

Chapter 721: Look for Whoever He Want

After making sure there was no problem and replacing the previously deleted video with the one taken by the two, Tang Luo was a little nervous.

“Is this really okay? There won’t be a problem?”

“Don’t worry, it will be fine,” Xia Xibei reassured her. “As long as he sees the face on the head here, he will naturally not suspect you.”

“What about after that?” Tang Luo was still a bit worried. “What if he doesn’t give up?”

Although he could see the face of the “woman” inside, what if Mo Bonan didn’t give up and wanted to find this person?

“There is nothing to worry about.” Xia Xibei looked relaxed. “Even if he wants to find someone, he will not look for you!”

Even if Mo Bonan was persistent, he was only looking for a non-existent woman.

In this case, how could he possibly suspect Tang Luo?!

Tang Luo understood, “In that case, he won’t suspect me!”

Xia Xibei nodded, “So yeah, you don’t have to worry about it.”

Tang Luo breathed a sigh of relief.

As long as Mo Bonan didn’t suspect her, then he could look for whoever he liked.

Maybe he would give up after searching for a while and not finding anyone...

Thinking of this, Tang Luo finally showed a relieved smile.

“Thank you.”

“No need to be so polite!” Xia Xibei patted her shoulder. “If you want to thank me, then take good care of God Luo’s Streaming TV! I’m just waiting to get rich!”

“OK,” Tang Luo revealed a bright smile.

God Luo’s Streaming TV was now developing very rapidly. It seemed as if overnight, everyone knew about this new thing called live streaming.

These days, many stars had been live-streaming on the platform, which attracted many fans.

Tang Luo also signed a lot of new anchors along the way, adding content to the platform.

Now that many advertisers were coming, the platform was getting more and more ads, and development was getting better and better.

God Luo's Streaming TV was developing so well that it naturally attracted many business people.

They wanted to acquire God Luo's Streaming TV through financing and other methods and run the platform.

If it was before, they could get what they wanted. After all, if one wanted to develop and grow, one needed capital.

If one had no money of one's own, one could only choose to finance.

But Xia Xibei had money!

With Xia Xibei's money as backing, God Luo's Streaming TV did not need to ask for help from the outside world at all.

Without other noises and people pointing fingers, God Luo's Streaming TV only needed to listen to the directions of two people, which naturally saved them a lot of trouble.

At this rate of development, God Luo's Streaming TV would soon be listed, and by then, Xia Xibei and Tang Luo would have a different net worth.

"But you'd better find a way to move out," Xia Xibei said to Tang Luo.

"Don't worry, I'm already talking about it. Next semester will be senior year, so I'll find a chance to move out."

Although the crisis was now lifted, Tang Luo didn't want to remain in the Mo family.

There were too many constraints in staying at Mo's house, especially for her as a "boy."

The next morning, before six o'clock, Pan Yan came over with Gu Lan to pick up Xia Xibei for the recording of the show.

However, Gu Lan did not go up, but just sat in the car, waiting for the two to come down.

After waiting for ten minutes or so, Pan Yan and Xia Xibei came down, but they looked a bit strange.

Xia Xibei's face was very rosy, while Pan Yan's face was unpleasant.

Gu Lan couldn't help but be concerned, asking, "Brother Pan, are you all right?"

"It's okay," Pan Yan said while glaring at Xia Xibei. "Well, let's drive."

Gu Lan looked at the two people inexplicably, before finally driving obediently.

Chapter 722: Meeting Shi Shuhang

When they arrived at the destination, it was already after seven o'clock and the guests were almost all there.

The location of this recording was in a park in S city.

It was a weekday and still pretty early, so there weren't too many people there, only some older folks dancing in the square.

Most of the stars who came to participate in "The Blast Forward" were quite popular. There were a few less popular guests, who were new stars with potential, carefully cultivated by major companies.

Xia Xibei's appearance made the others look at her with different gazes.

Everyone knew about the incident with Zhao Mincheng and his girlfriend.

It could be said that if it wasn't for the sudden incident with them, Xia Xibei wouldn't have had this opportunity to participate in this show.

Although her development momentum was quite good, compared to others, she was not on the same level.

It was because of the understanding of the situation here that everyone looked at Xia Xibei in such a complicated way.

She was too lucky!

To mix in this circle, strength was one thing, but luck was also very important.

Some people had the strength and the looks, but they toiled in the industry for many years and were still not that popular, while others people just came in and hit the ground running.

The difference here made it hard to know what to say.

In the entertainment industry, there were plenty of good-looking and strong performers.

However, it was not easy to make a name for yourself.

That was why luck was important.

Xia Xibei's good luck made people envious and jealous of her.

She was still so young, and she already had such an opportunity. It really made people's eyes turn red.

Despite being watched by many strange eyes, Xia Xibei was calm and stood obediently to the side, listening to the staff's explanation.

"Hi! You are Xia Xibei, right?!"

Xia Xibei turned to look and saw a young, handsome man coming over.

The man was 1.80 meters tall and lean, with handsome features and a bright smile on his face.

Xia Xibei froze for a moment before nodding at him, "Hello! Yes, I'm Xia Xibei."

"I'm Shi Shuhang."

Shi Shuhang walked over, smiling like sunshine, and extended his hand.

“It’s nice to see you here.”

Xia Xibei also extended her hand, “I’m also very happy to meet you.”

“I didn’t think we’d meet early. I thought it would take us two days to see each other!”

Shi Shuhang was the male lead of “Garden of Youth” and was also the son of the producer, so he naturally knew the cast of this idol drama.

Shi Shuhang had no opinion about who to work with. After all, no matter who he worked with, with his status, no one would dare to go against him.

On the contrary, everyone else had to flatter him.

So he didn’t need to worry about the other actor at all. As long as the other person looked good, could act, and was not too melodramatic, it was all good.

Shi Shuhang was quite impressed with Xia Xibei. After all, her previous performance in other programs left a deep impression.

Moreover, she was known for her gorgeous face. As someone who valued looks, Shi Shuhang was certainly interested.

“I wonder what the arrangement will be later.” Shi Shuhang shrugged. “It would be great if we could be on the same team.”

Xia Xibei smiled at this statement, “That depends on their arrangement, I guess.”

The two of them chatted a bit more, then they started to gather.

Before the show began to officially record, they assigned teams first.

To Xia Xibei’s surprise, she was really drawn into a group with Shi Shuhang!

Looking at the rope in his hand, Shi Shuhang laughed out loud.

“You will help me win!”

Chapter 723: Ring Toss

“The Blast Forward” had five permanent guests, which were one woman and four men.

This time, five celebrity guests came, adding up to exactly five men and five women.

The program team prepared five ropes, with men and women pulling one end each. Finally, those who drew the same rope would form a group.

Xia Xibei did not expect that she and Shi Shuhang would draw the same rope.

Shi Shuhang thought it was great, as he was curious to see if Xia Xibei’s previous performance in “Full Steam Ahead” was real.

After the drawing, the first session began.

“Full Steam Ahead” was vicious, and “The Blast Forward” was not much better.

The first session was a game of ring toss.

The team set up a round playing area with many different-sized dolls.

There were five big dolls, which represented transportation.

They could only use the transport to get to the next place, which would happen if they hit the doll.

However, it wasn't easy.

The circle-shaped area was very large, and the edge was several meters away from the doll.

Although the dolls were quite big, the guests had small rings in their hands, so the probability of hitting a doll was low.

Moreover, they only had five rings in their hands, and the recovery time of the rings was two minutes. In other words, when they threw a ring, they had to wait some time before they could use it again.

As a result, they could not throw a bunch of them randomly.

Once the game started, Shi Shuhang handed Xia Xibei two rings and took three rings for himself.

“Don't worry, my eyesight is very accurate!”

“Great, we'll see what you do,” Xia Xibei smiled and nodded.

The other guests began to circle around the periphery of the circle, trying to find the doll that was best to start with.

