the situation on other fronts, all the troops attacked here, even the legendary magician who killed Pope 'Orewa shot, slaughtered the 30,000 magicians of the Qinri Alliance, blood flowed into rivers, and corpses were everywhere!

Di Luge breathed hard, and he could smell the strong corpse odor in the air, and even scratched his throat a little. She grunted in her throat, twisted open the glass bottle on the table, and sipped the **** wine inside.

Fire robbery believers can't enjoy life at all, like food is already the limit, and wine must not be touched at all. Di Luge used to think that wine was not good, but after joining the Four Pillars Sect, he was out of control, and he almost never left the wine.

However, she is a weak and weak magician, and it doesn't matter if she wakes up in a single thought, and even summoned a wine-colored magic spirit because of this, the more people drink, the more beautiful they are.

However, she doesn't usually have a drink at work. Although the Four Pillars Religion has no taboos, malfeasance at work is only a dead end. Because everyone knows that the honorable seat can come to every believer at any time, and she seems to occupy your body in the next second to check whether your work is full. Who dares to be lazy in this situation.

It's just that this bottle of wine is really different, and Di Luge feels that his wine spirit is scratching his heart. Moreover, in the recent series of battles, the Qinri Alliance has suffered heavy casualties, but in this blood-colored city wall, is there a lack of the corpses of the Four Pillars of God?

Maybe he will die tomorrow. Thinking about it this way, the performance evaluation of the honored seat does not seem to be very scary. Di Luge was drinking wine, his eyes blurred, he took out a piece of black crystal from his pocket, rubbed the oleophobic layer on it, and didn't know what he was thinking.

Suddenly, she felt confused for a while.

When she came back to her senses, she found that she was being hugged so tightly that she couldn't move at all. She subconsciously wanted to shout for help, but she could only spit out a mosquito-like sound: "Enemy~attack~"

Magic Spirit · Flash Fire!

Since she serves as a sentry, she naturally has the ability to warn! This magic spirit can shoot out an extremely dazzling white flame, which can be seen clearly even from a distance of 100 meters, and can even cause blindness when seen at close range!

However, Bai Yan couldn't shoot out at all, and exploded directly in her face! Even though she was the master of the flash fire magic spirit, her eyes were shedding tears by the light.

Mind Control!

Sanctuary!

Diluge, who had been in battle for a long time, immediately realized that he was trapped in the Sanctuary. Sanctuary can be used to protect yourself, and naturally it can also be used to trap others.

She felt a chill in her heart, knowing that she was already dead. After all, she was only a silver magician, but she was targeted by a holy domain magician!

After a few seconds, she recovered from the blurred vision and looked up to see three men, one woman, one beast and one black crow staring at her. She turned her head and looked back, and found that a pale and beautiful girl was holding her. Not only was this girl extremely strong, but her hands and feet were cold and inhuman, and more importantly, the strong corpse stench was constantly creeping in. into her nose.

After a second thought, Diluge already knew who these people were: “The Gospel of the Immortal, Ash?”

“Although this is not the question I want to ask.” Ash squatted down and asked curiously, “But why is my title the Gospel of Immortality?”

“Because you escaped from the dead city.” Di Luge replied: “The seat ordered, if you encounter the undead Ashe, you can immediately give up the mission and escape.”

“But I wasn’t the only one who escaped.”

“I’m not very clear, but everyone seems to think that you brought other people out of the dead city, plus we have been unable to catch you, and you used to be considered the first gospel, so I called you the gospel of immortality .”

Igula said: “Okay, let’s get to the point one”

“Then what are their titles?” Ash asked.

Diluge thought, “Harvey the Ghost Rider, Chikara the Fire, Gwen the Traitor, The Crows Kill, and...” She glanced at Igula.

Yaxiu smiled and said, “Why, is his nickname ugly?”

“No, I... Mr. Borgin’s nickname is Igula the Gospel Breeder.”

Gwen turned his head and covered his mouth, Chikara covered his mouth immediately, but the laughter seemed to leak from the corner of his eyes; Harvey, a black skin who had always been dead-faced, couldn't help biting his thumb when he heard this, revealing a little Smile; that is, Igula and Black Crow seem to have no reaction.

Ash's face suddenly fell.

Gan, he is called Immortal Gospel, and Igula is called Gospel Breeder, doesn't that mean Igula is raising him! ? Although it has been the case recently,

But this simply equates him with a pet!

"This is the mercury Trojan sowing discord." Igula's words seemed reasonable, but her voice was full of cadence and laughter, and she continued:

"Don't you mind?"

