

Chapter 747

I can't believe it. A big president like Yi Yan would still care about her, and he was so careful to buy her brown sugar water. "Are you caring about me? You don't look like it."

Naturally, I don't care about you. Yi Yan smiled, "I am a big aunt who cares about you. I hope she will leave as soon as possible, and then we can handle our affairs. I tried it, and it's not hot. Drink it quickly or it will get cold."

Yin Luobai glanced at him, and sure enough, men are creatures that think about things with their lower body, even the president of Yida is no exception. Also, he tried, although she is not a cleanliness person, but...

She refused, "I don't, I don't like drinking brown sugar water, it has a strange smell."

She is really picky about food. She doesn't like eating green onion, ginger, garlic and chili, especially brown sugar water. She doesn't like drinking it even more.

If you don't drink, do you want me to feed you? Yi Yan asked.

Yin Luo turned his head away and resolutely resisted, "You don't drink it or you feed it. If you don't drink it, you don't drink it."

Okay, very good, then I'll feed you. Yi Yan sat next to Yin Luo, drank a sip of brown sugar water, and then suddenly blocked Yin Luo's lips, sending brown sugar water to Yin Luo's mouth.

Um... Yin Luo didn't expect that the feeding he was talking about was this kind of feeding, she had to swallow the lipstick sugar water, and then pushed Yi Yan away, "You..."

Yi Yan didn't pay attention to Yin Luo, but went to the bedside table, opened the second drawer, took out a contract and put it in front of Yin Luo, saying, "If you drink this cup of brown sugar water without a drop, this contract I signed the name and it's yours. If you don't drink, then I'll continue to feed you."

So, does she have a choice? I can only drink it. God knows how she didn't like to drink brown sugar water when she was a child, and she didn't like to drink brown sugar water even more when she grew up. She didn't expect to be forced to drink it now, hoping it wasn't as unpleasant as she remembered.

Shutting down, Yin Luo delivered the brown sugar water to his mouth like a medicine. What's more, Yin Luo felt that brown sugar water was something more difficult to drink than medicine.

Seeing that Yin Luo really drank a drop of the brown sugar water, Yi Yan handed over the shares to her. Yin Luo was very excited when he saw shares, and forgot about the awkwardness of drinking brown sugar water before.

She flipped through a few pages, confirmed that it was correct, and then found a pen in the room to sign her name, and she was done. From now on, she won't have to listen to the cunning person like Yi Yan again. It's really happy to think about it. .

Yin Luokai happily put the contract in his own bag, and was about to leave, when he suddenly thought of one thing, he would have to bear the sins he made.

Mr. Yi, can you send me to the supermarket, I will buy some eggs, and then you will help me get the eggs back for you.

What's the matter? Yi Yan asked.

Yin Luo complained, "It's not because you asked me to cook for you, and then broke some of Wang's eggs. I gave Wang's money to Wang's mother, so I had to let you take me to the supermarket to help her buy it. She will not go to the supermarket today. I will go there personally. After all, I lost the eggs. I naturally have an obligation to help Wang Ma buy eggs."

Yeah. Yi Yan nodded, but smiled in her heart. This Wang mother knew him so much and helped him create a chance to get along with Yin Luo, and then asked her to double her salary. Take you there."

Taking Yin Luo to the nearby supermarket, Yi Yan took the bag, and Yin Luo went to pick up dozens of eggs inside. This is the second time Yi Yan has gone to the supermarket for Yin Luo. In the past, Wang's mother bought all the food. He always asked people to buy anything if he needed it. He never thought that going to a supermarket would be so fun.

Yin Luo, don't you really want to just buy some eggs? You put so much salt on the fried eggs, shouldn't you buy more salt and seasonings? Wang Ma taught you so much, you shouldn't give it Does she buy some gifts?

Yin Luo thought for a while, felt that what Yi Yan said seemed to be reasonable, and then took Yi Yan to buy other things.

However, when buying seasonings, Yin Luo found that the one Wang Ma bought was at the top of the shelf, and she seemed a bit mysterious. So she looked at Yi Yan and motioned to him to help her take it.

Yi Yan smiled secretly, this supermarket is really careful, putting the seasoning so high, isn't it just waiting for the man who is shopping with the woman to help the woman get it? Standing behind Yin Luo, Yi Yan stretched out his arm to reach it.

After buying all the spices that should be paid to Ma Wang, Yin Luo was thinking about what gift he should buy for Ma Wang. The two of them should be Yi Yan who knows Wang's better, so Yin Luo turned to Yi Yan for help.

Although Yi Yan has known Wang's mother for a long time, he can only tell Yin Luo, "Let's go shopping first, and think about what the elderly generally like."

Yeah. Yin Luo responded, trying his best to think of it.

When I walked to one place, a waitress suddenly greeted like Yi Yan, "Sir, it's you. Yesterday you came here to buy sanitary napkins. Did you buy it for this lady? Is she your girlfriend?"

