

Super Rich Dad Chapter 744-746

Chapter 744

The room was filled with the faint smell of tobacco, and Jiang Hao's face had a lot of stubble on his chin because he hadn't taken care of it in the past few days.

Looking at Dean Jiao's concerned eyes, Jiang Hao was silent for a while before smiling bitterly and said, 'It's nothing. I'm just in a bad mood.'

Dean Jiao took a deep puff of his cigarette and then exhaled the smoke, 'You keep pretending with me, you think I don't know the little thing in your heart?'

After saying this, Dean Jiao hesitated for a moment before speaking, 'Did you become like this because of the affair between the Xue family's eldest miss Xue Yu Ning and the Shen family's youngest, Shen Qing Shu?'

Jiang Hao looked at Dean Jiao with some surprise. It seemed as if it was the first time he knew him, it turned out that he wasn't like what he knew when they first met.

All he knew all day was to care about the ranking of the hospital. The hospital's development, nothing else mattered yet.

And after Dean Jiao noticed the surprise in Jiang Hao's eyes, he shook his head with a bitter smile and spoke, 'Do you think this dean is so easy to do, if I don't know what's in your hearts, what qualifications do I have to be this dean.'

After taking a deep breath, Dean Jiao patted Jiang Hao's shoulder and then sighed, 'Give up, she's not something you can match, isn't it enough for you to have a Miss Lin family?'

Jiang Hao looked at Dean Jiao helplessly as he cried and laughed, 'What Miss Lin, Lin Yan and I don't have much of a relationship, right? It's just a friend.'

After saying this he let out a deep sigh, and in his heart he couldn't help but feel a little worried about Xue Yu Ning's matter again.

After hesitating for a moment, Jiang Hao spoke tentatively and asked, 'How did you know that I was having a hard time because of Miss Xue?'

Dean Jiao snorted upon hearing this and looked at Jiang Hao with disdain, as if he thought the other party was looking down on him.

'You brat or I took you to see Miss Xue, do you think I don't know that little thing in your heart?'

With that, Dean Jiao sighed and then continued, 'I thought you would just think about it and forget it, after all, we are not on the same level as them at all.'

Jiang Hao shook his head somewhat helplessly after hearing this, something like identity was like a card.

What kind of identity should be hung on what kind of table. What kind of people to be with, these all seemed to be unspoken rules that the world agreed on.

But if Jiang Hao hadn't hidden his true identity, what about him wouldn't be good enough for Xue Yuning.

Even if he was hiding his true identity, was Shen Qing Shu, the youngest of the Shen family, really better than himself, not necessarily, right?

Thinking of this, Jiang Hao looked at Dean Jiao's words with more disapproval, but he didn't expect Dean Jiao to look at him as if he had already gotten used to it.

He looked at Jiang Hao and shook his head before clearing the table, then put the rest of the wine back and said, 'Whether you believe it or not. It's better for you to give up on this matter, you don't stand a chance.'

Jiang Hao took a deep breath before looking at Dean Jiao's back as he left. He didn't feel that he didn't deserve Xue Yuning, and he didn't think Shen Qingshu had that qualification to deserve Xue Yuning!

He had to intervene in this matter, he must not let Xue Yuning marry Shen Qingshu just like that!

Thinking of this, Jiang Hao hesitated for a moment before taking out his mobile phone and calling Sally. Then he made an appointment and hurriedly cleaned up a bit.

He took a shower, changed his clothes, and shaved off his stubble.

After making sure he had cleaned up properly, Jiang Hao took a taxi to the front of the Tianzhu Villa. Old Black was standing quietly at the door waiting for Jiang Hao.

When he saw Jiang Hao arrive, he took off the sunglasses he was wearing, smiled and greeted him, then gave Jiang Hao a hug and said, 'You're here, why are you dressed so formally?'

As he said this, he walked forward while continuing to speak, 'The boss is going crazy this time, that prescription you brought out last time is simply a beauty holy product after our experiments!'

Jiang Hao looked at Old Black with some confusion, not reacting for a moment to what prescription he was talking about.

Only when he entered the office and looked at Sally, who was on the phone, did he wake up after hearing the name of the Hundred Flowers Jade Dew Pill come out of her mouth.

Then he sat down with a bitter smile and waited for Sally to finish the call. Finally, after about five minutes, Sally hung up the phone and walked over to the sofa and sat down.

Then with an excited face, she looked at Jiang Hao and said, 'You know, it might take a long time to make three billion dollars from that prescription last time. But the prescription you gave me afterwards was a wealth-raising tool!'

Jiang Hao skimmed his lips before shaking his head and said, 'It's just a beauty prescription, does it make you so excited?'

After hearing this, Sally looked at Jiang Hao in surprise and said, 'Just? Do you think this is the right word for it? That is a beauty product. We have clinically tested its efficacy and it is simply amazing!'