It was just a pity that the staff would not let them pass so easily, as the five dolls were placed quite evenly.

“Oops! I missed!”

Some guests had already tried to toss a ring.

Unfortunately, the ring didn't even touch the sides of the doll before falling.

Looking at the doll several meters away from them, everyone had different expressions.

Some of them deliberately posed with pompous teenage styles, and some of them deliberately stepped into the circle and then were pulled out by others, which was hilarious and very much in the spirit of the variety show.

It was just a pity that they still didn't hit the doll with any more accuracy.

Shi Shuhang walked around the edge and could not help but shake his head.

“The program team is so ruthless!”

Finally, he found a relatively close position, pointed to a doll, and said, “Don’t worry, I’ll let you ride in a luxury car!”

This doll represented the luxury car’s key. The brand of this car was also one of the show sponsors.

The best of the five modes of transport was this car, and then in descending order: the van, the soon-to-be-scraped van, the tricycle, and the electromobile.

Shi Shuhang selected a spot and closed his eyes, breathing deeply, with both palms pushing downward as if he was practicing qigong. Then, he fiercely widened his eyes.

Looking at his pompous action, Xia Xibei coughed twice and did not speak.

Shi Shuhang pointed one toe back to the ground, took the stance of throwing a discus, then tossed one of the rings.

The ring flew out, crossing over the doll and falling to the ground, not even touching the doll.

He coughed lightly twice and said with a serious face, “Missed. I missed.”

He also missed the next two times. One of the rings hit a doll, but it didn’t make a difference.

After all of his rings were thrown, he could only say to Xia Xibei, “Um... You try it.”

Chapter 724: The Top Scholar is Scary

“OK,” Xia Xibei nodded and walked to the position where Shi Shuhang had just been.

However, she did not have as many flashy movements as Shi Shuhang. She just quietly stared at the doll in front of her for a while.

After a while, she moved her wrist and a ring was thrown out.

“Oops!” Shi Shuhang shouted regretfully.

This ring touched the doll and then fell off.

It was a pity!

“It was so close!” he said with a pitiful look.

Xia Xibei pursed her lips, didn’t say anything, and continued to stare at the doll for a while.

Then, with another shake of her wrist, the ring flew out.

Shi Shuhang was already preparing to try again after five minutes.

However, the ring sliced through mid-air, made a beautiful arc, and finally fell, latching on to a corner of the doll!

Shi Shuhang froze for a moment, then his face changed and he jumped up violently.

“Bingo! Bingo!”

He was overjoyed to have won!

The others also looked over and couldn't help but be stunned.

Surprisingly, she really got it! It was too fast!

Looking at the ring hanging on the small corner of the doll, everyone couldn't help but look at Xia Xibei.

She was too accurate!

Moreover, it was surprising that they got the key to the luxury car!

Thinking of this, everyone's expressions became more complicated.

Shi Shuhang, however, was excited, not at all upset that Xia Xibei was better than himself. He happily shook his fist at the others and grinned, showing a mouthful of white teeth.

“We got it! Hahaha! Xibei, you're too good!”

If Xia Xibei wasn't a girl, he would have wanted to hug her.

The other guests hesitated for a moment, but still couldn't resist going over to ask Xia Xibei about the trick of hitting the target.

It was just too hard!

Xia Xibei was serious about this question.

“See, I am five meters away from the target. So if you take the parabolic curve...”

They had heard of the parabola, but the answer that followed made them confused.

Force... Angle... What the hell?!

They felt that these were taught in high school, but who could remember them?!

It was too much!

“...Just hit it, got it?”

After saying that, Xia Xibei asked them with an innocent face, “You understand, right?”

Everyone looked at each other, but did not dare to say that they did not understand.

“If you still don't understand, I can explain again-”

“It's okay!” The others shook their heads in a hurry. “You've already won. Hurry up and go to the next place!”

They did not want to listen to Xia Xibei explain the force and other stuff to them again. It was terrifying to be dominated by a top scholar!

They just realized that Xia Xibei was the top scholar!

Were all kids nowadays so scary?

Seeing everyone looking reticent, Xia Xibei's eyes flashed a smile as she nodded with a serious face, "Okay then, I'll head out."

"Okay, okay! You guys go first!"

Everyone was busy sending her away.

Shi Shuhang got the key and walked over proudly, then looked at everyone's expressions with a puzzled look.

He couldn't help but wonder, "What's wrong with them?"

"Nothing, they asked me how I won."

"So what did you say?"

He was curious about that, too.

"It's..."

Xia Xibei repeated what she had just said.

Shi Shuhang's eyes were dazed as he hurriedly interrupted her, "Okay, I get it! Let's hurry up and go!"

Shi Shuhang's grades were not very good. He only studied at an ordinary university before starting out. Stuff like this made his balls hurt.

1

The top scholar was really scary!

Chapter 725: Narcissistic Kid

The car provided by the program team was very luxurious. As the two of them got into the car, they complimented and advertised the car, then went all the way to the next destination.

The second place was a quiet side street in a shopping area in S City.

When they arrived, it was just about ten o'clock in the morning. The stores were open and the street was starting to fill up with people.

The two of them parked their car and were directed to go upstairs in a secluded area, where there was a large dressing room.

There were quite a lot of clothes here, but they were all ordinary clothes that could be seen on the street. When they arrived at the room, the staff delivered two sets of overalls and described their task.

They were to put on makeup and dress so that no one would recognize them.

After putting on makeup, they would be assigned to a supermarket as cashiers.

If their identity was not discovered after an hour, they would be considered to have passed.

If they were discovered, their score would be reduced and the one who was recognized the fastest would be penalized.

After listening to the staff's explanation, Shi Shuhang immediately spun around the room.

"Where are the sunglasses? Hats? Masks? I need a scarf!"

When he went out, he usually used these props.

The corners of Xia Xibei's mouth twitched as she pulled on him.

"We are going to the supermarket to sell things. We can't wear sunglasses, hats, and masks. Besides, why would you wear a scarf in the middle of summer?"

After she reminded him, Shi Shuhang looked forlorn.

"Then what do we do?"

Xia Xibei was fine. Although good-looking, she was not as popular as him, and wouldn't be recognized as quickly.

If he was recognized early, wouldn't he be punished?

Thinking of this, Shi Shuhang became even more worried.

If these regular props couldn't be used, then what could he do?

"It's okay, I'll help you," Xia Xibei winked at him. "Change your clothes first."

The overalls were uniforms from a supermarket, an orange icolor and very conspicuous.

However, the two of them, with their good figures and styles, still looked like models after wearing the clothes.

Shi Shuhang scratched his head in the mirror and exclaimed, "Ah, it's hard to give up one's natural beauty!"

Then, he frowned sadly.

"I glow so much! How on earth do I cover it up?!"

Xia Xibei didn't know what to say.

This kid was even more narcissistic than Cui Tong!

How could such a narcissistic person with a good family background be so stupid afterward and fall into such an unpleasant situation?

Pondering the situation, Xia Xibei walked over to the dressing table and looked through the cosmetics on the table, then waved at him.

“Come over here.”

Shi Shuhang stood up straight and walked to Xia Xibei’s side.

“What is it?”

“Sit down, I’ll do your makeup.”

“How are you going to do it?” Shi Shuhang asked while sitting down.

“You just wait and see.”

Xia Xibei didn’t say anything else. She picked up the foundation and started to work on his face.

Foundation, highlighter, concealer, eye shadow... One after another, cosmetics were used on Shi Shuhang’s face.

Xia Xibei’s movements were fast and light.

In ten minutes’ time, however, she stopped.

“Okay, see for yourself.”

Shi Shuhang turned to look at the mirror, then drew a breath.

“Oh my god!”

In the mirror, his appearance had changed.

His complexion was two degrees darker, his cheeks were a little dirty with what seemed like old acne, and it looked a little rough.