Thinking of what happened yesterday, Yin Luo couldn't help but smile. Yesterday, he had to buy sanitary napkins by himself. Yin Luogang wanted to answer for Yi Yan that she was not his girlfriend, so Yi Yan spoke first.

She is not my girlfriend. After Yi Yan finished speaking, holding Yin Luo's hand, she continued, "She is my wife and got the certificate."

Yi Yan, let go. Yin Luo struggled.

Yi Yan asked, "Wife who got the certificate, shouldn't we hold hands?"

After speaking, Yi Yan took the reluctant Yin Luo and walked to another place. Seeing that the jewelry seller was in front of him, Yin Luo wanted to buy a bracelet for Wang Ma.

Seeing a guest coming, the waiter greeted, "Sir, are you going to buy bracelets for your girlfriend?"

No. Yin Luo replied.

But at the same time there was another voice "Yes."

Yin Luo glanced at Yi Yan, and then said to the waiter, "No, don't listen to him. He loves to mess around every day."

She was clearly asking me just now. Yi Yan did not show any weakness, and asked the waiter who had just greeted him, "You said it, right."

The waiter was overwhelmed by the two of them. They were obviously lovers who were still arguing.

Then we will buy our own. Yin Luo said, and then began to pick Wang Ma's bracelet seriously.

Picking it up, Yi Yan suddenly came over and asked, "Luoluo, what kind of bracelet do you like."

I don't like bracelets. Yin Luo replied.

Hearing that Yin Luo said he didn't like bracelets, Yi Yan didn't have any mood to help Yin Luo pick the bracelets. He just lay on the counter and watched Yin Luo's serious appearance when he helped Wang Ma pick the bracelets. She's still cute when she doesn't antagonize him.

You don't like bracelets, what do you like? Yi Yan asked.

When Yin Luo was serious, he didn't want to pay any attention to him. Seeing that Yin Luo ignored him, Yi Yan continued to shamelessly said, "You don't like bracelets, and don't say what you like. Do you like me?"

I have never seen the president of Yi Da look so narcissistic and arrogant. Yin Luo attacked him and said, "I like pigs and don't like you."

Finally I picked a bracelet that was suitable for Wang's mother in color and style, and asked the waiter to help pack it. Yi Yan and Yin Luo left the supermarket together.

Yin Luo handed all the things he bought to Yi Yan, and wanted him to give it to Ma Wang, but Yi Yan refused.

He scared her, "It's better to buy a gift yourself. If you ask me to bring it to Ma Wang, maybe Ma Wang will be unhappy."

Ah? Will Wang Ma really be angry? But, I have to go to the company to take care of something. From the first time I saw Wang Ma, Yin Luo felt that she was a good person, and Wang Ma treated her very well. She is also very serious about teaching her cooking, and she treats her like a mother, so she doesn't want to make Wang's mother upset at all.

Seeing that Yin Luo was a little shaken, Yi Yan continued, "Really, it will only take a while to hire Yinyuan. It will be fine if you give it to her and go to the company. Anyway, you have been late for so long, and it will be fine for a while. Besides, you now have 20% of the shares. What are you afraid of?"

Thinking that what Yi Yan said also had some truth, Yin Luo followed Yi Yan back to the Yin Yinyuan.

When I found Wang Ma, she was already busy in the kitchen. I found the eggs and some seasonings she bought and brought them in, and said to Ma Wang, "Mother Wang, I bought the eggs for you. Take a look."

Well, good. Wang Ma replied, she was washing the prawns at this time, "Madam Young, I am cooking braised prawns now, don't you want to learn to cook? Come, you come to learn."

Mother Wang, no need, my company still has something to do, I will learn how to cook with you in the future. Yin Luo refused.

Wang Ma hurriedly stopped, not for her, but also for the young master. She is so old now, and she is still worried about the young master. She can still see the young master's thoughts. In the past few decades, no one has entered the Yin Yin Court except for the young master's family and her. Moreover, the young master still sleeps in a room with the young lady at night and asks her to be called Mrs. Yin Luo Shao. , Isn't that obvious?

Madam, it's not too early if you look at the time. When you rush to the company, the employees should be off work. It's better to have a meal here and then go to the company. Anyway, you have to eat. .

Still not anymore. Yin Luo continued to refuse. She didn't know how long it would take to eat here. Mother Wang's food was so delicious that she could work if she could just eat and eat at the company. The company is just about to get through the crisis. She should look at the company more carefully and not let the company go wrong again, "Wang Ma, let's do it later."

Madam Wang still doesn't give up, "Madam, I am so old, and I don't know when it's time to have dinner with you next time."

Seeing that Wang Ma was talking, she felt sad, and Yin Luo had to agree to it. It was just a meal, so let's eat here.

So Yin Luo seriously learned how to cook shrimp with Wang Ma.

Wang Ma and Yin Luo explained, "Wash the shrimp first, then remove the mud line on the shrimp, put some salt in a basin for 30 minutes, and then prepare the seasoning and mix it in a certain proportion