"Of course I don't mind, the knowledge of the Mercury Trojan is too shallow. In fact, in my heart, we are already a father-son relationship, and I have always recognized you as your father." Yaxiu patted Igula on the shoulder.

Because the Blood Moon had no soil for father-son jokes, it took Igula a second to sort out Ash's logic, but Ash had withdrawn before he started scolding,

He also scolded: "In the interrogation, everyone is serious, don't talk about these messes. Igula, look at you!

"You bastard..." Igula hated her teeth so much that she didn't bother to bother with him, squatted down and held Diluge's head: "I can furiously search your memory, but the price is that your brain will have some problems in the future, such as not being able to Normal excretion and so on. But if you can answer my question truthfully, we can consider letting you go. Of course, you can challenge lying in front of the spiritual sanctuary."

“We Four Pillars God believers are not so firm.” Diluge said immediately: “You ask.”

“Why did the Four Pillars of God surround the Silence Spiral?” Igula asked: “Is it really because the Silent Spiral can help the Four Pillars of God to summon the Four Pillars of God?”

“It’s impossible for a **** like me to know this kind of strategic decision.” Diluge paused: “But I don’t think so.”

“Oh?”

“We’ve been around the Silence Spiral and have been fighting with the Qinri Alliance for half a month, but in the past few days, the battle was actually not that intense, just to ensure that the Qinri Alliance could not occupy the Silence Spiral. At all costs, the nearby Qinri Alliance was annihilated, and this fortress was immediately established to resist the counterattack of the Qinri Alliance.”

At this time, the patrolling Four Pillars God believers walked along the city wall. However, Igula glanced at him, and the latter seemed to see nothing and left directly past them.

Igula: “What happened three days ago?”

Diluge shook his head, “I don’t remember anything special... If I have to say, there seemed to be a small earthquake that night, but there was no fighting during that time, so I felt a little strange. But the earth magician caused the earthquake. It’s a very common thing, maybe it’s caused by the Qinri Alliance.”

“Then what happened after you surrounded the silent spiral?”

This time, Di Luge was silent for a long time, with fear and hesitation on his face. But she finally confessed: “Your Excellency Orewa took many people down.”

“Orewa?” Crow killed immediately said: “Legendary magician wiped out Pope Orewa? As the highest combat power, he is not on standby on the ground?”

Yaxiu glanced at Black Crow in surprise, not understanding why he was so excited. When Igula heard the news, a strange light flashed in her eyes.

“I saw him go down with my own eyes.” Di Luge said seriously: “And when he went down, he issued an order from the throne, and he must guard this fortress, and the Qinri Alliance will not be allowed to regain the silent spiral. Everyone must accept the four bishops on earth. moderation.”

“In order to boost morale, he also opened up the inventory and rewarded the whole army. Ordinary magicians will reward at least one magic spirit, two-wing magicians will reward two or three magic spirits, and there are countless gold and silver coins.”

Everyone looked beautiful, and Igula asked again, “When will Orewa leave the Silence Spiral?”

“I don’t know.” Di Luge said helplessly: “But it shouldn’t be more than a month.”

“why?”

“If Your Excellency Orewa doesn’t show up for a month, the Qinri Alliance will definitely become suspicious and send the God-Senters to attack the fortress. We can’t stop it.”

Di Luge thought about it again: “It may also be half a month.”

This is a very simple truth, and everyone nodded silently. However, this news is not good news for them who have traveled thousands of miles.

In the irritating silence, Black Crow suddenly picked up the wine bottle by the table and asked a strange question: “How did you get this bottle of wine?”

Di Luge was stunned and said, “I sent it during the banquet before.”

“Do you usually drink this kind of wine?”

“No, that’s why I made such a good wine this time.” Di Luge shook her head, and she suddenly remembered something: “By the way, among the people brought by Your Excellency Orewa, not only the chef team, but they also moved A lot of wine, and I smelled it as I passed by. The wine seems to be the same as this bottle.”

“That is to say, they have already made plans to live below for a while,” Yaxiu pondered, looking at the wine bottle in Black Crow’s hand,

Some doubts: “Why do you pay so much attention to this bottle of wine?”

Black Crow didn’t answer Ash and asked, “Then have you seen a woman with silver hair who is about the same height as me and likes to wear a mask to cover half of her face?”

Diluge shook his head. “I’m not sure. There are quite a few silver-haired women, and I’m not sure which one you’re talking about.”

Black Crow no longer asked questions. Ash glanced at him thoughtfully, but tacitly brushed over the topic, spread his palms and asked, “What is this?”