He didn’t know how Xia Xibei did it, but his big eyes were also made to appear smaller.

He became inconspicuous after the makeover!

Chapter 726: Big Transformation

Shi Shuhang looked at himself in the mirror in surprise, his eyes rounded.

“You’re too good!”

Shi Shuhang came up to the mirror to study his skin.

Only when he was close and there was light could he see the powder on his face. If he pulled away a little, he would only feel that his skin was rough and dull.

When his skin was rough, his demeanor was not the same.

Moreover, Xia Xibei also combed down his bangs, covering most of his forehead, making him look a bit dull.

He was very different from his previous handsome appearance!

Even without wearing glasses, not many people would recognize him!

Xia Xibei searched the room again and found two pairs of rimless glasses without prescription.

After putting them on, he was even more inconspicuous, looking a bit wimpy and wilted.

Even if Shi Shuhang's loyal fans were in front of him, they wouldn't necessarily recognize him.

Shi Shuhang tsked, his face full of admiration.

Xia Xibei's skills were so awesome!

When he turned to look, Xia Xibei had already started to put makeup on herself.

Xia Xibei's movements were fast, and in just a few swooshes, her face had changed.

Her transformation was similar to Shi Shuhang's, with her skin, eyebrows, eyes, and lips all changed.

Just now, Shi Shuhang had his eyes closed and let Xia Xibei do her work, not seeing the process.

When he saw Xia Xibei's movements, he was stunned.

Her technique was too powerful!

Finally, Xia Xibei put down her hair and put on a pair of glasses. She was no longer her former self and had turned into an ordinary and inconspicuous girl.

"You're incredible! Did you study it?" Shi Shuhang couldn't help but ask.

"No," Xia Xibei shook her head. "Just tinkered with it by myself."

Shi Shuhang was convinced.

"If you have this kind of skill, you won't be afraid of being discovered when you go out!"

It was not easy for the big stars to go out.

Xia Xibei smiled, "Okay, let's go."

As they were preparing to leave, the other groups of guests finally rushed over.

As soon as they came in, they saw a man and a woman wearing orange supermarket uniforms with big supermarket logos printed on them, looking like country bumpkins.

They couldn't help but frown. Since when did these two strangers come here?

However, they did not think too much about it and continued to walk inside.

As they brushed past each other, a male guest, Brother Huang, noticed that the man across from him suddenly opened his arm and made a gesture to hug him.

"Brother Huang!"

Huang was startled by Shi Shuhang's action and reflexively stepped back.

When he saw clearly the two people in front of him, he was immediately shocked.

"It's you guys?!"

The female guest next to him was also stunned. These two people were actually Shi Shuhang and Xia Xibei?

"Yeah, it's me. Are you shocked?" Shi Shuhang shook his head in triumph.

The other two people looked at each other.

If Shi Shuhang hadn't opened his mouth, they wouldn't have recognized them!

"Are you guys..."

"Hey, you'll know when you get inside. We're leaving now!"

After Shi Shuhang showed off, he took Xia Xibei and walked away without looking back.

Soon, the two of them arrived at a supermarket.

The manager trained them briefly and then let them go on duty.

However, before going on duty, Xia Xibei reminded Shi Shuhang. "Remember to change your voice."

Shi Shuhang nodded and lowered his voice, "Don't worry, I will! We will definitely be first this time!"

After saying that, he proudly went to his post.

After taking his place, he started working!

Chapter 727: Successfully Completed

After eleven o'clock, there were more people in this supermarket.

Because the neighborhood was a large shopping area, there were many young people among the customers.

Young people were celebrities' main fans, and they would easily recognize the stars.

However, Xia Xibei and Shi Shuhang's appearances were so ordinary that the customers who came to shop didn't pay much attention to them, leaving soon after shopping.

Xia Xibei's movements were very smooth, and she did not seem like a novice.

Shi Shuhang, on the other hand, was a little slower and fumbled a bit.

However, there were not too many customers, so it was not much of a problem.

In the process, Shi Shuhang met two girls. They bought a carload of things. While waiting to checkout, they looked at their cell phones and exclaimed, mentioning his name. One of them was probably a fan of his.

However, no matter how imaginative they were, they couldn't have imagined that their idol was right in front of them and charging them money.

An hour passed without any danger.

When he took off his glasses, Shi Shuhang couldn't help but jump up in excitement.

"Great! We were not recognized at all!"

He was worried throughout the process, afraid of being recognized, which would be a problem.

Fortunately, Xia Xibei was very skilled and the fans couldn't recognize them.

When they returned to the room from before, they were surprised to find that Brother Huang's group had returned and looked a bit disappointed.

"Why are you guys back so early?" Shi Shuhang asked in surprise.

When he and Xia Xibei had left, Brother Huang and the others had only just come over, and makeup would take at least half an hour.

But now, they were back even earlier than they were, which was weird.

"Don't talk about it." Huang had a bitter face. "We'd only been standing for ten minutes before we were discovered."

They were at another supermarket for cashiering.

It was clear that they were trying to keep a low profile, but they had only been working for less than fifteen minutes before they were recognized.

Although they tried their best to deny it, the fans were too sharp-eyed to listen to their explanations.

In the end, they were surrounded by fans and passersby who heard the commotion, and it took quite a lot of effort to get out.

"You were found out that quickly?"

Shi Shuhang looked surprised, then showed a joyful expression.

But they had completed their mission!

When the time came, they would not be the ones to be punished!

Looking at Shi Shuhang's happy face, Huang and his partner looked helpless, but their disguise skills did fail.

Although the other groups had not returned yet, they could proceed to the next round.

The next task was for them to continue their disguise and go to the shopping street to make money.

The team gave them half a day. By five o'clock in the evening, whichever group earned the most money would get more points.

However, they couldn't let anyone find out their identity.

If they were found out, the money they earned before would go back to zero. They would have to come back and re-disguise themselves and start over in a different place.

This was also to prevent them from using their status to raise money from fans.

If they could raise money from the fans, then this competition would be meaningless.

After hearing this rule, the two groups couldn't help but look at each other.

The program team really knew how to play, but they were the ones who chose to come on this show.

Xia Xibei chose an inconspicuous set of clothes for Shi Shuhang and herself, and made them over in an unobtrusive way.

There were more people on the street, so more of an effort had to be put into the disguise.

Chapter 728: How to Make Money

Shi Shuhang changed into a rustic-style horizontal top and loose, casual pants. With glasses on, he was looking nerdy to the point of dishevelment, and also a bit pathetic, so no one would recognize him.

Xia Xibei's look was not far behind.

Her tall and slim figure was covered by a big T-shirt and roomy pants, with large glasses to cover most of her face.

For a better effect, she then tied half of her hair on top of her head into a bun, leaving a bit of hair that fell in front of her forehead. After a little trimming, this bit of hair became bangs that covered her eyebrows.

This move stunned everyone! What a cool trick!

After adding bangs, Xia Xibei was even more inconspicuous than before.

Even if others were in close contact with her, it would be hard to recognize her.

After the disguise, they fixed a small camera and recorder on their chests.

The photographers would be distributed in other places and wouldn't get close to them, so as to prevent any fans from finding out.

After making preparations, Shi Shuhang fist pumped and waved to Brother Huang and the others.

"We're starting! Yeah!"

After saying that, he smiled and walked out with Xia Xibei.

Brother Huang and his partner looked at each other, only able to lower their heads and try to disguise themselves.

If they were discovered as soon as they went out, like earlier, it would be too pitiful!

They did not want to do useless work.

Shi Shuhang and Xia Xibei went out into the street and walked around for a while, making sure that they did not attract anyone's attention. Only then did they breathe a sigh of relief.

Although they were not discovered in the supermarket just now, there were not too many people there. With more people on the street, the chances of exposure were greater.

Luckily, Xia Xibei was effective enough.

"What do we do next?" Shi Shuhang muttered, curiously looking around.

