

Chapter 701: My Wife

“It’s president Jiang’s first time going abroad. Are You Nervous?” Huang Cheng actually handed Jiang Yao’s identity card back to her as he exhorted her, “When you get there, tell people that you’re my cousin. There are some places where the security isn’t very good, especially in the area around the mines. They almost don’t care about anything. So, when you get there, you must follow me closely. Don’t run around. If you encounter any problems, just bear with it as long as you can.”

At this moment, Jiang Yao felt that Huang Cheng and Lu Yuqing actually had some similarities. That was, they were a little naggy.

“My Husband is waiting for me at Yn Airport. When we get there, he probably wants to split up with you.” Jiang Yao smiled lightly. “With him around, you don’t have to worry about me. He said that he has acquaintances there.”

Huang Cheng was actually speechless for quite a while. So, these two husband and wife didn’t want to split up no matter where they went?

Young Master Lu was so nervous about his wife that it was as if he was protecting a piece of tender tofu.

“By the way, I heard that Zhu Qianlan tried to kidnap you and your husband? What Happened?” Huang Cheng had heard about this as soon as he came back. He probably knew that he had a good relationship with Jiang Yao, so Zhu Qianliang came to him and wanted him to help talk to her.

However, Huang Cheng was not stupid. Young Master Lu had interfered in this matter himself, so he naturally hid far away.

Back then, he had no choice in the Qi family. After all, the Huang family and the Qi family were relatives who were separated by blood? If he did not interfere, his ears would explode.

As long as he was not crazy, he would not interfere in the matters of the Zhu family.

How Young Master Lu wanted to deal with Zhu Qianlan had nothing to do with him.

When Jiang Yao heard that Huang Cheng was actually concerned about Zhu Qianlan’s matters, she couldn’t help but take another look at Huang Chengjing. “Why? Are you worried when you heard that Zhu Qianlan was detained? That’s true. Although Zhu Qianlan’s personality is annoying, she’s actually quite pretty!”

“Director Jiang, it’s better not to joke about such things. You know, I’m currently trying to woo your sister.” Huang Chengjing asked the flight attendant for a cup of lemonade for Jiang Yao. Then, he smiled at her, adjusted his posture, and prepared to sleep for a while on the plane.

It took more than four hours to fly from Nanjiang city to YN. By the time the plane landed, it was already dawn.

As soon as she got off the plane and left the airport, Jiang Yao saw Lu Xingzhi.

He was still wearing the black windbreaker he left with a pullover underneath. He was smoking and talking to a man with slightly dark skin next to him. His eyes were following Jiang Yao who walked out of the airport.

“Xingzhi!” Jiang Yao sped up and ran toward Lu Xingzhi when she saw him. When she saw him opening his arms toward her with a cigarette in his mouth, she immediately threw herself into his arms.

At this moment, Lu Xingzhi had a mischievous temperament. Coupled with his overly cold face, he really had an indescribable sense of charm.

After hugging his wife who had not been apart for a day, the first thing Lu Xingzhi did was to throw away the cigarette in his mouth. He lowered his head and lightly pecked her lips. Then, he introduced her to the person beside him, “My wife, Jiang Yao.”

Lu Xingzhi was speaking in YN, and Jiang Yao could not understand what he was saying. However, when she heard Lu Xingzhi say her name, she guessed that he was introducing her to him. So, she smiled faintly at the man beside Lu Xingzhi and said hi.

The man looked at Jiang Yao with a smile in his eyes. He replied Jiang Yao in awkward mandarin, “Hi, how are you?”

Chapter 702: A Match Made In Heaven

“This is my friend, Ruan Yongjun. He’s a veteran of YN,” Lu Xingzhi said as he patted Jiang Yao’s head. Then, he turned to look at Huang Chengjing and the rest, he took Jiang Yao’s luggage from Huang Chengjing’s assistant and thanked him.

Then, he continued to ask, “Have you arranged the food and accommodation here? If not, you can follow me.”

To be honest, Huang Cheng, who had seen Lu Xingzhi’s cold face several times, was actually a little flattered. He was stunned for a second, then nodded and agreed, “Then I’ll have to trouble young master Lu.”