After saying this, she took out a folder from behind her. Then she opened it and threw it in front of Jiang Hao, pointing at it and saying, 'Take a look for yourself, this is the clinical trials we have done during this period of time.'

Jiang Hao picked up the folder and looked at it carefully while listening to Sally's introduction.

'We used a total of five girls for the trial, and they each had some minor facial problems, basically just pimples and stuff like that.'

Jiang Hao nodded before looking at the frontal veiled photos of the five girls on the top of the folder, then huffed back, 'I say you're really heavy-handed too, where did you find the girls?'

Sally nodded a little and then said, 'Indeed, they are already in a very serious condition, and one of them is even worse because she has been using cosmetics for a long time.'

As she said this, Sally reached back and turned the folder over a page, then pointed to the five photos on it.

In an incredulous tone, she spoke, 'But they had such amazing results in just under a week after taking that medicine, can you believe it?'

Although before giving Sally that prescription, Jiang Hao had some hesitation in his heart whether it would be too shocking.

After all, there were no ordinary products from Shangdian, so if some people were interested in it, I was afraid that it would lead to unnecessary trouble.

However, he could not resist dealing with Sally, who was playing a trick on him, so he handed over the prescription with the idea of trying it out.

As a result, even he had never expected that this prescription would lead to such a big impact.

Thinking of this, Jiang Hao's forehead oozed with cold sweat the size of a soybean and said, 'This, this can't be true, can it?'

The excited Sally didn't notice anything wrong with Jiang Hao and continued to say, 'Not true? Are you questioning me, believe me, this next medicine will definitely be a big hit!'

Jiang Hao hesitated whether to warn Sally, but seeing how excited the other party was, it was obvious that she wouldn't listen to whatever he said now.

So he could only sigh helplessly and see if Sally could take one step at a time.

When Sally noticed that something was not quite right on Jiang Hao's face. She spoke up strangely, 'By the way, did you come to see me today for something?'

Without waiting for Jiang Hao to say anything she continued, 'For the record, this prescription is the price you paid to me to help the Lin family, you can't ask for a penny of the profit. Unless I'm willing to give it to you!'

Looking at Sally like a tigress protecting her food, a look of tears and laughter welled up on Jiang Hao's face. Then he lowered his head and spoke, 'I heard that the Shen family and the Xue family are going to join in marriage?'

Sally nodded slightly before sitting down and saying, 'Not bad, the Shen family has suffered such a big blow, so they will definitely try to bring in an ally for themselves, and the Xue family is the best person to bring in.'

After saying this, Sally hesitated for a moment and then continued, 'The Shen family has many contacts on the white side, while the Xue family often runs businesses around, especially in the east of the river, plus they were not involved in the last storm.'

Jiang Hao directly interrupted Sally and said, 'The most important thing is that they didn't go through the last power shuffle, right?'

Sally nodded her head after giving a light laugh, 'Since you know all that, then why are you still surprised that something is wrong?'

After slightly shaking his head. Jiang Hao looked at the tabletop and said in a deep voice, 'I don't want to see the Shen family join forces with the Xue family, is there any way?'

Hearing these words, Sally couldn't help but freeze for a moment, then after a moment of silence she said with some disdain, 'So what if they do get married, it's just a northern Shen family.'

The reason why Sally said that was because she had the strength to crush the Northern Province Shen Family, but Jiang Hao didn't mean that, he simply didn't want to see Xue Yu Ning marry Shen Qing Shu.

After taking a deep breath, Jiang Hao turned his head to look at Sally and spoke, 'Can you let me blend into the Xue family's engagement party with the Shen family, I want to meet Miss Xue.'

'Are you serious?' Hearing this, Sally looked at Jiang Hao with some confusion and said, 'The invitation is simple. Just say hello and they'll send it up, but what are you doing mixing in?'

Jiang Hao took a deep breath before shaking his head and said, 'I'm planning to give the Shen family a surprise, is that okay?'

Looking at the unhurried smile on Jiang Hao's face, Sally couldn't help but hesitate for a moment.

Right now, the Shen family had already suffered a major blow, so if Jiang Hao were to provoke the Shen family again at this time, it might make them angry!

Old Black had strengthened the security force around himself all this time, not to mention a little fart like Jiang Hao.

So after a slight hesitation, Sally looked at Jiang Hao and said, 'Do you want to hear the truth from me?'

Jiang Hao knew that Sally must be trying to persuade herself that it was best not to make a scene. But it wasn't convenient for him to tell anyone about Xue Yuning, because that would be like blowing his own cover.

So after a while of silence. Jiang Hao still nodded and looked at Sally sincerely and said, 'Obviously, I'm sitting right in front of you ready to listen.'