He saw a sign recruiting for part-time jobs and immediately tugged on Xia Xibei.

"We can work part-time!"

Xia Xibei shook her head. "No way. The money you can earn from a part-time job is too little to win."

The most a part-time job paid here was two or three hundred yuan a day. They could only do half a day, so the two of them could only earn two or three hundred yuan. How could they win with that?

"Then what should we do?" Shi Shuhang was immediately disappointed. "How about we go beg for money?"

Xia Xibei looked at him with a look that was hard to describe.

"How do you think we should beg to get enough money?"

"We can find a chalk, and then write 'family members seriously ill, please help'? I've seen many of these on the street before. We can learn from them!"

The corners of Xia Xibei's mouth twitched and she became even more speechless.

"Don't you know that those are all scammers? Besides, do you have the guts to do that?"

He was a big star, and he wanted to use this kind of trick; it was too humiliating!

Shi Shuhang thought for a while but finally shook his head.

“Forget it, it’s better not to be this kind of laughing stock to everyone.”

Xia Xibei let out a sigh of relief. Fortunately, he was not that stupid.

However, she was also sure that this kid was really lacking in the mind.

The fact that he would end up in such a miserable situation afterward was definitely because of his deficiency!

“Let’s think of a solution while we walk.”

Shi Shuhang could not think of any other way for the time being, and could only nod. “That’s fine, let’s look around first.”

The two of them walked casually on the street, and Shi Shuhang looked around with a curious face.

He rarely came to these places before. After his popularity rose, it was difficult to be out and about, so naturally, he rarely went out.

He did not expect this place to be so interesting.

After walking for a while, Xia Xibei suddenly stopped.

“Got it!”

Shi Shuhang followed her gaze and froze.

Chapter 729: Bingo

There were already quite a few people lined up in front of a clothing store on the street, with a sign in front of them.

On top of the sign were a few large words: “If you press and get 7:13, you will get a 500 yuan shopping voucher.”

When you got a little closer, you could see the flashing numbers in the middle of the sign.

It was a pity that as one after another went up, they just couldn’t press the right number.

The crowd made a pitiful sound from time to time, and those who failed could only go back in line.

Those who were reluctant could only continue to queue. Anyway, there was no fee to play. If one got the right number, it was free money!

The young people who came out to shop were not in a hurry, so they played as much as they wanted.

“Let’s go over there,” Xia Xibei said.

“You want to play that?” Shi Shuhang looked troubled. “But it looks... Not very easy.”

Even if he hadn't played this, he knew that it must not be that easy. The store was trying to attract people and definitely wouldn't give away money to everyone.

A few minutes later, more people failed.

"Let's try it."

Xia Xibei took the lead and walked over.

The two together made too big a target, so they were separated by several positions.

Although they stood out in height, they were ordinary-looking. Plus, everyone was focused on the sign, so they did not get spotted.

After waiting for a few minutes, it was Xia Xibei's turn.

She pressed the start button and watched the time on it flash by quickly.

At just over six seconds, she tapped the button.

7:10.

"Ugh!"

"A pity!"

"It was so close!"

The crowd in the back let out a lamentable sigh.

It was so close!

Xia Xibei did not care and continued to the back of the line.

After a while, it was Shi Shuhang's turn.

He pressed the start button, then held his breath and slapped the pause button quickly.

8:01.

This number was so bad that no one had any special reaction.

Shi Shuhang's expression did not look too good and he went back to the back of the line.

The line continued to move forward and more and more people lined up.

If they didn't win, they'd have to wait in line even longer after that.

In the line, Shi Shuhang was a bit anxious.

If they wasted their time here, how could they make money?

He didn't know what the others were doing right now, but what a pity if they were overtaken! They had managed to maintain their advantage until now!

Suddenly, a loud cheer rang out.

“Bingo!”

“Bingo!”

He turned his head to look at the red “7:13” on the sign, which was very clear.

Someone really hit the number! The store did not fake the machine!

This was the first thought that came to Shi Shuhang’s mind.

The second thought was: who was so powerful?

Taking a closer look, his eyes widened in shock.

It was Xia Xibei!

The others gathered around Xia Xibei happily, exclaiming all sorts of things.

Even the staff was surprised.

This thing has been out for two days, and she was the first one to win!

Her win made it so that it gave everyone more confidence.

People didn’t have time to gather around and admire her, and there was a long line again.

Xia Xibei walked out and got a 500 yuan voucher from the staff.

This voucher was not limited to a purchase amount and could be directly exchanged for 500 yuan of products.

Shi Shuhang also tried a second time but did not win.

After coming out and looking at the long line, he could only give up helplessly.

“What’s next?” he asked.

“We sell this.”

Xia Xibei quickly found a customer in the store and exchanged this 500 voucher for 450 cash.

Chapter 730: Continuing to Make Money

Looking at the 450 yuan in hand, Shi Shuhang’s expression was very wonderful.

In just ten minutes, they earned 450 yuan! This was too impressive!

If they did part-time work, the two of them wouldn’t necessarily make this much money even in a day.

“You’re too good!”

He didn’t mince words in praise.

“It’s just good luck,” Xia Xibei said modestly.

“Luck is also a kind of strength!” Shi Shuhang had a serious face.

It was like how he was able to go farther and do better than others. A big part of the reason was that he was born into it.

That was why luck was also very important.

“So what do we do next?”

Although they had 450 yuan, who knew what other people would do to make money? So this amount was not secure enough.

“Let’s look a little more.”

“Okay.”

Due to this skill that Xia Xibei showed, Shi Shuhang followed her without question.

The photographer followed far behind to keep others from finding out his identity.

After walking for a while, Xia Xibei stopped in front of a store.

Looking at the several claw machines inside, Shi Shuhang looked bewildered.

“What’s wrong?”

“Let’s go in.”

Xia Xibei took the lead and walked in.

Shi Shuhang followed in with a dumbfounded face.

There were quite a few people trying to catch dolls in the store. Unfortunately, they did not get much.

Watching Xia Xibei use the money to exchange for tokens, the corners of Shi Shuhang’s mouth twitched.

She’d just gotten the money, and she was going to spend it?

She was here to play, right?

However, this money was earned by Xia Xibei herself, so he couldn’t say anything, even if he felt it was wrong.

Xia Xibei exchanged it for 20 tokens and gave Shi Shuhang five of them.

Looking at the five tokens in his hand, Shi Shuhang looked depressed.

Why did he have five, but Xia Xibei had 15?

When Xia Xibei started to play, he finally understood.

The tokens in his hands were not very useful, but in Xia Xibei's hands, they were a powerful tool!

Standing behind Xia Xibei, watching Xia Xibei grab the cute dolls inside one by one, Shi Shuhang looked expressionless.

This was too damn good!

Did she buy a claw machine to practice at home?!

In just 20 minutes, Xia Xibei used 15 tokens to get 10 dolls!

It was not 100-percent, but it was still a pretty impressive accuracy rate!

Many people in the store had also gathered around, staring at her movements and cheering for her success.

After Xia Xibei finished catching the dolls, she looked at Shi Shuhang with 10 dolls in her arms.

Shi Shuhang's mouth twitched and he hesitated, but he still went to the machine and stuffed in a token.

It was a pity that after he used up all five of his tokens, he just made the dolls inside flip over, and there was no possibility of the dolls dropping down.

He failed completely!

Looking at his own battle record, Shi Shuhang's face turned grim.

Xia Xibei only gave him five tokens, so she really was letting him play!

Xia Xibei did not mock him, just handed five dolls to him.

"Sell these."

"Sell?" Shi Shuhang looked confused. "Sell dolls?"

"Right," Xia Xibei nodded. "One sells for 20 yuan."

These dolls were quite large and of very good quality; they would be at least 50 a piece in the stores.

Their business cost them nothing, so selling each one for 20 yuan would be fine, and it should sell quite well.

Shi Shuhang looked confused, but obeyed and walked to the door with the dolls in his arms.