Huang Cheng was actually very surprised that Lu Xingzhi was so easy to talk to. It was most likely because he had sent Jiang Yao to his side safe and sound, right?

However, Huang Cheng was even more surprised that a professional like Lu Xingzhi actually had a good friend overseas.

“You’re welcome.” Lu Xingzhi’s lips twitched. “Ruan Yongjun, my friend. His family runs a hostel. Even if you know me, there’s no discount.”

Therefore, it was not because he suddenly became enthusiastic, but because his friend happened to run a hostel. Huang Cheng did not suspect that if it was not so coincidental, Lu Xingzhi would have probably left with Jiang Yao by now.

After speaking to Huang Cheng, Lu Xingzhi held Jiang Yao’s hand with one hand and carried Jiang Yao’s luggage with the other as he walked towards the car they were driving with Ruan Yongjun.

The car was Ruan Yongjun’s. It was a modified jeep, like a combination of a jeep and a minivan.

Lu Xingzhi let Jiang Yao sit in the back seat and helped her put her luggage in the back. He turned around and said to Huang Cheng, “Put the things in the back. CEO Huang will sit in the front alone. The rest of the people will sit in the back.”

The front seat and the driver could only seat five people. If it weren't for Huang Cheng taking care of his wife for a ride, Lu Xingzhi would have thrown Huang Cheng into the cargo compartment at the back. Who asked Huang Cheng not to give up on his sister.

In fact, Huang Cheng was prepared to be a cargo at the beginning. It was his first time coming to YN. Because the news was rushed, he rushed here in a hurry. Before he could contact anything, he was able to follow Lu Xingzhi for a ride, this was already a fortunate thing. Therefore, even if Lu Xingzhi asked him to sit in the back, he did not have any complaints. After all, he was a man, so he would not care about this.

And now, Lu Xingzhi gave him a good look for the first time. Huang Cheng was shocked again. He was afraid that Lu Xingzhi would change his mind, so he quickly climbed into the car.

Yn's economy was a little behind most countries. There were not many smooth concrete roads on this side of the road. In other words, there were not many wide roads on this side of the road.

Huang Cheng actually sat in the front passenger seat. Lu Xingzhi sat in the back with Jiang Yao. Then, he talked to Ruan Yongjun who was driving. Both of them were speaking in YN. Jiang Yao did not understand a single word, but she heard Ruan Yongjun laughing.

She suspected that Lu Xingzhi was the kind of person who would tell jokes to make people happy?

Obviously, he wasn't.

But strangely, Lu Xingzhi had a smile on his face at this time.

"What are you two talking about? Translate it." Jiang Yao tugged at Lu Xingzhi's sleeve and urged him in a low voice, "Ruan Yongjun seemed to be laughing very happily."

"He said that my wife is very beautiful and is a good match for me." The corner of Lu Xingzhi's lips curled up slightly. "I answered him that my wife, whom I have chosen so many times, is naturally a match made in heaven with me. Then, he asked me, what does 'match made in heaven' mean?"

"How do you answer him?" Jiang Yao's curiosity was piqued.

"I told him that 'match made in heaven' means that heaven is pulling the red string. We were born to be husband and wife, and no one can tear US apart."

Although Lu Xingzhi's answer was serious, Jiang Yao inexplicably did not believe it. Inexplicably, she felt that Lu Xingzhi was not telling the truth. Otherwise, how could this sentence make Ruan Yongjun smile like that?

Chapter 703: Sissy

What could she do? Did she not understand the language here? Whatever Lu Xingzhi said, it could only be something else!

"The moment I entered YN's borders, I felt like I was illiterate. This feeling is really not good." As a top student, she had suddenly become illiterate. This difference made Jiang Yao feel that it was really difficult for her to adapt to it.

However, looking at Lu Xingzhi, he didn't seem to feel at ease here.

"How can you speak Yn?" Jiang Yao asked, "Did you learn it in military school?"

"Yes," Lu Xingzhi said, "At that time, the school offered language elective classes. I had nothing to do, so I took all the classes."

The corner of Jiang Yao's mouth twitched slightly. "All the classes, how many classes were there?"

"From freshman to sophomore year, for two whole years, from 7 pm to 10 pm every day, and every weekend for two days, I learned the languages of a few countries. I have a good memory, so I can learn everything quickly." Lu Xingzhi was not showing off, but was explaining something, something that had passed.