Diluge took a closer look, and Ash was holding her black crystal card.

She hesitated and said, “Can I touch it? Otherwise, it’s hard to explain.”

Ash looked at Igula, and Igula stared at Diluge for a while before slowly nodding. When Diluge touched the card, a light suddenly appeared on the card, but Yaxiu had a sanctuary barrier, so naturally he was not afraid of any threat from it.

In fact, there is no threat. Ashe lifted it up and looked at it, and saw that the text on the card was reversed to suit his viewing angle—one was gravity sensing.

Chapter 700: The black crow disappeared

Crack clap.

Several green beasts who ate their bones like a crispy shark suddenly raised their heads and fled.

A huge green beast in the distance also raised its head, its eyes like green flames are so clear in the dark night, like a death trap that tempts people to approach,

It is a green beast of the ‘deep sea’ level!

However, it also hurriedly closed its eyes, for fear of attracting attention, it crept away quickly.

After a while, a group of magicians passed through the battlefield of corpses and arrived at a place with a mountain wall to block the wind. They put down nails and erected a large tent, put down the floor mats and moisture-proof cloth and got in. Camping for days, they already know how to live comfortably in the wild.

Chikara took out the portable stove, and then used the flame spell to provide the fire source, and began to prepare supper. As a pyromancer and slave, he took the job of a cook very naturally.

That is, they dare to cook supper in the dark. The green beasts in the distance smelled the fragrance, and their eyes became greener, but they dared not approach the tent within 100 meters even if they were killed.

“What’s for dinner tonight?”

“Perilla spicy lala fat.”

“No, the saliva is starting to flow out, and there is something to put my stomach on.”

At this time, a wine bottle was handed to Ash.

Yaxiu took a sip and glanced at the black crow in surprise: “You actually took someone else’s wine? Tamashi Martial Servant, the judge thinks your reflection is not qualified...”

“Anyway, it’s the things of the Four Pillars of God’s believers.” Black Crow said: “To steal their things is to execute justice.”

“What should I do next?” Harvey cut his nails and put it into Alice’s lunch box: “I won’t say anything about the Four Pillars Sect, there are also the main battle troops of the Four Pillars Sect in the Silence Spiral, it is impossible for us to enter. of.”

“It always feels like we are being hostile to Sen Luo.” Yaxiu said depressedly: “When we don’t go to the Silent Spiral, no one pays attention to the Silent Spiral. As soon as we go to the Silent Spiral, the entire continent starts to compete for the Silent Spiral!”

At this time, it has been a whole month since they left Heipao Town.

It was originally scheduled to take only ten days, but because the front line was always half a step ahead of them, it forced them to spend twice as long on the road.

Wherever they went, the fronts on both sides advanced as if they were the ones who started the war.

The main reason is naturally not related to them, but stems from a rumor that suddenly broke out: as long as the Four Pillars of God occupy the silent spiral, the phantom of the Four Pillars of God can be summoned to destroy the resistance of the Qin Ri Alliance!

The Silence Spiral has always been within the scope of the Qinri Alliance. After this rumor broke out, the Four Pillars Sect really attacked the Silence Spiral all the way. Regardless of whether the rumors are true or false, the Silence Spiral, as the most important trial holy place for all sects, has always been shared by all sects. Even the Fire Tribulation Church is qualified to use the Silence Spiral. It is naturally impossible for the Qinri Alliance to let the Holy Land fall into the Four Pillars Sect. hand.

The two sides began to see offense and defense around the silent spiral, and the surrounding area became a war zone.

People like Ash and the others who do not belong to either side will naturally face mixed doubles.

Mixed doubles is nothing more, there are also many trap mines laid in the war zone, and the four sanctuary magicians, Yaxiu, Igula, Harvey, and Chikara, are all disgusted, not to mention the black crow and the lack of instant defense ability. Gwen.

They were still thinking of entering the silent spiral while taking advantage of the chaos, but they did not expect to be a step too late, and the Four Pillars of God had already taken over the silent spiral.

To make matters worse, there was already a legendary magician inside.

A legendary magician who has been in the great wasteland for many years!

Of course, the Legendary Warlock can't crush the Sanctuary Warlock, can't the latter escape? Sanctuary is more than just good-looking.

However, Ashe and the others entered the silent spiral this time, not that everything will be fine when they arrive at the destination, but they have to conduct constant experiments, and it may take a few days or even half a month to refresh the empty doorway to the gospel.

Play hide and seek for more than ten days under the eyes of a legendary magician? I am afraid that even Harvey, who wants to die the most, will not have such thoughts.