But how was he going to hawk them?

He had no pen and paper on him, and he was too embarrassed to shout.

He stood in the street, pitiful and helpless.

When he turned his head to look at Xia Xibei, he found her running wildly.

Shi Shuhang was dumbfounded, but reflexively ran after her.

Chapter 731: Fighting Over the Child

Shi Shuhang was very confused. What was Xia Xibei running for?

After he ran to follow her, he was even more confused. Why was he running too?

But since he started running, he had better continue.

He was shocked that Xia Xibei's running speed was also very fast!

In a few breaths, she had run a good distance!

Shi Shuhang was filled with shock, but he still sped up.

He couldn't let himself be left behind, right? That would be too humiliating!

After running for a while, Shi Shuhang was not able to close the distance between the two, but he did not get too far away either.

Thankfully, although there were many people here, he was tall! That was why he was able to track Xia Xibei in the crowd. Otherwise, with Xia Xibei's nimble movements, she would have lost him.

After running for a while, Xia Xibei finally slowed down, and he was instantly happy.

Was she finally stopping?

In the next moment, he sucked in a horrified breath!

This was because Xia Xibei suddenly rushed towards a woman holding a child and snatched the child from her arms!

This scene almost made Shi Shuhang faint.

What was going on! Why did she snatch the child?

He was confused and shocked, and could only rush up.

When he rushed forward, he heard the woman shout, "Give me back the kid!"

The woman lunged forward, trying to snatch the child back.

Xia Xibei held the child and turned around, avoiding the woman.

The woman stumbled and almost fell to the ground.

The surrounding passersby were also stunned by this scene and could not help but stop in their tracks.

Was this... Child-snatching?!

Damn! This was a public place!

What was with this young woman? Why was she grabbing the child in plain sight? Was she crazy?!

Everyone was filled with righteous indignation, gathering around.

Shi Shuhang was shocked and confused, but did not gather around at first.

“Give me back the child!” the woman screamed. “This is my child!”

“Is she a human trafficker?!”

The others also looked angry.

“Catch this trafficker!”

“She is so evil at a young age! Catch her!”

Everyone was very angry when they heard about the child snatching.

Seeing that everyone was about to rush up, Xia Xibei immediately shouted, “This is not your child! You’re the trafficker!”

These words immediately caused the crowd to erupt. Everyone’s footsteps also stopped.

A hint of panic flashed across the woman’s face.

“This is my child! You’re stealing my child!”

“Your child?” Xia Xibei sneered, holding the child steadily. “The clothes you’re wearing are at most 20 or 30 yuan. Then look at this child. Is he even half way similar to you?”

Hearing her say that, everyone’s eyes turned to the child in her arms.

The little boy was about a year old, with fair skin and delicate, lovely eyebrows.

He was wearing a handsome suit and looked like a cute little gentleman.

Then they looked at the woman, who was about forty years old and ordinary-looking, her eyelids drooping, looking a bit fierce.

The clothes she was wearing were even rougher.

The two did not look even remotely alike!

The child seemed clueless. He nestled in Xia Xibei’s arms, smiling and reaching out to touch her face. After she stopped him, he pushed into her arms again. The whole time, he did not look half attached to that woman.

“What are you... What are you talking about?!” The woman panicked. “That’s my baby! Give me back my baby!”

She rushed up to snatch the child back.

“The child is definitely not hers!”

Shi Shuhang finally reacted.

He immediately shouted, took the lead, and rushed up.

“Keep her here, and call the police!”

Chapter 732: Who is the Human Trafficker

This shout from Shi Shuhang managed to bring everyone to their senses.

Right! No matter whose child it was, there must be one party who was trying to snatch him!

So, first keep them all here and call the police!

Looking at everyone’s reaction, the woman became even more flustered and tried to escape, panicking.

She was running away! She must be a human trafficker!

But there were so many people here, and each of them hated this kind of thing, so how could they let her go?

Everyone rushed over to stop the woman.

When everyone stopped, the woman’s body and face had some scratches and her hair was disheveled.

“Call the police! Call the police!”

Some people had already taken out their cell phones and started calling the police, everyone filled with righteous indignation.

If a child was stolen, how much would it affect the family?! Some families were ruined because of this!

Human traffickers deserved the death penalty!

In the chaotic scene, the child nestled in the arms of Xia Xibei, seemingly not affected at all, his little face smiling adorably.

The commotion here also attracted other people, everyone gathering around.

When they knew that a trafficker was caught here, they became angry and condemned the heartless trafficker.

Everyone was also alarmed.

There were so many people here, and yet there were still human traffickers? That was terrible!

Suddenly, a sharp cry came from outside the crowd, and a woman, her hair in disarray, stumbled and squeezed in.

When she saw the child in Xia Xibei's arms, she immediately let out a scream of joy and excitement.

"Baby!" she shouted as she rushed over, her face a bit grim because of the overwhelming excitement.

"Ah!"

The child was so frightened that he screamed, then turned and buried his face into Xia Xibei's chest.

"Is she really the child's mom?"

Everyone couldn't help but be surprised.

The woman's hair was scattered, her makeup had melted a bit, one of her high heels was gone, she was limping, and her dress was a bit messy.

She looked terrible.

The child did not even greet her, so who could be sure if she was the child's mother?

The woman's heart was broken by the child's dodging, and tears came down.

"Baby, I'm your mom! I'm really your mom!"

She panicked and said to Xia Xibei, "I'm really the baby's mom! Really! You have to believe me!"

Seeing her scrambling to explain, Xia Xibei nodded, "I know, but you're too excited now. You're scaring your child."

She patted the child's back and then said to the woman, "Calm down first. Your child has been found, there is no need to rush."

The woman was quite beautiful. She was just too wretched, and looked a bit frightening from the agitation. It was no wonder that the child was frightened.

Being comforted by Xia Xibei, the woman slowly calmed down.

She took a few deep breaths, wiped away her tears with the tissue handed over by the person next to her, and tidied up her hair before she said softly to the child, "Baby, mommy is here. Come to mommy."

Hearing his mother's normal voice, the child turned his head, blinked in recognition, and finally reached out towards her.

"Mom!"

Hearing the child's voice, the woman's tears immediately came down. She grabbed the child and shed even more tears, so much so that everyone also believed the woman's identity.

In other words, the woman they caught was really a human trafficker!

Thinking about it, they couldn't help but admire Xia Xibei.

If it weren't for her, the baby would have been stolen by now! The mom would have gone crazy!

Chapter 733: Terrifying Power of Observation

While the woman was holding the child and crying, onlookers pulled out their cell phones and took pictures of the incident, which were then quickly distributed through their circles of friends.

The police also rushed over and arrested the trafficker.

The trafficker looked resigned; she could not escape.

The woman pulled on Xia Xibei, her face full of gratitude.

"Thank you so much! If it wasn't for you, my child would have—"

Thinking of some horrible possibility, she couldn't help but tear up and have palpitations.

These heartless, murderous traffickers!

Xia Xibei laughed, "When I see injustice, I must help."

Although not every parent was good, the vast majority of parents loved their children. If the child was lost, the family would be decimated.

"Thank you very much anyway!" The woman hugged the child. "My name is Qi Yuntian, and this is my son Zhuo Jingxu. Can I have your name?"

Xia Xibei shook her head, "It's a small thing, no need to be polite. Just go ahead and take the child back."

The little boy turned his head in his mother's arms and stretched out his hand to Xia Xibei, saying in a soft voice, "Hug!"

Qi Yuntian was surprised. She was in too much of a hurry before, so she didn't pay attention.

Only now did she realize that her son was so affectionate with Xia Xibei!

Although her son was cute and very likable, he rarely got close to other people, so why was he so fond of Xia Xibei just now?

"Hug!"

The little boy was still reaching out, his big black eyes staring straight at Xia Xibei, the affection in his eyes unmistakable.