He and Lu Yuqing had been learning English since they were young. Their family was rich, and before he entered high school, the Lu family hired a teacher who had retired from abroad to teach the three of them English. Lu Xiaoxiao might not be good at learning English, but.., Lu Xiaoxiao also spoke English very fluently.

It was probably because he had been learning other languages since he was young. Therefore, Lu Xingzhi was very quick at learning languages.

The elective courses were not taught in depth. Therefore, after two years, Lu Xingzhi had also taken all the elective courses that he could take.

The languages of the few countries were so deep that they could not be spoken. However, basic dialogue and words were not a problem for Lu Xingzhi.

Jiang Yao quieted down quietly and then quietly moved to the side, wanting to stay away from Lu Xingzhi, a terrifying super scholar.

"What are you doing? SIT properly!" Lu Xingzhi was unhappy when he saw Jiang Yao move to the corner. He scolded her in a low voice and pulled her back into his arms. "Why are you sitting so far away?"

Jiang Yao pouted. She couldn't say that her confidence had been shattered by her husband, Lu Xingzhi, so she didn't want to sit next to him anymore.

"There's a piano at home. Does it belong to you or sister?" Jiang Yao asked in one go.

When she married into the Lu family, that piano was basically for eating dust. Obviously, mother Lu and father Lu didn't know how to play, so it belonged to Lu Xingzhi or Lu Yuqing.

"Sister and I used it when we were young," Lu Xingzhi said, "At that time, the family wasn't as well-off as we are now. My parents gritted their teeth and bought a piano for me and sister to take piano lessons. I studied for two years, and when I was nine years old, I was so impatient that I skipped class every time it came to piano lessons. Later on, sister was the only one who used it."

"Do you still know how to play now?" Jiang Yao's eyes sparkled. "If you do, you can play a song for me the next time we go home!"

"I learned it when I was nine years old. I've long forgotten about the Pacific Ocean." Lu Xingzhi glanced at Jiang Yao, paused, and added, "At that time, I thought that learning the piano was a girl's job. Boys playing the piano were Sissy."

As soon as Lu Xingzhi finished his sentence, Huang Cheng, who was in front of him, choked on his water and started coughing.

Lu Xingzhi laughed coldly. This was the consequence of eavesdropping on the conversation of other couples.

Chapter 704: His Treasure

Jiang Yao also sneaked a glance at Huang Chengjing. She thought to herself that he choked after hearing Lu Xingzhi's words. That meant that Huang Chengjing could actually play the piano. He could even play it quite well. It might even be one of his interests.

It was not surprising that a family like the Huang family placed great emphasis on nurturing the children's abilities. Huang Chenchen had even begun to learn to do-re-mi.

After that, Jiang Yao didn't drag Lu Xingzhi around and ask him questions like a curious baby. She just couldn't help but mutter in her heart.

She felt that it was really strange that Lu Xingzhi would like her.

The Lu family was especially famous in the town and in the entire county. Lu Xingzhi's life was different from the children in the town. He could learn the piano and English from elementary school. Jiang Yao also knew that Lu Xingzhi had learned calligraphy, so his handwriting.., was better than the average person's.

And Her?

She was only the daughter of a poor family in the village. It was really hard for her to imagine why Lu Xingzhi had fallen in love with her in the first place?

He was clearly a person from heaven, and she was a person who lived in the mud and water. She should have had no relationship with him, but in the end, he married her.

Jiang Yao thought about it and came to a conclusion. Lu Xingzhi was most likely stupid and blind at that time, which was why he fell in love with her.

When she was in school, she was indeed an obedient girl who studied well. In the eyes of a teacher, as long as there were no accidents, she would definitely be able to enter a good university. However, in Lu Xingzhi's eyes, she was only good at her studies. For some reason.., she just had to become an exception to his vitality.

Even Jiang Yao could not help but sigh. Fate was really something that could not be explained clearly.

Such an ordinary her had been spoiled like a gem by him.

The car drove from the airport for more than two hours before reaching its destination. It was a rather quiet small town.