Black Crow’s distorted voice sounded in the tent: “Wait until the Four Pillars Religion has withdrawn from the Silence Spiral, we will go in again, there is no need to intersect with them.”

“That’s right.” Igula nodded and said: “We have been in Senluo for three months, and we don’t care about another month. Since there is an exact way to go home, there is no need to make waves, and the most important thing is this time. We can afford to wait.”

Ash nodded silently.

That’s right, he has a deep hatred with Sen Luo’s Four Pillars Sect, and is also very happy to interfere with the plans of the Four Pillars Sect. But it would be too stupid to ruin the chance to go home because of this.

What’s more, they can’t beat the Four Pillars of God.

When the magic is completed in the future, it is not unreasonable to come back to Sen Luo to take advantage of the Four Pillars of God. But now the safe return to the Gospel is the priority, and everything else has to make way for it.

If he had to break into the silent spiral now and be involved in danger, Yaxiu could guarantee that after Jian Ji knew about it, she would let the witch tie him up, and then she slapped him in the face and scolded him with a loudspeaker.

Everyone understands the reasoning, but there is one little thing that is quite disturbing.

“Axiu.” Igula suddenly said, “Are you finished drinking?”

“Ah?” Yaxiu looked at the wine bottle in his hand: “It feels very delicious, the more you drink, the more delicious it becomes, and before you know it...”

“Do you like it?” Black Crow said calmly: “That is the specialty of Crow Killed, Crow Blood Wine.”

He paused: “It’s made of corpses.”

Ash: ”

Harvey’s eyes lit up, and with some regret, he silently gave Axiu a thumbs up.

“The Crow Killing Sect has a legacy of gray foxes, and we call it ‘Blood Spring’. The Blood Spring cannot be increased by other means. Only by throwing the corpse in, the Blood Spring will pour out new wine. Throwing the corpse of the wicked into it will not only produce more blood and wine, but also better quality, it will refresh your mind, increase your perception, speed up the recovery of mana, and many other effects.”

“In addition to personal use, Crow Blood Wine can also be sold, which is the main source of income for the Crow Killing Sect.”

“That’s why we call ourselves crows.” The black crow looked around for a week: “Crows are originally scavengers, and we live by devouring the corpses of wicked people.”

“Actually, it doesn’t matter whether he is a villain or not.” Igula said very puzzledly: “Only a magician has the ability to do evil. As long as you throw the body of a magician into it, it will ooze blood and wine.”

Black Crow was noncommittal and continued: “The Crow Killing Sect doesn’t have any food, and Crow Blood Wine is the best banquet drink we can find.

At each gathering, more than a dozen barrels of crow blood wine are consumed, and even the corpses of the wicked who have been brought back are thrown directly into it to drink the newly brewed blood wine.

– Many people feel that new wines are more enjoyable to drink. ”

Although it sounds a bit disgusting, it fits the style of the Crows Killing Sect very well. Yaxiu looked at the empty wine bottle in his hand and said with a guilty conscience:

“Sorry... I’ve run out of your wine. UU reading www.uukanshu.com”

“It doesn’t matter.” Black Crow said: “Everyone in the Crow Kills Sect is addicted to Crow’s blood and wine, except me.”

No one noticed that when Igula heard this sentence, a strange look appeared on her face.

“The supper is ready!” Chikara opened the pressure cooker and gave everyone a plate, and then one serving, and the rest of the pot belonged to the orcs.

“Then we will camp nearby next?” Ash asked.

“Go back to town, too,” Gwen suggested. “Wait for the silence spiral when it’s over.”

“No.” Harvey denied: “If the Qinri Alliance takes over the Silence Spiral, it would be very troublesome for us to get in. The chaotic window period after the Four Pillars Sect left is the best opportunity for us to sneak in.”

“That is to find a good campsite nearby to observe the situation.” Ash looked at the black crow:
“Tamahi, this time...”

“I will not hunt and kill the Four Pillars of God.” Black Crow made a clear statement: “I already know that this is a meaningless thing. As long as Tanom doesn’t die,

There will only be more and more believers of the Four Pillars of God. If I kill one, she will win over two. Only by killing Tanomo can we solve the problem. ”

“But ever since I was nearly assassinated, Tanomo has been extremely careful, and has been using the container to direct the Four Pillars of God. The body is hidden in a place where no one knows about it. If there is any trouble, he will immediately call the strong to protect himself.”

“I won’t do it lightly unless I know exactly where Tanom is.”

Ash sighed in relief: “That’s good.”

The next day, the black crow disappeared.