Xia Xibei could not refuse such a soft and cute little baby.

She stretched out her hand and the child immediately leaned over.

Qi Yuntian had mixed feelings seeing her son so eager.

After reaching Xia Xibei's arms, the little boy revealed a bright smile, his rows of white teeth neat like pebbles of rice, showing his good mood.

The other people weren't surprised; they just found the scene very heartwarming.

The police came over, saying, "Hello. Can you tell us exactly what just happened?"

In the face of police inquiries, Qi Yuntian, although in a difficult position, still clearly articulated what had just happened.

"The nanny and I were eating nearby with my child. When we went to go back, there were suddenly a few more people next to us. When those people left, my child was gone too!"

Thinking about what had just happened, Qi Yuntian's face was very upset.

The police officer nodded, recorded what she said, then looked at Xia Xibei.

"How did you find the child?"

Xia Xibei explained, "Just now, I was selling dolls on the street when I saw that woman holding a child pass by. Her eyes were flashing, and she moved strangely. Since she and the child looked completely different in how they dressed, I got a little suspicious and couldn't help but pay attention to her. After that, I saw this lady looking for the child in the street, and she looked very much like the child the woman was holding, so I rushed over and grabbed the child back."

Xia Xibei's explanation stunned the police and the crowd of onlookers.

What kind of observation power was this?!

Although this little boy and his mother did look a bit similar, how could she be so sure?

And, how did she manage to find this trafficker in the crowd?

Young women these days were too amazing!

As everyone was shocked, Xia Xibei's eyes turned and her face changed slightly.

Shi Shuhang had squatted down in the crowd. He was holding his ankle, seemed pale, and didn't look too good.

Chapter 734: Recognized

"Hold the child."

Xia Xibei frowned and immediately returned the child to Qi Yuntian.

The child returned to his mother's arms with a bewildered look. Reaching out and struggling to grab Xia Xibei, he could only see her back, causing his little mouth to flatten in grievance.

Xia Xibei quickly walked up to Shi Shuhang and squatted down.

“What’s wrong?”

Shi Shuhang grimaced, his expression not very pleasant.

“I twisted my ankle.”

Just now, when he and the others were catching human traffickers, he twisted his ankle during the chaos.

He should have called a doctor, but there were so many people here, and it was not good for him to expose his identity.

He wanted to win!

“Let me see.”

Xia Xibei reached out to feel his ankle.

“It’s useless even if you do look at it- Argh!”

Before he could finish his words, he felt a sharp pain coming from his ankle, causing him to scream in agony.

However, the sharp pain came and went quickly, soon disappearing.

Xia Xibei took her hand back, “Don’t worry, it’s okay.”

Shi Shuhang looked at Xia Xibei’s action with a dumbfounded face, expression full of consternation.

She... She actually had this kind of ability?!

The others then reacted, looking over in unison.

So she knew this man!

The two of them were quite tall and had good figures, but unfortunately, they were not very good-looking.

1

Qi Yuntian came over with the child in her arms.

“This is your friend? Is everything okay? Do you want to call a doctor?”

The police officer also came over. “Do you need help?”

“No, it’s okay,” Xia Xibei shook her head and said.

Shi Shuhang moved his feet in place and nodded with a complicated expression, “No need indeed, I’m fine now.”

Since he said it was fine, no one continued to dwell on the matter.

“We also need to trouble you to come with us to the police station and take a statement,” the police officer said.

This request made Xia Xibei and Shi Shuhang look at each other.

Wouldn't going to the police station delay them a lot?

“What's wrong? Is there something wrong?”

“Um...”

The two of them hesitated and were just about to speak when a scream came from the side.

Two girls rushed to them, pointing at Shi Shuhang and screaming, “You're Shi Shuhang, right?!”

Shi Shuhang's eyes went wide with panic. How did they recognize him?!

However, he still shook his head repeatedly, “No, no, no! Of course I am not...”

It was just a pity that the two girls had already confirmed their suspicions.

“Your voice! You are Shi Shuhang!”

As they were reminded, the other people also immediately reacted.

“He really does look a bit familiar!”

“It's really him...”

“Is that woman his girlfriend?”

“This woman also looks a little familiar...”

“Ah! I remember now!”

“She looks like Xia Xibei?”

“It's Sister Bei!”

“It really is!”

“Both of them are pretending to be ugly! What are they doing here?”

Everyone, with their chattering, quickly guessed the identity of the two people.

There were also fans of Xia Xibei in the crowd. Before, they were not thinking too much, but now they were suspicious, and they would not be easily dissuaded.

Everyone became more excited when they discovered that these two were actually stars.

Fortunately, there were several police officers on the scene who immediately transformed into a protective circle, keeping the three adults and one child inside, not allowing fans to approach.

Having their identities called out, Xia Xibei and Shi Shuhang looked at each other, filled with speechlessness.

“Who the heck are you guys?”

Qi Yuntian was holding her child and looked at them with a bewildered expression.

Why did it seem like they were quite famous?

Chapter 735: Chapter 737: Criminal’s Nemesis

[I saw Shi Shuhang and Xia Xibei on Dongyuan Street!]

This post quickly spread and caused a small shock.

[Dongyuan Street? Isn’t that the shopping street in S City? How could they be there? You’re kidding!]

[The two of them are together? Are they dating?]

[Shi Shi is my male god! Although Xia Xibei is beautiful, I don’t want to be heartbroken!]

Hearing about a single man and a single woman appearing together in the same place, people naturally thought about it in terms of falling in love.

Seeing that the comments were about to go in that direction, someone jumped out to explain.

[They are not in love, they are recording a show! However, you can never imagine what they did!]

[That’s right! I heard earlier that Shi Shi is going to participate in “The Blast Forward!” Is it today? But how come we didn’t get any news from the scene? No one’s been talking about it?]

[It’s not true, right? If it’s true, there would have been news by now!]

[What I’m curious about is, what did they do?]

[According to reports from the scene, they caught a human trafficker!]

[Human trafficker? Are you kidding? What does recording a show have to do with human traffickers?]

[That’s not how you make a joke, is it?]

Everyone was confused.

At this time, someone forwarded a link with the live broadcast of Xia Xibei and Shi Shuhang’s situation, many people clicking in.

When they clicked on the link, with the anchor talking and the comments explaining, they finally understood.

Xia Xibei and Shi Shuhang were recording “The Blast Forward.” During the process, the two found a trafficker and saved the child from the trafficker’s hands.

They could have left peacefully, but Shi Shuhang’s loyal fans nearby recognized him from his voice.

When Shi Shuhang’s identity was exposed, Xia Xibei couldn’t hide either.

Hearing that there were two stars here, other people immediately gathered around, and this anchor opened a live broadcast in response, attracting many fans who wanted to watch.

[What the- What does this have to do with human trafficking?]

[How did Sister Bei get involved with this kind of thing again?]

[I remember the wanted criminal that Sister Bei caught before!]

[Sister Bei is awesome! She caught another criminal!]

[Hahahaha... Sister Bei, are you a star or a criminal’s nemesis?!]

[The criminal’s nemesis, awesome!]

With that reminder, everyone recalled Xia Xibei’s previous deed. They felt conflicted. Why did a big star like her suddenly catch a criminal?

[Sister Bei should be careful! There must be a gang behind these traffickers!]

[Yes, you have to be careful! Damn, human traffickers deserve the death penalty!]

[I was there! Luckily, I was nearby! I saw Shi Shi and Xia Xibei, but both of them were disguised. No wonder people couldn’t recognize them before!]

[Sister Bei is holding the child. The child is so cute! How hateful it would be if the child was snatched!]

[I saw the cameraman! They were really recording!]

[They’re leaving! The police took them away!]

[Let’s go to the police station!]

This incident attracted a lot of attention online.

Soon, the official blog of “The Blast Forward” made a post.

[Two of our guests, Shi Shuhang and Xia Xibei, saved a child from human traffickers and rescued a family! However, they also “exposed” their identity, so they have to start saving money again!]