This small town didn't have high-rise buildings like Nanjiang City, nor did it have wooden houses like Jiang Yao's hometown. The houses here were almost all built with stones. No one knew what kind of materials were mixed in, but they were piled up one by one. Looking at it., it felt a little defeated.

However, this didn't happen. When Ruan Yongjun drove the car forward, it was a different scene. Very suddenly, beside a shabby house, two to three-story concrete houses rose up from the ground. Ruan Yongjun's home.., was one of these houses.

Jiang Yao was shocked by the gap between the rich and the poor in this small town. She got out of the car and followed Lu Xingzhi and Ruan Yongjun into Ruan Yongjun's home.

Ruan Yongjun's home was two floors high. However, it was not a suite like Nanjiang City. Instead, it was like a hotel. There were several separate rooms on the first floor. Lu Xingzhi told her that Ruan Yongjun's family had fewer people. Two-thirds of the rooms.., were rented to businessmen who occasionally came here to stay.

For example, people like Huang Chengjing.

"More than 20 kilometers out of this town is the most mineral-rich mining area. Many people in this town have become rich by relying on those mines." Lu Xingzhi pointed at the land under his feet. "For example, Ruan Yongjun's home."

Although Ruan Yongjun's home was not as good as the hotels in Nanjiang city, every room was very clean. There were two servants who were responsible for the cleanliness of the guest rooms.

"Sit down and rest. I'll go downstairs to the kitchen to get some food and rest. Later, I'll go to the side to look for Ruan Yongjun's friend. He knows more about the things in the mine than Ruan Yongjun." Lu Xingzhi was afraid that Jiang Yao would not be used to staying there, so he especially looked at her expression, seeing that she did not have any dissatisfaction, he locked the door and went downstairs.

Chapter 705: Generous

Ruan Yongjun was in the kitchen. When he saw Lu Xingzhi come down, he gave Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao's share of the meal to him separately. Naturally, there was a difference in treatment between friends and guests.

"Karu is back. I asked him to come over later. He's quite happy to hear that there's a new guest." Ruan Yongjun smiled. "There have been quite a number of people coming to the mine over the past two days. Look for Karu. I'll let them earn less of your middleman fee."

After Ruan Yongjun finished speaking, he looked around. After making sure that no one was there, he leaned closer to Lu Xingzhi and said in a low voice, "The task that you asked Karu to find someone to do has been completed. It's just something that happened on our way back. This matter has caused quite a stir."

"This is my fee for Karu's hard work." Lu Xingzhi did not say much. He directly took out a small cloth bag from his pocket. With a slight shake, a crisp sound could be heard coming from inside.

Ruan Yongjun took it and poured it out. When he looked at it, he saw two gold bars as thick as an adult's finger. He was so scared that he quickly stuffed it back into his pocket. He was shocked. "You're really generous!"

"Of course." Lu Xingzhi did not have much of a reaction. He patted Ruan Yongjun on the shoulder and left with the plate in his hand.

About an hour later, Carl knocked on the door of Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao's room. Seeing the smile on his face, Lu Xingzhi guessed that Ruan Yongjun had given the things to Carl, and Carl was very satisfied.

"Mr. Lu, it's my first time meeting you. I'm very happy."

Karu was a local of the town. He was about the same age as Ruan Yongjun and was a good friend of Ruan Yongjun since they were young. However, Ruan Yongjun went to join the army, while Karu continued to mingle in the town. Until now., karu was more promising than Ruan Yongjun, a veteran. Everyone in the town knew that Karu knew many people. The bosses of the mines had to give karu some face.

Karu was a very famous and prestigious middleman in the town. He was in charge of many people's business and took profits from the middle.

For example, for this mine business, if Karu recommended someone to go, the mine owner would give karu a sum of money as thanks. If the deal was concluded, Karu would also receive an additional commission.

It was indeed the first time that Karu met Lu Xingzhi, but that did not stop him from expressing his enthusiasm and welcome to those who were generous.

When he heard that Lu Xingzhi was going to see the mine with another person and that both sides were planning to buy the mine, the smile on Karu's face did not falter for even a second. When he learned that Lu Xingzhi was in a hurry and was going to leave YN tonight, karu immediately arranged for a car and a driver, he brought Lu Xingzhi, his wife, and Huang Chengjing to the mine.