Sally nodded and then looked at Jiang Hao and said in a deep voice, 'I suggest you better not go, right now this is the last chance for the Shen family to recover, if anyone goes to disrupt the Shen family's deployment at this time. They will really jump to the wall in a dog's hurry.'

After saying this, Sally sighed somewhat helplessly and continued, 'You may not know that since I stepped in, some of my business in the Northern Province has also suffered disruptions.'

Jiang Hao fell silent at these words. He knew that Sally was doing it for her own good, but this was something he had to do.

And when Sally looked at Jiang Hao's unmoved expression, she knew what he intended to do.

So after a moment of silence she picked up her mobile phone and made a phone call, during which she said that she had a business partner who wanted to attend the engagement party and asked if she could give an invitation.

The person on the other end said yes after a few moments, and told Sally that she could go anytime if she wanted to.

After hanging up the phone, Sally looked at Jiang Hao with a complicated expression and remained silent for a while.

Only then did she speak with some sadness, 'I hope you won't take any chances this time. You know, you've already stirred up too many things in the Northern Province. If even one of these things gets turned up, you'll be in danger, I'm afraid.'

Jiang Hao nodded slightly before looking at Sally gratefully and said, 'Don't worry. I won't be in any danger, thank you so much for this time!'

Sally shook her head gently. Then she signalled Old Black to send Jiang Hao away.

Standing in front of the villa's floor-to-ceiling window, Sally looked at Jiang Hao's back and fell into deep thought for a while.

Why did Jiang Hao target the BeiFu Shen family so much, did he have any grudge against them?

If that was the case, why was there no record of this matter in the file Old Black handed over to her?

Jiang Hao seemed to have suddenly appeared in the Northern Province, and his previous activities in the Chu River were too irregular to be a normal person.

When she thought about these things, Sally couldn't help but feel a bit of a headache.

If she hadn't liked this man, she wouldn't have bothered to spend a minute on him.

After shaking her head, Sally went on with her business, after all, the economic benefits of the Hundred Flowers and Jade Pills were enough to make any businessman's eyes water.

After walking out of the villa, Old Black had obviously heard the conversation between Jiang Hao and Sally, and he looked at Jiang Hao and gave a bitter smile.

After all, he couldn't hold back and spoke with some confusion, 'I don't understand why you want to make an enemy of the Shen family like this.'

Jiang Hao stopped and looked at Old Black, seemingly not understanding the meaning of his words, a bewildered look on his face.

Old Black shook his head somewhat helplessly and said, 'You'd better put away this look on your face, it's not like it's the first day we've known each other.'

Seeing that he had been recognized by Old Black, Jiang Hao touched his nose and a hint of an embarrassed face flashed across his face.

'It seems that I do have no talent for telling lies, well, to your question, the truth is that I don't know why I like to target the Shen family.'

Looking at the serious look on Jiang Hao's face, Old Black walked up and patted Jiang Hao's shoulder, a serious look appearing on his dark face.

'If it wasn't for being a brother, I wouldn't have warned you about these things, the Shen family is not to be messed with, and believe me, the Northern Province Shen family is just the tip of their iceberg.'

Jiang Hao's heart was startled, listening to Old Black's warning he spoke with some surprise, 'So who else is behind them?'

Old Black shook his head before waving his hand at Jiang Hao and said, 'It's best for you not to know about this matter, after all, you're also surnamed Shen.'

Chapter 746

Jiang Hao looked at the way Old Black seemed to be hiding something, so in order not to arouse his suspicion, he agreed after shrugging his shoulders and left.

On the way back to the city, Jiang Hao was thinking in his mind, however, about what Old Black said later on, what else was behind the Shen family.

Could it be that this Shen family had some connection with Shen Tianyang's overseas Shen family, which was obviously somewhat unlikely, because if that was the case.

Then why didn't he know these things before, after all, that cheap old dad of his own had no reason to hide this matter from his own family.

But if not, he suddenly remembered what Sally had said, that the Shen family was intricately connected here and it was best not to mess with them at will.

Jiang Hao closed his eyes and thought back carefully on these two words, and finally had a hint of curiosity in his heart about this Beifu Shen family, so he returned to the hospital dormitory in silence.

Sally had said that she would contact him by phone when the invitation arrived, so Jiang Hao stopped worrying about the invitation.

At the same time, another guest arrived at the Tianzhu Villa, and this guest was Ning Kun.

Although it was like coming home for Ning Kun, he was now in a position to be a guest.

After waiting quietly for Sally to finish her business, Ning Kun sat down on the sofa and said with a smile, 'This is the first time I've seen a sofa in your office, you only had a chair in the past.'

Sally laughed lightly, her mind suddenly recalling what Jiang Hao had said when she had first met him.