The official blog's post made everyone freeze for a moment, and they all rushed to the comments area to ask questions.

[To save money? It feels like you guys are up to something.]

[Why do you want to save money? What's going on?]

The official blog soon posted something else.

[For details, please keep an eye on the new episode of our show, which will have the answer!]

This answer made everyone want to scold the staff.

It was not a good idea to tease people!

In the face of the outrage, the program team did not react, feeling very smug.

It was really surprising!

Who the hell would have thought that a variety show would have anything to do with human trafficking?

However, the publicity from this matter had landed it in the hot search and triggered heated discussions.

When the show was broadcast, the ratings would be absolutely explosive!

Xia Xibei was really a lucky star!

If you thought about her previous shows, they all seemed to be a hit!

The usual ratings of their program were not low, but there were not always hot topics, and after so many episodes, their ratings were also weak.

Now, this was great! Who else had ever caught a human trafficker?

When the time came, the ratings were sure to explode!

Thinking of this, the director and producer were delighted.

They decided to include the whole incident when the time came, giving everyone an explanation.

Meanwhile, Xia Xibei and Shi Shuhang got out of the car halfway.

They were supposed to go to the police station to make a statement, but they also knew that there must be reporters and fans guarding the police station now.

It would be difficult for them to leave by then.

Besides, they hadn't finished recording their show yet!

So, they chose to get out of the car halfway and hurry up and bolt.

They were not suspects, and the matter had been clarified, so they did not necessarily have to go to the police station. As a result, the police officers readily let them out of the car.

Just before leaving, Zhuo Jingxu held Xia Xibei's hand and did not let her get out of the car.

"Baby, go back with your mommy," Xia Xibei coaxed.

"Sister, hug?" Zhuo Jingxu asked Xia Xibei in a baby voice.

Qi Yuntian watched this scene with a very complicated mood.

In just half an hour, her son was already completely enamored by Xia Xibei.

Although this was good, as a mother, it was really a bit heartbreaking.

"Baby, sister has something to do. Sister has to work." She hugged the child to keep him from bothering Xia Xibei. "Wait until next time to find sister and play, okay?"

"Hug! Play!" Zhuo Jingxu blinked his big eyes and just looked at Xia Xibei.

Xia Xibei's heart became soft, but she still firmly refused, "Sorry, I have to go to work."

Knowing Xia Xibei wouldn't hug him, Zhuo Jingxu had a tear in his eye and looked very pitiful.

Shi Shuhang was stunned.

When they were in the car, Zhuo Jingxu was in Xia Xibei's arms the whole time, and now that they were leaving, he couldn't let go.

It was obviously the first time they met, so how come it was so hard to say goodbye to her?

Was there magic in Xia Xibei?

Xia Xibei got out of the car with a firm attitude and took Shi Shuhang back to their base camp.

On the way, Shi Shuhang kept tsking.

"You are too popular with kids! I feel like you can do a cute baby variety show!"

Nowadays, this cute baby type of variety show was very popular. Xia Xibei, with her affinity, could definitely become popular.

Xia Xibei smiled, "If there is a chance."

Shi Shuhang merely mentioned it, and promptly asked again. "But how do you remember those people?"

Chapter 737: She is Sister Bei

Just now in the car, Xia Xibei also drew two pictures for the police.

The people she drew were of the accomplices who had contact with the woman before.

Everyone was shocked by her memory; she was able to draw two people she had only seen once so clearly!

Moreover, her drawing skills were also very impressive.

Although she had no professional brushes, she was able to draw those two people so clearly. It was as if they were photos!

As long as you used these two drawings, you would not find the wrong person.

Wasn't she a star? Were all celebrities nowadays so powerful?

This was a shopping street, and there were countless people coming and going every day, yet she was able to recognize the identity of the traffickers among so many people and record all the people who had contact with them.

This was just too awesome!

Shi Shuhang was equally shocked.

He had seen clips from the variety show Xia Xibei had participated in before, but hadn't spent much time learning about her.

He knew that Xia Xibei was a top scholar, but how could a top scholar be so scary?

Were all top scholars so insane nowadays?

"I don't forget anything," Xia Xibei laughed at the stunned Shi Shuhang.

Shi Shuhang was left speechless. He felt attacked now.

Although Shi Shuhang was a wealthy and handsome guy, his grades were not very good and he had nothing like her skill of remembering everything.

Xia Xibei was so powerful; she really made him jealous.

"By the way, when I hurt my ankle before, how did you fix it? Have you studied medicine?"

Shi Shuhang still had many questions.

Just now, he twisted his ankle, and he recovered after being touched by Xia Xibei. It was too fast!

Shi Shuhang thought Xia Xibei was full of mystery!

"I learned it before," Xia Xibei nodded while walking forward.

Shi Shuhang wanted to ask something else but was distanced by Xia Xibei.

The way the two of them looked now had been caught on camera. Who knew if the fans would come looking for them again?

She didn’t want to be caught by them here.

Fortunately, the fans thought of going to the police station to block them, and no one thought they got off halfway. This way, they made it back to their previous base camp without any problems.

Their cameraman had already returned, and everyone was gathered around to discuss the two’s previous performances.

Seeing them return, everyone immediately gathered around and asked about what happened earlier.

Luckily, the director remembered that they were still recording and that time was running out, so he sent the others away and let them continue recording.

Originally, they were identified and should have had their previous earnings cleared, but the director let them off the hook because they were recognized for doing a good deed.

However, Xia Xibei refused. Since it was the rule, they would follow the rule.

Shi Shuhang was speechless. Why was she so stubborn? There were a little more than three hours left, so how was she going to earn more money?

But after what just happened, he had no problem with Xia Xibei’s decision.

By now, it didn’t matter if they won or lost. When the show aired, they would have the most airtime.

The reason for participating in a variety show was of course to become famous.

Everyone would like to have a bigger part in this show, but who could be as lucky as Xia Xibei?

After the two of them changed their outfits, fixed their makeup, and set off again, Shi Shuhang could only admire her to the core!

He finally understood why other people, after spending some time with Xia Xibei, would call her Sister Bei!

She was indeed Sister Bei!

Chapter 738: Game King

Xia Xibei took Shi Shuhang out of the base camp, bypassed the previous road, and turned to another street.

The shopping street was very big, and there were many roads. If you walked slowly, you wouldn't be able to finish shopping in a day.

Plus, everyone's attention was on the police station. It wouldn't have occurred to them that the two had changed the street and come back to it.

Fortunately, the program team was prepared on all these streets so that they would not be caught off guard.

With a starting capital of 20 yuan, Xia Xibei took Shi Shuhang to a game area.

There were a number of small stalls where the prices were not expensive. You could play for a few or a dozen yuan, and if you were good, you could also win prizes.

Xia Xibei looked around the area and finally chose a stall.

Write from 1 to 500 and you get a doll!

The booth already had a lot of people sitting on a small bench working hard. Unfortunately, not many could do it successfully, and most participants had disappointed faces.

Everyone knew how to write 1-500, but not making a mistake was not easy.

Xia Xibei asked the price for playing, and it was just 20 yuan.

She handed over the sole 20 yuan in her hand, then took a piece of paper and began to write.

Shi Shuhang watched her actions from the side, resigned in his heart, but still grabbed a piece of paper to follow.

Of course, he did not give money to play, so even if he did it correctly, he wouldn't win prizes.

Shi Shuhang originally thought that this game was very simple, and the boss was out to give money.

Unexpectedly, when he wrote to more than a hundred, he found that he had written wrong!

With a slightly embarrassed expression, he switched to the other side of the paper and rewrote it.

This time, when he got to over 200, he was wrong once again!

It turned out that this kind of thing was not easy, especially when you were impatient. You couldn't get it right!

By the time he made his second mistake, Xia Xibei had stopped and handed the paper to the boss.