The car that Karu arranged was much better than Ruan Yongjun's modified car. Although there were many people, there was no shortage of suvs. Each person had a SUV, and there were quite a few cars that crossed the mountains and left the small town.

Jiang Yao was unfamiliar with the people here, the scenery here, and everything here. She did not dare to be sure. If she was not accompanied by Lu Xingzhi, if she had come with Huang Cheng, she would be very nervous right now.

To her, Lu Xingzhi was like a mountain that she could lean on at any time, giving her stability and courage.

It was said to be more than 20 kilometers, but in reality, the off-road car still took more than half an hour to reach. The moment everyone got off the car, the people around immediately looked over, perhaps because there were too many people, or perhaps because Karu was a famous person.

Jiang Yao didn't understand what they were saying, but she could see some emotions from their expressions.

Chapter 706: Explosions

They seemed to be divided into several groups. On one side, they were worried, on the other side, they were watching the show, and on the other side, they seemed to be a little worried.

The people on the other side were not just the employees of the mine. There were also quite a number of people who came here to buy raw stones and come for the fame of the mine, such as businessmen like Huang Chengjing.

Jiang Yao also saw an acquaintance inside. It was Lu Xingzhi's master, elder Cai!

Lu Xingzhi's group was quite eye-catching. Elder Cai looked over and saw Lu Xingzhi standing there in black. His expression was indifferent and his gaze was cold. At first, elder Cai thought that he had recognized the wrong person, only when he saw the appearance of the woman Lu Xingzhi was holding did he confirm that he had not recognized the wrong person.

Elder Cai brought her disciple over to Lu Xingzhi and asked directly, "Why are you here? Didn't I hear that you went to participate in some special forces selection? Could it be that you came here for the selection?"

"I'm here to buy a mountain." Lu Xingzhi paused and added, "My wife wants to buy a mine."

"Hello, Uncle Cai!" Jiang Yao greeted elder Cai and asked, "Did something happen here? Everyone looks very strange."

"Something did happen." Elder Cai looked at Jiang Yao. "You don't understand YN, but your observation skills are good."

After praising Jiang Yao, elder Cai explained, "The mine that the Zhu family wanted to sell in Ping City suddenly exploded two hours ago. Half of the mine was destroyed, and the mine was sold under a contract. After the explosion, the buyer wanted to break the contract and refused to pay, so the Zhu family made a fuss. Then, not long after, someone found a lot of good materials that were blown up in the collapsed mine. Then, the buyer wanted to buy it back, but the Zhu family refused to sell it. Now, the two sides are arguing in front."

"Explosion?" Jiang Yao was shocked. "Why would there be an explosion at the mine?"

"Why would there be an explosion at the mine?" "It was all because the Zhu family offended someone, so the mine exploded." "Some people said that the buyer had hired someone to break the contract and didn't want to buy the mine. They said that the buyer had talked to another mine owner and seemed to be planning to buy another mine, but they broke the contract without any reason. They were probably afraid of being scolded, so they did it."

After elder Cai said that, she smiled unkindly. "However, the Zhu family and the buyer are not good people."

"I don't know who did it. Why did they blow up the Zhu family's mine?" "They blew up the Zhu family's mine for a new price!" Elder Cai's disciple added, "The Zhu family planned to sell the mine for 90 million yuan. Now, they will only give up after asking for more than 100 million yuan."

“Are you here for the Zhu family’s mine?” Lu Xingzhi’s eyebrows twitched slightly. “Or, are you here to have a feud with the Zhu Family?”

“Our boss heard that the original buyer of the Zhu family wanted to break the contract, so he asked master to come and take a look. If possible, our boss wants to buy the Zhu family’s mine, but with this explosion, our boss will definitely not be able to buy it,” elder Cai’s disciple answered honestly.

Karu understood Chinese. After listening to elder Cai and his disciple’s words, he suddenly laughed out loud for no reason. He looked meaningfully at Lu Xingzhi and then turned around, his shoulders trembled slightly as he tried hard to hold back his laughter.

Chapter 707: He Could Recite

At first, Jiang Yao didn’t think too much about it. However, when she noticed that Karu was looking at Lu Xingzhi, she suddenly remembered that Lu Xingzhi had told her twice that he was here to blow up the mine. He had also told her twice with a straight face. It was just that.., she didn’t believe him.