If it wasn't for his words, perhaps her office would still be the same as before, with only one chair forever.

After shaking her head gently, Sally got up and walked over to the sofa and sat down, then quietly looked at Ning Kun for a long time in silence.

Ning Kun was a little uncomfortable by Sally's look, as her eyes were too oppressive, as if she were her own instructor at the time, or as if she were the patriarch of their family.

After a long silence, Sally spoke with some hesitation, 'I would like to know some information about your target, is that convenient?'

Ning Kun spoke after nodding slightly, 'Of course, this time, I originally came over to request your support.'

After saying this, Ning Kun took out his mobile phone, then connected it to a projector and opened it, pointing at the photo on it.

He coughed lightly and roared, 'This is a photo we collected from some of our men in Chu Jiang, and in it is my target this time, Jiang Hao, who is also the heir to the Shen family clan, Shen Hao.'

Sally frowned at the person in the photo, for some reason she always had a familiar feeling, but Sally was very but she had not met this person before.

After hearing Ning Kun's words, she nodded slightly and spoke, 'Continue.'

'The target, Shen Hao, is around twenty-three years old, is carrying Shang Dian, and according to reliable information should have already fused with it, and had a great battle with Shen Tianyang's men at Thirty Mile Shop three months ago.'

After saying this, Ning Kun spoke with some exclamation, 'I must say that kid is very good at fighting, then it was the instructor who was alerted to a branch in Thirty Mile Shop, but did not show up for duty.'

I'm afraid that anyone who could alert their branch would not be an ordinary person, as Sally knew exactly what her family was in control of.

So after a moment of silence she said coldly, 'Who was the person who alerted the branch, I believe he is not qualified enough to have access to these things?'

Ning Kun nodded respectfully, and looking at Sally, who had a serious face at the moment, it was as if he had an illusion.

The person sitting on the sofa at this moment was not a young girl who looked only eighteen or nineteen, but the old man who wore a pair of glasses and had a dry figure but looked askance at the world back then.

'Yes, according to the investigation afterwards, the person who called and alerted the branch was the old man Qian who had just retired to take shelter from the wind.'

After saying this, he continued to speak, 'We did some investigation afterwards and Master Qian had arranged a retreat for the target, the location was the North Mansion, which is why I came to the North Mansion.'

Sally sat on the sofa and closed her eyes for a moment in contemplation, then hesitantly said, 'If the other party came to the North Mansion, then the Shen family in the North Mansion must have been notified by Shen Tianyang to help find out, right?'

Ning Kun smiled wickedly at his words, then spoke, 'That's not necessarily true, although the North Province Shen family was also involved in that incident back then, they are not Shen Tianyang's lapdogs, especially after knowing about the Shangdian matter.'

Speaking here, Ning Kun paused, then lowered his head and spoke, 'They might instead conceal the news of the target and then try to find it out to get Shangdian themselves.'

Sally shook her head somewhat wearily and sighed, 'The Shen family has been too chaotic over the years and has already affected us, it looks like it's time to clean them up properly.'

After saying this, Sally shook her head with a bitter smile and said, 'If only the Zong family back then was still around, perhaps things wouldn't have become so troublesome, it's a pity.'

Yes, it was a pity about the Shen clan family back then.

If it was still around, how great they would be right now, and this Shen Hao, how noble he would be.

After a moment of slight contemplation, Sally spoke with some hesitation, 'At present, there is no one by the name of Jiang Hao received from the Northern Province side, can you see if you can think of a way to actively lure him out?'

Ning Kun closed his eyes and pondered for a moment, how easy would it be to do that?

He had only just returned to the Northern Province, there were many things he simply didn't know, and one careless move might expose his identity.

After all, as the heir to the New City Group, wouldn't it be strange for him to be thinking about finding someone at this moment instead of thinking about developing the New Cheng Group properly?

Moreover, although Chen Jingdao had nominally given him the Xin Cheng Group, none of those old people were missing at the beginning.

As long as Chen Jingdao wanted to, he could take back his control over Xin Cheng Group anytime and anywhere, so what would he be called then?

After Sally saw that Ning Kun had a difficult look on his face, she frowned and said, 'If you can't do it, let me do it, I'll ask Old Black to lead people to spread the news and see if we can attract the target out.'

Ning Kun looked at Sally with some hesitation before he mused, 'In that case, will it alert Shen Tianyang or the North House Shen family, I'm worried that it's a bit more than worth it.'

Sally smiled confidently at Ning Kun, 'If you think like you do, I'm afraid that you won't be able to find the target for the rest of your life, at least there are over twenty million people in the Northern Province, how are you going to find the person you need?'

Hearing this, and looking at Sally's confident look, Ning Kun couldn't help but notice for a moment that the girl in front of him had long since become different from the one he had once seen.
