

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 74

Anna Yun's sharp voice hit Zoey Gu with her head and face.

"I admit that the previous thing was that I hurt you because of jealousy, and Liam also did a lot of bad things to you. But Alina Yin is just a child, why should you vent her anger?!"

Zoey Gu covered her face and raised her head, clearly seeing the viciousness in Anna Yun's eyes.

She pressed her lips, looked up at Liam Lu coldly, and asked softly.

"Do you also think that I deliberately brought Alina Yin out to get her hurt?"

Liam Lu looked at her coldly, his eyebrows stained with chill, and scarlet anger jumped in his eyes.

For a moment, Shen Shen said.

"Compared with Alina Yin's life and death, your explanation is worthless."

He doesn't believe her.

He didn't even want to give an opportunity to explain.

There was also a timely sound of Anna Yun's angry driving away, "Zoey Gu, we don't want to see you, you go away immediately!"

Zoey Gu couldn't help but shudder, and her whole body was cold.

She spent five years waiting for him to come back.

He used such an unbearable and cold reality to hit her one after another. What kind of first love, what kind of so-called affection, but it is not worth mentioning sh!t!

Zoey Gu suddenly felt that there was no need to explain.

She even turned around and wanted to leave.

But when she turned around, she thought of the innocent and cute face again, and the lifted footsteps suddenly retreated.

“I do not go.”

She pursed her lips, looked up at the red light above the emergency room, and said in a dumb voice, “I’m just waiting here. When Alina Yin is out of danger, I will leave.”

Anna Yun’s face became cold, “You!”

Liam Lu was also startled, frowning, his black eyes looking at her more and more deeply, not knowing what he was thinking.

At this time, the door behind him opened with a “bang”, and a nurse panicked out of it, looking at everyone present and said anxiously.

“The child is seriously injured and has lost too much blood and needs a blood transfusion. But she is a special HR-negative blood, and there are not many blood banks in the hospital. You...”

HR negative blood?

Hearing this, Zoey Gu was stunned. Not only did Alina Yin and her have the same birthday, they were actually the same blood type?

Before she could think about it, she took a few steps up to the nurse’s hand and said without hesitation.

“Pick me, I am RH negative blood!”

The little nurse was pleased, and hurriedly raised her finger in a direction, and led her away, “You come with me!”

Liam Lu was stunned again, his gaze swept over her injured hand unconsciously, and when she passed by, he stretched out his hand to hold her.

“Zoey Gu.”

Zoey Gu paused, raising his head and looking at him coldly and stubbornly.

“President Lu, I know I am dirty, you look down on it. But my blood is clean, and I am not sick. I am also responsible for Alina Yin’s injury. Today, no matter what, I will save her.”

After speaking, she shook his hand away and followed the nurse without looking back.

Liam Lu stood there, his face looked like frost, but his eyes seemed to flash past his eyes.

Anna Yun squinted his eyes to watch Zoey Gu leave. Finally, she turned to look at Liam Lu and said suspiciously.

“Alina Yin came out of the garden and caused Alina Yin to have a car accident. It happened that Alina Yin needed a blood transfusion. She was of this blood type. Liam...”