And now, the mine here had really exploded. Coincidentally, it was the Zhu family’s mine in Ping City!

Jiang Yao’s heart was filled with shock that could not be described with words!

So, Lu Xingzhi really came here to blow up the mountain?

And it was the Zhu family’s mine!

But in the end, it gave the Zhu family a new opportunity.

Jiang Yao facepalmed secretly. Lu Xingzhi’s current mood should be quite depressing, right?

Other people did bad things with good intentions, but when it came to him, they did bad things with good intentions.

Lu Xingzhi also noticed Jiang Yao’s sizing up. He looked down at her, raised his hand to press down on her hair, and asked in a low voice, “What are you looking at?”

Jiang Yao shook her head and retracted the expression on her face.

What could she look at? She just wanted to see what his expression would look like when he was depressed. However, after taking a look, she was a little disappointed. There was still no expression on his face.

“If you can’t buy it, then don’t buy it. The Zhu family has so many mines. There must be a reason why they only put this one up for sale.” Lu Xingzhi looked at elder Cai. “Recently, the Zhu family isn’t the only ones who can buy mines here.”

After saying that, Lu Xingzhi called out to Karu. “Let me introduce you.”

When Karu saw that Lu Xingzhi had brought another customer for him, his smile instantly turned into a flower. “We’re going into the mountains. I’ll bring you all over one by one to take a look. The road is a little difficult to walk on. There shouldn’t be any problems, right?”

Karu was asking about Huang Chengjing and the others before he turned to look at Jiang Yao. He was worried about a delicate girl like Jiang Yao.

“Just lead the way. I’ll take care of my wife myself,” Lu Xingzhi said.

“Yes, he’s very strong. If his wife can’t walk anymore, he can carry her,” elder Cai answered cheerfully and followed Karu into the mountains.

This area was almost filled with mines. Once they entered the mountains, they wouldn’t be able to see anything. It was either barren or dead black. Even if there were some plants, they would still be stained with thick dust.

After walking for a short while, Jiang Yao’s shoes were so dirty that she couldn’t bear to look at them. For someone who was slightly obsessed with cleanliness, this was somewhat unbearable.

However, there were too many people here. If she bent down to wipe her shoes, she would inevitably be treated as a foreign object. Therefore, she had been enduring it.

The attention of the surrounding people was on the mining sites of all sizes that were passing by. Only Lu Xingzhi noticed that his wife was frowning and staring at her feet.

“Get on my back. I’ll carry you.” Lu Xingzhi directly bent down in front of her. Then, he took out a handkerchief from his pocket and conveniently wiped the dust off the back of her feet.

He knew that Jiang Yao was a germaphobe. When he saw how uncomfortable she was walking, he was annoyed. He should have carried her the moment they entered the mountain.

“It’s only been a few minutes, and you can’t walk anymore?” Elder Cai walked in front and turned to look at Jiang Yao. “A girl is a girl. You can’t do that. You have to train more in the future.”

Jiang Yao’s face burned. She pulled Lu Xingzhi up and smiled. “It’s okay. I can walk. He’s just worried about nothing. He treats me like a piece of tofu!”

Chapter 708: Touring the Mountains

When elder Cai turned around with a smile, Jiang Yao glared at Lu Xingzhi and pushed him two steps forward.

Seeing that he was walking forward, but his attention was on her, Jiang Yao smiled helplessly at him and said in a low voice, “It’s okay. It’s not like I can’t stand being dirty. Back in Rong County, I endured it too, right?”

After Lu Xingzhi heard that, he did not say anything. He just pulled the person behind him forward. He was not happy that she was walking behind him. When he pulled her back to the side, he took the opportunity to put his arm around her waist. Only then was he satisfied.

In order to prevent herself from putting her attention on her feet, Jiang Yao activated her clairvoyance.

Along the way, she passed by many abandoned mines. Those mines were either lifeless and dim, or there was only a faint glimmer of light. It was clear that they had been mined out.

After entering the mountains for about half an hour, Jiang Yao finally saw how lively the real mines should be. Unlike the abandoned mines outside, there were no signs of human habitation.