"I finished writing."

The boss glanced at her, then looked down to check.

Only after the check was finished did he look up, a little reluctant.

"It's indeed written correctly, you can pick a doll."

Xia Xibei looked at the large dolls hanging above and pointed to one of them and asked, "How much does this one sell for?"

"This one costs at least 200 yuan a piece!" The boss held up two fingers and said.

"Then you give me 100 yuan, and I won't take the doll, okay?" Xia Xibei negotiated with him.

The boss froze for a moment.

"You don't want the doll?"

"Yes. You can just give me cash."

The boss looked at her in disbelief, not understanding why she had such an idea.

He did exaggerate a bit, as he bought the goods at more than 100 yuan!

However, if she was willing to take 100 yuan for a doll, then of course he had no problem.

As a result, the boss gave her 100 yuan.

Looking at the 100 yuan in Xia Xibei's hand, Shi Shuhang was again confused.

Just... Just like that?

In just half an hour, twenty became one hundred?

Next, Xia Xibei repeated the same pattern and did well at these stalls.

She played a total of a dozen stalls, and her money went from a hundred to a thousand. At every stall, she got at most a hundred yuan, and a few dozen yuan at the least.

Even if these were small vendors, they would not be hurt by this amount of money.

However, her fame was also rising here.

Everyone knew about it; here came a game king who would not lose a single battle!

Oh, and she was followed by a boy who was playing along.

Shi Shuhang, who was treated as an accessory, didn't know what to say.

While they were concentrating on making money, an excited hubbub was heard coming from elsewhere.

A guest's identity was discovered!

Chapter 739: Recording Completed

In fact, the other guests were ruined.

Because Xia Xibei and Shi Shuhang were recognized, in addition to the program team coming out to authenticate, everyone knew that the program team was now recording the program here!

Before, when everyone did not know, it was fine.

Now that they knew, of course they wouldn't miss the opportunity!

It was a weekday, but it was summer— the students were on vacation!

When they heard about this, students who were supposed to go out in the afternoon or evening immediately flocked to the event.

Based on the previous on-site reports, everyone knew that the celebrities must have been in disguise!

So the fans were like detectives, watching the people on the street carefully.

With everyone working together, these guests certainly had no room to hide.

A group of guests had worked for half a day and gotten 200 yuan. When their identities were revealed so quickly, they wanted to die.

If their identities were exposed, they would have to start all over again!

Where could they get the time to start all over again?

By the time they broke free from the mob of fans and returned to the base camp, they were a mess.

They were quite popular and their appearance in these places was like pork falling into a wolf's nest, so they almost did not get out.

When they saw the culprits of all this appear in front of them, they couldn't help but gnash their teeth in hatred.

Their identities were discovered and their money was deducted, while Xia Xibei and Shi Shuhang got 1000 yuan!

This comparison was so damn tragic!

In fact, even the staff was stunned by Xia Xibei and Shi Shuhang.

Originally they thought that the duo could earn at most one or two hundred. After all, it was such a short time.

Who would have thought that they would earn a thousand yuan?

However, not many people could really do it like them.

When people went to play games, they usually spent money, but they had actually won money!

When the show went on air, Xia Xibei would definitely gain countless fans!

In the end, it was determined after counting that the team with Xia Xibei and Shi Shuhang won first place with a thousand yuan!

First place got two gold bars and a donation in their name.

The program finally came to an end at around 7:00 pm.

After recording the program, everyone split up and left.

Shi Shuhang waved to Xia Xibei, "I'll see you on the set then!"

"Good."

After getting into the car, Xia Xibei took out her phone and turned it on.

As soon as it was turned on, a bunch of messages popped up, some of which were from Qiao Yanjue.

When she clicked on them, all of them were concerned with her catching the human traffickers.

She gave everyone a safe report.

Gu Lan drove while Pan Yan nagged her, "When you meet a trafficker, just call the police. Why did you go up by yourself? You are a star-"

"A star can't do something about injustice?" Xia Xibei interrupted his words.

Pan Yan's face turned grim.

"What are you talking about?! I mean, you're a star, and human traffickers are all in gangs, so if they want to get back at you, it'll be a problem!"

Of course, Pan Yan wouldn't stop Xia Xibei from doing a good deed, but doing a good deed shouldn't affect her own safety!

"It's okay, the other few people should have been caught."

"Hmm?!" Pan Yan's eyes widened. "How do you know?"

"I've drawn them for the police. Can't they get them?" Xia Xibei cast him a glance.

"Really?"

Pan Yan looked surprised and wanted to say something else, but his phone rang.

He didn't continue to nag Xia Xibei and picked up the phone.

"Yes, this is... What?!"

Chapter 740: The First Endorsement

Pan Yan's voice was so excited that he almost scared Gu Lan into stepping on the gas.

Fortunately, her reaction was quick and nothing went wrong.

However, she was very scared as a result.

“Okay, we’ll go there now!” Pan Yan said.

After she waited for Pan Yan to hang up the phone, Gu Lan asked cautiously, “Brother Pan, what’s wrong?”

Xia Xibei was also looking at him with a puzzled face. Why was he so excited?

Pan Yan’s eyes shone with excitement, “It was the Simu Company!”

The Simu Company?

Gu Lan immediately reacted, “Is it the Simu that sells clothes?”

“Yes!” Pan Yan nodded excitedly. “That’s them!”

Xia Xibei also remembered, “Is it the Simu with the light luxury style?”

“Right!” Pan Yan smiled so hard his eyes disappeared. “They just called me and said they want you to endorse their clothing!”

“Wow!” Gu Lan’s eyes widened. “Really?!”

“Of course it’s true!”

Pan Yan wanted to dance to express his excitement.

“But... Why would they suddenly look for Sister Bei?” Gu Lan looked puzzled, then hurriedly explained, “I’m not underestimating Sister Bei. It’s just that...”

“It’s just that I don’t have any work yet, and my popularity is not as good as others, so why do they want to have me for an endorsement?”

Xia Xibei picked up Gu Lan’s words.

Gu Lan carefully glanced at Xia Xibei from the rearview mirror and whispered, “This won’t... Be a problem, right?”

In fact, this was what Xia Xibei was wondering too.

If it was anyone else, they might have been thrilled to hear this news. And if they heard Gu Lan’s suspicion, they would definitely be angry.

But for Xia Xibei, she could not help but doubt the authenticity of this sudden good news.

Their doubts also made Pan Yan calm down, but he still replied, “No matter what’s wrong, let’s go over and check it out first!”

He took out his phone, pulled up the navigation, and entered the address he was sent.

“Go to this address.”

“Okay,” Gu Lan nodded, then followed the navigation.

Xia Xibei looked at the lights outside with a thoughtful face.

Simu was a famous clothing brand in China.

Although it was not as renowned as some international brands, it was developing well and had strong designers.

Many people were very optimistic about Simu’s development.

Xia Xibei also liked the style of Simu. In fact, her outfit today was their brand.

Unfortunately, Simu’s promising development and huge potential had no news after a while, and the brand gradually fell silent.

Some people said that it was because something happened to the owner of Simu, and even the designer was affected, so it slowly disappeared.

In fact, with Xia Xibei’s current credentials and profile, if she really endorsed Simu, it was indeed a reach for her.

Even if she could become an international superstar in the future, she was not qualified now.

So why did Simu want her endorsement?

There were so many other actresses!

This question was soon answered.

After arriving at the company, as soon as the door was opened, a baby voice rang out happily, “Sister!”

Xia Xibei turned around in astonishment and saw a handsome, lovely little boy tottering towards her.

The little boy was not yet two years old, nor walking too steadily. He swayed like a penguin, both of his hands were raised high, and his pink little face had a very bright smile, both soft and cute.

“Xuxu?”

Xia Xibei was startled and immediately squatted down to pick him up.

“Sister!”

Zhuo Jingxu hugged Xia Xibei and gave her an excited kiss!