In the mines here, there were many workers who were busy working non-stop. They were carefully transporting the raw stones they had picked out one by one.

What Jiang Yao saw was no longer a gray scene. Instead, it was a gradually brightening field of vision. It meant that the mine had an inestimable value.

“Whose mine is that?” Jiang Yao asked Karu. “It looks like there are quite a lot of people, and quite a few merchants are directly choosing raw stones.”

Jiang Yao recognized the identity of the merchants. They were discussing the price of this batch of raw stones. This batch of Shangrong seemed to be the old customers of the mine owner, so they could directly come to the mine to choose raw stones that had just been mined.

“This is our country’s Jadeite King’s mine. The largest imperial jade in the world in his family’s collection was mined from this mountain. The Jadeite King said that the imperial jade brought him a lot of good luck,” said Karu, there was a sense of pride in his tone. In the entire world, their country had the richest jadeite resources. There was no jadeite anywhere that could be compared to the beauty of their country. This was a treasure that God had given them alone.

Jiang Yao was slightly shocked in her heart. She thought to herself, so it turned out that they had such a big background. No wonder they were able to own such a mine with such good resources.

It was impossible not to be envious. When she thought about how the Jade King was able to collect money every day just by sitting at home, Jiang Yao felt that those days were definitely better than living immortals.

After walking past the Jade King’s mine for about twenty minutes, Karu finally stopped. At this time, they were already halfway up the mountain. Standing there, because there were no trees to cover them, the scenery at the foot of the mountain.., was clear at a glance.

“Looking down from here, there are three mines to be sold. Since you are all friends of Mr. Lu and Mr. Lu is also a friend of my brother, I will give you a special exception. I will tell you about the recent situation of these three mines.”

Karu pointed at the three sides and finally stopped at the east side as he said.., “The situation of this mine is the most special. Construction has been going on for almost two months. However, up until now, not a single piece of jadeite has been produced. Even if it is ordinary material, there are only large pieces of waste stones that have come out. The boss does not have the patience to continue digging, so he wants to sell them.”

Chapter 709: The Rest

After all, two months of hard work had cost the boss a lot of money.

“This kind of situation is common in other mines, but this is the first time it has happened in this area,” Kalu said seriously.

“All this time, the mines in this area have been regarded as a money tree. Almost every mine can bring a huge amount of money to the mine owner. The mine in the east is a special case here. There are two possibilities. If we continue to dig, there will still be no ore. It is also possible that if we continue to dig, one day, we might find some treasure.”

“The mine depends on luck. After opening the mine, you can basically see the value of the mine in less than a week. It has already been two months, and there is nothing. This mine probably doesn’t have anything. You have to know that time is also money.”

Huang Cheng had actually done his homework before coming here. Therefore, when he heard that this mine had not produced even half a piece of raw jade in two months, he thought that this mine was not worth buying.

Those who knew calculation knew that the risk of buying this kind of mine was the greatest. Most people would not be willing to take such a risk.

Elder Cai nodded and said, “Let’s not think about this mine. Let’s talk about the other mines.”

Carl acknowledged and introduced the other two mines to everyone.

Everyone listened more and more seriously, while Jiang Yao focused all her attention on the choice that everyone had given up on just now.

Her Eyes told her that the mine that was so bright that she could barely open her eyes was not as useless as it appeared to be.

In her field of vision, the light from the direction of the mine was the brightest. It was so bright that it could almost completely cover the two mines on the side, and even the entire mine in her field of vision.

In other words, where she could see now, there were more ores hidden in the mines in that direction than anywhere else. The value of that mine was higher than any other mine, and its hidden value was even higher than that of the Jadeite King’s mine.

It was just that they were a little far from each other, and Jiang Yao couldn’t use her x-ray vision to see through the things in the mountains. Her current ability wasn’t enough!

That was because the light she could see now was enough!

This light was even more dazzling than the one she had seen in the Jadeite King’s mine just now.

Jiang Yao quietly tugged at Lu Xingzhi, who was listening to Carl’s words, and then stretched out her slender fingers to point at the mine in the east.

Lu Xingzhi understood what she meant. He subconsciously looked at Jiang Yao’s eyes. He guessed that she might have used her unimaginable ability just now, so he cared about her eyes.

Seeing that her black eyes were as lively as usual, his brows relaxed slightly. He quietly wrapped the small hand that was tugging at his sleeve into his broad palm and gently pressed it to comfort her. Then, he moved his lips and told her with his lips., he knew.

After receiving Lu Xingzhi's response, Jiang Yao gave him a brilliant smile. She did not pull her hand back and just let him be happy and let him hold her.

On the other side, Karu had already finished introducing the situation of the other two mountains. Although they were not far from the mine that had not produced anything for two months, since the opening of these two mines until now.., they had produced quite a lot of good stuff one after another.

Jiang Yao saw that Huang Chengjing was lowering his head and talking to elder Cai. She saw that Huang Chengjing seemed to be quite interested in one of the two mines, so she was seeking elder Cai's opinion.

Chapter 710: Only Then It Would Be Interesting

Huang Cheng was actually a reliable person. He wasn't in a hurry like her, so he would definitely continue to stay here and slowly think about it. He would make a decision after comparing it with the other mines.

Moreover, Jiang Yao had seen the two mines on this side and the value wasn't bad. Thinking about it, the two mines that were next to the mine that she had her eyes on weren't too bad in terms of geographical location, so Jiang Yao didn't actually worry about Huang Cheng.

"Karu, there are still people working in the two mines on that side. I don't see any vehicles coming in and out from the east side. Has it stopped over there?" "Jiang Yao observed for a while. There are still vehicles coming in and out of the mines on both sides. She can still hear people talking, but the one on the east side is especially quiet.

"Logically speaking, the mine hasn't been sold yet, and the things inside belong to the original owner. The employees here will work until the mine is sold. However, the mine on the east side has been closed for a few days. The employees have been transferred to the other side by the mine owner. The mine has been open for so long, and there hasn't been anything that can be sold for money. The mine owner doesn't have the patience to continue waiting. After all, the employees also need to be paid," Kalu replied.

"What's the price of this mine?" Lu Xingzhi asked.

"The price offered by the mine owner is 90 million, but there's a lot of room for negotiation," said Karu. "A mine that even the mine owner has given up on. If you want it, I'll help you lower the price as much as possible."

Lu Xingzhi was generous and forthright, so Karu was willing to work for someone like Lu Xingzhi. This was a kind of fate. Karu himself was forthright and liked to live with forthright people.

"Then I'll leave the negotiation to you," Lu Xingzhi said quickly. "My wife wants this mine."

Huang Cheng and elder Cai were shocked when they heard that.

"Brat, are you crazy?" Elder Cai almost jumped up. "This is too risky! If you can't open a single hair in two months, what are the chances that you won't be able to open a single hair in the future? You're so good at studying, don't you know how to calculate?"

“Young master Lu, I also think that the two of you should discuss it carefully and make a careful decision.”Huang Cheng actually didn’t hear Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao discuss it. He heard that Lu Xingzhi said it was for Jiang Yao, so he couldn’t figure out whose idea this couple was.

If it was a normal family, such an important matter would usually be decided by the man. However, if it was a couple like young master Lu and Jiang Yao, it seemed that no matter what, young master Lu would listen to his wife.

No matter what happened, young master Lu would do whatever Jiang Yao said. It was as if young master Lu did not have a temper.

Of course, this was only limited to their own matters. To the public, young master Lu was still the king of Hades Lu. No one could make a decision for him.

In private, Huang Cheng did not know what it was like when the two couples were alone. Anyway, Lu Xingzhi was definitely not trying to pry his ears off.

“That’s what makes it interesting, isn’t it?”Lu Xingzhi’s expression was indifferent. He didn’t take elder Cai and Huang Chengjing’s words to heart at all.

Anyway, if Jiang Yao wanted it, he would be responsible for buying it for her at the lowest price and putting it in her hands.

The rest wasn’t something he had to worry about.

Huang Cheng was actually quiet. He had nothing to say. After all, it wasn’t the money in his pocket. What Lu Xingzhi wanted to spend it on was Lu Xingzhi’s business.

Elder Cai huffed and puffed like an old cow. Then, he ignored Lu Xingzhi. If he could control Lu Xingzhi, Lu Xingzhi would not have run away after learning it.
